STEELERS TRAINING CAMP HISTORY

The Steelers have held their annual training camp at several locations throughout club history before settling on their current camp home at Saint Vincent College. Each Heinz Ketchup Bottle measures 35 feet X 9 feet and each weighs 8,000 pounds, both totaling 16,000 pounds, the equivalent of 53—300 pound NFL linemen. If the Heinz Ketchup bottles were filled with Heinz Ketchup, they would contain 1,664,000 fluid ounces each. ### In Season/Off Season

Steelers Practice Facility

All Steelers daily football operations take place at the team's headquarters at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex and not at Heinz Field. Coaches and players are at Heinz Field only on game days.

All media visiting Steelers headquarters must sign in at the front desk upon arrival and receive a day badge. Badges must be worn at all times.

All media must remain in the team's media workroom while at the team's headquarters. The team's first and second floor lobby areas are not to be used for workspace or to conduct interviews.

Media are to access the practice fields from the first floor only.

Media setting up for sit-down interviews must be chaperoned to designated areas by Steelers media relations.

Coaching offices and team meeting rooms are off limits to media. Interviews and any videotaping in the Steelers parking lot are prohibited. The team requires all interviews at the team's headquarters only be conducted in the team's locker room and other areas specifically designated by the team's media relations department.

While we understand the importance of breaking news, our expectation is that all media that cover the team will respect club policies that close walk-thru's and offseason workouts to the media, and that media will not resort to alternate means of recording those sessions even from a remote location. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subject to review.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS MEDIA GUIDELINES

Steelers South Side Camera Credential Policy

The Pittsburgh Steelers require all visiting media who intend to use any type of electronic recording device to comply with the following policies when covering the team at club practices or events. The policies govern the online use of audio and video interviews and press conference content on non-game days and weekdays. These rules are designed to enable news organization websites to "illustrate" their coverage of the NFL with daily audio/video soundbites that supplement and complement the work of their reporters and columnists:

- All media members are required to wear credentials when on-site covering the Steelers at team headquarters.
- Camera operators may shoot video and still photos only in designated areas at the Steelers headquarters. These areas include and are limited to the practice field, locker room, media workroom and areas designated by the club's media relations department only. Still photographers do not have access to the locker room.
- Up to 90 seconds per day of audio and/or video of interviews or press conferences with NFL employees (including, but not limited to, players and coaches) or of team practice footage may be used on the Internet by credentialed news organizations. The content may not be used live and may be archived for no more than 24 hours. This applies to both game days and non-game days.

Video/audio material comprised entirely of a credentialed media organization employee providing commentary or analysis, including stand-up video/audio material shot on the field or at other stadium or club facility locations [subject to generally applicable safety and venue management restrictions or shooting locations and times], may be distributed via media organizations' Internet sites.

The usage conditions are as follows:

- The page featuring the audio/video must provide links to NFL.com and the corresponding club site. For example: For more info, go to www.nfl.com and www.steelers.com.
- The content may be used only in an editorial context (such as in links that illustrate stories or in multimedia news sections) and may not be presented in stand alone multimedia entertainment sections of third party websites.
- No integrated advertising is permitted. Footage may appear on pages with banners and contextual ads, but the ads may not be specifically related to the NFL audio/video content.

Practice Field Access

Only local Pittsburgh media are allowed to watch Steelers practices. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

Out of town media are prohibited from watching any portion of the team's practices.

All photographers are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime the players are in a team formation.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice.

Media may not shoot video of the team leaving the field at the end of practice.

Any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

Media are to access the practice fields from the first floor only.

Interviews

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers' media relations department. The Steelers ask that media respect the privacy of players/coaches/staff and refrain from approaching any members of the organization or their families at their places of residence. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subjected to review.

Players are generally available in the locker room only at lunchtime and after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Players are available in the locker room after practice only on Fridays. Player interviews are not to be conducted on the practice field or in other areas outside of the locker room, including the parking lot area, without prior approval from the Steelers' media relations department. Still photographers are not allowed in the Steelers' locker room.

Coach Tomlin will hold a weekly press conference every Tuesday at noon in the Steelers' media workroom. He will also be available after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays (upon request) in the media workroom.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators will generally be available on Thursdays. Assistant coaches are available only with the approval of the Steelers' media relations department. The best time to interview assistant coaches is as they leave the field after practice.

Only Coach Tomlin will be available to media on game days. Assistant Coaches are not available for interviews on game days.

All interview requests for Steelers' owners, director of football operations or other football/non-football staff must first be approved by Steelers' media relations.

Live shots are allowed in designated areas at Steelers' headquarters. Steelers' media relations must be notified in advance of any TV live shots.

Satellite trucks are required to park on the side of the Steelers' practice facility (near the train tracks). Media must seek prior approval for any exceptions.

Media with physical disabilities should make prior arrangements with Steelers media relations for access to handicapped parking.

Head Coach

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on Jan. 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers' history.

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers' head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin has compiled a 43-21 record in the regular season during his four-year head coaching career. His .672 winning percentage in his first four seasons is tied for the best in team history with former coach Bill Cowher. In 2010, Tomlin became only the second Steelers' head coach to win at least 10 games in three of his first four seasons.

The Steelers were dominant on the road in 2010, finishing with a 7-1 regular season record away from Heinz Field. Tomlin's seven road wins during the regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and again in 2004.

The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during regular the season.

In all, the Steelers defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed, points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record in 2009 after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons. Tomlin's 24-8 record and .750 winning percentage at home after four seasons ranks second in Steelers' history.

Mike Tomlin

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers' history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), and finished second in league rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers' head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007, and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by running back Willie Parker who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. QB Ben Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1), while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance. In 2007, the Steelers held the advantage in time of possession in 14-of-16 regular season games.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. Under Tomlin in 2006, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach from 2001-05 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State where he coached wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William and Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 TD catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

John Mitchell is in his 18th season as the Steelers' defensive line coach, ranking him as the longest-tenured member of the Steelers' coaching staff. He remained with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007, and was promoted to assistant head coach.

Mitchell, who joined the Steelers' coaching staff Jan. 31, 1994, is in his 39th season of coaching, including 16 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League. This is his 21st season as an NFL coach.

Mitchell has been instrumental in the development of the Steelers' defensive linemen, including five-time Pro Bowl nose tackle Casey Hampton and defensive end Aaron Smith, who earned his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2005. He also helped develop starting defensive end Brett Keisel and nose tackle Chris Hoke, who filled in sensationally for an injured Hampton during the 2004 season.

Under his guidance, Pittsburgh's defensive front helped the Steelers lead the NFL in run defense five times and finish in the top three on 12 separate occasions. The team has only allowed one 100-yard rusher for a stretch of 50 straight regular-season games from 2007-10 and allowed just 62.8 yards per game rushing in 2010, shattering the previous team record set in 2001. In addition, the 62.8 yards per game placed the Steelers as one of the best since the NFL merger in 1970.

Strong play by Mitchell's line was a huge reason why the Steelers finished the 2008 regular season second overall in the NFL behind the Minnesota Vikings against the run (80.3 avg.). In 2009, Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 sacks. In 2010 the Steelers put on a defensive showcase by leading the NFL in at least eight categories, including total sacks (48), and total points allowed (232), and it was the first time in NFL history a team was able to hold their opponents to 75 or fewer yards in each of their first eight games.

A former All-America defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell was the first African-American to play for the Crimson Tide. Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's greatest coaches. He began his coaching career in 1973 as defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama (1973-76). He then spent six seasons as defensive line coach at Arkansas (1977-82) on Lou Holtz's staff.

In 1983, Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-85 he served as defensive line coach for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions and returned to the college ranks in 1986 as defensive ends coach at Temple. Mitchell began a four-year stint in 1987 as linebackers coach at Louisiana State (1987-90) under former Steelers' linebacker coach Mike Archer, who was the head coach. In 1990, Mitchell became the first African-American defensive coordinator in Southeastern Conference (SEC) history when he was named LSU's defensive coordinator. He also coached the Tigers' linebackers.

Mitchell, 58, joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Cleveland Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles, Michael Dean Perry and Rob Burnett. Mitchell accepted his current appointment following three seasons coaching the defensive line for the Browns.

A two-time Junior College All-American defensive end at Eastern Arizona Junior College in 1969-70, Mitchell then transferred to Alabama. A starter at defensive end from 1971-72, Mitchell earned All-America honors in 1972. He earned a bachelor's degree in social work in 1972. In 2009, Mitchell was elected into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

Born in Mobile, Ala., Mitchell and his wife Joyce live in Pittsburgh.

