HISTORY OF THE STEELERS

Arthur Joseph Rooney founded the Pittsburgh Steelers on July 8, 1933, which makes them the fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL today. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern division of the 10-team National Football League.

Mr. Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988, following a stroke at the age of 87. The man affectionately known as "The Chief" is remembered by Pittsburghers as the common man's man and by the sports world as one of its greatest pioneers.

The oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children, Art Rooney was born on January 27, 1901 in Coultersville, Pa. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death in 1988 he still lived a short distance from Three Rivers Stadium.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School prior to his studies at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, now known as Indiana University of Pa. He also studied at Georgetown University and Duquesne.

An outstanding athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic games. From 1920 to 1925 Rooney played minor league baseball, but a promising career was ended by an arm injury. He continued playing semi-pro football for several teams in the Pittsburgh area.

Rooney was married on June 11, 1931 to Kathleen McNulty. The Rooneys had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John, and Pat.

After founding the Pirates in 1933, Rooney saw his club struggle through its first seven seasons with five different head coaches and just 22 victories. Home games were played at Forbes Field, but in the 1930s Rooney often took his team to such towns as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans, and Louisville because of the competition from baseball and college football.

In 1938 Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White, making White the first big-money player in the league with a contract that paid him $15,800. White led the NFL in rushing as a rookie, and today he is one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni as a Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Rooney changed his team's name to the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1940 to represent the city's heritage, but the name change did not drastically change the team's losing ways. Under head coach Walt Kiesling, the 1942 Steelers posted a 7-4 record to mark the Steelers' first winning season, due in part to the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the following year Dudley joined the armed forces along with many other NFL players as the nation was at war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers in 1943 with Philadelphia (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and in 1944 with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt).

In 1946 Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland and Dudley returned to the Steelers to lead the league in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns, earning NFL MVP honors. Today Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 1947 Sutherland's Steelers finished 8-4 to share the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game to Philadelphia, 21-0. That spring, Sutherland died unexpectedly while on a scouting trip.

John Michelosen succeeded Sutherland and posted a 20-26-2 record while coaching the Steelers through the 1948-51 seasons.

Joe Bach returned in 1952 to coach the team he had previously coached in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation when they made that change in 1952. When Bach resigned for health reasons in 1954, assistant Walt Kiesling began his third stint as the Steelers' head coach. Kiesling had coached the team in 1939-40 and 1941-44, with his third stint lasting from 1954-56.

Buddy Parker was named the Steelers' head coach in 1957 and he directed the team to five non-losing campaigns in his eight seasons, with the flamboyant Bobby Layne quarterbacking the Steelers for three years. In Layne's last season in Pittsburgh (1962), the team finished 9-5 to earn its second postseason berth before losing to Detroit, 17-10. Parker finished his term with a 13-10-1 record, ranking third in team history today to Chuck Noll and Sutherland.

Brief stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of Noll on Jan. 27, 1969. At 37, Noll became the 14th man to coach the Steelers. He brought with him a firm belief in building through the draft. His first selection in 1969 was All-America defensive tackle Joe Greene, the initial building block of the "Steel Curtain" defense and now a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

A 1-13 record in Noll's first year gave him the opportunity to select first overall in the 1970 draft. Noll chose quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another current Hall of Famer, around whom he would build a dominating offensive attack.

In 1970 the Steelers made two significant changes. With the merger of the NFL and AFL, they moved from the NFL's Century division to the new AFC's Central division. They also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium.

Prior to the building of Three Rivers, the Steelers played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. Pitt Stadium was the team's home from 1964-69 until Three Rivers was opened in 1970.

At the start of the 1970s the Steelers showed gradual improvement with 5-9 and 6-8 records in 1970 and '71. The Steelers came of age in 1972 with an 11-3 record to win their first-ever division title. It had been 40 years since their birth before the Steelers won a championship, but once they did they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

The Steelers' first playoff game of 1972 was against the Oakland Raiders. It marked the team's first postseason victory in its 40-year history when Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute decided the 13-10 win. The Steelers' dream season ended the next week when Miami won the AFC Championship with a 21-17 decision, but the Steelers had risen to a new plateau which would continue to the end of the decade.

A 10-4 finish and wild card playoff berth preceded a second postseason game against Oakland in 1973, but the Raiders avenged the previous year's loss, 33-14. In 1974 the Steelers won the AFC Central title with a 10-3-1 record and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) on their way to Super Bowl IX. A tough Pittsburgh defense posted the 16-6 victory over the Minnesota Vikings to give the Steelers their first of an NFL-record four Super Bowl championships.

The Steelers won 11 consecutive games in 1975 to finish 12-2 for their second straight division title. They defeated Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs, setting up their second consecutive Super Bowl win, this time over the Dallas Cowboys by a 21-17 margin. The victory made the Steelers the third team in NFL history to win back-to-back Super Bowls.

Postseason losses followed the Steelers' 1976 and 1977 division titles. In 1976 the Steelers bounced back from a 1-4 start to win nine straight games and finish 10-4, but they lost to Oakland 24-7 in the second round after beating the Baltimore Colts 40-14 in the playoffs. In 1977, the Steelers dropped a playoff game to Denver (34-21) after capping the regular season with a 9-5 mark and their fourth straight AFC Central title.

Returning in 1978 to make their third Super Bowl appearance, the Steelers rode the momentum of a league-leading 14-2 record to defeat Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5) en route to Super Bowl XIII and a rematch with Dallas. The 35-31 victory made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

In 1979 history was made once again when the Steelers claimed Super Bowl win number four, marking the second time they won consecutive Super Bowls. They beat the Los Angeles Rams 31-19 following a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins over Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central titles, eight straight years of playoffs, and four Super Bowl championships (IX, X, XIII, XIV), the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

The new decade of the 1980s was not as friendly as the Steelers failed to qualify for the playoffs after finishing 9-7 in 1980 and 8-8 in 1981.

