Burns Arena

The Burns Arena has served as the home venue of Utah Tech University Athletics for 38 years.

It is the primary facility for Utah Tech men's and women's basketball as well as volleyball. The site also hosts various concerts and community events throughout the year.

Burns Arena was constructed in 1985 and saw its first games played in 1986.

The design came from the architectural firm of Ferguson, Fowler, Kingston and Rubin; the crew from Weyer Construction erected the building.

The arena is named for M. Anthony Burns, born in Mesquite, Nev., prior Utah Tech College student, and the former president/CEO of Ryder Systems.

The arena contains 4,779 permanent seats in 14 seating sections.

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

After completing its 62nd year of intercollegiate competition, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best programs. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets and largest metropolitan cities. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

CONTINUED SUCCESS

The WAC has experienced tremendous success over the years. In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 28 of the past 45 seasons. In baseball, the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003. In women's basketball, the conference has had at least two teams qualify for the NCAA Tournament 10 times in 28 seasons, with a record five teams in 1998. The WAC also sent teams to three BCS football bowl games from 2007-10.

In 2014, the conference launched the WAC Digital Network giving fans access to watch hundreds of games live on the internet. The WDN streams live events including soccer, volleyball, basketball, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, softball and baseball. In addition, the WDN produces championship events from soccer, volleyball, basketball, softball, indoor and outdoor track and field and baseball, including those airing on ESPN+. The WDN also produces the franchise features, "#WACtopPlay," "WAC60," "WAC in the Day," "WAC All-Access," "The Road to #WACvegas," and "The WAC Podcast." The Learn-Compete-Inspire series is also featured on the WDN, telling stories of triumph and inspiration from around the conference.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE

The WAC's history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series trophy. Fresno State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962, several changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967, while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name.

Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. In 2005, Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice, SMU, UTEP and Tulsa withdrew. Boise State withdrew prior to the 2011-12 season.

In 2012, the WAC added Denver, Seattle U, UT Arlington, UTSA and Texas State. In 2013, the WAC added CSU Bakersfield, Chicago State, Grand Canyon, Kansas City, Texas-Pan American and Utah Valley to join Idaho, New Mexico State and Seattle U. The new institutions replaced withdrawing members, Denver, Louisiana Tech, San Jose State, Utah State, UT Arlington, UTSA and Texas State. Idaho withdrew from the conference prior to the 2014-15 season. In 2015, Texas-Pan American merged with UT Brownsville to form The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley.

California Baptist University became the ninth member of the conference on July 1, 2018. In January of 2019 Utah Tech University accepted an invitation to join the conference effective July 1, 2020, replacing exiting member CSU Bakersfield. In November of 2019 Tarleton State University accepted an invitation for membership in the conference effective July 1, 2020, replacing exiting member Kansas City.

The WAC has had just seven commissioners in its history. Paul Brechler was named the first leader of the conference and held the position from 1962-1968. He was followed by Wiles Hallock (1968-71), Stan Bates (1971-80), Dr. Joe Kearney (1980-94), Karl Benson (1994-2012), Jeff Hurd (2012-21), Brian Thornton (2021-24) & Rebekah Ray (2025-present).

WAC CHAMPIONS

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – nine men's and 10 women's.

For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field.

Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

JON JUDKINS

HEAD COACH

Six-time Pacific West Conference Coach of the Year Jon Judkins is in his 21st season on the Utah Tech bench in 2025-26 where where he has compiled a 338-229 overall record that includes a 318-217 mark during the program's NCAA era.

Coach Judkins (621 career wins; .636 W%) became the first men's coach in Utah collegiate basketball history to reach the 500-win plateau when his Trailblazers defeated Hawai'i Hilo (81-72) back on January 28, 2017. He then reached the pinnacle when he became the all-time winningest college coach in Utah history with career win No. 583 in UT's 114-49 triumph over SAGU-American Indian College (12/15/21).

Coming off an 11-win campaign in the 2023-24 season, the Trailblazers finished ninth in the WAC with a 7-13 mark. Utah Tech posted a 6-7 mark at home earning wins over Utah Valley, FIU, Stephen F. Austin, UTRGV, Southern Utah and California Baptist.

With four Trailblazers averaging double figures, freshman Eric Demings was named to the WAC All-Freshman Team after averaging 7.8 points, 2.1 rebounds and 2.2 assists. Demings scored in double figures in 10 games, including a pair of 19-point efforts vs. Florida International (12/30) and at UT Arlington (2/24). Demings dished out four or more assists four times, highlighted by a season-high seven dimes on the road at CSUN (12/11).

