Through 16 games, Roots SC is almost halfway to the USL Championship season-high for late-game goals since records became available in 2017. That mark of 26 goals is currently held by Orange County SC in the 2018, in which OCSC finished first in the Western Conference standings.

The 18-year-old – who alongside former Louisville City FC standout and 2021 USL Championship Young Player of the Year Jonathan Gomez became the first active Championship player called up to a senior United States Men's National Team camp last December – joined Ligue 1's Stade de Reims for a reported USL-record transfer fee.

INDY ELEVEN DUO COME THROUGH FOR SOCA WARRIORS

The recent international break saw a pair of Indy Eleven players feature prominently as Trinidad and Tobago remained in contention for an automatic berth at the 2023 Concacaf Gold Cup and promotion to Concacaf Nations League A for the next edition of the tournament. Neveal Hackshaw and Noah Powder each recorded a pair of goals in three victories for the Soca Warriors, with Hackshaw scoring the only goal off a corner kick by Powder against the Bahamas on June 6 before recording the opening goal in the side's 2-0 win against St. Vincent and the Grenadines on June 10 for his first two goals at the international level.

Powder, meanwhile, scored twice as Trinidad and Tobago downed St. Vincent and the Grenadines in the second game of their home-and-home series in Group C on Monday night. The Soca Warriors are now a point behind Nicaragua for first place in the group with the teams set to meet in Port of Spain next March 27 where an automatic berth in the Concacaf Gold Cup will likely be at stake.

UNITED STATES U-20S FEATURE TOP USL CHAMPIONSHIP ALUMNI

The United States U-20 Men's National Team will open the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Championship on Saturday in Honduras with the largest contingent of USL Championship and League One alumni in its ranks in the league's history. In the prior cycle in 2019, 12 players with USL Championship experience were named to the final FIFA U-20 World Cup squad, including players such as Mark McKenzie who have since gone on to become senior internationals.
