DAN HURLEY

Eighth season as the Head Coach at Connecticut

A proven program-builder and one of the great winners in modern college basketball, Dan Hurley was named the 19th head coach in UConn men's basketball history prior on March 22, 2018. During his first seven years in Storrs he has revitalized the program and cemented its blue blood status with the first back-to-back titles in Husky history, climbing the mountaintop in both 2023 and 2024.

The face of college basketball, Hurley has captivated the nation during UConn's historic run with his colorful personality and fiery competitiveness. Hurley led the Huskies to a modern era NCAA Tournament-record 13-straight wins from 2023-25 and won all 12 games during the back-to-back title runs by double-figures – an NCAA record.

Basketball was always Hurley's destiny, born into basketball royalty on Jan. 16, 1973 in Jersey City, N.J. His father, Bob Hurley Sr., is a Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame member and the architect of one of the great high school dynasties of all-time at St. Anthony's in Jersey City. Hurley played at St. Anthony's along with his older brother Bobby – a two-time national champion at Duke widely considered the greatest point guard in NCAA history.

Hurley has been a collegiate head coach since 2010 and holds a record of 316-174 (.645) in his 15 seasons at the helm of Wagner (2010-12), Rhode Island (2012-18) and Connecticut (2018-pres.). At his three stops he has improved each program's win total by an average of seven games between year one and year two – taking out first seasons at each program, his record sits at 279-119 and his winning percentage at .701.

In seven seasons at Connecticut, Hurley has compiled a 165-69 record (.705) including a 69-27 (.719) mark in BIG EAST play. He steadily improved the team's winning percentage in each of his first five seasons until the Huskies won a program-record 37 games and went 37-3 in his sixth season in 2023-24. Hurley has led the last Huskies to the last five NCAA Tournaments, tying a program record. In 2025 UConn won its 13th-straight NCAA Tournament game to equal Duke's 1991-93 streak for the longest in modern tournament history.

At UConn, Hurley has mentored a total of nine NBA players (pre-2025 Draft), including four lottery picks. Over seven seasons in Storrs he has developed two All-Americans, eight First Team All-Conference picks, two Freshman of the Year winners and a Bob Cousy Award winner.

The Huskies won the 2024 BIG EAST Regular Season and Tournament titles, earning Hurley 2024 BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors. Hurley was the second-fastest coach in BIG EAST history to 50 wins, coming in his 70th conference game and trailing only John Thompson, Jr. (67 games). He was also the second coach to ever recorded 10 league wins in each of his first five seasons coaching the conference, joining Jamie Dixon.

Hurley was named the 2024 Naismith College Coach of the Year – the first men's coach to win the honor in UConn history. His father previously won the Naismith High School Coach of the Year, making them the first father-son duo to earn Naismith Coach of the Year laurels. He is a two-time NABC District Coach of the Year and won the 2018 Atlantic-10 Coach of the Year.

Known for innovative offense, physical and hard-nosed defense and a relentless effort level Hurley's teams are consistently among the national leaders on both ends of the floor. His defensive units have cracked the top-75 in Kenpom in 13 of his 15 seasons and have been top-30 five times, peaking at Nos. 4 and 7 in the 2024 and 2023 title years, respectively. Offensively he has not produced a unit outside of the top-85 since 2017 and has posted three-straight seasons with a top-15 offense, including the No. 1 offense in the country in 2024.

The 2024-25 Huskies returned only one starter from the '24 title team but peaked at No. 2 in the early season polls, before a now-infamous run at Maui. UConn bounced back and picked up marquee early-season wins over top-15 foes in Baylor and Gonzaga to position themselves well heading into BIG EAST play.

Connecticut finished third in the BIG EAST after going 14-6 in conference action, including its first ever win at Creighton, and earned its fifth-straight bid to the Big Dance as an eight-seed. A first-round win over nine-seed Oklahoma set the 13-game win streak record, and the Huskies pushed eventual national champion and top seed Florida to the brink in a 77-75 heartbreaker. Alex Karaban and Solo Ball were both feted as All-BIG EAST Second Team picks follow the season, while Liam McNeeley was named 2025 BIG EAST Freshman of the Year and Tarris Reed Jr. earned the league's Sixth Man Award.

