GAME NOTES

MATCH PREVIEW

Fresh off its club-best regular season finish in 2024, Gotham FC kicks off the 2025 NWSL season against Seattle Reign FC at Lumen Field. Kickoff is set for 10 p.m. ET, with coverage on ION.

Gotham finished the 2024 regular season with 56 points, shattering its previous high of 36. A key factor in that success was Gotham's dominance on the road. The club set new franchise marks for away wins (eight) and away shutouts (six), dropping just three of its 13 road matches in league play.

This will be the 31st meeting between Gotham and Seattle, with the Reign leading the all-time series with 12 wins. Despite that advantage, Gotham has been the stronger side in recent matchups, going unbeaten in the last three meetings with two wins and a draw.

Seattle enters the 2025 season after finishing 13th in 2024, missing the playoffs for the first time since 2017. The Reign closed last season with 23 points and a 6-15-5 (W-L-D) record.

MATCH RECAP

In its final game of the season, Gotham FC lost to the Washington Spirit in penalties in the semifinals of the 2024 NWSL Playoffs after playing to a 1-1 draw through regulation and extra time.

Gotham FC broke through with a goal from Esther González in the 56th minute. After some possession, midfielder Rose Lavelle slipped a ball through to Yazmeen Ryan, who cut the ball back and lofted a cross into the box, where Gonzalez redirected the ball back to the front post off of her back foot.

Washington found the equalizer in stoppage time to send the game into extra time.

After an added time stalemate, Washington prevailed, 3-0, in the penalty shootout.
