UTAH VALLEY COMES UP JUST SHORT IN FINAL SECONDS IN 63-61 LOSS TO CALIFORNIA BAPTIST IN WAC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

LAS VEGAS—Jackson Holcombe scored a team-high 18 points and Isaac Davis added 12, but Utah Valley came up just short in a heartbreaking 63-61 loss to California Baptist in the championship game of the 2026 WAC Tournament on Saturday night at Orleans Arena in Las Vegas. The Wolverines led 61-60 with 39 seconds remaining before CBU's Dominick Daniels Jr. knocked down a go-ahead three-pointer with 17 seconds left to lift the Lancers to the title. Utah Valley battled back from an early deficit and led by as many as seven points late in the second half before California Baptist closed the game with a late surge. Trevan Leonhardt finished with six points, 10 rebounds and eight assists, while Braden Housley added seven points for the Wolverines. Utah Valley shot 44 percent from the field and outscored CBU 38-26 in the paint, but the Lancers hit nine three-pointers, including the decisive shot in the closing seconds. Leonhardt and Holcombe were both named to the WAC All-Tournament Team as the Wolverines fell to 25-8 overall.

Todd Phillips

Head Coach

3rd Season at UVU

3rd Season Overall

Overall Record 66-33

UVU Record Same

Overall WAC Record 40-14

Todd Phillips enters his third season as the head coach of the Utah Valley University men's basketball program and his seventh season overall with the Wolverines. Phillips signed a two-year contract extension in May 2025, securing his position through the 2027-28 season.

Phillips owns a 41-25 overall record in his first two seasons at the helm, including an impressive 26-10 mark in Western Athletic Conference play—the most wins by a head coach in their first two seasons in UVU's Division I history. In 2024-25, he guided Utah Valley to a 25-9 record, a dominant 15-1 league mark, and the outright WAC regular season championship—the program's fourth overall and second outright title. The Wolverines earned the No. 1 seed in the 2025 WAC Tournament and advanced to their first-ever championship game. UVU also made its third all-time appearance in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT), finishing the season ranked No. 19 in the Colleg Insider.com Mid-Major Top-25 poll.

Phillips was named the 2025 WAC Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year award, given annually to the nation's top mid-major head coach. His team earned numerous postseason honors, including WAC Player of the Year (Dominick Nelson), WAC Defensive Player of the Year (Carter Welling), two All-WAC Second Team selections (Welling, Tanner Toolson), and a WAC All-Freshman Team nod (Jackson Holcombe).

Under Phillips' leadership, UVU ranked among the top defensive teams in the country, finishing fifth nationally in blocks per game (5.6), 25th in defensive rebounds per game (27.35), and 41st in rebounds per game (38.21). The Wolverines also led the WAC in field goal percentage (46.8%), assists per game (15.6), and rebound margin (+4.9). Utah Valley went a perfect 12-0 at the UCCU Center in 2024-25, finishing the year with the nation's eighth-longest active home win streak.

In his first season as head coach in 2023-24, Phillips led the Wolverines to a 16-16 record—setting a new UVU record for most wins by a first-year head coach. UVU went 11-9 in league play, also the most WAC wins by a first-year head coach in program history, and finished tied for fourth in the conference standings. The Wolverines closed the regular season by winning seven of their final eight games, including a road sweep of Tarleton State and Abilene Christian. Phillips also guided UVU to a runner-up finish at the 2023 Jacksonville Classic and a 4-2 record against in-state foes, with wins over Weber State, Utah Tech, and two over Southern Utah. Osiris Grady earned All-WAC Freshman Team honors under Phillips' mentorship.

Prior to becoming head coach, Phillips served four seasons under Mark Madsen, including two as associate head coach. During that time, he helped lead UVU to two WAC regular season titles (2020-21, 2022-23) and a 70-51 record over four seasons. The 2022-23 squad posted a school-record 28 wins, went 15-3 in WAC play, and reached the NIT semifinals after wins over New Mexico, Colorado, and Cincinnati. UVU finished that season ranked No. 10 in the Colleg Insider.com Mid-Major poll and posted its highest-ever end-of-season NET (58) and KenPom (64) rankings.

Phillips has coached some of the most decorated players in UVU history, including Aziz Bandaogo and Fardaws Aimaq—both WAC Defensive Players of the Year and All-District honorees. Aimaq was also the second player in program history to be named WAC Player of the Year and was the national leader in rebounding in 2020-21.

Before joining UVU, Phillips was the head coach at Salt Lake Community College (2011-19), where he compiled a 205-58 record and led SLCC to the 2016 NJCAA National Championship. He was named the NJCAA National Coach of the Year and mentored NJCAA Tournament MVP Conner Toolson. His SLCC tenure also included four NJCAA Tournament appearances, four Region 18 Tournament titles, and three SWAC Coach of the Year honors.

Phillips began his coaching career with eight seasons as an assistant at Westminster College, helping guide the Griffins to eight 20-win seasons and six NAIA Tournament berths. As a player, Phillips competed at Snow College before finishing his career at Lewis-Clark State.

He and his wife, Bobbi, are both originally from Boise, Idaho, and have two children: daughter Kinzi and son Zach.

Quoting Phillips...