The 2023-24 Huskies were one of the best teams in the history of college basketball. UConn won a program-record 37 games, a BIG EAST-record 18 conference games and championships at the Empire Classic, BIG EAST Tournament, NCAA East Regional and NCAA Final Four. The Huskies finished a staggering 37-3 with winning streaks of 14 games (Dec. 23-Feb. 17) and 13 games (Feb. 24-end of season).

The Huskies went 18-2 in the BIG EAST to win the regular season championship by a full four games and ran through the BIG EAST Tournament as its one seed, tipping Marquette in the final in a rematch of a 2023 Semifinal. The regular season title was UConn's first outright since 1999 and the tournament was its first since 2011. A slew of Huskies earned All-League honors following the historic; Tristen Newton and Cam Spencer were First Team picks, Donovan Clingan earned an Honorable Mention nod, Stephon Castle was the unanimous Freshman of the Year and Hassan Diarra earned the Sixth Man Award.

UConn earned the No. 1 overall seed for the first time in program history and left no doubt in its run to the Final Four in Phoenix, winning its first four games of March by an average of 27.8 points per game. In the East Regional final against Illinois, UConn took a 23-23 game late in the first half and flipped on its head with an iconic 30-0 run in the eventual 77-752 victory.

In the Final Four at Statefarm Stadium, UConn took down Alabama and its high-powered offense before meeting Purdue in a clash of the top-two seeds in the field. UConn took control early in the second half and grinding the Boilermakers down, cruising to a 75-60 victory. It was Connecticut's 12th-straight win in the NCAA Tournament by double-figures, a March Madness record.

Following the success of the '23-24 season, Hurley was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year and the 2024 Naismith College Coach of the Year. He joined Bob Sr., the 2008 Naismith High School Coach of the Year, as the only father-son duo to each win a Naismith Coach of the Year. He guided Tristen Newton to a consensus First Team All-America selection and the Bob Cousy Award as the nation's top point guard. Following the season UConn saw Stephon Castle go No. 4 overall in the NBA Draft, Donovan Clingan go No. 7 and Newton and Cam Spencer both selected in the second round. It was the second time in program history the Huskies had four players selected in the same draft, joining 2006.

In 2022-23, UConn raced out to a 14-0 start to set the stage for Hurley's first title trip. In addition to marquee non-conference wins over Oklahoma State and at Florida the Huskies swept a run at the Phil Knight Invitational, notching signature wins over Oregon, Alabama and Iowa State. The Huskies ascended to No. 2 in the national polls before their first setback in early January.

After a tumultuous January that included a 2-6 stretch, the Huskies began to regain their form with a top-10 win over Marquette on Feb. 7. Connecticut closed the regular season with five-straight wins and advanced to the BIG EAST Tournament semifinals, where it dropped a two-point decision to the eventual champion Marquette. Adama Sanogo and Jordan Hawkins both earned First Team All-BIG EAST honors following the campaign.

UConn was slotted as the No. 5 seed in the West Region and drew Iona in the first round. Despite trailing at half, the Huskies exploded late for an 87-63 and then topped Saint Mary's to advance to the West Regional in Las Vegas. The Sin City was kind to the Huskies, as they roared past Arkansas 88-65 in Sweet 16 before blowing Gonzaga away, 82-54, in the Regional Final to advance to the Final Four in Houston. Hawkins was named Most Outstanding Player of the West Regional.

It was at NRG Stadium where Hurley first ascended to the mountaintop of the sport, defeating Miami, 72-59, in the National Semifinals before topping San Diego State by a score of 76-59 to claim Connecticut's fifth national title. Adama Sanogo was named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player after averaging a double-double in the big dance.

The 2021-22 season was marked by huge moments and UConn's second-straight NCAA Tournament bid. In a loaded field at the Battle 4 Atlantis, the Huskies won the game of the tournament with a 115-109 double overtime win over a top-20 foe in Auburn. UConn went on to go 13-6 in the BIG EAST that included season sweeps of Marquette and St. John's. The most infamous moment of the season came in a top-10 win over Villanova at the XL Center – one Hurley was ejected from in the first half. Both R.J. Cole and Adama Sanogo earned First Team All-BIG EAST honors.

Connecticut advanced to its second-straight BIG EAST Semifinal before succumbing to the Wildcats – a squad that would go on to win the tournament and reach the Final Four. The Huskies earned a five-seed in the NCAA Tournament but bowed out to New Mexico State in a first round upset.

