STEELERS Training Camp History

THE STEELERS have held their annual training camp at several locations throughout club history before settling on their current camp home at Saint Vincent College. The 2015 season marks the 50th consecutive year that the Steelers have held their preseason training camp in Latrobe, Pa. The Steelers' 50-year tenure at Saint Vincent College ranks second (tied with Minnesota) in the NFL for training camp longevity, trailing only the Green Bay Packers, who have held their preseason camp at St. Norbert College in DePere, Wisc., for 58 years. The final two weeks of the Steelers' 1966 training camp were held at Saint Vincent College after beginning camp at the University of Rhode Island.

The Steelers first full camp at Saint Vincent College took place in 1967.

The following is a complete list of places where the Pittsburgh Steelers have held their training camps, along with the years they were there:

LOCATION	YEARS
Moore Field, Pittsburgh, Pa.	1933-37
St. Francis College	1938-40
Hershey, Pa.	1941-42, 1945-46
Philadelphia, Pa.	1943
Waukesha, Wisconsin	1944
Alliance College (Cambridge Springs, Pa.)	1947-51
St. Bonaventure College	1952-57
California State Teachers College	1958-60
Slippery Rock College	1961
West Liberty College (Wheeling, W. Va.)	1962-63
University of Rhode Island	1964-66
Saint Vincent College	1966-Present

HEINZ FIELD Fun Facts

OWNER: Sports and Exhibition Authority of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County

DEVELOPER: Pittsburgh Steelers

TENANTS: Pittsburgh Steelers, University of Pittsburgh

ARCHITECT: HOK Sports

CONSTRUCTION MANAGER: Hunt Construction Group/Mascaro (A Joint Venture)

GROUND BREAKING: June 18, 1999

SQUARE FOOTAGE: 1.49 million square feet

SEATING CAPACITY: 68,400 seats

CLUB SEATING: 8,610 seats

SUITES: 136

CLUB LOUNGES: 3 — UPMC Club & Club West approximately 45,000 square feet, Champions Club 20,000 square feet.

RESTROOMS: 25 women's, 25 men's and 8 family.

CONCESSIONS: 50 concession stands.

MERCHANDISE: 16 Novelty Locations, 6 Gift Shops, 5 Program Stands and 4 Merchandise Locations.

LOCKER ROOMS: Steelers' locker room is 6,000 square feet, Panthers' locker room is 4,600 square feet and both visiting locker rooms are 2,600 square feet.

SCOREBOARDS: Heinz Field has two Daktronics HD LED video boards. The video board in the south end zone is 28 x 96 and the during the 2014 offseason a 35 x 72 foot video board was installed in the northwest corner of the stadium. The new board features a 13HD pixel layout and gives fans that had a limited view of the main Daktronics board in the south end a perfect vantage point.

TELEVISION SETS: 650

PLAYING SURFACE: The turf is a blend of four varieties of Kentucky Bluegrass, covering just over two acres. The soil is a twelve inch, sand-based root zone, meeting USGA specifications for particle size. Under the root zone approximately 40 miles of ¾ inch piping heat the soil. Below the heating system there is a four inch layer of pea gravel which contains drain pipes that empty into a 22-inch collector pipe surrounding the perimeter of the field.

SIGHT LINES: 60 feet from sideline to first row and 25 feet from end zone to first row.

ESCALATORS: 5

ELEVATORS: 7 Passenger and 2 Freight

PEDESTRIAN RAMPS: 4

FEDEX GREAT HALL: Located on the ground level of the East side of Heinz Field. The FedEx Great Hall is home to Pittsburgh Steelers and University of Pittsburgh memorabilia, Hall of Fame artifacts, Quaker Steak & Lube and Primanti Brothers.

HIGH SCHOOL MURALS: Throughout Heinz Field there are 60 murals from area high schools that have won a WPIAL or City League Football Championship.

WPIAL CHAMPIONS AT HEINZ FIELD: Opened for the 2014 season, the display honors every WPIAL Champion since 2001, the first year of Heinz Field.

SOUTH PLAZA EXPANSION: An additional 2,633 seats were added to Heinz Field prior to the start of the 2015 season. The new seats are a mixture of general reserved seating, club seating and an additional five suites. The South Plaza will also offer three new premium concessions, Burgatory, "Mac N'at" and Papa John's Pizza.

HEINZ KETCHUP

Bottles Facts: The bottles are exact replicas—down to the embossed "57" on the bottle's neck—of the Heinz Ketchup 14 ounce glass bottle. Each bottle includes 8,000 pounds of fiberglass, 375 feet of neon tubing and 20,500 light-emitting diodes (LEDs). Each Heinz Ketchup Bottle measures 35 feet X 9 feet and each weighs 8,000 pounds, both totaling 16,000 pounds, the equivalent of 53—300 pound NFL linemen. If the Heinz Ketchup bottles were filled with Heinz Ketchup, they would contain 1,664,000 fluid ounces each. That is enough to give each person seated at Heinz Field at least one 14-ounce bottle of ketchup to take home. If both bottles were emptied, the entire football field would be covered in 3/4 of an inch of ketchup. Approximately 4,500 footballs could fit into each scoreboard ketchup bottle.

CREDENTIALS

Home Games: Credential requests for Steelers home games must be submitted to credentials@steelers.nfl.com no later than seven days prior to the game.

Due to recommended security procedures, user names must be provided for every credential that is requested. Please specify which credential users need field access throughout the entire game and those who need pre-game field access only.

All parties should be aware that the names submitted for the credentials must be the names that show up to the stadium with valid government-issued photo identification. Once the credentialed members of the media arrive at Heinz Field, their credential number will be on a security list and matched with a name.

Credentials cannot be transferred or altered on game days or days leading up to the game to reflect a credential user other than the person the credential was issued to by the Steelers organization.

Media who are assigned to cover every Steelers' home game may apply for season credentials. Season-long credentials will be distributed prior to the team's first preseason game.

Media who receive credentials on a game-by-game basis must pick up their credentials at Media Will Call located at Heinz Field next to the Steelers administrative offices entrance on Allegheny Avenue, across from the Carnegie Science Center. Government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials at Will Call.

Due to recommended security procedures, the Steelers do not mail out credentials.

Road Games: Pittsburgh media traveling to Steelers' road games must submit their requests to credentials@steelers.nfl.com no later than seven days prior to the road game.

GAME DAYParking

Parking at and around Heinz Field is limited and not all credential media will receive a parking pass. Following are additional game day parking recommendations for media who do not receive parking passes:

Utilize parking areas Downtown, in Station Square, Rivers Casino garage or one of the Port Authority's Park and Ride Lots.

Downtown parking is available at eight (8) Pittsburgh Authority Garages, the Mon Wharf and the Convention Center. Recommended private garages include the Bruner Advertising Building, the PPG Building, Fifth Avenue Place and US Steel Building.

From Downtown parking lots, media can access Heinz

Field via sidewalks on the Roberto Clemente Bridge and the Ft. Duquesne Bridge.

Reserved, pre-sold parking lots around the stadium open five hours before kickoff.

Satellite truck parking requests must be submitted by completing the satellite parking request form which can be obtained by emailing Brittany Bellovich (bellovichb@steelers.nfl.com). Questions regarding satellite parking should be directed to Brittany Bellovich.

Television trucks will park in the satellite truck lot located on Allegheny Avenue, across from the Carnegie Science Center, adjacent to the stadium.

Due to limited space, all requests will not be granted. Requests should be submitted no later than the Monday leading up to a Sunday game.

Will Call

Media Will Call is located at Heinz Field next to the Steelers' administrative offices entrance on Allegheny Avenue, across from the Carnegie Science Center.

All media picking up credentials on game day must do so at Media Will Call.

Media Will Call opens four hours prior to kickoff.

A valid form of government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials.

Media Will Call is not the same as the general ticket Will Call window, which is located between the Great Hall and Gate B on the northeast side of Heinz Field.

Phone Lines

Media interested in setting up a game day phone line at Heinz Field should log onto www.steelers.com/media-phones. Please contact Greg Hoyer with any questions at (412) 697-7147.

Frequency Coordinator

Please contact the NFL Game Day Coordinator, Otto Schellin, via email at GDCSteelers@NFL.com before game day. Please be advised that the holder of NFL game credentials employing a wireless radio frequency device such as a wireless microphone, communications radio, etc. (cell phones excluded) must register their frequency information. Please distribute the attached info to your media.

Internet

The press box and photo rooms at Heinz Field are equipped with wireless internet access. You will be supplied with this information in those areas.

Directions to Heinz Field Locker Rooms (From Press Box)

Steelers: Exit press box to the left to elevator bank. Take elevator to ground level. Proceed straight through Steelers Administrative Offices lobby to rear doors. Walk through doors approximately 30 feet and Steelers locker room is on your right. For the Steelers interview room, make a sharp right prior to the rear doors of the Steelers lobby.

Visitors: Exit press box to the left to elevator bank. Take elevator to ground level. Proceed straight through Steelers Administrative Offices lobby to rear doors. Proceed through the rear lobby doors and make a left. Follow corridor about 50 yards. The visiting locker room is on your right. The visiting interview room is inside the locker room entrance.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS Media Guidelines

TRAINING CAMP

Credentials

Media seeking credentials to the Steelers training camp at Saint Vincent College (Latrobe, Pa.) must first contact the team's media relations department for approval by emailing credentials@steelers.nfl.com. Guidelines will be provided at that time. The Steelers reserve the right to deny media credentials to the team's training camp. Requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Check-in

All media covering Steelers training camp must immediately check in at the team's media relations office located at St. Benedict Hall. All media must present a valid photo ID for a media credential.

Credentialed media will receive access to designated areas of the Steelers training camp facility, including the media workroom in Benedict Hall, practice fields and the cafeteria. Interviews are prohibited in the team's cafeteria. Media members are prohibited from entering the players'/coaches' dormitory or locker room at any time.

Parking

Upon check-in media will be provided with a parking pass and will be directed to park in the upper parking lot behind the team's dormitories. Parking passes are required for all media attending Steelers training camp.

Interviews

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers' media relations department.

Players are generally available on the field after each practice. Locker room access is prohibited during training camp. Interviews of any kind are prohibited in the team's cafeteria.

Coach Tomlin is generally available on the field on a daily basis after the team's final practice of the day. On the days when Coach Tomlin holds his weekly press conference, he will not be available to media after practice.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators and assistant coaches are generally available after each practice with the approval of the Steelers' media relations department.

All interview requests for Steelers' owners, director of football operations or other football/non-football staff must first be approved by Steelers' media relations. Live shots are allowed in designated areas at Steelers' training camp. Steelers' media relations must be notified in advance of any TV live shots.

TV/radio sit-down interviews must be approved in advance by Steelers' media relations.

Media members are permitted to utilize all social networking tools (Twitter, Facebook, blogging, text alerts, etc.) only during practices that are open to the public.

Practice Field Access

Credentialed print and electronic media are allowed to watch Steelers practices in their entirety. All media must be at field level. Media are prohibited from watching practice from the hillside without prior approval from the team's media relations department. Videotaping any portion of practice from the hillside or other remote locations is strictly prohibited. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

All photographers (still and video) are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime players are in a team formation. All photographers are prohibited from any use of their cameras anywhere on Saint Vincent's campus other than the designated spots on the practice fields and outside of the cafeteria.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice, any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers' media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

In the event of inclement weather, the team may be forced to practice indoors. Media may be allowed to attend indoor practices (at the team's discretion), but access will be limited.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

IN SEASON/OFF-SEASON

Steelers On/Off Facility

All Steelers daily football operations take place at the team's headquarters at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex and not at Heinz Field. Coaches and players are at Heinz Field only on game days.

All media visiting Steelers headquarters must sign in at the front desk upon arrival and receive a day badge. Badges must be worn at all times.

All media must remain in the team's media workroom while at the team's headquarters. The team's first and second floor lobby areas are not to be used for workspace or to conduct interviews.

Media are to access the practice fields from the first floor only.

Media setting up for sit-down interviews must be chaperoned to designated areas by Steelers' media relations.

Coaching offices and team meeting rooms are off limits to media. Interviews and any videotaping in the Steelers parking lot are prohibited. The team requires all interviews at the team's headquarters only be conducted in the team's locker room and other areas specifically designated by the team's media relations department.

While we understand the importance of breaking news, our expectation is that all media that cover the team will respect club policies that close walk-thru's and offseason workouts to the media, and that media will not resort to alternate means of recording those sessions even from a remote location. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subject to review.

Press conferences, media availabilities, open practice sessions and other Steelers activities at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex or Heinz Field may not be broadcast live by an individual or media outlet. This includes the use of social media applications such as Ustream, Periscope and Meerkat, among others.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS *Media GuidelinesSteelers South Side Camera Credential Policy

The Pittsburgh Steelers require all visiting media who intend to use any type of electronic recording device to comply with the following policies when covering the team at club practices or events. The policies govern the online use of audio and video interviews and press conference content on non-game days and weekdays. These rules are designed to enable news organization websites to "illustrate" their coverage of the NFL with daily audio/video sound bites that supplement and complement the work of their reporters and columnists:

- All media members are required to wear credentials when on-site covering the Steelers at team headquarters.
- Camera operators may shoot video and still photos only in designated areas at the Steelers headquarters. These areas include and are limited to the practice field, locker room, media workroom and areas designated by the club's media relations department only. Still photographers do not have access to the locker room.
- Up to 90 seconds per day of audio and/or video of interviews or press conferences with NFL employees (including, but not limited to, players and coaches) or of team practice footage may be used on the Internet by credentialed news organizations. The content may not be used live and may be archived for no more than 24 hours. This applies to both game days and non-game days.

Video/audio material comprised entirely of a credentialed media organization employee providing commentary or analysis, including stand-up video/audio material shot on the field or at other stadium or club facility locations [subject to generally applicable safety and venue management restrictions or shooting locations and times], may be distributed via media organizations' Internet sites.

The usage conditions are as follows:

- The page featuring the audio/video must provide links to NFL.com and the corresponding club site. For example: For more info, go to www.nfl.com and www.steelers.com.
- The content may be used only in an editorial context [such as in links that illustrate stories or in multimedia news sections] and may not be presented in stand alone multimedia entertainment sections of third party websites.
- No integrated advertising is permitted. Footage may appear on pages with banners and contextual ads, but the ads may not be specifically related to the NFL audio/video content.

Practice Field Access

Only local Pittsburgh media are allowed to watch Steelers practices. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

Out of town media are prohibited from watching any portion of the team's practices.

All photographers are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime the players are in a team formation.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice.

Media may not shoot video of the team leaving the field at the end of practice.

Any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers' media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

Media are to access the practice fields from the first floor only.

Interviews

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers' media relations department. The Steelers ask that media respect the privacy of players/coaches/staff and refrain from approaching any members of the organization or their families at their places of residence. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subjected to review.

Players are generally available in the locker room only at lunchtime and after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Players are available in the locker room after practice only on Fridays. Player interviews are not to be conducted on the practice field or in other areas outside of the locker room, including the parking lot area, without prior approval from the Steelers' media relations department. Still photographers are not allowed in the Steelers' locker room.

Coach Tomlin will hold a weekly press conference every Tuesday at noon in the Steelers' media workroom. He will also be available after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays (upon request) in the media workroom.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators will generally be available on Thursdays. Assistant coaches are available only with the approval of the Steelers' media relations department. The best time to interview assistant coaches is as they leave the field after practice.

Only Coach Tomlin will be available to media on game days. Assistant coaches are not available for interviews on game days.

All interview requests for Steelers' owners, director of football operations or other football/non-football staff must first be approved by Steelers' media relations.

Live shots are allowed in designated areas at Steelers' headquarters. Steelers' media relations must be notified in advance of any TV live shots.

Satellite trucks are required to park on the side of the Steelers' practice facility (near the train tracks). Media must seek prior approval for any exceptions.

TV/radio sit-down interviews must be approved in advance by Steelers' media relations.

Interviews of any kind are prohibited in the team's cafeteria.

Parking

All media are required to park on the opposite side of the Steelers' indoor practice facility from the team's offices.

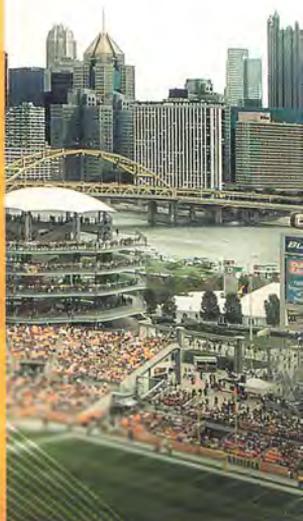

Media with physical disabilities should make prior arrangements with Steelers' media relations for access to handicapped parking.

> IN THE COMMUNITY

The Pittsburgh Steelers are proud to be a part of the Western Pennsylvania community.

The organization's strong commitment to this area dates back to 1933, when Arthur J. Rooney, Sr. founded the team. Steelers Chairman Dan Rooney and President Art Rooney II are known as two of the most active NFL owners and are some of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs. Steelers players, coaches and front office staff are involved in appearances, charitable donations and outreach programs with nonprofit and community groups. It's our way of giving back to the community that has given us so much!

