2024-25 MAC MEN'S BASKETBALL RELEASE

FAST BREAK

• Double-Feature Friday

This Friday, January 10, features a pair of nationally broadcast MAC men's basketball matchups. The evening's slate begins at 6PM ET as Kent State heads north to take on Buffalo at Alumni Arena. The night-cap is scheduled for an 8PM ET tip-off as Toledo hosts Central Michigan at Savage Arena. Both contests will be available on CBS Sports Network.

• High-Clip Cards

Ball State entered MAC play on a three-game win streak and remained hot, winning its first conference matchup of the year at Kent State, 75-67. An 11-0 run in the second half propelled BSU to victory as the Cards shot 52% from the floor, and 50% from three-point territory, for the game.

Ball State has been successful in getting to, and converting at, the free throw line this season. The Cardinals currently shoot an average of 27.5 free throws per contest, which is good for fifth in the country, and also sit at eighth nationally in knocking down 19.2 FT's per game.

• Cashing Out in Oxford

Miami carried its strong shooting from non-conference play into the start of MACtion as well. The RedHawks now average 11.7 made triples each game and stripe it at a rate of 40.8 percent from three for the season. They also post an effective FG percentage of 58.4 percent.

These averages are all good for top 10 rankings nationally as the RedHawks' 11.7 made three's per game sit at fifth among DI teams, while their 3PT percentage ranks eighth and their EFG average comes in at 10th.

• Filching Falcon

Bowling Green's Javontae Campbell continues to put his defensive prowess on display, now posting 44 steals on the year for an average of 3.4 SPG. Both figures are among the NCAA's best as his 44 swipes place him at fourth in Division I while his per-game average ranks second.

• No Rest Needed

Eastern Michigan guard Jalen Terry currently leads the Mid-American Conference, and ranks third among all DI players, in averaging 37.0 minutes per contest. The EMU senior has played 37+ minutes in all but three games this season in addition to leading the Eagles in steals (1.5 SPG) and ranking second on the team in scoring (15.2 PPG).