In 1982 the Steelers organization celebrated its 50th anniversary by returning to postseason play with a 6-3 record in the strike-shortened campaign. An anniversary banquet was held during the season to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh during the week of activities and exhibits, but the San Diego Chargers ended the Steelers' anniversary campaign with a 31-28 playoff win.

In 1983 the Steelers claimed their eighth AFC Central division title with a 10-6 record, but they fell short once again in the playoffs, losing 38-10 to the Los Angeles Raiders.

In 1984 the 9-7 Steelers won their 9th division championship and followed that with a 13-7 playoff win at Denver. In the AFC Championship game, however, Miami produced a 45-28 assault which prevented a fifth Super Bowl appearance for the Steelers.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 when they finished 7-9, followed by a 6-10 record in 1986. Losses in the last two games of 1987, another strike-shortened season, dropped the Steelers to 8-7 and out of playoff contention.

In 1988 the Steelers struggled through their worst season since Noll became head coach in 1969, finishing 5-11 with losing streaks of six and four weeks. In 1989 they got off to a rocky start, losing the first two games by a combined score of 92-10 to Cleveland (51-0) and Cincinnati (41-10). But the young team battled back to post a 9-7 record and earn a wild card spot. An exciting 26-23 overtime win in Houston in the wild card game was followed by a 24-23 loss in Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

The 1990 Steelers started slowly with a 1-3 beginning, but they finished the year in a three way tie for first place in the AFC Central at 9-7. They lost out in the playoff tie-breaker system, however, to Cincinnati and Houston.

When Art Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1964 he had begun turning over much of the operation of the team to his oldest son, Dan. Having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Dan Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. Now in his 37th year with the Steelers, he is one of the most active NFL executives and one of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs.

Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is an officer and board member for The United Way, The American Ireland Fund, The American Diabetes Association, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation, and Duquesne University.

As a key member of several NFL committees over the past 17 years, Dan Rooney has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films, and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion clubs in 1976. That year Dan was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL owners and the Players' Association. Rooney is currently a member of the six-person Management Council Executive Committee, the Hall of Fame Committee, the Super Bowl Ring Committee, the NFL Properties Executive Committee, and is chairman of the World League of American Football Committee.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback. He went on to Duquesne University and was graduated in 1955 with a bachelors degree in accounting. Dan and his wife Patricia live in Mt. Lebanon.

STEELERS COACHES

CHUCK NOLL

Head Coach

The second-winningest active coach and fifth-winningest in the history of the NFL, 59-year old Chuck Noll begins his 23rd season as the Steelers' head coach in 1991. His overall career record of 202-147-1 (.579) makes him one of only five coaches in NFL history to win 200 games.

Noll's 202 wins are topped by only George Halas (325), Don Shula (297), Tom Landry (270), and Curly Lambeau (234). Shula, Noll's former boss with the Baltimore Colts, is the only current coach with more wins and the only active NFL coach who has been a head coach longer than Noll's 23 years. But Noll has been in charge of the same team longer than any of the NFL's current coaches and is one of just four men — Lambeau (29), Landry (29), and Steve Owen (23) — to lead the same team for 23 consecutive seasons.

Noll's overall record includes a 186-139-1 (.572) regular season mark and 16-8 in postseason. His postseason winning percentage of .667 ranks sixth in NFL history and is second among the six coaches who have been in 15 or more postseason contests. It also includes four Super Bowl wins, which distinguish Noll as the only coach in league history to claim four Super Bowl titles.

Noll was named the 14th head coach in Steelers history on Jan. 27, 1969. He brought with him a solid belief in building through the draft. His first draft class included such future stars as Hall of Famer Joe Greene, Jon Kolb, and L.C. Greenwood. A 1-13 inaugural season gave Noll the first overall pick of the 1970 draft, which he used to select Hall of Famer Terry Bradshaw on the first round and Mel Blount on the third. In fact, Noll selected five players in his first four draft classes who are now members of the Hall of Fame, including three of his first 20 and four of his first 38 draft picks. Records of 5-9 and 6-8 in Noll's second and third seasons reflected the progress his young team was making.

In 1972 the Steelers turned the corner with an 11-3 campaign for their first division title in the club's 40-year history. They won a thrilling 13-7 playoff game over Oakland before losing to Miami 21-17 in the AFC Championship, but this began a streak of eight years of postseason play.

In 1973 the Steelers claimed a wild card playoff berth but lost to Oakland 33-14 in the wild card game. The following year Noll got his second division title and the first of six consecutive as he led the Steelers to a 10-3-1 finish. But the Steelers were not finished yet as they defeated Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to Super Bowl IX. A 16-6 domination of Minnesota handed Noll and the Steelers their first Super Bowl trophy.

In 1975 the Steelers became the third team, joining Green Bay (Super Bowls I and II) and Miami (VII and VIII) to repeat as Super Bowl champion. They plowed through the regular season with a 12-2 record before dispatching Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs and Dallas (21-17) in Super Bowl X. Noll joined Vince Lombardi and Shula as the only coaches to win two Super Bowls.

The Steelers struggled in 1976, starting 1-4 before nine straight wins left them at 10-4 to win the AFC Central division. They downed Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs but could not beat Oakland, losing 24-7. A 9-5 finish in 1977 preceded the Steelers' 34-21 playoff loss to Denver.

In 1978 Noll got his team back on track as they posted a league-best 14-2 record. They dominated Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5) in the playoffs to set up a Super Bowl rematch vs. Dallas in Super Bowl XIII. The Steelers' 35-31 win made them the first team to win three Super Bowls.

The Steelers made history one more time after a 12-4 campaign in 1979 and postseason wins over Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). Their 31-19 Super Bowl XIV win over the Los Angeles Rams gave the Steelers an unprecedented fourth Super Bowl championship and the title, "Team of the Decade."