STEELERS Community Outreach Programs

Academics in Motion

The Steelers and PPG Foundation partner to support Academics in Motion (AIM), which uses sports as a vehicle to improve the academic, career and personal development of students from economically disadvantaged communities. The program places a youth development coach in local high schools to work with student-athletes to improve GPA and college readiness, increase graduation rates, SAT and ACT participation, parental involvement and the number of students going to college.

American Heart Association

The Steelers, the NFL and the American Heart Association (AHA) partner on the Play 60 Challenge, a health and fitness program that incorporates physical activity for middle school students into daily classroom and after-school activities. The Steelers also support the AHA's annual Healthy Family Training Camp and Heart Walk.

▲ Annual Gatorade/Steelers 5K Race, Fitness Walk and Kids' Kickoff Run which helps raise money for the Art Rooney Scholarship Fund.

Art Rooney Scholarship Fund

The Art Rooney Scholarship Fund, in partnership with the Pittsburgh Promise, annually provides college scholarships for three graduating seniors at high schools located on Pittsburgh's North Side, where Art Rooney Sr. himself spent most of his life. The annual Gatorade/Steelers 5K Race, Fitness Walk and Kids' Kickoff Run is the major fundraiser for the scholarship fund. The event features a 3.1-mile level course on the North Side, highlighted by a spectacular finish in Heinz Field.

Boys & Girls Club

The Steelers annually sponsor the Boys & Girls Club of Western Pennsylvania Dapper Dan Flag Football League and host the league championships at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex indoor practice facility. Steelers players visit the different club sites.

Breast Cancer Awareness

The Steelers participate in numerous breast cancer awareness initiatives each year, including: NFL Breast Cancer Awareness month, the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, player hospital visits and special pink-logged merchandise sales.

At the breast cancer awareness game in October, the team recognizes local breast cancer survivors in a pregame ceremony. Pink Terrible Towels are distributed to all fans at the game in partnership with UPMC and Ford. In addition, proceeds from the sale of pink Steelers merchandise are donated to breast cancer charities. Many Steelers players wear pink uniform items to bring more awareness to this important cause.

As part of the Steelers' breast cancer awareness activities, players who have a loved one affected by the disease serve as chefs at the "Cooking and Eating for a Healthy Life" class at Magee Women's Hospital of UPMC. In attendance are breast cancer survivors who enjoy the players' efforts in the kitchen.

Tight end Heath Miller and his wife Katie chair the annual Bid for Hope to benefit A Glimmer of Hope Foundation, which raises funds for breast cancer research.

Cancer Caring Center

A portion of the proceeds from the annual Steelers Style Fashion Show goes to the Cancer Caring Center. Defensive end Cameron Heyward chairs the annual Cancer Caring walk and has lunch with the top 10 fundraisers. The Cancer Caring Center is dedicated to helping people diagnosed with cancer, their families and friends cope with the emotional impact of cancer.

CASA

Steelers players annually participate in the CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) backpack giveaway. CASA works with children in the child welfare system that are neglected or abused. The advocates serve as a voice for the children in court and other situations to help ensure that every child has a safe, supportive and permanent home.

STEELERS Community Outreach Programs

Catholic Youth Association

The Steelers organization annually supports the Art Rooney Award dinner, named for the team's founder, Art Rooney, Sr. For more than 80 years, Catholic Youth has served the most vulnerable members of our community, children and the elderly. Former defensive lineman Brett Keisel received the 2015 Bob Prince Award.

Central Blood Bank Blood Drive

The Steelers hold an annual blood drive at Heinz Field in the fall. Please visit www.steelers.com for information about the next blood drive.

▲ Steelers Rookie Club at Children's Hospital

Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC

Steelers players and team mascot Steely McBeam make frequent visits to Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh to bring a smile to kids who are battling health issues. Players participate in various events for patients and their families, including the WDVE Radiothon at the hospital. The team also annually holds a monetary collection at a selected home game and Children's received proceeds from the 50/50 raffle at that game.

Cystic Fibrosis

Defensive end Cameron Heyward serves as honorary co-chair of the 65 Roses Sports Auction which features several of their teammates and benefits the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. The foundation raises funds for research to discover a cure for the disease.

Extra Mile Education Foundation

Head Coach Mike Tomlin serves as honorary chair of the annual Extra Mile golf outing. The foundation provides support for parochial elementary schools educating children of inner-city families. Extra Mile Education Foundation subsidies make tuition in the schools affordable for disadvantaged families seeking a quality, values-based education.

FITNESSGRAM

The NFL Foundation, in partnership with The Cooper Institute[®], has provided schools and after-school organizations with tested methods and tools to teach, promote, and assess physical fitness and activity in children. This partnership also makes it possible to track health-related fitness data and analyze factors that influence successful adoption of PLAY 60 programs and their potential impact on youth fitness outcomes through the established FITNESSGRAM program. There are 35 participating sites in the Pittsburgh area.

Gala Pittsburgh Sports Night

Each fall, the Steelers host a "Gala Pittsburgh Sports Night" at Heinz Field to raise much-needed funds for North Side children and their families who attend local Catholic schools. The evening features current and former athletes from the Steelers, Pirates and Penguins, as well as local universities.

Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank

Center Maurkice Pouncey and fullback Will Johnson annually host turkey giveaways for more than 400 needy families in the Pittsburgh area. Offensive lineman Kelvin Beachum teams up with the Food Bank on a virtual milk drive for our region's most vulnerable families. The team also supports food collection efforts through a virtual food drive.

Heroes at Heinz Field

The Steelers annually partner with VA Health Care VISN 4 for a special evening at Heinz Field for Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom veterans. Participants, many injured in the war, try out their football skills with the help of Steelers players. The players enjoy the opportunity to thank the "true heroes" for their service to ensure our continued freedom.

Holy Family Institute-Pittsburgh Steelers Courage House

Greta Rooney, wife of Art Rooney II, chairs the annual Courage House Awards luncheon. Each year a Steelers player is chosen as the Ed Block Courage Award winner for overcoming illness or injury. Linebacker Sean Spence was chosen by his teammates, and received the 2014 award from Head Coach Mike Tomlin.

KidsVoice

A current player hosts a holiday event in December for clients of KidsVoice, which diligently guides children through the court process and ensures that every agency involved meets the full range of a child's needs.

Leukemia/Lymphoma Society Light the Night Walk

For the sixth year in a row in 2014, many Steelers players and family members attended the annual Leukemia & Lymphoma Society Light the Night Walk at Heinz Field in support of leukemia survivor Elijah Smith, son of former Steelers defensive end Aaron Smith and his wife Jaimie.

Lupus Foundation

Offensive lineman Kelvin Beachum is the honorary chairperson for the annual Lupus Loop in honor of his mother who has the disease. The event raises money for research.

STEELERS Community Outreach Programs

Make-A-Wish

The Steelers organization works closely with Make-A-Wish to grant wishes. The wish experiences include meeting quarterback Ben Roethlisberger and other favorite players, a behind-the-scenes look at the Steelers practice facility and tickets to a home game. Roethlisberger makes an annual donation to Make-A-Wish from his personal foundation.

Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA)

Each year, several current and former Steelers along with mascot Steely McBeam participate in MDA's Pittsburgh Muscle Team, which benefits families living with neuromuscular diseases in Western Pennsylvania. At the event, the players partner with child ambassadors who are battling the disease in a variety of fun activities.

NFL Play 60

The NFL's program for an active generation encourages kids to be physically active for 60 minutes each day in an effort to combat childhood obesity. Many Steelers events incorporate the Play 60 message with players and coaches demonstrating the importance of fitness and activity. The efforts include building Steelers Youth Fitness Zones at area non-profits and awarding grants to local schools that participate in the Play 60 Challenge. The team partners with Mid-Atlantic Dairy Association to promote Fuel Up to Play 60 (FUTP60), which encourages students to eat healthy. Offensive lineman Kelvin Beachum is the Steelers' FUTP60 spokesman, making several appearances at area schools.

NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year

The team's Walter Payton Man of the Year award is given annually to a player who best represents the late Chicago running back's commitment to community. Cornerback Will Gay was the 2014 winner.

Prostate Cancer Awareness

Each September during prostate cancer awareness month, former Steelers linebacker and prostate cancer survivor Robin Cole hosts a booth outside Heinz Field before a home game to help promote awareness of the disease. Several of Robin's brothers are also survivors, and they lost their father to prostate cancer. In tribute to his dad and to promote screening and early detection, Robin founded the Obediah Cole Prostate Cancer Foundation.

Rebuilding Together Pittsburgh

The Steelers, along with 84 Lumber and Baker Hughes, serve as sponsors of Rebuilding Together Pittsburgh. This annual program renovates the homes of veterans and elderly in the greater Pittsburgh area with a goal of safety for the homeowner. Steelers staff, players and alumni participate in the program each year, along with 84 Lumber and Baker Hughes employees.

Rookie Club

The Rookie Club enables the new players to work as a group in order to gain confidence in their ability to interact with the community as Pittsburgh Steelers. It is an introduction to community service during the players' first year with the team and provides a sense of camaraderie.

Salvation Army - Project Bundle-Up

Players and their families annually take disadvantaged children shopping for winter outerwear as part of the Salvation Army's Project Bundle-Up program. Patricia Rooney, wife of Steelers Chairman Dan Rooney, and Joe DiNardo, retired WTAE-TV weatherman, are founders of the program. Tight end Heath Miller hosts the annual miniature golf classic in the Spring. In addition, the Steelers host a monetary collection at a home game each fall and the Salvation Army received proceeds from the 50/50 raffle at that game.

STEELERS

Style

Steelers Style Fashion Show/ Alumni Weekend Dinner

The team annually holds two fundraisers as part of Steelers Style: Fashion, Food and Football. The annual fashion show features current players and their families modeling clothing from local retailers. The show is chaired by Greta & Art Rooney and Kiya & Mike Tomlin, with two current Steelers players serving as co-captains. Proceeds benefit the UPMC Sports Medicine Concussion Program and the Cancer Caring Center. The Steelers Alumni Weekend Dinner features a sampling of culinary delights, along with alumni sharing stories.

United Way

The annual Hometown Huddle is a program throughout the NFL partnering players with local United Way agencies to encourage volunteerism and giving back to the community. The Steelers annually host the United Way's campaign kickoff at halftime of a preseason game, featuring three corporate participants in a field goal competition. The winner presents the United Way with its first campaign donation of the year. Steelers players and staff also participate in the annual Day of Caring. Former Steelers Rocky Bleier and Jerome Bettis helped launch a campaign to raise money for bus passes for veterans in need of transportation.

Urban IMPACT

Urban Impact Foundation

The Urban Impact Foundation (UIF) is a faith-based, nonprofit corporation which fosters Christian community development on Pittsburgh's North Side. One of the outreaches is through athletic programs and events. Many Steelers players participate in a football clinic held by UIF on Pittsburgh's North Side each summer.

Head Coach Mike Tomlin participates in the annual ManUp Pittsburgh conference which encourages local men to be better fathers and role models.

Veterans/Military

Steelers players visit the local VA Hospitals to spend time with the patients who have served our country. At several home games each year, veterans and active military personnel are honored for their service to the United States.

For Veterans Day, the Steelers honor a veteran from each of the wars going back to World War II and Pearl Harbor. Color guards, representing all branches of the military, are present at each home game.

Every time the Steelers score from inside the red zone at Heinz Field, H.J. Heinz Company and Giant Eagle make a donation to the Wounded Warrior Project.

Westmoreland County Food Bank

Steelers fans attending the night practice at training camp each August help the less fortunate in Westmoreland County by donating food and money to the local food bank. Giant Eagle matches the food donation pound-for-pound which means twice as many residents are fed.

Women's Center and Shelter of Greater Pittsburgh

Cornerback Will Gay, whose mother was a victim of domestic violence, provides holiday dinners at the Women's Center & Shelter. The organization works to put a face on domestic violence and, in doing so, aims to help survivors heal, encourage batterers to seek help and build empathy and understanding of this issue.

YouthPlaces

YouthPlaces ensures that underserved, high risk youth ages 12-18 engage in quality after-school programs within their own neighborhoods that are shaped by the community and youth leaders in order to develop the skills of youth and increase their opportunity for success. Players spend time with the youth and encourage them to make good decisions in life.

USA Football Heads Up Program

The Steelers, along with the National Football League and USA Football, are working hard to improve the safety of football at all levels, especially with youth and high school players. USA Football's Heads Up Football program is a comprehensive solution to player safety which promotes coaching education and certification, equipment fitting, concussion recognition and awareness, heat and hydration, and heads up tackling. More than 150,000 coaches nationwide are implementing Heads Up Football in their programs. USA Football will train Player Safety Coaches for local leagues, who will then train the coaches, players and parents for only $10 per coach within the organization. Learn more at www.usafootball.com.

Youth Football in Steelers Country Show on ROOT Sports

A weekly show completely dedicated to the passion of youth and high school football in Western Pennsylvania, Youth Football in Steelers Country is a must watch for anyone who loves youth football. The show airs each Saturday on ROOT Sports at 10 a.m. and can also be viewed on Steelers.com. The show features great weekly matchups at both levels of youth football, selects a Coach and Player of the Week, and gives a Most Valuable Person award. This award goes to someone who has gone above and beyond and dedicated themselves to making a better team or organization.

High School Football

Each year, the Steelers host the WPIAL Championship Games at Heinz Field in November. Each class champion is then hosted at a Steelers game to honor their accomplishment.

WPIAL Champions at Heinz Field presented by UPMC

In 2014, the Steelers unveiled an area in the west main concourse of Heinz Field to honor the WPIAL Football Champions from 2001-present. The display features current champions framed memorabilia, video highlights of the championship games, and mini-helmets of each of the teams in the WPIAL and City Leagues.

Steelers Mom's Clinic

In May, the Steelers held a free clinic for moms and their kids for a night of learning and fun. The goal was to educate mothers of youth football players about the increased efforts in safety in the sport and to enjoy the night with their children. During the clinic, the moms heard from a variety of speakers from USA Football, UPMC, Riddell and Debbie Gradkowski, mother of Steelers quarterback, Bruce Gradkowski. While the moms were in class, the kids went through a youth skills clinic with Steelers defensive back Ross Ventrone. The moms then joined the kids and were put through drills for the Heads Up Tackling program.

PROGRAMS FOR PLAYERS:

Steelers Youth Football Camps

These two-day football camps for boys and girls ages 6-14 offer instruction from the area's best high school coaches and current and former Steelers. Held in June and July at California University of PA, Slippery Rock University of PA and West Allegheny High School in Imperial, these non-contact camps provide instruction on every position, proper tackling, two tickets to a Steelers preseason game, Steelers Kids Club membership, camp t-shirt and more.

STEELERS Youth Football*Steelers/USA Football Month (August)*

The Steelers and USA Football celebrate the start of football during the preseason games through in-stadium banners, promos on the Daktronics video board and by inviting youth football teams to enjoy the preseason games. Youth football programs that have been involved with the Steelers Youth Football and USA Football's programs have had the opportunity to send some players to the games, many of which have never seen a game in person before. Among the programs that have benefitted from programs offered include the Greater 19 League, Baldwin, Braddock, Charleroi, Hopewell, Mt. Pleasant, North Shore, West Allegheny and others.

Gatorade Junior Training Camp

These non-contact camps are free for boys and girls ages 7-14, and hosted at Heinz Field during the Rib and Kickoff Festival and prior to the annual night practice during training camp outside of Latrobe Memorial Stadium. The two hour session emphasizes football fun drills, and teaches proper tackling as well as skills at running back, quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back.

Youth Football Co-Captains

With help from Dick's Sporting Goods, the Steelers have two youth football players serve as co-captains for each home game at Heinz Field. The two players enjoy pregame hospitality, sideline passes for pregame warm-ups, and tickets to the game.

Youth Football Games at Halftime

Presented by Dick's Sporting Goods, the Steelers host three youth football games at halftime during home games. Both teams get a series from the 10-yard line in a first and goal scenario, and the crowd goes crazy when they score. The teams also receive game programs, Terrible Towels and team photos.

Youth Football Teams at Training Camp

The Steelers and Dick's Sporting Goods help celebrate Back to Football by inviting youth teams to welcome the team onto the field each day of training camp. The players, decked out in their own jerseys, make a tunnel for the players as they walk to practice.

Punt, Pass & Kick

The Steelers and the NFL continue to host the league's longest running grassroots initiative at a late season home game at Heinz Field. The regional championship is held at the team's indoor practice facility during the morning, and those competitors get to enjoy the game at Heinz Field and display their passing talents at halftime.

Youth Football Camp in Mexico

In April, the Steelers headed to Cancun, Mexico to host an adult and youth football camp for fans of all ages. The camp stressed proper fundamentals that were taught by Steelers center Maurkice Pouncey, offensive lineman Kelvin Beachum, cornerback Will Gay, linebacker Jarvis Jones, and Steelers Alumni Greg Lloyd and Antwaan Randle El.

PROGRAMS FOR COACHES:Steelers Coaching Clinic

This annual youth football coaching seminar incorporates classroom instruction, roundtable discussion, and on-field sessions with our Coach of the Week winners. In addition, coaches are educated on Health & Safety with a speaker from the UPMC Concussion Program. Speakers included Coach Mike Tomlin as well as Steelers Alumni Chris Hoke and Merrill Hoge.