Bruce Arians is in his fifth season as offensive coordinator under head coach Mike Tomlin, following three seasons as the Steelers' wide receivers coach. It marks the fourth time he is serving as an offensive coordinator in his coaching career, including one previous time in the NFL and twice at the collegiate ranks.

Named to the Steelers' coaching staff on Jan. 24, 2004, Arians has over 34 years of coaching experience, including 17 years in the NFL.

Arians has been instrumental in the development of quarterback Ben Roethlisberger. With 69 regular-season career wins, including a 18-9 mark during Arians' two seasons as offensive coordinator, Roethlisberger has a .704 winning percentage, and places him with the second-best record in the NFL among all active quarterbacks. Roethlisberger also became the second-youngest quarterback to win two Super Bowls (26 years, 336 days) when the Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals, 27-23, in Super Bowl XLIII.

Arians, 57, helped All-Pro wide receiver Hines Ward become one of the best wideouts in the NFL over the past seven seasons. During Arians' first seven seasons with Pittsburgh, Ward has been to the Pro Bowl twice and was named Super Bowl XL MVP after finishing with 123 receiving yards and one touchdown. Ward also became the Steelers' all-time receptions leader, surpassing Hall of Famer John Stallworth, and in 2007 became the team's career leader in receiving yards and touchdown receptions. In 2010, Ward became the first receiver in team history, and fifth in NFL history, to reach 11,000 career receiving yards and currently has 11,702 receiving yards for his career.

Arians has also guided the Steelers to some of its most productive offensive years in the team's history. In his first year as offensive coordinator in 2007, Arians helped Roethlisberger get elected to his first Pro Bowl as he broke Terry Bradshaw's long-standing team record for most TD passes in a season with 32. Roethlisberger also finished with a career-best and team-record QB rating of 104.1.

In 2009, the Steelers' offense became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season. Along the way the offense broke both of the team's records for passing first downs (210) and passes completed (351).

Arians has also been instrumental in the development of Steelers' wide receiver Mike Wallace, who in his second year posted his first career 1,000-yard season as he led all Steelers with 60 receptions, 1,257 receiving yards and 10 touchdowns, including 26 receptions for at least 20 yards in 2010.

Prior to the Steelers, Arians spent three seasons (2001-2003) as the offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns. In 2002 under Arians' guidance, the Browns scored their most points since the 1987 season and also improved in virtually every major offensive category from the three years prior to his arrival.

Arians was instrumental in the development of Indianapolis Colts quarterback Peyton Manning while serving as the Colts' quarterbacks coach for three years (1998-2000). Under Arians' tutelage, Manning totaled 4,413 yards and 33 touchdowns in 2000 to break his own club season record. His 33 touchdown passes in 2000 established a Colts' franchise record previously held by John Unitas.

He began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech. A 1974 Hokie graduate, Arians played quarterback and was voted the team's most valuable player as a senior.

Arians then held an assistant coaching position at Mississippi State (running backs and wide receivers) from 1978-80 before heading to Alabama to coach the running backs from 1981-82 under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant.

He was also the head coach at Temple University from 1983-88. Arians also held positions with the Kansas City Chiefs (running backs, 1989-92), Mississippi State (offensive coordinator, 1993-95), New Orleans Saints (tight ends, 1996) and Alabama (offensive coordinator, 1997).

Arians was born in Paterson, N.J. He and his wife Christine have a son, Jake (32), and daughter, Kristi Anne (30).

* Named head coach
after three games in 2000 season.

Dick LeBeau is in the eighth year of his second tour of duty with the Steelers, for whom he experienced much success during the mid-1990s as both the team's defensive backs coach and defensive coordinator.

Considered the architect of the Steelers' famed "zone blitz," LeBeau was named the Steelers' defensive coordinator Jan. 16, 2004, after spending the 2003 season with the Buffalo Bills. He is one of six assistant coaches who remained on Pittsburgh's staff following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007.

In 2009, LeBeau was recognized for his outstanding football career, both as a coach and player. In September, he was inducted into the Varsity O Alumni Association's Hall of Fame, honoring his career at Ohio State University and over 50 years in the NFL. Then in February of 2010, LeBeau was honored with the highest individual award in professional football when the Pro Football Hall of Fame announced him as a member of its Class of 2010 for his 14-year playing career as a cornerback for the Detroit Lions. LeBeau was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, Aug. 7, at Fawcett Stadium.

The Steelers continued to showcase some of their best pass-rushing and run-stopping ability in 2010 when they led the league in at least eight defensive categories and shattered the team record for rushing yards per game allowed by giving up just 62.8 yards per game. The Steelers outrushed 14 of their 16 opponents in 2010, averaging nearly 60 more yards on the ground than their opponents and finished the season with 21 interceptions on the year, the most since 1996 when they had 23. In 2010, Troy Polamalu was named AFC Defensive Player of the Year. In the past two seasons, Linebackers LaMarr Woodley and James Harrison, together totalled at least 20 sacks, which is good for two of the top four sack totals by a Steelers' duo in team history.

LeBeau's defense had a season for the ages in 2008 as they led the league in a number of categories and wreaked havoc on a week-to-week basis on opposing offenses. The Steelers ended the season first in total yards (237.2 avg.), against the pass (156.9 avg.) and in points allowed per game (13.9), while finishing second against the rush (80.3 avg.). The defense was led by Harrison, who won several major awards, including AP Defensive Player of the Year, after setting a franchise record with 16 sacks. LeBeau was named "Coordinator of the year" by Sporting News for the 2008 season.

LeBeau's impact on the coaching staff was profound as the Steelers returned to the top of the NFL in total defense and rushing defense in 2004. In 2005, his defensive game plans played an integral part in stopping four of the NFL's top five offenses in the AFC playoffs, including limiting Seattle to just 10 points in Super Bowl XL.

Since 1994, the Steelers have led the AFC in sacks six times and the entire NFL three times, including in 2010. Since 2004, the Steelers have the most sacks in the NFL with 309.

LeBeau, 73, is in the 53rd year of his NFL career, 14 as a player and the past 39 as a coach. Prior to his return to Pittsburgh, LeBeau served one year as the assistant head coach with the Buffalo Bills and the previous two-plus years as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals.

After five seasons in Pittsburgh from 1992-96, when he coached the secondary (1992-94) and then was defensive coordinator (1995-96), LeBeau returned to Cincinnati as the Bengals' assistant head coach/defensive coordinator (1997-2000). He was later promoted to head coach Sept. 25, 2000, (after three games) and served in that capacity for two more seasons.

LeBeau began his coaching career as a special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1973-75. He also was an assistant coach at Green Bay (1976-79) and Cincinnati (1980-83), before serving his first term as the Bengals' defensive coordinator from 1984-91.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, LeBeau produced an outstanding pro career from which he still holds the NFL all-time record of 171 consecutive games for a cornerback and currently is tied for seventh all-time in the NFL with 62 career interceptions. His nine interceptions in 1970 led the NFC and his 62 career interceptions ranked third in the NFL at the time of his retirement. LeBeau also appeared in three Pro Bowls.

LeBeau was born in London, Ohio. He and his wife Nancy have one son, Brandon Grant.

Al Everest is in his second season as the special teams coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Everest, who was hired on January 21, 2010, enters his 15th NFL season as a special teams coordinator.

In 2010, Everest was instrumental in the development of a group of rookies who provided a spark for Steelers' special teams. Both rookie wide receivers Emmanuel Sanders and Antonio Brown played major roles in the special teams' success. Sanders averaged 25.1 yards per kickoff return, including a long of 48 yards, while also returning four punts for 60 yards. Brown returned the team's only kickoff return for a touchdown, an 89-yarder against Tennessee in Week 2. Rookie linebackers Jason Worilds and Stevenson Sylvester added to the special teams success by posting a total of 30 special teams tackles in the 2010 season.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Everest coached for the San Francisco 49ers (2007-09) and has also coached in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints (2000-05) and the Arizona Cardinals (1996-99). He has more than 38 years of coaching experience in the National Football League, European professional football, college football and baseball. He earned Special Teams Coach of the Year honors in 2007 from the Aguiar Kicking Academy and was named NFL Special Teams Coach of the Year in 2002 when his special teams units had three touchdown returns and blocked five kicks during the season.

Everest began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Methodist (1972) and North Texas (1973-74) before becoming an assistant coach at Cameron University (1974-75). He served as athletic director and head football coach at American School Foundation in Mexico City from 1976-80. From 1981-87, Everest coached baseball at U.S. International University.

