This will be the 33rd meeting between Gotham FC and Chicago across all competitions, with Gotham holding an 8-13-11 record against the visitors. At home, Gotham FC is 5-6-4 in the all-time series and is unbeaten in its last five meetings against Chicago in all competitions, with four wins and one draw.

Lynn Biyendolo opened the scoring for Gotham in the 57th minute before Penelope Hocking equalized for Chicago in the 74th. Forward Ella Stevens scored the winner against her former club in the 90th minute, securing all three points for Gotham.

MATCH RECAP

Esther González became the first player in Gotham FC to record three two-goal games and Sarah Schupansky scored her first career goal in leading the visitors past the Washington Spirit, 3-0 in Week 6.

It was an emphatic victory for Gotham FC, which bounced back from a frustrating Tuesday defeat at Portland to frustrate the 16,443 at Audi Field. And for the second time in three games, Gotham achieved a new milestone, scoring three first-half goals away from home for the first time in club history.

The three points moved Gotham FC (3-2-2, 11 points) within a point of Washington, which currently holds third place in the NWSL standings. Gotham is 6-1-4 over the last 11 road matches across all competitions and is unbeaten in its last 38 competitive NWSL matches when scoring first.

Washington (4-2-0, 12 points) created a number of chances in the second half in its attempts at a rally, but Gotham FC goalkeeper Ann-Katrin Berger made multiple spectacular saves to keep her third clean sheet of the young season.

Schupansky's third minute goal was the fastest goal of this season's NWSL campaign and the first rookie-to-rookie connection on a goal since 2019. Fellow rookie Lilly Reale delivered the perfectly weighted pass to Schupansky, who finished with a one-touch right-footed effort.

Then it became the González Show. The Spanish striker pounced on a deflection from Geyse's pressing effort on Washington defender Esme Morgan, cutting back and drawing a penalty when defender Rebeca Bernal fouled her in the box. González converted her penalty low and to the right.

Seven minutes later, González flicked on a header from Schupansky's driven corner to net a third.

That score moved González into sole possession of second place on Gotham FC's all-time scoring list, with 17 goals. It also tied the record for the most goals in a four-match span in league history.
