1989 NCAA Champions: "Shock the World!"

The Wolverines Run to the NCAA Crown

In one of the most storied tournament runs in NCAA history, the 1989 Michigan Wolverines overcame overwhelming odds to not only reach the Final Four but completed their mission to "Shock the World" and capture the program's first national championship.

Following the late season release of head coach Bill Frieder, who had agreed to take over at Arizona State at the conclusion of the season, assistant coach Steve Fisher was promoted by athletic director Bo Schembechler to interim head coach just two days before the Maize and Blue played its first tournament game at the Southeast Regional in Atlanta.

Despite the sudden change, No. 3-seed U-M used tremendous focus, strong shooting and a second half rally to open with a 92-87 defeat over No. 14-seed Xavier. Glen Rice and Rumeal Robinson led U-M's first round charge with 23 points apiece, while Terry Mills had 18 and Mark Hughes added eight points and 10 rebounds.

Two days later, Michigan needed a second straight second half rally to advance to the Sweet 16 as they defeated No. 6-seed South Alabama, 91-82. Rice helped the Wolverines dominate the second half and pull away late as he closed 19-for-26 from the field for a game-high 35 points. Mills added 24 points of his own and Robinson chipped in 12 in the victory.

Moving on to Lexington, Ky, U-M was set to face No. 2-seed North Carolina for a third straight year in the Big Dance. Since the Tar Heels had knocked the Wolverines out of the tournament in the previous two seasons, emotions ran high.

The third time proved to be the charm for the Wolverines, however, as they scored a thrilling 92-87 victory. Despite 25 points from UNC's J.R. Reid, Rice drained eight three-pointers, which paced his 34-point effort. In addition to Rice's second straight 30-point effort, Robinson added 17 points and 13 assists.

In the Elite Eight, Rice's third straight 30+ point game (32) and seven three-pointers and 31 points off the bench from Sean Higgins, U-M dominated No. 5-seed Virginia, 102-65, to advance to U-M's first Final Four in 13 years (1976).

Traveling to Seattle, the Final Four would prove to not be for the faint-hearted. First up was a third match-up against Big Ten runner-up Illinois, who had defeated the Wolverines twice during the regular season, including the regular season finale.

Just like snapping streak against North Carolina, the third time proved to be the charm as Sean Higgins was able to send the Wolverines to the national title game in dramatic fashion. With the score tied 81-81 with 10 second left, Robinson kicked the ball out to a wide open Mills. After his shot caromed off the rim, Higgins snagged the ball and his put back gave the Maize and Blue an 83-81 lead with a second left.

After an Illini time out, their last second shot attempt fell short as the Wolverines headed to the championship game against No. 2-seed Seton Hall. Higgins finished with 14 points, while Rice had 28 and Robinson posted a second double-double with 14 points and 12 assists.

In the title game, college basketball fans witnessed one of the greatest NCAA games ever. Rice (31 points) and Seton Hall's John Morton (35 points) squared off in an individual scoring duel that left nearly everyone that witnessed the game in awe.

Michigan shot 50 percent from the field and headed top into the half with a 37-32 lead. As the Pirates have done throughout their NCAA run, Seton Hall's defense tightened in the second half. Despite five three-pointers, U-M was held to 34 second half points, while Morton rallied the Pirates sending the game into overtime for just the fifth time in NCAA Tournament history and first since 1963.

Tied 71-71, the two squads went back and forth throughout the extra frame. As U-M trailed 79-78, Robinson was fouled with just three seconds remaining. Shooting 64 percent on free throws during the regular season, Robinson drained both free throws giving the Wolverines the 80-79 lead.

Following a time out, the Pirates' Darryll Walker caught the cross court pass, but the last second shot missed securing the first ever national title for the Wolverines.

After posting six straight games of 20+ points as well as four of 30+, Rice was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player. In fact, his 184 total points (30.7 ppg) remains the NCAA record for most points in a single tournament. He also holds the NCAA record with 75 total field goals.

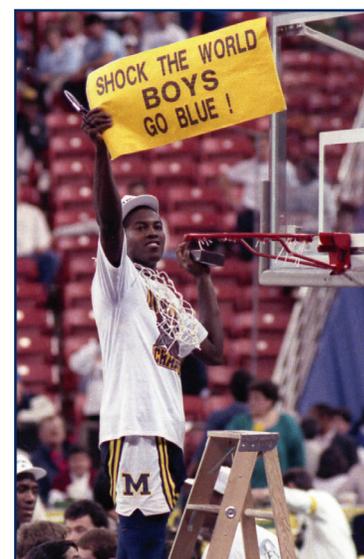

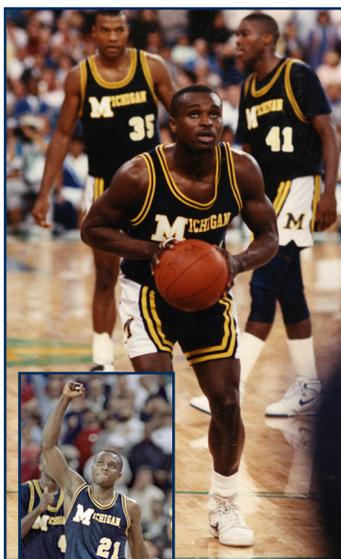

Robinson, who averaged 16.7 points, compiled 56 assists (9.3 apg) during U-M's run -- the second most in a tournament all-time.

