NEWS AND NOTES

RIVERHOUNDS SC EARN HISTORIC OPEN CUP TRIUMPH

Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC recorded its first victory against a club from Major League Soccer in 22 years on Tuesday night as the side defeated the New England Revolution 1-0 in the Round of 32 at Gillette Stadium. The win was only the second for the Hounds against a top-flight opponent in club history, with Pittsburgh having previously defeated the Colorado Rapids in the 2001 edition of the tournament on the way to reaching the Quarterfinals.

New England has now been eliminated by four different current and former USL Championship clubs since 2012, with the Harrisburg City Islanders (2012), Charlotte Independence (2015) and Louisville City FC (2018) also having accomplished the feat.

The victory also marked Head Coach Bob Lilley's first coaching victory against an MLS side since his Rochester Rhinos side defeated defending Open Cup title holder D.C. United in 2014. It also marked the first time a Lilley-coached side had won on the road against an MLS opponent in the Open Cup, with his prior two Cupsets coming on home turf.

CHAMPIONSHIP, LEAGUE ONE HELPED BUILD UNITED STATES U-20S SQUAD

The United States U-20 Men's National Team squad for the FIFA Men's U-20 World Cup in Argentina was announced on Wednesday with 14 players who have competed in the USL Championship or League One named in the squad by Head Coach Mikey Varas. Leading the group is current Louisville City FC star Joshua Wynder, who last year was nominated for the USL Championship's Young Player of the Year award and U.S. Soccer's Young Male Player of the Year award.

The group includes three players who have been nominated for the USL Championship's Young Player of the Year award in previous seasons, with Wynder's 2022 having been preceded by former LouCity teammate Jonathan Gomez and former El Paso Locomotive FC star Diego Luna in earning nomination in 2021 when Gomez claimed the award. From League One's ranks, meanwhile, Justin Che was nominated for both Defender of the Year and Young Player of the Year in 2020 for North Texas SC.

Overall, the 14 players have combined to make 342 regular season and playoff appearances in the Championship and League One and logged more than 23,500 minutes of playing time across the two leagues.

LEGION FC'S MARTINEZ CONTINUES HOT STREAK

Birmingham Legion FC's Enzo Martinez is the hottest player in the USL Championship at present with five goals in his past four appearances. The run has matched his previous best of goals in four consecutive regular season appearances – previously achieved last year in Birmingham – and has pushed the veteran playmaker into eighth place in the Championship's all-time regular season goalscoring list with 64 tallies to his credit.

Martinez is also now third in the Championship's all-time list of the most combined goals and assists in the regular season with 104. That places him three behind former Charlotte Independence teammate Jorge Herrera in second place, having surpassed Hadji Barry and Corey Hertzog over the past week.

CHAMPIONSHIP CLUBS FEELING AT HOME ON THE ROAD

If it's felt like visiting teams have been having more than their normal share of success this season, you're not mistaken. Going into this weekend's games, with 102 regular season contests completed, visiting teams have posted a record of 33W-34L-35D so far this campaign, a winning percentage of 32.3 percent overall with sides earning at least a draw 66.7 percent of the time.

Leading the way are the Charleston Battery and El Paso Locomotive FC FC, both of whom are 3-0-1 so far this season on the road. Five clubs overall are yet to lose a road contest – Memphis 901 FC (2-0-1), Monterey Bay F.C. (1-0-2) and Sacramento Republic FC (1-0-2).

The road winning percentage isn't far off that of a season ago, where USL Championship clubs won 32 percent of the time away from home in the regular season. However, we are already more than one-third of the way to the total number of away draws earned (35) compared to last season (98), when the overall success rate of visiting teams in earning a result sat at 53.4 percent.
