"When a school has as strong a program
as UConn has developed,
I think the younger players and older players keep an eye on what everyone is doing.
It's definitely a family atmosphere and it's a credit to Coach Calhoun and all of his former coaches that we are all as successful as we are today."
NIT Champion and NBA Veteran Cliff Robinson.

Clifford Robinson, Caron Butler and Taliek Brown

Richard Hamilton and Ben Gordon

"People can tell you how great their team was and how great their program is, but there is nothing like we have at UConn.
I've been all around the country and many places around the world and there is nothing like this. You tell people that you played ball at UConn and their eyes open up wide.
They look at you a little different than before.
I'll never forget the people here, the players, coaches and fans. My life is better because of UConn and Coach Calhoun."
NCAA Champion and Four-Time BIG EAST Champion
Khalid El-Amin

"I wish I could tell you the secret to UConn's success because then I would tell every player coming out of high school that they need to just go there and witness it...
if not four years there,
then at least spend a weekend there, because they will never be the same."
Two-Time BIG EAST Champion,
Four-Year NBA Veteran
Donny Marshall.

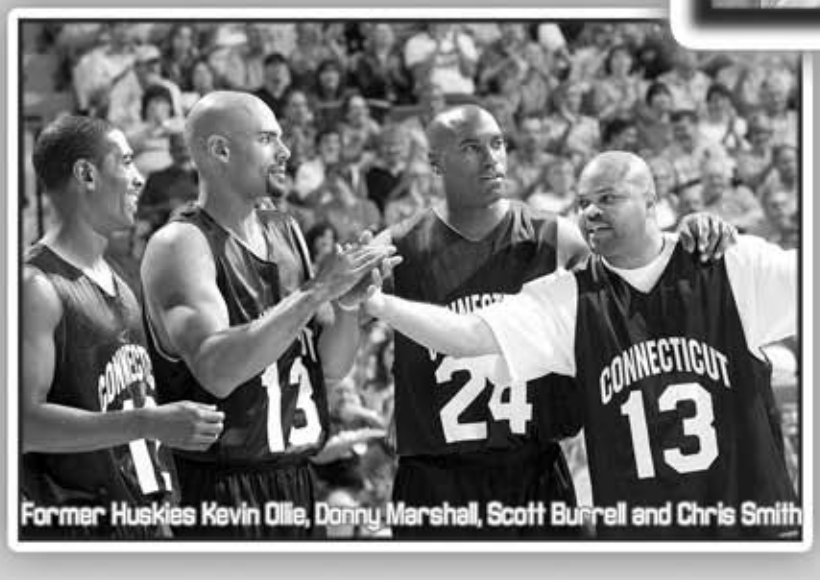

Former Huskies Richard Hamilton, Caron Butler,
Karl Hobbs, Khalid El-Amin and Ray Allen

"What made it so fun at UConn when I was playing there was the camaraderie. That togetherness was both on and off the court. Coach Calhoun has always been a great coach and he has always wanted his team to be a family."
UConn All-Time
Leading Scorer Chris Smith

Nadav Henefeld, Jim Calhoun and Doron Sheffer

Former Huskies Kevin Ollie, Donny Marshall, Scott Burrell and Chris Smith

"I feel so privileged to have been a part of the Connecticut program. Even though UConn has gone on to many great things since my time there, the 1989-90 season will always be special because of what we shared as a team. We all went through it for the first time... it was all so great. The connection that was created the year I was there will stay for many, many years. I'm really lucky to be a part of the state of Connecticut and what has gone on there."
1990 BIG EAST Rookie of the Year
Nadav Henefeld

"I think it's easily said that if we're not the best university in the whole United States, then who is? Just look at the squad we can put together. We could go against the alumni of any other program in the country and I'm pretty sure we would win."
All-American and
NBA Performer
Caron Butler

HUSKIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Both Pat and Jim Calhoun lost parents at young ages to heart disease. Through the years, they have put their empathy and concern for other families to work and have generously supported cardiology research at the UConn Health Center.

In 2003, UConn officials announced that the entire cardiology program at the Health Center, including all patient services, education and research, would be named in honor of the Calhoun's generosity and friendship.

The Pat and Jim Calhoun Cardiology Center is a vibrant, active center that provides excellent care for Connecticut men and women and fosters new learning and new initiatives in cardiology research.