Shock the World | Game 1 (First Round)
#3 Michigan 92, #14 Xavier 87

ATLANTA Georgia -- Michigan began its historic NCAA Tournament run amid a sudden change of the head coach and road journey to Atlanta for first and second round action.

Seeded third in the Southeast Regional, the Maize and Blue opened against 14th-seed Xavier. In what was to be considered an easy contest turned out to be a fight to the finish.

Even interim head coach Steve Fisher, who was elevated just two days prior, admitted to butterflies walking onto the court in his first game as the leader of the Wolverines. Feeling that anxiety, Xavier took advantage by powering the ball inside and frustrating U-M with its quick guards.

As the nerves began to settle, the Wolverines, who shot 58.6 percent and were led by 13 points apiece from Glen Rice and Rumeal Robinson, still found themselves trailing 45-42.

Returning for the second half, neither the Wolverines nor the Musketeers could pull away as the final 20 minutes featured nine lead changes and five ties.

Michigan then switched to a zone to cut down on defensive fouls and hindered the guard penetration by Xavier. The move was instrumental in contributing to Fisher's successful debut.

Despite Xavier reclaiming the lead 82-81 with 3:41 remaining, Rice drained his fifth three-pointer of the night to give U-M the lead 84-82.

It was a lead Michigan would not relinquish again. Follow-up baskets by Demetrius Calip and Mark Hughes helped the Wolverines maintain a three-point edge.

In the waning minute, Calip and Robinson sealed the game as the Wolverines survived, 92-87, as the Wolverines duo combined to go 4-for-4 from the free throw line.

Rice and Robinson each finished with 23 points, while Terry Mills went 8-for-12 for 18 points and five assists. Calip had a career-best nine points and Hughes just missed a double-double (eight points, 10 rebounds).

Xavier guards Jamal Walker, Michael Davenport, and Stan Kimbrough combined for 44 points, while Tyrone Hill had 21.

Shock the World | Game 2 (Second Round)
#3 Michigan 91, #6 South Alabama 82

ATLANTA, Georgia -- Michigan went into the NCAA second round with renewed purpose after the first game scare from Xavier. Next up was South Alabama, who won the Sun Belt regular season and the conference tournament to earn the sixth seed in the Big Dance.

Over the first seven minutes, the Wolverines scored often going 5-for-7 from the field to jump out to a 20-9 advantage. However, over the game's next four minutes, South Alabama's Junie Smith rallied the Jaguars with a 19-6 run to turn the tables on the Wolverines and take the lead 28-26 midway through the half.

Despite shooting 60 percent and 17 first half points from Glen Rice, it was the Wolverines' 17 first half fouls that slowed their pace. South Alabama continued to hang around in a back-and-forth final 10 minutes.

As South Alabama finished the half 15-for-21 from the free throw line and while Smith added 16 points and was instrumental to the Jaguars ending the final minute on a 7-0 run sending them into the half leading, 47-44.

Despite Rice's second half 19 points, the Wolverines had trouble controlling the Jaguars as they continued to maintain a lead for the first eight minutes. A three-pointer by Rice and a baseline jumper by Terry Mills finally helped the Wolverines tie the score at 67-67 with 12 minutes left.

U-M, who recorded just five second half fouls, went back-and-forth with South Alabama with eight lead changes over the next eight minutes. With the game tied at 80-80, Mills' turnaround jumper gave U-M a two-point lead with 2:17 left.

That's where it ended for the Jaguars as U-M closed on a 9-2 to survive and advance to the Sweet 16 for a second straight year with a 91-82 victory.

Rice used his 16 field goals (three three-pointers) to highlight the win with 36 points, while Mills closed with 25 points (9-for-13). Smith paced the Jaguars with 25 points, while fellow guard Jeff Hodges had 16.

Shock the World | Game 3 (Sweet 16)
#3 Michigan 92, #2 North Carolina 87

LEXINGTON, Kentucky -- How SWEET it was! After being eliminated by North Carolina in its last two straight NCAA Tournaments -- 1987's second round and 1988's Sweet 16, Michigan used a key late Glen Rice rebound and his following three-pointer to snap the streak and advance to the Elite Eight with a 92-87 victory.

On coach Steve Fisher's 44th birthday, he got the present he wanted the most -- a win over the great Dean Smith. With eight three-pointers, Rice posted a second straight 30+ point game (34), closing 13-for-19 from the field.

