BILL COWHER

Head Coach

Bill Cowher thrives on challenges.

In his five-year NFL playing career, he was the classic overachiever: an undrafted free agent, he carved out a gritty playing career as a special-teams standout and reserve linebacker who overcame a knee injury that forced him to miss an entire season.

Then came his coaching career. Cowher ascended from the coaching ranks as a special teams coach to defensive coordinator to become one of the youngest coaches ever named to an NFL head-coaching post.

In 2001, Cowher again battled the odds. And, he had the Steelers back in the postseason despite predictions to the contrary. The team captured its 15th AFC Central crown—the sixth under Cowher—and posted an AFC best 13-3 regular-season record.

After achieving great success in his first six seasons as the Steelers head coach, the team experienced two sub-par seasons in 1998 and '99, and a playoff-absent 2000 campaign. Many predicted the same for the 2001 Steelers—or worse.

But, Cowher had a different resolve. Determined to reverse the fortunes of the previous three seasons, Cowher re-dedicated himself—and the team. He instilled a commitment and focus that were earmarks of teams from Cowher's first six campaigns. A rigorous offseason conditioning program and an intense, physical training camp characterized the 2001 team.

After a humiliating 21-3 season-opening defeat to the Jacksonville Jaguars in Florida, the Steelers developed a resolve over the course of the next three weeks that led the team on a journey of success.

The tragic events of Sept. 11, 2001, coupled with an NFL scheduled bye week, gave the Steelers an unusual three-week reprieve. While some teams may have been affected adversely from the layoff, the Steelers re-energized and refocused to win 13 of their last 15 games en route to the AFC Championship game—the fourth appearance under Cowher.

Just 45 years old, Cowher already has established himself among the elite of current NFL coaches. His 11-year reign as the Steelers head coach gives him the longest current tenure with the same team of any NFL coach.

In his first six seasons, Cowher joined the legendary Paul Brown as the only head coach to lead a team to six straight trips to the playoffs in his first six seasons as a head coach. Additionally, Cowher's .619 winning percentage (99-61) ranks fourth among active coaches with at least 75 victories. For his career, Cowher's overall record is an impressive 105-68 (.607), which ranks sixth among active coaches.

Cowher earned his 100th career win (Dec. 21, 2001 vs. Minnesota) and 50th regular-season win Nov. 3, 1996 in his 73rd game to become the eighth-fastest coach in NFL history to reach 50 wins. Presently with 105 career wins, Cowher moved to second in team victories behind Chuck Noll (209 wins) during his fifth season when he recorded his 57th win. In 1997, Cowher surpassed Ray Parker's 105 games for the second-most games (173) as the Steelers head coach. Only Noll (366 games) guided the Steelers longer.

During Cowher's tenure, the Steelers have featured a trademark running attack and a solid, aggressive defense. During his 10 seasons as head coach, the team has averaged a league-leading 137.6 rushing yards a game and has rushed for more yards (22,016) than any in the NFL during the period, the only club to rush for more than 22,000 yards. In that same period, the offense has churned out a league-high 63 100-yard rushing games—followed by Detroit's 62.

Cowher has built a defense that mirrors his fiery attitude. In the 160 regular-season games since becoming head coach, the defense has allowed an average of 95 rushing yards a game and 191.4 yards passing.

If one were to chronicle Cowher's career with the Steelers, through all his successes, the 2000 season could rate as one of his finest coaching performances. After two non-playoff seasons and many predicting a similar fate in 2000, the Steelers lost the first three games of the year, and the critics seemed prophetic. But, Cowher once again met the challenge and rallied the team to a 9-4 finish, a surge that kept the Steelers in playoff contention until the last game of the season.

The 1999 season marked his second straight losing season. In a year that began with a 2-0 start and high expectations, the 1999 Steelers ended with a lackluster 1-7 finish and a 6-10 record, the worst of Cowher's career.

In 1998, Cowher experienced uncharted territory. For the first time in his head-coaching career, the Steelers did not make the playoffs. Nevertheless, despite several key injuries throughout the season, especially along the offensive line, the team remained competitive and had opportunities to clinch a playoff berth until the 15th week of the season.

The elements heading into 1997 didn't favor the Steelers. Ten key players departed from the previous season. A new defensive coordinator was hired. A first-year quarterback took control of the offense. Still, the Steelers overcame these obstacles to post an 11-5 record, and Cowher led his team to their third home AFC Championship game in four seasons. The Steelers season ended with a 24-21 loss to the eventual-Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos.

While the 1996 outcome didn't compare to the Super Bowl appearance of the previous season, it might have been one of the Cowher's best coaching jobs at that point of his young career. For the second straight season, Cowher was forced to overcome losses of key starting personnel on a team that already featured a re-tooled offense. During the course of the season, the Steelers had 14 starters miss 64 starts due to injury. Those adjustments forced Cowher to play 40 different starters throughout the season. Despite this adversity, Cowher led the Steelers to their fifth consecutive playoff berth and their fourth AFC Central title in five seasons.

In 1995, at the age of 38, the Pittsburgh-area native became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl. Along the way, Cowher's team captured its third AFC Central Division title in four years, made its fourth straight playoff appearance, and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979.

The Steelers' 11-5 regular-season record was the second best in the AFC, which exceeded the expectations of most. In the offseason, the team lost seven veterans through free agency and trades. They had to play four games without starting quarterback Neil O'Donnell and almost the entire season without 1994's starting cornerbacks Deon Figures and Rod Woodson, a perennial All-Pro. In addition, linebacker Chad Brown missed six games after a phenomenal start.

Despite the setbacks, Cowher was able to rally his team from a near-disastrous 3-4 start to an NFL-best eight-game winning streak and a bye in the first round of the playoffs. This was accomplished with a major change in both offensive and defensive strategies, as the Steelers made key adjustments to compensate for their personnel losses.

The 1995 Steelers led the AFC in scoring with 407 points and set eight new offensive team records. They also led the NFL in time of possession (an average of 32:36). On defense, they established new team marks for fewest yards allowed rushing and fewest yards per game rushing (82.6/game). Their 22 interceptions were second most in the NFL.

Cowher was introduced as the Steelers head coach on January 21, 1992, 26 days after the retirement of Hall of Fame coach Chuck Noll. At the age of 34, Cowher was two years younger than Noll was upon becoming the Steelers head coach in 1969.

Cowher returned to his hometown following seven years as an assistant under Marty Schottenheimer in Cleveland and Kansas City. His appointment as the Steelers head coach immediately followed a three-year stint as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the Chiefs.

Cowher has 22 years of NFL experience, including five as a player, seven as an assistant coach and 10 as a head coach.

In his first 13 years of coaching, Cowher had never been associated with a team that posted a losing record. In fact, in 13 of his 17 seasons as a coach, Cowher's teams have advanced to the playoffs.

In his first year as head coach, Cowher was selected the 1992 National Football League's Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and The Sporting News. Cowher was also named Pittsburgh's Man of the Year in Sports by the Dapper Dan Club. He directed the Steelers to their first AFC Central Division crown in eight years with an 11-5 record, the team's best mark since they last won a Super Bowl in 1979. One of four AFC teams to win 11 games in 1992, the Steelers shared the best record in the conference as Cowher became one of only 12 coaches in NFL history to win 11 games in his first season as head coach.

The 1993 Steelers started slowly at 0-2, but six wins in the next seven games brought the team to a 6-3 mark and first place in the AFC Central division. On the final weekend of the regular season the Steelers claimed the final AFC Wild-Card berth after winning three of the last five games. Offensively, the team finished with the exact same AFC rankings as the previous year, but it improved from 21st to 13th in NFL passing rankings. The defense jumped from eighth to first in AFC total defense rankings, and from 17th to third in NFL run defense.

Cowher began his coaching career in 1985 with the Cleveland Browns. At age 28, he was the league's second-youngest assistant coach.

He served on Schottenheimer's staff as the Browns' special teams coach in 1985-86 and secondary coach in 1987-88. As secondary coach, Cowher's 1987 group produced 23 interceptions to tie for third in the AFC, while in 1988 the Cleveland defense ranked fourth overall in the conference. The following year Cowher joined Schottenheimer on the Kansas City coaching staff.

In 1989, Cowher's first season as a 32-year-old defensive coordinator, the Kansas City defense led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL in total defense. The following year the unit led the league in three categories with 60 sacks, 25 fumbles recovered and 45 takeaways. In 1991 the Chiefs ranked third in the conference and fifth overall in the NFL en route to a 10-6 finish and a Wild-Card playoff berth.

A former linebacker and special teams standout, Cowher enjoyed a five-year NFL playing career with the Browns (1980-82) and the Philadelphia Eagles (1983-84). He signed with Philadelphia in 1979 as an undrafted free-agent rookie, but was the last linebacker waived in training camp after playing in three preseason games. The following year he signed with Cleveland and earned a roster spot, playing in all 16 games, including two starts at inside linebacker.

Cowher sat out the 1981 campaign after suffering a season-ending knee injury in the third preseason game. Returning in 1982 as special teams captain, he started at outside linebacker in two games while playing in all nine contests.

Cowher was traded to Philadelphia prior to the start of the 1983 season (Aug. 21) for a ninth-round draft pick. He was selected the Eagles most valuable special teams player that year and played in all 16 games. In 1984, a knee injury kept him out of all but four games and ended his career as a player. Cowher returned to Cleveland the following season and began his coaching career as a member of Schottenheimer's Browns staff.

Cowher grew up in the Crafton area west of Pittsburgh. He is a 1975 graduate of Carlynton High School, where he excelled in football, basketball and track. He was selected honorable mention All-State in football as a senior before moving on to North Carolina State, where he earned four letters and was a three-year starter at linebacker. As a senior in 1978, Cowher was selected team captain and Most Valuable Player after leading the defense in tackles for the second straight year. He also received the 1978 Cary Brewbaker Award as the school's outstanding defensive lineman as selected by the coaching staff. In 1979, Cowher graduated with a bachelor of science degree in education.

William Laird Cowher was born May 8, 1957 in Pittsburgh. It was at North Carolina State that Cowher met his wife, Kaye. Also a graduate of North Carolina State, Kaye and her twin sister Faye played professional basketball for the New York Stars of the Women's Professional Basketball League. The Cowhers have three daughters: Meagan Lyn (16), Lauren Marie (14), and Lindsay Morgan (11).

TIM LEWIS

Defensive Coordinator

Tim Lewis begins his third season as the Steelers defensive coordinator and continues to forge a reputation as one of the top defensive strategists in the NFL.

