Steelers Training Camp History

The Steelers have held their annual training camp at several locations throughout club history before settling on their current camp home at Saint Vincent College. The 2008 season marks the 42nd consecutive year that the Steelers have held their preseason training camp in Latrobe, Pa. The Steelers' 42-year tenure at Saint Vincent College ranks second (tied with Minnesota) in the NFL for training camp longevity, trailing only the Green Bay Packers, who have held their preseason camp at St. Norbert College in DePere, Wisc., for 50 years.

The following is a complete list of places where the Pittsburgh Steelers have held their training camps, along with the years they were there:

Location	Years
Moore Field, Pittsburgh, Pa.	1933-37
St. Francis College	1938-40
Hershey, Pa.	1941-42, 1945-46
Philadelphia, Pa.	1943
Waukesha, Wisconsin	1944
Alliance College (Cambridge Springs, Pa.)	1947-51
St. Bonaventure College	1952-57
California State Teachers College	1958-60
Slippery Rock College	1961
West Liberty College (Wheeling, W.Va.)	1962-63
University of Rhode Island	1964-66
St. Vincent College	1967-Present

HEINZ KETCHUP

Bottles Facts: The bottles are exact replicas — down to the embossed "57" on the bottle's neck — of the Heinz Ketchup 14 ounce glass bottle. Each bottle includes 8,000 pounds of fiberglass, 375 feet of neon tubing and 20,500 light-emitting diodes (LEDs). Each Heinz Ketchup Bottle measures 35 feet by 9 feet and each weighs 8,000 pounds, both totaling 16,000 pounds, the equivalent of 53 — 300 pound NFL linemen. If the Heinz Ketchup bottles were filled with Heinz Ketchup, they would contain 1,664,000 fluid ounces each. That is enough to give each person seated at Heinz Field at least one 14-ounce bottle of ketchup to take home. If both bottles were emptied, the entire football field would be covered in 3/4 of an inch of ketchup. Approximately 4,500 footballs could fit into each scoreboard ketchup bottles.

MEDIA-ONLY SITE

The Steelers Media Relations department offers a "Media Only" section on the team's website, www.steelers.com. This service enables registered media to obtain necessary game releases, stats, rosters, injury reports, quotes and much more, including media policies and information about Heinz Field. To register for this service:

Go to www.steelers.com/mediarelations/ and register as a new user below the left hand navigation bar.

Follow the instructions on the Media Relations page, and once your registration is approved, you will receive an email and can access all information.

Please email steelers-digest@yahoo.com with any questions or problems.

The Steelers reserve the right to deny access at the team's discretion to the Media-Only portion of the club's website.

Press Information

All Steelers press releases and weekly media packets are distributed via email and are posted on the team's Media-Only site, www.steelers.com/mediarelations/. Most general press releases are also posted on www.steelers.com. Please see the above guidelines to register for the Steelers' Media-Only site.

Please contact Steelers media relations to be added to the team's email distribution list for all press releases and media advisories.

Media can access the latest league press information by visiting the NFL's media site at www.nflmedia.com. The NFL's official website address is www.nfl.com.

Credentials

Home Games: Credential requests for Steelers home games must be submitted in writing to Emily Scerba at scerbae@steelers.nfl.com or via fax at (412) 432-7878.

Due to recommended security procedures, user names must be provided for every credential that is requested.

Please specify which credential users need field access throughout the entire game and those who need pre-game field access only.

All parties should be aware that the names submitted for the credentials must be the names that show up to the stadium with valid government-issued photo identification. Once the credentialed members of the media arrive at Heinz Field, their credential number will be on a security list and matched with a name.

Credentials cannot be transferred or altered on game days or days leading up to the game to reflect a credential user other than the person the credential was issued to by the Steelers organization.

Media who are assigned to cover every Steelers home game may apply for season credentials. Season-long credentials will be distributed prior to the team's first pre-season game.

Media who receive credentials on a game-by-game basis must pick up their credentials at Media Will Call located at the southwest corner of Heinz Field (next to Gate A).

Government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials at Will Call.

Due to recommended security procedures, the Steelers do not mail out credentials.

Road Games: Pittsburgh media traveling to Steelers' road games must submit their credential & room requests to the attention of Emily Scerba no later than seven days prior to the road game.

Game Day

PARKING

Parking at and around Heinz Field is limited and not all credentialed media will receive a parking pass. Following are additional game day parking recommendations for media who do not receive parking passes:

Utilize parking areas Downtown, in Station Square or one of the Port Authority's Park and Ride Lots.

Downtown parking is available at eight (8) Pittsburgh Parking Authority Garages, the Mon Wharf and the Convention Center. Recommended private garages include the Brunner Advertising Building, the PPG Building, Fifth Avenue Place and US Steel Building.

From Downtown parking lots, media can access Heinz Field via sidewalks on the Roberto Clemente Bridge and the Ft. Duquesne Bridge.

Reserved, pre-sold parking lots around the stadium open five hours before kickoff.

Satellite Truck parking requests must be submitted by completing the satellite parking request form which can be obtained through the media relations portion of the Steelers website, www.steelers.com.

Television trucks will park in the satellite truck lot located on Allegheny Avenue, across from the Carnegie Science Center, adjacent to the stadium.

Questions regarding satellite truck parking should be directed to Emily Scerba at scerbae@steelers.nfl.com.

WILL CALL

Media Will Call is located at the southwest corner of Heinz Field next to Gate A.

All media picking up credentials on game day must do so at Media Will Call.

Media Will Call opens three hours prior to kickoff.

A valid form of government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials.

Media Will Call is not the same as the general ticket Will Call window, which is located between the Coca-Cola Great Hall and Gate B on the northeast side of Heinz Field.

PHONE LINES

Media interested in setting up a game day phone line at Heinz Field should log onto www.steelers.com/media-phones. Please contact Greg Hoyer with any questions at (412) 697-7147.

Pittsburgh Steelers Media Guidelines

INTERNET

The press box and photo rooms at Heinz Field are equipped with wireless internet access.

DIRECTIONS TO HEINZ FIELD LOCKER ROOMS (FROM PRESS BOX)

Steelers: Exit press box to the left to elevator bank. Take elevator to ground level. Proceed straight through Steelers Administrative Offices lobby to rear doors. Walk through doors approximately 30 feet and Steelers locker room is on your right. For the Steelers interview room, make a sharp right prior to the rear doors of the Steelers lobby.

Visitors: Exit press box to the left to elevator bank. Take elevator to ground level. Proceed straight through Steelers Administrative Offices lobby to rear doors. Proceed through the rear lobby doors and make a left. Follow corridor about 50 yards. The visiting locker room is on your right. The visiting interview room is inside the locker room entrance.

Training Camp

CREDENTIALS

Media seeking credentials to the Steelers training camp at Saint Vincent College (Latrobe, Pa.) must first contact the team's media relations department for approval. Guidelines will be provided at that time. The Steelers reserve the right to deny media credentials to the team's training camp. Requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

CHECK-IN

All media covering Steelers training camp must immediately check in at the team's media relations office located at St. Benedict Hall. All media must present a valid photo ID for a media credential.

Credentialed media will receive access to designated areas of the Steelers training camp facility, including the media workroom in Benedict Hall, practice fields and the cafeteria. Interviews are prohibited in the team's cafeteria.

Media members are prohibited from entering the players/coaches' dormitory at any time.

PARKING

Upon check-in media will be provided with a parking pass and will be directed to park in the upper parking lot behind the team's dormitories. Parking passes are required for all media attending Steelers training camp.

INTERVIEWS

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers media relations department.

Players are generally available on the field after each practice as well as outside the team's cafeteria.

Coach Tomlin is generally available on the field on a daily basis after the team's final practice of the day. On the days when Coach Tomlin holds his weekly press conference, he will not be available to media after practice.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators and assistant coaches are generally available after each practice with the approval of the Steelers media relations department.

All interview requests for Steelers owners, director of football operations or other football/non-football staff must first be approved by Steelers media relations.

Live shots are allowed in designated areas at Steelers training camp. Steelers media relations must be notified in advance of any TV live shots.

TV/radio sit-down interviews must be approved in advance by Steelers media relations.

Locker room access is prohibited during training camp.

Interviews of any kind are prohibited in the team's cafeteria.

PRACTICE FIELD ACCESS

Credentialed print and electronic media are allowed to watch Steelers practices in their entirety. All media must be at field level. Media are prohibited from watching practice from the hillside without prior approval from the team's media relations department.

All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

All photographers are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime the players are in a team formation.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice. Any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

In the event of inclement weather, the team may be forced to practice indoors. Media may be allowed to attend indoor practices (at the team's discretion), but access will be limited.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

In-Season/Off-Season

STEELERS PRACTICE FACILITY

All Steelers daily football operations take place at the team's headquarters (practice facility) at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex and not at Heinz Field. Coaches and players are at Heinz Field only on game days.

All media visiting Steelers headquarters must sign in at the front desk upon arrival.

All media must remain in the team's media workroom while at the team's headquarters.

Media are not permitted to wait in the team's lobby area.

Media setting up for sit-down interviews must be chaperoned to designated areas by Steelers media relations.

Coaching offices and team meeting rooms are off limits to media.

Interviews and any videotaping in the Steelers parking lot are prohibited. The team requires all interviews at the team's headquarters only be conducted in the team's locker room and other areas specifically designated by the team's media relations department.

Pittsburgh Steelers Media Guidelines

STEELERS SOUTH SIDE CAMERA CREDENTIAL POLICY

The Pittsburgh Steelers require all visiting media who intend to use any type of electronic recording device, to comply with the following policies when covering the team at club practices or events. The policies govern the online use of audio and video interviews and press conference content on non-game days and weekdays. These rules are designed to enable news organization websites to "illustrate" their coverage of the NFL with daily audio/video soundbites that supplement and complement the work of their reporters and columnists:

- All camera operators are required to wear credentials when on-site covering the Steelers at team headquarters.
- Camera operators may shoot video and still photos only in designated areas inside of the Steelers headquarters. These areas include and are limited to the practice field, locker room, media workroom and areas designated by the club's media relations department only. Still photographers do not have access to the locker room.
- Up to 90 seconds per day of audio and/or video of interviews or press conferences with NFL employees (including, but not limited to, players and coaches) or of team practice footage may be used on the Internet by credentialed news organizations. The content may not be used live and may be archived for 24 hours. This applies to both weekdays and game days.

Video/audio material comprised entirely of a credentialed media organization employee providing commentary or analysis, including stand-up video/audio material shot on the field or at other stadium or club facility locations (subject to generally applicable safety and venue management restrictions or shooting locations and times), may be distributed via media organizations' Internet sites.

- The usage conditions are as follows:
- The page featuring the audio/video must provide links to NFL.com and the corresponding club site. For example: For more info, go to www.nfl.com and www.steelers.com.
- The content may be used only in an editorial context (such as in links that illustrate stories or in multimedia news sections) and may not be presented in stand-alone multimedia entertainment sections of third-party websites.
- No integrated advertising is permitted. Footage may appear on pages with banners and contextual ads, but the ads may not be specifically related to the NFL audio/video content.

PRACTICE FIELD ACCESS

Local Pittsburgh media only are allowed to watch Steelers practices. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

Out of town media are prohibited from watching any portion of the team's practices.

All photographers are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime the players are in a team formation.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice. Any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

INTERVIEWS

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers media relations department. The Steelers ask that media respect the privacy of players/coaches/staff and refrain from approaching any members of the organization or their families at their places of residence. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subjected to review.

Players are generally available in the locker room only at lunchtime and after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Players are available in the locker room after practice only on Fridays. Player interviews are not to be conducted on the practice field or in other areas outside of the locker room without prior approval from the Steelers media relations department. Still photographers are not allowed in the Steelers locker room.

Coach Tomlin will hold a weekly press conference every Tuesday at noon in the Steelers media workroom. He will also be available after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays (upon request) in the media workroom.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators will generally be available on Thursdays. Assistant coaches are available only with the approval of the Steelers media relations department. The best time to interview assistant coaches is as they leave the field after practice.

All interview requests for Steelers owners, director of football operations or other football/non-football staff must first be approved by Steelers media relations.

Live shots are allowed in designated areas at Steelers headquarters. Steelers media relations must be notified in advance of any TV live shots.

Satellite trucks are required to park on the side of the Steelers practice facility (near the train tracks). Media must seek prior approval for any exceptions.

TV/radio sit-down interviews must be approved in advance by Steelers media relations.

Interviews of any kind are prohibited in the team's cafeteria.

PARKING

All media are required to park on the opposite side of the Steelers' indoor practice facility from the team's offices. Media with physical disabilities should make prior arrangements with Steelers media relations for access to handicapped parking.

Steelers Community Relations Programs

Mission Statement

The Pittsburgh Steelers are proud to be a part of the western Pennsylvania community. The organization's strong commitment to this area dates back to 1933 when Arthur J. Rooney first founded the team. Steelers chairman Dan Rooney and president Art Rooney II are known as two of the most active NFL owners and are some of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs. Steelers players, coaches and front office staff are involved in appearances, charitable donations and outreach programs with nonprofit and community groups. It's our way of giving back to the community that has given us so much for more than 75 years!

Community Outreach Programes

ALL-PRO DAD

Steelers' Head Coach Mike Tomlin is a member of the All-Pro Dad Team, a program of Family First. The All-Pro Dad Team is a resource for men who want to become better fathers. Team members include active NFL players, coaches and alumni who speak to fathers about positive parenting through radio and TV spots and billboards. To learn more about All-Pro Dads, visit www.allprodad.com.

ART ROONEY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Art Rooney Scholarship Fund annually provides college scholarships for three graduating seniors at the high schools located on Pittsburgh's North Side, where Art Rooney himself spent most of his life. The annual Gatorade/Steelers 5K Race, Fitness Walk and Kids' Kickoff Run is held on Labor Day Weekend at Heinz Field and is the major fundraiser for the scholarship fund. The competitive event is sanctioned by USA Track and Field with a 3.1-mile level course on the North Side highlighted by a spectacular finish on the warning track in Heinz Field.

BOYS & GIRLS CLUB

The Steelers annually sponsor the Boys and Girls Club of Western Pennsylvania Dapper Dan Flag Football League and host the league championships at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex indoor practice facility. The team also participates in the annual Gridiron Taste and Talent fundraiser.

CANCER CARING CENTER

A portion of the proceeds from the annual Steelers Style Fashion Show goes to the Cancer Caring Center. The Cancer Caring Center is dedicated to helping people diagnosed with cancer, their families and friends cope with the emotional impact of cancer. Services include general and specialized support groups at 18 sites, professional counseling, a telephone helpline, children's programs, "Live Well With Cancer" workshops and newsletters, resource library and more. The Center is a local charity with no national office; all funds raised in Pittsburgh stay in Pittsburgh to help area residents.

CARING PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN

The Steelers were a founding partner of the Caring Program for Children, which provides health care for children who do not have health insurance and also funds the Caring Place, a center for grieving children. The annual Hoge/Starks/Ward golf outing is held at Southpointe Golf Club and is chaired by wide receiver Hines Ward and offensive lineman Max Starks, along with former Steelers running back Merrill Hoge. The players also attend a luncheon honoring students who have raised money for their peers.

CENTRAL BLOOD BANK BLOOD DRIVE

The Steelers hold an annual blood drive in the Steelers locker room at Heinz Field around the holidays. Players' wives participate by serving in the canteen. Please check the website this fall for information on the next blood drive.

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Steelers players and team mascot Steely McBeam make frequent visits to Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh to bring a smile to kids who are battling health issues. Players also participate in various events at the hospital. The team annually holds a collection.

Steelers Community Relations Programs

CYSTIC FIBROSIS

Defensive lineman Brett Keisel serves as honorary chair of the 65 Roses Sports Auction to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

The foundation raises funds for research to discover a cure for Cystic Fibrosis.

EXTRA MILE EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Every time the Steelers score from the Red Zone at Heinz Field, H.J. Heinz Company and Giant Eagle make a donation to the Extra Mile Education Foundation. The foundation provides support for parochial elementary schools educating children of inner-city families. Extra Mile Education Foundation subsidies make tuition in the schools affordable for disadvantaged families seeking a quality, values-based education.

GREATER PITTSBURGH COMMUNITY FOOD BANK

The team annually holds a food drive at a home game to encourage fans to help the needy during the holidays. Offensive tackle Max Starks hosts an annual food drive and turkey giveaway the week of Thanksgiving. Several teammates help Max distribute food to nearly 200 needy families in the Pittsburgh area.

HOLY FAMILY INSTITUTE-PITTSBURGH STEELERS COURAGE HOUSE

Greta Rooney chairs the annual Courage House Awards luncheon. Each year a Steelers player is chosen as the Ed Block Courage Award winner for overcoming illness or injury. QB Ben Roethlisberger was presented with the 2007 award by Head Coach Mike Tomlin.

HOMELESS CHILDREN'S EDUCATION FUND

DE Brett Keisel and his wife Sarah chair the annual fundraiser for the Homeless Children's Education Fund which serves as a voice for homeless children in Allegheny County to ensure they are afforded equal access to educational opportunities.

LUPUS FOUNDATION

Willie Colon is the honorary chair of the annual Lupus Loop which takes place on the north shore next to Heinz Field. Willie chose to get involved with the Lupus Foundation because his mother suffers from the disease.

MAKE-A-WISH

The Steelers organization works closely with The Make-A-Wish Foundation to grant wishes. The wishes include meeting favorite players, a behind the scenes look at the Steelers practice facility and tickets to a home game.

MC DONALD'S STEELERS KIDZONE SHOW

In 2002, the Steelers created the first-ever team television program geared specifically for children, the McDonald's Steelers KidZONE show. It's a half-hour program, hosted by six Pittsburgh-area kids, that airs every Sunday locally on Pittsburgh's CW at 10:30 a.m. It is filmed in front of a live audience at Heinz Field with a different Steelers player as the guest each week.

MENTORING PARTNERSHIP OF SOUTHWESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

Mentoring Partnership of Southwestern Pa. benefits from kicker Jeff Reed's leg each season. For every field goal, Morgan Stanley donates $300 to the organization, which supports quality mentoring relationships for youth in need in Allegheny County. It is an affiliate of The National Mentoring Partnership.

READ ACROSS AMERICA

The Steelers participate in several Dr. Seuss Day reading programs in the Pittsburgh area.

REBUILDING TOGETHER PITTSBURGH

The Steelers, along with 84 Lumber, serve as sponsors of Rebuilding Together Pittsburgh. This annual program renovates the homes of low-income elderly in the Pittsburgh area with a goal of safety for the homeowner. Steelers staff and alumni participate in the program each year along with 84 Lumber employees.