UConn began its streak of five-straight tournament bids in the pandemic-shortened 2020-21 season. The Huskies went 15-8 in the stop-and-start schedule and finished 11-6 in their first season back in the BIG EAST. James Bouknight was an All-BIG EAST First Team before going on to be an NBA lottery pick. The Huskies earned a No. 7 in the 'bubble' NCAA Tournament and fell to Maryland in the first round. It was Hurley's first tournament bid at Connecticut and his third as a collegiate head coach.

In 2019-20, the Huskies posted the program's first winning season (19-12), the most overall victories, and the most conference wins in four years and, when the season was abruptly stopped by the pandemic, UConn was on a five-game winning streak to close the regular season and had major momentum heading into the American Athletic Conference Championship.

Hurley came to UConn following six years at Rhode Island, where he took a program that went 7-23 in the season before he arrived to a combined 51-18 mark and two NCAA Tournament appearances in his final two years, URI's first NCAA appearances in 18 years. In each year, Hurley guided the Rams to a first-round NCAA tourney victory.

In 2017-18, Hurley's URI team posted a 26-8 record, the most wins by a Rams team in eight years, which included a 16-game winning streak, the second-longest in school history. Rhode Island swept the Atlantic 10 regular-season title with a 15-3 mark, and spent seven weeks ranked in the national polls, rising as high as No. 14 in the USA Today Coaches poll. Earning a No. 7 seed in the NCAA Tournament, URI defeated Oklahoma in the first round before bowing to second-seeded Duke. Hurley was named Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, earned his second USBWA District I Coach of the Year Award and sent two of his players to NBA teams, Jared Terrell to the Timberwolves and E.C. Matthews to the Grizzlies.

The previous season, Hurley took Rhode Island to a 25-10 record, earning an automatic NCAA tourney bid by capturing the Atlantic 10 Championship. The 11th-seeded Rams upset sixth-seeded Creighton in the NCAA first round before suffering a three-point loss to No. 3 seed Oregon.

Despite a rash of injuries that decimated his 2015-16 team, Hurley still managed to post a winning 17-15 record and place his team among the national leaders in scoring defense, allowing just 64.8 points per game. That followed a banner 23-10 season in 2014-15, during which URI led the nation in three-point percentage defense (.265) and ranked ninth in overall defensive efficiency. That team put Rhody back in the national picture, earning an NIT berth and reaching the second round before losing to eventual NIT champion Stanford, bringing Hurley his first USBWA District I Coach of the Year Award.

In his six seasons in Rhode Island, Hurley's teams were a combined 113-82 (.579), but an even more impressive 91-43 (.679) with two NCAA appearances and an NIT berth during his last four years.

Before his tenure in Kingston, Hurley spent two years at his first Division I head coaching job at Wagner College in the Northeast Conference. Taking over a program that had just five wins in 2009-10, Hurley immediately upped the win total to 13 in his first season of 2010-11 and nearly doubled that total to a 25-6 mark in 2011-12. His overall record in the Northeast Conference was 24-12.

Wagner was not Hurley's first college basketball coaching experience. After graduating from Seton Hall in 1996 and spending a season as an assistant coach under his father at St. Anthony, he was hired as an assistant coach at Rutgers and remained there for four years. When Rutgers decided to change coaching staffs, Hurley opted to go back to the high school level and took over the basketball program at St. Benedict's Prep in Newark, N.J., in 2001.

It was at St. Benedict's, where he also taught history, that Hurley maintains he really learned his craft, building the program into a national prep school powerhouse. In nine seasons, Hurley compiled a sterling 223-21 record, with four Top Five finishes in the national rankings. He coached four McDonald's All-Americans as well as future NBA players J.R. Smith, Tristan Thompson, and Lance Thomas.

Born on Jan. 16, 1973 and raised in in Jersey City, Hurley was an outstanding high school player at St. Anthony, leading the team to a 31-1 record and a No. 2 national ranking as a senior. At Seton Hall, he played under head coaches P.J. Carlesimo and George Blaney, amassing career totals of 1,070 points and 437 assists and helped the Pirates to three NCAA Tournament appearances and an NIT berth during his career. Following his graduation in 1996, Hurley went directly into coaching, joining his father at St. Anthony for one year before heading into the college ranks at Rutgers.