Steelers Strength & Conditioning Clinic

This event is designed for youth and high school coaches who are interested in learning more about training and conditioning their athletes in a safe manner, while using the latest techniques. Steelers staff members provide training and coaches are also able to visit display booths filled with the best training tools from the Steelers Training Partners.

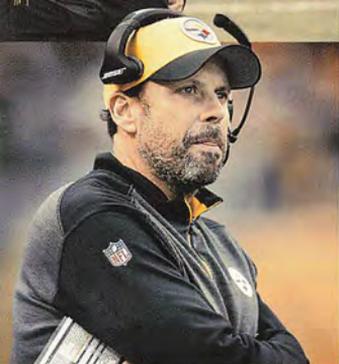

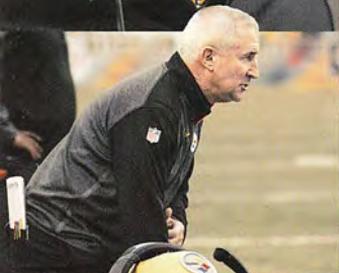

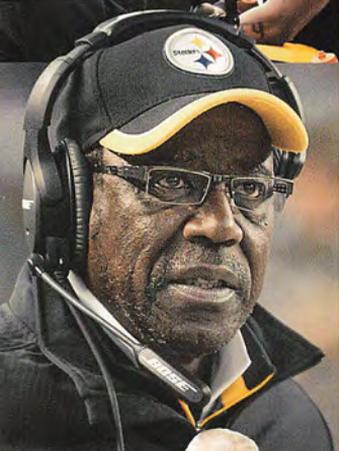

High School Coach of the Week

Each week, a local coach is honored as a High School Coach of the Week. This coach has either led his team to a big victory, an upset win, or done something special in their community. Each winner is invited to a Steelers home game, presented with a certificate, and receives a $1,000 grant from the Steelers and the National Football League Foundation. A Coach of the Year is also selected, and his program receives a $2,000 grant to improve his football program.

MIKE TOMLIN HEAD COACH

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on January 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Through eight seasons, Tomlin has accomplished many things that have never been done in the team's storied history. His 82-46 regular-season record (.641) is the best start in franchise history, and he became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII (36 years, 323 days). By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

In his eight years as head coach of the Steelers, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to four AFC North titles (including 2014) and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs five times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). Tomlin has won at least five home games in each of his first eight years, including six at Heinz Field in 2014.

Tomlin has sent a total of 45 selections to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl, including five following the 2014 season. Additionally, Tomlin was appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to the NFL's Competition Committee in March, 2013.

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin is very active in the community and was recognized, along with his wife Kiya, in February, 2013, by the Chuck Cooper Foundation with the Career Achievement in Leadership Diversity and Community Service Award. He has also been a spokesman for the Steelers' and UPMC Sports Medicine's "Don't Hit the Head, Don't Use the Head" program, which is in conjunction with USA Football's Head's Up program that promotes safety in all levels of football. Tomlin is also a member of the All-Pro Dad Team and serves as an honorary chair for the annual Extra Mile golf outing, which provides support for parochial elementary schools educating children of inner-city families.

In 2014, Tomlin, who has a defensive coaching background, orchestrated one of the top offensive outputs in team history in 2014. The Steelers broke numerous offensive records, including points scored (436), total yards (6,577), passing yards/game (301.6) and total first downs (379).

On an individual basis in 2014, Tomlin guided quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, wide receiver Antonio Brown and running back Le'Veon Bell – whom all made the Pro Bowl – to record-setting years. Roethlisberger had personal bests in passing yards (4,952), completions (408) and passing TDs (32, 1-2007), while Brown established team records for receptions (129), receiving yards (1,698) and receiving TDs (13). Bell, in his first full year as a starter, who was also named Team MVP, broke the Steelers' records for scrimmage yards (2,215) as well as receptions (83) and receiving yards (854) by a running back.

Over the past two seasons, Tomlin has led the team to a 7-1 record in the month of December, winning each of the last four in 2014 to capture the AFC North title.

Arguably one of his best coaching performances may possibly have come in the second half of the 2013 season. Despite an 0-4 and 2-6 start to the season, the Steelers finished the regular season surging to a 6-2 second-half record, falling just short of the playoffs. However, he rallied the team despite numerous injuries on both sides of the ball, to stick together and finished second in the AFC North.

In 2012, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 27-10 victory over the New York Jets in the home opener, becoming the first coach in team history to win his first six home openers. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked overall defense (275.8 yards/game) and finished first in passing defense (185.2 yards/game).

In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team posted 12 wins, which was only the second time in team history it had been achieved. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, for the second time in Tomlin's career (2007). He also had five players (Roethlisberger, Mike Wallace, Maurkice Pouncey, Polamalu and Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers' defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed (62.8 yds./game), points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward, Antonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's 688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 touchdown catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

JOHN MITCHELL ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE LINE

John Mitchell is in his 22nd season as the Steelers' defensive line coach, ranking him as the longest-tenured current member of the Steelers' coaching staff. He remained with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007, and was promoted to assistant head coach.

Mitchell joined the Steelers' coaching staff January 31, 1994, and is in his 43rd season of coaching, including 15 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League. This is his 25th season as an NFL coach.

Under his guidance, Pittsburgh's defensive front helped the Steelers lead the NFL in rush defense five times and finish in the top three on 13 separate occasions. The team only allowed one 100-yard rusher for a stretch of 50 straight regular-season games from 2007-10, and in 2010, the defense allowed just 62.8 rushing yards per game. That figure is a team record and is the third-fewest average in a single season out of any NFL team since the 1970 NFL merger.

Defensive end Cameron Heyward had his finest season of his young career in 2014. He started all 16 games for the first time in his career, and he set a career-high with 7.5 sacks, tying for the team lead. He became the first defensive lineman since 2004 (Aaron Smith) to lead or tie for the team lead in sacks in a single season. He also led the team with 21 quarterback pressures.

The Steelers' defensive line guided the group to tops in the NFL in total defense and second in rush defense, giving up 90.6 rushing yards per game in 2012. Defensive end Brett Keisel led the team with a career-high 40 quarterback pressures. He also led the line with 58 tackles and had the second-most sacks (4.5) in a single season in his career (5.5, 2006).

In 2011, the Steelers defense continued to dominate opposing offenses, only giving up 4.5 yards per play, 271.8 yards per game and 14.2 points per game, ranking first in the NFL in all three categories. Pittsburgh put on a defensive showcase in 2010 by leading the NFL in at least eight categories, including total sacks (48) and fewest points allowed (232). They became the first team in NFL history to hold their opponents to 75 or fewer rushing yards in each of their first eight games.

Strong play by Mitchell's line was a huge reason why the Steelers finished the 2008 regular season second overall in the NFL against the run. In 2009, Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 sacks. Mitchell was instrumental in the development of five-time Pro Bowler Casey Hampton, who became the first Steelers defensive lineman to be named Steelers' MVP or Co-MVP since Hall of Famer Joe Greene in 1970.

A former All-America defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell was the first African-American to play for the University of Alabama. Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's greatest coaches, as he was the defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama (1973-76) and the defensive line coach at Arkansas (1977-82) under Lou Holtz.

In 1983, Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-95 he served as the defensive line coach for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions. He returned to the college ranks in 1986 as the defensive ends coach at Temple University. Mitchell was then hired by Louisiana State University in 1987. He spent four years at LSU, coaching linebackers (1987-90). In 1990, Mitchell also served as LSU's defensive coordinator, becoming the first African-American defensive coordinator in SEC history.

Mitchell joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Cleveland Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles, Michael Dean Perry and Rob Burnett. Mitchell accepted his current appointment following three seasons coaching the defensive line for the Browns.

A two-time All-America defensive end at Eastern Arizona Junior College from 1969-70, Mitchell then transferred to Alabama. A starter at defensive end from 1971-72, Mitchell earned All-America honors in 1972. He earned a bachelor's degree in social work in 1972, and in 2009 he was elected into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

Born in Mobile, Ala., Mitchell and his wife, Joyce, live in Pittsburgh.

➤ TODD HALEY OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Todd Haley is in his fourth season as the Steelers' offensive coordinator, after being hired on February 7, 2012. Haley is in his 21st season in the NFL and his 19th as a coach.

The Steelers' offense had a record-setting season in 2014, establishing new franchise single-season records in points (436), total net yards (6,577), passing yards per game (301.6), total first downs (379) and individual 100-yard receiving games (12). Pittsburgh's offense also finished first in the NFL in time of possession (32:24), yards per first-down play (6.42) and tied for first (Green Bay) in the NFL in yards per play (6.2). Pittsburgh also scored 30 points seven times on the season to tie a franchise record for most 30-point games in a single season (1975 and 1979).

Quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, wide receiver Antonio Brown and running back Le'Veon Bell each broke multiple single-season team records and guided the offense to one of its best seasons in Steelers history in 2014. Each earned a trip to the Pro Bowl, along with center Maurkice Pouncey. In 2014, the Steelers became the first NFL team since the 1976 Baltimore Colts to have three different players finish in the top-two in passing yards, receiving yards and scrimmage yards.

Roethlisberger threw for a team record 4,952 yards, which was also tied for the most in the NFL (Drew Brees, New Orleans). He also set the single-season team record with 408 completions. Brown set a single-season Steelers' record in receptions (129), receiving yards (1,698) and receiving touchdowns (13). Bell set the single-season team record for yards from scrimmage (2,215), receptions by a running back (83), receiving yards for a running back (854) and total first downs (114).

In 2013, the team scored at least 20 points in each of the last nine games, marking the first time the Steelers scored at least 20 points in at least nine regular-season games since 2002. Brown was named Steelers MVP and earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl. Despite missing the first three games due to injury, Bell led the team in carries (244), rushing yards (860) and rushing touchdowns (8).

In 2012, his first season as offensive coordinator, the Steelers' offense finished second in the NFL in time of possession (32:07), fourth in red zone scoring (91.8%) and 10th in third-down efficiency (42%).

Prior to joining the Steelers, Haley was the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs for the majority of three seasons (2009-11). In his second season as the Chiefs' head coach, the team completed the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history, and the 2010 Chiefs reached the post-season for the first time since 2006. Following the club's highest win total since 2005, Haley was named the 101 AFC Coach of the Year voted on by national media members and was also awarded NFL Alumni Coach of the Year.

Before becoming head coach of the Chiefs, he served as the Arizona Cardinals' offensive coordinator for two seasons (2007-08). During his tenure with the Cardinals, the team won the club's first division title since 1975 and played in Super Bowl XLIII. Under Haley's guidance, Arizona's offense was one of the league's most explosive units. In 2008, Arizona tied for third in the league with a franchise-record 427 points, finished fourth in total offense, averaging 365.8 yards per game and finished second in the league in passing offense. The Cardinals also became just the fifth team in NFL history to have three wide receivers eclipse 1,000 yards in the same season.

From 1999 to 2006, Haley spent time as wide receivers coach for the Dallas Cowboys, Chicago Bears and New York Jets, helping each team earn a playoff berth. Haley began his NFL career as an assistant in the Jets scouting department in 1995, where he scouted regionally and assisted in player evaluations.

Haley earned a degree in communications from the University of North Florida in 1991. In February of 2010, Haley was recognized with the Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award, the highest award given by the University of North Florida Alumni Association, recognizing those who have made a significant contribution to their profession, community and society. He was a member of the golf squads at the University of Florida and the University of Miami, and participated in the NCAA golf tournament during his time with the Gators.

Haley is the son of Dick Haley, former Director of Player Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1971-91). As a youth, Haley was a ball boy for the Steelers and attended Steelers training camps with his father. Alongside his father, Haley would watch the Steelers' game and practice film.

Haley was born in Atlanta, Ga., but attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, Pa. He and his wife, Chrissy, have four daughters, Taylor, Peyton, Kady and Ella, and one son, Richard Todd, Jr.

➤ KEITH BUTLER DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Keith Butler is in his first season as the team's defensive coordinator, after being promoted to the position on January 13, 2015.

Butler had served as the team's linebackers coach for 12 seasons (2003-2014). He was originally hired by the Steelers on January 28, 2003, after serving the previous four seasons (1999-2002) as the linebackers' coach of the Cleveland Browns. Butler remained on the Steelers' staff following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007.

Butler and Tomlin previously worked together at Memphis in 1996, when Butler coached the linebackers, defensive ends and special teams units, and Tomlin served as the Tigers' defensive backs coach.

Since Butler arrived in Pittsburgh in 2003, he has been instrumental in the development of the Steelers' highly touted linebacking corps. He was honored in 2008 when he was named NFL Linebacker Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly.

In 2014, the linebacking unit was led by Lawrence Timmons, who was selected to his first Pro Bowl. The iron man started all 16 games on the season, and has started a team-best 69 consecutive regular-season games. Timmons led the team with 132 tackles, which was good for second-best in the AFC. It marked the fourth time in the last five seasons he recorded at least 100 tackles in a single season.

Butler also was reunited with James Harrison in 2014. Harrison was signed early in the season due to a number of injuries sustained by the linebacking group. He recored 5.5 sacks on the year and moved into second place on the team's all-time sacks list with 69.5, since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Harrison also tied Jason Gildon for the most-multi sack games in team history (17).

In 2013, linebackers Timmons and Jason Worlds led a unit that lost two veterans, Larry Foote and LaMarr Woodley, to season-ending injuries. Timmons led the team with a career-high 155 tackles. Worlds led the team with a career-high eight sacks.

Butler's linebackers helped Pittsburgh's defense secure the NFL's number-one ranking in 2012. Five different linebackers each recorded four or more sacks in 2012 for the first time in team history, since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Timmons had a memorable 2012 campaign, as he became the first Steeler to lead the team or tie for the team high in tackles, interceptions and sacks since Joey Porter in 2002.

Butler's guidance helped Harrison become one of the league's most elite performers. Harrison, the 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, earned two straight team MVP awards (2007-08), recorded the longest interception return in Super Bowl history, a 100-yarder for a touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII, and five straight Pro Bowl Selections (2007-11). Harrison still holds the team record for sacks in a season, a career-high 16 in 2008.

Butler's coaching also guided Woodley, who owns an NFL record for posting two sacks in each of his first four postseason games. Besides Harrison, Woodley is the only player in team history to record 10 or more sacks in a season for three straight years (2008-10). Harrison and Woodley have accounted for two of the top four sack totals by a Steelers' duo in team history. The two teamed up in 2008 to produce the most sacks in a single-season by a duo (27.5).

Prior to joining the Browns' staff, Butler spent nine years coaching in the college ranks, beginning at his alma mater, Memphis, where he coached linebackers from 1990-97, and also coached defensive ends and special teams (1995-97). He then served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas State in 1998.

Butler was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round of the 1978 NFL Draft and played linebacker for 10 seasons (1978-87), all with Seattle. He started 132-of-146 games in his career, and still ranks second on the club's all-time tackles list with 813.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker for Memphis, Butler led the team in tackles his junior and senior seasons. He finished his collegiate career with 384 tackles and seven interceptions. He was named a 1977 Associated Press All-American and played in the 1977 Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Butler was born in Anniston, Ala. He and his wife Janet have three sons, Blake, Brandon and Brett.

➤ DANNY SMITH SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Danny Smith is in his third season with the Steelers as the special teams coordinator. Smith was hired on January 31, 2013.

In 2014, Smith got solid efforts from kicker Shaun Suisham and punter Brad Wing. Suisham made 29-of-32 field goal attempts and all 45 of his PATs for a total of 132 points, good for fourth in the AFC. Entering the 2015 season, he is the Steelers' all-time field goal percentage leader (.879). In Smith's two seasons as special teams coordinator, Suisham is 59-of-64 on FGs (.922), the second-highest conversion percentage in the league during that span.

Wing averaged 43.7 yards per punt in his debut NFL season in 2014. His gross punting average was the fifth-highest total in team history for a rookie or first-year player in a single season. Wing also landed 20 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line and had a season-long punt of 74 yards.

In the Steelers' Week 17 showdown with the Cincinnati Bengals, the AFC North Championship was on the line, Smith's punt return units cleared the way for Antonio Brown to return a punt 71 yards for a touchdown. It marked the second straight season Brown returned a punt for a touchdown against Cincinnati.

In his first season as the Steelers' special teams coordinator in 2013, Suisham had a career year, connecting on 30-of-32 field goals, which are a career high and are tied for the third-most field goals made in a single season in Steelers history. His 93.8 field goal percentage (minimum 15 attempts) also set a new single-season team record.

In addition to being selected to the Pro Bowl as a wide receiver in 2013, Brown was also selected as a return specialist. He recorded a 67-yard punt return for a touchdown in Week 15 versus Cincinnati, which was one of his five returns of 40 or more yards on the season.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh, Smith served as the Washington Redskins' special teams coordinator from 2004-2012. He helped establish Washington's special teams as one of the top coverage and return units in the NFL.

In 2011, Smith's special teams units ranked first in the NFC in kickoff return average allowed (20.8 yards) for the second consecutive season. Also in 2011, Smith guided Graham Gano to a career season. Gano finished the season with a career-high 31 field goals made. In Week 9, Gano set a team record for the longest field goal, when he connected on a 59-yarder.

The Redskins finished first in the NFC in kickoff return average allowing 19.0 yards per return, and second in the NFC in opponent's average starting position on kickoffs (23.7-yard line) in 2010.