SALVATION ARMY - PROJECT BUNDLE-UP

Players and their families annually take disadvantaged children shopping for winter outerwear as part of the Salvation Army's Project Bundle-Up program. Patricia Rooney, wife of Steelers chairman Dan Rooney, and Joe DiNardo, retired WTAE-TV weatherman, are founders of the program. TE Heath Miller hosts the annual miniature golf classic event.

Steelers Community Relations Programs

SHOP WITH A STEELER

The Steelers partner with American Eagle Outfitters (AEO) for the annual Shop with a Steeler event. Forty underprivileged kids from United Way of Allegheny County agencies receive an AEO gift card and have the chance to shop with Steelers players for holiday gifts for themselves and their families.

STEELERS STYLE FASHION SHOW/ TASTE OF THE STEELERS

The team annually holds two fundraisers as part of Steelers Style: Fashion, Food and Football. The Steelers' annual fashion show features current players and their families modeling clothing from local retailers. The Show is chaired by Greta & Art Rooney and Mike & Kiya Tomlin, with two current Steelers players serving as co-captains. Proceeds benefit the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center Thomas E. Starzl Transplantation Institute and the Cancer Caring Center. Taste of the Steelers features a sampling of culinary delights, along with an exciting auction of unique, one-of-a-kind items.

STEELY MCBEAM

In 2007 the Steelers introduced a new mascot, Steely McBeam. He made 132 appearances in 2007 at training camp, home games, Children's Hospital and numerous charitable events.

SUSAN G. KOMEN PITTSBURGH FOUNDATION-RACE FOR THE CURE

The Steelers partner with One Communications as silver sponsors of the Komen Pittsburgh Race for the Cure. Staff members and their families participate in the race, which benefits Breast Cancer research. As part of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Steelers players, coaches and staff participate in "Denim Day" each October and members of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority distribute pink breast cancer awareness ribbon stickers at Steelers Experience before a home game each year. Special Steelers Race for the Cure t-shirts are sold through Steelers retail outlets, including the Internet, each October with the net proceeds going to the Susan G. Komen Foundation Pittsburgh.

TAKE A PLAYER TO SCHOOL

Wide receiver Hines Ward accompanied third-grader Drew Reha to Apollo-Ridge Elementary School for the NFL Take a Player to School program, sponsored by J.C. Penney Afterschool program. Drew was the lucky winner in the Pittsburgh market and was picked up at home by Ward in a limousine and driven to school. While at the school, Ward visited with Drew's class and spoke about the importance of education and health.

TOYS FOR TOTS-MARINE CORPS

Steelers fans generously brighten the lives of needy children during the holidays by donating to the annual Marine Corps Toys for Tots drive.

UNITED WAY

QB Charlie Batch serves as the team's United Way spokesman and makes several appearances at corporate United Way campaigns each year. The annual Hometown Huddle is a program throughout the NFL partnering players with local United Way agencies to encourage volunteerism and giving back to the community. The Steelers annually host the United Way's campaign kickoff at halftime of a preseason game, featuring three corporate participants in a field goal competition. The winner presents the United Way with its first campaign donation of the year.

Steelers Community Relations Programs

URBAN IMPACT FOUNDATION

The Urban Impact Foundation is a faith-based, non-profit corporation which fosters Christian community development on Pittsburgh's North Side. One of the outreaches is through athletic programs and events. Several Steelers players participate in a football clinic held by UIF on Pittsburgh's North Side each summer.

VETERANS/MILITARY

Steelers players visit the local VA Hospitals to spend time with the patients who have served our country. At several home games each year, veterans and active military personnel are honored for their service to America.

WHAT MOVES U?

The Steelers teamed up in 2007 with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the American Heart Association to promote What Moves U, a program designed to fight the childhood obesity epidemic by encouraging physical activity. Steelers defensive end Brett Keisel visited several schools and participated in assemblies that used the What Moves U curriculum.

Youth Football

GATORADE JUNIOR TRAINING CAMP

The Steelers hold three sessions of Gatorade Junior Training Camp each summer. More than 500 kids participate in fun, non-contact football drills and learn about the importance and benefits of staying hydrated during sporting events at the team's practice facility on the South Side each June. Another group of 250 enjoys the experience at Latrobe High School Stadium as part of Gatorade Days at NFL training camps.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

High School Football Championships – Heinz Field annually hosts the City League championships and the WPIAL Championship games.

Champions – the Steelers annually host the City League and WPIAL champion teams in the south endzone seats at late season games where they are introduced to the crowd at the beginning of halftime.

HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE WEEK

Each week during the local high school football season, the Steelers select a high school Coach of the Week. The coaches are honored with a ceremony during the two-minute warning at Steelers home games. At the end of the high school football season, the High School Coach of the Year is announced.

JUNIOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT (JPD)

The NFL and the Steelers annually host a Junior Player Development program for boys and girls ages 12-14. This program was developed by the NFL as an introductory/developmental youth tackle football program, designed to teach every participant every position, through a step-by-step progression of skill instruction packaged in a re-adaptive, fun and entertaining manner. All participants receive instruction from local high school coaches and counseling through a life skills/character development curriculum.

LISC/NFL GRASS ROOTS INITIATIVE

The NFL Grassroots program is part of the NFL Youth Football Fund, a $150 million fund established by the NFL and the NFL Players Association to support youth football initiatives and donated more than $1.6 million annually to build or renovate youth football fields across the country. The program is a joint venture among the NFL, NFLPA and the Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC), the country's leading community development support organization. The NFL, NFLPA and LISC identify local non-profit, neighborhood-based agencies in each city, which are provided with financing and technical assistance to improve the quality and safety of football fields in their local schools, parks and neighborhoods. The local agencies will then oversee the construction, maintenance, and programming of the fields.

Steelers Community Relations Programs

NFL-NFF PLAY IT SMART PROGRAM

The NFL-NFF Play it Smart Program was designed to assist kids from inner city environments by placing an academic coach in high schools, locally in Valley High School. The academic coach works to mentor football players, plus boys and girls participating in other team sports; help students achieve individual, team, academic, and career goals; coordinate programs with school personnel, coaches, and community volunteers; tailor programs to match community needs and resources and organize player participation in community projects. The students are also taught life skills which will help them in all areas of their future as well as encouraged to volunteer for various community service projects. PPG Industries Foundation serves as a local sponsor with the Steelers.

NFL PUNT PASS & KICK

The Steelers annually host Punt, Pass & Kick team championships. Forty boys and girls from the tri-state area compete at Heinz Field. For information on local Punt, Pass & Kick competitions, visit www.nflyouth-football.com.

STEELERS/USA FOOTBALL COACHING SCHOOL

The Steelers hold an annual USA Football Coaching School geared toward youth football coaches. In the classroom they learn coaching philosophy, offensive, defensive and special teams skills, along with health and safety tips and communications with both players and parents. The afternoon features on-field instruction by high school Coach of the Week winners.

USA FOOTBALL PLAY FOOTBALL CELEBRATION

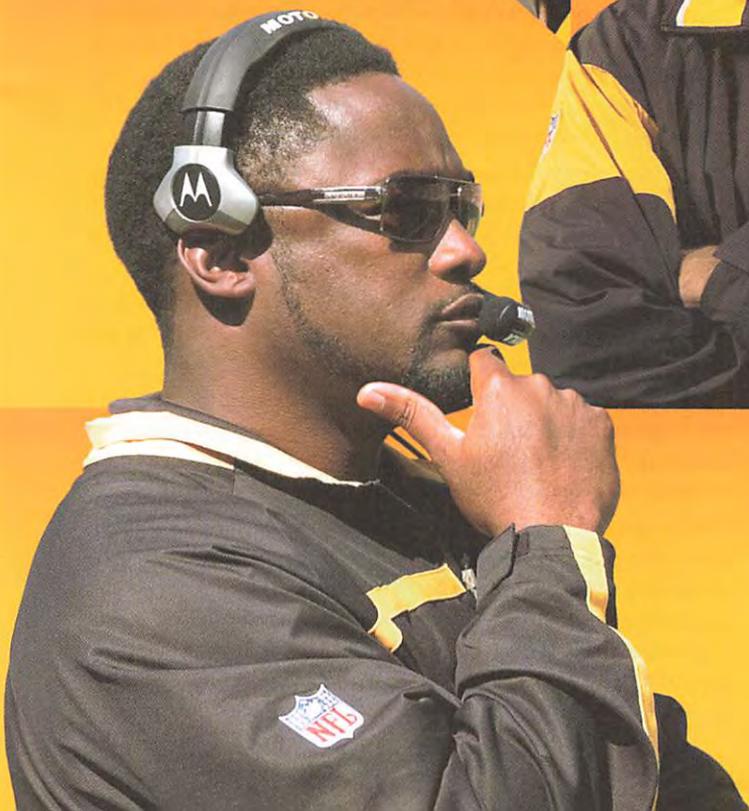

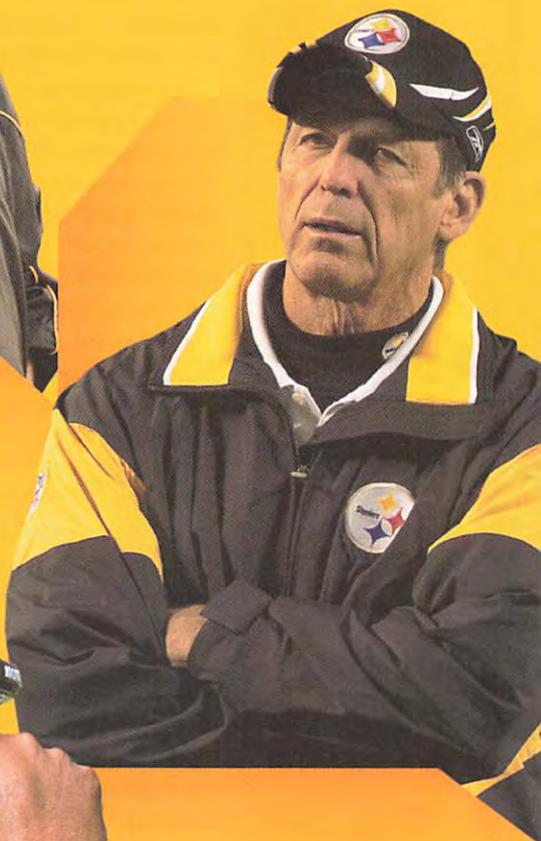

The Steelers annually kick off the start of the youth football season by hosting the Play Football Celebration in conjunction with the NFL and USA Football. Youth football players from 50 local organizations are invited to be part of pregame festivities at a preseason game.

YOUTH FOOTBALL HALFTIME

The Steelers hold an annual Youth Football exhibition at halftime of a regular season home game, featuring two local youth football teams' 8-10 year olds at one end of the field and 12-14 year olds at the other. Fan reception has been tremendous for these halftime presentations.

Head Coach

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on Jan. 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Tomlin finished his first year as Steelers' head coach with a 10-6 record in the regular season, and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator after spending the previous five seasons (2001-05) as defensive backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by RB Willie Parker who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1), while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance. In 2007, the Steelers held the advantage in time of possession in 14-of-16 regular-season games.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin became only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

In 2006 as Minnesota's defensive coordinator, Tomlin led the Vikings to a No. 8 ranking in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season. They held the Detroit Lions to minus-three yards rushing while playing on the road (Dec. 10).

Before becoming Minnesota's defensive coordinator, Tomlin was defensive backs coach for five seasons for one of the NFL's top defenses in Tampa Bay. Tomlin's defensive backs earned numerous honors for their play during his coaching tenure. In 2005 Tampa Bay led the NFL in total defense, allowing 277.8 yards per game, and finished 6th in the league against the pass (183.1 avg.).

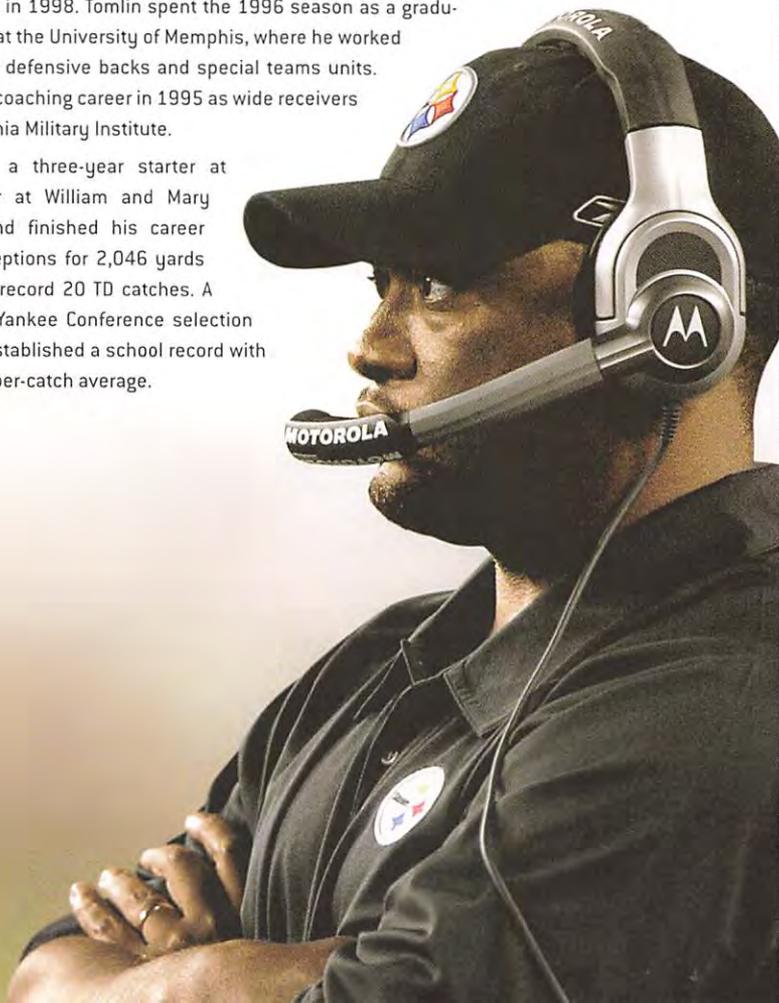

MIKE TOMLIN

In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season in '99. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State where he coached wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William and Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 TD catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

John Mitchell is in his 15th season as the Steelers defensive line coach, ranking him as the longest-tenured member of the Steelers coaching staff. He remained with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007, and was promoted to assistant head coach.

Mitchell, who joined the Steelers' coaching staff Jan. 31, 1994, is in his 36th season of coaching, including 16 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League. This is his 18th season as an NFL coach.

Mitchell has been instrumental in the development of the Steelers defensive linemen, including three-time Pro Bowl nose tackle Casey Hampton and defensive end Aaron Smith, who earned his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2005. He also helped develop starting defensive end Brett Keisel and nose tackle Chris Hoke, who filled in sensationally for an injured Hampton during the 2004 season.

Under his guidance, Pittsburgh's defensive front helped the Steelers lead the NFL in run defense four times and finish in the top three on nine separate occasions. In 2006, the team did not allow a single 100-yard rusher all season and allowed just 88.3 rushing yards per game.

A former All-America defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell was the first African-American to play for the Crimson Tide. Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's greatest coaches. He began his coaching career in 1973 as defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama (1973-76). He then spent six seasons as defensive line coach at Arkansas (1977-82) on Lou Holtz's staff.

In 1983, Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-85 he served as defensive line coach for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions and returned to the college ranks in 1986 as defensive ends coach at Temple.

Mitchell began a four-year stint in 1987 as linebackers coach at Louisiana State (1987-90) under former Steelers' linebacker coach Mike Archer, who was the head coach. In 1990, Mitchell became the first African-American defensive coordinator in Southeastern Conference (SEC) history when he was named LSU's defensive coordinator. He also coached the Tigers' linebackers.

Mitchell, 56, joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Cleveland Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles, Michael Dean Perry and Rob Burnett. Mitchell accepted his current appointment following three seasons coaching the defensive line for the Browns.

A two-time Junior College All-American defensive end at Eastern Arizona Junior College in 1969-70, Mitchell then transferred to Alabama. A starter at defensive end from 1971-72, Mitchell earned All-America honors in 1972. He earned a bachelor's degree in social work in 1972.

Born Oct. 14, 1951, in Mobile, Ala., Mitchell and his wife Joyce live in Pittsburgh.

Offensive Coordinator

Bruce Arians is in his second season as offensive coordinator under head coach Mike Tomlin, following three seasons as the Steelers wide receivers coach. It marks the fourth time he is serving as an offensive coordinator in his coaching career, including one previous time in the NFL and twice at the collegiate ranks.

Arians, named to the Steelers' coaching staff on Jan. 24, 2004, has over 31 years of coaching experience, including 15 years in the NFL.

Arians, 55, helped All-Pro wide receiver Hines Ward become one of the best wideouts in the NFL over the past four seasons. During Arians' first four seasons with Pittsburgh, Ward has been to the Pro Bowl twice and was named Super Bowl XL MVP after finishing with 123 receiving yards and one touchdown. Ward also became the Steelers' all-time receptions leader, surpassing Hall-of-Famer John Stallworth, and in 2007 became the team's career leader in receiving yards and touchdown receptions.

Arians also guided the Steelers to one of its most productive offensive years in the team's history. In his first year as offensive coordinator in 2007, Arians helped quarterback Ben Roethlisberger get elected to his first Pro Bowl, as he broke Terry Bradshaw's long-standing record for most TD passes in a season with 32. Roethlisberger also finished with a career-best and team-record QB rating of 104.1.

Prior to the Steelers, Arians spent three seasons [2001-2003] as the offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns. In 2002 under Arians' guidance, the Browns scored their most points since the 1987 season and also improved in virtually every major offensive category from the three years prior to his arrival.

Arians was instrumental in the development of Indianapolis Colts quarterback Peyton Manning, while serving as the Colts' quarterback coach for three years [1998-2000]. Under Arians' tutelage, Manning totaled 4,413 yards and 33 touchdowns in 2000 to break his own club season record. His 33 touchdown passes in 2000 established a Colts' franchise record previously held by John Unitas.

He began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech. A 1974 Hokie graduate, Arians played quarterback and was voted the team's most valuable player as a senior.

Arians then held an assistant coaching position at Mississippi State [running backs and wide receivers] from 1978-80 before heading to Alabama to coach the running backs from 1981-82 under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant.