Over the past ten years, 2.3 million holiday meals have been provided and nearly $1 million raised for the CT Foodbank and Foodshare thanks to the generous efforts of the Connecticut Basketball program, Jim Calhoun and his family.

In June of 2009, The Big Y Jim Calhoun Cancer Challenge Ride celebrated its third year as an annual statewide event to benefit The Carole and Ray Neag Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Connecticut Health Center and Coaches vs. Cancer, a program established in 1993 by the American Cancer Society. The ride has raised $770,000 in the fight against cancer in three years.

HUSKIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Many former UConn student-athletes are among the most active NBA participants in community acvtivites. Among the former Husky standouts pictured below are Charlie Villanueva, Caron Butler, Hilton Armstrong, Emeka Okafor, Ben Gordon, Richard Hamilton and Ray Allen.

Each of these individuals gave back to the community as a Husky and continue to do so today.

UCONN AND NIKE

The University of Connecticut Division of Athletics and Nike, Inc., began an exclusive corporate sponsorship in the summer of 2008.

The contract terms cover a 10-year period from July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2018 and makes Nike the exclusive footwear, apparel and equipment provider for UConn Athletics. It is the largest corporate sponsorship package in the history of UConn Athletics and is among the largest contracts of its kind between Nike and an intercollegiate athletic program.

Part of the UConn-Nike agreement is a $1 million payment to the University towards the construction of a new basketball practice facility.

UCONN AND IMG

The University of Connecticut reached an agreement in 2008 with IMG College, a division of IMG Worldwide, for a 10-year athletics multi-media rights partnership. IMG College will handle the rights associated with corporate partners, on-site opportunities, signage, corporate suites, game programs and all online components.

MEET THE 2009-10 HUSKIES

• 2004, 1999 NCAA National Champions • 2009, 2004, 1999 NCAA Final Four •

Jamal Coombs McDaniel

Versatile player who will give the Husky coaching staff the flexibility to play him in a variety of spots… Good shooter and ball-handler who will see time at any position on the floor except center… Should help the Huskies on the ball defense at the small forward spot.

Jamaal Trice

Jamaal will bring size to the perimeter and has the potential to be the knock-down shooter that the Huskies have lacked the past few seasons… How well he defends and puts the ball on the floor will determine whether he can break into the rotation on a regular basis.

Ater Majok

Will be eligible for the team on December 20 and has the ability to do many things for the squad, score in the post, run the break, shoot from the perimeter, pass the ball… He will be able to play all of the frontcourt positions and has shown that he is a terrific shot blocker.

Jerome Dyson

Jerome returns after missing the last month and a half of 2008-09 with a knee injury… Back at full strength, Dyson will be one of the top scorers and overall performers in the BIG EAST this season, with an ability to run the floor as well as any player in the country and a long-range shooting touch to go along with it… He is also one of the best on-the-ball defenders in the country and helps the Huskies extend the floor and create easy baskets in transition.

Donnell Beverly

Donnell has been a steady performer for the Huskies in his first two seasons, making the most of the limited playing time he has received… His experience will be a plus for the squad in 2009-10, as UConn looks to replace two guards who played in a combined 200-plus games over the past four years.

