NEW IDENTITY, NEW HISTORY, NEW HEIGHTS

By many measures, 2024 was a banner year for the U.S. Women's National Team. Under interim head coach Twila Kilgore, and then new head coach Emma Hayes, the USWNT excised any demons from 2023 - a year in which the team still finished unbeaten in regulation time with a 14W-0L-4D record and just three goals allowed, setting a record for fewest goals allowed per game in U.S. history (in a year in which 10 or more matches were played).

Still, the bar was raised in 2024 as Hayes led the USA to an Olympic gold medal in just her 10th game on the bench and the team finished an 18-1-4 record, including a streak of 20 games unbeaten to end the year. The USA earned back the #1 spot in the FIFA Women's World Rankings after the Olympic triumph and held it as the calendar turned to 2025.

The 2024 Paris Olympics run was inspirational and a masterclass in overall mental toughness, clutch finishing and team unity. The USWNT reeled off six straight wins, advancing through the tournament in impressive fashion, downing Zambia (3-0), Germany (4-1) and a defensive-minded Australia (2-1) in group play and then winning two 1-0 matches in overtime, downing Japan in the quarterfinal and Germany in the semifinal. The 1-0 victory over Brazil in the championship game capped a glorious tournament that was led by the USA's young trio for forwards. The self-named "Triple Espresso" front line of 26-year-old Mallory Swanson (4 goals, 2 assists), 24-year-old Sophia Smith (3 goals, 2 assists) and 22-year-old Trinity Rodman (3 goals, 1 assist) scored 10 of the USA's 12 goals with one coming from reserve forward Lynn Williams and one from reserve midfielder Korbin Albert, who remarkably scored her first USWNT goal that proved to be the game-winner vs. the Matildas.

It was the USA's record fifth gold medal in women's soccer and the program's first since 2012. The USA played in its sixth Olympic final in eight appearances and 11th final in 17 world championship appearances. The USA's 11 trips to the final all-time at a world championship event (six Olympic finals, five Women's World Cup finals) are the most of any country. No other nation has reached more than four world championship finals (Germany - three World Cup finals, one Olympic final).

Now, Hayes and the team turn their attention to the long run to the 2027 FIFA Women's World Cup that will be held in Brazil. Concacaf qualifying for the next 4 World Cup won't commence until late in 2026 meaning there is much work to be done. With the retirement of many long-time USWNT stars, it will be a period of transition but also a year where the U.S. team continues to forge a new identity and strives to make some new history while attempting to reach new heights.

In 2025, the U.S. coaching staff will focus on a core group of players who will continue to develop relationships on the field while the staff incorporates younger players to gain experience and improve the overall depth, all with the goal of choosing the best team to qualify for Brazil. Several of the veterans who helped the USA to so much success over the past few years will still be competing for spots, providing even more motivation towards the evolution of the team. This much is clear: after dropping from the number one spot in the FIFA Women's World Rankings for the first time in eight years, and then regaining the ranking, the U.S. team is working hard to progress and improve in the increasingly competitive arena of women's international soccer.

ATTACK ATTACK ATTACK: The Triple Espresso front line of Trinity Rodman, Mallory Swanson and Sophia Smith (now Wilson) combined for 10 goals and five assists at the 2024 Olympics.

Matt CROCKER

SPORTING DIRECTOR: U.S. Soccer Federation

Matt Crocker was named as the Sporting Director for the U.S. Soccer Federation on April 25, 2023.

At the end 2023, he hired Emma Hayes as the new head coach of the U.S. Women's National Team (she would join U.S. Soccer in the spring of 2024, and then led the USA to the Olympic gold medal) and in 2024, he hired Mauricio Pochettino as head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team, marking two high-profile hires of wildly revered and talented head coaches for the USA's flagship National Teams.

Crocker, who oversees U.S. Soccer's entire Sporting Department and all technical aspects for the Federation, brought 25 years of experience in player development and coaching with proven success at the club, youth and senior international levels.

Crocker, 49, came to U.S. Soccer from his second stint at famed English club Southampton, where he was Director of Football Operations, but before that had a successful run as Head of Development Teams for the England Football Association from 2013-2020.

Crocker's leadership at the English FA coincided with the resurgence of their Youth National Teams. He helped design and implement organizational and development blueprints for both the men and women from the Under-15 women's and men's up through the full Men's and Women's National Teams. During his time as the Strategic & Cultural Lead, which included National Teams and Coach Education, England captured both the 2017 FIFA Under-17 and Under-20 World Cup titles. Two years later, England won the UEFA European Under-19 Championship.

Crocker worked closely with the Men's and Women's senior teams with England as part of the FA's Soccer leadership team alongside Gareth Southgate and Mark Sampson. The leadership team led the implementation of the England DNA and strategic plan for success.

His role at Southampton focused on the men's, women's and academy programs. The club maintained its position in the Premier League for 10 years, making it the eighth longest-serving Premier League club on one of the smallest budgets in the league. Their program is renowned for innovation and player development. He also played an important role in the development and success of Southampton FC Women, converting the program from part-time to a fully professional team that has risen from the FA National League to the Women's Championship in recent years. Under his guidance, Southampton became one of a handful of clubs where the men and women utilize the same training facility and match stadium. In December of 2022, he announced his departure from Southampton at the end of the 2022-2023 season.

During his initial tenure at Southampton from 2006-2013 he served as Academy Director and oversaw the development of future international stars like Gareth Bale, Alex Oxlade-Chamberlain, Luke Shaw and James Ward-Prowse. Crocker was fundamental in creating and implementing the 'SFC Playbook', a technical blueprint detailing the playing and training philosophy to support player development through the academy and into the First Team.

Early in his career, from 1999-2005, Crocker was the Academy Director at his hometown club, Cardiff City FC, where he created the academy program, before taking a job as Youth Development Monitor for the English Football League, which governs the three divisions below the English Premier League.

Crocker did his university education at Cardiff Metropolitan University which he earned a degree in Sports Coaching and Physical Education.

Emma HAYES

HEAD COACH: U.S. Women's National Team

BORN: Oct. 18, 1976, in Camden, England

HOMETOWN: London, England

Emma Hayes was named as the 10th full-time head coach in U.S. Women's National Team history on November 14, 2023. She officially joined U.S. Soccer in May of 2024 and coached her first matches in early June.

Hayes then memorably led the USWNT to the 2024 Olympic gold medal in just her 10th match in charge, guiding the USA to six consecutive victories in France while winning all three knockout games by 1-0 scores, with the quarterfinal and semifinal taking 120 minutes to decide.

After the 3-0 opening game win over Zambia at the Olympics, Hayes became the first USWNT head coach to win their first major tournament match by a margin of three or more goals and joined Anson Dorrance as the only head coaches in USWNT history to win their first six matches at a major tournament. Dorrance won all six games with the USWNT at the 1991 FIFA Women's World Cup.

Hayes joined three other USWNT head coaches -- of the last eight in USWNT history -- who won their first major competition (Anson Dorrance – 1991 FIFA Women's World Cup; Pia Sundhage – 2008 Olympics; Jill Ellis – 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup). The gold medal victory in Paris came in the fewest matches coached before winning a World Cup or Olympics by any head coach in women's soccer history.

On Oct. 28, 2024, Hayes won her first world award as head coach of the USWNT when she was named the winner of the first Ballon d'Or given to women's soccer coaches. On Dec. 17, she won her second, being named FIFA The Best Women's Coach, marking the second time she has won the FIFA award for world women's coach of the year.

Hayes finished her first year at the helm of the USWNT with an unbeaten record of 13W-0L-2D. In those matches, nine of which were played against teams ranked in the top 15 in the world, the USA earned 10 shutouts and allowed just five goals.

Before coming to the U.S. Soccer, Hayes was the long-time head coach for Chelsea FC, one of the most successful women's teams in Europe, but she started her coaching career in the United States at the dawn of the millennium and more than two decades later took the helm of the USWNT.

Hayes came to the USA after winning her fifth consecutive Women's Super League title, clinching the championship on a dramatic last day with a 6-0 win over Manchester United. It was her seventh WSL title, the most in league history. No other club in the league has more than four titles total. Hayes left Chelsea with 15 trophies won, which included one Community Shield.

Hayes led Chelsea to five Women's Super League and Cup doubles, winning the league and the FA Cup four times in the same season and the league and the League Cup once. Chelsea won the treble in 2020-2021, taking the WSL, FA Cup and League Cup trophies.

Hayes' first Women's FA Cup title with Chelsea came during the 2014-2015 season, and the club followed it with the Women's Super League title to complete a historic and memorable double. She was the only female manager in the league at that time. Hayes led Chelsea to a second domestic double of FA Cup and WSL titles in the 2017-2018 season and reached the semifinal of the UEFA Women's Champions League for a second time.

In 2019-2020, the Blues won the WSL title and the League Cup and then successfully defended both trophies the next season while also reaching their first Champions League Final. Those successes resulted in Hayes being named WSL Manager of the Season in consecutive campaigns, and she was also honored with The Best FIFA Women's Coach Award in 2021. The triumphs of the 2021-2022 WSL season made Hayes the first coach to guide a team to three consecutive WSL titles. The 2022-2023 season marked yet another double as Chelsea won the League and FA Cups.

Hayes, who grew up in London and went to university in Liverpool, came to the USA in 2001. She coached at the youth levels – working with players as young as Under-8s – with numerous clubs in the Long Island area, coached in the New York Olympic Development Program and was a member of the Region I staff. Her first head coaching job was with the Long Island Lady Riders in the USL W-League from 2001-2003. She was the youngest female head coach in the league and was named W-League Coach of the year in 2002. From 2003 onward, she has been a consistent presenter at the annual convention for the National Soccer Coaches Association of America, now United Soccer Coaches.

After the Lady Riders, Hayes coached NCAA Division I college soccer at Iona College in New Rochelle, New York for four years where she led the Gaels to two conference championships and earned another coach of the year honor before returning to the UK where she became an assistant coach for Arsenal FC, the trailblazing club for women's pro soccer in the UK, and the Academy Director for Arsenal Ladies.

During her time in North London, the Gunners achieved unprecedented success, winning 11 major trophies during a three-season spell, including three titles in the Women's Premier League (the precursor to the WSL), three FA Women's Cups and the UEFA Women's Cup crown (the precursor to the UEFA Women's Champions League). Her role in the Arsenal backroom staff was combined with her position as Academy Director where she oversaw the development of young players at the club, many of whom currently play in the Women's Super League.

Hayes returned to the United States in 2008 and coached the Chicago Red Stars during the start of Women's Professional Soccer, the second iteration of a pro league in the United States. Before her first WPS season, with the second overall pick in the league's inaugural draft, she chose a young attacking player from the University of Portland named Megan Rapinoe. She also had stints working as a coaching consultant for the Washington Freedom and as the technical director at the Western New York Flash, which won the WPS title in 2011 with a team she helped assemble. She returned to England in 2011 and was eventually named head coach at Chelsea, where she has coached numerous national team players from more than 25 different countries.

Hayes was rewarded with an OBE – Order of the British Empire – in 2022 on the New Year's honors list for services to soccer in the UK. Hayes was named an MBE – Member of the Order of the British Empire – on the Queen's 90th birthday honors list in June of 2016 and was presented with it the following December. She was inducted into the Women's Super League Hall of Fame in 2021.

On Jan. 22, 2024, Hayes became the first woman to be presented with the Football Writers' Tribute award by the Football Writers Association (FWA) as she was honored for her outstanding contribution to the game in England.

Hayes is the second England-born coach to head the U.S. Women's National Team, after Jill Ellis, who spent the entirety of her coaching career in the United States. Hayes is also the fourth full-time female head coach in USWNT history. She holds a UEFA Pro License.

In 2023, Hayes co-wrote a book, Kill The Unicorn, a leadership manual that draws on her experience in high-performance management to argue that the perception of a single great leader is a myth. In 2024, she published A Completely Different Game, a book in which she shares her inspirational and innately human approach to fulfilling the potential of those around her.

In college, Hayes studied European Studies, Spanish and Sociology. She is conversational in Spanish. She recently completed her work for a master's degree in Business Administration and has a master's in Intelligence and International Affairs. Hayes has a six-year-old son named Harry.

THE FEMALE LENS: Emma Hayes has approached the building of the USWNT towards the 2027 FIFA Women's World Cup by viewing everything she does through a female lens to assist the players in their 360-degree growth as people and players.

U.S. Women's National Team Under Head Coach Emma Hayes June 2024-Dec. 2024

Since taking over as the U.S. Women's National Team head coach in June of 2024, Emma Hayes has called up 40 players to take part in at least one training camp. Of those 40 players, 36 have earned at least one cap under Hayes. Hayes has given 11 players their first senior team call-ups and 11 players their first caps. Following is a breakdown of the players used by Hayes in her time on the job.

2025 U.S. Women's National Team Player Pool

Following is the current player pool for the U.S. Women's National Team. USWNT head coach Emma Hayes will, for the most part, use this pool of players for training camps and matches in 2025. The pool is constantly evolving, with additional players being added and called-up. Members of the Under-23 National Team Pool or other youth national teams may be called up to the full National Team as well. An asterisk (*) indicates that a player is also eligible to play with the Under-23 Women's National Team.

++ Olympics

A YEAR TO REMEMBER: The U.S. Women's National Team compiled a record of 18W-1L-4D in 2024 and won all six games at the Paris Olympics to take home the gold medal. The USWNT ended the year on a 20-game unbeaten run while the defense allowed just 12 goals on the year and just two at the Olympics. The Americans won gold in just the 10th match on the bench for new head coach Emma Hayes.

WORLD CUP HISTORY

USA IN THE FIFA WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

As the new cycle begins for the 2027 FIFA Women's World Cup, the U.S. Women's National Team remains the most successful women's soccer team in history, with four FIFA Women's World Cup titles, one second-place finish and three third-place finishes.

In nine trips all-time to Women's World Cup competitions, the U.S. is 41W-4L-9D in 54 total games and has more top-three finishes than any other nation in the tournament's history.

The 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup ended for the Americans in heartbreaking fashion, falling to Sweden on penalty kicks (4-5) after drawing 0-0 in regulation and extra time in the Round of 16. Seeking an unprecedented third consecutive World Cup trophy, the USA opened Group E with a 3-0 victory over Vietnam, before drawing the Netherlands 1-1 in a rematch of the 2019 World Cup Final and playing Portugal to a 0-0 stalemate in the final game of group play. Despite failing to reach the semifinals for the first time ever at a World Cup, the USA had a dominant defensive showing Down Under, allowing just one goal and two shots on goal over the four matches.

The USA qualified for the 2023 Women's World Cup by winning the 2022 Concacaf W Championship. The tournament, which was held from July 4-18 in Monterrey, Mexico, served -- for the first time -- as the region's qualifying tournament for both the 2023 World Cup and the 2024 Olympics. The USWNT punched its ticket to the World Cup by advancing to the semifinal round and defeated Canada, 1-0, in the championship game to secure its spot in the upcoming Paris Olympics.

The USA's 2-0 victory against the Netherlands on Sunday, July 7, 2019, at Stade de Lyon marked the USA's record fifth appearance in a FIFA Women's World Cup Final and added a fourth star to the USA's jersey. The USA earned its way into the 2019 Final by blazing through its group in record fashion beating Thailand (13-0), Chile (3-0) and semifinalists Sweden (2-0) before combining tremendous skill, savvy and will to meet increasingly tough challenges from rising power Spain (2-1) in the Round of 16, World Cup host France (2-1) in the Quarterfinal and No. 3 ranked England (2-1) in an epic Semifinal showdown. Goals from Megan Rapinoe – the tournament's Golden Ball winner and Golden Boot winner and best player as top scorer – and Rose Lavelle, the Bronze Ball winner, propelled the USA to victory in the championship game.

The USWNT booked its spot at the 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup by rolling past Jamaica 6-0 in the semifinal of the 2018 Concacaf Women's Championship before winning its sixth Concacaf Women's Championship title when it blanked Canada 2-0 in the tournament final. The USA cruised through group play outscoring Mexico (6-0), Panama (5-0) and Trinidad & Tobago (7-0) by a combined 18-0.

In 2015, after a tough group stage saw the U.S. tie former coach Pia Sundhage and Sweden before prevailing in a nail-biter against Nigeria, the WNT turned on the jets, storming to the 2015 FIFA World Cup title. Powered by captain Carli Lloyd's six knockout round goals, including three in the thrilling title rematch with Japan, the USA dashed past up-and-coming Colombia 2-0 before beating old foe China in the quarterfinal. A showdown with Germany loomed in the semifinal, but a penalty kick miss by Germany and subsequent make by Lloyd set the U.S. on the path to the final, and substitute Kelley O'Hara's late goal, courtesy of a Lloyd assist, cemented the WNT's passage.

The epic final of the 2015 World Cup featured a record-making performance from Lloyd that catapulted her to her first FIFA Women's World Player of the Year award. With a hat trick that featured a goal from inside her own half, Lloyd put the game away by the half hour mark as Lauren Holiday and Tobin Heath also notched goals in the 5-2 win vs. Japan that saw the USA become the first nation to win three World Cups.

The USA hit some bumps in the road on the way to the 2011 FIFA Women's World Cup, falling in the semifinal of the Concacaf Women's World Cup Qualifying Tournament at the end of 2010 before defeating Italy in a two-game playoff to earn the final berth to Germany. The Americans also lost two games during its World Cup preparation, but still headed into the tournament as one of the favorites. What transpired in Germany will forever be remembered as a breakthrough event for women's soccer as the U.S. team's dramatic run to the World Cup Final inspired a nation. The USA opened the 2011 tournament with a hard-fought 2-0 win against Korea DPR in Dresden on second-half goals from Lauren Cheney and improbably, defender Rachel Buehler. That set the stage for a 3-0 demolition of Colombia that featured the entire team saluting the crowd after the opening goal by Heather O'Reilly in recognition of the large group of U.S. military and their families that helped sellout the stadium in Sinsheim. The USA fell 2-1 to Sweden in its final group match in Wolfsburg, which sent them into a quarterfinal against Brazil back in Dresden. The drama and controversy-filled game featured the latest goal in Women's World Cup history: Abby Wambach's legendary header that sent the U.S. to a penalty kick shootout where it prevailed to reach the semifinal.

In the semifinal in Mönchengladbach, the USA ran into an extremely talented France team that dominated the match for stretches, but as the Americans often do at the highest levels, they found a way to win on a first half goal from Cheney, another Wambach header and a late clincher from Alex Morgan. The USA was by far the stronger team in the World Cup Final in Frankfurt, but let two leads slip away and fell in a penalty kick shootout to Japan.

Abby Wambach scored in the final four games – the first U.S. player to achieve such a feat in a World Cup tournament – and took over the U.S. career lead in Women's World Cup goals from Michelle Akers with her 13th in the championship game. Wambach and Morgan became the first U.S. players to score in the semifinal and final of a World Cup.

In 2007, the USA was riding a long unbeaten streak and held the world's top ranking heading into the FIFA Women's World Cup in China where they won perhaps the most difficult first-round group in the history of the tournament. In Group B, the USA drew with Korea DPR 2-2 in the opening match, and then got two goals from Abby Wambach in a must-win 2-0 victory over Sweden. With advancement to the quarterfinals still up in the air, the USA won the group with a hard-fought 1-0 victory over a vastly improved Nigeria. The American women then met up-and-coming England in the quarterfinal, and after an evenly played first 20 minutes, put together its best performance of the tournament, winning 3-0 and earning a place in the semifinals against Brazil. The semifinal marked a low point in U.S. history as the team suffered some heart-wrenching misfortune while scoring an own goal and seeing Shannon Boxx harshly sent off at the end of the first half. That combination of factors led to a 4-0 loss, the worst in U.S. history, and a spot in the third-place match. The USA rebounded wonderfully to win the bronze medal, rolling over Norway with a 4-1 score to end the tournament on a high note.

Considered the top team in the world heading into the FIFA Women's World Cup USA 2003, the defending champion U.S. was assured the title of tournament favorite after the competition was moved from China to the U.S. due to the outbreak of SARS. After rolling through group play with a 3-0 record and an 11-1 advantage in goal differential, the U.S. squeezed past rival Norway by a 1-0 margin in the quarterfinals. Then in Portland, Ore. – the only city in history to host a World Cup match in consecutive competitions – the U.S. was shocked by Germany, who scored two injury time goals in a 3-0 victory en route to winning it all and being crowned world champion. The U.S. was relegated to the third-place game. There, the Red, White and Blue made quick work of northern neighbor Canada 3-1, the same team that forced the U.S. to sudden death overtime in the Concacaf Women's Gold Cup final less than a year earlier.

The United States Women's National Team added to its prestige by becoming the first squad to host and win a Women's World Cup, when it downed China PR 5-4 in penalty kicks after battling to a 0-0 draw through regulation and overtime in the 1999 final. The match was played in front of a women's athletics record crowd of 90,185 on June 10, 1999 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. The winning penalty kick goal for the U.S. has become a pop culture moment in American history, with Brandi Chastain connecting on the shot and then celebrating the goal with a nation. The championship marked the USA's third major championship of the decade, including the 1991 Women's World Cup crown and the 1996 Olympic title.

The biggest disappointment for the U.S. Women in the 1990s came at the 1995 Women's World Cup in Sweden, when the team fell to arch-rival Norway in the tournament semifinals, 1-0. The defeat was the first ever for the USA in WWC play and helped Norway into the final where they downed Germany to take the crown.

In 1991, the U.S. won the inaugural FIFA Women's World Cup in China. The championship was the first for the USA in a FIFA competition and established the dominance that the U.S. women have continued to display at the international level. The United States was led by Michelle Akers, Carin Jennings and April Heinrichs, dubbed "the triple-edged sword." The trio combined to score 20 of the team's 25 goals in China, including all five (Jennings 3, Heinrichs 2) in a 5-2 semifinal victory over Germany and both goals (Akers) in a 2-0 win over Norway to win the title.

THE FIRST GOLDEN BALL: The first-ever Golden Ball as the top player in a Women's World Cup was awarded to U.S. striker Carin Jennings at the 1991 FIFA Women's World Cup.

WOMEN'S WORLD CUP NOTES: Of the 23 players on the roster, 19 saw action. For nine players, it was their first minutes in Women's World Cup play. Alyssa Naeher, Naomi Girma, Julie Ertz and Andi Sullivan played every single minute of the tournament for the USA.

The team's exit in the Round of 16 marked the first time the USA failed to make it to at least the semifinals at a Women's World Cup.

Naeher recorded three shutouts at the 2023 Women's World Cup and now ranks third all-time in USWNT World Cup shutouts with seven, trailing Hope Solo (10) and Briana Scurry (9).

For the third consecutive World Cup, the USWNT went unbeaten in group play. The USA has advanced out of the group in all nine of its trips to the FIFA Women's World Cup. The second-place finish in Group E marked just the second time the team has finished second in its group, last doing so in 2011.

After falling behind 1-0 to the Netherlands, the USA trailed for the first time in a World Cup match since the 2011 Quarterfinal against Brazil. Lindsay Horan's equalizer in the second half which led to a 1-1 marked just the second time in the USA's World Cup history that the Americans have come back to win or tie after trailing at the half. It was the first such result since coming back to beat Germany 3-2 in the quarterfinal of the 1999 WWC.

With her brace against Vietnam in the opening match of the tournament, Sophia Smith became the 34th USWNT player all-time to score at a Women's World Cup. At 22-years-and-346-days-of-age, Smith was the youngest player in USWNT history to score multiple goals in her World Cup debut and the second-youngest player in USWNT history to score multiple goals in any World Cup match.

At 18-years-and-257-days-old, Alyssa Thompson made her World Cup debut against Vietnam, becoming the second-youngest player ever to appear for the USA at a Women's World Cup and the fourth teenager to do so.

The lineup for the USA's opening match against Vietnam averaged 27.8 years of age, making it the youngest lineup to start a World Cup match for the USWNT since 2007.

WOMEN'S WORLD CUP NOTES: The USA became the first country to win four FIFA Women's World Cup titles.

This is the third World Cup in which the USWNT has never trailed throughout the tournament, a feat also achieved in 1991 and 2015.

The U.S. is unbeaten in its last 17 Women's World Cup matches (14W-3D), winning the last 12 in a row. They are the only team to win 12 consecutive WWC matches, besting Norway's run from 95 to 99. Seven of the USA's 12 wins have been by multiple-goal margins.

After the win vs. the Netherlands, the USWNT is now 40-4-6 all-time in World Cup play, outscoring opponents 138-38 in 50 games. The 40 wins, 50 games-played and 138 goals scored are all FIFA Women's World Cup records.

The USA is 7-1-0 all-time against the Netherlands.

Megan Rapinoe is only the second player to start three Women's World Cup finals (2011, 2015, 2019), after Germany's Birgit Prinz (1995, 2003, 2007).

Megan Rapinoe won the Golden Ball as the best player in the tournament and the Golden Boot as the top scorer. Alex Morgan won the Silver Boot as the second-leading scorer and Rose Lavelle won the Bronze Ball as the third-best player.

The USWNT had nine different goal scorers at this tournament. Only the 2003 German team (10) and the 1999 American team (9) have had more at a single WWC.

The USA was only the third defending champion to reach the World Cup Final in the following tournament after winning the title – Germany did so in 2003 and 2007, while Japan accomplished the feat in 2011 and 2015.

The USA was the first team to reach three consecutive World Cup finals and was only the second nation to repeat as champion after Germany did so in 2003 and 2007. The USA has reached a record five World Cup finals, winning four. The second most accomplished team, Germany, has been to three finals, winning two.

The USA scored in the first 12 minutes of each of its first six World Cup matches. Only in the World Cup Final did it fail to find the net early.

At the World Cup, the USA set a record for most goals in tournament history with 26, breaking its own record of 25, set in 1991 in six games.

The USA also set records for most goals in a single Women's World Cup match and largest margin of victory when it beat Thailand 13-0 in its Group F opener, a game that featured 10 second-half goals, also a record.

Alex Morgan tied the record for most goals in a single match when she scored five against Thailand, matching the feat of Michelle Akers against Chinese Taipei at the 1991 Women's World Cup in China.

Jill Ellis became the first coach to win two Women's World Cup titles. Italy's Vittorio Pozzo, who won the Men's World Cup in 1934 and 1938, is the only other coach to win two World Cup titles.

Rose Lavelle (24 years, 54 days) became the second-youngest American to score in a World Cup Final, trailing only Alex Morgan (22 years, 15 days) in 2011.

The USA was ahead in its World Cup games for 70.2 percent of the time. The Americans never trailed in their seven games and led for 442 of 701 total minutes.

Rapinoe's goal against the Netherlands made her the oldest player at 34 years and two days to score in a Women's World Cup Final. She broke teammate Carli Lloyd's record set in 2015. Lloyd was 32 years, 354 days old when she scored three times against Japan.

By scoring in the final four World Cup matches in 2015 and the final two World Cup matches in 2019, Carli Lloyd set a record for scoring in the most consecutive World Cup games.

WOMEN'S WORLD CUP NOTES: The USA became the first country to win three FIFA Women's World Cup titles.

Hope Solo, Julie Johnston, Meghan Klingenberg, Carli Lloyd and Megan Rapinoe were named to the FIFA Women's World Cup All-Star Team.

Carli Lloyd is the first woman in FIFA WWC to score a hat trick in a Final match and scored the fastest hat trick in Women's World Cup history.

Lloyd also became the third U.S. woman to score a hat trick in WWC play: Carin Jennings Gabarra netted three goals against Germany in 1991 and Michelle Akers scored five against Chinese Taipei that same year.

Lloyd also became the first USWNT player to score in four straight games in a World Cup. She netted a goal against China, Colombia and Germany and three against Japan.

Lloyd's goal in the third minute was the fastest goal in a WWC Final game.

With her three goals against Japan, Lloyd became the first American to score in three major-tournament finals: 2012 Olympic gold medal game (2-1 win over Japan) and 2008 gold-medal match (1-0 over Brazil).

Midfielders Lauren Holiday and Tobin Heath each scored their first goals of the tournament in the final. It was Heath's first goal in a Women's World Cup.

The USA's five goals were the most any team has scored in a WWC Final. No other team has scored more than two.

The USA's two goals in the first five minutes of the match against Japan was first time any team scored twice in that span in a WWC game.

The USWNT finished this year's tournament with a 33-4-6 all-time record in Women's World Cup play, outscoring its opponents 112-35 in 43 games. The 33 wins, 112 goals scored and the 43 games played are FIFA Women's World Cup records.

Rachel Buehler sent off in the 64th minute vs. Brazil on July 10.

WOMEN'S WORLD CUP NOTES: Abby Wambach, Hope Solo, Lauren Cheney and Shannon Boxx were named to the FIFA Women's World Cup All-Star Team.

Abby Wambach won the Silver Ball as the second best player in the tournament and the Bronze Boot as the third leading scorer. Hope Solo won the Golden Glove as the best goalkeeper and the Bronze Ball as the third best player.

By advancing to the championship game the USA kept intact its record of finishing in the top-three of all six Women's World Cup tournaments that have been contested.

Of the 21 players on the roster, 18 saw action. For 11 of those players, it was their first minutes in Women's World Cup play.

The USA's loss to Sweden was its first-ever in Women's World Cup group play.

The USA was the highest scoring team in the tournament with 13 total goals.

Abby Wambach scored four goals, all with her head, one each in the last four games, becoming the first U.S. player to accomplish that feat.

Her four goals upped her World Cup total to 13, moving her past the great Michelle Akers on the all-time U.S. World Cup scoring list.

Wambach and Alex Morgan became the first U.S. players to score in both a Women's World Cup semifinal and final.

WOMEN'S WORLD CUP NOTES: Team captain and forward Kristine Lilly was the lone U.S. player named to the FIFA Women's World Cup All-Star Team.

With a draw and two wins in first-round play, the USA won what was widely considered one of the most difficult opening round groups in Women's World Cup history.

By defeating Norway 4-1 in the third-place match, the USA finished in the top three in all five Women's World Cup tournaments that have been contested, the only country to do so.

Abby Wambach scored six goals in the tournament, winning the Silver Shoe as the second-best scorer in the tournament. Her six goals gave her nine WWC goals for her career, second on the all-time U.S. list behind only Michelle Akers (12).

Of the 21 players on the U.S. roster, 10 saw action in their first Women's World Cup.

Heather O'Reilly became the 11th U.S. player to score multiple goals in her first Women's World Cup. Four of those players did so in 1991, when it was every player's first WWC.

WOMEN'S WORLD CUP NOTES: U.S. defender Joy Fawcett and midfielder Shannon Boxx were named to the 2003 FIFA Women's World Cup All-Star Team. Forward Mia Hamm was named as one of the five reserves.

By beating Canada 3-1 in front of 25,253 fans at The Home Depot Center, the USA became the only country in history to finish in the top three in all four FIFA Women's World Cups.

The USWNT has four players who played in the first four Women's World Cups: Joy Fawcett, Julie Foudy, Mia Hamm and Kristine Lilly. Of those four, Foudy and Hamm scored goals in each WWC tournament (with Foudy scoring exactly one goal and Hamm scoring exactly two goals in each tournament).

FIFA WOMEN'S WORLD CUP USA 2003 REVIEW

Originally scheduled for China from Sept. 23 to Oct. 11, the FIFA Women's World Cup 2003 was moved out of the country by FIFA on May 3 because of the threat of Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome. In awarding the games to the United States on May 26, FIFA chose the United States over Sweden, the only other country besides the USA to make a formal bid to host the tournament.

While women's soccer has no doubt become more and more competitive, the group stage of USA 2003 went almost exactly according to script. Seven of the eight quarterfinalists from 1999 advanced. Only Nigeria, who were the only side not to score a goal in the tournament, did not make it through, stepping aside for Canada's advancement. Of the seeded teams, only Norway failed to win their group, bowing to the strong early play of Brazil. The U.S. Women's National Team lived up to its high expectations in opening the tournament with three authoritative wins in the tournament's most difficult group (downing Sweden, Nigeria and upstart Korea DPR). Sweden lost their first match but recovered to eventually fight their way into the finals.

In the knockout stage, Canada provided the tournament's biggest surprise with a well-earned 1-0 victory against China PR, sending the '99 finalist home early. The U.S., Germany and Sweden, who knocked off first-round darlings Brazil 2-1, also advanced to the final four. In the semifinals, the Swedes finally ended Canada's dreams with a dramatic come-from-behind 2-1 victory. In the other semifinal, Germany stunned the hosts, knocking the U.S. into the third-place match with two injury time goals en route to a 3-0 victory at PGE Park in Portland.

The U.S.-Germany match was widely hailed as one of the greatest in women's soccer history, surpassed in 2003 only by Germany's thrilling 2-1 sudden death victory over Sweden. That triumph saw Nia Kuenzer head home in the eighth minute of extra time to send The Home Depot Center into a frenzy of German joy and Swedish tears.

The U.S. closed out an ultimately disappointing tournament with an emphatic 3-1 victory over border-rival Canada in the third-place game. The match was never in doubt, with the U.S. seeing goals from Kristine Lilly, Shannon Boxx and Tiffeny Milbrett keep their perfect top three record in Women's World Cup play intact.

 Sept. 25 USA-Nigeria (ESPN2) = 0.61 rating (448,350 HH)
 Sept. 28 USA-Korea DPR (ABC) = 1.3 rating (955,500 HH), 3 share
 Oct. 1 USA-Norway (ESPN2) = 1.17 rating (860,000 HH)
 Oct. 5 USA-Germany (ESPN2) = 1.17 rating (860,000 HH)
 Oct. 11 USA-Canada / Third place (ESPN2) = 0.45 rating (330,750 HH)
 Oct. 12 Germany-Sweden / Final (ABC) = 1.4 rating, 3 share (1.03 million HH)

Notes: The overnight rating on USA-Korea DPR match was 1.8 against the NFL and NASCAR, leading ABC spokesperson Mark Mandel to comment: "In today's reality, those are pretty good numbers." ... An estimated 13.58 million German viewers watched the Oct. 12 broadcast of Germany's overtime victory over Sweden in the Women's World Cup final ... That number was slightly more than tuned in for Germany's Men's National Team's triumph over Iceland in their decisive European Championship qualifier on Oct. 11 ... In Sweden, nearly 4 million Swedes watched the championship game ... In the 2000 census, Germany's population was listed at just more than 82 million, while Sweden's was almost 9 million.

FIFA WOMEN'S WORLD CUP USA 1999 REVIEW

The final Women's World Cup of the century launched the beginning a new era of success for women's soccer. For the first time, the tournament was expanded to 16 teams and was staged in huge stadiums across the host country, raising expectations for attendance, media coverage and television audiences; expectations which were reached, surpassed and then crushed.

The U.S. captured its second Women's World Cup Championship while thrilling a nation and becoming the story of the year. The team played in front of packed houses across the country, beginning with a crowd of 78,000-plus at Giants Stadium cheering the team to a 3-0 tournament opening victory over Denmark. The victory set a tone for the entire tournament. After fighting their way into the final with five victories, which included a come-from-behind 3-2 victory over Germany in the quarterfinals and a nail-biting 2-0 victory over Brazil in the semifinals, the U.S. battled China PR for a grueling 120 minutes before pulling out a breathtaking 5-4 penalty kick victory in the finals in front of a sell-out crowd of 90,125 fans at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena on July 10.

After a scoreless 90 minutes of regulation, China PR appeared to get the winner in the first 15-minutes of sudden-death overtime, but midfielder Kristine Lilly jumped high to head a shot clear of the goal. That save would lead to goalkeeper Briana Scurry and defender Brandi Chastain becoming heroes during the penalty kick tiebreaker. Scurry leaped off her line to save China PR's third shot, allowing Chastain to slam home the game-winning penalty kick goal. With the championship, the U.S. became the first nation to win the Women's World Cup on its home soil.

 U.S. v. Brazil (ESPN) = 3.78 rating (2.9 million HH)
 U.S. v. China PR (ABC) = 11.4 rating (11 million HH, 40 million viewers), 31 share

Notes: ABC's pregame estimate of the USA-China PR final was 16 million viewers. The final total was 40 million viewers, 3 1/2 times larger than the previous high for a women's soccer audience ... The overnight rating for the final was 13.3, 93% larger than the 6.9 overnight for the 1998 men's World Cup final (Brazil-France). It was also 28% higher than the 10.4 for the 1994 men's World Cup final (Brazil-Italy) ... The women's victory over Brazil received a rating of 3.8 and was viewed in 2.9 million households (the largest number of households to watch a soccer telecast at that time on ESPN).

PROGRAMS

U.S. SOCCER INVESTMENT IN WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAMS PROGRAMS

U.S. Soccer has for many years been a world leader in its support of women's soccer, especially in the massive amount of resources and programming dedicated to its Women's National Teams. U.S. Soccer has made an unprecedented commitment to developing world-class players and coaches with long-term success the main goal.

In November of 2024, U.S. Soccer announced a historic gift for its women's and girls' soccer programs from businesswoman, team owner and women's sports advocate Michele Kang. Kang pledged to give U.S. Soccer, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, $30 million over the next five years, which marks the largest philanthropic investment in U.S. Soccer's women's and girls' programs and the most generous donation ever made to U.S. Soccer by a woman.

The historic gift will allow U.S. Soccer to significantly increase the number of training camps it currently runs for each Youth National Team age group. The gift will also help build out U.S. Soccer's digital talent identification platform with the goal of bringing many more players into the Youth National Team pipeline.

In 2015, U.S. Soccer adjusted its Youth National Team structure with a focus on three core areas: 1) assessment, monitoring and identification, 2) training and development, and 3) competition. These areas serve as the foundation on which programming is built for all of U.S. Soccer's National Teams.

When new WNT programming was added in 2015 at the Under-19 and Under-16 levels, it gave U.S. Soccer Women's National Teams at the U-14, U-15, U-16, U-17, U-18, U-19, U-20 and U-23 age groups, which mirrors the structure on the men's side.

At that time, U.S. Soccer had two tracks for players: one for players born in even years and the other for odd years, with the players moving through the age groups while spending two years with each team. In 2022, the structure was changed and the age groups are now conducted on a season-to-season schedule running from Aug. 1-July 31 to parallel the youth club season and mirroring how much of the rest of the world conducts its age groups.

Currently, the U.S. Soccer U-14 ID Program is handled by the Talent ID staff. A new U.S. Under-15 Women's National Team head coach will be hired in 2025. Ciara Crinion, who has been the U-15 WNT head coach since the middle of 2023, will take over as the U.S. U-16 WNT head coach. Katie Schoepfer, who led the USA to a third-place finish at the 2024 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup, will continue with that age group as the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup becomes an annual event.

That means that in the first part of 2025, Crinion will be coaching the players born in 2009 and Schoepfer will coach the 2008 age group, which is the cut-off birth year for the 2025 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup in Morocco. In August of 2025, Crinion will become the U.S. U-17 WNT head coach, but Schoepfer will continue with the 2008 U-17s through the World Cup. After the World Cup, Schoepfer will become the U-16 WNT head coach with the 2010 birth year players as the primary age group. Crinion will then take the 2009s through the 2026 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup cycle and Schoepfer will prep the 2010s for 2027 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup cycle.

In 2025, there will be a new hire for the U.S. U-18 WNT head coach while Vicky Jepson joins as full-time head coach for the U.S. Under-20 Women's National Team. She will lead the USA into the 2026 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Poland next year. Carrie Kveton remains the U.S. U-19 WNT head coach. A U.S. Under-23 WNT head coach will also be hired in 2025 as U.S. Soccer works to maximize programming for this age group that is vitally important to the plans of U.S. head coach Emma Hayes.

Qualifying for the 2025 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup will be held March 31-April 6, 2025, while qualifying for the 2026 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup will be held May 8-18, 2025.