He was also the head coach at Temple University from 1983-88. Arians also held positions with the Kansas City Chiefs [running backs, 1989-92], Mississippi State [offensive coordinator, 1993-95], New Orleans Saints [tight ends, 1996] and Alabama [offensive coordinator, 1997].

Arians was born Oct. 3, 1952, in Paterson, N.J. He and his wife Christine have a son, Jake [29], and daughter, Kristi Anne [27].

* Named head coach after three games in 2000 season.

Dick LeBeau is in the fifth year of his second tour of duty with the Steelers, for whom he experienced much success during the mid-1990s as both the team's defensive backs coach and defensive coordinator.

Considered the architect of the Steelers' famed "zone blitz," LeBeau was named the Steelers' defensive coordinator Jan. 16, 2004, after spending the 2003 season with the Buffalo Bills. He is one of six assistant coaches who remained on Pittsburgh's staff following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007.

His impact on the coaching staff was profound as the Steelers returned to the top of the NFL in total defense and rushing defense. In 2005, LeBeau's defensive game plans played an integral part in stopping four of the NFL's top five offenses in the AFC playoffs, including limiting Seattle to just 10 points in Super Bowl XL.

He continued his success in 2007 as he helped the defense finish the season first in overall defense, third in pass defense and third against the run.

LeBeau, 70, has been involved in the NFL for 49 years, 14 as a player and the past 35 as a coach. Prior to his return to Pittsburgh, LeBeau served one year as the assistant head coach with the Buffalo Bills and the previous two-plus years as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals.

After six seasons in Pittsburgh from 1992-96, when he coached the secondary (1992-94) and then was defensive coordinator (1995-96), LeBeau returned to Cincinnati as the Bengals' assistant head coach/defensive coordinator (1997-2000). He was later promoted to head coach Sept. 25, 2000, (after three games) and served in that capacity for two more seasons.

LeBeau began his coaching career as a special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1973-75. He also was an assistant coach at Green Bay (1976-79) and Cincinnati (1980-83), before serving his first term as the Bengals' defensive coordinator from 1984-91.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, LeBeau produced an outstanding pro career from which he still holds the NFL all-time record of 171 consecutive games for a cornerback and currently is tied for seventh all-time in the NFL with 62 career interceptions. His nine interceptions in 1970 led the NFC and his 62 career interceptions ranked third in the NFL at the time of his retirement. LeBeau also appeared in three Pro Bowls.

LeBeau was born Sept. 9, 1937, in London, Ohio. He and his wife Nancy have one son, Brandon Grant.

Bob Ligashesky is in his second season with the Steelers after he was hired on Jan. 29, 2007, as the team's special teams coordinator.

Ligashesky, 45, is a native of Pittsburgh and has 24 years of coaching experience, including five in the NFL and 19 in the collegiate ranks.

Ligashesky (lig-a-SHES-kee) spent two seasons as the special teams coach for the St. Louis Rams (2005-2006), prior to joining Pittsburgh. The Rams' special teams unit in 2005 scored its first touchdown on a kickoff return since 2000 as Chris Johnson returned the opening kickoff 99 yards for the score in Week 5 against Seattle. Last season also marked the third time since the Rams moved to St. Louis in 1995 that the club had at least two blocked kicks in a season. Ligashesky's unit also forced and recovered fumbles on special teams for the first time since 2000.

Prior to joining the Rams in 2005, Ligashesky served as the assistant special teams coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2004, his first season in the NFL.

Ligashesky served as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh from 2000-03, after spending the previous nine seasons (1991-99) at Bowling Green, coaching linebackers and special teams before being named assistant head coach during his final season. During his tenure at Bowling Green, the Falcons captured two Mid-American Conference championships (1991, 1992) and earned a pair of bowl berths.

Ligashesky coached outside linebackers and worked with special teams units at Kent State for two years (1989-90), and was a graduate assistant at Arizona State from 1986-88, working with outside linebackers and defensive line. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Wake Forest in 1985.

A three-year letterwinner at defensive back for Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), Ligashesky graduated in 1985 with a degree in exercise science. He played high school linebacker for Sto-Rox High.

Born June 2, 1962, Ligashesky is married (Shelley).

Quarterbacks

Ken Anderson is in his second season as the quarterbacks coach for the Steelers after being hired on Jan. 29, 2007.

One of the top quarterbacks in NFL history, Anderson is in his 32nd NFL season, including his 16th as a coach. In his first season with the Steelers, Anderson helped quarterback Ben Roethlisberger have one of his most productive seasons, finishing with team records of 32 TD passes and a QB rating of 104.1. With his 2007 production, Roethlisberger was elected to the first Pro Bowl of his career.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh Steelers, he was with the Jacksonville Jaguars for four years (2003-06). Anderson served as both the quarterbacks coach (2003, '05-'06) and wide receivers coach (2004) during his stay with the Jaguars, including the past two as quarterbacks coach.

Anderson, 58, played for the Cincinnati Bengals for 16 seasons and was an assistant coach there for 10 years. He joined the team's staff in 1993 and was the quarterbacks coach for three seasons, offensive coordinator from 1996 to 2000, and then quarterbacks coach in 2001-02.

Nearly two decades since retiring as a player, Anderson still continues to dominate the Bengals' record book with his career passing marks. He holds the club's all-time marks in completions (2,654), passing yards (32,838) and touchdown passes (197). He also rushed for 2,220 yards and 20 touchdowns. Twice he has been among the 15 finalists for election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Anderson still holds the NFL record for highest completion percentage in a season: 70.55 in 1982. He won four NFL passing titles, which is tied for third-most in NFL history behind Sammy Baugh and Steve Young, and was named four times to the Pro Bowl. Anderson led the league three times in lowest interception percentage, which is tied for second most all-time behind Baugh. Anderson played in 192 games and led the Bengals to an appearance in Super Bowl XVI against the San Francisco 49ers.

When Anderson joined the pro coaching ranks as Bengals quarterbacks coach in 1993, he helped quarterback Jeff Blake chip away at a few of his own Cincinnati marks. In 1995, Blake supplanted Anderson in the categories of most completions in a season (326) and most consecutive games with a TD pass (21). He guided Jon Kitna to a single-season record for pass attempts (581 in 2001) and more than 3,000 yards passing in back-to-back seasons.

Until joining the Jaguars, Anderson had played and coached for only the Bengals since completing a record-setting college career at Augustana (Ill.) in 1970. He was a third-round pick from the small school, the 67th selection in the draft. His 16 years of service as a player (1971-86) are the most in Bengals history.

Prior to joining the Bengals as a coach, Anderson worked six years in Cincinnati as a sportscaster. Born Feb. 15, 1949, in Batavia, Ill., he and his wife Cristy live in Pittsburgh. Anderson has three children, son Matt (33) and daughters Megan (29) and Molly (24).

Keith Butler is in his sixth year on the Steelers' coaching staff after joining the staff prior to the 2003 season. He remained on staff following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007.

Butler and Tomlin previously worked together at Memphis in 1996, where Butler was the linebackers/defensive ends/special teams coach and Tomlin served as the Tigers defensive backs coach.

Butler was named the Steelers' linebackers coach Jan. 28, 2003, after serving the previous four seasons in a similar capacity with the Cleveland Browns (1999-02).

Butler has been instrumental in the development of the Steelers' highly regarded linebacking corps. The unit includes two Pro Bowl players, James Farrior and James Harrison. Under Butler's tutelage, Farrior has led the Steelers' defense in tackles for the past two seasons. Butler has also helped groom one of the team's defensive surprises of 2007 in Harrison, who was elected as a Pro Bowl starter after the 2007 season. Harrison, who was originally a rookie free agent with the Steelers in 2002, was voted the Steelers 2007 MVP by his teammates.

In 2006, Butler's linebacking crew helped the Steelers rank second in the AFC and third in the NFL in rushing defense. The unit allowed just 88.3 rushing yards per game and helped the defense to not allow a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

In 2005, Butler's linebackers helped the Steelers lead the AFC and rank fourth in the NFL in total defense. The sack tandem of Joey Porter (10.5) and Clark Haggans (9.0) ranked as the best for a linebacker duo in the entire NFL.

Prior to joining the Browns' staff, Butler spent nine years coaching in the college ranks, beginning his coaching career at his alma mater, Memphis, where he coached linebackers from 1990-97 and also coached defensive ends and special teams (1995-97). He then served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas State in 1998.

Butler, 51, was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round of the 1978 NFL Draft and played linebacker for 10 seasons (1978-87) with Seattle. He started 132-of-146 games in his career and still ranks second on the club's all-time tackles list with 813.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker for Memphis, Butler led the school in tackles his junior and senior seasons. He finished his collegiate career with 384 tackles and seven interceptions. He was named a 1977 Associated Press All-American and played in the 1977 Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Game.

Butler was born May 16, 1956, in Anniston, Ala. He and his wife Janet have three sons—Blake (25), Brandon (23) and Brett (21).

James Daniel is in his fifth season with Pittsburgh after remaining with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007.

Named the Steelers tight ends coach Jan. 24, 2004, Daniel, 55, spent the previous seven seasons [1997-2003] with the Atlanta Falcons, mostly as the Falcons' tight ends coach except for one year (2000) when he coached the offensive line.

In 2007, Daniel groomed a young group of tight ends that finished the season with 11 TDs, which is the most combined TDs of any Steelers tight end corps.

During his tenure at Atlanta, Daniel was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowl tight end Alge Crumpler, who set a team receptions mark for tight ends in 2002 and 2003 with 44 and 36, respectively.

He began his NFL coaching career as the tight ends coach of the New York Giants from 1993-96. However, Daniel's first experience at the pro level occurred through the NFL's Fellowship Program in 1988 with the New Orleans Saints and in 1992 with the Denver Broncos and Head Coach Dan Reeves. He served under Reeves for his first 11 years in the NFL.

Daniel began his coaching career in the college ranks as the offensive line coach at Auburn (1981-92) for Head Coach Pat Dye. During Daniel's 12 years at Auburn, the Tigers appeared in nine postseason bowl games, four of his linemen earned All-America honors and several were selected All-Southeastern Conference.

Prior to Auburn, Daniel coached for seven years at Enterprise (Ala.) High School from 1974-80, during which 11 of his offensive linemen earned college scholarships.

As a collegian, Daniel was a three-year starter and four-year letterwinner at Alabama State from 1970-73.

Daniel, born Jan. 17, 1953, is married (Myrtis) with no children.

Randy Fichtner is in his second season coaching the Steelers' wide receivers. He joins the Steelers after serving the previous six seasons at the University of Memphis. Fichtner was hired by Mike Tomlin on Jan. 29, 2007.

Under the tutelage of Fichtner, Hines Ward and Santonio Holmes matched their catches from last season (123), while increasing their TD catches from eight in 2006 to 15 in 2007.

Fichtner, who instituted the spread offense at Memphis, was an integral part of the Tiger football team for six years. He was hired in 2001 to serve as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and his offense re-wrote the Memphis record book for six seasons.

Under Fichtner's direction, former Tiger quarterback Danny Wimprine emerged as one of the top passers in Conference-USA in 2003.

In 2004, the Tiger offense received much attention heading into the season with a veteran quarterback, an All-American running back in DeAngelo Williams, a seasoned offensive line and a deep receiving corps. That offense lived up to the billing and finished the year ranked ninth nationally in total offense, and 10th in the nation in scoring.

In 2005, Fichtner's talent was heavily tested as the Tigers lost their two starting quarterbacks by the third game of the season. Fichtner had to make adjustments and instructed true freshman Billy Barefield, who led Memphis to an upset win over UTEP, and then shifted to leading receiver Maurice Avery, who led the Tigers to a 5-2 record and a Motor City Bowl victory as the starting quarterback.

Fichtner was a part of unprecedented offensive success at Memphis that also contributed to the Tigers playing in three straight bowl games from 2003-05.

The 2002 squad set a record for total offense with 4,258 yards, and then the 2003 team shattered that mark with 5,779 yards of total offense. In 2004, the Tigers amassed 5,524 yards of total offense to rank second all-time. The 2004 Tigers also set school records in points scored with 430 and in passing touchdowns with 25.

Fichtner was no stranger to Memphis when he joined the staff in 2001. He had previously served as an assistant for the Tigers. Prior to his second stint at Memphis, Fichtner spent four years (1997-2000) at Arkansas State University. He arrived in Jonesboro as the quarterback coach in the spring of 1997 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in August of 1997.

During his tenure with the Indians, Fichtner worked with quarterback Cleo Lemon, who set virtually every Arkansas State passing and total offense record.

Prior to joining the staff at Arkansas State, Fichtner spent three years at his alma mater, Purdue, serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994-96.

The Cleveland, Ohio, native originally went to Memphis in the fall of 1990 and coached the Tiger receivers and quarterbacks for four seasons. During his stay at Memphis, Fichtner worked with St. Louis Rams All-Pro wide receiver Isaac Bruce.

Fichtner, 44, worked as a student assistant and graduate assistant at Purdue (1985-86) and at Michigan (1986-87), before serving as a volunteer coach at Southern California in 1988. He landed his first full-time position in 1989 as the tight ends coach at UNLV and worked for the Rebels for one season before coming to Memphis.

Fichtner graduated from Purdue in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion. He is married to the former Jennifer Parker of Covington, Tenn., and the couple has three children: a son, Nathaniel Ross, and daughters, Shelby Brooke and Kirby Lynn.

Ray Horton is in his second season as defensive backs coach after serving the previous three seasons as the team's assistant defensive backs coach. He was promoted to his current position after Mike Tomlin was hired in January, 2007.

Horton has helped perennial Pro Bowl safety Troy Polamalu become one of the NFL's top safeties as Polamalu has been to the past three league all-star games in Hawaii.

Horton has accumulated 14 years of NFL coaching experience following a solid 10-year NFL playing career. Prior to his Steelers' appointment on Jan. 24, 2004, Horton spent the previous two seasons at Detroit as the Lions' secondary coach.

Horton, who enters his 15th season coaching in the National Football League, received his first coaching opportunity as an assistant defensive backs coach for the Washington Redskins, where he coached Hall of Famer Darrell Green from 1994-96. He then was hired as defensive backs coach for the Cincinnati Bengals [1997-01].

Horton played cornerback for the Bengals from 1983-88 and played in Super Bowl XXIII. He finished his career with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-92 and was a member of the Cowboys' Super Bowl XXVII Championship squad.

Horton played at the University of Washington, where he earned All Pac-10 honors. He was a second-round selection by the Bengals in the 1983 NFL Draft (53rd overall).

Horton has a daughter, Taylor (21), who attends Wheaton College, and a son, Jarren (17).

Amos Jones is in his second season as the assistant special teams coach for the Steelers after being hired on Jan. 29, 2007.

Jones spent the previous three years at Mississippi State as the special teams/linebackers coach (2004-05) and outside linebackers coach (2006). Under Jones' guidance, three linebackers earned Freshman All-SEC recognition and two punters earned all-conference honors.

In 2006, Jones coached the 10th-rated punt returner (Derek Pegues) and the 13th-ranked punt return unit in the NCAA.

A coaching veteran with over 27 years of experience under his belt, Jones, 48, arrived at Mississippi State from James Madison University. He spent the 2003 football season as the Dukes' tight ends and special teams coach.

Prior to going to James Madison, Jones coached the running backs and special teams for four years at the University of Cincinnati (1999-2002). During his stay in the Queen City, Jones' handiwork helped all-American place-kicker Jonathan Ruffin earn the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker in 2000. During that same time, his punter, Adam Wulfeck earned All-Conference USA honors, and he coached a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. Jones helped the Bearcats to three postseason bowl berths, the 2000 and '01 Motor City Bowls and the 2002 New Orleans Bowl.

Jones, who has coaching experience on the high school, collegiate and professional levels, coached the linebackers at Tulane University in 1995-96. He spent the 1992 season at the University of Pittsburgh as the kicking game coordinator.

Jones had two stints of duty at his alma mater, the University of Alabama. He worked with the Crimson Tide special teams in 1990-91 under head coach Gene Stallings. In 1990 under his guidance, Alabama had the nation's top-rated percentage placekicker (Philip Doyle). A decade earlier, Jones began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1981-82.

Between his two assignments in Tuscaloosa, Jones coached first the tight ends (1983-85) and then the defensive line (1986-88) under current Steelers offensive coordinator Bruce Arians when he was the head coach at Temple University from 1983-88. During his stint in Philadelphia, he worked with the Owls special teams as well.

Jones worked one season with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League (1997), helping guide them to a Western Division playoff berth, and has worked in the high school ranks in Alabama, Florida and Louisiana.

A 1982 graduate of the University of Alabama, Jones played safety and running back for Bryant. He was a member of the 1978 and '79 Tide teams that went 23-1 and earned back-to-back SEC titles, national championships, and Sugar Bowl crowns. He lettered on the '80 team that finished 10-2 with a win in the '81 Cotton Bowl. Jones later earned his master's degree from Alabama.

Jones, born Dec. 31, 1959, and his wife Stacey have four children, daughter Samantha (19) and sons Joshua (15), Nathan (?) and Jeremy (4).

Running Backs

Kirby Wilson is in his second season as the Steelers running backs coach. Wilson, who was hired on Jan. 29, 2007, came to Pittsburgh with 19 years of coaching experience at both the collegiate and professional levels.

Wilson helped coach Willie Parker into leading the NFL in rushing through the first 16 weeks in 2007. His run ended when Parker broke his leg, ending his season, on the first play from scrimmage in the second-to-last game of the season. Parker also earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection under Wilson's direction.

Wilson, 46, most recently was the running backs coach for the Arizona Cardinals (2004-06) after spending two seasons as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2002-03).

After one season (2001) as wide receivers coach at Southern California, Wilson joined head coach Jon Gruden's staff in Tampa Bay in 2002. That season, the trio of running backs Michael Pittman and Aaron Stecker and Pro Bowl fullback Mike Alstott collectively gained over 1,400 rushing yards and helped the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl XXXVII victory over Oakland. His 2003 backfield duo of Pittman (751 yards rushing/597 receiving) and Thomas Jones (627 yards rushing/180 receiving) accounted for nearly 40 percent (2,155) of the Bucs' 5,453 total net yards. Pittman's 75 pass receptions led all NFC running backs and were a single-season career-high.