While Rumeal Robinson posted a 17 point, 13 assist double-double, it was the play off the bench by Sean Higgins that helped the Wolverines snap the jinx. An unlikely hero with 14 points, Higgins hit two free throws with 27 seconds left to seal the win.

North Carolina seized early control, jumping out to a 26-18 lead seven minutes into the first half. However, U-M fought back, and with two minutes to go before halftime.

After a Rice triple brought the Wolverines within one, 47-46, Robinson fed Terry Mills on the fast break to give U-M a one-point lead, 48-47. With the final seconds elapsing, Rice took off for another fast break and electrified the crowd with a thunderous dunk to give the Wolverines a 50-47 lead at the break.

Shock the World | Game 4 (Elite Eight)

#3 Michigan 102, #5 Virginia 65

LEXINGTON, Kentucky -- It almost seemed too easy for Michigan in its Elite Eight matchup with fifth-seed Virginia.

The Wolverines handily beat the Cavaliers, 102-65, to win the Southeast Region and advance to the Final Four for the first time since 1976.

Glen Rice dug the Cavaliers a big hole by scoring 21 of 32 points in the first half, while Sean Higgins buried them with 18 of his career-high after the half.

Michigan had a 34-17 lead when Higgins began waving a blue towel on the bench and creating a one-man wave with his hands. The school band was playing "The Victors" with extra enthusiasm, and it seemed like a ticker tape parade was about to start any minute at Rupp Arena. This all came with four minutes left in the first half.

Rice hit a shot at the first-half buzzer that kissed the glass, swirling the rim twice, and dropped. While trotting to the locker room, he winked at the fans and pointed to them.

Coach Steve Fisher warned his team to not start the party too early. He reminded them how Iowa had overcome a 20-point deficit, forcing the Wolverines to double-overtime before finally winning.

Virginia didn't have a similar chance, though. The Cavs shot 38 percent from the field and 41 percent from the line. Rice and Higgins scored a combined 63 points, just two less than the whole Virginia team.

Virginia's leading scorer, Richard Morgan (15 points on 5-for-18 shooting), missed his first seven shots, while Rice made his first six. Michigan's lead was never under 10 points in the game's final

1964 NCAA Tournament | Final Four

Michigan set a new standard for the program when they became the first U-M team to reach the Final Four. The Maize and Blue went 20-4 in the regular season was ranked in the top-10 throughout the season, climbing as high as number two in the polls.

Michigan won the Big Ten championship and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1948, opening with a Midwest Regional Semifinal date against Loyola-Chicago at Williams Arena in Minneapolis, Minn.

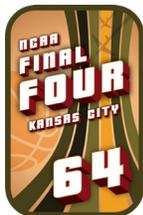

Led by Bill Buntin's 26 points and 13 rebounds, along with Cazzie Russell's 21 points, the Maize and Blue opened the tournament with an 84-80 victory over the Ramblers. Larry Tregoning posted a double-double with 14 points and 14 rebounds while Bob Cantrell added 12 points.

The contest was close throughout with the two teams trading baskets for most of the game. With less than a minute to play, Loyola had the ball down by a pair, 82-80, but a turnover by the Ramblers helped the Wolverines advance to face Ohio in the regional final.

Michigan punched a ticket to its first Final Four with a 69-57 victory over the Bobcats of Ohio in the Midwest Regional Final in Minneapolis. Russell poured in 25 points, including a perfect 7-of-7 from the free-throw line, and Buntin recorded his second consecutive double-double in the tournament with 15 points and a team-high 10 rebounds in the victory.

The Wolverines led by a half-dozen at the half, 33-27, and went on to the victory, aided by a 17-of-19 performance (89.4 percent) at the free-throw line as a team. Buntin and Russell were both named to the All-Midwest Regional Team.

Awaiting the Maize and Blue in the Final Four was Duke as the Wolverines and Blue Devils met at Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo., for the right to play for a national championship. Despite a game-high 31 points from Russell and Buntin just missing his third-straight double-double with 19 points and nine rebounds, U-M fell to Duke, 91-80.

Cantrell also scored in double figures with 12 points while the Blue Devils had six players score in double figures, led by 25 points from Jay Buckley and 21 points from Jeff Mullins.

U-M rebounded with a 100-90 victory over Kansas State in the third-place game. Buntin led the way with 33 points and 14 rebounds, going 15-of-17 from the free-throw line, while Cantrell chipped in 20 points and Oliver Darden also recorded a double-double with 17 points and 14 rebounds.

Tregoning scored 16 points while Doug Herner recorded 10 assists as the Wolverines closed the season with a victory. Buntin was named to the Final Four All-Tournament Team.

1965 NCAA Tournament | Final Four

One year after advancing to the first Final Four in program history, Michigan returned to the Final Four in 1965 as the Wolverines went 21-3 in the regular season, including 13-1 in the Big Ten, winning the conference crown, while spending 10 weeks ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll.