Under Lewis' guidance in 2001, the Steelers reclaimed their standing as the top defensive unit in the NFL. The squad finished first in the NFL in six different categories, including total defense and rushing defense.

In his first year as the defensive coordinator, the Steelers were fifth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in total defense. During one five-game stretch, the defense allowed no touchdowns and only 18 points. The defense also held opponents without a touchdown for 21 consecutive quarters, the second-longest such streak in the NFL since 1970.

Lewis, a standout player at the University of Pittsburgh and a former NFL All-Pro, was promoted to Steelers defensive coordinator on Feb. 8, 2000 after spending the previous five years as the team's defensive backs coach. He originally joined the Steelers Feb. 7, 1995 after spending two seasons coaching defensive backs at his alma mater.

The 11th overall selection in the 1983 draft by the Green Bay Packers, Lewis was the first cornerback chosen that year. He played 52 games for the Packers, but suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth game of the 1986 season. He ended his career with 16 interceptions and twice led or shared the team lead in that category. His 99-yard interception return for a touchdown versus the Los Angeles Rams in 1984 still stands as a Packers' team record.

After his injury, Lewis entered the coaching ranks in 1987 as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M, where he remained for two years under his former college coach Jackie Sherrill. Five of his students found NFL success, including Dallas' 1992 first-round draft selection Kevin Smith.

Lewis coached defensive backs at Southern Methodist from 1989-92. He returned to his alma mater in 1993 to coach the Pittsburgh Panthers' secondary for two seasons before joining the Steelers.

A standout at Pittsburgh from 1979 through 1982, Lewis started at cornerback for the Panthers in 1981 and 1982. He was named an NEA All-American in 1982. Lewis also was selected to the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine Game that year, and received Defensive MVP honors in both games.

Lewis received his bachelor's degree in economics from Pittsburgh in 1983. Born Dec. 18, 1961 in Quakertown, Pa., he and his wife Shawn reside in the North Hills.

MIKE MULARKEY

Offensive Coordinator

Mike Mularkey enters his second season as the Steelers' offensive coordinator after an impressive first year.

After spending the five previous seasons as the team's tight ends coach, Mularkey's innovation helped develop the Steelers into an efficient offense that became the talk of the NFL in 2001.

The Steelers offense improved to third in total offense last season from 18th overall the previous year. Additionally, the Steelers finished 2001 as the top-ranked rushing unit in the NFL. The Steelers offense in 2001 also produced another 1,000-yard season by Jerome Bettis, the re-emergence of quarterback Kordell Stewart, who threw for more than 3,000 yards for the first time in his career, and two 1,000-yard receivers in Hines Ward and Plaxico Burress for the first time in Steelers' history.

Mularkey, 40, a former tight end for the Steelers from 1989-91, was promoted to his current position on Jan. 5. He originally joined Bill Cowher's staff as tight ends coach Feb. 8, 1996.

Prior to his Steelers' appointment, Mularkey was in charge of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' tight ends in 1995. He previously served as the team's quality control coach in 1994, where he was responsible for "breaking down" film of opponents and compiling coaching reports on their offensive and defensive tendencies. He also assisted with tight ends and special teams.

Mularkey spent one year as the offensive line coach for Concordia (Minn.) College in 1993. He entered coaching after spending nine seasons in the NFL as a tight end, playing for the Minnesota Vikings from 1983-88 and the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989-91. Originally a 1983 ninth-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers, Mularkey was waived prior to the season and was picked up by the Vikings. He joined the Steelers as a Plan B free agent. His career statistics included 102 receptions for 1,222 yards and nine touchdowns.

Mularkey attended the University of Florida and finished his Gator career with 55 receptions for 628 yards and three touchdowns. He has dual bachelor of science degree in kinesiology/sociology from the University of Minnesota.

Born Nov. 19, 1961 in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Mularkey and his wife Betsy live in Pittsburgh with sons Patrick (2/15/86) and Shane (1/14/91).

MIKE ARCHER

Linebackers Coach

Mike Archer begins his seventh season as the Steelers linebackers coach.

Joining the Steelers March 6, 1996 to coach linebackers, Archer, 49, had already compiled an extensive 19-year coaching career at the collegiate level.

Archer has been instrumental in the development of the Steelers linebacker corps that is regarded as one of the top units in the NFL, including two-time Pro Bowl selection Jason Gildon, NFL Rookie of the Year Kendrell Bell and Joey Porter.

He previously served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for Kentucky and was their assistant head coach in 1995. He joined UK in 1993 following two years as linebackers coach at Virginia (1991-92).

Prior to his Virginia appointment, Archer served as the head football coach at Louisiana State University from 1987-90. He led the Tigers to a 27-18-1 record with appearances in the 1987 Gator Bowl and 1989 Hall of Fame Bowl, and one Southeastern Conference Championship in 1988. As the nation's youngest Division I-A head football coach in 1987, Archer, then 34, led the Tigers to a 10-1-1 record and 30-13 Gator Bowl victory against South Carolina. A year later, Archer directed the Tigers to the SEC title with a 6-1 league record and finished 8-4 overall. In 1990, he was named coach for the East-West Shrine Game.

Archer, a native of State College, Pennsylvania, lettered three seasons (1973-75) in football at Miami (Fla.) where he started at free safety for two seasons and also punted. As a senior, Archer was named UM's Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year. He graduated from Miami in 1975 and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Hurricanes in 1976, serving under Lou Saban from 1977-78.

Howard Schnellenberger named Archer defensive backs coach in 1979. During Archer's five seasons, the Hurricanes posted a 41-16 record, which included a 31-30 Orange Bowl victory versus Nebraska and subsequent 1983 national championship.

Archer joined Bill Arnsparger as defensive backfield coach for LSU in 1984 and was named defensive coordinator 1985-86. During that period, LSU had a 26-8-2 record with appearances in three bowl games — 1985 Sugar, 1986 Liberty and 1987 Sugar — and the 1986 Southeastern Conference championship.

Born July 26, 1953, Archer and his wife Barbara have two children, Jeffrey Matthew and Betsy Anne.

TOM CLEMENTS

Quarterbacks Coach

Tom Clements was named the Steelers' first quarterbacks coach since Babe Parilli in 1973 and his influence was dramatic.

Not only did quarterback Kordell Stewart have his best season as a pro, earning a spot in the Pro Bowl and Steelers MVP honors, the Steelers passing attack produced two 1,000-yard receivers for the first time in team history.

A McKees Rocks, Pa., native and former Canevin High School football standout, Clements, 49, joined the Steelers Jan. 12, 2001 with 17 years of professional experience as both a player and a coach.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Clements coached quarterbacks in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints (1997-99) and the Kansas City Chiefs (2000). In Kansas City, Clements helped groom quarterback Elvis Grbac, who enjoyed his finest year as a pro and earned a trip to the Pro Bowl.

After a 13-year professional career at quarterback in both the Canadian Football League and the NFL, Clements began his coaching career at his alma mater Notre Dame, where he coached quarterbacks from 1992-95 under Lou Holtz.

Clements enjoyed an outstanding 12-year career in the CFL with Ottawa (1975-78), Hamilton (1979, 1981-82) and Winnipeg (1983-87). He was inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 1994. A seven-time divisional All-Star, Clements led two teams — Ottawa (1976) and Winnipeg (1984) — to Grey Cup championships, and earned the Outstanding Offensive Player in both of those contests. During his career, Clements completed 2,807-of-4,657 passes (60.3 percent) for 39,041 yards and 252 touchdowns. He was the league's Rookie of the Year in 1975 and MVP in 1987. He also served as a backup for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1980.

A 1974 All-American at Notre Dame, Clements started three seasons for the Fighting Irish (1972-74) and led them to a 29-5 record during his tenure, including an unbeaten National Championship season in 1973. He finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior in 1974.

A licensed attorney, Clements worked from 1988-92 for Bell, Boyd & Lloyd, a Chicago-based law firm, and in 1996 he worked in the law department of Republic Industries, Inc., a public company controlled by Miami Dolphins owner Wayne Huizenga. He pursued his law degree while playing in Canada, graduating magna cum laude from Notre Dame's School of Law in 1986.

Born June 18, 1953, Clements and his wife Kathe live in Pittsburgh with their two children, Stephanie and Tom.

RUSS GRIMM

Offensive Line Coach

Russ Grimm is in his second season as the Steelers offensive line coach.

Grimm, 43, joined the Steelers Jan. 10, 2000 as only the second offensive line coach in Bill Cowher's 10 seasons and was instrumental in developing one of the most-improved areas on the team in 2001. Grimm spent the previous 19 years as a player and a coach with the Washington Redskins.

In 2001, Grimm was credited with molding the offensive front that produced the number-one ranked rushing offense and another 1,000-yard season for running back Jerome Bettis. Additionally, guard Alan Faneca earned All-Pro honors and a bid to the Pro Bowl, while free-agent center Jeff Hartings, who played his first season at center, developed in one of the best in the NFL and was voted as a first alternate to the Pro Bowl. Grimm tutored second-year offensive tackle Marvel Smith, who finished strong, and helped developed reserve linemen Oliver Ross and rookie Keydrick Vincent, both of whom made significant contributions. Tackle Wayne Gandy also had an All-Pro caliber season, while Rich Tylski had a solid season despite some injuries.

A native of Scottdale, Pa. and a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Grimm coached the Redskins' offensive line from 1997-2000. He is credited with the development of Washington tackles Jon Jansen and Chris Samuels, who each earned starting spots as rookies on the Redskins' offensive line. Prior to coaching the offensive line, Grimm spent five seasons (1992-96) as Washington's tight ends coach.

Grimm started 11 seasons at guard for the Redskins (1981-91) and helped lead the team to four Super Bowl appearances and three victories. He was voted to four consecutive Pro Bowls (1983-86) and was a first-team selection to the 1980s all-decade team.

An All-American center at Pittsburgh, Grimm was selected by the Redskins in the third-round of the 1981 NFL Draft. His younger brother, Donn, was a starting linebacker on Notre Dame's 1988 national championship team.

Born May 2, 1959, Grimm has been inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He has four children, Chad (5/18/85), Cody (2/26/87), and fraternal twins Devin and Dylan (4/3/90).

DICK HOAK

Running Backs Coach

Dick Hoak, the longest tenured coach in Steelers history, is in his 41st year with the team and his 31st consecutive season as a Steelers assistant coach.

He served as offensive backfield coach for 20 seasons under Chuck Noll, before being named running backs coach by Bill Cowher on Jan. 27, 1992, the only coach retained from the previous Steelers' staff. Hoak is also the only remaining assistant coach from Cowher's original coaching staff.