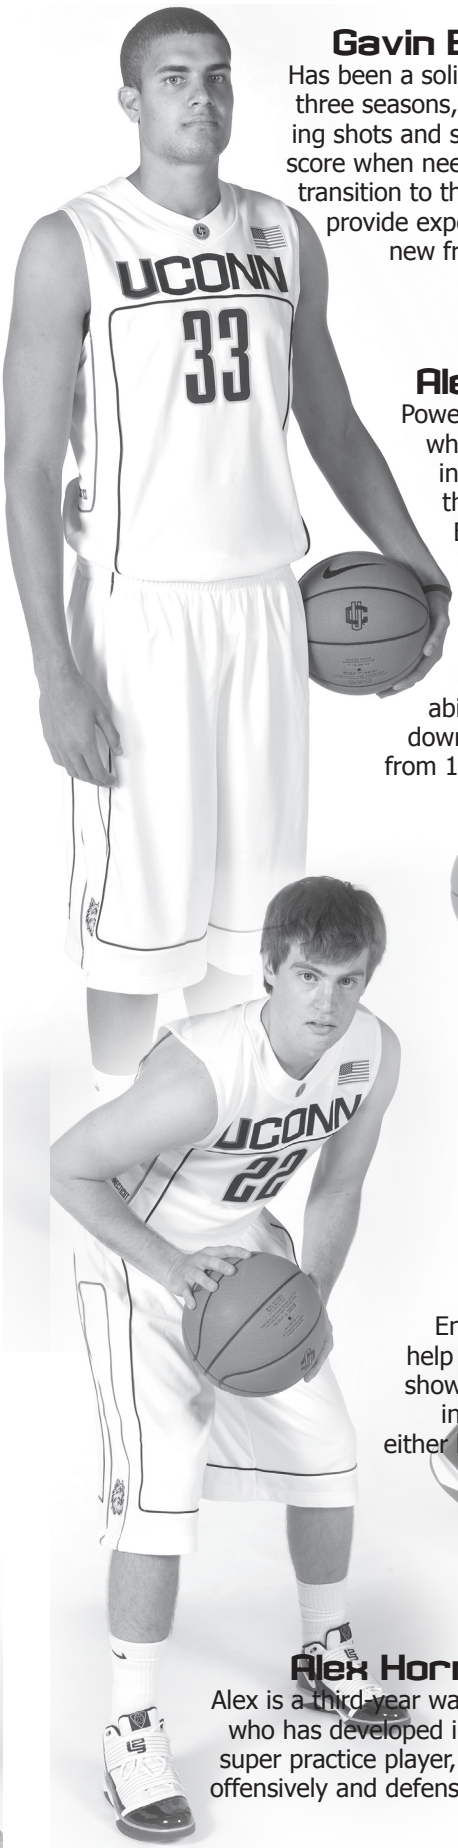

Kemba Walker

Kemba comes off a super freshman year, which culminated with a superb NCAA Tournament run individually, helping the Huskies to the Final Four and earning West Regional All-Tournament honors… He is one of the fastest players in the country with the ball and his improved jump shooting will only make it tougher for defenders to keep him from getting to the bucket.

Stanley Robinson

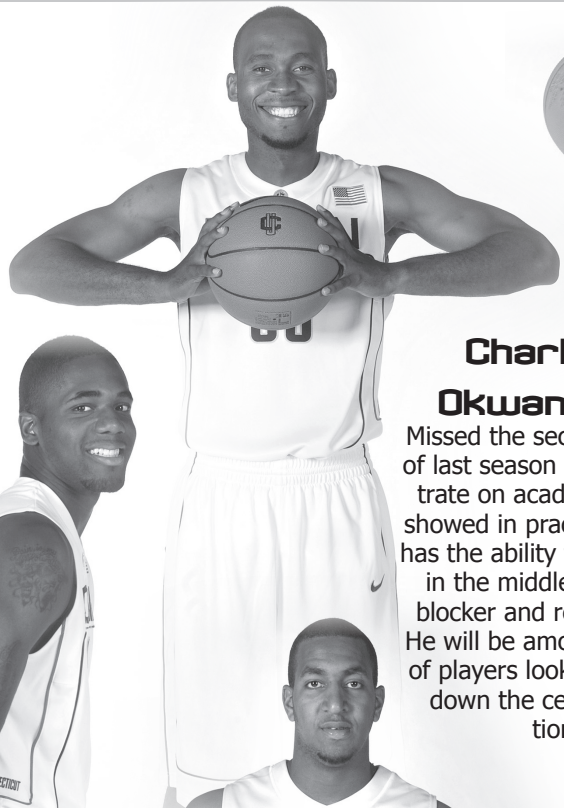

Stanley is always the most athletic person in the gym and was a key component in the Husky run to the Final Four in 2008-09… As he continues to extend his perimeter game, he will only become a tougher match-up for teams around the country, mixing the athleticism of a two or three and the rebounding ability to play down low and help the Huskies on the boards.

• Ten BIG EAST Regular Season Championships • Six BIG EAST Tournament Championships •

Gavin Edwards

Has been a solid reserve player for three seasons, rebounding, blocking shots and showing an ability to score when needed… He will look to transition to the starting lineup and provide experience to a mostly-new frontcourt group.

Alex Oriakhi

Powerfully built big man who is already drawing comparisons to three-time All-BIG EAST performer Jeff Adrien… Oriakhi will focus on rebounding, but also has the ability to knock down jumpers from 15 feet.

Charles Okwandu

Missed the second half of last season to concentrate on academics, but showed in practice that he has the ability to be a force in the middle as a shot blocker and rebounder… He will be among a group of players looking to lock down the center position.

