Hello, Lexington Legends Fans!

As I compose this message, I am overwhelmed with the idea that we are celebrating the 25th Anniversary Season of Lexington Legends Professional Baseball. Wasn't it just a few short years ago that we opened our small office at Northland Shopping Center? I can still see the bulldozers preparing the field, our early days of selling tickets and sponsorships and the DREAM of family fun entertainment in a beautiful clean and safe stadium becoming a reality right before our eyes.

The first privately owned and financed professional stadium (with NO taxpayer dollars) had become a reality. The championship in our very first season in 2001 was the first of many. Memories of Jon Topolski, Johnny Buck, Josh Anderson, Jose Altuve, J. D. Martinez, Ben Zobritz and Brandon Phillips, amongst so many more come flooding back. Were you here on June 6, 2006 for the Rocket Relaunch? Roger Clemens was actually here pitching at Applebee's Park!

I have to mention the hundreds of staff folks who have worked so hard throughout the years. And the commitment of our early partners like Brad Redmon, Billy Forbess, Stewart Smith and Bill Shea and many others, without whom this dream could not have come to life. Of course, our current partners from Temerity Baseball, led by Andy Sandler, have done an incredible job leading our franchise back to our "glory days".

It's been an absolute joy to once again be a part of the Lexington Legends because it's given me a chance to reconnect with the thousands of fans who have supported us throughout the years. Nearly 10 millions folks have come through the gates over these 25 years and our gratitude is immeasurable. As we embark upon our next 25 years we will continue to be committed to being a part of the spring and summer fabric of our beloved Central Kentucky. I truly can never thank you enough. We'll see you at the ballpark!

Go Legends!

Legends Fans,

Thank you for being here. Whether you brought your child, your parent, your team, your congregation or your pet, we appreciate that you chose to share time with them at this special place.

When we bought this team in February of 2024, we knew it was a great team in a special place, and we have loved getting to know many of you and this area over the last year. From sitting way too high at Rupp Arena cheering on the Wildcats to feeling way in over our heads at the Thoroughbred Sales to eating way too much at Dudley's, we've loved getting to know Lexington better, and time and again we've thought how right we were. This town is special.

We've worked very, very hard to restore this ballpark to its former glory, to ensure it remains one of the things that makes Lexington great. Our staff worked tirelessly last year to improve the ballpark and the ballpark experience to guarantee that every person who walked in our gates had a great time. They hit the pavement to double attendance, because one of the things that makes a baseball game great is the noise of the crowd and the energy thousands of people rooting for their hometown team generates. We thank each and every one of you who attended last year and contributed to that energy, and we hope we give you an experience today that makes you come back time and time again this summer.

If there's a place that we've missed the mark or a way we can improve your experience, we want to hear from you. We can't make this place legendary without your input, so please share it with me when you see me at a game, with our mustachioed General Manager Justin Ferrarella in person or via email at jferrarella@lexingtonlegends.com.

Thanks for coming to today's game. I hope you have a legendary time.

Andy

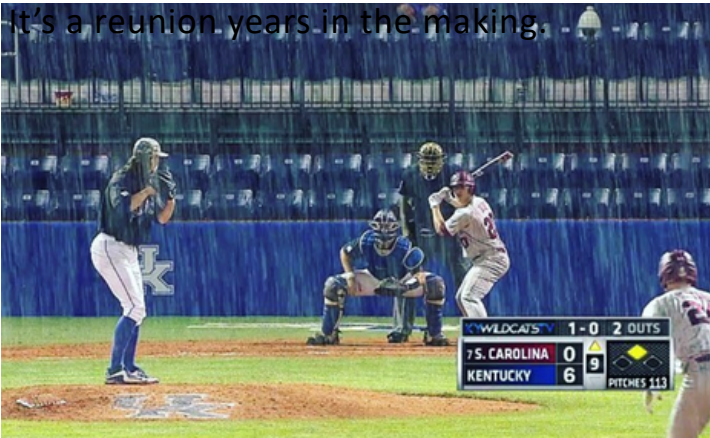

Lexington Clinic

FROM WILDCATS TO LEGENDS – DUSTIN BEGGS & KOLE COTTAM REUNITE ON THE FIELD AGAIN

For Kole Cottam and Dustin Beggs, the road back to Lexington was long, winding, and worth every mile.

Nine years ago, they were college teammates at the University of Kentucky — a freshman catcher and a senior ace forming a bond behind the plate that helped spark one of the most memorable seasons in UK baseball history. Now, in 2025, they're suiting up together once again — not as Kentucky Wildcats, but in the green and blue of the Lexington Legends.

It's a reunion years in the making.

Accessible Seating

Accessible seating is reserved for guests with access requirements and their companions. Guests requiring accessible seating may purchase one (1) accessible seat and one (1) companion seat adjacent to the accessible seat. Depending upon availability, seats for additional guests will be located as close as possible to the accessible space. Legends Field is committed to working with guests on a case-by-case basis to adequately accommodate individual needs. All ticket sales are based on availability.

The Lexington Legends are proud to be ADA Compliant.

Alcohol

Guests are prohibited from bringing alcoholic beverages into the stadium. Guests will be required to show valid identification. No guest will be served more than two alcoholic beverages at any given time. Alcohol sales end at the conclusion of the 7th inning during a baseball game and at designated times during concerts and other events.

Autographs

Players can sign autographs before or after the game at their own discretion. Players are not able to sign autographs during the game. We ask that fans arrive early or wait until the game has completed to request an autograph. Come early on Sunday Funday, presented by the YMCA, for the opportunity to meet players on the concourse for pre-game autographs.