Everest coached professional football in Italy for the Legnano Frogs (1988-90, '93) and the Pesaro Angels (1991). He coached the secondary for the Arkansas Minors of the Pro Spring Football League in 1992 and was special teams coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Birmingham Barracudas in 1995.

Prior to his first stint with the Legnano Frogs, Everest served as athletic director and football coach at the American School Foundation in Mexico City (1976-80). In 1981, he made the decision to return stateside and joined U.S. International University from 1981-87 where he earned a doctorate degree and at the same time was the school's head baseball coach. Everest was a two-year starting safety for Southern Methodist University from 1970-71. In 1972, he started gaining coaching experience as a graduate assistant for SMU under Head Coach Hayden Fry. Everest then followed Fry to North Texas where he continued as a graduate assistant from 1973-74.

Everest's dad, Andy Everest, coached at Utah, Stanford, UCSB, SMU, North Texas and New Orleans Saints with Head Coach Bum Phillips. Together they won two Italian Super Bowls and one European Championship.

Keith Butler is in his ninth year on the Steelers' coaching staff after joining the staff prior to the 2003 season. He remained on staff following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007.

Butler and Tomlin previously worked together at Memphis in 1996, where Butler was the linebackers/defensive ends/special teams coach and Tomlin served as the Tigers' defensive backs coach.

Butler was named the Steelers' linebackers coach Jan. 28, 2003, after serving the previous four seasons in a similar capacity with the Cleveland Browns (1999-02).

Butler has been instrumental in the development of the Steelers' highly touted linebacking corps which includes three Pro Bowl players, James Farrior, James Harrison and LaMarr Woodley. In 2008 Butler was named NFL Linebacker Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly.

Under Butler's tutelage, Farrior, a second-team All-Pro in 2008, has led the Steelers' defense in tackles for seven straight seasons (2003-09). In 2010 Farrior had 137 tackles, second-best on the team, marking his eighth straight season with 100-plus tackles for the Steelers. It was linebacker Lawrence Timmons in his second season as a starter who exploded onto the scene in 2010 and led the team with 149 tackles (100 solo) and also had three sacks, two interceptions, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Butler has also helped groom Harrison into one of the league's elite performers. Harrison, 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, has earned two team MVP awards, recorded a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII, the longest play in Super Bowl history and earned his fourth straight selection to the Pro Bowl in 2010. Harrison had a team-high 10.5 sacks in 2010 after posting 10 in 2009. Harrison currently holds the team record for sacks in a season when in 2008 he recorded a career-high 16 sacks. In addition, Harrison ranks second in team history for career forced fumbles with 24, behind only Greg Lloyd.

The Steelers have a tradition of fielding some of the best pass-rushing linebackers in the NFL and Harrison and Woodley have accounted for two of the top four sack totals by a Steelers' duo in team history. The two teamed up in 2008 to produce the most sacks in a single-season by a duo in Steelers' history with a combined 27.5 sacks. Then in 2009 they totaled a combined 23.5 sacks between them and again in 2010 combined for 20.5 sacks.

The linebacker unit as a whole was a key reason behind the 2010 Steelers finishing the regular season first overall in total defense, sacks and against the run, and second against the pass.

Woodley has been a force defensively since he became a starter in 2008. Woodley owns an NFL record for posting two sacks in each of his four postseason games and has 39 sacks in his first four seasons with the Steelers, which ranks as the best start in franchise history. In 2010 Woodley posted his first career interception for a touchdown and finished with 10 sacks, becoming the second player in team history behind Harrison to post at least 10 sacks in three straight years.

In 2006, Butler's linebacking crew helped the Steelers rank second in the AFC and third in the NFL in rushing defense. The unit allowed just 88.3 rushing yards per game and helped the defense to not allow a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

In 2005, Butler's linebackers helped the Steelers lead the AFC and rank fourth in the NFL in total defense. The sack tandem of Joey Porter (10.5) and Clark Haggans (9.0) ranked as the best for a linebacker duo in the entire NFL.

Prior to joining the Browns' staff, Butler spent nine years coaching in the college ranks, beginning his coaching career at his alma mater, Memphis, where he coached linebackers from 1990-97 and also coached defensive ends and special teams (1995-97). He then served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas State in 1998.

Butler, 54, was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round of the 1978 NFL Draft and played linebacker for 10 seasons (1978-87) with Seattle. He started 132-of-146 games in his career and still ranks second on the club's all-time tackles list with 813. A three-year starter at inside linebacker for Memphis, Butler led the school in tackles his junior and senior seasons. He finished his collegiate career with 384 tackles and seven interceptions. He was named a 1977 Associated Press All-American and played in the 1977 Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Game.

Butler was born in Anniston, Ala. He and his wife Janet have three sons—Blake (28), Brandon (26) and Brett (24).

James Daniel is in his eighth season with Pittsburgh after remaining with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007.

Named the Steelers' tight ends coach Jan. 24, 2004, Daniel, 57, spent the previous seven seasons (1997-2003) with the Atlanta Falcons, primarily as the Falcons' tight ends coach except for one year (2000) when he coached the offensive line.

Under Daniel's guidance, Heath Miller has become one of the top tight ends in franchise history. Miller has caught 35 postseason passes for 437 yards (12.5 avg.) with four touchdowns, all team postseason records for a tight end. With a total of 29 career touchdowns, Miller is second on the team's all-time list for touchdowns by a tight end.

In 2010, Miller moved into second place on the Steelers' all-time receiving yardage list for tight ends with 3,233 career receiving yards. Miller broke the team's single-season record for receptions for a tight end in 2009, catching 68 passes. Miller also posted his second career 100-yard receiving game, marking just the 11th 100-yard receiving game by a tight end in team history. Miller was named an offensive co-captain for the first time in his career in 2010, following his 2009 Pro-Bowl season.

In 2007, Daniel groomed a young group of tight ends that finished the season with 11 TDs, which is the most combined TDs of any Steelers' tight end corps.

During his tenure at Atlanta, Daniel was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowl tight end Alge Crumpler, who set a team receptions mark for tight ends in 2002 and 2003 with 44 and 36, respectively. Daniel began his NFL coaching career as the tight ends coach of the New York Giants from 1993-96. However, Daniel's first experience at the pro level occurred through the NFL's Fellowship Program in 1988 with the New Orleans Saints and in 1992 with the Denver Broncos and Head Coach Dan Reeves. He served under Reeves for his first 11 years in the NFL.

Daniel began his coaching career in the college ranks as the offensive line coach at Auburn (1981-92) for Head Coach Pat Dye. During Daniel's 12 years at Auburn, the Tigers appeared in nine postseason bowl games, four of his linemen earned All-America honors and several were selected All-Southeastern Conference.

Prior to Auburn, Daniel coached for seven years at Enterprise (Ala.) High School from 1974-80, during which 11 of his offensive linemen earned college scholarships.

As a collegian, Daniel was a three-year starter and four-year letter winner at Alabama State from 1970-73.

Daniel is married (Myrtis) with no children.

Randy Fichtner is in his second season coaching the Steelers' quarterbacks after spending three seasons as the team's wide receivers coach. He joined the Steelers after serving the previous six seasons at the University of Memphis. Fichtner was hired by Mike Tomlin on Jan. 29, 2007.

In 2010, Ben Roethlisberger finished a perfect 5-0 against divisional foes and owns a 29-7 record as a starter against AFC North opponents during his career. Roethlisberger had 11 touchdowns to just two interceptions and completed 60.7 percent of his passes for 1,761 yards at Heinz Field, giving him a 100.2 passer rating at Heinz Field. In 2009 the Steelers had two 1,000-yard receivers. Hines Ward posted his club record sixth 1,000-yard receiving season while Santonio Holmes posted his first career 1,000 yard receiving season, leading the team with 1,248 yards on 79 receptions. Rookie Mike Wallace led all AFC rookies with 756 receiving yards and added six touchdowns on the season.

Fichtner's receiving core had an excellent season in 2008 as Ward topped 1,000 yards (1,043) for the fifth time in his career, and Holmes was named MVP of Super Bowl XLIII after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) including the gamewinning touchdown reception with 35 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

Under the tutelage of Fichtner, Ward and Holmes matched their reception total from 2006 (123), while increasing their TD catches from eight in 2006 to 15 in 2007.

Fichtner, who instituted the spread offense at Memphis, was an integral part of the Tiger football team for six years. He was hired in 2001 to serve as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and his offense re-wrote the Memphis record book for six seasons.

In 2004, All-American running back in DeAngelo Williams led an offense that finished the year ranked ninth nationally in total offense and 10th in the nation in scoring. Fichtner was a part of unprecedented offensive success at Memphis that also contributed to the Tigers playing in three straight bowl games from 2003-05.