Starting in 2025, the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup will be held annually, with the first five editions (2025-2029) being held in Morocco. That will necessitate Concacaf qualifying and the World Cup to be held in the same calendar year as this team will operate on a yearly cycle. While there will be a main birth year for each U-17 cycle (in 2025 that is 2008s), players from young birth years will likely get the chance to play in multiple U-17 World Cups.

The FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup will still be held every two years, meaning the U-20 WNT cycle will still be two years leading into World Cup qualifying and the World Cup. When the U-20s enter a FIFA World Cup year, this pool is likely the best players from three birth years (U-20s, U-19s and U-18s).

This structure provides a consistent development approach and increased opportunities for more players to participate. U.S. Soccer will continue to positively impact the development of players and coaches by implementing specific requirements based on best practices and environments for them to excel. U.S. Soccer will also provide increased education for coaching and guidance for its elite-level players.

U.S. WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM PLAYER IDENTIFICATION FRAMEWORK GROWS

Beginning in 2011, U.S. Soccer appointed a Technical Director and Development Director for the U.S. Women's National Teams, marking the first time U.S. Soccer had appointed full-time positions to oversee the Women's Youth National Team Program to oversee the Women's Youth National Team Program and overall development. Since that time, the USA's youth development set-up for women and girls has continued to grow and evolve. Now, U.S. Soccer Sporting Director Matt Crocker oversees Head of Talent Identification Tony Lopere, who oversees the Directors of Talent Identification -- Garret Biller (boys) and Nicole Lukic (girls) -- as well as Tracey Kevins, who is the Head of Development (Technical & Leadership) and as Barry Pauwels, who fills that same role for the men's youth teams.

In 2013, U.S. Soccer began adding full-time head coaches for its two Women's Youth National Teams that compete in Concacaf and FIFA tournaments. This marked the first time the head coaches of the U-17 and U-20 age groups were full-time positions. The addition of full-time WNT head coaches continued in 2015 when U.S. Soccer brought in coaches to oversee the remaining levels of the WNT program (U-18 and U-19). In 2024, U.S. Soccer has full-time positions for WNT head coaches at the U-15, U-16, U-17, U-18, U-19 and U-20 levels.

In March of 2024, Nicole Lukic was hired as the Director of Talent ID – Women's National Teams. Lukic will work with the full-time age group coaches and the six full-time Talent ID Managers, one for each region -- Southeast: Diane Drake, Central: Lindsay Basalyga, West: TBD, Northeast: Claire Ward, South: Ileana Moschos. U.S. Soccer will be adding a Talent ID Manager for the Northwest in the summer of 2025. Drake and Cole are Senior Talent ID Managers.

Former Talent ID Manager Marieke Laurens has moved into a position as the Talent ID Education Lead.

These full-time coaches and Talent ID staff will work together to integrate all of the Women's Youth National Teams, helping players and systems connect from one team to the next. They will play major roles in connecting the philosophies and style of play principles of U.S. Soccer through all the Women's National Teams as well as relating those philosophies to the massive amount of girls' youth clubs in the United States.

U-14 TALENT ID PROGRAM

Over the years, the play of the United States Youth National Teams has confirmed its status as the top nation for women's and girls' youth soccer in Concacaf, as well as one of the best in the world. The work done with the U.S. Under-14 Talent ID program, which has been in existence in one form or other since 1999, is a major reason for the increasing quantity and quality of young players vying for spots on the numerous U.S. Women's National Teams.

In 1999, U.S. Soccer started what was then called the U.S. Under-14 National Development Program, knowing that to continue to compete with the elite countries on the international level, the U.S. would have to build a base of players from the youth level up. The U-14 program has evolved in its structure but still serves the purpose of introducing the USA's top young players to a level of soccer they would not otherwise experience at this point in their careers.

The U-14 Talent ID Program is designed to discover and introduce a larger base of top talents at the U-14 age group into the scouting funnel of the older Youth National Teams. The mini-camp format helps to evaluate and inspire high-potential players while accelerating their development in an engaging and challenging environment.

In addition to expanding the YNT player pool at its early stages, the scouting and identification structure gives U-14 players more opportunities to absorb core principles of the YNT philosophy to further their development. Travel is minimized through the regional mini-camp set-up, helping minimize days away from home, school and club. The program also bolsters U.S. Soccer's national network of scouts, advancing their education and development while also building the Federation's connections with clubs across the country.

In winter 2018, a new YNT U-14 Talent Identification Program was launched for top male players across the country. A similar program was implemented for female players in early 2020. Players are identified and monitored for the U.S. Youth National Teams through scores of YNT ID Centers that are staged across the country throughout the year and through the many youth soccer development programs across the USA.

The structure consists of three U-14 Talent ID Regional Mini Camps in West (February 2025), Central (March 2025) and East (April 2025) and will total 240 players. This will lead to a U-14 Talent ID National Camp in June with 60 players and the next step is progressing to the U-15 GNT.

The U-14 women's program has helped to produce numerous players who have made an impact on the older levels of the Women's National Team. Women's World Cup champions Heather O'Reilly and Lindsay Tarpley, both 2002 U-19 Women's World Cup champions and Olympic gold medalists, attended U-14 National Team camps at the beginning of their careers. Other well-known names in the WNT program that began their careers as U-14s include Lori Chalupny, Leslie Osborne and Tobin Heath, as well as 2012 U-20 Women's World Cup champions Julie Johnston, Crystal Dunn, Cari Roccaro, Abby Smith, Maya Hayes, Sarah Killion, Bryane Heaberlin, Morgan Brian, Mollie Pathman, Samantha Mewis and Vanessa DiBernardo. In addition, 2016 Olympian, 2019 Women's World Cup champion and two-time U-20 Women's World Cup Team member Mallory Pugh also started her WNT career at the U-14 level, as did 2015 and 2019 World Cup champion Ashlyn Harris. Three of the top young players in the NWSL, midfielders Jaedyn Shaw and Olivia Moultrie and forward Alyssa Thompson, were also a part of U-14 programming as were 2024 Olympic gold medalists Naomi Girma, Lindsey Heaps, Trinity Rodman and Sophia Wilson.

U.S. SOCCER YOUTH NATIONAL TEAM ID CENTERS

Talent Identification Centers are no-cost identification opportunities for U.S. Soccer Talent Identification Managers to evaluate and monitor top youth soccer talents. U.S. Soccer, in conjunction with local clubs, endeavors to host approximately 50 Talent ID Centers for girls each year in about 25 locations throughout the country. Talent Identification Managers assess the top players from different clubs and markets in different combinations, cross-referencing talent across the nation. Talent ID Centers are conducted with a particular focus to ensure Talent ID staff sees the widest variety of players in different contexts.

Purpose

- U.S. Soccer Talent Identification Centers are free, single-day identification opportunities for players with the most potential come together to compete in a best-on-best environment under the direction of U.S. Soccer Talent Identification Managers
- U.S. Soccer Talent Identification Managers run Talent Identification Centers nationwide to identify, monitor and compare the top youth soccer talents for potential Youth National Team recognition

Player Pool

- Gender: Boys and Girls
- Ages: 13-16-years-old
- Each U.S. Soccer YNT Identification Center will feature a specific gender and age group
- Elite players from any team, club or organization are eligible to attend at no cost to the player upon invitation

Player Selection

- Players are invited to YNT Identification Centers through three main pathways:
 - Coach or Club Director recommendation
 - Scouting by U.S. Soccer at game or event (live, video & data scouting)
 - Talent Identification Manager monitoring and selection
- Players can be recommended by their clubs via email at scouting@ussoccer.org or online recommendation

Facilities

- Local youth clubs, professional clubs, leagues or state associations provide the facility
- Talent Identification Centers are held at both indoor and outdoor venues depending on the season and region

Training

- U.S. Soccer Talent ID staff run the events with the assistance of host site staff, which may include: Talent ID Managers, U.S. Soccer YNT Network Scouts, and Youth National Team coaches
- Athletic trainers are present at every YNT ID Center

U.S. SOCCER TALENT ID MANAGERS

U.S. Soccer Talent ID Managers work closely with clubs in their respective geographic areas, building a close connection with U.S. Soccer and the National Teams. Talent ID Managers are at the forefront of player identification programs, including U.S. Soccer Youth National Team ID Centers, which are held nationwide throughout the year.

The group has decades of experience at the youth, professional and international level and holds a major responsibility in assisting with the continued growth of youth soccer in the United States through both coaching and scouting.

Christina MURILLO

TALENT ID MANAGER

Region: Northwest

Christina Murillo is a former international player and Chicago Fire youth assistant director with extensive experience in player development, scouting, and community outreach. Before joining U.S. Soccer full-time in 2024, she supported YNT scouting as a Network Talent Scout and helped lead Chicago Fire Youth Soccer Club's Development Phase (U11U-U14). She has served as a Regional ODP Coach and a Sport Envoy in Colombia and Montenegro on behalf of the U.S. State Department. Murillo represented Mexico at the FIFA U-17 and U-20 Women's World Cups at the 2025 FIFA Women's World Cup. She played in the UEFA Women's Champions League in 2017. A Southern California native, she captained the University of Michigan women's soccer team and holds a degree in Spanish and Psychology.

Krystle SEIDEL

Region: Southwest

Krystle Seidel joined U.S. Soccer in April of 2025 as the Talent ID Manager for the Southwest Region. She came to U.S. Soccer after serving as an assistant coach at Wright State University for two years and after serving as a scout for U.S. Soccer for the past four years. She also has vast experience in the college game as the head coach at Macalester College in Minnesota for four years and as a graduate at University of Missouri for two seasons. She was also the assistant coach at the University of Minnesota from 2009-2013 and the associate head coach for the Gophers from 2014-2017. She has 16 years of experience coaching in elite girls' club soccer and played her college soccer at Minnesota and the University of West Virginia.

Lindsay BASALYGA

TALENT ID MANAGER

Region: Central

The former Director of Coaching at Kings Hammer Academy North in Cincinnati, Ohio, Lindsay Basalyga joined U.S. Soccer as a Talent ID Manager in 2022 in charge of the North region. Before coming to U.S. Soccer, Basalyga had spent the last six years in the youth soccer landscape, serving as a coach and director of coaching at various clubs in Cincinnati while also serving as a Grassroots Coaching Educator. From 2013-2016, she was the head women's soccer coach at Bowling Green State University after serving eight seasons as head coach at Eastern Kentucky University. Prior to starting the EKU program, she spent just over three years as an assistant at the University of Toledo. A native of Cincinnati, Basalyga played collegiately at the University of Maryland, helping the Terrapins advance to the NCAA College Cup in each of her four seasons. During her senior campaign, she set the school records for most goals (four) and points (nine) in an NCAA Tournament.

Illeana MOSCHOS

TALENT ID MANAGER

Region: South

Moschos comes to U.S. Soccer having spent 25 years coaching in Division 1 college soccer programs at Florida State, Pittsburgh, Ball State, Creighton, Iowa State, North Texas and Wyoming. She received her USSF "A" license in 2014, earned her scouting license in 2019 and owns a NSCAA Premier Diploma. She has also been a U.S. Soccer coaching educator since 2021 and worked as the goalkeeper coach for the Tallahassee Battle Lions Men's NPSL team. She played eight years as a professional goalkeeper and was league MVP of the California Storm (WPSL) in 2002. She was a member of the Greece National Team at the 2004 Athens Olympics and played for Greece from 2001-2004. She has a vast amount of youth club coaching experience, working for 23 years with various clubs and ODP programs in Northern California, North Texas, Iowa, Nebraska, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Florida.

Claire WARD

TALENT ID MANAGER

Region: Northeast

Ward is a former Scotland youth international, representing the country of her birth at the U-16, U-17, U-18 and U-19 levels. She is the former head coach, technical director and director of coaching for Fort Wayne United FC where she had worked since 2006. She was voted the Indiana Coach of the year in 2022. She was graduate assistant and then assistant coach at Murray State from 2008-2013 and helped the Racers to the program's first regular season Ohio Valley Conference and tournament titles. She played college soccer at Middle Tennessee State University from 2003-2005 where she was All-Conference all three years and helped the Raiders win the school's first conference title. She was named the Newcomer of the Year in 2003. She played for Ary United in Scotland, helping the club win every major trophy and participated in the UEFA Women's Champion League. She holds a USSF "A" license and has completed the U.S. Soccer Talent Scout and Director of Coaching Course Course

Diane DRAKE

SENIOR TALENT ID MANAGER

Region: Southeast

Drake has logged more than 20 years as a college coach in the Atlantic region and holds U.S. Soccer "A" and Talent Scout licenses as well as a NSCAA Premiere Diploma. After a five-year tenure at Georgetown University where she left as the winningest coach in team history, Drake spent 11 years leading the women's soccer program at George Mason University. She was an integral part of the technical staff of the McLean Youth Soccer Association. As the founder of Drake Soccer Camps, she created programs that integrate topics including: nutrition, injury prevention and regeneration, leadership and cognitive soccer areas. She has served on the NSCAA board of directors, chaired the NSCAA Mid Atlantic Rankings Committee and been on the NCAA RAC as well as the event management team for the NCAA College Cup. Drake had an extensive playing career, winning NCAA Woman of the Year as captain with the University of Dayton, as well as MVP of the former Midwestern Collegiate Conference. She was an NSCAA Regional All-American in 1993. Later she would play for the Raleigh Wings in the USISL and win a national championship in 1998.

Marieke LAURENS

TALENT ID EDUCATION LEAD

Laurens holds a UEFA "A" license as well as U.S. Soccer "A" and Talent Scout license and has more than 18 years of professional experience at the club, high school, university and international levels. A native of the Netherlands, she worked closely with the Dutch Women's National Teams and was an assistant coach for the KNVB U-15 Girls' National Team. Additionally, she coached U-14 through U-19 National Team players at the Centre for Elite Sports and Education in Amsterdam. She served as a KNVB Academy Coach Educator, teaching the licenses for candidates who coach players from the U-5 to the U-19 age groups. In addition, Laurens contributed to the growth and success at Dutch Total Soccer through player identification, player development and coach education. She has also been the head coach of ODP Region I teams and a member of the Super-Y League National Scouting Staff and is a Talent Scout course educator.

Tracey KEVINS

HEAD OF DEVELOPMENT, WNT (Technical & Leadership)

BORN: Sept. 23, 1974, in London, England

HOMETOWN: London, England

Tracey Kevin was named the U.S. Soccer Head of Development for the Women's National Teams (Technical and Leadership) in 2024 while she was finishing her final cycle as head coach of the U.S. Under-20 Women's National Team. In her new administrative role, Kevin will work closely with U.S. Soccer Sporting Director Matt Crocker, MNT Head of Development Barry Pauwel, Head of Talent Identification Tony Lepore, Director of Talent Identification Nicole Lukic, and all of the U.S. Soccer's YNT coaches and Talent ID Managers.

Tracey Kevin took over as head coach of the U.S. U-20s on Oct. 18, 2021, after serving as the U.S. Under-17 Women's National Team head coach for one cycle during which both the Concacaf qualifying tournament and the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup were cancelled due to the global pandemic.

The first programming for Kevin as U-20 WNT head coach came at the 2022 Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship in the Dominican Republic, where she helped lead the USA to a berth at the 2022 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup and to the regional title. The USA went 7-0-0 in the DR while scoring 49 goals and allowing zero. She then led the USA to World Cup in Costa Rica with many of the players she had coached with the U-17s, but the young Americans did not advance out of group play. Overall, the U-20s had a 12-2-1 record in 2022 and went unbeaten during the year until the second game of the World Cup. Two players from Kevin's World Cup team, forwards Alyssa Thompson and Michelle Cooper, went #1 and #2 respectively in the 2023 NWSL Draft. Twelve players from that team are now playing professional soccer.

In May of 2023, Kevin led the U.S. U-20 WNT to another World Cup berth at the 2023 Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship, at which the USA finished second in the Dominican Republic. Five players from that team are now professionals, including the top two picks in the 2024 NWSL Draft, Ally Sentnor and Savy King.

Heading into the 2024 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup, Kevin lead the team to a 5W-1L-2D record which included wins over Colombia, Canada, Korea Republic and Mexico along with ties against Germany and Mexico.

At the World Cup, with a team that featured eight professional players, the most-ever for a U.S. team in a FIFA U-20 WWC, Kevin led her team to an inspirational third place finish. It was the USA's best finish since the 2012 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup and the Americans took bronze with a dramatic game-winning goal in the 119th minute of overtime against the Netherlands.

Remarkably, all three of the USA's knockout games went to overtime and the Americans won all three, meaning they played an entire extra match (90 minutes) to win the tournament. The World Cup opened with a 1-0 loss to reigning World Champions Spain, but the U.S. rebounded to defeat Morocco (2-0), Paraguay (7-0), Mexico (3-2 in overtime), Germany (2-2 plus OT before winning in PKs) and the Netherlands (2-1 in overtime).

The match against Germany, forever known as "The Mircle of Cali," was particularly notable as the USA was behind 2-0 heading into the final minutes of second half stoppage time, then scored in the 97th and 98th minutes to tie, navigated 30 minutes of overtime, and won in penalty kicks. The USA's only setback in Colombia was a 1-0 loss in the semifinal to eventual champion Korea DPR. The U-20s finished the year with a 9-3-3 record. Kevin joined U.S. Soccer full-time in June of 2017 as the head coach for the U.S. Under-15 Women's National Team and transitioned to the head coach of the U-17

WNT in 2019 with the task of qualifying the team for the 2020 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup.

The U-17s played just two matches in 2020 before the COVID-19 pandemic hit, forcing the cancellation of the World Cup qualifying tournament, all of team's programming and eventually the World Cup tournament itself.

Keivins came to U.S. Soccer from the Seattle Reign in the NWSL where she served as an assistant coach for a season-and-a-half before joining U.S. Soccer. With the Reign, in addition to her coaching and scouting duties for the NWSL squad, she was also the Technical Director for the Seattle Reign Academy where she was responsible for overseeing five head coaches and their teams.

Keivins will work closely with U.S. Under-19 and Under-18 Women's National Team head coaches to maximize the development, evaluation and movement of players between the age groups for training camps and matches during the World Cup cycle.

Since 2013, Keivins has been coaching at U.S. Soccer Training Centers, first in the Los Angeles area and then in the Northwest, helping to identify and assess players for potential call-ups to the USA's Youth National Teams.

From October of 2013 through December of 2014, Keivins was coach for the L.A. Blues in the USL W-League, guiding the club to a 15-0-0 record and a national championship. Eight players on the team were taken in the 2015 NWSL Draft. Before that, she coached the LA Strikers in the W-League. She was also a coach and mentor for LA Premier Soccer Club from 2013-2016.

From 2004-2013, Keivins worked for the England Football Association as an assistant coach for various age group National Teams, working with the U-15, U-17, U-19 and U-20 squads. On occasion, she served as head coach for the U-17 and U-19 England Women's National Teams during tournaments and training camps.

She was an assistant coach for the England team that finished second at the 2007 U-19 Women's Euros and with the team that finished in the top four in 2008. She was also an assistant coach at the 2008 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Chile.

During her coaching career in England, she also served as the head coach for the first team at Barnet FC Ladies from 2004-2013 and helped the club win the FA Women's Premier League Cup in 2011. She was also the Barnet FC Academy Head Coach for 16 to 19-year-olds from 2008-2013.

From 2008-2013, she was also the technical director for the Middlesex FA Girls' Centre of Excellence, where she worked with talented young players from ages 7-17 at one of the 30 licensed Centres of Excellence in England. From 2003-2008, she worked in a similar role at the Leyton Orient FC Girls' Centre of Excellence as the U-16 head coach.

On the boys' side, she worked as an assistant coach with the Wealdstone FC U-19s from 2004-2005 and 2008-2009.

As a player, she captained Barnet FC from 1989-2003 before retiring and immediately started managing the reserve team.

Keivins attended St. Mary's University in Twickenham where she earned a B.A. with honors in Sports Science and Physical Education.

She holds a USSF "A" license, a UEFA "A" license and in 2021, completed the U.S. Soccer Pro License course, becoming one of just four women to do so at that time.

Nicole LUKIC

Dir. of Talent Identification - Women's National Teams

BORN: March 10, 1989, in Milwaukee, Wis.

HOMETOWN: Milwaukee, Wis.

In March of 2024 Nicole Lukic was hired as the Director of Talent Identification – Women's National Teams. Lukic joined U.S. Soccer from Minnesota Aurora FC, where she was sporting director and head coach, leading the club to undefeated campaigns in its first two seasons in the USL W League. She brought with her nearly a decade of experience as a technical leader in the youth club game.

Lukic's role plays an important part in U.S. Soccer's ambition to expand and improve the player pools for the Women's Youth National Teams across all age groups. She is responsible for the development and oversight of a comprehensive Talent ID plan to identify and monitor players across the country and around the world for Youth National Team selection.

She reports to long time Director of Talent ID Tony Lepore who was promoted to Head of Talent ID and will now oversee both genders as part of an integrated Talent ID department structure and pathway from the Youth National Teams to the senior Women's and Men's National Teams.

Lukic turned Minnesota Aurora into one of the most successful teams in the USL W League after the club launched in 2022. Named USL W Coach of the Year in 2022, she guided Minnesota to an 11-0-1 regular season record in its first season before falling in the league's championship match. Aurora went undefeated again in the 2023 regular season before falling in the Central Conference Final. During her time with the club, 14 players went on to sign full professional contracts.

While winning on the field Lukic also built an exceptional culture with the Aurora, constructing an all-female staff for the community-owned club and being named a "40 Under 40" honoree by the Minneapolis-St. Paul Business Journal for her work to make positive change in the cities' sports landscape. She holds a U.S. Soccer "A" License and Talent Scout License and has worked as a YNT Network Scout for several years before coming to U.S. Soccer.

In addition to her work with Aurora, Lukic brought nine years of experience as a technical leader in the youth club game with Rush Soccer, one of the world's largest youth clubs. While working in Minnesota, she served as Director of Operations for Twin Cities Rush Soccer Club, one of the state's biggest youth clubs for boys and girls, overseeing technical development for both individual players and the club's overall curriculum, club culture and administration.

She spent five years at Rush Select, the pinnacle of Rush's youth development pathway, leading the player selection process for the more than 80 Rush clubs across the country while creating and overseeing Talent ID initiatives and scouting processes for boys and girls. She launched her youth coaching career as technical director at Rush Wisconsin West, developing programming for all levels of the club and guiding development for players and staff.

Lukic spent six seasons as an assistant coach for the UW-La Crosse women's soccer team, working with all aspects of the Eagles' program.

A four-year soccer varsity letter winner at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Lukic was on four Horizon League Conference championship teams (2007, 2008, 2009, 2010). The Panthers also won three tournament titles (2008, 2009, 2010) and earned bids to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Tournament. Lukic earned her bachelor's degree in communication and political science from UW-Milwaukee in 2011 and her master's degree in athletic administration from Ohio University in 2014.

Vicky JEPSON

HEAD COACH: U.S. Under-20 Women's National Team

BORN: February 23, 1987, in Macclesfield, England

HOMETOWN: London, England

Vicky Jepson named as full-time head coach of the U.S. Under-20 Women's National Team on May 2, 2025. Jepson comes to U.S. Soccer from Tottenham Hotspur in England's Women's Super League, where she served as first team senior assistant head coach since 2021.

In March of 2023, she served as the interim head coach for the remainder of the 2022/23 campaign, leading the squad to secure its position to remain in the Women's Super League, and after that served as the top assistant through the 2023/24 and 2024/25 seasons.

During Jepson's time in North London, Spurs reached their first-ever FA Cup Final and Jepson earned her UEFA Pro License in June of 2024, becoming one of 17 female coaches to have completed the course with the England Football Association. In addition to her Pro License, Jepson holds UEFA "A" License and has worked across the full spectrum of the elite talent pathway, from U-11s to the senior professional level.

Before joining Spurs, Jepson served as manager at Liverpool Women, having earlier held the role of assistant manager, where she was named FA Female Development Coach of the Year. She spent more than 10 years at Liverpool in various youth development roles and then with the First Team.

Jepson has experience working on the international level as well. She worked for the England FA as a scout, coach educator and head coach for the England U-17 Women's National Team, coaching the team through qualifiers and at the UEFA Women's U-17 Euros.

Jepson takes over from Tracey Kevins, who coached the U.S. U-20s in the last two FIFA U-20 Women's World Cups, the latter of which saw the USA finish third, its best placing since winning the 2012 FIFA U-20 WWC.

Carrie KVETON

HEAD COACH: U.S. Under-19 Women's National Team

BORN: June 29, 1980, in Conyers, Ga.

HOMETOWN: Highland Village, Texas

Carrie Kveton was named head coach of the U.S. Under-19 Women's National Team on May 9, 2023. In her role as part of an integrated WNT coaching staff, Kveton works across age groups with a focus on the U-19s. She works closely with U-20 WNT head coach to maximize the development, evaluation and movement of players between age groups for training camps and matches.

In her first year with the Federation, Kveton led the USA to a bronze medal at the 2023 Pan American Game in Chile, losing only to the hosts, as U.S. Soccer fielded a women's soccer team at the event for the first time since 2007. The U.S. team, comprised of 2005 and 2006-birth year players yet to enter college, faced teams consisting of mostly senior National Team players.

Kveton served as assistant coach for the senior U.S. Women's National Team during the period in which Twila Kilgore was interim USWNT head coach, running from September of 2023 through April of 2024 and helped the USA win the 2024 CONCACAF W Gold Cup and 2024 She Believes Cup. She was also a scout for the USA during the 2024 Olympics in France.

Kveton holds a UEFA Pro Coaching License and before joining U.S. Soccer, coached at the highest levels in Denmark and the United States. In Denmark, she served as Head of Individual Player Development and U-18 women's head coach at FC Nordsjælland during the 2022-23 campaign after seven years at Fortuna Hjørring, including five-and-a-half seasons as head coach/co-head coach. During her tenure at Hjørring, Kveton led the team to several league and cup championships as well as the knockout rounds of the UEFA Women's Champions League each season in charge.

In the USA, Kveton served as an assistant for the Washington Spirit during its National Women's Soccer League championship run in 2021. She was also an assistant for OL Reign during the 2020 NWSL campaign.

Before joining U.S. Soccer full-time, she served as head coach of the U-23 WNT for its February 2023 friendlies against France at Clairefontaine and led the April 2023 U-19 WNT training camp in North Carolina. She has also served as an assistant with the U-18 and U-19 WNTs and has scouted European competition for the senior USWNT. She was a scout for the USWNT at the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup.

Katie SCHOEPFER

HEAD COACH: U.S. Under-17 Women's National Team

BORN: Nov. 10, 1988, in New London, Conn.

HOMETOWN: Waterford, Conn.

Katie Schoepfer was named head coach of the U.S. Under-15 Women's National Team on Nov. 18, 2021, after previously serving as technical director at South Shore Select in Hingham, Mass. and working as an assistant coach with the U.S. U-20, U-17 and U-16 Women's National Teams.

She spent one and half years coaching the U.S. U-15s, coached the U-15 O8s for three months in 2023 and then in May of 2023 was named as the new head coach of the U.S. U-17 Women's National Team.

She led the team to the championship of the 2024 Concacaf Women's U-17 Championship in Mexico, earning a berth to the 2024 FIFA Under-17 Women's World Cup in the Dominican Republic, which was her first World Cup as a head coach. In Mexico, the team won all five games and outscored its opponents 32-2 while defeating the hosts, 4-0, in the championship game.

At the World Cup, Schoepfer led the USA to its best finish since the inaugural FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup in 2008 (when the Americans finished second), taking bronze after downing England, 3-0, in the Third-Place Match. After falling to reigning champions Spain, 3-1, in the opening game, the USA allowed just one more goal the rest of the way and advanced to the medal round for the first time since that 2008 tournament. Numerous players she coached with the U-15s made the 2024 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup Team.

Schoepfer will coach the U.S. U-17 WNT in 2025 as the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup becomes an annual event that will take place in Morocco for the first five editions.

In 2022, she coached the U.S. U-15 WNT to an entertaining and victorious run at the Concacaf Women's U-15 Championship in Tampa, Fla. The USA won all five games while outscoring the competition, 34-1. The young Americans defeated the Dominican Republic 6-0 in the semifinal and then downed Canada, 4-1, in the title game to claim U.S. Soccer's third Concacaf title at this level.

Following seven years as a professional player in the United States, Schoepfer spent seven years coaching at various youth clubs in Massachusetts. Prior to South Shore Select, she spent time as assistant director of coaching at Valeo FC in Newton, Mass. and worked as a head coach in the Boston Breakers Academy during her playing career.

Schoepfer holds a U.S. Soccer "A" Coaching License and finished her U.S. Soccer Pro License at the end of 2024. At 36, she became the youngest woman born in the USA to earn a USSF Pro License and just the second woman born in the USA woman to receive it.

She also serves as a coach educator for the Talent Scout License after completing the pilot course in spring 2019. She also spent six years as an assistant in the college game with Boston University and College of the Holy Cross. She helped guide the Terriers to Patriot League championships in 2014 and 2015, plus a second-place conference finish in 2016.

As a player, Schoepfer was in the U.S. Women's National Team player pools from the U-17 to U-23 and started all four years in college for Penn State University, twice earning All-American honors while scoring 48 career goals. In her professional career, the forward made 100 appearances with the Boston Breakers in two leagues -- Women's Professional Soccer and the National Women's Soccer League. She played the NWSL's first four seasons and her 100 games for the Breakers are the third-most in club history. The Connecticut native was inducted into the Connecticut Soccer Hall of Fame in 2019.

Ciara CRINION

HEAD COACH: U.S. Under-16 Women's National Team

BORN: Sept. 19, 1985, in Dublin, Ireland

HOMETOWN: Dublin, Ireland

Ciara Crinion was named head coach of the U.S. Under-15 Women's National Team on May 4, 2023 and transitioned to head coach of the U.S. U-16 WNT in 2025. In her role as part of an integrated WNT coaching staff, Crinion works across age groups with a focus on the U-15s. She works closely with and U-17 WNT head coach Katie Schoepfer to maximize the development, evaluation and movement of players between age groups for training camps and matches.

Crinion coached her first international matches in June 2023, leading the U-15s to victories against Netherlands and Germany. She guided the U-15 WNT to the championship at the 2024 Concacaf Girls' U-15 Championship, where the U.S. won its fourth-straight title at this age level. At this Concacaf championship which was held in Costa Rica, the USA outscored its opponents 31-1 and defeated Mexico, 3-0, in the title game. It was the USA's first Concacaf U-15 championship won outside the USA.

Crinion served an assistant coach for the senior U.S. Women's National Team during the period in which Twila Kilgore was interim USWNT head coach, running from September of 2023 through April of 2024 and helped the USA win the 2024 CONCACAF W Gold Cup and 2024 She Believes Cup.

Crinion joined U.S. Soccer after more than 10 years coaching in the NCAA and holds a U.S. Soccer "A" Coaching License as well as a Talent Scout License. She was head coach at Seton Hall from 2019-22 and launched her college coaching career with eight years as an assistant at Hartford, helping lead the Hawks to five regular season conference championships.

Since 2017, Crinion has scouted and run Talent ID Centers for U.S. Soccer. She has also worked as an assistant coach with the U-20 WNT. At the end of 2023 and the first quarter of 2024, she served as an assistant coach for the full U.S. Women's National Team during the transition period before Emma Hayes officially came on as head coach.

As a player, she was a part of the Ireland U-17 and U-19 Women's National Teams and spent four years playing at Central Connecticut State, twice earning all-conference honors.

Vanessa MANN

HEAD COACH: U.S. Under-15 Women's National Team

BORN: January 8, 1988, in Penrith, Australia

HOMETOWN: Shellharbour, Australia

Vanessa Mann was named the new head coach for the U.S. Under-15 Women's National Team on April 21, 2025. Mann took over from Ciara Crinion, who transitioned to the head coach of the U.S. Under-16 Women's National Team.

As part of an integrated Women's National Team coaching staff headed by Tracey Kevins and guided by U.S. Women's National Team head coach Emma Hayes, Mann will work across other age groups with a focus on her U-15 player pool.

Mann comes to U.S. Soccer after serving as Director of Coaching for the Reno Apex Youth Soccer Club in Nevada, but she has extensive experience with U.S. Soccer as an assistant coach at the U-15 WNT level since the fall of 2023 and as a U-17 WNT assistant this year. She has also served as a scout for the USA's YNTs since 2018.

She is a U.S. Soccer Coaching Educator for the "A" Senior Course, the Talent Scout course and Grassroots courses. Mann has pursued her coaching education with a fervor. She holds a USSF "A" License, and a Talent Scout License. She also holds a United Soccer Coaches Director of Coaching Diploma, a United Soccer Coaches National Diploma and USC Goalkeeper Level 1 & 2 Diplomas.

She has nine years of NCAA Division I coaching experience and also has National Women's Soccer League coaching experience, serving as an assistant for the Utah Royals in 2024.

She played college soccer from 2007-2011 at the University of Nevada, Reno and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Health Ecology.

AND THE CHILDREN SHALL LEAD: Midfielder Jaiden Rodriguez is one of the top players in the USA's Youth National Team player pools and a veteran of the 2024 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup.

U.S. UNDER-23 WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM

STEPPING STONE TO THE FULL TEAM

The USA's oldest Women's National Team moved from Under-21 to Under-23 in 2008. The change was in response to FIFA moving its oldest youth world championship for women from Under-19s to Under-20s, as well as a change in the Nordic Cup competition which became a U-23 event. The eight-team Nordic Cup, which was a staple of summer programming for this age group for years, ended its 19-year run in 2009. Without the competition, which had been organized annually by different Scandinavian countries, the U.S. U-23s have pursued other international competition, mostly in Spain and Scandinavia, and in recent years have attended a four-team Nordic Tournament. In addition, the U.S. U-23 WNT has often attended an NWSL pre-season tournament where it experienced quality games against professional competition.

While the U.S. U-23 WNT had limited programming in 2023 and none in 2024, that will soon change under the guidance USWNT head coach Emma Hayes, who will launch a more robust schedule for the U-23s in 2025 to better bridge the gap between college and pro players in their late teens or early 20s and the full National Team. Hayes sees this age period as lacking meaningful and important programming in the past, programming that is needed to help players along their development pathway, but no longer. At times, U-23 training camps may be held during FIFA match windows in the same city in which the USWNT is competing. The rejuvenation the U-23s started in January of 2025 with the "Futures" training camp in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida featuring 24 up-and-coming USWNT prospects all age-eligible for the U-23s. That event was held side-by-side with the USWNT training camp.

The role of the U-23s in the overall development of USWNT players underwent some changes in 2009 with the start of Women's Professional Soccer (WPS) and again was positively impacted by the National Women's Soccer League (NWSL). Many players who years ago would have been kept active and in the mix for the full National Team by competing with the U-23s are now playing in the domestic league or abroad, thus necessitating a re-think on how best to serve this age group of players with international competition.

A U.S. team has been active at this age group since 1989 (in its previous incarnation it was run as a U-20 program until 1998 and then morphed into a U-21 program until 2007) and has been effective in helping prepare players for the step up to the Women's National Team. Women's National Team pool players have competed for the U-23s. The U-21s used to feature "overage" players in training camps and for the Nordic Cup tournament, but now all players who are age-eligible for the U-23s in 2025 must have been born on or after Jan. 1, 2002.

U.S. UNDER-20 WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM

U.S. U-20S LOOK TOWARDS 2024 FIFA U-20 WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

Now in its 12th cycle, the FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup has proven to be an invaluable development opportunity and legitimate proving ground for future stars. The USA's participation in the first 10 events – of which the Americans won three and finished in the top four three other times – gave an early glimpse of the program's up-and-coming young players, many of whom have gone on to make major impacts at the full international level. The first two tournaments were held as Under-19 events before FIFA moved it to a U-20 competition in 2006.

Originally created in 1998 as an Under-18 program, the team moved up an age level to the U-19 level in 2001 in preparation for the first FIFA-sanctioned world championship for youth women, before becoming a U-20 program in 2005 for the first FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup that was held in 2006.

In the history of this tournament, the USA has lost just two knockout games in regulation time, bowing out in penalty kicks in three World Cups and falling in overtime to eventual champion Korea DPR in the semifinal in 2016. The USA won the tournament in 2002, 2008 and 2012, and lost in penalty kicks in the semifinal in 2006, the quarterfinal in 2010 and the quarterfinal in 2014. The USA also lost in regulation to Germany in the semifinal in 2006. The 2018 tournament marked the first time the USA had failed to get out of the group, albeit a difficult one with eventual championship game participants Japan and Spain. The USA failed to get out of the first round in 2022 as well from a group that had eventual semifinalists Netherlands and Japan.

It is planned that the U.S. U-20 WNT will have the benefit of a preparation schedule that features numerous domestic training camps and some highly competitive matches abroad. The player pool features several players who are still age-eligible from the last cycle of U-20s plus some exceptional talent coming up through the ranks from the U.S. U-17, U-18 and U-19 Women's Youth National Teams.

Players eligible for the 2024 U-20 Women's World Cup to be played in Colombia, must be born on or after Jan. 1, 2004.

THE HISTORY OF THE U-20 WNT

In 2023, the U.S. Under-20 Women's National Team qualified for its 11th consecutive FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup, which will be held in Colombia from August 31 to September 22. The USA earned one of three berths from this region at the 2023 Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship where it finished second, falling 2-1 to Mexico in the championship game. Onyeka Gamero scored the USA's lone goal in that match. Forwards Ally Sentnor, who would be the top pick in the 2024 NWSL Draft, and Maddie Dahlien, lead the USA in scoring during the tournament with four goals each.

In 2022, the USA rolled through the Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship to earn a berth to the 2022 FIFA Women's World Cup, winning all seven games by out-scoring its opponents 49-0. Michelle Cooper led the USA with eight goals in the qualifying tournament while Andrea Kitahata had seven. Avery Patterson scored six times, as did Simone Jackson, while Talia DellaPeruta found the net five times.

At the World Cup in Costa Rica, the USA's 10th consecutive FIFA tournament at this age level, the young Americans were drawn into a difficult group with Ghana, Netherlands and Japan. The USA started off well with a 3-0 win over Ghana, but then lost to the Netherlands (3-0) and Japan (3-1), both of which made it to the semifinals, and exited the tournament early. Cooper, Alyssa Thompson, Ally Sentnor and Jackson scored the USA's four goals in the World Cup.

Due to the global pandemic, programming for this age group did not begin again until the end of 2021, when training camps in San Diego were conducted in October and November.

The 2020 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup was first delayed and then finally cancelled in November of 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, but FIFA awarded the 2022 tournament to Costa Rica, which would have hosted the 2020 event. The USA had already qualified for the 2020 World Cup by winning the Concacaf U-20 Women's Championship earlier in the year, sweeping all seven games while out-scoring the opposition, 44-1.

The USA beat host Dominican Republic in the semifinal, 6-0, to earn a World Cup berth and then downed Mexico, 4-1, in the title game. Forward Mia Fishel set a U.S. record for most goals in a Concacaf qualifying tournament by smashing home 13 in just six games.

In 2020, Laura Harvey, one of the most successful coaches in the history of the NWSL, became head coach of the U-20 WYNT and guided the team through World Cup qualifying, winning the tournament in dominant fashion while out-scoring its opponents, 44-1 over seven games in a new tournament format. Unfortunately, the World Cup was cancelled due to the global pandemic.

In 2019, Mark Carr moved up in age groups from his job as head coach of the U-17 WNT and coached the U-20s for a year before moving on to a college coaching position. The USA played an excellent, albeit difficult schedule during the first year of the cycle and went 5-7-1, but the preparation set an important foundation for 2020 as the players faced several of the top youth programs in the world while picking up wins over China PR, Sweden, Germany, Japan and France. Sixty-seven players saw action in matches, and 16 different players scored goals, as the coaches looked to narrow down the pool for the run to the 2020 World Cup.