Noll's 1980 and 1981 teams fell short with 9-7 and 8-8 records, but in 1982, the Steelers' 50th season, the team rebounded to a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. They lost their playoff game, however, 31-28 to San Diego.

In 1983 and 1984 Noll claimed his eighth and ninth division titles. The 1983 team went 10-6 before losing to the Los Angeles Raiders in the playoffs, 38-10. In 1984 the team advanced as far as the AFC Championship game with a 9-7 regular season mark and a 24-17 playoff win in Denver. The hope for a fifth Super Bowl appearance vanished in the Steelers' 45-28 AFC Championship loss to Miami.

Noll's longest playoff drought lasted from 1985-88, but he ended that in 1989 with a 9-7 team that claimed an AFC wild card berth as it won five of its final six games. The team showed its character by bouncing back from an 0-2 start in which the Steelers were outscored 92-10. They proved their character again in a 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston, and the following week dominated Denver before losing 24-23 in the final minutes. Noll was rewarded by being named AFC Coach of the Year for the first time by the Professional Football Writers of America. It was an honor long overdue for a man whose professional football career spans five decades.

In 1990 Noll's young team struggled through a 1-3 start before finishing the season at 9-7 and in a three-way tie for first place in the AFC Central. They were eliminated from the playoffs in tie-breaker procedures.

Noll's 39-year pro football career includes seven seasons as a player, nine as an assistant coach, and 23 as a head coach. He began as a 21st-round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1953, where he played guard and linebacker through 1959. He retired at the age of 27 and began his coaching career in 1960 as an assistant to Sid Gillman with the Los Angeles Chargers.

In 1966 Noll joined Shula's Baltimore Colts staff for a three-year stint that included a total of seven losses and a Super Bowl III loss to the New York Jets. Following Super Bowl III, Noll was named head coach of the Steelers.

Charles Henry Noll was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on January 5, 1932. He attended Holy Trinity School and Benedictine High prior to enrolling at Dayton, where he studied education and was captain of the football team and is a charter member of the school's athletic hall of fame. Noll was graduated from Dayton in 1953 with a bachelor of science degree in education, and in 1980 he was presented a Distinguished Alumni Award. He also has two honorary degrees, receiving a Ph.D. in humanitarian service from Duquesne in 1980 and a Ph.D. in commercial science from Robert Morris College in 1990. Noll and his wife Marianne have one son, Chris. The Nolls live in Upper St. Clair.

RON BLACKLEDGE
Offensive Line Coach

DAVE BRAZIL
Defensive Coordinator

Ron Blackledge enters his 10th season on the Steelers staff and his 33rd year in coaching. He joined the Steelers on Aug. 31, 1982 as an offensive assistant and was named offensive line coach two days later. From 1984-88 Blackledge shared the offensive line coaching duties, focusing on the tackles and tight ends. He took over responsibility for the entire line in 1989.

Blackledge is responsible for teaching the Steelers' intricate trapping schemes, which they utilize more than any other NFL team.

Blackledge's 33 years in coaching include 9 seasons at the high school level in Canton, Oh., 14 in college, and 10 in the NFL.

A native of North Canton, Oh., Blackledge's first coaching position was at Canton South High in 1960. He also coached at Timken (1963-65) and Glenwood (1966-67) high schools in Canton before moving on to Ashland College as offensive line coach in 1968.

Following 2 years at Ashland were stints as offensive line coach for Cincinnati (1970-72), Kentucky (1973-75), and Princeton (1976).

Blackledge was named offensive coordinator at Kent State in 1977. He served as that school's head coach from 1979-81 before joining the Steelers the next year.

As a player, Blackledge played tight end and defensive end for Bowling Green from 1957-59. He was later inducted into the school's Hall of Fame. Blackledge was graduated with a bachelors degree in physical education in 1960, and in 1967 he received his masters in guidance and physical education from Ohio University.

Ron and his wife Linda have three children — daughters Michelle (6-13-64) and Traci (8-17-71) and son Todd (2-25-61). Ron was born April 15, 1938 in North Canton, Oh. The Blackledges live in the North Hills.

Dave Brazil is in his second year as an NFL coordinator after being promoted to defensive coordinator in March of 1990. He joined the Steelers on Feb. 9, 1989 as linebackers coach after 5 seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Brazil is a veteran of 32 years of coaching, including 10 at the high school level, 12 in college, and 10 at the professional level. In 10 seasons (1958-67) of high school coaching in Michigan his teams enjoyed a streak of 8 years during which they never lost more than 2 games. After his successful high school coaching career, Brazil held offensive or defensive coordinator positions at 5 different colleges.

In 1968 Brazil got his first college job at Holy Cross, where he spent 2 seasons as offensive and defensive coordinator. He followed that with 2 years as defensive coordinator at Tulsa (1970-71) and 3 seasons (1972-74) as offensive and defensive coordinator for Eastern Michigan.

Brazil got his first professional coaching position in 1975 as defensive coordinator for the World Football League's Detroit Wheels. The following season he held the same post for the WFL Chicago Fire.

In 1978 Brazil returned to the college ranks, spending 2 years as Boston College's defensive coordinator and 3 (1980-82) at Kent State.

Brazil moved to the NFL in 1984 as a defensive assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs. He coached the Chiefs' secondary in 1987 and the linebackers in 1988.

Brazil was graduated in 1958 with a business administration degree from the University of Detroit.

Dave and his wife Bridget have six children — daughters Kathleen and Mary Ann, and sons Michael, Daniel, Thomas, and Patrick. Dave was born in Detroit, Mich., on March 25, 1936. The Brazil family lives in Bethel Park.

JOHN FOX
Defensive Backs Coach

John Fox begins his third season as the Steelers' defensive backs coach after joining the team Feb. 10, 1989. His first NFL coaching position followed 3 years as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Pittsburgh.

