PORTLAND THORNS FC VS WASHINGTON SPIRIT SATURDAY, MAY 4, 2024

MATCH PREVIEW

Red-hot Portland Thorns FC are back at home to host a top-5 battle against the Washington Spirit on Saturday night. Kickoff is set for 7pm PT at Providence Park with a live broadcast on ION.

Portland (5th, 3-3-1, 10pts) is on the rise. After going winless in their first four, they've won three in a row. Saturday's visitors Washington Spirit (2nd, 5-2-0, 15pts) are one of the strongest sides through the first seven games and will want to sneak a third road victory of the season.

Washington are flying high following a 4-2 road win at the Chicago Red Stars, a team that suffered a similar fate to the Thorns just over a week ago. Filling up their stat sheets is midfielder Croix Bethune who has recorded three goals and four assists in seven games. Add forwards Trinity Rodman (1g, 3a in six games), Brittany Ratcliffe (3g in seven games), and Ouleymata Sarr (3g, 1a in seven games) to the attack and it becomes clear why the Spirit are in the early fight for the NWSL Shield.

Led by Spanish coach Adrian Gonzales, the 4-2-3-1 formation seems to be a staple so far through 10 matchdays, with its effectiveness reflected in their results. Despite a trip-up at home to Orlando in matchday 9, Washington bounced back in the Windy City and will try and bring that energy looking for a result at Providence Park.

UPCOMING MILESTONES

Against Chicago, Sophia Smith scored her 38th and 39th career regular-season goals, putting her into the top 20 for all-time goals in the National Women's Soccer League. Smith is now tied with Amy Rodriguez for the 13th-most goals scored in league history. However, she'll need 24 to tie fellow Thorns FC teammate Christine Sinclair, and 43 to match the league record. Smith has the 6th most goals in league history scored at the same club.

Payton Linnehan scored her first professional goal in her first professional start in the second minute against Bay, five minutes later she contributed to her first professional assist.

Midfielder Sam Coffey is two appearances away from 50 regular season appearance and Hina Sugita is four away from the same mark.

CONNECTIONS WITH WAS

The only player who has played for both Portland Thorns and Washington Spirit is midfielder Marissa Sheva, who departed the Thorns this past offseason as a free agent. Sheva spent two seasons with the Spirit, appearing in 18 matches, across all competitions.

LAST MATCH v. WAS

Sitting in first place of the NWSL standings, Portland Thorns FC earned a point on the road with a 1-1 draw against the Washington Spirit at Audi Field on Sunday afternoon. Morgan Weaver tallied her fifth goal of the season to put Portland ahead in the match, but the Spirit equalized with a stoppage-time penalty kick to share points. Sam Coffey recorded her league-leading seventh assist of the 2023 campaign on Weaver's goal.

Weaver scored her fifth goal of the 2023 campaign in today's match. She is now tied with Crystal Dunn for the second-most goals on the team this season, trailing only Sophia Smith (11), while in sole possession of second-most points for Thorns FC (5g, 4a – 14pts). It marked Weaver's 20th career goal across all competitions for Portland. Weaver has contributed to 24 goals in all NWSL competitions since the start of last season (16 goals, 8 assists).