In 2018, Jitka Klimkova took the USA through a difficult but successful preparation schedule for the World Cup that included a penalty kick loss in the title game of the Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship (after the USA had qualified by winning a semifinal shootout), as well as victories over the U-20 sides from France, England, Germany and Brazil. At the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in France, the USA fell to eventual champions Japan, 1-0, to start group play on the back foot, but then rallied for a 6-0 victory against Paraguay. The USA needed a victory against Spain in its final group game to advance, but ended up drawing, 2-2. The USA played 18 quality international matches during the year and posted an overall record of 12-2-4. The 2017 U.S. Soccer Young Female Player of the year, forward Sophia Smith, put in a stellar performance. She scored 15 international goals to up her career total to 23, the fourth-best in U.S. U-20 WNT history. Twenty-seven players saw action in international matches during the year.

In 2017, Klimkova's first year at the helm, the U-20s played 12 matches against top teams and hosted the Women's Nike International Friendlies for the first time in conjunction with the Girls' Development Academy Winter Showcase. The preparation year for qualifying for the 2018 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup was highly productive as the USA compiled a 6-4-2 record which included wins against Norway, France, England, Germany and Finland. Thirty-eight players saw action in international matches and Civana Kuhlmann and Sophia Smith led the team with eight goals each while Smith was named U.S. Soccer Young Female Player of the Year.

In 2016, the U-20s had a slew of competitive games in the run-up to the World Cup, defeating the U-23 teams from Sweden and Norway along the way. At the World Cup in Papua New Guinea, the U.S. topped the group by the slimmest of margins and reach the tournament semifinals with a win over regional rival Mexico. There, the USA fell in a hard-fought loss to eventual champion Korea DPR before finishing fourth overall. The team finished the year 8-5-4 overall record and 7-5-4 in international matches. Mallory Pugh led the USA in scoring with six international goals.

In 2015, the U-20s had an excellent year of preparation and growth, going 14-2-2 overall and 10-1-1 in international matches. The USA defeated age group teams from Norway, Netherlands, Sweden, Mexico and Brazil, as well as two Spanish women's clubs, before winning the 2015 Concacaf U-20 Women's Championship in San Pedro Sula, Honduras. The USA topped its group despite a 1-1 tie with Mexico in the opening game and then defeated the hosts in the semifinal to earn its berth to the Women's World Cup in Papua New Guinea. The USA defeated Canada, 1-0, in the title game to take the Concacaf championship.

In 2014, the U-20s had an exciting year while compiling an 11-1-1 international record (12-4-1 overall) that included a title at the Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship in the Cayman Islands. The USA met eventual champion Germany in its opening game of the 2014 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup and fell 2-0, but followed that with wins against Brazil and China to advance out of the group. The USA would fall in the quarterfinal in penalty kicks after a hard-fought match with Korea DPR.

In 2013, Michelle French took over the U-20s in a historic appointment as U.S. Soccer's first full-time head coach for this age level. A team in transition went 4-5-2 overall and 2-3-2 in international matches as the year was spent identifying talent and forming a player pool that would take the USA into the World Cup year.

Looking back at 2012, it was one of the best years ever for the U.S. program, as the team went 16-2-1 in international matches (17-2-2 overall) and won perhaps the most competitive U-20 Women's World Cup in history. The USA rolled through Concacaf World Cup qualifying to earn a berth to Japan by winning all five games by a combined score of 18-1 and pulled off a dramatic late-game comeback to defeat Canada by a 2-1 score in the championship game on a game-winner from Chioma Ubogagu.

U.S. head coach Steve Swanson fashioned a team that had speed and skill all over the field, which when combined with tremendous heart, gave the Americans a unique squad that overcame adversity to reach the top of the podium in Tokyo, Japan. The U.S. team featured several players with bright full National Team futures, and the victory further cemented the USA's youth programs among the best in the world. U.S. captain Julie Johnston, who would be named the U.S. Soccer Young Female Player of the Year for 2012, won the Bronze Ball as the third-best player in the tournament, a rare honor for a defender.

Swanson took over the program in 2011. It served as a transition year for the U-20s as the team played only a handful of international matches, going 6-2-1 overall and 2-1-1 against other countries. Still, the year was highly productive as Swanson refined his player pool and started to develop a team that would go on to win the World Cup. He saw several veterans of the U-20 level continue to mature while numerous young players showed their ability to play and prosper at the international level. The schedule included two matches with the Japanese U-20 squad, which the USA split with the visitors during a camp in Chula Vista, Calif.

In 2010, Jill Ellis led the team to a 16-3-5 overall record and 13-2-3 in international play, winning the title at the Concacaf Women's World Cup Qualifying Tournament in Guatemala. The U.S. team went undefeated against international competition until its final two friendlies before the U-20 Women's World Cup, then fell to Germany and Japan on a pre-World Cup trip to Germany. At the Women's World Cup, the USA was surprised by Ghana in the opener, a 1-1 tie, before rebounding to defeat Switzerland 5-0 and Korea Republic 1-0 to win the group and earn a berth in the quarterfinals. There, the USA played a hard-fought match against Nigeria with regulation time ending at 1-1. A scoreless overtime led to a shootout, where the U.S. goalkeeper Bianca Henninger twice saved penalties that were ordered retaken, and the USA fell in the shootout for what then was the earliest elimination in history for a U.S. team at a Women's World Cup. With five goals in the 2010 tournament and 10 in her U-20 career, Sydney Leroux became the USA's all-time leading scorer in U-20 Women's World Cup tournaments.

In 2009, Ellis led the team to a 9-2-3 overall record and 4-1-2 in international play as she narrowed down the player pool in preparation for Concacaf qualifying in early 2010. The schedule included wins against the Norway, England and Canada U-20 teams as well as draws with the always-talented France and Germany. Kelly Cobb, Maya Hayes and 2008 U-20 Women's World Cup star Sydney Leroux led the USA in scoring with six goals apiece in all matches.

In 2008, despite taking over as head coach from Ellis fairly late in the cycle, Tony DiCicco molded a team that would win the USA's seventh women's world title. DiCicco's side experienced some growing pains during the year, but it all came together in brilliant fashion during the Women's World Cup as the USA scored 12 goals and allowed just three, controlling every match (aside from a meaningless 2-0 loss to China in group play), on the way to a convincing 2-1 defeat of Korea DPR in the title game. The USA won three matches by 3-0 scores, including the quarterfinal against England, and then outplayed a talented German side to win the semifinal by a 1-0 score. Leroux became just the second U.S. player to win the Golden Ball at a FIFA event and also won the Golden Shoe as the tournament's top scorer with five goals. Alex Morgan also had a great tournament, scoring four times and winning the Silver Ball and the Bronze Shoe. Goalkeeper Alyssa Naeher was world class, allowing just one goal, that in the waning moments of the final match, a performance that earned her the Golden Glove as the tournament's top 'keeper. The U-20s finished 2008 with an overall record of 20-7-0 while going 14-4-0 in international games.

In 2007, Ellis took the team through some excellent preparation during the identification stage for this pool of players, eventually winning the silver medal at the Pan American Games in Rio de Janeiro, an achievement that included defeating the full Women's National Team of Canada in the semifinal, 2-1. In the gold medal game, the USA ran into a Brazilian buzzsaw in front of a packed house at the famed Maracana Stadium, but that experience served as a benefit the players as they moved forward in their National Team careers. The U-20s finished 10-5-1 on the year, but four of those losses were to full Women's National Teams.

In 2006, the U.S. U-20s played a remarkable 50 matches before the 2006 FIFA U-20 Women's World Championship in Russia, eventually compiling an overall record of 39-10-7 for the year. The USA's 16-2-3 international record was stellar, although the year ended on a down note with a fourth-place finish at the world championship. The USA got some big-time goal production from several forwards during the year, including Jessica Rostedt (24 goals, 7 in international play), Lauren Cheney (21/9), Kelley O'Hara (20/10) and U.S. Soccer Young Female Player of the Year Dánesha Adams (18/7). The USA qualified for the world championship with an undefeated run at the Concacaf U-20 Women's Final Qualifying Tournament held in Mexico in January of 2006, downing the hosts 3-0 for a berth to Russia and beating Canada 3-2 in the championship game.

In 2005, the team had a quiet year of activity due to the transition of head coaches.

In 2004, under head coach Mark Krikorian, the USA went 17-7-2 and 11-5-2 in international matches, but lost its first-ever match to a team in its age group, falling to Japan, 1-0. The USA finished second in Concacaf qualifying, falling 2-1 to Canada in the championship, but they had already secured a berth to Thailand by virtue of a clinical 6-0 win against Mexico in the semifinal. The USA put together four excellent matches to open the U-19 Women's World Cup, starting with a rousing 3-0 win against Korea Republic followed by a 4-1 domination of Russia. The USA finished group play with a hard fought 1-0 win against Spain. In the quarterfinal match against a plucky Australia, Angie Wozniuk came off the bench to help set up the USA's two goals, both of which were assisted by Stephanie Lopez, sending the USA to the semifinal. In the semifinal, the young Americans ran into a German wall. Tied at 1-1 at halftime, the USA took control of the match's pace only to see the Germans score on a lightning counterattack. With the USA pressing forward, Germany scored another to secure the final 3-1 margin. The USA earned third-place honors with a 3-0 win against Brazil.

In 2003, the U-19s went 7-4-1 overall and 6-2-0 in international competition, getting wins against Mexico, Japan, Germany and Netherlands during the year.

In 2002, the U-19s went 22-2-2 overall and 17-1-0 in international matches, including six wins at the FIFA U-19 Women's World Cup in Canada. The victory in the title game of the first-ever U-19 WWC was another in a long line of "firsts" for the U.S. Women's National Team program, which includes the first Women's World Cup championship and the first Olympic gold medal. Team captain Lindsay Tarpley scored a 109th-minute "golden goal" against host Canada to win 1-0 on Sept. 1, 2002, in front of 47,784 fans at Edmonton's Commonwealth Stadium.

In 2001, the USA went 10-4-4 overall and 4-0-1 in international matches as the nucleus of the 2002 World Championship team started to form.

Under Steve Swanson in 2000, the U-18s went 10-2-3, including 3-0-2 in international competition, all against senior Women's National Teams.

The first season of U-18 competition in 1999 was a banner year, as the team went 14-0-3 overall and 8-0-2 internationally, winning a gold medal in the Pan American games to clinch an unprecedented "treble" for the U.S. Women's National Team, which also won gold at the 1999 Women's World Cup and U-21 Nordic Cup.

Shannon Cirovski, a veteran of the USA's 1991 Women's World Cup championship team, was the first coach of the U-18s but stepped down to take the head coach position at the University of Maryland. She coached the U-18s halfway through 1999 before U.S. Women's National Team assistant coach Jay Hoffman took the reins and guided the team to gold at the Pan Am Games in Winnipeg, Canada.

In its 26 years of competition as a U-18, U-19 and now a U-20 team, the program has compiled an all-time international record of 203W-50L-34D and has lost just 38 games to teams in its age group.

FIFA UNDER-20 WOMEN'S WORLD CUP REVIEW

The U.S. Under-19/Under-20 Women's Youth National Team has participated in all 10 FIFA World Cups for this age group. The USA won the inaugural title in 2002 in Canada, finished third in 2004 in Thailand, took fourth in 2006 in Russia, reclaimed the crown in 2008 in Chile, got knocked out in the quarterfinal round in penalty kicks in Germany in 2010 and then rebounded to win its third title in 2012 in Japan. In 2014, the USA fell in penalty kicks in the quarterfinal and in 2016 returned to the semifinal round but would finish in fourth place. In 2018, the USA just missed out on the quarterfinals, finishing group play behind the eventual tournament champion and runner-up. The 2020 tournament was first moved and then later cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, with 2020 host Costa Rica being granted rights to host in 2022, a tournament at which the USA failed to advance out of the group. In 2006, the competition moved to the Under-20 level, bringing it in line with the men's FIFA U-20 World Cup.

"THE MIRACLE OF CALI" SPURS A RETURN TO GLORY IN COLOMBIA (2024)

In 2024, the USA became one of four teams to qualify for all 11 FIFA Women's World Cups at this level. But this team had a different look, featuring eight professional players – all from the NWSL – and marked the most pros ever on a U.S. roster for a U-20 WWC. The tournament also had a different look, featuring 24 teams for the first time, which necessitated a round of 16 knockout stage for the first time and seven games to lift the trophy. The USA opened the competition against reigning FIFA U-20 WWC champions Spain and fell 1-0, but that was just the beginning of a magical run to the podium. The USA dominated its next two group matches, downing a defensive-minded Morocco, 2-0, before blowing out Paraguay, 7-0, as Pietra Tordin bagged a hat trick. That set up a round of 16 match against Mexico, the team that had beaten the USA in the 2023 Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship Final. The Americans pulled out a 3-2 win in overtime on goals from Tordin, team captain Ally Sentnor and a 97th minute game-winner from Jordynn Dudley. That win sent the Americans to the quarterfinals against Germany in what would turn out to be one of the most epic matches in tournament history. The USA gave up a second-half penalty kick and then, after seven minutes of added time had been signaled, Germany scored another goal in the second minute of second half stoppage time. The young Americans then wrote another remarkable chapter in the history of the U.S. Women's National Team, scoring in the 97th and 98th minutes via Dudley and Sentnor (later ruled an own goal) to equalize in a match dubbed "The Miracle of Cali." The exhausted teams navigated a scoreless overtime and the USA won in penalty kicks with conversions by Sentnor, Leah Klenke and Riley Jackson. Germany made only one of its four attempts, with the final kick being saved by U.S. goalkeeper Teagan Wy. The USA fell to eventual champion Korea DPR, 1-0, in the semifinal, but then took down Netherlands, 2-1, in the Third-Place Match as Sentnor scored a 10th minute goal. The Dutch equalized 16 minutes later and it took until less than a minute remained in overtime for Maddie Dahlien to force an 119th-minute own goal to give the USA a dramatic 2-1 victory. The USA played three overtime matches in the knockout rounds, meaning it played the equivalent entire extra game during the World Cup. Sentnor won the Bronze Ball as the third-best player in the tournament.

GOOD START, TOUGH FINISH FOR THE USA IN COSTA RICA (2022)

In 2022, the USA became one of four teams to qualify for all 10 FIFA Women's World Cups at this level. Drawn into a difficult group with Ghana, Netherlands and Japan, the Americans started off well, downing Ghana 3-0 on goals from team captain Michelle Cooper, Alyssa Thompson and Ally Sentnor. It was the first time since the 2012 U-20 Women's World Cup that the USA had won its first game of the tournament. The USA dominated the match, outshooting the Africans 21-5, but did not take advantage of playing 60 minutes with a woman advantage after a Ghana red card, and left goals on the table. Those goals could have made a big difference in the final group game against Japan after a 3-0 loss to the Netherlands in the second group game put the USA in a big hole. The USA gave up goals on a blast from distance, a header off a corner kick and a penalty kick. The U-20s fought gallantly in the group finale, but a 3-1 loss to Japan when the USA needed a win sent the young Americans home early. Forward Simone Jackson scored for the USA in that game. Both the Netherlands and Japan advanced to the semifinal round and Japan made it to the World Cup Final, where it lost to Spain.

USA FALLS A GOAL SHORT OF ADVANCEMENT IN FRANCE (2018)

In 2018, the USA became one of four teams to qualify for all nine FIFA Women's World Cups at this level. Drawn into a group with the eventual tournament champion Japan and runner-up Spain, the USA fought until the end, but finished third in Group C and failed to reach the knockout round for the first time. After falling to Japan 1-0 on a long-range goal in its opening match, the USA rolled past Paraguay 6-0 to put itself in position to qualify with a victory in its final group stage match. While the U.S. fell behind early to Spain, the Americans roared back late to draw even at 2-2 but were unable to create a game-winner that would have clinched a spot in the quarterfinals.

In the tightly-contested opening match against Japan, both teams struggled to find their rhythms offensively. While the U.S. out-possessed and out-passed Japan, the Asian champion broke through in the 76th minute, as Honoka Hayashi unleashed a well-hit shot from distance that struck the underside of the crossbar and bounced into the net. Sparked by the deficit, the USA searched for an equalizer and produced a number of quality chances in the last 15 minutes. While Jaelin Howell put two dangerous headers on frame during the game's final stretch, the Japanese defense kept the U.S. off the board.

Needing a convincing result to keep its quarterfinal hopes alive, the U.S. delivered an emphatic victory against Paraguay in its second group stage match. With its attack in full force, the USA created chances early and often, outshooting Paraguay 27-7. Sophia Smith started things off for the U.S. in the 15th minute with a remarkable run through the Paraguayan defense and a nifty finish, while Savannah DeMelo opened the floodgates late in the first half, netting twice in five minutes. Ashley Sanchez added a goal on the other side of halftime, while Smith, who spent the afternoon running roughshod through the South American defense, bagged a brace in the 63rd. DeMelo capped off the scoring in the 78th to complete a hat trick, the USA's fourth in U-20 World Cup history, and a number of near-misses down the stretch could have made the scoreline even more lopsided in a dominant showing.

The USA went into its final match against Spain needing a win to secure a spot in the knockout round. A misplayed clearance set Spain up for an early goal and La Roja doubled its lead off of a set piece just before halftime. Down 2-0, the U.S. rallied late in the second half, working to get back in the game during the final 20 minutes. After a number of dangerous forays into the Spanish final third, the USA finally broke through in the 82nd minute off of a free kick from Smith. Pressing for an equalizer, DeMelo added her fourth goal of the tournament in the 87th to draw the USA even, but the USA could not get another goal.

CHARACTER, COMEBACKS AND SLIM MARGINS IN PAPUA NEW GUINEA (2016)

In 2016, the USA played in its eighth consecutive FIFA tournament at this level, winning the most difficult group in the competition by the slimmest of margins. Led by 2016 Olympian Mallory Pugh, who captained the U.S. team in the exotic locale of Papua New Guinea, the USA opened the tournament with a hard-fought 0-0 tie against a very talented France side that would go on to advance to the championship game. The USA then defeated New Zealand 3-1 on goals from Pugh, 17-year-old Ashley Sanchez (who became the first player to score in a U-17 and U-20 Women's World Cup in the same cycle) and substitute Ally Watt, who bagged an insurance score later in the match.

A wild dipping shot from distance (which was officially called an own goal as it hit off the post and then the hands of U.S. goalkeeper Casey Murphy) opened the scoring for Ghana in the final group match, but the USA promptly answered back as Pugh scored two minutes later. The eventual 1-1 draw with a tough, physical Ghana team tied the USA with France on every tie-breaker except the last one – Fair Play points – and with the USA receiving no yellow cards in group play while France received one, the Americans won the group and advanced to the quarterfinal against Mexico.

In that match, Mexico took the lead in the 64th minute on a well-struck free kick, forcing the USA to mount an epic comeback. Watt, playing the role of super sub once again, tied the game in the 81st minute off a superb pass from Sanchez. After some end-to-end play produced chances for both teams near the end of regulation, it was Sanchez who set up the game-winner three minutes into stoppage time with a brilliant dribble and pass from the right wing. She beat a defender around the corner, got to the end line and played a pass back on the ground that was dummyed by Pugh and rolled to the crashing Kelcie Hedge, who had entered the game in the 68th minute. Near the right edge of the six-yard box, Hedge spun her first-time shot off the foot of a defender from about eight yards out and it settled into the lower left corner for the game-winner.

The tremendous talent and overall strength of the Asian teams was on display in the semifinal round. The USA met eventual champion Korea DPR in the semifinal and played an excellent first 30 minutes, but as the match wore on, the technical savvy and power of an organized Korea DPR team put the USA on its heels. In the 51st minute, the Koreans got their goal from the penalty spot after U.S. midfielder Katie Cousins was whistled for a handball while blocking a shot and Jon So Yon converted her spot kick.

The Americans kept fighting and, as they'd done all tournament, got a goal when they needed one. As the game entered the 89th minute, forward Jessie Scarpa cut back on her defender from the left wing and sent a cross into the penalty area for Pugh. She took a hard touch and it bounced off a defender, then back off Pugh, before a Korea defender made a poor clearance. Defender Natalie Jacobs came flying through to hit an athletic left-footed, first-time volley that looped into the right side of the net to tie the game.

Due to the cooling breaks and several injuries in the stifling heat, seven minutes of stoppage time were added to the end of the match that saw some wild end-to-end play. The USA was forced to play the last four minutes of stoppage time with 10 players when Watt, its fastest player, had to go out injured after the Americans had already made their three allowed substitutes in regulation. After the USA dodged a few quality scoring chances from Korea DPR in second half stoppage time, U.S. head coach Michelle French was able to utilize the new rule allowing for a fourth sub in overtime and sent on Courtney Peterson for Watt.

Korea DPR wasted no time going ahead, however, creating a very nice goal less than a minute into the first overtime. The USA tried to push for a second equalizer and battled with tremendous heart until the end, but a clearly fatigued U.S. team could not find the net again.

The U.S. team expended a tremendous amount of energy in the tournament but still had enough left in the third-place match to hold a supremely talented Japan without a goal – with Murphy making several excellent saves along the way -- until the 87th minute, when Golden Boot winner Mami Ueno looped in the game-winner from the left side of the penalty box.

Although the USA did not get on the podium, the tournament did showcase some bright young stars, most notably Pugh, Sanchez and Murphy. At the time, the third-place match was just the second game the USA had lost in regulation time in its history at this tournament.

THE PAIN OF PENALTIES, AGAIN (2014)

The 2014 FIFA U-20 Women's World cup opened with a rare meeting between the 2012 finalists. This time, Germany came out on top, scoring two second half goals to down the USA in the first game of Group B. The Americans rebounded with two wins by shutout over Brazil and China PR to earn second place in the group and a spot in the quarterfinal.

Forward Lindsey Horan, the first professional to represent the USA in the U-20 Women's World Cup, showed why she was one of the world's best young players, scoring three of the four goals over the final two group matches. Her goal against Brazil in a tremendously hard-fought match came with eight minutes left to play. Rose Lavelle added a clinching score against China during a 3-0 victory in Moncton, Canada.

The USA's first three games were played on artificial turf, but on grass in Toronto at BMO Field, the USA met the North Koreans in the quarterfinal, the same country it had beaten at this stage four years ago. This time the Koreans turned the tables in a competitive match that saw Makenzy Doniak open the scoring for the USA in just the sixth minute. North Korea tied the game on a penalty kick in the 65th minute and the teams played scoreless through the rest of regulation and overtime.

Unfortunately, the USA missed its first three penalty kick attempts. While Stephanie Amack converted on the fourth try, the Americans had dug themselves too deep a hole and the Koreans prevailed 3-1 in the shootout, sending the USA home before the semifinal for just the second time.

Through this tournament, the USA had only lost one knockout match in regulation time in the seven tournaments, that coming to Germany in the 2004 semifinal.

TOP OF THE PODIUM IN TOKYO (2012)

The 2012 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Japan was a triumph of American spirit as well as Japanese character. The hosts organized a fantastic tournament on short notice after it was moved from Uzbekistan and then captured the attention of the nation with some tremendously attractive soccer played with unabashed joy. The Japanese fell to the powerful Germans in the semifinal (after giving up three goals inside of 20 minutes) while the USA defeated a talented Nigeria team to make the World Cup Final and then triumphed 1-0 on a goal from speedy attacker Kealia Ohai.

What made the USA's march to the tournament title even more special was the adversity the team faced in group play. After a convincing 4-0 opening game victory against Ghana, featuring a hat trick from Maya Hayes, the USA tied China PR 1-1 and then got smashed by Germany, 3-0.

Those results gave the Americans a remarkably tough road to the championship as they would have to defeat three group winners along the way. First up was a Korea DPR side that featured 10 players from its 2012 London Olympic Team. Seven North Koreans who played against the full U.S. Women's National Team at the Olympics during the USA's 1-0 group play victory at Old Trafford in Manchester, England, played against the U.S. U-20s in the quarterfinal, and the Koreans came into the game with a tournament-high 15 goals. The USA got a wonder-strike from distance from Vanessa DiBernardo and an overtime header from Chioma Ubogagu to earn the hard-fought 2-1 win and a berth to the semifinal against Nigeria, the country that had knocked the USA out of the U-20 World Cup two years earlier in the quarterfinal stage.

The Americans played a tremendous match against Nigeria in the 2-0 victory, getting a header goal from Morgan Brian and a strike off a beautiful run from Ohai. That victory earned the USA another shot at Germany, which made the championship game without allowing a goal in its previous five games of the tournament.

The USA ruined Germany's perfect record just before halftime as Crystal Dunn's dynamic run with the ball down the right flank in the 44th minute set up Ohai for what would be the game winner.

The USA played stout defense in the second half, led by center backs Cari Roccaro and Julie Johnston – who would win the Bronze Ball as the third best player in the tournament – and got several clutch saves from goalkeeper Bryane Heaberlin to earn the historic victory.

THE PAIN OF PENALTIES IN GERMANY (2010)

If the 2010 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup proved anything – besides Germany's dominance at home – it's that the African teams were getting stronger. The USA drew 1-1 with both African sides it faced and was knocked out of the tournament at the quarterfinal stage.

The USA started the tournament with a tie against a tough Ghana side, although the Americans had plenty of chances to win the game, firing 25 total shots with only Sydney Leroux finding the back of the net with 20 minutes left. The young Americans rebounded to defeat Switzerland, 5-0, in its second match as Leroux notched a hat trick, the first for an American woman in a Women's World Cup since 1991 and just the third-ever for a U.S. player.

The USA then faced the Korea Republic with the group title on the line and edged the talented Koreans, 1-0, as Leroux once again found the net. That set up a quarterfinal match with Nigeria, a physical side which somehow racked up 26 fouls (with four yellow cards) to the USA's five. The Americans scored early through Amber Brooks, but gave up a bomb from distance just 11 minutes from the end of the game. The USA once again had plenty of chances to win the game, including a few in overtime, but Nigeria managed to fire a remarkable 31 shots with U.S. goalkeeper Bianca Henninger making 14 saves.

The match went to penalty kicks and U.S. U-20 veterans Christine Nairn and Leroux missed the USA's first and fourth kicks, respectively, while Nigeria made all four, but not without controversy. Henninger twice saved the shot of Nigeria's third kicker, only to have both wiped away and ordered retaken by the referee. Nigeria finally tallied on its third chance.

Leroux's five goals, which won her the Bronze Shoe as the third-leading scorer in the tournament, combined with the five she scored in 2008 in Chile, gave her the most for a U.S. player in U-20 Women's World Cup history. Henninger, who gave up just two goals in the tournament, won the Golden Glove as the best goalkeeper in the competition.

GLORY REGAINED IN CHILE (2008)

The 2008 U.S. Under-20 Women's World Cup Team put together one of the most complete performances ever for a U.S. team at a world championship event, scoring 12 goals while allowing just three on the way to a glorious 2-1 title game victory over defending U-20 world champions Korea DPR. The fans in Chile adopted the U.S. team during the tournament as the players had once-in-a-lifetime experiences during the first-ever FIFA Women's World Cup in South America.

Forwards Sydney Leroux and Alex Morgan had fantastic tournaments, accounting for nine of the USA's 12 goals. The USA took home an unprecedented amount of hardware as Leroux won the Golden Ball as the best player in the tournament and the Golden Shoe as the top scorer with five goals. Morgan, who scored four times, won the Silver Ball and the Bronze Shoe while goalkeeper Alyssa Naeher, who allowed just one goal over the five brilliant matches in which she played, took home the Golden Glove. The USA also won the FIFA Fair Play Award.

The U.S. started off with two convincing 3-0 wins over France and Argentina. With the top spot in the group locked up after just two matches, DiCicco played numerous reserves in the third group game against China PR, a 2-0 loss.

The Americans rolled to a 3-0 win against England in the quarterfinal as captain Keelin Winters scored on a fantastic header to get things started. The Americans then out-battled the Germans, getting an own goal on a cross from Nikki Washington as well as a hustling slide from Leroux.

The win set up a championship game meeting with Korea DPR. Leroux scored a fantastic goal from distance in the 23rd minute and Morgan added another brilliant long-range strike just before halftime that goes down as one of the greatest ever goals for a U.S. player in a world championship final. The dangerous Koreans attacked with fervor, but the U.S. defense stayed strong, led by center backs Nikki Marshall and Lauren Fowlkes. The Asian champions did pull a goal back in the second minute of second half stoppage time, but the Americans would lift the trophy in front of an appreciative crowd in Santiago.

UNFORTUNATE FOURTH IN RUSSIA (2006)

The USA's 2006 U-20 team disappointed in its results at the world championship in Russia, taking fourth and becoming the only U.S. women's team to finish out of the top three at a FIFA world championship to that point. The U.S. team had played 50 matches against national teams, colleges and women's clubs in 2006 leading into the world championship and had never failed to score at least one goal, but somehow could not muster one in the semifinal or third place match, which both went to penalty kicks. The U.S. team had kicks to win both games only to miss, and then miss the next as well.

In group play, the USA struggled a bit early as U.S. head coach Tim Schulz utilized his entire roster. The U.S. U-20s opened the tournament with a 2-1 win over minnow DR Congo. The young Americans then defeated Argentina 4-1 in a match that could easily have seen more U.S. goals, and put together a quality performance in the final first round match to defeat France 1-0 on a goal from Jessica Rostedt.

In the quarterfinal round, the USA looked to be the favorite after trouncing defending champion Germany 4-1 as Danesha Adams scored twice, but then came the scoreless semifinal and third-place match against China PR and Brazil, respectively, and the painful penalty kick shootouts.

Standouts on the U.S. team included Adams, a midfielder/forward, who won the Bronze Ball as the third-best player in the tournament, as well as goalkeeper Val Henderson and midfielder Amanda Poach, who along with Adams made the All-Tournament Team. Flank defender Tobin Heath and flank midfielder Kelley O'Hara (two goals) also had fine tournaments for the USA.

This U.S. team featured several players with bright futures on the full National Team, including forwards Amy Rodriguez (who scored twice in her second youth world championship), Lauren Cheney, Heath and Stephanie Lopez.

TAKING THIRD IN THAILAND (2004)

The 2004 U.S. U-19 Women's National Team was going to be hard-pressed to live up to the standards set by the 2002 squad, which won the first-ever world youth championship for women while rolling over the competition in Canada, but amazingly, they almost did. Featuring four players from the 2002 squad, the 2004 team in Thailand put on one of the finest displays of soccer ever seen by a U.S. team in a world championship to win a difficult Group C that featured Asian champion Korea Republic, European champion Spain and Russia.

The USA opened the tournament with a 3-0 victory over Korea Republic, scored in just the second minute in a 4-1 victory over Russia and finished group play with a highly professional 1-0 win over Spain as Jessica Rostedt provided the lone goal. The USA dominated Australia 2-0 in the quarterfinals as Angie Woznuk came off the bench to help create both goals, but ran into a wall in the always tough and talented Germans in the semifinal and fell 3-1 to end its dreams of a second world youth title. The young U.S. team rebounded remarkably well in the Third-Place match, taking out Brazil 3-0 despite the South Americans featuring the virtuosic attacking duo of Marta and Cristiane from their silver-medal winning team at the 2004 Olympics.

It was a breakout tournament for Woznuk, the USA's dynamic attacking midfielder, who won the Silver Ball as the second Most Valuable Player and the Bronze Boot as the third-leading scorer in the competition despite battling a foot injury throughout. A new wave of talented American strikers also emerged as 17-year-old Amy Rodriguez scored two goals while 18-year-old Rostedt and 19-year-old Megan Rapinoe scored three goals each.

Like she did for the 2002 U-19 squad, goalkeeper Ashlyn Harris played every minute and was once again stellar, sealing her status as one of the top young goalkeepers in the world. Harris earned All-Tournament recognition along with Woznuk and center-back Becky Sauerbrunn, who teamed with Rachel Buehler to form a bruising partnership in the middle of the U.S. back line. Left back Stephanie Lopez also showed signs of future U.S. stardom while the USA was awarded the FIFA Fair Play Award, getting just two yellow cards in the tournament.

HISTORIC WIN IN CANADA (2002)

In the first FIFA tournament for U-19s, under the most adverse conditions and on the biggest of stages, the U.S. Under-19 Women's National Team achieved one of the most historic victories in U.S. Soccer history, defeating host Canada 1-0 on Sept. 1, 2002, in front of 47,784 fans at Commonwealth Stadium in Edmonton, Alberta, to win the 2002 FIFA Under-19 Women's World Championship.

This unique group of teenagers represented the first young women in U.S. history with the opportunity to play in a sanctioned FIFA world championship. They embraced that challenge, played the semifinal and championship game in front of massive crowds and a world-wide TV audience, and came out champions, showing with unbridled emotion that all young girls in the United States could look forward to the chance to be a world champion as a youth player.

On the field, the young U.S. players had to maintain their composure in the championship game, played in front of a massive Canadian crowd, awash with red-and-white flags. Substitute Megan Kakadelas created the winning goal by curving a cross on the ground into the penalty area late in overtime. The ball was kept alive by a darting Heather O'Reilly, who crashed into a defender on a hard near post run. The ball squirted across the goalmouth to U.S. captain Lindsay Tarpley who pounded a shot into the net from close range to end the game.

With the win, the U-19s added another first to the glorious history of the U.S. Women's National Team program, which claimed the first Women's World Cup and the first Olympic gold medal for women's soccer. The USA rolled through Group play, defeating England 5-1, Australia 4-0 and Chinese Taipei 6-0, before blasting Denmark 6-0 in the quarterfinal match. The USA fell behind 1-0 to Germany in the semifinal, before storming back to win 4-1 on two goals from Wilson, one from Tarpley and one from defender Jill Oakes.

Tarpley was awarded with the Bronze Boot as the third leading scorer in the tournament with six goals while Kelly Wilson earned the Silver Boot as the tournament's second-leading scorer with nine goals in just five games. Wilson also picked up the Bronze Ball as the third most valuable player in the tournament.

The victory was the end of a glorious two-year run to the tournament in which the first crop of U-19s went 21-1-1 in international competition and formed a family bond that carried them past an excellent and tough Canadian team, and their massive fan support, to the first-ever world championship for youth women.

"The journey not only made us better players, but it showed us that great things can be accomplished through hard work, love and belief," said Tarpley, who two years later would score for the USA in the Olympic gold medal match. "Over the last two years, we've had some amazing times on the soccer field, but it's the friendships we'll carry forever. I know we will look back at this 20 years from now with the same feelings for each other that we have now. We'll remember the day we became world champions together."

U.S. UNDER-19 WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM SUPPORTS U-20S

The U.S. Under-19 Women's National Team was re-instituted in 2015. Prior to that year, the last time U.S. Soccer had programming at the U-19 level was 2004, which was the year that the final FIFA Women's World Cup was held at the U-19 level before it moved to U-20 in 2006.

Although the U.S. Under-19 Women's National Team will never again compete for a world title, it has a rich history. In 2002, led by future Women's National Team stars Heather O'Reilly, Lindsay Tarpley and Lori Chalupny as well as numerous players who went on to successful professional and international careers, the U-19 WYNT won the first World Cup title for youth women in a tournament played in Canada. The final U.S. U-19 Women's World Cup Team, also featuring many players who would go on to successful careers, finished third at the 2004 FIFA U-19 Women's World Cup in Thailand.

Players from the pool for the U-19s will be brought to several training camps over the course of the year in order to expose more players of this age to the National Team camp environment as well as give activity to the younger group of players in the pool competing for spots on the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup Team. The player pool is identified on a year-round basis, through U.S. Soccer YNT Identification Centers, club soccer, ODP interregional events and younger Women's National Team camps.

Camps are often scheduled to run concurrently with other YNT camps to give the players an opportunity to watch and play against older players and learn through those experiences. While the U-19s did not have any programming in 2021 and 2022, partly due to the global pandemic, in 2023, the USA took a U-19 WYNT to the Pan American Games in Chile and brought home a bronze medal, giving numerous players valuable experience that they would put to use the following year at the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup. In 2024, the U-19 group had the chance to play two international matches against Spain in Alicante, losing 3-0 and drawing 3-3.

Players in this year's group of U-19s are born on or after Jan. 1, 2006, turning to 2007s in August. Players age-eligible for the 2024 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup are those born on or after Jan. 1, 2006.

U.S. UNDER-18 WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM

U.S. UNDER-18 WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM BRIDGES GAP

In 2008, the U.S. Under-18 Women's National Team was reconstituted (after having existed from 1998-2001) to give international competition to players who have just finished a cycle with the U.S. U-17s but are a year away from the next U-20 cycle.

This year's group of players will not have extensive programming, but in other years, the schedule will consist of several domestic training camps and perhaps an international trip. Several of the U-18s may be called into U-19 or U-20 events as that group of players prepares for the 2024 FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup.

The U-18 WNT provides a transition for a number of those players that could possibly make up the core of the team that would attempt to qualify for the following U-20 Women's World Cup or even contribute to the current cycle of U-20s. The U-18s also provide a proving ground for players in the U-20 pool who may be just below the core group training for the U-20 Women's World Cup, giving them an environment to show that they are worthy of being pulled back into the top tier of U-20s.

In 2021 and 2022, all U-18 WNT programming was cancelled due to the global pandemic, and in 2023, the team also did not have programming, but the U.S. U-19 WYNT did play in the Pan American Games in Chile, winning a bronze medal.

In 2020, before the COVID-19 pandemic shut down all YNT programming, the U-18s played three matches during a tournament in Lakewood Ranch, Florida, defeating China PR 2-0 and Norway 5-0 before falling to the Netherlands, 2-1.

In 2019, the U-18s played just two international matches, both against England in England, winning one and tying one. In 2018, the U-18s played five international matches, once again all abroad, three during the La Manga Tournament in Spain and two in Switzerland. The USA went 1-1-3 in those games against top European sides.

In 2017, the U-18s played all six of its international matches abroad, traveling to England and to Australia. The USA defeated England while tying and beating Norway during its trip to England. In Canberra, the USA fell to the Canada U-20s but beat Australia twice to finish with a 4-1-1 record.

In 2016, the U-18s had an excellent slate of international matches, playing games in Spain, England and Northern Ireland over the course of the year. The USA went 4-2-2 with wins against England U-19, Norway U-19, France U-19 and Northern Ireland U-19. The USA picked up draws against Denmark U-19 and England U-18. The only losses both came to England, to the U-18s and U-19s.

In 2015, the team had several domestic events and an international trip to play the Mexico U-20s while compiling a record of 3-1-2. In 2014, the team mostly had domestic events while compiling a 1-3-3 overall record, but did get in two valuable international trips, one to La Manga, Spain, for a tournament against older national teams and a trip to Mexico City for two games against the Mexico U-20s that produced a win and a draw.

In 2013, the team played a series of domestic matches, going 4-1-1 against colleges and women's clubs. In 2012, the squad had three training camps and compiled a record of 2-1-1, which included two matches against top Chinese women's club Shanghai FC.

In 2011, the squad went 3-1-1, including a victory over the German U-18s and a loss to the Japanese U-20s. In 2010, the squad went 4-2-2 and in 2009, head coach Dave Chesler led the team to a 4-0-3 record, which included a 5-1 victory against the Canada U-20 team.

Dean Duerst, who coached the U.S. U-17s in 2007, led the 2008 U-18s to a highly successful year, defeating three college teams and winning six games against European U-19 sides in Europe.