During Hoak's 10 seasons under Cowher, the team has compiled 22,016 rushing yards, the most in the NFL and the only club to rush for more than 22,000 yards. Pittsburgh led the league in rushing yards in three of the past eight years (1994, 1997 and 2001) and has been ranked in the top five in six of the past 10 seasons.

Hoak, 62, joined the Steelers' staff in 1972 under Noll after one year of coaching high school football and just two years after retiring from an outstanding playing career for the Steelers.

The Steelers' seventh-round draft choice out of Penn State in 1961, Hoak spent 10 seasons in the Pittsburgh backfield. He led the Steelers in rushing three times (1965, 1968, 1969) and played in one Pro Bowl (1969) after finishing the 1968 season fourth in the NFL with 858 rushing yards.

When he retired following the 1970 season, Hoak had gained 3,965 rushing yards and ranked second in team history. Presently, he is fifth behind Hall of Famers Franco Harris and John Henry Johnson, current Steelers running back Jerome Bettis, and Frank Pollard.

In addition, Hoak currently ranks 11th in Steelers history for career touchdowns with 33, is seventh in rushing touchdowns with 25, fifth in rushing yards (3,965) and fourth in rushing attempts (1,132). He also had 146 receptions for 1,452 yards and eight touchdowns in his career.

As a standout running back and quarterback for Penn State from 1958-60, Hoak was named his team's MVP as a senior. He graduated in 1961 with a bachelor's degree in social studies.

Born Dec. 8, 1939 in Jeannette, Pa., Hoak and his wife Lynn have three children, daughters Kelly and Katie, and son Richard. The Hoaks live in Greensburg.

KENNY JACKSON

Wide Receivers Coach

Kenny Jackson is in his second year as the Steelers wide receiver coach.

Appointed Feb. 8, 2001 Jackson made quite an impact in his first season. He helped groom a group of young, talented receivers, and the results were significant, especially the improvement of second-year receiver, Plaxico Burress.

Burress and Hines Ward, who made his first Pro Bowl appearance, became the first receiving duo in team history to each surpass 1,000-receiving yards in a season.

Prior to his Steelers' appointment, Jackson, 40, spent the previous eight years (1993-2000) coaching wide receivers at his alma mater, Penn State. During his eight seasons with the Nittany Lions, he helped develop several game-breaking receivers, including Bobby Engram, Joe Jurevicius, Freddie Scott and Chafie Fields.

A former 1984 first-round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles, Jackson played eight years with the Eagles (1984-88, 90-91) and Houston Oilers (1989) and caught 126 passes for 2,170 yards and 11 TDs.

Jackson enjoyed an All-American career at Penn State from 1980-83, in which he set 27 team records. During his four seasons at Happy Valley, Jackson caught 109 passes for 2,006 yards and 25 TDs, and helped Penn State win the national championship after the 1982 season.

Born Feb. 15, 1962 in Neptune, N.J., Jackson and his wife Ruth Ann have one daughter, Sara Jane (8). The Jacksons live in Pittsburgh.

JOHN MITCHELL

Defensive Line Coach

John Mitchell begins his ninth season as the Steelers defensive line coach.

Mitchell is in his 29th season of coaching, including 16 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League. This is his 12th season as an NFL coach. Mitchell joined the Steelers' coaching staff Jan. 31, 1994.

In his eight years with the Steelers, Mitchell has been instrumental in the development several defensive lineman, including current Steelers Kimo von Oelhoffen, Aaron Smith, Kendrick Clancy, and Rodney Bailey, a sixth-round draft pick in 2001 who accumulated a lot of playing time in his rookie season. He also helped develop former Steelers such as former All-Pro nosetackle Joel Steed, Kevin Henry and Orpheus Roye.

A former All-America defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's greatest coaches.

Mitchell began his coaching career in 1973 as defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama. After four years at Alabama (1973-76), Mitchell spent six seasons as defensive line coach at Arkansas (1977-82) on Lou Holtz's staff.

In 1983, Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-85 he served as defensive line coach for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions and returned to the college ranks in 1986 as defensive ends coach at Temple.

Mitchell began a four-year stint in 1987 as linebackers coach at Louisiana State (1987-90) under current Steelers linebacker coach Mike Archer, who was the head coach. In 1990, Mitchell became the first African-American defensive coordinator in Southeastern Conference history when he was named Louisiana State's defensive coordinator, while continuing to coach linebackers.

Mitchell, 50, joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Cleveland Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles, Michael Dean Perry and Rob Burnett. Mitchell accepted his current appointment following three seasons coaching the defensive line for the Browns.

A two-time Junior College All-American defensive end at Eastern Arizona Junior College in 1969-70, Mitchell then transferred to Alabama where he became the first African American to play for the Crimson Tide. A starter at defensive end from 1971-72, Mitchell earned All-America honors in 1972. He earned a bachelor's degree in social work in 1977.

Born Oct. 14, 1951 in Mobile, Ala., Mitchell and his wife Joyce live in Pittsburgh.

WILLY ROBINSON

Defensive Backs Coach

Willy Robinson is in his third season as Steelers defensive backs coach after joining the team Feb. 14, 2000.

Since Robinson's arrival, the Steelers secondary has been one of the most consistent areas on the team, featuring an aggressive, hard-hitting style. He has been instrumental in the development of younger players such as Chad Scott, Deshea Townsend and Jason Simmons.

Robinson, a seven-year NFL veteran coach, joined the Steelers after serving in 1999 as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Oregon State, where he coordinated the number-one ranked defense in the Pac-10 for Head Coach Dennis Erickson.

Prior to joining the Beavers' staff, Robinson spent the previous four seasons (1995-98) on Erickson's staff as the secondary coach for the Seattle Seahawks. During his four years, he coached two All-Pros (Shawn Springs in 1998 and Darryl Williams in 1997).

Robinson, 46, began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Fresno State University (1978) under Coach Jim Sweeney, where he coached the outside linebackers and also was in charge of film breakdown. He then accepted a position at San Jose State as a part-time assistant in 1979 and coached outside linebackers.

Robinson returned to Fresno State in 1980 as a full-time assistant coach for Jim Sweeney and spent 14 years in various capacities with the Bulldogs. He coached the secondary at Fresno State from 1980-86. He switched to outside linebackers from 1987-89 and returned to coach the secondary and special teams from 1990-91. He was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 1988 and to defensive coordinator in 1992.

In 1994, Robinson joined Dennis Erickson's staff at the University of Miami as the Hurricanes' secondary coach before following Erickson to Seattle (1/12/95). He served as Seattle's secondary coach for four seasons (1995-98) before following Erickson to Oregon State to become the Beavers' defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

Born Feb. 10, 1956, in Fort Carson, Colo., Robinson and his wife, Lee Ann, have two children, Brittany and Mallory, and live in Pittsburgh.

KEVIN SPENCER

Special Teams Coach

Kevin Spencer is the newest member of the Steelers staff, joining the team Feb. 13 as special teams coach.

Spencer is an 11-year NFL coaching veteran. Prior to his Indianapolis position, Spencer spent the previous three seasons with the Oakland Raiders as the special teams and quality-control coach (1995), assistant linebackers coach (1996) and a defensive assistant (1997). He began his NFL career in 1991 as a coaching assistant with the Cleveland Browns.

While at Indianapolis, Spencer worked with Colts kicker Mike Vanderjagt, regarded as one of the premiere kickers in the NFL.

Spencer, 48, began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at the State University of New York, where he also coached wrestling and lacrosse. He also coached at Detroit Country Day High School (1977-78) in Birmingham, Mich., before becoming a graduate assistant at Cornell (1979-80). Spencer held positions as the head freshman coach (1981-85) and offensive coordinator (1986) at Ithaca College. From 1987-90, he served four years as the head coach at Wesleyan (Conn.) University, where he compiled a 14-26 overall record, including a 6-2 mark in 1990.

As a collegian, Spencer played football and lacrosse at Springfield (Mass.) College (1972-75) and earned a master's degree from SUNY-Cortland in 1976.

Born Nov. 2, 1953 in Queens, N.Y., Spencer and his wife, Rosemarie, have two sons, Timothy (5) and Jack (3).

KEN WHISENHUNT

Tight Ends Coach

Ken Whisenhunt enters his second season as the Steelers' tight end coach.

Entering his sixth season as an NFL coach, Whisenhunt joined the Steelers' coaching staff as tight ends coach in January after former tight ends coach Mike Mularkey was promoted to offensive coordinator. He spent 2000 as tight ends coach for the New York Jets.

Prior to the Jets, he spent the 1999 season coaching special teams for the Cleveland Browns. Whisenhunt's first NFL coaching job was with the Baltimore Ravens in 1997, where he coached tight ends for two seasons.

Whisenhunt, 40, began his coaching career at Vanderbilt University, where he coached special teams, tight ends and H-Backs for the Commodores from 1995-96. In 1996, he oversaw Bill Marinangel, who led all NCAA Division I punters with an average of 46.6 yards-per-punt, and finished third in the nation with a 42.7 net punting average.

A graduate of Georgia Tech, Whisenhunt played nine seasons as a tight end/H-Back for the Atlanta Falcons (1985-88), Washington Redskins (1989-90) and New York Jets (1991-93). He caught 62 passes for 601 yards and six TDs and earned a reputation as a well-rounded tight end and special teams player.

Whisenhunt finished his Georgia Tech career ranked second on the Yellow Jackets' all-time receiving yardage list (1,264 yards) and fourth in career receptions (82). He was a consensus All-ACC and honorable mention All-America selection as a senior in 1984 when he averaged 19.1 yards-per-catch.

Born Feb. 28, 1962 in Atlanta, Ga., Whisenhunt and his wife, Alice, live in Pittsburgh with their son, Kenneth Jr. (11) and daughter Mary Ashley (9).

LOU SPANOS

Defensive Assistant

Lou Spanos is in his ninth season with the Steelers and his eighth year as an administrative assistant for the coaching staff.

As an administrative assistant, Spanos helps with the defense, and assists the entire coaching staff with video analysis and scouting of Steelers' opponents.

A 1994 graduate of the University of Tulsa, he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at offensive center. Spanos stayed at Tulsa for a year after his playing career concluded to assist coaching the linebackers. He then joined the Steelers as an intern in the scouting department. After his one-year internship, Spanos was promoted to his current position of administrative assistant.

Spanos and his wife Timme reside in Mt. Lebanon with their son Zachary.

MIKE MILLER

Offensive Assistant

Mike Miller is in his sixth season with the Steelers and his fourth year as an administrative assistant for the coaching staff.

