FROM THE COMMISSIONER OF THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

We are proud to welcome you to Indianapolis and Gainbridge Fieldhouse for the 2025 TIAA Big Ten Men's Basketball Tournament. Basketball fans from across the nation have come together to share this experience as we cap off an exciting campaign by crowning the Big Ten Conference champion.

Like our student-athletes, coaches and administrators, we expect our great fans to engage in sportsmanship that properly represents this proud conference. Please cheer for your team, respect your opponent, and represent your school with enthusiasm, grace and class in victory or defeat.

The TIAA Big Ten Men's Basketball Tournament is the result of months of work that is not possible without the dedicated support of numerous hard-working groups and individuals behind the scenes. We extend our sincere thanks to our hosts: the City of Indianapolis, Mayor Joe Hogsett, Gainbridge Fieldhouse, the Indiana Pacers and Fever, and the Indiana Sports Corp (ISC). There are countless reasons many of the biggest events in sports come to Indianapolis, none more important than the incredible support provided by this community.

We also express our appreciation to our broadcast partners, including Big Ten Network, FOX, CBS, NBC and Peacock for their continued partnership in delivering Big Ten basketball to millions of fans around the world all season long. The 2024-25 campaign, our first featuring 18 world-class institutions, has been remarkable and the anticipation for this tournament has been building all winter.

We appreciate your attendance at the 2025 TIAA Big Ten Women's Basketball Tournament, as well as your continued support of Big Ten basketball. We are proud to have the most loyal and passionate fans in college sports, and we look forward to an incredible week celebrating the game.

WELCOME FROM THE MAYOR OF INDIANAPOLIS

On behalf of the City of Indianapolis, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2025 TIAA Big Ten Men's Basketball Tournament. We are excited to once again host this tournament—we are always pleased to welcome student-athletes, coaches, and fans to the Circle City.

I am proud to share that this is the 13th time Indianapolis has hosted the Big Ten Men's Basketball Tournament. As always, there will be engaging events and wonderful Indianapolis venues for attendees to enjoy! Visitors will find a city full of world-class attractions upon arrival in Indy. Consider visiting the Indianapolis Zoo and White River Gardens, the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art, and the 10-mile Cultural Trail that winds through downtown connects dining, shopping, cultural amenities, and entertainment options in all six of our eclectic cultural districts.

I hope you enjoy your time in our city—I am confident you will experience our trademark Hoosier Hospitality while you're here. Good luck to our visiting student-athletes, coaches, and fans.

Sincerely,

Joseph H. Hogsett
Mayor
City of Indianapolis

GAINBRIDGE FIELDHOUSE

Whether it's a Pacers or Fever game, TIAA Big Ten Basketball Tournament, Eagles concert, Disney on Ice, Cirque du Soleil or another exciting event in Gainbridge Fieldhouse, you'll experience an environment that is unparalleled in all other entertainment venues.

Gainbridge Fieldhouse offers wide concourses, so maneuvering to one of the many places to purchase a variety of great food and drinks from local partners and brands is a walk in the park.

From every seat, you'll feel right on top of the action. Also, every seat is comfortable with a great view and that's good, because you'll need the space to stand up and exchange high-fives with all the fans around you.

Gainbridge Fieldhouse was declared the No. 1 venue in the NBA three years in a row by Sports Business Journal, and has been declared the best sports facility of all four major sports in the U.S.

Morris Bicentennial Plaza is positioned just outside of Gainbridge Fieldhouse and boasts art installations and a community basketball court that is converted to a seasonal ice rink. At least 80 percent of the programming on the plaza is reserved for community activities and public performances.

Visit gainbridgefieldhouse.com for more information about events and tickets.

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's standard of competing at the highest level in athletics also endures as an important component of the Big Ten experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its students not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all 18 Big Ten universities, which is widely considered to be the model for effective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities.

Every Big Ten Academic Alliance institution ranks among the top 90 universities in the nation according to the 2024 Academic Ranking of World Universities, including 10 in the top 40.

The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 1,900 Academic All-Americans, including 80 honorees during the 2023-24 academic year.