In 2022-23, Judkins' Trailblazer squad finished 14-19, but ended the year on a high note, recording the program's first-ever NCAA Division I postseason victory with an 80-76 overtime victory over sixth-seeded Stephen F. Austin in the first round of the Western Athletic Conference Men's Basketball Tournament. The 2022-23 campaign also included a six-game winning streak that featured victories over the likes of Weber State and UTRGV, while senior point guard Cameron Gooden earned Second Team All-WAC honors after averaging 16.1 points per game during the regular season and scoring a career-high 35 against Southern Utah on March 9.

In the 2019-20 season, Judkins led the Trailblazers to a school-record tying 23 victories (23-7) and to the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference regular season title (17-5). The 23 victories, which tied the record previous set in the 2017-18 campaign. That record included a 10-game season opening winning streak (and 23-game regular season win streak dating back to the 2018-19 campaign), and a program-best No. 6 ranking in the NABC national poll (No. 5 in the D2SIDA media) during the streak.

Judkins would go on to guide Utah Tech to its ninth and final NCAA Division II Tournament appearance, and the No. 3-overall seed in the 2020 South Central regional, but the tournament was eventually canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. UT wrapped up its 14-year NCAA Division II affiliation with a 266-122 (.685) overall record. The previous season in 2018-19, Judkins led UT to an 18-9 overall record, including a 16-6 mark (t-2nd place) in the program's RMAC debut season.

In 2017-18 he led the Trailblazers to a school-record 23 victories (23-7), which included a school-record 17-game winning streak, along both the 2018 Pacific West Conference regular season championship and second PacWest tournament crown, to become the first head coach in that conference's history to sweep both titles twice in the same season. Judkins also guided Utah Tech to its eighth NCAA Tournament appearance.

In 2016-17, Judkins led Utah Tech to a 19-9 overall record, which included a 16-4 (3rd place) mark in Pacific West Conference play, and his 500th-coaching victory in a home win over Hawai'i Hilo on January 28, 2017. In 2015-16, Judkins guided UT to an 18-9 overall record and a 15-5 PacWest mark, which was good for a t-first place finish in the league standings.

Overall, Judkins has led the Trailblazers to 12-straight winning seasons with seven 20-win campaigns, which includes 22 victories in the 2010-11 and 2012-13 seasons. He has also guided them to six Pacific West Conference championships overall, including four-straight titles from 2009-13 and another crown in 2014-15, along with a PacWest Tournament title in 2013. In addition, Judkins has led Utah Tech to nine trips to the NCAA Tournament in the last 11 seasons overall from 2010-17, advancing all the way to the "Sweet 16" in the 2011 West Regional final.

In 18 years of NCAA play, Judkins has made the Burns Arena one of the most difficult home court advantages in the NCAA ranks. During his tenure, Judkins-coached teams are 165-54 (.753) overall inside the Burns Arena, which included a dominant 87-12 (.878) mark in PacWest play, and a 19-3 (.863) record in RMAC action.

Under Judkins direction, Utah Tech has posted nine 10-win seasons at home overall, including a pair of 12-win campaigns this season (12-2) and a perfect 12-0 record in 2009-10. Additionally, Utah Tech is 137-111 (.552) away from home during the Judkins-era (11-5 in 2019-20), which includes a 109-89 mark (.550) in true road games and 28-22 (.560) in neutral-site contests.

Prior to his arrival at Utah Tech, Judkins served as head coach at Snow College for 12 full seasons and part of another season (1992-93), and posted a 284-128 overall record. He led the Badgers to a pair of Scenic West Athletic Conference titles in 1999 and 2000, which earned him SWAC Coach of the Year honors. Prior to becoming head coach at Snow, Judkins was an assistant coach at Snow from 1988-1993, and served as interim head coach for the final 11 games of the 1992-93 season. In 2014, Judkins was inducted into the Snow College Athletic Hall of Fame.

Judkins played for one season at then-Dixie State (junior college) in the 1983-84 season before transferring to Utah State, where he is one of two players in program history to record a triple-double. During the 1987-88 season, he helped lead the Aggies to the PCAA title and an NCAA Tournament bid.

Originally from Salt Lake City, Judkins graduated from Utah State with a Bachelor's degree in Physical Education in 1988. He and his wife, Lanette, are the parents of four children - Jaelle, Janessa, and twins Justin and Jillian; and the grandparents of one grandson (Jett), and one granddaughter (Millie).