As an administrative assistant, Miller helps with the offense, and assists the entire coaching staff with video analysis and scouting of opponents.

Miller, a 1992 graduate of Clarion University of Pennsylvania, first served the Steelers as an intern in the public relations and player personnel departments (1994-95). Following a year (1996) as a public relations intern with the Indianapolis Colts, he joined the Robert Morris College coaching staff as a graduate assistant/running backs coach (1997-98) and earned a master's degree in education.

Miller, a Plum Borough native, is single and resides in Carnegie.

CHET FUHRMAN

Conditioning Coach

Chet Fuhrman was named conditioning coach in February 1992 following 10 years as strength and conditioning coach at Penn State University.

A native of Harrisburg, Pa., Fuhrman is in his 11th season with the team and his 25th year of strength training. He served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Penn State from 1979-80. He was named the first strength and conditioning coach ever at Weber State in Ogden, Utah, in 1981, before returning to Penn State to take charge of the strength and conditioning program in 1982.

Fuhrman, 49, graduated from the University of Central State (Okla.) in 1973 with a degree in physical education. He spent the next five years as strength coach and assistant coach in football at Harrisburg and Steelton-Highspire high schools. Fuhrman is a member of the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society. He was the recipient of the 2001-2002 Presidents Award for his contribution to the field of strength and conditioning.

Fuhrman and his wife Lisa have three children, son Michael (4/12/90), and daughters Erica (10/27/88) and Maria (10/13/95).

ANTHONY GRIGGS

Player Development

Anthony Griggs begins his 11th season with the Steelers and his 18th in the NFL.

Griggs joined the Steelers in 1992 to work in the area of player programs. His responsibilities include continuing education, internships, investment information and counseling services for the players.

Griggs also assists conditioning coordinator Chet

Fuhrman with the strength and conditioning program for the players.

Griggs worked in strength and conditioning with the Atlanta Falcons in 1990 before working for two years with a fitness consultation firm and an athletic club in Atlanta, Ga.

A former linebacker with the Philadelphia Eagles (1982-85) and Cleveland Browns (1986-88), Griggs began his NFL career as a fourth-round draft choice of the Eagles in 1982 out of Ohio State. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications from Villanova in 1983.

Born Feb. 12, 1960 in Lawton, Okla., Griggs and his wife, Beth Ann, live in Pittsburgh with their two daughters Alexiss (3/7/98) and Aaryn (4/13/99).

KEVIN COLBERT

Director of Football Operations

Kevin Colbert begins his third year as the Steelers director of football operations after previously serving as director of pro scouting for the Detroit Lions.

A Pittsburgh native, Colbert was named to his position Feb. 15, 2000, after spending 10 years in the Detroit Lions organization.

Colbert oversees the personnel area of the team and supervises the scouting staff. Among his duties, Colbert is in charge of administering player acquisitions and transactions, including the draft, free agent signings and trades, and evaluating pro and college personnel. He also serves as the Steelers' liaison with the NFL office and the other NFL teams on football matters.

Colbert served as the Lions pro scouting director and was responsible for scouting NFL players, the NFL Europe League and the Canadian Football League. He also assisted in the evaluation of college talent. Prior to joining the Lions, Colbert spent five seasons as a college scout for the Miami Dolphins (1985-89) and one season (1984) with the Blesto Scouting Service.

Colbert began his career as a coach and had experiences in three sports—football, basketball and baseball. He was the backfield coach and recruiting coordinator at Ohio Wesleyan University for three years (1981-83) and in 1984 also served as the school's head baseball coach. From 1979-81, Colbert was a graduate assistant basketball coach at Robert Morris College. He also served as the school's head baseball coach in 1981.

Born Jan. 29, 1957, Colbert graduated from North Catholic High School in Pittsburgh and received his bachelor's degree from Robert Morris in 1979. He and his wife, Janis, have three children: Kacie, Jennifer and Daniel.

BILL BAKER

College Scouting Coordinator

Bill Baker enters his third season as the club's college scouting coordinator since joining the team in May 2000.

In his current capacity, Baker oversees the Steelers' college scouts and evaluates college players for the team.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Baker spent the previous two seasons as an area scout for the Seattle Seahawks. Before accepting his Seattle assignment in May 1998, Baker spent the previous nine years as an area scout for the Atlanta Falcons.

Additionally, Baker served as the defensive coordinator at Richmond from 1983-88. He has also held coaching positions at Wichita State, Louisville, North Alabama, Tennessee, Samford and Austin Peay.

A native of Jasper, Tenn., Baker was a running back and kick returner for the University of Tennessee and played on three Bowl teams. He and his wife Paula have one daughter (Jennifer).

DOUG WHALEY

Pro Scouting Coordinator

Doug Whaley begins his fourth season as Steelers pro personnel coordinator after spending the three previous years as an area scout with the Seattle Seahawks.

In his current position, Whaley is responsible for scouting Steelers opponents and evaluating pro players.

Whaley joined Seattle in July 1996 and was in charge of scouting college players throughout the East Coast. Prior to joining Seattle, Whaley spent the 1995 season as an assistant in the Steelers' pro personnel department.

A native of Upper St. Clair, Whaley lettered four seasons at the University of Pittsburgh as a safety and linebacker. After earning a degree in business finance, Whaley worked for one year as a retail stockbroker on Wall Street before joining the Steelers. Whaley attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, lettering in football, wrestling and track.

PHIL KREIDLER

Pro/College Scout

Phil Kreidler is in his 12th season with the Steelers as a college scout and pro scout. After spending his first eight years with the team scouting the college players, Kreidler was given additional responsibilities scouting pro teams in 2000.

Kreidler served a full-time internship in the Steelers' personnel department in 1991-92, and was named to the scouting staff in June 1992.

From 1988-90, Kreidler served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati, where he helped coach the wide receivers and quarterbacks.

Kreidler, 35, attended Furman University, where he played free safety. He was a member of two Southern Conference championship teams and Furman posted a record of 35-11 during his four seasons. He graduated in 1988 with a degree in history and a minor in physical education.

Kreidler and his wife, Kim, live in Pittsburgh.

KELVIN FISHER

BLESTO Scout

Kelvin Fisher enters his third season as the Steelers' BLESTO scout after joining the team in June 2000.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Fisher, 32, served one year as the coordinator of academic accountability at his alma mater, Arizona State University. At Arizona State, he was a liaison between student-athletes, coaches, professors and academic counselors.

Fisher, worked as a juvenile probation officer in Maricopa County, Arizona, from 1993-96, and with the State Office for Service to Children and Family in Portland, Oregon (1996-99).

After playing fullback for Arizona State (1988-91), Fisher graduated in 1992 with a degree in social work. A native of Ambridge, Pa., Fisher currently lives in Gilbert, Az., with his wife Angela and two children, Kelvin Jr. (1/14/93) and Kailie (7/16/95).

MARK GORSCAK

College Scout

Mark Gorscak is in his eighth season with the Steelers. This is Gorscak's fifth year as an area scout, after spending his first three years as the Steelers' BLESTO scout.

Gorscak previously coached on the high school and college levels for 16 years. His first coaching experience was at Perkiomen (Pa.) Prep School.

He followed that with coaching assignments at Western Maryland College, Dickinson College (his alma mater), Gulliver Prep (Fla.) High School, and two tenures at Weber State University. In 1987, between stints at Weber State, he became the first general manager of the Pittsburgh Gladiators in its inaugural season of the Arena Football League.

Additionally, Gorscak has been an athletic administrator at Dickinson and Weber State. He graduated with a degree in psychology from Dickinson and received a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla.

Gorscak is a native of Donora, Pa., and currently resides in Pittsburgh.

BOB LANE

College Scout

Bob Lane is in his 16th season with the Steelers and 18th year in scouting.

Lane joined the personnel department as a college scout in June 1995, after spending the previous eight seasons as the Steelers' BLESTO scout. Lane is primarily responsible for scouting the Western region.

Lane played linebacker and tight end for Baylor, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1963.

He signed with the San Diego Chargers, where he played linebacker for Chuck Noll from 1963-64 and was a member of their 1963 AFL Championship team.

Lane coached college football for 20 years with stops at Yakima J.C. (1965-67), University of California-San Diego (1968), San Diego State (1969), Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (1970-81) and Northern Arizona (1982-84). He joined BLESTO in 1985.

Lane, 62, and his wife Dawn have five children, daughters Duffy and Kelly; and sons Randy, Curtis, and Robby. Lane lives in Bend, Ore.

BRUCE McNORTON

College Scout

Bruce McNorton is in his third season as a member of the Steelers' scouting department.

McNorton, who joined the Steelers in May 2000, had previously worked with Director of Football Operations, Kevin Colbert, as a part-time scout with the Detroit Lions.

A highly successful coach at Pontiac North High School in Michigan, where he was selected the 1999 Class A Coach of the Year, McNorton led his team to the state quarterfinals.

Additionally, McNorton, 42, enjoyed a 10-year playing career as a defensive back with the Lions and Miami Dolphins.

He and his wife Rosalind have three children, daughters Mykeshia and Britteny, and son Bruce Jr.

DAN ROONEY

College Scout

Dan Rooney is in his sixth season as a college scout after serving several years as a part-time scout.

He is primarily responsible for scouting the areas along the East Coast from Maine to South Carolina.

The son of Steelers president Dan Rooney, Rooney was a four-year standout safety for Washington & Jefferson (Pa.), starting his sophomore and junior years. After graduating with a degree in business administration, he stayed at W & J and coached the running backs from 1986-1991.

In 1993, he moved to North Carolina and coached at Northern Durham High School in 1994. He also served as an assistant coach at Leesville Road High School in Raleigh, N.C. (1995 and 1996), before joining the Steelers as a college scout in 1997.

Rooney and his wife Allison live in Gastonia, N.C. They have one son, John Patrick (6/16/99).

BILL NUNN

College Scout

Bill Nunn is in his 35th season in the Steelers player personnel department, where he helps evaluate college talent.

After originally joining the Steelers as a scout in 1968, Nunn was promoted to assistant director of player personnel in 1970 when he served the dual role of training camp director and personnel scout. Prior to joining the Steelers, Nunn was the sports editor for the Pittsburgh Courier.

A 1948 graduate of West Virginia State University, where he earned a degree in English, Nunn and his wife, Frances, split time between Pittsburgh and Florida. The Nunns have one daughter Lynell Wilson and a son, William III, and three grandchildren.