Bag Policy

All bags are subject to search upon entry to Legends Field for any Legends game or any other event.

Birthdays

Our birthday packages are offered for $20/person, and include a Hot Dog Voucher and the option to bring a cake or cupcakes. Additionally, the birthday kid receives a video board announcement. To learn more, please reach out to groupsales@lexingtonlegends.com.

Cameras

Only personal cameras, with non-detachable lenses with a maximum of 6 inches, are allowed for patrons without media credentials at Legends Field. If you would like information on acquiring a press pass, please contact Jacob Penny at jpenny@lexingtonlegends.com

Cashless Payments

Legends Field is a cashless facility. Visitors to the stadium for Legends games and any other event can expect to exclusively use a credit card, debit card, or mobile payment for all purchases in the stadium.

Children

Children aged 3 years or younger do not need a ticket, but they cannot take up a seat.

Concessions

Legends Field has multiple concession stands and our Taproom behind home plate.

Discounts on Tickets

All active and inactive military members receive $3 off with a Military ID.

All University of Kentucky employees receive $5 off with a valid UK employee ID.

Events

CONT. FROM WILDCATS TO LEGENDS – DUSTIN BEGGS & KOLE COTTAM REUNITE ON THE FIELD AGAIN

Cottam, now 27, was a breakout star during his three years with the Wildcats. As a freshman in 2016, he caught nearly every inning of Beggs' dominant final season, one that helped lead UK to a regional championship and a spot in the NCAA Super Regionals – a first for the program. Their connection was instant, and their chemistry undeniable. Beggs and Cottam started off the season 7-0 together as the dynamic Wildcat duo.

"Dustin was a guy I looked up to from day one," Cottam said. "He led by example, and he made my job behind the plate easier. There's a trust that builds between a pitcher and catcher, and we had that."

Beggs, who was drafted by the Miami Marlins in 2016, spent several years pitching in affiliated ball, making it all the way to Triple-A, before finding his way to the Legends in 2021. When Cottam finished his stint with Kentucky, he went to the Boston Red Sox in the 4th Round of the 2018 draft and climbed as high as Triple-A before joining the Spire City Ghost Hounds in 2023 – where he crushed 30 home runs and ranked among the Atlantic League's top power hitters.

When Beggs found out that the two would reunite in 2024, "I texted him as soon as I heard the news," Beggs said, smiling. "I just said, 'Let's do this again.' It feels like everything has come full circle."

Legends Manager Paul Fletcher is excited to have them reunite again as battery mates.

COACHES

PAUL FLETCHER

FIELD MANAGER

Paul Fletcher joins the Legends for their 25th anniversary season with over 25 years of professional baseball experience. A former MLB pitcher, Fletcher has scouted for the Padres, Mets, Phillies, and Pirates, signing 60+ players—16 reaching the big leagues. As a coach, he's led three championship teams and helped develop 23 future MLB players. Most recently, he guided the Glacier Range Riders to the 2024 Pioneer League finals. Known for his player development focus, Fletcher brings proven leadership and a winning mindset to Lexington.

MIKEY REYNOLDS

HITTING COACH

Mikey Reynolds enters his second season as the hitting coach and first as the director of player operations for the Lexington Legends, entering his second season with the team and his first in this leadership role. Prior to this, Mikey served as a player/coach for the Legends in 2024, following a distinguished 10-year professional playing career.

TOMMY THOMPSON

BENCH COACH

Tommy Thompson joins Lexington for his first season, bringing 38 years of coaching experience and a deep-rooted passion for baseball. A former University of Oklahoma standout, he played nine seasons at the AAA level with the Braves and White Sox. After his playing days, he built a respected coaching career, including time on the White Sox MLB staff, managing in the minors, and serving as a catching coordinator and scout. He also spent four years in independent ball, managing in Great Falls and coaching in Glacier. Off the field, he enjoys life with his wife Leeanne, son Michael, and their dogs, Javier and Ernesto.

HUNTER REYNOLDS

BEST BOY

Hunter Reynolds was raised into the world of baseball, spending time with his father, Mikey Reynolds. Spending time in the locker room with players and bringing excitement to fans, he is excited to enjoy his second year with the Lexington Legends.

In his free time, he lives true to his name, hunting bunnies and squirrels, as well as spending time with his friends in the Legends Front Office.

You may also hear him referred to as "Handsome Prince".

"Both are true professionals and leaders, both in the clubhouse and on the field. There's a connection between these two that's unparalleled. They are always on the same page and have a passion for baseball that is simply contagious."

But for Cottam and Beggs, this reunion is especially meaningful – not just because of where they've been, but where they're going.

"This city means a lot to both of us," Cottam said. "To be back here, playing in front of fans who've supported us since college, and doing it alongside Dustin – that's something special."

The Legends open the 2025 season- sponsored by Lexington Clinic at home on Friday, April 25, against the Charleston Dirty Birds. And when the catcher squats behind the plate and an old friend takes the mound, it won't just be the start of another season – it'll be the next chapter in a baseball story that began right here in the Bluegrass once again.

2025

Celebrating its third decade, the Atlantic League is Major League Baseball's first Professional Partner League, a player gateway to the major leagues, and a leader in baseball innovation. Over its 26-year history, the ALPB has sent over 1,400 players to MLB organizations while drawing over 47 million fans to its 10 family-friendly ballparks that stretch from New York to North Carolina.