The U.S. U-18s had a nice run of success during the late 1990s, winning the 1999 Pan American Games in Canada and going 14-0-3 during the year. Shannon Cirovski, a veteran of the USA's 1991 FIFA Women's World Cup championship team, was the first coach of the U-18s in 1998 before then U.S. Women's National Team assistant coach Jay Hoffman grabbed the reins and guided the team to Pan Am gold.

Chesler coached the U-18s in 2009 and 2010 and former Youth Women's National Teams Director April Heinrichs coached the team from 2011-2016, before Jaime Frias took over as the full-time head coach for 2017 and 2018.

U.S. UNDER-17 WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM

U.S. UNDER-17 WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM LOOKS TOWARD 2025 FIFA U-17 WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

The U.S. Under-17 Women's National Team will play its 23rd year of existence as it heads into 2025 with the goal of qualifying for the 2025 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup. Players eligible for the next U-17 Women's World Cup must be born on or after Jan. 1, 2008.

It's a whole new world for the U.S. U-17 WNT as FIFA will now stage its World Cup annually. The first five editions will be held in Morocco, with this year's tournament Oct. 17-Nov. 8 and will feature 24 nations for the first time. To get there, the USA must qualify via a new Concacaf format. Starting with the 2025 edition of CONCACAF Women's U-17 Championship, the top four ranked U-17 WNTs will automatically qualify for the final tournament and teams ranked from fifth and below will compete in a pre-qualifying tournament. In the qualifying phase participating teams will be split into six groups. After a round-robin tournament, each group winner and the top two ranked second place teams will qualify for the final tournament in March/April 2025. The final qualifying tournament will be organized into three groups of four teams each, with each group winner and the highest ranked second place team qualifying for the 2025 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup.

U.S. Soccer first added the U-17 Women's National Team to its programming at the end of 2002. The U-17 program was initiated as U.S. Soccer felt it was vitally important to get more talented young players training with National Team coaches and with the best players in their age group. The philosophy for the U-17s is to accelerate the development of the USA's best young players and better prepare them for the game's highest levels through training with top players and international matches.

Starting in 2008, the age group got its own world championship, an exciting prospect for the young Americans who will get the chance to compete for their country in a Concacaf qualifying competition and then, potentially, the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup.

HISTORY OF THE U.S. UNDER-17 WNT

In 2024, the U.S. U-17 WNT had a banner year, advancing the final four of the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup in the Dominican Republic and eventually finishing third, it's best placement since the inaugural U-17 WWC in 2008 when the younger Americans took second. The USA earned its berth in the DR by running roughshod over the competition at the 2024 Concacaf Women's U-17 Championship in Mexico. The USA outscored the competition 32-2 over the five matches and defeated Haiti 7-1 in the semifinal to earn its World Cup berth before taking down host Mexico, 4-0, to win the regional title. Midfielder Kennedy Fuller led the USA in scoring with eight goals and won the Golden Boot as the top scorer in the tournament. Forward Alex Pfeiffer scored six times, forward Maya Townes scored five goals and midfielder Kimmie Ascanio had four. At the World Cup, the USA fell to reigning champions Spain, 3-1, to open the tournament but then reeled off three straight wins, including a 2-0 quarterfinal triumph over Nigeria, the team that had knocked the USA out of the U-17 World Cup in penalty kicks in 2022 in India. The USA fell to the eventual champion Korea DPR, 1-0, in the semifinal, but rebounded to trounce England, 3-0, and take the bronze. Kennedy Fuller, Ainsley McCammon and Maddie Padelski scored in that match. Fuller led the USA in scoring on the year with 13 goals and five assists.

In 2023, a group of players primarily born in 2006 had a successful trip to England in February, losing a wild 5-4 match before winning the second game, 3-1. Onyeka Gamero, Kendall Bodak and Emeri Adames all scored in both games. When the 2007s became the primary age group for the U-17s during the summer, that team was able to play two matches against Japan in September, winning 2-0 and tying 3-3, in games that served as preparation for February's 2024 Concacaf Women's U-17 Championship, which is the qualifying tournament for the 2024 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup.

In 2022, a wonderfully talented group of players had an excellent run, storming through the Concacaf Women's U-17 Championship, winning its group at 2022 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup and going unbeaten in regulation for the entire year with an 11-0-3 record. During the qualifying tournament in the Dominican Republic, the U-17s set several records while winning all seven matches and piling up a 58-1 margin of victory which included a 3-0 win over Canada in the semifinal to earn a berth to the World Cup and a 2-1 victory over Mexico in the title game. Forwards Melina Rebibmas and Amalia Villareal each scored eight goals during qualifying to lead the team while Charlotte Kohler and Claire Hutton scored six apiece. At the World Cup, the USA opened with an 8-0 win over host India, drew 1-1 with Brazil and then won the group with a 4-0 victory over Morocco to become the first U.S. team to win its group at the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup. Despite dominating its quarterfinal against Nigeria in every way except on the scoreboard, the USA drew 1-1 in regulation and then fell in penalty kicks. Rebimbas led the USA in scoring on the year with 10 goals, including two in the World Cup while Kohler had nine, including three in the World Cup. A remarkable 18 different players scored for the USA in international matches during 2022.

In 2021, coming off a long pause in programming due to the global pandemic, the U-17s finally resumed with training camps in October and November, the latter under new head coach Natalia Astrain.

In 2020, before the U-17s even had the chance to attempt to qualify for the 2020 FIFA Under-17 Women's World Cup in India, the qualifying tournament was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The dates for the World Cup itself were subsequently moved, and then the competition was finally cancelled in November of 2020 due to the pandemic without the Concacaf qualifying tournament ever taking place. India was then given hosting rights by FIFA for the 2022 tournament.

In 2019, the U-17s had an excellent first year of the cycle, compiling a 9-1-1 record in international play, losing only to Spain in a back-and-forth 4-3 result and tying Germany. Along the way, the USA beat Mexico, Russia, Portugal, the Czech Republic, Belgium, China and Sweden. The U.S. players certainly got a taste for international travel, playing tournaments in Spain and the Czech Republic (both of which it won) and a friendly competition in Sweden. Thirteen different players scored for the USA in 2019, led by Allyson Sennor, who was born in 2004 and had six international goals. The U-17s scored multiple goals in 10 of its 11 games and three or more goals in nine of 11.

In 2018, the U-17s had a stellar preparation period for the Women's World Cup, playing 18 international matches in four different countries before heading to Uruguay. The USA lost just one of those games while picking up victories against Venezuela, Argentina, Uruguay, Japan, Costa Rica, Bermuda, Canada, Haiti, Mexico and Colombia. The USA won all five games at an unusual Concacaf Women's U-17 Championship, beating Costa Rica in its first game in Nicaragua before the tournament was postponed due to civil unrest. The tournament resumed about six weeks later in Florida, and the USA took care of business, winning the group before defeating Haiti in the semifinal to qualify for Uruguay, and then defeated Mexico, 3-2, in the championship game to take the regional title. At the World Cup, the USA defeated Cameroon in the opening game, but then fell to youth powers Korea DPR and Germany and did not advance out of the group. Still, the USA went 15-3-3 during the year and 40 players got experience in international matches. Hawaiian forward Sunshine Fontes had a record-breaking year, pounding in 22 goals, most-ever for a female U.S. YNT player in a calendar year, and broke the U.S. record for most career international goals at the U-17 level with 24.

In 2017, the U-17s got off to an excellent start in the first year of the cycle, getting the chance to play 13 high-level international matches as part of its preparations for Concacaf qualifying. The USA went 9-1-3, defeating Mexico, England, Italy, Japan and Haiti, with its only loss coming to China PR in a wild 5-4 game in Weifang, China. The USA got to travel abroad three times, giving the young U.S. players valuable experience playing in difficult environments. Jordan Canniff (6 goals) and Maya Doms (5 goals) led the team in scoring. The USA allowed five goals in its one loss to China but allowed just six over the other 12 games.

In 2016, the U-17s compiled a record of 13-2-2 and won the Concacaf U-17 Women's Championship with a perfect 5-0-0 record, defeating Canada 5-0 in the semifinal to qualify for the U-17 Women's World Cup and then downed Mexico in the championship game, 2-1. The USA also won the U.S. Soccer NTC Invitational at the beginning of the year, defeating the England, Korea Republic and Japan U-17 teams. At the World Cup in Jordan, the USA started strong with a 6-1 win against Paraguay as Civanna Kuhlmann scored three goals, but then lost its final two group games 2-1 to Ghana and 3-2 to Japan, and did not advance to the quarterfinals. The losses were the first in the entire cycle for a team that came into the tournament unbeaten in international matches.

In 2015, the U-17s had an extensive schedule of domestic training camps and won the second annual NTC Invitational in Carson, Calif., defeating the U-17 teams from Mexico, Canada and Japan. The year was used for growth and evaluation to prepare for the Concacaf U-17 Women's Championship at the beginning of 2016 that qualified three teams for the U-17 Women's World Cup in Jordan. The USA finished the year with a 9-0-1 record.

In 2014, the U-17s were split as the 97s finished their cycle with three tremendous results at the NTC U-17 Women's Invitational where the USA defeated China, New Zealand and eventual U-17 Women's World Cup champion Japan to win the competition, while the 99s comprised the last three events of the year and logged two dominating victories over host Korea Republic during a trip to South Korea. The USA finished the year with a 7-0-0 record.

B.J. Snow was named the first full-time head coach for the U-17 program in January of 2013. The U-17s put together a quality series of results over the year, including two draws with Germany and two dominating wins against England, but a penalty kick loss in the semifinal of the Concacaf Women's U-17 Championship knocked the Americans out of the Women's World Cup despite outscoring its opponents at the tournament by a 26-1 margin. Amazingly, it was the second time in the program's history that a team had dominated at Concacaf qualifying and failed to reach the U-17 Women's World Cup due to a penalty kick loss. Still, the USA compiled a record of 9-1-5 and many talented young players who would have bright futures with older National Teams emerged from this cycle.

The U-17s had a successful year in 2012, going 19-1-4 overall and 13-0-4 in international matches, but learned how cruel the game can be, especially in a Women's World Cup, when the squad became the first U.S. women's team to fail to advance out of group play in a World Cup tournament. Despite not losing a match, the USA's 6-0 win against Gambia and draws with eventual finalists France (0-0) and Korea DPR (1-1) made the USA the first team ever to exit a FIFA women's tournament after the group stage while earning five points.

Still, 2012 saw the USA register wins against U-17 teams from Germany and China, U-19 teams from France and the Netherlands and a win against the full Slovenian Women's National Team. The USA also drew 0-0 with China's U-20s. The USA rolled through Concacaf qualifying while earning five shutouts, outscoring its opponents 26-0, including a hard-fought 1-0 victory against Canada to win the regional title in Guatemala. Summer Green led the USA in scoring with 16 goals, including 12 at qualifying, the most ever for an American player during a Concacaf qualifying event.

In 2011, Albertin Montoya took over the program and started building and also refining the player pool as he developed a team that played an attractive ball-possession attacking style. The young U.S. team went 1-1-2 in international matches, facing Germany and Japan twice each.

The U.S. U-17s had an odd year in 2010 as head coach Kazbek Tambi put together an incredibly talented group that outscored its opponents 38-0 at Concacaf Qualifying in Costa Rica, but fell in the all-important semifinal in penalty kicks to Canada to end its World Cup dreams.

The U-17s had a tremendous build-up schedule in place that included games against the Germany, Brazil and Japan U-17s, but one missed penalty kick rendered the preparation moot. The team nevertheless went 16-2-3 during 2010, including a 13-2-3 record in international play with its only losses coming to Japan three months after the disappointment at qualifying.

In 2009, the U-17s put together an overall record of 7-2-2, including 4-2-1 in international games, and ended the year with an impressive four-game sweep of the U-17 and/or U-20 sides from Chile, Argentina and Uruguay in Buenos Aires. The U.S. played three close matches with a German team one year older to start the year but tied once and lost twice at the event in Florida.

After coaching the U.S. U-16s in 2007, Tambi moved with the age group to U-17s in 2008 to prepare for qualifying for the historic 2008 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup, the first of its kind for this age group. In 2008, the U-17s compiled a record of 19-3-2 and 11-2-1 in international matches while winning the Concacaf qualifying tournament in Trinidad & Tobago and came within minutes of winning the inaugural FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup, eventually falling 2-1 in overtime to Korea DPR.

In 2007, as this age group began its run to the 2008 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup, the team went 9-1-0, defeating two college teams as well youth sides from Germany (U-17), Denmark (U-19), England (U-19), Argentina (U-20) and Uruguay (U-17). The only setback was a loss to the Argentina U-17s.

In 2006, the U-17s defeated and tied the Germany U-17s twice early in the year and then lost to two women's clubs before reeling off six straight wins including a 4-1 triumph against the Argentina U-20s. The only setback in international matches was a 2-1 loss to the full Argentina Women's National Team. In 2005, the U-17s defeated Germany's U-17s twice, and defeated Japan's U-18s, but struggled on a trip to Mexico where they lost to Mexico and Canada's U-20s and Mexico's U-18s.

In 2004, the U-17s defeated Canada's U-17s with a resounding 5-2 win and downed Germany's U-17s, 2-1. In 2003, the U.S. went undefeated in international matches, defeating Canada once and Germany twice. The U-17s also went undefeated against much older competition at the U.S. Soccer Festival in Houston, Texas. In fact, the only loss of the year came in a 4-3 shootout to the U.S. U-16 Girls in the first match of the year.

The U-17s played their first three matches in late November of 2002, two against older regional teams, and then won its first international 3-0 against Scotland in Boca Raton, Fla., on Nov. 30, 2002.

CONCACAF CHAMPS: The U.S. U-17 WNT rolled to the 2024 Concacaf Women's U-17 Championship title, out-scoring its opponents 32-2.

FIFA U-17 WOMEN'S WORLD CUP HISTORY

The U.S. Under-17 Women's National Team has participated in six of the eight U-17 Women's World Cups that have been staged since FIFA began holding the competition for this age group in 2008. The USA finished the first tournament in 2008 as runner-up to Korea DPR after a 2-1 overtime loss in the final. Four years later in 2012, having missed out on the 2010 edition of the tournament, the U-17s returned to the competition, only to be eliminated in group play despite finishing level on points with eventual champion France and runner-up Korea DPR. The U-17s did not qualify for the 2014 competition but returned for the 2016 event in Jordan. At the first Women's World Cup to be held in the Middle East, the USA won its first group game but lost its next two matches and did not qualify for the knockout rounds. In 2018 in Uruguay, the USA started fast, but dropped its next two group games and did not advance. In 2020, the Concacaf U-17 Women's Championship was never played due to the COVID-19 pandemic, which was also the reason for the eventual cancellation of the FIFA Under-17 FIFA Women's World Cup in India. India was awarded by the hosting rights by FIFA for the 2022 tournament at which the USA put on an impressive performance, winning its group before falling in penalty kicks in the quarterfinal. In 2024 in the Dominican Republic, the USA made a triumphant return to the podium, placing third, its best finish since 2008.

USA RACES TO THIRD PLACE IN THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC (2024)

In 2024, a talented group of young players – including a team-record four professional players and four more who would sign professional contracts before the year was out – made history by getting the USA back to the podium at the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup. In a tournament held in the Concacaf region in the Dominican Republic, the USA had a difficult opening game against defending champions Spain and fell, 3-1, despite a tremendous goal from midfielder Mel Barcenas. Against Colombia in a must-win game, midfielder Kennedy Fuller scored the first of her team-leading four goals in the World Cup while forward Micayla Johnson also tallied in the 2-0 victory. It was also the first start of the tournament for 16-year-old goalkeeper Evan O'Steen and she would go on to have a stellar tournament, allowing just one more goal the rest of the way and winning the Golden Glove as the competition's top netminder. The USA then trounced Korea Republic, 5-0, to finish group play as Barcenas scored twice, Fuller scored once and forwards Mary Long and Maddie Padelski also tallied.

That set the stage for a quarterfinal clash with Nigeria, the team that knocked the USA out of the 2022 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup in India on penalty kicks despite getting dominated in regulation time. There would be no upset this time as Fuller scored the first and midfielder Kimmi Ascanio nailed the clincher in a 2-0 victory to set up a semifinal against Korea DPR. The North Koreans proved too tough for the USA, holding the Americans without a shot on goal and triumphed, 1-0, to knock the USA into the Third-Place Match. In that game, the USA rallied and dominated England, winning 3-0 on goals from Fuller, midfielder Ainsley McCammon and Padelski to earn its first medal since the inaugural FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup. Fuller won the Silver Boot as the second leading scorer in the tournament.

The USA would finish the year with a 11W-2L-0D record, suffering the only losses of the cycle in the World Cup.

TALENTED TEAM DESERVED MORE AT HISTORIC WORLD CUP IN INDIA (2022)

In 2022, a wonderfully talented group of players had an excellent run at the 2022 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup, one of the more unique FIFA Women's World Cups ever held, with India serving as host. The U.S. team displayed an entertaining, dynamic style of possession-oriented attacking soccer and routed the hosts, 8-0, as seven different players scored to open the tournament. The USA failed to win during a 1-1 tie with Brazil in the second group game only due to some fantastic goalkeeping from the Brazilian netminder as Nicollete Kiores scored for the USA. In the group finale, the young Americans downed Morocco, 4-0, as Charlotte Kohler and little-used reserve Samantha Smith scored twice each to win Group A. This U.S. team became the first U.S. team to win its group at a FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup and then faced Nigeria in the quarterfinal.

Despite dominating the game in every facet besides where it counts the most – on the scoreboard – and outshooting the Africans 27-8, the USA put only three shots on goal and drew 1-1 in regulation. Nigeria's goal came off a penalty kick after a highly questionable VAR review and the USA's score came off a fine finish by Amalia Villarreal. With U-17 WWC knockout matches going straight to penalty kicks after regulation time, the USA were forced into a shootout where it painfully lost, 4-3, but not before U.S. goalkeeper Valentina Amaral saved Nigeria's third attempt only to see another VAR review go against the U.S., deeming that Amaral had jumped off her goal line early. Nigeria converted the retake.

Another highlight of the tournament was the experience of Mia Bhuta, a 16-year-old midfielder from Pittsburgh, Pa., and the team's co-captain. She became the first player of Indian descent to play for the USA in a World Cup. Her father was born in Mumbai and grew up in Rajkot in the state of Gujarat. A tennis player, he moved to the USA at the age of 16 to pursue better sporting and educational opportunities, and amazingly, in 2022, Mia was able to return to India to play in a World Cup at the same age her father was when he left.

In the first match against host India, Bhuta came on at halftime, wore the captain's armband, and scored the USA's eighth goal of the game, a tremendous shot from outside the penalty area. Making it even more special, she dedicated the goal to her grandfather -- her father's father -- who was in the hospital in India recovering from heart surgery and could not make it to the game. Sadly, he passed away a few days later. Her story generated quite a bit of interest from the Indian media throughout the tournament and an outpouring of support via her social media channels from fans both in India and the USA.

During the USA's unbeaten run during the year, the team picked up a win and a draw against eventual FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup champions Spain during a trip to Madrid about six weeks before the World Cup. Melina Rebimbas led the USA in scoring on the year with 10 goals, including two in the World Cup while Charlotte Kohler had nine, including three in the World Cup.

HARD-FOUGHT EFFORT NOT ENOUGH IN URUGUAY (2018)

Entering its fourth FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup, the U-17 USWNT faced a tough group featuring a strong African side in Cameroon, reigning champion Korea DPR and perennial women's soccer powerhouse Germany.

The USA got off on the right foot, putting together a 3-0 victory over a physical Cameroon side. The U.S. back line stood tall while the offense struggled in the early going, but the USA rode a wild first half into the break with a 2-0 lead. In the 22nd minute, the U.S. played on with a Cameroon player on the ground and as the African players paused, Mia Fishel raced towards goal, shot at the goalkeeper and then pounded her own rebound into the net to put the USA on the board. Tensions rose as the half wore on, culminating with a straight red card shown to the Cameroon 'keeper and a penalty kick awarded to the USA. Sunshine Fontes hammered it home to double the advantage and the Hawaiian forward clinched the match late with a long-range chip in the 81st minute.

Against Korea DPR, the USA were undone by set plays, allowing all three goals on corner kicks in a 3-0 loss. While the U.S. defense, led by goalkeeper Angelina Anderson, held strong during the run of play, the North Koreans capitalized on their set-piece opportunities, finding the net on three of five corners, including the first two of the game.

All four teams in Group C entered the final day of group play tied at three points and the USA needed a win against Germany to guarantee advancement to the quarterfinals. After falling behind early on a direct free kick in the fourth minute, the U.S. responded energetically, taking the initiative on the attack and creating a number of quality chances. Despite outshooting Germany and controlling the tempo of the game, the U.S. failed to finish any of its opportunities and German goalkeeper Wiebke Willebrandt put on a remarkable performance. In the first half, a U.S. goal was waved offside and another was disallowed because of a handball just before the break. Down 2-0, the USA fought valiantly in the second half, but was unable to find the back of net as Germany was ruthless on the counterattack, going on to win 4-0 as the U.S. failed to advance out of group play for a second straight U-17 WWC.

GREAT START, TOUGH FINISH IN JORDAN (2016)

The 2016 FIFA Under-17 Women's World Cup marked the first FIFA women's event in the Middle East and Jordan did not disappoint as hosts, putting on a fantastic tournament over four venues in and around the capital of Amman. The USA started the tournament with a 6-1 trouncing of Paraguay as forward Civanna Kuhlmann became the first U.S. player to score three times in a U-17 Women's World Cup match. She was the fourth U.S. player to score a hat trick in a youth Women's World Cup as three players had accomplished the feat at the U-20 level. Frankie Tagliaferri, Ashley Sanchez and defender Kiara Pickett also scored against Paraguay.

The USA got off to another fast start in its next Group D game against Ghana, scoring an early goal as Tagliaferri, off an assist from Kuhlmann, tallied again, this time in just the fifth minute, but then a physical Ghana side became the aggressor. Ghana scored an equalizer in the 63rd minute, and an 84th minute penalty kick called for a hand ball in the box turned out to be the USA's undoing. The young Americans fell 2-1 to set up a likely must-win game against powerhouse Japan in the group finale.

Against Japan, the USA started strongly as Sanchez put the USA up 1-0 in the 33rd minute when she burst past the back line to finish a breakaway. The Americans took the 1-0 lead into halftime and were in position to qualify for the quarterfinals even after Japan tied the game in the 53rd minute. That all changed around the 68th minute, when Ghana scored against Paraguay in the other group match taking place at the same time, meaning the USA needed a goal to win the game and earn the three required points to advance.

Instead, it was Japan that scored twice and the USA was eliminated after finishing third in Group D. Sanchez pulled a goal back in stoppage time for the final 3-2 score line, converting a penalty kick after she was taken down in the box, but the Americans would have needed two more scores at that point. The USA did have two goals called back for offside in the second half, significant calls that would have made a big difference had at least one gone the other way, but instead Japan advanced and made it to the championship game where it lost to Korea DPR in penalty kicks after a 0-0 draw in regulation.

FIVE POINTS NOT ENOUGH IN AZERBAIJAN (2012)

The 2012 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup in Azerbaijan turned into a painful learning experience for the young Americans who became the first team ever in a FIFA women's competition to earn five points in group play and yet fail to advance to the quarterfinals. The USA learned the importance of a goal or two in advancing during a World Cup, losing out to eventual champion France on goal difference to finish third in the group. It was the first time a U.S. women's team had not advanced out of group play during a FIFA event.

The USA was drawn into what turned out to be by far the most difficult group, which produced the eventual finalists and champion France. The Americans drew with the French 0-0 and tied eventual runners-up Korea DPR 1-1, but as it turned out, a 6-0 victory over Gambia in the middle game of Group B proved to be the USA's undoing. The North Koreans beat Gambia 11-0 and France beat the Africans, debutantes in a FIFA Women's World Cup, by a 10-2 score, getting six goals in the last 20 minutes to move ahead of the Americans on goal difference.

Still, there were many positives to be taken from the USA's Women's World Cup experience. The U.S. team allowed just one goal in the tournament and battled extremely talented French and Korean teams to the final whistle. Against North Korea, the USA took the lead on a goal from Darian Jenkins in just the second minute, only to concede a few minutes later to eventual Golden Ball winner Ri Un Sim in the fourth. The USA had several chances to steal the match at the end, but it was not to be and the Koreans deservedly won the group.

The USA did get a glimpse of some future talent, especially in goal where Jane Campbell showed signs that she could be one of the most talented young 'keepers to emerge in a while. In the beginning of 2013, she would get her first call-up to the full Women's National Team. Summer Green, the USA's leading scorer during the year, scored her first two World Cup goals.

Kudos should also go to Azerbaijan, the first predominantly Muslim country to stage a Women's World Cup at any level, as it put on a world class event. The tournament featured many activities around the matches and some of the best crowds of the three FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup tournaments held so far. France would eventually triumph in a penalty kick shootout that went eight players deep as France goalkeeper Romane Bruneau saved Ri Un Yong's attempt to end the game and Les Bleus lifted the trophy.

OH SO CLOSE IN NEW ZEALAND (2008)

The 2008 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup in New Zealand was held with 16 nations playing in four venues and four stadiums – Auckland, Hamilton, Wellington and Christchurch – and the tournament organizers put on a fantastic first world championship event for this age group.

The high level of play displayed over the 18 days from such young players was a sight to behold, giving cause for excitement about the U-17 and U-20 Women's World Cups to come. The organization from the Kiwis, as well as the support from the people of New Zealand, made the tournament memorable and added to the excitement for these players getting their first taste of soccer at the world stage.

The U.S. team actually started slow, losing its first match to a talented Japan team by a 3-2 score. The young Americans also needed to come from a goal down against a spunky Paraguay side in its second group match to win 3-1, setting up a clash with France for a spot in the quarterfinals. The USA gutted out a 1-1 tie against the French, but that was good enough to earn a quarterfinal meeting with Korea Republic.

The USA's World Cup run then picked up steam as the U-17s put together their best match to date, trouncing the Koreans, 4-2. A powerful German squad awaited in the semifinal, but the USA put forth a tremendous performance, coming back from a goal down to win, 2-1, as forwards Vicki DiMartino and Courtney Verloo each scored. Verloo (four goals) and DiMartino (five goals) combined for nine of the USA's 13 goals with Kristie Mewis adding two more.

The first ever FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup Final opened with a startling goal for the USA in just the second minute off a throw-in, but then Korea DPR methodically took control of the match and ended up doubling the USA in shots. Still, the USA clung to a 1-0 lead until the North Koreans tied the game with just 13 minutes left in regulation time. The match remained knotted at 1-1 and looked headed for penalty kicks, but Korea DPR scored the game-winner just three minutes from the end of overtime.

Despite the loss, which ended the USA's record of winning every "first" FIFA women's world championship (the 1991 FIFA Women's World Cup, the 1996 Olympics and the 2002 FIFA U-19 Women's World Cup), the young Americans distinguished themselves very well and the team produced numerous future professional players.

The USA's emotional run to the title game was backed by some excellent individual performances. Kristie Mewis won the Bronze Ball as the third best player in the tournament and would be named the U.S. Soccer Young Female Player of the Year a few months later. DiMartino won the Silver Shoe as the second leading scorer in the tournament and Taylor Vancil won the Golden Glove as the top 'keeper.

Other top players for the USA included defensive midfielder Amber Brooks, defenders Cloee Colohan, Rachel Quon and Crystal Dunn and midfielders Olivia Klei and Samantha Mewis. The Mewis sisters became the first siblings to represent the USA in a FIFA Women's World Cup.

U.S. UNDER-16 GIRLS' NATIONAL TEAM

U.S. U-16 GIRLS' NATIONAL TEAM SUPPORTS U-17 WORLD CUP EFFORTS

The U.S. Under-16 Girls' National Team was re-instituted in 2015. Prior to that year, U.S. Soccer had not had programming at the U-16 level since 2007. When FIFA instituted a world championship at the U-17 level for 2008 the U-16 age group was absorbed into the U-17s.

U.S. Soccer will continue to provide quality training environments and training sessions for young players and aggressively expand these efforts through its YNT Identification Center program and other initiatives.

As the U-17s have had Women's World Cups since 2008, the U-16s (and U-15s) become even more important as this age group has a tangible goal to play in a Women's World Cup.

The pool for the U-16s will be brought to several training camps over the course of the year to expose more players of this age to the National Team camp environment and experience. U-16 players may also be brought into U-17 training camps and events during the year. The player pool is identified on a year-round basis, through U.S. Soccer YNT ID Centers, club soccer, ODP interregional events and the younger Women's Youth National Team camps.

U-16 GNT camps are often scheduled to run concurrently with other YNT camps to give players an opportunity to watch and train against older players and learn through those experiences.

Players in this year's group of U-16s were born on or after Jan. 1, 2009 and transitioning to the 2010s in August.

THE U.S. WAY: The U.S. U-16 GNT played six international matches in 2024 and did not lose a game.

U.S. UNDER-15 GIRLS' NATIONAL TEAM

U.S. UNDER-15 GIRLS' NATIONAL TEAM SETS BASE FOR THE FUTURE

In its 22nd year of existence, the U.S. Under-15 National Team was instituted in 2004 to help bridge the gap between the annual summer Under-14 Women's National Identification Camp (which is no longer held, having been replaced for several years by U-14 GNT training camps and a U-14 Talent Identification Program) and the U.S. Under-17 Women's National Team. With the implementation of the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup, the importance of the U-15s and the U-16s has grown as this age group has a tangible goal when they enter their first major programming experience with the U.S. Women's National Teams.

U.S. Soccer's scouts monitor a large pool of players for the U-15s with many evaluated at the Youth National Team ID Centers across the country. A pool of around 35-40 players will be brought to several training camps and international friendlies over the course of the year to give more players of this age the experience of being in a National Team camp and match environment. The player pool is identified and monitored on a year-round basis through the YNT ID Centers with players coming from club soccer, ODP national/interregional events and U.S. U-14 Women's National Team camps.

In 2016, the USA participated for the first time in the Concacaf Women's U-15 Championship (the second time the tournament had been held). The USA won all seven games by shutout, compiling a 49-0 goal difference, and defeating Costa Rica 5-0 in the semifinal and Canada 2-0 in the championship game to take the regional title.

In 2018, the USA participated in its second Concacaf Women's U-15 Championship, taking a younger team of players born in 2004 and 2005 to play against teams of players mostly born in 2003. The USA won four games and lost one, that to guest team Portugal by a 3-0 score in group play, but avenged that setback in the semifinal, flipping the score to win 3-0. In the championship game, the USA battled Mexico to a 0-0 tie through the 70 minutes of regulation before scoring three goals in extra time via current NWSL players Jaedyn Shaw (two goals) and Alyssa Thompson.

In 2019, the U-15s played a series of friendlies vs. Netherlands and would have played more international matches in 2020 if not for the global pandemic. All programming was cancelled in 2021 due to the ongoing pandemic, but the team returned to the field in 2022 and won the Concacaf Girl's U-15 Championship in Tampa, Fla., which was the USA's third Concacaf title at this age level. The USA rolled through the competition, outscoring its five opponents by a 34-1 margin. In the semifinal, the USA defeated the Dominican Republic, 6-0, and then downed Canada, 4-1, in the championship game. Kennedy Fuller led the USA in scoring with nine goals while Abby Ballek had seven, Alex Pfeiffer had six, Ashlyn Puerta had five and Kimmi Ascanio scored four.

In 2024, the USA won its fourth Concacaf Women's U-15 Championship, once again in dominating fashion. This was the first Concacaf U-15 Women's Championship played outside the USA, but the USA still rolled over the competition in Costa Rica, scoring 31 goals while allow just one. After dominating victories over Jamaica (11-0), Costa Rica (3-0) and Haiti (13-0) in 80-minute matches, the USA and Canada battled to a 1-1 tie in the semifinal as young pro Mak Witham scored the USA's long goal and the USA triumphed in penalty kicks, 4-2. Maddie, DiMaria, KK Ream, Malia Brewer and Deus Stanislaus all converted. In the championship game, the USA downed Mexico, 3-0, on goals from Mia Corona, Witham and Brewer to once again claim the regional title. Midfielder Caroline Swann won Golden Ball as tournament's Best Player and forward Carolina Reyna won the Golden Boot as top scorer with six goals.

EXTENDED NATIONAL TEAMS

The Extended National Teams is a division of U.S. Soccer's Sporting Department focused on extending opportunities beyond the traditional 11-a-side game by championing awareness, access, growth and high-performance environments on the grass, court and sand.

THE TEAMS

The ENT Department now includes nine different U.S. Soccer National Teams, four of them Women's National Teams:

- Beach Soccer (MNT & WNT)
- Futsal (MNT & WNT)
- Cerebral Palsy (MNT & WNT)
- Deaf (MNT & WNT)
- Power Soccer (Coed NT)

BEACH AND FUTSAL PROGRAMS

Beach Soccer and Futsal are both five-a-side competitions that play in official men's FIFA World Cups every two and four years, respectively. Futsal is played indoors on a court with no walls, and Beach Soccer is, of course, played at the beach and showcases a unique culture at the highest level of the sport.

In 2022, U.S. Soccer announced the launch of the U.S. Women's Futsal National Team. The team held its first Identification Camps in 2023 and first full National Team camp in 2024. The Futsal WNT will play its first international matches in the first quarter of 2025 before participating in the inaugural Concacaf Women's Futsal Championship, which serves as qualification for the first FIFA Women's Futsal World Cup to be held Nov. 21-Dec. 7 in the Philippines.

First launched in 2019, the U.S. Women's Beach Soccer National Team competes in various competitions throughout the year, such as the Intercontinental Cup, Mundialito, and ANOC World Beach Games. In 2024, FIFA indicated it has plans to organize a Women's Beach Soccer World Cup in the coming years.

The Beach Soccer and Futsal National Teams see a variety of athletes playing for the love of the game, often seeing them achieve that impossible dream of playing for their country at World Cup.

DISABILITY SOCCER PROGRAMS

Cerebral Palsy (CP), Deaf and Power Soccer are three disciplines showcasing athletes with disabilities pushing themselves to excel at the highest levels of the sport.

Deaf Soccer is an 11-a-side sport for players with significant hearing impairments. Both the men's and women's NTs have a four-year cycle of competition that includes the Deaflympics and DIFA World Deaf Championship tournaments once every four years. The U.S. Women's Deaf National Team are current World and Deaflympics Champions.

CP Soccer is one of the oldest forms of soccer for players with disabilities, having been played since the 1980s, and predominantly features players with cerebral palsy, stroke or traumatic brain injuries. The team has frequently featured a number of U.S. military veterans through the years. In 2022, a Women's program was launched for the first time worldwide, and the USA won the initial IFCPF Women's World Cup in Spain.

Power Soccer is the first competitive team sport designed and developed specifically for power wheelchair users. It gives an opportunity to people with an array of different disabilities, including athletes with quadriplegia, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, cerebral palsy and many others. The co-ed U.S. team won the first two FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cups in 2007 and 2011, and finished third at the most recent World Cup in 2023.

U.S. WOMEN'S BEACH SOCCER NATIONAL TEAM

HEAD COACH: MORGAN CHURCH

MAJOR COMPETITION: 2025 EL SALVADOR CUP

The U.S. Women's Beach Soccer National Team took the field for the first time in August 2019 at Concacaf qualifying for the inaugural ANOC World Beach Games. Vying for the lone North American berth to the main event, the USA finished second in El Salvador, going 2-1-0, but still qualified for the World Beach Games thanks to another nation dropping out of the competition. At the World Beach Games, the Beach WNT dropped its first two matches before topping Paraguay to finish 1-2-0 and fifth place at the tournament.

In 2021, the Beach WNT participated in the first Women's Intercontinental Beach Soccer Cup that was held in Russia before the FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup at the same venue that hosted the men's tournament.

The Beach WNT returned to the sand in 2022 and won its first-ever tournament title by winning three games at the Costa del Sol Tournament in El Salvador.

The year 2023 marked another milestone campaign for the Beach WNT, earning six wins – the most victories for the team in a calendar year – including two victories against No. 2-ranked England.

The Beach WNT kicked off 2024 by claiming its third-ever tournament title at the El Salvador Beach Soccer Cup in March, and followed it up with a strong-second place finish at the Acapulco Beach Soccer Cup in December, to head into the new year ranked No. 8 in the BSWW Women's Ranking.

While there is currently no FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup for women, in fall 2024, FIFA committed to launching one in the near future.

BEACH SOCCER HISTORY

Born on the beaches in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, beach soccer has long been played informally on sandy shorelines around the world. Despite its South American roots, the game was codified in 1992 by a group in Los Angeles and one year later the first professional beach soccer competition was held at Miami Beach with the USA hosting Brazil, Argentina and Italy.

In 1994, the first World Championship was held for men's beach soccer in Rio de Janeiro, and the U.S. team had modest success with a second-place finish in 1995 and a third-place finish in 1997. FIFA recognized men's beach soccer beginning in 2005, and has staged ten FIFA Beach Soccer World Cups.

(i) Women's Intercontinental Beach Soccer Cup (B) Women's El Salvador Beach Soccer Cup

(A) Asuncion Cup (C) Acapulco Cup (M) Mundialito

BASIC LAWS OF THE GAME

Beach Soccer is played on a field that is approximately 36 meters long and 27 meters wide. The game is played on sand that is a minimum of 40 centimeters deep and players must be barefoot. Five players, including a goalkeeper, are on the field at one time and play three, 12-minute periods.

There are up to seven substitutes on the bench, and like Futsal, there are unlimited substitutions. In instances where games cannot end in ties, matches are decided by a three-minute overtime and then kicks from the penalty spot, which is an imaginary mark on an imaginary penalty area line nine meters from the goal.

Other rules include:

- After a ball goes out of bounds, it can be thrown or kicked back in play.
- Goalkeepers can pick up the first back pass from a teammate per possession.
- Players taking a free kick can make a small mound of sand to place the ball on.

U.S. WOMEN'S CEREBRAL PALSY NATIONAL TEAM

HEAD COACH: TRICIA TALIAFERRO

MAJOR COMPETITION: INTERNATIONAL FRIENDLY SERIES; LOCATION: TBD

The U.S. Women's Cerebral Palsy National Team was launched in January 2022 and immediately had success. The USA participated in the International Federation of CP Football Women's World Cup in May of 2022, claiming the World Cup title with a thrilling 4-2 extra time win against Australia in the Final, with Catarina Guimaraes leading the team with 11 goals in five matches.

After a year without matches in 2023, the CP WNT returned to action in 2024, playing its first two friendly matches in September against Ireland (6-2 win) and Denmark (16-4 win) in preparation for the second IFCPF Women's World Cup in November. The USA continued to show itself as one of the top teams in Women's CP football, finishing as runners up to Australia and taking its all-time record to 9W-2L-1D.

The Women's CP National Team is open to athletes with cerebral palsy, stroke, or traumatic brain injury. For more information or to inquire about athlete eligibility, please contact U.S. Soccer's Extended National Teams Department via email at extendednt@ussoccer.org.

U.S. WOMEN'S DEAF NATIONAL TEAM

HEAD COACH: AMY GRIFFIN

MAJOR COMPETITION: 2024 DEAF PAN AM GAMES; PORTO ALEGRE, BRAZIL

The U.S. Women's Deaf National Team officially joined U.S. Soccer's National Team programs in 2022, and under the guidance of 1991 Women's World Cup champion Amy Griffin, competed for the first time under the Federation at the 2023 DIFA World Deaf Football Championships in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia where the USA claimed its third-straight World Cup title.