The 2002 squad set a record for total offense with 4,258 yards, and then the 2003 team shattered that mark with 5,779 yards of total offense. In 2004, the Tigers amassed 5,524 yards of total offense to rank second all-time. The 2004 Tigers also set school records in points scored with 430 and in passing touchdowns with 25. Fichtner was no stranger to Memphis when he joined the staff in 2001. He had previously served as an assistant for the Tigers. Prior to his second stint at Memphis, Fichtner spent four years (1997-2000) at Arkansas State University. He arrived in Jonesboro as the quarterback coach in the spring of 1997 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in August of 1997.

During his tenure with the Indians, Fichtner worked with quarterback Cleo Lemon, who set virtually every Arkansas State passing and total offense record.

Prior to joining the staff at Arkansas State, Fichtner spent three years at his alma mater, Purdue, serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994-96. The Cleveland, Ohio, native originally went to Memphis in the fall of 1990 and coached the Tiger receivers and quarterbacks for four seasons. During his stay at Memphis, Fichtner worked with St. Louis Rams All-Pro wide receiver Isaac Bruce.

Fichtner, 46, worked as a student assistant and graduate assistant at Purdue (1985-86) and at Michigan (1986-87), before serving as a volunteer coach at Southern California in 1988. He landed his first full-time position in 1989 as the tight ends coach at UNLV and worked for the Rebels for one season before coming to Memphis. Fichtner graduated from Purdue in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion.

He is married to the former Jennifer Parker of Covington, Tenn., and the couple has three children: a son, Nathaniel Ross (15), and daughters, Shelby Brooke (16) and Kirby Lynn (11).

In 2009, Jones coached the Pittsburgh's special teams to set a team kickoff return yardage record of 1,581, topping the previous 1988 record by six yards. Jones coached the Steelers with the NFL's top kick coverage unit during the 2008 season. In 1990 under his guidance, Alabama had the nation's top-rated percentage placekicker (Philip Doyle). A decade earlier, Jones began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1981-82.

Between his two assignments in Tuscaloosa, Jones coached the tight ends (1983-85) and then the defensive line (1986-88) (under current Steelers offensive coordinator Bruce Arians) at Temple University from 1983-88, while also coordinating with the Owls' special teams.

Jones worked one season with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League (1997), helping guide them to a Western Division playoff berth, and has worked in the high school ranks in Alabama, Florida and Louisiana.

A 1982 graduate of Alabama, Jones played safety and running back for Bryant. He was a member of the 1978 and '79 Tide teams that went 23-1 and earned back-to-back SEC titles, national championships and Sugar Bowl crowns. Jones later earned his master's degree from Alabama.

GAME 1  PITTSBURGH 15,  ATLANTA 9 (OT)
September 12, 2010 Heinz Field (63,609)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their eighth straight game on Kickoff Weekend with a dramatic 15-9 overtime victory against the Atlanta Falcons at Heinz Field. The eight-game winning streak in season openers is the longest current streak in the NFL.

The Falcons won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive. After two costly holding penalties the Falcons were forced to punt from their own 14-yard line. The Steelers took over at midfield and on the first play RB Rashard Mendenhall broke free for a game-winning 50-yard touchdown run. Mendenhall finished the game with 120 yards on 22 carries and one touchdown, his fourth career 100-yard rushing game.

On the Steelers' opening drive in the first quarter, QB Dennis Dixon, making only his second career start, marched the team to the Atlanta 35-yard line. K Jeff Reed connected from 52 yards out to put the Steelers up 3-0. It was the longest field goal in Heinz Field history and Reed's second longest of his career.

Neither team moved the ball effectively, exchanging punts for most part of the half. Reed missed a 55-yard field goal with 22 seconds left in the half, which allowed enough time for Atlanta to strike. Falcons' QB Matt Ryan found WR Eric Weems for a 17-yard completion and WR Roddy White for a seven-yard completion to put the Falcons at the Steelers' 32-yard line. K Matt Bryant connected from 49-yards out just as the halftime clock expired and the game was tied, 3-3.

On the opening drive of the second half, Bryant connected from 39 yards out to put the Falcons up 6-3. Reed would connect on two more field goals, and Bryant added another, and the game was tied, 9-9. The Falcons took over at their own 21-yard line with 1:45 left in the game, but on the first play S Troy Polamalu picked off QB Matt Ryan. The Steelers looked like they had the game in hand but Reed's 40-yard field goal attempt went wide right and the game headed into overtime.

WR Hines Ward finished the game with 108 yards receiving on six catches. He became the first Steelers receiver to surpass 11,000 yards receiving, and he broke the record for most 100-yard receiving games in team history (26), passing former WR John Stallworth.

The Steelers' defense held the Falcons to only 58 yards rushing and posted two sacks (LB LaMarr Woodley, LB James Harrison) and Polamalu's interception.

GAME 2 PITTSBURGH 19, TENNESSEE 11
September 19, 2010 LP Field (69,143)

NASHVILLE — The Steelers improved to 2-0 on the year with a dominating defensive performance against the Tennessee Titans at LP Field. The Steelers' 19-11 victory was only the second win for the Steelers in 10 tries in the state of Tennessee.

The Steelers wasted no time scoring, using a little trickery to return the opening kickoff for a touchdown. RB Mewelde Moore took the ball at the two-yard line and handed it off to rookie WR Antonio Brown, who took it 89 yards for the touchdown. In his first career game, Brown became the first Steelers rookie to return a kick for a touchdown since WR Antwaan Randle El returned a 99-yard kickoff in 2002.

Two drives later, the Titans marched 39 yards to the Steelers two-yard line before K Rob Bironas connected from 21 yards out and cut the lead 7-3.

The Titans drove to the Steelers' 16-yard line on their next drive, but S Troy Polamalu picked off QB Vince Young in the end zone. The interception was the first of four turnovers the Steelers forced in the first half. On the ensuing drive K Jeff Reed connected from 36 yards out to put the Steelers up 10-3. RB Chris Johnson's fumble allowed the Steelers to capitalize right before halftime, and Reed connected from 34 yards out to put the Steelers up 13-3.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, and after Young committed his fourth turnover of the game he was pulled for QB Kerry Collins. CB Bryant McFadden picked off Collins on his second pass attempt. Reed connected from 25 and 27 yards out in the fourth quarter, his third and fourth field goals of the game and the Steelers were up 19-3.

The Titans made it interesting late in the fourth quarter. Collins found WR Nate Washington for a two-yard touchdown and WR Kenny Britt for the two-point conversion. The Titans recovered their onside kick attempt and were in Steelers' territory, but the defense stopped the Titans at the 41-yard line as time expired.

Though the Steelers couldn't get their offense going, (127 yards) the defense forced seven turnovers (four fumbles, three interceptions) and held Johnson to only 34 yards rushing. LB James Harrison had two sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

GAME 3  PITTSBURGH 38,  TAMPA BAY 13
September 26, 2010 Raymond James Stadium [61,036]

TAMPA — The Steelers offense exploded for four first-half touchdowns and never looked back, beating the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 38-13 at Raymond James Stadium. The Steelers improved to 3-0 while Tampa Bay fell to 2-1.

QB Charlie Batch, making his first start since December 30, 2007, was picked off on the Steelers' first drive of the game. On the ensuing drive, K Connor Barth connected from 40 yards to put the Buccaneers up 3-0.

The Steelers would respond on their next drive. Batch found WR Mike Wallace deep in the end zone for a 46-yard touchdown. The Buccaneers cut the lead to 7-6 on Barth's 24-yard field goal early in the second quarter, but the Steelers would score the next 31 points.

Midway through the second quarter, the Steelers faced a third-and-six from the Tampa Bay 48-yard line. On that play, Batch scrambled for 24 yards, the longest run of his career, to give the Steelers a key first-down. Two plays later RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from three yards out to put the Steelers up 14-6. Mendenhall finished the game with 19 carries for 143 yards and one touchdown.

Batch found Wallace again for a 41-yard touchdown in the second quarter. It was Wallace's second career game with two receiving touchdowns. Wallace finished the game with three catches for 100 yards and two touchdowns.

Just before the half, Batch threw his third touchdown, a nine-yard strike to WR Hines Ward to put the Steelers up 28-6. Batch finished the game 12-of-17 for 186 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions.

K Jeff Reed connected from 24 yards near the end of the third quarter to put the Steelers up 31-6, which were the first points Tampa Bay had allowed in the second half all season. On the first play of the fourth quarter, DE Brett Keisel picked off QB Josh Freeman and returned it 79 yards for a touchdown. It was Keisel's first career interception and first career touchdown in his nine seasons in the NFL.

