PROGRESS IN STORE FOR 2024

Founded in 1913, U.S. Soccer is the non-for-profit, governing body of soccer in the United States and has helped chart the course for the game for more than 100 years. Now in its second millennium, the Federation is driven by the singular mission of making soccer the preeminent sport in the United States.

We are embarking on the most exciting era in the history of American soccer. Together, we have an extraordinary opportunity to inspire and impact millions of players, coaches, referees and fans of all ages. To guide this important work, U.S. Soccer has outlined a strategy built around five ambitious pillars that will be imperative to our success moving forward:

- Grow the game.
- Foster the best playing environments.
- Develop winning teams.
- Grow the soccer economy to fuel reinvestment.
- Create a world-class organization.

For the U.S. Men's National Team, the upcoming year represents a massive opportunity to build on the achievements of the previous cycle and continue to grow the young and talented group that is poised to peak at the 2026 FIFA World Cup in the United States.

Gregg Berhalter returns as head coach of the USMNT. A two-time FIFA World Cup veteran as a player, Berhalter returns to the position after amassing an impressive record of 37-11-12 in 60 matches during four years as head coach in which the U.S. team won two confederation titles and advanced to the Round of 16 of the 2022 FIFA World Cup while recording multiple shutouts in the tournament for the first time since 1930, all while utilizing the youngest pool of players in team history. Of the 32 finalists in the 2022 World Cup, the USA's lineup averaged four years younger than any other participant. In addition, 29 of the 38 players who saw minutes for the USA during qualifying campaign were participating for the first time. He is the first USMNT head coach to have played for the USA at a FIFA World Cup.

One of the main priorities is taking advantage of two huge official competitions. In a World Cup, there are two 'tournaments': the group phase and the knockout phase. One must first succeed in the group to earn the right to reach the knockout phase, where success is determined by your ability to perform and defeat the best teams in the world. Fortunately for the USMNT, this summer offers the opportunity to experience both.

First on the docket is the annual January Camp, a primarily MLS-based roster where diamonds in the rough are discovered and polished. Since 1999, 30 players who either debuted or earned their second cap during the team's first camp of a calendar year have gone on to make at least one FIFA World Cup roster. Of those, 17 players made the World Cup squad for that particular cycle, with at least one player doing so in each of the five FIFA World Cups the USMNT has participated in since 2002.

And of the 26 players that were part of the USA squad at the recently concluded World Cup in Qatar, nine players earned either their first or second cap during a January camp match, among them Brenden Aaronson, Tyler Adams, Tim Ream, Matt Turner and Walker Zimmerman.

From there, the U.S. has a chance to continue the streak of being the only team to hold the Concacaf Nations League title. Having won the inaugural event in 2021 in thrilling fashion with a 3-2 extra victory against Mexico, the USMNT retained the crown last year with successive shutout wins against Mexico and Canada in the semifinal and final. After defeating Trinidad & Tobago in the two-game aggregate scoring quarterfinal, the USA heads to the Nations League Final Four and will face Jamaica in one semifinal while Mexico takes on Panama on March 21 at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. The winners will square off for the championship on March 24 in the same venue.

From there it's on to the oldest international championship in the world, the prestigious Copa America. Contested for more than 100 years and longer than the World Cup itself, the Copa America will feature some of the world's best teams and players. Concacaf and CONMEBOL have partnered to host the competition outside of South America for only the second time in tournament history, having previously held the hugely successful 2016 Copa America Centenario in the United States. The tournament will feature six teams from Concacaf and all 10 teams from CONMEBOL. Led by World Player of the Year Lionel Messi, Argentina seeks to defend its 2021 title.

The United States is one of six guest teams in the CONMEBOL confederation championship. No invitee from outside South America has ever won the tournament. Since 2011, only two of 12 have even reached the knockout rounds, with the USA and Mexico both advancing at the 2016 Copa America Centenario.

The USMNT opens group play against Bolivia on Sunday, June 23 at AT&T Stadium in Dallas, then faces Panama on Thursday, June 27 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta and concludes on Monday, July 1 against Uruguay at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City. The tournament will open at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta on Thursday, June 20, when 2022 FIFA World Cup champion Argentina meets the winner of the Canada-Trinidad and Tobago play-in match.

September and October will provide opportunities for the U.S. to face challenging international competition with different styles from around the world, while November begins the USA's participation in the next edition of the Nations League.

For the first time since 2008, the U.S. men will participate in the Summer Olympic Games. The Men's Olympic Soccer Tournament is restricted to players under the age of 23, with an allowance for three overage players. Players born on or after Jan. 1, 2001 are age-eligible for the 2024 Olympics.

The U.S. qualified for the 2024 Olympics with a dominant performance at the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Championship in Honduras, defeating the host nation 3-0 in the tournament semifinals to secure its Olympic berth. Forward Paxten Aaronson netted the game's opening goal and took home the Golden Ball as the competition's best player and Golden Boot as top scorer.

The Olympic Men's Soccer Team serves as an important part of the Federation's mission to develop winning teams as it will provide some of the nation's top young talent the opportunity to face elite opposition on the world stage next summer.

Matt CROCKER

SPORTING DIRECTOR: U.S. Soccer Federation

Matt Crocker was named as the Sporting Director for the U.S. Soccer Federation on April 25, 2023.

In the first six months of his tenure he oversaw the comprehensive global search for the head coaching positions of both the Men's and Women's senior national teams, utilizing a cutting-edge approach and collaborate process to complete the hirings.

Crocker, who oversees U.S. Soccer's entire Sporting Department and all technical aspects for the Federation, brought 25 years of experience in player development and coaching with proven success at the club, youth and senior international levels.

Crocker, 48, came to U.S. Soccer from his second stint at famed English club Southampton, where he was Director of Football Operations, but before that had a successful run as Head of Development Teams for the England Football Association from 2013-2020.

Crocker's leadership at the English FA coincided with the resurgence of their Youth National Teams. He helped design and implement organizational and development blueprints for both the men and women from the Under-15 girls' and boys' up through the full Men's and Women's National Teams. During his time as the Strategic & Cultural Lead, which included National Teams and Coach Education, England captured both the 2017 FIFA Under-17 and Under-20 World Cup titles. Two years later, England won the UEFA European Under-19 Championship.

Crocker worked closely with the Men's and Women's senior teams with England as part of the FA's Soccer leadership team alongside Gareth Southgate and Mark Sampson. The leadership team led the implementation of the England DNA and strategic plan for success.

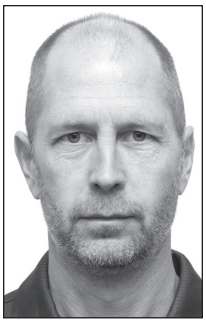

His most recent role at Southampton focused on the men's, women's and academy programs. The club has maintained its position in the Premier League for the last 10 years, making it the eighth longest-serving Premier League club on one of the smallest budgets in the league. Their program is renowned for innovation and player development. He also played an important role in the development and success of Southampton FC Women, converting the program from part-time to a fully professional team that has risen from the FA National League to the Women's Championship in recent years. Under his guidance, Southampton became one of a handful of clubs where the men and women utilize the same training facility and match stadium. In December of 2022, he announced his departure from Southampton at the end of the 2022-2023 season.

During his initial tenure at Southampton from 2006-2013 he served as Academy Director and oversaw the development of future international stars like Gareth Bale, Alex Oxlade-Chamberlain, Luke Shaw and James Ward-Prowse. Crocker was fundamental in creating and implementing the 'SFC Playbook', a technical blueprint detailing the playing and training philosophy to support player development through the academy and into the First Team.

Early in his career, from 1999-2005, Crocker was the Academy Director at his hometown club, Cardiff City FC, where he created the academy program, before taking a job as Youth Development Monitor for the English Football League, which governs the three divisions below the English Premier League.

Crocked did his university education at Cardiff Metropolitan University which he earned a degree in Sports Coaching and Physical Education.

Gregg BERHALTER

HEAD COACH: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: Aug. 1, 1973
HOMETOWN: Tenafly, N.J.

On June 16, 2023, the U.S. Soccer Federation appointed Gregg Berhalter to lead the U.S. Men's National Team to the 2026 FIFA World Cup that will be hosted in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

After spending the summer conducting a comprehensive evaluation of the program along with U.S. Soccer Sporting Director Matt Crocker, Berhalter led the USMNT to advancement to the Concacaf Nations League Final Four. Having won the only two previous editions of the tournament during Berhalter's first tenure, the team has the opportunity to win a third-consecutive title. In addition, the MNT qualified for the prestigious Copa America to be held in the United States in June and July. With the 4-0 victory against Ghana on Oct. 17, 2023, Berhalter became the faster USMNT manager to amass 40 wins. By year's end, Berhalter moved into second all-time among USMNT head coaches in terms of caps awarded to players 23 and younger with 482 in 64 matches. He also improved to 41-12-12 in 65 matches as head coach.

A two-time FIFA World Cup veteran as a player, Berhalter returns to the position after amassing an impressive record of 37-11-12 in 60 matches during his first four years as head coach in which the U.S. team won two confederation titles and advanced to the Round of 16 of the 2022 FIFA World Cup while recording multiple shutouts in the tournament for the first time since 1930, all while utilizing the youngest pool of players in team history. He is the first MNT head coach to have played for the USA at a FIFA World Cup.

Initially hired in December of 2018, the first two years of work were a prelude to arguably the most successful year in USMNT history, as the team collected back-to-back championship titles in 2021. Deploying almost two entirely different rosters, the U.S. defeated regional rival Mexico in the inaugural Concacaf Nations League championship in June and then again in the Concacaf Gold Cup final the following the month. By year's end, the team had amassed a record-setting 17 victories, while Berhalter became the fastest coach in U.S. history to collect 30 wins at the helm.

Utilizing the youngest team in the world during World Cup Qualifying, the team advanced through the grueling 14-match Octagonal and qualified for its eighth World Cup since 1990. Of the 32 finalists in the 2022 World Cup, the USA's lineup averaged four years younger than the other 31 participants. In addition, a total of 29 of the 38 players the USA deployed during qualifying were participating for the first time.

During his first year on the job in 2019, Berhalter worked to develop a new style of play with a young group, leading the side to an 11-5-2 record, and becoming the second-fastest manager in team history to achieve double-digit victories (17 games). That summer, Berhalter guided the USMNT to the 2019 Concacaf Gold Cup Final, advancement to the 2019-20 Concacaf Nations League Final Round in June, as well as 1-1 draws against reigning Copa America champion Chile (March 26) and No. 5-ranked Uruguay (Sept. 10).

An intelligent and competitive anchor in central defense as a player, Berhalter spent 18 professional seasons in the Netherlands, England, Germany and the United States before serving seven years as a coach in Sweden and Major League Soccer. Capped 44 times, Berhalter represented the United States at two FIFA World Cups and was a notable part of the 2002 team that advanced to the Quarterfinals in Korea/Japan. A natural leader, Berhalter is one of only a few Americans who have captained multiple teams in Europe, earning that honor for two different clubs in Germany. He is the first MNT head coach to have played for the USA at a FIFA World Cup.

Showing a keen interest in coaching, Berhalter began in the sport's technical side during the late stages of his playing career. While with German club 1860 Munich, the defender scouted opponents from 2007-2009. He transitioned into the coaching ranks during his final season as a professional, serving as a player/assistant coach for the LA Galaxy in 2011, helping the club to the MLS Cup and Supporters Shield in the process.

Immediately after his retirement in 2011, Berhalter moved into the management ranks full time, taking the top job with Swedish club Hammarby that December. The move was unique in that Berhalter became one of the first Americans to begin his management career with a foreign club. During two seasons, the club played to an 18-11-17 record and finished within one spot of promotion to the Swedish top-flight in 2012.

In late 2013, Berhalter returned stateside to take the reins as sporting director and head coach of Columbus Crew SC. Overseeing all facets of the club's soccer operations, Berhalter led Crew SC to postseason appearances in four of his five years in charge, all while working with a salary budget that consistently ranked in the bottom half of Major League Soccer. Most significantly, Berhalter guided Columbus to the 2015 MLS Cup Final and nearly returned the club to the league's title game two years later, falling 1-0 to eventual champions Toronto FC in the 2017 Eastern Conference Final.

Collecting 44 caps during an international career that spanned 12 years, Berhalter earned his first appearance in 1994 and went on to play a part of MNT squads at six major tournaments, including the 2002 and 2006 FIFA World Cups. A fiery competitor and vocal leader, the center back played in both of the USA's World Cup Knockout Round matches in Korea Republic, helping keep a clean sheet during the 2-0 win against Mexico in the 2002 Round of 16. His most memorable moment in a U.S. shirt came in the following match. With the USA trailing Germany 1-0 in the second half of the Quarterfinal, Berhalter's volley was handled on the line by Torsten Frings, but Scottish referee Hugh Dallas waved off calls for a penalty kick. With his appointment, Berhalter becomes the first MNT head coach to have represented the United States in the sport's pinnacle competition.

Berhalter went on to help the USA qualify for the 2006 FIFA World Cup, and though he made the squad did not appear in any matches in Germany. The cerebral center back participated in many of the USA's significant runs in international competitions, including the third-place finish at the 1999 FIFA Confederations Cup in Mexico. He was also part of the USA squad that finished fourth at Copa America '95 and went to the final of the 1998 Concacaf Gold Cup.

A native of Englewood, N.J., Berhalter played three seasons at the University of North Carolina before deciding to leave college early to begin his professional career in 1994. Foreshadowing the choice to begin his management career abroad, he moved to Dutch Erstedivisie side Zwolle, beginning a six-year stay in Holland. In 1996, he moved up to the top-flight, spending another two seasons with Sparta Rotterdam followed by two years with SC Cambuur where he won the club's Player of the Year award in back-to-back seasons.

In 2001, Berhalter joined English League Championship side Crystal Palace before making a long-term move to Germany the following year. Following impressive performances at the 2002 FIFA World Cup, he signed with Bundesliga side Energie Cottbus that summer where he spent four seasons, captaining the side for the final two and eventually helping the team win promotion back to the Bundesliga at the end of the 2006 campaign. From there, Berhalter joined 1860 Munich, where he continued to wear the armband for three seasons before departing to join the LA Galaxy in the summer of 2009.

Joining the Galaxy in the twilight of his career, Berhalter helped mentor the likes of Omar Gonzalez, AJ DeLaGarza and Sean Franklin, a core of young defenders that would become staples in the club's most successful years. In 2009, he helped the Galaxy advance to the 2009 MLS Cup Final where they fell to Real Salt Lake on penalty kicks. The following year, he aided in the club's 2010 MLS Supporters Shield campaign, before ending his career with the MLS Cup and Supporter Shield double as a player/assistant coach in 2011.

Showing his leadership qualities early on, Berhalter served as captain for the U.S. at the 1993 FIFA World Youth Championship in Australia, helping guide the team past the group stage for just the second time in tournament history. Three years later, Berhalter was slated to captain the U-23 MNT at the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta but was forced to miss the tournament after suffering an injury just three weeks prior.

Along with holding the UEFA "A" coaching license, Berhalter was part of the inaugural class to attain U.S. Soccer's "PRO" coaching license in 2016.

Berhalter is the godson of former Boston Red Sox player and baseball Hall of Famer Carl Yastrzemski. Gregg and his wife Rosalind have four children: Sebastian, who signed as a Homegrown player for Columbus Crew SC in 2020 and now plays for Vancouver, Santana, Lily and Delilah. The family enjoy traveling together, cooking, golf and reading in their spare time.

B.J. CALLAGHAN

ASSISTANT COACH: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: July 1, 1981
HOMETOWN: Ventnor, N.J.

B.J. Callaghan joined the U.S. Men's National Team staff in 2019 after spending the previous seven years with the Philadelphia Union.

After serving as part of the technical staff during the 2022 FIFA World Cup, Callaghan was appointed interim head coach the following June where he led the team to the 2023 Concacaf Nations League title and the semifinal of the Gold Cup. Overall, he compiled an unbeaten 4-0-3 record.

Prior to his arrival at the National Team, he spent five seasons as an assistant coach under Jim Curtin, focusing on team defending, opponent analysis, set-piece design, player development and scouting. During this time, he helped the Union to appearances in the 2014, 2015 and 2018 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Finals as well as postseason berths in 2016 and 2018. Prior to his involvement with the first team, he spent the previous two years working with the Philadelphia Union/YSC Academy.

Prior to his time with the Philadelphia Union, Callaghan spent six years at Villanova University, rising to the level of Associate Head Coach. While at Villanova, he was involved in all aspects of the program, and helped lead the team to three straight Big East playoff appearances, including the 2011 Big East Semifinals — the highest finish in program history.

Callaghan graduated in 2003 from Ursinus College with a degree in Economics and Business Administration, and has held many coaching positions within the Philadelphia soccer community, working with FC Delco, Montgomery Soccer Club, and EPYSA/Region I ODP programs. He holds the U.S. Soccer "PRO" and "A" coaching licenses.

Mikey VARAS

ASSISTANT COACH: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: Dec. 7, 1982
HOMETOWN: San Francisco, Calif.

Mikey Varas joined U.S. Soccer in November 2021 as head coach of the Under-20 Men's Youth National Team.

Varas has led the team to a 8-3-3 record during his first 14 months on the job, including a dominant performance at the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Championship. There, the U.S. qualified to the Olympics for the first time since 2008 and took home its third-straight confederation crown following an undefeated seven-game run that featured six shutouts. Varas' squad punched its Olympic ticket with an impressive 3-0 victory against host Honduras in the tournament semifinals, silencing a raucous home crowd, then rolled the Dominican Republic 6-0 for the title.

Varas came to U.S. Soccer after serving as an assistant coach for FC Dallas under former head coach Luchi Gonzalez for three seasons. Fueled by a number of standout Homegrown players from the club's vaunted academy, Dallas reached the MLS Cup playoffs in both of Varas' full seasons on staff. Those players included defenders Reggie Cannon, Justin Che and Bryan Reynolds, midfielders Paxton Pomykal, Brandon Servania and Tanner Tessmann as well as forwards Jesus Ferreira and Ricardo Pepi. All eight of those players spent time with the senior U.S. Men's National Team while playing for Varas at FCD.

Varas joined FC Dallas in fall 2017 as head coach of the U-16 team after he connected with Gonzalez, then FCD's Academy director, while the two pursued their U.S. Soccer "A" Coaching Licenses in 2013. FC Dallas signed nine Homegrown players during Varas' tenure and during his first year on staff, Homegrowns played almost 5,000 more minutes than the previous season. In March of 2019, Dallas tied an MLS record by playing seven Homegrowns in one match, which was against the Colorado Rapids.

Prior to FC Dallas, Varas worked with the Sacramento Republic academy and was named U.S. Soccer Development Academy West Conference U-14 Coach of the Year for the 2016-17 season.

A San Francisco Bay Area native, Varas played four years at the University of San Francisco and trained in Chile for a season with the CD Santiago Wanderers before shifting to focus on coaching. He studied at clubs in Argentina, Italy and Spain before launching his career on the touchline in the San Francisco suburbs with Burlingame Soccer Club. Varas also spent time as Director of Coaching for Burlingame's Gamer Futsal School and Regional Coordinator for the NorCal Premier Soccer Player Development Program. He served as head coach of U-12, U-17 and U-19 teams at De Anza Force in the ECNL before joining the U.S. Soccer Development Academy with Sacramento in 2016.

In addition to his U.S. Soccer "A" Coaching License, Varas is fluent in Spanish and holds a Master's degree in Kinesiology with an emphasis in Physical Education from Fresno Pacific University.

Vincent CAVIN

ASSISTANT COACH: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: July 16, 1975
HOMETOWN: Ventnor, N.J.

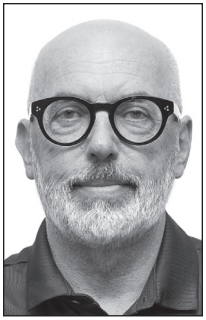

Vincent Cavin – Assistant Coach
Born: July 16, 1975
Hometown: Yverdon-les-Bains, Switzerland

Vincent Cavin joins the staff of USMNT head coach Gregg Berhalter after 13 years with the Swiss Football Association, having served as an assistant coach and other roles for the Switzerland Men's National Team since 2014.

During his tenure, the Switzerland National Team participated in three FIFA World Cups, two European Championships and one UEFA Nations League Final. Since 2021, he has also served as the team's Head of Performance Development. He will begin work with the USMNT during the January camp next month.

After a 10-year playing career in Switzerland, Cavin began his coaching career in 2005. He joined the Swiss FA in 2010 as an assistant coach and analyst with the U-21 team that finished as runners up in the 2011 European U-21 Championship and then participated in the 2012 Olympic Games in London. During his tenure, he was a course leader and instructor for multiple coaching education licenses. He holds a UEFA 'A' License and is expected to complete his UEFA Pro license in the beginning of 2024.

From 2018-21, he also worked as the Sports Coordinator for the senior team, serving as a liaison between federations, clubs and players. He speaks five languages: English, French, German, Italian and Spanish.

Gianni VIO

SET PIECE COACH: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: April 6, 1953
HOMETOWN: Venice, Italy

The 70-year-old former banker turned set piece specialist has worked at some of the top clubs in England and Italy, as well as the Italian National Team.

Vio spent several seasons in the lower leagues in Italy and made the jump to Serie A when he worked with former national team goalkeeper Walter Zenga during his stints with Catania, Palermo and Cagliari. In 2008 while working with Catania, he earned the nickname the "little wizard" as 17 of the team's 44 goals were scored from restarts.

After a spell at Fiorentina and then assisting Italian goalscoring legend Filippo Inzaghi at AC Milan in 2014/15, he moved to England where he worked with Brentford, Leeds and ultimately Tottenham Hotspur under Antonio Conte. In between, he helped Italy to the 2020 European Championship title.

Rumored to have 4,830 different variations of set pieces, he released his findings on a website and published a book called That Extra 30 Per Cent, which he describes as the amount that set pieces can improve a team's goal tally.

Alec SCOTT

LEAD PERFORMANCE ANALYST: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: June 9, 1988
HOMETOWN: Bristol, England

Alec Scott joined the U.S. Men's National Team staff in 2023 after spending the previous two years with Inter Miami CF.

Prior to working in the United States, he spent eight years working at the English Football across multiple teams. He served as an assistant performance analyst with the England MNT from 2013-2016, working the 2014 FIFA World Cup 2014 and the 2016 European Championships. He went on to become the lead analyst in 2016-2017 with the England U-20 MNT, supporting the World Cup-winning campaign in South Korea 2017. He gained experience in women's soccer as the Lead Analyst and head of the women's analysis department from 2017-2020, working with England's WNT when they reached the semifinal at the World Cup in 2019.

Prior to his involvement with the FA, he spent the previous three years working with Liverpool FC on a full-time PhD internship in both the performance analysis and sport science departments with the first team.

Scott graduated in 2010 from Liverpool John Moore's University with a degree in Sport Science & Football, while serving as a part-time coach with Liverpool FC's community program.

Emma THOMSON

PERFORMANCE ANALYST: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: March 16, 1999
HOMETOWN: Park Ridge, Ill.

Emma Thomson joined the U.S. Men's National Team full team in August of 2023 after a wide range of experiences in the sport as a player and a professional.

After earning a B.S. in Communications and a minor in Computer Science at the University of Alabama, she earned a Masters Degree in Marketing. She began her career with U.S. Soccer as an equipment manager, moving into the operations department as a coordinator in June of 2022 while serving as an analyst for the Youth National Teams. After assisting the senior MNT during the March window, she was elevated to a full-time analyst that summer.

Steeped in U.S. Soccer having participated in six Youth National Team camps as a player, she played one year at Penn State University before transferring to Alabama where she suffered a career-ending injury after one season.

Kevin TOSTI

PERFORMANCE ANALYST: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: March 17, 1996
HOMETOWN: Hampton Township, N.J.

Kevin Tosti joined the U.S. Men's National Team staff in 2023 after seven years of experience working with professional clubs in Engalnd and the United States.

Prior to his arrival at the National Team, he spent three seasons as a performance analyst with New York City Football Club, focusing on team / player data tracking and benchmarking, opponent analysis, training analysis, and playing style databasing. During this time, he supported NYCFC as they captured the 2021 MLS Cup and reached the Eastern Conference final the following year. During his tenure, the team participated in Concacaf Champions League from 2020-22.

Prior to his time in New York, Tosti spent three years with Burnley Football Club. Being promoted to First Team Technical Recruitment Analyst, he focused on supporting the technical director and senior scouts by creating a data and video player dossier on potential club targets for the summer and winter transfer windows. Prior to his involvement with the first team, he supported the U-23's performance analysis department.

Tosti graduated in 2019 from the University of Chester, earning a Masters Degree of Sport and Exercise Science. He graduated in 2018 from Liverpool John Moores University with a Bachelor of Sport and Exercise Science.

Darcy NORMAN

HEAD PERFORMANCE EXPERT: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: Sept. 9, 1971
HOMETOWN: Grande Prairie, Alberta, Canada

Darcy Norman brings more than 20 years of experience in the human performance industry to the U.S. Men's National Team. In the 10 years preceding his joining the USMNT staff in 2019, Norman has primarily focused on creating and implementing methodologies, applied data and building strategic relations, as well as managing medical, rehab, fitness, nutrition, psychology and sport science staff at the highest level. Norman's soccer-specific experience includes time as Performance Data Analyst and Fitness Rehab Coach with the German Men's National Team from 2012-2018, helping Die Mannschaft to the 2014 FIFA World Cup title and third-place finish at Euro 2012. From 2015-2018, Norman also worked as the Director of Performance with Italian club AS Roma, helping the side to a semifinal appearance in 2017-18 UEFA Champions League. Prior to those positions, he worked as the Strength Coach and Rehab Specialist for Bayern Munich, helping the German club to the 2009-10 Bundesliga and DFB-Pokal Championship and the Final of that season's UEFA Champions League.

A licensed therapist and certified strength and conditioning specialist, Norman also served as the Director of Performance Innovation at EXOS and as a Physical Therapist and Performance Coach at Athletes' Performance.

Jordan WEBB

HEAD OF SPORTS SCIENCE: U.S. Men's National Team
HOMETOWN: Tiffin, Ohio

Jordan Webb joined the United States Soccer Federation as a Sport Science and Strength & Conditioning Coach for the Men's National Team in March 2019. With his extensive background in physical preparation and performance analytics, he plays a pivotal role in the team's High Performance Staff.

Prior to his current role, Webb was the Head of Sport Science and Strength & Conditioning Coach at the University of Notre Dame (February 2016 to March 2019), focusing on integrated team periodization and merging physical training with on-field performance. His tenure at Chicago Fire Soccer Club as Head Physical Preparation Coach (January 2016 - December 2016) and his work with EXOS as a Performance Specialist and Performance Analyst (September 2013 - January 2016) further highlight his diverse experience in sport science.

Webb has also served in key roles with the Cleveland Browns as Head Applied Sport Scientist (September 2013 - January 2014) and with the Oklahoma City Thunder as Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach & Assistant Applied Sport Scientist (October 2011 - May 2013).

In addition to his professional roles, Jordan Webb is a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Southern Queensland, where he is studying decision-making in high-performance sport. He graduated with an MS in Exercise Science Strength and Conditioning from Edith Cowan University, Perth, Australia, in 2014, and a BS in Exercise Science and Sports Management from Missouri Valley College, Marshall, MO, in 2010. Webb holds several certifications, including NSCA CSCS (2011), EXOS Performance Specialist (2015), Precision Nutrition Level 1 (2016), and USSF National D License (2009).

HOMETOWN: Woodbury, Minn.

Donnie Fuller joined the U.S. Men's National Team on January 1, 2024, after having spent the previous two years as the Senior Director of Health and Performance and Head Athletic Trainer for Minnesota United. While in Minnesota, he was also the head athletic trainer for the 2023 MLS All-Star game.

Prior to working with MNUFC, Donnie spent five years working as the assistant athletic trainer for the Arizona Coyotes hockey team in the NHL where he worked his 1,500th NHL game. Before moving to Arizona and joining the Coyotes staff, Donnie worked as an Emergency Room Tech at a level 1 trauma center in St. Paul, Minn.

Prior to working with the Arizona Coyotes, Fuller spent 16 years as the head athletic trainer for the Minnesota Wild hockey team where he worked over 1000 NHL games.

In 2018, Donnie worked several camps for the U.S. Men's National Beach Soccer team and in 2017 with Minnesota United's youth academy program.

Fuller graduated from McMaster University with a degree in Kinesiology and from Sheridan college with a diploma in Athletic Therapy. Donnie spent three years studying at the Canadian College of Osteopathy and one year at InverHills community college earning his certification as an EMT.

Most recently, he graduated from A.T. Still University with a Master of Science degree in Kinesiology. He is a certified athletic therapist in the Canadian Athletic Therapists Association and in the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Kentaro ISHII

CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: JUNE 12, 1985
HOMETOWN: Mishima, Shizuoka, Japan

A native of Mishima, Japan, Ishii joined the U.S. Men's National Team medical staff in January 2018 and was part of the medical staff during the 2022 FIFA World Cup.

Before joining the U.S. Men's National Team, he served as the head athletic trainer for Sporting Kansas City. As the lead medical personnel of the club, he oversaw the medical services for the first team to the academy teams. Additionally, he played a primary role in designing and coordinating comprehensive rehabilitation, reconditioning, and injury prevention programs specifically for the first team players.

Ishii earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training and Movement Science from Texas Christian University and Master of Science in Exercise Science from California University of Pennsylvania.

Ishii earned the professional designation, Postural Restoration Trained (PRT) from the Postural Restoration Institute and has a passion for an integrated approach of manual therapy and movement training for injury prevention and performance enhancement in soccer.

Derek LAWRANCE

CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER: U.S. Men's National Team
BORN: Sept. 3, 1982
HOMETOWN: Roanoke, Va.

Derek Lawrance is currently serving the United States Men's National Soccer Team as a certified athletic trainer after starting in December of 2021. He was part of the USMNT athletic training staff in Qatar for the 2022 FIFA World Cup.

Before joining the USMNT, Derek spent a decade in Major League Soccer. He was the Director of Health and Performance at San Jose Earthquakes, overseeing all department efforts and working closely with athletic trainers, first team and academy coaches, psychologists, and other medical personnel. Derek was promoted to the Director position at the beginning of the 2020 MLS season after serving as the head athletic trainer ahead from January 2018 to December 2019 and the assistant athletic trainer from January 2013 to December 2017.

Derek began his professional career with an internship at D.C. United before accepting a position as an assistant athletic trainer at Elon University in North Carolina. He worked with the school's men's soccer and softball from 2008-11, eventually moving back to MLS with Chivas USA in 2012.

Prior to his professional experience, Derek graduated with a BS in athletic training from James Madison University in 2006. THE U.S. NATIONAL SOCCER TEAM PLAYERS ASSOCIATION

The U.S. National Soccer Team Players Association is the labor organization for all current members of the United States Men's National Soccer Team, the membership organization for all current and former members of the National Team, and an organization dedicated to connecting National Team players to community and charitable activities. Founded in 1996 by the members of the U.S. Men's National Team, the Players Association represents them in collective bargaining with the United States Soccer Federation. Until that time, the players had no unified voice on matters such as the financial and business terms under which players played for the National Team.

The Players founded the Association with a very simple principle: fair and equal treatment for everyone appearing for their National Team. That rationale has carried the Players Association through more than twenty years and the negotiation of four collective bargaining agreements.

The players' unwavering interest in building the sport in this country has helped develop the Players Association as a multi-faceted organization serving not just the interest of its members, but also the wider community of American soccer. The Players Association believes that the best way to grow the game in this country is to build meaningful links from the grassroots to the highest level of American professional soccer, the U.S. National Team program.

OUR MISSION

The primary purpose of the organization and its website is to promote soccer in the United States and the US National Team Players and to help everyone interested or involved in the sport in the U.S.

While the Players Association represents all U.S. Men's National Soccer Team members in their negotiations with the United States Soccer Federation, the goal of the Association is to improve the quality and quantity of soccer in the United States. The Players are encouraging more people to play, watch and involve themselves with soccer at all levels, from the very beginning youth programs, to elite youth soccer, high school and college soccer, adult recreational leagues, professional soccer leagues and the international competitions of the United States Men's National Team and the World Cup.

OUR GOALS

- Reach people interested in soccer
- Encourage, nurture and reward that interest
- Make it easy for those people to expand their connection to the sport
- Give them the information they need to expand their interest and knowledge
- Increase awareness of the US National Team players and all they do to advance the sport and support community and charitable organizations
- Increase the opportunities for all children to experience the joys of playing soccer
- Improve the quality of youth soccer coaching
- Improve the youth soccer environment
- Partner with other significant soccer organizations in the United States
- Encourage players to experience the benefits of playing, watching and being involved in soccer throughout their lifetimes
- Create a soccer community that shares the Players Association's goal of increasing soccer's role and significance in the U.S.
- Capitalize upon the Players' commitment to supporting soccer to help the United States reap the benefits the game can provide throughout our country

WORLD CUP HISTORY

ALL-TIME U.S. MEN'S NATIONAL TEAM FIFA WORLD CUP RESULTS

The U.S. Men's National Team has qualified for 11 FIFA World Cups since the tournament's inception in 1930.

After missing out in 2018, the USMNT returned to the World Cup at Qatar 2022. Bringing the second youngest roster to the tournament, the USA started four of the five youngest lineups of all teams in Qatar, earning a 1-1 draw against Wales and 0-0 draw against England through the first two matches. Needing a win to ensure advancement in the final group stage match against IR Iran, the USA used a first-half goal from Christian Pulisic to gain a 1-0 victory, also marking just the second time the USA has earned two clean sheets at a single World Cup. Despite a valiant effort in the Round of 16, the USMNT felt 3-1 to Netherlands to end its time in Doha.

In Brazil in 2014, the USMNT escaped the 'Group of Death' that contained nemesis Ghana, European power Portugal and eventual world champions Germany, before falling 2-1 after extra time to a seeded Belgium side.

In South Africa in 2010, the U.S. won its group for the first time in 80 years with ties against traditional power England and a talented Slovenia side in the first two matches. In the final minute of the final group match, the U.S. was locked in a scoreless tie with Algeria when Landon Donovan electrified a soccer nation by finishing a full-field counter attack with the most dramatic goal in U.S. Soccer history. The U.S. team would come from behind again in the Round of 16, taking Ghana to extra time in Rustenburg. But the African side prevailed with a 2-1 victory, mirroring the result in Germany four years prior.

The team's most successful recent World Cup experience came in 2002 in Korea/Japan, reaching the quarterfinals for the first time in 72 years before losing to eventual runners-up Germany. After opening group play with a stunning 3-2 victory against Portugal, the USA earned a 1-1 draw against the host Korea Republic, before closing out the first round with a 3-1 defeat to Poland. The second-place finish in Group D was enough to place the team in the Round of 16, where they squared off against arch-rival Mexico. The Americans famously blanked Mexico 2-0 to advance to the quarterfinals, but their run ended with a hard-fought defeat at the hands of Germany, 1-0.

The USA's 2002 success was followed by a disappointing first-round exit in Germany in 2006. Despite a three-games-and-out performance, the USA heroically drew 1-1 with eventual World Champion Italy with only nine men on the field in one of the team's greatest performances.

The U.S. appeared in the first two World Cups in 1930 and 1934, and made an appearance in 1950 before waiting 40 years to return to the world's stage in 1990.

Two of the USA's greatest victories in World Cup play prior to 2002 include a 1-0 win over powerful England on June 29, 1950, on a goal by Joe Gaetjens in Belo Horizonte, Brazil, and a 2-1 win at home against Colombia on June 22, 1994, with Earnie Stewart scoring the game-winner. The victory over England is still considered by many to be the greatest upset in World Cup history.

The 1990 World Cup marked the first time in 40 years that the U.S. team made it through the CONCACAF qualifying rounds. The U.S. squad captured the 24th and final position for Italia '90 by defeating Trinidad & Tobago 1-0 in the final match of CONCACAF qualifying.

As the host nation in 1994, the USA went one step further by advancing to the Round of 16, losing a 1-0 match to eventual world champion Brazil.

WORLD CUP NOTES: For just the second time and first since 1930, the USMNT went unbeaten in the group stage, and based on FIFA Rankings, advanced from the strongest group at the 2022 FIFA World Cup thanks to a 1-1 draw with Wales, 0-0 draw with England and 1-0 win against IR Iran.

With an average age of 25 years, 78 days, the USMNT started four of the five youngest lineups in the 64 matches at the 2022 FIFA World Cup, and the team's youngest lineups since the 1990 FIFA World Cup.

Goalkeeper Matt Turner joined 1930 backstop Jimmy Douglas as the only two USMNT goalkeepers to keep clean sheets in two matches at the same World Cup, shutting out England and IR Iran.