BOB McCARTNEY

Video/Facilities Coordinator

Bob McCartney has seen the responsibilities of his job undergo dramatic changes in his 29 years as the Steelers' film and video director. He was named film director in 1973, until the advent of video in 1986 when the NFL went from film to videotape format.

Prior to taking over the filming operation, McCartney worked in the Steelers' ticket office. He also currently serves as the Steelers facility coordinator for headquarters in the UPMC Sports Performance Complex.

McCartney, a Pittsburgh native, attended South Catholic High School. He graduated from Wheeling (W.Va.) Jesuit College in 1972 with a bachelor's degree in English.

Born May 16, 1950 in Pittsburgh, McCartney and his wife Gail have two children, daughter Kathleen and son Robert. The McCartneys live in Mt. Lebanon.

JOHN NORWIG

Head Athletic Trainer

John Norwig is in his 12th year as the Steelers' head athletic trainer and his 24th year in athletic training.

His training career began in 1979 as athletic trainer at Bellefonte (Pa.) High. Norwig then served six years as assistant trainer and health education instructor at Penn State (1980-85). During that time he assisted the San Francisco 49ers at their 1984 training camp. He then became head athletic trainer at Vanderbilt (1986-91) before joining the Steelers.

Norwig earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Penn State in 1979 and a master's in health education in 1984. He is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine, American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine, and the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Born Nov. 6, 1957 in Hanover, Pa., Norwig and his wife Emily have three children, daughter Erin (11/12/92), and sons Nicolas (12/20/95) and Luke (4/14/98). The Norwigs live in the North Hills.

RYAN GROVE

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Ryan Grove, a former athletic training intern for the Steelers, rejoined the team in March 1999 as the club's assistant athletic trainer.

Grove graduated magna cum laude, receiving his bachelor of science degree in athletic training from the University of Pittsburgh in 1993 and a master's degree in athletic training/exercise physiology in 1996.

An Indiana, Pa., native, previously served as an assistant athletic trainer at East Tennessee State, where he was the head athletic trainer for the school's men's basketball, baseball and tennis teams. He also served as an intern athletic trainer for the Steelers for the 1992-93 seasons and a graduate athletic trainer for the team from 1992-94. In April 1996, Grove worked as the athletic trainer for the Tri-Star Pictures movie Jerry Maguire.

Grove is a member of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers' Society and National Athletic Trainers' Association.

Born Jan. 27, 1971, Grove and his wife, AnnMarie, reside in Pittsburgh.

RODGERS FREYVOGEL

Equipment Manager

Rodgers Freyvogel begins his 23rd season with the Steelers and his sixth as the team's equipment manager.

Freyvogel oversees all of the purchasing, fitting, customizing, issuing and reconditioning of the Steelers equipment and uniforms.

Freyvogel joined the Steelers as field manager in 1980 and was responsible for the preparation and maintenance of the Steelers' practice fields, while assisting equipment manager Tony Parisi.

Born Aug. 13, 1951 in Pittsburgh, Freyvogel grew up on Pittsburgh's North Side, where he attended North Catholic High School. He and his wife Rebecca live in Warrendale. They are the parents of two sons, William (3/9/99) and Trevor (4/29/01).

RICH BAKER

Assistant Equipment Manager

Rich Baker begins his sixth season as the Steelers' field manager and his ninth with the team.

He joined the organization in 1994 after a two-year stint as a warehouse sales representative with Frito Lay.

Baker, 35, assists equipment manager Rodgers Freyvogel in the issuing and reconditioning of the players' equipment and uniforms.

Baker majored in elementary education at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Born June 14, 1967 in Pittsburgh, Pa., Baker is a native of Homestead and attended Steel Valley High School. He lives in Pittsburgh.

JACKSONVILLE 21 STEELERS 3
Sept. 9, 2001

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Sept. 9, 2001) — The Steelers turned the ball over four times during a 21-3, season-opening loss to the Jacksonville Jaguars at ALLTEL Stadium.

Pittsburgh made several costly mistakes during the game, including a partially blocked punt and two turnovers in the second quarter, which led to 14 of Jacksonville's 21 points, and ended another Steelers drive in Jaguars territory.

The Steelers took a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter after Kordell Stewart led the offense 57 yards on 13 plays, highlighted by a 13-yard run by running back Amos Zereoue and a 13-yard completion to wide receiver Hines Ward. Stewart later scrambled 11 yards to set up a 41-yard field goal by Kris Brown.

The Jaguars rallied to score all 21 of their points on their next three possessions. Jacksonville quarterback Mark Brunell capped a 74-yard drive with a 34-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Jimmy Smith that gave the Jaguars a 7-3 lead.

The Steelers were forced to punt on their next drive and Jacksonville's Donovin Darius rushed up the middle to partially block Steelers punter Josh Miller kick, giving the Jaguars possession at midfield. After moving the ball to the Pittsburgh 15, Brunell connected with Smith again for a 15-yard Jaguars touchdown and a 14-3 lead.

Jaguars safety Marlon McCree recovered Ward fumble on the Steelers' next possession and returned 14 yards to the Pittsburgh 23. Brunell completed a 24-yard pass to tight end Damon Jones on the first play from scrimmage, and then connected again with Jones on the following play for a one-yard touchdown that gave the Jaguars a 21-3 lead.

Neither team would score again.

The Steelers threatened to tighten the game early in the third quarter after Jacksonville punter Chris Hanson fumbled a snap, and Pittsburgh gained possession the Jaguars 18. However, with first-and-goal at the Jacksonville six, Stewart fumbled the center exchange and the Jaguars recovered the ball.

Pittsburgh drove deep into Jacksonville territory on more time, but were stopped on fourth down, ending any chance of a comeback.

STEELERS 20 BUFFALO 3
Sept. 30, 2001

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. (Sept. 30, 2001) — The Steelers (1-1) won their first game of the season when they beat the Buffalo Bills, 20-3, at Ralph Wilson Stadium in Buffalo.

A relentless defense and strong running game helped the Steelers overcome 125 yards in penalties to earn their first road victory over the Bills since Sept. 3, 1978. Steelers running back Jerome Bettis rushed for 114 yards on 22 carries (5.2 avg.) and backup running back Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala added a 22-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter for the only offensive touchdown of the game.

The Steelers defense held Buffalo to 172 total yards, including only 52 yards rushing, and sacked Bills quarterback Rob Johnson four times.

Pittsburgh took a 7-0 first-quarter lead when Steelers cornerback Dewayne Washington recovered a fumble. Buffalo running back Travis Henry and raced 63 yards for a touchdown.

A 39-yard punt return by Pittsburgh's Hank Poterat up a 30-yard Kris Brown field goal that gave the Steelers a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. However, a 23-yard field goal by Bills kicker Jake Ariens closed the score to 10-3 at the half.

The score remained 10-3 until early in the fourth quarter when Brown tied his career record by kicking a 52-yard field goal to increase the Steelers' lead to 13-3.

The Steelers took possession after another Buffalo punt and drove down field for their final score of the game. On third-and-four from the Buffalo 22, Fuamatu-Ma'afala broke several tackles and rumbled into the end zone to make the final score, 20-3.

Steelers cornerback Chad Scott ended any chance for Buffalo to score a touchdown when he intercepted Bills' backup quarterback Alex Van Pelt and returned the ball 62 yards before being forced out of bounds. With two minutes remaining, the Steelers offense ran out the clock to preserve the victory.

3*STEELERS 16 CINCINNATI 7
Oct. 7, 2001

PITTSBURGH (Oct. 7, 2001) — The Steelers improved their record to 2-1 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals during the inaugural game at Heinz Field.

A dominating Steelers running game produced 274 of the team's 412 total yards, led by running back Jerome Bettis who rushed for 153 yards and became only the 14th player in NFL history to surpass 10,000 yards rushing in his career.

Bettis set the tone on the Steelers' second play from scrimmage when he rumbled 48 yards to the Cincinnati five-yard line. It was Bettis' second-longest run as a Steeler and his longest since Nov. 3, 1996 versus the St. Louis Rams.

The Steelers did not score on the drive, but took a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter when kicker Kris Brown converted a 26-yard field goal, his first of three successful kicks in the game.

Pittsburgh cornerback Chad Scott ended Cincinnati's next drive with his second interception of the season and returned it to the Pittsburgh 28-yard line. The Steelers offense then drove 72 yards on nine plays and creased their lead to 10-0 when quarterback Kord Stewart capped the drive with an eight-yard touchdown run, the first touchdown scored at Heinz Field.

The Steelers defense also dominated the game, limiting Cincinnati to 214 total yards, including 65 yards rushing. Defensive end Aaron Smith recorded his third sack of the season, while Scott led the team with two tackles.

Brown increased the Steelers' lead to 13-0 in the fourth quarter when he booted a 42-yard field goal with 9:03 remaining in the game.

The Bengals pulled to within 13-7 when quarterback John Kitna capped an 11-play, 81-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown pass to fullback Lorenz Neal.

However, a 30-kickoff return by Hank Poteat, followed by a 24-yard pass from Stewart to wide receiver Hines Ward set up Pittsburgh's final field goal of the game. With 1:52 remaining in the fourth quarter, Brown converted from 48 yards to secure the Steelers' 16-7 victory.

STEELERS 20 KANSAS CITY 17
Oct. 14, 2001

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (Oct. 14, 2001) — The Steelers overtook sole possession of first place in the AFC Central division and improved their record to 3-1 after defeating the Kansas City Chiefs, 20-17, at Arrowhead Stadium.

Steelers' running back Jerome Bettis rushed for 112 Pittsburgh's 203 yards in the game. The Steelers' offense also played well, adding a touchdown on a 61-yard interception return by cornerback Chad Scott, and picking Kansas City quarterback Trent Green four times.

The Steelers took a 3-0 lead in the second quarter on a 42-yard field goal by kicker Kris Brown. Brown increased Pittsburgh's lead to 6-0 on their next possession when he booted a career-long 55-yard field goal that tied a team record.

Kansas City's Mikhael Ricks blocked a Josh Miller punt on Pittsburgh's next possession, and the ball went out of the end zone for a safety that tightened the score to 6-2 at the half.

The Chiefs received the second-half kickoff, and with second-and-two from the Pittsburgh 47, Scott picked off Green's pass and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown to make the score, 13-2.

After forcing a Kansas City punt later in the quarter, the Steelers drove 68 yards on seven plays, highlighted by a 30-yard run by Bettis. With Second-and-goal at the Chiefs' five, Pittsburgh quarterback Kordell Stewart connected with wide receiver Hines Ward for the team's first touchdown pass of the season and a 20-2 lead.

