TECHNICAL & MEDICAL STAFF

HEAD COACH ANTONIO NOCERINO

Nocerino is uniquely qualified to achieve on-field success for Miami FC. As a Juventus youth academy product, the Naples, Italy native will bring extensive credibility to the Miami community. Coaching previously at Orlando City's Development Academy and Potenza Calcio in Italy where he showed significant growth and improvements in the squad, his experience as player, coach and mentor will assist in a successful transition into the head coach role.

Nocerino, who holds a UEFA Pro coaching license, has an extensive professional career as a player, including over 350 professional appearances since 2003 for global clubs such as 36-time Italian Serie-A champions Juventus, 19-time Serie-A Champions AC Milan, and 55 appearances with Orlando City in the MLS. His resilient work ethic resulted in earning Serie-A Team of the Year for his stellar performance during the 2011-12 season during his time at AC Milan. He was also an important member of their Champions League run to the Quarterfinals where they faced Barcelona.

Nocerino also holds the honor of representing Italy as a member of the National Team. The energetic and technical midfielder earned 15 caps for the Italian National Team including the 2012 Italian UEFA European Championship side that finished as runner-up against Spain.