Prior to his stint with the Buccaneers, Wilson spent four years as running backs coach with the New England Patriots (1997-99) and Washington Redskins (2000), tutoring a trio of running backs, including Patriots backs Curtis Martin (1997) and Robert Edwards (1998), and later Redskins running back Stephen Davis (2000). In addition, Wilson honed the skills of Washington fullback Larry Centers, who led his team with 80 pass receptions in 2000. Centers (827 pass receptions) and Keith Byars (610 receptions), whom Wilson coached in New England in 1997, rank one and three in career receptions by a running back in NFL history (Marshall Faulk is no. 2 at 723).

Wilson entered the coaching arena on the staff at Pasadena [CA] City College (1985) as wide receivers coach, and after obtaining a bachelor of arts degree from Eastern Illinois in 1989, returned to coaching at Los Angeles Southwest Community College (1989-90) as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach. Following two seasons at Southern Illinois as linebackers coach (1991) and secondary coach/passing game coordinator (1992), he joined the staff at Wyoming (1993-94) as secondary coach, helping the Cowboys win the 1993 Western Athletic Conference title and earn an appearance in the Copper Bowl.

Wilson coached running backs at Iowa State from 1995-96. Under his guidance, Troy Davis earned all-America honors and led the nation with over 2,000 yards rushing in both '95 and '96—the only player in NCAA history to reach the 2,000-yard rushing mark in consecutive seasons.

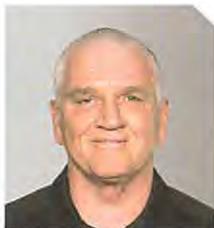

A running back and wide receiver at Pasadena Community College (1979-80) and the University of Illinois (1980-81), Wilson played two seasons in the Canadian Football League as a defensive back and kick returner for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1983) and Toronto Argonauts (1984).

Born August 24, 1961, in Los Angeles, Wilson was on the football and track teams at Dorsey High School in his native Los Angeles. He and his wife Danielle have five children—sons Kris, Michael and Tyler, and daughters Malia and Savanna.

Larry Zierlein is in his second season coaching the Steelers' offensive line. Zierlein was hired on Jan. 29, 2007, by first-year head coach Mike Tomlin.

Zierlein, 62, came to Pittsburgh after previously serving as the assistant offensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills. Prior to his one-year stint in Buffalo, Zierlein was the offensive line coach for the Cleveland Browns for four seasons (2001-04). His work with Cleveland's offensive line helped the Browns average 4.1 yards per rush and 104.4 rushing yards per game in 2003

Zierlein, who has 38 years of coaching experience, spent the previous four seasons before joining the Browns as offensive line coach for the University of Cincinnati (1997-2000). During the 2000 season, Zierlein also served as the Bearcats' running game coordinator and helped Cincinnati set a Conference USA rushing record with 215.5 yards per game in 1997. From that line, tackle Jason Fabini was a fourth-round draft choice of the N.Y. Jets. Zierlein's 1999 line led the nation by allowing a school-record low eight sacks, despite having four first-year starters.

Prior to his tenure at Cincinnati, Zierlein spent two seasons as offensive line coach at Tulane (1995-96) and Louisiana State (1993-94). He also served as offensive line coach at the University of Houston (1978-86).

Zierlein gained experience at the professional level as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League of American Football (WLAF) in 1991-92 and as an assistant coach for the Washington Commandos of the Arena Football League in 1987.

In addition to coaching, Zierlein also served in the United States Marine Corps for two years (1966-68), including a one-year tour of duty in Vietnam (1967).

A 1971 graduate of Fort Hays (Kan.) State College, Zierlein began his coaching career at Fort Hays State College as linebackers coach in 1970. After two years at Fort Hays State, he spent six years at the high school level, coaching at Abernathy (Texas) High School from 1972-74 and Lamar Consolidated (Texas) High School from 1975-77

A native of Lenora, Kan., Zierlein and his wife, Marcia, have three children, sons Lance and Mike, and daughter Nicci, and grandchildren Alec, Drake, Ellie, Maggie and Mason.

Harold Goodwin

Offensive Assistant

Harold Goodwin is in his second season with the Steelers as the team's offensive assistant.

In his position, Goodwin helps coach the offensive line and assists the offensive coaching staff with game preparation, video analysis and scouting of opponents.

Goodwin, 34, spent the previous three seasons (2004-06) as the assistant offensive line coach with the Chicago Bears. Prior to joining Chicago, Goodwin was the offensive line coach at Central Michigan from 2000-03, where he worked with future pros Eric Ghiaciuc and Adam Kieft. Goodwin also served as assistant head coach in 2003. He began his coaching career at Eastern Michigan where he spent the 1998 season overseeing tight ends and offensive tackles, and 1999 coaching the team's offensive line. Current NFL lineman L.J. Shelton was a member of those offensive lines.

A native of Columbia, S.C., Goodwin was an offensive lineman at Michigan from 1992-94, and spent the next two years as a student assistant with the Wolverines. He served as a graduate assistant for Michigan when the Wolverines won the national title in 1997 and worked with an offensive line which featured three future pros in Steve Hutchinson, Jon Jansen and Jeff Backus.

Goodwin graduated from Michigan in 1996 with a degree in management/communications. He and his wife, Monica, have three children, Kylee, Miya and Bryson.

Lou Spanos

Defensive Assistant

Lou Spanos is in his 15th season with the Steelers and his 14th year as a defensive assistant for the coaching staff. He is one of only two assistant coaches to be on both the Super Bowl XXX and Super Bowl XL coaching staffs, joining defensive line coach John Mitchell.

As a defensive assistant, Spanos assists the linebackers and the defensive coaching staff with drills, meeting rooms, game preparation, video analysis and scouting of Steelers' opponents.

A 1994 graduate of Tulsa, he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at offensive center. Spanos stayed at Tulsa for a year after his playing career (1989-92) concluded to assist coaching the linebackers. He then joined the Steelers as an intern in the scouting department in 1994. After his one-year internship, Spanos was promoted to his current position of defensive assistant.

Spanos and his wife Timme reside in Pittsburgh with their two sons, Zachary (8) and Caleb (5), and daughter Gabriella (3).

Garrett Giemont is in his second season as conditioning coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers after being hired on January 31, 2007.

Giemont, 50, has 26 years of experience in the NFL and was most recently with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as their strength and conditioning coordinator. He was with the Buccaneers from 2003-05.

Giemont was named Coach of the Year by The Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society after the 2002 season while working for the Oakland Raiders under head coach Bill Callahan. Giemont spent eight seasons as a member of the Raiders staff, including the first seven as strength and conditioning coach and the final season as strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Giemont spent three seasons as the Director of Physical Development in Major League Baseball with the Chicago Cubs (1992-94). He originally entered the NFL with the Los Angeles Rams in 1970 as a training assistant and served as the Rams' assistant trainer from 1978-82. From 1983-89, Giemont was the Rams' strength and conditioning trainer and worked as the team's strength and conditioning coach from 1990-91.

Giemont and his wife Sonya have one son, Jackson (2).

Marcel Pastoor

Conditioning Assistant

Marcel Pastoor is in his fifth season as the Steelers' assistant strength and conditioning coach and his eighth with the team.

Pastoor assists conditioning coordinator Garrett Giemont with the strength and conditioning program.

Pastoor received his undergraduate degree from Virginia Tech in exercise physiology and kinesiology in 2000. He completed his Masters from the University of Pittsburgh, graduating with honors in Exercise Physiology in 2003.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Pastoor interned with the Washington Redskins in 1998 and was the volunteer assistant strength coach for Radford University from 1999-2001.

Pastoor and his wife, Cayce, reside in Pittsburgh.

Raymond Jackson

Player Development

Raymond Jackson is in his fourth season with the Steelers and sixth in the NFL.

Jackson joined the Steelers to work in the area of player programs. His responsibility is to assist players in the area of life skills on and off the field; such as continuing education, internships, investment information and in making a smooth transition to life after football.

Jackson also assists conditioning coordinator Garrett Giemont with the strength and conditioning program for the players.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Jackson worked in player development and the scouting department for the Cleveland Browns. He also assisted Cleveland's special teams coach with breaking down tape.

A former cornerback with the Buffalo Bills (1995-98) and the Cleveland Browns (1999-2001), Jackson began his NFL career as a fifth round draft choice of the Bills out of Colorado State where he earned his bachelor's degree in social work.

Born February 17, 1973, in Gary, Ind., Jackson and his wife Natalie have two children, daughter Alissa (9) and son Raymond Jr. (?).

Kevin Colbert

Director of Football Operations

Kevin Colbert is in his ninth year as the Steelers director of football operations. A Pittsburgh native, Colbert was named to his position February 15, 2000.

Colbert oversees the personnel area of the team and supervises the scouting staff. Among his duties, Colbert is in charge of administering player acquisitions and transactions, including the NFL Draft, free agent signings and trades, and evaluating pro and college personnel. He also serves as the Steelers' liaison with the NFL office and the other NFL teams on football matters.

Colbert served as the Detroit Lions' pro scouting director from 1990 to 1999. He was responsible for scouting NFL players, the NFL Europe League and the Canadian Football League. He also assisted in the evaluation of college talent.

Prior to joining the Lions, Colbert spent five seasons as a college scout for the Miami Dolphins (1985-89) and one season (1984) with the BLESTO Scouting Service.

Colbert began his career as a coach and has experience in three sports—football, basketball and baseball. He was the backfield coach and recruiting coordinator at Ohio Wesleyan University for three years (1981-83) and in 1984 also served as the school's head baseball coach.

From 1979-81, Colbert was a graduate assistant basketball coach at Robert Morris. He also served as the school's head baseball coach in 1981.

Born January 29, 1957, Colbert graduated from North Catholic High School in Pittsburgh and received his bachelor's degree from Robert Morris in 1979. He and his wife, Janis, have three children: Kacie (25), Jennifer (22) and Daniel (19).

Ron Hughes

College Scouting Coordinator

Ron Hughes is in his sixth year as the Steelers' college scouting coordinator. Named to his position April 30, 2003, Hughes had served as a consultant for the Steelers for two-plus years prior to his appointment.

Hughes, 64, a Charleroi High School and California University of Pennsylvania graduate, spent 17 seasons with the Detroit Lions, serving his last four years as the Lions' vice president of player personnel until his departure prior to the 2001 season. He coordinated and supervised all of the Lions' college and pro scouting in his role as vice president.

After coaching football at the high school level in the Pittsburgh area for 14 years, Hughes began his career in professional football in 1979 as scout for BLESTO scouting service. He joined the Lions scouting department in 1983 and was later promoted to director of pro scouting and then to director of player personnel in 1990.

Hughes and his wife Adrienne have three children—sons Ted (40) and Scott (37), and daughter Jennifer (31)—and four grandchildren.

Doug Whaley

Pro Scouting Coordinator

Doug Whaley is in his ninth season as the Steelers' pro personnel coordinator after spending the three previous years as an area scout with the Seattle Seahawks. In his current position, Whaley is responsible for scouting Steelers' opponents and evaluating pro players.

Whaley joined Seattle in July, 1996, and was in charge of scouting college players throughout the east coast. Prior to joining Seattle, Whaley spent the 1995 season as an assistant in the Steelers' pro personnel department.

A native of nearby Upper St. Clair, Whaley lettered four seasons at the University of Pittsburgh as a safety and linebacker. After earning a degree in business finance, Whaley worked for one year as a retail stockbroker on Wall Street before joining the Steelers in 1995.

Whaley attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, lettering in football, wrestling and track.

Whaley is single and lives in Pittsburgh.

Phil Kreidler

Pro/College Scout

Phil Kreidler is in his 18th season with the Steelers as a college and pro scout. After spending his first eight years with the team scouting college players, Kreidler was given additional responsibilities of scouting pro teams in 2000.

Kreidler served as a full-time intern in the Steelers' personnel department in 1991-92 and was named to the scouting staff in June 1992.

From 1988-90, Kreidler served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati, where he helped coach the wide receivers and quarterbacks.

Kreidler, 42, attended Furman University, where he played free safety. He was a member of the 1985 I-AA national finalist and Southern Conference champion Paladin squad. He graduated in 1988 with a degree in history.

Kreidler and his wife, Kim, have one son, Jeff (4), and live in Pittsburgh.

Kelvin Fisher

College Scout

Kelvin Fisher is in his ninth season as a Steelers college scout after joining the team in June 2000.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Fisher served one year as the coordinator of academic accountability at his alma mater, Arizona State University. At Arizona State, he was a liaison between student-athletes, coaches, professors and academic counselors.

A four-year starting fullback for Arizona State (1988-91), Fisher graduated in 1992 with a degree in social work. Upon graduation, he signed with the New York Jets as a free agent in 1992.

Fisher worked as a juvenile probation officer in Maricopa County, Ariz., from 1993-96, and with the State Office for Service to Children and Family in Portland, Oregon (1996-99).

A native of Ambridge, Pa., Fisher currently lives in Queen Creek, Ariz., with his wife Angela and two children, Kelvin Jr. (15) and Kailie (14).

Mark Gorscak

College Scout

Mark Gorscak is in his 14th season with the Steelers. This is Gorscak's 11th year as an area scout after spending his first three years as the Steelers' BLESTO scout.

Gorscak previously coached on the high school and college levels for 16 years. His first coaching experience was at Perkiomen (Pa.) Prep School. He followed that with coaching assignments at Western Maryland College, Dickinson College (his alma mater), Gulliver Prep (Fla.) High School and two tenures at Weber State University.

In 1987, between stints at Weber State, he became the first general manager of the Pittsburgh Gladiators in its inaugural season of the Arena Football League.

Additionally, Gorscak has been an athletic administrator at Dickinson and Weber State. He graduated with a degree in psychology from Dickinson and received a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla.

Gorscak is a native of Donora, Pa., and currently resides in Pittsburgh.

Bruce McNorton

College Scout

Bruce McNorton is in his ninth season as a member of the Steelers' scouting department.

McNorton, who joined the Steelers in May 2000, had previously worked with Kevin Colbert, Director of Football Operations, as a part-time scout with the Detroit Lions.

McNorton, 46, enjoyed a 10-year playing career as a defensive back with the Lions and Miami Dolphins.

A highly successful coach at Pontiac Northern High School in Michigan, McNorton was selected the 1999 Class A Coach of the Year and led his team to the state quarterfinals.

He has three children, daughters Mykeshia (23) and Britteny (22), and son Bruce Jr. (17).

Bill Nunn

College Scout

Bill Nunn is in his 41st season in the Steelers player personnel department where he helps evaluate college talent.

After originally joining the Steelers as a scout in 1968, Nunn was promoted to assistant director of player personnel in 1970, when he served the dual role of training camp director and personnel scout. Prior to joining the Steelers, Nunn was both the sports editor and managing editor for the Pittsburgh Courier.

Nunn is a graduate of West Virginia State University where he earned a degree in English. During his college career, he captained the only unbeaten basketball team in the nation and was elected to the West Virginia State University Sports Hall of Fame.

Nunn and his wife, Frances, live in Pittsburgh. The Nunn's have one daughter, Lynell Wilson, and a son, William III, and three grandchildren.

David Petett

College Scout

David Petett is in his fifth year with the Steelers and his fourth as a BLESTO scout after serving as player personnel intern in 2004.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Petett served one year (2003) as a student assistant at the University of Wisconsin where he assisted with the defensive line.

Petett, 28, attended Lehigh University, where he lettered all four years as a defensive tackle. He graduated with a degree in political science in 2001.

Petett is a native of Pittsburgh and currently lives in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dan Rooney Jr. College Scout

Dan Rooney Jr. is in his 12th year as a college scout. He is the son of Steelers Chairman Dan Rooney and the brother of Steelers' President Art Rooney.

Rooney graduated from Washington and Jefferson College in 1986 with a degree in business administration. He played football for legendary Head Coach John Luckhart during his enrollment at the college. Rooney was an all-conference safety as a sophomore and a special teams player as a junior and senior. After graduation, Rooney worked under Coach Luckhart as an assistant coach from 1986 to 1990.

In 1991, Rooney spent a season with the NFL Europe League office then located in Dallas TX. His primary responsibilities were to Team Dallas, a spare parts team that supplied the league with replacements for injured players.

In 1993 Rooney moved to Durham N.C., where he taught and coached at the high school level. He coached for Gary Merrill at Northern Durham High, one of the state's top high school programs. From 1995-1997, Rooney coached at Leesville Road High in Raleigh N.C.

Rooney and his wife, Dr. Allison Evanoff Rooney, live in Gastonia, N.C. They have two sons, John Patrick (9) and Brendan Charles (6).

Joe Greene Special Assistant/College and Pro Personnel

Joe Greene is in his fifth year as a special assistant for pro and college personnel for the Steelers.

The legendary Hall of Famer returned to the team where he gained a reputation as one of the best defensive tackles in the history of the NFL.

Greene returned in March, 2004, to the Steelers organization for the first time since 1992. He assists in evaluating college and pro players as well as in other scouting activities.

Greene spent the prior eight seasons as the defensive line coach for the Arizona Cardinals.

After a brilliant 13-year NFL playing career (1969-1981), Greene worked briefly as a color analyst for CBS Sports. He returned to the NFL in 1987 as the defensive line coach for the Steelers until 1992. Greene then joined the Miami Dolphins as a defensive line coach for four seasons (1992-1995) before accepting the same position with the Cardinals.

Born in Elgin, Texas, Greene was the Steelers No. 1 draft pick — the first player selected by Hall of Fame Head Coach Chuck Noll—and the fourth player selected overall in the 1969 NFL Draft.

He and his wife, Agnes, have three children—sons Major and Delon, who both played at Greene's alma mater North Texas State, and a daughter, Jo-quel. The Greene's also have six grandchildren.

Omar Khan

Football & Business Administration Coordinator

Omar Khan is in his 12th season in the NFL and seventh season with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Khan has recently been named Football & Business Administration Coordinator after spending his previous years with the team as Business Operations Coordinator/Chief Negotiator.

In his current role, Khan works with the day-to-day overall management of the Football Operations Department, primarily as the lead negotiator in all of the player contracts. He is also responsible for the monitoring and strategic planning of the team's salary cap and overseeing the team's training camp and football logistics.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Khan worked with the New Orleans Saints for four years. In 2000, he served as Football Operations/Coaching Assistant where he supervised the overall management and operation of the football program and assisted the offensive coordinator in the day-to-day operations of the offense. From 1998-99, Khan served as New Orleans' Player Personnel Assistant. His duties included negotiating player contracts, monitoring and strategic planning of the salary cap, football administration and government affairs, as well as serving as interim Player Programs Director during the 1998 season. In 1997, Khan was a Scouting/Player Personnel Intern, primarily working with pro scouting and contract research.