JAKE SCHROEDER

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Jake Schroeder enters his seventh year of his second stint as an assistant coach for the Utah Tech men's basketball team in the 2025-26 season.

Making his return to the Trailblazers' in their final season of Division II play in 2019-20, the Trailblazers went 23-7 overall and tied for the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference regular season title posting a 17-5 mark and advanced to the 2020 NCAA Division II Tournament, which was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

In Utah Tech's five seasons in Division I, the Trailblazers have combined for 53 total wins, including 24 WAC victories, with 17 coming at home in Burns Arena.

The Trailblazers have combined to earn six postseason All-WAC honors with Hunter Schofield (2021, 2022) and Cameron Gooden (2021, 2023) notching a pair of honors along with a pair of WAC All-Freshman selections in Aric Demmings (2024) and Madiba Owona (2025).

Coach Schroeder rejoined the Trailblazer program in 2019 after a six-year run as head boy's basketball coach at Bingham (UT) High School, during which he led the Miners to five state playoff appearances and back-to-back Utah 5A state titles in 2016 and 2017. Schroeder posted a 102-46 (.689) overall record at BHS, which included a 24-2 record in 2015-16 and 24-3 mark in 2016-17.

Schroeder served as an assistant coach with on Head Coach Jon Judkins' staff at then-Dixie State for seven seasons from 2006-13 and helped lead the program to four-straight Pacific West Conference titles and four-consecutive NCAA Division II tournament berths, including a "Sweet 16" appearance in the 2010-11 campaign.

As a player, Schroeder earned first team All-Big Sky Conference honors at Portland State in 2005-06, and helped lead the Vikings to a Big Sky regular season crown in 2004-05.

Schroeder graduated from Portland State in 2006 with a Bachelor's degree in Health. He and his wife, Prissy, are the parents of three sons.

ANTHONY MORRIS

ASSISTANT COACH

Anthony Morris is in his fifth season as an assistant coach at his alma mater in the 2025-26 season.

In Utah Tech's five seasons in Division I, the Trailblazers have combined for 53 total wins, including 24 WAC victories, with 17 coming at home in Burns Arena.

The Trailblazers have combined to earn four postseason All-WAC honors with Hunter Schofield (2022) and Cameron Gooden (2023) notching a pair of honors along with a pair of WAC All-Freshman selections in Aric Demmings (2024) and Madiba Owona (2025).

Prior to his arrival back to St. George, Morris spent the 2020-21 season as an assistant coach at Eastern New Mexico, but that season was canceled due to state COVID-19 protocols.

Morris began his coaching career at Central Baptist College in Conway, Ark., where he served as head coach of the JV program and helped guided the Mustangs' varsity squad to a 22-11 record during the 2018-19 season, which included a 9-0 start and a top-20 NAIA ranking, and the program's first AMC Tournament championship and second-ever NAIA national tournament appearance.

Following his time at CBC, Morris joined the staff at PAC-12 member Washington for the 2019-20 season, where he was a graduate assistant and helped coach the players, and assisted in scouting and game day preparations. Morris helped in the rapid progression of Isaiah Stewart and Jaden McDaniels, who both would go on to become first-round selections in the 2020 NBA Draft. Stewart (Detroit Pistons) was selected No. 16 overall after his freshman season, while McDaniels (Los Angeles Lakers) was the 28th-overall pick after his freshman campaign.

Morris played one season at then-Dixie State and was a member of the 2014-15 NCAA West Regional team that went 20-8 and won the Pacific West Conference championship. He played in 25 games for the Trailblazers and was an Academic All-PacWest selection.

Morris graduated with his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration at Utah Tech in 2016, and went on to earn a Master's degree in Education from Washington. He and his wife, Kaitlan, are the parents of three daughters – Ashton, Hallie and Kobie.

ELLIOTT DE WIT

ASSISTANT COACH

Elliott De Wit is in his second season as an assistant coach on the Utah Tech men's basketball coaching staff in 2025-26.

Helping the Trailblazers earn seven wins in his debut season, guard Madiba Owona earned WAC All-Freshman Team honors after appearing in 18 games for the Trailblazers, making eight starts, and finished fifth on the team averaging 8.0 points per game.

The Trailblazers won a pair of home WAC contests over UT Arlington and Tarleton State to open conference play and defeated No. 8 seed Southern Utah, 72-65 in the opening round of the WAC Tournament before falling to WAC regular season champion Utah Valley in the quarterfinals in Las Vegas.

De Wit arrived at Utah Tech after a season at Ole Miss in 2023-24 as the Director of Video Operations helping head coach Chris Beard and the coaching staff with all video aspects, including scouting reports, game plans and player development.