At 19 years, 358 days, Yunus Musah became the youngest USMNT player to start a World Cup match when he was named in the lineup for the tournament opener against Wales.

Twenty-five of 26 players took part in their first FIFA World Cup with only DeAndre Yedlin holding previous World Cup experience.

WORLD CUP NOTES: The U.S. escaped the 'Group of Death' by virtue of a cathartic 2-1 win against Ghana and a 2-2 draw with Portugal to finish second in the Group G to eventual champion Germany.

Tim Howard became the all-time U.S. MNT leader in World Cup caps and starts among modern era goalkeepers, earning his eighth appearance and start against Belgium. Howard also tied a World Cup record for saves in a match with 15 in the Round of 16 match against Belgium.

DaMarcus Beasley became the only American to play in four FIFA World Cups. In total his 11 career tournament appearances tie for second all-time among MNT players with Cobi Jones and Earnie Stewart.

WORLD CUP NOTES: The U.S. won its group for the first time in 80 years while finishing ahead of England, Slovenia and Algeria, respectively.

Clint Dempsey and Landon Donovan became the second and third Americans to score in multiple FIFA World Cups.

Donovan became the USA's all-time leading World Cup goalscorer with his fifth career goal in the Round of 16 against Ghana. With his 12th career appearance against Ghana he also became the U.S. leader in World Cup caps.

The U.S. scored in all of its World Cup matches for the first time since 1950.

The U.S. advanced out of its group for the fourth time and was eliminated in the Round of 16 for the second time (1994).

The U.S. earned a point from every game for the first time, and it was also the first time the U.S. earned a point from the third World Cup game.

WORLD CUP NOTES: For the fifth time in eight World Cups, the U.S. failed to advance out of its group.

For the third time in the last four World Cups, the USA's opponents scored an own goal for the United States, this time courtesy of Italy's Christian Zaccarado in a thrilling 1-1 draw on June 17 in Kaiserslautern. That match featured the only World Cup game in U.S. history in which two players from the United States received red cards (Pablo Mastroeni and Eddie Pope).

The U.S. has scored first in just three of 18 World Cup games since 1990.

Brian McBride ended his illustrious career with the United States with a team-best three career World Cup goals.

McBride and Landon Donovan are the only two players to play in all eight U.S. World Cup games in 2002 and 2006.

Claudio Reyna and Kasey Keller are the only two players to be on four U.S. World Cup rosters.

WORLD CUP NOTES: The U.S advanced as far as the World Cup quarterfinals for the first time in 72 years. Its previous best was a semifinal appearance at the 1930 World Cup, where the U.S. advanced straight from group play into the final four.

The U.S. victory over Mexico marked the USA's first-ever knockout round victory in World Cup play. It was also the USA's first World Cup shutout since the team's historic 1-0 victory over England in Brazil in 1950.

Claudio Reyna became the first U.S. Men's National Team player to be named to the FIFA All-World Cup First Team.

Brian McBride became the first player in U.S. MNT history to score goals in consecutive World Cups, scoring two game-winners for the U.S. in 2002.

Cobi Jones and Earnie Stewart each played in four 2002 World Cup games to extend their career totals to a U.S. Soccer record 11 World Cup match appearances.

PROGRAMS

U.S. MEN'S YOUTH NATIONAL TEAMS

In 2015, U.S. Soccer adjusted its Youth National Team structure with a focus on three core areas: 1) assessment, monitoring and identification, 2) training and development, and 3) competition. These areas serve as the foundation on which programming is built for all of U.S. Soccer's Youth National Teams.

When new YNT programming was added in 2015 at the Under-19 and Under-16 levels, it gave U.S. Soccer Men's Youth National Teams at the U-14, U-15, U-16, U-17, U-18, U-19, U-20 and U-23 age groups.

For the last several years, U.S. Soccer had two tracks for players: one for players born in even years and the other for odd years, with the players moving through the age groups while spending two years with each team. In 2022, the structure was changed and now the age groups are conducted on a season-to-season schedule running from Aug. 1-July 31 to parallel the youth club season and come in line with how much of the rest of the world conducts its age groups. For FIFA Youth World Cup teams, the cycle formally concludes after the age group world championship tournament. The FIFA U-17 and U-20 World Cup cycles and Concacaf Championships still run-on two-year cycles, but in each age group, and as the players move up through the MYNT programming, the players will have a different coach each year.

The U-14 Talent ID camps are conducted by a combination of Talent ID Managers and YNT coaches. In any given year, Tom Heinneman is the head coach for the U-15s, Gonzalo Segares is head coach of the U-17s, Michael Nsien oversees the U-19s while Marko Mitrović is the Men's Olympic Team (U-23) head coach. When the U-20s enter a FIFA World Cup year, this pool is likely the best players from three birth years (U-20s, U-19s and U-18s).

U.S. SOCCER TALENT IDENTIFICATION CENTER PROGRAM

Talent Identification Centers are one of the main tactics of Talent Identification. TID Centers are no-cost identification opportunities for U.S. Soccer Talent Identification Managers to evaluate and monitor top talents. U.S. Soccer, in conjunction with local clubs, hosts approximately 100 sessions each year in 25 key markets throughout the country. These invite-only training sessions provide opportunities for scout development, education and mentoring and help strengthen connection and collaboration between U.S. Soccer, clubs and their constituents in local markets. Talent Identification Managers assess the top players from different clubs and markets in different combinations, cross-referencing talent across the nation. Each TID Center is conducted with a particular focus to ensure U.S. Soccer staff sees the widest variety of talent in different contexts. Thousands of boys and girls in the U-14 and U-15 age groups attend U.S. Soccer Talent Identification Centers each year.

Purpose

- U.S. Soccer Talent Identification Centers are free, single-day player identification opportunities for local players with the most potential to train under the direction of U.S. Soccer Talent Identification Managers
- U.S. Soccer TID Managers run TID Centers to identify and compare top talents nationwide for Youth National Team recognition

Player Pool

- Gender: Boys and Girls
- Ages: U-14 and U-15
- Each U.S. Soccer Talent ID Center features a specific gender and age group.
- Elite players from any team, club or organization are eligible to attend at no cost to the player upon invitation

Player Selection

- Players are discovered through three main pathways:
- Coach or Club Director recommendation
- Scouting by U.S. Soccer at game or event
- Talent Identification Manager selection

Facilities

- Local youth clubs, professional clubs, leagues or state associations provide the facility
- Talent ID Centers are held in both indoor and outdoor venues depending on the time and place

Training

- U.S. Soccer Talent ID staff runs the events with the assistance of host site staff, which may include: Talent ID Managers, YNT Network Scouts, YNT coaches and local club coaches
- Athletic trainers are present at every Talent ID Center

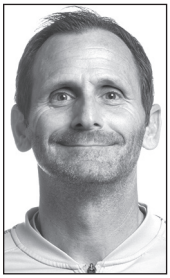

Coach Attendance

- Youth and college coaches are welcome to attend and observe Talent ID Centers to further their own development

Parents/Visitors

- Like Youth National Team training environments, attendance by parents and non-coach spectators is not permitted unless otherwise specified

U.S. SOCCER DIRECTOR OF TALENT IDENTIFICATION

Tony LEPORE

DIRECTOR OF TALENT IDENTIFICATION

In March 2017, Lepore became the Boys' Director of Talent Identification, transitioning to the position after having been the Director of Scouting and serving as the technical lead for the U.S. Soccer Development Academy. Before joining U.S. Soccer full time as a Technical Advisor in 2006, Lepore was an assistant coach for six years with the U-14 and U-15 Men's Youth National Teams. As the Director of Talent Identification, Lepore oversees scouting for every U.S. Men's Youth National Team. The Madbury, N.H., native has been involved in youth soccer at all levels throughout his coaching career before joining U.S. Soccer.

U.S. SOCCER TALENT ID MANAGERS

U.S. Soccer Talent ID Managers work closely with clubs in their respective geographic areas, building a close connection with U.S. Soccer and the Youth National Teams program by managing the scouting process in their regions. Talent ID Managers are at the forefront of player identification programs, including U.S. Soccer Talent Identification Centers, which are held nationwide throughout the year.

The group has decades of experience at the youth, professional and international level and holds a major responsibility in assisting with the continued growth of youth soccer in the United States through both coaching and scouting.

Marko MITROVIĆ

HEAD COACH: U.S. Men's Olympic Soccer Team
BORN: July 8, 1978
HOMETOWN: Belgrade, Serbia

Marko Mitrović joined U.S. Soccer in April 2022 as head coach of the Under-19 Men's Youth National Team. In September 2023, he was named head coach of the U.S. Men's Olympic Soccer Team as the U.S. men prepare to return to the Games for the first time since Beijing 2008.

He kicked off the Olympic cycle with a 2-1-1 record as the U.S. faced off against top competition from around the world, including strong October victories against regional rival Mexico and Tokyo 2020 bronze medalist Japan.

During his first time in charge of the U-19s, Mitrović led the team to a 6-0-0 international record, including victories against England, Croatia and Norway while overseeing six training camps. In addition to his duties as U-19 head coach, he served as an assistant to interim USMNT head coaches Anthony Hudson and B.J. Callaghan from April-July of 2023, helping the U.S. win the 2022-23 Concacaf Nations League title in dominant fashion.

The Serbian-American holds a UEFA Pro License and served as an assistant coach for Serbia when it won the 2015 FIFA U-20 World Cup. In the professional ranks, he spent four years as an assistant with Chicago Fire FC and also worked as an assistant at Reading in the English Championship.

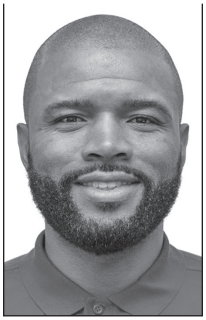

As a coach in Serbia's youth national team program, Mitrović helped launch the careers of several young Serbian players, boosting them to the senior national team and top clubs across Europe. He was the first assistant when Serbia lifted the 2015 FIFA U-20 World Cup in New Zealand, the nation's first FIFA title since the dissolution of Yugoslavia. The Orlići also finished third at the 2014 UEFA U-19 Championship. In addition to his duties as an assistant with Serbia's older youth teams, Mitrović served as head coach for Serbia's U-15 and U-16 squads in 2014 and 2015.

Following his success with Serbia, Mitrović joined the Fire as an assistant from 2016-2019. During his tenure, the Fire returned to the MLS Cup Playoffs in 2017 following a five-year drought and consecutive last-place league finishes. The team also reached the 2018 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Semifinals.

Mitrović's track record of recognizing and developing young players includes the likes of Juventus forward Dusan Vlahovic, Real Madrid forward Luka Jovic, Lazio midfielder Sergej Milinković-Savić, AZ Alkmaar midfielder Djordje Mihailovic and more.

He launched his coaching career in his native Serbia, beginning as an assistant with Banat Zrenjanin. He worked as a head coach for two years in the Red Star Belgrade academy, where he also developed as a youth player.

Mitrović was one of the youngest-ever to debut for Red Star, Serbia's most-successful club. During his 14-year playing career, Mitrović competed in the top divisions of Serbia, Hungary, Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan. He won the Serbian Cup with Red Star in his first professional season, and finished runner-up in both the league and cup with Kazakhstan's FK Astana during the 2008-09 season.

Michael NSIEN

HEAD COACH: U.S. Under-19 Men's Youth National Team
HOMETOWN: Tulsa, Okla.

Michael Nsien was appointed head coach of the U.S. Under-16 Men's Youth National Team in November 2022. In September 2023, he was named head coach of the U-19 MYNT.

His first assignment in the new role came at the 2023 Pan American Games as the U.S. returned to the tournament for the first time since 2007. He led the red, white and blue to a fourth-place finish in Chile, its best since 1999 at the under-22 competition, aligned with the under-23 age restriction at the Olympics. During summer 2023, he served as an assistant for interim USMNT head coach B.J. Callaghan at the Concacaf Gold Cup.

With the U-16s, Nsien led the USA to two wins at May 2023's International Dream Cup in Fukushima, Japan, topping host Japan and Nigeria, the country that he represented as a youth international player. The Oklahoma native got off to a running start with the U-16 MYNT shortly after his hiring in November 2022, leading the U.S. to an undefeated 2-0-1 record at the Football Federations Cup in Albir, Spain with victories against Wales and England.

Nsien joined U.S. Soccer after four seasons in charge of FC Tulsa in the USL Championship, where he led the club to the most successful period in its history. A native Oklahoman, Nsien brings 12 years of experience coaching in his home state and holds a U.S. Soccer Pro License as well as a UEFA "A" License.

A former Nigerian youth international, Nsien took the reins at FC Tulsa as interim coach midway through the 2018 season. After struggling his first two seasons in charge, Nsien led Tulsa to its two banner years in 2020 and 2021, reaching the playoffs in back-to-back seasons for the first time ever and the first time overall since 2017.

Born in Tulsa, Nsien rose through the coaching ranks in his hometown. Prior to joining the FC Tulsa staff as an assistant in 2017, Nsien enjoyed a decorated youth coaching career with Tulsa Soccer Club. As Youth Academy Boys Director and Elite Team coach, Nsien won eight state championships from 2010-18, while helping more than 100 players go on to play college soccer.

From 2011-17, Nsien worked as an Olympic Development Program coach/scout in Region 3 across the southern/southeastern United States. In his role, Nsien identified players for Youth National Team selection, MLS academies and European tours, working with a number of individuals that have gone on to professional careers. At FC Tulsa, Nsien coached USMNT forward Jesús Ferreira, recently named to the USA's 2022 FIFA World Cup roster.

As a player, Nsien starred for four years at the University of Dayton and represented Nigeria at the U-23 level during its 2004 Olympic qualification campaign. Professionally, he spent time with LA Galaxy's reserves and the Portland Timbers in the USL.

Gonzalo SEGARES

HEAD COACH: U.S. Men's Under-17 Youth National Team
BORN: Oct. 13, 1982
HOMETOWN: San Jose, Costa Rica

Gonzalo Segares was appointed head coach of the Under-17 Men's Youth National Team in October 2021. He joined U.S. Soccer in January 2020 as head coach of the Under-15 Boys' National Team, bringing 18 years of experience as a player and coach in the United States.

In 2023, he led the USA to a record 18th qualification to the FIFA U-17 World Cup and the team reached the knockout stage before falling to eventual champion Germany despite a spirited comeback effort. The U.S. won its first two games at the tournament for the fifth time as forward Nimfasha Berchimas, the USA's youngest player at the competition in 20 years, netted three goals. Twenty of 21 players saw the field in Indonesia.

Earlier in the year, the U.S. finished runner-up at the 2023 Concacaf U-17 Championship in Guatemala. All 20 players played significant minutes at the World Cup qualifying tournament as the U.S. rattled off six straight wins, including a thrilling 5-3 triumph over Guatemala to punch its World Cup ticket. In his first full year in charge of the U-17 MYNT in 2022, the team won a UEFA Development Tournament in Portugal against the host nation, Belgium and Italy.

Segares entered the youth coaching ranks immediately after his retirement as a player in 2014, joining the Federation in the midst of his fourth season with Chicago-area U.S. Soccer Development Academy club FC United, where he served as assistant academy director and head coach for the U-14 and U-16/17 squads.

Before assuming his position at FC United in 2016, Segares coached for the Fire Academy, leading the U-15/16 squad for the 2015-16 season as well as serving as an assistant for the Fire's U-14 and U-17/18 teams. He was on the sideline as an assistant when the Fire took home the 2015 U-17/18 Academy Championship and guided the U-15/16 squad to a fourth-place finish in 2016. Segares also spent three seasons as a volunteer assistant with DePaul University.

Segares holds a U.S. Soccer "A" Coaching License and also participated in the Elite Formation Coaching License, a partnership between the French Football Federation and Major League Soccer.

The defender made more than 250 appearances with the Fire in his 10-year career, helping the club to the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title in 2006. At the international level, he earned 19 caps with Costa Rica, bringing the Ticos to the brink of the 2009 Concacaf Gold Cup Final and qualification to the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

Chicago's Defender of the Year in 2007, Segares served as a stalwart on the Fire backline from 2005-09 and 2010-14. He spent spring 2010 with Apollon Limassol in the Cypriot First Division, helping the club to a cup championship and third-place league finish.

Segares was drafted in the third round of the 2005 MLS SuperDraft after a standout career at Virginia Commonwealth University. An All-American and finalist for the Hermann Trophy his senior year with the Rams, the Costa Rican was twice named Colonial Athletic Association Defensive Player of the Year. He earned all-conference honors during his sophomore, junior and senior seasons. Prior to his time in Richmond, Segares came up through the academy of Costa Rican powerhouse Saprissa.

The defender has also been very involved with the Chicago Fire Foundation, being recognized with the 2014 Modern Hispanic Gentleman award in Chicago for his charitable work with the community. Additionally, he has served as a spokesperson for Gift of Hope, an organ and tissue donor network.

Tom HEINEMANN

HEAD COACH: U.S. Men's Under-15 Youth National Team
HOMETOWN: Tulsa, Okla.

Tom Heinemann was appointed head coach of the U.S. Under-15 Men's Youth National Team in February 2022.

In 2023, he led the USA to its first-ever Concacaf U-15 Championship in the red, white and blue's third appearance in the event. Midfielder Cavan Sullivan, playing up an age group, took home the Golden Ball as the tournament's best player. Heinemann ended the year topping the table at a UEFA Development Tournament as the 2009-birth year U-15 MYNT beat host Portugal and came from behind to take down Italy in Lisbon.

During his first year in charge of the U-15s in 2022, the U.S. finished fourth at the prestigious Torneo delle Nazioni across Austria, Italy and Slovenia, topping its group before falling to Italy in the semifinals.

Heinemann brings a diverse array of experience, coaching, playing and working in the game at a variety of levels in the United States. He joined U.S. Soccer from working as an assistant coach at Belmont University in Nashville and the Tennessee Soccer Club, while also serving as academy director at the Covenant Soccer Academy and leading Heinemann Soccer, an organization that hosts camps, clinics and small group training to improve players at all skill levels. Heinemann holds a U.S. Soccer "A" Coaching License.

Heinemann began his coaching career alongside a lengthy playing career across levels in the U.S., appearing in 225 matches across Major League Soccer, the North American Soccer League, United Soccer League and USSF Division 2. He won league championships in 2010 and 2015, helping the Charleston Battery to the 2010 USL Championship as league MVP and leading the San Francisco Deltas in scoring en route to their 2017 NASL Championship.

In addition to his time on the field and on the touchline, Heinemann co-founded the United Soccer League Players' Association in 2018, helping lead negotiations for the first collective bargaining agreement in U.S. lower division soccer history and achieving voluntary recognition from both the USL Championship and USL League One.

Most recently as an assistant at Belmont, Heinemann helped lead the school to its most wins in program history this fall, reaching the Southern Conference Championship Final in back-to-back seasons after rebuilding the program from a bottom 50 RPI (ratings power index) to top 50 in the country. For his efforts this season, Heinemann and his colleagues were named Southern Conference Coaching Staff of the Year. Tennessee Soccer Club is the state's largest soccer club and Heinemann developed a new finishing program for boys and girls while also assisting in the boys' academy.

Prior to moving to Nashville, Heinemann served as an assistant at Yale, helping the program record its first winning season in seven years, and at the University of British Columbia, helping the team win the 2013 Canadian national collegiate championship. While playing with the Columbus Crew, Heinemann also worked in the club's academy system.

U.S. MEN'S OLYMPIC SOCCER TEAM

Head Coach: Marko Mitrović
2024 Eligibility: Jan. 1, 2001
Major Competiton: 2024 Olympics

OLYMPIC RETURN AWAITS

This summer, the U.S. men will return to the Olympics for the first time since 2008 when they take the field at the 2024 Summer Olympics in Paris. The USA kicked off its preparations for Paris last fall with a series of training camps and friendly matches against teams from around the world while the U.S. also fielded a men's soccer team at the Pan American Games for the first time since 2007, taking fourth.

Head coach Marko Mitrović will hold a number of training camps this year to get ready for the Men's Olympic Soccer Tournament, set for July 24-Aug. 9 at seven venues throughout France. The U.S. will take aim at a place on the podium, looking for its best showing at the tournament since a fourth-place finish at Sydney 2000.

Major Competition: 2024 Concacaf U-20 Championship
2023 International Record: 4-3-1

EYES ON WORLD CUP QUALIFYING

In 2023, the U.S. Under-20 Men's Youth National Team continued its run of impressive performances on the global stage, becoming the only team to reach the quarterfinals of the last four FIFA U-20 World Cups. Now, the next U-20 MYNT cycle will aim to continue the USA's regional dominance at the 2024 Concacaf U-20 Championship. The U.S. has won the last three confederation championships, the first three in its history, and will look to add a fourth title that's unprecedented during U.S. Soccer's modern era.

U.S. UNDER-19 MEN'S YOUTH NATIONAL TEAM

Head Coach: Michael Nsien
2024-25 Age Eligibility: Jan. 1, 2006
2023 International Record: 1-0-0

EYES ON WORLD CUP QUALIFYING

The U.S. U-19 MYNT program, along with the U-16 Men's Youth National Team, began its first year of programming in 2016 as a part of an overall commitment to player development. U.S. Soccer now has a total of eight youth National Teams for both its men's and women's programs: U-14, U-15, U-16, U-17, U-18, U-19, U-20 and U-23.

The pool for the U-19s will be brought to a number of training camps over the course of the year in order to expose more players of this age to the National Team camp environment as well as give activity to the younger group of players in the pool competing for a spot with the U-20 MYNT as it prepares for the 2024 Concacaf U-20 Championship and the 2025 FIFA U-20 World Cup.

U.S. UNDER-18 MEN'S YOUTH NATIONAL TEAM

2024-25 Age Eligibility: Jan. 1, 2007

The U.S. Under-18 Men's Youth National Team serves as a transition to the Under-20 Men's Youth National Team. This age group forms the core of the team that will attempt to qualify for the 2027 FIFA U-20 World Cup.

The U-18 MYNT player pool will be brought to a number of domestic and international training camps and tournaments in order to expose more players to the National Team camp environment as well as provide programming for the younger group of players competing for a spot with the U-20 MYNT as it prepares for the 2024 Concacaf U-20 Championship and 2025 FIFA U-20 World Cup.

U.S. UNDER-17 MEN'S YOUTH NATIONAL TEAM

Head Coach: Gonzalo Segares
2024-25 Age Eligibility: Jan. 1, 2008
Major Competition: 2025 Concacaf U-17 Championship

KICKING OFF A NEW CYCLE

After a strong showing at the 2023 FIFA Under-17 World Cup in Indonesia, U.S. U-17 Men's Youth National Team head coach Gonzalo Segares will turn the page and kick off a new cycle this year. The U-17s will hold a number of training camps and face a variety of international opponents in preparation for next year's Concacaf U-17 Championship, expected to be held in the first half of 2025.

U.S. SOCCER'S UNDER-17 RESIDENCY PROGRAM

Bradenton, Fla.

After establishing a blueprint for creating a successful every day training environment, the U.S. Soccer Under-17 Men's National Team Residency Program completed its final semester in the Spring of 2017 after 18 years at the IMG Academy in Bradenton, Fla.

Started in 1999, the Residency Program created an elite training environment for the best youth players in the country by focusing on daily training to improve their development. Eight years later, the success of the Residency Program helped guide the 2007 launch of U.S. Soccer's Development Academy, which took the Residency Program model down to the club level during its 13-year run, guiding elite development environments at the club level across the country, providing tens thousands of players the opportunity to improve.

The U-16 Men's Youth National Team program, along with the U-19 Men's Youth National Team, began its first year of programming in 2016 as a part of an overall commitment to player development. U.S. Soccer has a total of eight youth National Teams for both its men's and women's programs: U-14, U-15, U-16, U-17, U-18. U-19, U-20, and U-23.

The U-16 MYNT player pool will be brought to a number of domestic and international training camps and tournaments in order to expose more players to the National Team camp environment as well as provide programming for the younger group of players competing for a spot with the U-17 MYNT as it prepares for the 2025 Concacaf U-17 Championship and 2025 FIFA U-17 World Cup.

Head Coach: Tom Heinemann
2024-25 Age Eligibility: Jan. 1, 2010

The U.S. U-15 Men's Youth National Team serves as a developmental and identification squad for potential future national team players. Based on recent results at older MYNT age groups as well as the full Men's National Team, the U-15 program is doing exactly that as numerous players have been able to move on and succeed at the next level.

The program is used to identify potential talent and prepare players for future involvement in international soccer. The players are introduced to a culture and style of play consistent throughout all of the U.S. Youth National Teams. The U-15 MYNT also addresses the importance of character development in areas like attitude, discipline, and commitment. The USA won its first Concacaf U-15 Boys' Championship in 2023 after the biennial regional championship launched for this age group in 2017.

UNDER-14 TALENT IDENTIFICATION PROGRAM

With the objective to expand and improve the Men's Youth National Team player pool, U.S. Soccer launched the Under-14 Talent Identification Program in 2019. Designed to discover and introduce a larger base of top talents at the U-14 age group into the scouting funnel of the older Youth National Teams, a mini-camp format helps evaluate and inspire high-potential players while accelerating their development in an engaging and challenging environment.

The program starts with the in-market scouting process: players are observed in games and top talents are selected to attend Talent Identification Centers. Formerly known as Training Centers, TID Centers are typically held in 25 key markets nationwide and overseen by U.S. Soccer TID Managers and YNT Network Scouts. These single-day sessions, hosted at local clubs or U.S. Soccer member organizations, gather more than 750 top talents every year from each of the U-14 and U-15 age groups. Depending on the number of top players identified in each market, Talent Identification Centers are held there two to three times each year in the fall, winter and spring.

Following the in-market scouting process, U-14 TID Regional Mini-Camps bring together 80 of the best players from each of U.S. Soccer TID's three scouting regions – East, Central and West – for a three-game, round-robin competition. Overseen by regional TID Managers, the five-day camps feature four 20-player teams (one representing each scouting area within the region) playing three games against each other.

After the Regional Mini-Camps, 60 players gather for a U-14 National Identification Camp. Roughly twenty players come from each region, but the roster may also include international-based players at this stage. Held in the vein of a traditional YNT training camp, all boys' TID Managers and a select group of YNT network scouts will be on-hand to guide the camp, while the U-15 MYNT head coach also attends.

From the National ID Camp, players may have the opportunity to advance to the U-15 MYNT the following year and continue to progress through the YNT pathway.

In addition to expanding the YNT player pool at its early stages, this scouting and identification structure allows top players at the U-14 age level time to absorb core principles of the YNT philosophy and accelerate their development. Each region's best talents compete against each other in three additional meaningful games. Additionally, travel is minimized through the first stages of the program, helping minimize days away from home, school and club.

The program also offers the opportunity to bolster U.S. Soccer's national network of scouts to further their education and development while also building the Federation's connection with clubs across the country. While TID Managers are on-hand at Regional Mini-Camps, the four sub-regional teams are coached by scouts from U.S. Soccer's YNT Scouting Network.

In recent years, the United States' play at the Youth National Team level has confirmed its status as a top youth nation in Concacaf and in the world. In existence since 1997, the U.S. Under-14 National Development Program is a major reason for increasing quality and quantity of young players vying for sports in the U.S. Men's Youth National Teams program.

Prior to the change in structure in 2019, the Under-14 National Development program kicked off in Aug. 1997, with the knowledge that to compete with the elite countries on the international level, the U.S. would have to build a base of players from the youth level up. The U-14 program continues to introduce young players to a level of soccer they would not otherwise see at such a young age and allows the country's top youth players the chance to experience soccer at its highest level.

U.S. SOCCER DEVELOPMENT ACADEMY

OVERVIEW

Following a comprehensive review of elite player development in the United States and around the world, U.S. Soccer created the Development Academy in 2007, subsequently growing the program year over year until its 13th and final season in 2019-20. The Academy grew its programming to include a Girls' Development Academy in fall 2017.

The DA focused on positively impacting everyday club environments to maximize youth player development across the country. Driven by the game and its players, coaches and referees, the Academy's game-centric approach allowed for long-term development through a deep understanding of what makes players successful around the world. The program provided an optimum developmental environment for the nation's top youth soccer players, coaches and referees by emphasizing development through quality training and limited, meaningful competition using international rules of competition.

ELITE STANDARDS

Academy teams spent a greater amount of time focused on training to improve as individuals and as a team. DA teams would train four times per week and receive direct feedback and evaluations from U.S. Soccer staff.

The program featured teams from the top youth clubs around the country. Each Academy team would play approximately 30 regular-season games during a 10-month fall-to-summer schedule to ensure games were meaningful. Games were also played according to FIFA's Laws of the Game and officiated by a pool of the nation's top young referees in order to prepare players for the next level of competition. U.S. Soccer National Team scouts regularly attended Academy games, so players were evaluated over the course of the season and in their natural positions, allowing for better player assessment.

ACADEMY LAUNCHES GIRLS' DEVELOPMENT ACADEMY

In an effort to accelerate the development of world-class female players, U.S. Soccer launched the Girls' Development Academy Program in fall 2017. The Girls' Academy program focused on positively impacting the everyday club environments to assist in maximizing female youth player development across the country. The implementation of the Girls' Development Academy came as part of U.S. Soccer's global leadership position in women's soccer and impacted thousands of players. The program also worked alongside the NWSL and its efforts to support player development and the long-term growth of professional soccer.

PROVEN SUCCESSES

While the program closed its doors in 2020, it dramatically impacted the player development process in the United States. During its operation, several hundred players from Academy clubs were included in U.S. Youth National Teams. Many former Academy players have signed with professional clubs both domestically and abroad. Virtually all college programs used the Academy program as a scouting vehicle, and the program received increased attention from professional scouts representing domestic and international clubs as it continued to mature.

EXTENDED NATIONAL TEAMS

The Extended National Teams is a division of U.S. Soccer's Sporting Department focused on extending opportunities beyond the traditional 11-a-side game by championing awareness, access, growth and high-performance environments on the grass, court and sand.

THE TEAMS

The ENT Department now includes nine different U.S. Soccer National Teams, four of them Women's National Teams:

- Beach Soccer (MNT & WNT)
- Futsal (MNT & WNT)
- CP (MNT & WNT)
- Deaf (MNT & WNT)
- Power Soccer (Coed NT)

BEACH AND FUTSAL PROGRAMS

Beach Soccer and Futsal are both five-a-side competitions that play in official men's FIFA World Cups every two and four years, respectively. Futsal is played indoors on a court with no walls, and Beach Soccer is, of course, played at the beach and showcases a unique culture at the highest level of the sport.

The U.S. Men's Futsal National Team has played international matches since 1986, and has participated in six FIFA Futsal World Cups, finishing third at the inaugural event in 1989 and runners-up in 1992. After missing out on the previous two tournaments, the Futsal MNT returned to the World Cup in 2021.

The U.S. Men's Beach Soccer National Team operated independently from U.S. Soccer since 1994, but became a Federation-run program in 2005, coinciding with FIFA's launch of the Beach Soccer World Cup. The Beach MNT has taken part in six FIFA World Cups, and heads to its seventh at the 2024 tournament in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

In 2022, U.S. Soccer announced the launch of the U.S. Women's Futsal National Team. The team held its first Identification Camps the following year, with the goal of playing its first international matches in 2024 and participating in the first FIFA Women's Futsal World Cup to be played in 2025.

First launched in 2019, the U.S. Women's Beach Soccer National Team competes in various competitions throughout the year, such as the Intercontinental Cup, Mundialito, and ANOC World Beach Games. While there isn't yet a Women's Beach Soccer World Cup, that day could be coming.

The Beach Soccer and Futsal National Teams see a variety of athletes playing for the love of the game, often seeing them achieve that impossible dream of playing for their country at World Cup.

ADAPTIVE NATIONAL TEAM PROGRAMS

CP, Deaf and Power Soccer are three disciplines showcasing athletes with disabilities pushing themselves to excel at the highest levels of the sport.

Deaf Soccer is an 11-a-side sport for players with significant hearing impairments. Both the men's and women's NTs have a four-year cycle of competition that includes the Deaflympics and DIFA World Deaf Championship tournaments once every four years.

CP Soccer is one of the oldest forms of soccer for players with disabilities, having been played since the 1980s, and predominantly features players with cerebral palsy, stroke or traumatic brain injuries. The team has frequently featured a number of U.S. military veterans through the years. At the 2022 IFCPF World Cup, the CP MNT finished in the top four for the first time in program history.

Power Soccer is the first competitive team sport designed and developed specifically for power wheelchair users. It gives an opportunity to people with an array or different disabilities, including athletes with quadriplegia, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, cerebral palsy and many others. The co-ed U.S. team won the first two FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cups in 2007 and 2011, and finished third at the most recent World Cup in 2023.

U.S. SOCCER'S MEMBERSHIP

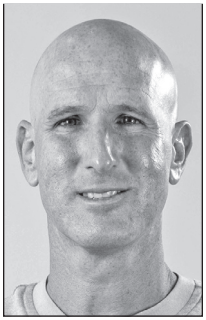

Beyond the official U.S. Soccer National Teams detailed above, U.S. Soccer's membership includes the following Disabled Service Organizations, some of which run their own independent National Team programs. U.S. Soccer has established an annual support application process for any of our members organizations to request assistance at every level, up to and including becoming an official National Team managed by U.S. Soccer. The organizations listed below are autonomous institutions aligned with U.S. Soccer as members.

- American Amputee Soccer Association
- Down Syndrome Sports of America
- Dwarf Athletic Association of America
- U.S. Association of Blind Athletes
- Cerebral Palsy Soccer
- USA Deaf Soccer
- US Power Soccer Association

U.S. MEN'S BEACH SOCCER NATIONAL TEAM

Head Coach: Francis Farberoff
Major Competition: 2024 FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup; Dubai, UAE

The U.S. Men's Beach Soccer National Team will head to the 2024 FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup in Dubai on the heels of a record-setting 2023 campaign. In a year that saw the USA qualify for its seventh World Cup, Francis Farberoff's side achieved an 11-3-0 record, standing as the USBMNT's most wins since U.S. Soccer began overseeing the Beach Soccer National Team in 2005. The record was achieved on the strength of six straight victories at the 2023 Concacaf Beach Soccer Championship, including an enthralling 5-0 defeat of Mexico to claim the USA's fourth confederation title and first since 2013. The team now sets its sights on Dubai, where it will look to become the first U.S. side to advance from the group stage at a Beach Soccer World Cup.

Francis FARBEROFF

HEAD COACH: U.S. Men's Beach Soccer National Team
HOMETOWN: Miami, Fla.

Francis Farberoff was named head coach of the U.S. Men's Beach Soccer National Team in July 2020. After helping the Men's Beach Soccer National Team return to the FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup as an assistant in 2019, he led the team to three-consecutive qualifications in 2023 for the first time since 2005-07, as the team won that year's Concacaf Beach Soccer Championship for the first time since 2013.

Farberoff captained the Men's Beach NT from 2003 to 2014, appearing in over 100 matches for the team during his 14-year international career. Shortly after his retirement in 2014, he joined the Men's Beach NT as an assistant coach and served in the role for five years. In 2019, he led the Beach Women's National Team as head coach during its first year of play.

The Men's Beach NT veteran is certified by FIFA and Concacaf as a Beach Soccer Instructor, authoring Concacaf's first technical manual on the sport. In 2019, he helped the Men's Beach NT return to the FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup for the first time in six years and led the Beach WNT to a fifth-place finish at its first-ever world competition, the 2019 World Beach Games. He has previously served as the acting Men's Beach NT head coach for a number of international matches.

As a player, Farberoff represented the USA at eight beach soccer world championship events, including four FIFA Beach Soccer World Cups. He won four Concacaf Beach Soccer Championships in seven appearances with the Men's Beach NT and took home tournament MVP honors at the 2006 competition in Costa Rica. In addition to his extensive FIFA and Concacaf experience, Farberoff played in Beach Copa Americas and international invitational tourneys around the globe.

Currently, Farberoff is based in Miami, Fla. and works as president of FBS-FC in Miami, leading a youth club of over 500 players and implementing beach soccer and futsal in training. He played four years of collegiate soccer at St. Thomas University outside Miami before launching his beach soccer career.

BEACH SOCCER HISTORY

Born on the beaches in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, beach soccer has long been played informally on sandy shorelines around the world. Despite its South American roots, the game was codified in 1992 by a group in Los Angeles and one year later the first professional beach soccer competition was held at Miami Beach with the USA hosting Brazil, Argentina and Italy.

In 1994, the first World Championship was held for beach soccer in Rio de Janeiro, and the U.S. team had modest success with a second-place finish in 1995 and a third-place finish in 1997. FIFA recognized beach soccer beginning in 2005, and will stage its 12th Beach Soccer World Cup in Dubai, United Arab Emirates in 2024.