Dan and wife Andrea, who met while both were attending Seton Hall, are the parents of two sons, Danny, also a Seton Hall graduate, and Andrew, a two-time national champion member of the basketball team and graduate manager at UConn.

KIMANI YOUNG

Associate Head Coach - Eighth Season at UConn

Kimani Young joined Dan Hurley's initial staff at UConn ahead of the 2018-19 season, spent two seasons as an assistant coach and has been the Associate Head Coach of the Huskies since 2020. He completed his seventh season at Connecticut in 2024-25.

Young was on staff for the 2023 and 2024 back-to-back champions and has helped guide the Huskies to five-straight NCAA Tournaments – tying a program record. Both title teams featured First Team All-Conference guards recruited and mentored by Young and boasted top-10 defensive units under his visage. The 2023-24 squad set a program-record with 37 wins and was the dual BIG EAST champions before concluding the most dominant two-year stretch in modern NCAA history.

Young has 14 years of collegiate coaching experience, spending a season at FIU and five years at Minnesota under Richard Pitino before joining the UConn staff. His BIG EAST roots go back even further, spending the 2008-09 season as the video coordinator at St. John's. He began his coaching career as the athletic director at New Heights Youth in New York City – a non-profit sports-based youth development and education organization - from 2006-08 and 2009-12. Young also worked as the program director for the Aim High Foundation in Brooklyn, a coach for Big Apple Basketball, Inc., and as a rec assistant for Kaplan House, a facility for young men in foster homes. Young was the center director for two centers for the Police Athletic League of New York.

While at UConn Young has played a vital role in all aspects of the program, including recruiting, scouting and player development with an emphasis on the guard position. Under his tutelage the Huskies have produced All-Conference guards including James Bouknight, R.J. Cole, Tyrese Martin, Jordan Hawkins, Cam Spencer, Stephon Castle and First Team All-American, Final Four MOP and Bob Cousy Award winner Tristen Newton. During his seven years in Storrs the Huskies have produced nine NBA players, including four lottery picks.

As a spearhead of UConn's recruitment, Young has helped the Huskies land four McDonald's All Americans and reel in a total of five top-10 classes and the top class in the BIG EAST in each of the last three cycles. Out of high school he was the lead recruiter on lottery picks Bouknight, Castle and Hawkins. He led the charge on the recruitments of Final Four MOPs Adama Sanogo and Newton, and out of the portal he ran the recruitment of Newton and BIG EAST Sixth Man of the Year winners Hassan Diarra and Tarris Reed Jr.

The Huskies have compiled an overall record of 165-69 (.705) with Young on the staff and reached every NCAA Tournament since 2021. With Young in the AHC role, the Huskies record sits at 130-40 (.765). He famously took over after a Hurley ejection in a high-profile showdown with No. 8 Villanova in 2022 and led the Huskies to their first top-10 win since 2014.

During his six years at Minnesota and FIU with Richard Pitino, Young helped the Gophers and Panthers to four winning seasons, including a bid in the 2017 NCAA Tournament the 2014 NIT title. He assisted in the progression of a pair of First Team All-Conference picks and two BIG All-Freshman picks while developing a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters, particularly in the New York/New Jersey hotbed of talent.

Young starred at Forest Hills High School in his native Queens, N.Y. and was a McDonald's All-America nominee in 1992. He went on to spend a season at LIU before transferring to UTEP under legendary Hall of Fame coach Don Haskins. While in El Paso he became the program's 22nd 1,000-point scorer and graduated in 1998 with a degree in criminal justice.

Off the court he was one of the founders of Coaches for Action, a collection of BIG EAST assistant coaches across the conference with a shared mission to use the platform of athletics to educate and bring awareness to social injustices. He has been an active member in Soldiers to Sidelines, mentor and connecting veterans into the coaching ranks.

Young is the father of four children; Kamaal, Khaliq, Salimah and Khari. Khaliq is currently a junior at UConn and team manager for the Huskies.

LUKE MURRAY

Assistant Coach - Fifth Season at UConn

Luke Murray joined Dan Hurley's UConn basketball coaching staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2021-22 season. He completed his fourth season on the UConn staff in 2024-25 and his eighth season with Hurley across three programs.