Khan went to the Saints after spending the 1996 season as an Undergraduate Assistant with the Tulane University football program. Khan, a graduate of Tulane, was born in New Orleans, La. He now resides in the South Hills of Pittsburgh.

Bob McCartney

Video/Facilities Coordinator

Bob McCartney has had many responsibilities in his 35 years as the Steelers' film and video director. He was named film director in 1973, until the advent of video in 1986 when the NFL went from film to videotape format.

Prior to taking over the filming operation, McCartney worked in the Steelers' ticket office. He also currently serves as the Steelers facility coordinator for their headquarters in the UPMC Sports Performance Complex.

McCartney, a Pittsburgh native, attended South Catholic High School. He graduated from Wheeling (W.Va.) Jesuit College in 1972 with a bachelor's degree in English.

Born May 16, 1950, in Pittsburgh, McCartney and his wife Gail have two children, daughter Kathleen and son Robert. The McCartneys live in Pittsburgh.

John Norwig

Head Athletic Trainer

John Norwig is in his 18th year as the Steelers' head athletic trainer and his 29th year in athletic training.

In February of 2008, Norwig was elected President of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society. He also was chosen as a 2008 recipient of the Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award from the National Athletic Trainers' Association.

Norwig's career began in 1979 as athletic trainer at Bellefonte (Pa.) High. Norwig then served six years as assistant trainer and health education instructor at Penn State (1980-85). During that time he assisted the San Francisco 49ers at their 1984 training camp. He then became head athletic trainer at Vanderbilt (1986-91) before joining the Steelers.

Norwig earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Penn State in 1979 and a master's in health education in 1984. He is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine, American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine and the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Born November 6, 1957, in Hanover, Pa., Norwig and his wife Emily have three children, daughter Erin (15), and sons Nicholas (12) and Luke (10). The Norwigs live in the North Hills.

Ryan Grove

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Ryan Grove a former athletic training intern for the Steelers, rejoined the team in March 1999 as the club's assistant athletic trainer.

Grove graduated magna cum laude, receiving his bachelor of science degree in athletic training from the University of Pittsburgh in 1993 and a master's degree in athletic training/exercise physiology in 1996.

An Indiana, Pa., native, Grove previously served as an assistant athletic trainer at East Tennessee State University, where he was the head athletic trainer for the school's men's basketball, baseball and tennis teams. He also served as an intern athletic trainer for the Steelers for the 1992-93 seasons and a graduate athletic trainer for the team from 1994-96. In April 1996, Grove worked as the athletic trainer for the Tri-Star Pictures movie Jerry Maguire.

Grove is a member of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers' Society, the American College of Sports Medicine and National Athletic Trainers' Association.

Born January 27, 1971, Grove and his wife, AnnMarie, reside in Pittsburgh. The couple has one daughter, Samantha Ann (5), and one son, Tyler Ryan (3).

Ariko Iso

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Ariko Iso is in her seventh season as an assistant athletic trainer for the Steelers. The first and only full-time female athletic trainer in the NFL, Iso generated international notoriety when she was announced as the Steelers' assistant athletic trainer. She is responsible for assisting the Steelers' athletic training and medical staff in all areas.

Iso, who spent five seasons as head football athletic trainer at Portland State University, gained NFL experience by working as an intern with the Steelers during the team's 2000 and 2001 training camps.

Iso spent six years at Portland State and was promoted from assistant athletic trainer to associate athletic trainer in 2001. Prior to working with the football team, Iso worked with the Vikings' women's basketball and wrestling teams and the track and field squad.

Iso graduated from Oregon State in 1993 with a bachelor of science and also earned a master's of art from San Jose State in 1995.

Iso is single and resides in Pittsburgh.

Rodgers Freyvogel

Equipment Manager

Rodgers Freyvogel is in his 29th season with the Steelers and his 12th as the team's equipment manager.

Freyvogel oversees all of the purchasing, fitting, customizing, issuing and reconditioning of the Steelers equipment and uniforms.

Freyvogel joined the Steelers as field manager in 1980 and was responsible for the preparation and maintenance of the Steelers' practice fields, while assisting equipment manager Tony Parisi.

Born August 13, 1951, in Pittsburgh, Freyvogel grew up on Pittsburgh's North Side, where he attended North Catholic High School. He and his wife Rebecca currently live in Warrendale. They are the parents of two sons, William [9] and Trevor [?].

Rich Baker

Field Manager/Assistant Equipment Manager

Rich Baker is in his 12th season as the Steelers' field manager/assistant equipment manager and his 15th with the team.

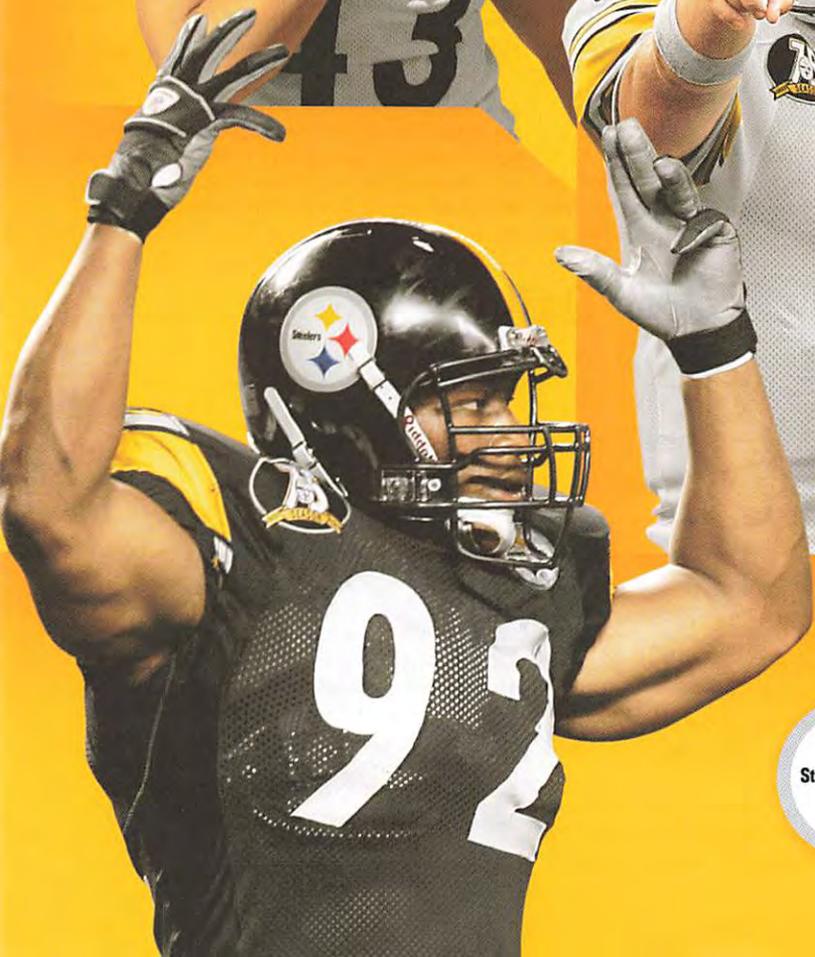

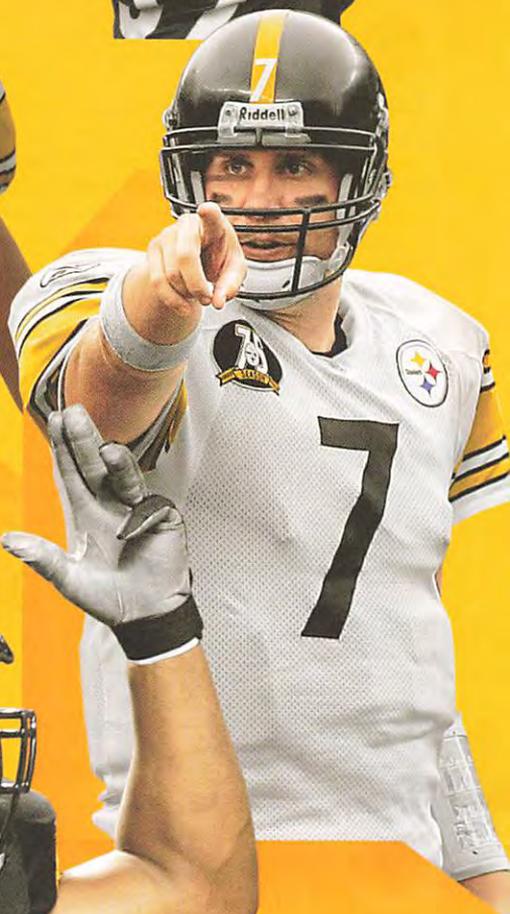

He joined the organization in 1994 after a two-year stint as a warehouse sales representative with Frito Lay.

Baker, 41, assists equipment manager Rodgers Freyvogel in the issuing and reconditioning of the players' equipment and uniforms.

Baker majored in elementary education at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Born June 14, 1967 in Pittsburgh, Pa., Baker is a native of Homestead and attended Steel Valley High School. He and his wife Patty live in Jefferson Hills.

[0-0] Re-signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers on January 11, 2008...

signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers' practice squad on January 2, 2008...spent the 2006 season on the Reserved/Injured List with the Eagles...was originally the Philadelphia Eagles' first selection in the fifth round (147th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft, but was released on September 1, 2007.

JEREMY BLOOM

2007 (0-0): Released by the Philadelphia Eagles on September 1...signed to the Pittsburgh Steelers practice squad on January 2, 2008.

2006 (0-0): Spent the entire season on the Reserve/Injured List after injuring his hamstring during training camp.

COLLEGE He had five career plays of 75 yards or longer (two receptions, two punt returns, one kickoff return), tied with Byron White for the second most in school history, and just one behind the leader, Ben Kelly (six between 1997-99)...finished his career eighth in punt return yards (625), tied for fifth in punt return touchdowns (2) and 11th in kickoff return yards (627). 2004: NCAA denied a final CU appeal for reinstatement for Bloom to be able to play college football and still ski professionally so he could keep alive his hopes to represent the United States in moguls skiing in the 2006 Winter Olympics (Turin, Italy)...if eligible to play, he figured to be CU's top return man for punts and kickoffs, as well as a key player in the rotation at wide receiver (he would have been one of just two returning receivers who had receptions in 2003)... Street & Smith's selected him as a preseason honorable All-America at kick returner, where The Sporting News lists him as the No. 8 player in the nation. 2003: Had 80 touches for 1,286 yards, or 16.1 per touch...most of those came on kick returns, as he led the Big 12 Conference in total kick return yards with 878, ranking fifth in the league in kickoff returns (30th NCAA) and sixth in punt returns (21st NCAA)...returned 24 kickoffs for 589 yards (24.5 per), including an 88-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Kansas State, along with 24 punt returns for 289 yards, an average of 12.0 per...caught 22 passes for 356 yards (16.2 per reception), with one touchdown, an 81-yard catch and run at Florida State...had at least one reception in 11 games, with a season and career-high of five for 97 yards in a 50-47 overtime win over Kansas...other touches came on rushes, a combination of reverses or quick handoffs, as he had 10 attempts for 52 yards with a long of 19...earned second-team all-Big 12 honors from the league coaches at kick returner (honorable mention by the Associated Press)...also was the Special Teams Player of the Year in Colorado as selected by the state's chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame (and was a first-team member of its All-Colorado team)...CU coaches named him winner of the Bill McCartney Award, presented for special teams achievement, as he was twice selected as CU's special teams player of the week (for the Baylor and Kansas State games)...in that Baylor game, he set a school record for the most kick return yards in a game by a Buff with 250 (143 kickoff, 107 punt). 2002: As a kick return man, he was a first-team Freshman All-America team member by both the FWAA and collegefootballnews.com, which also selected him as an honorable mention choice on its overall team; The Sporting News tabbed him a third team frosh All-American...saw action in 13 games, including the Alamo Bowl and had quite an impact...he participated in three of the five longest plays involving a true freshman in CU history...the first time he touched the ball as a collegian, he returned a punt 75 yards against Colorado State to get the Buffs on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter...against Kansas State, he had a 94-yard catch and run reception for a touchdown, the longest pass play in school history(also his first career catch)...had an 80-yard punt return for six versus Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship...including the bowl game, he averaged 15.0 yards for 23 punt returns to rank 13th in the nation (he was fifth at 16.8 through the regular season, but the NCAA included bowl stats for the first time)...was the first CU freshman (true or redshirt) to return more than one punt for scores in a single season. 2001: He delayed his enrollment to pursue his dream of making the U.S. Olympic ski team for the 2002 Winter Olympics, which he accomplished...did report with his class for fall camp, participated in the freshman and a couple of varsity practices, and then left for San Diego for training...was an honor roll student all four years in high school, and maintained a 3.0 grade point average at CU despite his hectic travel schedule...majored in communications.

PERSONAL Was As a senior, he earned PrepStar and SuperPrep all-Midlands honors, as he was listed as the No. 68 player overall (the seventh receiver) in the area by SP...also earned first-team all-state from the Denver Post and all-area honors...as a senior, he caught 48 passes for 1,116 yards and 12 touchdowns, and ran a few successful reverses, gaining about 200 yards on five attempts...also occasionally returned punts...as a junior, when he garnered all-area accolades, he caught 19 passes for 550 yards and six touchdowns...his career totals were thus: 67 catches for 1,666 yards and 18 touchdowns...was on the junior varsity as a sophomore, and was the quarterback (and a defensive back) on the freshman team...he lettered in track three times (relays, sprints), and was a three-time all-state performer; he helped Loveland to the state title his junior year as a member of the 4x200 relay team...for his accomplishments in football and skiing, the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame named him the Colorado Amateur Athlete of the Year for 2002, while Mile High Sports magazine named him the state's athlete of the year...in March of 2003, he won the 30th annual Superstars Competition that took place in Jamaica; he defeated nine professional athletes in the competition, of which all had to choose seven of 10 events to participate...tallied wins in the half-mile run and the 100-yard dash (which he accomplished in 9.41 seconds)...donated his $45,000 prize to charity, as the NCAA rules prohibited him from keeping it...born in Fort Collins, Colo...son of Char Bloom and Larry Bloom...Full name: Jeremy Ryan Bloom.

Game 1 Pittsburgh 34, Cleveland 7

September 9, 2007 Cleveland Browns Stadium (73,089)

CLEVELAND — Pittsburgh won its fifth straight season opener as it defeated the host Cleveland Browns, 34-7, at Cleveland Browns Stadium. It marked the Steelers eighth straight victory over the Browns and improved Pittsburgh's all-time record against Cleveland to 56-55.

The Steelers came right out of the gates on fire as the defense held Cleveland to a three-and-out series and after a Browns' shanked punt, Pittsburgh already had the ball on the Cleveland 22-yard line. Four plays later, QB Ben Roethlisberger hit WR Hines Ward on a five-yard touchdown pass to give the Steelers the early 7-0 lead.

CB Deshaea Townsend picked off a Cleveland pass on the second play of the drive on its next possession, and K Jeff Reed booted a 26-yard field goal with just under nine minutes to go in the first quarter to make it 10-0.

Later in the first quarter, following a fumble by the Browns' Jamal Lewis, Roethlisberger stretched the lead to 17-0 as he connected with WR Santonio Holmes for a 40-yard strike with one minute remaining.

Roethlisberger then hit TE Matt Spaeth on a five-yard pass on the Steelers' first drive of the second half to make it 24-0.

The Browns finally got on the board midway through the third quarter, but Pittsburgh quickly responded as Roethlisberger tossed his fourth touchdown of the afternoon, this one to TE Heath Miller.

Reed later hit a 31-yard field goal to cap the scoring and seal the 34-7 victory for the Steelers eighth straight win over the Browns.

Roethlisberger finished with a then-career-high four touchdown passes on the day by going 12-of-23 for 161 yards (114.3 passer rating). RB Willie Parker added 109 rushing yards on 27 carries (4.0 avg.).

Pittsburgh finished with 365 yards of total offense, including 206 on the ground.

The Steelers defense was attacking all afternoon and limited Cleveland to just 221 yards of total offense, including 46 rushing yards. Pittsburgh forced five turnovers (two interceptions, three fumbles) and had six sacks, one each by DE Aaron Smith, LB Clark Haggans, LB James Farrior, CB Ike Taylor and S Ryan Clark, while DT Chris Hoke and LB James Harrison split a sack.

Taylor and Townsend posted the interceptions for the Steelers.

Game 2 Pittsburgh 26, Buffalo 3

September 16, 2007 Heinz Field [64,307]

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh won its 500th regular-season game in team history and moved to 2-0 on the year as it defeated the visiting Buffalo Bills, 26-3, at Heinz Field. The Steelers won for the seventh time in the last eight meetings against the Bills (0-2).

Pittsburgh again dominated defensively while the offense managed to control the clock for much of the game. The Steelers held the ball for 35:27 and had four scoring drives of at least 10 plays long.

The Steelers limited the Bills to just 223 yards of total offense and 10 first downs. Pittsburgh posted four sacks and did not allow its opponent to score in the first half for the second straight game.

K Jeff Reed booted his first field goal, a 34-yarder, with 7:59 left in the first quarter to give Pittsburgh a 3-0 lead. He added three more field goals (28, 39, 31) in the second quarter as the Steelers built a 12-0 halftime lead. Pittsburgh outgained the Bills 239-58 in total offense through the first two quarters.

Buffalo was able to cut the lead to 12-3 as Ryan Lindell hit a 24-yard field goal, but Pittsburgh responded with a nine-play, 62-yard drive that culminated in QB Ben Roethlisberger finding TE Matt Spaeth in the end zone for the second straight week. The touchdown gave Pittsburgh a 19-3 advantage with 4:40 remaining in the third quarter.

RB Willie Parker finished the scoring as he darted in from 11 yards out midway through the fourth quarter to seal the Pittsburgh victory. It was his first touchdown of the season.

Roethlisberger finished 21-of-34 passing for 242 yards with one touchdown and one interception (80.8 passer rating). He also rushed one time for 10 yards on a third-down conversion.

Parker, who totaled 126 yards on the ground, eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the second time this season and 15th in his career. He also moved over 3,000 rushing yards for his career.

WR Hines Ward led nine players who hauled in a pass on the afternoon as he finished with five catches for 55 yards (11.0 avg.). WR Nate Washington added three catches for 60 yards, including a leaping 30-yard reception on a third down.

LB James Farrior led all Steelers with 10 tackles (eight solo), while CB Deshaun Townsend added eight (seven solo). LB Clark Haggans, LB LaMarr Woodley, LB Larry Foote and LB James Harrison all posted a sack.

