FAST FACTS

Detroit City FC has scored more than one goal in consecutive matches for the first time since September of 2022, this 2-0-0 start is the first time they've scored more than once in consecutive wins since April 2022.

Le Rouge's 2-1 win over Loudoun United was the first match they've won when trailing at halftime since doing so on 4/24/2022 against Hartford Athletic (15 games without a win).

Since beating Indy Eleven 1-0 in their first ever competitive matchup in 2022, Le Rouge is winless in three against their Eastern Conference foes, failing to score in all three matches since Connor Rutz's matchwinner on 7/9/2022 in Indianapolis.

DETROIT CITY FC

DANNY DICHIO
HEAD COACH
(Dee-Key-Oh)

2024 is Danny Dichio's first as head coach of Detroit City Football Club after two seasons as an assistant coach for Sacramento Republic FC of the USL Championship's Western Conference under Mark Briggs.

Before his time in Sacramento, Dichio spent over a decade coaching in the Toronto FC youth system, the same club he retired as a player at after coming from overseas to play for the side in their inaugural season in Major League Soccer in 2007. Dichio is an adored figure in Toronto FC fan circles as he scored the club's first ever goal in MLS.

Dichio, born in Notting Hill, London, England, has over 400 professional appearances under his belt, most of which coming in the Premier League and Football Championship in England. He began his playing career as a forward after coming through the ranks at his local club, Queens Park Rangers and would go on to have stints at Sunderland, West Bromwich Albion, Millwall, Preston North End. He also played for two Italian clubs, Sampdoria and Lecce.

Dichio is the fourth head coach in Detroit City FC history after Kylie Stannard, Ben Pirmann and Trevor James. In late 2023, it was announced that Trevor James would become the club's first ever Sporting Director.