U-M began its tournament run in the Midwest Regional Semifinals against Dayton at Kentucky's Memorial Coliseum in Lexington. All five starters scored in double figures for the Wolverines, led by 26 points and 11 rebounds from Bill Buntin, as U-M topped the Flyers, 98-71.

Oliver Darden just missed a double-double with 17 points and nine rebounds, Cazzie Russell added 14 points, Larry Tregoning scored 12 and George Pomey chipped in 11 points for the Wolverines, who led by 17 at the half and never looked back.

A much closer contest awaited Michigan in the regional final against Vanderbilt. The Commodores jumped out to a quick start, leading by seven midway through the opening half before taking a narrow one-point lead, 39-38, into halftime. U-M was in front by one, 81-80, with 90 seconds to play but Vanderbilt had the ball with a chance to go back in front.

The Commodores turned the ball over however and Buntin made a basket to give the Wolverines a three-point lead as they went on to win, 87-85. Buntin had his second-straight tournament double-double with 26 points and 14 rebounds, Russell also scored 26 points while Darden recorded a double-double with 14 points and 12 rebounds. Tregoning added 11 points to help sent Michigan to its second consecutive Final Four.

Buntin and Russell were both named to the All-Midwest Regional Team for the second consecutive season.

Bill Bradley and the Princeton Tigers would be the opponent for the Maize and Blue at the Final Four in Memorial Coliseum in Portland, Ore. U-M led by four at halftime, 40-36, and pulled away in the second half to top the Tigers, 93-76, and advance to the first national championship game in program history.

The Wolverines got a balanced offensive effort as four players scored in double figures, led by Russell's 28 points and 10 rebounds. Buntin recorded another double-double with 22 points and 14 rebounds while Tregoning also had a double-double with 13 points and 10 boards.

Darden added 13 points and nearly recorded a double-double as he pulled down nine rebounds; Bradley finished with a game-high 29 points for Princeton.

Michigan's first national championship game would come against the program that would define college basketball during that era as the Maize and Blue squared off against the defending national champion UCLA Bruins, led by John Wooden.

Led by 42 points from Gail Goodrich, UCLA would prove to be too much for the Wolverines in the championship game. Russell scored 28 points to lead U-M, Darden added 17 and Buntin would finish without a double-double for the first time in the 1965 tournament, recording 14 points and six rebounds.

Russell would be named to the All-Tournament Team at the Final Four as Michigan finished the season with a 24-4 overall record.

1976 NCAA Tournament | Final Four

Michigan made a third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance in 1976 as the Wolverines entered the tournament with a 21-6 overall record, having won seven of their last eight games to close the regular season.

U-M would open the tournament in the Midwest Regional against Wichita State in Denton, Texas, in a contest that would prove to be a thriller. The Shockers led by a half-dozen at halftime, 41-35, and were in front, 73-72, in the final moments when Rickey Green made a baseline jumper with six seconds left to give the Wolverines a 74-73 victory.

Steve Grote led U-M with 17 points, Phil Hubbard had 15 points and nine rebounds before fouling out while Green and John Robinson each scored 10 points as the Huskies survived in the opening round.

In the Sweet 16, Michigan met Notre Dame at Freedom Hall in Louisville, Ky., in another close game that would see the Wolverines outlast the Fighting Irish, 80-76. All five Michigan starters scored in double figures, led by Green's 20 points.

Robinson scored 15, Grote added 14, Wayman Britt had 12 points and Hubbard chipped in 11 as the balance of the Maize and Blue was able to overcome Adrian Dantley's game-high 31 points for the Fighting Irish.

Missouri was the remaining obstacle between U-M and the Final Four as the Wolverines and Tigers met in the Midwest Regional Final. Just as they had against Notre Dame, Michigan used its offensive balance to overcome an outstanding individual effort as the Maize and Blue topped Missouri, 95-88, despite Willie Smith's 43 points for the Tigers.

Hubbard and Robinson both recorded double-doubles for U-M, Hubbard scoring 20 points with 18 rebounds and Robinson posting 21 points and 16 boards. Green scored a team-high 23 points and Dave Baxter had 18 points off the bench to help Michigan reach the Final Four for the first time in 11 seasons.

Green and Hubbard were both named to the All-Midwest Regional Team.

The Philadelphia Spectrum was the site as Michigan met Rutgers in the Final Four. In the first half, the Maize and Blue held the Scarlet Knights to just 27.5 percent (11-of-40) shooting from the field as they built a 19-point halftime lead on their way to an 86-70 victory.

Robinson and Hubbard once again each had double-doubles with Robinson tallying 20 points and 16 boards while Hubbard scored 16 points with 13 rebounds. Green scored 16 points, Grote had 14 and Britt scored 11 as the Wolverines played their way into the final and a third meeting of the season against top-ranked Indiana.

A third meeting would not prove to be the charm for U-M as Indiana completed a perfect season with an 86-68 victory over the Wolverines in the national championship game.

