PROCTOR, KNUEPPEL CARRY DUKE PAST LOUISVILLE FOR 2ND ACC TITLE IN 3 YEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) -- Tyrese Proctor entered Saturday night's 2025 T. Rowe Price ACC Men's Basketball Tournament championship game 0-for-10 from beyond the 3-point arc in his previous two tournament games.

That didn't keep him from letting it fly.

Proctor made six 3-pointers and scored 19 points, while tournament MVP Kon Knueppel added 18 points and No. 1 Duke defeated 13th-ranked Louisville 73-62 to clinch its second ACC championship in three seasons under Jon Scheyer.

It was Duke's 23rd ACC title overall — the most of any team in conference history — and five more than rival North Carolina, who the Blue Devils knocked off 74-71 in a semifinal thriller on Friday, March 15. The Blue Devils also won the ACC regular-season title.

Sion James added 15 points for Duke (31-3), which played its final two tournament games without 2025 ACC Player and Rookie of the Year Cooper Flagg and Maliq Brown due to injuries.

Terrence Edwards Jr. scored 29 points on five 3-pointers for Louisville (27-7), which was playing in its first ACC championship game since joining the league in 2014. The Cardinals went 18-2 in conference play during the regular season under first-year head coach Pat Kelsey after going 5-37 vs. ACC foes in the previous two seasons.

Kelsey praised his team for "leaving everything on the floor" over the past three days.

"In the last three months this team has lost twice," Kelsey said. "So I feel strongly in my heart that the best is yet to come. ... We are excited to find out (during selection Sunday) where we are going and who are playing."

Added Edwards: "We are far from done."

There were nine lead changes, and neither team led by more than five before Duke broke the game open with a 12-0 run midway through the second half behind a 3 from Proctor in transition to build a 57-47 lead.
