PORTLAND THORNS FC VS UTAH ROYALS FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 2024

MATCH PREVIEW

Portland Thorns FC (5th, 7-5-2, 23pts) hit the road to Utah for the first time in over four years as they face the Utah Royals (14th, 2-11-1, 7pts) on Saturday night. Live from Sandy, Utah, the Thorns and Royals square-off for the first time since 2020. Kickoff at America First Field is set for 7pm, stream the match on ION.

The resurrected Royals have endured a rough restart. Through 14 matches this season, Utah has only collected points in three of them and subsequently are at the bottom of the NWSL standings. Head coach Amy Rodriguez has relied heavily on winger Ally Sentnor as she leads the club offensively with five goal contributions (2g, 3a). Lauren Flynn and Kate Del Fava have battled it out against the league's top scorers all season and lead Utah in blocks (1.2) and clearances (5.7) per game, respectively. Royals goalkeeper Mandy Haught has recorded two cleansheets and holds a respectable 63.8% saves percentage.

Despite the four year gap, Utah and Portland already have some history in the NWSL. Through eight all-time meetings, it's Portland who holds the advantage with three wins and one loss, with four draws.

Come kickoff Saturday, it will have been 1,365 days since Utah and Portland last faced off. A 1-1 result in Sandy during the 2020 NWSL Fall Series, the early October matchup saw Thorns forward Christine Sinclair rescue a point after – coincidentally, current Royals head coach Amy Rodriguez gave Utah the early lead.

Regardless of their recent hiccup against the Current, Portland has the firepower to bounce back at any moment. In their last 10 matches, they have been able to score in 9 of them, recording only two losses.

UPCOMING MILESTONES

Against North Carolina, Sophia Smith scored her 42nd career regular-season goal, putting her into the top 13th for all-time goals in the National Women's Soccer League. Smith now has 17 goals combined contributions (10 goals, six assists) through 11 matches, leading the league in goals, assists, shots and shots on target.

Forward Christine Sinclair is 46 minutes away from becoming the third player in league history to reach 15,000 minutes played with one club.

The Thorns are currently three goals away from achieving 400 goals in the history of the club, they will become the first team to do so once achieved.

LAST MATCH v. UTA

This will be the first match between Portland Thorns and Utah since the Royals joined the National Women's Soccer League as an expansion side prior to the start of the 2024 season.