Kansas City running back Priest Holmes gained 116 of his game-high 150 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half. Holmes scored on touchdown runs of 26 and one yard, and Green completed a pass to tight end Tony Gonzalez for a two-point conversion to make the score to 20-17 with 2:39 remaining.

The Chiefs chose not to onside kick to the Steelers and Pittsburgh ran out the clock for the 20-17 victory.

STEELERS 17 TAMPA BAY 10
Oct. 21, 2001

TAMPA, Fla. (Oct. 21, 2001) — The Steelers improved their record to 4-1 in Tampa Bay where they beat the Buccaneers, 17-10, at Raymond James Stadium.

Pittsburgh dominated the line of scrimmage on both sides of the ball, rushing for 220 yards and one touchdown on 35 carries (6.3 avg.) and tying a team record by sacking Tampa Bay quarterback Brad Johnson 10 times.

The Steelers offense gained 344 yards and was efficient throughout the game, converting six of 10 third-down opportunities (60 percent) and their only fourth-down attempt.

Running back Jerome Bettis rushed for 143 yards and one touchdown (8.4 avg.) on 17 carries, and threw a touchdown pass for the second time in his career.

The Steelers trailed 3-0 in the second quarter when Bettis ran right and completed a 32-yard pass for a touchdown to backup tight end Jerame Tuman, to give the Steelers a 7-3 lead.

Pittsburgh increased their lead to 14-3 early in the third quarter when Bettis sprinted 46 yards for his first touchdown of the season and the 50th rushing touchdown of his career.

A 35-yard field goal by Steelers kicker Kris Brown increased Pittsburgh's lead to 17-3 with 4:49 left in the third quarter, after which the Steel Curtain defense took over the game.

The Steelers defense held Tampa Bay to 64 yards rushing and battered Johnson throughout the game. Outside linebacker Joey Porter tied a league-high with a career-best four sacks, while defensive end Kevin von Oelhoffen registered a career-high three sacks including two on consecutive plays in the fourth quarter. Cornerbacks Dewayne Washington and Deshaun Townsend and safety Mike Logan combined for Pittsburgh's three remaining sacks. Outside linebacker Jason Gildon batted down three passes and pressured Johnson throughout the game.

Buccaneers wide receiver Frank Murphy caught a five-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining to make the score 17-10. However the Steelers recovered an onside kick and ran out the clock to secure the fourth straight victory.

STEELERS 34 TENNESSEE 7
Oct. 29, 2001

PITTSBURGH (Oct. 29, 2001) — A record crowd of 33,763 fans watched the Steelers defeat the Tennessee Titans, 34-7, and improve their record to 5-1 on Monday Night at Heinz Field.

Wide receiver Plaxico Burress had a career game, setting career highs with six receptions for 151 yards (25.2 avg.). It was the first 100-yard game of Burress' career.

The Steelers defense dominated the game, limiting Tennessee to 214 total yards, including only 57 rushing. But the Steelers' offense stole the show.

Kordell Stewart posted a season-high 110.4 passerating, completing 13-of-22 passes for 232 yards and one touchdown. Jerome Bettis gained 62 yards and scored twice on 19 carries (3.3 avg.) despite being taken out of the game after the third quarter.

The Steelers received the opening kickoff and drove 78 yards on 10 plays to take a 7-0 lead on a one-yard touchdown run by Bettis.

A four-yard touchdown pass from Tennessee quarterback Steve McNair to tight end Frank Wychek tied the score at 7-7 early in the second quarter.

Steelers free safety Brent Alexander intercepted McNair on Tennessee's next drive at the Titans' 36-yard line. Stewart drove the offense down the field and connected with Hines Ward for a three-yard touchdown pass to give Pittsburgh a 14-7 lead. A 42-yard field goal by kicker Kris Brown increased the Steelers' lead to 17-7 at the half.

Stewart's 43-yard pass to Burress on the Steelers' opening possession in the third quarter set up a seven-yard Bettis touchdown run that made the score 24-7.

Brown added a 27-yard field goal late in the quarter to increase the Steelers' lead to 27-7.

Pittsburgh's Mike Logan caused Tennessee's Derrick Mason to fumble the ensuing kickoff, which was recovered by Steelers special teams captain John Fiala at the Titans' 29.

Four plays later, and after a 28-yard completion to Burress, Stewart scrambled for a two-yard touchdown run that made the final score, 34-7.

BALTIMORE 13 PITTSBURGH 10
Nov. 4, 2001

PITTSBURGH (Nov. 4, 2001) — The Steelers dominated almost every statistical category, yet suffered a disappointing 13-10 loss to the Baltimore Ravens at Heinz Field.

Steelers' kicker Kris Brown missed four-of-five field goal attempts, including the potential game-tying kick, from 35 yards with 14 seconds left in the game.

The Steelers offense gained 348 yards against Baltimore's defense including 91 yards rushing on 23 carries (4.0 avg.) by Jerome Bettis. Bettis' 91 yards were the most gained against the Ravens this season.

Pittsburgh's defense yielded only 183 total yards, including 41 yards rushing (1.6 avg.) on 26 attempts, and held Baltimore to one-of-11 on third-down attempts.

Brown's 38-yard first quarter field goal gave the Steelers an early 3-0 lead. However, Baltimore's Jermaine Lewis returned the ensuing kickoff 53 yards to set up a 13-yard touchdown pass from Randall Cunningham to tight end Shannon Sharpe, giving the Ravens a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter.

Brown missed his first field goal from 41 yards on the Steelers' next possession. But, Kordell Stewart connected with wide receiver Plaxico Burress later in the period for a 21-yard touchdown pass to give Pittsburgh a 10-7 halftime lead. It was the first touchdown of Burress' career and gave him four receptions for 5 yards in the first half.

Brown had a 33-yard field-goal attempt in the third quarter tipped. Each team turned the ball over on the next possession. Baltimore then tied the game at 10-10, on a 25-yard field goal by Matt Stover to start the fourth period.

After Brown missed his third field-goal attempt, from 48 yards, Baltimore drove to the Pittsburgh 22, where Stover converted a 39-yard field goal to give the Ravens a 13-10 lead with two minutes remaining.

A 28-yard kickoff return by Troy Edwards gave the Steelers the ball at their own 38. Stewart, who completed 22-of-37 passes for 236 yards and a touchdown, completed five passes as Pittsburgh moved to the Baltimore 17-yard line. However, Brown's 35-yard attempt sailed wide right, and the Steelers lost for the first time since Kickoff Weekend.

STEELERS 15 CLEVELAND 12
Nov. 11, 2001

CLEVELAND (Nov. 11, 2001) — Steelers kicker Kris Brown kicked five field goals to give the Steelers a 15-12 overtime victory against the Cleveland Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium.

Brown converted five-of-six field goal attempts for all 15 Steelers points, including the game-winner in overtime, after missing the potential game-winning field goal with 1:40 remaining in the fourth quarter.

The typical Steelers mixture of a power running game and a stingy defense put Pittsburgh in position to improve to 6-2 for the first time since 1997. The Steelers gained 428 total yards, including 247 rushing. Running back Jerome Bettis rushed 29 times for 163 yards (5.6 avg.), his second-highest rushing total as a Steeler.

Pittsburgh's defense held the Browns to 187 total yards, sacked Cleveland quarterback Tim Couch seven times, all in the second half, and forced the Browns to punt on nine of 12 possessions.

The Browns took a 9-0 first-quarter lead when defensive tackle Orpheus Roye tackled Jerome Bettis in the end zone and Couch capped the ensuing drive with a 12-yard touchdown pass to tight end O.J. Santiago.

However, Brown converted his first field goal, from 31-yards, to make the score 9-3 late in the first quarter. Brown then pulled the Steelers within three points with a 27-yard field goal to make the score 9-6 at the half.

A 37-yard field goal by Brown on the Steelers' first possession of the second half tied the game at 9-9. But Cleveland responded on their next drive with a 40-yard field goal by kicker Phil Dawson to recapture the lead, 12-9.

Brown tied the score at 12-12 early in the fourth quarter with his second 37-yard kick of the game. However, his missed field goal with 1:40 remaining sent the contest into overtime.

The Steelers received the ball in overtime and gave the ball to Bettis, who rushed seven times for 48 yards, to set up Brown's game-winning 32-yard field goal.

STEELERS 20 JACKSONVILLE 7
Nov. 18, 2001

PITTSBURGH (Nov. 18, 2001) — A precise passing game led by quarterback Kordell Stewart, and a stifling defense helped the Steelers to a 20-7 home victory against the Jacksonville Jaguars.

The Steelers improved their record to 7-2 for the first time since 1996 and increased their lead in the AFC Central Division to 1½ games.

Stewart had perhaps his best game passing since 1997, completing 21-of-33 passes for 266 yards, one touchdown and a 98.8 passer-rating.

Jacksonville limited Jerome Bettis to 52 yards on 21 carries (2.5 avg.), but Stewart completed passes to seven different receivers, including wideout Hines Ward, who caught nine passes for a career-high 112 yards (12.4 avg.) and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh's league-leading defense continued to play well, shutting out an opponent for the first time this season — Jacksonville's only points came on a 95-yard kickoff return — and limiting the Jaguars to 48 yards rushing while registering five sacks.

The Steelers took a 6-0 halftime lead on field goals of 48 and 28 yards by kicker Kris Brown.

A short completion from Stewart to Ward in the third quarter turned into a 28-yard touchdown pass when wide receiver Troy Edwards delivered a crunching block on Jacksonville safety Marlon McCree, springing Ward for the score and a 13-0 Steelers lead.

The Jaguars' only points came on the ensuing kickoff when Elvis Joseph ran 95 yards for a touchdown, close the score to 13-7 at the end of the third quarter.

Jacksonville was driving for what looked like the go-ahead touchdown midway through the fourth quarter when Steelers linebacker Joey Porter sacked Jaguars quarterback Jonathan Quinn, who started the game for the injured Mark Brunell (thigh), forcing a fumble that was recovered by nose tackle Casey Hampton.

On the next play, Jerome Bettis blasted through the Jaguars' defense for 40 yards to the Jacksonville 3. Backup running back Amos Zereoue gained 28 yards on Pittsburgh's second play, to help set up Kordell Stewart's seven-yard touchdown run with 2:00 remaining, to clinch the Steelers victory, 20-7.

Nov. 25, 2001

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (Nov. 25, 2001) — The Steelers improved their record to 8-2 by defeating the Tennessee Titans, 34-24, for their first ever win at Adelphia Coliseum.