In 2005, qualifying for the Beach Soccer World Cup for the U.S. was a combined tournament with North and South America. Since then, CONCACAF has hosted its own Beach Soccer Qualifying Tournament, with the U.S. winning both the 2006 and 2007 editions before dropping two of the team's three matches in 2008 and failing to qualify for the 2008 FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup.

The U.S. kicked off 2013 by winning the CONCACAF Beach Soccer Championship in Nassau, the Bahamas, with a 5-4 overtime victory against El Salvador. The team qualified for the 2013 FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup by virtue of a 4-2 victory against Costa Rica in the semifinals.

At the 2013 FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup, the U.S. was drawn into Group A with Spain, host Tahiti and the United Arab Emirates. Despite a 6-4 victory against UAE in the final group game, the U.S. finished in third place and did not advance to the knockout rounds. The tournament started with a 5-4 loss to Spain, followed by a 5-3 loss in extra time to Tahiti that eliminated the team from the knockout rounds.

The U.S. team's attempt to qualify for the 2015 FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup began well, as the U.S. navigated through its group and past Jamaica in the Quarterfinal Round. The U.S. fell 4-3 to Mexico in a tight Semifinal affair and fell 5-2 to hosts El Salvador in the Third-Place match, failing to qualify for the final tournament in Portugal.

In 2017, the USA put on a valiant attempt to qualify for the 2017 FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup at the 2017 CONCACAF Beach Soccer Championship. The U.S. rolled past its group stage opponents, winning all three matches, but fell to Panama 6-4 in a tough Quarterfinal. The USA then defeated Jamaica and tournament hosts Bahamas to take fifth place in the CONCACAF tournament, thus failing to qualify for the Beach Soccer World Cup set to take place in Bahamas later in the year.

The USA returned to the world stage in 2019, qualifying for the World Cup in thrilling fashion. After emerging from the group stage with all nine points, including a hard-fought 3-2 win against Bahamas, the U.S. downed Guadeloupe 5-1 in the quarterfinals. With a World Cup berth in the balance, El Salvador awaited in the semifinals. Despite never leading in regulation, a goal off a throw-in with just over a minute remaining tied things late. The match proceeded to penalties, and the USA sunk all five attempts to punch its ticket to Paraguay for the World Cup.

In 2021, the U.S. made it back-to-back World Cup appearances for the first time since 2006-2007. After a narrow loss to Costa Rica on its home sand saw the USA finish second in its group at the 2021 Concacaf Beach Soccer Championship, the Beach MNT edged Panama 4-3 on a late goal in the quarterfinals to set up a showdown with Mexico in the World Cup-clinching semifinals. The U.S. pulled away down the stretch to top El Tri 5-2 and punch its World Cup ticket before falling 6-4 to El Salvador in the championship match. At the World Cup in Russia, the USA put up a valiant effort but dropped all three matches, including an overtime 5-4 loss to eventual champion Football Union of Russia.

In 2023, the USA won the Concacaf Beach Soccer Championship and qualified for its seventh Beach Soccer World Cup to be held in February 2024 in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

BASIC LAWS OF THE GAME

Beach Soccer is played on a field that is approximately 36 meters long and 27 meters wide. The game is played on sand that is a minimum of 40 centimeters deep and players must be barefoot. Five players, including a goalkeeper, are on the field at one time and play three, 12 minute periods.

There are up to seven substitutes on the bench, and like Futsal, there are unlimited substitutions. In instances where games cannot end in ties, and are decided by a three-minute overtime and then kicks from the penalty spot, which is an imaginary mark on an imaginary penalty area line nine meters from the goal.

Other rules include:

- After a ball goes out of bounds, it can be thrown or kicked back in play.
- Goalkeepers can pick up the first back pass from a teammate per possession.
- Players taking a free kick can make a small mound of sand to place the ball on.

U.S. MEN'S FUTSAL NATIONAL TEAM

Head Coach: Hewerton Moreira
Major Competitions: 2024 Concacaf Futsal Championship; Nicaragua
2024 FIFA Futsal World Cup; Uzbekistan

Long-time indoor soccer pro and coach Hewerton Moreira was appointed U.S. Men's Futsal National Team head coach in August 2023 and undertook his first training camp with the team the following month. Moreria will utilize training camps early in the year to prepare the squad for February's Concacaf Futsal Championship in Nicaragua where the top four finishers will advance to the 2024 FIFA Futsal World Cup to be held Sept. 14-Oct. 6 in Uzbekistan.

FUTSAL RELAUNCH

The U.S. Men's Futsal National Team returned to the court for the first time in five years in 2021 and qualified for the FIFA Futsal World Cup for the first time since 2008.
The program was relaunched in fall 2019, and while the Futsal NT's scheduled build-up to the Concacaf Futsal Championship was interrupted by the global COVID-19 pandemic, the team would go on to have its most successful campaign in over a decade.

At the 2021 Concacaf Championship in Guatemala, the USA won its group with an undefeated run against El Salvador, Nicaragua and Cuba. Facing Dominican Republic in the World Cup-clinching semifinals, the U.S. emerged triumphant with a 2-0 win to punch its ticket to Lithuania 2021. The Futsal NT's runner-up finish was its best since 2004. The U.S. struggled against a very difficult group of Argentina, IR Iran and Serbia at September's World Cup, but the future remains bright for the Futsal National Team program.

FUTSAL HISTORY

Futsal is a sport that is derived from soccer and played with five-man teams on a basketball-style court, with no walls and a smaller, low-bouncing ball. It is unlike the sport of indoor soccer, which is played with six-man squads and walls on turf. Great soccer superstars such as Pele, Zico, and Ronaldo grew up playing futsal and credit the game with developing their skills.

The first FIFA Futsal World Cup was held in the Netherlands in 1989. In 1992 the U.S. Futsal Team set the mark for highest finish for a U.S. male National Team at a FIFA competition, with a second-place finish behind legendary indoor goalkeeper Victor Nogueira and stars from the Indoor leagues like Ted Eck, Jim Gabarra and Dale Ervine. The 1992 Team also included Jeff Agoos and Fernando Clavijo, who later appeared in World Cups for the full Men's National Team.

MISL and other U.S. indoor soccer leagues have been providing the Futsal Team with its player pool since the first games played in 1986. Former U.S. head coach Keith Tozer, an indoor coaching legend in his own right, was part of the inaugural team.

Futsal has experienced a massive growth in popularity and in 2008, the World Cup was expanded to 20 teams for the first time. Once seen as an amateur sport that players would use to hone their skills before transitioning to the outdoor game, many of the participating nations in the World Cup now sport their own professional futsal leagues and play dozens of full internationals a year. In 2014, futsal was implemented into U.S. Soccer Development Academy programming.

Hewerton MOREIRA

HEAD COACH: U.S. Men's Futsal National Team
BORN: Oct. 31, 1979
HOMETOWN: Santos, Brazil

Hewerton Moreira joined U.S. Soccer in August 2023 as head coach of the U.S. Men's Futsal National Team, ahead of the team's bid to qualify for a second-straight FIFA Futsal World Cup at the Concacaf Futsal Championships in February 2024.

Moreira brings a wealth of experience to the position, having spent 23 years as a player in futsal, indoor and outdoor soccer and 17 years as a coach. A native of Santos, Brazil, Moreira played professional futsal in his home country for Santos Futsal Clube, Saldanha da Gama, Osan Futebol Clube, A.A. Portuarios and FEFIS-UNIMES FC, winning nine consecutive futsal league championships from 1997 to 2004. He was also part of the Brazil Futsal National Team player pool in 1995 and 1998.

In 2004, Moreira came to the United States where he carved out a hugely successful 16-year indoor soccer career, registering 198 goals and 174 assists in 301 matches for various clubs in the Major Indoor Soccer League and Major Arena Soccer League. Moreira's most successful spell as a player came during two different stints with the Milwaukee Wave, helping the club to three MISL championships in 2004-05, 2010-11 and 2011-12.

Moreira, 43, began coaching youth soccer while still playing professionally in 2006 and took his first professional management role as player/coach of the MASL's Cedar Rapids Rampage in 2016. The following season Moreira was appointed head coach of the St. Louis Ambush where he served for four seasons. More recently he worked as Technical Director of Chicago Street Futsal in 2021 before becoming head coach of the MASL's Utica City FC in 2022, a role he will continue concurrent with his duties as head coach of the U.S. Men's Futsal National Team.

Moreira takes the reins of a side coming off a regenerative cycle which saw it finish as runners-up at the 2021 Concacaf Futsal Championship and earn qualification to the 2022 FIFA Futsal World Cup in Lithuania – the team's first World Cup appearance since 2008.

Holder of a Brazilian CREF/CONFEF "A" Coaching License, Moreira also has a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education from FEFIS-UNIMES University in Santos, Brazil. A U.S. citizen since 2022, he is fluent in English, Portuguese and Spanish.

U.S. MEN'S CEREBRAL PALSY NATIONAL TEAM

Head Coach: Stuart Sharp
Major Competition: 2024 IFCPF Men's World Cup; Spain

The U.S. Men's CP National Team continued to find success when it claimed the Bronze Medal at the 2023 Parapan American Games in Santiago, Chile. After an opening 4-2 win against the hosts, the team fell in tough back-to-back defeats to Argentina (2-1 L) and Brazil (2-0 L) before rallying with wins against Venezuela (1-0) and Canada (6-0) to finish third in the six-team group and advance to the Medal Round. There, the USA faced a rematch against Venezuela where a brace from Shea Hammond and a single strike from Frankie Lowery pushed the side to another Bronze Medal and the team's third-straight top-four finish at a major competition, following the Bronze earned at the 2019 Games in Lima Peru, and the fourth-place finish at the 2022 IFCPF World Cup in Salou, Spain. With another strong performance behind it, the veteran U.S. squad will look for even more when it returns to the 2024 IFCPF World Cup in April.

ABOUT CEREBRAL PALSY (CP) SOCCER

The U.S. Men's Cerebral Palsy (CP) National Team is an elite program that selects players from across the United States in preparation for international standard competition. The Men's CP NT, in addition to challenge matches and invitational tournaments, competes in World Championships, Copa Americas, the Para PanAmerican Games and more.

To be eligible for CP soccer, athletes must be ambulatory and have a diagnosis of non-progressive brain damage that is associated with motor control dysfunction such as Cerebral Palsy, traumatic brain injury or stroke. More information about eligibility and the classification of athletes is available at ifcpf.com.

LAWS OF THE GAME

CP soccer is a seven vs. seven game using the International Federation of Associated Football (FIFA) rules which have been slightly modified to accommodate the impairments of the players. The smaller field is 70 meters long and 50 meters wide with smaller goals which are five meters wide by two meters tall.

Some of the exceptions to FIFA rules include:

- No offside rule
- Under-arm throw-ins are permitted
- Defenders are required to be seven meters from the ball on restarts
- The game is 60 minutes long with two 30-minute halves

Stuart SHARP

HEAD COACH: U.S. Men's Cerebral Palsy National Team
BORN: July 2, 1978
HOMETOWN: Old Kilpatrick, Scotland

Stuart Sharp has been at the helm of the U.S. Men's Cerebral Palsy National Team since 2014 and has served as Senior Technical Director of the Extended National Team Program since 2022. In his tenure with the Men's CP NT, Sharp has guided the team to a 39-34-9 record and a No. 4 world ranking, its highest-ever mark.

The team has achieved impressive finishes in major tournaments, recently earning its best-ever world championship finish with a fourth-place showing at the 2022 IFCPF World Cup. Sharp has led the USA to back-to-back Bronze Medals at the 2019 and 2023 Parapan American Games, and also oversaw the USA's sixth place finish at the 2019 IFCPF World Cup.

In addition, the U.S. took home the bronze medal at the 2018 IFCPF Copa America and fifth place at the 2017 IFCPF CP Football World Championships, its previous best finish at a world championship in the modern era of the sport. As a result, the group was recognized for its efforts with the 2017 United Soccer Coaches Honorary All-America Award.

The Men's CP NT also earned a seventh-place finish at the 2016 Paralympic Games, for which it qualified by a strong result at the 2015 IFCPF Football World Championships.

Sharp previously held the position of National Development Manager (Disability) for the Scottish Football Association in addition to being head coach of the Scottish CP National Team from 2005-11. Under his stewardship, the team climbed from 32nd in the world to hold a steady sixth-place ranking and earn a qualifying position for the 2008 and 2012 Paralympic Games. His work with the Scottish National CP Team saw him named Scottish Disability Sport National Coach of the Year in 2007, and the team was named the Scottish Sports Awards Team of the Year in 2008.

During his time with the Scottish FA, Sharp developed a player pathway for those with disabilities that included National Teams, regional squads, regional school leagues, a coaching education course and multiple clubs that serviced six different disability categories. He was also a key member of the successful Bid Team and Local Organizing Committee for the 2010 CPISRA European Championships.

In addition to his coaching credentials, Sharp serves as the Head of Technical Development and Chaired the World Coaches Technical Committee for the International Federation of Cerebral Palsy Football (formerly the Cerebral Palsy International Sport and Recreation Association), the world's soccer governing body for Para 7-a-side athletes. He has worked with IFCPF/CPISRA since 2007.

U.S. MEN'S DEAF SOCCER NATIONAL TEAM

In 2023, the USDMNT took part in its first competition as part of U.S. Soccer's Extended National Teams program at the 2023 DIFA World Deaf Football Championships in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. The USA navigated a difficult group stage that featured the tournament hosts, along with two deaf football powers in Egypt and Germany, to advance to the Knockout Round. There, the team battled and upset one of the tournament favorites England 1-0 to earn a third berth in World Championships quarterfinal. The USA fell 1-0 to Senegal in a tight affair, before taking Iran to penalty kicks in the first of two placement matches. In its final game, the USA dropped a 2-1 decision to France to take eighth out of 19 teams at the tournament.

 2023 DIFA Deaf Football World Championships*

ABOUT DEAF SOCCER

Deaf soccer is contested by deaf and hard-of-hearing athletes. Under international criteria, players must have a hearing loss of at least 55 decibels in their better ear. Hearing loss below this level has been shown to negatively impact hearing. All players competing in deaf matches must remove all hearing aids before playing.

For more information on the sport or to inquire about athlete eligibility, please contact U.S. Soccer's Extended National Teams Department via email at extendednt@ussoccer.org.

HISTORY OF THE U.S. MEN'S DEAF NATIONAL TEAM

The USA made its deaf soccer world championship debut on home soil at the 1965 Deaflympics in Washington, D.C. The fourth-place finish at the 2008 World Deaf Football Championships is its best world championship finish, while the squad won the 2019 Deaf PanAm Games.

This fall's World Deaf Football Championships mark the first world championship event for the Men's Deaf National Team under U.S. Soccer supervision. The Deaf USMNT officially became a part of the Extended National Teams program in 2022 and held its first training camp/matches under U.S. Soccer in July of that year as the Federation builds out programming for soccer in all its forms.

U.S. POWER SOCCER NATIONAL TEAM

Head Coach: Tracy Mayer

The year 2023 saw the U.S. Power Soccer National Team take part in its first competition under U.S. Soccer, with Tracy Mayer's side finishing third at the FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cup in Sydney, Australia. Winners of the first two World Cups in 2007 and 2011, the USA continued to show itself as one of the top countries in Powerchair Football during its time in Sydney. Tracy Mayer's side demonstrated its prowess on set pieces, with center Pete Winslow serving up a tournament-leading 15 assists, while winger Lexi Heer led the team with six goals. After a strong performance in the group stage, the USA dropped a narrow 1-0 decision to England in the Semifinal, but rebounded behind two goals from Heer to defeat Argentina 2-1 and claim the Bronze Medal.

2023 FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cup*

The U.S. Power Soccer National Team has competed independently since 2007, and officially joined U.S. Soccer's Extended National Team program in 2022 as part of U.S. Soccer's effort to build out programming for soccer in all of its forms. Power Soccer is the first competitive team sport developed specifically for powerchair users and has been played internationally since 2006.

The USA has been one of the top teams in the world since international play began, winning the 2007 and 2011 FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cups, and finishing as runners-up in the 2017 edition. Having qualified for this year's edition by winning the 2019 Copa America, the USA will head to Sydney, Australia in October looking to claim its third World Cup title.

The co-ed Power Soccer National Team is for athletes who use power chairs and can qualify through a variety of conditions, including quadriplegia, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, and cerebral palsy, among others. The game is played in a gymnasium on a regulation basketball court with four players who attack, defend, and spin-kick a 13-inch soccer ball in a skilled and challenging game similar to mainstream soccer.

If you or someone you know qualifies for the Power Soccer National Team (co-ed), you can contact us via email at ExtendedNT@ussoccer.org for more information on potential playing opportunities.

Tracy MAYER

HEAD COACH: U.S. Power Soccer National Team
HOMETOWN: Minneapolis, Minn.

Tracy Mayer was named head coach of the U.S. Power Soccer National Team in October 2021 and led the Power Soccer National Team to a third-place finish at the 2023 FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cup in Australia.

Mayer joined U.S. Soccer from the Minnesota Shockwave, a Premier Conference team that's part of the U.S. Power Soccer Association's robust club development system. Mayer has coached club teams in Minnesota since 2006, winning five national championships (including titles in 2019 and 2022).

In addition to his club coaching experience, Mayer previously supported the national team in various capacities and has served as a National Tournament Director for USPSA. He also has experience as a referee at the club and international level.

Power Soccer has been played internationally since 2006 and is the first competitive team sport developed specifically for power wheelchair users.

COMPETITIONS

FIFA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Federation Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) currently conducts eight major outdoor soccer world championships played at the international level. Those tournaments are the FIFA World Cup, the FIFA Women's World Cup, the Men's Olympic Football Tournament, the Women's Olympic Football Tournament, the FIFA Under-20 World Cup, the FIFA Under-17 World Cup, the FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup and the FIFA Under-17 Women's World Cup. Additionally, FIFA also conducts the Futsal World Cup every four years, and the Beach Soccer World Cup every two years. A quick synopsis of these tournaments is listed below. More detail can be found on USA performances at each of these tournaments throughout the U.S. Men's National Team Media Guide and the U.S. Women's National Team Media Guide.

FIFA WORLD CUP

The FIFA World Cup has been played 22 times since the first competition in 1930 in Uruguay. The tournament has grown in stature over the years and has become not only the biggest sporting event in the world, but also simply the biggest event in the world every four years. Outside of the USA's third-place finish in the inaugural tournament, the team's quarterfinal run in 2002 is the team's best ever World Cup finish.

FIFA WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

The FIFA Women's World Cup has been contested on seven occasions with the USA earning three championships (China '91, USA '99, Canada '15), Germany two (USA '03 and China '07) and Norway (Sweden '95) and Japan (Germany '11) one each. The Women's World Cup returned to North America in 2015, with Canada hosting an expanded 24-team field after the previous four editions featured 16 nations. After falling to Japan on penalty kicks in the 2011 final, the U.S. navigated its way back to a rematch with the defending World Cup champions, earning a 5-2 victory on July 5 in Vancouver to become the first nation to capture three Women's World Cup championships. More detailed information on the Women's World Cup can be found in the U.S. Women's National Team media guide.

OLYMPIC FOOTBALL TOURNAMENTS

After competing as an exhibition sport at the 1900 and 1904 Olympic Games, soccer became the first team sport included in the Olympics with the first official tournament dating back to the 1908 London Games when the United Kingdom defeated Denmark to claim the gold medal. Since that time soccer has been part of every Olympic Games except the 1932 event in the United States.

On the women's side, the sport wasn't introduced to the Olympics until the 1996 competition in the United States. The U.S. claimed the inaugural gold medal in women's Olympic football by defeating China 2-1 on Aug. 1, 1996, in front of a capacity crowd of 76,481 fans in Athens, Georgia.

The growth of professional football after World War II meant that some of the best players were not eligible to compete in the Olympics. Nevertheless, the Olympic Tournament retained its vitality as the forum for the amateur game. In 1952, Hungary's great generation with players such as Grosics, Czibor, Puskas and Kocsis won the tournament in Helsinki. After that, and until Los Angeles in 1984, all the Olympic titles went to Eastern Europe, a span of eight straight tournaments.

When the Olympics moved into their modern era, FIFA was obliged to reconsider its position for the Barcelona 1992 tournament, where for the first time, the tournament was restricted to Under-23 national teams. In 1996, FIFA altered the U-23 designation slightly, allowing teams to add three overage players into the mix.

Through the 1928 Olympics in Holland, Olympic caps were counted as full international appearances, but that designation changed with the advent of the World Cup in 1930. Although the Olympic Games football tournament actually falls under the realm of the International Olympic Committee, FIFA presides over the event on behalf of the IOC.

FIFA UNDER-20 WORLD CUP

Contested every two years, the FIFA Under-20 World Cup is restricted to players under 20 years of age. The tournament was renamed from the FIFA World Youth Championship in 2006. The U.S. has qualified for the tournament on 16 occasions, finishing fourth in 1989 (Saudi Arabia). At the most recent tournament in 2019 in Poland, the U.S. opened group play 2-1 loss to eventual champions Ukraine before reeling off victories against Nigeria (2-0) and Qatar (1-0) to advance to the knockout stage. In the Round of 16, the U-20 MNT won a thrilling game against favorites France 3-2 to move on to the quarterfinals where it faced eventual third place finisher Ecuador and dropped an incredibly competitive match, 2-1. The U-20 MNT's performance marked the third consecutive time the team reached the quarterfinals after also doing so in 2017 and 2015, making the USA the only nation to reach the quarterfinals of the last three U-20 World Cups. Forward Eddie Johnson became the first U.S. player to win a Golden Boot at a FIFA World Championship in 2003. After finishing second in the 1999 and 2001 group phase, the U.S. went one better, winning its group three consecutive tournaments from 2003-07.

FIFA UNDER-20 WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

Renamed the FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup in 2008, the tournament was staged as a U-20 event for the first time in 2006 after two initial tournaments were played as Under-19 events. The inaugural FIFA U-19 Women's World Championship was held in Canada from Aug. 17-Sept. 1, 2002, with 12 teams. That first tournament was an incredible success, with the USA capturing the first championship via a Lindsay Tarpley golden goal in a 1-0 victory in front of 47,784 fans in Edmonton, Canada. The U.S. fell to Germany in the semifinals in Thailand in 2004, and in 2006 finished out of the top three for the first time in program history. In 2008, however, Golden Ball winner Sydney Leroux and Silver Ball winner Alex Morgan returned the U.S. to the top of the podium. After getting knocked out once again in penalty kicks in 2010, this time in the quarterfinal, a 1-0 victory against Germany in the 2012 U-20 Women's World Cup Final in Tokyo capped a remarkable run by the young Americans with defender and captain Julie Ertz (neé Johnston) earning the Bronze Ball. In 2014, the USA once again fell on penalty kicks, losing to Korea DPR in a quarterfinal shootout after drawing 1-1, and in 2016 it finished in fourth place after losing to eventual World Cup champion Korea DPR in the semifinal, 2-1. The 2018 edition of the tournament saw the U.S. ousted from a tough group that included champions Japan and runner-up Spain.

FIFA UNDER-17 WORLD CUP

The Under-17 World Championship is contested every two years for players less than 17 years of age. The U.S. was the only team in the world to qualify for every U-17 World Championship, from the tournament's inception in 1985 through 2013. The first three tournaments were actually played as U-16 World Championship tournaments, but FIFA changed the event to its present U-17 status in 1989. The Concacaf region hosted the tournament for a second time in 2001, when Trinidad & Tobago served as the first-ever Caribbean host for a FIFA World Championship. Mexico became the first Concacaf team to win an outdoor men's world championship in 2005 with an impressive triumph in Peru before winning the tournament a second time in 2013 as the host country. The U.S. achieved its best result in 1999, finishing fourth. In 2019, the U-17 MNT did not escape its group which contained semifinalists the Netherlands, Senegal and Japan.

FIFA UNDER-17 WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

The FIFA Under-17 Women's World Cup was played for the first time in 2008 in New Zealand. The U.S. made an impressive run to the final where it was defeated by Korea DPR in overtime. In 2012 in Azerbaijan, the USA was drawn into a group with eventual finalists France and Korea DPR, and despite not losing a game and earning five points in the group, the young Americans failed to advance to the knockout stage, becoming the first women's team in a FIFA event to earn five points in its group but not advance. The USA did not qualify for the 2010 or 2014 U-17 Women's World Cups, losing in penalty kicks in the semifinal of the qualifying tournaments. The USA failed to advance past the group stage in both 2016 and 2018.

FIFA FUTSAL WORLD CUP

The FIFA Futsal World Cup has been contested seven times with Brazil winning the first three tournaments, and Spain winning two championships in 2000 and 2004 before Brazil returned to glory as hosts in 2008 and defeated Spain for a fifth title in 2012. The Futsal World Cup is the only indoor tournament hosted by FIFA. The 1992 second-place finish was the best-ever showing in a FIFA event by a U.S. men's team, and came on the heels of a third-place finish in 1989.

FIFA BEACH SOCCER WORLD CUP

Beach soccer became a part of the FIFA family in 2005 when the first FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup was staged on Copacabana Beach in Rio de Janeiro. To everyone's surprise, France defeated Portugal in the final, while Brazil fell in the semis; however, Brazil rebounded to win four straight tournaments from 2006-09. 2011 marked the first time the competition was played biennially and ushered in a new era of dominance as Russia upended Brazil in the final before defeating Spain in 2013 to claim a second straight championship. In 2015, hosts Portugal knocked off Russia in the semifinals before defeating Tahiti to claim its first Beach Soccer World Cup. Portugal captured its second title in 2019, which the USA qualified for but did not escape its group that featured semifinalists Japan and host nation Paraguay.

FIFA CONFEDERATIONS CUP

The Confederations Cup was contested under FIFA's auspices for the first time in 1997 and replaced the Intercontinental Championship, which was staged in 1992 and 1995 with all three tournaments held in Saudi Arabia. In 1999, the Confederations Cup was held in Mexico and it returned to Asia in 2001, where it was staged as a precursor to the 2002 FIFA World Cup in Korea and Japan. In 2005, the competition became quadrennial, staged one year before the World Cup in the tournament's host country. Brazil has won the last three editions of the tournament from 2005-13, defeating the U.S. in the final of the 2009 edition after the USA had built a 2-0 half-time lead.

FIFA CONFEDERATIONS CUP

2009 FIFA Confederations Cup (South Africa)

Winning the 2007 Concacaf Gold Cup earned the U.S. a spot in the 2009 FIFA Confederations Cup in South Africa – the second consecutive tournament held one year before the FIFA World Cup in the host country. The U.S. started shaky and were dismissed by the two defending FIFA World Cup champions, Italy and Brazil, by a combined 6-1 score in the first two matches of the 2009 event. Needing to score at least three goals and on the verge of elimination in their third game against Egypt, the U.S. overcame incredible odds and advanced to the semifinals on goals by Charlie Davies, Michael Bradley and Clint Dempsey. Once through to the semifinals, the U.S. stunned the world by defeating Spain and ending the European Champion's 35-game unbeaten streak. Tim Howard made eight saves as Jozy Altidore and Dempsey scored, sending the U.S. men to their first-ever final in a FIFA tournament. In the final the U.S. would again face Brazil, and Dempsey scored in his third-straight game with Landon Donovan adding another as the U.S. was up 2-0 on Brazil in the 27th minute. The U.S. would hold on until halftime, but just a minute into the second half Brazil scored and continued attacking in waves, eventually coming from behind for a 3-2 victory. Still, the second-place finish was the best performance ever for the team in a FIFA competition. Dempsey was honored by winning the Bronze Ball, while Howard won the Golden Glove – the first such awards for the U.S. at a FIFA tournament.

2003 FIFA Confederations Cup (France)

In 2003, the U.S. returned to the Confederations Cup, which was held in Europe for the first time. Drawn with Cameroon, Turkey and Brazil, the U.S. opened play against the Turks, but fell to a 2-1 defeat. Though DaMarcus Beasley opened the scoring, a resilient Turkey side fought back and eventually grabbed the winner in the 73rd minute. In the next match, the U.S. again met Brazil in the group stage, a rematch from the 1999 tournament, and the result was a similar 1-0 victory for the Seleção. This time, the Brazilians were powered by an Adriano goal in the 22nd minute. With two defeats from the opening two games, the final match was rendered meaningless, but the U.S. put forth a spirited effort to tie eventual runner-up Cameroon 0-0. The tournament was in the end overshadowed by the untimely death of Cameroonian midfielder Marc-Vivien Foé, who suffered a heart attack during the Africans' semifinal match against Colombia. Though France went on to win the championship courtesy of a Thierry Henry golden goal, the defining image from the 2003 tournament is undoubtedly Marcel Desailly and Rigobert Song, captains of France and Cameroon respectively, holding the winning trophy together in honor of Foé, who died at the age of only 28.

1999 FIFA Confederations Cup (Mexico)

For the first time in seven years, the U.S. competed in the Confederations Cup, which was held in the country of local rival Mexico. Because Mexico, as host, was automatically entered into the draw, the U.S. was put into the competition by virtue of their runner-up finish in the 1998 Gold Cup. The first major competition for then head coach Bruce Arena, the U.S. acquitted itself well and matched its third-place finish from 1992. After an opening defeat of New Zealand, the U.S. was beaten 1-0 by Brazil behind a goal from Ronaldinho. Needing a result in their final Group B game, the Americans came through, and defeated Germany 2-0 for the second time in six months, thanks to goals from Ben Olsen and Joe-Max Moore. Through to the semifinal, the U.S. ran into Mexico and a hostile Azteca Stadium crowd of over 80,000. Though they put up a memorable fight, Bruce Arena's side eventually succumbed to a Cuauhtémoc Blanco golden goal in the 97th minute. Despite the heartbreak of defeat, the U.S. rebounded to down Saudi Arabia 2-0, avenging its loss to the Saudis in 1992 and matching its finish of third-place from that tournament.

1992 King Fahd Cup (Saudi Arabia)

The U.S. team traveled to Saudi Arabia for the first time in its history in 1992 to take part in the King Fahd Cup, as it was then known. As 1991 Concacaf Gold Cup champion, the U.S. earned a berth into the four-team tournament, which also included the Ivory Coast, who won the 1992 African Nations Cup, Argentina, winners of the 1991 Copa América and host nation Saudi Arabia, who was champion of Asia in 1988. In the first game, the U.S. took on Saudi Arabia in the first-ever match between the two countries. In front of a crowd of 70,000 in Riyadh, the Americans were beaten 3-0, courtesy of three second-half goals from The Sons of the Desert. The third-place match saw the U.S. beat the Ivory Coast 5-2, in what is still the only meeting of the two countries. For the U.S., Marcelo Balboa opened the scoring, before future U.S. cap record holder Cobi Jones scored his first international goal. The teams went back and forth before Eric Wynalda eventually grabbed what would prove to be the winning goal in the 56th minute.

OLYMPIC HISTORY

HISTORY OF SOCCER PARTICIPATION

The first official men's Olympic soccer tournament dates back to the 1908 London Games, when Great Britain defeated Denmark to claim the first soccer gold medal. Since that time soccer has been part of every Olympic Games Program, with the exception of the 1932 Los Angeles Games. The 1940 and 1944 Olympic Games were canceled completely due to the political tensions surrounding World War II.

The United States has competed in the men's Olympic finals 13 times, including five straight tournaments from 1984 to 2000. In addition, the U.S. qualified for – but did not compete in – the 1980 Moscow Games following a boycott by the U.S. Olympic Committee. The U.S. missed out on qualifying for the 2004 Athens Olympics, but returned in 2008 after finishing second at the Concacaf qualifying event, which was held in the U.S. The U.S. men qualified for the 2024 Olympics with a dominant 3-0 win over host Honduras in the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Championship semifinal.

In 2012, the U.S. Women's National Team earned its third straight gold medal and fourth overall when it topped 2011 FIFA Women's World Cup champion Japan on Aug. 9 in front of more than 80,000 spectators at Wembley Stadium in London. The U.S. Men were eliminated in Concacaf qualifying in March, dropping to third place in their group following a late El Salvador goal in the closing seconds of a 3-3 draw on March 26.

Up until and including the 1988 Seoul Games, the Olympic soccer tournament was an unrestricted event, and thus the U.S. Olympic Soccer Team was essentially the U.S. National Team. However the tournament structure has changed since that time, and the restrictions on age and experience of players involved in Olympic competition has been under review by FIFA, which makes all tournament recommendations to the International Olympic Committee (IOC).

The 1992 Barcelona Games proved to be the turning point in the Olympic soccer tournament, when the tournament was competed as an under-23 event for the first time. Host Spain captured the title at Barcelona's famed Nou Camp Stadium in front of 95,000 jubilant fans. Spain's progress in the tournament aided struggling attendances in 1992, which were far lower than expected. There is little doubt that the poor attendance in Spain played a role in the changes made for the 1996 Atlanta Games.

Not only did Atlanta '96 signify the first time women's soccer was included in the Olympic Program, but the men's tournament was adapted from its under-23 format in 1992 to include three "overage" players. "Overage" players are those who were either over 23 years of age or who previously played in an Olympic Games soccer tournament. Claudio Reyna (who was age eligible in 1996, but had competed for the U.S. in 1992), Kasey Keller and Alexi Lalas were the USA's overage players in 1996.

In 2000, veteran defenders Jeff Agoos and Frankie Hejduk, as well as goalkeeper Brad Friedel, were selected as the USA's overage players, helping the team on an unprecedented tournament run, which saw the U.S. advance to the medal round before falling in the semifinals to a strong Spanish team.

For the 2008 Olympics in China, Brian McBride agreed to come out of international retirement and captained a team that included Under-23 stars Sacha Kljestan and Freddy Adu, who had paced the U.S. through qualifying. After a 1-0 victory against Japan in the first game, the U.S. was minutes away from upsetting reigning European champions Netherlands, but had to settle for a 2-2 tie after giving up a late free kick goal. In the third group game, eventual runner-up Nigeria took advantage of a third-minute red card by Michael Orozco and held on for a 2-1 win to send the U.S. home despite earning four points.

The U.S. Men finally clinched a return to the Olympic stage at Paris 2024 with a dominant performance at the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Championship. Using a new format that qualified teams to both the FIFA U-20 World Cup and Olympics, the USA punched its ticket back to the Olympics with an emphatic 3-0 win against host Honduras in front of a raucous over-capacity crowd.

The U.S. Women's National Team claimed the inaugural gold medal in women's competition at the Atlanta Games with a 2-1 victory over China before 76,481 fans on Aug. 1, 1996, in Athens, Ga. The attendance mark, which at the time was the largest crowd to ever watch a women's athletic event, set the stage for the incredibly successful Women's World Cup staged in the U.S. in 1999. The gold medal victory culminated an impressive five-game undefeated run through the tournament in which the U.S. Women played in front of packed crowds.

As they did in 1996, the U.S. Women had a strong run to the medal stand in 2000, winning the "Group of Death" that included China, Nigeria and Norway. In the Gold Medal match, a spirited Norway team refused to yield and eventually took home the gold with a thrilling 3-2 overtime triumph.

The 2004 Athens Games were a fitting end for a number of U.S. veterans, including Mia Hamm, Julie Foudy and Joy Fawcett, who went out of the sport as they came into it: as champions. The never-say-die team won both its semifinal and final matches in overtime, courtesy of a Heather O'Reilly strike against Germany and an Abby Wambach goal against Brazil to claim the gold.

Four years later, the U.S. came into the Olympics without Wambach, the team's top scorer who broke her leg in a preparation match. With Pia Sundhage leading the team into her first world championship as head coach, a new class of players including Hope Solo, Carli Lloyd and surprise leading scorer Angela Hucles led the team to gold with a 1-0 victory over Brazil.

In 2012, the U.S. Women went undefeated at 6-0-0 for the first time at an Olympic tournament. The USA's run included a thrilling come-from-behind victory in the semifinal against Canada, with Alex Morgan scoring the game-winner in the 123rd minute for the latest goal ever scored in a FIFA competition. In the gold medal match, Lloyd scored both U.S. goals against Japan and the USA became the first country – in either men's or women's soccer – to earn a fourth gold.

In 2016, the U.S. women defeated New Zealand 2-0 to open their Olympic tournament in Belo Horizonte, and went on to defeat France 1-0 before drawing Colombia 2-2 in Manaus to win the group. In the quarterfinal round, the USA fell to Sweden in penalty kicks following a 1-1 draw through regulation and extra time despite outshooting Sweden 27 to 6 and dominating much of the match. It was the first time in USWNT's history that the team did not medal at an Olympic tournament.

