

CLEVELAND CITY STARS ANNOUNCE THEIR FIRST PRO TEAM TRYOUTS

The Cleveland City Stars are proud to announce their first open tryouts for the 2007 season! Come and be part of history with this new professional outdoor soccer team. Tryouts will be held in different locations throughout the United States within the next couple of months. Head Coach Martin Rennie, Executive Director Aaron Tredway and additional staff will all be available to evaluate players during the training sessions.

General Manager, Mark Geissbauer said, "This is a great opportunity for local & nationwide players to get exposure and receive the opportunity to fulfill their dreams. We are really looking forward to seeing Ohio's and America's finest soccer players come and try out."

"In addition to our nationwide scouting system, these open tryouts will be a great opportunity for players. We also promise to take at least a couple of players from these tryouts. So, if you are a player and have what it takes, come and show us your best effort." added the CCS Head Coach, Martin Rennie.