Game 3 Pittsburgh 37, San Francisco 16September 23, 2007 Heinz Field [64,313]

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh had a kickoff return and interception return for a touchdown as it defeated the previously unbeaten San Francisco 49ers, 37-16, at Heinz Field. The win improved the Steelers to 3-0, marking their first such start since 1992.

KR/PR Allen Rossum got the fireworks started early as he took a kickoff, following a 49ers field goal, 98 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. It was his fourth career kickoff return for a touchdown and the first-ever by a Steeler at Heinz Field.

As the defense held San Francisco to just two field goals in two trips to the end zone, Pittsburgh's offense methodically put up a touchdown on the board in the second quarter to put its lead to 14-6 at the break. QB Ben Roethlisberger engineered a 12-play, 80-yard drive over a span of 7:39 that culminated in a touchdown strike to TE Jerame Tuman with just 37 seconds remaining in the half.

After each team notched a field goal apiece in the third quarter, the Steelers added 20 points in the final quarter to ease to their third straight victory to open the season.

CB Bryant McFadden's 50-yard interception return for a touchdown highlighted the fourth quarter. It was McFadden's fifth career interception and the first defensive touchdown of the year for Pittsburgh.

RB Najeh Davenport also added his first score of the season as he broke loose for a 39-yarder with 1:51 to play in the game.

Roethlisberger finished the day 13-of-20 for 160 yards passing with one touchdown and no interceptions. His 106.2 passer rating marked the 22nd time in his career he has had a 100-plus passer rating in a game.

RB Willie Parker eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark for the fourth straight game, dating back to the 2006 season, by totaling 133 yards on 24 carries (5.5 avg.). It marked his 16th career 100-yard rushing game, including his ninth at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh's defense limited 49ers RB Frank Gore to just 39 yards rushing on 14 carries (2.8 avg.). LB James Farrior and LB LaMarr Woodley each tallied a sack for the Steelers.

K Jeff Reed, who entered the game tied for the league lead in scoring, finished a perfect 3-for-3 in field goals and 4-for-4 in PATs for 13 points.

Game 4 Arizona 21, Pittsburgh 14

September 30, 2007 University of Phoenix Stadium (64,844)

GLENDAL, Ariz. — Pittsburgh suffered its first setback of the season as it fell to the Arizona Cardinals, 21-14, at University of Phoenix Stadium. The Steelers dropped to 3-1 on the year while the Cardinals improved to 2-2.

The Steelers were outgained in total yards, 301-282, for the first time in 2007. Pittsburgh entered the game averaging nearly 200 yards rushing but managed to muster just 77 yards on the ground against Arizona and was flagged an uncharacteristically 11 times for 72 yards.

Pittsburgh had the momentum early in the game as it went ahead, 7-0, late in the first quarter when QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Santonio Holmes for a 43-yard score.

The score stayed the same throughout the second quarter as the Steelers did not allow a touchdown in the first half for the fourth straight game this season. Through four games, Pittsburgh allowed just six points in the opening two quarters.

Arizona knotted the score at 7-7 midway through the third quarter, though, as Jerheme Urban was on the receiving end of a Kurt Warner six-yard pass.

Two drives later, Pittsburgh picked up a fumbled snap by Warner deep in Cardinals' territory and found itself with a first-and-goal at the four-yard line. However, on third down, Roethlisberger was picked off in the end zone to halt the Steelers' scoring opportunity.

Arizona took the lead for good in the fourth quarter as Pittsburgh-native Steve Breaston returned a punt 73 yards for a touchdown to put the Cardinals ahead 14-7 with 14 minutes remaining in the game.

Edgerrin James then padded the Arizona lead at the 4:14 mark of the fourth quarter as he scored from two yards out to stretch the advantage to 21-7.

Roethlisberger and Holmes connected again right after the two-minute warning, this time from seven yards out, to trim the lead to 21-14. However, Roethlisberger tossed his second interception of the day with just seconds remaining to cap the Cardinals victory.

Holmes was a bright spot for the Steelers offense as he finished with a then-career-high 128 yards receiving on six catches (21.3 avg.) with a personal-best two touchdowns.

Roethlisberger finished 17-of-32 for 244 yards passing with two touchdowns and two interceptions. RB Willie Parker was held to just 37 yards on the ground.

Game 5 Pittsburgh 21, Seattle 0

October 7, 2007 Heinz Field (64,478)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh posted its first-ever shut-out at Heinz Field as they dominated the visiting Seattle Seahawks 21-0. The Steelers improved to 4-1 on the season while the Seahawks dropped to 3-2.

The Steelers defense, which was playing without starters S Troy Polamalu and DT Casey Hampton, continued to dominate their opponents as they held Seattle to just 144 yards of total offense, including 38 yards rushing and 106 passing yards. For the fifth straight game this season, Pittsburgh did not allow a touchdown in the first half and held the Seahawks to a total of eight first downs in the entire game.

After a scoreless first quarter, Pittsburgh managed to grab a 7-0 lead late in the first half as QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller in the end zone for a 13-yard score.

Backup RB Najeh Davenport then exploded for two scores in the second half, marking his first multi-touchdown game as a Steeler. He scored from one yard out in the third quarter and also from five yards out in the fourth quarter to give Pittsburgh the decisive 21-0 advantage.

Davenport finished the game with 58 yards on seven carries (8.3 avg.), including a 45-yarder.

RB Willie Parker posted his 17th career 100-yard rushing game and the fourth of the year as he finished with 102 yards on 28 carries (3.6 avg.).

Roethlisberger was efficient all afternoon as he finished 18-of-22 passing for 206 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions for an impressive 120.8 passer rating.

Playing without starting wide receivers Hines Ward (knee) and Santonio Holmes (hamstring), Pittsburgh's backups filled in and played admirably. WR Cedrick Wilson led the Steelers with five catches for 69 yards (13.8 avg.) while WR Nate Washington added three catches for 26 yards. Miller posted four catches for 44 yards (11.0 avg.) with a touchdown.

CB Ike Taylor posted his second interception of the season and finished with five tackles. LB James Harrison had a team-high six tackles while LB James Farrior (2.0 sacks), LB Clark Haggans (half-sack) and S Tyronne Carter (half-sack) collectively posted three sacks for 16 yards for the Steelers defense.

Game 6 Denver 31, Pittsburgh 28

October 21, 2007 INVESCO Field at Mile High [77,083]

DENVER — Denver K Jason Elam booted a game-winning 49-yard field goal as time expired to give the Broncos a dramatic 31-28 victory over the Steelers on Sunday Night Football. Pittsburgh dropped its second straight road game on the season and fell to 4-2 on the year while Denver improved to 3-3.

The Steelers grabbed the early lead as QB Ben Roethlisberger tossed the first of his four touchdown passes on the team's first drive of the game. He found TE Heath Miller for a two-yard score at the 11-minute mark of the first quarter.

However, Denver responded with three unanswered touchdowns for a 21-7 halftime lead. Pittsburgh entered the game allowing a total of six points in the first half the entire season but surrendered the three scores against the Broncos.

Pittsburgh managed to rally in the second half and eventually tied the game at 28-28 with just over a minute to play. Roethlisberger had touchdowns passes to WR Santonio Holmes (13 yards), TE Matt Spaeth (13) and finally the game-tying score to Miller (12).

Denver halted the Steelers momentum however by engineering a seven-play, 49-yard drive that ended with Elam's last-second heroics.

Pittsburgh finished with 24 first downs in the game and had 379 yards of total offense (119 rushing, 260 passing). The Steelers converted 67 percent (8 of 12) of their third downs and were penalized just three times for the drive.

Roethlisberger finished 24-for-35 for 290 yards and the four touchdowns (108.0 passer rating). The four touchdowns tied a then-career-high that he initially set in Week 1 of 2007 at Cleveland.

RB Willie Parker had 93 rushing yards on 21 carries (4.4 avg.).

WR Hines Ward led all receivers with seven catches for 78 yards (11.1). Miller finished with five catches for 50 yards (10.0 avg.) with two touchdowns while Holmes added six catches for 54 yards (9.0 avg.) and a touchdown.

LB Larry Foote and S Anthony Smith each notched their first interception of the season. LB LaMarr Woodley and LB James Harrison each posted sacks for the Steelers.

Game 7 Pittsburgh 24, Cincinnati 13

October 28, 2007 Paul Brown Stadium (66,181)

CINCINNATI — Pittsburgh captured its seventh straight win at Paul Brown Stadium as it defeated the Cincinnati Bengals, 24-13, before a stadium-record crowd of 66,188. The Steelers improved to 5-2 on the season and kept their lead atop the AFC North while the Bengals dropped to 2-5.

The Steelers used a balanced offensive attack all afternoon while the defense stymied the Bengals offense throughout. Pittsburgh finished with 390 yards of total offense (160 rushing, 230 passing) while it limited Cincinnati to 296 yards (205 passing, 91 rushing).

The Bengals grabbed their only lead of the game midway through the first quarter on a 31-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham. However, Pittsburgh offense came alive and scored touchdowns on their next three possessions to take control at the half.

QB Ben Roethlisberger hit WR Hines Ward twice, once from 21 yards out in the first quarter and again in the second quarter from six yards away, for the Steelers first two touchdowns. It marked Ward's 60th and 61st career touchdowns, two shy of the team record.

After the Bengals kicked a 20-yard field goal with just over two minutes left in the first half, Pittsburgh responded with a successful two-minute drill as RB Willie Parker darted in the end zone from one yard out with just four seconds left to give the Steelers a commanding 21-6 halftime advantage.

After a scoreless third quarter, Cincinnati narrowed the gap to 21-13 with 13 minutes remaining in the game. However K Jeff Reed booted a 40-yard field goal on the ensuing possession to put the game out of reach midway through the final quarter.

LB James Harrison then sealed the victory late in the game by forcing a fumble on RB Kenny Watson in Pittsburgh's red zone, which was then recovered by Harrison as well.

Roethlisberger, who is 9-0 in the state of Ohio as an NFL starter, finished 19-of-26 for 230 yards with two touchdowns and one interception (109.5 passer rating). It marked the 12th straight game he has thrown at least one touchdown pass.

Ward led Pittsburgh with eight catches for 88 yards and the two touchdowns, while Parker posted his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season (18th career) as he finished with 126 yards on 22 carries (5.7 avg.) with one touchdown.

Game 8 Pittsburgh 38, Baltimore 7

November 5, 2007 Heinz Field (63,457)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh used a career performance by QB Ben Roethlisberger and a defensive gem led by LB James Harrison to control the Baltimore Ravens and come away with a commanding 38-7 victory on Monday Night Football at Heinz Field. The Steelers improved to 6-2 on the season while the Ravens dropped to 4-4.

Roethlisberger tossed a career-high five touchdown passes, tying the team record held by Mark Malone and Terry Bradshaw. He finished the night 13-of-16 for 209 yards with five touchdowns and a perfect passer rating of 158.3. It marked the second time in his four-year career he has posted a perfect passer rating.

While Roethlisberger was making the noise on offense, Harrison brought the thunder on defense as he finished with nine tackles, 3.5 sacks, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and an interception. He became the first player since 1982 to record 3.5 sacks, a fumble recovery and an interception in one game.

The Steelers jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter as Roethlisberger hit TE Heath Miller for a 17-yard touchdown and WR Santonio Holmes for a 15-yard touchdown.

Pittsburgh tacked on three more touchdowns in the second quarter as Roethlisberger hit WR Nate Washington twice for scores (30 yards, seven yards) and again connected with Holmes on a 35-yard strike.

K Jeff Reed booted a 22-yard field goal in the third quarter to cap Pittsburgh's scoring.

Holmes led all receivers with four catches for 110 yards (27.5 avg.) with two touchdowns. Washington added three catches for 51 yards (17.0 avg.) with two scores.

RB Willie Parker, who entered the game second in the league in rushing, was held to just 42 yards on 23 carries (1.8 avg.).

Pittsburgh's defense forced four turnovers, including three fumbles and one interception. It limited the Ravens to just 104 yards of total offense, including 64 rushing yards and 40 passing yards. Baltimore managed just five first downs and were a dismal 3-of-15 (20 percent) on third-down attempts.

The Steelers posted six sacks in the game, including 3.5 by Harrison, one each by LB James Farrior and DE Travis Kirschke, and a half-sack by LB Clark Haggans.

Game 9 Pittsburgh 31, Cleveland 28

November 11, 2007 Heinz Field (64,781)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh captured its ninth straight victory over its AFC North-rival Cleveland Browns as it fought back for a 31-28 come-from-behind victory at Heinz Field. The win was the Steelers third in a row overall and upped their record to 7-2 on the season while the Browns fell to 5-4.

QB Ben Roethlisberger engineered his 10th career comeback victory as he guided to the Steelers to three second-half touchdowns, including two passing and one rushing.

After trailing 21-9 at the half, Roethlisberger pulled Pittsburgh to within one score, 21-16, midway through the third quarter as he tossed a 12-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward. It was Ward's 62nd career receiving touchdown, one shy of the team record.

Roethlisberger then used his legs to give Pittsburgh its first lead of the game as he rushed for a career-long 30-yard touchdown with 11:32 remaining in the game. He hit Ward for a two-point conversion to make it 24-21.

However, the lead was short-lived as KR Joshua Cribbs returned the ensuing kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown to put Cleveland back in front, 28-24.

Roethlisberger would not be denied as he guided Pittsburgh to the game-winning touchdown drive, which culminated with a two-yard strike to TE Heath Miller with 3:13 left in the game. On the drive, Roethlisberger was 5-for-5 for 68 yards and also ran for 10 yards on a crucial third-and-nine play.

Cleveland K Phil Dawson missed a 52-yard field goal with six seconds left that sealed the Steelers victory.

Roethlisberger finished the game 23-of-34 for 278 yards and two touchdowns with one interception (99.9 passer rating). He also rushed for a career-best 49 yards on five carries (9.8 avg.) with one score.

Ward led all receivers with seven catches for 80 yards (11.4 avg.) with one touchdown. Miller added five catches for 71 yards (14.2 avg.) with a score while RB Willie Parker posted his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season, finishing with 105 yards on 25 carries (4.2 avg.).

Game 10 New York Jets 19, Pittsburgh 16 (OT)

November 18, 2007 The Meadowlands (77,659)

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Pittsburgh's three-game winning streak was snapped with a disappointing 19-16 overtime loss to the New York Jets at The Meadowlands. The Steelers fell to 7-3 on the season while the Jets captured just their second win of the year and improved to 2-8.

The Steelers fell behind early as New York used trickery on the second play of the game with a flea-flicker that set up a touchdown two plays later. New York added a field goal late in the first quarter to take a 10-0 lead as Pittsburgh struggled to get things going offensively and defensively.

QB Ben Roethlisberger finally got the Steelers on the board as he hooked up with WR Santonio Holmes for a seven-yard touchdown with nine minutes remaining in the first half. It was Holmes' team-leading seventh touchdown of the year and it marked the 15th straight game Roethlisberger has thrown for at least one score.

However, New York notched a 19-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter to post a 13-7 halftime advantage.

Pittsburgh fought back in the second half but could muster only nine points as K Jeff Reed booted 37, 33 and 48-yard field goals. His last field goal of 48 yards with 8:41 remaining in the game gave the Steelers their first and only lead of the game, 16-13.

K Mike Nugent was able to tie the game at 16-16 with just 23 seconds left in the fourth with a 28-yard field goal and force overtime.

After both teams failed to score on their first drives of the extra session, New York used a 33-yard punt return by Leon Washington that set up Nugent for his game-winning 38-yard field goal into the wind.

Roethlisberger finished 15-of-25 for 195 yards with one touchdown and one interception. RB Willie Parker had just 52 yards rushing on 21 carries while Holmes finished with five catches for 75 yards (15.0 avg.) with one touchdown.

The Steelers allowed their first 100-yard rusher in the past 35 games as Thomas Jones had 117 yards on 30 carries (3.9 avg.). They also allowed New York to sack Roethlisberger seven times.

Pittsburgh finished with four sacks of its own and CB Deshaea Townsend posted his second interception of the season.

Game 11 Pittsburgh 3, Miami 0

November 26, 2007 Heinz Field (57,704)

PITTSBURGH — K Jeff Reed booted a 24-yard field goal with 17 seconds remaining in the game as Pittsburgh escaped with a 3-0 victory over the winless (0-11) Miami Dolphins on a rain-soaked Heinz Field on Monday Night Football. The Steelers improved to 8-3 on the year and a perfect 6-0 at home.

Reed overcame an earlier missed field goal from 44 yards on a re-sodded field drenched in rain. His game-winner came after the Steelers marched 36 yards on nine plays in just under four minutes in the fourth quarter. On the final drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger was 4-for-5 for 44 yards.

Both teams struggled to get much offense going throughout the game as Pittsburgh finished with just 216 yards of total offense, including 84 yards on the ground, while Miami mustered only 159 yards of offense, a mere 49 rushing yards.

After the game was delayed nearly 25 minutes due to lightning and poor weather conditions in the area, Pittsburgh and Miami played a field-position battle throughout much of the evening. Neither team budged as the Steelers were only in the red zone one time while the Dolphins failed to get inside the 20-yard line all night.

Despite the poor conditions, Roethlisberger finished 18-of-21 (85.7%) for 165 yards with one interception. He completed 15 straight passes at one point during the game, tying the team record for consecutive completions. Roethlisberger's 85.7 completion percentage also broke the team's single-game record.

RB Willie Parker finished with a game-high 81 yards rushing on 24 attempts (3.4 avg.) and eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the season for the third straight year, becoming just the third Steelers running back to accomplish the feat (Jerome Bettis, Franco Harris).

WR Hines Ward added a game-high nine catches for 88 yards (9.8 avg.).

The Steelers defense posted four sacks, led by DE Brett Keisel, DE Aaron Smith and LB James Harrison, who each posted a full sack. LB Larry Foote and LB James Farrior tallied a half-sack each.

S Tyrone Carter, starting for the injured S Troy Polamalu, finished with a game-high 12 tackles (11 solo) while Farrior added 11 stops (seven solo).

The shutout was the Steelers second of the season and the 3-0 victory was the lowest scoring game at home in team history. It was also the lowest scoring Monday Night Football game in its 38 years.

Game 12 Pittsburgh 24, Cincinnati 10

December 2, 2007 Heinz Field (57,704)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh overcame a sluggish start to sweep the season series against the Bengals for the first time since 2004 with a 24-10 victory at Heinz Field on Sunday Night Football. The Steelers improved to 9-3 on the year, having won five of their last six games, while the Bengals dropped to 4-8.