The U.S. Women returned to the podium in 2021, as the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games were postponed one year due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The USA fell to Sweden in the opening match of group play but responded with a 6-1 win over New Zealand and a 0-0 draw against Australia to finish second in the group and advance to the knockout round. In the quarterfinal round, the USA defeated the Netherlands, 4-2 on penalty kicks, following a riveting 2-2 draw through regulation and extra time. After falling to Canada on a late penalty kick in the semifinal, the USWNT bounced back to win the bronze medal with a 4-3 win over Australia. It was the USWNT's sixth Olympic medal overall, the most of any country.

The U.S. Women became just the second nation to earn a berth into the Olympic Women's Soccer Tournament at Paris '24, joining hosts France after beating Canada, 1-0, to win the 2022 Concacaf W Championship.

The Olympic cap listing above is new as of 1999 and was compiled from every U.S. Olympic qualifier and Olympic Games match. Until recently, the U.S. Olympic matches played between 1932 and 1988 were incorrectly recorded as full internationals. Olympic matches from 1924 and 1928 count as full international appearances, as well as Olympic appearances.

COPA AMERICA

The Copa America is the oldest international tournament in South America, dating back to 1916. Since 1993, teams from Concacaf and Asia have taken part in this biennial event as invitees of CONEMBOL. The U.S. made its debut in the tournament in Ecuador in 1993, but was eliminated in the first round. In 1995, the U.S. returned to Copa America, and advanced to the semifinals in Uruguay, eventually finishing in fourth place. After a 12-year absence from the event, the U.S. accepted an invitation to compete in the Venezuela edition of the tournament in 2007, though they were eliminated in the first round. In 2016, the tournament celebrated its 100th anniversary by holding the Copa America Centenario in the USA, combining the 10 nations from CONMEBOL with six qualifiers from Concacaf. Held from June 3-26 in 10 cities across the United States, the tournament drew a record 1,483,855 spectators (46,370 average) and saw the host USA finish fourth, while defending champions Chile defeated Argentina on penalty kicks in the final to win their second-consecutive tournament.

2016 Copa America Centenario (USA)

Celebrating the 100th anniversary of the historic Copa America, the USA hosted a special edition of the tournament, combining the 10 nations from CONMEBOL with six qualifiers from Concacaf for an overall 16-team competition. Kicking off the tournament in front of a sold-out crowd of 67,439 at Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif., the USA surrendered first-half goals to Cristian Zapata and James Rodriguez, as it fell 2-0 to Colombia.

Knowing a second loss would see them exit the tournament earlier than anticipated, the USA responded well four days later against Costa Rica in Chicago. A ninth-minute penalty kick from Clint Dempsey set the tone, before Jermaine Jones' 37th-minute strike and Bobby Wood's 42nd-minute finish put the U.S. up 3-0 at halftime. Coasting through the second half, the USA added a fourth from Graham Zusi in the 87th minute, earning an emphatic 4-0 victory against Los Ticos.

The USA arrived in Philadelphia for its final match against Paraguay knowing that a win would see the side advance out of the group stage of the tournament for the first time since 1995. The USA survived an early scare when defender John Brooks singlehandedly broke up a 3-on-1 counter attack, before Clint Dempsey found the back of the net again in the 27th minute. The USA then held on after defender DeAndre Yedlin was sent off for a second yellow card in the 50th minute, earning a hard-fought 1-0 victory against Paraguay. Combined with Costa Rica's 3-2 upset of Colombia, the USA not only advanced, but finished atop Group A.

That placement set up a quarterfinal date with Ecuador in Seattle. Once again, Dempsey opened the scoring for the USA in the 22nd minute, before an early second-half altercation saw MNT midfielder Jermaine Jones sent off as both teams were reduced to 10 men. Gyasi Zardes added a second goal in the 65th minute and despite Ecuador's Michael Arroyo pulling one back nine minutes later, the U.S. would outlast La Tricolor 2-1, advancing to the semifinals.

With the win, the USA had the honor of facing No. 1 ranked Argentina in Houston and finally met its match. Ezequiel Lavezzi put La Albiceleste on top just three minutes in, before Lionel Messi added a highlight-reel free kick in the 32nd minute. Gonzalo Higuain tacked on two goals in the second half, giving Argentina a 4-0 win and sending the U.S. to the third-place match where it fell 1-0 to Colombia, but still equaled its best finish in the tournament, when it finished fourth at the 1995 edition.

2007 Copa America (Venezuela)

For the first time in over a decade, the U.S. team traveled to South America to compete in the world's oldest soccer tournament. The United States was drawn in a group including Argentina, Paraguay and Colombia, and headed to what would be their home base in Maracaibo just hours after completing their victory against Mexico in the Gold Cup.

The first game was played against regional and world powerhouse Argentina at the Estadio José Pachencho Romero. Though the U.S. jumped out to an early lead courtesy of an Eddie Johnson penalty kick, the Albiceleste fought back to equalize before the halftime break. In the second period, the quality of the two-time world champions was apparent, and they eventually broke the resistance of the U.S. defense to score three goals in the final half hour, winning the game 4-1.

Having lost the opening match of the tournament, the U.S. entered its second game with Paraguay needing a positive result. Played at the Estadio Agustín Tovar in Barinas, the match was an even affair, with Paraguay jumping out to an early lead. The U.S. equalized through Ricardo Clark in the 35th minute after the midfielder slotted home a Taylor Twellman pass. After halftime, though, Paraguay regained their one-goal advantage in the 56th minute and the teams exchanged blows for the rest of the game, with the U.S. coming close to equalizing on more than a few occasions. In the end, however, Paraguay scored a goal against the run of play in injury time to close out the game with a 3-1 victory.

The third match of the group stage was played with the knowledge that neither the U.S. nor Colombia would advance to the next round. Nonetheless, the crowd at the Estadio Metropolitano de Fútbol de Lara were treated to a competitive affair which Colombia won 1-0. In the end, the young U.S. squad, though eliminated in the first round, gained worthwhile experience in one of the world's premier tournaments and showed again its ability to compete on one of soccer's largest stages.

1995 Copa America (Uruguay)

In its second consecutive trip to the Copa America, the U.S. proved its worth against the South Americans, posting an impressive fourth-place finish. The Americans began the '95 Copa America with forward Eric Wynalda scoring twice in a 2-1 victory over Chile. After dropping a 1-0 decision to Bolivia, the USA earned a spot in the quarterfinals after shutting out defending champion Argentina 3-0 in the final match of group play. The victory vaulted the U.S. past the stunned Argentinians in goal differential and came in Paysandu, a city on the border of Uruguay and Argentina. The U.S. goals were scored by Wynalda, forward Frank Klopas and defender Alexi Lalas. In the quarterfinals, the U.S. faced a familiar foe from the Concacaf region: Mexico, whom the U.S. downed in penalty kicks 4-1 after a goalless draw. The USA's run ended in the semifinals as the squad lost a heartbreaking 1-0 match to Brazil. U.S. midfielder John Harkes was named Co-MVP of the '95 Copa America (along with Uruguay Captain Enzo Francescoli), while U.S. goalkeeper Kasey Keller and Wynalda were both named to the All-Tournament Team.

1993 Copa America (Ecuador)

After competing in a four-nation international competition three days prior to the event, the U.S. made its debut at the 1993 Copa America in Ecuador but dropped two out of three first round matches and were eliminated from tournament play. The Americans opened the '93 Copa America with back-to-back shutout losses to Uruguay (1-0) and host Ecuador (2-0), but the team's 3-3 draw against Venezuela in its final game was arguably its most disappointing result. Needing to win with a strong goal-differential to still have a chance to advance to the quarterfinals as a third-place team, the U.S. built a 3-0 lead before watching the lowly Venezuelans score three unanswered goals in the final 25 minutes and earn a 3-3 draw.

CONCACAF GOLD CUP HISTORY

Although it only dates back to 1991, as the regional championship for the Confederations of North, Central America and Caribbean Association Football, the Concacaf Gold Cup has quickly established itself as a top-flight international tournament. Originally staged as a biennial event held in July of odd-numbered years, the tournament was staged from 1996 to 2002 in even-numbered years in the winter. In 2003, the tournament returned to a summer schedule in odd-numbered years. With seven tournament titles, the USMNT sits second for the most in Concacaf.

Below are recaps of each of the USA's previous 17 Gold Cup appearances:

Venues: Arlington, Texas; Charlotte, N.C.; Chicago, Ill.; Cincinnati, Ohio; Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Glendale, Ariz; Harrison, N.J.; Houston, Texas; Inglewood, Calif.; Las Vegas, Nev.; San Diego, Calif.; Santa Clara, Calif.; St. Louis, Mo.; Toronto, Canada

The 2023 Concacaf Gold Cup was held less than a week after the USA claimed the 2022-23 Concacaf Nations League title in Las Vegas. With the Gold Cup running deep into the European club preseason, the USMNT changed much of its roster from the CNL triumph to allow players to get rest and take a deeper look at the player pool. Grouped with Jamaica, St. Kitts and Nevis and Trinidad and Tobago, the USA opened with a 1-1 draw against the Reggae Boyz in Chicago, with Brandon Vazquez's 88th minute equalizer ensuring the team earned a point. The USMNT then rode Jesús Ferreira's back-to-back hat tricks in matching 6-0 wins against St. Kitts and Trinidad to ensure it finished atop the group.

Less than a month after defeating Canada in the CNL Final, the USA met Les Rouges in a back-and-forth Gold Cup quarterfinal affair. Brandon Vazquez thought he sent the USA through with an 88th minute goal to break the deadlock, only to have Steve Vitoria convert a stoppage time penalty kick to send the game into extra time. Jacob Shaffelburg gave Canada the lead in the 109th minute, before the visitors suffered an on own goal in the 114th minute that sent the match to penalties. There, Cade Cowell, Gianluca Busio and Jesús Ferreira converted their spot kicks, while Matt Turner made two saves to send the USA to a semifinal date against Panam. In the semis, a scoreless regular period was broken by Panama's Ivan Anderson in the 99th minute, but Jesús Ferreira tallied just six minutes later to send the match to penalty kicks, where Panama prevailed 5-4.

2021 GOLD CUP

Venues: Arlington, Texas; Austin, Texas; Dallas, Texas; Frisco, Texas; Glendale, Ariz.; Houston, Texas; Kansas City, Kan.; Orlando, Fla.; Paradise, Nev.

The 2021 edition was held in 10 venues, with six of the stadiums dispersed across five Texas cities as well as one in each of Arizona, Florida, Kansas and Nevada.

Matched up against Canada, Haiti and Martinique in Group B, the USA was off to a flying start, sweeping its opposition to lead the group with a 3-0-0 record while scoring eight goals and allowing just one. The team opened its run with a 1-0 win against Haiti before routing Martinique 6-1, allowing its only goal of the tournament via a penalty kick, and rounding out the group with a 1-0 win against Canada.

The USA defeated Jamaica 1-0 in the quarterfinals with a goal from Matthew Hoppe at AT&T Stadium in Arlington before downing Qatar 1-0 with a goal from Gyasi Zardes at Q2 Stadium in Austin in the semifinals. Both of those wins came with goals in the last 10 minutes of each match. The USA went on to meet archrival Mexico in the final at Allegiant Stadium in Paradise, Nev. and won the tight contest in extra time with a goal from defender Miles Robinson, which he scored with a header off a Kellyn Acosta set piece in the 117th minute. For his efforts anchoring the defense, goalkeeper Matt Turner won the Golden Glove as the tournament's best goalkeeper as the USA won its seventh Concacaf Gold Cup.

Venues: Charlotte, N.C.; Chicago, Ill.; Cleveland, Ohio; Denver, Colo.; Frisco, Texas; Glendale, Ariz.; Harrison, N.J.; Houston, Texas; Kansas City, Kan.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Nashville, Tenn.; Pasadena, Calif.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Saint Paul, Minn.; Kingston, Jamaica; San Jose, Costa Rica

The 2019 edition was held in a new record of 16 venues, with sites in the Caribbean (Kingston, Jamaica) and Central America (San Jose, Costa Rica), hosting matches for the first time.

Playing the first competitive matches under head coach Gregg Berhalter, the USMNT began the tournament well, seeing off Guyana 4-0 at Allianz Field in St. Paul, before a 6-0 rout of Trinidad & Tobago in Cleveland exacted some revenge for the side in its first match with the Soca Warriors since Couva 2017. Facing Panama for a seventh-straight Gold Cup in the group finale, the USMNT earned a 1-0 win thanks to Jozy Altidore's close-range bicycle kick, earning the top spot in Group D in the process.

Matched with upstart Curaçao in the quarterfinal, the USA got the goal it needed midway through the first half from Weston McKennie, while Zack Steffen stood tall in goal to keep the team's fourth-straight clean sheet in the 1-0 win in Philadelphia. Facing a semifinal date with Jamaica, the USA went up early again through McKennie, before severe weather forced the match into an 88-minute delay. With Christian Pulisic making it 2-0 after halftime, the USMNT finally saw its Gold Cup shutout streak end at 429 minutes when Shamar Nicholson pulled one back for the Reggae Boyz. Pulisic added a second goal late to give the USA a 3-1 win and send the team to a record 11th Gold Cup Final. Facing Mexico in Chicago, the USA created a number of first-half opportunities, only to see them go begging before El Trí's Jonathan dos Santos put home the lone goal in the 73rd minute, pushing the USMNT to a runner-up finish.

2017 GOLD CUP

Venues: Arlington, Texas; Cleveland, Ohio; Denver, Colo.; Frisco, Texas; Glendale, Ariz.; Harrison, N.J.; Houston, Texas; Nashville, Tenn.; Pasadena, Calif.; Philadelphia, Pa.; San Antonio, Texas; San Diego, Calif.; Santa Clara, Calif; Tampa, Fla.

Held in a record-tying 14 venues across the United States, the 2017 Concacaf Gold Cup was another big success, both in the stadiums and on the field as the USMNT earned its sixth confederation title.

Utilizing a roster that was a majority domestic-based, as well as a number of untested players, the U.S. received a 50th-minute goal from Dom Dwyer en route to a hard-fought 1-1 draw against Panama in Nashville. Bruce Arena's side moved to Tampa where it utilized a goal from Omar Gonzalez and Jordan Morris' first international brace to see off a feisty Martinique side 3-2, collecting its first win of the tournament. Heading into the final Group Stage match, the U.S. needed a three-goal victory against Nicaragua in Cleveland in order to guarantee a top of the table finish. The USMNT took a 1-0 lead into halftime thanks to Joe Corona's 36th-minute strike and got its second via Kelyn Rowe who hit home his first international goal in the 56th minute. As time crept away, the U.S. looked destined for a second-place finish based on goal difference, only to be rescued in the 88th minute when Graham Zusi's free kick picked out center back Matt Miazga, who headed home the necessary third goal to finish atop the group.

As the competition moved to the quarterfinals, the U.S. took advantage of tournament regulations by calling up six new players, including long-time veterans Jozy Altidore, Michael Bradley, Clint Dempsey and Tim Howard – for the remainder of the tournament. Matched with El Salvador in Philadelphia, the USA went ahead when Gonzalez bagged his second of the tournament in the 41st minute, only to be followed by Eric Lichaj's first international goal in first-half stoppage time to propel the MNT to a 2-0 victory. The two goals marked just the third time in the USMNT's modern era (1990-present) in which a pair of defenders scored in the same match and set up the USA's semifinal date with Costa Rica.

The semifinal showdown in Arlington, Texas saw the USA dominate possession throughout, but the game went scoreless until the 72nd minute when Clint Dempsey provided Jozy Altidore with the go-ahead marker. The U.S. iced the game 10 minutes later when Dempsey hit home a historic free kick which tied him with Landon Donovan as the USMNT's all-time leading goal scorer at 57.

Matched up with Jamaica in the final at Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif., the USA played a tight first half with the Reggae Boyz until Jozy Altidore's 45th-minute free kick took the hosts into the locker room up 1-0. Jamaica was undeterred and hit back when Je-Vaughn Watson got on the end of a corner kick in the 50th minute. Locked 1-1, a number of U.S. chances – including a Dempsey hit off the post -- went begging until Morris hopped on a loose ball in the box and buried a dramatic 88th-minute winner to hand the U.S. a 2-1 victory.

With the triumph, Bruce Arena became the first head coach to win three different Gold Cup titles, having previously guided the USA to championships in 2002 and 2005. With three goals, Morris finished as the competition's joint-leading goal scorer and joined five teammates – Jozy Altidore, Michael Bradley, Omar Gonzalez, Darlington Nagbe and Graham Zusi – on the tournament's Best XI.

Venues: Atlanta, Ga.; Baltimore, Md.; Charlotte, N.C.; Chicago, Ill.; Carson, Calif.; Chester, Pa.; East Rutherford, N.J.; Foxborough, Mass,; Frisco, Texas; Glendale, Ariz.; Houston, Texas; Kansas City, Kan.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Toronto, Ont.

Held in a record 14 venues across the United States and Canada, the 2015 Concacaf Gold Cup made another large footprint during the month of July. The U.S. team, however, faltered in their bid to repeat as Gold Cup champion, falling 2-1 to Jamaica at the tournament's semifinal in Atlanta.

The U.S. began the tournament well enough, defeating Honduras 2-1 in Frisco, Texas before a 1-0 win against Haiti in Foxborough, Mass. Through to the knockout stage, the U.S. played to a 1-1 draw with Panama, ensuring the USMNT topped its Gold Cup group for the 12th time in 13 tournaments. In the quarterfinals, a Clint Dempsey hat trick saw the U.S. easily dispatch Cuba 6-0 in Baltimore, setting up the semifinal showdown with Jamaica in Atlanta. Two first-half goals from the Reggae Boyz put the U.S. down 2-0 at the break, but Michael Bradley pulled things back quickly in the second half. Despite the goal and constant pressure, Jamaica held on to defeat the U.S. 2-1. The defeat set up a Third-Place Match with Panama, where the U.S. used another goal from Clint Dempsey to earn another 1-1 draw before falling 3-2 on penalty kicks.

Despite the disappointing end to the tournament U.S. players received individual accolades, with Dempsey's seven goals earning him the tournament's Golden Boot award, while goalkeeper Brad Guzan won the Golden Glove.

Venues: Arlington, Texas; Atlanta, Ga.; Baltimore, Md.; Chicago, Ill.; Denver, Colo.; East Hartford, Conn.; Harrison, N.J.; Houston, Texas; Miami Gardens, Fla.; Pasadena, Calif.; Portland, Ore.; Sandy, Utah; Seattle, Wash.

The 2013 Concacaf Gold Cup shaped up to be another spectacular event, with 13 venues across the United States chosen to host matches in the confederation championship. The U.S. aimed to reach its fifth-consecutive Gold Cup Final, while Mexico sought to defend its title. Teams like Costa Rica, Honduras, Jamaica and Panama prepared to demonstrate the shrinking gap between Concacaf nations.

Keen to win another championship, the U.S. started strong with a 6-1 win against Belize. Consecutive wins against Cuba (4-1) and Costa Rica (1-0) saw the Americans claim the top spot in the group. After an emphatic 5-1 win against El Salvador in the quarterfinals and dispatching a quality Honduras side 3-1 in the semifinals, the stage was set for a meeting between the USA and high-flying Panama, which topped its group with a tournament-opening win against Mexico before defeating El Tri a second time in the other semifinal match.

Facing a confident and athletic Panama team that was buoyed by its unbeaten run to the final and included two of the tournament's leading goal scorers in Gabriel Torres – his five goals tied the USA's Landon Donovan and Chris Wondolowski for most in the tournament – and Blas Perez (three goals), the U.S. found itself in a stalemate through the first hour of the match. However, the Americans would not be denied as winger Brek Shea pounced in the 69th minute to score the only goal of the game and hand the U.S. its fifth Gold Cup title and first since 2007, when the U.S. also beat Panama in the final.

Venues: Arlington, Texas; Carson, Calif.; Charlotte, N.C.; Chicago, Ill.; Detroit, Mich.; East Rutherford, N.J.; Harrison, N.J.; Houston, Texas; Kansas City, Kan.; Pasadena, Calif.; Miami, Fla., Tampa, Fla.; Washington, D.C.

The 2011 Concacaf Gold Cup shaped up to be another spectacular event, with 13 venues across the United States tagged to host matches in the confederation championship. The U.S. aimed to reach its fourth-consecutive Gold Cup Final, while Mexico sought to defend its title and teams like Costa Rica, Honduras, Jamaica and Panama prepared to demonstrate the shrinking gap between Concacaf nations.

Keen on winning another championship and earning a spot in the 2013 FIFA Confederations Cup, the U.S. started strong with a 2-0 win against Canada. They took a surprise setback with a loss to Panama – the first-ever in the group stage – but rebounded to claim the top spot in the group. After an emphatic win against Jamaica in the quarterfinals and taking revenge on Panama in the semifinals, the stage was set for another marquee meeting between the USA and Mexico.

Facing a stacked Mexican team that included one of club football's most prolific scorers in Manchester United striker Javier "Chicharito" Hernandez, the U.S. bounded out to a 2-0 lead with goals from Michael Bradley and Landon Donovan. Undaunted, the Mexicans recovered to score four unanswered goals in one of the most exciting and well-played finals in Gold Cup history.

2009 GOLD CUP

Venues: Arlington, Texas; Carson, Calif.; Chicago, Ill.; Columbus, Ohio, East Rutherford, N.J.; Foxborough, Mass.; Glendale, Ariz.; Houston, Texas; Miami, Fla.; Oakland, Calif.; Seattle, Wash.; Washington, D.C.

Held in a record 12 venues across the U.S., the 2009 Concacaf Gold Cup made a national footprint during the 2009 "Summer of Soccer" in the U.S. The U.S. team, however, faced the disappointment of not winning a third-consecutive title, but did have the satisfaction of returning to a third-straight final with a largely unproven roster.

The Concacaf Gold Cup kicked off just six days after the U.S. played the 2009 FIFA Confederations Cup Final, and Bob Bradley selected an inexperienced squad that saw seven players earn their first cap during the event. The U.S. continued its unbeaten record in group play, and in the knockout stage got past Panama and Honduras.

By the time the U.S. met Mexico in the final, a record 10 different players had scored the U.S. team's 12 goals in the tournament. In the second-straight Gold Cup title game against Mexico, the U.S. returned only Brian Ching to the starting lineup from the 2007 squad. The teams were evenly matched for a half, but eventually Mexico prevailed by opening the flood gates with five second-half goals for a 5-0 win.

Venues: Carson, Calif.; East Rutherford, N.J.; Foxborough, Mass.; Houston, Texas; Los Angeles, Calif.; Miami, Fla.

The 2007 edition of the Gold Cup was played with the added incentive of admission to the 2009 FIFA Confederations Cup for the winner. The United States successfully defended its title, its fourth all-time and third in the last four tournaments.

Though the U.S. coasted through the group stage, taking maximum points while not allowing a goal and in the process extending its unbeaten record in the opening round, they ran into some tough opposition in the knockout stage. After defeating Panama 2-1 in the quarterfinals, the U.S. came up against a stingy Canadian side in the semifinals, and ended up holding on for a 2-1 victory to set up a U.S.-Mexico marquee match-up in the final.

Played at Soldier Field for the first time, the championship game pitted the two Concacaf powers against one another in what would prove to be a gritty affair. In front of 60,000 people, the U.S. came from behind for the first time in the 2007 tournament to eventually defeat Mexico 2-1 for its second-consecutive Gold Cup title.

Venues: Carson, Calif.; East Rutherford, N.J.; Foxborough, Mass.; Houston, Texas; Los Angeles, Calif.; Miami, Fla.; Seattle, Wash.

The 2005 Gold Cup was played in a record-high seven different venues in the United States, and was noteworthy as the United States became the first team in the tournament's history to advance to five overall finals. The USA would go on to win their third title, and second in three tournaments since 2002.

The USA's victory would not come easy, though, as the team needed a penalty kick shootout to down Panama in the tournament's scoreless championship game at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. To get to the final, the U.S. needed two goals in the game's final moments to overcome a 1-0 deficit to Honduras and win 2-1.

In the 2005 tournament, the U.S. extended its amazing undefeated history in first round play at the Gold Cup with two more wins and a draw. The USA has never lost one of its 19 opening round matches in eight all-time Gold Cups.

Venues: Foxborough, Mass.; Miami, Fla.; USA; Mexico City, Mexico

The 2003 Gold Cup was the first in 10 years to be played in two countries, with games in both Mexico and the United States. Mexico twice defeated Brazil, who along with Colombia was an invited guest to the tournament, by one goal in Azteca Stadium, including a golden-goal victory in the final. The U.S. finished in the top three for the sixth time in seven tournaments with a thrilling 3-2 come-from-behind victory over Costa Rica in the Orange Bowl.

The U.S. continued its win streak in group play of the Gold Cup, making easy work of El Salvador and Martinique by identical 2-0 margins. Brian McBride continued his Midas-touch scoring in the tournament with three of the first four U.S. goals. The victories extended the USA's standing as the only Concacaf team to win every one of its first round games since the inception of the tournament in 1991. The U.S. has won 16 consecutive first round games and has outscored its opponents 33-8. The winning streak includes 10 shutouts, nine one-goal victories and four come-from-behind wins.

Venues: Miami, Fla.; Pasadena, Calif.

The 2002 Gold Cup once again featured two invited teams (Ecuador and Korea Republic) along with 10 Concacaf teams. In spectacular fashion, the U.S. won its first title since 1991 by posting a 4-0-1 record with four shutouts on its way to the 2002 Gold Cup crown.

The United States opened the tournament with consecutive wins in the first round against the Korea Republic (2-1) and Cuba (1-0). After easily blanking El Salvador 4-0 in the quarterfinals, the semifinals saw the U.S. defeat the defending champion Canada 4-2 on penalty kicks after both teams battled to a scoreless draw.

The 2002 final had the USA topping Concacaf rival Costa Rica 2-0 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. Forward Brian McBride was named the tournament MVP after leading the Americans with four tallies.

Venues: Miami, Fla.; Oakland and Los Angeles, Calif.

The first Gold Cup of the new millennium featured nine teams from Concacaf and three invited squads (Colombia, Peru and Korea Republic). The 2000 edition also had several surprises, with a new champion being crowned (Canada) and both Mexico and the United States not reaching the semifinal round, a first for the two regional rivals.

The Americans cruised through the first round by capturing the Group B title with back-to-back shutouts against Haiti (3-0) and Peru (1-0). Cobi Jones led the offense for the USA by notching a goal in the win over Haiti and the game-winner against Peru. In the quarterfinals, though, the U.S. faltered. After battling Colombia to a 2-2 draw through regulation and two overtime periods, the U.S. were defeated in penalty kicks 2-1 and were eliminated from the competition.

Colombia would go on to meet Canada in the 2000 final. The Canadians had surprisingly advanced out of their first round group by winning a coin-flip tiebreaker against Korea Republic after the two teams had finished dead-even on results and goals. After eliminating three-time defending champion Mexico 2-1 in overtime in the quarterfinal and then topping Trinidad & Tobago 1-0 in the semifinal, Canada would pull off yet another shocker, being crowned 2000 Gold Cup champions after blanking Colombia 2-0 in the final.

Venues: Miami, Fla.; Oakland and Los Angeles, Calif.

The 1998 Gold Cup was the most successful yet for Concacaf, despite bad weather, postponed games and a historic USA-Brazil clash which was played with less than 24 hours' notice for both teams.

Preki Radosavljevic was the story for the U.S. on the offensive end, scoring a brilliant late goal against Costa Rica to send the U.S. through to the semifinals. That goal would have been enough to lift Radosavjlevic into U.S. prominence, but he did it one better in the USA's next match, a historic 1-0 triumph against Brazil courtesy of a 22-yard bomb from Preki in the 65th minute.

Of course, Preki's goal was only half the story, as goalkeeper Kasey Keller replaced Brad Friedel in the nets (who started the USA's first two matches) and stymied Romario and Brazil with a 10-save performance, widely considered to be the best in U.S. Soccer history. On the strength of that game alone, and a 1-0 loss to Mexico in the final not withstanding, Keller was voted the MVP of the tournament for just two games' work.

In the final, Mexican World Cup hero Luis Hernandez scored in the closing minutes of the first half to give the Tricolores a 1-0 victory against the U.S. Men's National Team and the 1998 Gold Cup crown in front of a sold-out crowd of 91,255 fans at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The crowd was the fourth largest to watch the U.S. Men's National Team domestically, and could have included an additional 6,941 paid spectators who watched the game on a giant television screen inside the Los Angeles Sports Arena, adjacent to the Coliseum.

Venues: Anaheim, San Diego and Los Angeles, Calif.

With Brazil competing in the tournament for the first time via a special invitation, most eyes centered on the defending world champion. But an impressive 2-0 victory by Mexico on a muddy, wet pitch in front of 88,155 rain-soaked fans handed Mexico their second-straight Gold Cup victory. With goals from Luis Garcia and Cuauhtemoc Blanco, the Mexicans were able to stymie the Brazilian attack with help from muddy conditions. Nevertheless, the Brazilians impressed throughout the tournament with a young squad using the experience to prepare for the 1996 Summer Olympic Games.

For the U.S., the tournament wasn't as disappointing as their third-place finish would seem. Only a third consecutive 1-0 defeat at the hands of Brazil kept the U.S. out of the final after the team easily handled the rest of its opposition, including an impressive 3-0 victory against Guatemala in the third-place match. That match featured Eric Wynalda's tournament-leading fourth goal, which was the 22nd of his international career, setting a new USA goal standard.

The MVP of the tournament, though, was probably former U.S. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger. The Nobel Peace Prize winner and lifelong soccer fan helped secure visas for scores of visiting players despite a U.S. government shutdown.

Venues: Dallas, Texas; and Mexico City, Mexico

The second Gold Cup tournament wasn't quite as successful for the U.S., but the team still advanced to the final where it fell to Mexico 4-0 at Azteca Stadium. Following three single-goal victories in the first round against Jamaica (1-0), Panama (2-1) and Honduras (1-0), the U.S. squared off against Costa Rica in the semifinals in Dallas. In that match, the U.S. extended its unbeaten Gold Cup run to nine games with a 103rd-minute golden goal from defender Cle Kooiman.

Meanwhile in Mexico City, where the Mexican team would play all its matches, the Tricolores were racing into the finals. Led by Luis Robert Alves (better known as Zague), the ruthlessly efficient Mexican attack produced 28 goals in five matches, overwhelming group foes Martinique (9-0) and Canada (8-0), while drawing with Costa Rica (1-1). Zague's seven goals against Martinique is, obviously, a Gold Cup record.

In front of a capacity crowd of 120,000, Zague scored again in the final as Mexico downed the U.S. 4-0. Zague finished the tournament with 12 goals in five matches, another Gold Cup record. Third place honors were split after a 1-1 draw between Costa Rica and Jamaica.

Venues: Los Angeles and Pasadena, Calif.

The U.S. surprised the region in 1991 when it swept its way to the inaugural Gold Cup championship. In the final, the U.S. downed Honduras 4-3 in penalty kicks after the two teams went scoreless after 120 minutes of action in front of 39,873 fans at the L.A. Coliseum. It was in the semifinals, though, where the U.S. stunned all observers with a convincing 2-0 victory against Mexico behind goals from John Doyle and Peter Vermes.

In group play, Marcelo Balboa's stunning bicycle-kick goal capped off a last-minute comeback for the U.S. in its 2-1 victory over Trinidad & Tobago in the opening Gold Cup match. That victory was followed by wins against Guatemala (3-0) and Costa Rica (3-2), which set-up the U.S. heroics against Mexico.

Mexico was forced into the match-up with the U.S. when it lost its group to Honduras on goal differential. Honduras would later advance to the final with a 2-0 semifinal victory against Costa Rica, which set-up a 2-0 victory for Mexico against the Ticos in the third-place match.

CONCACAF NATIONS LEAGUE HISTORY

Announced in 2017, the inaugural edition of the Nations League began with the group stages in 2019. Due to the COVID-19 global pandemic, the Nations League finals which were originally set to take place in Texas in June 2020 were postponed and relocated to June 2021 in Denver, Colorado. The tournament is divided into three tiered leagues, A, B, and C, of four groups each with promotion and relegation between the leagues based on finishing position within each group. The group winners of League A enter the finals, which is a four-team knockout competition. The winners of Leagues B and C are promoted to the next tier, while the four teams at the bottom of Leagues A and B are relegated to the next lower tier.

Below are recaps of each of the USA's previous Nations League appearances:

2023-24 NATIONS LEAGUE

Concacaf changed the League A format for the 2023-24 Nations League, having the six highest ranked nations in the region automatically advance to the CNL Quarterfinals, matches which doubled as qualifiers for the 2024 Copa America. The USA was matched against Trinidad and Tobago, and utilized late goals from Ricardo Pepi, Antonee Robinson and Gio Reyna to earn a 3-0 victory against the Soca Warriors in the first leg on Nov. 16, 2023. Taking a 3-0 aggregate lead into Port of Spain, the USA ran out to an early lead through Robinson's 25th minute header, but a first half red card to Sergiño Dest saw the team down to 10 men for the rest of the match, which Trinidad eventually won 4-2. Despite the away defeat, the USA won the series 4-2 on aggregate to qualify for Copa America and advance to the CNL Finals to be played in March 2024 in Arlington, Texas.

2022-23 NATIONS LEAGUE

The USA finished atop Group D in the second edition of the Concacaf Nations League, utilizing a four-goal output from Jesús Ferreira to gain a convincing 5-0 win against Grenada in its opening match before utilizing a stoppage-time equalizer from Jordan Morris to earn a 1-1 draw at El Salvador through the first set of matches in 2022. In the return legs the following the USA gave another convincing performance with a 7-1 win at Grenada, before substitute Ricardo Pepi scored the game's only goal in a 1-0 home win against El Salvador to clinch the top of the group and advance to the 2022-23 CNL Finals.

Matched against Mexico in the semifinals, the USA got goals from Christian Pulisic on both sides of halftime, before Ricardo Pepi again came off the bench to add an exclamation point in a dominant 3-0 win against El Trí. In the Final against Canada, Chris Richards and Folarin Balogun each scored their first international goals during the first half to pace the USA to a 2-0 win and the team's second Nations League crown.

The USA finished atop Group A in the inaugural Concacaf Nations League group stage, earning a convincing 7-0 win against Cuba in its opening match in Washington, D.C. The team suffered its only loss of the tournament in its second match, falling 0-2 to Canada in Toronto before returning the favor with a 4-1 victory in the second leg. The USA then closed out the group stage with a 4-0 win against Cuba to move on to the finals.

Following a delay due to the global pandemic, the USA returned to Nations League action at the tournament finals in Denver on June 3, 2021. The team defeated Honduras in the semifinals with a late winner from forward Jordan Pefok in the 89th minute to punch its ticket to the final three days later against archrivals Mexico. On June 6, the USA claimed the first-ever Concacaf Nations League title after a thrilling 3-2 win with goals from Gio Reyna, Weston McKennie, and a converted penalty from Christian Pulisic in extra time. Goalkeeper Ethan Horvath sealed the win in the dying moments of the match with a penalty save to hold the lead.

LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP

WHAT IS THE LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP?

Dating back to 1914, the U.S. Open Cup is the oldest cup competition in United States soccer and is among the oldest in the world. Open to all affiliated amateur and professional teams in the United States, the annual U.S. Open Cup is a 100-plus-year-old, single elimination tournament.

The U.S. Open Cup is very similar to domestic cup competitions popular throughout Europe, South America and the rest of the world. Cup competitions, which usually run concurrent with a country's league season, are open in the early stages to any club that can qualify, giving local amateur teams a chance to compete against the best teams a country has to offer.

In leagues like the Premier League in England, Serie A in Italy and the Bundesliga in Germany, cup competitions are prestigious tournaments waged between countries' strongest teams like Manchester United, AC Milan and Bayern Munich, and smaller teams like the amateur French side Calais that made it to the finals of the 2000 French Cup only to fall to defending champions Nantes on an injury time penalty kick. Watford F.C. in England, was another small-time club that hit it big in 1984 by making it all the way to the F.A. Cup Final. Unfashionable Chesterfield of the Second Division (the third flight in England) advanced to the semifinals of the 1997 F.A. Cup in England before finally losing. The winner of each country's domestic cup competition, in addition to taking home the prize money, is automatically placed into a tournament to compete against neighboring countries' cup winners.

In 1999, the U.S. Open Cup was renamed the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup to honor the long-time soccer supporter and pioneer. Hunt, who died in 2006, was one of the sport's first major ownership figures in the United States and is a member of the National Soccer Hall of Fame. His family continues to operate FC Dallas in Major League Soccer.

The winning team of the U.S. Open Cup has its name engraved on the Dewar Challenge Trophy, which has been permanently retired and housed at the National Soccer Hall of Fame in Frisco, Texas.