In the Steelers' secondary Fox coaches one of the team's youngest but most talented group of players. His effectiveness in working with young athletes is impressive, having led the Pitt defense to a top-10 national ranking for pass defense each of his 3 seasons there.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Fox spent 10 seasons coaching defensive secondaries at 7 different colleges. He began in 1979 at U.S. International University. Following were one-year stints at Boise State (1980), Long Beach State (1981), Utah (1982), Kansas (1983), and Iowa State (1984).

Fox took his first coaching position at the professional level in 1985, coaching the defensive backs for the USFL's Los Angeles Express. He returned to the college ranks that fall, joining Mike Gottfried's staff at Kansas.

In 1986 Fox went from Kansas to Pittsburgh as defensive coordinator under Gottfried. In his first season, Fox's defense ranked ninth in the country, yielding 276.9 yards per game. The following year they jumped to fourth with 233.0 yards per game, and in 1988 finished fourth again with a 254.2-yards-per-game average including second in pass defense with 118.9 yards per game.

Fox played defensive back at San Diego State from 1975-77. He was graduated with a bachelors degree in physical education and a teaching certificate in 1977.

John and his wife Robin have two sons, Matthew (6-5-87) and Mark (12-4-90). John was born Feb. 8, 1955 in Virginia Beach, Va. The Fox family lives in Upper St. Clair.

JOE GREENE
Defensive Line Coach

Joe Greene is in his fifth season coaching the Steelers defensive line, which is where he made a lasting mark as one of the outstanding defensive linemen ever to play in the NFL. Greene joined the Steelers' coaching staff on Feb. 19, 1987. Five months later he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

Greene was the first player Chuck Noll drafted in 1969, and is one of 3 Steelers assistants who also played under Noll. A perennial All-Pro defensive tackle for the Steelers for 13 seasons (1969-82), he made 10 Pro Bowl appearances in addition to many other honors. Greene retired after the 1982 season.

Greene won NFL defensive rookie of the year honors and played in the first of 8 consecutive Pro Bowls after his rookie season in 1969. He was the fourth player selected overall in the 1969 draft. The heart of the famous "Steel Curtain" defense, Greene was widely considered the most dominating defensive lineman in the NFL. He accumulated 66 career quarterback sacks and still ranks second in team history, 8 years after his retirement.

Greene was named to the Steelers' All-Time Team in 1982, and in 1987 he was presented the first Walter Camp Football Foundation Alumni Award.

A native of Temple, Tex., where he attended Dunbar High School, Greene went on to become a consensus All-American at North Texas State. The head coach for Greene's final two years (1967-68) was former Steelers defensive coordinator Rod Rust.

Greene now serves on the North Texas State board of trustees.

Joe and his wife Agnes have three children — sons Major (7-29-68) and Delon (10-13-69), who both attend and play football at North Texas State, and daughter JoQuel (10-13-73). Joe was born in Temple, Tex. on Sept. 24, 1946. The Greens live in Wexford.

JACK HENRY
Offensive Line Coach

DICK HOAK
Offensive Backfield Coach

Jack Henry begins his second season with the Steelers since joining the club on a full-time basis on Aug. 3, 1990. Henry spent the first two weeks of the 1990 training camp with the Steelers as a volunteer coach while Ron Blackledge was recuperating from back surgery. He works closely with Blackledge tutoring the offensive linemen.

A veteran of 23 years of coaching, Henry spent 3 seasons at the high school level and 18 coaching in college before joining the Steelers last year.

Henry began his coaching career in 1969 at Blairsville (Pa.) High School. The following season he moved to the college ranks as freshman offensive coach at West Virginia, returning to coach at Wheeling (W.V.) Central Catholic and Canon McMillan High Schools in 1971 and 1972.

In 1973 Henry was named offensive line coach at Edinboro State College, followed by stops at Louisville (1974) and as offensive coordinator at Millersville State (1975-76). He then coached the offensive line at Southern Illinois (1977) and West Virginia (1978) prior to serving as offensive coordinator at Appalachian State in 1979.

Henry coached at Wake Forest as offensive line coach and later as offensive coordinator from 1980-85 before moving to Indiana (Pa.) as offensive coordinator and associate head coach from 1986-89.

A graduate of Washington (Pa.) Chartiers-Houston High, Henry played linebacker at Penn State from 1964-65 before completing his college career as a guard in 1967-68 at Indiana (Pa.), where he was graduated in 1969.

Jack and his wife Carol have two children, son Chad (19) and daughter Jacqueline (14). Jack was born March 14, 1946 in Houston, Pa. The Henry family lives in Indiana, Pa.

Dick Hoak begins his 20th season as a member of the Steelers coaching staff and his 30th year with the organization. He is the longest-tenured Steelers assistant and one of 3 current coaches who also played for Chuck Noll. Hoak's last two years as a player (1969-70) were Noll's first two as the Steelers head coach. He was named the team's offensive backfield coach in 1972 after one year of coaching high school football. Hoak is the only remaining assistant from all four Steelers Super Bowl staffs.

Hoak enjoyed an outstanding 10-year career as a Steelers running back after being drafted on the seventh round in 1961 from Penn State. He gained 3,965 career rushing yards and when he retired after the 1970 season, Hoak ranked as the second-leading rusher in team history, trailing Hall of Famer John Henry Johnson. Today, 22 years after the end of his career, Hoak is still the fourth-leading rusher behind Franco Harris, Johnson, and Frank Pollard. He was the team's rushing leader in 1965, '68, and '69, and his career-high 858 yards in 1968 ranked fourth in the NFL that year and led to his Pro Bowl appearance. He was also honored as the Dapper Dan 1968 man of the year in sports.

Hoak still ranks in the Steelers record book including eighth in career touchdowns with 33, fourth in rushing touchdowns with 25, and second in rushing attempts with 1,132. He also had 145 receptions for 1,152 yards and eight touchdowns and had a 77-yard touchdown run in 1968 which is the Steelers' fourth-longest.