The Steelers improved to 5-0 against AFC North opponents on the year and also captured their seventh win in as many games at Heinz Field.

Cincinnati scored on its first drive of the game as it engineered a 12-play, 75-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Rudi Johnson.

However, the Steelers defense came alive and allowed just a third-quarter field goal throughout the entire rest of the game. In the meantime, it held QB Carson Palmer to a dismal 51.6 passer rating on the night after he completed just 17-of-44 passes for 183 yards.

LB James Farrior led the charge with eight tackles while S Tyrone Carter and S Anthony Smith each added seven stops. LB Larry Foote posted the Steelers lone sack in the game.

Offensively, WR Hines Ward became the team's all-time leader in receiving touchdowns as he posted his 14th career multi-touchdown game. Ward's two touchdowns gave him 64 for his career, passing Hall of Famer John Stallworth on the Steelers' all-time list. Ward finished with a game-high 11 catches for 90 yards and two scores, becoming the first receiver in team history to catch over 700 passes (705).

QB Ben Roethlisberger got the Steelers on the board midway through the second quarter with a six-yard touchdown run, his second of the season and eighth of his career. He then added two touchdown passes, both to Ward, one in each of the second and third quarters to take control of the game.

Roethlisberger finished 21-of-32 for 184 yards passing with two touchdowns and two interceptions (75.5 passer rating). He upped his passing touchdown total on the year to 25, which ranks third in team history.

RB Willie Parker posted a game-high 87 yards rushing on 28 carries (3.1 avg.).

K Jeff Reed booted a 21-yard field goal in the second quarter for the Steelers.

Game 13 New England 34, Pittsburgh 13*December 9, 2007 Gillette Stadium (68,756)

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. — Pittsburgh could not overcome four touchdown passes from Patriots QB Tom Brady as the Steelers dropped a 34-13 decision to New England at Gillette Stadium. The Steelers fell to 9-4 on the year while the Patriots improved to a perfect 13-0.

Despite a solid offensive effort by the Steelers, they could not keep Brady in check as he tossed two touchdowns in each half and finished with 399 yards passing. Pittsburgh, however, finished with 181 yards of rushing to the Patriots' 22 and controlled the clock for much of the evening (34:43 to New England's 25:17).

After Pittsburgh jumped out to a 3-0 lead on their first drive of the game on a K Jeff Reed 23-yard field goal, the Steelers allowed the Patriots to respond as Brady hit WR Randy Moss for a four-yard touchdown late in the first quarter.

The duo connected again on their next drive as Brady hit Moss for a 63-yard touchdown on the first play of the series to give New England a 14-3 advantage.

The Steelers struck back, though, as QB Ben Roethlisberger hit RB Najeh Davenport for a 32-yard touchdown pass with just over 11 minutes to go in the first half, cutting the lead to 14-10.

Reed added a 44-yard field goal with 2:29 remaining in the second quarter to make it 14-13, but a late field goal by the Patriots gave them a 17-13 halftime lead.

In the second half, New England scored two more touchdowns and added another field goal as they cruised to their 13th victory of the season. Pittsburgh was stopped on fourth-and-goal at the one-yard line on its only serious scoring threat of the half.

RB Willie Parker finished with a game-high 124 yards rushing on 21 carries (5.9 avg.) for his seventh 100-yard rushing game of the season and the 20th of his career. Parker also caught four passes for 23 yards (5.8 avg.).

Roethlisberger was 19-of-32 for 187 yards passing with one touchdown and no interceptions (86.3 passer rating).

WR Hines Ward led Pittsburgh with five catches for 39 yards (7.8 avg.) while TE Heath Miller added four catches for 28 yards (7.0 avg.).

Game 14 Jacksonville 29, Pittsburgh 22

December 16, 2007 Heinz Field (58,793)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers suffered their second straight defeat as they fell to the visiting Jacksonville Jaguars, 29-22, at Heinz Field in snowy conditions. The loss, the first of the year at home for Pittsburgh, dropped the Steelers to 9-5 on the year while Jacksonville improved to 10-4.

Pittsburgh, which had a chance to clinch a playoff spot with a victory, was outgained in total yardage, 421-217, and allowed the Jaguars to rush for 224 yards, the most against the Steelers in more than seven years.

Jacksonville jumped out to an early 3-0 lead and also led 10-7 at halftime. The Jaguars then grabbed a 22-7 after three quarters thanks to a pair of QB David Garrard touchdown passes in the third.

However, Pittsburgh responded by eventually tying the game at 22-22 as QB Ben Roethlisberger tossed two touchdowns in the final quarter, an 11-yarder to WR Hines Ward and a 30-yarder to WR Nate Washington with just under six minutes remaining in the game.

The Jaguars responded, orchestrating an eight-play, 73-yard drive that ended with RB Fred Taylor darting in from 12 yards out for the game-winning score with 1:57 left in the game.

The Steelers got the ball in Jacksonville territory on the ensuing drive, but came up short on a fourth-down play that sealed the Jaguars third straight victory over Pittsburgh in the series.

Roethlisberger highlighted the Steelers offense as he tossed three touchdown passes and finished 15-of-32 for 146 yards. His three touchdown passes gave him 29 on the year, breaking the team's single-season mark previously held by Terry Bradshaw (1978). It also marked his fourth game this year he has thrown at least three touchdowns in a game.

RB Willie Parker had his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the season as he finished with 100 yards on 14 carries (7.1 avg.).

Ward finished with three catches for 27 yards and a touchdown while WR Santonio Holmes added four receptions for 34 yards (8.5 avg.). TE Heath Miller caught his team-leading (tied) seventh touchdown pass of the year, an 18-yarder from Roethlisberger for the Steelers first score of the game in the second quarter.

S Anthony Smith posted his second interception of the season.

Game 15 Pittsburgh 41, St. Louis 24

December 20, 2007 Edward Jones Dome (65,705)

ST. LOUIS — Pittsburgh snapped its two-game losing streak but suffered a key injury in a 41-24 victory over the St. Louis Rams at the Edward Jones Dome on Thursday Night Football. The Steelers improved to 10-5 on the season while the Rams fell to 3-12.

On just the second offensive play from scrimmage for Pittsburgh, RB Willie Parker went down with a season-ending leg injury on a his lone rush of the game. Parker led the NFL in both rushing yards and rushing attempts before sustaining the injury.

Backup RB Najeh Davenport stepped up in Parker's absence and finished with 123 yards on 24 carries (5.1 avg.) with one rushing touchdown and one receiving touchdown. It marked his first 100-yard rushing performance as a Steeler and just the second of his career.

QB Ben Roethlisberger, who was named to his first Pro Bowl earlier in the week, continued his prolific season as he finished with his third career perfect passer rating (158.3), which is tied for most in NFL history. He was 16-of-20 for 261 yards passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions. He also eclipsed 3,000 yards for the second straight season against the Rams, which tied the team record for consecutive 3,000-yard seasons.

WR Hines Ward finished with six catches for 59 yards (9.8 avg.) and became the team's all-time leader in receiving yards (8,737), passing Hall of Famer John Stallworth.

The Steelers led 7-0 early in the game as Roethlisberger hit WR Nate Washington, who finished with two touchdown catches, for a 17-yard touchdown. However, Pittsburgh trailed 14-10 early in the second quarter before Roethlisberger tossed a pair of touchdowns later in the first half as the Steelers owned a 24-17 halftime lead.

In the second half, Davenport added a one-yard touchdown run and K Jeff Reed booted a 29-yard field goal to give Pittsburgh a 34-24 lead late in the game. CB Ike Taylor sealed the victory with a 51-yard interception return for a touchdown with less than four minutes remaining. It was Taylor's first career touchdown.

Game 16 Baltimore 27, Pittsburgh 21

December 30, 2007 M&T Bank Stadium (71,353)

BALTIMORE — Pittsburgh suffered a 27-21 setback to the Baltimore Ravens in its regular-season finale at M&T Bank Stadium. The Steelers dropped to 10-6 on the season while the Ravens snapped a nine-game losing streak and finished the year 5-11.

The Steelers, playing without the services of starters QB Ben Roethlisberger, WR Hines Ward, S Troy Polamalu and OT Marvel Smith in the game, earned the No. 4 seed in the NFL playoffs despite the loss.

Pittsburgh dug itself a hole by falling behind 17-0 by the 13:27 mark of the second quarter. The Steelers fumbled the opening kickoff, which led to a touchdown run by RB Musa Smith, and also gave up a 32-yard touchdown run by RB Cory Ross early in the second.

The Steelers were able to trim the lead to 17-7 as RB Najeh Davenport, who made his first start of the season, powered his way into the end zone from one yard out. It was his team-leading fifth touchdown run of the year.

A late 31-yard field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore a 20-7 lead at the break. The Ravens upped the lead to 27-7 in the third quarter as QB Troy Smith hit WR Devard Darling for a 15-yard score.

The Steelers mounted a comeback in the fourth quarter as QB Charlie Batch, who made his first start of the season, tossed a pair of touchdowns. His first one was a 59-yard pass to WR Santonio Holmes to cut the lead to 27-14 with 7:13 left in the game. It was Holmes' team-leading eighth touchdown of the year.

Pittsburgh then successfully converted an onside kick and Batch marched the Steelers down the field for their second straight score. He found WR Cedrick Wilson for a seven-yard score at the 3:36 mark of the fourth quarter.

After forcing the Ravens to punt, Pittsburgh had one last chance but Batch threw an interception with just over a minute remaining to seal the outcome.

Batch finished 16-of-31 passing for 218 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions (69.0 passer rating).

WR Nate Washington led Pittsburgh with five catches for 68 yards (13.6 avg.) while Holmes added four receptions for 98 yards (24.5 avg.) with one score.

AFC Wild Card Game Jacksonville 31, Pittsburgh 29

January 5, 2008 Heinz Field (63,629)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers came back from an 18-point deficit in the fourth quarter but eventually fell to the visiting Jacksonville Jaguars, 31-29, in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field. The loss snapped a four-game postseason winning streak for Pittsburgh and it marked the fourth straight loss to the Jaguars overall.

Pittsburgh jumped out to a 7-0 lead on its first drive as RB Najeh Davenport ran for his first of two one-yard touchdowns on the night. However, on the ensuing kickoff the Jaguars' RB Maurice Jones-Drew returned it 96 yards to the Steelers' three and RB Fred Taylor scored one play later to knot the score at 7-7.

Three first-half interceptions by QB Ben Roethlisberger dug Pittsburgh into a 21-7 halftime deficit. The Steelers would then fall behind 28-10 entering the fourth quarter before igniting the rally.

Roethlisberger found WR Santonio Holmes for a 37-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the final quarter to cut the lead to 28-17.

After a three-and-out by Jacksonville, Roethlisberger again engineered a scoring drive on the next possession as he hit TE Heath Miller for a 14-yard touchdown with 10:25 remaining in the game. A failed two-point conversion made the score 28-23.

CB Ike Taylor then intercepted a David Garrard pass on the second play of the ensuing Jaguars possession before Davenport pushed his way into the end zone for his second score of the night at the 6:21 mark of the fourth quarter.

Both teams were unable to score on the next two drives, which gave Jacksonville the ball back with 2:38 to go in the game. The Jaguars eventually marched down to the Steelers' seven-yard line, thanks in large part to a 32-yard run by Garrard on a fourth-and-two play earlier in the drive. K Josh Scobee booted the game-winning 25-yard field goal with 37 seconds left in the contest.

WR Hines Ward had a standout game for the Steelers by catching 10 passes for a playoff career-high 135 yards (13.5 avg.). Miller added eight catches for 85 yards and a touchdown.

Rookie LB LaMarr Woodley posted a team-high two sacks as the Steelers held Jacksonville to just 239 yards of total offense.

Steelers History

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933, by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the 10-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988, following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief," as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's great people.

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he lived on the North Side just a short distance from Three Rivers Stadium.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana [Pa.] Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic Games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931, to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John and Pat. In 1964, Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for his contributions to the growth of the NFL and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

By the mid-1960s, Steelers founder Art Rooney had begun to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. After having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Daniel M. Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. In 2000, Dan Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined his his father Art to form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. The late New York Giants owner Wellington Mara and his father Tim were the first.

Now in his 53rd year with the organization, he is one of the most active NFL owners and one of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs. Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is a board member for The American Ireland Fund, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation and The Heinz History Center.

Dan Rooney has been a member of several NFL committees over the past 30-plus years. He has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976, Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players' Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993. Rooney was also largely responsible for developing the realignment plan and scheduling format that the NFL adopted prior to the 2002 season. In October 2002, he was named chairman of the NFL's Diversity in the Workplace Committee. Rooney is Chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee. In February 1999, he was named the recipient of the Philadelphia Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award for outstanding contributions to the game of football.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Rooney and his wife Patricia live on the North Side. The Rooneys have nine children and 17 grandchildren.

In 2002, Dan Rooney officially turned over the title of Steelers' team president to his oldest son, Art Rooney II, who had previously served as the team's vice president and general counsel. Art II also previously served as Chairman of the Board of Klett Rooney Lieber & Schorling (now Buchanan Ingersoll), Attorneys at Law. A 1978 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh where he majored in political science, Art II received his law degree from Duquesne University School of Law in 1982. His many charitable contributions include sitting on the boards of Pittsburgh's Children's Museum, Greater Pittsburgh Council of the Boy Scouts of America, United Way of Allegheny County and Board of Trustees at Duquesne University. He and his wife Greta have four children.

After founding the Pirates in 1933, Art Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans, and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938 Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the league in rushing that year and became one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He served 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court before retiring in 1993.

1940s

In 1940 Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record and a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game, 21-0, to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

1940

The Pittsburgh Pirates are officially renamed the Pittsburgh Steelers.

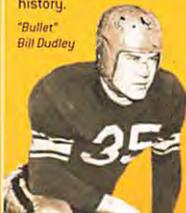

1937

Byron "Whizzer" White paid an unheard-of $15,800 to play one season for the Steelers.

1942

November 22, 1942 – The Steelers defeat the Chicago Cards 19-3 to clinch their first winning season in team history.

"Bullet" Bill Dudley

1950s

Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952 Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44, and 1954-56 campaigns.

1943

The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Philadelphia Eagles to form the "Steagles" as many rosters were depleted due to World War II.

1947

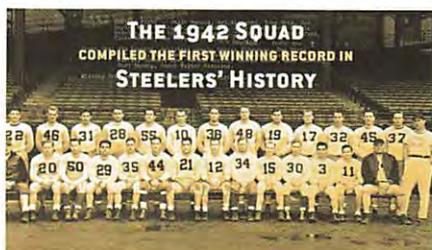

December 21, 1947 – The Steelers play their first postseason game, a 21-0 setback to the Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Division Playoffs.

1944

The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) as many rosters were still depleted due to World War II.

1957

Lowell Perry becomes the NFL's first African-American assistant coach.

Steelers History

1960s

Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne quarterbacked the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game versus Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks third among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

On October 25, 1964, the Steelers made team history when they retired jersey No. 70 in honor of former defensive tackle Ernie Stautner. Stautner, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, remains the only Steelers player to have his jersey retired.

Brief head coaching stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of the 37-year-old Chuck Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1964

October 25, 1964 – The Steelers retire Ernie Stautner's No. 70, becoming the first and only jersey number to be retired in team history.

1969

January 27, 1969 – Chuck Noll is named head coach of the Steelers.

1969

January 28, 1969 – "Mean" Joe Greene is selected by the Steelers in the first round of the NFL Draft.

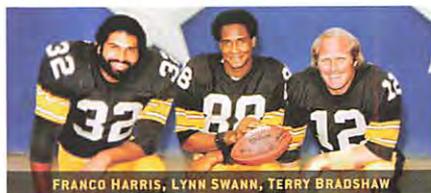

1970

The Pittsburgh Steelers move from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL.

1970s

A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin toss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added in the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted nine players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Two significant changes took place in 1970. The Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69 the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders, 13-7, with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

August 28, 1970 – Pittsburgh defeats the New York Giants, 21-6, in the first preseason game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1970

September 20, 1970 – The Steelers fall to the Houston Oilers, 19-7, in their first regular-season game at Three Rivers Stadium.

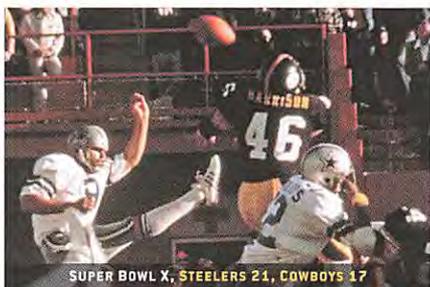

1972

December 23, 1972 – The Steelers win their first playoff game in dramatic fashion with a 13-7 victory over the Oakland Raiders on Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception."

Steelers History

SUPER BOWL X, STEELERS 21, COWBOYS 17

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973 the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory versus the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975 the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claim their second consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 win versus the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

January 29, 1974 – The Steelers select future Hall of Famers Lynn Swann (first round), Jack Lambert (second), John Stallworth (fourth) and Mike Webster (fifth) in the NFL Draft. Many consider it the best draft in NFL history. Following the draft, the Steelers also signed free agent Donnie Shell, who went on to become one of the team's all-time best safeties.

1975

January 12, 1975 – Pittsburgh defeats the Minnesota Vikings, 16-6, to capture the team's first Super Bowl victory in Super Bowl IX in New Orleans' Tulane Stadium.

1975

Dan Rooney is named President of Pittsburgh Steelers.

The 1976 Steelers struggled to a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories including five shutouts to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but lost to Oakland, 24-7, after both starting running backs, Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the first round of the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular-season record.

In 1978 the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins versus Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win versus Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year when the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19, in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins versus Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

Steelers History

1980s As the 1980s opened the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982 the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The following year the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by 6-10 in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7 during the strike-shortened season.

In 1988 the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games as the offense failed to score in the first month of the season. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heartbreaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

1980

January 6, 1980 – The Steelers “weather” the Pittsburgh elements as they defeat the Houston Oilers at a rain-soaked Three Rivers Stadium to advance to Super Bowl XIV.

1980

January 20, 1980 – The Steelers win their fourth Super Bowl championship by defeating the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19, in Super Bowl XIV in Pasadena, Calif. They would be named the Team of the Decade of the 1970s.

1990s A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991 Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach, which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of 34-year-old Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. In the first season of the new era, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed newfound success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's Coach of the Year and six Steelers played in the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

Under Cowher the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its 10th division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers home field advantage throughout the playoffs. However, in the first postseason game at Three Rivers in exactly 10 years, the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC champion Buffalo, 24-3.