The Steelers offense tallied more than 200 rushing yards and nearly 400 yards of total offense. The Steelers defense continued its stellar play, holding Tampa Bay to only 74 yards rushing while forcing two turnovers and posting four sacks.

GAME 4  BALTIMORE 17,  PITTSBURGH 14
October 3, 2010 Heinz Field (64,729)

PITTSBURGH — QB Joe Flacco found WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for an 18-yard touchdown pass with 36 seconds left in the game to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-14 at Heinz Field. The Steelers fell to 3-1, while the Ravens improved to 3-1.

A missed 46-yard field goal by K Billy Cundiff set up the Steelers' first score in the game. QB Charlie Batch led the Steelers' on a seven-play, 52-yard drive that was capped off by a one-yard touchdown run by RB Rashard Mendenhall.

The Ravens marched 78 yards on eight plays on their first drive of the second quarter. RB Willis McGahee scored from nine yards out to tie the game at 7-7. The Ravens capitalized on the Steelers offensive struggles and took a 10-7 halftime lead on Cundiff's 36-yard field goal as time expired.

The Steelers defense turned up the heat in the third quarter forcing two turnovers. LB James Harrison forced a McGahee fumble that put the Steelers at the Raven's 27-yard line. But Batch was sacked for a seven-yard loss on third down, and K Jeff Reed's 49-yard field goal attempt hit the right crossbar.

Near the end of the third quarter CB Ike Taylor picked off Flacco, and the Steelers took over at the Baltimore 33-yard line. The Steelers though could not move the ball and Reed's 45-yard field goal try went wide left.

The Steelers forced the Ravens to punt on their ensuing drive and took over at their own seven-yard line. The Steelers marched the ball 93 yards on 13 plays to set up Mendenhall's seven-yard touchdown run, his second of the day. Mendenhall finished with 25 carries for 79 yards and two touchdowns.

On Baltimore's next drive, the Steelers' defense stopped them on a fourth-and-goal from the two-yard line, and it appeared the Steelers could run out the clock. However, the Steelers committed two false start penalties and did not get a first down. After a Daniel Sepulveda punt, the Ravens took over at the Steelers' 40-yard line, where Flacco began the game-winning drive.

The Steelers offense really struggled to move the ball against the Ravens defense. For the first time all season the Steelers had less than 100 yards rushing and the 126 passing yards were the second-lowest total in the last two seasons.

October 31, 2010 Louisiana Superdome (70,011)

NEW ORLEANS — QB Drew Brees' eight-yard touchdown toss to WR Lance Moore with 2:37 left in the fourth quarter sealed the 20-10 victory for the New Orleans Saints over the Steelers at the Louisiana Superdome. The Steelers fell to 5-2 on the season, while the Saints improved to 5-3.

Both teams struggled moving the football as neither one scored in the first quarter. K Jeff Reed got the Steelers on the board early in the second quarter connecting from 19 yards out for a 3-0 lead. The Saints though would tie the game 3-3 with only eight seconds left before halftime on K Garrett Hartley's 31-yard field goal.

On the Saints' first possession of the second half, Brees led the offense on a 12-play, 51-yard drive that was capped off by Hartley's 23-yard field goal that increased their lead 6-3. Early in the fourth quarter Brees found WR Marques Colston for a 16-yard touchdown to put the Saints up 13-3. However, on the Steelers' ensuing drive RB Rashard Mendenhall found a seam and went 38 yards untouched into the endzone to cut the lead to 13-10. Mendenhall finished the game with 15 carries for 71 yards and one touchdown.

The Saints looked poised to add to their lead on their next drive when Brees found WR Robert Meachem for a 50-yard gain, which set the Saints up at the Steelers' 26-yard line. But two plays later, CB Bryant McFadden sacked Brees and forced a fumble that was recovered by LB LaMarr Woodley, and the Steelers took over at the Saints' 27-yard line.

The Steelers had the momentum and were marching into Saints' territory, but a costly turnover sealed the Steelers' fate. QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for 20-yard gain, but Miller was hit hard and fumbled the football. The Saints then marched 55 yards for the game-clinching touchdown pass by Brees. Brees finished the game 34-of-44 for 305 yards and two touchdowns.

The Steelers' rush defense continued its dominance, allowing a season-low 30 yards rushing. The defense as a whole had two sacks, a forced fumble and an interception. The Steelers' offense though struggled, generating only 279 total yards (108 rushing, 195 passing).

With less than a minute left in the third quarter, Brady scored from three yards out to put the Patriots up 23-3. Brady finished the game 30-of-43 for 350 yards with three touchdowns and one rushing touchdown.

The Steelers responded early in the fourth quarter as QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for his first career touchdown reception. The six-yard score cut the lead 23-10. The Steelers forced the Patriots to punt on their next drive and took over at their own 11-yard line. Two plays later, S James Sanders picked off Roethlisberger and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown.

Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 15-yard touchdown midway through the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 29-18. But Brady went back to Gronkowski on their next drive for a 25-yard touchdown pass to go up 36-18. Roethlisberger found Wallace again, this time for a 33-yard touchdown on the Steelers' ensuing drive to cut the lead to 36-26, but it was too little, too late. Graham would make a 36-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining to give the Patriots a 39-26 win.

The Steelers had a season-high 425 yards of total offense, including a season-high 387 passing yards by Roethlisberger. He finished the game 30-of-49 for 387 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. The Steelers' defense had its worst performance of their 2010 season, giving up 103 rushing yards, and season highs in passing yards (350) and total yards (453).

GAME 10 PITTSBURGH 35, OAKLAND 3
November 21, 2010 Heinz Field (64,987)

PITTSBURGH — Behind dominating offensive and defensive performances, the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders 35-3 at Heinz Field. The 32-point victory is the largest margin in the series' history by either team. The Steelers improved to 7-3 on the year, while the Raiders fell to 5-5.

Oakland jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on K Sebastian Janikowski's 41-yard field goal in the first quarter, but it would be the only points the Raiders would score all day. The Steelers grabbed a 7-3 lead on RB Rashard Mendenhall's five-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter. It was Mendenhall's career-best eighth rushing touchdown on the season. Mendenhall finished the game with 59 yards rushing.

QB Ben Roethlisberger gave the Steelers a 14-3 lead late in the second quarter with a 16-yard touchdown run, his first of the season. It was the first rushing touchdown of the season for the Steelers scored by anyone other than Mendenhall. Roethlisberger finished the game with 55 yards rushing on three carries.

With less than two minutes remaining in the first half, Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for a 22-yard touchdown to put the Steelers up 21-3 at halftime. It marked Sanders' second consecutive game with a touchdown reception.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 52-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 28-3 lead. Wallace finished with a game-high 116 yards receiving and it marked his third straight game with more than 100 yards receiving and at least one touchdown reception. Wallace tied the team record for most consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving, which is shared with WR Hines Ward in 2002.

Roethlisberger then found RB Isaac Redman for a 16-yard touchdown pass, which gave the Steelers the 35-3 final. Roethlisberger finished the game 18-of-29 for 275 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions.

The Steelers offense racked up a season-high 431 yards of total offense (162 rushing and 269 passing). The Steelers defense produced six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. The defense only allowed 182 yards of total offense (65 rushing and 121 passing). The Steelers though struggled with penalties, setting a franchise-record with 163 penalty yards.

GAME 11  PITTSBURGH 19,  BUFFALO 16 (OT)
November 28, 2010 Ralph Wilson Stadium (69,642)

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. — K Shaun Suisham's 41-yard field goal with 2:14 left in overtime gave the Steelers the 19-16 victory against the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The Steelers improved to 8-3 on the year, including a 5-1 record on the road. The Bills fell to 2-9.

The Steelers wasted no time getting on the board, marching 78 yards on 13 plays on their opening drive. RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one yard out to put the Steelers up 7-0. Mendenhall finished the game with a career-high 36 carries for a season-high 151 yards and a touchdown.

Suisham connected on a 45-yard field goal early in the second quarter to put the Steelers ahead, 10-0. With only three seconds left in the first half, Suisham connected from 46 yards to put the Steelers up 13-0 at halftime. Suisham finished the game a perfect 4-for-4 on field goals, all coming from at least 40 yards out.

The Bills responded late in the third quarter when QB Ryan Fitzpatrick found RB Fred Jackson for what appeared to be a short gain. However, Jackson broke through the secondary and into the endzone for 65-yard touchdown reception.