HISTORY OF THE LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP

As the oldest annual team tournament in U.S. sports history, the U.S. Open Cup dates back to 1914 when the Brooklyn Field Club of the North American Foot Ball League (NAFBL) won the first national title by defeating the Brooklyn Celtics in Pawtucket, R.I. First instituted as the National Challenge Cup under the aegis of the United States Football Association (now U.S. Soccer), it was conceived as a competition open to all players (amateur and professional) and based upon England's Football Association Cup format.

During the Open Cup's early years, teams sponsored by industry in the East's urban centers dominated the competition. Bethlehem Steel of Pennsylvania (NAFBL) won four Open Cup titles between 1915 and 1919. Bethlehem Steel would make it five overall titles in 1926, while the American Soccer League's Fall River Marksmen (Mass.) won four national crowns between 1924 and 1931.The Marksmen became the New Bedford Whalers in 1932 and captured their fifth Open Cup crown (tying Bethlehem Steel) that same year.

The last team to capture five tournament titles was Los Angeles Maccabee SC (1973, 1975, 1977, 1978, 1981).

Although there have been numerous back-to-back winners (eight overall by seven different teams), only the New York Greek-Americans, the Fall River Marksmen/New Bedford Whalers, St.

Louis Stix, Baer and Fuller/St. Louis Central Breweries FC, and the Seattle Sounders of Major League Soccer have won three consecutive crowns. The Marksmen/New Bedford Whalers did it first from 1930-1932, while St. Louis Stix, Baer and Fuller/St. Louis Central Breweries F.C. followed them up with treble of their own from 1933-1935. The Greek-Americans won three straight from 1967-1969 and Sounders FC became the fourth team when they lifted the trophy in 2011 after their 2010 and 2009 triumphs.

While teams sponsored by industries in the East's urban centers dominated the Men's Open and Amateur Cups until the 1950s, the teams from the West and Midwest have flexed their muscles in the later years. In fact, California alone has garnered the lion's share of success, winning 12 titles since 1973. Missouri, Illinois and Florida have also appeared regularly on the winner's list.

Although it is now a complete "knock-out" tournament, with a few exceptions, the U.S. Open Cup final was a two-leg, home-and-away series between 1928 and 1968.

Despite the prominence of the North American Soccer League from 1967 to 1984, NASL teams rarely showed the inclination to enter the U.S. Open Cup competition. In fact, until the emergence of Major League Soccer, full professional teams were almost non-existent in the competition. That has changed in the last two decades, though, with MLS taking part since 1996, thus helping make the tournament a true "national" championship. Since the league began participating, an MLS club has won the tournament all but once, with the 1999 Rochester Rhinos being the last lower-league club to win the tournament.

HISTORY OF THE DEWAR CHALLENGE TROPHY

The oldest trophy in United States team sports history, the Dewar Challenge Trophy was donated to the American Amateur Football Association in 1912 by Sir Thomas R. Dewar, a British distiller, sportsman and philanthropist during an AAFA (now United States Amateur Soccer Association) visit to London prior to the 1912 Olympics. The trophy was originally purchased for $500 and given in the hope of promoting soccer in the United States and in the name of Anglo-American friendship.

The cup was first awarded to the Yonkers Football Club (N.Y.) in 1912 after they defeated the Hollywood Inn Football Club (N.Y.) at the Lennox Oval in New York City. The trophy was officially adopted as the U.S. Open Cup trophy prior to the Brooklyn Field Club's inaugural championship in 1914 in Pawtucket, R.I.

The trophy was retired in 1979, but was refurbished by the USASA in 1997 and was presented to the 1997 and 1998 Open Cup winners, before returning to the National Soccer Hall of Fame in Oneonta, N.Y., in 1999. Starting in 2011, the trophy resides in the main trophy room at U.S. Soccer House in Chicago. When logistics permit, the still fragile trophy can be taken to the site of the cup final to display prior to the event for fans, and also for the winning team to raise for a night.

2023 LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP REVIEW

FINAL RECAP: HOUSTON DYNAMO COLLECTS SECOND LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP WITH 2-1 WIN AGAINST MESSI-LESS INTER MIAMI CF

Houston Dynamo FC claimed the club's second Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup by defeating Inter Miami CF 2-1 before a packed house at DRV PNK Stadium in Fort Lauderdale on Sept. 27th, 2023. Griffin Dorsey and Amine Bassi scored first-half goals for the visitors whose veteran midfield pair of captain Héctor Herrera and Artur stymied a Miami side forced to play without injured stars Jordi Alba and reigning World Cup MVP Lionel Messi.

The Dynamo, adding to a debut crown earned in 2018, became the first team since Sporting Kansas City in 2015 to win an Open Cup Final as the away team.

Led by former Open Cup winner (as player and coach Ben Olsen), the visitors were the more dangerous side from the outset. After the opening quarter-hour, 2018 MLS Rookie of the Year Corey Baird came close to scoring when he redirected a Nelson Quiñónes cross just over the bar. Those two dangermen linked up again shortly after the 20-minute mark when Quiñónes laid a slick move on Miami captain and USMNT veteran DeAndre Yedlin to get free and force goalkeeper Drake Callender into a fantastic diving save that rebounded out to Baird in front of goal. Callender was able to stick out a toe and block the Houston man's wide-open attempt.

Baird would turn provider moments later in the 24th minute. He collected a pass from Bassi and raced up the left side before picking out Brazilian midfielder Artur, who coolly played an overlapping Dorsey into the Miami penalty area. The wingback – a midfielder during his time as an Indiana Hoosier – smashed the ball into the roof of the net to give the Dynamo an early lead. Quiñónes' blazing speed was a factor just after the half-hour mark as he cut in behind Yedlin once again, only to be hauled down in the box by the Miami skipper. Referee Jon Freemon awarded a penalty kick, and Bassi stepped to the spot where he went straight down the middle of the goal to give Houston a 2-0 lead in the 33rd minute.

Houston carved out several other first-half chances and were nearly made to pay for missing them just before the halftime whistle. Miami starlet Ben Cremaschi had a great chance to cut into the lead but he could only hit his volley from the top of the box over the bar.

Miami coach Gerardo 'Tata' Martino went to his bench at the half in search of a spark. He found one in previous Open Cup winner Josef Martinez (Atlanta United FC in 2019), who nearly brought the hosts within striking distance with an effort that just brushed past the post in the 56th minute.

The Venezuelan striker would eventually find the back of the net for Inter, but his goal in the second minute of injury time was too little too late as Houston saw out the match and deservedly lifted the 2023 U.S. Open Cup in front of their hearty band of traveling fans.

2023 U.S. OPEN CUP FIELD

When the 2023 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup began on March 21, there were 99 teams with the goal of making it to the Open Cup Final. The 108th edition of the Open Cup featured all eligible Division I, II and III professional clubs in the Tournament Proper as well as 27 amateur and semi-pro teams from the Open Division. The competition winner (Houston Dynamo FC) took home $300,000, with the runner-up (Inter Miami CF) receiving $100,000, and the team that advanced the furthest from each lower division earning $25,000.

U.S. SOCCER HISTORY & INFORMATION

Cindy PARLOW CONE

U.S. Soccer President

Cindy Parlow Cone is first female President of U.S. Soccer, the second sitting National Soccer Hall of Fame inductee and the first to hold the position who played for a senior U.S. National Team. Cone was elevated from Vice President to President of the U.S. Soccer Federation on March 12, 2020. She is also one of only nine female federation presidents across FIFA's 211 member associations (as of May 3, 2022).

She was first elected Vice President of U.S. Soccer in February of 2019 at the U.S. Soccer Annual General Meeting and served in the position for a year, completing the term that was vacated. She then was re-elected to a full, four-year term at the 2020 AGM in February.

While leading the Federation back to resuming programming through the COVID-19 global pandemic, which began just after her being elevated to President, Cone's priorities included focusing on improving U.S. Soccer's efforts to take meaningful action in the diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging space, bringing commercial rights back in house, team building, and leading efforts to grow the game in all its forms.

Cone was then re-elected as U.S. Soccer's President during the National Council Meeting at the Federation's Annual General Meeting in Atlanta on March 5, 2022, after earning 52.9 percent of the weighted vote in a two-candidate race.

In May 2022, under Cone's leadership, U.S. Soccer and the United States Women's National Team Players Association (USWNTPA) and the United States National Soccer Team Players Association (USNSTPA) agreed to terms on historic, first-of-their-kind collective bargaining agreements (CBAs) that achieved equal pay through identical economic terms, setting the global standard moving forward in international soccer.

Cone is a title-winning coach at the grassroots, collegiate and professional levels and holds a USSF "A" coaching license. During the past 20 years, she has served on numerous committees, including the FIFA Steering Committee, the U.S. Soccer Medical Advisory Committee, Appeals Committee, and the Athletes' Council.

The Memphis, Tennessee native was a star for the U.S. Women's National Team during a career that spanned 1996-2004, earning 158 caps while scoring 75 goals, which still stands as 8th all-time on the USA's all-time goals list. Her seven career hat tricks are still second all-time behind Mia Hamm and Carli Lloyd. She also had 35 career assists. In 1998, she won U.S. Soccer's inaugural Young Female Player of the Year Award.

At 5-foot-11, she was a towering presence on the USA's forward line. During her career she was a two-time Olympic gold medal winner (1996 & 2004) and a member of the historic 1999 Women's World Cup winning side, scoring two goals in that tournament including a diving header against Nigeria in group play and the crucial opening score in the 2-0 semifinal victory against Brazil.

She played her last match for the U.S. WNT on Dec. 8, 2004, in a 5-0 win against Mexico at The Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif., in what was also the final match for Mia Hamm, Julie Foudy, Brandi Chastain and Joy Fawcett (who was on the bench but did not play).

She is the youngest player ever to win both an Olympic gold medal and a Women's World Cup title. In total, she played in nine Olympic matches and 11 World Cup matches. In 2000, she led the USA with 19 goals, which was her career high in a calendar year. She had four hat tricks that year, one shy of a U.S. record for a single year.

She also played for the USA's Youth National Teams and played three seasons in the WUSA, the USA's first women's pro league, advancing to two championship games with the Atlanta Beat.

Inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2018, Cone was a four-time All-American at the University of North Carolina, where she scored 68 goals and had 53 assists in 103 games, and was on teams that won two NCAA titles. She won both the Hermann Trophy and the M.A.C. Player of the Year awards as the consensus college soccer player of the year as a junior and a senior, which at the time, paired her with Mia Hamm as the only twotime winners of both awards. Cone was also pioneer of sorts for college soccer, entering UNC early after three years of high school. She majored in Education at UNC.

In 2023, Cone received the prestigious NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, which is awarded annually to six athletes on the 25th anniversary of the conclusion of their college athletics careers for their outstanding collegiate and professional achievements.

She also served as an assistant coach at UNC, winning four NCAA titles, including 2012 when she took the coaching lead due to an illness to head coach Anson Dorrance's wife.

She was also the first head coach to win a National Women's Soccer League championship, guiding Portland Thorns FC to the title in 2013 during the league's inaugural season.

Cone is on the board for the non-profit Goals for Girls, an organization that uses "soccer to teach leadership skills in young women and teach them how to be agents of change, in their own lives and in their communities."

She is currently the Girls' Director for NCFC Youth in the Durham-Chapel Hill area.

In the summer of 2007, she married John Cone in Chapel Hill. She has a street – Cindy Parlow Drive – named after her in her hometown of Memphis, Tenn.

JT BATSON

CEO / Secretary General
U.S. Soccer Federation

JT Batson was named CEO / Secretary General of the U.S. Soccer Federation on Sept. 26, 2022.

Batson fell in love with soccer at a young age. He played club soccer for Augusta Arsenal growing up in Georgia and later helped run the club while serving as a referee, a referee assignor, mowing and lining fields and working in coaching recruitment. He has coached boys and girls at the grassroots level and has been active in supporting his childhood soccer club as a member of the Augusta Arsenal Soccer Club advisory board.

A long-time member of the soccer community, he feels his experience in grassroots soccer helped shape who he is today, an executive who prides himself on doing the work necessary to achieve goals and create important bonds with employees and partners while also teaching and mentoring.

A strong believer in the power of teamwork, the first software he ever worked on was for the assigning of youth soccer referees for tournament organizers. He also paid for college, in part, by working soccer camps. He has described his young self as being a kid that didn't dream of playing in a World Cup, but instead of organizing one. Like for many, the 1994 FIFA World Cup held in the USA had a profound impact on Batson and opened his eyes to the potential and global impact of soccer. It was a rallying cry to think big about soccer in the USA, and a watershed event for his generation, showing how big investment can impact the future while setting the stage for the 2026 FIFA World Cup to impact many more soccer fans of all ages.

Batson has spent his professional career at the intersection of media, advertising and technology, focused on solving challenging problems at scale through innovation and collaboration.

A former member of U.S. Soccer Finance Committee, Batson comes to the Federation with experience heading large companies. He previously served as CEO of Hudson MX, a 425-person NYC- and Atlanta-based software company, which he co-founded and where he will remain a member of the board, that focuses on workflow and financial software for the advertising ecosystem.

His previous work with U.S. Soccer led to him helping spearhead the creation of the U.S. Soccer Development Fund which raises money to support U.S. Soccer's development of world-class players, coaches and referees, all with the goal of continuing to inspire a nation.

Prior to founding Hudson MX, he was an Entrepreneur in Residence at Greylock Partners and Accel Partners.

Batson began his career as an early employee of Mozilla focused on international growth efforts of the then-nascent Firefox browser. He subsequently joined the Rubicon Project pre-revenue where he helped scale the company to six countries as the EVP, Revenue and Global Development. He's also served in executive roles at Mediaocean and Cumulus Media.

He is currently on the Undergraduate Cabinet at Stanford, from which he graduated with a BA in Political Science and where he won the JE Wallace Sterling Award, an honor that recognizes the graduating senior whose undergraduate leadership and volunteer activities have made the largest impact on the Stanford community.

As an undergrad at Stanford, he worked with the men's and women's soccer programs as a student assistant focused on recruiting, soccer operations, marketing, camps and fundraising. The Stanford men's basketball teams took notice, and he also worked with that program, building a recruiting CRM system, managing dynamic ticket process and fan development. He also continued to referee during his college years, experiences that included running the middle during several scrimmages for the local professional teams.

Batson is a member of the board of the LGBTQ+ entrepreneur focused non-profit StartOut. He also serves on the board of directors for the NYC Ballet. Batson has guest taught at Stanford's Hasso Plattner Institute of Design and the Graduate School of Business.

U.S. SOCCER BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of U.S. Soccer is the governing board of the Federation in accordance with the Amateur Sports Act of 1978. Consisting of elected members representing all facets of soccer in the United States, the Board administers the affairs of the Federation between meetings of the National Council.

U.S. SOCCER STRATEGIC PILLARS AND ACCELERATED INITIATIVES

In 2023, U.S. Soccer introduced a new strategic vision as we embarked on the most exciting era in the history of American soccer. The strategic vision is built around five ambitious pillars that will be imperative to our success moving forward:

- Grow the game.
- Foster the best playing environments.
- Develop winning teams.
- Grow the soccer economy to fuel reinvestment.
- Create a world-class organization.

We are committed to transparency and will continue to communicate updates as we execute our five key pillars. Working together, we are confident in our strategy and our ability to come together as a soccer family to make the most of this transformational moment.

Each of these pillars are interconnected, with the success of one directly benefiting another. This important work will not happen in siloes, rather we will work together to ensure our collective success. For example, we know growing the game at the youth level will directly benefit our National Teams as there will be more elite athletes available for selection and development.

Grow the Game

We want to grow participation, increase retention, and ensure lifelong connections to the game – through play, coaching, refereeing, and as dedicated fans. Across the nation, we will encourage and promote all forms of soccer. For more information, visit www.ussoccer.com/ourvision/grow-the-game.

Foster the Best Playing Environments

All soccer participants should have access to safe, fun, dynamic and inclusive environments designed to help them learn, grow, and fall in love with the sport. We are committed to reducing barriers to participation for all. For more information, visit www.ussoccer.com/ourvision/foster-environments.

Develop Winning Teams

Our National Teams unite and inspire us. They have the power to change American culture and excite the next generation of players. We want all 27 of our National Teams to be the favorites to win every time they step on the pitch. For more information, visit www.ussoccer.com/ourvision/develop-winning-teams.

Grow the Soccer Economy to Fuel Reinvestment

Achieving our soccer goals cross the ecosystem will require significant investment. We will work with our members, corporate partners, philanthropic donors and investors to grow the soccer market in ways that will benefit all. www.ussoccer.com/ourvision/grow-soccer-economy.

Create a World-Class Organization

U.S. Soccer is building an effective organizational structure, refreshing our culture and investing in our people, processes and systems to ensure we are operating at the highest level and best serving our membership. For more information, visit www.ussoccer.com/ourvision/world-class-organization.

ACCELERATED INITIATIVES

While we work diligently with our membership and stakeholders on long-term planning, we are accelerating select initiatives to drive immediate impact against our strategic pillars. We will provide updates in the months ahead regarding the progress of these accelerated initiatives and will keep our community informed of additional progress made in advancing our strategic pillars.

WORLD CUP 2026 LEGACY

FIFA World Cup 2026 in North America has the potential to transform the trajectory of soccer in the U.S. forever. To capitalize on this incredible opportunity, we will be launching a legacy platform in 2024 designed in partnership with our Members and the entire soccer ecosystem. The new platform will unite and engage national, regional and local stakeholders to drive grassroots participation, engage and cultivate a new generation of fans and unlock new resources to ensure that we make the most of this unprecedented opportunity.

SAFE SOCCER CLEARANCE PROGRAM

U.S. Soccer is committed to ensuring all soccer participants – at all levels – have a safe and respectful place to learn, grow and compete. Our new Safe Soccer Clearance Program will transform how we approach safety across the soccer ecosystem by creating a public participation database, ensuring a minimum standard of safeguarding education, and providing a mechanism for keeping bad actors out of the game. This program will redefine the processes and criteria used to determine participation eligibility, ultimately providing players with a safer, more enjoyable environment.

GROWING THE NUMBER OF REFEREES

In the coming months, U.S. Soccer will initiate several new programs to grow the number of referees in our ecosystem. We will work in partnership with our existing referee community and Member base to reduce barriers to participation through digital access, address referee abuse, improve the referee experience and promote the value of referees in soccer to all our audiences.

DEMOCRATIZING SOCCER KNOWLEDGE

To ensure that every participant in our sport has access to the best information to grow and develop, we will create an open-source learning and community-building platform. This will be a place to aggregate and curate the best content in the soccer community, from coaching to refereeing, to parent resources, to training videos for players of all ages. This information sharing will connect anyone participating in soccer to the best resources in real-time.

UNIFIED SPORTING STRATEGY

Successful National Teams inspire us all. To create a more structured approach to elite National Team player development, we are actively building new programmatic plans for the Men's and Women's senior National Teams, Youth National Teams and Extended National Teams. This refreshed approach will allow us to establish desired outcomes at each level, prioritize performance metrics and develop clear programming shaped for both individual player and team success. A new technology platform will enable tailored personalized training programs for players in coordination with clubs and National Team coaching staff. This will create new cohesiveness across all our programs, allowing us to operate and win as one team.

ECOSYSTEM PARTNERSHIPS

At U.S. Soccer, we recognize that it will take all of us working together to build soccer in America. U.S. Soccer is investing in our relationships with stakeholders, centered on principles of partnership building, proactive outreach, information sharing and customer service, all to help collectively drive the best outcomes possible for all our stakeholders. We will have a specific emphasis on sharing our members' best practices with the broader ecosystem as we convene to solve our greatest challenges together.

NATIONAL TRAINING CENTER

We are excited about the building of our new headquarters and the nation's first-ever National Training Center (NTC) in our new home city of Atlanta, Georgia. We are confident that the creation of this facility will support our overall Strategic Vision, including growing the game, fostering the best playing environments, developing winning teams, growing the soccer economy, and creating a world class organization.

U.S. SOCCER REFEREE PROGRAM

The U.S. Soccer Federation Referee Program's membership ranks among the largest of all FIFA nations with nearly 115,000 registered officials, mentors, coaches, and assignors. Officials registered with U.S. Soccer work sanctioned games at all levels of competition including youth, adult, professional, and international matches.

Referee Education Resources

U.S. Soccer is committed to producing referee education resources aimed at supporting officials regularly working amateur games at the youth and adult levels. These officials represent the foundation of the U.S. Soccer Referee Program and their training and development is paramount to the success of the program. This is accomplished through the development of targeted training materials and standardized curriculums supporting specific levels of competition.

Referee Identification and Training

These initiatives focus on identifying and training high potential officials with the ability to referee at the professional and international levels. These efforts see U.S. Soccer assign a network of highly qualified referees, referee mentors and referee coaches to various elite-level regional and national events. Quantitative and qualitative data from these events are used to classify the program's up-and-coming and high performing officials.

The Professional Referee Organization (PRO)

The Professional Referee Organization is the organization responsible for managing the referee, assistant referee, and video match official program in professional soccer leagues in the United States and Canada, working alongside the U.S. Soccer Federation, Major League Soccer, United Soccer League and National Women's Soccer League.

The organization's goals are to increase the quality of officiating in U.S. and Canadian professional leagues, develop more professional-quality officials at a younger age, and produce officials who will represent the United States and Canada in FIFA competitions.

2024 FIFA International Panel

A list of international referees and assistant referees that are eligible to officiate FIFA sanctioned matches in the coming year is announced annually by FIFA. The current American contingent totals 14 referees, 20 assistant referees, 10 video match officials, and three futsal referees. (List on next page)

U.S. SOCCER'S COACHING DEPARTMENT

AND NATIONAL COACHING SCHOOLS

U.S. Soccer Coaching Education was established in the early 1970s by famed West German teacher and coach Dettmar Cramer. Each level of the U.S. Soccer Coaching License Pathway is designed to meet the needs of coaches ranging from the coach who is inexperienced in soccer to the former professional player who desires to coach in amateur, professional, or international competitions.

U.S. Soccer has licensed thousands of coaches in the decades since the department was first founded. U.S. Soccer is committed to providing soccer coaches with up-to-date theoretical and practical knowledge so coaches can develop to their full potential. The diagram below shows the current U.S. Soccer Coaching License Pathway.

U.S. Soccer provides courses in which coaches can earn nationally recognized certifications that afford them opportunities and recognition inherent in the attainment of various levels of coaching expertise. Proven curriculums improve coaches' knowledge of the game and provide valuable information on current coaching trends and international developments in the game.

The course curriculums are based on sets of tasks that a coach must carry out. These tasks are defined as coaching matches, coaching training sessions, leading the team, leading the player, managing a performance environment, leadership, and more. Coaches are educated and assessed based on the progression of these tasks relative to each course within the licensing pathway.

Pro, "A" (Senior and Youth), and "B" level courses span six to twelve months and take place over a series of meetings. Students have an opportunity to practically apply what they have learned in their home environment with their team between meetings.

U.S. Soccer also offers "B", "C", "D", and Grassroots level courses that are available through member organizations. While the member organizations are responsible for the execution of these courses, the curriculum is developed and overseen by U.S. Soccer Coaching Education. For more information on U.S. Soccer Coaching Education courses, visit the U.S. Soccer Learning Center at learning.ussoccer.com.

On the next page is an overview of U.S. Soccer Coaching Education courses:

Introduction to Grassroots Coaching

The Introduction to Grassroots Coaching is a cost-free, online module intended for all parents and coaches of youth players. The focus of this grassroots introduction is to share U.S. Soccer's best practices in creating a fun, supportive, activity-centered, and age-appropriate environment for grassroots players.

Grassroots Courses

The eight Grassroots courses, which replaced the "F" and "E" License courses, offer an a-la-carte approach meant to empower coaches with education that is relevant to their specific coaching needs. The Grassroots Licenses will help coaches ensure fun, enjoyable, and developmentally appropriate environments for their players. Student coaches will learn how to understand the basic needs of grassroots players, the basic structure of the game, the basic structure of a grassroots training session, and the basic tasks of a grassroots coach.

"D" Course

The "D" course is a 45 to 60-hour course for the grassroots coach who meets the prerequisites. The focus of this course is to prepare coaches to work with youth teams (U-6 to U-19) in a participation environment. Coaches will learn to create game-like training sessions and a gameday environment that encourages players' ownership of their decision-making. The course consists of a mix of classroom lectures and field sessions that focus on using the Play-Practice-Play training methodology.

"C" Course

The "C" course prepares coaches to work with youth teams (U-11 to U-19) in a participation environment. The goals of the course are to educate student coaches in creating a series of progressive game-like training sessions that encourage players' ownership of their decision-making and create a gameday environment linked to training session goals.

"B" Course

The "B" course prepares coaches to work with youth (U-13+) in a performance environment. The goals of the course are to educate candidates in implementing a game model based on a style of play as well as creating and implementing a coaching structure to influence players during games and training sessions.

A-Youth Course

The A-Youth course prepares coaches to work as a head coach with youth teams in a high-performance environment. Student coaches are educated in creating and articulating a style of play in a game model as well as creating and implementing a training and coaching methodology to develop the team and individual players during training sessions and games.

A-Senior Course

The A-Senior course prepares coaches to work as a head coach with a senior team in a high-performance environment. Similar to the A-Youth course, students are educated in creating and articulating a style of play in a game model as well as creating and implementing a training and coaching methodology to develop the team and individual players during training sessions and games.

Pro Course

The Pro License prepares students to work as a head coach with a senior team at the highest level of national and international professional soccer. The primary goals of the course are to educate the student coach in developing a winning team culture, creating a game model that aligns with the club culture, the quality of the players, and the beliefs of the coach, and developing and using a leadership style that drives the high-performance environment. The year-long course is centered around the management of a professional team.

SUPPLEMENTAL PATHWAY

Coach Educator Course

The Coach Educator License prepares student coach educators (SCEs) with the necessary competencies required to teach U.S. Soccer Coaching Courses (Grassroots to Pro). The goals of the course are to develop a deeper understanding of the U.S. Soccer Coaching Education Philosophy and Principles and to facilitate a self-regulated learning process that allows for SCEs to guide, support, engage, and challenge student coaches throughout their learning process. The course is divided into four sequential parts; Base Course (Part 1), Course Level Pathway (Part 2), Apprenticeship (Part 3), and Summative Assessment (Part 4).

Club Technical Leadership Pathway

The Club Technical Leadership (CTL) Pathway is designed to support the development of club technical leaders from Grassroots to Professional club environments. The pathway is built to progressively develop competencies connected to leadership, club identity, player identification and development, coach and staff development, and strategic planning.

Talent Scout

The Talent Scout License prepares youth scouts to learn the process of identification, examination, and monitoring of potential (top) talented players. Students will acquire or further develop the competencies (knowledge, skills, attitude) and personal traits necessary to work as a Talent Scout. The primary goal of the course is to help youth scouts learn the process of identification, examination and monitoring of potential (top) talented players.

Coach For Community

Coach For Community is a free educational resource. The target is to provide the necessary tools and resources for coaches to create the most impactful learning environments for players. While the primary focus is on entry-level coaches, the program is open to all. The three key program objectives are to share best practices for player development including coaching games and practices (with a focus on U.S. Soccer's Play-Practice-Play methodology), provide expertise in grassroots coach education and player development, and to make connections with local soccer leaders.

Each individual that completes a free registration in U.S. Soccer's Learning Center and participates in the event will receive a $25 voucher to be used towards one of the four online grassroots courses.

U.S. Soccer National Training Center

In December 2023, U.S. Soccer announced that the site of the new National Training Center will be located in Fayette County, Georgia, as part of another step in the Federation's ambitious strategic plan to grow soccer across the country.

The location of the National Training Center, which will directly impact each of U.S. Soccer's five strategic pillars, was made following a robust and competitive process after looking at nine different locations within the wider Metro Atlanta area.

The exact location of the National Training Center will be in Trilith in Fayette County and cover more than 200 acres of land. The location became the clear choice by meeting key criteria that included accessibility and proximity to Atlanta's major international airport as well as downtown, optimal climate for year-round programming, the ability to drive economic impact locally, and the opportunity to be part of a diverse, growing community.

The Coca-Cola Company, a Founding Partner of the National Training Center, played an important role in U.S. Soccer's decision to bring the National Training Center to the company's corporate hometown. In July 2023, Coca-Cola and U.S. Soccer entered a transformative, long-term partnership agreement that supports the growth of the game at every level of the U.S. soccer ecosystem.

Together, Coca-Cola and U.S. Soccer are committed to building legacy events that shine a light on domestic talent and increase opportunities for all U.S. Youth National Teams and Extended National Teams, growing the sport and increasing participation in soccer in all its forms.

The National Training Center's location provides proximity to the Town at Trilith, a master-planned residential and mixed-use community with a school, restaurants, retail and office space. The Town at Trilith is adjacent to Trilith Studios, a major film and television production studio in Fayette County, which has brought the world's attention to this south-metro Atlanta community and sparked tremendous investment in the local area. Trilith Studios is home to blockbuster films and shows like "Avengers: Endgame" and "WandaVision." Established in 2014, Trilith Studios is one of the largest production facilities in Georgia and one of the largest purpose-built studios in North America.

The location is also in close proximity to the world's most-traveled airport with daily flights to more than 150 domestic and 70 international destinations. Hartsfield-Jackson Airport is located within a two-hour flight of 80% of the U.S. population, making it an appealing and easy to access location for players, referees, coaches, U.S. Soccer members and the entire soccer community across the country.

The facility will serve as headquarters for the U.S. Soccer Federation, creating a central hub for the entire soccer community, including coaches and referees, to access best-in-class training, technology and infrastructure to promote successful and sustainable playing environments throughout the country. For players, the National Training Center will provide the best environment, guaranteeing uninterrupted access to elite infrastructure for training, development, recovery and performance analysis – cultivating expertise and excellence in the sport on an international level.

The commitment to build a National Training Center was made possible by a $50 million contribution from iconic businessman and philanthropist Arthur M. Blank, The Home Depot co-founder and Atlanta United owner. Mr. Blank has a longstanding history of giving back to and uplifting local communities – since 1995, the Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation has granted more than $1 billion to various grantees.

Initial design plans for the National Training Center include projections for over a dozen soccer fields and over 100,000 sq. ft. of indoor courts for all 27 U.S. Soccer National Teams, including Senior Women's and Men's, Youth and Extended National Teams. The National Training Center will also include more than 200,000 sq. ft. of high-performance facilities, locker rooms, meeting rooms, and headquarters space for all U.S. Soccer employees.

While the National Training Center will be utilized by all 27 of U.S. Soccer's National Teams, part of Blank's contribution will specifically go towards the construction of facilities for U.S. Soccer's nine Extended National Teams (ENTs), particularly in support of the Cerebral Palsy (CP), Deaf, and Power Soccer National Teams, including thoughtful design of locker rooms and training facilities to maximize accessibility for players.

The facility will include full ADA accessibility for visitors and players not only within the building but also throughout the training ground. In addition, sustainability will be at the forefront of the design process and the project team will pursue LEED certification of the National Training Center by incorporating energy-efficient systems, water reclamation, and protection of surrounding natural habitats.

The National Training Center will create an estimated 400+ new jobs and represents an investment valued at more than $200 million. In alignment with U.S. Soccer's vision to promote diversity, inclusion, equity and belonging and eliminate barriers both on and off the field, the Federation is committed to working with minority or women owned businesses.

U.S. Soccer CEO and Secretary General JT Batson led the search for the site with counsel from Deloitte, which helped narrow the location to the Atlanta Metro area, while Vice Chairman of AMBSE Steve Cannon was instrumental in helping make connections within Atlanta. U.S. Soccer then worked closely with key partners, stakeholders and officials across the Atlanta community and State of Georgia to gather feedback on possible locations before narrowing in on Trilith in Fayetteville, which is one of the most exciting and growing areas in the Atlanta Metro area.

The U.S. Soccer Development Fund and Fundraising Program

U.S. Soccer is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Like other national governing bodies for sports in the United States, the Federation receives no government funding to support its programs.

In 2013, U.S. Soccer launched its fundraising program, the first in the history of the organization and encouraging individuals to contribute to a myriad of initiatives and programs across the ecosystem. At present, the organization is scaling its development department to match its vision and ambitions outlined in its new strategic plan. As such the fundraising program at U.S. Soccer will now include dedicated departments and staff focused in five key areas:

- Campaign and Special Projects
- Development Operations
- Individual Giving (Membership and Annual Fund)
- Institutional Giving (Corporations and Foundations)
- Major and Principal Giving

Donors can support U.S. Soccer and get closer to our programs by making a donation at www.ussoccer.com/donate, or joining a giving group like the ones outlined below:

- CIRCLE INSIDERS: Annual membership program supporting the U.S. Soccer Development Fund, with unique benefits at every level.
- THE NATIONAL WOMEN'S NETWORK: Leadership giving group supporting and celebrating U.S. Soccer programs for girls and women across the organization.
- PATRONS PROGRAM: Supporters families participating in multi-day VIP travel programs around senior Men's and Women's National Team matches.
- DEVELOPMENT COUNCILS: Regional volunteer groups uniting business and community leaders in support of U.S. Soccer. (Current Development Councils: Chicago, New York City, Bay Area, Los Angeles, and At-Large.)
- CHAMPIONS CIRCLE: U.S. Soccer's foremost philanthropic leadership group, championing the future of the sport at the highest level.

NATIONAL SOCCER HALL OF FAME

The National Soccer Hall of Fame (NSHOF) is a public-private partnership among FC Dallas, the City of Frisco, Frisco Independent School District and U.S. Soccer Federation. The NSHOF, part of a $55 million renovation at Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Texas, contains two components: The NSHOF Experience and the HOF Club.

The NSHOF Experience is a 10,000-square foot segment of the NSHOF that honors the past, while fully incorporating modern technology of the present and future including virtual reality, gesture technology and interactive digital video boards throughout to celebrate the players and builders of American soccer that have elevated the sport to where it is today. It features interactive exhibits and iconic soccer memorabilia and serves as the home for Hall of Fame induction ceremonies annually.

The NSHOF's home in Frisco opened in 2018 after not having a home for seven years, with the previous home located in Oneonta, N.Y. from 1979-2010. The NSHOF was officially recognized by U.S. Soccer in 1983.

What is now the National Soccer Hall of Fame first sprang to life in 1950 when a group of former professional and amateur players from the Philadelphia "Old-timers" Association took it upon themselves to recognize the achievements of soccer in America. Decades after the "Old-timers" first got together, more than 300 members have been elected to the Hall of Fame for their outstanding contributions to American soccer, both on and off the field.

The Hall of Fame also possesses an archive of more than 80,000 items, which make up one of the largest collections of soccer artifacts and records in the world. The collection includes such rare pieces as the world's oldest soccer ball (made in the USA) and both the 1991 and 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup trophies. The collection also includes the North American Soccer League archive, the 1994 FIFA World Cup USA archive, a rare soccer photography collection from New York depression-era photographer John Albok, materials from the U.S. National Teams in World Cup competition and artifacts from the American Soccer League of the 1920's and 1950's.

Members are elected annually via three ballots – Player, Builder and Veteran (player), and since 2018 have been inducted in Frisco, Texas. Beginning with the Class of 2021, a 96-member Selection Committee consisting of Hall of Famers, media members, historians and soccer executives and coaches participate in annual elections. For the election of the Class of 2024, the maximum number of inductees is three Players, two Veterans and one Builder.

Soccer continues to see impressive participation growth at the high school and collegiate levels. In the 2014-15 academic year, soccer was fourth most popular high school sport for girls (behind only track and field, volleyball and basketball) with 375,681 participants, but showed the steepest continued incline in new participants^ over the last 15 years. Participation levels increase for soccer at the collegiate level relative to all other sports with only track and field involving more athletes; however new track and field team numbers are stagnant, while colleges and universities continue adding women's soccer programs with 599 having been started throughout the country since 1988-89.+

With approximately 145,000 registered referees, the U.S. is second in the world behind only Japan.

According to the 2010 FIFA Big Count, there are nearly 800,000 soccer officials in the U.S. (coaches, referees, administrators).

U.S. SOCCER ON TELEVISION

After years of fruitful media rights partnerships in both English and Spanish with FOX, ESPN and Univision, U.S. Soccer struck an eight-year media rights partnership with Warner Bros. Discovery in 2022 for its English-language rights and a four-year deal with NBCUniversal Telemundo Enterprises at the beginning of 2023 for its Spanish language rights.

Between the two, 75 percent of USMNT and USWNT matches will be broadcast on linear TV and all will be simulcast across each partner's streaming properties. More importantly, for the first time ever, all USWNT matches will be broadcast in Spanish, resulting in 100 percent coverage of both National Teams across English and Spanish language for the first time ever. The National Teams will also receive significant promotional support across other high-profile sport properties (NBA, English Premier League, Olympics, FIFA World Cup, etc.) and entertainment franchises.