Kyle Bailey

Enters his third season as a walk-on with the program and is an excellent scout team point guard.

Jonathan Mandeldove

Enters his fourth season with a chance to help the Huskies in the middle… Has always shown that he is a good fundamental player in his limited time… He blocks shots with either hand and his long wingspan makes him a presence defensively.

Alex Hornat

Alex is a third-year walk-on who has developed into a super practice player, both offensively and defensively.

Darius Smith

Excellent ball handler and play maker who will look for time in the Husky backcourt… He is a ball hawk and will help the Huskies speed up the game and put more pressure on the ball.

2008-09 Season in Review

The Huskies start off the season ranked No. 2 in the nation and live up to the early billing with a dominating performance at the Paradise Jam in the U.S. Virgin Islands. Hasheem Thabeet is named the MVP of the tournament and is joined on the all-tournament squad by Jerome Dyson and Kemba Walker. The Huskies roll past Wisconsin, Miami and LaSalle to capture the title.

An early season road trip to Buffalo serves as a tough test for UConn and Hasheem Thabeet puts forward a game-changing performance, scoring 21 points and grabbing 18 rebounds to help the Huskies escape with a four-point win.

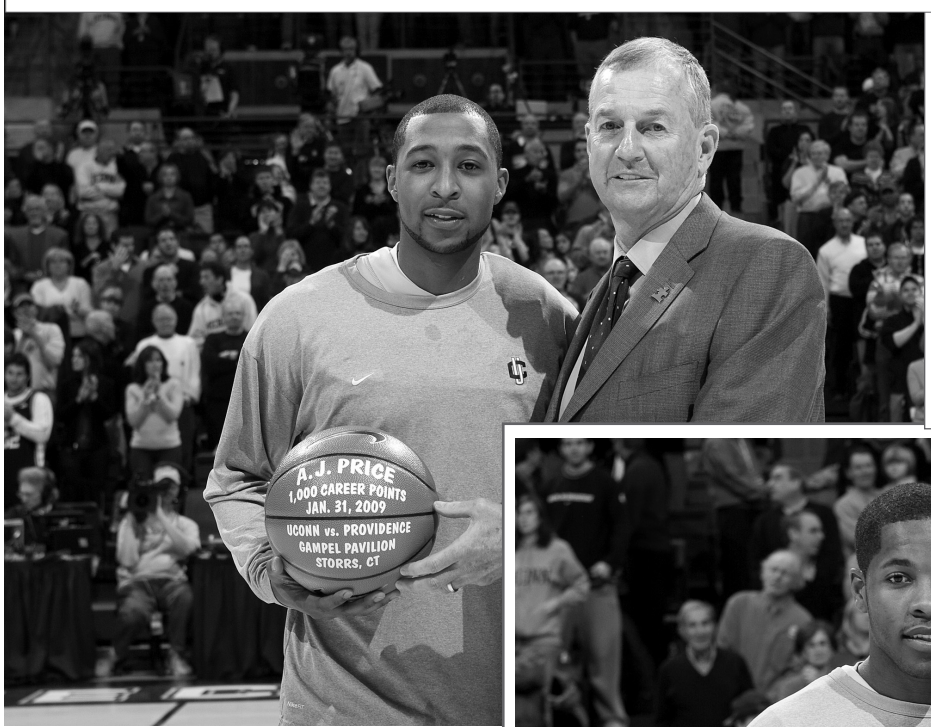

UConn travels across the country for a top-10 match-up in Seattle against No. 8 Gonzaga. The Huskies battle from behind in the second half to tie the Bulldogs and force overtime on an A.J. Price three-pointer in the final seconds. Price finishes with 24 points and ten assists, while Gavin Edwards notches a double-double in the best game of his career to date.