The Bills tied the game 13-13 with a pair of field goals from K Rian Lindell early in the fourth quarter. Lindell connected from 29 yards out, and then from 32 yards out only two minutes later to tie the game. The Steelers went ahead, 16-13, midway through the fourth quarter on Suisham's 48-yard field goal.

The Bills looked poised to take the lead with only three minutes left in the game. Fitzpatrick had the Bills at the Steelers' 12-yard line, but S Troy Polamalu picked off Fitzpatrick and it appeared that the Steelers could run out the clock. Costly penalties forced the Steelers to punt. The Bills then drove to the Steelers' 31-yard line, and Lindell booted a 49-yard field goal to force overtime.

The Bills won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive. Buffalo had a golden opportunity with its second possession in overtime, but a crucial dropped touchdown pass by WR Stevie Johnson forced the Bills to punt. The Steelers took over at their 20-yard line and marched it to the Buffalo 22-yard line where Suisham nailed the game-winning field goal.

GAME 12 PITTSBURGH 13, BALTIMORE 10
December 5, 2010 M&T Bank Stadium (71,418)

BALTIMORE — QB Ben Roethlisberger's nine-yard touchdown pass to RB Isaac Redman with 2:51 left in the game sealed the 13-10 victory for the Pittsburgh Steelers against the Baltimore Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium. The Steelers improved to 9-3, taking over first place in the AFC North. The Ravens fell to 8-4.

Both teams struggled moving the ball throughout most of the first quarter until the Ravens faced a third-and-15 from their own three-yard line. QB Joe Flacco then found WR Anquan Boldin for a 61-yard completion that set the Ravens up at the Steelers' 36-yard line. Flacco then connected with Boldin for a 14-yard touchdown pass, capping off a 10-play, 92-yard drive to put the Ravens up 7-0. Flacco finished the game with 266 yards passing and one touchdown.

Neither team scored again before halftime and the Ravens took their 7-0 lead into the break. The Steelers finally got on the board early in the third quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 45 yards out, which cut the lead 7-3.

The Ravens struck on their next drive on K Billy Cundiff's 24-yard field goal to put them up 10-3. Suisham's 19-yard field goal cut the Ravens' lead to 10-6 early in the fourth quarter.

The Steelers kept forcing the Ravens to punt but they were unable to capitalize until late in the game. On a second-and-five from Baltimore's 43-yard line S Troy Polamalu sacked Flacco and forced a fumble that was recovered by LB LaMarr Woodley. The Steelers took over at the Ravens' nine-yard line and, three plays later, Roethlisberger found Redman for the game-winning touchdown. Roethlisberger finished the game with 253 yards passing with one touchdown and one interception.

The Steelers defense had a very solid performance, posting four sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery while holding the Ravens to 269 yards of total offense (43 rushing, 226 passing). It was the third time this season the Steelers held their opponent to less than 50 rushing yards.

PITTSBURGH — Behind a strong defensive performance, including two interceptions returned for touchdowns, the Steelers beat the Cincinnati Bengals 23-7 at Heinz Field. The Steelers improved to 10-3 on the season and remained in first place in the AFC North, while the Bengals fell to 2-10.

Cincinnati jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on their first drive of the game when QB Carson Palmer found OT Andrew Whitworth for a one-yard touchdown pass. The Bengals would not score another point as the Steelers' defense took over the game.

The Steelers tied the game 7-7 when S Troy Polamalu picked off Palmer's pass and returned it 45 yards for a touchdown late in the first half. It was Polamalu's second career interception return for a touchdown. K Shaun Suisham added a 23-yard field goal with 21 seconds left in the first half and the Steelers took a 10-7 lead into halftime.

Suisham added a 35-yard field goal on the Steelers' opening drive of the second half to make it 13-7. And on the Bengals' ensuing drive, LB LaMarr Woodley intercepted a Palmer pass and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown. The Bengals looked as if they were going to cut into the Steelers' lead on a first-and-10 from the Pittsburgh 16-yard line, but Polamalu picked off Palmer again to seal the victory. It was Polamalu's team-leading sixth interception of the season.

The Steelers had 354 yards of total offense (231 passing, 123 rushing). QB Ben Roethlisberger finished the game 21-of-33 for 258 yards and RB Rashard Mendenhall had a game-high 66 yards rushing.

It was Spaeth's first touchdown this season.

K Nick Folk put the Jets up 10-7 late in the first half with his 25-yard field goal, but the Steelers tied the game, 10-10, with 33 seconds left in the half on K Shaun Suisham's 42-yard field goal. It was Suisham's

The Jets responded on their ensuing drive as QB Mark Sanchez scored on a seven-yard run with 5:14 left in the third quarter. Folk added a 34-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to put the Jets up 20-17.

The Steelers took over from their own two-yard line with 2:38 remaining in game, but on the first play DE Jason Taylor tackled RB Mewelde Moore in the end-zone for a safety. After forcing the Jets to punt the Steelers had a chance to win, but two incomplete passes inside the Jets' 10-yard line gave the Jets the victory.

January 15, 2011 Heinz Field(64,879)

PITTSBURGH — Down 14 points at halftime, the Steelers rallied to score 24 second-half points to beat the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game. With the victory, Pittsburgh improved to 3-0 all-time against the Ravens in the postseason. The Steelers advanced to their 15th AFC Championship game since 1970 and the fifth since 2001.

The Steelers got off to a hot start as RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out on the Steelers' first drive of the game. It was Mendenhall's first career postseason rushing touchdown. The Ravens responded with a 10-play drive that was capped off with a 14-yard touchdown run by RB Ray Rice.

The Ravens went up 14-7 when DE Cory Redding returned QB Ben Roethlisberger's fumble 13 yards for a touchdown. And following another Steelers' turnover, QB Joe Flacco found TE Todd Heap for a four-yard touchdown and the Ravens led 21-7 at halftime.

Early in the third quarter the Steelers defense took over the game, forcing turnovers on three consecutive Ravens' possessions. After a fumble by Rice, Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a nine-yard score to cut the lead 21-14. S Ryan Clark then posted his first career postseason interception, picking off Flacco to set the Steelers up in Ravens' territory. Roethlisberger then found WR Hines Ward for an eight-yard touchdown and the game was tied 21-21. Roethlisberger finished the game with 226 yards passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

Another Ravens fumble led to K Shaun Suisham's 35-yard field goal, which gave the Steelers a 24-21 lead. But the Ravens tied the game on K Billy Cundiff's 24-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter. The Steelers took over with less than four minutes left in the game, and they faced a third-and-19 from their own 38-yard line. Roethlisberger then found rookie WR Antonio Brown running down the sideline for a 58-yard completion to set up Mendenhall's game-winning one-yard touchdown run, his second of the game.

The Steelers defense limited the Ravens to just 126 yards, the second-lowest total in team postseason history. The defense had five sacks, including three by LB James Harrison, forced three turnovers and held the Ravens to just 28 yards in the second half.

The Steelers grabbed a 7-0 lead on the opening drive of the game as RB Rashard Mendenhall capped off the 15-play drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 121 yards rushing, which is the sixth-most in team postseason history.

K Shaun Suisham added to the Steelers' lead with his 20-yard field goal in the second quarter to make it 10-0, and with two minutes left in the half, QB Ben Roethlisberger scored on a two-yard touchdown run to give the Steelers a 17-0 lead. It was Roethlisberger's third career postseason rushing touchdown.

On the Jets' ensuing drive, CB Ike Taylor posted a sack and forced fumble, both career firsts in the postseason, and CB William Gay returned the fumble 19 yards to make it 24-0. It was Gay's first career postseason touchdown and the first defensive touchdown for Pittsburgh in the postseason since LB James Harrison's 100-yard interception return for touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII.

The Jets got on the board just prior to halftime when K Nick Folk connected from 42 yards out to trim the lead to 24-3. And on the Jets' first drive of the second half, QB Mark Sanchez found WR Santonio Holmes for a 45-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 24-10. On the Jets' next drive, Sanchez found WR Jericho Cotchery for a four-yard touchdown to make it 24-19 with three minutes left in the game. The Steelers converted on two key third-downs on their ensuing drive, including the game-winning first down reception by WR Antonio Brown to seal their second AFC Championship in the last three seasons.

Pittsburgh improved to 5-1 in the postseason under Head Coach Mike Tomlin with the victory. Tomlin joined Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs as the only head coaches to reach two Super Bowls in their first four seasons as a head coach.

SUPER BOWL XLV  GREEN BAY 31,  PITTSBURGH 25

February 6, 2011 Cowboys Stadium (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers scored early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again, and on the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards out. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled and Green Bay recovered. The Packers marched down the field and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17. Rodgers finished the game with 304 yards passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

With 7:34 left in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line, allowing Green Bay to win their fourth Super Bowl.