Despite not having an international tournament in 2024, the Deaf WNT still found a way to make history when it faced Australia in the first match of a doubleheader with the U.S. Women's National Team on June 1 in Commerce City, Colo. Along with the 11-0 result, the encounter was historic for multiple reasons, as it marked the first ENT doubleheader with a senior national team, the first ENT match broadcast on linear television in the United States, while Volkswagen's title sponsorship was the first time an ENT match has had a presenting partner. If all that wasn't enough, it was also the Deaf WNT's first international match played on U.S. soil, and striker Emily Spreeman's six goals in the contest set a new single-game record for a U.S. Soccer 11v11 match.

At the end of the year, the Deaf WNT were then invited to Japan for a series of matches to mark one year out from the 2025 Deaflympics in Tokyo, Griffin used the two-match tour to bring a mix of new players in with the veteran group, and continued the USA's dominance, defeating Japan 6-1 on Nov. 15 and 7-0 on Nov. 17 to take the Deaf WNT's all-time record to 40W-0L-1D in 41 matches since 2005.

HISTORY OF DEAF SOCCER

Soccer, as with other team sports played with deaf participants, dates back to the founding of each sport; in the case of soccer, in England, the first organized game between deaf teams was played in 1871. However, United States participation in international soccer came along rather recently.

Internationally organized deaf sports date back to the formation of The Comite International des Sports des Sourds, founded in Paris, France on August, 1924. In the United States, the American Athletic Union of the deaf was formed in 1945, with the name being changed to the USA Deaf Sports Federation in 1997.

In 1965, the United States first entered a men's team in the Deaf Olympics, hosted by the United States, The USA team was 10th out of 10th teams. The United States has entered teams in most international deaf sports events since.

U.S. WOMEN'S DEAF NATIONAL TEAM HISTORY

The Deaf WNT formed to participate in the first Deaflympics in Australia, in 2005, and took the gold medal.

The first foray into the sport for the women's team began in 1999 with a small-sided outdoor tournament in London England, The St. John's Tournament. The USA team were tournament champions.

The U.S. team is currently coached by former U.S. Women's National Team goalkeeper and long-time college coach Amy Griffin with USWNT legend Joy Fawcett serving as an assistant coach.

The U.S. team has won four Deaflympics and three World Cup championships, and holds a 40-0-1 all-time record through 2023.

U.S. WOMEN'S FUTSAL NATIONAL TEAM

HEAD COACH: DIEGO BURATO

MAJOR INTERNATIONAL TOURNAMENT: 2024 CONCACAF WOMEN'S FUTSAL CHAMPIONSHIP; 2024 FIFA WOMEN'S FUTSAL WORLD CUP

With FIFA pushing to start a Women's Futsal World Cup, in 2022, U.S. Soccer announced its intention to launch a U.S. Women's Futsal National Team. Marcia Tafarel was appointed head coach of the Futsal WNT later that year and the program held its first Identification camps in 2023. After an 18-month identification process, the Futsal WNT held its first full National Team camp in July 2024 and enters the new year set to play its first international matches in February in preparation for the inaugural Concacaf Women's Futsal Championship in April. Should the Futsal WNT gain a successful outcome at the regional qualifying tournament, the USA will then participate in the first-ever FIFA Futsal World Cup to be held Nov. 21-Dec. 7 in the Philippines.

FUTSAL HISTORY

Futsal is a sport that is derived from soccer and played with five-player teams on a basketball-style court, with no walls and a smaller, low-bouncing ball. It is unlike the sport of indoor soccer, which is played with six-man squads and walls on turf. Great soccer superstars such as Pele, Zico, and Ronaldo grew up playing futsal and credit the game with developing their skills.

The first Men's FIFA Futsal World Cup was held in the Netherlands in 1989. In 1992 the U.S. Futsal Team set the mark for highest finish for a U.S. male National Team at a FIFA competition, with a second-place finish behind legendary indoor goalkeeper Victor Nogueira and stars from the Indoor leagues like Ted Eck, Jim Gabarra and Dale Ervine. The 1992 Team also included Jeff Agoos and Fernando Clavijo, who later appeared in World Cups for the full Men's National Team.

Futsal has experienced a massive growth in popularity over the years, with the Men's World Cup field now standing at 24 teams. Once seen as an amateur sport that players would use to hone their skills before transitioning to the outdoor game, many of the participating nations in the Men's World Cup now sport their own professional futsal leagues and play dozens of full internationals a year.

U.S. POWER SOCCER NATIONAL TEAM

HEAD COACH: TRACY MAYER

MAJOR COMPETITION: 2024 APFC AMERICAS CUP

Coming off a third place finish at the 2023 FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cup in Sydney, Australia, the U.S. Power Soccer National Team used 2024 to begin preparation for the 2025 APFC Americas Cup. Set for this October in Uruguay, the competition brings together the best powerchair football teams in North and South America and serves as qualifying for the 2026 FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cup to be held the following October in Argentina.

*FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cup; ^APFC Americas Cup

The U.S. Power Soccer National Team has competed independently since 2007, and officially joined U.S. Soccer's Extended National Team program in 2022 as part of U.S. Soccer's effort to build out programming for soccer in all of its forms. Power Soccer is the first competitive team sport developed specifically for powerchair users and has been played internationally since 2006.

The USA has been one of the top teams in the world since international play began, winning the 2007 and 2011 FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cups, and finishing as runners-up in the 2017 edition. In 2023, the Power NT participated in its first competition as a fully-funded National Team under U.S. Soccer at the FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cup. In Australia, the USA showed its prowess on set pieces throughout the tournament, but fell 1-0 in the semifinal to England before rebounding to earn a 2-1 win against Argentina and the bronze medal.

The co-ed Power Soccer National Team is for athletes who use power chairs and can qualify through a variety of conditions, including quadriplegia, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, and cerebral palsy, among others. The game is played in a gymnasium on a regulation basketball court with four players who attack, defend, and spin-kick a 13-inch soccer ball in a skilled and challenging game similar to mainstream soccer.

If you or someone you know qualifies for the Power Soccer National Team (co-ed), you can contact us via email at ExtendedNT@ussoccer.org for more information on potential playing opportunities.

COMPETITIONS

FIFA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Federation Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) conducts eight major outdoor soccer world championships played at the international level. Those tournaments are the FIFA World Cup, the FIFA Women's World Cup, the Men's Olympic Football Tournament, the Women's Olympic Football Tournament, the FIFA Under-20 World Cup, the FIFA Under-17 World Cup, the FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup and the FIFA Under-17 Women's World Cup. Additionally, FIFA also conducts the Futsal World Cup every four years, and the Beach Soccer World Cup biennially. A quick synopsis of these tournaments is listed below. More detail can be found on USA performances at each of these tournaments throughout the U.S. Men's National Team Media Guide and the U.S. Women's National Team Media Guide.

FIFA WORLD CUP

The FIFA World Cup has been played 22 times since the first competition in 1930 in Uruguay. The tournament has grown in stature over the years and has become not only the biggest sporting event in the world, but also simply the biggest event in the world every four years. Outside of the USA's third-place finish in the inaugural tournament, the team's quarterfinal run in 2002 is the side's best World Cup finish.

FIFA WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

The FIFA Women's World Cup has been contested on nine occasions with the USA earning four championships (China '91, USA '99, Canada '15 and France '19), Germany two (USA '03 and China '07) and Norway (Sweden '95) and Japan (Germany '11) one each. The Women's World Cup returned to North America in 2015, with Canada hosting an expanded 24-team field after the previous four editions featured 16 nations. After falling to Japan on penalty kicks in the 2011 final, the U.S. navigated its way back to a rematch with the defending World Cup champions, earning a 5-2 victory on July 5 in Vancouver to become the first nation to capture three Women's World Cup championships. The 2023 FIFA Women's World cup, which was jointly hosted by Australia and New Zealand, featured an expanded field of 32 nations.

OLYMPIC FOOTBALL TOURNAMENTS

After competing as an exhibition sport at the 1900 and 1904 Olympic Games, soccer became the first team sport included in the Olympics with the first official tournament dating back to the 1908 London Games when the United Kingdom defeated Denmark to claim the gold medal. Since that time soccer has been part of every Olympiad except the 1932 event in the United States.

On the women's side, the sport wasn't introduced to the Olympics until the 1996 competition in the United States. The U.S. claimed the inaugural gold medal in women's Olympic football by defeating China 2-1 on Aug. 1, 1996, in front of a capacity crowd of 76,481 fans in Athens, Georgia.

The growth of professional football after World War II meant that some of the best players were not eligible to compete in the Olympics. Nevertheless, the Olympic Tournament retained its vitality as a forum for the amateur game. In 1952, Hungary's great generation with players such as Grosics, Czibor, Puskas and Kocsis won the tournament in Helsinki. After that, and until Los Angeles in 1984, all the Olympic titles went to Eastern Europe, a span of eight straight tournaments.

When the Olympics entered the modern era, FIFA was obliged to reconsider its position for the Barcelona 1992 tournament, where, for the first time, the tournament was restricted to Under-23 national teams. In 1996, FIFA altered the U-23 designation slightly, allowing teams to add three overage players into the mix, a rule that is still in effect.

Through the 1928 Olympics in Holland, Olympic caps were counted as full international appearances, but that designation changed with the advent of the World Cup in 1930. Although the Olympic Games football tournament actually falls under the realm of the International Olympic Committee, FIFA presides over the event on behalf of the IOC.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games were postponed to 2021.

FIFA U-20 WORLD CUP

Contested every two years, the FIFA Under-20 World Cup is restricted to players under 20 years of age. The tournament was renamed from the FIFA World Youth Championship in 2006. The U.S. has qualified for the tournament on 16 occasions, finishing fourth in 1989 (Saudi Arabia). At the most recent tournament in 2019 in Poland, the U.S. opened group play 2-1 loss to eventual champions Ukraine before reeling off victories against Nigeria (2-0) and Qatar (1-0) to advance to the knockout stage. In the Round of 16, the U-20 MNT won a thrilling game against favorites France 3-2 to move on to the quarterfinals where it faced eventual third place finisher Ecuador and dropped an incredibly competitive match, 2-1. The U-20 MNT's performance marked the third consecutive time the team reached the quarterfinals after also doing so in 2017 and 2015, making the USA the only nation to reach the quarterfinals of the last three U-20 World Cups. Forward Eddie Johnson became the first U.S. player to win a Golden Boot at a FIFA World Championship in 2003. After finishing second in the 1999 and 2001 group phase, the U.S. went one better, winning its group three consecutive tournaments from 2003-07.

FIFA U-20 WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

Renamed the FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup in 2008, the tournament was staged as a U-20 event for the first time in 2006 after two initial tournaments were played as Under-19 events. The inaugural FIFA U-19 Women's World Championship was held in Canada from Aug. 17-Sept. 1, 2002, with 12 teams. That first tournament was an incredible success, with the USA capturing the first championship via a Lindsay Tarpley golden goal in a 1-0 victory in front of 47,784 fans in Edmonton, Canada. The U.S. fell to Germany in the semifinals in Thailand in 2004, and in 2006 finished out of the top three for the first time in program history. In 2008, however, Golden Ball winner Sydney Leroux and Silver Ball winner Alex Morgan returned the U.S. to the top of the podium. After getting knocked out once again in penalty kicks in 2010, this time in the quarterfinal, a 1-0 victory against Germany in the 2012 U-20 Women's World Cup Final in Tokyo capped a remarkable run by the young Americans with defender and captain Julie Johnston) earning the Bronze Ball. In 2014, the USA once again fell on penalty kicks, losing to Korea DPR in a quarterfinal shootout after drawing 1-1, and in 2016 it finished in fourth place after losing to eventual World Cup champion Korea DPR in the semifinal, 2-1. The 2018 edition of the tournament saw the U.S. ousted from a tough group that included champions Japan and runner-up Spain. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the 2020 edition of the tournament was postponed and eventually cancelled. At the 2022 U-20 Women's World Cup in Costa Rica, the U.S. failed to advance to the knockout round having been drawn into a challenging group that included eventual runner-up Japan and fourth-place finisher the Netherlands. In 2024, the USA played a dynamic tournament, defeating the Netherlands, 2-1, in the Third-Place Match to reach the podium for the first time since 2012. This edition of the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup saw the tournament field expanded to 24 nations for the first time.

FIFA U-17 WORLD CUP

The FIFA U-17 World Cup is contested every two years for players under 17 years of age. The U.S. was the only team in the world to qualify for every U-17 World Championship, from the tournament's inception in 1985 through 2013. The first three tournaments were actually played as U-16 World Championships, but FIFA changed the event to its present U-17 status in 1989. The Concacaf region hosted the tournament for a first time in 2001, when Trinidad & Tobago served as the first-ever Caribbean host for a FIFA World Championship. Mexico became the first Concacaf team to win an outdoor men's world championship in 2005 with an impressive triumph in Peru before winning the tournament a second time in 2013 as the host country. The U.S. returned to the U-17 World Cup in 2015 but could not escape the group phase. 2017 saw another leap forward as the U.S. went on a freewheeling run to the quarterfinal (the first time both the U.S. U-17 and U-20 MNTs reached a World Cup quarterfinal in the same year) before bowing out to eventual champs England. The U.S. achieved its best result in 1999, finishing fourth.

FIFA U-17 WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

The FIFA Under-17 Women's World Cup was played for the first time in 2008 in New Zealand. The U.S. made an impressive run to the final where it was defeated by Korea DPR in overtime. In 2012 in Azerbaijan, the USA was drawn into a group with eventual finalists France and Korea DPR, and despite not losing a game and earning five points in the group, the young Americans failed to advance to the knockout stage, becoming the first women's team in a FIFA event to earn five points in its group but not advance. The USA did not qualify for the 2010 or 2014 U-17 Women's World Cups, losing in penalty kicks in the semifinal of the qualifying tournaments. The USA failed to advance past the group stage in both 2016 and 2018. Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the 2020 edition of the tournament was postponed and eventually cancelled. India hosted the 2022 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup, where the USA won its group but fell in penalty kicks in the quarterfinal. In 2024, the USA logged its best finish since the inaugural tournament, defeating England in the Third-Place Match to take the bronze medal. After being staged every two years for first 16 years of existence, the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup will be played annually starting in 2025.

FIFA FUTSAL WORLD CUP

The FIFA Futsal World Cup has been contested seven times with Brazil winning the first three tournaments, and Spain winning two championships in 2000 and 2004 before Brazil returned to glory as hosts in 2008 and defeated Spain for a fifth title in 2012. The Futsal World Cup is the only indoor tournament hosted by FIFA. The 1992 second-place finish was the best-ever showing in a FIFA event by a U.S. men's team and came on the heels of a third-place finish in 1989.

FIFA BEACH SOCCER WORLD CUP

Beach soccer became a part of the FIFA family in 2005 when the first FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup was staged on Copacabana Beach in Rio de Janeiro. To everyone's surprise, France defeated Portugal in the final, while Brazil fell in the semis; however, Brazil rebounded to win four straight tournaments from 2006-09. 2011 marked the first time the competition was played biennially and ushered in a new era of dominance as Russia upended Brazil in the final before defeating Spain in 2013 to claim a second straight championship. Portugal won at home in 2015, while Brazil returned to glory in 2017 and earned its fifth title. Portugal captured its second title in 2019, which the USA qualified for but did not escape its group that featured semifinalists Japan and host nation Paraguay. The USA again qualified in 2021 and 2023, hanging tough during the group stage, but ultimately failing to advance in Russia and UAE, respectively.

FIFA CONFEDERATIONS CUP

The Confederations Cup was contested under FIFA's auspices for the first time in 1997 and replaced the Intercontinental Championship, which was staged in 1992 and 1995 with all three tournaments held in Saudi Arabia. In 1999, the Confederations Cup was held in Mexico and it returned to Asia in 2001, where it was staged as a precursor to the 2002 FIFA World Cup in Korea and Japan. In 2005, the competition became quadrennial, staged one year before the World Cup in the tournament's host country. Brazil won the tournament from 2005-13, defeating the U.S. in the final of the 2009 edition after the USA had built a 2-0 half-time lead. In 2017, defending World Cup champion Germany defeated South American champions Chile, 1-0 to claim its first Confederations Cup title. In 2019, FIFA announced plans to abolish the tournament and replace it instead with a quadrennial, 24-team FIFA Club World Cup.

OLYMPIC HISTORY

HISTORY OF SOCCER PARTICIPATION

The first official men's Olympic soccer tournament dates back to the 1908 London Games, when Great Britain defeated Denmark to claim the first soccer gold medal. Since that time soccer has been part of every Olympic Games Program, with the exception of the 1932 Los Angeles Games. The 1940 and 1944 Olympic Games were canceled completely due to the political tensions surrounding World War II.

The United States has competed in the men's Olympic finals 13 times, including five straight tournaments from 1984 to 2000. In addition, the U.S. qualified for – but did not compete in – the 1980 Moscow Games following a boycott by the U.S. Olympic Committee. The U.S. missed out on qualifying for the 2004 Athens Olympics, but returned in 2008 after finishing second at the Concacaf qualifying event, which was held in the U.S. The U.S. men qualified for the 2024 Olympics with a dominant 3-0 win over host Honduras in the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Championship semifinal.

In 2012, the U.S. Women's National Team earned its third straight gold medal and fourth overall when it topped 2011 FIFA Women's World Cup champion Japan on Aug. 9 in front of more than 80,000 spectators at Wembley Stadium in London. The U.S. Men were eliminated in Concacaf qualifying in March, dropping to third place in their group following a late El Salvador goal in the closing seconds of a 3-3 draw on March 26.

Up until and including the 1988 Seoul Games, the Olympic soccer tournament was an unrestricted event, and thus the U.S. Olympic Soccer Team was essentially the U.S. National Team. However the tournament structure has changed since that time, and the restrictions on age and experience of players involved in Olympic competition has been under review by FIFA, which makes all tournament recommendations to the International Olympic Committee (IOC).

The 1992 Barcelona Games proved to be the turning point in the Olympic soccer tournament, when the tournament was competed as an under-23 event for the first time. Host Spain captured the title at Barcelona's famed Nou Camp Stadium in front of 95,000 jubilant fans. Spain's progress in the tournament aided struggling attendances in 1992, which were far lower than expected. There is little doubt that the poor attendance in Spain played a role in the changes made for the 1996 Atlanta Games.

Not only did Atlanta '96 signify the first time women's soccer was included in the Olympic Program, but the men's tournament was adapted from its under-23 format in 1992 to include three "overage" players. "Overage" players are those who were either over 23 years of age or who previously played in an Olympic Games soccer tournament. Claudio Reyna (who was age eligible in 1996, but had competed for the U.S. in 1992), Kasey Keller and Alexi Lalas were the USA's overage players in 1996.

In 2000, veteran defenders Jeff Agoos and Frankie Hejduk, as well as goalkeeper Brad Friedel, were selected as the USA's overage players, helping the team on an unprecedented tournament run, which saw the U.S. advance to the medal round before falling in the semifinals to a strong Spanish team.

For the 2008 Olympics in China, Brian McBride agreed to come out of international retirement and captained a team that included Under-23 stars Sacha Kljestan and Freddy Adu, who had paced the U.S. through qualifying. After a 1-0 victory against Japan in the first game, the U.S. was minutes away from upsetting reigning European champions Netherlands, but had to settle for a 2-2 tie after giving up a late free kick goal. In the third group game, eventual runner-up Nigeria took advantage of a third-minute red card by Michael Orozco and held on for a 2-1 win to send the U.S. home despite earning four points.

The U.S. Women's National Team claimed the inaugural gold medal in women's competition at the Atlanta Games with a 2-1 victory over China before 76,481 fans on Aug. 1, 1996, in Athens, Ga. The attendance mark, which at the time was the largest crowd to ever watch a women's athletic event, set the stage for the incredibly successful Women's World Cup staged in the U.S. in 1999. The gold medal victory culminated an impressive five-game undefeated run through the tournament in which the U.S. Women played in front of packed crowds.

As they did in 1996, the U.S. Women had a strong run to the medal stand in 2000, winning the “Group of Death” that included China, Nigeria and Norway. In the Gold Medal match, a spirited Norway team refused to yield and eventually took home the gold with a thrilling 3-2 overtime triumph.

The 2004 Athens Games were a fitting end for a number of U.S. veterans, including Mia Hamm, Julie Foudy and Joy Fawcett, who went out of the sport as they came into it: as champions. The never-say-die team won both its semifinal and final matches in overtime, courtesy of a Heather O'Reilly strike against Germany and an Abby Wambach goal against Brazil to claim the gold.

Four years later, the U.S. came into the Olympics without Wambach, the team's top scorer who broke her leg in a preparation match. With Pia Sundhage leading the team into her first world championship as head coach, a new class of players including Hope Solo, Carli Lloyd and surprise leading scorer Angela Hucles led the team to gold with a 1-0 victory over Brazil.

In 2012, the U.S. Women went undefeated at 6-0-0 for the first time at an Olympic tournament. The USA's run included a thrilling come-from-behind victory in the semifinal against Canada, with Alex Morgan scoring the game-winner in the 123rd minute for the latest goal ever scored in a FIFA competition. In the gold medal match, Lloyd scored both U.S. goals against Japan and the USA became the first country – in either men's or women's soccer – to earn a fourth gold.

In 2016, the U.S. women defeated New Zealand 2-0 to open their Olympic tournament in Belo Horizonte, and went on to defeat France 1-0 before drawing Colombia 2-2 in Manaus to win the group. In the quarterfinal round, the USA fell to Sweden in penalty kicks following a 1-1 draw through regulation and extra time despite outshooting Sweden 27 to 6 and dominating much of the match. It was the first time in USWNT's history that the team did not medal at an Olympic tournament.

The U.S. Women returned to the podium in 2021, as the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games were postponed one year due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The USA fell to Sweden in the opening match of group play but responded with a 6-1 win over New Zealand and a 0-0 draw against Australia to finish second in the group and advance to the knockout round. In the quarterfinal round, the USA defeated the Netherlands, 4-2 on penalty kicks, following a riveting 2-2 draw through regulation and extra time. After falling to Canada on a late penalty kick in the semifinal, the USWNT bounced back to win the bronze medal with a 4-3 win over Australia.

At the 2024 Olympics, the U.S. Women put together one of the best stories in women's soccer history, rebounding from a disappointing Women's World Cup in 2023 to win the program's fifth Olympic gold medal. The USA defeated Brazil, 1-0, in the gold medal match in Paris in new head coach Emma Hayes' 10th match at the helm and in just her 75th day on the job. The remarkable and inspirational run to Olympic gold was fueled by tremendously tough defense – the Americans allowed just two goals in the tournament while getting stellar tournaments from goalkeeper Alyssa Naeher and center back Naomi Girma – and the “Triple Espresso” forward line of Trinity Rodman, Sophia Smith and Mallory Swanson who combined for 10 of the USA's 12 goals and five of the nine assists. At least one member of the “Triple Espresso” scored in each game, with all three forwards producing historic moment in the knockout rounds, with Rodman scoring the winning goal in overtime of the 1-0 quarterfinal against Japan, Smith scoring the winning goal in overtime of the 1-0 semifinal against Germany and Swanson scoring the winning goal in the 1-0 win over Brazil in the final. It was the USWNT's seventh Olympic medal overall, the most of any country.

PAN AM GAMES

HISTORY OF SOCCER PARTICIPATION

The Pan American Games are held every four years during the summer preceding the Olympic Games. In terms of the number of sports and athletes, the Pan American Games are second in size only to the Olympics. The men's soccer tournament has been part of every Pan American games since its inception and in 1999 women's soccer made its debut.

After scheduling conflicts kept the United States from competing in the 2003 games in Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, U.S. Soccer was able to return to the competition at the 2007 event in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. However, conflicts again kept the U.S. out of the 2011 event hosted in Mexico and also precluded participation in all subsequent Pan Am Games until 2023, when the Women's Under-19 and a Men's U-22 squad, to align with the Olympics' U-23 age requirement the following year, competed in the tournament in Chile. The U-19 WYNT took bronze in the tournament, suffering its only defeat in the semifinal to the host Chile squad that featured many senior National Team players. Head coach Carrie Kveton's squad bounced back with a 2-0 victory over Argentina in the bronze medal match. The U-22 MYNT finished fourth in the competition, failing to eventual champions Brazil 1-0 in the opening match before closing out the group with wins over Honduras and Colombia.

In 2007, the U.S. Men's team was represented by head coach Bob Jenkins' Under-18 Men's National Team, and after opening the tournament with a strong 2-1 win over Venezuela, the U.S. dropped its next two games and was eliminated. In its second match, the U.S. led Bolivia 2-0 at the half, only to lose 4-2. Against Mexico in its final group game, the teams were tied 0-0 with 15 minutes remaining when the U.S. was reduced to 10 men, and eventually lost 2-0.

That same year, the U.S. Under-20 Women's National Team had a very strong run into the tournament finals, behind a blistering six-goal tournament from Lauren Cheney (U.S. Soccer's Young Female Athlete of the Year in 2007). After winning their group with a 2-1-0 record, head coach Jill Ellis' U-20s defeated the Senior Canada Women's National Team 2-1 in the semifinal, then lost to the full Brazil Women's National Team 5-0 in the final.

In 1999, the U.S. Under-23 National Team competed in the men's tournament, while the U.S. Under-18 Women's National Team represented the U.S. in the women's competition held in Winnipeg, Canada. The U.S. Men captured the second Pan-Am Games Bronze Medal in their history with a 2-1 victory over the Canada in the third-place match. Carlos Bocanegra and a young Landon Donovan led the USA with goals in that match.

The Women's U-18 squad captured gold medal in the first-ever Pan American Women's Final with a hard-fought 1-0 win over an older Mexico squad. The U.S. Women dominated their opponents throughout the tournament, going undefeated in six games (5-0-1) while outscoring their opposition 22-2.

The first Pan American Games were held in 1951, but its history goes back two decades earlier. In 1932, the South American delegation of the International Olympic Committee (IOC) proposed the formation of an organization to promote amateur sports in the Americas. The idea led to the first Pan American Sports Congress in Buenos Aires, Argentina, in 1940. The 16 countries represented at the meeting formed the Pan American Sports Committee, and agreed to hold the first Pan American Games in 1942 in Buenos Aires, but World War II forced their postponement.

The idea stayed alive, and the first Pan American Games finally opened in Buenos Aires on Feb. 25, 1951. The organization governing the Games was renamed the Pan American Sports Organization (PASO) and is made up of nations of North, Central and South America and the Caribbean.

The soccer tournament at the Pan American Games has never enjoyed a very high profile, perhaps because in the past competing nations have not sent their strongest team. The one exception was the 1975 Games in Mexico City, when 110,000 spectators turned out at Azteca Stadium to watch the final between Mexico and Brazil.

Like many of the competing nations, the United States has used the competition as a preparation for the Olympic Games. In 1991, the U.S. won its first Pan American gold medal in soccer in Havana, Cuba, defeating Mexico 2-1 in overtime. Former U.S. Men's National Team midfielder Joe-Max Moore scored a sensational free kick to win that game for the Americans.

Concacaf

CONCACAF WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

Hosts, Champions & Qualifiers

Concacaf has hosted 17 competitions that have served as regional championships for Women's National Teams. The USA has participated in 16 of those tournaments, missing only the 1998 Concacaf Women's Championship when the Americans were automatic qualifiers for the 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup, which it hosted. The USA has won 15 Concacaf championships.

Eight of those tournaments were qualifying events for the FIFA Women's World Cup, five were Olympic Qualifying tournaments, one served as qualifying for both the World Cup and Olympics, and two did not have any qualifying ramifications (the Women's Gold Cup in 2000 and the Concacaf Women's Championship in 1993). The 1996 and 2000 Olympic Women's Soccer Tournaments did not have Concacaf Qualifying events as the teams qualified for the Olympics based on their Women's World Cup finish the previous years.

Three of the tournaments were called Concacaf Women's Gold Cups. Those took place in 2000 (hosted by USA) when it was an eight-team competition that was not a qualifying tournament and featured guest team Brazil; in 2002 in a tournament co-hosted by Canada and the USA that served as the qualifying for the 2003 FIFA Women's World Cup; and a six-team event in 2006 hosted by the USA that served as qualifying for the 2007 FIFA Women's World Cup.

In December 2020, Concacaf announced plans for a new structure for the senior Women's National Team calendar and in August 2021, the Confederation unveiled the qualifying path to the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup, which also served as the path to the 2024 Olympic Games in Paris and, for a few teams, the newly instituted 2024 Concacaf W Gold Cup.

The newly dubbed 2021 Concacaf W Qualifiers began for all teams – except the USA and Canada – during the FIFA Women's Match Windows in November 2021 and continued in April 2022, and served as the preliminary round of the 2022 Concacaf W Championship. The eight team Concacaf W Championship was held in July 2022 and consisted of group play, followed by semifinal and championship rounds. Along with qualifying for the World Cup, at conclusion of the Concacaf W Championship, the winning nation – the USA – guaranteed its place in the 2024 Paris Summer Olympic Games Women's Football Tournament and the 2024 Concacaf W Gold Cup. The runner-up (Canada) and the third-place nation (Jamaica) progressed to a Concacaf Olympic play-in, which Canada won in September of 2023 to clinch Concacaf's second berth to the 2024 Paris Summer Olympic Games and qualify for the 2024 W Gold Cup.

In 2024, the USA won the first-ever and newly dubbed Concacaf W Gold Cup, defeating Brazil in the, 1-0, in the championship game. It was the USA's 15th Concacaf title.

SHEBELIEVES CUP

Inspired by the U.S. WNT players, SheBelieves is an initiative led by U.S. Soccer to inspire and encourage women and girls. The campaign launched in the run-up to the 2015 Women's World Cup and has since grown into a powerful message of empowerment and believing in oneself. The SheBelieves Cup, presented by Visa, is a four-team elite international tournament, represents a showcase event for the campaign, which also features efforts such as the SheBelieves Summit, presented by Deloitte, a forum bringing together young professionals and leaders in sport and business, SheBelieves Hero™, a nationwide search for a young community leader who embodies the SheBelieves ethos, SheBelieves Academy, an online learning tool conceived in partnership with author Joan Kuhl and designed to help young women achieve personally and professionally, and SheChampions, a coach mentorship program conceived in collaboration with former head coach Jill Ellis to increase the number of female coaches in the U.S. through mentorship, resources, and support.

SHEBELIEVES CUP HISTORY

In 2024, the SheBelieves Cup will be staged for the ninth time, this year featuring the USA, Brazil, Canada and Japan.

2024 SHEBELIEVES CUP

In 2024, the SheBelieves Cup was staged for the ninth time, once again featuring the USA, Brazil, Canada and Japan. Due to the change in FIFA competition windows and the staging of the Concacaf W Gold Cup in February and March of 2024, the tournament was played in a two venue, four-match format instead of the usual six games. The team played semifinals on the first match day and then a Third-Place Match and Championship Game on the second. Three of the four games went to penalty kicks. In the first semifinal, the USA defeated Japan, 2-1, in front of 50,644 fans, a record for a domestic friendly, coming back from a goal down to win on scores from Jaedyn Shaw and Lindsey Horan (from the penalty spot). Brazil and Canada tied 1-1 in the other semifinal before Canada triumphed, 4-2, in penalty kicks. In the Third-Place Match, Japan and Brazil tied 1-1 before Brazil won 3-0 in the penalty kick shootout. In the Championship Game, the USA and Canada battled to a 2-2 draw in regulation time with Sophia Smith scoring both goals. In penalty kicks, goalkeeper Alyssa Naeher saved three of Canada's spot kicks and made one of her own as the USA won 5-4 in the seven round shootout. Smith, Lindsey Horan, Abby Dahlkemper and Emily Fox also converted, with Fox burying her first penalty kick ever on the pro level.

2023 SHEBELIEVES CUP

The 2023 SheBelieves Cup returned to its three city format for the first time since 2020, with stops at Exploria Stadium in Orlando, Fla., GEODIS Parks in Nashville, Tennessee and Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Texas. The USWNT opened the competition with a convincing 2-0 win over Canada behind a brace from forward Mallory Swanson. Swanson proved unstoppable during the tournament, scoring the lone goal in the USA's 1-0 victory over Japan in Nashville, Tennessee and finding the back of the net again in the USWNT's 2-1 win over Brazil to close out the tournament. Swanson was named tournament MVP as she became the first player to score in every match at a single SheBelieves Cup and Alex Morgan also scored for the Americans against Brazil. Japan finished second in the tournament thanks to a commanding 3-0 win over Canada on the final match day in Frisco while Brazil finished third and Canada took fourth.

2022 SHEBELIEVES CUP

The 2022 SheBelieves Cup featured the first two match days at the Dignity Health Sports Park in Carson, Calif., before moving to Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Tex., for the final doubleheader. The USA's opening game was a surprising 0-0 draw with a talented Czech Republic team, but most of the credit went to Czech goalkeeper Barbora Votíková who made eight saves to help her side earn a point. The USA then rallied to rout New Zealand (in a match that oddly featured three own goals by the same New Zealand player) and Iceland, both by 5-0 scores, to win the tournament. Mallory Pugh scored three times for the USA, but Catarina Macario was named MVP after her two goals in the finale against Iceland. Ashley Hatch and Kristie Mewis also scored for the USA in the tournament. Iceland finished second in a fine performance after defeating New Zealand, 1-0, and downing Czech Republic, 2-1, while the Czechs and the Football Ferns finished third and fourth, respectively after not winning a match.

2021 SHEBELIEVES CUP

In the 2021 SheBelieves Cup, which was held exclusively at Exploria Stadium in Orlando, Fla. due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the USA swept the competition and became the first nation to win back-to-back SheBelieves Cup titles. The Americans swept all three matches, 1-0 vs. Canada, 2-0 vs. Brazil and 6-0 vs. Argentina, and in the process, became and the first team to not allow a single goal at the competition. USWNT midfielder Rose Lavelle was awarded the Visa SheBelieves Cup MVP award and scored the game-winning goal vs. Canada in the USA's first match of the Tournament. Christen Press and Megan Rapinoe scored in the win over Brazil, who finished second after wins over Canada (2-0) and Argentina (4-1). Canada's lone win of the tournament came in a 1-0 victory over fellow SheBelieves Cup debutant Argentina. The 2021 SheBelieves Cup produced a total of 17 goals.

2020 SHEBELIEVES CUP

In the 2020 SheBelieves Cup, which was the USA's final competition before the sports world shut down (it would be 261 days before the USA would play again), the American women took the title while sweeping all three games, 2-0 vs. England, 1-0 vs. Spain and 3-1 vs. Japan. The victory against Spain came on a last gasp header from Julie Ertz that whipped the sold-out crowd at Red Bull Arena into a frenzy. Spain finished second after wins over Japan (3-1) and England (1-0) and Alexia Putellas, who scored twice in the tournament, was named the first-ever SheBelieves Cup Visa MVP. England managed to beat Japan, 1-0, in its middle match, but fell to the USA and Spain in its first and last games, respectively. A Japan team in transition allowed the most goals in the tournament (7) and failed to win a game, finishing fourth. After a 19-goal bonanza in 2019, the 2020 SheBelieves Cup produced 13 total scores.

2019 SHEBELIEVES CUP

In the 2019 SheBelieves Cup, the USA finished second, in part because the Americans allowed an equalizer in second half stoppage time in a 2-2 draw with Japan to open the tournament. The USA then drew England, 2-2, and beat Brazil, 1-0, but England won the event after a 2-1 win over Brazil and a 3-0 win against Japan. Japan went 1-1-1, beating Brazil 3-1 to finish third, while Brazil failed to win a game and finished fourth. This tournament saw even more goals scored than in 2018, with 19 hitting the back of the net.

2018 SHEBELIEVES CUP

In the 2018 SheBelieves Cup the goals finally started flowing. After the first two tournaments produced nine goals each, 16 were scored over the six games in 2018. The U.S. games were tight as the Americans defeated Germany 1-0 on a goal from Megan Rapinoe, tied France 1-1 on a goal from Mallory Pugh, and then defeated England 1-0 on an England own goal that was created by a Megan Rapinoe cross. England finished second by virtue of its 4-1 win against a France team playing a few reserves and a 2-2 draw with Germany. France finished third but did end on a high note with a 3-0 victory against Germany while the Germans finished fourth after failing to win a game.

U.S. SOCCER HISTORY & INFORMATION

Cindy PARLOW CONE

U.S. Soccer President

Cindy Parlow Cone is first female President of U.S. Soccer, the second sitting National Soccer Hall of Fame inductee and the first to hold the position who played for a senior U.S. National Team. Cone was elevated from Vice President to President of the U.S. Soccer Federation on March 12, 2020. She is also one of only nine female federation presidents across FIFA's 211 member associations (as of May 3, 2022).

In March of 2025, she was elected to the FIFA Council as the North America representative from Concacaf.

She was first elected Vice President of U.S. Soccer in February of 2019 at the U.S. Soccer Annual General Meeting and served in the position for a year, completing the term that was vacated. She then was re-elected to a full, four-year term at the 2020 AGM in February.

While leading the Federation back to resuming programming through the COVID-19 global pandemic, which began just after her being elevated to President, Cone's priorities included focusing on improving U.S. Soccer's efforts to take meaningful action in the diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging space, bringing commercial rights back in house, team building, and leading efforts to grow the game in all its forms.

Cone was then re-elected as U.S. Soccer's President during the National Council Meeting at the Federation's Annual General Meeting in Atlanta on March 5, 2022, after earning 52.9 percent of the weighted vote in a two-candidate race.

In May 2022, under Cone's leadership, U.S. Soccer and the United States Women's National Team Players Association (USWNTPA) and the United States National Soccer Team Players Association (USNSTPA) agreed to terms on historic, first-of-their-kind collective bargaining agreements (CBAs) that achieved equal pay through identical economic terms, setting the global standard moving forward in international soccer.

Cone is a title-winning coach at the grassroots, collegiate and professional levels and holds a USSF "A" coaching license. During the past 20 years, she has served on numerous committees, including the FIFA Steering Committee, the U.S. Soccer Medical Advisory Committee, Appeals Committee, and the Athletes' Council.

The Memphis, Tennessee native was a star for the U.S. Women's National Team during a career that spanned 1996-2004, earning 158 caps while scoring 75 goals, which still stands as 8th all-time on the USA's all-time goals list. Her seven career hat tricks are still second all-time behind Mia Hamm and Carli Lloyd. She also had 35 career assists. In 1998, she won U.S. Soccer's inaugural Young Female Player of the Year Award.

At 5-foot-11, she was a towering presence on the USA's forward line. During her career she was a two-time Olympic gold medal winner (1996 & 2004) and a member of the historic 1999 Women's World Cup winning side, scoring two goals in that tournament including a diving header against Nigeria in group play and the crucial opening score in the 2-0 semifinal victory against Brazil.

She played her last match for the U.S. WNT on Dec. 8, 2004, in a 5-0 win against Mexico at The Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif., in what was also the final match for Mia Hamm, Julie Foudy, Brandi Chastain and Joy Fawcett (who was on the bench but did not play).

She is the youngest player ever to win both an Olympic gold medal and a Women's World Cup title. In total, she played in nine Olympic matches and 11 World Cup matches. In 2000, she led the USA with 19 goals, which was her career high in a calendar year. She had four hat tricks that year, one shy of a U.S. record for a single year.

She also played for the USA's Youth National Teams and played three seasons in the WUSA, the USA's first women's pro league, advancing to two championship games with the Atlanta Beat.

Inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2018, Cone was a four-time All-American at the University of North Carolina, where she scored 68 goals and had 53 assists in 103 games, and was on teams that won two NCAA titles. She won both the Hermann Trophy and the M.A.C. Player of the Year awards as the consensus college soccer player of the year as a junior and a senior, which at the time, paired her with Mia Hamm as the only twotime winners of both awards. Cone was also pioneer of sorts for college soccer, entering UNC early after three years of high school. She majored in Education at UNC.

In 2023, Cone received the prestigious NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, which is awarded annually to six athletes on the 25th anniversary of the conclusion of their college athletics careers for their outstanding collegiate and professional achievements.