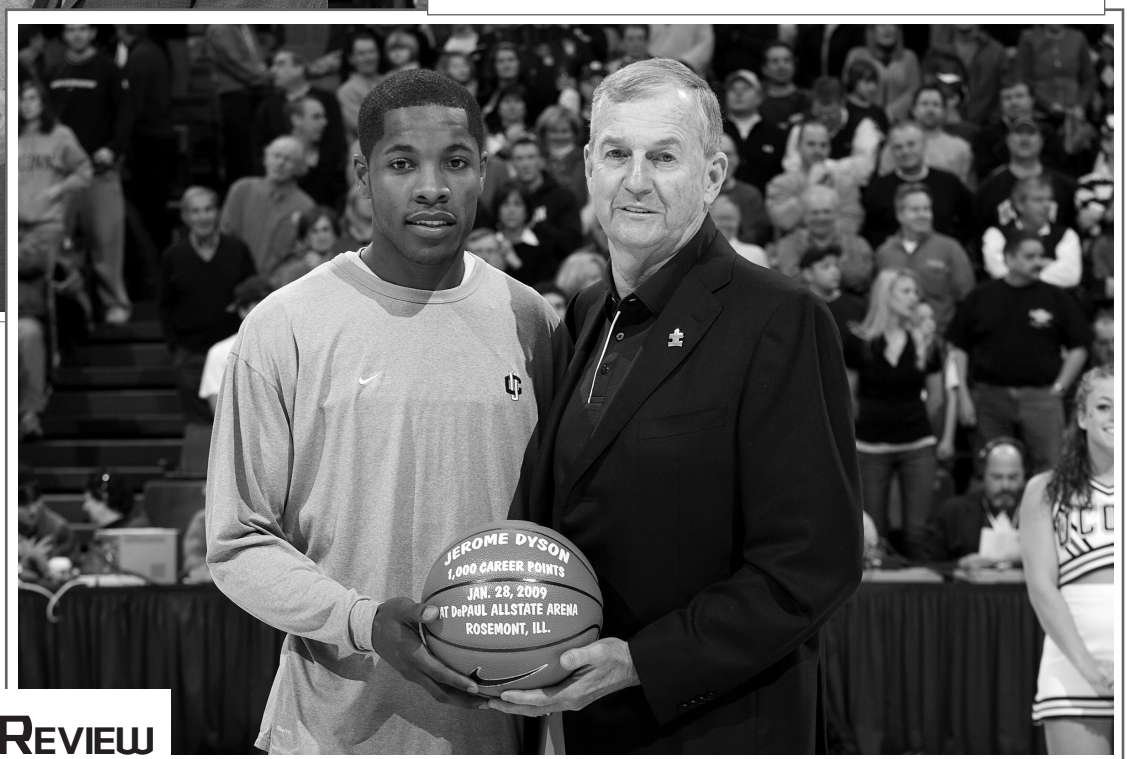

UConn beats No. 20 Villanova in Hartford, a game which featured one of the plays of the year, as Jerome Dyson finished an electrifying fast break dunk while being fouled. The Huskies moved to 17-1 with the win, 6-1 in the BIG EAST, and were ranked No. 3 nationally.

The Huskies travel to South Bend and come away with an impressive victory at No. 19 Notre Dame that snaps the nation-long 45-game home winning streak. Jeff Adrien scores 12 points and grabs 19 rebounds to key the win.

In back-back wins over DePaul and Providence, Jerome Dyson and A.J. Price crack the career 1,000-point barrier, joining teammate Jeff Adrien in the 1,000-point club.

2008-09 Season in Review

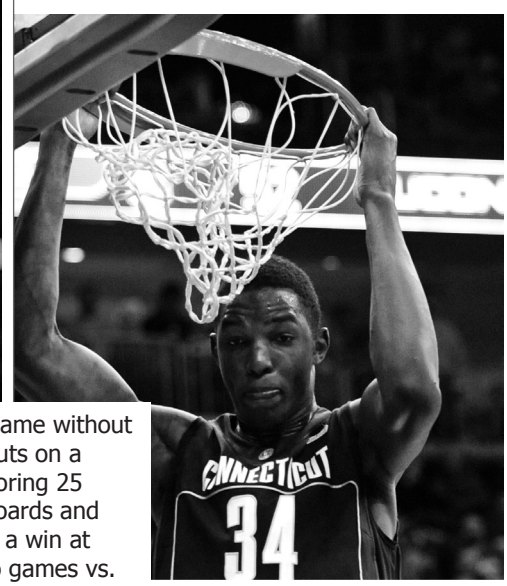

The Huskies move to the No. 1 spot in the national polls for the eighth time in school history and go out on the court and demolish No. 5 Louisville in a nationally-televised ESPN Big Monday contest, 68-51. Jerome Dyson scores 14 points and sets the tone as the Huskies sprint out to a 12-point halftime edge and never look back.

UConn beats No. 23 Syracuse in Storrs, but the story of the night is an injury to Jerome Dyson, which unfortunately, turns out to be of season-ending variety. Dyson suffers a torn meniscus and will miss the remainder of the year.