Hoak was a standout running back and quarterback for Penn State, receiving MVP honors his senior year. He was graduated in 1961 with a degree in social studies.

Dick and his wife Lynn have three children — daughters Kelly (5-18-65) and Katie (7-23-68), and son Richard (7-5-72). Dick was born in Jeannette, Pa. on Dec. 8, 1939. The Hoak family lives in Greensburg.

JON KOLB
Tight Ends &
Conditioning Coach

Jon Kolb is in his 23rd year with the Steelers and his 10th season as a member of the coaching staff. For the third year he coaches the tight ends in addition to overseeing the conditioning of all of the Steelers players.

One of the 22 players who were on all four Steelers Super Bowl champion teams, Kolb is one of 3 Steelers assistants who also played for Chuck Noll. He joined the coaching staff as conditioning coach on Feb. 17, 1982, the day he announced his retirement as a player. Later that year Kolb took over as defensive line coach replacing George Perles. After coaching the defensive line from 1982-86, Kolb coached special teams in 1987-88 and was conditioning coach and an offensive assistant in 1989.

In 1969 Kolb's career with the Steelers began as a third-round selection, Noll's third draft pick. He helped pave the way to four Super Bowl titles over the next 13 years from his offensive tackle position. Kolb played in 177 games to rank sixth in team history, including 156 of a possible 157 in his first 10 seasons with 112 consecutive starts. He is one of only 12 men to have played 13 seasons for the Steelers.

Kolb was a second-team All-America selection his senior year at Oklahoma State. Playing center and linebacker, he was also a two-time All-Big Eight performer and played in every major postseason bowl game following his senior season. He was graduated with a bachelors degree in physical education.

Kolb was honored in 1982 when he was named to the Steelers' All-Time Team, and in 1987 he was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Hall of Fame.

DWAIN PAINTER
Receivers Coach

Dwain Painter is in his fourth year with the Steelers since joining the staff on Feb. 15, 1988. He is a veteran of 27 years of coaching including 6 at the high school level, 17 in college, and 4 with the Steelers.

Painter works closely with offensive coordinator Joe Walton in mapping the Steelers' pass offense.

Painter began his coaching career in 1965 at the high school level, coaching at Wall High School in Wall Township, N.J. from 1965-70.

In 1971 Painter got his start at the college level as offensive coordinator at San Jose State. After 2 seasons he was named quarterbacks/receivers coach at the College of San Mateo, followed by 2 years as offensive coordinator at Brigham Young from 1974-75.

In Painter's next position he coached the quarterbacks and receivers at UCLA from 1976-78, leading to his first head coaching position at Northern Arizona in 1979. In three seasons at Northern Arizona Painter compiled a record of 16-17. He then served as assistant head coach for 4 years (1982-85) at Georgia Tech.

Stops as offensive coordinator at Texas in 1986 and Illinois in 1987 preceded Painter's move to the Steelers in 1988.

The 49-year old Painter attended Gateway High in Monroeville. He was the first quarterback to play for the school's successful coach, Pete Antimario. Painter was a member of the school's first graduating class in 1960.

Painter played defensive back at Rutgers from 1961-64. He was graduated in 1964 with a bachelors degree in physical education, and in 1966 received his masters in education.

Dwain and his wife Diane have two children, daughter Deborah (12-23-62) and son Doug (10-21-71). Dwain was born in Monroeville, Pa. on Feb. 13, 1942. The Painter family lives in Wexford, Pa.

GEORGE STEWART
Special Teams Coach

George Stewart enters his third season coaching the Steelers special teams. He joined the staff on March 3, 1989 in his first NFL coaching position.

Under Stewart the Steelers' special teams have shown tremendous improvement over the past two years. Kick return specialist Rod Woodson was the leading Pro Bowl vote-getter each of the past two seasons. He led the NFL with a 27.3-yard average on kickoff returns in 1989.

Stewart is in the ninth year of his coaching career, which began in 1983 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Arkansas, under head coach Lou Holtz. In 1984 he followed Holtz to Minnesota as offensive line coach.

After 2 seasons at Minnesota, Stewart went with Holtz to Notre Dame in 1986. While at Notre Dame he coached the tight ends and special teams in 1986 and 1987 and the defensive ends in 1988. The following year Stewart joined the Steelers staff.

As a player, Stewart was an All-America guard under Holtz at Arkansas from 1977-80. He was named to the All-Southwest Conference team as a junior when the Razorbacks were 10-2. After being named team captain his senior year, he suffered a knee injury in the fourth game which ended his college playing career.

Stewart signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1981, but the knee injury prevented him from playing. He spent 2 years in business in Little Rock, Ark. prior to returning to Arkansas as a graduate assistant.

The 32-year old Stewart was a prep All-American at Parkview High School in his native Little Rock.

George and his wife Cindy have two daughters, Tiffany and Arianna, and a son, Christopher. George was born on Dec. 29, 1958 in Little Rock, Ark. The Stewart family lives in Allison Park.

BOB VALESENTE
Linebackers Coach

Bob Valesente was named linebackers coach on March 9, 1990 after serving as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh in 1989. A veteran of 29 years of coaching, Valesente has held positions as head coach, assistant head coach, and offensive or defensive coordinator for 7 colleges. This is his second NFL coaching position.

Valesente began his coaching career at Ithaca High School in 1962 before being named freshman defensive coordinator at Cornell (1964-68), followed by 6 seasons coaching Cornell's varsity secondary (1969-74).

In 1975-76 Valesente was secondary coach at Cincinnati, followed by stops as defensive backs coach at Arizona (1977-79) and defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Mississippi State (1980-81).

In 1982 Valesente got his first NFL coaching position as secondary/special teams coach for the Baltimore Colts. He returned to the college ranks in 1984 as assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach at Kansas under head coach Mike Gottfried. He succeeded Gottfried as head coach from 1986-87, then spent one year as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Maryland before joining Gottfried's staff at Pitt in 1988.