Murray was on staff for the 2023 and 2024 back-to-back champions and has helped guide the Huskies to five-straight NCAA Tournaments – tying a program record. Both title teams featured First Team All-Conference post players recruited and mentored by Murray and boasted top-five offensive units, which he played a heavy role in implementing. The 2023-24 squad set a program-record with 37 wins and was the dual BIG EAST champions before concluding the most dominant two-year stretch in modern NCAA history.

UConn's offense ranked No. 22 in Murray's first season, per Kenpom, then soared to No. 3 in his second season before peaking as the nation's top offense in 2023-24. The '24-25 unit finished 15th in adjusted offensive efficiency and was the BIG EAST's most efficient attack. His frontcourt players helped the Huskies lead the nation in blocked shots in 2024-25 and rank top-10 nationally in two-point percentage defense in each of the last four seasons.

While at UConn Murray has played a vital role in all aspects of the program, including recruiting, scouting and player development with an emphasis on the post position. Under his tutelage the Huskies have developed All-Conference frontcourt players including Final Four MOP and All-American Adama Sanogo, Donovan Clingan, Alex Karaban and Liam McNeeley. During his four years in Storrs the Huskies have produced eight NBA players and three lottery picks.

In Murray's four seasons at Connecticut the Huskies boast a 115-32 (.782) record - marking the winningest four-year span in program history. He has helped the Huskies reel in three-straight top-10 classes – boasting the top class in the BIG EAST in each of the last three cycles. Out of high school he was the lead recruiter on a lottery pick in Clingan and a trio of McDonald's All-Americans in McNeeley, Braylon Mullins and Eric Reibe. Out of the portal he led the charge in recruiting First Team All-Conference selection and NBA draft pick Cam Spencer.

Murray has been in the college basketball coaching ranks since 2007, breaking in as the director of operations for Tom Moore at Quinnipiac before going on to assistant coaching roles at Post, Arizona (GA), Wagner, Towson, Rhode Island, Xavier and Louisville before UConn. He has linked up with Hurley on three occasions, joining his first staff at Wagner in 2010-11 and spending 2013-15 as an assistant to Hurley at Rhody. He would go on to spend 2015-21 alongside Chris Mack at both Xavier and Louisville before reuniting with Hurley in Storrs.

At Louisville (2018-21), Murray helped the Cardinals to the No. 1 spot in the national polls in December 2019 and landed a top-10 recruiting class, making one NCAA Tournament and compiling a record of 57-28 (.671) in his three seasons.

Prior to UofL Murray spent three seasons with Mack at Xavier (2015-18), going 81-26 (.835) and making three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances. The Musketeers were a No. 1 seed in the 2018 Big Dance and made the 2017 Elite Eight.

In Murray's three seasons at Rhode Island (2013-15) the Rams showed marked improvement, going from eight wins in his first year to a 23-win campaign in 2014-15. As an assistant at Towson for two years from 2011-13, Murray helped coach Pat Skerry and the Tigers turn around a one-win team to an 18-13 outfit, setting a NCAA record for the best one-season improvement of all time.

At Wagner under Hurley in 2010-11 he helped the Seahawks to an eight-win jump from the prior campaign. While on the Arizona Staff in 2009-10 the Wildcats had a winning record and he helped Post to a 19-9 record as an assistant on the 2008-09 staff. Quinnipiac went 15-15 with Murray handling operations for Moore in 2007-08.

Murray graduated from Fairfield University in 2007 with a degree in sociology and has been recognized by ESPN, The Athletic and 24/7 as one of the top young assistants in the sport. He and his wife Kara have four children; Luke Jr., Cash, Celine and Leila.

MIKE NARDI

Assistant Coach - First Season at UConn

Mike Nardi joined the UConn men's basketball staff as an assistant coach in April 2025.

Nardi spent the last 10 seasons on the coaching staff at his alma mater of Villanova after an eight-year professional career. He initially joined the Wildcats under Hall of Fame head coach Jay Wright ahead of the 2015-16 season as the Director of Student-Athlete Development. He then spent a year each as the Video Coordinator (2016-17) and Director of Basketball Operations (2017-18) before moving into an assistant coaching position.

When Wright retired in 2022, Nardi was retained as an assistant for three years under Kyle Neptune. He took over as the interim head coach for VU's run at the 2025 College Basketball Crown and went 2-1.