Big Ten Academic Alliance schools annually conduct $17 billion in funded research.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

Big Ten schools have won at least five national championships in 26 of the last 30 years, averaging nearly seven per year during that span.

Since the 2005-06 academic year, current Big Ten institutions have claimed 119 team national championships in 26 different sports.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

Big Ten institutions support more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports.

The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women.

The Big Ten leads the nation in total students competing in intercollegiate athletics and participation opportunities, and sponsors more official sports than all conferences except the Ivy League.

Nearly 2,000 Big Ten competitors have participated in the Olympics, winning more than 600 medals, including more than 200 gold. The Big Ten Conference enjoyed its finest performance at a single Olympic Games during the 2024 Summer Olympics in Paris, France, as athletes with Big Ten ties set conference records by earning 98 total medals and 27 gold medals during the 17-day competition, surpassing the previous mark of 51 medals at the 2020 Summer Games in Tokyo, Japan. All 18 Big Ten member schools were represented at the 2024 Summer Games, competing for 64 nations in 17 sports.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

The Big Ten leads all conferences with 9.4 million alumni and nearly 823,000 students.

Big Ten men's and women's basketball combined for 4.3 million fans in their home arenas throughout the 2023-24 season and paced the nation in total attendance. Volleyball Day in Nebraska attracted 92,003 fans, the largest attendance in women's sports history. All seven of the Big Ten ice hockey teams also ranked in the top 15 nationally in average attendance.

In 2023-24, Big Ten women's basketball programs set ratings records on seven different networks – BTN, FOX, FS1, NBC, Peacock, ESPN and CBS.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

Took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations.

Awarded the first Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding seniors who demonstrated excellence in academics and athletics.

Formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former students that competed in conference athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

Became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

Launched the Big Ten Network (BTN) in 2007, the first national conference-owned television network.

Began partnering with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports in 2012.

Twenty years after adding instant replay in 2004, announced a state-of-the-art replay center, featuring 18 dedicated replay bays and six dedicated medical observation stations.

Championed new legislation for football permitting coach-to-player helmet communication and the use of sideline video by student-athletes, and coaches, both of which were introduced in the fall of 2024.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Through the Big Ten's current media agreements with BTN, NBC, Peacock, CBS and FOX, more than 2,000 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally and globally on an annual basis.

BTN reaches nearly 50 million homes and is also available via the Fox Sports App, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. BIG+ streams more than 2,000 additional events each season.

COMMUNITY & IMPACT

The Big Ten Conference is dedicated to making a lasting impact on the communities where its major events are held. In recent years, the conference has hosted sports clinics, renovated recreation centers and given elementary-aged children the chance to experience major Big Ten events.

Around the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Basketball Tournaments, the conference focuses on creating meaningful improvements, aiming to leave each location better than it was found.

Moving forward, the Big Ten will continue to collaborate with the College Football Playoff Foundation, local sports organizations and school district foundations to enhance spaces for teachers and children and provide educational opportunities for youth.

Illinois students, scholars, and alumni are a community with the power to change the world.

With our land-grant heritage as a foundation, we pioneer innovative research that tackles global problems and expands the human experience. As a public, land-grant university, we have the responsibility to create new knowledge and new ideas and translate these into better ways of working, living and learning for our state, nation and world.

Since its founding in 1867, the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign has earned a reputation as a world-class leader in research, teaching, and public engagement. Each year we welcome more than 32,000 undergraduate students across our nine undergraduate divisions – offering nearly 5,000 courses in more than 150 fields of study and awarding about 7,000 new degrees each spring. The fundamental promise at Illinois for nearly 150 years has been to provide our undergraduate students with truly transformative educational experiences. Whether these experiences take place in the classroom, in the surrounding community or around the globe, our students leave this campus with the skills, knowledge and the drive to become leaders in their fields and to lead lives of impact in the world.