A graduate of Ithaca College, Valesente played halfback and was a catcher and outfielder for the baseball team that went to the 1962 College World Series. Drafted by the Chicago Cubs, he played at the Class A level in 1963-64. A member of the Ithaca College Hall of Fame, Valesente was graduated in 1962 with a bachelors in physical education and in 1965 he earned his masters in education.

Bob and his wife Joan have three children — son Bob (6-18-68) and daughters Ginger (11-5-65) and Michelle (7-7-80). Bob was born in Seneca Falls, N.Y. on July 19, 1940. The Valesentes live in Oakland.

JOE WALTON
Offensive Coordinator

Joe Walton became offensive coordinator on Feb. 16, 1990 after 7 seasons as head coach of the New York Jets. Beginning his 31st season in the NFL this year, Walton has been an NFL coach for the past 21 years after a 7-year playing career and 2 seasons as a scout.

Walton's NFL career began as a second-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins in 1957. He played tight end for 4 seasons for Washington (1957-60) before being traded to the New York Giants, where he played from 1961-63. He finished his career with 178 receptions for 2,623 yards and 26 touchdowns.

In 1967 Walton returned to the NFL as a scout for the Giants. Two years later he began his coaching career with a 5-year stint (1969-73) coaching the Giants' wide receivers and passing game.

Walton joined the Redskins' coaching staff in 1974 and was named offensive coordinator in 1978, a position he held for 3 seasons before moving to the Jets as offensive coordinator in 1981. In both of his seasons as coordinator the Jets went to the playoffs, and in his second year the team ranked third in the NFL offensively.

In 1983 Walton was named head coach of the Jets. He compiled an overall record of 53-57-1 in 7 seasons with the Jets.

A native of nearby Beaver Falls, Pa., Walton attended Pitt where he was an All-America tight end and linebacker from 1954-56. Walton's father, Frank ("Tiger"), was an All-America guard at Pitt and played for the Boston/Washington Redskins prior to serving as the Steelers' line coach in 1947.

Joe and his wife Ginger have three children — daughters Jodi (28) and Stacy (26) and son Joe, Jr. (19), who is a redshirt freshman quarterback at Pitt. Joe was born in Beaver Falls, Pa. on Dec. 15, 1935. The Waltons live in Beaver Falls.

STEELERS 1990 REVIEW

CLEVELAND 13, STEELERS 3

September 9 at Cleveland, 78,298

The Steelers lost to the Browns on opening day for the second straight year and the eighth time in their last nine games in a defensive battle which saw neither team's offense score. An opportunity was set up for the Steelers in the second quarter when Hardy Nickerson stripped Bernie Kosar at his own goal line and Aaron Jones recovered at the Browns' one. The Steelers' offense could not capitalize and settled for a field goal after two runs and an incomplete pass. Cleveland's defense scored the game's only touchdown in the third quarter when Tony Blaylock returned a Merril Hoge fumble 30 yards to give Cleveland a 7-3 lead, which Jerry Kauric extended with field goals from 28 and 47 yards. The Pittsburgh defense played an outstanding game, sacking Kosar seven times. It was the most Kosar had ever been sacked and the most sacks for the Steelers since Oct. 10, 1983 when they had a club-record nine vs. Cincinnati.

STEELERS 20, HOUSTON 9

September 16 at Pittsburgh, 54,814

For the first time since Oct. 25, 1987 the Steelers defeated an AFC Central opponent at home, snapping an eight-game skid. With another excellent defensive game, the Steelers intercepted Warren Moon four times and registered four sacks to take over the league lead. With a secondary left thin by injuries to Delton Hall and Thomas Everett, the defense pressured Moon from the start as David Johnson picked off his first pass and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown. The Oilers drove 64 yards on 11 plays, aided by a personal foul penalty on third-and-15 and a pass interference call at the Pittsburgh goal line, to tie the score on a one-yard Lorenzo White run in the second quarter. Gary Anderson then kicked a field goal and Houston closed to within a point in the third when Ray Childress sacked Bubby Brister in the endzone. The Steelers won with three second-half interceptions, two by Larry Griffin, and a 52-yard punt return for a touchdown by Rod Woodson, who was named AFC defensive player of the week.

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 20, STEELERS 3

September 23 at Los Angeles, 50,657

The Steelers opened with their best offensive drive to date, marching 71 yards on 15 plays and consuming 9:11, but they bogged down at the Raiders' six and settled for a 31-yard field goal. Pittsburgh never crossed the Los Angeles 20-yard line again as the Raiders' Jeff Jaeger kicked 40- and 45-yard field goals before two fourth quarter touchdowns put the Steelers away. For the first time ever under Chuck Noll, the Steelers failed to score an offensive touchdown in three consecutive games. In the first half the Steelers gained 157 of their 208 total yards, 13 of their 18 first downs, and 71 of 90 rushing yards. Mike Mularkey made seven receptions, but the tough Raiders' defense sacked Bubby Brister six times and intercepted him twice. Los Angeles scored on a 66-yard catch & run from Jay Schroeder to Mervyn Fernandez and a one-yard Marcus Allen run in the fourth quarter. Going into the game the Steelers led the NFL with 11 sacks, but they were shut out for the first time in seven games.

MIAMI 28, STEELERS 6

September 30 at Pittsburgh, 54,691

Miami dominated from start to finish as the Steelers' offense failed to reach the endzone for the fourth straight game. While Pittsburgh went three plays and punt on its first four possessions, the Dolphins scored touchdowns on their first three on two short runs by Sammie Smith and a 35-yard pass from Dan Marino to Mark Clayton. In the first half the Steelers managed only a field goal with one first down, which came with 18 seconds left, and 27 total yards. On their first four possessions of the second half the Steelers got a field goal followed by three straight interceptions. In the end, the Steelers' 44 offensive plays were their fewest since the final game of 1987 and their 14 rushing attempts were an all-time team low. For the first time ever, the Dolphins sacked Bubby Brister (three times) and the Steelers sacked Marino (once). Pittsburgh's possession time of 20:14 was their lowest since the 1989 opener.