During Nardi's time on the Villanova bench the Wildcats were one of the elite programs in all of college basketball. He was a part of two national championships (2016 and 2018), three Final Fours ('16, '18 and '22), five BIG EAST regular season titles and five BIG EAST Tournament crowns. He played a role in the recruitment and/or development of future NBA standouts including Jalen Brunson, Josh Hart, Mikal Bridges, Donte DiVincenzo, SI'ISaddiq Bey, Collin Gillespie, Jeremiah Robinson-Earl and Cam Whitmore.

A native of Linden, N.J., Nardi starred at St. Patrick's in Elizabeth, N.J. and was named 2003 Newark Star Ledger Prep Player of the Year before matriculating at Villanova. While with the Wildcats he was a four-year starter and helped lead VU to the 2005 Sweet 16 and 2006 Elite Eight. He scored 1,306 points at VU and dished out 423 assists, good for 12th in program history. Following his graduation in 2007 he spent eight seasons playing overseas in Italy and the Netherlands.

TOM MOORE

General Manager - 21st Overall Season at UConn

One of the most decorated assistant coaches in the history of college basketball, Tom Moore is a four-time national champion who is completed his 20th overall season at UConn in 2024-25. He was an assistant for Jim Calhoun from 1994-07 before a successful head coaching stint, then returned to Connecticut on Dan Hurley's inaugural staff in 2018-19.

Ahead of the 2025-26 season, Moore officially transitioned into the program's General Manager, a role he held in concert with on-court duties since the outset of the NIL/Portal era.

Moore recently concluded the seventh season of his second stint as an assistant as Connecticut, 20th overall at UConn and his 38th season in coaching. He has been a part of four national championships (1999, 2004, 2023, 2024) on the UConn bench - most for any assistant coach in the modern era of the NCAA Tournament.

A 1987 graduate of Boston University, Moore immediately took to coaching and joined the staff at his hometown Worcester State as an assistant for the '87-88 season. After a season as an assistant at Assumption he returned to Worcester State as a 24-year old head coach. Moore spent five seasons at the helm of the Lancers from 1989-94 and compiled a 76-59 record.

Moore then joined the UConn staff ahead of the 1994-95 season. In his 13 seasons as an assistant to Jim Calhoun the program recorded its first two national championships while he played a role in developing the likes of Ray Allen, Khalid El-Amin, Rip Hamilton, Caron Butler, Ben Gordon, Emeka Okafor, Rudy Gay and countless other stars.

Moore moved south ahead of the 2007-08 season to take over as the head coach at Quinnipiac, where he spent the next 10 years. He compiled a 162-146 in Hamden as he led the Bobcats in their transition from the NEC to the MAAC. He was the 2010 NEC Coach of the Year and had four postseason appearances in the NIT, CBI and CIT over a six-year span during his tenure.

Following his time at QU, Moore linked up with Hurley for his final season at Rhode Island. After helping the Rams to a 26-8 record and the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament in 2017-18, he joined Hurley and returned to UConn.

In the seven seasons of his second stint, Moore helped the Huskies to the 2023 and 2024 back-to-back titles and five-straight NCAA Tournaments - tying a program record set from 2002-06 in his first stint. In addition to his on-court role he assisted heavily in UConn's roster construction and NIL operations.

A native of Millbury, Mass., Moore and wife Eileen have three daughters; Elizabeth Rose, Catherine Grace, and Caroline Mary.

PAUL WETTEMANN III

Director of Basketball Administration - Tenth overall year at UConn, third in role

Paul Wettemann III is in his 10th year with the UConn basketball program, and his third as the Director of Basketball Administration.

Wettemann handles administrative and athletics compliance policies within the athletic department and the university. He deals with critical budget preparations, team travel arrangements, and the day-to-day operations of the program. He is also involved with the organization of practices as well as other events with the team. Additionally, Wettemann serves as a liaison between other departments in athletics and the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Guilford, Conn., Wettemann has worn many hats during his time with the UConn program, working his way up from a student manager as an undergraduate, to graduate head manager, to program coordinator, to assistant director of men's basketball operations, to his current position.

Wettemann graduated from UConn in 2018 with a bachelor of science degree and earned his master's degree in Sport Management in May 2020. Prior to UConn, Wettemann graduated from Guilford High School in 2014.