Tony Dungy is named defensive coordinator for the Steelers, becoming the NFL's first African-American coordinator.

1987

August 8, 1987 – “Mean” Joe Greene becomes the first player of the 1970s Steelers’ teams to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

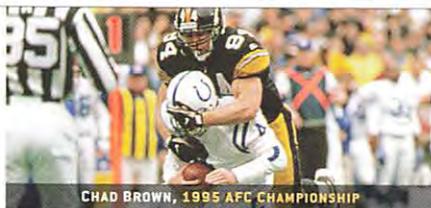

Steelers History

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss at Kansas City in the AFC Wild Card game.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their second division title in three years with the AFC's best record of 12-4. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted its first AFC Championship game since 1979. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers, 17-13.

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl in 1995. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys, 27-17, in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Ariz.

In 1996, the Steelers finished 10-6 and earned their fifth consecutive trip to the playoffs. Cowher ended the season with 57 career victories ranking him as the second winningest coach in team history, behind his predecessor Noll.

The Steelers captured their fourth consecutive AFC Central title in 1997 while posting an 11-5 record. They were one play away from earning their sixth Super Bowl appearance and lost to Denver, 24-21, in the AFC Championship game.

In 1998, the Steelers finished a disappointing 7-9, losing their last five regular-season games and missing the playoffs for the first time under Bill Cowher.

The Steelers suffered their second consecutive losing season in 1999, when their record fell to 6-10.

RECORDS

2000s

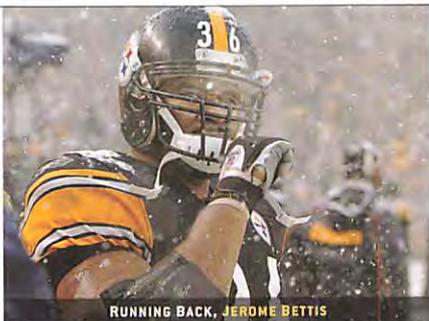

After starting the 2000 season with a 0-3 record, the Steelers rebounded to finish the year at 9-7, and barely missed the playoffs.

However, 2000 will be remembered most for being the final season for the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers were 4-4 during their final season at Three Rivers Stadium, including victories in four of their final six home games. The Steelers won their final game at Three Rivers, 24-3, against the Washington Redskins on Dec. 16.

The Steelers finished 31 seasons at Three Rivers Stadium (1970-2000) with a 182-73 home record, including the postseason. The Steelers recorded their largest regular-season home attendance figures (440,428) since 1998 in the final season, including a season-high 58,183 fans during the final game in stadium history.

The Steelers began a new era in team history in 2001 with the opening of their new stadium, Heinz Field. The Steelers posted an AFC-best 13-3 regular-season record, including a 7-1 mark at home, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

The inaugural game at Heinz Field was originally scheduled to be a nationally televised Sunday Night game on Sept. 16. However, the September 11 terrorist attacks on America forced the NFL to postpone all games that weekend — which were eventually rescheduled for the end of the season. As a result, the Steelers opened Heinz Field on Sunday, Oct. 7 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals.

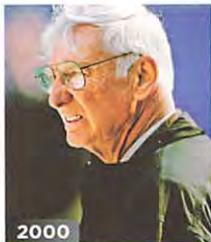

RUNNING BACK, JEROME BETTIS

The Steelers defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens, 27-10, in the AFC Divisional Playoffs, in the first-ever postseason game played at Heinz Field. However, they suffered a disappointing, 24-17, loss at home in the AFC Championship Game to the eventual Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots.

After a 0-2 start in 2002, the Steelers rallied to make the playoffs for the second consecutive season. However, the team's Super Bowl hopes ended when they lost, 34-31, in overtime to the Tennessee Titans on the road.

The Steelers began the 2003 season with a 34-15 victory against AFC North rival Baltimore Ravens. However, the team never regained that magic and finished the season with a 6-10 record and out of the playoffs for the first time in three years.

2001

October 7, 2001 – The Steelers win their first-ever regular-season game at Heinz Field with a 16-7 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals.

Steelers History

The Steelers set a team record in 2004 by becoming the first AFC team to win 15 games (15-1) in the regular season. They ultimately advanced to the AFC Championship Game where they lost to the New England Patriots, 41-27. Nine Steelers were selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, the team's most since the 1979 season.

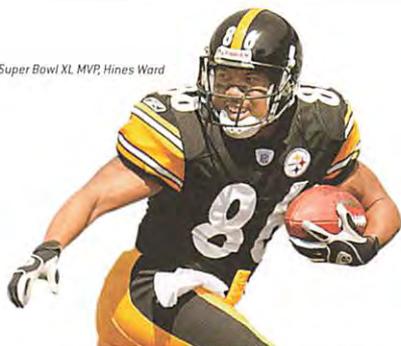

Pittsburgh found itself sitting at 7-5 after 12 games in 2005, but it rallied to win its final four regular-season games to earn the AFC's sixth seed in the playoffs. The Steelers then won an unprecedented three straight road playoff games to gain a berth in Super Bowl XL in Detroit versus the Seattle Seahawks.

The Steelers captured their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seahawks as wide receiver Hines Ward was named MVP, finishing with five receptions for 123 yards. Ward also hauled in a game-clinching 43-yard TD pass from Antwaan Randle El on a gadget play midway through the fourth quarter.

The 2006 season saw the Bill Cowher era come to an end with the Steelers finishing the season winning six of their final eight games to post an 8-8 record on the year.

On January 5, 2006, Bill Cowher resigned as Steelers head coach with a 161-99-1 overall career record, second best in team history.

The Steelers hired 34-year old Mike Tomlin as the team's coach. Tomlin was the NFL's youngest head coach at the time he was hired as the team's coach on Jan. 22, 2007.

Tomlin became the second first-year coach in team history to make the playoffs. The Steelers finished with a 10-6 overall record and won the AFC North division title.

Super Bowl IX  Pittsburgh 16,  Minnesota 6*January 12, 1975 80,997

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in quarterback Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by defense. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota defensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' center Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh defensive end Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the 9.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, both new highs for the Super Bowl, and Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

Super Bowl X Pittsburgh 21, Dallas 17

January 18, 1976 80,197

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to tight end Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make his catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10:07 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic 3 interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas safety Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh linebacker Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers reserve fullback Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only 2 yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers' safety Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was intercepted by the safety Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

Super Bowl XIII Pittsburgh 35, Dallas 31

January 21, 1979 78,656

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach saw tight end Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas cornerback Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to tight end Billy Joe Dupree and Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

Super Bowl XIV Pittsburgh 31, Los Angeles 19

January 20, 1980 103,985

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams defensive end Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers wide receiver John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams cornerback Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit wide receiver Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from quarterback Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Super Bowl XXX ★ Dallas 27, 🏈 Pittsburgh 17

January 28, 1996 76,347

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas cornerback Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four yard-line two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions— a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

Super Bowl XL Pittsburgh 21, Seattle 10

February 5, 2006 Ford Field 68,206

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history [S.F. 49ers and Dallas Cowboys].

Backed by a predominantly Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it failed to gain a first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

Pittsburgh's defense continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead throughout the second quarter.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the half as Roethlisberger dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the second half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open by driving to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game on a gadget play. WR Antwan Randle El took a reverse handoff and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with 8:56 left in the game. Randle El's touchdown pass was the first by a wide receiver in Super Bowl history.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions to post the victory.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while RB Jerome Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks.

Steelers in the Hall of Fame

Arthur J. Rooney Sr.

Founder, President, Chairman of the Board (1933-'88) Elected: 1964

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was one of the most influential personalities in the sport of football. Mr. Rooney, who was affectionately referred to as "the Chief", founded the Steelers organization on July 8, 1933, with a $2,500 purchase. Mr. Rooney helped orchestrate the NFL-AFL merger and kept the Steelers franchise afloat during the depression, World War II, many losing seasons and financial problems. Mr. Rooney won his first of four Super Bowl championships in 1974.

Daniel M. Rooney

President and Chairman (1955-Present) Elected: 2000

Born on July 20, 1932, in Pittsburgh's North Side, Daniel M. Rooney is one of NFL's most influential owners. Mr. Rooney contributed to the labor negotiations between the League and Player's Association in 1982 and 1993 and is largely responsible for the NFL's current realignment and scheduling format. Mr. Rooney, who is entering his 53rd season with the organization, was named the Steelers' president in 1975, a title he held until passing it to his oldest son Art Rooney II in 2002.

Burt Bell

Co-owner (1940-'45) Elected: 1963

Burt Bell was an owner of the Philadelphia Eagles (1933-'40) and co-owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers (1940-'45). Bell was named the NFL commissioner (1946-'59) and helped set up the league's television and anti-gambling policies. He also oversaw the merger of the NFL and All-American Football League in 1949. Bell died on October 11, 1959, while watching a football game between his two former teams: Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

Johnny 'Blood' McNally

Player (1934, 1937-39), Coach (1937-39) Elected: 1963

John "Blood" McNally played 14 seasons in the NFL with five different teams, including two stints with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He served as both a player and coach from 1937-39 for the Pirates and was considered possibly the best receiver in the NFL during his playing days.

Bill Dudley

Halfback (1942, 1945-46) Elected: 1966

Bill Dudley, nicknamed "Bullet Bill", was a first-round draft pick of the Steelers in 1942 and finished his rookie season as the league's leading rusher with 696 yards, earning him all-league honors. In 1946, he became the NFL's first player to lead the league in four distinctly different statistical categories, including rushing, punt returns, interceptions and lateral passes attempted. That same year he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player. Dudley was a two-time All-NFL selection during his nine-year career.

Walt Kiesling

Player (1937-'39), Coach (1939-'44, 1949-'51) Elected: 1966

Walt Kiesling spent 34 years in the NFL as a player, assistant coach and head coach. In 1939, Kiesling got his first head coaching job with the Pittsburgh. He led the Steelers to their first winning season in franchise history in 1942. Kiesling left coaching in 1944, but returned in 1954 with the Steelers. His teams earned a reputation for playing rugged hard-hitting football.

Bobby Layne

Quarterback (1958-62) Elected: 1967

Bobby Layne played five of his 15 NFL seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He helped provide the Steelers with some of their finest seasons up to that point. Prior to Pittsburgh, Layne was a two-time All-NFL selection and was the league's scoring champion in 1956. His last-second touchdown pass won the 1953 NFL title game for the Detroit Lions.

Ernie Stautner

Defensive Tackle (1950-63) Elected: 1969

Ernie Stautner, considered one of the toughest players in league history by his teammates and opponents, was a nine-time Pro Bowl selection as he anchored Pittsburgh's defense for 14 seasons. He captured the NFL's Best Lineman Award in 1957 and was named all-league four times. Showing his gritty and hard-working attitude, Stautner missed just six games during his 14-year career despite having numerous broken ribs, shoulders, hands and a nose. The Steelers honored him by retiring his No. 70 jersey in 1964 following his retirement, and he remains the only Steeler to have received that honor.

Joe Greene

Defensive Tackle (1969-81) Elected: 1987

The leader of the "Steel Curtain" defense during the 1970s, Joe Greene dominated the NFL during that decade and helped the Steelers to four Super Bowl victories. The team's No. 1 draft pick in 1969, Greene quickly became a presence in the league as he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year and received the first of his 10 Pro Bowl invitations. He earned All-NFL honors five times and all-conference 11 straight years to begin his career. Greene was twice the league's Defensive Player of the Year and played a critical role in the Steelers' Super Bowl IX victory over the Minnesota Vikings with a pass interception and a fumble recovery.

Steelers in the Hall of Fame

John Henry Johnson

Fullback (1960-65) Elected: 1987

Originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1953, John Henry Johnson spent his first eight years in the NFL outside of the Steel City. However, Johnson enjoyed his finest seasons with the Steelers. In both 1962 and 1964, Johnson became the first Steeler to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing barrier. After retiring in 1966 from the Houston Oilers, Johnson's 6,803 career rushing yards ranked him fourth at the time among the NFL's all-time top ground gainers behind only Jim Brown, Jim Taylor and Joe Perry.

Jack Ham

Linebacker (1971-82) Elected: 1988

Playing all 12 seasons of his NFL career with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Jack Ham earned All-Pro or All-AFC honors in seven consecutive seasons (1973-79). He also was selected to play in eight straight Pro Bowls and was named the Football News Defensive Player of the Year in 1975. Ham won the starting linebacker job as a rookie and never looked back, playing in five AFC Championship games and three Super Bowls (sat out Super Bowl XIV due to injuries). His interception return against Oakland in the 1974 AFC Championship game that set up the Steelers' go-ahead touchdown, giving the team its first ever championship victory and a berth in Super Bowl IX.

Mel Blount

Cornerback (1970-83) Elected: 1989

Melvin Cornell Blount, the Steelers' third-round pick in 1970, had superior size, speed, strength and intelligence. His physical style of play is widely credited for changing NFL pass defense rules. Blount played 14 seasons and 200 regular-season games in Pittsburgh and his 57 interceptions remain a Steelers record. Blount played in five Pro Bowls and was named an All-Pro four times and the NFL defensive MVP in 1975.

Terry Bradshaw

Quarterback (1970-83) Elected: 1989

Terry Paxton Bradshaw was the top-overall pick in the 1970 NFL Draft. Bradshaw led the Steelers to eight AFC Central division and four Super Bowl titles while calling his own plays. Bradshaw was named MVP in Super Bowls XIII and XIV and NFL MVP in 1978. Bradshaw finished his career with 27,989 yards passing and 212 TDs.

Franco Harris

Running Back (1972-83) Elected: 1990

Franco Harris is the Steelers' all-time leading rusher with 11,950 yards and all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (91). Harris, the Steelers' first-round pick in 1972, was a big-power back who was on the receiving end of the "Immaculate Reception", which is widely recognized as the greatest play in NFL history. Harris was named Super Bowl IX MVP, after rushing for a then-record 158 yards and a touchdown.

Lynn Swann

Wide Receiver (1974-82) Elected: 2001

Lynn Curtis Swann was the Steelers' first-round draft pick in 1974. Swann filled the highlight reels with his graceful moves and leaping ability. Swann was at his best in the team's biggest games, and earned MVP honors for his performance in Super Bowl X when he caught four passes for 161 yards and a TD. Swann finished his career with 336 receptions for 5,462 yards and 51 TDs.

Note: Other Hall of Famers who spent part of their careers with the Steelers include:

CAL HUDDARD [Player 1936, elected 1963], MARION MOTLEY [Player 1955, elected 1968], EARLE (GREASY) NEALE [Coach 1943, elected 1969], BILL HEWITT [Player 1943, elected 1971], and LEN DAWSON [Player 1957-1959, elected 1987].

Chuck Noll

Coach (1969-91) Elected: 1993

Charles Henry Noll is the only NFL head coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll won a team record 209 games in 23 seasons with the Steelers. He led the Steelers to their first ever postseason victories and was responsible for drafting nine Pro Football Hall of Fame players.

Mike Webster

Center (1974-88) Elected: 1997

Michael Lewis Webster spent his first 15 NFL season in a Steelers uniform. Webster was the leader of one of the most dominant offensive lines of his era. Webster was very durable, missing only six games in his first 16 seasons while playing in 150 consecutive games. Webster was a seven-time All-Pro and played in nine Pro Bowls.

Jack Lambert

Linebacker (1974-84) Elected: 1990

John Harold Lambert was a two-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year, eight-time All-Pro and nine-time Pro-Bowler. He led the team in tackles in every season except his last, when he missed extensive action due to a severe toe injury that forced him to retire. Lambert, the Steelers' second-round draft pick in 1974, was noted for his vicious tackling and is recognized as the premier linebacker of his era.

John Stallworth

Wide Receiver (1974-87) Elected: 2002

Johnny Lee Stallworth was the Steelers' fourth-round draft pick in 1974. He had 12 postseason touchdown catches and 17-consecutive postseason games with a reception. Stallworth set Super Bowl records for career average-per-catch (24.4 yards) and for single-game average (40.3), set in Super Bowl XIV. A two-time team MVP, Stallworth retired as the Steelers' all-time leader in receptions (537) yards (8,723) 100-yards receiving games (25) and receiving TDs (63).

Steelers Attendance

History of the Steelers Sellout Streak

The Steelers have one of the longest consecutive streaks for selling out home games in the NFL, a tribute to the tremendous support of their fans.

Entering the 2008 season, the Steelers had sold out 275 consecutive regular-season home games plus an additional 24 postseason home contests.

The sellout streak began Nov. 5, 1972, vs. Cincinnati and has continued through every Steelers home game ever since. In 1973, an Act of Congress governing TV blackouts for NFL games stated that NFL games would be blacked out in their local television markets unless the game was sold out at least 72 hours prior to kickoff, and all sold out games would be televised in their local market. The NFL eventually adopted the policy as a league rule. Since then – and including the final four regular season games in 1972 – every Steelers home game has been televised in the Pittsburgh market.

During the streak, the Steelers actually played an eighth home game during the 1973 season against the New York Jets [Oct. 21, 1973]. The game was moved to Pittsburgh with less than a week's notice after the New York Mets advanced to the World Series [vs. Oakland A's] – the Mets and the Jets shared Shea Stadium at the time. Despite the lack of advance notice, Steelers fans bought all available tickets and the game was sold out.

The streak also includes all home games during the 15-game strike-shortened 1987 season in which replacement players were used. This was an especially strong statement about the support of the Steelers fans because the NFL offered fans the option to return their tickets for a refund if they did not want to watch NFL games featuring replacement players. Pittsburgh was able to re-sell the tickets that were returned to the club and all of the Steelers' home games with replacement players were sold out.

All 58 Steelers home preseason games dating back to the start of the 1973 preseason have also been sold out.

In 2007 the Steelers posted their seventh-best single-game home attendance mark [64,781] in their 31-28 victory over the Cleveland Browns in Week 10 [2007].

In 2004, the Steelers set a single-game home attendance record for the regular season when they drew 64,975 to their Nov. 7, 2004 [Week 9] game against the Philadelphia Eagles.

The Steelers overall team record for home attendance was set in the 2004 AFC Championship Game [Jan. 23, 2005], when 65,242 fans watched the Steelers play the Patriots at Heinz Field.

The Steelers overall attendance record at Three Rivers Stadium was 61,545 during the 1994 AFC Championship Game [Jan. 15, 1995] versus the San Diego Chargers. Pittsburgh's top regular-season attendance figure at Three Rivers was 60,808 on Dec. 18, 1994, versus the Cleveland Browns.
