PORTLAND THORNS FC VS BAY FC WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 2024

MATCH PREVIEW

Portland Thorns FC travel to San Jose, Calif., for their first clash with expansion side Bay FC on Wednesday; it is Thorns FC's only midweek match of the regular season. Kickoff from PayPal Park is scheduled for 7pm PT with a live broadcast on CBS Sports Network.

Portland (7th, 2-3-1, 7pts) will look to ride the high of two-straight wins, with the last one being a shutout on the road at Chicago Red Stars. Wednesday's hosts, Bay FC (10th, 2-4-0, 10pts), are looking to right the ship as they've lost four of their last five. There's no history yet between the newest NWSL club and the most successful club in the league's only three-time champion. Led by head coach Albertin Montoya, the Bay Area-based club hit the preseason transfer window with a splash, acquiring former Thorns defender Emily Menges and inking six-time African Women's Player of the Year and FC Barcelona star Asisat Oshoala.

It's the first of two meetings between the Thorns and Bay FC in 2024, with the expansion-side coming to Providence Park on August 30. With Portland coming alive in the last two match-days, expect interim head coach Rob Gale to utilize many of the key pieces in the wins over Houston and Chicago. For Bay FC, Montoya has been sticking by his 4-3-3 formation. Despite the results, an attack led by Mexico international Michelle Camberos and Oshoala is a threat to behold. Portland and Bay FC could be the start of a new discord.

LAST MATCH v. BAY

Wednesday's match will mark the first time in club history that the two teams have face one another since Bay FC joined the NWSL as the latest expansion side ahead of the 2024 season.

UPCOMING MILESTONES

Against Chicago, Sophia Smith scored her 36th and 37th career regular-season goals, putting her into the top 20 for all-time goals in the National Women's Soccer League. Smith is now tied with Rachel Daly for the 16th-most goals scored in league history. However, she'll need 26 to tie fellow Thorns FC teammate Christine Sinclair, and 45 to match the league record. Smith is also tied with Daly for the 6th most goals in league history scored at the same club.

Christine Sinclair's assist against Chicago marked her 80th career goal contribution (63 goals, 17 assists), making her the fifth player in league history to do so.

Midfielder Sam Coffey is three appearances away from 50 regular season appearance and Hina Sugita is five away from the same mark.

CONNECTIONS WITH BAY

The only player who has played for both Portland Thorns and Bay FC is defender Emily Menges, who departed the Thorns this past offseason to join the 2024 expansion side. Menges was drafted by the Thorns in the 2014 NWSL College Draft and would go on to appear in more than 100 regular season matches, helping the team win the 2017 and 2022 NWSL Championship.

Bay FC assistant coach, Angela Salem, played for the Thorns from 2018-2021 before electing to retire to pursue coaching. While a member of the Thorns Salem won the 2021 NWSL Shield and the 2021 International Champions Cup.

Interim Head Coach Rob Gale became the first Zambian-born individual to coach a NWSL match, against Bay FC he will go up against the first Zambian-born player to get minutes in the league, Racheal Kundananji.