Indiana University students get it all—the storybook experience of what college should be like, and the endless opportunities that come with it. Top-ranked academics. Awe-inspiring faculty. Dynamic campus life. International culture. Phenomenal music and arts events. The excitement of IU Hoosier sports. And a jaw-droppingly beautiful campus. Founded in 1820, Indiana University Bloomington is the flagship campus of IU's seven campuses and two regional centers statewide. Its mission is to create, disseminate, preserve, and apply knowledge. It does so through its commitments to cutting-edge research, scholarship, arts, and creative activity; to challenging and inspired undergraduate, graduate, professional, and lifelong education; to culturally diverse and international educational programs and communities; to first-rate library and museum collections; to economic development in the state and region; and to meaningful experiences outside the classroom.

The Bloomington campus is committed to full diversity, academic freedom, and meeting the changing educational and research needs of the state, the nation, and the world. IU educational experiences change the lives of our graduates—and the lives of the communities they serve as experts and professionals.

Respected for its excellence in education, passion for discovery, and tradition of public service, the University of Iowa offers a close-knit community that draws students and scholars from around the world.

Founded in 1847, the University of Iowa is the state's oldest public university. Today it comprises 11 colleges, a major teaching hospital, a technology research campus, and other resources. With more than 32,000 students, it is one of the nation's top public research universities while remaining one of the smallest public institutions in the Big Ten.

Iowa is a place where every student can find their niche, get to know classmates and professors, and receive personal assistance in meeting college and career goals. Its 1,700-acre main campus bridges the Iowa River in the heart of Iowa City, and both campus and community radiate a welcoming, cosmopolitan spirit.

Today's University of Iowa is dedicated to building a better state, nation, and world by producing generations of scholars and professionals, driving economic growth, and fostering innovations in the sciences, humanities, and arts. Whether you're visiting campus, preparing for college, or seeking new learning and career opportunities, Iowa welcomes you to explore.

The University of Maryland, College Park, the state's flagship university, is committed to its fearless mission to discover new knowledge, Do Good and educate the next generation of global citizens.

As the only public research university inside Washington, D.C.'s beltway, UMD gives students unparalleled opportunities to work with nearby federal agencies, labs, and museums. Collaborations with the University of Maryland, Baltimore through the University of Maryland Strategic Partnership also boost educational opportunities, research and combined degree programs. UMD's faculty includes two Nobel laureates, three Pulitzer Prize winners and 58 members of the National Academies.

UMD is proud to be the nation's first "Do Good" campus. The Do Good Initiative is a campus-wide effort to engage the entire student body in programs designed to ensure that every student who graduates from UMD will do so informed and motivated to Do Good in their communities and around the world.

Undergraduates can select from nearly 280 academic programs, or create their own as part of the Individual Studies Program. UMD provides countless out-of-classroom opportunities, more than 25 living-learning environments, and more than 400 study abroad programs to empower students to make a global impact.

Compelled by a fearless mission to serve the state and nation, the University of Maryland confronts the great societal issues of our time through an unparalleled academic and research enterprise.

Michigan State University has been advancing the common good with uncommon will for more than 165 years. The nation's premier land-grant university, MSU was founded with the goal of democratizing higher education and bringing science and innovation into everyday life. Today, MSU makes an impact in communities from East Lansing to East Africa as it pushes the boundaries of discovery, expands opportunity and advances equity to make a better, safer, healthier world for all.

One of the world's leading public research universities and a member of the Association of American Universities, MSU offers nationally ranked and recognized academic, undergraduate research, residential college and service-learning programs and is a leader in study abroad among public universities.

A diverse and inclusive academic community, MSU enrolls more than 50,000 students from all 50 states and more than 130 countries, employs nearly 2,000 tenure-system faculty members, and offers more than 400 programs of study in 17 degree-granting colleges.

An indication of MSU's excellence and impact is its selection by the U.S. Department of Energy Office of Science to design and establish the Facility for Rare Isotope Beams — the preeminent user facility of its type in the world. Opened in 2022, the facility provides research opportunities for scientists from around the globe, fueling breakthrough applications while developing the next generation of scientific leaders.

