PORTLAND THORNS FC VS HOUSTON DASH FRIDAY, MAY 18, 2024

MATCH PREVIEW

Fresh off a club-record-breaking night, the Portland Thorns FC take their five-game win streak to the Lone Star State for a battle with the Houston Dash. Kickoff is scheduled for 5pm PT, stream the match live on NWSL+ and FOX 12 Oregon.

Portland (4th, 5-3-1, 16pts) and Houston (10th, 2-4-3, 9pts) square-off for the final time this regular season. The Dash will be looking for revenge following a 4-1 thumping at Providence Park back on April 20. The Thorns put their five-game winning streak on the line at Shell Energy Stadium in downtown Houston. It's the final clash with the Dash.

Head coach Francisco Alonso and his crew are 1-1-2 since visiting the Rose City, with their lone win coming on Mother's Day at Angel City. It's hard to tell if their last-minute 0-1 victory in SoCal means a change in their overall fortunes, as they have yet to record a win at home. Through four matches at Shell Energy Stadium, Houston has a record of 0-2-2.

Forward Diana Ordonez continues to carry the offensive workload with three goals this season and Amanda West has made her presence known with a goal and an assist since playing the Thorns. Despite their efforts, the Dash have failed to score more than a goal in eight of their nine games played, meaning they'll need more than Ordonez and West to get involved if they're to make a climb up the standings.

CONNECTIONS WITH HOU

The only player who has played for both Portland Thorns and Houston Dash is defender Meghan Klingenberg. Klingenberg was selected by the Dash in 2014 in the expansion draft, spending two seasons in Houston before being traded to Portland ahead of the 2016 season.

Portland defender Reyna Reyes and Houston forward Diana Ordonez grew up together in the FC Dallas youth system, both becoming first-round NWSL Draft picks and eventual members of the Mexico National Team.

Fellow Canadian, Sophie Schmidt attended the University of Portland two years after Thorns' captain Christine Sinclair was a member of the Pilots program.

Houston defender Croix Soto attended the University of Oregon from 2019-22.

UPCOMING MILESTONES

Against Chicago, Sophia Smith scored her 40th career regular-season goal, putting her into the top 13th for all-time goals in the National Women's Soccer League. She became the youngest player in league history to score 40 goals, surpassing Sam Kerr by several months. Her three assists also made her the sixth player in league history to record three assists in a single match. Smith now has 14 goals combined contributions (eight goals, six assists) through nine matches, leading the league in goals, assists, shots and shots on target.

The team earned its club-record fifth consecutive win against Seattle and will look to extend its streak against Houston. The league record is currently seven wins in a row, set by Seattle Reign in 2014. However, the Orlando Pride are currently on a six-game win streak, one away from matching Seattle's record.

LAST MATCH v. HOU

Portland Thorns FC (1-2-1, 4 points) earned an emphatic 4-1 victory over the visiting Houston Dash, capped off by goals from Christine Sinclair, Sophia Smith, Olivia Moultrie and Janine Beckie.

The Thorns got off to a fast start, opening scoring in the sixth minute with a volleyed goal from Christine Sinclair, her first of the season and 63rd all time, to take the early 1-0 lead. Sinclair became the only player in the history of the NWSL to record a goal in all 11 seasons of the league's existence.

After setting up the previous goal, Smith found one of her own, outpacing the Dash's back line to slip her shot underneath the diving arms of goalkeeper Jane Campbell in the 27th minute.

The Dash were quick to find the back of the net coming out of the halftime break, with Diana Ordóñez scoring in the 49th minute.

Portland would eventually find its third in the 87th minute when Smith threaded a short pass to Olivia Moultrie for the 18-year-old to launch in the back of the net.

In the final minute of stoppage time Beckie put the cherry on top with the fourth goal of the night, picking the ball off a defender at the midfield line before dribbling up the field for a one-on-one shot against Campbell.