Steelers

STEELERS HISTORY

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933, by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the 10-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988, following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief," as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's great people.

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he lived on the North Side just a short distance from Three Rivers Stadium.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic Games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931, to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John and Pat. In 1964, Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for his contributions to the growth of the NFL and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

By the mid-1960s, Steelers founder Art Rooney had begun to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. After having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Daniel M. Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. In 2000, Dan Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined his father Art to form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. The late New York Giants owners Wellington Mara and his father Tim were the first.

Dan Rooney spent 54 consecutive years with the organization before being named U.S. Ambassador to Ireland in 2009 by President Barack Obama. Rooney was required to move to Ireland in 2009 to fulfill his duties as ambassador.

As an NFL owner, Dan Rooney was widely recognized as one of the league's most influential executives and one of Pittsburgh's leading contributors to civic affairs. Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is a board member for The American Ireland Fund, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation and The Heinz History Center.

Dan Rooney has been a member of several NFL committees over the past 30-plus years. He has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976, Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players' Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993. Rooney was also largely responsible for developing the realignment plan and scheduling format that the NFL adopted prior to the 2002 season. In October 2002, he was named chairman of the NFL's Diversity in the Workplace Committee. Rooney is Chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee. In February 1999, he was named the recipient of the Philadelphia Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award for outstanding contributions to the game of football.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Rooney and his wife Patricia live on the North Side. The Rooneys have nine children and 17 grandchildren.

Dan Rooney was named Steelers' Chairman Emeritus in July 2009 after he was named United States Ambassador to Ireland.

In 2002, Dan Rooney officially turned over the title of Steelers' team president to his oldest son, Art Rooney II, who had previously served as the team's vice president and general counsel. Art II also previously served as Chairman of the Board of Klett Rooney Lieber & Schorling (now Buchanan Ingersoll), Attorneys at Law. A 1978 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh where he majored in political science, Art II received his law degree from Duquesne University School of Law in 1982. His many charitable contributions include sitting on the boards of Pittsburgh's Children's Museum, Greater Pittsburgh Council of the Boy Scouts of America, United Way of Allegheny County and Board of Trustees at Duquesne University. He and his wife Greta have four children.

1930s

After founding the Pirates in 1933, Art Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans, and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938 Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the league in rushing that year and became one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He served 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court before retiring in 1993.

1940s

In 1940 Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record and a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game, 21-0, to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

1938

Byron "Whizzer" White paid an unheard-of $15,800 to play one season for the Steelers.

1942

The Pittsburgh Pirates are officially renamed the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1942

November 22, 1942 – The Steelers defeat the Chicago Cards 19-3 to clinch their first winning season in team history.

1950s

Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952 Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44, and 1954-56 campaigns.

1943

The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Philadelphia Eagles to form the "Steagles" as many rosters were depleted due to World War II.

1947

December 21, 1947 – The Steelers play their first postseason game, a 21-0 setback to the Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Division Playoffs.

1944

The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) as many rosters were still depleted due to World War II.

1957

Lowell Perry becomes the NFL's first African-American assistant coach.

STEELERS HISTORY

1960s Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne quarterbacked the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game versus Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks third among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

On October 25, 1964, the Steelers made team history when they retired jersey No. 70 in honor of former defensive tackle Ernie Stautner. Stautner, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, remains the only Steelers player to have his jersey retired.

Brief head coaching stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of the 37-year-old Chuck Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today, Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1964

October 25, 1964 – The Steelers retire Ernie Stautner's No. 70, becoming the first and only jersey number to be retired in team history.

1969

January 27, 1969 – Chuck Noll is named head coach of the Steelers.

1969

January 28, 1969 – "Mean" Joe Greene is selected by the Steelers in the first round of the NFL Draft.

1970

The Pittsburgh Steelers move from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL.

1970s A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin toss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added in the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted 10 players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Two significant changes took place in 1970. The Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69 the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders, 13-7, with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

1970

August 28, 1970 – Pittsburgh defeats the New York Giants, 21-6, in the first preseason game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1970

September 20, 1970 – The Steelers fall to the Houston Oilers, 19-7, in their first regular-season game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1972

December 23, 1972 – The Steelers win their first playoff game in dramatic fashion with a 13-7 victory over the Oakland Raiders on Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception."

SUPER BOWL X, STEELERS 21, COWBOYS 17

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973 the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory over the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975 the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claim their second consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs, the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 defeat of the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

1974

January 29, 1974 – The Steelers select future Hall of Famers Lynn Swann (first round), Jack Lambert (second), John Stallworth (fourth) and Mike Webster (fifth) in the NFL Draft. Many consider it the best draft in NFL history. Following the draft, the Steelers also signed free agent Donnie Shell, who went on to become one of the team's all-time best safeties.

1975

January 12, 1975 – Pittsburgh defeats the Minnesota Vikings, 16-6, to capture the team's first Super Bowl victory in Super Bowl IX in New Orleans' Tulane Stadium.

1975

Dan Rooney is named President of Pittsburgh Steelers.

The 1976 Steelers struggled to a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories, including five shutouts, to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but lost to Oakland, 24-7, after both starting running backs, Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the first round of the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular-season record.

In 1978 the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins versus Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win versus Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year when the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19, in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins versus Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

STEELERS HISTORY

1980s As the 1980s opened the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982 the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The following year the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by 6-10 in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7 during the strike-shortened season.

In 1988 the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games as the offense failed to score in the first month of the season. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heartbreaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

1980

January 6, 1980 – The Steelers “weather” the Pittsburgh elements as they defeat the Houston Oilers at a rain-soaked Three Rivers Stadium to advance to Super Bowl XIV.

1980

January 20, 1980 – The Steelers win their fourth Super Bowl championship by defeating the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19, in Super Bowl XIV in Pasadena, Calif. They would be named the Team of the Decade of the 1970s.

1990s A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991 Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach, which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of 34-year-old Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. In the first season of the new era, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed newfound success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's Coach of the Year and six Steelers played in the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

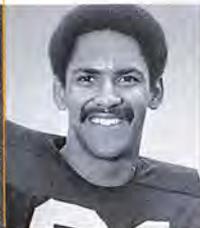

Under Cowher the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its 10th division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers home field advantage throughout the playoffs. However, in the first postseason game at Three Rivers in exactly 10 years, the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC champion Buffalo, 24-3.

1984

Tony Dungy is named defensive coordinator for the Steelers, becoming the NFL's first African-American coordinator.

1987

August 8, 1987 – “Mean” Joe Greene becomes the first player of the 1970s Steelers' teams to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

STEELERS HISTORY

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss at Kansas City in the AFC Wild Card game.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their second division title in three years with the AFC's best record of 12-4. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted its first AFC Championship game since 1979. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers, 17-13.

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl in 1995. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys, 27-17, in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Ariz.

In 1996, the Steelers finished 10-6 and earned their fifth consecutive trip to the playoffs. Cowher ended the season with 57 career victories, ranking him as the second winningest coach in team history, behind his predecessor Noll.

The Steelers captured their fourth consecutive AFC Central title in 1997 while posting an 11-5 record. They were one play away from earning their sixth Super Bowl appearance but lost to Denver, 24-21, in the AFC Championship game.

In 1998, the Steelers finished a disappointing 7-9, losing their last five regular-season games and missing the playoffs for the first time under Bill Cowher.

The Steelers suffered their second consecutive losing season in 1999, when their record fell to 6-10.

STEELERS HISTORY

2000s After starting the 2000 season with a 0-3 record, the Steelers rebounded to finish the year at 9-7, and barely missed the playoffs.

However, 2000 will be remembered most for being the final season for the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers were 4-4 during their final season at Three Rivers Stadium, including victories in four of their final six home games. The Steelers won their final game at Three Rivers, 24-3, against the Washington Redskins on Dec. 16.

The Steelers finished 31 seasons at Three Rivers Stadium [1970-2000] with a 182-73 home record, including the postseason. The Steelers recorded their largest regular-season home attendance figures (440,428) since 1998 in the final season, including a season-high 58,183 fans during the final game in stadium history.

The Steelers began a new era in team history in 2001 with the opening of their new stadium, Heinz Field. The Steelers posted an AFC-best 13-3 regular-season record, including a 7-1 mark at home, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

The inaugural game at Heinz Field was originally scheduled to be a nationally televised Sunday Night game on Sept. 16. However, the September 11 terrorist attacks on America forced the NFL to postpone all games that weekend — which were eventually rescheduled for the end of the season. As a result, the Steelers opened Heinz Field on Sunday, Oct. 7 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Steelers defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens, 27-10, in the AFC Divisional Playoffs, in the first-ever postseason game played at Heinz Field. However, they suffered a disappointing 24-17 loss at home in the AFC Championship Game to the eventual Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots.