At the University of Minnesota, we seek new knowledge that can change how we all work and live. We prepare students to meet the great challenges facing our state, our nation, and our world. And we apply our expertise as students, faculty, and staff to engage with communities across Minnesota. Bringing people together in new ways, fostering discoveries, and making our world a better place is what we do at the University of Minnesota. And we've been doing it for more than 150 years.

The flagship of the University of Minnesota System, the Twin Cities campus is Minnesota's only land-grant university and one of the most prestigious public research universities in the nation. Founded in 1851, we are one of five universities in the nation with an engineering school, medical school, law school, veterinary medicine school, and agricultural school all on one campus.

The University of Minnesota is driven by a singular vision of excellence and founded in the belief that all people are enriched by understanding. We are proud of our mission of world-class education, groundbreaking research, and community-engaged outreach, and we are unified in the application of this knowledge to benefit the people of the state, the nation, and the world.

The University of Nebraska–Lincoln was chartered as a land-grant university on February 15, 1869, to create opportunity for the state of Nebraska. A proud member of the Big Ten Conference, the Big Ten Academic Alliance, and the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU), Nebraska is classified within the Carnegie “R1: Doctoral Universities – Highest Research Activity” category. The university is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

A STRONG FOUNDATION

Always a place of high ambition, this was one of the first institutions west of the Mississippi River to award doctoral degrees—the first being granted in 1896. The University of Nebraska established the world’s first undergraduate psychology laboratory. The discipline of ecology was born here, and the campuses reflect that tradition, being recognized as botanical gardens and arboreta. An early institutional interest in literature and the arts provided the foundations for today’s Prairie Schooner literary magazine, the University of Nebraska Press, and the Sheldon Museum of Art, which houses one of the world’s most significant collections of 20th century American art.

Today, Nebraska is one of the nation’s leading teaching institutions, and a research leader with a wide array of grant-funded projects aimed at broadening knowledge in the sciences and humanities.

Northwestern is a comprehensive research university that is deeply interdisciplinary across multiple schools and units. Our rigorous yet empathetic academic environment provides a robust mixture of theory and practice, with an emphasis on top-tier research, new knowledge, creative expression and practical application. If you are at Northwestern, you are part of an innovative, collaborative, and multidimensional community delivering an impact that is rare in higher education. Founded in 1851 on the shores of Lake Michigan, 12 miles north of Chicago, Northwestern is one of only four top 10 US universities also ranked in the top 20 in each of the five graduate education categories. We are committed to excellent teaching, innovative research and the personal and intellectual growth of its students in a diverse academic community. The Northwestern experience spans the globe, prioritizing international study for students and collaborations for faculty. We foster a truly diverse environment, composed of students and faculty from around the world. We strive to make a positive, cross-cultural and durable impact through global engagement, at home and abroad.

At the University of Oregon, we pursue innovation, answer tough questions, explore the world through research, and prepare students to tackle society's biggest challenges.

Founded in 1876, the University in Oregon is a top public university, according to US News & World Report, and one of only two Pacific Northwest schools in the Association of American Universities as well as a Carnegie Tier One institution with the top R1 rating for research activity.

Located in the lush Willamette Valley, between the Pacific Ocean and the Cascade Mountains, our 25,000 students come from 50 states and more than 90 countries. The UO celebrates the many differences and diverse experiences of our students and is a top 20 public school for graduating underrepresented students.

With more than 300 student organizations and more than 60 multicultural and identity-based centers and groups at the UO, students have endless opportunities to explore new ideas, grow as individuals, and find their true passions.

UO graduates form a network of professional and personal support for those who follow in their webbed footsteps. As we like to say, "Once a Duck, always a Duck."

Penn State's historic mission of teaching, research, and public service — launched under the most modest of circumstances more than 150 years ago — now reaches into virtually all parts of Pennsylvania. Consider, for example, that the University now has 24 campuses across the Commonwealth, putting a Penn State education within practical reach of nearly every Pennsylvanian. In fact, about 70 percent of Penn State's undergraduates are Pennsylvania residents.