Pittsburgh quarterback Kordell Stewart completed 29-of-31 passes for 254 yards, two touchdowns and a 98.8 passer-rating. The Steelers' kickoff return unit also had a big game, particularly Troy Edwards who had a career-day returning three kickoffs for 145 yards (8.3 avg.), including a career-long 81-yard return.

The Steelers took a 3-0 lead on their first possession when kicker Kris Brown converted a 39-yard field goal attempt. However, Tennessee responded on their first play from scrimmage when quarterback Steve McNair connected with wide receiver Kevin Dyson for a 68-yard touchdown pass and a 7-3 Titans lead.

A four-yard pass from McNair to tight end Frank Wychek gave Tennessee a 14-3 lead with 4:03 left in the first half. But Stewart led the Steelers 72 yards on eight plays, including a four-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress to make the score 14-10 at the half.

A 48-yard touchdown run by Stewart in the third quarter gave the Steelers a 17-14 lead. With the score tied at 17-17, Stewart threw a screen pass to running back Amos Zereoue, who ran 25 yards for a touchdown, to put Pittsburgh ahead, 24-17.

Brown kicked a 37-yard field goal to start the fourth quarter, giving Pittsburgh a 27-17 lead. However, the Titans seemed to regain momentum when McNair capped an 82-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run that tightened the score to 27-24.

Tennessee regained possession with 4:53 remaining in the game, but Steelers cornerback Chad Scott intercepted McNair and returned it 45 yards for a touchdown to clinch a 34-24 Steelers victory.

STEELERS 21 MINNESOTA 16
Dec. 2, 2001

PITTSBURGH (Dec. 2, 2001) — The Steelers improved their record to an AFC best 9-2 for the first time since 1978, by beating the Minnesota Vikings, 21-16, at Heinz Field.

After Minnesota took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 25-yard field goal by Gary Anderson, the Steelers rallied to score 21 consecutive points.

Pittsburgh's first score came on a one-yard touchdown run by Jerome Bettis on the ensuing drive that gave the Steelers a 7-3 lead. The Steelers increased their lead to 14-3 in the third quarter, when wide receiver Troy Edwards ran 12 yards on an end-around for his first touchdown of the season.

Edwards turned in another big play on the ensuing kickoff, forcing a fumble by Minnesota's Nate Jacquet that was recovered by Pittsburgh's Myron Bell.

The Steelers capitalized on the turnover on Amos Zereoue's four-yard touchdown run that gave the Steelers a 21-3 lead. The touchdown was set up by a 16-yard pass from Kordell Stewart to Bettis, who injured his hip on the play and had to leave the game.

Two interceptions by free safety Brent Alexander early in the fourth quarter appeared to secure the Steelers victory. However, an 80-yard touchdown pass from Vikings backup quarterback Todd Bouman to running back Michael Bennett made the score 21-10 with 6:29 remaining in the game.

Bouman completed two passes for 74 yards and a 12-yard touchdown to wide receiver Randy Moss on the Vikings' next possession, closing the score to 21-16 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

Vikings defensive tackle Chris Hovan sacked Stewart on Pittsburgh's third play from scrimmage and forced a fumble that was recovered by Minnesota's Talance Sawyer at the Pittsburgh 10. However the Vikings were penalized twice and were unable to score on four downs with 1:58 remaining.

With a third-and-10 on their own 20-yard line, Steelers running back Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala broke free for a career-long 46-yard run to secure the Steelers' 21-16 victory.

STEELERS 18 N.Y. JETS 7
Dec. 9, 2001

PITTSBURGH (Dec. 9, 2001) — The Steelers improved their record to 10-2 for the first time since 1978, after an 18-7 win versus the New York Jets at Heinz Field.

Wide receiver Hines Ward took the leading role on offense by setting career highs with 10 catches and 124 receiving yards.

The Steelers, who were without Jerome Bettis (groin) for the first time since Oct. 18, 1998, rushed for 134 yards in the game, more than 40 below their league-leading season average of 179.4 yards. However, Pittsburgh controlled the ball for more than 36 minutes and did not commit any turnovers against a Jets team that entered the game leading the NFL with 33 takeaways.

Kordell Stewart completed 20-of-36 passes for 214 yards and led the Steelers to scores on their first three possessions for the first time this season.

Pittsburgh took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 26-yard field goal by kicker Kris Brown. Brown, who converted four-of-six field goal attempts in the game, missed two field goals and an extra point, but still moved into a tie for third place in scoring in the NFL with 96 points.

A one-yard touchdown run by Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala, who made his first career start at running back, gave the Steelers a 9-0 lead after Brown missed the extra point early in the second quarter.

The Jets scored their only points on the ensuing drive when running back Curtis Martin completed an 18-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Wayne Chrebet, making the score 9-7.

The Steelers extended their lead to 12-7 on their next possession when Brown kicked a 33-yard field goal with 35 seconds left in the first half.

The Steelers linebacker John Fiala recovered the ensuing kickoff, which was squibbed by Brown, who missed a 40-yard field goal attempt to end the first half.

Pittsburgh's defense shut out the Jets in the second half and limited New York to only 220 total yards (159 passing, 61 rushing) and 14 first downs in the game.

The Steelers extended their lead to 15-7 in the fourth quarter when Brown kicked his third field goal, from 38 yards. A 20-yard kick by Brown on Pittsburgh's next possession made the final score 18-7.

STEELERS 26 BALTIMORE 21
Dec. 16, 2001

BALTIMORE (Dec. 16, 2001) — The Steelers clinched the AFC Central Division title for the 15th time in team history and the sixth time during the Bill Cowher era with a 26-21 win versus the Baltimore Ravens at PSINet Stadium.

Steelers quarterback Kordell Stewart completed 20-of-31 passes for a career-high 333 yards, two touchdowns and a 122.1 passer-rating. Wide receiver Plaxico Burress also set career highs with eight catches and 164 yards and a touchdown, as Pittsburgh gained 476 total yards on the Ravens defense.

The Steelers took a 3-0 first-quarter lead on a 22-yard field goal by kicker Kris Brown.

Baltimore responded with a two-yard touchdown run by quarterback Elvis Grbac early in the second quarter to give the Ravens the lead, 7-3.

A 33-yard field goal by Brown closed the score to 7-6 midway through the second quarter. The Steelers scored again with 1:52 remaining in the half when Burress caught a 25-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to give Pittsburgh a 13-7 lead.

Pittsburgh extended its lead to 19-7 in the fourth quarter when Stewart connected with wide receiver Bobby Shaw for a 90-yard touchdown pass that tied for the longest reception in Steelers history. However, the Steelers failed on a two-point conversion attempt and remained 12 points ahead.

A 14-yard pass from Grbac to Qadry Ismail enabled Baltimore to close the score to 19-14.

The Steelers responded with a 72-yard drive that ended in a four-yard touchdown run by fullback Da Kreider that gave Pittsburgh a 26-14 lead.

A five-yard touchdown pass from Grbac to Brandon Stokley made the score to 26-21 with 1:14 left in the game. However, Pittsburgh recovered the onside kick to secure their fourth straight victory at PSINet Stadium — where they are 4-0 — and deal the Ravens their first loss in December under head coach Brian Billick.

STEELERS 47 DETROIT 14
Dec. 23, 2001

PITTSBURGH (Dec. 23, 2001) — The Steelers scored their most points of the season and clinched a first-round bye during the AFC playoffs with a dominating 47-17 win versus the Detroit Lions.

The Steelers' offense received solid contributions from several players, led by quarterback Kordell Stewart who completed 17-of-26 passes for 226 yards, no interceptions, and established new season-highs with three touchdown passes and a career-high 131.2 passer-rating. Stewart also rushed for a touchdown.

Running back Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala's career-high 126 yards rushing — his first career 100-yard rushing game — helped the Steelers rush for 215 yards, their sixth 200-yard game this season.

The Steelers took a 7-0 lead on Detroit's third play from scrimmage when linebacker Joey Porter sacked Detroit quarterback Mike McMahon, forcing a fumble that was recovered by linebacker Jason Gildon and returned 27 yards for a touchdown.

After Detroit tied the score at 7-7, Pittsburgh proceeded to take control of the game. Stewart's four-yard touchdown pass to tight end Matt Cushing gave Pittsburgh a 14-7 lead late in the first quarter. The Steelers increased their lead to 20-7 on a two-yard touchdown run by Stewart's, despite a missed PAT by kicker Kris Brown. Stewart then connected with wide receiver Hines Ward for a five-yard touchdown, increasing the Steelers' lead to 27-7.

A one-yard touchdown pass from McMahon to tight end David Sloan made the score 27-14 at halftime.

The Steelers scored four more times in the final 30 minutes, including field goals of 37 and 31 yards by Brown and a 19-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to wide receiver Plaxico Burress.

Pittsburgh's backup quarterback Tommy Maddox capped the scoring in the fourth quarter with a one-yard touchdown run to make the final score, 47-14.

CINCINNATI 26 STEELERS 23
Dec. 30, 2001

CINCINNATI (Dec. 30, 2001) — The Steelers lost for the first time in their last eight games when they were defeated, 26-23, in overtime by the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium.

Despite the loss, Pittsburgh still managed to clinch home-field advantage throughout the AFC playoffs due to an Oakland Raiders loss to the Denver Broncos.

The Steelers jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter when quarterback Kordell Stewart connected with wide receiver Plaxico Burress for touchdown passes of 42 and 28 yards.

Pittsburgh attempted to extend their lead to 17-0 in the second quarter, but Josh Miller fumbled a high snap on a field goal attempt. Cincinnati's Robert Bean recovered the fumble and lateraled the ball to linebacker Brian Simmons who ran 56 yards for a touchdown to make the score 14-7.

The Steelers increased their lead to 17-7 on their ensuing drive, when kicker Kris Brown kicked a 38-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining in the first half.

But the Bengals closed the margin to 17-10 on a 34-yard field goal by kicker Neil Rackers as time expired in the second quarter.

Steelers running back Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala gave Pittsburgh a 23-10 lead in the third quarter when he caught a screen pass and raced 37 yards for a touchdown on the longest reception of his career.

Cincinnati quarterback Jon Kitna then threw a six-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Ron Dugans closed the score to 23-17 with 2:46 left in regulation.

A controversial call on an onside kick gave Cincinnati possession of the ball. Kitna then connected with receiver Danny Farmer for an 18-yard touchdown pass to tie the game, 23-23. But Rackers missed the extra point, and the game went into overtime.