Smith's teams also produced two of the biggest plays of the 2009 Redskins' season. Hunter Smith had an eight-yard touchdown run on a fake field goal in Week 1, and he threw a 35-yard touchdown in Week 10. In doing so, Smith became the first specialist in NFL history to rush for a touchdown and throw a touchdown in the same season.

Smith's units ranked among the best in the NFL in 2006, finishing fourth in the NFL in kickoff coverage and eighth in the NFL in punt coverage. The season was filled with numerous special teams splash plays, including one kickoff return for a touchdown, one punt return for a touchdown, two blocked punts and one blocked field goal.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Smith was the special teams coordinator for the Buffalo Bills (2001-03), coached tight ends for the Detroit Lions (1999-2000), and he split duties as the defensive backs and special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles (1995-98).

Smith spent eight years (1987-94) as an assistant coach for Georgia Tech, where he coached running backs, wide receivers and defensive backs. He was on the staff for the Yellow Jackets' 1990 team that was named co-NCAA National Champions.

Smith played defensive back for Edinboro State from 1971-1975. His first collegiate coaching position came as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1976. Smith also was an assistant coach at Clemson University (1979), The College of William & Mary (1980-83) and The Citadel, the Military College of South Carolina (1984-86).

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Smith attended Pittsburgh Central Catholic High School. He coached at Central Catholic (1977-78), helping tutor future Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Smith is married to Elaine, of Ambridge, Pa. They have three children, Erin, Courtney and Jason.

➤ JAMES DANIEL TIGHT ENDS COACH

James Daniel is in his 12th season with Pittsburgh after remaining with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007. Daniel was named the Steelers' tight ends coach on January 24, 2004.

Under Daniel's guidance, tight end Heath Miller has become one of the top pass catchers in franchise history. Entering the 2015 campaign, Miller ranks in the top-10 in franchise history in receptions (third-532), receiving yards (third-6,034) and receiving touchdowns (fourth-43). His receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns are also the most by a tight end in team history.

For the fifth time in his career, Miller totaled at least 50 receptions in 2014 (66), and he registered more than 500 receiving yards for the eighth straight season. He recorded a catch in all 16 games in 2014, to extend his personal-best streak to 97 regular-season games in which he has played in with at least one catch. Miller's team-best streak began during the 2008 season and is the second-longest streak in team history (Hines Ward, 186).

Miller posted his third career 100-yard receiving game in 2014, totaling 112 yards on seven receptions on October 26, 2014 versus the Colts. It marked the 10th occurrence in team history that a tight end recorded 100 yards in a single game during the regular season.

In 2012, Miller became the first Steelers' tight end to ever be selected as team MVP. He also was selected to his second career Pro Bowl. Miller's 71 receptions on the season led the team and ranked second in the AFC among tight ends, and he set career highs with 816 receiving yards and eight receiving touchdowns.

In 2010, Miller was named an offensive co-captain for the first time in his career, following his 2009 Pro Bowl season. In 2009, he broke the team's single-season record for receptions by a tight end, recording 76.

In 2007, Daniel groomed a young group of tight ends that finished the season with 11 receiving touchdowns, which are the most combined receiving touchdowns of any Steelers' tight end corps in team history.

During his tenure with the Atlanta Falcons (1997-2003), Daniel was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowler Alge Crumpler. Daniel began his NFL coaching career as the tight ends coach of the New York Giants from 1993-96. However, Daniel's first experience in the NFL came through the NFL's Fellowship Program in 1988 with the New Orleans Saints, and in 1992 with the Denver Broncos, who were led by Head Coach Dan Reeves. Daniel served under Reeves for his first 11 years in the NFL.

He began his coaching career in the college ranks as the offensive line coach at Auburn University (1981-92) for Head Coach Pat Dye. During Daniel's 12 years at Auburn, the Tigers appeared in nine postseason bowl games, four of his linemen earned All-America honors and several were selected All-SEC.

Prior to Auburn, Daniel coached for seven years at Enterprise High School (Enterprise, Ala.) from 1974-80. During his tenure, 11 of his offensive linemen earned college scholarships.

A native of Wetumpka, Ala., Daniel was a three-year starter (offensive guard) and four-year letter winner at Alabama State University from 1970-73. Daniel is married to Myrtis.

➤ RANDY FICHTNER QUARTERBACKS COACH

Randy Fichtner is in his sixth season coaching the Steelers' quarterbacks after spending three seasons as the team's wide receivers coach. Fichtner was hired by Mike Tomlin on January 29, 2007.

In Fichtner's five seasons (2010-14) as the team's quarterbacks coach, quarterback Ben Roethlisberger has put up very impressive numbers. Over that span, he has thrown for 19,755 yards (7th in NFL) and 124 touchdowns (9th in NFL) for a passer rating of 96.0 (7th in NFL). Roethlisberger has also been selected to two Pro Bowls in that span (2012, 2015).

In addition, Roethlisberger has a completion percentage of 64.1, has thrown 145 passes of 25+ yards and has a record of 46-26 in the regular season. In the five seasons under Fichtner's guidance, Roethlisberger has recorded five of his top-six highest season averages when it comes to passing yards per game.

Roethlisberger had a season for the ages in 2014, as he set numerous single-season team records, including attempts (608), completions (408), completion percentage (67.1), passing yards (4,952) and 300-yard games (9). Roethlisberger also tied his single-season record with 32 touchdown passes (2007) and finished tied for the NFL lead (Drew Brees, New Orleans) in passing yards.

In Week 8 versus Indianapolis in 2014, Roethlisberger set the single-game team record in completions (40), passing yards (522) and passing touchdowns (6). The 522 passing yards tied for the fourth-most in a single game in NFL history. The following game, Week 9 versus Baltimore, Roethlisberger threw six more touchdowns to give him an NFL record 12 touchdown passes in a two-game span.

Roethlisberger was named to his third Pro Bowl following the 2014 season. He earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in back-to-back weeks (8-9) and he was named FedEx Air Player of the Week four times (Weeks 8-9 and Weeks 14-15) during his 2014 campaign.

Roethlisberger was selected to his second career Pro Bowl after the 2011 season. He was twice named AFC Offensive Player of the Week, recorded five 300+ passing yard games and broke the team's all-time record for career completions (2,090).

In Fichtner's final year as wide receivers coach in 2009, the Steelers had two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward and Santonio Holmes). In 2008, Ward topped 1,000 yards (1,043) for the fifth time in his career, and Holmes was named MVP of Super Bowl XLIII after catching nine passes for 131 yards, including the game-winning touchdown reception with 35 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

Fichtner, who instituted the spread offense at Memphis, was an integral part of the Tiger football team for six years. He was hired in 2001 to serve as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and his offense re-wrote the Memphis record book for six seasons. Fichtner was a part of unprecedented offensive success at Memphis that also contributed to the Tigers playing in three straight bowl games from 2003-05.

Fichtner was no stranger to Memphis when he joined the staff in 2001. He had previously served as an assistant. Prior to his second stint at Memphis, Fichtner spent four years (1997-2000) at Arkansas State University. He arrived in Jonesboro as the quarterbacks coach in the spring of 1997 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in August of 1997. During his tenure with the Indians, Fichtner worked with Cleo Lemon, who set virtually every Arkansas State passing and total offense record.

Prior to joining the staff at Arkansas State, Fichtner spent three years at his alma mater, Purdue University, serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994-96. His original stint with Memphis came from 1990-94, when he coached wide receivers and quarterbacks. During his tenure, Fichtner worked with future NFL All-Pro Isaac Bruce.

Fichtner worked as a student assistant and graduate assistant at Purdue (1985-86) and at the University of Michigan (1986-87), before serving as a volunteer coach at the University of Southern California in 1988. He landed his first full-time position in 1989 as the tight ends coach at UNLV, and worked for the Rebels for one season before going to Memphis.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Fichtner was a standout football player at Meadville Area Senior High School in Meadville, Pa. He played defensive back at Purdue and graduated in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion.

His father, Ross, played safety for the Cleveland Browns (1960-67) and the New Orleans Saints (1968). Ross saw action in 106 career games, and he recorded 27 interceptions for 581 yards, three of which were returned for touchdowns. Ross was named second-team All-NFL in 1966 and was a member of the 1964 Browns NFL Championship team.

Fichtner is married to the former Jennifer Parker of Covington, Tenn., and the couple has three children, a son, Nathaniel Ross, and two daughters, Shelby Brooke and Kirby Lynn.

➤ CARNELL LAKE DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

Carnell Lake is in his fifth season with the Steelers as the team's defensive backs coach. He was hired by the Steelers on March 7, 2011.

Lake's coaching throughout the 2014 season guided many young players in the secondary. Cornerbacks Brice McCain and Antwon Blake, who played primarily on special teams throughout their careers, saw significant playing time due to injuries to various players. McCain recorded three interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown to seal the Week 5 victory at Jacksonville. Blake saw action in all 16 games, where he recorded one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

The secondary also got a boost from veteran cornerback William Gay. He set a single-season career-high with three interceptions, all three of which were returned for touchdowns. Gay's three pick-sixes on the season set a franchise record for a single season, and was tops in the NFL for 2014. Gay's 128 consecutive games played streak during the regular season is the longest active streak in the league for defensive backs.

In each of Lake's first three seasons as defensive backs coach, the Steelers finished in the top-10 in pass defense, marking the first time since 1999-2001 that the Steelers finished in the top-10 in pass defense three straight years.

The Steelers' secondary finished top-10 in the league in 2013 in numerous categories, including completion percentage allowed (fifth, 57.8), fewest passing first downs allowed (fifth, 174) and fewest pass plays of 25+ yards allowed (tied-eighth, 25).

Safety Troy Polamalu guided the veteran group in 2013, and earned his eighth Pro Bowl selection for his efforts. Polamalu set a single-season career-high with five forced fumbles. He returned one interception for a touchdown to become just the fifth player in team history to record five career defensive touchdowns. He was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his Week 12 performance at Cleveland.

In 2012, the Steelers' secondary led a defense that finished first in the NFL in pass defense for the second straight season, allowing 185.2 passing yards per game. The Steelers' secondary was part of a defense that also allowed the fewest yards per pass attempt (6.04), the fewest pass plays of 25+ yards (19) and the second-fewest yards allowed after the catch (1,376).

In Lake's first season in 2011, he coached the Steelers' secondary that held 10 teams to 170 net passing yards or less during the regular season. Pittsburgh only gave up 21 pass plays of 25+ yards in 2011, which tied for the fewest allowed in the NFL.

Lake played safety and cornerback for the Steelers (1989-98), the Jacksonville Jaguars (1999-00) and the Baltimore Ravens (2001). Following his retirement from football after the 2001 season, Lake worked in a private business before starting his career in coaching with the Philadelphia Eagles during their 2009 training camp and as an intern with the Green Bay Packers in 2010.

Lake was selected by the Steelers in the second round (34th overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft and won the Joe Greene Great Performance Award, given annually to the Steelers' top rookie. Lake went on to earn five Pro Bowl trips (four with the Steelers and one with the Jacksonville Jaguars). He finished his Steelers' career with 15 fumble recoveries and 16 interceptions. In 1997 Lake was named AFC Defensive Player of the Year, and was later named to the NFL 1990s All-Decade Team.

A three-year starter for the Bruins at outside linebacker, Lake was a first-team All-America selection as a senior (1988) as well as earning the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete Award. He was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000. Lake finished his college career with 45.5 tackles for loss and 25.5 sacks.

Born in Salt Lake City, Utah, Lake moved to California and attended Culver City High School (Culver City, Calif.). He and his wife, Monica, have three children, Siena, Quentin and Austin.

➤ RICHARD MANN WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

Richard Mann is in his third year as the Steelers' wide receivers coach, after being hired on February 13, 2013. Mann is entering his 31st season as an assistant coach in the NFL.

In 2014, wide receiver Antonio Brown rewrote the team's record book as he had the finest season in team history. He set single-season team records for receptions (129), receiving yards (1,698) and receiving touchdowns (13). His 129 receptions were the second-most in a single season in NFL history. Brown averaged 106.1 yards per game to become the first receiver in team history to average more than 100.0 yards per game throughout a single season. Brown led the league in numerous categories, including receptions, receiving yards and receptions for first downs.

Brown currently has a 32-game streak of at least five receptions and 50 yards heading into the 2015 season, which is an NFL record. He was named a first-team AP All-Pro and earned his third Pro Bowl selection for his 2014 campaign.

Rookie wide receiver Martavis Bryant recorded eight receiving touchdowns in 2014, including seven in his first seven career games. He became one of four players in NFL history to record seven or more touchdowns in their first seven games. Bryant also recorded a 94-yard touchdown reception, the second-longest pass play in team history. He finished the regular season with 26 receptions for 549 yards with eight scores in just 10 games. Bryant was honored with the Joe Greene Great Performance Award, given annually to the team's top rookie.

Overall, Mann's receiving corps totaled 12 individual 100-yard games in 2014, setting a new single-season team record.

In Mann's first season as wide receivers coach in 2013, Brown was named Steelers' MVP for the second time in three seasons (2011), earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl and was named a second-team AP All-Pro. Veteran Jericho Cotchery recorded his 400th career reception and surpassed 5,000 career receiving yards during his 2013 campaign. He led the team with 10 receiving touchdowns.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh, Mann had been assisting and consulting players as they prepare for the NFL Draft as well as coaching in All-Star games. He coached wide receivers for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2002-09, and also served as assistant head coach in his final year in 2009. From 2002-08, the Buccaneers had at least one 1,000-yard receiver in each season, which is the longest streak in franchise history.

One of those receivers was Antonio Bryant. In 2008, Bryant led the team in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. For his efforts, he was named Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

From 2005-07, Joey Galloway had three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, to become the first player in Buccaneers' history to accomplish the feat. Galloway recorded a career-high 1,287 receiving yards in 2005. During that year, he surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in 11 games, which is the fastest in franchise history.

In 2003, Mann's receiving corps guided the Buccaneers' offense to finish top-10 in the NFL for only the second time in team history. And in 2002, his group totaled 184 receptions for 2,281 yards and 16 touchdowns, helping guide the team to its first and only Super Bowl (XXXVII) victory over the Oakland Raiders.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Mann served as the wide receivers coach for the Washington Redskins (2001), the Kansas City Chiefs (1999-2000) and the Baltimore Ravens (1997-98). He also was an assistant with the New York Jets (1994-96) where he coached the wide receivers (1994, 1996) and both the tight ends and wide receivers (1995).

From 1985-93, Mann served as an assistant coach for the Cleveland Browns. In his first season with the Browns, he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers, and then coached the wide receivers the remainder of his time with Cleveland. During his tenure, Mann coached Hall of Famer Ozzie Newsome and Pro Bowler Webster Slaughter. He got his first NFL coaching job with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84), coaching wide receivers.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Mann served as an assistant at the University of Louisville (1980-81) and at his alma mater, Arizona State University (1974-79). He was a three-year starter for the Sun Devils from 1966-68.

Mann is a native of Aliquippa, Pa. He attended Aliquippa High School and was part of the team's 1964 WPIAL Championship team. Mann coached at Aliquippa from 1970-1973, starting out at the junior high level and then working his way to the high school level, where he coached wide receivers. Mann is a member of the Aliquippa and the Beaver County (Pa.) Halls of Fame. He and his wife, Karen, have four children, daughters Deven and Brittany, and sons Richard II and Mario. Richard II is currently a pro scout for the Washington Redskins.

MIKE MUNCHAK OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Mike Munchak is in his second season as the offensive line coach for the Steelers after being hired on January 23, 2014.

Munchak is in his 34th season in the NFL, having spent 32 of those years as a player, and later as a coach, with the Tennessee Titans/Houston Oilers organization. Munchak was the head coach of the Tennessee Titans from 2011-2013.

On August 4, 2001, Munchak was recognized for his outstanding playing career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In his first season as the Steelers' offensive line coach in 2014, Munchak was instrumental in developing the team's young linemen. The line helped block for an offense that set numerous single-season team records and led the NFL in multiple categories.

The team set single-season records in points (436), total net yards (6,577), passing yards per game (301.6), total first downs (379) and individual 100-yard receiving games (12). Pittsburgh's offense also finished first in the NFL in time of possession (32:24), yards per first-down play (6.42) and tied for first (Green Bay) in the NFL in yards per play (6.2). Pittsburgh also scored 30 points seven times on the season to tie a franchise record for most 30-point games in a single season (1975 and 1979).

The line helped pave the way for quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, wide receiver Antonio Brown and running back Le'Veon Bell to have record-breaking seasons and all earn Pro Bowl honors. Center Maurice Pouncey also earned a trip to the Pro Bowl, his fourth honor in five career seasons.

In his three seasons as the head coach of the Titans, Munchak compiled a 22-26 record (.458). He posted 15 wins in his first two seasons as the Titans' head coach, which were the third-most wins by a coach in his first two full seasons with the team. Munchak's first season as head coach in 2011 saw the Titans finish with a 9-7 record, which was the team's first winning season since 2008 and made him one of only two rookie head coaches (Jim Harbaugh, San Francisco 49ers) to post a winning record in 2011.