2018/2019/2022/2023 FIFA WORLD CUP TELEVISION RIGHTS

In October of 2011, the amazing growth of the sport was demonstrated when a bidding war over the U.S. broadcast rights for the 2018 and 2022 FIFA World Cups and 2019 and 2023 FIFA Women's World Cups played out in Zurch, Switzerland. In the end, a record sum of more than $1 billion was paid by Fox and Telemundo, an increase of more than 147 percent over the combined $425 million that ESPN and Univisión paid for the rights to the 2010 and 2014 tournaments.

Fox paid a reported $450 to $500 million to beat out ESPN and NBC for the English rights, while Telemundo is said to have paid $600 million to outbid Univision for the Spanish rights. Additionally, FIFA granted FOX the U.S. broadcast rights for the 2026 World Cup, which was awarded to the United Bid from Canada, Mexico and the United States at the 2018 FIFA Congress.

U.S. SOCCER ON TV

ENGLISH LANGUAGE. In March 2022, Turner Sports, a division of WarnerMedia, and the U.S. Soccer Federation reached an eight-year multimedia rights agreement to make TNT/TBS and Max the exclusive English-language home to more than 20 Women's and Men's National Team matches each year. The agreement features high-profile matches on TNT or TBS and a full slate of matches available through the Max streaming platform. In addition, the strategic partnership includes digital and highlight rights for Bleacher Report and its portfolio brands, among additional content opportunities throughout the WarnerMedia portfolio. Per the terms of the agreement, Turner Sports is the exclusive domestic, English-language rightsholder for U.S. National Team World Cup qualifiers, National Team friendlies (including premium U.S. matches against Mexico), send-off matches and special events leading up to and following the World Cup and Olympic Games, and the SheBelieves Cup, among additional events involving the Women's and Men's National Soccer Teams.

SPANISH LANGUAGE. In January 2023, fresh off the heels of a record-breaking presentation of the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022™, NBCUniversal Telemundo Enterprises and the U.S. Soccer Federation announced a multimedia rights agreement that made Telemundo the new exclusive Spanish-language home of the Women's and Men's National Teams across all platforms, including Peacock, in the United States. The new agreement features more than 20 U.S. National Team matches each year across Telemundo, Universo, Peacock - presented by the digital content brand Tplus - and Telemundo's digital platforms, consisting of National Team friendlies (including premium U.S. matches against Mexico), the SheBelieves Cup, and other key events involving the Women's and Men's National Soccer Teams, such as select Concacaf Nations League matches.

Through its media rights partnerships, for the first time ever U.S. Soccer has partners that cover 100% of all senior National Team matches in English and Spanish.

LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP. Through meaningful partnerships with CBS and BR, the 2023 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup was the broadest distributed and most viewed tournament of all-time. The Open Cup first became available on CBS in April 2023 as CBS Sports Golazo Network broadcast three Third Round games and continued through the Round of 32, Round of 16 and Quarterfinals. Subsequently, CBS platforms became the exclusive English-language home of the 2023 U.S. Open Cup for the Semifinals and Final, while Telemundo also aired the Semifinals and Final in Spanish.

MLS ON TV

In 2023, Apple and MLS began a landmark 10-year partnership and launched MLS Season Pass, the game-changing subscription service available on the Apple TV app that allows fans in more than 100 countries and regions to watch every MLS match in one convenient place with no blackouts, exclusive content and deeper coverage than ever before.

From early 2023 through 2032, fans can get every live MLS match by subscribing to the new MLS streaming service, available exclusively through the Apple TV app. In addition to all of the match content, the service provides fans a weekly live match whip-around show so they never miss an exciting goal or save, and also game replays, highlights, analysis, and other original programming. This live and on-demand MLS content provides in-depth, behind-the-scenes views of the players and clubs that fans love. A broad selection of MLS and Leagues Cup matches, including some of the biggest matchups, will also be available at no additional cost to Apple TV+ subscribers, with a limited number of matches available for free. As an added benefit to fans, access to the new MLS streaming service will be included as part of MLS full-season ticket packages.

NWSL ON TV

In November 2023, the National Women's Soccer League announced landmark agreements for its domestic media distribution with 118 national windows on CBS Sports, ESPN, Prime Video and Scripps Sports. The four-year contract with each partner will generate record-breaking distribution and revenue for the league while maximizing a mix of linear and digital streaming distribution.

Beginning in 2024, 118 matches will be distributed across the following partner platforms:

- The NWSL will begin each regular-season weekend with Friday night matches on Prime Video.
- Each Saturday night that follows will include a double-header on Scripps'-owned ION network, available over-the-air in 123 million homes.
- A package of regular season matches will air on The CBS Television Network and stream live on Paramount+, with additional matches airing on CBS Sports Network.
- ESPN will air a package of matches across ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, and ESPN Deportes (Spanish). All NWSL matches on ESPN platforms and on ABC will stream live on ESPN+in English and Spanish. The package also includes English, Spanish and Portuguese-language rights in Latin America.

The remainder of the NWSL regular-season schedule will be part of a domestic direct-to-consumer package produced and distributed by the NWSL, building on the league's 2023 season international direct-to-consumer platform. For the NWSL playoffs, set to expand in 2024 with the addition of Bay FC and the Utah Royals, Prime Video and CBS will have the rights to one quarterfinal each, while ESPN/ABC will air the other two quarterfinals. CBS and ESPN/ABC will each have a semifinal. CBS Sports, in its fourth year in partnership with the NWSL, continues as the home of the NWSL Championship match each season in primetime on CBS and streaming on Paramount+.

USL ON TV

In 2023, the United Soccer League (USL) and CBS Sports announced a landmark multi-year rights agreement for CBS Sports to air 100 USL matches annually through the 2027 USL Championship and USL League One seasons. CBS Sports' extensive multiplatform USL match coverage will air across the CBS Television Network and Paramount+, CBS Sports Network and CBS Sports Golazo Network.

Through the deal, CBS Sports will broadcast select USL matches, including the USL Championship Final, on the CBS Television Network– the first time USL competition will be featured on network television in league history. Matches on the CBS Television Network will also simulcast live on Paramount+. CBS Sports will also televise more than 20 USL matches on CBS Sports Network annually and 75 USL matches each season on CBS Sports Golazo Network, the 24/7 soccer streaming network available across multiple platforms, including Paramount+. In addition to live matches, CBS Sports Golazo Network will provide analysis and commentary of USL competition throughout its live studio programming.

FIFA – SOCCER'S WORLD GOVERNING BOARD

Founded in 1904 to provide unity among national soccer associations, the Federation Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) boasts 211 members, rivaling that of the United Nations, and is arguably the most prestigious sports organization in the world.

FIFA was established on May 21, 1904, by seven national associations — Belgium, Denmark, France, Netherlands, Spain, Sweden and Switzerland — to "promote the game of Association Football (as opposed to rugby or American football), to foster friendly relations among National Associations, Confederations, their officials and players, by promoting the organization of football matches at all levels, and to control every type of association football by taking steps as shall be deemed necessary or advisable."

FIFA's birth was a result of the growing number of international games shortly after the dawn of the 20th century. Soccer leaders in Europe felt that such expanded competition required a governing body, and under the leadership of Robert Guerin, a French journalist, the seven founding members gathered in Paris to shape the future of the sport. Guerin, FIFA's first president, presided over the organization from 1904 to 1906. Seven other men have also served as FIFA president, including Jules Rimet for 33 years from 1921 to 1954.

Currently, Italy's Gianni Infantino serves as FIFA president, having been elected in 2016's Extraordinary Congress held in the wake of corruption allegations against numerous FIFA Officials that resulted in former president Joseph "Sepp" Blatter stepping aside and then being banned from FIFA by its Ethics Committee. FIFA's general secretary since 2009, Infantino served a three-year term as FIFA president and was re-elected for a second term at the 2019 FIFA Presidential Election during the 69th FIFA Congress in Paris on June 5.

Under FIFA's governance soccer has become the world's most popular sport. According to the Federation's 2006 "Big Count," the game is played by more than 150 million registered athletes — including 10 million women — and viewed by billions of fans in stadiums and on television worldwide.

As soccer's ultimate administrative authority, FIFA governs all facets of the game: regulating the rules of play, overseeing the transfers of players internationally, organizing international competitions such as the FIFA World Cup, establishing standards for refereeing, coaching and sports medicine, and encouraging soccer's development around the world.

Among the official world championships staged by FIFA are the World Cup, the Women's World Cup, the Under-20 World Cup, the Under-20 Women's World Cup, the Under-17 World Cup, the Under-17 Women's World Cup, the Beach Soccer World Cup and the Futsal World Cup. Additionally, FIFA oversees the men's and women's Olympic Football Tournament staged under the auspices of the International Olympic Committee every four years. FIFA has also staged the FIFA Confederations Cup, a competition between each of its confederations' champions, and the FIFA Club World Cup, which was held at the beginning of 2000 for the first time in Brazil.

Concacaf

HOST OF THE WORLD'S GAME

The Confederation of North, Central America and Caribbean Association Football (Concacaf) was founded in 1961 and serves as the organizing body for 41 national associations, including the United States, and spans from Canada in the north to Suriname in the south. Concacaf organizes international competition in a number of events, including the Champions Cup, qualifying tournaments for all FIFA competitions and the Gold Cup.

2023 saw the USMNT claim a second-straight Concacaf Nations League, defeating Mexico 3-0 in the semifinal before upending Canada 2-0 in the final. Turning around to playing the Concacaf Gold Cup the following month, the USA fell to Panama on penalty kicks in the semifinal. The USWNT went to the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup, where it navigated the group before falling to Sweden on penalty kicks in the Round of 16.

On the youth side, the U-20 USMNT finished atop its group at the 2023 FIFA U-20 World Cup, and defeated New Zealand 4-0 in the Round of 16 before falling 2-0 to eventual winners Uruguay in the quarterfinals. It marked the fourth-consecutive World Cup the U-20 USMNT advanced to the quarterfinal stage. Meanwhile, the U-17 USMNT finished second in its World Cup group, before falling 3-2 to eventual champions Germany in the Round of 16.

On the sand, the U.S. Men's Beach Soccer National Team won the Concacaf Beach Soccer Championship for the third time, running off six straight victories which concluded with a 5-0 rout of Mexico in the final. The successful tournament saw the USA qualify for the 2024 FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

2022 marked a full return to competitions as youth programming resumed, with the Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship and the Concacaf Women's U-17 Championship both being claimed by the USA. The U.S. Men's Youth National Team claimed the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Championship in Honduras, which was originally cancelled due to COVID-19 in 2020.

The USMNT returned to the FIFA World Cup, and with the second youngest roster in the tournament, advanced to the Round of 16 before falling to Netherlands. The USWNT won the 2022 Concacaf W Championship with a thrilling win over Canada, thereby earning its berth to the 2023 Women's World Cup and the 2024 Olympic Games. The feat came after Concacaf announced in 2020 that it would launch new senior Women's National Team competitions to benefit the entire Confederation beginning in 2021, which would conclude with qualifying for the Women's World Cup and the 2024 Olympics as well as the first Concacaf Women's Nations League tournament. 2024 will see the launch of the Concacaf W Gold Cup, a new regional championship tournament featuring Concacaf teams and guest nations from CONMEBOL.

The structure of new competitions is aimed at transforming Women's National Team football across the entire confederation. The new calendar prioritizes providing more official match dates for all Concacaf region women's senior national teams and ensuring there is elite competition to showcase the highest level of women's international football. Through this new calendar, Concacaf will more than double the number of official senior women's national team matches compared with the former cycle of competitions. This major development for the women's game followed the launch in June 2019 of Concacaf W – the Confederation's women's football strategy – which has focused on working with Concacaf Member Associations (MAs) to grow all aspects of women's football in North and Central America and the Caribbean.

After a shutdown of all competitions in 2020, the originally postponed inaugural Concacaf Nations League Final Four took place in Denver, Colorado from June 3-6, 2021. The United States claimed the title after defeating archrivals Mexico in extra time with a penalty kick goal from Christian Pulisic and a dramatic penalty kick save from Ethan Horvath in the dying moments of the match. The USA would earn its second consecutive Concacaf major title just one month later after beating Mexico yet again to claim the 2021 Gold Cup.

Additionally, the Concacaf Men's Olympic Qualifying Championship which was to be held in March 2020 and the start of Men's World Cup qualifying, which was to hold its first windows in September and November that same year, were all postponed and played on those same dates in 2021. Of course, the 2020 Tokyo Olympics was also postponed until 2021 and the United States women won the bronze medal.

While the Under-20 Women's World Cup qualifying did take place in January 2020 – and was won by the USA – many events didn't take place, including qualifying for the U-17 Women's World Cup. Both youth Women's World Cups were eventually cancelled by FIFA, as were the Men's Youth World Cups for '21 because qualifying could not be held.

In 2019, the confederation introduced the Concacaf Nations League, a competition meant to provide more meaningful matches for all members of Concacaf. The group stage was held in fall of 2019.

Concacaf kicked off the summer of 2018 with the announcement that the United Bid of the United States, Canada and Mexico was awarded the right to host the 2026 FIFA World Cup. In October, three teams: the USA, Canada, and Jamaica, qualified for the 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup in France. Jamaica became the first women's team from the Caribbean to qualify for a FIFA Women's World Cup.

In 2017, the United States won the biannual confederation championship in thrilling fashion with a 2-1 win against Jamaica in the 2017 Gold Cup final.

The previous year in 2016, Concacaf hosted the Copa America Centenario in honor of the 100th anniversary of the world's oldest international football tournament. In stunning fashion, Chile retained the Copa America crown it had also won a year earlier in a rematch against Argentina in the Centenario Final that drew 82,026 fans, making it the most well-attended final of the Millennium. Staged outside South America for the first time, the tournament featured six teams from Concacaf and all 10 teams from CONMEBOL as the two American Confederations partnered for the historic competition, setting a new standard for worldwide inter-confederation cooperation.

2015 began Concacaf's current run of hosting the world's largest football tournaments when it held the FIFA Women's World Cup in Canada - its first World Cup at the full international level since the United States hosted the Women's World Cup in 2003. In recent history, Concacaf has hosted the 2014 U-20 Women's World Cup in Canada, the 2011 U-17 World Cup in Mexico and the 2010 U-17 Women's World Cup in Trinidad & Tobago.

The 2012 London Olympic Games proved to be a landmark tournament for the confederation as the U.S. Women's National Team and Mexico U-23 Men's National Team captured gold, making it the first time in the competition's history that teams from the same confederation stood atop the podium.

The 2002 World Cup was a banner tournament for Concacaf that saw the U.S. advance to the quarterfinals, while Mexico won their group to earn a second round berth in Korea and Japan.

In 2005, Concacaf saw one of its men's teams win the first-ever outdoor world championship in the confederation's history as Mexico swept through the FIFA U-17 World Cup in Peru.

In 2000, Guatemala hosted the FIFA Futsal World Cup and in doing so became the first Central American country to host a FIFA world championship. And in 2001, Trinidad & Tobago hosted the spectacular Under-17 World Cup, becoming the first Caribbean country to host a world championship. A year later, the first-ever FIFA Women's Under-19 World Cup was staged in Canada in 2002 and won by the United States. After Trinidad & Tobago hosted the U-17 Women in 2010, Mexico welcomed the 2011 U-17 World Cup for men and triumphed as tournament champions.

As the Confederation's premier event, the Gold Cup is traditionally played every two years by the national teams within Concacaf. It rotated to an odd-year, summer schedule in 2003. Mexico, eight-time winner of the Gold Cup, defeated the U.S. in the 1993, 1998, 2009, 2011 and 2019 finals, downed Brazil in '96 and 2003 and defeated Jamaica in 2015. The U.S. has won seven Gold Cups, the inaugural 1991 event, and again in 2002, 2005, 2007, 2013, 2017 and 2021. The 2000 Gold Cup was perhaps the most surprising, with Canada taking home their first major international title as the U.S. and Mexico failed to qualify for the semifinals. In 2015, the Confederation's entrant to the FIFA Confederations Cup shifted to a system whereby one nation must win the two Gold Cups held before the Confederations Cup or, if it does not win both editions, enter a one-game playoff against the nation that also won either of the Gold Cup tournaments in advance of a Confederations Cup.

The Women's Gold Cup lasted for three events, with the U.S. winning all three events in 2000, 2002, 2006. In 2002, it took a golden goal from Mia Hamm for the U.S. to dispatch Canada in the final, 2-1, and in 2000 the U.S. downed guest-team Brazil 1-0 to claim the championship. In the most recent edition of the tournament, the U.S. again prevailed in extra time, this time courtesy of a Kristine Lilly penalty kick in the 120th minute.

Concacaf competed in the FIFA Club World Cup for the first time in 2000, when Mexico's Necaxa impressed with a third place finish in the 2000 tournament in Brazil. Most recently, the confederation's best finish came from Mexico's Monterrey, which claimed third in 2012. The Concacaf club championship, contested amongst the region's top club teams, was won by D.C. United in 1998 and 2001 and Seattle Sounders FC in 2022. In 2008, Concacaf changed to a Champions League format and in 2024 will launch a new format, rebranding the tournament as the Concacaf Champions Cup.

In 1994, Concacaf joined Europe and South America as the only confederations to host three or more World Cup finals. Mexico welcomed the world twice, in 1970 and 1986, while the United States staged the event for the first time in 1994.

Launched on April 6, 1996, Major League Soccer is the U.S. Soccer sanctioned Division I outdoor professional soccer league in the United States. The LA Galaxy are the league's most successful team and its first to claim five MLS Cup titles (2002, 2005, 2011, 2012, 2014), surpassing D.C. United, winners of three of the first four MLS Cup titles (1996, 1997 & 1999) as well as the 2004 crown. Five more clubs have claimed multiple titles; the San Jose Earthquakes (2001, 2003), Houston Dynamo (2006, 2007), Seattle Sounders FC (2016, 2019), Columbus Crew (2008, 2020. 2023) and Kansas City Wizards/ Sporting Kansas City (2000, 2013). They are joined on the list of MLS Cup champions by the Chicago Fire (1998), Real Salt Lake (2009), Colorado Rapids (2010), Portland Timbers (2015), Toronto FC (2017), Atlanta United FC (2018), New York City FC (2021), and Los Angeles FC (2022).

In 2024, the league will continue to be divided into two conferences: Eastern Conference – Atlanta United FC, Charlotte FC, Chicago Fire FC, Columbus Crew SC, D.C. United, FC Cincinnati, Inter Miami CF, CF Montreal, New England Revolution, Nashville SC, New York City FC, New York Red Bulls, Orlando City, Philadelphia Union, Toronto FC; Western Conference – Austin FC, Colorado Rapids, FC Dallas, Houston Dynamo, LA Galaxy, Los Angeles FC, Minnesota United, Portland Timbers, Real Salt Lake, San Jose Earthquakes, Seattle Sounders FC, Sporting Kansas City, Saint Louis City SC and Vancouver Whitecaps FC.

Nashville and Miami began play in 2020, Austin FC in 2021, and Charlotte FC in 2022, while St. Louis City SC played its inaugural season in 2023. San Diego FC will begin play as Major League Soccer's 30th team in 2025.

MLS has a unique ownership and operating structure, based on a "single entity" concept. Unlike other professional sports leagues, which are a confederation of independent franchise owners, MLS' "single entity" structure allows investors to own an interest in the league, as well as individual teams. MLS believes that the structure will better position the league for long term success.

In 2021, MLS announced the MLS NEXT Pro, a division III league that kicked off in March 2022 consisting of 21 pro clubs. The league will kick off 2024 with 29 clubs. The league serves to build on the MLS pro pathway, which begins at the youth level in MLS NEXT, which was introduced in 2020 and kicked off in 2021 as a successor to the U.S. Development Academy.

The USL is the largest, fastest-growing professional soccer organization in North America.

Overseeing three men's leagues (USL Championship, USL League One, USL League Two), two women's leagues (USL Super League, USL W League), one elite player development platform (USL Academy), and a national youth platform (USL Super Y League), the USL is built on a proven and recognized model in international football and counts more than 200 clubs in its membership.

The USL provides a clearly defined path for the progression of soccer players, beginning at the youth level (USL Academy League and Super Y League), continuing through the amateur level (USL League Two) and up to the professional level (USL League One and USL Championship). A platform for countless players to reach for their dreams each year, the USL is devoted to developing the sport at the grassroots level in every community across the region. In 2021, the USL announced the additions of the new USL W League, a pre-professional women's soccer league which kicked off in May 2022, and the USL Super League, a first-division professional women's soccer league set to begin play in 2024.

Based in Tampa, Fla., the USL has grown during the past decade into a model organization with strong corporate partnerships and stable organizational leadership. It features a dedicated staff of more than 60 professionals across 17 departments ranging from operations, digital, communications and club services, each of which provides unparalleled support to member clubs and outside partners. Sanctioned by the U.S. Soccer Federation, the USL is #UnitedForSoccer, moving the game forward in North America.

CEO/ Executive Director: Mike Cullina

A National Association member of the U.S. Soccer Federation, US Club Soccer is a non-profit organization committed to the development and support of soccer clubs in the United States.

US Club Soccer has been a good standing affiliate of the U.S. Soccer Federation since 2001. A 14-member Board of Directors makes policy decisions for the organization.

US Club Soccer's mission is to effectively foster the growth and development of clubs throughout the United States, creating the best possible development environment for players of all ages in every club.

One of the primary ways this mission is accomplished is through the Players First licensing initiative. Players First, a guiding philosophy of US Club Soccer, is a branded, holistic club soccer experience for parents and players, which emphasizes the development of each individual to his or her full potential, and helps parents make better choices about where their children should play. Players First is based on five pillars: Club Development, Coaching Development, Player Development, Parent Engagement & Education and Player Health & Safety.

US Club Soccer's local and national programs have been developed with strong input from clubs around the country and with a minimum of rules and restrictions.

Among these programs are the National Premier Leagues (NPL), which include 21 leagues throughout the country to provide high-level competition, and to elevate and change the competitive youth landscape based on US Club Soccer's fundamental principles.

While the NPL provides meaningful league-based competition culminating yearly with the NPL post season consisting of NPL Playoffs (boys) and NPL Finals (boys and girls), US Club Soccer also offers national championship aspirations to clubs through the National Cup, a cup-based competition consisting of state cups, Regional events and the National Cup Finals.

The popular PDP and id2 Programs are Olympic Development Programs approved by the United States Olympic Committee and U.S. Soccer Federation. Annually, the id2 Program consists of id² Training Camps in various locations around the country and National Selection programming for boys and girls (id2 National Selection International Tour). Targeted age cycles are coordinated in conjunction with U.S. Soccer.

The id2 Program consistently identifies and develops players ready for youth national team training camps and beyond. Players such as Christian Pulisic, Lindsey Horan, Tyler Adams, Catarina Macario and Tim Weah have all participated in the id2 Program.

US Club Soccer is also committed to the development of coaches and administrators and provides several off-the-field resources for members.

Founded in 1964, the AYSO is a national association affiliated with U.S. Soccer and operates soccer programs with more than 500,000 children participating throughout the U.S. AYSO operates programs so young people can learn to develop a positive self-image, self-confidence and other character traits through their interest and participation in the sport.

More than 50 years later, AYSO now has thriving programs for kids and adults in nearly 900 communities all over the country – and internationally in the Virgin Islands and Trinidad and Tobago – over eight million AYSO alumni, and a name that's recognized nationwide.

AYSO's success has been based on the philosophies of "Everyone Plays®" and "Balanced Teams," ideas originated 50 years ago by founder Hans F.W. Stierle. AYSO requires every player to play at least half of every game and that individual teams are balanced every year to assure fair play. Other AYSO tenets include open registration, positive coaching and good sportsmanship.

Each year AYSO forms new teams as evenly balanced as possible, providing a stronger learning experience for players as they play teams comprised of similar ability. It also allows for each player to experience playing with a wide variety of teammates of different skill levels.

AYSO is a volunteer-driven organization of more than 225,000 parents and friends who serve as coaches, referees and team administrators. A full-time staff administers AYSO from the organization's National Office in Torrance, California.

THE U.S. SOCCER FOUNDATION

The Major Charitable Arm of Soccer

The U.S. Soccer Foundation is a prominent leader in sports-based youth development, using soccer as a vehicle for social change among youth. The Foundation provides nationally recognized programs that are proven to deliver positive health and social outcomes. Its innovative, accessible and affordable initiatives offer safe environments in which both boys and girls thrive. Since the Foundation's inception, it has impacted more than 13 million individuals through more than $100 million in direct funding to over 600 organizations nationwide. The Foundation recently announced its goals to serve one million children annually in quality soccer programs and build 1,000 safe playing spaces by 2026.

Dedicated to growing the sport of soccer and using it as a vehicle for positive change, the Foundation runs three national programs:

SOCCER FOR SUCCESS

Soccer for Success is the U.S. Soccer Foundation's afterschool program, offered free to participants, that uses soccer as a tool to address children's health issues, teach critical life skills, and promote healthy lifestyles in underserved communities. The Foundation partners with community-based organizations across the country to operate Soccer for Success sites – providing tens of thousands of children with quality afterschool programming led by trained coach-mentors three times per week for the entire school year. Currently, the Soccer for Success program serves more than 40,000 children in over 180 communities across the country. To date, more than 100,000 youth have participated in Soccer for Success.

SAFE PLACES TO PLAY

In addition to programming, the U.S. Soccer Foundation works to provide children with safe and accessible places to play by transforming underutilized spaces into soccer fields. In communities where space is at a premium, the Foundation developed the 'mini-pitch' to provide customized solutions to meet communities' needs. The Foundation's Safe Places to Play program also provides grants to organizations to help them build or enhance field space(s) in their communities.

PASSBACK

Since 2002, the U.S. Soccer Foundation's Passback program has collected and redistributed more than one million pieces of soccer equipment to children in underserved communities. Thanks to dedicated individuals, soccer clubs, and organizations that collect and donate soccer equipment, the Passback program is able to bring the game of soccer to children who love the sport but can't afford the gear to play.

In addition to its programs, the Foundation is dedicated to assisting those who serve youth through soccer in underserved communities. Each year the Foundation organizes the Urban Soccer Symposium, an event which brings together non-profit organizations that directly support soccer programs and projects to share funding resources, best practices and other technical expertise. The Foundation has laid the groundwork for networking and partnership opportunities among urban soccer programs nationwide.

CHICAGO:
HOME TO U.S. SOCCER

In October 2022, U.S. Soccer relocated its headquarters to 303 E. Wacker, a modern high-rise office building in the Chicago East Loop district. The Federation was previously headquartered at the historic Soccer House in Chicago's South Loop for 31 years.

303 E. Wacker is a modern office space which features a brand-new lobby and new penthouse-level amenities following a major repositioning by the property's ownership group, Beacon. The new amenity center showcases Nanoglass operable windows, a stunning tenant lounge, and a fitness facility, while the lobby hosts a new coffee shop.

The building is a 30-story, 944,000 square foot building located on the riverfront in Chicago's East Loop. The property's Miesian architectural design offers highly efficient 33,000 square-foot floorplates that are well-suited for both open-plan and private office layouts. Floor-to-ceiling window lines provide spectacular views of the Chicago River, Lake Michigan, and the Chicago skyline.

In the tradition of many world soccer federations and the FIFA House in Zurich, the U.S. Soccer's former residence at Soccer House consisted of two refurbished mansions in Chicago's Prairie Avenue Historical District for three decades. Initially located in Colorado Springs, Colo., U.S. Soccer moved their operational base into the Kimball and Coleman houses which made up Soccer House, in December of 1991.

NEW HOME: After 31 years at U.S. Soccer House on the south side of Chicago, U.S. Soccer moved its headquarters in 2022 to a modern office building in the East Loop at 303 E. Wacker Dr.

U.S. SOCCER TIMELINE

1800s As was the case in England, in the early 1800s many American schools and colleges played forms of football, but under rules that varied from place to place.

1862 The Oneida Football Club, made up of Boston prep school students, was organized by Gerritt Smith Miller. The game the Oneidas played was more like rugby than like soccer, but they were the first American team playing any type of football to be organized on a continuing basis, rather than just for the day.

1866 The first game in America using the association football rules standardized three years before in London was played on Oct. 11 in Waukesha, Wis. A team of Carroll College students beat a team of local residents.

1869 A week after they played what has been called the first American football game, teams from Princeton and Rutgers met on Nov. 13 in Princeton, N.J., in a game using association football rules, the first intercollegiate soccer game in America.

1876 Most of the football-playing colleges abandoned soccer in favor of rugby. However, within a few years soccer had begun to take hold in immigrant communities in various American locations such as Fall River, Mass.; Kearny, N.J., and St. Louis.

1833 The first soccer league in America, the Western Football Association, was organized in St. Louis.

1884 The American Football Association, only the second national soccer association outside of the British Isles, but one that was really more regional than national, was organized in Newark, N.J.

1885 The first American Football Association Cup was won by ONT of Kearny, N.J., and a team representing the United States played one from Canada in Kearny on Nov. 28 in the first "international" game in America.

1894 The first attempt to start a pro soccer league in the United States, the American League of Professional Football Clubs, lasted for only three weeks in October. However, a longer-lasting league, the National Association Foot Ball League, began the following spring.

1898 A depression resulting from the financial panic of 1893 caused the suspension of both the American Football Association and the nation's leading league, the National Association Foot Ball League of New Jersey.

1904 A Canadian team won the soccer competition at the Olympic Games in St. Louis.

1905 A 17-game North American tour by the Pilgrims, an English amateur team, helped to revive soccer in the United States. St. Leo's won the first of its 10 consecutive St. Louis Major League titles.

1906 West Hudson of Harrison, N.J., won the first championship of the revived AFA Cup. A year later, it added the first championship of the revived National Association Foot Ball League.

1913 The United States Football Association was founded at an April 5 meeting in New York. FIFA, which had been founded in 1904, granted it provisional membership later in the year and full membership in 1914.

1914 The first National Challenge Cup tournament, the championship of the new USFA, was won by the Brooklyn Field Club (the tournament's name was later changed to the U.S. Open Cup).

1916 The first national team organized by the USFA, named the All-American Football Club, played six games in a tour of Sweden and Norway. The captain, Thomas Swords of Fall River, scored the first goal ever for the U.S. national team, against Sweden.

FIRST TEAM: The very first U.S. Men's National Team squad prepares to take the field in their first match, a 3-2 victory over Sweden in Stockholm on Aug. 20, 1916.

1919 Bethlehem Steel, after sweeping the National Challenge Cup, the AFA Cup and the National Association Foot Ball League, became the first American club to make a European tour when it played 14 games in Sweden and Denmark.

1920 The National Challenge Cup was won for the first time by a team from west of the Alleghenies, Ben Millers of St. Louis.

1930: The 1930 U.S. World Cup Team advanced into the semifinals and finished third.

1921 The original American Soccer League, largely a merger of the National Association Foot Ball League in the Middle Atlantic states and the Southern New England Soccer League, began play. In its first season, it included three teams from Massachusetts, two from New York, two from New Jersey and one from Pennsylvania.

1924 The Fall River Marksmen became the first team to win the American Soccer League and National Challenge Cup titles in the same year.

'34 IN ITALY: The U.S. lost their only match of the 1934 World Cup, losing 7-1 to host Italy.

1926 A game between Austrian first-division team Hakoah and a New York all-star team drew a crowd of 46,000 to the Polo Grounds in New York. Bethlehem Steel won the last of its five National Challenge Cup titles.

1928 The Soccer War, a year-long battle between the ASL and the USFA, began with ASL demands to take over the leading role in administering the sport.

1930 The United States was one of 13 nations to compete in the first World Cup in Uruguay, upsetting Belgium and Paraguay before being eliminated by Argentina in the semifinals. Bert Patenaude of Fall River scored the first World Cup hat trick. Later in the year, the Fall River Marksmen, again winners of the ASL and National Challenge Cup titles, made a six-game tour of Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Austria.

1932 Disputes over the definition of an amateur and the costs of long travel distance from Europe caused the elimination of soccer from the program at the Los Angeles Olympic Games.

1933 Two years after the demise of the original American Soccer League, a new ASL, with a scaled-back budget, began play.

1934 Buff Donelli, later a famous American football coach, scored four goals in a World Cup qualifying victory against Mexico. The U.S. Men took part in their second consecutive World Cup, going winless in Italy.

1938 The USFA, citing the gathering threat of war in Europe, declined to send a team to the World Cup in France.

1941 The Kearny Scots won their fifth consecutive American Soccer League championship. The National Soccer Coaches Association was formed by 10 coaches at a meeting in New York.

1944 Billy Gonsalves, playing for Brooklyn Hispano, won the last of his remarkable eight U.S. Open Cup championships.

1945 The U.S. Football Association changed its name to U.S. Soccer Football Association.

1947 Ponta Delgada of Fall River became the first team to win the U.S. Open Cup and the National Amateur Cup in the same year.

1948 The first game in the United States between two leading European teams, Liverpool of England and Djurgardens of Sweden, was played in Brooklyn.

GAME OF THEIR LIVES: The 1950 U.S. World Cup Team shocked the world with their 1-0 upset win over England.

THE GOAL: Joe Gaetjens' redirection of a shot from Walter Bahr rolls into the goal, giving the U.S. their historic 1-0 victory over England in Brazil on June 29, 1950.

1950 Joe Gaetjens' goal in the 37th minute enabled the United States to earn its famous 1-0 victory against England in Belo Horizonte, Brazil. Despite the victory, the United States failed to advance past the first round of the World Cup.

1952 The United States played Scotland in front of a crowd of 107,765 at Hampden Park in Glasgow.

1953 The USSFA assumed administration of the National Soccer Hall of Fame in an agreement with the Philadelphia Old-Timers Association, which had started the Hall three years before.

1959 The first NCAA soccer championship was won by St. Louis University. The United States finished third in the soccer tournament at the Pan-American Games in Chicago.

1960 The International Soccer League, featuring European and South American clubs in their off-seasons, began play in New York. In the first championship game, Bangu of Brazil beat Kilmarnock of Scotland.

1961 Concacaf, the Confederation of North and Central America and the Caribbean of Association Football, was formed at a meeting in Mexico City.

1965 The first college women's varsity soccer team was organized at Castleton State College in Vermont.

1966 Pelé played his first game in the United States, for his longtime Brazilian club Santos against Benfica of Portugal in New York.

1974 The U.S. Soccer Football Association changed its name to U.S. Soccer Federation.

1975 Pelé, who had retired the year before from Santos, signed for $2.8 million with the New York Cosmos.

1977 Pelé won his only North American Soccer League championship as the Cosmos defeated the Seattle Sounders in the final. A month after the season, Pelé played his final game, changing uniforms at halftime in a match between the Cosmos and Santos, in East Rutherford, N.J. By signing Franz Beckenbauer of West Germany and Carlos Alberto of Brazil, the Cosmos became the first team in world soccer history to field the captains of the last two World Cup-winning teams.

1978 American soccer rode the crest of the attendance surge that followed Pelé's American venture, with the North American Soccer League expanding from 18 teams to 24 and the Major Indoor Soccer League beginning play with six teams.

1982 A European selection played a World selection in the FIFA all-star game in East Rutherford, N.J., but the NASL surge was beginning to fade. The Cosmos won the last of their five NASL championships. North Carolina won the first NCAA women's soccer championship.

1984 A crowd of 101,799, still the largest ever to attend a soccer game in the United States, saw the Olympic final between Brazil and France in Pasadena, Calif.

1985 The North American Soccer League folded, a year after the second American Soccer League had done the same. Three months later, the New York Cosmos folded, after attempting to play a series of exhibition games. The United States men were surprisingly eliminated by Costa Rica in World Cup qualifying, but the United States women's national team played its first game.

1988 FIFA, which five years earlier had rejected a United States bid for the 1986 World Cup, named the United States as host of the 1994 World Cup.

FIRST OF SIX: The 1990 World Cup marked the first of six consecutive world cup appearances for the U.S.

1989 The United States qualified for the World Cup for the first time in 40 years. Paul Caligiuri's famous goal in the deciding game was a 35-yard dipping shot that found the net in a 1-0 upset victory against Trinidad & Tobago Nov. 19 in front of 35,000 red-clad Trinidadians. The U.S. Futsal National Team finished third at the first FIFA World Championship for Futsal.

1990 The U.S. competed in the World Cup for the first time in 40 years. The WSL and the ASL merged to form the American Professional Soccer League (APSL).

ALL BUSINESS: Paul Caligiuri is all business after scoring the "Shot Heard Around the World" for the U.S., sending the team into their first World Cup in 40 years.