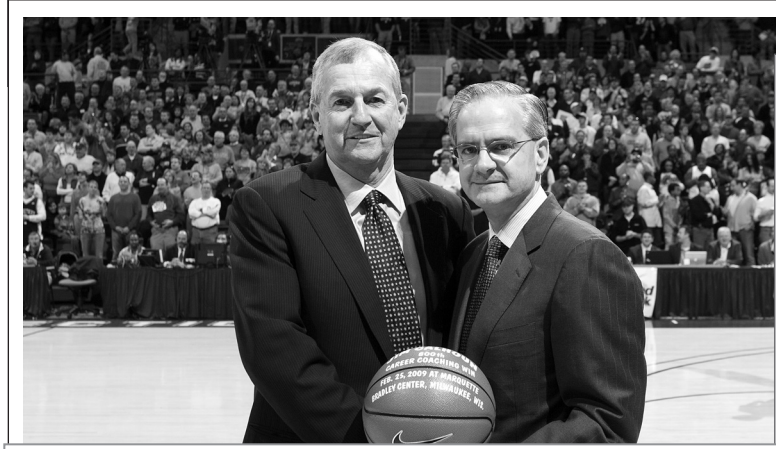

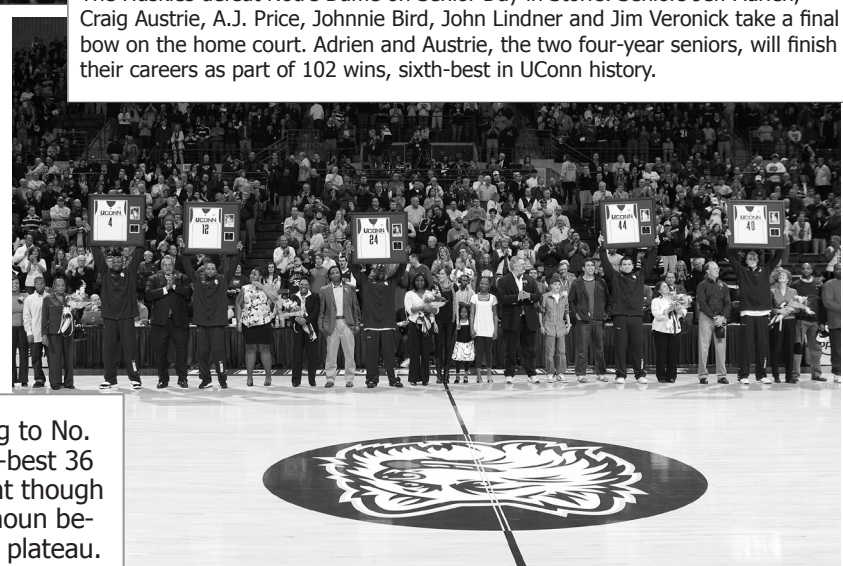

UConn plays its first game without Dyson and Thabeet puts on a show for the ages, scoring 25 points, grabbing 20 boards and blocking nine shots in a win at Seton Hall. In the two games vs. Seton Hall on the year, Thabeet averages 20 points and 18.5 rebounds.

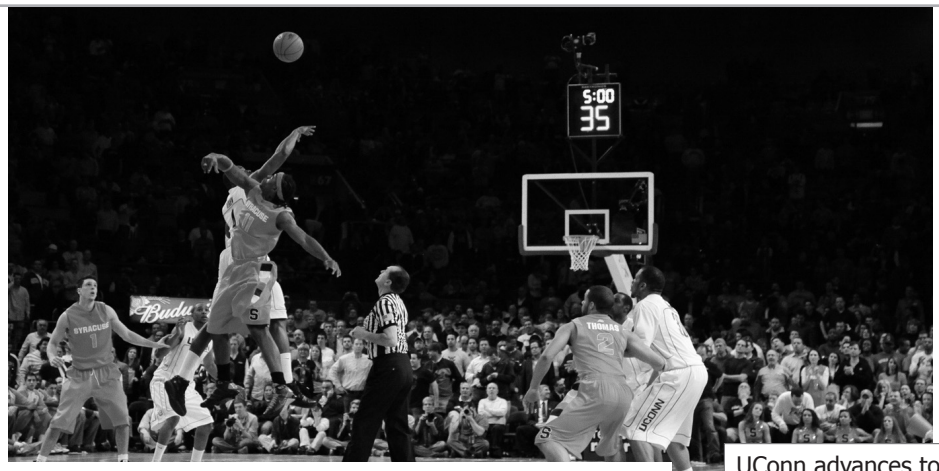

The Huskies defeat Notre Dame on Senior Day in Storrs. Seniors Jeff Adrien, Craig Austrie, A.J. Price, Johnnie Bird, John Lindner and Jim Veronick take a final bow on the home court. Adrien and Austrie, the two four-year seniors, will finish their careers as part of 102 wins, sixth-best in UConn history.