ON THE WAC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

"I thought we played a really good game. Our coaches had a great game plan and our guys executed it. In the end they just made one more play than we did. Dominick Daniels hit a couple big shots late and you have to give them credit."

ON TREVAN LEONHARDT'S PERFORMANCE DEFENDING DOMINICK DANIELS JR.

"Trev did a great job. That's hard when you've got two point guards playing that many minutes and battling like that. Trev does what Trev does – he gets 10 rebounds, eight assists and competes on every possession. He probably couldn't breathe because he was working so hard trying to keep Dom in front. He's just a warrior."

ON THE TEAM'S EFFORT IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

"I'm really proud of our guys. They battled the whole night and put themselves in position to win the game. Sometimes it comes down to a couple plays at the end and tonight they made those plays."

ON THE ATMOSPHERE AT ORLEANS ARENA

"It was a great crowd. Our fans have been unbelievable all year and they came down here to Vegas and supported us again. They got to witness a heck of a basketball game tonight."

ON THE TEAM MOVING FORWARD AFTER THE TOURNAMENT

"I can't say enough about our guys and how they competed. This group has done a lot this season and there's a lot to be proud of with what they've accomplished."

The Wolverine Sports Network (960 AM/103.9 FM in Utah Country and on 98.3 FM and 105.1 FM HD2) will also be the broadcast home of UVU's games this season. Jim McCulloch returns for his 16th season to handle the play-by-play duties for UVU basketball.

WAC UTAH VALLEY STRENGTHENS WAC LEGACY WITH FIFTH REGULAR SEASON TITLE

Utah Valley secured its fifth WAC regular season championship since joining the league in 2013-14, adding the 2025-26 title to its previous championships in 2013-14, 2020-21, 2022-23, and 2024-25. The Wolverines won the title with an impressive 14-4 record in WAC play. With five WAC regular season titles, Utah Valley now stands alone as the most decorated current WAC member in the league's regular season history. Of the current wac members (Utah Valley, California Baptist, Tarleton State, Abilene Christian, UT Arlington, Utah Tech, Southern Utah), Utah Valley is the only one to win a regular season title. UVU's five championships place them among the most successful programs in WAC history, trailing only legacy programs such as Utah (12), BYU (11), UTEP (8), New Mexico State (7), and Nevada (6). UVU ties New Mexico and Wyoming with five wac regular season championships. Since joining the WAC in 2013-14, Utah Valley has been a perennial contender, finishing in the top three of the WAC standings six times, including four first-place finishes, one second-place finish, and one third-place finish.

LEONHARDT, HOLCOMBE SET NEW SINGLE-SEASON RECORDS

Utah Valley has seen two program single-season records fall during the 2025-26 campaign. Redshirt junior guard Trevan Leonhardt broke his own school record for assists in a season with 199, surpassing the previous mark of 178 that he set during the 2024-25 season. Leonhardt leads the WAC in both total assists and assists per game (6.0) while continuing to serve as the Wolverines' floor general.

Redshirt sophomore guard Jackson Holcombe has also rewritten the program record book, setting a new Utah Valley single-season record with 73 steals. Holcombe surpassed the previous record of 57 steals set by Ronnie Price during the 2003-04 season. Leonhardt ranks second on the single-season steals list with 70 this year, trailing Holcombe by just three steals. Holcombe leads the WAC in both total steals and steals per game (2.2) while anchoring Utah Valley defensively.

BACK-TO-BACK OUTRIGHT WAC CHAMPIONS

Utah Valley clinched its second straight outright Western Athletic Conference regular-season championship with a 104-101 double-overtime road win at Utah Tech on March 7 in St. George. The victory secured the title outright for the Wolverines and marked the first time in program history that Utah Valley has won back-to-back WAC regular-season championships. Under head coach Todd Phillips, UVU has continued its rise among the league's top programs, capturing consecutive conference titles.

ABOUT UVU ATHLETICS' NCAA HISTORY

Until 2003, Utah Valley University competed as a NJCAA athletic program. The 2003-04 season was the school's first competing at an NCAA Division I level. In 2004-05, UVU played its first full Division I schedule. As a program transitioning from junior college to DI, UVU was termed "provisional" and remained that way until 2009. UVU'S provisional status was lifted and the program became a full member of NCAA Division I on July 8, 2009. Until then, UVU teams and individuals were not eligible to compete in NCAA championship events.

The Wolverines spent six seasons as an independent before the Great West Conference became an all-sports league in 2008 and began its first full season in 2009. UVU also became a university in 2008, changing its name from Utah Valley State College (UVSC) to Utah Valley University (UVU). UVU joined the Western Athletic Conference on July 1, 2013. Joining the WAC gave UVU teams the opportunity to play for NCAA automatic bids for the first time in program history.

15 Stories. 1 Team.

WHAT IS 15 STORIES 1 TEAM?

15 Stories. 1 Team. is Utah Valley's season-long storytelling series that looks beyond the box score to highlight the journeys, challenges and identities of every player in the program. Each week features a new Wolverine and the path that brought him to Orem, walk-ons who earned their place, transfers seeking a fresh start, veterans anchoring the locker room and hometown players living out a dream. Together, these fifteen stories reveal the heartbeat of a program built on connection, resilience and belief, showing how fifteen individual journeys come together to form one family, one purpose and one team.