Prior to taking over as head coach, Munchak spent 14 years (1997-2010) as Tennessee's offensive line coach. During his tenure, four of his offensive linemen totaled 10 Pro Bowl invitations and led the way for five different running backs to total an NFL-high 12 1,000-yard rushing seasons. The Titans ranked seventh in the league in rushing yards (124.5 yards per game) and finished in the top 10 in rushing seven times from 1997-2010. From 1997-2013, the Titans are the only team to produce 16 1,000-yard rushers.

In 2009, Munchak's offensive line group helped pave the way for a 2,000-yard rushing season by Chris Johnson. Johnson became only the sixth player in NFL history to reach that mark and was named the Offensive Player of the Year.

In Munchak's 14 seasons as offensive line coach, only twice did the team start the same five linemen from one season to the next. However, the Titans allowed the second-fewest sacks (28.3 per season) in the NFL from 1997-2010. In 2003, the offensive line provided protection for QB Steve McNair to garner NFL co-MVP honors.

Munchak began his coaching career with the Oilers as an offensive assistant in 1994, before officially becoming an offensive quality control coach for the 1995-96 seasons. Then Titans head coach Jeff Fisher promoted Munchak to offensive line coach prior to the start of the 1997 season, where he remained until he took over as the Titans' head coach in 2011.

The Oilers selected Munchak with the eighth pick in the 1982 NFL Draft, making him the first offensive lineman chosen that year. Munchak played guard for Houston for 12 seasons from 1982-93 and started 156 regular season games (seventh-most in franchise history) and 10 postseason contests. Munchak was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1984-85, '87-'93) during his career and was named to the NFL's 1980s "All-Decade" team. The team retired Munchak's number 63 jersey in 1996 and he was inducted into the Titans/Oilers Hall of Fame in 1999.

Munchak played his collegiate football at Penn State from 1979-81 and earned a business degree. Among his many honors, he is also a member of the Pennsylvania, Texas and Polish-American Sports Halls of Fame.

Munchak is a native of Scranton, Pa., and is married to Marci. They have two grown daughters, Alexandria and Julie.

> JERRY OLSAVSKY INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Jerry Olsavsky is in his first season as the team's inside linebackers coach. Olsavsky was promoted on February 6, 2015.

Prior to his promotion, Olsavsky was a defensive assistant for five seasons. He assisted all areas of the defensive staff in their daily operations.

In Olsavsky's five years as a defensive assistant, the Steelers' defense ranked top-two in the league in total defense three times, including back-to-back years (2011-12) as the number-one ranked defense.

A 10-year NFL veteran, Olsavsky spent seven seasons coaching linebackers for Youngstown State University. Prior to coaching at Youngstown State, Olsavsky spent one year as an assistant strength coach at the University of North Carolina. He also coached at his alma mater, Chaney High School in Youngstown and at Duquesne University.

Olsavsky, was selected by the Steelers in the 10th round (258th overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft, and played linebacker from 1989-97. He saw action in 108 games for the Steelers, making 227 tackles, while also excelling on special teams. Olsavsky battled back from a career threatening knee injury in 1993 and helped lead the Steelers to a berth in Super Bowl XXX. In 1995, he was the recipient of the Steelers' Ed Block Courage Award, given annually to the Steeler that overcomes many obstacles only to achieve great success on the field. Olsavsky finished his playing career in 1998 with the Baltimore Ravens.

Playing collegiately at the University of Pittsburgh, Olsavsky was a first-team Kodak All-American as a senior in 1988, when he made 129 tackles. He became the Panthers' first defensive player since 1976 to record more than 100 tackles in three consecutive seasons. He earned his degree in information science in 1990.

Olsavsky was born in Youngstown, Ohio, and resides in Pittsburgh with his three children, Joseph, Emma and Dominic.

JOEY PORTER OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Joey Porter is in his first season as the team's outside linebackers coach. Porter was promoted on February 6, 2015, after serving as a defensive assistant for the team in 2014.

Porter is in his 15th NFL season and second as a coach. He spent 13 seasons (1999-2011) as a linebacker, playing with Pittsburgh, Miami and Arizona. He spent the 2013 season as an undergraduate student assistant coach at his alma mater, Colorado State University, while working to complete his degree in liberal arts.

Porter was originally drafted by the Steelers in the third round (73rd overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft, and played for Pittsburgh from 1999-2006. He spent the 2007-09 seasons with the Miami Dolphins before playing his final two years (2010-11) with the Arizona Cardinals. Porter started 171-of-188 career games and registered 98 sacks, 721 tackles, 25 forced fumbles, 12 interceptions, nine fumble recoveries, three touchdowns and one safety. His 60 sacks as a member of the Steelers rank fifth in franchise history.

Porter also started 11 postseason games in which he played, 10 with the Steelers, and was a key member of Pittsburgh's Super Bowl XL team. He registered six sacks, 50 tackles and one forced fumble in his postseason career.

A four-time Pro Bowler and a four-time All-Pro, Porter was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 2000's. During the 2008 season, Porter registered his 70th career sack, which made him the first player in NFL history with 10 career interceptions and 70 career sacks. Porter was also the only NFL player to register at least five sacks in each season from 2000-10, recording at least nine sacks six times in that span.

Porter played at Colorado State from 1995-98, registering 20 career sacks in two seasons on defense after spending his first two collegiate seasons on offense. His 14 sacks as a senior earned him all-WAC honors and invites to both the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. Porter still ranks fifth on the school's all-time sacks list and his 14 sacks in 1998 are the second-most in a single season in school history. In November of 2013, Porter was inducted into the Colorado State Athletics Hall of Fame. He graduated from Colorado State with a degree in liberal arts in May 2014.

▶ JAMES SAXON RUNNING BACKS COACH

James Saxon is in his second season as the running backs coach for the Steelers after being hired on January 28, 2014. Saxon is in his 24th season in the NFL as either a player or a coach.

In his 15 years as an NFL running backs coach, Saxon has helped his backs reach the Pro Bowl 12 times and has had a running back surpass the 1,000-yard rushing mark in a single season nine times.

In 2014, Saxon coached running back Le'Veon Bell to a breakout season. In just his second year in the league, Bell was named Steelers' MVP, and he set numerous single-season records, including yards from scrimmage (2,215), first downs (114), receptions by a running back (83) and receiving yards by a running back (854). Bell became the first player since Walter Payton (1976) to total at least 200 yards from scrimmage in three straight games.

Bell rushed for an AFC-best 1,361 yards in 2014, the fifth-highest total in a single season in team history. He also became just the second player in NFL history to record at least 1,350 rushing yards and 850 receiving yards in a single season (Marshall Faulk, 1999). In games 11-14, Bell totaled 830 yards from scrimmage, which tied him for the fourth-most in a four-game span in NFL history.

In 2012, Saxon helped guide Minnesota Vikings running back Adrian Peterson to the second-best single-season rushing performance in NFL history with 2,097 yards and a first-team All-Pro selection. That year, Peterson became only the third player in Minnesota history to be named NFL MVP and was also named the NFL Offensive Player of the Year. Peterson set or tied numerous team and league records in 2012, including the most rushing yards in the month of December (861) in NFL history and his 10 games of more than 100 rushing yards tied his own team record (2008). In addition to Peterson's accolades, FB Jerome Felton was a second-team All-Pro selection and earned a Pro Bowl spot for the first time in his career.

Prior to Minnesota, Saxon spent three seasons (2008-10) coaching running backs for the Miami Dolphins, including Ricky Williams and Ronnie Brown, who he helped reach the Pro Bowl following the 2008 season. In 2009, the Dolphins finished with the NFL's fourth-best rushing attack (139.4 yards per game) and Williams led the team with 1,121 rushing yards. The Dolphins also used Brown and Williams in the Wildcat package as a wrinkle in their offense.

Saxon spent seven seasons (2001-07) with the Kansas City Chiefs, helping a trio of the top backs in franchise history (Priest Holmes, Larry Johnson and Tony Richardson) earn seven Pro Bowl selections. Holmes and Johnson totaled five 1,000-yard rushing seasons between them in Saxon's tenure. Holmes and Johnson also rank first and second, respectively, in team history in career yardage and own four of the top single-season rushing totals in team history, including Johnson's team-record 1,789 yards in 2006.

The 2003 season saw Holmes set the Kansas City single-season record with 27 rushing touchdowns, which at the time was also an NFL record. Holmes played his entire career under Saxon, finishing with 24 100-yard rushing games, which was later topped by Johnson's 30 such performances.

Saxon broke into the NFL as a running backs coach with the Buffalo Bills in 2000, after spending three seasons in the collegiate ranks. Saxon spent one season as a volunteer assistant coach at Menlo College in 1999 and spent two seasons coaching running backs at Rutgers University (1997-98).

Saxon was a sixth round draft choice (139th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in 1988. He spent eight seasons as an NFL running back, playing for the Chiefs (1988-91), Dolphins (1992-94) and Philadelphia Eagles (1995). For his career, Saxon played in 111 games, carrying 145 times for 533 yards and five touchdowns. He also caught 69 career passes for 515 yards.

Saxon began his collegiate career at American River Junior College (1984-85). He then transferred to San Jose State University (1986-87), where he totaled 609 rushing yards and nine touchdowns on 118 carries in two seasons. He recorded 78 receptions for 732 yards and four touchdowns, while also throwing four touchdown passes.

A native of Beaufort, S.C., Saxon attended Battery Creek High School in Burton, S.C. He is married to Shannon and their son, Devin, played football at Harvard.

SHAUN SARRETT OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Shaun Sarrett is in his fourth season with the Steelers as the team's offensive assistant. Sarrett helps coach the offensive line and assists the offensive coaching staff with game preparation, video analysis and the scouting of opponents.

In 2014, Sarrett helped coach the offensive line to one of its finest seasons in team history. The offensive line helped block for the offense to set single-season records in points (436), total net yards (6,577), passing yards per game (301.6), total first downs (379) and individual 100-yard receiving games (12). Pittsburgh's offense also finished first in the NFL in time of possession (32:24), yards per first-down play (6.42) and tied for first (Green Bay) in the NFL in yards per play (6.2). Pittsburgh also scored 30 points seven times on the season to tie a franchise record for most 30-point games in a single season.

Sarrett spent four seasons as the offensive quality control and offensive line assistant coach for Duke University. During the 2011 season, Sarrett assumed Ron Middleton's tight end coaching responsibilities when an injury sidelined him. He joined the Duke staff after spending two years as a graduate assistant at Marshall University, where he earned a master's degree in special education. Prior to his stint at Marshall, he served as an offensive and defensive line coach at Streetsboro High School (Streetsboro, Ohio).

A native of Beckley, W. Va., Sarrett played guard for Kent State University and was a three-year letterman. He received the Dick Scesniak Award for overcoming adversity during the 2003 season, and he earned his degree in health education in 2004.

➤ GARRETT GIEMONT CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Garrett Giemont is in his ninth season as conditioning coordinator for the Steelers after being hired on January 31, 2007.

At the end of the 2014 season, Giemont was named NFL Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year by American Football Monthly.

Giemont was also named the 2008 Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year/ Super Bowl Achievement Award from the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Giemont has 30+ years of experience in the NFL, and served as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' strength and conditioning coordinator prior to joining the Steelers. He was with Tampa Bay from 2003-05.

Giemont was named Coach of the Year by The Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society after the 2002 season while working for the Oakland Raiders under head coach Bill Callahan. Giemont spent eight seasons as a member of the Raiders' staff, including the first seven as strength and conditioning coach and the final season as strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Giemont spent three seasons in Major League Baseball as the Director of Physical Development for the Chicago Cubs (1992-94). ➤ TERRY COUSIN PLAYER ENGAGEMENT COORDINATOR

Terry Cousin is in his first season with Pittsburgh as the team's Player Engagement Coordinator.

Cousin will work in the area of player development, assisting players with life skills on and off the field, and helping players transition to life after football.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Cousin served as the Chicago Bears' Director of Player Engagement (2014), the Director of Player Engagement for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2012-13) and the Director of Player Development for his alma mater, the University of South Carolina (2010-11).

While working for the Buccaneers, Cousin created a program called Buccaneer University, which helped players with education, internships, benefits and financial services. He was also the main contact between the Buccaneers' players and community relations department, assisting with player involvement in the community. Cousin also helped relocate players when they came to Tampa and aided Buccaneers rookies with their transition into the NFL.

During his two years at South Carolina, Cousin worked with student athletes across multiple sports. He also served as a sideline reporter for the Gamecocks' radio broadcasts and did features on student athletes for Steve Spurrier's television show. Cousin was a four-year letterman for the South Carolina football team (1993-96), and he also ran track. He was the 1993 Scott Sinclair Freshman Award winner.

A former NFL cornerback, Cousin enjoyed a 12-year career, playing for the Bears, Atlanta Falcons, Miami Dolphins, Carolina Panthers, New York Giants, Jacksonville Jaguars and Cleveland Browns. He originally signed with the Bears in 1997 as an undrafted rookie free agent out of South Carolina.

Cousin and his wife, Carmen, have two daughters.

➤ KEVIN COLBERT GENERAL MANAGER

Kevin Colbert is in his 16th year with the Steelers, and his fifth year as the team's General Manager. Colbert joined the Steelers on February 15, 2000, and served as the director of football operations for his first 11 years with the team.

In his 15 seasons with the Steelers, Colbert helped assemble teams that have won two Super Bowls (XL and XLIII), three AFC Championships, seven division titles, earned nine playoff berths and had 11 winning seasons.

Colbert oversees the personnel area of the team and supervises the scouting staff. Among his duties, he is in charge of administering player acquisitions and transactions, including the NFL Draft, free agent signings and trades, and evaluating pro and college personnel. He also serves as the Steelers' liaison with the NFL office and the other NFL teams on football matters.

Colbert served as the Detroit Lions' pro scouting director from 1990-99. He was responsible for scouting NFL players, NFL Europe and the Canadian Football League. He also assisted in the evaluation of college talent.

Prior to joining the Lions, Colbert spent five seasons as a college scout for the Miami Dolphins (1985-89) and one season (1984) with the BLESTO Scouting Service.

Colbert began his career as a coach and has experience in three sports – football, basketball and baseball. He was the backfield coach and recruiting coordinator at Ohio Wesleyan University for three years (1981-83), and in 1984, he also served as the school's head baseball coach.

From 1979-81, Colbert was a graduate assistant basketball coach at Robert Morris University. He also served as the school's head baseball coach in 1981.

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Colbert graduated from North Catholic High School and received his bachelor's degree from Robert Morris in 1979. He and his wife, Janis, have three children, Kacie, Jennifer and Daniel, and three grandchildren, Avery, Colby and Brock.

* Playoff Game

SEPTEMBER 7, 2014 Heinz Field (64,598)

PITTSBURGH – K Shaun Suisham connected on a 41-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 30-27 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the 2014 season opener at Heinz Field. It marked the ninth time Suisham converted a game-winning field goal in his career and seventh as a Steeler.

Suisham booted a 36-yard field goal on the Steelers' opening drive of the contest to give the team an early 3-0 lead. Cleveland though tied the game, 3-3, on its ensuing drive with a 39-yard field goal by K Billy Cundiff.

Pittsburgh went on to score 24 straight points to take a commanding 27-3 lead at halftime. RB LeGarrette Blount scored on a seven-yard run late in the first quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 35-yard touchdown early in the second quarter. Then RB

Le'Veon Bell scored on a 38-yard run. Suisham capped off the half with a 34-yard field goal as time expired.

Like Pittsburgh, Cleveland scored 24 unanswered points to open up the second half. Rookie RB Isaiah Crowell scored on back-to-back drives, rushing into the end zone from three yards out and then 15 yards out on the following drive. Cundiff then connected on a 25-yard field goal. And QB Brian Hoyer threw a nine-yard touchdown to WR Travis Benjamin to tie the game 27-27.

With less than two minutes to go, the Steelers' defense forced a three-and-out and the Browns punted to the Pittsburgh 43-yard line. Roethlisberger then led the team on a five-play, 33-yard drive to set up Suisham's game-winning kick.

It marked the 31st time Roethlisberger led the team on a fourth-quarter game-winning drive in the regular season for his career. He finished the game with 365 passing yards, marking the 29th time he eclipsed the 300-yard mark in the regular season.

For the fifth time since 1991, the Steelers generated 300 or more total net yards in the first half (364) and for the first time since the 2009 season the team recorded 490 or more total net yards in a single game (490).

Game 2  BALTIMORE 26  PITTSBURGH 6

SEPTEMBER 11, 2014 M&T Bank Stadium (71,181)

BALTIMORE – The Baltimore Ravens defeated the Steelers, 26-6, at M&T Bank Stadium on Thursday Night Football.

Pittsburgh marched into Ravens' territory on its opening drive of the contest before the drive was stalled at the Baltimore 16-yard line due to a fumble recovered by the defense. QB Joe Flacco then led his team on a 12-play, 85-yard drive that he capped off with a two-yard touchdown pass to TE Owen Daniels to give the Ravens a 7-0 lead.

K Justin Tucker connected on a 30-yard field goal midway through the second quarter to increase Baltimore's lead 10-0. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 25-yard field goal late in the second quarter and the teams entered halftime with Baltimore leading 10-3.

Suisham added a 43-yarder early in the third quarter to cut the lead 10-6, but it would be the last points Pittsburgh would score. On the Ravens' ensuing possession, Flacco led the team on a 12-play, 80-yard drive and he capped it off with another touchdown pass to Daniels, this time a one-yarder, to give Baltimore a 17-6 lead.