After a 0-2 start in 2002, the Steelers rallied to make the playoffs for the second consecutive season. However, the team's Super Bowl hopes ended when they lost, 34-31, in overtime to the Tennessee Titans on the road.

The Steelers began the 2003 season with a 34-15 victory against AFC North rival Baltimore Ravens. However, the team never regained that magic and finished the season with a 6-10 record and out of the playoffs for the first time in three years.

The Steelers set a team record in 2004 by becoming the first AFC team to win 15 games (15-1) in the regular season. They ultimately advanced to the AFC Championship Game where they lost to the New England Patriots, 41-27. Nine Steelers were selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, the team's most since the 1979 season.

Pittsburgh found itself sitting at 7-5 after 12 games in 2005, but it rallied to win its final four regular-season games to earn the AFC's sixth seed in the playoffs. The Steelers then won an unprecedented three straight road playoff games to gain a berth in Super Bowl XL in Detroit versus the Seattle Seahawks.

The Steelers captured their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seahawks as wide receiver Hines Ward was named MVP, finishing with five receptions for 123 yards. Ward also hauled in a game-clinching 43-yard

The 2006 season saw the Bill Cowher era come to an end with the Steelers finishing the season winning six of their final eight games to post an 8-8 record on the year.

On January 5, 2006, Bill Cowher resigned as Steelers head coach with a 161-99-1 overall record, second best in team history.

The Steelers hired 34-year old Mike Tomlin as the team's coach. Tomlin was the NFL's youngest head coach at the time he was hired on Jan. 22, 2007.

Tomlin became the second first-year coach in team history to make the playoffs. The Steelers finished with a 10-6 overall record and won the AFC North division title.

Mike Tomlin became the first coach in franchise history to win a division title in each of his first two seasons when the Steelers captured their second consecutive AFC North division title with a 12-4 record. They went on to defeat the San Diego Chargers and Baltimore Ravens to gain a berth in Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa, Florida versus the Arizona Cardinals.

The Steelers became the first NFL franchise to capture six Super Bowl titles when they defeated the Cardinals, 27-23. With the victory, Head Coach Mike Tomlin became the youngest coach to win a Super Bowl in NFL history. Wide receiver Santonio Holmes was named MVP after hauling in the game-winning six-yard touchdown pass from Ben Roethlisberger with 35 seconds remaining in regulation.

The Steelers added to their legacy, making it all the way to Super Bowl XLV after a 12-4 record during the 2010 season. The Steelers though could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell to the Green Bay Packers 31-25. Despite the loss, the Steelers still hold the NFL record for most Super Bowl victories with six.

SUPER BOWL IX  PITTSBURGH 16,  MINNESOTA 6
January 12, 1975 Tulane Stadium (80,997)

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in QB Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by defense. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota defensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' C Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh DE Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the nine.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, while Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

SUPER BOWL X PITTSBURGH 21, DALLAS 17
January 18, 1976 Miami Orange Bowl (80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to TE Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make his catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic three interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas S Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh LB Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers' reserve FB Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only two yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers' S Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was intercepted by S Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

SUPER BOWL XIII  PITTSBURGH 35,  DALLAS 31

January 21, 1979 Miami Orange Bowl (78,656)

MIAMI—This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers' QB Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys' QB Roger Staubach saw TE Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas CB Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to TE Billy Joe Dupree and Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

SUPER BOWL XIV PITTSBURGH 31, LOS ANGELES 19
January 20, 1980 Rose Bowl Stadium (103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams' DE Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers WR John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams' CB Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit WR Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from QB Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and two touchdowns.

SUPER BOWL XXX  DALLAS 27,  PITTSBURGH 17

January 28, 1996 Sun Devil Stadium (76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas CB Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four yard-line two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions— a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

SUPER BOWL XL PITTSBURGH 21, SEATTLE 10
February 5, 2006 Ford Field (68,206)

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history [S.F. 49ers and Dallas Cowboys].

Backed by a predominantly Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it failed to gain a first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

Pittsburgh's defense continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead throughout the second quarter.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the half as Roethlisberger dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the second half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open by driving to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game on a gadget play. WR Antwan Randle El took a reverse handoff and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with 8:56 left in the game. Randle El's touchdown pass was the first by a wide receiver in Super Bowl history.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions to post the victory. Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while RB Jerome Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

SUPER BOWL XLIII  PITTSBURGH 27,  ARIZONA 23

February 1, 2009 Raymond James Stadium (70,774)

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight-play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch their NFL-record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. K Jeff Reed booted an 18-yard field goal on the opening drive to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to 10-0 when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as if they were going to take their first lead late in the first half, but LB James Harrison intercepted Warner at the goal-line, raced 100 yards and dove into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed in the third quarter upped the lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

The Steelers were backed up to their own 12-yard line on the next drive, but Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger threaded a perfect pass through three defenders and Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 35 seconds left.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble to essentially end the game.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) with one touchdown. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

SUPER BOWL XLV GREEN BAY 31, PITTSBURGH 25
February 6, 2011 Cowboys Stadium (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers scored early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again, and on the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards out. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled and Green Bay recovered. The Packers marched down the field and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17. Rodgers finished the game with 304 yards passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

With 7:34 left in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line, allowing Green Bay to win their fourth Super Bowl.

Player (1937-'39), Coach (1939-'44, 1949-'61) Elected: 1966

Walt Kiesling spent 34 years in the NFL as a player, assistant coach and head coach. In 1939, Kiesling got his first head coaching job with the Pittsburgh. He led the Steelers to their first winning season in franchise history in 1942. Kiesling left coaching in 1944, but returned in 1954 with the Steelers. His teams earned a reputation for playing rugged hard-hitting football.

Bobby Layne

Quarterback (1958-62) Elected: 1967

Bobby Layne played five of his 15 NFL seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He helped provide the Steelers with some of their finest seasons up to that point. Prior to Pittsburgh, Layne was a two-time All-NFL selection and was the league's scoring champion in 1956. His last-second touchdown pass won the 1953 NFL title game for the Detroit Lions.

Ernie Stautner

Defensive Tackle (1950-63) Elected: 1969

Ernie Stautner, considered one of the toughest players in league history by his teammates and opponents, was a nine-time Pro Bowl selection as he anchored Pittsburgh's defense for 14 seasons. He captured the NFL's Best Lineman Award in 1957 and was named all-league four times. Showing his gritty and hard-working attitude, Stautner missed just six games during his 14-year career despite having numerous broken ribs, shoulders, hands and a nose. The Steelers honored him by retiring his No. 70 jersey in 1964 following his retirement, and he remains the only Steeler to have received that honor.

Joe Greene

Defensive Tackle (1969-81) Elected: 1987

The leader of the "Steel Curtain" defense during the 1970s, Joe Greene dominated the NFL during that decade and helped the Steelers to four Super Bowl victories. The team's No. 1 draft pick in 1969, Greene quickly became a presence in the league as he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year and received the first of his 10 Pro Bowl invitations. He earned All-NFL honors five times and all-conference 11 straight years to begin his career. Greene was twice the league's Defensive Player of the Year and played a critical role in the Steelers' Super Bowl IX victory over the Minnesota Vikings with a pass interception and a fumble recovery.

John Henry Johnson

Fullback (1960-65) Elected: 1987

Originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1953, John Henry Johnson spent his first eight years in the NFL outside of the Steel City. However, Johnson enjoyed his finest seasons with the Steelers. In both 1962 and 1964, Johnson became the first Steeler to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing barrier. After retiring in 1966 from the Houston Oilers, Johnson's 6,803 career rushing yards ranked him fourth at the time among the NFL's all-time top ground gainers behind only Jim Brown, Jim Taylor and Joe Perry.

STEELERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Jack Ham

Linebacker (1971-82) Elected: 1988

Ham won the starting linebacker job as a rookie and never looked back, playing in five AFC Championship games and three Super Bowls (sat out Super Bowl XIV due to injuries). His interception return against Oakland in the 1974 AFC Championship game that set up the Steelers' go-ahead touchdown, giving the team its first ever championship victory and a berth in Super Bowl IX.

Mel Blount

Franco Harris

Running Back (1972-'83) Elected: 1990
 Franco Harris is the Steelers' all-time leading rusher with 11,950 yards and all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (91). Harris was named Super Bowl IX MVP, after rushing for a then-record 158 yards and a touchdown.