Scott May scored 26 points and Kent Benson added 25 for the Hoosiers who led by six at halftime, 35-29, and shot 60 percent (18-of-30) from the field in the second half.

Green, who was named to the Final Four All-Tournament Team, led U-M with 18 points, Hubbard recorded another double-double with 10 points and 11 rebounds while Grote added 12 points and Britt finished with 11.

1989 NCAA Tournament | Final Four

Michigan's 1989 NCAA Tournament featured a run that will never be forgotten, in circumstances that might never be repeated, as Steve Fisher was installed as head coach of the Wolverines just before their magical six-game run to the first national championship in program history.

The Wolverines were ranked as high as No. 2 in the country during the regular season and entered the tournament with a 24-7 record, earning the No. 3 seed in the Southeast Region.

Prior to the beginning of the tournament, head coach Bill Frieder agreed to become the next head coach at Arizona State and athletic director Bo Schembechler responded by installing Fisher as the head coach of the Maize and Blue.

In the opening round of the tournament, U-M met No. 14 seed Xavier at the Omni in Atlanta. The upstarts from Cincinnati took a three-point lead into halftime, 45-42, before Michigan came back to earn a narrow, 92-87, victory.

Glen Rice and Rumeal Robinson each netted 23 points, with Rice going 5-of-9 from three, while Terry Mills scored 18 on 8-of-12 shooting from the floor to help the Wolverines avoid a first round upset.

Michigan trailed again at the half in the second round as sixth-seeded South Alabama took a 47-44 lead into the locker room, but the Jaguars were unable to keep pace with the Wolverines in the second half as U-M pulled away for a 91-82 victory.

Michigan shot 59.7 percent (37-of-62) from the field in the contest, with Rice pouring in 36 points on 16-of-25 shooting, along with a team-high eight rebounds. Mills scored 24 points and Robinson added a dozen as the Maize and Blue advanced to the Sweet 16 for the second consecutive season.

Awaiting Michigan in the Sweet 16 was second-seeded North Carolina at Rupp Arena in Lexington, Ky. The Tar Heels had eliminated U-M from the tournament in each of the two previous seasons but, behind Glen Rice's 34 points, including 8-of-12 from three, Michigan would advance to the Elite Eight with a 92-87 victory.

Robinson scored 17 points and dished out 13 assists, Mills added 16 while Sean Higgins chipped in 14 from the bench. After North Carolina shot over 60 percent from the field in the first half, Michigan slowed down the Tar Heels just enough in the second period, holding UNC to 45.5 percent shooting (15-of-33), including 0-of-6 from three-point range.

Fifth-seeded Virginia was no match for Michigan in the Southeast Regional Final as the Wolverines dominated the Cavaliers, 102-65. Rice scored 32 points, on 13-of-16 shooting from the floor, and Higgins had 31 points off the bench, including seven triples, as U-M ended a 13-year Final Four drought.

In the first half, the Michigan defense held Virginia to just 35.7 percent (10-of-28) shooting as it built a 44-25 lead at the intermission. Offensively, U-M shot 58.6 percent (41-of-70) in the contest to help setup a matchup with a familiar foe in the national semifinals.

Rice was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Southeast Regional while Higgins and Robinson were also named to the All-Tournament Team.

Michigan lost twice to Illinois during the 1988-89 regular season, both times by double digits, including in the regular season finale in Ann Arbor, but the story would prove to be very different at the Kingdome in Seattle at the Final Four.

Tied at 81 in the final seconds, Mills missed three-pointer, but Higgins grabbed the rebound on the back side and converted the short putback just before time expired to give the Wolverines an 83-81 victory.

Rice led the way once again with 28 points, Robinson scored 14 points with 12 assists, Higgins had 14 points and Loy Vaught posted a double-double with 10 points and 16 rebounds to help U-M take down the Fighting Illini.

If the semifinal against Illinois had been a classic, the national championship game with Seton Hall would prove to be just as dramatic as Michigan would win its first men's basketball national championship with an 80-79, overtime victory over the Pirates.

Trailing by one in the closing seconds of overtime, Robinson drove to the basket and was fouled, earning himself a pair of free throw attempts. Just a 65.6 percent free throw shooter during the season, Robinson calmly knocked down both attempts to lift the Wolverines to the victory and seal the national championship.

Rice was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player, having set a new NCAA Tournament scoring record with 184 points (30.7 per contest), and, following his heroics to clinch the title, Robinson was also named to the All-Tournament Team.

1992 NCAA Tournament | Final Four (sanctioned)

Michigan entered the 1992 NCAA Tournament as the No. 6 seed in the Southeast Region after going 20-8 in the regular season, but the Wolverines, led by their famed "Fab Five" freshmen, also entered with momentum, having won the final three games of the regular season, including a victory over second-ranked Indiana.

Temple, the No. 11 seed, was the opening round opponent for the Maize and Blue who began the tournament at the Omni in Atlanta, Ga., just as Steve Fisher's team had during the magical tournament run of 1989.

