SAM PRESTI EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Sam Presti is currently in his 18th season with the Thunder franchise. During Presti's tenure, the Thunder has captured six Northwest Division Championships and reached the Conference Finals four times, including the team's trip to the NBA Finals in 2012. This past season, Oklahoma City secured its 12th postseason appearance in the last 15 seasons which represents the second most postseasons for any NBA team during this span.

Presti was 29 years old when he was named General Manager on June 7, 2007, making him the second youngest person to ever hold the position in NBA history. The next season he was promoted to Executive Vice President and General Manager by Professional Basketball Club Chairman, Clayton I. Bennett. Presti stands as the third-most tenured head of basketball operations in the NBA. Presti and Bennett also represent the second-longest pairing for a Governor of an NBA team and head of basketball operations.

Throughout the Thunder's time in Oklahoma City, the organization has been known as one of the premier franchises in the NBA for player development. As a result, both Thunder teams and individuals have set historic marks for accomplishment at very young ages. This past season, the Thunder became the youngest team in NBA history to win 55 games and claim the No. 1 seed in either conference. The Thunder achieved a 17-win improvement in 2023-2024 and during the 2022-23 season, Presti oversaw a 16-win improvement, making the Thunder one of just four teams in NBA history to see that level of improvement in consecutive seasons. The 2023-24 Thunder also set an NBA record by becoming the youngest team to win 50 games and clinch a playoff berth, records that were previously set by the Thunder in 2010. Additionally, the Thunder is currently tied for the NBA lead with eight seasons of a 50-plus win equivalent over the past 15 seasons.

Since the NBA/ABA merger in 1976, the Thunder enjoyed the most successful first 15 seasons of any expansion or relocation team. The Thunder ranks first in wins per season, winning percentage, net rating, playoff series wins, Division titles, Conference Finals Appearances and tied for 1st in NBA Finals appearances, compared to the other 17 expansion or relocation teams. Additionally, the Thunder ranks first with four First Team All-NBA players (nine total First Team All-NBA selections) when compared across the same timeline to those other 17 teams. Presti is the only current NBA General Manager to draft four All-NBA players.

Presti led the Thunder to the second-best record in the NBA for more than a decade (2009-2020), and the seventh best wining percentage in all of the four major North American professional sports, creating an unprecedented period of sustained success in June of the smallest markets in the NBA. After acquiring six-time All-Star Paul George in a landmark trade from the Indiana Pacers in June of 2017, George then signed a multi-year deal with the Thunder in the summer of 2018. This occurred the year after Oklahoma City signed Russell Westbrook to his third multi-year contract extension in September of 2017. Following the 2018-19 season, Presti began repositioning and replenishing the franchise with a series of moves, acquiring Chris Paul, Shai Gilgeous-Alexander, Danilo Gal-linari, eight first round draft picks and four pick swaps in separate deals involving Paul George, Russell Westbrook and Jerami Grant. In the George deal alone, the Thunder again made the playoffs in 2020, earning the fifth seed in the Western Conference as Presti finished second in Executive of the Year voting.

Before the start of the 2020-2021 season, in order to continue to reposition the franchise, Presti and the Thunder executed 11 trades with 15 different teams, marking the most activity for a team in a single offseason since the advent of the NBA Draft Lottery in 1985. Currently, Presti and the Thunder have amassed a total of 13 first-round and 16 second-round picks to accompany first round pick swaps through the 2031 NBA Draft.

Throughout his time leading the Thunder's basketball operations efforts, Presti and his staff have enjoyed incredible success with respect to the NBA Draft, beginning with the 2007 selection of Kevin Durant with the second overall pick. Presti went on to draft Russell Westbrook and Serge Ibaka in 2008 with the fourth and 24th selections, before taking James Harden with the third overall pick in 2009. The selections of Durant, Westbrook and Harden marked the only time in NBA history where future MVPs were selected by the same GM in three consecutive drafts.

More recently, Chet Holmgren (2023-24) and Jalen Williams (2022-23) both finished second in rookie of the year voting after they were selected 2nd and 12th, respectively in the 2022 NBA Draft. Cason Wallace also emerged as a strong rotation player during his rookie year this past season after being selected 10th overall in the 2023 NBA Draft.