No. 2 UConn hits the road for another top ten match-up, traveling to No. 8 Marquette. A.J. Price is the story on the court, scoring a career-best 36 points in leading the Huskies to victory. The real story of the night though is career victory No. 800 for head coach Jim Calhoun. Coach Calhoun becomes only the seventh coach in NCAA history to hit the 800-win plateau.

2008-09 Season in Review

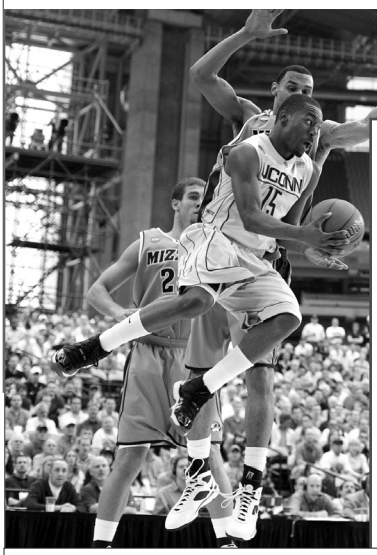

UConn and Syracuse battle in the BIG EAST Quarterfinals in an epic six-overtime contest, which sees the Orange outlast the Huskies, 127-117. Price scores 33 points and makes the all-tournament team.

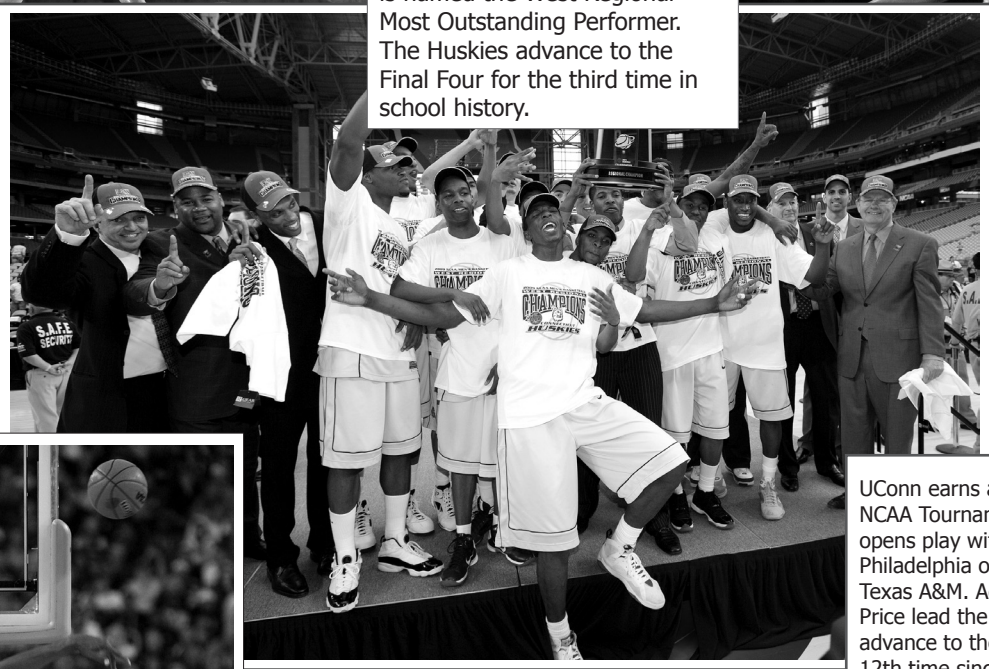

The Huskies beat Purdue in Glendale behind 17 points from senior Craig Austrie. Thabeet adds 15 points and 15 rebounds.