STEELERS 36, SAN DIEGO 14

October 7 at Pittsburgh, 53,486

The Steelers broke out of their offensive slump, exploding for their first four offensive touchdowns of the season. Rookie tight end Eric Green, making his first start in his second NFL game, scored the first two touchdowns on catches of eight and one yards from Bubby Brister as the Steelers scored on their first three possessions. Brister completed 11 of 14 passes while building a 17-7 lead before leaving the game late in the second quarter with bruised ribs. Rick Strom played the rest of the way, completing seven of 11 passes. The Steelers had season highs in nine offensive categories including 12 of 16 third down conversions, their best ever under Noll. In addition to Brister, Tim Worley, Rod Woodson, and Thomas Everett sat out the second half with injuries. CB Dwayne Woodruff, one of just four healthy defensive backs left after Larry Griffin was hurt, made his 35th and 36th career interceptions to tie Mike Wagner for fourth in team history. Brister threw for 132 yards to move to fourth in team history ahead of Ed Brown.

STEELERS 34, DENVER 17

October 14 at Denver, 74,285

With season highs in total yards (451) and net passing yards (343), the Steelers reversed an early 10-0 deficit to dominate the Broncos as Bubby Brister threw four touchdown passes for the first time with a career-best 353 yards. Denver scored on two 80-yard drives and kicked a field goal in the first half, offsetting touchdown catches by Louis Lipps and Eric Green, to build a 17-14 halftime lead. The Pittsburgh defense got its second straight second-half shutout while Merrill Hoge ran for one touchdown and Green scored his second and third touchdowns of the day, giving him five in two weeks. Green's last two touchdowns capped an 11-play, 75-yard drive and a nine-play, 74-yard march as the Steelers held the ball for 10:37 of the fourth quarter. Lipps finished with nine catches and his 16th 100-yard game, while Dwight Stone's 90-yard reception, on which he stepped out of bounds at the Denver four, was the longest non-scoring play in team history.

SAN FRANCISCO 27, STEELERS 7

October 21 at San Francisco, 64,301

The Steelers intercepted Joe Montana on two of the 49ers' four first-half possessions, but San Francisco later capitalized on three Steelers' mistakes while dominating the second half. The 49ers operated inside the Pittsburgh 20-yard line five times, resulting in three touchdowns and two field goals, while the Steelers crossed midfield just three times and did not penetrate the 30 after their second possession. In the third quarter the 49ers recovered a kickoff at the Steelers' five as Barry Foster let it roll, setting up the first of Tom Rathman's two touchdown runs. His second was set up when Charles Haley sacked Bubby Brister on consecutive plays, forcing a fumble on the second, to give the 49ers possession at the Pittsburgh 17. Brister was intercepted on the Steelers' next possession as the offense failed to mount a threat. Steelers rookie Richard Bell scored his first NFL touchdown while 49ers rookie Dexter Carter rushed for 90 yards and caught seven passes.

STEELERS 41, LOS ANGELES RAMS 10

October 29 at Pittsburgh, 56,466

The Steelers rebounded to score their most points in 51 games after watching Gaston Green return the opening kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown. It was the Steelers' first appearance on Monday night since 1986 and the win snapped a five-game Monday night losing streak. The Pittsburgh domination began on their first drive, which did not include a third-down play while covering 75 yards and ending with a Merrill Hoge touchdown catch. Eric Green followed with his sixth touchdown reception, breaking the single-season team record for tight ends. In the second half the Steelers scored 24 points as Bubby Brister threw four touchdown passes for the second time in three weeks and Merrill Hoge scored three touchdowns for the second time in his career. Averaging 5.6 yards per rushing attempt, the Steelers gained 189 yards on the ground while holding the Rams to 44 yards and just one first down rushing. The Rams failed to score an offensive touchdown for the first time in 29 regular season games.

STEELERS 21, ATLANTA 9

November 4 at Pittsburgh, 57,093

With their fourth win in five games and third come-from-behind victory in four weeks, the Steelers moved into a tie with Cincinnati for first place. Another outstanding defensive performance, which included five takeaways, kept the Steelers in the game through the first half as Atlanta, the NFL scoring leader, was held to three field goals on five first-half trips inside the Pittsburgh 30. The Steelers' offense woke up in the second half to reverse the 9-0 deficit with Bubby Brister throwing touchdown passes to Louis Lipps and Mike Mularkey, and Warren Williams breaking off tackle on a 70-yard run with 2:41 remaining to seal the win. The Falcons ran 72 offensive plays to the Steelers' 40, but Pittsburgh averaged 8.3 yards per play. Larry Griffin's interception in the fourth quarter set up Mularkey's touchdown, which gave the Steelers the lead for the first time, 14-9. Dwayne Woodruff got his 37th interception to move to fourth in team history.

CINCINNATI 27, STEELERS 3

November 18 at Cincinnati, 60,064

Coming off their bye week, the Steelers and Bengals battled for sole possession of first place in the division. Cincinnati dominated throughout the game, rushing for 178 yards, and prevented defensive substitutions by Pittsburgh with a short-huddle offense. James Brooks had his third consecutive 100-yard game rushing vs. the Steelers en route to tying the Bengals' record with his 14th 100-yard outing. Boomer Esiason was intercepted in the endzone on the first possession, but he came back to direct 13- and 12-play scoring drives for a 10-0 halftime lead. After an 18-yard punt to the Steelers' 39, which set up Craig Taylor's 1-yard touchdown run, Barney Bussey ran 70 yards to score with a fumble off a Louis Lipps reverse. The Steelers' deepest penetration came just before the half, when Tim Worley's 38-yard run to the Cincinnati 10 set up an apparent Gary Anderson field goal try. Holder Dan Stryzinski was stopped by Bussey inches from the goal line after running right on a fake field goal.