The Ravens' defense forced two fourth quarter turnovers to close the door on a Pittsburgh comeback. Tucker added three fourth quarter field goals, from 23 yards, 22 yards and 20 yards to give Baltimore its final points of the contest.

Game 3  PITTSBURGH 37  CAROLINA 19SEPTEMBER 21, 2014 Bank of America Stadium (73,945)

CHARLOTTE – Pittsburgh won its first road contest of the 2014 season in dominating fashion with a 37-19 win at Carolina. It marked the Steelers fifth straight win against the Panthers.

K Graham Gano connected on a 40-yard field goal midway through the first quarter to give Carolina a 3-0 lead. The Steelers responded with three straight field goals as K Shaun Suisham connected from 42, 24 and 45 yards out to give Pittsburgh a 9-3 advantage at halftime.

In the second half, Pittsburgh scored 28 points thanks to splash plays from the offense, defense and special teams. On the Panthers first drive of the third quarter, LB Jarvis Jones sacked and stripped QB Cam Newton, and the fumble was recovered by LB Jason Worilds. Five plays later, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a seven-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 16-3 lead.

Gano made a 40-yard field goal on Carolina's ensuing drive. Pittsburgh responded on its next drive when RB Le'Veon Bell had an 81-yard rush down to Carolina's 11-yard line. It marked the first 80-yard rush for Pittsburgh since the 2005 season. Roethlisberger found Brown again from seven yards out to give the Steelers a 23-6 advantage.

The Panthers cut the lead 23-13 on Newton's 37-yard touchdown pass to TE Greg Olsen and forced the Steelers to punt on Pittsburgh's ensuing drive. But S Shamarko Thomas forced a fumble on the punt that was recovered by S Robert Golden in the endzone for a touchdown to give Pittsburgh a 30-13 lead.

The Steelers added seven more points on RB LeGarrette Blount's eight-yard touchdown run to give Pittsburgh a 37-13 advantage. QB Derek Anderson connected with WR Kelvin Benjamin on a 35-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter to give Carolina its final points of the game.

For the first time since 1986, the Steelers had two running backs (Bell and Blount) each rush for 100 yards in the same contest.

Game 4  TAMPA BAY 27  PITTSBURGH 24SEPTEMBER 28, 2014 Heinz Field (62,910)

PITTSBURGH – QB Mike Glennon threw a game-winning five-yard touchdown pass to WR Vincent Jackson with seven seconds left to give the Buccaneers a 27-24 victory at Heinz Field.

On the Steelers opening drive of the game the Buccaneers got after QB Ben Roethlisberger, sacking him on consecutive plays. On third-and-16, DE Michael Johnson sacked and stripped Roethlisberger and the fumble was recovered by Tampa Bay. Two plays later, Glennon threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to WR Mike Evans to give Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead.

The Buccaneers forced the Steelers to punt on their next possession. Tampa Bay capped off that drive with a 50-yard field goal by K Patrick Murray to increase their lead 10-0. Pittsburgh responded on their next possession driving 73 yards on 10 plays. K Shaun Suisham nailed a 25-yard field goal to cut the lead 10-3.

The Steelers then scored two straight touchdowns thanks to Roethlisberger and WR Antonio Brown. Roethlisberger and Brown connected on an 11-yard score and then a 27-yard score to give Pittsburgh a 17-10 lead going into halftime.

Tampa Bay marched 80 yards on eight plays on its opening drive of the second half. RB Doug Martin scored on a three-yard run to tie the game 17-17. But the Steelers scored a touchdown on their next drive when Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a five-yard touchdown to give Pittsburgh another seven-point advantage, 24-17.

Early in the fourth quarter, Murray made a 27-yard field goal to put Tampa Bay within four points, 24-20. It appeared that the Buccaneers would take the lead right after the two-minute warning. But the Steelers held the Buccaneers on fourth-and-10 from the Pittsburgh 14-yard line.

Tampa Bay though forced the Steelers to punt and took over with 40 seconds remaining and no timeouts. On second-and-10, Glennon found WR Louis Murphy for a 41-yard completion which set up Glennon's game-winning throw to Jackson.

OCTOBER 5, 2014 EverBank Field (66,198)

JACKSONVILLE – CB Brice McCain returned a Blake Bortles interception 22 yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter to lift the Steelers to a 17-9 victory over the Jaguars at EverBank Field.

Jacksonville got on the board midway through the first quarter with K Josh Scobee's 43-yard field goal. Early in the second quarter K Shaun Suisham connected on a 24-yard field goal to tie the game 3-3.

Pittsburgh took the lead for good right after the two-minute warning in the first half when QB Ben Roethlis-berger found TE Michael Palmer for a one-yard touchdown. The touchdown capped off a 10-play, 70-yard drive and was Palmer's first career touchdown as a Steeler.

Jacksonville cut the lead 10-9 by the end of the third quarter on Scobee's two made field goals (35 and 36 yards), and the team got a splash play on defense when the Steelers were driving. With the Steelers at the Jaguars' 13-yard line, Roethlisberger was sacked and stripped and the fumble was recovered by DL Andre Branch.

But on the Jaguars second play of their ensuing drive, Bortles was picked off by McCain and he returned it for a score to seal the victory for Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh's defense held the Jaguars to less than 100 rushing yards, the first time since 2012 that the Steelers held three straight opponents to less than 100 rushing yards.

Game 6  CLEVELAND 31  PITTSBURGH 10
OCTOBER 12, 2014 FirstEnergy Stadium (67,431)

CLEVELAND – The Browns scored three second quarter touchdowns en route to a 31-10 victory against the Steelers at FirstEnergy Stadium.

The Steelers rushed for 57 yards in the first quarter and the defense held the Browns to (-8) net yards in the opening period. Pittsburgh took a 3-0 lead midway through the first quarter on K Shaun Suisham's 20-yard field goal. On the Steelers ensuing drive, the team lined up for another field goal attempt but the snap was fumbled.

Cleveland then scored 31 unanswered points. RB Isaiah Crowell scored on a five yard run. QB Brian Hoyer connected with TE Jordan Cameron on a 51-yard touchdown. And RB Ben Tate scored from eight yards out to give Cleveland a 21-3 lead at halftime.

Midway through the third quarter, K Billy Cundiff connected on a 40-yard field goal to increase the Browns lead to 24-3. CB Buster Skrine intercepted QB Ben Roethlisberger on the Steelers' ensuing drive which set up Cleveland in Pittsburgh territory. Seven plays later, Tate scored from one-yard out to give Cleveland it's final points of the contest.

The Steelers did manage to score late in the game when Roethlisberger threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to WR Lance Moore.

RB Le'Veon Bell totaled 105 scrimmage yards to become the first player in team history to record 100 scrimmage yards in each of the first six games of a season.

OCTOBER 20, 2014 Heinz Field (56,375)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers' offense scored three touchdowns in a span of 73 seconds late in the first half to help lift the team to a 30-23 victory over the Houston Texans at Heinz Field on Monday Night Football.

Pittsburgh got off to a slow start and fell behind 13-0. Houston opened the scoring as QB Ryan Fitzpatrick threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to RB Alfred Blue and K Randy Bullock connected on two field goals (39, 38).

K Shaun Suisham connected on a 44-yard field goal to give Pittsburgh its first points of the contest late in the second quarter. After forcing Houston to punt, Pittsburgh took over and scored a touchdown in just two plays. QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with rookie WR Martavis Bryant on a 35-yard touchdown to cut the lead 13-10.

The Steelers defense then created two splash plays and the offense capitalized on Houston's mistakes. First, RB Arian Foster was stripped by LB Jason Worldis on the Texans' three-yard line. On the Steelers first play of their ensuing drive, WR Antonio Brown threw a three-yard touchdown to WR Lance Moore.

On Houston's following possession, Fitzpatrick's pass was batted into the air and picked off by DE Brett Keisel. The Steelers took over in Texans' territory again and Roethlisberger found RB Le'Veon Bell for a two-yard touchdown to increase the lead 24-13.

Suisham added two fourth quarter field goals (30, 40) to increase Pittsburgh's lead to 30-16. The Texans scored a late touchdown but their inside kick attempt was recovered by Pittsburgh to end the game.

Game 8 PITTSBURGH 51 INDIANAPOLIS 34

OCTOBER 26, 2014 Heinz Field (62,479)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger had a game for the ages as he threw for a team record 522 yards and a team record six passing touchdowns to help guide the Steelers to a 51-34 win against the Colts at Heinz Field.

K Adam Vinatieri made a 31-yard field goal on the Colts first drive of the game to give Indianapolis the early 3-0 lead. Pittsburgh responded with 21 unanswered points. Roethlisberger connected with WR Markus Wheaton for an 18-yard touchdown and then with WR Martavis Bryant for a five-yard score. And then CB William Gay stepped in front of an Andrew Luck throw and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 21-3 lead.

Indianapolis cut the lead to 21-10 when Luck connected with TE Dwayne Allen for a 21-yard touchdown.

Roethlisberger then capped off Pittsburgh's next two drives with touchdown throws to WR Antonio Brown. The first touchdown was from eight yards out and the second one was from 47 yards out to give Pittsburgh a 35-10 advantage.

Luck connected with WR T.Y. Hilton for a 28-yard touchdown and Vinatieri made a 23-yard field goal as the halftime whistle sounded, and the teams went into halftime with Pittsburgh leading 35-20.

Roethlisberger and Bryant connected for a two-yard touchdown early in the third quarter to give Pittsburgh a 42-20 advantage. Indianapolis then scored two straight times to get within eight points. RB Ahmad Bradshaw scored on a 12-yard run and Luck threw a 31-yard touchdown to WR Donte Moncrief to cut the lead to 42-34.

Early in the fourth quarter the Colts forced a Steelers turnover as Pittsburgh was in the red zone. But Luck tripped and was called for a penalty in the end zone and the play resulted in a safety. Leading 44-34, Roethlisberger led the team on a 12-play, 67-yard drive that he capped off with his sixth touchdown of the game, an 11-yard pass to TE Heath Miller.

NOVEMBER 2, 2014 Heinz Field (63,971)

PITTSBURGH – For the second consecutive game, QB Ben Roethlisberger threw six touchdown passes to guide his team to victory, this one a 43-23 win against the Baltimore Ravens at Heinz Field. Roethlisberger's 12 passing touchdowns in a two-game span was a new NFL record.

The Ravens scored early in the first quarter when QB Joe Flacco connected with WR Torrey Smith on a 35-yard touchdown to give Baltimore a 7-0 lead. Pittsburgh tied the game, 7-7, midway through the second quarter when Roethlisberger threw a five-yard touchdown pass to RB Le'Veon Bell.

The Steelers defense forced two Ravens turnovers in the second quarter and Pittsburgh capitalized with touchdowns on the team's ensuing possessions. Roethlisberger found WR Martavis Bryant for a 19-yard score to give Pittsburgh a 14-7 lead. K Justin Tucker made a 46-yard field goal to cut the Steelers lead to 14-10.

Roethlisberger then threw a 47-yard touchdown to WR Markus Wheaton to give Pittsburgh a 22-10 lead heading into halftime. It marked Wheaton's longest reception of his career.

After a scoreless third quarter, Roethlisberger connected with WR Antonio Brown on a 54-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter to give Pittsburgh a 29-10 advantage. But on Baltimore's ensuing drive, WR Jacoby Jones returned a kickoff 108 yards for a touchdown to get Baltimore back within 12 points.

Roethlisberger and Bryant connected again, this time from 18 yards out to give the Steelers a 36-17 advantage. Flacco and TE Crockett Gillmore connected on a one-yard score with less than three minutes to go to cut the lead to 36-23.

But on the Steelers next drive, Roethlisberger threw his sixth and final touchdown pass, this one a 33-yarder to TE Matt Spaeth to seal the victory for Pittsburgh.

Game 10  NEW YORK JETS 20  PITTSBURGH 13NOVEMBER 9, 2014 MetLife Stadium (78,160)

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Pittsburgh could not overcome a 17-0 first quarter deficit and four turnovers and lost to the Jets, 20-13, at MetLife Stadium.

The Jets ate up nearly eight minutes of clock time on their first drive of the game. After marching 72 yards on 14 plays, K Nick Folk converted a 23-yard field goal to give New York a 3-0 lead.

Pittsburgh was forced to punt on their first possession of the game. On the very first play of the Jets' ensuing drive, QB Michael Vick threw a 67-yard touchdown to WR T.J. Graham to give the Jets a 10-0 lead.

WR Antonio Brown fumbled on the Steelers' next drive, and the Jets took over in Steelers' territory. Five plays later, Vick found TE Jace Amaro for a five yard touchdown to give New York a 17-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers marched into the redzone on their first drive of the second quarter but QB Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted near the goal line. Late in the second quarter, Folk missed a 45-yard field goal. Roethlisberger then led the team into Jets' territory. K Shaun Suisham nailed a career-long 53-yard field goal as the halftime whistle sounded to cut the Jets' lead 17-3.

Roethlisberger was again picked off on the Steelers' opening drive of the second half. Midway through the third quarter, Folk converted a 30-yard field goal to give the Jets a 20-3 lead.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Suisham missed a 23-yard field goal. But Suisham connected on a 27-yarder midway through the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 20-6. Roethlisberger threw an 80-yard touchdown to WR Martavis Bryant with 1:28 left to go in the game.

The Steelers' onside kick attempt though was recovered by the Jets, who then ran out the clock for the victory.

NOVEMBER 17, 2014 LP Field (69,143)

NASHVILLE – The Steelers overcame an 11-point fourth quarter deficit to beat the Titans 27-24 on Monday Night Football at LP Field.

Pittsburgh got off to a fast start, scoring twice in the first five minutes of the game. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 49-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead. And on the Steelers' first defensive snap, CB William Gay intercepted QB Zach Mettenberger and returned it 28 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 10-0 lead.

Tennessee responded with a 67-yard drive that was capped off by a nine-yard touchdown run by RB Bishop Sankey. Suisham made a 23-yard field goal near the end of the first quarter to give Pittsburgh a 13-7 lead.

The Titans scored 17 unanswered points to take a 24-13 lead into the fourth quarter. First, K Ryan Succop connected on a 20-yard field goal. Then with less than one minute left in the half, Mettenberger connected with WR Nate Washington on an 80-yard touchdown.

Late in the third quarter, Mettenberger connected with TE Chase Coffman for a four-yard touchdown to give the Titans an 11-point advantage heading into the fourth quarter.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, RB Le'Veon Bell scored on a five-yard run. And on the Steelers next drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Brown to seal the victory for the Steelers. It marked Roethlisberger's 32nd career fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drive of his career in the regular season.

Pittsburgh's defense limited the Titans' chances in the fourth quarter and the Steelers used a heavy dose of Bell to run out the clock. For the game, Bell totaled 206 rushing yards, the fourth-highest total in team history for a single game.

Game 12  NEW ORLEANS 35  PITTSBURGH 32NOVEMBER 30, 2014 Heinz Field (61,916)

PITTSBURGH – Saints QB Drew Brees threw five touchdown passes to lift his team to a 35-32 victory against the Steelers at Heinz Field.

The Steelers dominated time of possession for the first quarter and a half but only managed to put six points on the board thanks to K Shaun Suisham's 49 and 31-yard makes.

Midway through the second quarter, Brees connected with TE Benjamin Watson for a 15-yard touchdown. And with less than one minute remaining in the half, Brees threw a four-yard touchdown pass to FB Erik Lorig to give the Saints a 14-6 lead heading into the break.

New Orleans scored on their first drive of the second half as Brees found WR Nick Toon for an 11-yard touchdown. Pittsburgh's ensuing drive ended with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Le'Veon Bell to cut the Saints' lead 21-13. Bell recorded a career-best 159 receiving yards and totaled a career-high 254 yards from scrimmage.

But on the Saints' next possession, Brees threw a 69-yard touchdown pass to WR Kenny Stills to give New Orleans a 28-13 advantage at the end of the third quarter.

Suisham connected on a 47-yarder early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 28-16. But Brees led his team right down the field and threw a three-yard touchdown pass to WR Marques Colston to give New Orleans a 35-16 lead.

QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with WR Antonio Brown on a four-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter, and then the two connected again on a three-yard score as time expired. Roethlisberger threw for a game-high 435 yards and set the team's single-game record with 58 pass attempts.

Game 13  PITTSBURGH 42  CINCINNATI 21

DECEMBER 7, 2014 Paul Brown Stadium (65,512)

CINCINNATI – The Steelers scored 25 fourth-quarter points to beat the Bengals 42-21 at Paul Brown Stadium.

After a scoreless first quarter, Pittsburgh took a 7-0 lead when QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with TE Heath Miller for a one-yard touchdown. Cincinnati tied the game 7-7 on their ensuing possession when QB Andy Dalton found TE Jermaine Gresham for a 10-yard touchdown pass.

Dalton scored on a 20-yard run late in the second quarter to give Cincinnati a 14-7 advantage. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 22-yard field goal right before halftime to cut the Bengals lead to 14-10 at the break.

Midway through the third quarter, RB Le'Veon Bell caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to give Pittsburgh its first lead of the game, 17-14. The Bengals scored on their next drive to take a 21-17 lead but it would be the last they would score.

