WHAT'S GOIN' ON: The Pensacola Blue Wahoos continue their six-game series against the Biloxi Shuckers, Double-A affiliate of the Milwaukee Brewers, on Wednesday night.

ABOUT LAST NIGHT: The Blue Wahoos overcame an early 3-0 deficit to beat the Shuckers on Tuesday by a score of 7-4...Paul McIntosh's bases-loaded fly ball with two outs in the ninth inning was dropped by Biloxi left fielder Noah Campbell to score three runs and give the Blue Wahoos a 6-3 lead...Luis Aviles hit a two-run homer in the fourth, and Jerar Encarnacion hit his league-leading sixth homer in the seventh inning...George Soriano tied a career high with 6 walks over 3.1 innings, but overcame a rocky first inning to keep his team in the game.

ENCARNA-SEE YA, GONE: Jerar Encarnacion saw an 11-game hitting streak come to a close on Sunday with an 0-for-4 afternoon, but came back on Tuesday with his sixth home run of the season to tie Rocket City's Trey Cabbage and Tennessee's Nelson Velazquez for the league lead...he batted .500/.571/.929 (21-for-42) with 5 home runs and 10 RBI from April 12-23...his .365 season average ranks second in the league, and his 23 hits are most in the league.

WE'RE GOING TO JACKSON (EVENTUALLY): The Blue Wahoos embarked on a 12-game road trip Tuesday, visiting Biloxi and Mississippi for the first time this season...they were swept by the Shuckers in three games on Opening Weekend...it is the first of two 12-game road trips this season, with the second coming August 30-September 11 to Chattanooga and Tennessee.

ROBERSON RETURNS: The Blue Wahoos activated right-handed pitcher Josh Roberson from the injured list on Tuesday...he had been on a rehab assignment with Class-A Jupiter to start the season, allowing 5 ER in 4.0 innings with 6 walks and 8 strikeouts over four relief appearances...Roberson played at four different affiliates in 2021, but saw most of his time in Pensacola going 1-1 with an 8.10 ERA in 26.2 relief innings.

REAPING AND HOEING: Bryan Hoeing was added to the MLB Pipeline Marlins Top 30 list at #30 last Friday after the graduation of Cody Poteet...Hoeing has delivered the longest start in the Southern League so far, and leads the circuit in ERA at 0.48...he struck out 10 batters on April 8 against Biloxi, tying a career high over 5.2 innings...his 7.1 scoreless innings at Rocket City on April 15 were the longest start for a Blue Wahoos pitcher since Jhoan Duran in August 2019.

3K RESOLUTION: Former Marlins farmhand Miguel Cabrera picked up his 3000th career hit on Saturday with the Detroit Tigers...Cabrera played in the Southern League for the Carolina Mudcats in 2003 before joining Florida's World Series-winning roster later in the season...the Mudcats franchise relocated to Pensacola for the 2012 season, though a new Mudcats team was established in the Carolina League and took on the old team's historical record.

GREAT WHITE NORTH: The Blue Wahoos made a pair of roster moves last week, adding catcher J.D. Osborne from Triple-A Jacksonville and sending catcher Jose Estrada down to High-A Beloit on April 19...Estrada spent the first nine games of the season on the Pensacola roster but did not appear in a game...Osborne went 1-for-4 with the Jumbo Shrimp...Osborne split time between Jacksonville and Pensacola last season, and also spent time representing Team Canada in the WBSC Olympic qualifiers.

MAC ATTACK: The Double-A debut for catcher Paul McIntosh is off to a great start, with a .347 average through 13 games that is fifth in the Southern League...he is also fourth in OBP, fifth in OPS, and eighth in SLG...he has homered twice, including in his first at-bat on Opening Day, and added the club's first triple four days later...undrafted last season after a stellar collegiate career at West Virginia, McIntosh was signed by the Marlins and led Low-A Jupiter with a 1.021 OPS after joining the team.

TICK, TOCK: The Blue Wahoos played Tuesday's game in 2:59, extending their run of sub-3:00 games...they played last Friday's game against Montgomery in a season-low 2:20...they have played only two nine-inning games longer than three hours this season, the last coming April 16 at Rocket City in 3:05...experimental pitch clock rules enacted by MLB in the minors began strict enforcement in the second week of the season.

SHUCKIN' AROUND: The Blue Wahoos and Shuckers will play each other 30 times this season, with 15 games in each city...the Shuckers swept the three-game series in Pensacola on Opening Weekend, though the Blue Wahoos had the tying or winning run at the plate in the final inning of each game...the Blue Wahoos are 76-72 all-time against the Shuckers entering this series...they next meet May 31-June 5 in Pensacola.

HEY, NINETEEN: 19-year-old Eury Pérez is Pensacola's Friday night starter...he was the team's Opening Day starter as an 18 year old...he is the first teenager to play for the Blue Wahoos in franchise history and the first to play for a Marlins Double-A club since Giancarlo Stanton and Matt Dominguez played for the Jacksonville Suns as 19-year-olds in 2009...he became the second 18-year-old to play for a Marlins Double-A team, the first being shortstop Edgar Rentería with the Portland Sea Dogs in 1995...the only other Marlins teenagers to play at the Double-A level are Miguel Cabrera (19, Carolina, 2003), Adrián González (19, Portland, 2002) and Álex González (19, Portland, 1996), all of whom were position players.