1991 The U.S. Women captured the first-ever FIFA Women's World Championship in China with a 2-1 win against Norway Nov. 30. The women qualified for the world championship by defeating their five Concacaf opponents by a combined score of 49-0. The U.S. National Team won its first-ever regional championship July 7 when it captured the Concacaf Gold Cup by defeating Honduras 4-3 in penalty kicks. The U.S. U-23 team won the gold medal at the Pan Am Games in Cuba.

1992 The U.S. Men won the inaugural U.S. Cup '92 in June, defeating Ireland 3-1 and Portugal 1-0, and tying three-time World Cup champion Italy 1-1. The U.S. Futsal Team won the silver medal at the 2nd FIFA World Championship in Hong Kong. The M(I)SL folded after 15 years in existence.

1993 In February, U.S. Soccer held the first-ever Strategic Summit where more than 250 soccer leaders and personalities met in Chicago for four days to plan the development of soccer into the 21st century. U.S. Cup '93 was used as a dress rehearsal for World Cup organizers, officials and volunteers, as well as the U.S. Men. The USA's 2-0 defeat of England made headlines around the world. Attendance and media interest were high, with 286,761 people attending the tournament's six games, and ABC broadcasting the June 13 U.S.-Germany match.

STARS AND STRIPES I: The 1994 MNT advanced out of World Cup group play for the first time in 64 years.

The U.S. Under-20 Men defeated Europe's No. 1 seed, Turkey, 6-0 in the first game of the World Youth Championship in Australia. FIFA officials called the trouncing one of the most extraordinary results in the history of the tournament.

The APSL was declared a Division II professional league. The United States Interregional Soccer League (USISL) was given Division III status. Plans for Major League Soccer — a Division I league to follow the legacy of World Cup '94 — were presented by U.S. Soccer President Alan Rothenberg.

1994 U.S. Soccer served as host national association for the 1994 FIFA World Cup, staging the greatest event in FIFA history. More than 3.5 million fans flocked to stadiums — still a World Cup record — and soccer fever in the U.S. was at an all-time high. The U.S. team advanced beyond the first round for the first time in 64 years, falling to eventual champion Brazil 1-0 in a July 4 round of 16 showdown at Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto, Calif. On June 4, 91,123 fans jammed the Rose Bowl to watch the U.S. defeat Mexico, 1-0, in its final tune-up prior to the World Cup. Game proceeds netted $1 million in U.S. Soccer contributions to UNICEF/Children's Defense Fund.

The U.S. Women won the Chiquita Cup, a four-team international tournament in which the U.S. hosted Germany, China and Norway. The U.S. went on to successfully defend its Concacaf championship, qualifying for the 1995 FIFA Women's World Championship by outscoring the opposition 36-1 en route to winning all four qualification matches. Head coach Anson Dorrance announced his resignation and U.S. Soccer named assistant coach Tony DiCicco to succeed him.

1995 U.S. Soccer announced in February its intention to host the 1999 Women's World Cup and began the formal bid process with FIFA. The U.S. Men won the U.S. Cup '95 in June, defeating Nigeria and Mexico and tying Colombia. Later that month, the women placed third in the FIFA Women's World Cup in Sweden, falling to eventual champion Norway in the semifinals 1-0, then defeating China.

In July, the men made international headlines by advancing to the semifinals of Copa America. The U.S. scored its first-ever victory against Argentina, 3-0, and advanced via penalty kicks (against Mexico) into the semifinals before falling 1-0 to defending world champion Brazil. Steve Sampson, who had served as interim coach since April, was named full-time head coach in August.

1996 The U.S. Women won the first women's soccer gold medal at the 1996 Atlanta Olympics, defeating China 2-1 in the championship game. The U.S. posted a 21-1-2 overall record and won the Brazil Cup and U.S. Women's Cup '96. The U.S. Men's Olympic Team narrowly missed advancing to the quarterfinals with a 1-1-1 record.

Major League Soccer was launched, providing the United States with its first Division I outdoor pro league since the North American Soccer League ceased operations in 1985. MLS averaged more than 17,000 fans per game. The A-League and USISL merged to form a larger and stronger Division II outdoor league.

FIFA awarded the 1999 Women's World Cup to the United States and U.S. Soccer pledged it would be the biggest and most successful women's sporting event ever.

COMING UP ROSES: The U.S. Women's National Team won the 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup, the most successful women's sporting event ever, in a penalty shootout against China.

The FIFA Women's World Cup Organizing Committee had awarded the '99 games to seven U.S. locations: Boston; Chicago; Los Angeles; New York/New Jersey; Portland, Ore.; San Francisco Bay Area; and Washington, D.C.

1998 A disappointing World Cup finished with the U.S. in last place after two difficult match-ups against Germany and Yugoslavia, and a heartbreaking loss to Iran. Brian McBride scores the team's only World Cup goal. The tournament concludes with the resignation of head coach Steve Sampson, who is eventually replaced on Oct. 27, by Bruce Arena.

The women's team continued their impressive play, losing just twice in 1998 while playing in front of record crowds all across the country. Dr. Bob Contiguglia took over as U.S. Soccer's new president, replacing Alan I. Rothenberg, who had reached the eight-year term limit.

SAVED: Brad Friedel saved a penalty kick by Korea Republic as the U.S. preserved a 1-1 draw in their second group game in 2002.

1999 In front of more than 90,000 fans at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., the U.S. women won the 1999 FIFA World Cup by playing China to a 0-0 tie through regulation and overtime and then defeating them 5-4 in penalty kicks. Soccer hysteria spread through America as the women appeared on every top news program, at the White House and on the cover of Time, Newsweek, People and Sports Illustrated. U.S. Women's National Team head coach Tony DiCicco resigned in November as the winningest coach in U.S. Soccer history with a record of 103-8-8.

In Bruce Arena's first full year at the helm of the U.S. Men, the team recorded triumphs against Germany (twice), Argentina, Chile and earns third place at the 1999 FIFA Confederations Cup in Mexico. The U-23 Men's beat Canada for the bronze medal at the 1999 Pan American Games in Winnipeg, Canada, while the U-18 Women captured the gold. The U-20 Men advanced to the second round of the 1999 FIFA World Youth Championship in April, with their only two loses coming to eventual finalists Spain and Japan. Taylor Twellman scored four goals and earned the Bronze Boot to become the first American male in the modern era to earn a FIFA scoring award. In November, the U-17 Men extended a record unbeaten streak to 24 games, advancing to the semifinals of the World Championship before losing in penalty kicks to Australia. Landon Donovan and DaMarcus Beasley earned the Gold and Silver Balls as the tournaments top two MVPs.

2000 Bruce Arena's squad continued to advance toward their ultimate goal of qualifying for the 2002 World Cup. The team secured 10 out of a possible 12 points — all shutouts — to win its semifinal qualifying group.

The U.S. Women maintained the momentum from their historic Women's World Cup title with 41 matches in 2000, posting a 26-6-9 record. The U.S. won six tournament titles in 2000, but had to settle for a silver medal at the 2000 Summer Olympics, losing in overtime to archrival Norway in the gold medal match.

The U.S. Men and Women put on an impressive display for the world at the Sydney Games as the only nation to have both its teams advance to the semifinals. The men were the surprise team of the tournament, winning their group and advancing to the semis before grabbing fourth place, the highest Olympic finish for the U.S.

2001 The U.S. Men qualified for a fourth straight World Cup, boosted by four wins and a draw to open the final round of Concacaf qualifying. For the first time, the U.S. Men clinched a spot in the World Cup at a home qualifier, topping Jamaica 2-1 behind two goals from Joe-Max Moore in front of 40,483 fans at the last soccer match played at Foxboro Stadium.

The U.S. Women played only 10 international matches as the Women's United Soccer Association begins play, with the Bay Area CyberRays winning the inaugural Founders Cup. Mia Hamm was named the first FIFA Women's World Player of the Year.

The Under-17 Men advanced to a ninth consecutive FIFA U-17 World Cup, but were drawn into the Group of Death in Trinidad & Tobago with Japan, Nigeria and France, and were eliminated in the first round. The U.S. Under-20 Men qualified for their third straight FIFA World Youth Championship, where the team finished second in their group in Argentina and were eliminated in the second round by Egypt.

The National Professional Soccer League, in existence since 1984-95, merged with the WISL and was renamed as the Major Indoor Soccer League.

2002 The U.S. Men advanced to the quarterfinals at the 2002 World Cup in Korea/Japan, the team's best World Cup showing since 1930. The U.S. shocked the world with a stunning 3-2 opening game upset of Portugal before eventually finishing in second place in Group D. The U.S. then posted their first victory in the World Cup knockout stage, blanking Concacaf rival Mexico 2-0 in the Round of 16. The World Cup run ended in the quarterfinals with a 1-0 loss to Germany. Claudio Reyna was named to the All-Tournament Team, while Landon Donovan earned honorable mention. The men began 2002 by winning the Concacaf Gold Cup in January with a convincing 2-0 victory against Costa Rica for the first Gold Cup title for the U.S. since 1991.

The U.S. Women qualified for their fourth consecutive FIFA Women's World Cup after capturing the 2002 Concacaf Gold Cup with a 2- 1 overtime victory against Canada at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. The U.S. Under-19 Women topped the host Canadians 1-0 in overtime to win the inaugural FIFA U-19 Women's World Championship. Kelly Wilson won the Bronze Ball as the tournament's third MVP and the Silver Boot, while captain Lindsay Tarpley earned the Bronze Boot.

HOME DEPOT DRAW: USWNT legends Michelle Akers and Carin Gabarra took part in the FIFA Women's World Cup USA 2003 Final Draw at The Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif.

The U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team qualified for their fourth consecutive FIFA World Youth Championship. The U.S. National Futsal Team played their first home matches in history, defeating Canada and tying Mexico in March in Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D.C., respectively.

2003 Due to the outbreak of Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome, FIFA relocated the Women's World Cup out of China. After a successful bid to host the tournament, U.S. Soccer faced the unprecedented task of hosting the tournament with just four months of preparation. The U.S. Women won Group A and then beat Norway in the quarterfinals 1-0. But Germany stunned the U.S. with a 3-0 victory in the semifinals, which led the U.S. to top Canada in the third-place match. Shannon Boxx, Joy Fawcett and Mia Hamm all earned all-star honors from FIFA.

The U.S. Men, preparing for World Cup qualifying in 2004, finished in third place at the Concacaf Gold Cup with a 3-2 come-from-behind win against Costa Rica. The Men's Under-17 and Under-20 squads finished their respective World Championships with fifth place finishes after bowing out with quarterfinal losses to Brazil and Argentina, respectively.

2004 The U.S. Women won every tournament entered, culminating with the 2004 Olympics. Other tournament titles included the Algarve Cup, the Four Nations Tournament and the Concacaf Regional Olympic qualifying tournament, as the team set a record with 28 victories on the year.

Under head coach Bruce Arena, the U.S. Men qualified for the final round of World Cup Qualifying for the Concacaf region. The men finished the year with an 8-1-6 record, losing only to the Netherlands away and going a record 13-games undefeated.

The U-23 Men failed to qualify for the Olympics for the first time since 1976, losing 4-0 to Mexico in Guadalajara after winning their group only match up against the second-place Mexicans in the single-elimination qualifier. The Under-19 Women finished third at the FIFA U-19 Women's World Championship. The Futsal Team won the 2004 Concacaf Championship and qualified for the 2004 FIFA Futsal World Championship, where the team had a strong showing with a seventh-place finish.

GOLDEN GIRL: Abby Wambach was truly golden in 2004, scoring an unfathomable 31 goals, including the overtime winner to clinch the 2004 gold medal at the Athens Olympics.

2005 Manager Bruce Arena led the U.S. Men to a first place finish in Concacaf World Cup qualifying for the first time in 71 years, earning a berth at the 2006 FIFA World Cup Finals in Germany with a 2-0 win against Mexico in Columbus, Ohio. The men also brought home the 2005 Concacaf Gold Cup, beating Panama 3-1 in penalty kicks after a scoreless draw. The team finished the year with a record 13 wins and .750 winning percentage.

The U.S. Women began a new era, starting off the year with a new coach, Greg Ryan, and a third consecutive Algarve Cup title, their fourth overall. They ended the year undefeated and without allowing a single goal.

The Under-20 Men swept through Concacaf Qualifying, earning a berth to the FIFA Youth World Championship, where they finished 11th, bowing out to Italy in the Round of 16. The Under-17 Men also had a strong 2005, qualifying for the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Championship and finishing fifth overall after a loss to Holland in the second round.

2006 A disappointing World Cup in Germany for the United States, as the team failed to advance out of the first round despite a gallant, nine-man 1-1 draw with eventual World Cup champions Italy. After eight years in charge, Bruce Arena was replaced at the helm of the USMNT by Bob Bradley, on an interim basis.

Later in the summer, the U.S. Under-20 Women's National Team finished fourth in Russia. The disappointing finish marked the first time a U.S. Women's National Team had finished outside the top three in a FIFA world championship or Concacaf championship event.

The U.S. Women, however, continued their incredible run under Greg Ryan, winning three of the four tournaments they enter. The year concluded with another Women's Gold Cup crown and a berth in the 2007 FIFA Women's World Cup in China.

2007 Bob Bradley became the first Men's coach to win his first three games in charge and was hired full-time to guide the USA through 2010. In the summer of 2007, the MNT won its second consecutive Gold Cup, and fourth total title, by defeating Mexico 2-1 in front of a packed house at Soldier Field in Chicago. With the victory, the MNT gained entry into the 2009 Confederations Cup. The Men also travelled to Venezuela to compete in Copa America for the third time.

After qualifying for their respective World Cups to continue impressive streaks, the U-17 Men and U- 20 Men took on the world during the summer in back-to-back tournaments. The U-20 team performed admirably in Canada, and reached the quarterfinals after defeats of Poland, Brazil and Uruguay. The U-17 team, meanwhile, did well to qualify from a tough group in South Korea, before being eliminated by Germany in the Round of 16. The U.S. Women maintained a two-plus year undefeated run, looking to take the streak into the FIFA Women's World Cup. Drawn into the toughest group in Women's World Cup history, the U.S. advanced in first place after three difficult games against Korea DPR, Sweden and Nigeria. The U.S. rolled into the semifinals, but was upended by a quality Brazil side. Eventually, the WNT took third place for the second consecutive World Cup with a convincing win against Norway. Former Swedish National Team player and captain Pia Sundhage was appointed to the position of WNT coach after Greg Ryan's departure from the team.

Wilmer Cabrera was named head coach of the U-17 MNT, replacing John Hackworth. For the first time, U.S. Soccer hired four full-time referees to enhance high-level performance, training and development opportunities for the sport's elite officials in the United States. The U.S. Soccer Development Academy launched in the fall.

2008 Led by Pia Sundhage, the U.S. Women had one of their best years ever, losing only one game, which ironically came in the opening match of the 2008 Beijing Olympics, a tournament the U.S. would eventually win to take home their third gold medal. Overall, the U.S. won all six tournaments it entered to finish with a 33-1-2 record, giving them the most wins and best winning percentage ever in a calendar year (.944).

The U.S. Men was successful in its own right, starting off on the right foot in 2010 FIFA World Cup qualifying with a 9-0 aggregate against Barbados in the second round. The U.S. opened the semifinal round with 1-0 victories in Guatemala and Cuba. Coming back to the U.S., home victories against T&T and Cuba clinched advancement with two games to play.

The U-23 MNT joined the U.S. Women by qualifying for the 2008 Olympics in March, but just missed out on the second round once arriving in Beijing. Despite a 1-0 victory against Japan and a 2-2 draw with the Netherlands, the U.S. fell 2-1 against eventual silver medalist Nigeria. On the youth side, the U-17 and U-20 Women's National Teams both made the championship match of their respective FIFA World Cups. In New Zealand, the U-17s went on an impressive run to the final before finally succumbing to Korea DPR in the final, but in Chile their older counterparts were able to exact revenge with a 2-1 victory to bring the World Cup trophy back to the United States for the first time since 2002.

Building off the initial kickoff in 2007, U.S. Soccer's Development Academy wrapped up its first year with a collection of dynamic matches during Finals Week at The Home Depot Center. In the U-15/16 championship, Carmel United topped PDA 1-0, and the Baltimore Bays topped LAFC 4-2 to take the U-17/18 title.

2009 The U.S. Men opened 2009 focused on final round qualifying for the 2010 FIFA World Cup with a 2-0 win against archrival Mexico in Columbus, Ohio, Bob Bradley's squad proceeded to go undefeated at home and clinch a spot in South Africa with a come-from-behind win in Honduras. They finished atop the Concacaf table with a tie against Costa Rica in Washington, D.C., on the last day of qualifying.

During the summer, the U.S. Men traveled to South Africa to compete in the 2009 FIFA Confederations Cup. The USMNT was drawn into a group with Italy, Brazil and Egypt, and advanced into the semifinals by virtue of a 3-0 dismantling of Egypt in the final game. They kept the nation captivated by beating Spain, the No.1-ranked team in the world in the semifinals before falling 3-2 to Brazil in the final. Tim Howard was awarded the Golden Glove and Clint Dempsey given the Bronze Ball.

Pia Sundhage's women's team had a more relaxed year after their gold medal winning exploits in 2008, and wrapped up the year with a 7-0-1 that included falling in penalties to Sweden in the Algarve Cup final.

Both the U-17 and U-20 Men's National Teams competed in their respective FIFA World Cups this year, with the U-17 team advancing out of the group stage in Nigeria before falling to Italy in the Round of 16. A tough group containing Germany, Cameroon and Korea Republic saw the U-20s out of the tournament following the first round in Egypt.

The U.S. Soccer Development Academy completed its second year of competition in 2009, once again concluding the season with Finals Week at The Home Depot Center. In the U-15/16 age group, playoff No.1-seed Derby County Wolves continued their strong season straight through Finals Week with a title. Indiana United Academy defeated D.C. United to take home the U-17/18 championship.

The year's most memorable moment came in the U.S. Men's third group game at the 2010 World Cup in South Africa as Landon Donovan scored a last-minute goal for the U.S. to clinch advancement and clinch a group for the first time in 80 years. Following a 1-1 tie with England, a 2-2 tie with Slovenia and a 1-0 win against Algeria, the U.S. was eliminated in the Round of 16, losing to Ghana 2-1. Clint Dempsey became the second U.S. player to score in multiple World Cups, and Landon Donovan had three total goals to be come the third to score in multiple World Cups and the all-time World Cup goal leader for the U.S.

After a surprising loss to Mexico in the semifinals of Women's Concacaf qualifying, the U.S. topped Italy 2-0 in a two-game qualifying playoff to earn a spot in the 2011 FIFA Women's World Cup. The U.S. won its seventh Algarve Cup with the first of two victories against 2011 hosts Germany.

The U.S. Under-20 Women lost in penalty kicks to Nigeria in the quarterfinals of the 2010 FIFA U-20 World Cup, while the U-17 Women became the first U.S. Women's team to fail to qualify for a FIFA World Cup event after not advancing out of the CONACACAF qualifying tournament.

No Division II league met U.S. Soccer's sanctioning standards, so the Federation administered a league called USSF D-2 for one year.

The U.S. Women were on center stage during the 2011 Women's World Cup in Germany. Their dramatic run in the Women's World Cup was highlighted by an electric, come-from-behind victory in the quarterfinals against Brazil, in which Abby Wambach scored the latest goal (six minutes into stoppage time) ever in a World Cup match. The U.S., however, would lose out in penalties to a spirited Japanese side in the final after playing to a 2-2 draw through 120 minutes.

During the summer of 2011 at the Concacaf Gold Cup, the U.S. MNT advanced to its third consecutive final, scoring two early goals before falling 4-2 to Mexico.

The continental tournament would prove to be Bob Bradley's last involvement as head coach of the U.S., with former Germany international and FIFA World Cup winner Jurgen Klinsmann taking the helm of the U.S. Men in August. He earned his first win in Miami against Honduras thanks to a Clint Dempsey strike and later led the team to a 3-2 victory against Slovenia in its last game of the year.

The U-17 and U-20 Men's National Teams both entered another cycle of their respective FIFA World Cups. The U-17 Men reached the knockout round for the seventh time but lost to Germany in the Round of 16. After winning their qualifying group with two shutout victories, the U-20s graduated to the quarterfinals but fell to Guatemala and did not reach the World Cup for the first time since 1995.

The USWNT capped off the 2012 London Olympics with a 2-1 victory against Japan in front of more than 80,000 spectators at Wembley Stadium as the U.S. Women earned their fourth Olympic gold – a first for any country on the men's and women's sides. Carli Lloyd scored both goals for the USA, capping off a tournament that featured a dramatic game-winning goal from 2012 U.S. Soccer Female Athlete of the Year Alex Morgan in the 123rd minute of the team's semifinal victory against Canada.

The USMNT advanced to the final round of 2014 FIFA World Cup Qualifying, defeating Guatemala 3-1 in the final Group A match of the Semifinal Round as Clint Dempsey scored his 29th and 30th career goals to tie Brian McBride for third all-time in U.S. history. The U.S. Men also had some memorable international friendly victories in 2012, including the first win on Mexico's home soil – a 1-0 victory at Estadio Azteca on Aug. 15.

The U.S. U-20 WNT defeated defending champion Germany 1-0 in the 2012 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Tokyo. Kealia Ohai scored the game's lone goal and the Americans earned their third World Cup crown in the tournament's history. The U.S. U-17 WNT competed in the 2012 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup, and in an extremely rare occurrence did not advance past the group stage despite an unbeaten 1-0-2 record.

2013 U.S. Soccer celebrated its 100th birthday in 2013, marking the occasion with a doubleheader event on June 2 as the USMNT beat Germany 4-3 in an electrifying match in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C. The USWNT also enjoyed victorious celebration as it defeated Canada 2-0 in Toronto in the first match since the dramatic semifinal victory in the 2012 London Olympics.

The MNT accomplished its primary task of qualifying for the 2014 FIFA World Cup, marking the seventh-consecutive time the team has reached the finals. The USA finished in first place for the third straight Concacaf cycle, highlighted by yet another "Dos a Cero" victory against regional rival Mexico. The team captured its fifth Gold Cup title, winning all six matches en route to the championship. A multitude of team and individual records were broken, a Snow Clasico played out in Denver and a dramatic comeback against Panama punctuated the end of the qualifying campaign.

The U.S. Women's unbeaten 2013 campaign was highlighted by Abby Wambach capturing the international scoring record on June 20 with four goals against Korea Republic at Red Bull Arena. She surpassed Mia Hamm's record of 158 and continued to extend the record, ending the year on 163.

2014 A banner year for U.S. Soccer. Growth is the word that best defined the year as record numbers of fans flocked to stadiums, parks and any available TV to see the USMNT compete at the 2014 FIFA World Cup. Impressive new television and sponsor agreements were signed, allowing U.S. Soccer to invest heavily in its coaching and youth development programs. All the while, the USWNT continued to cement its role as the No. 1 women's program in the world and turning heads in the process.

Early in the year, the USWNT transitioned to the guidance of former interim head coach and long-time assistant Jill Ellis, who led the team to an impressive qualification to the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup in Canada as well as a 17-1-4 record to finish the year. Along the way, team captain Christie Rampone became only the second soccer player in history – man or woman – to reach 300 caps for their country. The team also brought in talented youngsters such as midfielder Morgan Brian and defenders Julie Johnston and Crystal Dunn.

The USMNT's year was highlighted by a successful run to the Round of 16 at the 2014 FIFA World Cup in Brazil. Head coach Jurgen Klinsmann guided the team out of the 'Group of Death' on the back of a cathartic win against Ghana and a dramatic draw against the world's No. 1 player Cristiano Ronaldo and Portugal. Despite goalkeeper Tim Howard's heroics – and tournament record 15 saves – against Belgium, the USA exited in the first knockout round. The team and soccer culture in the United States was then stunned by the retirement of the greatest player it had ever produced when Landon Donovan decided to hang up his cleats after playing one final match for his country in an October friendly against Ecuador.

TRIPLE CROWN: The USWNT became the first team in women's soccer history to claim a third FIFA World Cup title, doing so in record fashion in 2015.

2015 A year of continued evolution for the U.S. Soccer National Teams and Federation as a whole, saw the USWNT claim the most coveted prize in the sport by winning the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup in record breaking fashion vs. Japan. It was a dominant year for the WNT, which also won a final Algarve Cup title early in the year before launching the #SheBelieves campaign aimed at inspiring fans throughout the world to achieve their dreams and then drawing record TV audiences for its World Cup games that subsequently let to record crowds during its Victory Tour.

The USMNT's high-water mark came in June when the team won back-to-back friendlies on European soil vs. the Netherlands and reigning World Cup champions Germany. The team also saw an injection of youth in its ranks as promising young players climbed the MNT program ladder from a talented

U-20 team that made an inspired run to the FIFA U-20 World Cup Quarterfinals up to the U-23 MNT and in the case of defender Matt Miazga the full National Team. Despite less than desireable results in the semifinals of the Concacaf Gold Cup and Concacaf Cup, the MNT closed out the year with quality results in its first two games of Semifinal Round Qualifying for the 2018 FIFA World Cup in Russia.

2016 Another big year for U.S. Soccer saw its Men's and Women's teams of all age groups find success throughout the year. On the women's side, the year began with a storming run to the Concacaf Olympic Qualifying tournament title by the senior team, which then won the inaugural SheBelieves Cup with victories against European powers England, France and Germany. From there another pair of quality results against rival Japan had the team looking good heading into the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio; however, a bitter Round of 16 exit at the hands of former coach Pia Sundhage and Sweden on penalty kicks after a 1-1 draw left a sour taste. The team finished the year strong, winning its remaining six games while introducing a wealth of young talent.

Additionally, the U-20 WNT made a strong run at the U-20 Women's World Cup, reaching the third-place match.

The Men's National Team had a roller coaster of a year. A must-win World Cup Qualifying match at home to Guatemala saw the USA come good to set the team up for an impressive summer run at the Copa America Centenario, which was hosted in the United States. Despite an opening match loss to Colombia, the U.S. recovered to steam into a semifinal showdown against world power Argentina, where the team was defeated by a sublime performance from five-time FIFA World Player of the Year Lionel Messi. The MNT righted the ship by cruising into the Final Round of 2018 World Cup Qualifying with a pair of high-flying wins. But the year would take a sharp turn once more as defeats to Mexico at home and Costa Rica away sealed the fate of Jurgen Klinsmann as head coach and saw former manager Bruce Arena reinstalled to lead the team in 2017.

WORLD CONQUERORS: The USWNT defeated four consecutive European powers to lift the 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup trophy on July 7 in Lyon, France.

2017 The U.S. Women's National Team experienced one of its busiest, most competitive schedules to begin a World Cup and Olympic cycle. The team played seven teams in the top 10 of the FIFA Women's World Rankings on the way to compiling a 12-3-1 record that included an eight-game unbeaten streak to finish the year. The USA hosted two major tournaments in the SheBelieves Cup and the Tournament of Nations, as head coach Jill Ellis used the year for experimentation and player evaluation as more than 50 players were seen in training camps and games while six players earned first caps.

After starting the Final Round of 2018 FIFA World Cup Qualifying with two defeats to end the previous year, the U.S. Men's National Team set a different course with the return of Bruce Arena as head coach.

The turnaround began in March when the U.S. picked up eight points via two home wins and two away draws, one against Mexico at the revered Estadio Azteca. With qualifying stabilized, attention shifted to the Concacaf Gold Cup, where the U.S. earned its sixth confederation title when Jordan Morris' 88th minute game winner defeated Jamaica in the championship match on July 26.

With a regional crown in hand, the MNT returned to qualifying in September, but faltered with a home defeat to Costa Rica and away draw with Honduras that saw the USA still alive with two qualifying matches left. An impressive 4-0 win against Panama pushed the U.S. to the brink of qualifying for the 2018 World Cup, but needing just a draw on the last matchday at Trinidad & Tobago, the side fell 2-1 to the Soca Warriors in Couva, Trinidad, a result that, combined with Honduras and Panama wins that night, knocked the U.S. out of the World Cup.

Arena resigned on Oct. 13, opening the search for a new head coach, and a month later the beginnings of a new-look MNT took its initial step when a young team led by acting head coach Dave Sarachan played defending European champions Portugal to a 1-1 draw.

On the youth side, the U.S. was one of only two nations to see its U-17 and U-20 Men's National Teams reach the Quarterfinals of their respective World Cups. The U-17 squad secured its spot at its World Cup with a second-place finish at the Concacaf U-17 Championship. The U-20 MNT qualified for the competition by winning the Concacaf U-20 Championship for the first time in federation history, defeating Honduras on penalties.

Additionally, the Paralympic National Team earned its best finish at a major world competition since the 1996 Paralympic Games with a fifth-place result at the 2017 IFCPF CP Football World Championships in San Luis, Argentina.

2018 The U.S. Women's National Team went unbeaten through 20 matches in 11 states and two countries in a year that will go down as one of the most successful in program history.

DOS A CERO: The USMNT celebrates Christian Pulisic's goal in the World Cup qualifier vs. Mexico on Nov. 12, 2021, in front of a sold-out crowd at TQL Stadium in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The squad lifted three trophies by winning the SheBelieves Cup, the Tournament of Nations, and the Concacaf Championship. Jill Ellis' side punched its ticket to the 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup in dominant fashion, winning all five qualifiers by a combined score of 26-0. In its penultimate match of the year, the USA captured its 500th all-time victory with a 1-0 win versus Portugal in Lisbon.

The U.S. Men's National Team took on a transitional year in 2018 by facing one of the most challenging schedules in team history. The USA squared off against the likes of Brazil, England, Italy, and Colombia in a gauntlet designed to test a new generation of the red, white, and blue. One of the team's best moments came in June, when it drew eventual World Cup champion France, 1-1, in Lyon. The USA then hired its first-ever General Manager in Earnie Stewart and new head coach Gregg Berhalter to lead the charge toward the 2022 World Cup.

On the youth side, the U-15 Girls' National Team, U-17 Women's National Team, and U-20 Men's National Team all won Concacaf Championships. The Para 7-a-Side team qualified for the 2019 IFCPF World Cup with a third-place finish at Copa America.

And in a momentous moment for soccer in the U.S., the United Bid of Canada, Mexico and the United States, was awarded hosting rights for the 2026 FIFA World Cup. The 2026 competition will be the first to host an expanded field of 48 teams. The three Federations are now working to build excitement, energy and awareness for what will be the biggest World Cup in history!

2019 The U.S. Women's National Team experienced an historic 2019 that saw the team win its fourth World Cup title. The U.S. set Women's World Cup records for goals (26), goal differential (plus-23) and never trailed to become the first team to go 7-0-0 in the Women's World Cup. Midfielder Megan Rapinoe was awarded the Golden Ball as the tournament's best player and the Golden Boot as its top scorer with six goals and three assists. At the conclusion of the 2019 Victory Tour, head coach Jill Ellis retired with a remarkable 106-7-19 overall record. On October 28, U.S. Soccer announced Vlatko Andonovski as the ninth head coach in USWNT history. The Andonovski era started on a high note as the U.S. closed out 2019 with wins over Sweden and Costa Rica.

In head coach Gregg Berhalter's first year in charge, the U.S. Men's National Team started his tenure with friendly wins over Panama, Costa Rica and Ecuador while earning a 1-1 draw with defending Copa América champions Chile. En route to its 11th Gold Cup Final, the USMNT outscored opponents 15-1 in three group stage and two knockout round matches before falling to Mexico,1-0. After another loss to Mexico in a friendly a couple of months later, the U.S. rebounded with a 1-1 draw vs. world No. 5 Uruguay. The inaugural edition of the Concacaf Nations League served as the next set of games on the schedule for the USA. Drawn into Nations League A, Group A, the USMNT closed out the year with home and away matches against Canada and Cuba. With two wins against Cuba and one over Canada, the U.S. advanced to the Final Round of Nations League and finished the year at No. 22 in FIFA's world rankings, up three spots from 2018, its highest year-end finish since 2013 (14th).

On the youth side, the U.S. became the only nation to reach the quarterfinals of the last three U-20 World Cups. Before falling to Ecuador in the quarterfinals, the U-20 USMNT advanced to the knockout stage with wins over Nigeria and Qatar before upsetting tournament favorite France with a 3-2 comeback victory in the Round of 16. The U-17 USMNT qualified for a record 17th FIFA U-17 World Cup after reaching the 2019 Concacaf U-17 Championship Final. With wins over Belgium, Czech Republic and the Republic of Ireland, the U.S. Under-17 Women's National Team won the UEFA Women's Development Tournament in Czech Republic. Additionally, the U.S. Para 7-a-Side National Team won the program's first Parapan American Games medal with a dominating 7-0 win against Venezuela to claim the bronze at the 2019 tournament and the Beach Soccer Women's National Team was launched.

2020 A year that was supposed to be a busy schedule for the U.S. Men's and Women's National Teams as well as several youth teams was largely halted due to the global health pandemic caused by the COVID-19 outbreak in March.

In their first full year under head coach Vlatko Andonovski, the U.S. Women's National Team started 2020 with an energy and performances befitting a team aiming to win a World Cup and an Olympics in back-to-back years. Yet the day after the USA won the 2020 SheBelieves Cup and capped a perfect 8-0-0 start to 2020 – including qualifying for the Tokyo Games – the sports world shut down. The Olympics were eventually postponed, all of the USA's programming was cancelled, and the team would not hit the field again for seven months when an October training camp was held in Colorado. On Nov. 27, the USWNT finally played its first game in 261 days, a rousing 2-0 win vs. the Netherlands in Breda to close the year ranked No. 1 in the world.

The U.S. Men's National Team opened the year with a 1-0 win over Costa Rica in February, then did not reconvene again until November, playing Wales to a 0-0 draw on Nov. 12 and beating Panama, 6-2, on Nov. 16. Gregg Berhalter's side then closed the year with a commanding 6-0 victory over El Salvador in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, the first domestic match for any U.S. National Team since the start of the pandemic.

On the youth side, the Under-20 U.S. Women's National Team opened the year by winning the 2020 Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship and in the process, qualifying for the Under-20 Women's World Cup. However, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, all youth World Cups scheduled for 2020 and 2021 were cancelled.

The U.S. Women's National Team hit the ground running in 2021, becoming the first team to win back-to-back SheBelieves Cup titles in the tournament's six-year history after recording wins over Canada, Brazil, and Argentina, while also becoming the first team to finish the tournament without conceding any goals. In July, the team earned its first-ever bronze medal at the delayed 2020 Olympic Tournament in Tokyo, which had been pushed back a year due to the COVID-19 global pandemic. During that competition, Samantha Mewis and Kristie Mewis made history by becoming the first sisters to represent the USWNT at a major senior tournament (after doing so at two Youth FIFA World Cups). The team finished the year with a 17-2-5 record, a +64 goal differential and an .812 winning percentage, all the while continuing to build on a 62-game home unbeaten streak to end 2021. The USWNT once again finished the year at the top of the FIFA Rankings. Six players earned their first cap on the year, while legendary midfielder-turned-forward Carli Lloyd retired as the second-most capped player in world soccer history with 316 games played.

ROSIE ENDING: Rose Lavelle helped cap 2021 with a goal in a 3-0 victory over Australia in Sydney, Australia in front of 36,109 fans.

The Men's National Team recorded one of its best years in history, setting a record for most wins in a calendar year after posting a 17-2-3 record in 2021. The USMNT won two major titles in one summer as they conquered the Concacaf Gold Cup and the inaugural Concacaf Nations League – beating archrival Mexico in both finals -- while featuring two young and almost completely different rosters in each tournament. The team went on to finish the year with three wins against El Tri after adding a thrilling "Dos a Cero" victory in Cincinnati during World Cup Qualifying. The MNT also ended the year ranked 11th in the FIFA World Rankings, making the USA the highest-ranked in Concacaf and marking their highest year-end ranking since 2005. In addition to 27 players earning their first appearance in a World Cup Qualifier, head coach Gregg Berhalter twice sent out starting lineups that were the youngest ever for the United States in a qualifier. The team also boasted a +34 goal differential, a .841 winning percentage, and a .54 goals against average, all of which were best in team history, while their 12 clean sheets tied their best record in that category.

On the youth side, after a long pause in regular programming due to the pandemic, the U-17 and U-20 U.S. Women's Youth National Teams and the U-17 Men's Youth National Team returned to the field in October with training camps in Chula Vista, Calif. In November, the U-20 MYNT kicked off a new cycle at the Revelations Cup in Mexico as it prepares for the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Championship which will serve as qualification to the 2023 FIFA U-20 World Cup and the 2024 Summer Olympics. The U-20 WYNT also held an end-of-year training camp in December as they prepared for the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Women's Championship in early 2022 in the Dominican Republic. The YNT programs underwent several changes in coaching staffs as Gonzalo Segares was named U-17 MYNT head coach (previously U-15 MYNT) and Tracey Kevins was named U-20 WYNT head coach (previously U-15 and U-17 WYNT), while Mikey Varas, Natalia Astrain, and Katie Schoepfer were hired as U-20 MYNT, U-17 WYNT, and U-15 WYNT head coaches, respectively.