STEELERS 24, NEW YORK JETS 7

November 25 at New York, 57,806

After a slow start the Steelers scored 17 second-half points to move back into a tie for first place with Cincinnati. The Jets scored first on a 53-yard pass from Ken O'Brien to Rob Moore in the second quarter to cap an 80-yard drive and halt the Steelers' 15-quarter streak during which they did not allow a touchdown pass. A 23-yard O'Brien quick kick on third and 24 from the New York 16, which Rod Woodson returned 12 yards to the 27, set up a five-yard touchdown pass from Bubby Brister to Warren Williams. On their first possession of the second half the Steelers marched 60 yards on 12 plays, aided by a low punt snap which Dan Stryzinski lateralled to David Johnson for a nine-yard gain on fourth down. An improvised flea-flicker pass to Mike Mularkey moved Pittsburgh to the Jets' 19 before Anderson's 33-yard field goal. A Larry Griffin interception set up Hoge's touchdown plunge. The Steelers had a season-high 39:25 possession time and did not allow the Jets inside their 35 except for the Moore touchdown.

CINCINNATI 16, STEELERS 12

December 2 at Pittsburgh, 58,200

Failing in their second bid in three weeks to take over first place, the Steelers were held without an offensive touchdown for the sixth time while Gary Anderson kicked four field goals. Cincinnati played ball-control offense with 42 runs and just 14 passes. Bubby Brister threw a career-high 40 passes and put the Steelers in scoring territory four times, but they converted just three of 13 third down plays and were unsuccessful on two fourth down conversion attempts. After being intercepted on the game's fourth play, Boomer Esiason hit a wide open Eddie Brown with a 50-yard touchdown pass on the Bengals' second series. Cincinnati fumbled at the Steelers' four-yard line in the second quarter, but three plays later Brister was sacked in the endzone by James Francis for a safety which extended the Cincinnati lead to 9-6. They then drove 63 yards on 12 plays to set up James Brooks' seven-yard touchdown run. Gary Anderson's second field goal was the 200th of his career.

STEELERS 24, NEW ENGLAND 3

December 9 at Pittsburgh, 48,354

Chuck Noll got his 200th career win as the Steelers ran 45 times for a season-high 251 yards to move back into a three-way tie for first place. Throwing just 20 times and gaining 417 total yards, the Steelers overcame three first-half turnovers, two of which were fumbles by Tim Worley in Pittsburgh territory. Bubby Brister completed passes of 14, 24, and 27 yards on the first scoring drive to set up a Merrill Hoge eight-yard touchdown run. Brister found Eric Green in the third quarter for the rookie's seventh touchdown catch before Hoge broke loose on a 41-yard scoring run in the final stanza. Hoge finished with 175 total yards with a career-best 117 rushing and 58 yards on three receptions. In holding the Patriots to a field goal, Pittsburgh gave up the fewest points in 15 games and posted its third straight second-half shutout, its seventh in nine weeks.

STEELERS 9, NEW ORLEANS 6

December 16 at New Orleans, 68,582

In a battle between two of the best kickers in NFL history, Gary Anderson made three of his four field goal tries to edge Morten Andersen's 50- and 43-yard kicks. New Orleans held the Steelers to 78 rushing yards, but Bubby Brister moved them into field goal range four times. Anderson narrowly missed his first attempt from 49 yards but his 42- and 43-yarders came in the final 5:24 of the game, the winner with 1:44 remaining. The Saints completed just eight of 26 passes for 95 yards, but they threatened in the second quarter when they drove 77 yards on 14 plays to the Pittsburgh one. On first and goal, Gill Fenerty fumbled into the endzone and David Johnson recovered with 41 seconds left in the half to preserve the Steelers' 3-0 lead.

STEELERS 35, CLEVELAND 0

December 23 at Pittsburgh, 51,665

The Steelers took over sole possession of first place in the division for the first time since Nov. 24, 1985 as Cleveland lost fumbles on each of its first three offensive plays and the Steelers converted them into 21 points in the first 8:40 of the game while building a 35-0 halftime lead. Bubby Brister threw four touchdown passes, his first ever against Cleveland, for the third time in 10 games. Barry Foster replaced Merrill Hoge for the second half and finished with 100 yards on 16 carries for his first 100-yard game. The Browns' nine turnovers and eight fumbles lost were the most ever by a Steelers opponent, and the eight fumbles lost tied the all-time NFL record. Pittsburgh allowed a season-low 25 rushing yards and posted its seventh second-half shutout. Louis Lipps caught three passes to become the fifth Steeler with 300 career receptions, while Hoge's 39 rushing yards in the first half gave him a career-high 735 for the season. The Steelers' 35 first-half points were their most since 38 vs. San Diego on Oct. 7, 1973 as they posted their first shutout vs. the Browns since 1972.

HOUSTON 34, STEELERS 14

December 30 at Houston, 56,906

Needing a win to claim the AFC Central title, the Steelers were stymied by the run-and-shoot attack and were eliminated from the playoffs as Cincinnati won the title and Houston earned a wild-card berth. Houston rallied around quarterback Cody Carlson, who made his first start in two years in replacing Warren Moon after Moon suffered a dislocated right thumb the previous week. Carlson completed 22 of 29 passes, despite having three batted down at the line of scrimmage, as the Oilers bolted to a 24-0 halftime lead. By that time the Oilers had substantial leads in first downs (18 to four), total yards (264 to 108), rushing yards (118 to 20), passing yards (146 to 88), and time of possession (20:39 to 9:21). For the first time all season the Steelers gave up more than one touchdown pass and allowed season-highs in points, first downs, total yards, and rushing yards. Eric Green caught seven passes for 105 yards for his first 100-yard game and the first by a Steelers tight end since 1978.