The Wolverines used a strong first half in which they shot 60.7 percent (17-of-28) from the field to take a nine-point halftime lead on their way to a 73-66 victory. Jalen Rose scored a game-high 19 points to go along with eight assists, while Chris Webber posted a double-double with 11 points and 12 rebounds. Juwan Howard and Jimmy King both had 15 points in the first round win.

U-M met No. 14 seed East Tennessee State in the second round and the Wolverines overwhelmed the underdogs in the opening 20 minutes, building a 54-34 halftime lead. Chris Webber scored 30 points and Jalen Rose had a double-double with 19 points and 10 rebounds as the Maize and Blue downed ETSU, 102-90.

Juwan Howard added 23 points and Jimmy King chipped in 13 as Michigan moved on to the Sweet 16 for the first time since 1989.

Michigan met No. 2 seed Oklahoma State in the Sweet 16 at Rupp Arena in Lexington, Ky., in a game that would go down to the wire. A Jalen Rose free throw with 7.3 seconds left put the Wolverines in front by a pair, 74-72, but Oklahoma State would have the final possession with a chance to win or tie.

The Cowboys turned the ball over however with a second left to play and Juwan Howard iced the game at the free-throw line. Rose finished with a game-high 25 points and 11 rebounds, King added 15 points, as did Eric Riley from off the U-M bench, while Howard chipped in 13 points.

The Southeast Regional Final would match the Wolverines against top-seeded rival Ohio State, who got the better of the Maize and Blue twice during the regular season. The result would be a classic as Webber scored a game-high 23 points to pace U-M to a 75-71 victory over the Buckeyes.

In the final minute of regulation, Michigan was down by a pair, 63-61, when a Webber putback drew the Wolverines even and force overtime. U-M built an eight-point lead in the final minute of overtime as the Maize and Blue punched its ticket to the Final Four.

Rose scored 20 points in the regional final victory, King added 15 and Howard scored 10. Rose was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Southeast Regional and Webber was also named to the All-Tournament Team.

U-M met No. 4 seed Cincinnati at the Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minn., in the national semifinals and scored a 76-72 victory over the Bearcats to move on to the national championship game.

Cincinnati led by three at the half, 41-38, but the Maize and Blue held the Bearcats to just 30 percent (9-of-30) shooting from the field in the second half on their way to the victory. King netted a team-high 17 points while Webber posted a double-double with 16 points and 11 rebounds.

Rose finished just shy of a double-double with 13 points and nine boards while Howard added 12 points and eight rebounds.

The defending national champions from Duke were the final hurdle between Michigan and its second national championship, but the Blue Devils would prove to be one hurdle too many as they topped the Wolverines, 71-51 in the title game.

Christian Laettner scored a game-high 19 points and Grant Hill added 18 points and 10 rebounds to lead Duke; Webber had 14 points and 11 rebounds for the Maize and Blue while Rose added 11 points, both were named to the Final Four All-Tournament Team.

1993 NCAA Tournament | Final Four (sanctioned)

Michigan's "Fab Five" entered their second NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 seed in the West Region after going 26-4 in the regular season. The Wolverines were never ranked lower than seventh during the year and went into the NCAA Tournament on a seven-game win streak.

No. 16 seed Coastal Carolina was no match for U-M in the first round at the McKale Center in Tucson, Ariz., as the Maize and Blue raced to an 84-53 victory.

Ray Jackson scored a game-high 19 points, Juwan Howard had a double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds and Chris Webber chipped in 11 points in an easy opening round win that saw Michigan hold Coastal Carolina to just 27.7 percent (18-of-65) shooting for the contest.

A much stiffer test met U-M in the Round of 32 as the Wolverines needed overtime to dispatch of No. 9 seed UCLA, 86-84. Michigan led by a pair, 77-75, in the final seconds of regulation but Tyus Edney made two free throws with 6.3 seconds left to force overtime. Tied at 84 in the overtime, Jimmy King made a putback with 1.5 seconds left to give Michigan its first all-time win over UCLA.

All five starters scored in double figures for the Wolverines, led by 27 points and 14 rebounds from Webber. Jackson had 19 points, Howard scored 14, Jalen Rose netted 12 and King finished with 11 points.

The Wolverines traveled to the site of their 1989 national championship triumph for the Sweet 16 as they met No. 12 seed George Washington. Just as they had in the second round, all five Michigan starters scored in double figures as the Maize and Blue downed the Colonials, 76-64.

Howard led the way with 17 points and 10 rebounds, Rose added 16 points, Webber scored 14 with nine boards while King and Jackson each scored 11. U-M held George Washington to just 33.8 percent (24-of-71) shooting as it advanced to the Elite Eight.

Temple, the team Michigan beat to begin its run to the 1992 Final Four, was all that stood in the way of U-M returning to the Final Four as the Wolverines met the Owls in the West Regional Final.