Prior to his time in Oxford, De Wit spent three years in the NBA with the Detroit Pistons working in the video room and as a Player Development coach under head coach Dwane Casey from 2020-2023.

In addition to his work in both college and professional basketball, De Wit is the associate head coach for the Swiss National Team and brings over 10 years of basketball experiences at the highest levels.

Prior to his time in the NBA, De Wit served as a video coordinator graduate assistant under Beard at Texas Tech for three seasons from 2017 to 2020.

He coordinated all video operations for the Red Raiders, and helped the Red Raiders earn three straight NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time in school history, including the program's first Final Four campaign that culminated in an overtime battle against Virginia in the 2019 National Championship game.

He began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Frank Phillips College (Texas) from 2015 to 2017, and served as a volunteer at the University of California.

In France, De Wit was the head coach of Entente le Chesnay Versailles (2013-15), Poissy Basket Association (2012-13) and was an assistant for Paris Levallois (2010-12). He graduated high school from CFA Omnisport Paris in France and played at the regional and national level in France.

De Wit has worked closely with some of the best French and international prospects, including Victor Wembanyama, the No. 1 pick in the 2023 NBA Draft, Jonathan Kuminga, the No. 7 pick in the 2021 NBA Draft, Theo Maledon, the No. 34 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft, and Sekou Doumbouya, the No. 15 pick in the 2019 NBA Draft.

De Wit earned his Master's Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies in Sport Psychology from Texas Tech in 2019, after receiving a Bachelor Degree in General Studies from Texas Tech in 2018.

BROCK STAHELI

ASSISTANT COACH

Brock Staheli is in his fifth season on the Utah Tech men's basketball coaching staff in 2025-26.

After spending nearly two seasons as a player with the Trailblazer program and two years as a student assistant coach, Brock Staheli is in his third season on staff entering his second season as an assistant coach and has also worked as the director of operations.

Helping the Trailblazers earn seven wins in his debut season, guard Madiba Owona earned WAC All-Freshman Team honors after appearing in 18 games for the Trailblazers, making eight starts, and finished fifth on the team averaging 8.0 points per game.

The Trailblazers won a pair of home WAC contests over UT Arlington and Tarleton State to open conference play and defeated No. 8 seed Southern Utah, 72-65 in the opening round of the WAC Tournament before falling to WAC regular season champion Utah Valley in the quarterfinals in Las Vegas.

Staheli played in four career games, all victories, at Utah Tech in the 2019-20 season and recorded two career assists and one steal.

A St. George native, he was a three-sport athlete at Snow Canyon High School, where he lettered in basketball, football and baseball. He helped lead the Warriors to a region crown in 2014 and was an academic all-state selection in all three sports.

Brock earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from then-Dixie State in 2021, and finished his master's degree in 2023.

He and his wife Sidney, who played volleyball and basketball collegiately at USU-Eastern, reside in St. George and have a son named Bo.

SHANE B. SMEED

UTAH TECH PRESIDENT

Shane B. Smeed is a thought leader, community partner and university president with over 25 years of experience in higher education. A native of Utah, he has championed transformative initiatives that significantly enhance student success and institutional excellence. Throughout his career, Smeed has emphasized core values such as integrity, citizenship, civility, and respect, which guide his leadership approach and decision-making.

Smeed began his tenure as president of Utah Tech University on May 1, 2025. Since joining the institution, he has committed to engaging deeply with students, faculty, staff, and community leaders. He is preparing to launch a comprehensive institutional strategic planning process that will shape the university's future, while also emphasizing the importance of celebrating the rich history and heritage of Southern Utah. He is focused on strengthening connections between the university and the region's growing economy and workforce needs.

Recognizing the importance of transparent communication and collaboration, Smeed emphasizes clear, consistent engagement with students, faculty, staff, and other stakeholders to build trust and foster a strong campus community. He has also developed and led institution-wide strategic planning efforts that align academic and operational goals with long-term institutional priorities.

Smeed's leadership has also been marked by the launch of a major comprehensive campaign to secure resources supporting academic programs, student services, athletics, and campus development. Additionally, he has championed initiatives focused on student success and retention, leading efforts to create a more connected and responsive student experience.

Smeed holds a Master of Arts in Student Personnel Administration from Saint Louis University and an MBA from Keller Graduate School of Management. He and his wife, Angela, are the proud parents of three children: Samantha, Andrew and Landon (16).

Together, they are deeply committed to their community, embracing a spirit of leadership and service.