Suisham nailed a 44-yarder to cut the lead 21-20, and on the Bengals' next possession, LB Arthur Moats recovered a fumble to set the Steelers up in Cincinnati territory. Four plays later, Bell scored from 13 yards out to give Pittsburgh a 28-21 lead.

Midway through the fourth quarter, the Steelers took over at their own six-yard line. On the very first play, Roethlisberger connected with WR Martavis Bryant on a 94-yard touchdown pass. It marked the second-longest pass play in team history.

Bell's 22-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter marked his second score of the game and it sealed the victory for the Steelers. Bell totaled 235 yards from scrimmage in the contest to give him three straight games with 200 yards from scrimmage. He became just the second player in NFL history (Walter Payton) to record at least 200 yards from scrimmage in three straight games.

Game 14  PITTSBURGH 27  ATLANTA 20

DECEMBER 14, 2014 Georgia Dome (71,161)

ATLANTA – CB William Gay's 52-yard interception return for a touchdown in the second quarter gave the Steelers a 13-0 lead and the team held off the Falcons' late rally for a 27-20 victory at the Georgia Dome.

K Shaun Suisham made two first quarter field goals, both from 38 yards out, to give the Steelers a 6-0 lead at the end of the first period. On Atlanta's first drive of the second quarter, Gay picked off QB Matt Ryan and returned it 52 yards for a score. It marked Gay's third pick-six this season, a new team record for most interceptions returned for a touchdown in a single season.

Late in the second quarter, Ryan connected with WR Devin Hester on a 17-yard touchdown to cut the Steelers lead 13-7. With less than 30 seconds remaining in the half, RB Le'Veon Bell scored on a one-yard run to give Pittsburgh a 20-7 advantage at halftime.

Atlanta managed two field goals by K Matt Bryant (28, 22) in the third quarter to cut Pittsburgh's lead 20-13 heading into the final quarter.

Only one minute into the fourth quarter, Bell scored from 13 yards out to give the Steelers a 27-13 advantage. Ryan threw a four-yard pass to WR Roddy White on the Falcons ensuing drive to give Atlanta its final points of the contest.

The Falcons had multiple opportunities to stop Pittsburgh but the Steelers kept getting key first downs, none bigger than a third-and-one conversion from QB Ben Roethlisberger to TE Heath Miller. The two connected on a 25-yard pass and Pittsburgh ran out the clock for the win.

DECEMBER 21, 2014 Heinz Field (60,865)

PITTSBURGH – Pittsburgh improved to 10-5 on the season and clinched the team's ninth postseason berth since 2000 with a 20-12 victory over Kansas City at Heinz Field.

K Shaun Suisham connected from 23 yards to give Pittsburgh a 3-0 lead. K Cairo Santos connected from 35 yards to tie the game 3-3 at the end of the first quarter.

Santos made one from 25 yards early in the second quarter to give the Chiefs the team's only lead of the game. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, RB Le'Veon Bell scored on a one-yard run to give Pittsburgh the lead for good, 10-6.

The Chiefs marched into Steelers' territory midway through the third quarter. RB Jamaal Charles caught a pass and rookie DE Stephon Tuitt forced a fumble on Charles that was recovered by LB Vince Williams.

The Steelers then took over and marched 75 yards on 10 plays. QB Ben Roethlisberger capped off the drive with a three-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Brown to give the Steelers a 17-6 lead.

Santos made a 43-yard field goal and Suisham responded with a 23-yard make of his own. Kansas City cut the lead to 20-12 on Santos' 23-yard make but the team's onside kick attempt was recovered by Steelers' FB Will Johnson. The Steelers offense then took the field in their victory formation.

Pittsburgh's defense recorded a season-high six sacks, the first time the Steelers recorded six sacks in a game since December 23, 2012. LB Jason Worilds (2.0), LB James Harrison (1.5) and DE Cameron Heyward (1.5) each had a multi-sack game, and the defense held the Chiefs to a season-low 39 rushing yards.

This game also marked the third straight turnover free game for the Steelers' offense and the third straight game the Steelers' defense forced a turnover.

Game 16  PITTSBURGH 27  CINCINNATI 17

DECEMBER 28, 2014 Heinz Field (64,697)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger's 63-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Brown sealed the 27-17 victory for the Steelers over the Bengals at Heinz Field on Sunday Night Football. With the win, the Steelers won the AFC North and secured the No. 3 seed in the playoffs.

Early in the first quarter, Brown returned a punt 71 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead. It marked Brown's longest punt return of his career and his third career returned for a touchdown. All three have come against the Bengals at Heinz Field.

Cincinnati tied it up, 7-7, when QB Andy Dalton threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to RB Giovani Bernard. The Bengals took a 10-7 lead on K Mike Nugent's 39-yard field goal but it would be the Bengals' only lead of the contest.

K Shaun Suisham connected on a 29-yard field goal to tie the game, 10-10. On the Bengals' ensuing drive, Dalton was picked off by CB Brice McCain for the second time in the game and the Steelers took over in Cincinnati territory. Roethlisberger then found WR Martavis Bryant for a 21-yard touchdown pass. Suisham added a 25-yard field goal right before halftime and the Steelers lead 20-10 heading into the break.

Both teams missed opportunities in the third quarter. Nugent missed a 50-yard field goal and Roethlisberger was picked off in the red zone. Dalton connected with TE Jermaine Gresham for a five-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 20-17.

The Steelers attempted a fake punt midway through the fourth quarter but P Brad Wing's pass was intercepted. Cincinnati took over and marched into Steelers' territory. Dalton completed a pass to WR A.J. Green but CB Antwon Blake stripped the ball from Green and then recovered the fumble.

Three plays later, Roethlisberger hit Brown for the game-winning score.

AFC WILD CARD GAME, JANUARY 3, 2015 Heinz Field (62,780)

PITTSBURGH – QB Joe Flacco's 21-yard touchdown pass to TE Crockett Gilmore midway through the fourth quarter sealed the victory for Baltimore in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh moved the ball well in the first half but only managed to come away with three field goals by K Shaun Suisham (45, 22 and 47). Baltimore RB Bernard Pierce scored on a five-yard run and K Justin Tucker connected on a 28-yard field goal to give Baltimore its 10 points of the first half, and the Ravens led 10-9 at the break.

Tucker connected from 45 yards early in the third quarter to put Baltimore up 13-9. Flacco threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Torrey Smith midway through the third quarter to give the Ravens a 20-9 advantage.

The Steelers got a splash play from their defense early in the fourth quarter when rookie DE Stephon Tuitt recovered a Ravens' fumble. QB Ben Roethlisberger then connected with WR Antonio Brown for a 44-yard gain and rookie WR Martavis Bryant for a six-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 20-15.

Baltimore responded with a 52-yard field goal by Tucker to increase the Ravens' lead to 23-15. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, Roethlisberger was picked off by LB Terrell Suggs. On Baltimore's next play, Flacco hit Gilmore for the game-deciding touchdown.

The Steelers tried to rally but Roethlisberger was picked off in the end zone. A blocked punt for a safety by S Shamarko Thomas cut the Ravens' lead to 30-17.

Trailing by 13, Pittsburgh took over with less than two minutes remaining. TE Heath Miller fumbled and the Ravens secured the football and took over at the Pittsburgh 38-yard line. Baltimore then went into its victory formation.

RB Le'Veon Bell, the team's MVP, wasn't able to suit up due to a knee injury.

Steelers

STEELERS History

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933, by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the 10-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988, following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief," as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's great people.

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he lived on the North Side, just a short distance from where Three Rivers Stadium stood.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931, to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John and Pat. In 1964, Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for his contributions to the growth of the NFL and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

By the mid-1960s, Rooney had begun to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. After having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Daniel M. Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. In 2000, Dan Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined his father Art to form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. The late New York Giants owners Wellington Mara and his father Tim were the first.

Dan Rooney spent 54 consecutive years with the organization before being named U.S. Ambassador to Ireland in 2009 by President Barack Obama. Rooney was required to move to Ireland in 2009 to fulfill his duties as ambassador.

As an NFL owner, Dan Rooney is widely recognized as one of the league's most influential executives and one of Pittsburgh's leading contributors to civic affairs. Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is a board member for The American Ireland Fund, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation and The Heinz History Center.

Dan Rooney has been a member of several NFL committees over the past 30-plus years. He has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976, Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players' Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993. Rooney was also largely responsible for developing the realignment plan and scheduling format that the NFL adopted prior to the 2002 season. In October 2002, he was named chairman of the NFL's Diversity in the Workplace Committee. Rooney is also Chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee. In February 1999, he was named the recipient of the Philadelphia Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award for outstanding contributions to the game of football.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Rooney and his wife Patricia live on the North Side. The Rooneys have nine children and 17 grandchildren.

Dan Rooney was named Steelers' Chairman Emeritus in July 2009 after he was named United States Ambassador to Ireland. Rooney served as United States Ambassador until late 2012. He returned to the Steelers and currently serves as chairman.

In 2003, Dan Rooney officially turned over the title of Steelers' team president to his oldest son, Arthur J. Rooney II, who had previously served as the team's vice president and general counsel. Art II also previously served as Chairman of the Board of Klett Rooney Lieber & Schorling (now Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney), Attorneys at Law. A 1978 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh where he majored in political science, Art II received his law degree from Duquesne University School of Law in 1982. He currently serves as Chairman of the NFL's Stadium Committee, and serves on numerous NFL boards, including the Legislative Committee, the Management Council Executive Committee, the International Committee and the Digital Media Committee.

Mr. Rooney is also very active in the Pittsburgh community, devoting a substantial amount of his time to various organizations. He currently serves on the boards of the Children's Museum of Pittsburgh, the Pittsburgh Public Theater, St. Vincent College, Senator John Heinz Western PA History Center, the United Way of Allegheny County and numerous other venues.

STEELERS History

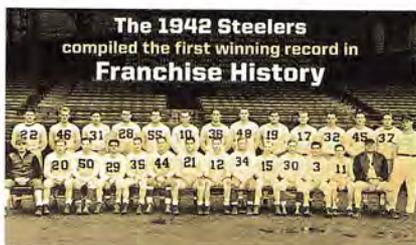

➤ ART ROONEY

1930s After founding the Pirates in 1933, Art Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938, Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the league in rushing that year and became one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He served 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court before retiring in 1993.

1940s In 1940, Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year, Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record and a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game 21-0 to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

1950s Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952, Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44 and the 1954-56 campaigns.

1957

Lowell Perry becomes the NFL's first African-American assistant coach.

1938

Byron "Whizzer" White was paid an unheard-of $15,800 to play one season for the Steelers.

1940

The Pittsburgh Pirates are officially renamed the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1943

The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Philadelphia Eagles to form the "Steagles" as many rosters were depleted due to World War II.

1947

December 21 – The Steelers played their first postseason game, a 21-0 setback to the Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Division Playoffs.

1942

November 22 – The Steelers defeat the Chicago Cards 19-3 to clinch their first winning season in team history.

1944

The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) as many rosters were still depleted due to World War II.

STEELERS History

1960s Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne led the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game versus Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks fourth among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

On October 25, 1964, the Steelers made team history when they retired jersey No. 70 in honor of former defensive tackle Ernie Stautner. Stautner, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, became the first Steelers player to have his jersey retired.

Brief head coaching stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of 37-year-old Chuck Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today, Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and joined Stautner as the only two players to have their jerseys retired by the team. Greene's No. 75 was officially retired on November 2, 2014.

October 25 – The Steelers retire Ernie Stautner's No. 70, becoming the first jersey number to be retired in team history.

1969

January 27 – Chuck Noll is named head coach of the Steelers.

1969

January 28 – "Mean" Joe Greene is selected by the Steelers in the first round of the NFL Draft.

1970s

A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin toss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added in the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted 10 players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Two significant changes took place in 1970. The Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69, the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers, the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders 13-7 with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

1970

August 28 – Pittsburgh defeats the New York Giants, 21-6, in the first preseason game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1970

September 20 – The Steelers fall to the Houston Oilers 19-7 in their first regular-season game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1972

December 23 – The Steelers win their first playoff game in dramatic fashion with a 13-7 victory over the Oakland Raiders on Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception."

STEELERS History

SUPER BOWL X, Steelers 21, Cowboys 17

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973, the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory over the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975, the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claimed their second consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs, the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 defeat of the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

1974

January 29, 1974 – The Steelers select future Hall of Famers Lynn Swann (first round), Jack Lambert (second), John Stallworth (fourth) and Mike Webster (fifth) in the NFL Draft. Many consider it the best draft in NFL history. Following the draft, the Steelers also signed free agent Donnie Shell, who went on to become one of the team's all-time best safeties.

1976

January 18 – The Steelers win their second consecutive league championship with a 21-17 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X in Miami, Fla.

The 1976 Steelers struggled to a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories, including five shutouts, to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but lost to Oakland 24-7 after both starting running backs, Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the first round of the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular-season record.

In 1978, the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins versus Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win versus Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year when the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams 31-19 in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins versus Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

STEELERS History

1980s As the 1980s opened the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982, the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers Stadium until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The following year the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by a 6-10 record in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7 during the strike-shortened season.

In 1988, the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games as the offense failed to score in the first month of the season. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heartbreaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

1990s A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991, Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach, which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of 34-year-old Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. In the first season of the new era, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed new-found success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's Coach of the Year and six Steelers were selected to the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

Under Cowher the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its 10th division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers home field advantage throughout the playoffs. However, in the first postseason game at Three Rivers Stadium in exactly 10 years, the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC champion Buffalo, 24-3.

Steelers History

In 1992, 34-year-old Bill Cowher became the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time. In his first season, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984.

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss at Kansas City in the AFC Wild Card game.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their second division title in three years with an AFC-best 12-4 record. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted its first AFC Championship game since 1979. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers 17-13.

1995 AFC Championship, Steelers 20, Colts 16

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl appearance in 1995. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys 27-17 in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Ariz.

In 1996, the Steelers finished 10-6 and earned their fifth consecutive trip to the playoffs. Cowher ended the season with 57 career victories, ranking him as the second winningest coach in team history, behind his predecessor Noll.

The Steelers captured their fourth consecutive AFC Central title in 1997 while posting an 11-5 record. They were one play away from earning their sixth Super Bowl appearance but lost to Denver 24-21 in the AFC Championship game.

In 1998, the Steelers finished a disappointing 7-9, losing their last five regular-season games and missing the playoffs for the first time under Cowher.

The Steelers suffered their second consecutive losing season in 1999, when their record fell to 6-10.

STEELERS History

2000s After starting the 2000 season with a 0-3 record, the Steelers rebounded to finish the year at 9-7 and barely missed the playoffs.

However, 2000 will be remembered most for being the final season for the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers were 4-4 during their final season at Three Rivers Stadium, including victories in four of their final six home games. The Steelers won their final game at Three Rivers 24-3 against the Washington Redskins on Dec. 16.

The Steelers finished 31 seasons at Three Rivers Stadium (1970-2000) with a 182-72 home record, including the postseason. The Steelers recorded their largest regular-season home attendance figures (440,428) since 1998 in the final season, including a season-high 58,183 fans during the final game in stadium history.

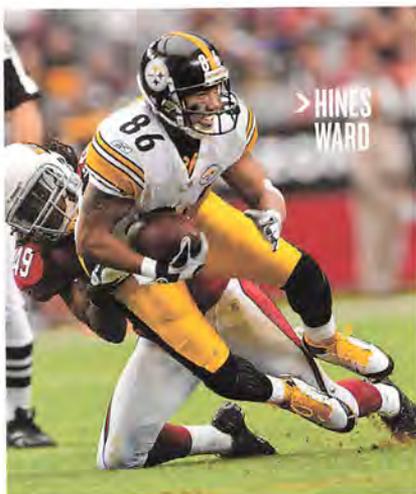

The Steelers began a new era in team history in 2001 with the opening of their new stadium, Heinz Field. The Steelers posted an AFC-best 13-3 regular-season record, including a 7-1 mark at home, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

The inaugural game at Heinz Field was originally scheduled to be a nationally televised Sunday Night game on Sept. 16. However, the September 11 terrorist attacks on America forced the NFL to postpone all games that weekend — which were eventually rescheduled for the end of the season. As a result, the Steelers opened Heinz Field on Sunday, Oct. 7 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Steelers defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens 27-10 in the AFC Divisional Playoffs, in the first-ever postseason game played at Heinz Field. However, they suffered a disappointing 24-17 loss at home in the AFC Championship Game to the eventual Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots.

After an 0-2 start in 2002, the Steelers rallied to make the playoffs for the second consecutive season. However, the team's Super Bowl hopes ended when they lost, 34-31, in overtime to the Tennessee Titans on the road.

The Steelers began the 2003 season with a 34-15 victory against AFC North rival Baltimore Ravens. However, the team never regained that magic and finished the year with a 6-10 record and missed the playoffs for the first time in three seasons.

The Steelers set a team record in 2004 by becoming the first AFC team to win 15 games (15-1) in the regular season. They ultimately advanced to the AFC Championship Game where they lost to the New England Patriots, 41-27. Nine Steelers were selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, the team's most since the 1979 season.

Pittsburgh found itself sitting at 7-5 after 12 games in 2005, but rallied to win its final four regular-season games to earn the AFC's sixth seed in the playoffs. The Steelers then won an unprecedented three straight road playoff games to gain a berth in Super Bowl XL in Detroit versus the Seattle Seahawks.