The No. 7 seed from the Atlantic 10 built an eight-point half-time lead, 35-27, before the Wolverine defense held Temple to just 37 percent (10-of-27) shooting in the second half to come from behind for the 77-72 victory. For the third consecutive game, all five of Michigan's starters scored in double figures, led by 17 points from Rose. Webber had a double-double with 13 points and 12 rebounds as he was named the West Regional Most Outstanding Player.

King scored 14, Howard had 11 points and nine rebounds while Jackson added 10 points. Howard and Rose joined Webber on the All-Regional Team.

In the national semifinals in the Superdome in New Orleans, Michigan would once again need overtime to advance in the NCAA Tournament as the Wolverines toppled Kentucky, 81-78, in a matchup of two No. 1 seeds.

A pair of Wildcat free throws with 10 seconds left in regulation forced overtime and Kentucky was in front by one, 78-77, in the final minute of overtime before a layup by Webber.

After an empty possession for Kentucky, Rose closed out the game at the free-throw line as U-M advanced to its second consecutive national championship game. Webber finished with 27 points and 13 rebounds, Rose added 18 points, Howard had 17 and Jackson scored 11 points in the victory.

Michigan's dreams of a national championship fell one win short for the second consecutive year as the Maize and Blue fell to North Carolina, 77-71, in the final.

Webber was named to the Final Four All-Tournament Team as he recorded another double-double with 23 points and 11 rebounds, King scored 15 points and Rose had 12.

North Carolina led by six at the half and shot 61.9 percent (13-of-21) from the field in the second 20 minutes, while holding U-M to just 1-of-7 from three after halftime. Donald Williams scored a game-high 25 points to lead the Tar Heels.

2013 NCAA Tournament | Final Four

Michigan spent the entire 2012-13 season ranked in the top-10, which included a spot at No. 1 in the polls in late January but entered the NCAA Tournament having won just three of its final six games to close the regular season.

U-M received a No. 4 seed in the South Region of the NCAA Tournament and would spend the first weekend of the Big Dance in friendly surroundings at the Palace of Auburn Hills.

First up for the Wolverines was a matchup against No. 13 South Dakota State. After leading by just four at the half, 30-26, the Maize and Blue pulled away in the second, thanks to 54.8 percent shooting (17-of-31) from the field after the intermission, to win, 71-56. Glenn Robinson III and Tim Hardaway Jr. each scored 21 points and Mitch McGary had 13 points and nine rebounds in the victory.

Fifth-seeded VCU was all that stood between U-M and its first Sweet 16 appearance since 1994. Just two seasons removed from a run to the Final Four, the Rams proved no match for the Maize and Blue as U-M raced to a 38-23 lead at halftime.

McGary dominated the contest with 21 points and 14 rebounds while Trey Burke shrugged off a tough tournament opener to post 18 points and seven rebounds in a 78-53 win. Hardaway and Robinson each added 14 points as the Wolverines shot 51.7 percent (31-of-60) to advance to the tournament's second weekend.

Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas, was the setting for a classic in the Sweet 16 as U-M met top-seeded Kansas. Michigan trailed by three with 12.6 seconds left, but a missed free throw by Kansas gave the Wolverines a chance. U-M raced up the floor and Burke used a double screen to get open 30-feet from the basket in front of the Wolverines bench and the national player of the year drained the deep three to force overtime.

The lead would change hands five times in the overtime period before a basket by McGary, who led the way with 25 points and 14 rebounds for U-M, in the final minute put Michigan in front for good. Burke finished with 23 points and 10 assists, Robinson added 13 points, Nik Stauskas scored 11 and Hardaway netted 10 points in the victory.

Following the dramatics of the Sweet 16 matchup with Kansas, third-seeded Florida would prove no match for Michigan in the Elite Eight. The Wolverines raced out to an early lead as Stauskas set the tone from three-point range, going 6-of-6 in the contest, to help the Maize and Blue to a 79-59 victory.

Stauskas finished with a game-high 22 points as the Wolverines went 7-of-11 (63.6 percent) from three in the first half to build a 17-point lead at the intermission. Burke finished the game with 15 points and McGary added 11 as Michigan advanced to its first Final Four since 1993. Burke was named the South Regional Most Outstanding Player while McGary and Stauskas earned all-tournament team recognition.

In the National Semifinal against fourth-seeded Syracuse at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Michigan built an 11-point half-time lead before holding off the Orange to win, 61-56.

With under a minute to play, Syracuse had the ball down just two before Jordan Morgan took a charge give the ball back to the Wolverines and end any hopes of a comeback for the Orange. Hardaway scored a team-high 13 points, McGary posted a double-double with 10 points and 12 rebounds while Robinson also scored 10 points.

U-M fell just short of winning the national championship as the Wolverines fell to top-seeded Louisville, 82-76, in the final.