Penn State is Pennsylvania's largest nongovernmental employer and has employees and expenditures in every one of its 67 counties. The University generates a total economic impact across the Commonwealth that surpasses $11.6 billion annually.

Part of that impact is derived from Penn State's research program, which brought more than $593 million in federal funds to Pennsylvania last year, and an additional $101 million from private industry. In addition, as part of its Invent Penn State initiative, the University has funded 21 innovation hubs, designed to bolster entrepreneurship and economic development in communities surrounding its campuses across Pennsylvania.

Penn State's outreach and online programs — ranging from 4H to Cooperative Extension, from summer camps to public broadcasting — provide educational and service programs to more than a million Pennsylvania households annually.

History. Traditions. Achievements. The Boilermaker story is full of milestones that have had a significant impact on our state, nation and world. From its stately red-brick campus on the West Lafayette bluffs above the Wabash River and at 4 regional campuses and 9 Polytechnic Institute locations across Indiana, Purdue University touches the Greater Lafayette community, the state, the nation and the world with a vast spectrum of instruction, outreach and service. As Indiana's only land-grant university and an acclaimed public research institution, Purdue has a national and global reputation for excellent and affordable education. Building on its traditional strengths in engineering and agriculture since its founding in 1869, the West Lafayette campus today offers nearly 6,700 courses in more than 200 specializations through the schools of agriculture, consumer and family sciences, education, engineering, health sciences, liberal arts, management, nursing, pharmacy and pharmaceutical sciences, science, technology, and veterinary medicine. Our rigorous academic programs — led by some of the top professors in the world — prepare students for all different walks of life. We empower our students to move the world forward.

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, stands among America's highest-ranked, most diverse public research universities. The oldest, largest, and top-ranked public university in the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area, you'll find us at our main locations in three New Jersey cities, and our footprint can be seen around the region. We're an academic, health, and research powerhouse and a university of opportunity. With hundreds of degree programs, locations across New Jersey, and 67,600-plus students, Rutgers delivers something for everyone.

Collectively, our schools and colleges offer the greatest variety of majors and degree programs in New Jersey, and many rank No. 1 among the public schools and colleges in the state. As a leading national public research university and New Jersey's top academic health care provider, Rutgers fulfills its mission to provide learning, discovery, innovation, service, and health care at the highest levels. Rutgers is dedicated to teaching that meets the highest standards of excellence, to conducting research that breaks new ground, and to providing services, solutions, and clinical care that help individuals and the local, national and global communities where they live.

As a public research university, UCLA's mission revolves around the creation, dissemination, preservation and application of knowledge for the advancement of global society. UCLA combines the close-knit, engaging atmosphere of a spirited public institution with the expansive opportunities. Located in the picturesque Westwood neighborhood, just minutes from Hollywood and downtown Los Angeles, UCLA offers an environment that supports academic and personal growth. The university's setting provides students with access to a rich cultural landscape and a range of professional and recreational activities that enhance their educational experience.

To fulfill the university's mission, UCLA is committed to academic freedom in its fullest terms – valuing open access to information, free and lively debate conducted with mutual respect for individuals, and freedom from intolerance. In all of these pursuits, the university strives for excellence and diversity, recognizing that openness and inclusion produce true quality. These values underlie the university's three institutional responsibilities: education, research and public service.

The University of Southern California is the oldest private research university in the western United States. An anchor institution in Los Angeles, USC's main campuses are the University Park Campus, located near Exposition Park, a center of world-class museums and recreational parks; and the Health Sciences Campus, three miles northeast of downtown Los Angeles. Diversity is a hallmark of the USC student community. USC alumni can be found in positions of leadership all over the world. The university's 2024-25 enrollment was 47,000, including 21,000 undergraduates and 26,000 graduate and professional students.

From national championships to Olympic medals, USC stands tall as one of the most successful athletics programs on the globe. Entering 2024-25, Trojan teams have won more national championships (136) than all but two schools. That includes a combined 113 NCAA team titles (85 men's, 28 women's). USC also has a long tradition of nurturing successful Olympic athletes, boasting more Olympians and medalists than any school in the country.