The U.S. Women's National Team started off the year by winning its fifth overall SheBelieves Cup title in a tournament that included Iceland, Czech Republic and 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup co-host New Zealand. In July, the USA won the 2022 Concacaf W Championship in Monterrey, Mexico, to earn berths to both the 2023 WWC and the 2024 Paris Olympics. In the newly formatted tournament, the U.S. Women claimed the title with a 5-0-0 run and a 1-0 victory over Canada in the championship game. The USWNT closed out the year with losses at England and Spain, then split with Germany in a two-game set at home, but still finished 2022 ranked No. 1 in the world for the seventh consecutive year.

The U.S. Men's National Team closed out the arduous and demanding qualification process in the Octagonal in March 2022, earning one of the confederation's three automatic berths to the World Cup and returning to the world's biggest stage for the first time since 2014. The USA's starting lineups during those games averaged 23 years, 302 days, which is the youngest average age in team history during a qualifying cycle. Just weeks later, the team was drawn into one of the most challenging groups in Qatar alongside England, Wales and IR Iran. The USA earned a win and two draws to advance out of the group, all the while making history as the match against England set a record for the most-watched men's soccer game on American English-language television ever, amassing 15.3 million viewers on FOX plus another 4.6 million on Telemundo. After the team's World Cup exit in the Round of 16 against Netherlands, the USA finished the year ranked 13th in the FIFA world rankings.

On the Youth side, the U-20 Men's Youth National Team won its third consecutive Concacaf U-20 Championship title, qualifying for the 2024 Olympics in Paris in the process and marking the USA's return to its first Men's Olympic Football Tournament since Beijing 2008. The U-17 Women's Youth National Team won its third consecutive and record fifth overall Concacaf Women's U-17 Championship and went on to reach the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup Quarterfinals after topping their group, before falling just short against Nigeria in penalty kicks. The U-20 WYNT went undefeated to win the Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship, earning a record seventh Concacaf title for this age group. The USA bowed out of the U-20 Women's World Cup in the group stage, albeit after matches against tough opposition in Japan, Netherlands and Ghana.

2023 The U.S. Women's National Team started off the year by winning its sixth overall SheBelieves Cup title in a tournament that included Brazil, Canada, and Japan. In the summer, the USWNT took part in its ninth-straight FIFA Women's World Cup in New Zealand and Australia, navigating the group stage before falling to Sweden on penalty kicks in the Round of 16.

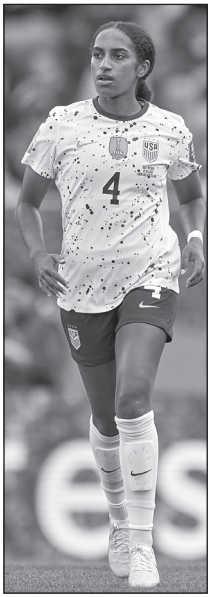

In March, the USMNT qualified for its second-straight Concacaf Nations League Final Four, defeating Grenada 7-1 and El Salvador 1-0 to finish on top of its group. In June, the side then claimed its second CNL title, routing Mexico 3-0 in the semifinal before upending Canada 2-0 in the Final. During the CNL Final, it was announced that Gregg Berhalter would return as USMNT head coach beginning in the fall, and the USA immediately moved into Concacaf Gold Cup play, where it navigated through the group stage, before eventually falling to Panama on penalty kicks in the semifinal. Berhalter returned to the helm in the fall, where the USA went 3-1-0 in four friendlies, before defeating Trinidad and Tobago 4-2 on aggregate in the 2023-24 CNL Quarterfinals to qualify for the tournament semifinals as well as Copa America 2024.

On the Youth side, the U-20 USMNT advanced to the quarterfinals of the 2023 FIFA U-20 World Cup for the fourth-consecutive tournament, finishing on top of its group and defeating New Zealand 4-0 in the Round of 16 before falling 2-0 to eventual champions Uruguay in the quarterfinal. The U-17 USMNT also advanced from its group at the U-17 World Cup, before falling 3-2 to eventual champs Germany in the Round of 16.

2023 U.S. Soccer Players of the Year

For their excellence at the highest levels of the sport, U.S. Soccer voters named U.S. Men's National Team forward CHRISTIAN PULISIC as the 2023 Male Player of the Year, defender NAOMI GIRMA as the 2023 Female Player of the Year, forward KEVIN PAREDES as the 2023 Chipotle Young Male Player of the Year, and midfielder OLIVIA MOULTRIE as the 2023 Chipotle Young Female Player of the Year.

The U.S. Soccer Player of the Year awards have a longer history than any major individual award in American soccer – having first begun more than 30 years ago. Alongside the Best of FIFA awards, the U.S. Player of the Year awards are the only awards to honor both the top male and the top female in the sport.

Votes are collected from respective National Team coaches, National Team players who have earned a cap in the applicable calendar year, American soccer league (MLS, USL and NWSL) head coaches, select media members, former players and administrators. Players cannot win the Young Male or Young Female award more than once. For the third consecutive year, fans were able to vote for the U.S. Soccer Player and Young Player of the Year Awards with those votes weighted at 15% of the total.

U.S. SOCCER MALE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

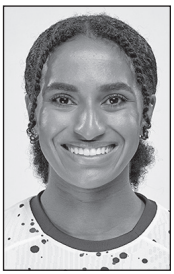

Christian PULISIC

Only 25 years old, Pulisic won the award for the fourth time in his career, tying Landon Donovan for the most Male Player of the Year nods overall. Pulisic's six goals and three assists in 2023 made him the USMNT's leading goal contributor on the year. Two of those goals came in clutch moments as he helped lead the U.S. to its second-straight Concacaf Nations League title in dominant fashion this summer, continuing to menace Mexico as the "Man in the Mirror" with goals on either side of halftime in 3-0 triumph over El Tri in the CNL Semifinal on June 15. The Pennsylvania native was named the tournament's Best Player and selected to the Best XI for the second-straight Nations League campaign as he captained the U.S. in both the semifinal and championship match. During the CNL group stage, Pulisic set up the first two goals in the USMNT's 7-1 rout of Grenada on March 24 before adding one of his own after halftime.

The 25-year-old forward continued to put the ball in the back of the net during the USMNT's series of fall friendlies, scoring against Uzbekistan, Germany and Ghana. One of his most spectacular strikes yet for the USA came as the opener vs. Die Mannschaft, a rocket from outside the box on Oct. 14 in East Hartford. The three tallies put him at 28 career goals for the U.S., just two behind Brian McBride for fifth on the all-time scoring list.

At the club level, Pulisic made an immediate impact at Italian giant AC Milan following a $20 million move this July. Through the fall half of the 2023-24 campaign, Pulisic helped the Rossoneri to third place in the Serie A table, netting six goals and adding three assists in 13 league appearances. He tallied in his Serie A debut at Bologna on Aug. 21, scored the late game-winner vs. Genoa on Oct. 14 by finishing off a cross from U.S. teammate Yunus Musah, and also finished an impressive sequence with a goal vs. Frosinone on Dec. 2.

Pulisic also played in all six games of AC Milan's UEFA Champions League campaign, tallying against Newcastle United on Dec. 13 to become the first U.S. player to score for three different clubs in the UCL. It marked his eighth career Champions League goal, double the next leading American.

U.S. SOCCER FEMALE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Naomi GIRMA

Girma put together an impressive campaign in central defense during her second year with the USWNT, starting each of the 16 games she played this year for the USA and finishing third on the team with 1,290 minutes played. She started each of the USA's final 11 games of 2023, beginning with the July 9 Send-Off Match against Wales, and played the full minutes in 12 of her 16 appearances this year. A steady yet commanding presence in the back with strong distribution skills, Girma led the U.S. with 129 ball recoveries, ranked first with 34 clearances, ranked second in blocked shots and won 74 percent of her defensive duels, good for second on the team in 2023. She also completed over 90 percent of pass attempts on the year, ranking top-five on the squad, while helping lead the U.S. defense to its lowest ever goals against average (0.17 goals allowed per game) in a calendar year (minimum 10 games played). The 23-year-old Girma had a stellar World Cup, her first at the senior level, playing every minute at center back as the USA allowed only two shots on goal and one goal. She was one of only three outfield players – and four players total – to never leave the field for the USWNT during the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup.

With San Diego Wave FC, Girma played every minute of her 19 regular season appearance while helping the club capture the 2023 NWSL Shield. The Wave defense ranked second in the league with 22 goals allowed on the regular season. She won NWSL Defender of the Year honors for the second consecutive year, becoming just the second player in league history to win the award in back-to-back seasons. She was also named to the NWSL Best XI First Team for the second year in a row.

CHIPOTLE U.S. SOCCER YOUNG MALE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Kevin PAREDES

Paredes made major strides for both club and country in 2023. After eight appearances during the 2022-23 U-20 MYNT cycle, he earned his first senior USMNT call-up in September and was a part of all three fall training camps with the full team. The 20-year-old made his senior international debut on Sept. 13 vs. Oman and then made his first start in the Concacaf Nations League Quarterfinal vs. Trinidad and Tobago on Nov. 17, helping the U.S. book its place in the CNL Finals for the third-straight tournament.

At the club level, Paredes grew into a consistent contributor for Wolfsburg in the Bundesliga, appearing in 15 of 19 matches to help Die Wölfe finish in eighth place and just one point out of qualification to European competition. After making his debut the previous fall, the Virginia native added one goal and three assists, including two late set-ups to earn draws for Wolfsburg vs. Union Berlin on March 12 and Augsburg on April 1. During the first half of this season, Paredes played in 13 of 16 matches for Wolfsburg, scoring vs. Werder Bremen on Nov. 5 and sending the club into the holiday break in seventh place.

CHIPOTLE U.S. SOCCER YOUNG FEMALE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Olivia MOULTRIE

One of the top players for the U.S. at last year's FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup, Moultrie kicked off 2023 in a January training camp with the Under-18/Under-19 Women's Youth National Teams and closed out the year making two appearances for the senior National Team. Moultrie earned her first USWNT cap on Dec. 2, 2023, coming on in the second half of the USA's win over China PR in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. At 18 years and 76 days of age, she became the 72nd teenager all-time to earn a cap for the USWNT. She also played the final 22 minutes of the USA's Dec. 5 win in Frisco, Texas.

Having now completed her third season of professional soccer with Portland Thorns FC, Moultrie more than doubled her NWSL starts from each of the previous two seasons while showing savvy and professionalism beyond her years, appearing in all 22 regular season matches for Portland while making 12 starts and logging over 1,200 minutes of action. She tallied two goals and three assists during the regular season, helping Portland finish second in the NWSL standings, and also made six appearances – five of which were starts - during the NWSL Challenge Cup while tallying one assist.

Moultrie is the fifth-youngest player to win the award after Sophia Smith, Mallory Pugh (now Swanson), Ashley Sanchez, Kristie Mewis and last year's winner Jaedyn Shaw.

ADAPTandTHRIVE Disability Award:

Joslyn BIGELOW, Down Syndrome Sports of America

Joslynn Bigelow won the third annual ADAPTandTHRIVE Disability Award, which recognizes an individual who is making an impact in the United States' broad landscape of Disability soccer. Bigelow earned the honor for her work with Down Syndrome Sports of America, where she helped develop the soccer pathway for adaptive athletes and serves as head coach of the organization's Futsal National Team, as well as for her over decade-long commitment to TOPSoccer and the Special Olympics.

Since beginning as Down Syndrome Sports of America's Futsal National Team head coach in 2022, Bigelow has led the team at four events, including the 2023 ADAPTandTHRIVE Invitational where the team trained and competed alongside U.S. Soccer's Extended National Teams. Bigelow has also developed touchpoints when the team is not together for camps, instituting online, bi-weekly sessions where the athletes can engage with each other through conversation and functional soccer exercise.

Beach Soccer Female Player of the Year:

Hannah ADLER

Hannah Adler capped her first year with the U.S. Women's Beach Soccer National Team by winning the 2023 Female Beach Soccer Player of the Year. Finishing as the team's joint-leading scorer with nine goals in as many appearances during 2023, Adler was Instrumental throughout the year, recording a goal in each of the team's first six matches, including braces in the 7-2 win against Trinidad and Tobago on April 7 at ANOC World Beach Games Qualifying and 7-2 victory against England on April 14. One of six players to appear in all nine matches during 2023, Adler capped the year with another goal against England, aiding in the 4-2 comeback win to claim third place at October's Women's Mundialito tournament in Spain. Adler's nine goals in 2023 tied Kilee Quigley for the most by a USBWNT player in a calendar year.

The second player to win Female Beach Soccer Player of the Year since its establishment in 2021, Adler claimed the award with 40.5 percent of the weighted vote.

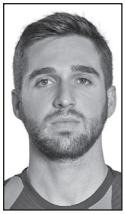

Beach Soccer Male Player of the Year:

Gabe SILVEIRA

After finishing as runner-up in 2022, Gabe Silveira claimed his first Male Beach Soccer Player of the Year award. Having led the team with a career-high 14 goals, Silveira showed steady consistency throughout 2023, finding the back of the net in 11 of his 12 appearances. Silveira's performance at the at the Concacaf Beach Soccer Championship, where he led the team with eight goals and had two goal contributions, carried immense weight. Having recorded a goal and assist in each of the group stage wins against Dominican Republic, Trinidad and Tobago and Panama, respectively, he bagged a brace in the USA's 5-4 quarterfinal win against Costa Rica, and recorded a goal and assist in the 5-2 semifinal win against El Salvador, before finding the back of the net twice more in the 5-0 win against Mexico to claim the Concacaf crown.

The second player to be voted Male Beach Soccer Player of the Year since its establishment in 2021, Silveira won the award with 34.2 percent of the weighted vote.

Luciano GONZALEZ

Luciano Gonzalez earns his first Futsal Player of the Year award in 2023. Now in the midst of his eighth season playing in the Italian Football Federation's (FIGC) Calcio a 5, in the spring Gonzalez helped lead Recanati Calcio to the 2022-23 Campionato Nazionale di Serie B promotion playoff final against AMB Frosinone, tallying 11 goals in all competitions along the way. After representing Boston-based Safira Futsal for the 37th U.S. Futsal National Championships, Gonzalez began the 2023-24 season with Serie B side Buldog TNT where he made three appearances before sustaining an in injury that kept him out of action.

The third different player to win Futsal Player of the Year since its establishment in 2021, Gonzalez won the award with 53 percent of the weighted vote.

CP Female Player of the Year:

Michelle CROSS

Michelle Cross wins Female CP Player of the Year for the second-straight year. The only player to play every minute of the 2022 IFCPF World Cup, Cross represented Disability Athletes in June's Congressional Soccer Match in Washington, D.C. Along with participating in CP WNT camp during the AdaptandThrive Invitational in March, she showed her prowess as a two-sport athlete this year, competing in Track and Field at the 2023 Parapan American Games in Santiago, Chile, where she placed fifth in the women's 200 meters.

Cross won the 2023 Female CP Player of the Year award with 51 percent of the weighted vote.

CP Male Player of the Year:

Josh BRUNAIS

A long-time member of the CP Men's National Team, defender and captain Josh Brunais claims his first Player of the Year award. One of three players to appear in all eight matches, the defender showed prowess at both ends of the field, leading the team with four assists, six goal contributions, and 420 minutes played. After providing an assist in the 2-0 win at Australia to open the year back in February, Brunais was a force for the team during the 2023 Parapan Am Games in Chile. The veteran had a strong showing in the 6-0 win against Canada, scoring two goals and recording two assists in the contest that ensured the USA would play for a medal, before providing another assist in the 3-0 win against Venezuela to claim the Bronze Medal. Brunais helped the USA to four clean sheets in 2023, as well as limiting all opponents to two goals or less during the other four matches.

The second player to win Male CP Player of the Year since its establishment in 2022, Brunais claimed the award with 60 percent of the weighted vote.

Deaf Female Player of the Year:

Emily SPREEMAN

Leading the line for the USA throughout the World Cup, Emily Spreeman is the first winner of Female Deaf Player of the Year. Spreeman showed her unrelenting attacking prowess throughout the tournament, scoring at least one goal in each of the six matches. The Fountain View, Calif. product began by registering back-to-back hat tricks in the opening two matches, tallying four goals and two assists against Japan and three goals and one assist versus Turkey. Spreeman then recorded braces in each of the final two group stage matches against England and Poland to finish the group stage with 11 goals and three assists. As teams began to focus more on her in the knockout stage, she shifted to a provider role in the semifinal against England, dishing two assists to go along with her single strike. Facing a tough Turkey side in the final that set up in a defensive posture, Spreeman put an exclamation point on the team's performance in Malaysia, scoring the final goal in the 3-0 win to help the USA earn its third-straight World Championship title. With 13 goals and five assists, the veteran striker also claimed her second career Golden Ball and Golden Boot.

Spreeman earns the 2023 Female Deaf Player of the Year award with 54 percent of the weighted vote.

Chris BOURDON

Winger Chris Bourdon is the inaugural Male Deaf Player of the Year after competing in his first tournament with the U.S. Men's Deaf National Team at the 2023 World Cup in Malaysia. Bringing a consistent energy throughout the tournament, Bourdon was the only player to feature in all 630 minutes in Malaysia, where he tallied two goals -- in the 3-2 group stage defeat to Egypt on Sept. 25 and one in the 2-2 draw with Iran in the first placement match on Oct. 3. Playing a majority of his minutes on the left wing, Bourdon used his pace, mobility and technical savvy to constantly create fits for defenders throughout the tournament.

Bourdon wins the 2023 Male Deaf Player of the Year award with 48 percent of the weighted vote.

Riley JOHNSON

Co-captain of the U.S. side at the 2023 FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cup, Riley Johnson is the first winner of U.S. Soccer's Power Soccer Player of the Year award. The veteran appeared in nine of 11 matches at his second World Cup, finishing tied for second with five goals, while adding one assist. After tallying in the opening 5-0 win against Australia and 3-0 victory against Northern Ireland, Johnson scored the USA's first two goals and earned Player of the Match honors in the 3-1 victory against England, a result that propelled the team to a second-place group finish. Johnson again scored in the 2-0 win against Uruguay, and showed his leadership qualities on the final day. After a disappointing 1-0 defeat to England in the semifinal, he refocused the squad ahead of the Third-Place Match and provided the opening third minute assist to Lexi Heer, spurring the USA to a 2-1 win against Argentina to claim the Bronze Medal in Sydney.

Johnson claims the first Power Soccer Player of the Year award with 37 percent of the weighted vote.

2014 BEST OF U.S. SOCCER AWARDS

Ten of the best and most meaningful moments throughout 2014 were selected for special mention during U.S. Soccer's Best Of Week that ran from Dec. 15-19. The 10 best moments in U.S. Soccer over the course of 2014 included:

- The USMNT's thrilling 2-1 win against Ghana that secured a vital three points to begin the team's escape from the 'Group of Death' at the 2014 FIFA World Cup.
- Meghan Klingenberg's long-distance golazo against Haiti during Women's World Cup Qualifying was an audacious and timely way for the defender to score her first goal for the USWNT.
- Jermaine Jones' thunderous game-tying strike nearly 30 yards from goal against Portugal that sent the USA on its way to collecting the vital point it ultimately needed to advance to the knockout round at the 2014 FIFA World Cup.
- The USWNT booked its place at the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup by rolling through the Concacaf qualifying tournament with a 6-0-0 record, 21 goals scored, 0 conceded and a clean sweep of the competition's individual awards.
- Fabian Johnson's picturesque strike against Turkey in the USA's second Send-Off Series game was one of the USMNT's most well-crafted goals the team produced in a year of memorable tallies.
- A rarity among professional athletes across all sports, USWNT captain Christie Rampone was honored for her enduring professionalism and longevity at the highest level of soccer when she made her 300th appearance for her country against Mexico during Women's World Cup Qualifying, becoming just the second soccer player in history – man or woman – to achieve the feat.

- The torch was passed on to the next generation of the USMNT as three pillars of the team's unparalleled success over the last decade all announced their retirement: DaMarcus Beasley, Carlos Bocanegra and Landon Donovan.
- With his team approaching its final group game at the 2014 FIFA World Cup, USMNT head coach Jurgen Klinsmann wrote a letter asking that fans be released from work in order to cheer on the USA against Germany. His words went viral on the internet, spawning numerous positive responses from bosses, celebrities and politicians as well as more than a few copy cats.
- USMNT goalkeeper Tim Howard turned in a larger-than-life performance in the USA's Round of 16, overtime defeat to Belgium at the 2014 FIFA World Cup, making a tournament-record 16 saves and cementing his legacy among soccer fans as first goalkeeper to become the "Secretary of Defense."
- U.S. Soccer enjoyed a record year of fan support and interaction, from the thousands that followed the USMNT to Brazil for the 2014 FIFA World Cup to the ever-present USWNT fans that cheered on the team as it qualified for the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup. An assuredly giant leap was made by U.S. Soccer with the help of its fans and partners in 2014, one that has raised the bar higher than ever before in the United States.

BEST OF U.S. SOCCER #100YEARS EDITION WINNER

In 2013, U.S. Soccer provided fans with the opportunity to determine the top moment of the Federation's history. Set up as a bracket-style competition that pits the top moments across U.S. Soccer's 100-year history head-to-head, fans voted daily to determine their favorite moment of all-time.

Abby Wambach's dramatic and stunning goal against Brazil in the 2011 FIFA Women's World Cup quarterfinal defeated all challengers to win the Best of U.S. Soccer: #100Years Edition. More than 10,000 fans voted on the final matchup to crown Wambach the winner, while more than 210,000 votes were cast overall.

Wambach's stoppage-time score that pulled the USA even at 2-2 at the very end of overtime in a match that the USA eventually won in penalty kicks, triumphed in all six of its matchups during the 64-moment bracket-style competition. In the final round, Wambach's 122nd-minute header off a cross from Megan Rapinoe – which at the time was the latest goal ever scored in a FIFA competition – edged Landon Donovan's historic strike in the waning seconds of the USA's last match of group play against Algeria at the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa.

2024 MEDIA GUIDELINES

Thank you for your coverage of U.S. Soccer and the U.S. National Teams. Please familiarize yourself with the information and policies in this document so that your coverage of the U.S. National Teams is conducted in the most efficient manner possible. These guidelines and policies are enforced by the U.S. Soccer Communications Department. If you have questions about the policies listed here, please do not hesitate to contact U.S. Soccer Communications at media@ussoccer.org.

---

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Professional Conduct

Media are expected to follow the guidelines set forth in this document, as well as the instructions of U.S. Soccer staff, stadium employees and security, at the risk of limitation of access or revocation of credentials.

Media credentials are issued with the purpose of providing access to interviews and written, audio and visual accounts of the game as appropriate. Media members should not use access for autographs, personal photographs or commercial requests.

Media credentialed for access to shoot photographs and video are expected to use professional equipment to file photographic or video accounts. Use of equipment such as 'point and shoot' style cameras or mobile telephones that are not considered professional equipment will result in access being restricted or rescinded.

Media Services

Press Releases: To be added to the U.S. Soccer media distribution list, please visit visit www.ussoccer.com/media-services.

Media Guides: To request a current media guide for the U.S. Men's or Women's National Team, please send an email request to communications@ussoccer.org. A digital version of the Men's and Women's National Team's media guides can be found on the Media Guide page in the right-hand navigation column.

Interview Requests: Media requesting interviews with U.S. National Team players, coaches or administrators should make arrangements with the U.S. Soccer Communications Department or the onsite press officer with the respective team. When requesting and conducting interviews, media should identify the organization that they are representing, and provide advance notice if audio or video will be recorded for later distribution. All audio and video interviews are subject to U.S. Soccer's Video Guidelines, which are included in this document.

ussoccer.com: Is the official web site of the U.S. Soccer Federation. All press releases – content that includes a dateline are posted on ussoccer.com, and can be republished by media in their entirety. U.S. Soccer press releases are available in Spanish. Media interested in receiving press releases in Spanish can send an email request to communications@ussoccer.org.

Video: Media are welcome to embed videos that appear on ussoccer.com. Visit youtube.com/ussoccerdotcom and http://www.ussoccer.com/stories for the latest U.S. Soccer-produced videos.

Audio, Video Roll & Interviews: U.S. Soccer periodically sends out video and audio media rolls from National Team events for outlets to use free of charge, provided they properly credit video as; Courtesy of U.S. Soccer/Veritone. If you'd like to sign up for the email list that distributes these media rolls, please email communications@ussoccer.org with Media Roll in the subject line.

Twitter: U.S. Soccer provides updates at www.twitter.com/ussoccer that include breaking news and new content posted to ussoccer.com. Media are welcome to re-tweet @ussoccer, @USMNT, @USWNT, @ussoccer_comms, @USYNT, @ussoccer_coach, @ussoccer_ref, and @ussoccer_pnt content, including play-by-play accounts.

Photography Requests

Head Shots: U.S. Soccer maintains head and shoulder portraits of select U.S. National Team players and coaches that can be requested by emailing communications@ussoccer.org or calling 312-808-1300.

Action Photography: For action photos, please contact Annette Shelby at International Sports Images at 650-906-7753 or at annette@isiphotos.com. International Sports Images serves as the photography manager for U.S. Soccer. Media outlets can also search and preview the photography archive at isiphotos.com.

U.S. SOCCER EVENTS

Credentials

Policies: In addition to the policies listed below, please note that only working media will be credentialed and no one under the age of 18 will be issued a credential.

Applications: Media can request credentials for matches online at www.ussoccer.com/media-services/media-credentials. The online application process can be found by clicking on the Media Services link in the footer on the front page of ussoccer.com. Media can also contact U.S. Soccer Communications with questions on the application process directly at communications@ussoccer.org.

Deadlines: The deadline to apply for credentials to U.S. Soccer events is generally two (2) weeks prior to the game. There is no guarantee that late applications will be accepted.

Pickup: U.S. Soccer will distribute credential pickup times prior to each game. Credential pickup times generally coincide with media availabilities. For pickup on the day of the game, Media Will Call at the stadium will open approximately two (2) to three (3) hours before kickoff. Each media member must show identification in order to receive their credential. An individual cannot pick up more than one credential.

Parking Shipping: If you would like single-game parking passes (subject to availability) to be shipped, please provide a UPS or FedEx account number at least two (2) weeks prior to the game. Replacement parking passes cannot be provided if lost in transit.

All Matches Credential Holders: All media provided an All Matches credential must still inform the U.S. Soccer Communications Department of their plans to attend specific matches to ensure a space in the press box. Please do so at least two (2) weeks in advance of a match.

Media Facilities

Media facilities, including the press box and photographers' work area, will open approximately two (2) - three (3) hours before each game.

Press Box: All seats will be assigned. Auxiliary seating arrangements will be made if the capacity of the press box is exceeded.

Photographer Work Room: Where available, a photographer work room will be available at field level.

Internet: Wireless Internet access will be provided to media filing on deadline.

Game Notes & Media Guides: Game notes will be distributed digitally ahead of each game. Media guides will be made available upon request and digital versions are available online at ussoccer.com/about/us-soccer-media-services.

Lineups: Official lineups are made available approximately one (1) hour prior to kickoff. Lineups, which include jersey numbers for each team, will be distributed to the media as quickly as possible.

Media Access / Interviews

There is no pre-game access to U.S. Soccer players and coaches on game days. No "flash" interviews are permitted on the field. All post-game access is available in the press conference and mixed zone.

Press Conference: There will be a formal press conference with the head coach shortly after the final whistle. In the event something changes a member of the U.S. Soccer communications staff will inform the media.

Mixed Zone: Locker rooms are not open to the media at U.S. Soccer events. All post-game interviews will be conducted in a press conference or mixed zone. Players from both teams will typically be available in the mixed zone. The media mixed zone will generally be near the locker rooms.

Print & Online Media

Live Blogging / Commentary: Live blogging of U.S. Soccer events from either the venue or via the television broadcast is subject to our Live Blogging Guidelines. The guidelines are included in Appendix III of this document.

Video: Please notify U.S. Soccer in advance if your coverage includes video recording. Any video footage, including interviews, gathered by print and online media is subject to the U.S. Soccer Video Guidelines. The Video Guidelines are included in Appendix I of this document.

Audio: Please notify U.S. Soccer in advance if your coverage includes audio recording. Any audio, including interviews, gathered by radio, print and online media is subject to the U.S. Soccer Audio Use Guidelines. The guidelines are included in Appendix II of this document.

Radio – Non Rights Holders

Non-rights-holding radio journalists are welcome to conduct pregame and postgame reports from the press box, but NO play-by-play reports are permitted. Radio non-rights-holders will have access to post-match press conference and mixed zones unless otherwise notified. Radio outlets interested in purchasing rights should contact U.S. Soccer at media@ussoccer.org.

Audio: Any audio, including interviews, gathered by radio, print and online media is subject to the U.S. Soccer Audio Use Guidelines. The guidelines are included in Appendix II of this document.

Field Access

Print, online and radio writers and reporters are not permitted on the field at any time. Media members granted field access must have a working purpose. Representatives from the broadcast media who are not filing reports, but would like to attend as an observer, should inform U.S. Soccer of such when making the application.

Still Photographers

Locations: Still photographers are permitted to shoot U.S. Soccer events from behind the field sign boards in either end line. At events where space allows, photographers may also shoot on the sideline opposite the benches between the end line and the 18-yard line. Shooting from the 18-yard line will be allowed on a match-by-match basis depending on space. The attacking direction of the teams is determined by a coin toss. Following the coin toss, photographers must pick one end of the field to shoot for the entire half. The ONLY time photographers may change ends is at halftime. At NO time are photographers allowed on the field of play.

Bibs: All still photographers are required to wear a colored bib as provided by U.S. Soccer. The bib is lightweight and designed to be worn outside of outerwear and be visible at all times. Please return the bibs to a photo marshal following the game, or leave them in the press box / photographers' work room.

Pre-Game Photos: Each team's starters will pose for a pre-game photo near the bench area following the national anthems. Photographers should gather in the near-side corners once the teams leave the field after warm-ups. U.S. Soccer will escort the photographers to midfield.

Field Watering: The grounds crew may water the field prior to warm-ups and also prior to kickoff. Please be responsible for your equipment during this time. U.S. Soccer is not responsible for damage to any equipment.

Non-Rights Holder Video (ENG)

Video Footage: All non-rights holders and ENG crews must follow the U.S. Soccer Video Guidelines for all footage gathered at events. The Video Guidelines are included in Appendix I of this document.

TV Reporters: ENG reporters may stay on the field until two (2) hours prior to kickoff to shoot 'scene sets,' and are not allowed on the field again until after the conclusion of the broadcast window. Reporters/anchors will not be issued a bib. U.S. Soccer will not generally credential non-rights holder producers, editors, or technicians.

Location: ENG cameras are permitted to shoot U.S. Soccer events from behind the field sign boards of either end line. The attacking direction of the teams is determined by a coin toss. Following the coin toss, ENG cameras must pick one end of the field to shoot for the entire half. The ONLY time ENG crews may change ends is at halftime. At NO time are any media members allowed on the field of play.

Bibs: All ENG camera operators are required to wear a colored bib as provided by U.S. Soccer. The bib is lightweight and designed to be worn outside of outerwear and be visible at all times. Please return the bibs to a photo marshal following the game, or leave them in the press box / photographers' work room.

Field Watering: The grounds crew may water the field prior to warm-ups and also prior to kickoff. Please be responsible for your equipment during this time. U.S. Soccer is not responsible for damage to any equipment.

Live Newscasts: Please contact U.S. Soccer in advance of the event if you would like to broadcast live pre or post-game as part of a newscast from the stadium.

Social Media

U.S. Soccer will not generally credential media looking to cover a U.S. Soccer event only for social media purposes. This means someone looking to provide coverage of a match for social media sites not limited or restricted to; Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc., will be considered for a press credential on a case basis but in most cases will not be accommodated for a press credential.

Social Media Reporting: U.S. Soccer permits credentialed reporters to report on behalf of their media organizations through social media channels or personal accounts. U.S. Soccer permits pictures to be taken from the press box for social media reporting purposes but prohibits the collection of any type of video from the press box. Doing so may result in revocation of press credentials.

APPENDIX I: NON-RIGHTS HOLDER VIDEO GUIDELINES

Video Footage: All rights to match footage including all applicable copyrights belong to U.S. Soccer and its rights holders who broadcast each specific match. U.S. Soccer has two rights holders that will broadcast their Men's National Team and Women's National Team matches in 2024: WBD Sports and Telemundo. If an organization is interested in recording video footage at a U.S. Soccer match for non-news gathering purposes they should contact U.S. Soccer Communications at media@ussoccer.org.

Television Broadcasters

Game Action: Local television affiliates can use footage of U.S. Soccer events obtained either via 1) their own recording or 2) action dubbed from a U.S. Soccer rights holder broadcast with credit only in connection with its regularly scheduled news programming within a week of the game. This footage should not exceed two (2) minutes. Highlights aired as part of a continuous news program should not be longer than one (1) minute per 30-minute segment.

Filming – Game Action: For televised events, local non-rights holders affiliates / ENG cameras may record the first 15 minutes of each half (from 00:00 to 15:00 and 45:00 to 60:00 on the game clock). For non-televised events, non-rights holders / ENG cameras may record the entire game but are still subject to the aforementioned limits. This includes events that are web streamed live online.

Filming – Interviews and Scene Sets: There is no limit to the gathering of footage pre-game, at halftime and post-game. All footage gathered is subject to the usage guidelines indicated in this document.

Filming – In Seating Area: Video cameras looking to shoot in the concourse or seating area must contact U.S. Soccer in advance of the event for approval.

Previews or Advances: In advance of a U.S. Soccer event, television broadcasters can use two (2) minutes of archival game action to preview an upcoming event. In the local/regional markets, broadcasters should mention the time and location of the game along with their report. Outside of the local markets, broadcasters should mention the time and broadcast information.

Television Broadcasters' Web Sites: Video produced for air as part of regular programming that is simulcast or archived online must be accompanied by a link to ussoccer.com. Content produced exclusively for the Internet is subject to the guidelines for Online Video.

U.S. Soccer Video Dept. Audio and Video Roll: U.S. Soccer periodically sends out video and audio media rolls from National Team events for outlets to use free of charge, provided they properly credit video as; Courtesy of U.S. Soccer/Veritone. If you'd like to sign up for the email list that distributes these media rolls, please email communications@ussoccer.org with "Media Roll" in the subject line.

Online Video

Game Action: Online organizations (including print publications that post video online) are not permitted to film or use game action video at any time. Game action includes any footage of the field, teams, etc., following the beginning of the television broadcast window. Only video of off-field activities (i.e. interviews, training sessions) may be recorded.

Non-Game Video: Any video posted online that is recorded as part of media access is limited to the use of eight (8) minutes per day/activity date. Online video may not incorporate integrated advertising and must be accompanied by links to ussoccer.com.

Professional Presentation: Online video is expected to be recorded, edited and presented in a professional manner. Video must be presented/hosted on an organization's website, and not solely on a site provided by a third-party (i.e. YouTube, Vimeo, Facebook, etc.).

Online Video Sites: Organizations who regularly post video to online video sites (i.e. YouTube, Vimeo, etc.) may not include advertising with video gathered as a result of media access. Allowing users to embed these videos is not permitted, and the description of any video must include a link to ussoccer.com.

APPENDIX II: NON-RIGHTS HOLDER AUDIO GUIDELINES

Radio Broadcasters

Play-by-Play Accounts: Play-by-play accounts are forbidden by non-rights holders at any time.

Non-Game Audio: Any online audio recorded as part of media access is limited to the use of eight (8) minutes per day/activity date. Audio posted on radio broadcaster websites must comply with Online Guidelines below.

Online

Non-Game Audio: Any audio recorded as part of media access is limited to the use of eight (8) minutes per day/activity date. Online audio may not incorporate integrated advertising and must be accompanied by links to ussoccer.com.

APPENDIX III: LIVE WRITTEN UPDATES

All Media

Online or text reports (i.e., live blogs, Twitter, etc.) concerning U.S. Soccer games while they are in progress ("Live Written Updates") are subject to the following:

- Live updates may not use any audio, video or graphic simulations of U.S. Soccer games.
- Live updates must provide television and radio broadcast information for that U.S. Soccer Game. For example: "Tonight's U.S. Soccer game is being broadcast live on (name of television/radio station)."
- All live updates must be free of charge to readers.

NOTE: This policy does not prohibit the posting of the facts of a game (i.e., goals scored, cards given, game score and time remaining).