She also served as an assistant coach at UNC, winning four NCAA titles, including 2012 when she took the coaching lead due to an illness to head coach Anson Dorrance's wife.

She was also the first head coach to win a National Women's Soccer League championship, guiding Portland Thorns FC to the title in 2013 during the league's inaugural season.

Cone is on the board for the non-profit Goals for Girls, an organization that uses "soccer to teach leadership skills in young women and teach them how to be agents of change, in their own lives and in their communities."

In the summer of 2007, she married John Cone in Chapel Hill. She has a street – Cindy Parlow Drive – named after her in her hometown of Memphis, Tenn.

JT BATSON

CEO / Secretary General U.S. Soccer Federation

JT Batson was named CEO / Secretary General of the U.S. Soccer Federation on Sept. 26, 2022.

Batson fell in love with soccer at a young age. He played club soccer for Augusta Arsenal growing up in Georgia and later helped run the club while serving as a referee, a referee assignor, mowing and lining fields and working in coaching recruitment. He has coached boys and girls at the grassroots level and has been active in supporting his childhood soccer club as a member of the Augusta Arsenal Soccer Club advisory board.

A long-time member of the soccer community, he feels his experience in grassroots soccer helped shape who he is today, an executive who prides himself on doing the work necessary to achieve goals and create important bonds with employees and partners while also teaching and mentoring.

A strong believer in the power of teamwork, the first software he ever worked on was for the assigning of youth soccer referees for tournament organizers. He also paid for college, in part, by working soccer camps. He has described his young self as being a kid that didn't dream of playing in a World Cup, but instead of organizing one. Like for many, the 1994 FIFA World Cup held in the USA had a profound impact on Batson and opened his eyes to the potential and global impact of soccer. It was a rallying cry to think big about soccer in the USA, and a watershed event for his generation, showing how big investment can impact the future while setting the stage for the 2026 FIFA World Cup to impact many more soccer fans of all ages.

Batson has spent his professional career at the intersection of media, advertising and technology, focused on solving challenging problems at scale through innovation and collaboration.

A former member of U.S. Soccer Finance Committee, Batson comes to the Federation with experience heading large companies. He previously served as CEO of Hudson MX, a 425-person NYC- and Atlanta-based software company, which he co-founded and where he will remain a member of the board, that focuses on workflow and financial software for the advertising ecosystem.

His previous work with U.S. Soccer led to him helping spearhead the creation of the U.S. Soccer Development Fund which raises money to support U.S. Soccer's development of world-class players, coaches and referees, all with the goal of continuing to inspire a nation.

Prior to founding Hudson MX, he was an Entrepreneur in Residence at Greylock Partners and Accel Partners.

Batson began his career as an early employee of Mozilla focused on international growth efforts of the then-nascent Firefox browser. He subsequently joined the Rubicon Project pre-revenue where he helped scale the company to six countries as the EVP, Revenue and Global Development. He's also served in executive roles at Mediaocean and Cumulus Media.

He is currently on the Undergraduate Cabinet at Stanford, from which he graduated with a BA in Political Science and where he won the JE Wallace Sterling Award, an honor that recognizes the graduating senior whose undergraduate leadership and volunteer activities have made the largest impact on the Stanford community.

As an undergrad at Stanford, he worked with the men's and women's soccer programs as a student assistant focused on recruiting, soccer operations, marketing, camps and fundraising. The Stanford men's basketball teams took notice, and he also worked with that program, building a recruiting CRM system, managing dynamic ticket process and fan development. He also continued to referee during his college years, experiences that included running the middle during several scrimmages for the local professional teams.

Batson is a member of the board of the LGBTQ+ entrepreneur focused non-profit StartOut. He also serves on the board of directors for the NYC Ballet. Batson has guest taught at Stanford's Hasso Plattner Institute of Design and the Graduate School of Business.

U.S. SOCCER BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of U.S. Soccer is the governing board of the Federation in accordance with the Amateur Sports Act of 1978. Consisting of elected members representing all facets of soccer in the United States, the Board administers the affairs of the Federation between meetings of the National Council.

U.S. SOCCER REFEREE PROGRAM

The U.S. Soccer Federation Referee Program's membership ranks among the largest of all FIFA nations with nearly 115,000 registered officials, mentors, coaches, and assignors. Officials registered with U.S. Soccer work sanctioned games at all levels of competition including youth, adult, professional, and international matches.

Referee Education Resources

U.S. Soccer is committed to producing referee education resources aimed at supporting officials regularly working amateur games at the youth and adult levels. These officials represent the foundation of the U.S. Soccer Referee Program and their training and development is paramount to the success of the program. This is accomplished through the development of targeted training materials and standardized curriculums supporting specific levels of competition.

Referee Identification and Training

These initiatives focus on identifying and training high potential officials with the ability to referee at the professional and international levels. These efforts see U.S. Soccer assign a network of highly qualified referees, referee mentors and referee coaches to various elite-level regional and national events. Quantitative and qualitative data from these events are used to classify the program's up-and-coming and high performing officials.

The Professional Referee Organization (PRO)

The Professional Referee Organization is the organization responsible for managing the referee, assistant referee, and video match official program in professional soccer leagues in the United States and Canada, working alongside the U.S. Soccer Federation, Major League Soccer, United Soccer League and National Women's Soccer League.

The organization's goals are to increase the quality of officiating in U.S. and Canadian professional leagues, develop more professional-quality officials at a younger age, and produce officials who will represent the United States and Canada in FIFA competitions.

2025 FIFA International Panel

A list of international referees and assistant referees that are eligible to officiate FIFA sanctioned matches in the coming year is announced annually by FIFA. The current American contingent totals 15 referees, 20 assistant referees, 10 video match officials, and three futsal referees. (List on next page)

U.S. SOCCER'S COACHING DEPARTMENT AND NATIONAL COACHING SCHOOLS

U.S. Soccer Coaching Education was established in the early 1970s by famed West German teacher and coach Dettmar Cramer. Each level of the U.S. Soccer Coaching License Pathway is designed to meet the needs of coaches ranging from the coach who is inexperienced in soccer to the former professional player who desires to coach in amateur, professional, or international competitions.

U.S. Soccer has licensed thousands of coaches in the decades since the department was first founded. U.S. Soccer is committed to providing soccer coaches with up-to-date theoretical and practical knowledge so coaches can develop to their full potential. The diagram below shows the current U.S. Soccer Coaching License Pathway.

U.S. Soccer provides courses in which coaches can earn nationally recognized certifications that afford them opportunities and recognition inherent in the attainment of various levels of coaching expertise. Proven curriculums improve coaches' knowledge of the game and provide valuable information on current coaching trends and international developments in the game.

The course curriculums are based on sets of tasks that a coach must carry out. These tasks are defined as coaching matches, coaching training sessions, leading the team, leading the player, managing a performance environment, leadership, and more. Coaches are educated and assessed based on the progression of these tasks relative to each course within the licensing pathway.

Pro, "A" (Senior and Youth), and "B" level courses span six to twelve months and take place over a series of meetings. Students have an opportunity to practically apply what they have learned in their home environment with their team between meetings.

U.S. Soccer also offers "B", "C", "D", and Grassroots level courses that are available through member organizations. While the member organizations are responsible for the execution of these courses, the curriculum is developed and overseen by U.S. Soccer Coaching Education. For more information on U.S. Soccer Coaching Education courses, visit the U.S. Soccer Learning Center at learning.ussoccer.com.

On the next page is an overview of U.S. Soccer Coaching Education courses:

Introduction to Grassroots Coaching

The Introduction to Grassroots Coaching is a cost-free, online module intended for all parents and coaches of youth players. The focus of this grassroots introduction is to share U.S. Soccer's best practices in creating a fun, supportive, activity-centered, and age-appropriate environment for grassroots players.

Grassroots Courses

The eight Grassroots courses, which replaced the "F" and "E" License courses, offer an a-la-carte approach meant to empower coaches with education that is relevant to their specific coaching needs. The Grassroots Licenses will help coaches ensure fun, enjoyable, and developmentally appropriate environments for their players. Student coaches will learn how to understand the basic needs of grassroots players, the basic structure of the game, the basic structure of a grassroots training session, and the basic tasks of a grassroots coach.

"D" Course

The "D" course is a 45 to 60-hour course for the grassroots coach who meets the prerequisites. The focus of this course is to prepare coaches to work with youth teams (U-6 to U-19) in a participation environment. Coaches will learn to create game-like training sessions and a gameday environment that encourages players' ownership of their decision-making. The course consists of a mix of classroom lectures and field sessions that focus on using the Play-Practice-Play training methodology.

"C" Course

The "C" course prepares coaches to work with youth teams (U-11 to U-19) in a participation environment. The goals of the course are to educate student coaches in creating a series of progressive game-like training sessions that encourage players' ownership of their decision-making and create a gameday environment linked to training session goals.

"B" Course

The "B" course prepares coaches to work with youth (U-13+) in a performance environment. The goals of the course are to educate candidates in implementing a game model based on a style of play as well as creating and implementing a coaching structure to influence players during games and training sessions.

A-Youth Course

The A-Youth course prepares coaches to work as a head coach with youth teams in a high-performance environment. Student coaches are educated in creating and articulating a style of play in a game model as well as creating and implementing a training and coaching methodology to develop the team and individual players during training sessions and games.

A-Senior Course

The A-Senior course prepares coaches to work as a head coach with a senior team in a high-performance environment. Similar to the A-Youth course, students are educated in creating and articulating a style of play in a game model as well as creating and implementing a training and coaching methodology to develop the team and individual players during training sessions and games.

Pro Course

The Pro License prepares students to work as a head coach with a senior team at the highest level of national and international professional soccer. The primary goals of the course are to educate the student coach in developing a winning team culture, creating a game model that aligns with the club culture, the quality of the players, and the beliefs of the coach, and developing and using a leadership style that drives the high-performance environment. The year-long course is centered around the management of a professional team.

SUPPLEMENTAL PATHWAY

Coach Educator Course

The Coach Educator License prepares student coach educators (SCEs) with the necessary competencies required to teach U.S. Soccer Coaching Courses (Grassroots to Pro). The goals of the course are to develop a deeper understanding of the U.S. Soccer Coaching Education Philosophy and Principles and to facilitate a self-regulated learning process that allows for SCEs to guide, support, engage, and challenge student coaches throughout their learning process. The course is divided into four sequential parts; Base Course (Part 1), Course Level Pathway (Part 2), Apprenticeship (Part 3), and Summative Assessment (Part 4).

Club Technical Leadership Pathway

The Club Technical Leadership (CTL) Pathway is designed to support the development of club technical leaders from Grassroots to Professional club environments. The pathway is built to progressively develop competencies connected to leadership, club identity, player identification and development, coach and staff development, and strategic planning.

Talent Scout

The Talent Scout License prepares youth scouts to learn the process of identification, examination, and monitoring of potential (top) talented players. Students will acquire or further develop the competencies (knowledge, skills, attitude) and personal traits necessary to work as a Talent Scout. The primary goal of the course is to help youth scouts learn the process of identification, examination and monitoring of potential (top) talented players.

Coach For Community

Coach For Community is a free educational resource. The target is to provide the necessary tools and resources for coaches to create the most impactful learning environments for players. While the primary focus is on entry-level coaches, the program is open to all. The three key program objectives are to share best practices for player development including coaching games and practices (with a focus on U.S. Soccer's Play-Practice-Play methodology), provide expertise in grassroots coach education and player development, and to make connections with local soccer leaders.

Each individual that completes a free registration in U.S. Soccer's Learning Center and participates in the event will receive a $25 voucher to be used towards one of the four online grassroots courses.

ARTHUR M. BLANK U.S. SOCCER NATIONAL TRAINING CENTER

The U.S. Soccer Federation broke ground on its first-ever National Training Center (NTC) and Headquarters in April of 2024, unveiling the new facility as the Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center. The facility is scheduled to open in the spring of 2026.

The Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center is another step in the Federation's ambitious strategic plan to grow soccer across the country. The commitment to build a training center was made possible by a $50 million contribution from iconic businessman and philanthropist Arthur M. Blank, The Home Depot co-founder and Atlanta United owner.

The Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center will span 200 acres and include more than a dozen soccer fields and over 100,000 sq. ft. of indoor courts for all 27 U.S. Soccer National Teams, including Senior Women's and Men's, Youth and Extended National Teams. The facility will also include more than 200,000 sq. ft. of high-performance facilities, locker rooms, meeting rooms and headquarters space for all U.S. Soccer employees.

While the Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center will be utilized by all of U.S. Soccer's National Teams, part of the contribution from Blank and his Family Foundation will specifically go toward the construction of facilities for U.S. Soccer's nine Extended National Teams (ENTs), particularly in support of the Cerebral Palsy (CP), Deaf, and Power (wheelchair) Soccer National Teams, including thoughtful design of locker rooms and training facilities to maximize accessibility for players.

Architecture, design, and planning firm Gensler will serve as the architect and interior designer of the project, combining its decades of experience designing some of the world's most remarkable corporate office spaces and iconic sports facilities to create a dynamic campus for U.S. Soccer.

The facility will serve as headquarters for the U.S. Soccer Federation, creating a central hub for the entire soccer community, including coaches and referees, to access best-in-class training, technology and infrastructure to promote successful and sustainable playing environments throughout the country. For players, the Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center will guarantee uninterrupted access to elite infrastructure for training, development, recovery and performance analysis – cultivating expertise and excellence in the sport on an international level.

The Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center's location provides proximity to the Town at Trilith, a master-planned residential and mixed-use community with a school, restaurants, retail and office space. The Town at Trilith is adjacent to Trilith Studios, a major film and television production studio in Fayette County, which has brought the world's attention to this south-metro Atlanta community and sparked tremendous investment in the local area. Established in 2014, Trilith Studios is one of the largest production facilities in Georgia and one of the largest purpose-built studios in North America.

The location became the clear choice by meeting key criteria that included accessibility and proximity to Atlanta's major international airport as well as downtown, optimal climate for year-round programming, the ability to drive economic impact locally and the opportunity to be part of a diverse, growing community.

The facility will include full ADA accessibility for visitors and players within the building and throughout the training ground. In addition, sustainability will be at the forefront of the design process and the project team will pursue LEED certification by incorporating energy-efficient systems, water reclamation and protection of surrounding natural habitats.

The Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center will create an estimated 400+ new jobs and represents an investment valued at more than $200 million. In alignment with U.S. Soccer's vision to promote diversity, inclusion, equity and belonging and eliminate barriers both on and off the field, the Federation is committed to working with minority- and women-owned businesses.

The Coca-Cola Company is a Founding Partner of the Arthur M. Blank National Training Center and played an important role in U.S. Soccer's decision to bring the complex to the company's corporate hometown. In July of 2023, Coca-Cola North America and U.S. Soccer entered a transformative, long-term partnership agreement that supports the growth of the game at every level of the U.S. soccer ecosystem. To reinforce its commitment, the Coca-Cola Foundation awarded a $5 million grant to fund the Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center's youth and workforce development programs called "A Journey to a Better Life."

Coca-Cola and U.S. Soccer are united in the ambition to build legacy events that shine a light on domestic talent and increase opportunities for all U.S. Youth National Teams and Extended National Teams, growing the sport and increasing participation in soccer in all its forms.

SOCER FORWARD FOUNDATION

Soccer Forward Foundation is a key driver in U.S. Soccer's overall vision that soccer is a force for good. Operating with the belief that soccer contributes to healthier and more connected communities, Soccer Forward supports U.S. Soccer's efforts to expand access to the sport, helping the game reach more people and create lasting change..

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to take soccer's power and the impact it can have to a whole new level. To supersize its scale and its effect. As U.S. Soccer's legacy initiative of the FIFA Men's World Cup 2026, and additional major sporting events coming to the U.S. on the horizon, we have an unprecedented window of opportunity. So we're putting all our energy into three major initiatives, with the knowledge that what's good for the game is good for the wider world beyond it.

OUR THREE WAYS FORWARD

Soccer: For Everyone, Everywhere

Making soccer accessible to everyone in the U.S., everywhere in the U.S. by supporting the people, programs and places that are having an impact in their communities every day.

Soccer: For Health

Making the nation healthier, both physically and mentally, through soccer with cutting-edge research and training, creating breakthrough programs in key areas like women's health and mental health.

Soccer: For Excellence and Development at all Levels in the Women's Game Making women's soccer the best it can be here and around the world through developing standards for our teams and in our communities. And this isn't just for us. We'll share them too, supporting other nations and organizations around the world that aspire to the same levels of excellence.

U.S. Soccer Development Fund and Fundraising Program

U.S. Soccer is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Like other national governing bodies for sports in the United States, the Federation receives no government funding to support its programs.

In 2013, U.S. Soccer launched its fundraising program, the first in the history of the organization and encouraging individuals to contribute to a myriad of initiatives and programs across the ecosystem. At present, the organization is scaling its development department to match its vision and ambitions outlined in its new strategic plan. As such the fundraising program at U.S. Soccer will now include dedicated departments and staff focused in five key areas:

- Campaign and Special Projects
- Development Operations
- Individual Giving (Membership and Annual Fund)
- Institutional Giving (Corporations and Foundations)
- Major and Principal Giving

Donors can support U.S. Soccer and get closer to our programs by making a donation at www.ussoccer.com/donate, or joining a giving group like the ones outlined below:

- CIRCLE INSIDERS: Annual membership program supporting the U.S. Soccer Development Fund, with unique benefits at every level.
- THE NATIONAL WOMEN'S NETWORK: Leadership giving group supporting and celebrating U.S. Soccer programs for girls and women across the organization.
- PATRONS PROGRAM: Supporters families participating in multi-day VIP travel programs around senior Men's and Women's National Team matches.
- DEVELOPMENT COUNCILS: Regional volunteer groups uniting business and community leaders in support of U.S. Soccer. (Current Development Councils: Chicago, New York City, Bay Area, Los Angeles, and At-Large.)
- CHAMPIONS CIRCLE: U.S. Soccer's foremost philanthropic leadership group, championing the future of the sport at the highest level.

NATIONAL SOCCER HALL OF FAME

The National Soccer Hall of Fame (NSHOF) is a public-private partnership among FC Dallas, the City of Frisco, Frisco Independent School District and U.S. Soccer Federation. The NSHOF, part of a $55 million renovation at Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Texas, contains two components: The NSHOF Experience and the HOF Club.

The NSHOF Experience is a 10,000-square foot segment of the NSHOF that honors the past, while fully incorporating modern technology of the present and future including virtual reality, gesture technology and interactive digital video boards throughout to celebrate the players and builders of American soccer that have elevated the sport to where it is today. It features interactive exhibits and iconic soccer memorabilia and serves as the home for Hall of Fame induction ceremonies annually.

The NSHOF's home in Frisco opened in 2018 after not having a home for seven years, with the previous home located in Oneonta, N.Y. from 1979-2010. The NSHOF was officially recognized by U.S. Soccer in 1983.

What is now the National Soccer Hall of Fame first sprang to life in 1950 when a group of former professional and amateur players from the Philadelphia "Old-timers" Association took it upon themselves to recognize the achievements of soccer in America. Decades after the "Old-timers" first got together, more than 300 members have been elected to the Hall of Fame for their outstanding contributions to American soccer, both on and off the field.

The Hall of Fame also possesses an archive of more than 80,000 items, which make up one of the largest collections of soccer artifacts and records in the world. The collection includes such rare pieces as the world's oldest soccer ball (made in the USA) and both the 1991 and 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup trophies. The collection also includes the North American Soccer League archive, the 1994 FIFA World Cup USA archive, a rare soccer photography collection from New York depression-era photographer John Albok, materials from the U.S. National Teams in World Cup competition and artifacts from the American Soccer League of the 1920's and 1950's.

Members are elected annually via three ballots – Player, Builder and Veteran (player), and since 2018 have been inducted in Frisco, Texas. Beginning with the Class of 2021, a 96-member Selection Committee consisting of Hall of Famers, media members, historians and soccer executives and coaches participate in annual elections. For the election of the Class of 2024, the maximum number of inductees is three Players, two Veterans and one Builder.

The latest National Soccer Hall of Fame class featuring Mark Abbott (Builder), Chris Armas (Veteran), Mary Harvey (Veteran), Carli Lloyd (Player) and Nick Rimando (Player) will be inducted on May 3, 2025 in Frisco, Texas.

FIFA - SOCCER'S WORLD GOVERNING BOARD

Founded in 1904 to provide unity among national soccer associations, the Federation Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) boasts 211 members, rivaling that of the United Nations, and is arguably the most prestigious sports organization in the world.

FIFA was established on May 21, 1904, by seven national associations — Belgium, Denmark, France, Netherlands, Spain, Sweden and Switzerland — to “promote the game of Association Football (as opposed to rugby or American football), to foster friendly relations among National Associations, Confederations, their officials and players, by promoting the organization of football matches at all levels, and to control every type of association football by taking steps as shall be deemed necessary or advisable.”

FIFA’s birth was a result of the growing number of international games shortly after the dawn of the 20th century. Soccer leaders in Europe felt that such expanded competition required a governing body, and under the leadership of Robert Guerin, a French journalist, the seven founding members gathered in Paris to shape the future of the sport. Guerin, FIFA’s first president, presided over the organization from 1904 to 1906. Seven other men have also served as FIFA president, including Jules Rimet for 33 years from 1921 to 1954.

Currently, Italy’s Gianni Infantino serves as FIFA president, having been elected in 2016’s Extraordinary Congress held in the wake of corruption allegations against numerous FIFA Officials that resulted in former president Joseph “Sepp” Blatter stepping aside and then being banned from FIFA by its Ethics Committee. FIFA’s general secretary since 2009, Infantino served a three-year term as FIFA president and was re-elected for a second term at the 2019 FIFA Presidential Election during the 69th FIFA Congress in Paris on June 5.

Under FIFA’s governance soccer has become the world’s most popular sport. According to the Federation’s 2006 “Big Count,” the game is played by more than 150 million registered athletes — including 10 million women — and viewed by billions of fans in stadiums and on television worldwide.

As soccer’s ultimate administrative authority, FIFA governs all facets of the game: regulating the rules of play, overseeing the transfers of players internationally, organizing international competitions such as the FIFA World Cup, establishing standards for refereeing, coaching and sports medicine, and encouraging soccer’s development around the world.

Among the official world championships staged by FIFA are the World Cup, the Women’s World Cup, the Under-20 World Cup, the Under-20 Women’s World Cup, the Under-17 World Cup, the Under-17 Women’s World Cup, the Beach Soccer World Cup and the Futsal World Cup. Additionally, FIFA oversees the men’s and women’s Olympic Football Tournament staged under the auspices of the International Olympic Committee every four years. FIFA has also staged the FIFA Confederations Cup, a competition between each of its confederations’ champions, and the FIFA Club World Cup, which was held at the beginning of 2000 for the first time in Brazil.

Launched on April 6, 1996, Major League Soccer is the U.S. Soccer sanctioned Division I outdoor professional soccer league in the United States. The LA Galaxy are the league's most successful team and its first to claim six MLS Cup titles (2002, 2005, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2024), surpassing D.C. United, winners of three of the first four MLS Cup titles (1996, 1997 & 1999) as well as the 2004 crown. Five more clubs have claimed multiple titles; the San Jose Earthquakes (2001, 2003), Houston Dynamo (2006, 2007), Seattle Sounders FC (2016, 2019), Columbus Crew (2008, 2020, 2023) and Kansas City Wizards/Sporting Kansas City (2000, 2013). They are joined on the list of MLS Cup champions by the Chicago Fire (1998), Real Salt Lake (2009), Colorado Rapids (2010), Portland Timbers (2015), Toronto FC (2017), Atlanta United FC (2018), New York City FC (2021), and Los Angeles FC (2022).

In 2025, the league will continue to be divided into two conferences: Eastern Conference – Atlanta United FC, Charlotte FC, Chicago Fire FC, Columbus Crew SC, D.C. United, FC Cincinnati, Inter Miami CF, CF Montreal, New England Revolution, Nashville SC, New York City FC, New York Red Bulls, Orlando City, Philadelphia Union, Toronto FC; Western Conference – Austin FC, Colorado Rapids, FC Dallas, Houston Dynamo, LA Galaxy, Los Angeles FC, Minnesota United, Portland Timbers, Real Salt Lake, San Diego FC, San Jose Earthquakes, Seattle Sounders FC, Sporting Kansas City, Saint Louis City SC and Vancouver Whitecaps FC.

Nashville and Miami began play in 2020, Austin FC in 2021, and Charlotte FC in 2022, while St. Louis City SC played its inaugural season in 2023. San Diego FC will begin play as Major League Soccer's 30th team in 2025.

MLS has a unique ownership and operating structure, based on a "single entity" concept. Unlike other professional sports leagues, which are a confederation of independent franchise owners, MLS' "single entity" structure allows investors to own an interest in the league, as well as individual teams. MLS believes that the structure will better position the league for long term success.

In 2021, MLS announced the new MLS NEXT Pro, a division III league that kicked off in March 2022. With 29 clubs as of the start of 2025, the league features most of MLS's second teams, as well as independent clubs in Carolina Core FC and Chattanooga FC. The league is set to add more independent clubs, with Jacksonville Armada FC, as well as clubs in Bridgeport, Conn. and Cleveland, Ohio set to join in 2026, and another in Grand Rapids, Mich. ready to join in 2027. The league serves to build on the MLS pro pathway, which begins at the youth level in MLS NEXT, which was introduced in 2020 and kicked off in 2021 as a successor to the U.S. Soccer Development Academy.

The USL is the largest, fastest-growing professional soccer organization in North America.

Overseeing three men's leagues (USL Championship, USL League One, USL League Two), two women's leagues (USL Super League, USL W League), one elite player development platform (USL Academy), and a national youth platform (USL Super Y League), the USL is built on a proven and recognized model in international football and counts more than 200 clubs in its membership.

The USL provides a clearly defined path for the progression of soccer players, beginning at the youth level (USL Academy League and Super Y League), continuing through the amateur level (USL League Two) and up to the professional level (USL League One and USL Championship). A platform for countless players to reach for their dreams each year, the USL is devoted to developing the sport at the grassroots level in every community across the region. In 2021, the USL announced the additions of the new USL W League, a pre-professional women's soccer league which kicked off in May 2022, and the USL Super League, a first-division professional women's soccer league that began play in 2024.

Based in Tampa, Fla., the USL has grown during the past decade into a model organization with strong corporate partnerships and stable organizational leadership. It features a dedicated staff of more than 60 professionals across 17 departments ranging from operations, digital, communications and club services, each of which provides unparalleled support to member clubs and outside partners. Sanctioned by the U.S. Soccer Federation, the USL is #UnitedForSoccer, moving the game forward in North America.

The National Independent Soccer Association (NISA) is a professional Men's soccer league in the third tier of American soccer (USSF Division III) that began play in 2019. The 2023 season was the fifth NISA season and saw Flower City Union defeat defending champions Michigan Stars FC 1-0 in the final, while Chattanooga FC won the regular season championship.

NISA was founded in 2017 with a mission to bring professional soccer to every city in the United States. A pro league member of U.S.

Soccer, NISA focuses on a model based on meritocracy, independent clubs controlling their own league, clubs owning their intellectual property, all without the barrier of territorial rights. NISA also runs the mid-summer pro-am Independent Cup tournament, the year-long amateur league NISA Nation, and NISA Media.

The U.S. Adult Soccer Association, based at Toyota Park, Bridgeview, Ill., is responsible for developing adult soccer leagues and competitions for players over the age of 19. Within the USASA, local clubs are affiliated with leagues which, in turn, are affiliated with their state associations. A competitive and recreational oriented organization, the USASA provides soccer opportunities for both men and women on a national basis.

The USASA stages the annual National Championships Series, which features competitions for all levels of adult players from U23 to over 70 years of age. The Championships Series also features the historic men's and women's National Amateur and Open Cups.

The USASA, in association with the U.S. Soccer Federation, helps stage the annual Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, which is the oldest annual team tournament in the United States, dating back to 1914 when the Brooklyn Field Club won the first national title by defeating the Brooklyn Celtics in Pawtucket, R.I.

CEO/Executive Director: Mike Cullina
A National Association member of the U.S. Soccer Federation, US Club Soccer is a non-profit organization committed to the development and support of soccer clubs in the United States.

US Club Soccer has been a good standing affiliate of the U.S. Soccer Federation since 2001. A 14-member Board of Directors makes policy decisions for the organization.

US Club Soccer's mission is to effectively foster the growth and development of clubs throughout the United States, creating the best possible development environment for players of all ages in every club.

One of the primary ways this mission is accomplished is through the Players First licensing initiative. Players First, a guiding philosophy of US Club Soccer, is a branded, holistic club soccer experience for parents and players, which emphasizes the development of each individual to his or her full potential, and helps parents make better choices about where their children should play. Players First is based on five pillars: Club Development, Coaching Development, Player Development, Parent Engagement & Education and Player Health & Safety.

US Club Soccer's local and national programs have been developed with strong input from clubs around the country and with a minimum of rules and restrictions.

Among these programs are the National Premier Leagues (NPL), which include 21 leagues throughout the country to provide high-level competition, and to elevate and change the competitive youth landscape based on US Club Soccer's fundamental principles. While the NPL provides meaningful league-based competition culminating yearly with the NPL post season consisting of NPL Playoffs (boys) and NPL Finals (boys and girls), US Club Soccer also offers national championship aspirations to clubs through the National Cup, a cup-based competition consisting of state cups, Regional events and the National Cup Finals.

The popular PDP and id2 Programs are Olympic Development Programs approved by the United States Olympic Committee and U.S. Soccer Federation. Annually, the id2 Program consists of id² Training Camps in various locations around the country and National Selection programming for boys and girls (id² National Selection International Tour). Targeted age cycles are coordinated in conjunction with U.S. Soccer.

The id2 Program consistently identifies and develops players ready for youth national team training camps and beyond. Players such as Christian Pulisic, Lindsey Horan, Tyler Adams, Catarina Macario and Tim Weah have all participated in the id2 Program.

US Club Soccer is also committed to the development of coaches and administrators and provides several off-the-field resources for members.

Founded in 1964, the AYSO is a national association affiliated with U.S. Soccer and operates soccer programs with more than 500,000 children participating throughout the U.S. AYSO operates programs so young people can learn to develop a positive self-image, self-confidence and other character traits through their interest and participation in the sport.

More than 50 years later, AYSO now has thriving programs for kids and adults in nearly 900 communities all over the country – and internationally in the Virgin Islands and Trinidad and Tobago – over eight million AYSO alumni, and a name that's recognized nationwide.

AYSO's success has been based on the philosophies of "Everyone Plays®" and "Balanced Teams," ideas originated 50 years ago by founder Hans F.W. Stierle. AYSO requires every player to play at least half of every game and that individual teams are balanced every year to assure fair play. Other AYSO tenets include open registration, positive coaching and good sportsmanship.

Each year AYSO forms new teams as evenly balanced as possible, providing a stronger learning experience for players as they play teams comprised of similar ability. It also allows for each player to experience playing with a wide variety of teammates of different skill levels.

AYSO is a volunteer-driven organization of more than 225,000 parents and friends who serve as coaches, referees and team administrators. A full-time staff administers AYSO from the organization's National Office in Torrance, California.

THE U.S. SOCCER FOUNDATION

The Major Charitable Arm of Soccer

The U.S. Soccer Foundation is a prominent leader in sports-based youth development, using soccer as a vehicle for social change among youth. The Foundation provides nationally recognized programs that are proven to deliver positive health and social outcomes. Its innovative, accessible and affordable initiatives offer safe environments in which both boys and girls thrive. Since the Foundation's inception, it has impacted more than 13 million individuals through more than $100 million in direct funding to over 600 organizations nationwide. The Foundation recently announced its goals to serve one million children annually in quality soccer programs and build 1,000 safe playing spaces by 2026.

Dedicated to growing the sport of soccer and using it as a vehicle for positive change, the Foundation runs three national programs:

SOCcer FOR SUCCESS

Soccer for Success is the U.S. Soccer Foundation's afterschool program, offered free to participants, that uses soccer as a tool to address children's health issues, teach critical life skills, and promote healthy lifestyles in underserved communities. The Foundation partners with community-based organizations across the country to operate Soccer for Success sites – providing tens of thousands of children with quality afterschool programming led by trained coach-mentors three times per week for the entire school year. Currently, the Soccer for Success program serves more than 40,000 children in over 180 communities across the country. To date, more than 100,000 youth have participated in Soccer for Success.

SAFE PLACES TO PLAY

In addition to programming, the U.S. Soccer Foundation works to provide children with safe and accessible places to play by transforming underutilized spaces into soccer fields. In communities where space is at a premium, the Foundation developed the 'mini-pitch' to provide customized solutions to meet communities' needs. The Foundation's Safe Places to Play program also provides grants to organizations to help them build or enhance field space(s) in their communities.

PASSBACK

Since 2002, the U.S. Soccer Foundation's Passback program has collected and redistributed more than one million pieces of soccer equipment to children in underserved communities. Thanks to dedicated individuals, soccer clubs, and organizations that collect and donate soccer equipment, the Passback program is able to bring the game of soccer to children who love the sport but can't afford the gear to play.

In addition to its programs, the Foundation is dedicated to assisting those who serve youth through soccer in underserved communities. Each year the Foundation organizes the Urban Soccer Symposium, an event which brings together non-profit organizations that directly support soccer programs and projects to share funding resources, best practices and other technical expertise. The Foundation has laid the groundwork for networking and partnership opportunities among urban soccer programs nationwide.

U.S. SOCCER TIMELINE

1800s As was the case in England, in the early 1800s many American schools and colleges played forms of football, but under rules that varied from place to place.

1862 The Oneida Football Club, made up of Boston prep school students, was organized by Gerritt Smith Miller. The game the Oneidas played was more like rugby than like soccer, but they were the first American team playing any type of football to be organized on a continuing basis, rather than just for the day.

1866 The first game in America using the association football rules standardized three years before in London was played on Oct. 11 in Waukesha, Wis. A men's team of Carroll College students beat a team of local residents.

1869 A week after they played what has been called the first American football game, teams from Princeton and Rutgers met on Nov. 13 in Princeton, N.J., in a game using association football rules, the first intercollegiate soccer game in America.

1876 Most of the football-playing colleges abandoned soccer in favor of rugby. However, within a few years soccer had begun to take hold in immigrant communities in various American locations such as Fall River, Mass.; Kearny, N.J., and St. Louis.

1833 The first soccer league in America, the Western Football Association, was organized in St. Louis.

1884 The American Football Association, only the second national soccer association outside of the British Isles, but one that was really more regional than national, was organized in Newark, N.J.

1885 The first American Football Association Cup was won by ONT of Kearny, N.J., and a team representing the United States played one from Canada in Kearny on Nov. 28 in the first "international" game in America.

1894 The first attempt to start a pro soccer league in the United States, the American League of Professional Football Clubs, lasted for only three weeks in October. However, a longer-lasting league, the National Association Foot Ball League, began the following spring.

1898 A depression resulting from the financial panic of 1893 caused the suspension of both the American Football Association and the nation's leading league, the National Association Foot Ball League of New Jersey.

1904 A Canadian team won the soccer competition at the Olympic Games in St. Louis.

1905 A 17-game North American tour by the Pilgrims, an English amateur team, helped to revive soccer in the United States. St. Leo's won the first of its 10 consecutive St. Louis Major League titles.

1906 West Hudson of Harrison, N.J., won the first championship of the revived AFA Cup. A year later, it added the first championship of the revived National Association Foot Ball League.

1913 The United States Football Association was founded at an April 5 meeting in New York. FIFA, which had been founded in 1904, granted it provisional membership later in the year and full membership in 1914.

1914 The first National Challenge Cup tournament, the championship of the new USFA, was won by the Brooklyn Field Club (the tournament's name was later changed to the U.S. Open Cup).

1916 The first national team organized by the USFA, named the All-American Football Club, played six games in a tour of Sweden and Norway. The captain, Thomas Swords of Fall River, scored the first goal ever for the U.S. national team, against Sweden.

FIRST TEAM: The very first U.S. Men's National Team squad prepares to take the field in their first match, a 3-2 victory over Sweden in Stockholm on Aug. 20, 1916.

1919 Bethlehem Steel, after sweeping the National Challenge Cup, the AFA Cup and the National Association Foot Ball League, became the first American club to make a European tour when it played 14 games in Sweden and Denmark.

1920 The National Challenge Cup was won for the first time by a team from west of the Alleghenies, Ben Millers of St. Louis.

1930: The 1930 U.S. World Cup Team advanced into the semifinals and finished third.

1921 The original American Soccer League, a men's professional league, largely a merger of the National Association Foot Ball League in the Middle Atlantic states and the Southern New England Soccer League, began play. In its first season, it included three teams from Massachusetts, two from New York, two from New Jersey and one from Pennsylvania.

1924 The Fall River Marksmen became the first team to win the American Soccer League and National Challenge Cup titles in the same year.

1925 Archie Stark of Bethlehem Steel scored 67 goals in the 44-game ASL season, setting an American first-division record that still stands.

'34 IN ITALY: The U.S. lost their only match of the 1934 World Cup, losing 7-1 to host Italy.

1926 A game between Austrian first-division team Hakoah and a New York all-star team drew a crowd of 46,000 to the Polo Grounds in New York. Bethlehem Steel won the last of its five National Challenge Cup titles.

1928 The Soccer War, a year-long battle between the ASL and the USFA, began with ASL demands to take over the leading role in administering the sport.

1930 The United States was one of 13 nations to compete in the first men's World Cup in Uruguay, upsetting Belgium and Paraguay before being eliminated by Argentina in the semifinals. Bert Patenaude of Fall River scored the first World Cup hat trick. Later in the year, the Fall River Marksmen, again winners of the ASL and National Challenge Cup titles, made a six-game tour of Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Austria.

1932 Disputes over the definition of an amateur and the costs of long travel distance from Europe caused the elimination of soccer from the program at the Los Angeles Olympic Games.

1933 Two years after the demise of the original American Soccer League, a new ASL, with a scaled-back budget, began play.

1934 Buff Donelli, later a famous American football coach, scored four goals in a World Cup qualifying victory against Mexico. The U.S. Men took part in their second consecutive World Cup, going winless in Italy.

1938 The USFA, citing the gathering threat of war in Europe, declined to send a team to the World Cup in France.

1941 The Kearny Scots won their fifth consecutive American Soccer League championship. The National Soccer Coaches Association was formed by 10 coaches at a meeting in New York.

1944 Billy Gonsalves, playing for Brooklyn Hispano, won the last of his remarkable eight U.S. Open Cup championships.

1945 The U.S. Football Association changed its name to U.S. Soccer Football Association.

1947 Ponta Delgada of Fall River became the first team to win the U.S. Open Cup and the National Amateur Cup in the same year.

1948 The first game in the United States between two leading men's European teams, Liverpool of England and Djurgardens of Sweden, was played in Brooklyn.

GAME OF THEIR LIVES: The 1950 U.S. World Cup Team shocked the world with their 1-0 upset win over England.

THE GOAL: Joe Gaetjens' redirection of a shot from Walter Bahr rolls into the goal, giving the U.S. their historic 1-0 victory over England in Brazil on June 29, 1950.

1950 Joe Gaetjens' goal in the 37th minute enabled the United States to earn its famous 1-0 victory against England in Belo Horizonte, Brazil. Despite the victory, the United States failed to advance past the first round of the World Cup.

1952 The USMNT played Scotland in front of a crowd of 107,765 at Hampden Park in Glasgow.

1953 The USSFA assumed administration of the National Soccer Hall of Fame in an agreement with the Philadelphia Old-Timers Association, which had started the Hall three years before.