Wettemann married his wife Danieka in August of 2024.

MAMADOU DIARRA

Director of Player Development - Seventh overall year at UConn, fourth in role

Mamadou Diarra is in his seventh year as a member of the UConn support staff, his fourth as the Director of Player Development. He has been in his current roll since the 2022-23 season, helping the Huskies to back-to-back titles in 2023 and 2024. Diarra also spent one season as a student assistant coach and two as a graduate assistant. As director of player development, he has close interaction with the student-athletes, initiating, developing and participating in off-court activities that teach life skills. He also assists the team's academic counselor with the scheduling and monitoring of study halls and organizes the team's community events.

Originally from Queens, N.Y., Diarra came to UConn as a consensus Top 100 recruit after graduating from Putnam (Conn.) Science Academy, leaving that school as a top five all-time career scorer, the second all-time rebounder, and second all-time shot blocker. He played 33 games for the Huskies before chronic knee conditions forced him to give up his playing career and pursue a career in coaching.

Diarra graduated from UConn in May, 2020, with a degree in Urban and Community Studies and earned his master's degree in Sport Management in 2022.

CAM TURLEY

Assistant Director of Basketball Administration - First Year at UConn

Cam Turley returned to UConn as the Assistant Director of Basketball Administration prior to the 2025-26 season. Turley will assist in all capacities of the daily operation of the men's basketball program.

A UConn graduate ('24), Turley was a three-year student manager for the Huskies from 2021-24 and was on the traveling parties for both the 2023 and 2024 national title teams. Upon graduation, he spent the 2024-25 season as a graduate assistant for men's basketball at Georgetown.

Turley originally hails from East Windsor and earned his degree in sport management.

RICH KELLY

Graduate Assistant - Third Year at UConn

Rich Kelly will begin his third season as a graduate assistant at UConn in 2025-26. The Shelton, Conn. native was a member of the support staff for the 2024 national title team.

Kelly came to Storrs after a decorated collegiate playing career from 2017-22. He started his career at Quinnipiac where he was a 2018 All-Rookie pick and a 2019 and 2020 Second Team All-MAAC pick. Kelly scored 13.6 points with 4.6 assists per game in 89 career contests for the Bobcats, including a 40-point game on Feb. 17, 2018 vs. Fairfield.

Kelly spent his final two seasons at Boston College (11.0 ppg in 2020-21) and UMass (12.5 ppg in 2021-22). For his career he averaged 13.0 points and 4.0 assists in 137 games. Prior to his college career he prepped at Montverde Academy where he played for his uncle Kevin Boyle, Fairfield Prep and Cheshire Academy. He was the New Haven Register and Hearst CT Prep Player of the Year in Connecticut, a two-time All-New England pick and won a Connecticut State championship during his high school career.

CONNOR CREECH

Graduate Assistant - First Year at UConn

Connor Creech joins the UConn support staff as a graduate assistant for the 2025-26 season. He spent the '24-25 season as a GA at Texas.

Prior to his season in Austin, Creech was a four-year member of the Northern Colorado basketball team from 2020-24. Beginning his career as a walk-on, he earned a scholarship ahead of his junior year and appeared in 53 total games. Originally from Hastings, Neb. he was an All-State selection both basketball and baseball over four years at Hastings High. Creech ended his career as Hastings' all-time leading scorer.

T.J. GIBBS

Graduate Assistant - First Year at UConn

T.J. Gibbs is in his first year as a graduate assistant at UConn for the 2025-26 season. A Scotch Plains, N.J. native, Gibbs was a four-year standout at Notre Dame from 2016-20 before a three-year professional career in Slovenia, Romania, Portugal and Germany.

Gibbs finished his career in South Bend as the 16th all-time leading scorer in Fighting Irish history, scoring 1,576 points across 136 games. After his freshman season he became a full-time starter for the Irish and logged over 35 minutes per game in each of his final three seasons. He was a career 11.6 point per game scorer and shot 37.3 percent from 3-point range, including two seasons over 40 percent.

Prior to Notre Dame Gibbs was a four-year standout at Seton Hall Prep in West Orange, N.J. He scored 1,987 points for the Pirates, a program record, and was a two-time All-State selection. Gibbs' brother Sterling spent one season at Connecticut after stops at Texas and Seton Hall, while his brother Ashton played at Pitt.
