LOUCITY LAYS GOOSE EGG IN TAMPA BAY

Louisville City FC became the 10th team to fail to record an official shot on goal in a game in the USL Championship this season on Sunday night against the Tampa Bay Rowdies, with the side recording only five shots officially in the contest at Al Lang Stadium. It marked the first time since the USL Championship partnered with Opta prior to the 2017 season that LouCity had failed to register a shot on target across the regular season and playoffs in a game, with the club's five shots tying for the second-fewest in a game in that span after a three-shot outing – all of which were on target – against Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC on September 15, 2018.

The Rowdies, meanwhile, became the second team this season to hold two separate opponents without an official shot on target, joining El Paso Locomotive FC. Tampa Bay had previously held Atlanta United 2 without an official shot on goal during their meeting on March 23 at Fifth Third Bank Stadium.