1959 The first men's NCAA soccer championship was won by St. Louis University. The United States men's team finished third in the soccer tournament at the Pan-American Games in Chicago.

1960 The International Soccer League, featuring European and South American clubs in their off-seasons, began play in New York. In the first championship game, Banga of Brazil beat Kilmarnock of Scotland.

1961 Concacaf, the Confederation of North and Central America and the Caribbean of Association Football, was formed at a meeting in Mexico City.

1965 The first college women's varsity soccer team was organized at Castleton State College in Vermont.

1974 The U.S. Soccer Football Association changed its name to U.S. Soccer Federation.

1975 Pelé, who had retired the year before from Santos, signed for $2.8 million with the New York Cosmos.

1977 Pelé won his only NASL championship as the Cosmos defeated the Seattle Sounders in the final. A month after the season, Pelé played his final game, changing uniforms at halftime in a match between the Cosmos and Santos, in East Rutherford, N.J. By signing Franz Beckenbauer of West Germany and Carlos Alberto of Brazil, the Cosmos became the first team in world soccer history to field the captains of the last two World Cup-winning teams.

1978 American soccer rode the crest of the attendance surge that followed Pelé's American venture, with the NASL expanding from 18 teams to 24 and the Major Indoor Soccer League, another men's league, beginning play with six teams.

1982 A European selection played a World selection in the FIFA all-star game in East Rutherford, N.J., but the NASL surge was beginning to fade. The Cosmos won the last of their five NASL championships. The first women's NCAA soccer tournament was held, with North Carolina winning the championship.

1984 A crowd of 101,799, still the largest ever to attend a soccer game in the United States, saw the Olympic final between Brazil and France in Pasadena, Calif. A women's club team, the Dallas Sting, won the first international title for the United States at a FIFA-sanctioned tournament.

1985 The United States fielded its first Women's National Team at a tournament in Jesolo, Italy. The Italian fans greeted the U.S. Women with an "OOOSA" chant ("USA") that the USWNT adopted as in use in present day. The NASL folded, a year after the second American Soccer League had done the same. Three months later, the New York Cosmos folded, after attempting to play a series of exhibition games. The USMNT were surprisingly eliminated by Costa Rica in World Cup qualifying, but the United States women's national team played its first game.

1988 FIFA, which five years earlier had rejected a United States bid for the 1986 World Cup, named the United States as host of the 1994 Men's World Cup.

1989 The USMNTs qualified for the World Cup for the first time in 40 years. Paul Caligiuri's famous goal in the deciding game was a 35-yard dipping shot that found the net in a 1-0 upset victory against Trinidad & Tobago Nov. 19 in front of 35,000 red-clad Trinidadians. The U.S. Men's Futsal National Team finished third at the first FIFA World Championship for Futsal.

ALL BUSINESS: Paul Caligiuri is all business after scoring the "Shot Heard Around the World" for the U.S., sending the team into their first World Cup in 40 years.

1990 The U.S. Men competed in the World Cup for the first time in 40 years. Two men's leagues, the WSL and the ASL merged to form the American Professional Soccer League (APS).

1991 The U.S. Women captured the first-ever FIFA Women's World Championship in China with a 2-1 win against Norway on Nov. 30. The Women qualified for the world championship by defeating their five Concacaf opponents by a combined score of 49-0. The USMNT won its first-ever regional championship July 7 when it captured the Concacaf Gold Cup by defeating Honduras 4-3 in penalty kicks. The U.S. U-23 team won the gold medal at the Pan Am Games in Cuba.

1992 The U.S. Men won the inaugural U.S. Cup '92 in June, defeating Ireland 3-1 and Portugal 1-0, and tying three-time World Cup champion Italy 1-1. The U.S. Men's Futsal Team won the silver medal at the 2nd FIFA World Championship in Hong Kong. The MISL folded after 15 years in existence.

1993 In February, U.S. Soccer held the first-ever Strategic Summit where more than 250 soccer leaders and personalities met in Chicago for four days to plan the development of soccer into the 21st century. U.S. Cup '93 was used as a dress rehearsal for World Cup organizers, officials and volunteers, as well as the U.S. Men. The USA's 2-0 defeat of England made headlines around the world. Attendance and media interest were high, with 286,761 people attending the tournament's six games.

NUMBER ONE: Anson Dorrance led the U.S. Women to the inaugural Women's World Cup crown in 1991 in China.

The U.S. Under-20 Men defeated Europe's No. 1 seed, Turkey, 6-0 in the first game of the World Youth Championship in Australia. FIFA officials called the trouncing one of the most extraordinary results in the history of the tournament. The APSL was declared a Division II professional league. The United States Interregional Soccer League (USISL) was given Division III status. Plans for Major League Soccer — a Division I league to follow the legacy of World Cup '94 — were presented by U.S. Soccer President Alan Rothenberg.

1994 U.S. Soccer served as host national association for the 1994 FIFA World Cup, staging the greatest event in FIFA history. More than 3.5 million fans flocked to stadiums — still a World Cup record — and soccer fever in the U.S. was at an all-time high. The U.S. team advanced beyond the first round for the first time in 64 years, falling to eventual champion Brazil 1-0 in a July 4 round of 16 showdown at Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto, Calif. On June 4, 91,123 fans jammed the Rose Bowl to watch the U.S. defeat Mexico, 1-0, in its final tune-up prior to the World Cup. Game proceeds netted $1 million in U.S. Soccer contributions to UNICEF/Children's Defense Fund.

The U.S. Women won the Chiquita Cup, a four-team international tournament in which the U.S. hosted Germany, China and Norway. The U.S. went on to successfully defend its Concacaf championship, qualifying for the 1995 FIFA Women's World Championship by outscoring the opposition 36-1 en route to winning all four qualification matches. Head coach Anson Dorrance announced his resignation and U.S. Soccer named assistant coach Tony DiCicco to succeed him.

STARS AND STRIPES I: The 1994 MNT advanced out of World Cup group play for the first time in 64 years.

1995 U.S. Soccer announced in February its intention to host the 1999 Women's World Cup and began the formal bid process with FIFA. The U.S. Men won the U.S. Cup '95 in June, defeating Nigeria and Mexico and tying Colombia. Later that month, the women placed third in the FIFA Women's World Cup in Sweden, falling to eventual champion Norway in the semifinals 1-0, then defeating China.

In July, the men made international headlines by advancing to the semifinals of Copa America. The U.S. scored its first-ever victory against Argentina, 3-0, and advanced via penalty kicks (against Mexico) into the semifinals before falling 1-0 to defending world champion Brazil. Steve Sampson, who had served as interim coach since April, was named full-time head coach in August.

1996 The U.S. Women won the first women's soccer gold medal at the 1996 Atlanta Olympics, defeating China 2-1 in the championship game. The U.S. posted a 21-1-2 overall record and won the Brazil Cup and U.S. Women's Cup '96. The U.S. Men's Olympic Team narrowly missed advancing to the quarterfinals with a 1-1-1 record.

Major League Soccer was launched, providing the United States with its first Division I outdoor pro league since the North American Soccer League ceased operations in 1985. MLS averaged more than 17,000 fans per game. The A-League and USISL merged to form a larger and stronger Division II outdoor league.

FIFA awarded the 1999 Women's World Cup to the United States and U.S. Soccer pledged it would be the biggest and most successful women's sporting event ever.

1997 The U.S. Men qualified for a third straight World Cup, completing a 16-game qualifying run with just two losses and advancing with a game to spare. The U.S. Women continued their impressive play by winning their fourth straight Nike U.S. Cup.

The FIFA Women's World Cup Organizing Committee had awarded the 1999 matches to seven U.S. locations: Boston; Chicago; Los Angeles; New York

New Jersey; Portland, Ore.; San Francisco Bay Area; and Washington, D.C.

1998 A disappointing World Cup finished with the U.S. Men in last place after two difficult match-ups against Germany and Yugoslavia, and a heartbreaking loss to Iran. Brian McBride scored the team's only World Cup goal. The tournament concluded with the resignation of head coach Steve Sampson, who was eventually replaced on Oct. 27, by Bruce Arena.

The Women's team continued their impressive play, losing just twice in 1998 while playing in front of record crowds all across the country. Dr. Bob Contiguglia took over as U.S. Soccer's new President, replacing Alan I. Rothenberg, who had reached the eight-year term limit.

April Heinrichs is the first woman to be inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame.

1999 In front of more than 90,000 fans at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., the U.S. Women won the 1999 FIFA World Cup by playing China to a 0-0 tie through regulation and overtime and then defeating them 5-4 in penalty kicks. Soccer hysteria spread through America as the Women appeared on every top news program, at the White House and on the cover of Time, Newsweek, People and Sports Illustrated. U.S. Women's National Team head coach Tony DiCicco resigned in November as the winningest coach in U.S. Soccer history with a record of 103-8-8.

COMING UP ROSES: The U.S. Women's National Team won the 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup, the most successful women's sporting event ever, in a penalty shootout against China.

In Bruce Arena's first full year at the helm of the U.S. Men, the team recorded triumphs against Germany (twice), Argentina, Chile and earned third place at the 1999 FIFA Confederations Cup in Mexico. The U-18 Women captured the gold, while the U-23 Men beat Canada for the bronze medal at the 1999 Pan American Games in Winnipeg, Canada.

The U-20 Men advanced to the second round of the 1999 FIFA World Youth Championship in April, with their only two loses coming to eventual finalists Spain and Japan. Taylor Twellman scored four goals and earned the Bronze Boot to become the first American male in the modern era to earn a FIFA scoring award.

In November, the U-17 Men extended a record unbeaten streak to 24 games, advancing to the semifinals of the World Championship before losing in penalty kicks to Australia. Landon Donovan and DaMarcus Beasley earned the Gold and Silver Balls as the tournaments top two MVPs. In November, the U-17 Men extended a record unbeaten streak to 24 games, first round. The U.S. Under-20 Men qualified for their third straight FIFA World Youth Championship, where the team finished second in their group in Argentina and were eliminated in the second round by Egypt.

2000 The U.S. Women maintained the momentum from their historic Women's World Cup title with 41 matches in 2000, posting a 26-6-9 record. The USWNT won six tournament titles in 2000, but had to settle for a silver medal at the 2000 Summer Olympics, losing in extra time to archrival Norway in the gold medal match

The U.S. Men were the surprise team of the Sydney Games, winning their group and advancing to the semifinals before grabbing fourth place -- the highest Olympic finish for the U.S..

Bruce Arena's squad continued to advance toward their ultimate goal of qualifying for the 2002 FIFA World Cup. The team secured 11 out of a possible 18 points and kept shutouts in four matches to win its semifinal qualifying group.

2001 The U.S. Men qualified for a fourth straight World Cup boosted by four wins and a draw to open the final round of Concacaf qualifying. For the first time, the U.S. Men clinched a spot in the World Cup at a home qualifier, topping Jamaica 2-1 behind two goals from Joe-Max Moore in front of 40,483 fans at the last soccer match played at Foxboro Stadium.

The first women's D1 professional league, the Women's United Soccer Association, began play with the Bay Area CyberRays winning the inaugural Founders Cup.

Mia Hamm was named the first FIFA Women's World Player of the Year.

The U-17 Men advanced to a ninth consecutive FIFA U-17 World Cup, but were drawn into the Group of Death in Trinidad & Tobago with Japan, Nigeria and France, and were eliminated in the first round. The U-20 MNT qualified for their third straight FIFA World Youth Championship, where the team finished second in their group in Argentina and were eliminated in the second round by Egypt.

2002 The U.S. Men advanced to quarterfinals at the 2002 World Cup in Korea/Japan, the team's best World Cup showing since 1930. The U.S. shocked the world with a stunning 3-2 opening game upset of Portugal before eventually finishing in second place in Group D. The U.S. then posted their first victory in the World Cup knockout stage, blanking Concacaf rival Mexico 2-0 in the Round of 16. The World Cup run ended in the quarterfinals with a 1-0 loss to Germany. Claudio Reyna was named to the All-Tournament Team, while Landon Donovan earned honorable mention. The Men began 2002 by winning the Concacaf Gold Cup in January with a convincing 2-0 victory against Costa Rica for the first Gold Cup title for the U.S. since 1991.

SAVED: Brad Friedel saved a penalty kick by Korea Republic as the U.S. preserved a 1-1 draw in their second group game in 2002.

The U.S. Women qualified for their fourth consecutive FIFA Women's World Cup after capturing the 2002 Concacaf Gold Cup with a 2-1 overtime victory against Canada at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. The U.S. Under-19 Women topped the host Canadians 1-0 in overtime to win the inaugural FIFA U-19 Women's World Championship. Kelly Wilson won the Bronze Ball as the tournament's third MVP and the Silver Boot, while captain Lindsay Tarpley earned the Bronze Boot.

The U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team qualified for their fourth consecutive FIFA World Youth Championship. The U.S. National Futsal Team played their first home matches in history, defeating Canada and tying Mexico in March in Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D.C., respectively.

2003 Due to the outbreak of Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome, FIFA relocated the Women's World Cup out of China. After a successful bid to host the tournament, U.S. Soccer faced the unprecedented task of hosting the tournament with just four months of preparation. The U.S. Women won Group A and then beat Norway in the quarterfinals 1-0. But Germany stunned the U.S. with a 3-0 victory in the semifinals, which led the U.S. to top Canada in the third-place match. Shannon Boxx, Joy Fawcett and Mia Hamm all earned all-star honors from FIFA.

The U.S. Men, preparing for World Cup qualifying in 2004, finished in third place at the Concacaf Gold Cup with a 3-2 come-from-behind win against Costa Rica. The Men's Under-17 and Under-20 squads finished their respective World Championships with fifth place finishes after bowing out with quarterfinal losses to Brazil and Argentina, respectively.

2004 The U.S. Women won every tournament entered, culminating with the 2004 Olympics. Other tournament titles included the Algarve Cup, the Four Nations Tournament and the Concacaf Regional Olympic qualifying tournament, as the team set a record with 28 victories on the year.

GOLDEN GIRL: Abby Wambach was truly golden in 2004, scoring an unfathomable 31 goals, including the overtime winner to clinch the 2004 gold medal at the Athens Olympics.

Under head coach Bruce Arena, the U.S. Men qualified for the final round of World Cup Qualifying for the Concacaf region. The Men finished the year with an 8-1-6 record, losing only to the Netherlands away and going a record 13-games undefeated.

The U-23 Men failed to qualify for the Olympics for the first time since 1976, losing 4-0 to Mexico in Guadalajara after winning their group only match up against the second-place Mexicans in the single-elimination qualifier. The Under-19 Women finished third at the FIFA U-19 Women's World Championship. The Futsal Team won the 2004 Concacaf Championship and qualified for the 2004 FIFA Futsal World Championship, where the team had a strong showing with a seventh-place finish.

2005 Manager Bruce Arena led the U.S. Men to a first place finish in Concacaf World Cup qualifying for the first time in 71 years, earning a berth at the 2006 FIFA World Cup Finals in Germany with a 2-0 win against Mexico in Columbus, Ohio. The Men also brought home the 2005 Concacaf Gold Cup, beating Panama 3-1 in penalty kicks after a scoreless draw. The team finished the year with a record 13 wins and .750 winning percentage.

The U.S. Women began a new era, starting off the year with a new coach, Greg Ryan, and a third consecutive Algarve Cup title, their fourth overall. They ended the year undefeated and without allowing a single goal.

The Under-20 Men swept through Concacaf Qualifying, earning a berth to the FIFA Youth World Championship, where they finished 11th, bowing out to Italy in the Round of 16. The Under-17 Men also had a strong 2005, qualifying for the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Championship and finishing fifth overall after a loss to Holland in the second round.

2006 A disappointing World Cup in Germany for the U.S. Men, as the team failed to advance out of the first round despite a gallant, nine-man 1-1 draw with eventual World Cup champions Italy. After eight years in charge, Bruce Arena was replaced at the helm of the USMNT by Bob Bradley, on an interim basis.

Later in the summer, the U.S. Under-20 Women's National Team finished fourth in Russia. The disappointing finish marked the first time a U.S. Women's National Team had finished outside the top three in a FIFA world championship or Concacaf championship event.

The U.S. Women, however, continued their incredible run under Greg Ryan, winning three of the four tournaments they entered. The year concluded with another Women's Gold Cup crown and a berth in the 2007 FIFA Women's World Cup in China.

2007 The U.S. Women maintained a two-plus year undefeated run, looking to take the streak into the FIFA Women's World Cup. Drawn into the toughest group in Women's World Cup history, the U.S. advanced in first place after three difficult games against Korea DPR, Sweden and Nigeria. The U.S. rolled into the semifinals, but was upended by a quality Brazil side. Eventually, the WNT took third place for the second consecutive World Cup with a convincing win against Norway. Former Swedish National Team player and captain Pia Sundhage was appointed to the position of WNT coach after Greg Ryan's departure from the team.

Bob Bradley became the first Men's coach to win his first three games in charge and was hired full-time to guide the USA through 2010. In the summer of 2007, the MNT won its second consecutive Gold Cup, and fourth total title, by defeating Mexico 2-1 in front of a packed house at Soldier Field in Chicago. With the victory, the MNT gained entry into the 2009 Confederations Cup. The Men also travelled to Venezuela to compete in Copa America for the third time.

After qualifying for their respective World Cups to continue impressive streaks, the U-17 Men and U-20 Men took on the world during the summer in back-to-back tournaments. The U-20 team performed admirably in Canada, and reached the quarterfinals after defeats of Poland, Brazil and Uruguay. The U-17 team, meanwhile, did well to qualify from a tough group in South Korea, before being eliminated by Germany in the Round of 16.

Wilmer Cabrera was named head coach of the U-17 MNT, replacing John Hackworth. For the first time, U.S. Soccer hired four full-time referees to enhance high-level performance, training and development opportunities for the sport's elite officials in the United States. The U.S. Soccer Development Academy launched in the fall.

2008 Led by Pia Sundhage, the U.S. Women had one of their best years ever, losing only one game, which ironically came in the opening match of the 2008 Beijing Olympics, a tournament the U.S. would eventually win to take home their third gold medal. Overall, the USWNT won all six tournaments they entered to finish with a 33-1-2 record, giving them the most wins and best winning percentage ever in a calendar year (.944).

GOLDEN AGAIN: The U.S. got revenge for the 2007 loss and defeated Brazil in the 2008 Olympic Final.

The USMNT were successful in their own right, starting off on the right foot in 2010 FIFA World Cup qualifying with a 9-0 aggregate against Barbados in the second round. The U.S. opened the semifinal round with 1-0 victories in Guatemala and Cuba. Coming back to the U.S., home victories against T&T and Cuba clinched advancement with two games to play.

The U-23 MNT joined the U.S. Women by qualifying for the 2008 Olympics in March, but just missed out on the second round once arriving in Beijing. Despite a 1-0 victory against Japan and a 2-2 draw with the Netherlands, the U.S. Men fell 2-1 against eventual silver medalist Nigeria. On the youth side, the U-17 and U-20 Women's National Teams both made the championship match of their respective FIFA World Cups. In New Zealand, the U-17s went on an impressive run to the final before finally succumbing to Korea DPR in the final, but in Chile their older counterparts were able to exact revenge with a 2-1 victory to bring the World Cup trophy back to the United States for the first time since 2002.

Building off the initial kickoff in 2007, U.S. Soccer's Development Academy wrapped up its first year with a collection of dynamic matches during Finals Week at The Home Depot Center. In the U-15/16 championship, Carmel United topped PDA 1-0, and the Baltimore Bays topped LAFC 4-2 to take the U-17/18 title.

2009 The U.S. Men opened 2009 focused on final round qualifying for the 2010 FIFA World Cup with a 2-0 win against archrival Mexico in Columbus, Ohio. Bob Bradley's squad proceeded to go undefeated at home and clinch a spot in South Africa with a come-from-behind win in Honduras. They finished atop the Concacaf table with a tie against Costa Rica in Washington, D.C., on the last day of qualifying.

During the summer, the U.S. Men traveled to South Africa to compete in the 2009 FIFA Confederations Cup. The USMNT was drawn into a group with Italy, Brazil and Egypt, and advanced into the semifinals by virtue of a 3-0 dismantling of Egypt in the final game. They kept the nation captivated by beating Spain, the No.1-ranked team in the world in the semifinals before falling 3-2 to Brazil in the final. Tim Howard was awarded the Golden Glove and Clint Dempsey given the Bronze Ball.

The USWNT, led by coach Pia Sundhage had another successful year following their gold medal winning exploits in 2008, and wrapped up the year with a 7-0-1 that included falling in penalties to Sweden in the Algarve Cup final.

Both the U-17 and U-20 Men's National Teams competed in their respective FIFA World Cups this year, with the U-17 team advancing out of the group stage in Nigeria before falling to Italy in the Round of 16. A tough group containing Germany, Cameroon and Korea Republic saw the U-20s out of the tournament following the first round in Egypt.

The U.S. Soccer Development Academy completed its second year of competition in 2009, once again concluding the season with Finals Week at The Home Depot Center. In the U-15/16 age group, playoff No.1-seed Derby County Wolves continued their strong season straight through Finals Week with a title. Indiana United Academy defeated D.C. United to take home the U-17/18 championship.

2010 The year's most memorable moment came in the U.S. Men's third group game at the 2010 World Cup in South Africa as Landon Donovan scored a last-minute goal for the U.S. to clinch advancement and clinch a group for the first time in 80 years. Following a 1-1 tie with England, a 2-2 tie with Slovenia and a 1-0 win against Algeria, the U.S. was eliminated in the Round of 16, losing to Ghana 2-1. Clint Dempsey became the second U.S. player to score in multiple World Cups, and Landon Donovan had three total goals to become the third to score in multiple World Cups and the all-time World Cup goal leader for the U.S.

TIES THAT BIND: Michael Bradley celebrates scoring the game-tying goal against Slovenia in the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

After a surprising loss to Mexico in the semifinals of Women's Concacaf qualifying, the U.S. topped Italy 2-0 in a two-game qualifying playoff to earn a spot in the 2011 FIFA Women's World Cup. The U.S. won its seventh Algarve Cup with the first of two victories against 2011 hosts Germany.

The U.S. Under-20 Women lost in penalty kicks to Nigeria in the quarterfinals of the 2010 FIFA U-20 World Cup, while the U-17 Women became the first U.S. Women's team to fail to qualify for a FIFA World Cup event after not advancing out of the CONCACACAF qualifying tournament.

No Division II league met U.S. Soccer's sanctioning standards, for professional leagues, so the Federation administered a league called USSF D-2 for one year.

2011 The U.S. Women were on center stage during the 2011 Women's World Cup in Germany. Their dramatic run in the Women's World Cup was highlighted by an electric, come-from-behind victory in the quarterfinals against Brazil, in which Abby Wambach scored the latest goal (six minutes into stoppage time) ever in a World Cup match. The U.S., however, would lose out in penalties to a spirited Japanese side in the final after playing to a 2-2 draw through 120 minutes.

During the summer of 2011 at the Concacaf Gold Cup, the U.S. MNT advanced to its third consecutive final, scoring two early goals before falling 4-2 to Mexico.

The continental tournament would prove to be Bob Bradley's last involvement as head coach of the U.S., with former Germany international and FIFA World Cup winner Jurgen Klinsmann taking the helm of the U.S. Men in August. He earned his first win in Miami against Honduras thanks to a Clint Dempsey strike and later led the team to a 3-2 victory against Slovenia in its last game of the year.

The U-17 and U-20 Men's National Teams both entered another cycle of their respective FIFA World Cups. The U-17 Men reached the knockout round for the seventh time but lost to Germany in the Round of 16. After winning their qualifying group with two shutout victories, the U-20s graduated to the quarterfinals but fell to Guatemala and did not reach the World Cup for the first time since 1995.

2012 The USWNT capped off the 2012 London Olympics with a 2-1 victory against Japan in front of more than 80,000 spectators at Wembley Stadium as the U.S. Women earned their fourth Olympic gold – a first for any country on the men's and women's sides. Carli Lloyd scored both goals for the USA, capping off a tournament that featured a dramatic game-winning goal from 2012 U.S. Soccer Female Athlete of the Year Alex Morgan in the 123rd minute of the team's semifinal victory against Canada.

The USMNT advanced to the final round of 2014 FIFA World Cup Qualifying, defeating Guatemala 3-1 in the final Group A match of the Semifinal Round as Clint Dempsey scored his 29th and 30th career goals to tie Brian McBride for third all-time in U.S. history. The U.S. Men also had some memorable international friendly victories in 2012, including the first win on Mexico's home soil – a 1-0 victory at Estadio Azteca on Aug. 15.

The U.S. U-20 WNT defeated defending champion Germany 1-0 in the 2012 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Tokyo. Kealia Ohai scored the game's lone goal and the Americans earned their third World Cup crown in the tournament's history. The U.S. U-17 WNT competed in the 2012 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup, and in an extremely rare occurrence did not advance past the group stage despite an unbeaten 1-0-2 record.

2013 U.S. Soccer celebrated its 100th birthday in 2013, marking the occasion with a doubleheader event on June 2 as the USMNT beat Germany 4-3 in an electrifying match in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C. The USWNT also enjoyed victorious celebration as it defeated Canada 2-0 in Toronto in the first match since the dramatic semifinal victory in the 2012 London Olympics.

The MNT accomplished its primary task of qualifying for the 2014 FIFA World Cup, marking the seventh-consecutive time the team has reached the finals. The USA finished in first place for the third straight Concacaf cycle, highlighted by yet another "Dos a Cero" victory against regional rival Mexico. The team captured its fifth Gold Cup title, winning all six matches en route to the championship. A multitude of team and individual records were broken, a Snow Clasico played out in Denver and a dramatic comeback against Panama punctuated the end of the qualifying campaign. The U.S. Women's unbeaten 2013 campaign was highlighted by Abby Wambach capturing the international scoring record on June 20 with four goals against Korea Republic at Red Bull Arena. She surpassed Mia Hamm's record of 158 and continued to extend the record, ending the year on 163.

2014 A banner year for U.S. Soccer. Growth is the word that best defined the year as record numbers of fans flocked to stadiums, parks and any available TV to see the USMNT compete at the 2014 FIFA World Cup. Impressive new television and sponsor agreements were signed, allowing U.S. Soccer to invest heavily in its coaching and youth development programs. All the while, the USWNT continued to cement its role as the No. 1 women's program in the world and turning heads in the process.

Early in the year, the USWNT transitioned to the guidance of former interim head coach and long-time assistant Jill Ellis, who led the team to an impressive qualification to the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup in Canada as well as a 17-1-4 record to finish the year. Along the way, team captain Christie Rampone became only the second soccer player in history – man or woman – to reach 300 caps for their country. The team also brought in talented youngsters such as midfielder Morgan Brian and defenders Julie Johnston and Crystal Dunn.

The USMNT's year was highlighted by a successful run to the Round of 16 at the 2014 FIFA World Cup in Brazil. Head coach Jurgen Klinsmann guided the team out of the 'Group of Death' on the back of a cathartic win against Ghana and a dramatic draw against the world's No. 1 player Cristiano Ronaldo and Portugal. Despite goalkeeper Tim Howard's heroics – and tournament record 15 saves – against Belgium, the USA exited in the first knockout round. The team and soccer culture in the United States was then stunned by the retirement of the greatest player it had ever produced when Landon Donovan decided to hang up his cleats after playing one final match for his country in an October friendly against Ecuador.

2015 A year of continued evolution for the U.S. Soccer National Teams and Federation as a whole, saw the USWNT claim the most coveted prize in the sport by winning the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup in record breaking fashion vs. Japan. It was a dominant year for the WNT, which also won a final Algarve Cup title early in the year before launching the #SheBelieves campaign aimed at inspiring fans throughout the world to achieve their dreams and then drawing record TV audiences for its World Cup games that subsequently led to record crowds during its Victory Tour.

The USMNT's high-water mark came in June when the team won back-to-back friendlies on European soil vs. the Netherlands and reigning World Cup champions Germany. The team also saw an injection of youth in its ranks as promising young players climbed the MNT program ladder from a talented U-20 team that made an inspired run to the FIFA U-20 World Cup Quarterfinals up to the U-23 MNT and in the case of defender Matt Miazga the full National Team. Despite less than desirable results in the semifinals of the Concacaf Gold Cup and Concacaf Cup, the MNT closed out the year with quality results in its first two games of Semifinal Round Qualifying for the 2018 FIFA World Cup in Russia.

TRIPLE CROWN: The USWNT became the first team in women's soccer history to claim a third FIFA World Cup title, doing so in record fashion in 2015.

2016 Another big year for U.S. Soccer saw its Men's and Women's teams of all age groups find success throughout the year. On the Women's side, the year began with a storming run to the Concacaf Olympic Qualifying tournament title by the senior team, which then won the inaugural SheBelieves Cup with victories against European powers England, France and Germany. From there another pair of quality results against rival Japan had the team looking good heading into the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio; however, a bitter Round of 16 exit at the hands of former coach Pia Sundhage and Sweden on penalty kicks after a 1-1 draw left a sour taste. The team finished the year strong, winning its remaining six games while introducing a wealth of young talent.

Additionally, the U-20 WNT made a strong run at the U-20 Women's World Cup, reaching the third-place match.

The Men's National Team had a roller coaster of a year. A must-win World Cup Qualifying match at home to Guatemala saw the USA come good to set the team up for an impressive summer run at the Copa America Centenario, which was hosted in the United States. Despite an opening match loss to Colombia, the U.S. recovered to steam into a semifinal showdown against world power Argentina, where the team was defeated by a sublime performance from five-time FIFA World Player of the Year Lionel Messi. The MNT righted the ship by cruising into the Final Round of 2018 World Cup Qualifying with a pair of high-flying wins. But the year would take a sharp turn once more as defeats to Mexico at home and Costa Rica away sealed the fate of Jurgen Klinsmann as head coach and saw former manager Bruce Arena reinstalled to lead the team in 2017.

2017 The U.S. Women's National Team

experienced one of its busiest, most competitive schedules to begin a World Cup and Olympic cycle. The team played seven teams in the top 10 of the FIFA Women's World Rankings on the way to compiling a 12-3-1 record that included an eight-game unbeaten streak to finish the year. The USA hosted two major tournaments in the SheBelieves Cup and the Tournament of Nations, as head coach Jill Ellis used the year for experimentation and player evaluation as more than 50 players were seen in training camps and games while six players earned first caps.

After starting the Final Round of 2018 FIFA World Cup Qualifying with two defeats to end the previous year, the U.S. Men's National Team set a different course with the return of Bruce Arena as head coach. The turnaround began in March when the U.S. picked up eight points via two home wins and two away draws, one against Mexico at the revered Estadio Azteca. With qualifying stabilized, attention shifted to the Concacaf Gold Cup, where the U.S. earned its sixth confederation title when Jordan Morris' 88th minute game winner defeated Jamaica in the championship match on July 26.

With a regional crown in hand, the MNT returned to qualifying in September, but faltered with a home defeat to Costa Rica and away draw with Honduras that saw the USA still alive with two qualifying matches left. An impressive 4-0 win against Panama pushed the U.S. to the brink of qualifying for the 2018 World Cup, but needing just a draw on the last matchday at Trinidad & Tobago, the side fell 2-1 to the Soca Warriors in Couva, Trinidad, that result, combined with Honduras and Panama wins that night, knocked the U.S. out of the World Cup.

Arena resigned on Oct. 13, opening the search for a new head coach, and a month later the beginnings of a new-look MNT took its initial step when a young team led by acting head coach Dave Sarachan played defending European champions Portugal to a 1-1 draw.

On the youth side, the U.S. was one of only two nations to see its U-17 and U-20 Men's National Teams reach the Quarterfinals of their respective World Cups. The U-17 squad secured its spot at its World Cup with a second-place finish at the Concacaf U-17 Championship. The U-20 MNT qualified for the competition by winning the Concacaf U-20 Championship for the first time in federation history, defeating Honduras on penalties.

Additionally, the Paralympic National Team earned its best finish at a major world competition since the 1996 Paralympic Games with a fifth-place result at the 2017 IFCPF CP Football World Championships in San Luis, Argentina.

2018 The U.S. Women's National Team went unbeaten through 20 matches in 11 states and two countries in a year that will go down as one of the most successful in program history. The squad lifted three trophies by winning the SheBelieves Cup, the Tournament of Nations, and the Concacaf Championship. Jill Ellis' side punched its ticket to the 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup in dominant fashion, winning all five qualifiers by a combined score of 26-0. In its penultimate match of the year, the USA captured its 500th all-time victory with a 1-0 win versus Portugal in Lisbon.

The U.S. Men's National Team took on a transitional year in 2018 by facing one of the most challenging schedules in team history. The USA squared off against the likes of Brazil, England, Italy, and Colombia in a gauntlet designed to test a new generation of the red, white, and blue. One of the team's best moments came in June, when it drew eventual World Cup champion France, 1-1, in Lyon. The USA then hired its first-ever General Manager in Earnie Stewart and new head coach Gregg Berhalter to lead the charge toward the 2022 World Cup. On the youth side, the U-15 Girls' National Team, U-17 Women's National Team, and U-20 Men's National Team all won Concacaf Championships. The Para 7-a-Side team qualified for the 2019 IFCPF World Cup with a third-place finish at Copa America.

And in a momentous moment for soccer in the U.S., the United Bid of Canada, Mexico and the United States, was awarded hosting rights for the 2026 FIFA World Cup. The 2026 competition will be the first to host an expanded field of 48 teams. The three Federations are now working to build excitement, energy and awareness for what will be the biggest World Cup in history!

2019 The U.S. Women's National Team experienced an historic 2019 that saw the team win its fourth World Cup title. The U.S. set Women's World Cup records for goals (26), goal differential (plus-23) and never trailed to become the first team to go 7-0-0 in the Women's World Cup. Midfielder Megan Rapinoe was awarded the Golden Ball as the tournament's best player and the Golden Boot as its top scorer with six goals and three assists. At the conclusion of the 2019 Victory Tour, head coach Jill Ellis retired with a remarkable 106-7-19 overall record.

On October 28, U.S. Soccer announced Vlatko Andonovski as the ninth head coach in USWNT history. The Andonovski era started on a high note as the U.S. closed out 2019 with wins over Sweden and Costa Rica.

In head coach Gregg Berhalter's first year in charge, the U.S. Men's National Team started his tenure with friendly wins over Panama, Costa Rica and Ecuador while earning a 1-1 draw with defending Copa América champions Chile. En route to its 11th Gold Cup Final, the USMNT outscored opponents 15-1 in three group stage and two knockout round matches before falling to Mexico, 1-0. After another loss to Mexico in a friendly a couple of months later, the U.S. rebounded with a 1-1 draw vs. world No. 5 Uruguay. The inaugural edition of the Concacaf Nations League served as the next set of games on the schedule for the USA. Drawn into Nations League A, Group A, the USMNT closed out the year with home and away matches against Canada and Cuba. With two wins against Cuba and one over Canada, the U.S. advanced to the Final Round of Nations League and finished the year at No. 22 in FIFA's world rankings, up three spots from 2018, its highest year-end finish since 2013 (14th).

On the youth side, the U.S. became the only nation to reach the quarterfinals of the last three U-20 World Cups. Before falling to Ecuador in the quarterfinals, the U-20 USMNT advanced to the knockout stage with wins over Nigeria and Qatar before upsetting tournament favorite France with a 3-2 comeback victory in the Round of 16. The U-17 USMNT qualified for a record 17th FIFA U-17 World Cup after reaching the 2019 Concacaf U-17 Championship Final. With wins over Belgium, Czechia and the Republic of Ireland, the U.S. Under-17 Women's National Team won the UEFA Women's Development Tournament in Czechia. Additionally, the U.S. Para 7-a-Side National Team won the program's first Parapan American Games medal with a dominating 7-0 win against Venezuela to claim the bronze at the 2019 tournament and the Beach Soccer Women's National Team was launched.

2020 A year that was supposed to be a busy schedule for the U.S. Men's and Women's National Teams as well as several youth teams was largely halted due to the global health pandemic caused by the COVID-19 outbreak in March.

In their first full year under head coach Vlatko Andonovski, the U.S. Women's National Team started 2020 with an energy and performances befitting a team aiming to win a World Cup and an Olympics in back-to-back years. Yet the day after the USA won the 2020 SheBelieves Cup and capped a perfect 8-0-0 start to 2020 – including qualifying for the Tokyo Games – the sports world shut down. The Olympics were eventually postponed, all of the USA's programming was cancelled, and the team would not hit the field again for seven months when an October training camp was held in Colorado. On Nov. 27, the USWNT finally played its first game in 261 days, a rousing 2-0 win vs. the Netherlands in Breda to close the year ranked No. 1 in the world.

The U.S. Men's National Team opened the year with a 1-0 win over Costa Rica in February, then did not reconvene again until November, playing Wales to a 0-0 draw on Nov. 12 and beating Panama, 6-2, on Nov. 16. Gregg Berhalter's side then closed the year with a commanding 6-0 victory over El Salvador in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, the first domestic match for any U.S. National Team since the start of the pandemic.

On the youth side, the Under-20 U.S. Women's National Team opened the year by winning the 2020 Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship and in the process, qualifying for the Under-20 Women's World Cup. However, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, all youth World Cups scheduled for 2020 and 2021 were cancelled.

2021 The U.S. Women's National Team hit the ground running in 2021, becoming the first team to win back-to-back SheBelieves Cup titles in the tournament's six-year history after recording wins over Canada, Brazil, and Argentina, while also becoming the first team to finish the tournament without conceding any goals. In July, the team earned its first-ever bronze medal at the delayed 2020 Olympic Tournament in Tokyo, which had been pushed back a year due to the COVID-19 global pandemic. During that competition, Samantha Mewis and Kristie Mewis made history by becoming the first sisters to represent the USWNT at a major senior tournament (after doing so at two Youth FIFA World Cups). The team finished the year with a 17-2-5 record, a +64 goal differential and an .812 winning percentage, all the while continuing to build on a 62-game home unbeaten streak to end 2021. The USWNT once again finished the year at the top of the FIFA Rankings. Six players earned their first cap on the year, while legendary midfielder-turned-forward Carli Lloyd retired as the second-most capped player in world soccer history with 316 games played.

The Men's National Team recorded one of its best years in history, setting a record for most wins in a calendar year after posting a 17-2-3 record in 2021. The USMNT won two major titles in one summer as they conquered the Concacaf Gold Cup and the inaugural Concacaf Nations League – beating archrival Mexico in both finals -- while featuring two young and almost completely different rosters in each tournament. The team went on to finish the year with three wins against El Tri after adding a thrilling "Dos a Cero" victory in Cincinnati during World Cup Qualifying. The MNT also ended the year ranked 11th in the FIFA World Rankings, making the USA the highest-ranked in Concacaf and marking their highest year-end ranking since 2005. In addition to 27 players earning their first appearance in a World Cup Qualifier, head coach Gregg Berhalter twice sent out starting lineups that were the youngest ever for the United States in a qualifier. The team also boasted a +34 goal differential, a .841 winning percentage, and a .54 goals against average, all of which were best in team history, while their 12 clean sheets tied their best record in that category.

On the youth side, after a long pause in regular programming due to the pandemic, the U-17 and U-20 U.S. Women's Youth National Teams and the U-17 Men's Youth National Team returned to the field in October with training camps in Chula Vista, Calif. In November, the U-20 MYNT kicked off a new cycle at the Revelations Cup in Mexico as it prepares for the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Championship which will serve as qualification to the 2023 FIFA U-20 World Cup and the 2024 Summer Olympics. The U-20 WYNT also held an end-of-year training camp in December as they prepared for the 2022 Concacaf U-20 Women's Championship in early 2022 in the Dominican Republic. The YNT programs underwent several changes in coaching staffs as Gonzalo Segares was named U-17 MYNT head coach (previously U-15 MYNT) and Tracey Kevins was named U-20 WYNT head coach (previously U-15 and U-17 WYNT), while Mikey Varas, Natalia Astrain, and Katie Schoepfer were hired as U-20 MYNT, U-17 WYNT, and U-15 WYNT head coaches, respectively.