During Presti's tenure, the Thunder front office have either drafted or traded for 12 All-Stars (K. Durant, R. Westbrook, J. Harden, V. Oladipo, D. Sabonis, P. George, C. Anthony, C. Paul, A. Horford, Gilgeous-Alexander and G. Hayward). Since 2008, the Thunder leads the NBA with 16 First Team or Second Team All-NBA appearances.

With Presti at the helm, the Thunder advanced to the postseason five straight years (2010-14) and at the conclusion 2012-13 season, Oklahoma City became just the second team in NBA history (Boston Celtics; 1955-60) to increase its winning percentage for five consecutive seasons while maintaining a winning percentage of .700 or better in two of those seasons.

During the 2009-10 season, Oklahoma City experienced one of the largest turnarounds in NBA history. A year after winning 23 games, the Thunder concluded the 2009-10 season with a 50-32 record (.610) and captured the franchise's first playoff berth in Oklahoma City. The 27-win improvement was tied for the eighth-largest improvement in NBA history. Presti was named NBA Executive of the Year by Sporting News at the conclusion of the season.

As player development has been a signature of the Thunder organization, so has leadership development. Since 2010, the Thunder have produced the most front office members to become general managers as Rich Cho, Will Dawkins, Rob Hennigan, Michael Winger and Troy Weaver were all hired from the Thunder into that respective role.

During his tenure in OKC, Presti has hired three head coaches. The Thunder is the only team in NBA history to have three consecutive coaches named Coach of the Year (Scott Brooks – 2011; Billy Donovan – 2020 and Mark Daigneault - 2024).

Prest has also devoted time serving on several NBA committees. At the request of former NBA Commissioner David Stern and then Deputy Commissioner Adam Silver, Presti was named to the league's first-ever Competition Committee in May of 2012 (2012-2018). During his term, Presti was a part of the committee that enacted several rule changes, such as concussion protocol, a package of rules to increase game flow, player rest policies, anti-flopping rules, deliberate away-from-the-play fouls, modifications to playoff seeding, qualification and tie-breakers, and adjustments to the NBA Finals scheduling format.

Additionally, Presti was asked to serve on the NBA's Instant Replay Committee in 2009, which helped to lay the groundwork for rules changes that the Competition Committee would later make regarding instant replay expansion and the expanded use of the replay center. He has also been a part of the General Manager Sub-Committee which was designed to help identify opportunities to enhance the future of the NBA.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Presti held a variety of roles with the San Antonio Spurs. After starting in 2000 as a video intern for Gregg Popovich, Presti moved up through the front office ranks under the leadership of R.C. Buford before being elevated to the position of Vice President and Assistant General Manager. As a member of the Spurs, Presti was part of NBA Championship teams in 2003, 2005 and 2007, as well as five division titles.

Community involvement and giving back has been a pillar of the Thunder organization since moving to Oklahoma City in 2008. Presti has led community involvement initiatives for both Thunder players and staff. Under his leadership, Thunder players have made more than 2,850 community appearances in and around Oklahoma City. Presti understands how the Oklahoma City National Memorial and Museum is part of the fabric of the community and has made it policy for every new player and staff member to tour the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum soon after joining the organization.

Philanthropy has been a lifelong passion and commitment of Presti and his family as well. Presti was elected as a member of the Executive Committee at the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum after previously serving on the Board of Trustees. While on the Board, Presti helped lead the Memorial's Oklahoma Standard campaign, a movement built on the foundation of resilience, compassion, consistent acts of honor, service and kindness.

Presti has also created and launched several transformational initiatives. In July of 2020, Presti and his high school teammate, friend and CAA Sports executive Mike Johnson, launched the Thunder Fellows Program, a partnership between the Thunder and CAA Sports intended to unlock new opportunities in sports, technology and entertainment for Black students in the Tulsa area. Located in the Historic Greenwood District of Tulsa, the curriculum offered through the Thunder Fellows Program, focuses on increasing the odds of high school and college completion through mentorship, skill development, and the provision of practical experience. Students are exposed to a variety of disciplines within Thunder basketball operations, where they work on real-world projects for the organization.

The Presti family became significant benefactors to the Children's Hospital at OU Medicine in 2019, as their contributions provided renovations and upgrades to two procedure rooms at the Jimmy Everest Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders for Children and the Bone Marrow Transplant Unit at The Children's Hospital. The Presti's philanthropy also helped create the "Presti Clubhouse," a nurturing and interactive space for children and their parents.