First half foul trouble for Burke gave Spike Albrecht the opportunity to come off the bench and provide a spark for the ages as he poured in 17 points to help the Maize and Blue lead by one at the half, 38-37. Even with Burke providing a lift for Michigan in the second half, finishing with a game-high 24 points, U-M could not hold off the Cardinals who completed the second half comeback behind their own outstanding performance from the bench, with Luke Hancock scoring a team-high 22 points.

Hardaway and Robinson each added a dozen for the Maize and Blue, who finished the season with a 31-8 record. Albrecht, Burke and McGary will all named to the Final Four All-Tournament Team.

2018 NCAA Tournament | Final Four

Michigan entered the 2018 NCAA Tournament riding a wave of momentum courtesy of a nine-game win streak and its second consecutive Big Ten Tournament title. With a 28-7 overall record entering the tournament, U-M earned a No. 3 seed in the West Region and would open tournament play against No. 14 seed Montana in Wichita, Kan.

A slow start against the Grizzlies saw the Maize and Blue lead by just three, 31-28, at halftime as foul trouble plagued the Wolverines' catalyst point guard Xavier Simpson.

U-M turned up the defensive pressure on Montana in the second half, holding the Grizzlies to just 19 points and 25 percent shooting from the field (7-of-28) as Michigan eased to a 61-47 victory. Charles Matthews led the way for the Wolverines with 20 points and 11 rebounds while Muhammad-Ali Abdur-Rahkman added 11 points and Duncan Robinson chipped in seven off the bench as U-M moved on to face sixth-seeded Houston in the second round.

The matchup with the Cougars would produce one of the most memorable finished in Michigan basketball history as Jordan Poole's heroics helped U-M advance to the Sweet 16 with a 64-63 victory.

After Houston missed a pair of free throws, Michigan inbounded the ball under its own basket with 3.6 seconds to play and trailing by a pair. Isaiah Livers inbounded to Abdur-Rahkman just behind the midcourt line, Abdur-Rahkman dribbled over midcourt and kicked to Poole on the wing. With a hand in his face, Poole kicked out both legs and drained a deep triple as time expired to give the Wolverines the improbable victory.

Moritz Wagner and Abdur-Rahkman each scored 12 points to pace the Maize and Blue, Matthews and Robinson both added 11 while the hero of the night, Poole, finished with eight points as the Wolverines advanced to their fourth Sweet 16 in five seasons.

Michigan met No. 7 seed Texas A&M in the Sweet 16 at STAPLES Center in Los Angeles and after a pair of uneven offensive performances and the dramatics of the opening weekend, U-M would race past the Aggies into the Elite Eight with a decisive 99-72 victory. Michigan was red-hot from the field in the opening half, going 10-of-16 (62.5 percent) from three-point range as it built a 52-28 advantage at the intermission.

The Wolverines followed with just four triples in the second half but shot 67.9 percent from the field overall (19-of-28) in the second 20 minutes as they cruised to victory. Abdur-Rahkman scored a team-high 24 points, Wagner added 21 on 8-of-11 shooting and Matthews chipped in 18, going 8-of-11 from the field. Simpson (11) and Robinson (10) also scored in double figures as the Wolverines advanced to a date with Florida State with a trip to the Final Four on the line.

The Regional Final matchup against the Seminoles saw defense return to the forefront as the Wolverines held the No. 9 seed from the Atlantic Coast Conference to just 31.4 percent (16-of-51) shooting in a 58-54 victory.

The Maize and Blue led by one at the break, 27-26, but put on a masterful defensive performance in the second half, holding Florida State to just 23.3 percent shooting (7-of-30), including just 1-of-8 from three. Matthews netted a game-high 17 points with a team-best eight rebounds and was named the Most Outstanding Player of the West Regional. Wagner chipped in 12 points and Abdur-Rahkman added nine as the duo also received All-Regional Team recognition.

Cinderella was awaiting the Wolverines at the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas, as Michigan would meet No. 11 seed Loyola-Chicago in the National Semifinals. Through 20 minutes, the upstart Ramblers were in control as they led, 29-22, at the intermission, holding the Maize and Blue to just 29 percent (9-of-31) shooting in the first half.

After falling behind by as much as 10 early in the second half, the clock struck midnight on Loyola as the U-M offensive caught fire, ignited by a game-high 24 points and 15 rebounds from Wagner, as the Wolverines shot 57.1 percent (16-of-28) from the field in the second half on their way to a 69-57 victory. Matthews continued his strong tournament run with 17 points while Robinson added nine to help Michigan advance to the National Championship game for the second time in six seasons.

The first Monday night in April saw the Wolverines pitted against top-seeded Villanova and Donte DiVenzenzo would come off the bench to be the story for the Wildcats, scoring 31 points, including five triples, to topple the Maize and Blue, 79-62.

Abdur-Rahkman scored a team-high 23 points, Wagner added 16 and Simpson netted 10, but U-M went just 3-of-23 from three-point range in the defeat.

Wagner was named to the Final Four All-Tournament Team as the Wolverines finished the season with a 33-8 overall record and just short of the program's first national title since 1989.