Art Rooney II was named President of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2003.

2000

2000

December 16 – The Steelers defeat the Washington Redskins 24-3 in the final game at Three Rivers Stadium.

2001

August 25 – Pittsburgh defeats the Detroit Lions 20-7 in its first preseason game at Heinz Field.

2003

October 26 – The Steelers host the St. Louis Rams at Heinz Field, marking the 1,000th game in team history.

MIKE TOMLIN was hired on January 22, 2007.

The Steelers captured their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seahawks as wide receiver Hines Ward was named MVP, finishing with five receptions for 123 yards. Ward also hauled in a game-clinching 43-yard TD pass from Antwaan Randle El on a gadget play midway through the fourth quarter.

The 2006 season saw the Bill Cowher era come to an end with the Steelers finishing the season winning six of their final eight games to post an 8-8 record on the year.

On January 5, 2006, Bill Cowher resigned as Steelers head coach with a 161-99-1 overall record, second-best in team history.

2006

February 5 – The Pittsburgh Steelers win their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL in Detroit.

2007

January 5 – Bill Cowher steps down as head coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

2011

January 23 – The Steelers host the N.Y. Jets in the AFC Championship Game in front of a Heinz Field-record crowd of 66,662.

The Steelers hired 34-year old Mike Tomlin as the team's head coach on January, 22, 2007, becoming the NFL's youngest head coach at the time.

Tomlin became the second first-year coach in team history to make the playoffs in 2007. The Steelers finished with a 10-6 overall record and won the AFC North division title.

Tomlin became the first coach in franchise history to win a division title in each of his first two seasons when the Steelers captured their second consecutive AFC North division title with a 12-4 record in 2008. They went on to defeat the San Diego Chargers and Baltimore Ravens to gain a berth in Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa, Fla., versus the Arizona Cardinals.

The Steelers became the first NFL franchise to capture six Super Bowl titles when they defeated the Cardinals 27-23. With the victory, Tomlin became the youngest coach to win a Super Bowl in NFL history (36 years, 323 days). Wide receiver Santonio Holmes was named MVP after hauling in the game-winning six-yard touchdown pass from Ben Roethlisberger with 35 seconds remaining in regulation.

The Steelers added to their legacy, making it all the way to Super Bowl XLV after a 12-4 record during the 2010 season. The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell to the Green Bay Packers 31-25. Despite the loss, the Steelers still hold the NFL record for most Super Bowl victories with six.

The team donned a CHN commemorative patch in honor of the late Chuck Noll during the 2014 season. The team also retired Joe Greene's No. 75, all during this year of celebrating the team's 40th anniversary of its first championship with a uniform patch in 2014.

James Harrison's 100-yard interception return for a touchdown is the longest interception return in Super Bowl history and helped the Steelers earn their sixth title.

SUPER BOWL

PITTSBURGH 16

MINNESOTA 6

JANUARY 12, 1975 Tulane Stadium (80,997)

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory over Minnesota.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in QB Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by defense. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota offensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh's Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the nine-yard line.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, while Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered it in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final touchdown.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

JANUARY 18, 1976 Miami Orange Bowl (80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the first quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make the catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic three interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas' Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Steeler Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers' reserve Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes' punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-nine at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only two yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was intercepted by Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

PITTSBURGH 35

DALLAS 31

JANUARY 21, 1979 Miami Orange Bowl (78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand, too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers' QB Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys' QB Roger Staubach saw TE Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas CB Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to TE Billy Joe Dupree and Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls.

PITTSBURGH 31

LOS ANGELES 19

JANUARY 20, 1980 Rose Bowl Stadium (103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams' Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers' John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams' Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from QB Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and two touchdowns.

DALLAS 27

PITTSBURGH 17

JANUARY 28, 1996 Sun Devil Stadium (76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas' Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four yard-line two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions— a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

PITTSBURGH 21

SEATTLE 10

FEBRUARY 5, 2006 Ford Field (68,206)

DETROIT, Mich. — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history (S.F. 49ers and Dallas Cowboys).

Backed by a predominantly Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it failed to gain a first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, but it was stalled as Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' Michael Boulware.

Pittsburgh's defense continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead throughout the second quarter.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the half as Roethlisberger dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the second half as Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open by driving to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from Matt Hasselbeck to Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game on a gadget play. Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with 8:56 left in the game. Randle El's touchdown pass was the first by a wide receiver in Super Bowl history.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions to post the victory. Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while Jerome Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

PITTSBURGH 27

ARIZONA 23

FEBRUARY 1, 2009 Raymond James Stadium (70,774)

TAMPA, Fla. — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight-play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to Antonio Holmes to clinch their NFL-record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. Jeff Reed booted an 18-yard field goal on the opening drive to make it 3-0.

Gary Russell increased that lead to 10-0 when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona answered that score as Kurt Warner hit Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as if they were going to take their first lead late in the first half, but James Harrison intercepted Warner at the goal-line, raced 100 yards and dove into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest interception return in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed in the third quarter upped the lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

The Steelers were backed up to their own 12-yard line on the next drive, but Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger threaded a perfect pass through three defenders and Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 35 seconds left.

Arizona had one more chance, but LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble to essentially end the game.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) with one touchdown. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

GREEN BAY 31

PITTSBURGH 25

FEBRUARY 6, 2011 Cowboys Stadium (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when Aaron Rodgers found Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers scored early in the second quarter when Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again, and on the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers would cut the lead to 21-10 when Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards out. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled and Green Bay recovered. The Packers marched down the field and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17. Rodgers finished the game with 304 yards passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

With 7:34 left in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line, allowing Green Bay to win their fourth Super Bowl.

STEELERS in the Hall of Fame

ARTHUR J. ROONEY SR.

Founder, President, Chairman of the Board [1933-88] ELECTED: 1964

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was one of the most influential personalities in the sport of football. Mr. Rooney, who was affectionately referred to as "The Chief", founded the Steelers organization on July 8, 1933, with a $2,500 purchase. Mr. Rooney helped orchestrate the NFL-AFL merger and kept the Steelers franchise afloat during the depression, World War II, many losing seasons and financial problems. Mr. Rooney won his first of four Super Bowl championships in 1974.

DANIEL M. ROONEY

President and Chairman [1955-Present] ELECTED: 2000

Born on July 20, 1932, in Pittsburgh's North Side, Daniel M. Rooney is one of NFL's most influential owners. Mr. Rooney contributed to the labor negotiations between the League and Players Association in 1982 and 1993 and is largely responsible for the NFL's current realignment and scheduling format. Mr. Rooney, who is entering his 55th season with the organization, was named the Steelers' president in 1975, a title he held until passing it to his oldest son Art Rooney II in 2003.

BERT BELL

Co-owner [1940-45] ELECTED: 1963

Bert Bell was an owner of the Philadelphia Eagles (1933-'40) and co-owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers (1940-'45). Bell was named the NFL commissioner (1946-'59) and helped set up the league's television and anti-gambling policies. He also oversaw the merger of the NFL and All-American Football League in 1949. Bell died on October 11, 1959, while watching a football game between his two former teams: Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

JOHN 'BLOOD' MCNALLY

Player [1934, 1937-39], Coach [1937-39] ELECTED: 1963

John "Blood" McNally played 14 seasons in the NFL with five different teams, including two stints with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He served as both a player and coach from 1937-39 for the Pirates and was considered possibly the best receiver in the NFL during his playing days.

BILL DUDLEY

Halfback [1942, 1945-46] ELECTED: 1966

Bill Dudley, nicknamed "Bullet Bill", was a first-round draft pick of the Steelers in 1942 and finished his rookie season as the league's leading rusher with 696 yards, earning him all-league honors. In 1946, he became the NFL's first player to lead the league in four distinctly different statistical categories, including rushing, punt returns, interceptions and lateral passes attempted. That same year he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player. Dudley was a two-time All-NFL selection during his nine-year career.

WALT KIESLING

Player [1937-39], Coach [1939-44, 1949-61] ELECTED: 1966

Walt Kiesling spent 34 years in the NFL as a player, assistant coach and head coach. In 1939, Kiesling got his first head coaching job with Pittsburgh. He led the Steelers to their first winning season in franchise history in 1942. Kiesling left coaching in 1944, but returned in 1954 with the Steelers. His teams earned a reputation for playing rugged, hard-hitting football.

STEELERS in the Hall of Fame

BOBBY LAYNE

Quarterback [1958-62] ELECTED: 1967

Bobby Layne played five of his 15 NFL seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He helped provide the Steelers with some of their finest seasons up to that point. Prior to Pittsburgh, Layne was a two-time All-NFL selection and was the league's scoring champion in 1956. His last-second touchdown pass won the 1953 NFL title game for the Detroit Lions.

ERNIE STAUTNER

Defensive Tackle [1950-63] ELECTED: 1969

Ernie Stautner, considered one of the toughest players in league history by his teammates and opponents, was a nine-time Pro Bowl selection as he anchored Pittsburgh's defense for 14 seasons. He captured the NFL's Best Lineman Award in 1957 and was named all-league four times. Showing his gritty and hard-working attitude, Stautner missed just six games during his 14-year career despite having numerous broken ribs, shoulders, hands and a nose. The Steelers honored him by retiring his No. 70 jersey in 1964 following his retirement, and he became the first Steeler to have received that honor.

JOE GREENE

Defensive Tackle [1969-81] ELECTED: 1987

The leader of the "Steel Curtain" defense during the 1970s, Joe Greene dominated the NFL during that decade and helped the Steelers to four Super Bowl victories. The team's No. 1 draft pick in 1969, Greene quickly became a presence in the league as he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year and received the first of his 10 Pro Bowl invitations. He earned All-NFL honors five times and all-conference 11 straight years to begin his career. Greene was twice the league's Defensive Player of the Year and played a critical role in the Steelers' Super Bowl IX victory over the Minnesota Vikings with a pass interception and a fumble recovery. The Steelers retired Greene's No. 75 jersey during a halftime ceremony of the team's Nov. 2, 2014, game vs. Baltimore.

JOHN HENRY JOHNSON

Fullback [1960-65] ELECTED: 1987

Originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1953, John Henry Johnson spent his first eight years in the NFL outside of the Steel City. However, Johnson enjoyed his finest seasons with the Steelers. In both 1962 and 1964, Johnson became the first Steeler to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing barrier. After retiring in 1966 from the Houston Oilers, Johnson's 6,803 career rushing yards ranked him fourth at the time among the NFL's all-time top ground gainers behind only Jim Brown, Jim Taylor and Joe Perry.

JACK HAM

Linebacker [1971-82] ELECTED: 1988

Playing all 12 seasons of his NFL career with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Jack Ham earned All-Pro or All-AFC honors in seven consecutive seasons (1973-79). He also was selected to play in eight straight Pro Bowls and was named the Football News Defensive Player of the Year in 1975. Ham won the starting linebacker job as a rookie and never looked back, playing in five AFC Championship games and three Super Bowls (sat out Super Bowl XIV due to injuries). His interception return against Oakland in the 1974 AFC Championship game that set up the Steelers' go-ahead touchdown, giving the team its first ever championship victory and a berth in Super Bowl IX.

STEELERS in the Hall of Fame

MEL BLOUNT

Cornerback (1970-83) ELECTED: 1989

Melvin Cornell Blount, the Steelers' third-round pick in 1970, had superior size, speed, strength and intelligence. His physical style of play is widely credited for changing NFL pass defense rules. Blount played 14 seasons and 200 regular-season games in Pittsburgh and his 57 interceptions remain a Steelers record. Blount played in five Pro Bowls and was named an All-Pro four times and the NFL defensive MVP in 1975.

TERRY BRADSHAW

Quarterback (1970-83) ELECTED: 1989

Terry Paxton Bradshaw was the top-overall pick in the 1970 NFL Draft. Bradshaw led the Steelers to eight AFC Central division and four Super Bowl titles while calling his own plays. Bradshaw was named MVP in Super Bowls XIII and XIV and NFL MVP in 1978. Bradshaw finished his career with 27,989 yards passing and 212 touchdowns.

FRANCO HARRIS

Running Back (1972-83) ELECTED: 1990

Franco Harris is the Steelers' all-time leading rusher with 11,950 yards and all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (91). Harris, the Steelers' first-round pick in 1972, was a big-power back who was on the receiving end of the "Immaculate Reception", which is widely recognized as the greatest play in NFL history. Harris was named Super Bowl IX MVP, after rushing for a then-record 158 yards and a touchdown.

JACK LAMBERT

Linebacker (1974-84) ELECTED: 1990

John Harold Lambert was a two-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year, eight-time All-Pro and nine-time Pro-Bowler. He led the team in tackles in every season except his last, when he missed extensive action due to a severe toe injury that forced him to retire. Lambert, the Steelers' second-round draft pick in 1974, was noted for his vicious tackling and is recognized as the premier linebacker of his era.

CHUCK NOLL

Coach (1969-91) ELECTED: 1993

Charles Henry Noll was the first NFL head coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll won a team record 209 games in 23 seasons with the Steelers. He led the Steelers to their first ever postseason victories and was responsible for drafting 11 Pro Football Hall of Fame players.

MIKE WEBSTER

Center (1974-88) ELECTED: 1997

Michael Lewis Webster spent his first 15 NFL seasons in a Steelers uniform. Webster was the leader of one of the most dominant offensive lines of his era. He was very durable, missing only six games in his first 16 seasons while playing in 150 consecutive games. Webster was a seven-time All-Pro and played in nine Pro Bowls.

STEELERS *in the Hall of FameLYNN SWANNWide Receiver [1974-82] ELECTED: 2001

Lynn Curtis Swann was the Steelers' first-round draft pick in 1974. Swann filled the highlight reels with his graceful moves and leaping ability. Swann was at his best in the team's biggest games, and earned MVP honors for his performance in Super Bowl X when he caught four passes for 161 yards and a touchdown. Swann finished his career with 336 receptions for 5,462 yards and 51 touchdowns.

JOHN STALLWORTHWide Receiver [1974-87] ELECTED: 2002

Johnny Lee Stallworth was the Steelers' fourth-round draft pick in 1974. He had 12 postseason touchdown catches and 17 consecutive postseason games with a reception. Stallworth set Super Bowl records for career average-per-catch (24.4 yards) and for single-game average (40.3), set in Super Bowl XIV. A two-time team MVP, Stallworth retired as the Steelers' all-time leader in receptions (537) yards (8,723) 100-yards receiving games (25) and receiving touchdowns (63).

ROD WOODSONCornerback [1987-96] ELECTED: 2009

Roderick Kevin Woodson was the Steelers' first-round draft pick in 1987. He was the 1993 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and a member of the NFL's 75th anniversary team. A three-time team MVP, Woodson ranks fourth in team history with 38 interceptions. Woodson was selected to seven Pro Bowls, six AP All-Pro teams and was named to the 1990s All-Decade team. He returned five interceptions, two punts and two kickoffs for scores.

JACK BUTLERCornerback [1951-59] ELECTED: 2012

John Bradshaw Butler played in 103 games as a cornerback for the Pittsburgh Steelers and was selected to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1950s. When he retired, Butler ranked as the NFL's second all-time leader with 52 career interceptions. The Pittsburgh native registered 827 return yards on interceptions, returning four for touchdowns. Butler also returned one fumble for a touchdown. Despite recording 25 interceptions in his first four seasons, Butler was not selected to his first of four career Pro Bowls until 1955. A season later he was named second-team All-NFL and would go on to earn first-team All-NFL honors in each of the following three seasons.

DERMONTTI DAWSONCenter [1988-2000] ELECTED: 2012

Dermontti Fara Dawson was a second-round draft pick by the Steelers in 1988 and played guard as a rookie before replacing Hall of Famer Mike Webster at center in 1989. Dawson started for the majority of a 13-year career that saw him play in 184 games during the regular season, including 170 consecutive, the third longest streak in franchise history. He was named to seven consecutive Pro Bowls (1993-99), was a first team All-Pro for six straight years (1993-98) and was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s. During Dawson's 13-year career, which ties for the third-most seasons played in franchise history, he helped the Steelers win five division titles, appear in three AFC Championships and one Super Bowl, and record a winning record nine times.

JEROME BETTISRunning Back [1996-2005] ELECTED: 2015

Jerome Abram Bettis, Sr., "The Bus" was traded to the Steelers from the St. Louis Rams prior to the start of the 1996 season. He played in 192 regular-season games in his 13-year career, registering the sixth-most rushing yards (13,662) in NFL history. He eclipsed the 100-yard mark 61 times in the regular season and three times in the postseason. Bettis scored 78 rushing touchdowns as a Steeler, the second-most in franchise history. His career accolades include six Pro Bowls, first-team All-Pro twice, second-team All-Pro once and he was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year in 1996. He ended his career with a victory in his hometown of Detroit, Mich., as the Steelers captured their fifth Lombardi trophy in Super Bowl XL.

Home: Other Hall of Famers who spent part of their careers with the Steelers include: CAL HUBBARD [Player 1936, elected 1963], MARION MOTLEY [Player 1955, elected 1968], EARLE [GREASY] NEALE [Coach 1943, elected 1969], BILL HEWITT [Player 1943, elected 1971], LEN DAWSON [Player 1957-1959, elected 1987] and DICK LEBAEU [Coached from 1992-1996, 2004-14, elected 2010].