In recent years, Presti has led a fundraising initiative to establish a scholarship in honor of Professor Mike Brown at his alma mater, Emerson College. Professor Brown taught courses on government, civil rights and the First Amendment. The scholarship will support incoming students from historically underserved and underrepresented backgrounds with financial need.

Also, Presti established the Keenan Smith-Anthony Halls Scholarship Fund at his former high school, Concord-Carlisle. The scholarship is named after two high school basketball teammates and close friends of Presti's, Anthony Halls and Keenan Smith, who were participants in the METCO program at Presti's high school. The scholarship recognizes Concord-Carlisle High School METCO graduating seniors who: possess good academic and attendance records and who have demonstrated a strong athletic performance.

Presti has impacted the lives of over 550 students through his Forward Thinking Leadership Development Program. Created in 2011, in partnership with several local organizations, the program aims to help the next generation of youth in the surrounding community and it's currently being taught to the Thunder Fellos students in Tulsa, Okla. Presti has also incorporated UPenn and their standard bearing resilience and optimism training for the students as part of his Forward Thinking program.

Through the years, Presti has been involved with PeacePlayers International (PPI), a global outreach program focused on bringing children and communities together through the game of basketball. In 2018, Presti brought PPI together with the Oklahoma City Police Athletic League and made a significant donation to help the two parties collaborate and develop programs to foster positive relations with youth and law enforcement.

In the spring of 2024, Presti received the Lee Allan Smith Legacy Award from the Oklahoma Hall of Fame. This award is presented annually to someone in the community who is impacts future generations through their civic engagement and volunteer efforts.

During September of 2021, Oklahoma City University announced the induction of Presti into the Oklahoma Commerce and Industry Hall of Honor which recognizes business and community leaders who have made significant contributions to the growth and development of Oklahoma.

In 2016, Presti was awarded the Humanitarian Award from the Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice thanks to his work in the area of diversity and inclusion in the workplace. He was named 2016 Oklahoman of the Year by Oklahoma Magazine. Presti was recognized as Oklahoma City University's 2012-13 recipient of the Abe Lemons/Paul Hansen Award for Sports Excellence and he also won the Oklahoma March of Dimes Sports Headliner Special Award for 2013.

Presti earned his bachelor's degree in 2000 in communications, politics and law with a minor in psychology from Emerson College in Boston, where he was the first Rhodes Scholar nominee in school history. The Concord, Mass. native served as team captain of the Emerson College basketball team during both his junior and senior seasons. In addition, Presti earned All-Academic honors two times and was twice selected to the Great Northeast Athletic Conference All-Tournament team.

He was honored with the Emerson College Young Alumnus Award in 2005. Presti has also completed Harvard University's Continuing Education program on leadership and decision-making.

A skilled drummer, Presti has produced three music CDs with all proceeds benefiting the Extra Ordinary Needs Fund at Children's Hospital in Boston.

MARK DAIGNEAULT HEAD COACH

Mark Daigneault (DAYG-nalt) was named head coach of the Oklahoma City Thunder on Nov. 11, 2020. He is the fourth head coach in Thunder history and is the first person to become an NBA team's head coach after previously being the club's G League head coach. He is the fourth-youngest active head coach in the NBA.

Daigneault was named 2024 NBA Coach of the Year and the 2024 Michael H. Goldberg NBCA Coach of the Year after leading the Thunder to a first-place finish in the Western Conference with a 57-25 record. With Daigneault at the helm, Oklahoma City became the youngest team in NBA history to clinch a No. 1 seed in the conference and win over 55 games. OKC was one of two teams in the 23-24 season to finish top five in both offensive (118.3, 3rd) and defensive rating (111.0, 4th). The Thunder became just the 14th team in NBA history to finish top-three in field goal percentage (49.9), 3-point percentage (38.9) and free throw percentage (82.5). On the defensive end, Oklahoma City ranked tied for the NBA lead with the most blocked shots (6.56) and steals (8.46). RUMBLE'S STORY:

This tale has been told around campfires for hundreds of years. A great herd of American bison was lost in the Arbuckle Mountains during a ferocious storm - the kind only Oklahoma can produce. Hail fell and tornadoes spun all around the herd as they stampeded, trying to find their way down to the safety of the plains. One lone bison stayed behind as he helped each of his friends escape down a treacherous ravine. Once all of his friends were safe. he began his descent only to find his way blocked by fallen boulders. Lost, he climbed to the tallest peak; left to face the storm alone and searching for a way down the mountain, he was struck by a bolt of lightning. The bolt did not destroy him, but, by the power of the god of thunder, changed him. Suddenly, he walked on two legs like a man. He possessed amazing strength and agility - he could jump higher, run faster, think more clearly than any beast. But because he was no longer just a bison - and yet not a man - he was alone. With many sightings, the legend grew through the years, of a mighty bison, with remarkable powers, roaming the hills alone. Not until a group of men who carried similar powers came to Oklahoma City did he find somewhere he belonged. These men also possessed the power to jump higher, run faster, and perform acrobatic dunks more spectacular than anyone in the land. They too carried the roar of Thunder every time they took to the court. So, he joined their team, and the new legend of Rumble was born.

An NBA executive entering his 27th season, Danny Barth has served in his current position of Executive Vice President Chief Administrative Officer, in addition to NBA Alternate Governor of the Oklahoma City Thunder since the team's inaugural season in 2008. In his executive role, he oversees all aspects of the team's business operations, driving its emphasis on building community partnerships and creating a first-class fan experience, ensuring that every visit to Paycom Center is memorable and enjoyable.

After overseeing the franchise's business operations move from Seattle to Oklahoma City, Barth shifted his focus to the team's growth and development, including managing the remodel of the club's Oklahoma City arena to meet not only NBA requirements but also to provide a strong fan-focused environment. The facility upgrades included new hospitality areas.

Under Barth's leadership, the Thunder has come to be regarded throughout the industry as a leader in the sports business and a model for best practices. The Thunder consistently leads the way in the NBA's Net Promoter Score and overall game experience, ranking as either first or second in the league's survey for each of the past eight seasons. In addition to enhancing the fan experience under Barth's direction, the club's brand has expanded both locally and nationally, with the Oklahoma City Thunder being recognized in the past by ESPN The Magazine in its Ultimate Standings as the No. 1 professional sports franchise in North America and was awarded Sports Team of the Year by the Sports Business Awards, presented by the Sports Business Journal. The national Make-A-Wish Foundation has honored the team with a Chris Greicius Celebrity Award, and Leadership Oklahoma has recognized the team with its Statewide Community Leadership Award.

More recently, Barth has been an integral part of overseeing the negotiations for the team's new downtown Arena Development Agreement and the club's new lease agreement with the City of Oklahoma. ### 2024 NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE/ATTENDANCE

Eight teams from each conference qualify for the NBA Playoffs. The three division winners and the team with the next-best record from each conference will receive the top four seeds and will be ranked Nos. 1-4 according to their guidar-season records. The remaining four teams in each conference will be seeded 5-8 according to their won-lost records. The Play-In Tournament will determine the teams that will fill the seventh and eighth playoff sects in each conference.

The Play-In Tournament, which will take place after the regular season and before the first round of the playoffs, will include the teams with the seventh-highest through the tenth-highest winning percentages in each conference. In each round of the playoffs, the team with the better regular-season wor-lost record gets the home-court advantage. All rounds of the playoffs are a best-of-seven series. Each best-of-seven series will play 2-2-1-11 format.

THUNDER ON POWERED BY Health

The Oklahoma City Thunder began calling the Thunder ION home just prior to the start of the 2011-12 season. The 53,000 square foot state-of-the-art practice facility features two full-sized basketball courts, a 27-seat team classroom and a hydrotherapy area which was designed to benefit the Thunder's medical and training staff in the prevention and rehabilitation of injuries.

Funding for the construction of the practice facility and renovations to Paycom Center comes from a one-cent sales tax approved by Oklahoma City voters on March 4, 2008. The 15-month tax took effect on January 1, 2009 and ran through March 31, 2010. As part of the lease agreement, the Thunder will make an annual rent payment to the City of Oklahoma City.

During the groundbreaking ceremony in August of 2009, Oklahoma City Mayor Mick Cornett commented, "Having the Thunder in Oklahoma City has been a tremendous sense of pride for our community. When the citizens of Oklahoma City passed the Big League City initiative to renovate the city's downtown arena and build an NBA-leading practice facility, we all looked forward to this day."