2022 The U.S. Women's National Team started off the year by winning its fifth overall SheBelieves Cup title in a tournament that included Iceland, Czechia and 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup co-host New Zealand. In July, the USA won the 2022 Concacaf W Championship in Monterrey, Mexico, to earn berths to both the 2023 WWC and the 2024 Paris Olympics. In the newly formatted tournament, the U.S. Women claimed the title with a 5-0-0 run and a 1-0 victory over Canada in the championship game. The USWNT closed out the year with losses at England and Spain, then split with Germany in a two-game set at home, but still finished 2022 ranked No. 1 in the world for the seventh consecutive year.

The U.S. Men's National Team closed out the arduous and demanding qualification process in the Octagonal in March 2022, earning one of the confederation's three automatic berths to the World Cup and returning to the world's biggest stage for the first time since 2014. The USA's starting lineups during those games averaged 23 years, 302 days, which is the youngest average age in team history during a qualifying cycle. Just weeks later, the team was drawn into one of the most challenging groups in Qatar alongside England, Wales and IR Iran. The USA earned a win and two draws to advance out of the group, all the while making history as the match against England set a record for the most-watched men's soccer game on American English-language television ever, amassing 15.3 million viewers on FOX plus another 4.6 million on Telemundo. After the team's World Cup exit in the Round of 16 against Netherlands, the USA finished the year ranked 13th in the FIFA world rankings.

On the Youth side, the U-20 Men's Youth National Team won its third consecutive Concacaf U-20

Championship title, qualifying for the 2024 Olympics in Paris in the process and marking the USA's return to its first Men's Olympic Football Tournament since Beijing 2008. The U-17 Women's Youth National Team won its third consecutive and record fifth overall Concacaf Women's U-17 Championship and went on to reach the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup Quarterfinals after topping their group, before falling just short against Nigeria in penalty kicks. The U-20 WYNT went undefeated to win the Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship, earning a record seventh Concacaf title for this age group. The USA bowed out of the U-20 Women's World Cup in the group stage, albeit after matches against tough opposition in Japan, Netherlands and Ghana.

2023 The U.S. Women's National Team started off the year by winning its sixth overall SheBelieves Cup title in a tournament that included Brazil, Canada, and Japan. In the summer, the USWNT took part in its ninth-straight FIFA Women's World Cup in New Zealand and Australia, navigating the group stage before falling to Sweden on penalty kicks in the Round of 16.

In March, the USMNT qualified for its second-straight Concacaf Nations League Final Four, defeating Grenada 7-1 and El Salvador 1-0 to finish on top of its group. In June, the side then claimed its second CNL title, routing Mexico 3-0 in the semifinal before upending Canada 2-0 in the Final. During the CNL Final, it was announced that Gregg Berhalter would return as USMNT head coach beginning in the fall, and the USA immediately moved into Concacaf Gold Cup play, where it navigated through the group stage, before eventually falling to Panama on penalty kicks in the semifinal. Berhalter returned to the helm in the fall, where the USA went 3-1-0 in four friendlies, before defeating Trinidad and Tobago 4-2 on aggregate in the 2023-24 CNL Quarterfinals to qualify for the tournament semifinals as well as Copa America 2024.

On the Youth side, the U-20 USMNT advanced to the quarterfinals of the 2023 FIFA U-20 World Cup for the fourth-consecutive tournament, finishing on top of its group and defeating New Zealand 4-0 in the Round of 16 before falling 2-0 to eventual champions Uruguay in the quarterfinal. The U-17 USMNT also advanced from its group at the U-17 World Cup, before falling 3-2 to eventual champs Germany in the Round of 16.

In September, U.S. Soccer announced plans to build a new state-of-the-art National Training Center in Fayetteville Georgia, with plans to relocate its headquarter there ahead of the 2026 FIFA World Cup.

2024 Under the new guidance of head coach Emma Hayes, the U.S. Women's National Team won its record fifth Olympic gold medal at the 2024 Summer Olympics in Paris. The USWNT went a perfect 6-0-0, including three consecutive 1-0 wins in the Knockout Rounds, culminating with the victory against Brazil in the final on Aug. 10 at the Parc des Princes. The U.S. Women's National Team started off the year by winning its sixth overall SheBelieves Cup title in a tournament that included Brazil, Canada, and Japan. In the summer, the USWNT took part in its ninth-straight FIFA Women's World Cup in New Zealand and Australia, navigating the group stage before falling to Sweden on penalty kicks in the Round of 16.

In March, the USMNT qualified for its second-straight Concacaf Nations League Final Four, defeating Grenada 7-1 and El Salvador 1-0 to finish on top of its group. In June, the side then claimed its second CNL title, routing Mexico 3-0 in the semifinal before upending Canada 2-0 in the Final. During the CNL Final, it was announced that Gregg Berhalter would return as USMNT head coach beginning in the fall, and the USA immediately moved into Concacaf Gold Cup play, where it navigated through the group stage, before eventually falling to Panama on penalty kicks in the semifinal. Berhalter returned to the helm in the fall, where the USA went 3-1-0 in four friendlies, before defeating Trinidad and Tobago 4-2 on aggregate in the 2023-24 CNL Quarterfinals to qualify for the tournament semifinals as well as Copa America 2024.

On the Youth side, both the U-20 and U-17 Women's National Teams claimed third place at their FIFA World Cups in Colombia and Dominican Republic, respectively. Meanwhile, the U-20 Men's National Team finished as runners-up at the 2024 Concacaf U-20 Championship in Mexico, qualifying for the following year's FIFA U-20 World Cup to be played in Chile.

On the Extended National Teams front, the U.S. Women's Deaf National Team played its first international match on home soil, defeating Australia 11-0 in the first match of a historic doubleheader with the USWNT on June 1 in Commerce City, Colo. The match was also the first U.S. Soccer-presented Extended National Teams match to be broadcast, coming on truTV and Telemundo Digital Platforms, as well as being the first ENT match to have a presenting partner in Volkswagen.

2024 U.S. Soccer Players of the Year

For their excellence at the highest levels of the sport, U.S. Soccer voters named U.S. Men's National Team defender ANTONEE ROBINSON as the 2024 Male Player of the Year, goalkeeper ALYSSA NAEHER as the 2024 Female Player of the Year, midfielder TANNER TESSMANN as the 2024 Young Male Player of the Year, and forward ALLY SENTNOR as the 2024 Young Female Player of the Year.

The U.S. Soccer Player of the Year awards have a longer history than any major individual award in American soccer – having first begun more than 40 years ago. Alongside the Best of FIFA awards, the U.S. Player of the Year awards are the only awards to honor both the top male and the top female in the sport.

Votes are collected from respective National Team coaches, National Team players who have earned a cap in the applicable calendar year, American soccer league (MLS, USL and NWSL) head coaches, select media members, former players and administrators. Players cannot win the Young Male or Young Female award more than once. For the fourth consecutive year, fans were able to vote for the U.S. Soccer Player and Young Player of the Year Awards with those votes weighted at 15% of the total.

2024 U.S. SOCCER PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

U.S. SOCCER MALE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Antonee ROBINSON

A dual citizen of the United States and England, in 2024 Robinson played the second-most games and minutes of his career in a calendar year. The U.S. recorded all four of its clean sheets this year with "Jedi" patrolling the left flank, including the "dos a cero" win against Mexico in the 2024 Concacaf Nations League Final and the critical 1-0 shutout on the road against Jamaica in the quarterfinal of the 2025 edition of the tournament.

At the club level, Robinson has established himself as one of the outstanding performers in the Premier League at his position. Having won the Fulham 2023-24 Player of the Year award, he finished this calendar year with 10 assists across 37 games played, four more than any other defender in the league and in the top 10 of players across the board. Now wearing the captain's armband, he's already delivered seven assists in 19 matches during the current campaign – tied for the third amongst all Premier League players - two of which came in the thrilling 2-2 draw away to league leaders Liverpool on Dec. 14. Robinson is the third player with ties to Fulham to earn the honor, joining Clint Dempsey (2007, 2011, 2012) and Kasey Keller (1997, 1999, 2005).

In a list of nominees including Folarin Balogun, Ricardo Pepi, Christian Pulisic and Tim Ream, Robinson won with 55 percent of the weighted total.

U.S. SOCCER FEMALE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Alyssa NAEHER

Following a year in which she once again left an indelible mark on U.S. Women's National Team history, goalkeeper Alyssa Naeher was voted the 2024 U.S. Soccer Female Player of the Year.

Just the second goalkeeper to win in the award's 40-year history, Naeher played every minute of the 2024 Olympics, allowed just two goals and made crucial saves in all of the knockout round games on the way to the gold medal. The USA won all three knockout games at the Olympics by 1-0 scores – two of which went into overtime – and with her shutout of Brazil in the gold medal game, she became the first goalkeeper in women's soccer history to keep clean sheets in a World Cup Final and an Olympic Final. Her outrageous kick-save in the waning minutes of overtime in the semifinal win over Germany will go down as one of the most memorable moments in U.S. history.

During the year, she became just the third U.S. goalkeeper to hit 100 caps and played a huge role in the USA winning two penalty kick shootouts against Canada. In the Concacaf W Gold Cup semifinal on March 6, Naeher became the first U.S. 'keeper to make three saves in a penalty kick shootout and converted the USA's third kick herself. Her save on Canada captain Jessie Fleming won the game. On April 9 in the SheBelieves Cup championship game against Canada, she remarkably saved three more penalty kicks in a shootout that went seven rounds and once again made her kick, converting the USA's third attempt.

Appropriately, she had a fantastic match in her final game in a U.S. uniform, helping the USA to a 2-1 win over the Netherlands. She made six saves to help the Americans hold off a talented Dutch side.

Of the five finalists for the Female Player of the Year Award, Naeher garnered 40.8% percent of the weighted vote, followed by defender Naomi Girma (32.2%).

U.S. SOCCER YOUNG MALE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Tanner TESSMANN

Returning to the Olympics for the first time since 2008, Tessmann captained the U.S. men throughout their preparations and at the Paris Games. The midfielder played every minute for the USA in France, leading the Americans to advancement from the group stage for just the second time since pool play was introduced at Rome 1960. Reaching the quarterfinals for just the third time in its 100-year history at the Games, Paris 2024 marked the USA's first time winning two games at the Olympic Men's Soccer Tournament.

After making his senior international debut in September 2023, Tessmann began to install himself as a regular contributor with new head coach Mauricio Pochettino during the manager's first two camps at the helm of the USMNT last fall. Following substitute appearances in both of Pochettino's first friendlies in charge, Tessmann started both legs of the Concacaf Nations League Quarterfinals against Jamaica, helping the U.S. take the first step toward its fourth CNL title with a 5-2 aggregate victory.

It was a similarly impressive year for Tessmann on the club front. The midfielder was a fixture for Venezia FC in Serie B, helping the club back to Serie A after two seasons in the second division. He started 35 of 38 games for Venezia on the year, appearing in all but one league match. The Leoni Alati finished third in the league table to earn a place in the promotion playoffs, where Tessmann shone brightly. He played every minute of the four-game tournament and scored a spectacular goal in the second leg against Palermo to secure advancement to the finals.

Tessmann's strong play for club and country was rewarded with an August transfer to French power Olympique Lyon. He played in 14 games for the club during the first half of the 2024-25 season. The 23-year-old earned his first minutes in European competition during the start of Lyon's UEFA Europa League campaign this fall as the club clinched a place in the next round, finishing the year in fourth place with two league games remaining.

U.S. SOCCER YOUNG FEMALE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Ally SENTNOR

After a solid rookie year in the NWSL for the Utah Royals, Sentnor received her first senior USWNT call-up for the USA's two matches in Europe to end the 2024 schedule and earned her first senior team cap in front of 78,346 fans at Wembley Stadium in the USA's 0-0 draw with England on Nov. 30.

One of the most decorated players in recent U.S. Women's National Team history, having scored for the USA at almost every youth level, the 20-year-old captained the USA to third place at the 2024 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Colombia. At that World Cup, she scored three times – against Paraguay, Mexico and in the Third-Place Match against the Netherlands. She also scored the dramatic tying goal in the waning seconds of the quarterfinal match against Germany (it was later ruled an own goal). In that Germany match, the USA was down 2-0 in the third minute of stoppage time before scoring in the 97th and 98th minutes to tie the game in one of the greatest comebacks in U.S. history. After a scoreless overtime, Sentnor then nailed the USA's opening penalty in the victorious shootout. She won the Bronze Ball in Colombia as the third-best player in the tournament.

Sentnor, who also scored in the 2022 FIFA U-20 WWC, finished her U-20 career with 12 goals in 23 caps. A nominee for NWSL Rookie of the Year, she had three goals and four assists for Utah this past season while playing 1,866 minutes in 21 matches, all of them starts, after being selected by the club as the No. 1 overall pick in the 2024 NWSL Draft. She also played two games in the NWSL x Liga MX Femenil Summer Cup and scored in both, against Tijuana and the Portland Thorns.

Of the five finalists for the Young Female Player of the Year Award, Sentnor garnered 55.8 percent of the overall tabulated votes followed by her U-20 WWC teammate and Kansas City Current midfielder Claire Hutton (30.1%).

2024 Extended National Team Player of the Year and ADAPTand THRIVE Awards

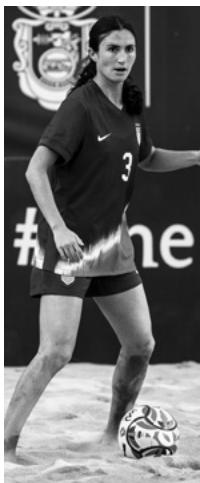

Eight winners for U.S. Soccer's end-of-year awards in disability soccer, beach soccer and futsal were announced in 2024. The ADAPTandTHRIVE Disability Award recognizes an individual making an impact in the United States' broad landscape of disability soccer, while the Beach Soccer Female and Male Player of the Year Awards, the Futsal Player of the Year Award, CP Female and Male Player of the Year Awards, Deaf Female and Male Player of the Year Awards and Power Soccer Player of the Year Award honor players from U.S. Soccer's Extended National Teams excelling at other versions of the sport on the sand and court.

The 2024 Player of the Year award winners were determined via a weighted vote that took place from December 17-31, 2024. Votes were weighted as follows:

- 45% - Athletes that earned a cap for their respective national team during 2024
- 40% - Coaches, Support Staff, U.S. Soccer Athlete Council, and Board of Directors
- 15% - Online fan vote

ADAPTandTHRIVE Disability Award: Margaret DOMKA, Disability Soccer Referee

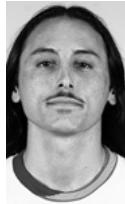

Long-time Referee Margaret Domka has won the fourth annual ADAPTandTHRIVE Disability Award, which recognizes an individual who is making an impact in Disability Soccer in the United States. A 10-year member of the FIFA International Panel from 2007-2017, Domka officiated at the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup, the 2012 and 2014 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cups, as well as serving as a match official in WPS and NWSL.

Domka started applying her Referee expertise to different disciplines of the game when she began as a PhD candidate researching Mental Health and Sport at Clemson University in 2018. Since that time, she has worked as a match official at nine major IFCPF events, including the 2022 and 2024 Women's and Men's World Cups and 2019 and 2023 Parapan American Games, as well as the first international friendlies played by the U.S. Blind Soccer National Team in 2023 and the 2024 U.S. Blind Soccer International Cup. She also officiated at the 2022 Special Olympics USA Games.

Beach Soccer Female Player of the Year: Hannah ADLER

A former professional player who appeared in the UEFA Champions League with Danish side HB Køge and domestically for the NWSL's Racing Louisville, Hannah Adler (Santa Barbara, Calif.) claims her second-straight Female Beach Soccer Player of the Year in her second year with the Beach WNT. Adler appeared in all six matches, finishing tied for second on the team with five goals to go along with two assists. The striker scored in four consecutive matches, beginning with her goal in the 9-0 victory against the Bahamas to help the USA claim the El Salvador Beach Soccer Cup on March 29. Adler also registered a goal and assist in the 4-2 loss to Spain (Dec. 13), another goal and assist in the 4-0 win against Mexico (Dec. 14) and her third career brace in the 6-4 win against Costa Rica on Dec. 15 to help the Beach WNT earn second place at the Acapulco Beach Soccer Cup.

Beach Soccer Male Player of the Year: Antonio CHAVEZ

One of four players to appear in all 12 matches, Antonio Chavez (Oceanside, Calif.) contributed a balanced four goals and four assists to tie Tanner Akol and Cody Valcarcel for the team lead with eight overall goal contributions. The defender started the year by providing an assist in the 6-3 defeat to hosts Brazil at the Maranhao International Cup on Jan. 12. On March 29, he provided an assist to Alvaro Franco before his free kick midway through the second period pushed the USA to a dramatic 5-4 victory against the hosts at the 2024 El Salvador Beach Soccer Cup. The following day, he dished another assist to Akol in the 5-4 loss to Morocco. He then closed out 2024 as one of the team's top performers at the Acapulco Beach Soccer Cup, registering his second career brace and playing provider to Andres Navas in the team's 8-7 extra time loss to No. 5-ranked Spain on Dec. 13. Chavez capped his year with a bicycle kick to close the scoring in the USA's 6-4 win against rivals Mexico to earn third place in Acapulco on Dec. 15.

Futsal Male Player of the Year: Luciano GONZALEZ

Luciano Gonzalez (Mendoza, Argentina and Stratford, N.J.) earns his second Male Futsal Player of the Year award. Gonzalez started all four matches at the 2024 Concacaf Futsal Championship, tallying two goals and two assists in Nicaragua. The veteran fixo collected two assists in the 7-4 tournament-opening win against Trinidad and Tobago on April 13, including the helper on Nicholas Lopez's game winner with eight minutes remaining in the second half. He also scored with five seconds left in the first half of the 7-6 loss to the Dominican Republic on April 14, before tallying the opening goal in the 3-3 draw with Guatemala on April 15.

CP Female Player of the Year: Cassidy LEAKE

Cassidy Leake (Murrieta, Calif.) wins her first Female Cerebral Palsy Player of the Year honor on the back of leading the CP WNT in scoring with 14 goals to go along with three assists across seven appearances in 2024. The midfielder scored in six of seven matches, and had five multi-goal games. She began her production with two goals and an assist in the 6-2 friendly win against Ireland on Sept. 28, and followed it with back-to-back hat tricks, scoring three goals against Denmark on Sept. 29 and against Ireland in the IFCPF World Cup opener on Nov. 15. Leake, who captained the USA in five of her seven appearances, went on to bag another brace against Denmark on Nov. 17, collected her third hat trick the following day against Japan, and scored one of the USA's two goals in the 6-2 loss to Australia in the World Cup Final.

CP Male Player of the Year: Jacob CRUMBLEY

A member of the CP MNT since 2018, Jacob Crumbley (Fortson, Ga.) showed his versatility around the pitch, playing forward, goalkeeper, full back and central midfield all in 2024. One of three players to appear in all eight matches, Crumbley's five goals and eight overall goal contributions saw him finish the year tied for the team lead in both categories, and also lead the CP MNT in scoring at the IFCPF World Cup. After recording an assist in the 3-0 friendly win against Scotland in September, Crumbley had a milestone match in the World Cup opener when he bagged two goals and an assist in the 5-0 victory against Australia. Crumbley was slotted into emergency goalkeeper duty in the next match against the Netherlands, before going on to record one of the two USA goals in the Placement Match against Argentina. The Georgia product also led the comeback in the final Placement Match against Germany, scoring a 56th minute equalizer to make it 2-2 and providing the assist on the go-ahead goal from Gavin Kohner, before scoring the eventual game-winner in the 64th minute of the 4-3 win to claim seventh place.

U.S. SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Deaf Female Player of the Year: Sydney ANDREWS

A 12-year veteran of the Deaf WNT, Sydney Andrews (Wichita, Kan.) finished the year as one of two players to play all 270 minutes for the USA and collected an assist on Ani Khachadourian's eighth minute goal in the 11-0 win against Australia on June 1. An unsung hero for the past decade, Andrews has been key to denying opponent goal scoring opportunities on the field, while maintaining the culture and uplifting newcomers to the National Team. The veteran center back's ability to direct the back line, defend to the death and provide a calm and collective atmosphere in pressure situations proved key in the Deaf WNT conceding just one goal in 2024. A true connector and collaborator amongst players and staff, Andrews has been the glue that helps keep the team moving in one direction as a unit.

Deaf Male Player of the Year:
Kevin FITZPATRICK

Veteran defender Kevin Fitzpatrick (Hopatcong, N.J.) started all three matches for the U.S. at the Deaf Pan American Games, playing 300 minutes while helping the USA keep shutouts in two of three matches. Fitzpatrick collected an assist in the 4-0 win against Mexico to claim the bronze medal and qualify for the 2025 Deaflympics and 2026 World Deaf Football Championship. A leader both on-and-off the field, Fitzpatrick established a strong standard for his teammates and contributed significantly to the team's defensive mentality, helping to enhance their defensive performance. He also seized opportunities to contribute offensively, providing an assist during the event.

Power Soccer Player of the Year:
Riley JOHNSON

Co-captain of the U.S. side at the 2023 FIPFA Powerchair Football World Cup, Riley Johnson (Saint Cloud, Minn.) wins his second-straight Power Soccer Player of the Year honor. Johnson helped lead his club team Minnesota Shockwave to a fourth consecutive USPSA Premier Cup Championship, won the Golden Guard award as the tournament's top scorer with 11 goals and seven assists in seven matches, also scoring two of the team's three goals in the final. A co-captain of the Power NT, Johnson attended all Power Soccer National Team training camps in 2024.

Johnson also continues to represent the team well away from camps, helping to establish the Drew Cunningham Mentorship Program, which is named after the former U.S. Power Soccer National Team athlete who passed away in 2023. Launched in concert with USPNT teammate Peyton Sefick and former player Tyler Hernandez, the annual award pairs a committee-selected athlete under 16 years of age with a mentor from the USPNT to support and accelerate the athlete's path to the National Team. At the grassroots level, Johnson led instruction at USPSA's Power Soccer Camp for the fourth time last August, and also oversaw two Power Soccer Introduction Clinics in North Carolina and Ohio with the purpose of starting new teams in areas that do not currently have Power Soccer. Additionally, Johnson, who is a mechanical engineer, leaned on his experiences in Power Soccer to deliver a powerful TEDTalk, titled "Why We Can't Predict a Person's True Potential."

2024 U.S. SOCCER REFEREES OF THE YEAR

Guido Gonzales Jr.

Kathryn Nesbitt

2024 U.S. Soccer Referees of the Year

As part of U.S. Soccer's continued mission to foster the best playing environments, grow the number of referees nationally and recognize excellence in officiating, the Federation launched the Male and Female Referee of the Year awards in 2024.

For their excellence at the highest levels of the sport, U.S. Soccer voters selected KATHRYN NESBITT and GUIDO GONZALES JR.. the inaugural winners of the Federation's Referee of the Year Awards. Along with recognizing the sport's top officials each year, the launch of the awards in 2024 was part of U.S. Soccer's continued effort to grow the number of Referees nationally and promote the discipline as an integral part of the game.

The awards were determined via weighted vote from PRO Referees, National Referee Coaches, U.S. Soccer Board of Directors and U.S. Soccer Referee Committee members (45 percent); National Professional and International Referees (25 percent); State Referee Committee members (15 percent); and U.S. Women's and Men's National Team players that earned a cap in 2024 (15 percent).

2024 Guido Gonzales Jr.

Female Referee of the Year

2024 Kathryn Nesbitt.

Male Referee of the Year: Guido GONZALES JR.

An MLS Referee since 2018, Gonzales officiated 25 matches, including two MLS Cup Playoffs matches in 2024. He also had the honor of overseeing the 2024 MLS All-Star Game and ended the year being as the center referee for 2024 MLS Cup Final. He was also appointed to the 2025 FIFA International Panel.

Gonzales won 29 percent of the weighted vote among a list of nominees that included FIFA Assistant Referees Kyle Atkins and Corey Parker, PRO Referee Ismir Pekmic and FIFA Referee Armando Villarreal.

Female Referee of the Year: Kathryn NESBITT

An NWSL Assistant Referee since 2013 and MLS Assistant Referee since 2015, Nesbitt has been a member of the FIFA Panel since 2016 and was an AR in 18 MLS matches, including three MLS Cup Playoffs matches in 2024.

Other top assignments in 2024:

- Women's Olympic Football Tournament – Quarterfinal
- FIFA World Cup Qualifiers – Round 2
- Copa America – Group Stage (5th Official)
- Concacaf W Gold Cup – Quarterfinal & Semifinal
- 2023-2024 Concacaf Nations League – 3rd Place
- 2024-2025 Concacaf Nations League – League A Group Stage & Play-In
- Concacaf Champions Cup – Round One & Quarterfinals
- Concacaf Central American Cup – Semifinal

Nesbitt emerged from a list of nominees that included fellow FIFA Assistant Referee Brooke Mayo, as well as FIFA Referees Alyssa Nichols, Tori Penso and Natalie Simon, winning 26 percent of the weighted vote.

2025 MEDIA GUIDELINES

Thank you for your coverage of U.S. Soccer and the U.S. National Teams. Please familiarize yourself with the information and policies in this document so that your coverage of the U.S. National Teams is conducted in the most efficient manner possible. These guidelines and policies are enforced by the U.S. Soccer Communications Department. If you have questions about the policies listed here, please do not hesitate to contact U.S. Soccer Communications at media@ussoccer.org.

www.ussoccer.com/media-services/media-guidelines - Applicable to Rights Holders and Non-Rights Holders

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Professional Conduct

Media are expected to follow the guidelines set forth in this document, as well as the instructions of U.S. Soccer staff, stadium employees and security, at the risk of limitation of access or revocation of credentials.

Media credentials are issued with the purpose of providing access to interviews and written, audio and visual accounts of the game as appropriate. Media members should not use access for autographs, personal photographs or commercial requests.

Media credentialed for access to shoot photographs and video are expected to use professional equipment to file photographic or video accounts. Use of equipment such as 'point and shoot' style cameras or mobile telephones that are not considered professional equipment will result in access being restricted or rescinded.

Media Services

Press Releases: To be added to the U.S. Soccer media distribution list, please visit www.ussoccer.com/media-services.

Media Guides: To request a current media guide for the U.S. Men's or Women's National Team, please send an email request to communications@ussoccer.org. A digital version of the Men's and Women's National Team's media guides can be found on the Media Guide page in the right-hand navigation column.

Interview Requests: Media requesting interviews with U.S. National Team players, coaches or administrators should make arrangements with the U.S. Soccer Communications Department or the onsite press officer with the respective team. When requesting and conducting interviews, media should identify the organization that they are representing, and provide advance notice if audio or video will be recorded for later distribution. All audio and video interviews are subject to U.S. Soccer's Video Guidelines, which are included in this document.

ussoccer.com: Is the official web site of the U.S. Soccer Federation. All press releases – content that includes a dateline are posted on ussoccer.com, and can be republished by media in their entirety. U.S. Soccer press releases are available in Spanish. Media interested in receiving press releases in Spanish can send an email request to communications@ussoccer.org.

Video: Media are welcome to embed videos that appear on ussoccer.com. Visit youtube.com/ussoccerdotcom and http://www.ussoccer.com/stories for the latest U.S. Soccer-produced videos.

Audio, Video Roll & Interviews: U.S. Soccer periodically sends out video and audio media rolls from National Team events for outlets to use free of charge, provided they properly credit video as; Courtesy of U.S. Soccer/Veritone. If you'd like to sign up for the email list that distributes these media rolls, please email communications@ussoccer.org with Media Roll in the subject line.

Twitter: U.S. Soccer provides updates at www.twitter.com/ussoccer that include breaking news and new content posted to ussoccer.com. Media are welcome to re-tweet @ussoccer, @USMNT, @USWNT, @ussoccer_comms, @USYNT, @ussoccer_coach, @ussoccer_ref, and @ussoccer_pnt content, including play-by-play accounts.

Photography Requests

Head Shots: U.S. Soccer maintains head and shoulder portraits of select U.S. National Team players and coaches that can be requested by emailing communications@ussoccer.org or calling 312-808-1300.

Action Photography: For action photos, please contact Annette Shelby at International Sports Images at 650-906-7753 or at annette@isiphotos.com. International Sports Images serves as the photography manager for U.S. Soccer. Media outlets can also search and preview the photography archive at isiphotos.com.

U.S. SOCCER EVENTS

Credentials

Policies: In addition to the policies listed below, please note that only working media will be credentialed and no one under the age of 18 will be issued a credential.

Applications: Media can request credentials for matches online at www.ussoccer.com/media-services/media-credentials. The online application process can be found by clicking on the Media Services link in the footer on the front page of ussoccer.com. Media can also contact U.S. Soccer Communications with questions on the application process directly at communications@ussoccer.org.

Deadlines: The deadline to apply for credentials to U.S. Soccer events is generally two (2) weeks prior to the game. There is no guarantee that late applications will be accepted.

Pickup: U.S. Soccer will distribute credential pickup times prior to each game. Credential pickup times generally coincide with media availabilities. For pickup on the day of the game, Media Will Call at the stadium will open approximately two (2) to three (3) hours before kickoff. Each media member must show identification in order to receive their credential. An individual cannot pick up more than one credential.

Parking Shipping: If you would like single-game parking passes (subject to availability) to be shipped, please provide a UPS or FedEx account number at least two (2) weeks prior to the game. Replacement parking passes cannot be provided if lost in transit.

All Matches Credential Holders: All media provided an All Matches credential must still inform the U.S. Soccer Communications Department of their plans to attend specific matches to ensure a space in the press box. Please do so at least two (2) weeks in advance of a match.

Media Facilities

Media facilities, including the press box and photographers' work area, will open approximately two (2) - three (3) hours before each game.

Press Box: All seats will be assigned. Auxiliary seating arrangements will be made if the capacity of the press box is exceeded.

Photographer Work Room: Where available, a photographer work room will be available at field level.

Internet: Wireless Internet access will be provided to media filing on deadline.

Game Notes & Media Guides: Game notes will be distributed digitally ahead of each game. Media guides will be made available upon request and digital versions are available online at ussoccer.com/about/us-soccer-media-services.

Lineups: Official lineups are made available approximately one (1) hour prior to kickoff. Lineups, which include jersey numbers for each team, will be distributed to the media as quickly as possible.

Media Access / Interviews

There is no pre-game access to U.S. Soccer players and coaches on game days. No "flash" interviews are permitted on the field. All post-game access is available in the press conference and mixed zone.

Press Conference: There will be a formal press conference with the head coach shortly after the final whistle. In the event something changes a member of the U.S. Soccer communications staff will inform the media.

Mixed Zone: Locker rooms are not open to the media at U.S. Soccer events. All post-game interviews will be conducted in a press conference or mixed zone. Players from both teams will typically be available in the mixed zone. The media mixed zone will generally be near the locker rooms.

Print & Online Media

Live Blogging / Commentary: Live blogging of U.S. Soccer events from either the venue or via the television broadcast is subject to our Live Blogging Guidelines. The guidelines are included in Appendix III of this document.

Video: Please notify U.S. Soccer in advance if your coverage includes video recording. Any video footage, including interviews, gathered by print and online media is subject to the U.S. Soccer Video Guidelines. The Video Guidelines are included in Appendix I of this document.

Audio: Please notify U.S. Soccer in advance if your coverage includes audio recording. Any audio, including interviews, gathered by radio, print and online media is subject to the U.S. Soccer Audio Use Guidelines. The guidelines are included in Appendix II of this document.

Radio - Non Rights Holders

Non-rights-holding radio journalists are welcome to conduct pregame and postgame reports from the press box, but NO play-by-play reports are permitted. Radio non-rights-holders will have access to post-match press conference and mixed zones unless otherwise notified. Radio outlets interested in purchasing rights should contact U.S. Soccer at media@ussoccer.org.

Audio: Any audio, including interviews, gathered by radio, print and online media is subject to the U.S. Soccer Audio Use Guidelines. The guidelines are included in Appendix II of this document.

Field Access

Print, online and radio writers and reporters are not permitted on the field at any time. Media members granted field access must have a working purpose. Representatives from the broadcast media who are not filing reports, but would like to attend as an observer, should inform U.S. Soccer of such when making the application.

Still Photographers

Locations: Still photographers are permitted to shoot U.S. Soccer events from behind the field sign boards in either end line. At events where space allows, photographers may also shoot on the sideline opposite the benches between the end line and the 18-yard line. Shooting from the 18-yard line will be allowed on a match-by-match basis depending on space. The attacking direction of the teams is determined by a coin toss. Following the coin toss, photographers must pick one end of the field to shoot for the entire half. The ONLY time photographers may change ends is at halftime. At NO time are photographers allowed on the field of play.

Bibs: All still photographers are required to wear a colored bib as provided by U.S. Soccer. The bib is lightweight and designed to be worn outside of outerwear and be visible at all times. Please return the bibs to a photo marshal following the game, or leave them in the press box / photographers' work room.

Pre-Game Photos: Each team's starters will pose for a pre-game photo near the bench area following the national anthems. Photographers should gather in the near-side corners once the teams leave the field after warm-ups. U.S. Soccer will escort the photographers to midfield.

Field Watering: The grounds crew may water the field prior to warm-ups and also prior to kickoff. Please be responsible for your equipment during this time. U.S. Soccer is not responsible for damage to any equipment.

Non-Rights Holder Video (ENG)

Video Footage: All non-rights holders and ENG crews must follow the U.S. Soccer Video Guidelines for all footage gathered at events. The Video Guidelines are included in Appendix I of this document.

TV Reporters: ENG reporters may stay on the field until two (2) hours prior to kickoff to shoot 'scene sets,' and are not allowed on the field again until after the conclusion of the broadcast window. Reporters/anchors will not be issued a bib. U.S. Soccer will not generally credential non-rights holder producers, editors, or technicians.

Location: ENG cameras are permitted to shoot U.S. Soccer events from behind the field sign boards of either end line. The attacking direction of the teams is determined by a coin toss. Following the coin toss, ENG cameras must pick one end of the field to shoot for the entire half. The ONLY time ENG crews may change ends is at halftime. At NO time are any media members allowed on the field of play.

Bibs: All ENG camera operators are required to wear a colored bib as provided by U.S. Soccer. The bib is lightweight and designed to be worn outside of outerwear and be visible at all times. Please return the bibs to a photo marshal following the game, or leave them in the press box / photographers' work room.

Field Watering: The grounds crew may water the field prior to warm-ups and also prior to kickoff. Please be responsible for your equipment during this time. U.S. Soccer is not responsible for damage to any equipment.

Live Newscasts: Please contact U.S. Soccer in advance of the event if you would like to broadcast live pre or post-game as part of a newscast from the stadium.

Social Media

U.S. Soccer will not generally credential media looking to cover a U.S. Soccer event only for social media purposes. This means someone looking to provide coverage of a match for social media sites not limited or restricted to; Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc., will be considered for a press credential on a case basis but in most cases will not be accommodated for a press credential.

Social Media Reporting: U.S. Soccer permits credentialed reporters to report on behalf of their media organizations through social media channels or personal accounts. U.S. Soccer permits pictures to be taken from the press box for social media reporting purposes but prohibits the collection of any type of video from the press box. Doing so may result in revocation of press credentials.

APPENDIX I: NON-RIGHTS HOLDER VIDEO GUIDELINES

Video Footage: All rights to match footage including all applicable copyrights belong to U.S. Soccer and its rights holders who broadcast each specific match. U.S. Soccer has two rights holders that will broadcast their Men's National Team and Women's National Team matches in 2024: WBD Sports and Telemundo. If an organization is interested in recording video footage at a U.S. Soccer match for non-news gathering purposes they should contact U.S. Soccer Communications at media@ussoccer.org.

Television Broadcasters

Game Action: Local television affiliates can use footage of U.S. Soccer events obtained either via 1) their own recording or 2) action dubbed from a U.S. Soccer rights holder broadcast with credit only in connection with its regularly scheduled news programming within a week of the game. This footage should not exceed two (2) minutes. Highlights aired as part of a continuous news program should not be longer than one (1) minute per 30-minute segment.

Filming – Game Action: For televised events, local non-rights holders affiliates / ENG cameras may record the first 15 minutes of each half (from 00:00 to 15:00 and 45:00 to 60:00 on the game clock). For non-televised events, non-rights holders / ENG cameras may record the entire game but are still subject to the aforementioned limits. This includes events that are web streamed live online.

Filming – Interviews and Scene Sets: There is no limit to the gathering of footage pre-game, at halftime and post-game. All footage gathered is subject to the usage guidelines indicated in this document.

Filming – In Seating Area: Video cameras looking to shoot in the concourse or seating area must contact U.S. Soccer in advance of the event for approval.

Previews or Advances: In advance of a U.S. Soccer event, television broadcasters can use two (2) minutes of archival game action to preview an upcoming event. In the local/regional markets, broadcasters should mention the time and location of the game along with their report. Outside of the local markets, broadcasters should mention the time and broadcast information.

Television Broadcasters' Web Sites: Video produced for air as part of regular programming that is simulcast or archived online must be accompanied by a link to ussoccer.com. Content produced exclusively for the Internet

U.S. Soccer Video Dept. Audio and Video Roll: U.S. Soccer periodically sends out video and audio media rolls from National Team events for outlets to use free of charge, provided they properly credit video as; Courtesy of U.S. Soccer/Veritone. If you'd like to sign up for the email list that distributes these media rolls, please email communications@ussoccer.org with "Media Roll" in the subject line.

Online Video

Game Action: Online organizations (including print publications that post video online) are not permitted to film or use game action video at any time. Game action includes any footage of the field, teams, etc., following the beginning of the television broadcast window. Only video of off-field activities (i.e. interviews, training sessions) may be recorded.

Non-Game Video: Any video posted online that is recorded as part of media access is limited to the use of eight (8) minutes per day/activity date. Online video may not incorporate integrated advertising and must be accompanied by links to ussoccer.com.

Professional Presentation: Online video is expected to be recorded, edited and presented in a professional manner. Video must be presented/hosted on an organization's website, and not solely on a site provided by a third-party (i.e. YouTube, Vimeo, Facebook, etc.).

Online Video Sites: Organizations who regularly post video to online video sites (i.e. YouTube, Vimeo, etc.) may not include advertising with video gathered as a result of media access. Allowing users to embed these videos is not permitted, and the description of any video must include a link to ussoccer.com.

APPENDIX II: NON-RIGHTS HOLDER AUDIO GUIDELINES

Radio Broadcasters

Play-by-Play Accounts: Play-by-play accounts are forbidden by non-rights holders at any time.

Online

Non-Game Audio: Any audio recorded as part of media access is limited to the use of eight (8) minutes per day/activity date. Online audio may not incorporate integrated advertising and must be accompanied by links to ussoccer.com.

APPENDIX III: LIVE WRITTEN UPDATES

All Media

Online or text reports (i.e., live blogs, Twitter, etc.) concerning U.S. Soccer games while they are in progress ("Live Written Updates") are subject to the following:

- Live updates may not use any audio, video or graphic simulations of U.S. Soccer games.
- Live updates must provide television and radio broadcast information for that U.S. Soccer Game. For example: "Tonight's U.S. Soccer game is being broadcast live on (name of television/radio station)."
- All live updates must be free of charge to readers.

NOTE: This policy does not prohibit the posting of the facts of a game (i.e., goals scored, cards given, game score and time remaining).