Pittsburgh received the overtime kickoff, but was forced to punt. The punt was downed at the Cincinnati one-yard line, but the Bengals drove 86 yards in 11 plays to set up Rackers' 31-yard field goal, and a 26-23 Bengals overtime win.

PITTSBURGH (Jan. 6, 2002) — The Steelers defeated the Cleveland Browns, 28-7, at Heinz Field, and finished the regular season with a 13-3 record, their best record since they won a team-record 14 games in 1978.

One of the highlights of the game came early in the third quarter when wide receivers Hines Ward and Maximo Burress became the first receiving duo in Steelers history to both surpass 1,000 yards receiving in the same season.

Pittsburgh surpassed 200 yards rushing for the seventh time this season, led by the running of Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala who rushed for 98 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries (5.8 avg.) and rookie R.J. Bowers who rushed 11 times for 67 yards (6.1 avg.) and a score.

The Steelers trailed 7-0 early in second quarter when Fuamatu-Ma'afala ran 17 yards for a touchdown to tie the score at 7-7.

Pittsburgh took a 14-7 lead when Browns kick returner Ben Gay fumbled the second-half kickoff and Troy Edwards returned it 32 yards for a touchdown.

Back-up quarterback Tommy Maddox replaced Kordell Stewart in the third quarter and threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Bobby Shaw, giving the Steelers a 21-7 lead. The touchdown pass was the first for Maddox since Dec. 5, 1993, when he threw a touchdown to linebacker Dave Wyman on a fake field-goal attempt while playing with the Denver Broncos.

Bowers made the final score 28-7, when he ran 21 yards for a score with 7:31 left in the fourth quarter.

STEELERS 27 BALTIMORE 10

Jan. 20, 2002

PITTSBURGH (Jan. 20, 2002) — The Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship Game by dominating the Baltimore Ravens during a 27-10 victory at Heinz Field.

Starting running back Jerome Bettis missed the game due to an adverse reaction to pain medication that he received prior to the game.

However, the Steelers' defense dominated the game, limiting Baltimore to only 22 yards rushing and 150 yards total, while intercepting Ravens quarterback Elvis Grbac three times, including two interceptions in the end zone by free safety Brent Alexander.

Steelers' cornerback Chad Scott intercepted Grbac's first pass of the game to set up Kris Brown's 21-yard field goal that gave Pittsburgh a 3-0 first quarter lead.

Pittsburgh extended their lead to 10-0 later in the quarter when running back Amos Zereoue capped a 51-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

Zereoue's second touchdown, also from one yard out, increased the Steelers' lead to 17-0 midway through the second quarter. Brown's 46-yard field goal on Pittsburgh's next drive gave the Steelers a 20-0 advantage with 3:46 left in the first half.

A 26-yard field goal by Baltimore kicker Matt Stover made the score 20-3 at halftime. Jermaine Lewis' 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in the third quarter pulled the Ravens to within 20-10.

Pittsburgh made the final score 27-10 when quarterback Kordell Stewart completed a 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Plaxico Burress early in the fourth quarter.

AFC Championship Game
NEW ENGLAND 24 STEELERS 17
Jan. 27, 2002

PITTSBURGH (Jan. 27, 2002) — After trailing 21-3 in the third quarter, a Steelers comeback fell short as Pittsburgh was defeated by the Patriots, 24-17, ending their bid to play in Super Bowl XXXVI.

Despite the highly anticipated return of running back Jerome Bettis, the Steelers ground game never got rolling against a Patriots defense that held Pittsburgh's league leading rushing attack to a season-low 58 yards pushing.

New England jumped out to a 7-0 lead after a penalty nullified a 64-yard Josh Miller punt and Troy Brown returned the second kick 55-yards for a touchdown in the first quarter.

The Steelers responded with a ten-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Kris Brown booting a 30-yard field goal to cut the Patriots' lead to 7-3.

With two minutes left in the first half, New England quarterback Tom Brady was forced out of the game with an ankle injury after completing a 28-yard pass to Troy Brown on a key third-down play. Drew Bledsoe came in and moved the offense 40-yards in four plays, capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to David Patten allowing the Patriots to take a 14-3 halftime lead.

Things continued to look glum for Pittsburgh when Kris Brown's 34-yard field goal attempt was blocked by defensive lineman Brian Mitchell and recovered by Troy Brown who lateraled the ball to Antwan Harris for a 49-yard return for a touchdown to give New England a 21-3 advantage.

After that, the Steelers offense seemed to find their rhythm, scoring touchdowns on their next two possessions with touchdown runs of one and 11-yards by Jerome Bettis and Amos Zereoue, respectively, pulling Pittsburgh within 21-17 at the end of the third quarter.

New England kicker Adam Vinatieri's 44-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter put the Patriots up 24-17 with 11:12 left in regulation. But the Steelers were forced to punt on the ensuing drive and Kordell Stewart was intercepted in their final two possessions ending Pittsburgh's hopes of a comeback.

STEELERS HISTORY

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933 by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the 10-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988 following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief," as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's great people.

Born on January 27, 1901 in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he still lived on the North Side just a short distance from Three Rivers Stadium.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic Games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931 to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John and Pat. In 1964, Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for his contributions to the growth of the NFL and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

By the mid-1960s, Steelers founder Art Rooney had begun to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. After having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Daniel M. Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. In 2000, Dan Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined his father Art to form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. New York Giants owner Wellington Mara and his father Tim were the first.

Now in his 47th year with the organization, he is one of the most active NFL owners and one of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs. Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is a board member for The United Way of America, The American Ireland Fund, The American Diabetes Association, Presbyterian University Hospital, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation and Duquesne University.

Dan Rooney has been a member of several NFL committees over the past 30 years. He has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976 Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players' Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993. Rooney is currently a member of the eight-person Management Council Executive Committee, the Hall of Fame Committee, and the NFL Properties Executive Committee. In February 1999, he was named the recipient of the Philadelphia Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award for outstanding contributions to the game of football.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Rooney and his wife Patricia live on the North Side. The Rooneys have nine children.

1930s: After founding the Pirates in 1933, Art Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans, and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938 Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the league in rushing that year and is one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He served 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court before retiring in 1993.

1940s: In 1940 Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record and a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game, 21-0, to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

1950s: Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952 Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44, and 1954-56 campaigns.

1960s: Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne quarterbacked the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game vs. Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks third among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

On October 25, 1964, the Steelers made team history when they retired jersey No. 70 in honor of former defensive tackle Ernie Stautner. Stautner, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, remains the only Steelers player to have his jersey retired.

Brief stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of the 37-year-old Chuck Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1970s: A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin toss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added in the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted nine players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Two significant changes took place in 1970, when the Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69 the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders 13-7 with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973 the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory vs. the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975 the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claim their second consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 win versus the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

The 1976 Steelers struggled to a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories including five shutouts to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but lost to Oakland, 24-7, after both starting running backs, Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the first round of the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular-season record.

In 1978 the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins versus Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win versus Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year when the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19, in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins versus Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

1980s: As the 1980s opened the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982 the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The following year the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by 6-10 in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7 during the strike-shortened season.

In 1988 the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games as the offense failed to score in the first month of the season. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heart-breaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

1990s: A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991 Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of 34-year-old Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. In the first season of the new era, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed new-found success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's Coach of the Year and six Steelers played in the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

Under Cowher the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its 10th division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers home field advantage throughout the playoffs. However, in the first postseason game at Three Rivers in exactly 10 years the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC champion Buffalo, 24-3.

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss at Kansas City in the AFC wild-card game.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their second division title in three years with the AFC's best record of 12-4. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted their first AFC Championship game since 1979. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers, 17-13.

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance, and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys, 27-17, in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Arizona.

In 1996, injuries forced Cowher to use 40 different starters during the course of the season. But the Steelers' "never-say-die" attitude led to a 10-6 finish and their fifth consecutive trip to the playoffs. Cowher earned his 50th regular-season win Nov. 3, 1996 in his 73rd game to become the eighth fastest to reach 50 wins. He ended the season with 57 career victories ranking him as the second winningest coach in team history, behind his predecessor Noll.

The Steelers captured their fourth consecutive AFC Central title in 1997, while posting an 11-5 record. They were one play away from earning their sixth Super Bowl appearance and lost to Denver, 24-21, in the AFC Championship game.

In 1998, the Steelers finished a disappointing 7-9, losing their last five regular-season games and missing the playoffs for the first time under Bill Cowher. It marked the first time that Cowher had been associated with a team with a losing record during his 14-year coaching career.

The Steelers suffered their second consecutive losing season under Cowher in 1999, when their record fell to 6-10, including a six-game losing streak. The Steelers fourth-place finish in the AFC Central was the team's worst finish under Bill Cowher.

2000s: After starting the 2000 season with an 0-3 record, the Steelers rebounded to win five straight games, finished the year at 9-7, and barely missed their seventh postseason appearance under Cowher during the final week of the season. Much of the team's success was the result of what many considered to be the finest coaching job of Cowher's career, combined with a resurgent running game that ranked fourth in the NFL and a defense that finished the year fifth overall.

However, 2000 may be remembered most for being the final season for the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers were 4-4 during their final season at Three Rivers Stadium, including victories in four of their final six home games. The Steelers won their final game at Three Rivers, 24-3, against the Washington Redskins on Dec. 16.

The Steelers finished 31 seasons at Three Rivers Stadium (1970-2000) with an 182-73 home record, including the postseason. The Steelers recorded their largest regular-season home attendance figures (440,428) since 1998 in the final season, including a season-high 58,183 fans during the final game in stadium history.

The Steelers began a new era in team history in 2001 with the opening of their new stadium, Heinz Field. The Steelers posted an AFC-best 13-3 regular-season record, second-best in team history, including a 7-1 mark at home, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

The inaugural game at Heinz Field was originally scheduled to be a nationally televised Sunday Night game on Sept. 16. However, the September 11 terrorist attacks on America forced the NFL to postpone all games that weekend — which were eventually rescheduled for the end of the season. As a result, the Steelers opened Heinz Field Sunday, Oct. 7 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Steelers defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens 27-10, in the AFC Divisional Playoffs, in the first-ever postseason game played at Heinz Field. However, they suffered a disappointing, 24-17, loss at home in the AFC Championship game to the eventual Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots and fell short of their sixth appearance in the Super Bowl.

Many developments from the Steelers' inaugural season in Heinz Field gave the Steelers hope for a bright outlook for the future. Pittsburgh finished the season as NFL's leaders in rushing, total defense and run defense, while also ranking third in the league in total offense. In addition, six players appeared in the 2002 Pro Bowl, the team's most since six players were selected after the 1997 season.