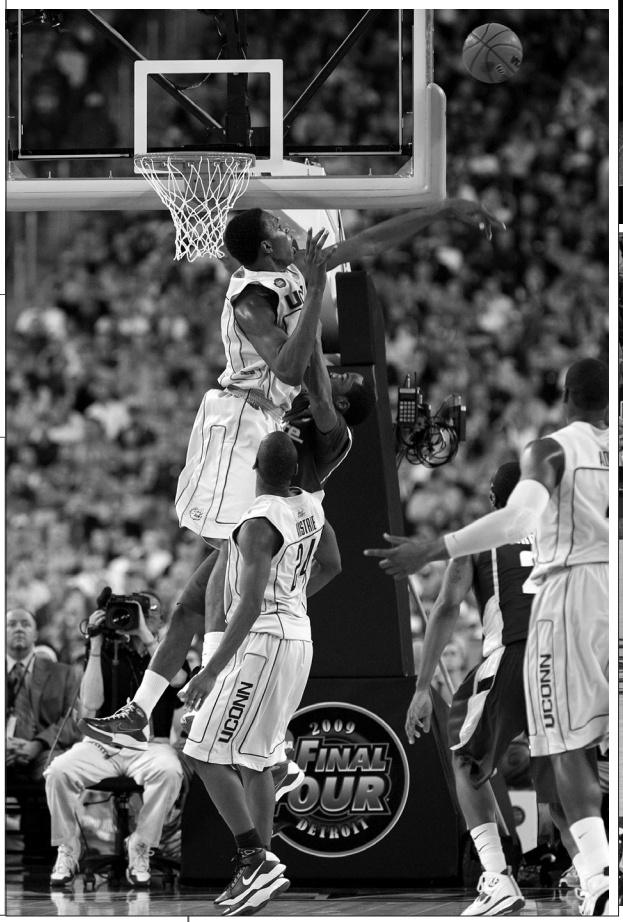

UConn advances to the Final Four with a regional championship win over Missouri. Kemba Walker earns all-tournament honors with a game-high 23 points in the win and A.J. Price is named the West Regional Most Outstanding Performer. The Huskies advance to the Final Four for the third time in school history.

UConn earns a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament West Region and opens play with a pair of wins in Philadelphia over Chattanooga and Texas A&M. Adrien, Thabeet and Price lead the way as the Huskies advance to the Sweet 16 for the 12th time since 1990.

UConn falls to Michigan State in the NCAA Final Four in Detroit in front of 72,456. The Huskies finish the season with a record of 31-5 overall.

JIM CALHOUN

Head Coach
24th Season at Connecticut
38th Season Overall

As he continues to build on his remarkable coaching resume, University of Connecticut Hall of Fame Head Coach Jim Calhoun has already established himself as perhaps the greatest program builder in college basketball history.

Now entering his 24th season as head coach at UConn and his 38th year as a collegiate head coach, Jim Calhoun has unquestionably stood the test of time as one of college basketball's legendary leaders and reached two other career milestones in 2008-09---membership in the ultra exclusive 800-win club and a third trip to the NCAA Final Four.

Jim Calhoun's phenomenal coaching success story includes winning two NCAA National Championships (1999, 2004) at Connecticut, earning basketball's highest honor while still an active coach, election into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2005, and induction in 2006 with the other greats of the game as a member of the Founding Class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame.

Jim Calhoun's college coaching career includes just two stops---Northeastern University in Boston and the University of Connecticut in Storrs. In 14 seasons at Northeastern, Jim Calhoun led NU from the Division II ranks to status as one of the nation's top Division I mid-major programs. In 23 seasons at Connecticut, Jim Calhoun has transformed UConn from a regional contender to a two-time national champion and Connecticut now ranks among the nation's elite college basketball programs.

In May of 1986, Jim Calhoun was named head coach of basketball at the University of Connecticut and that announcement launched what has become one of college basketball's greatest coaching accomplishments. As head coach of UConn Basketball, Jim Calhoun has led the Huskies to the top of the NCAA basketball mountaintop---winning two NCAA National Championships while also claiming an NIT Championship and taking the Huskies from second division placements in Big East Conference standings to a record-setting 16 league titles and lofty status as the most successful program in Big East Conference basketball history.

Jim Calhoun's 37-year overall record as a collegiate head coach is 805-342, moving into rarified air and status as a member of the 800-win college coaching fraternity with the win over Marquette on February 25, 2009. Coach Calhoun is only the seventh Division I coach in NCAA history to have earned their way into that 800-win club and the 805 coaching wins recorded by Jim Calhoun ranks No. 6 all-time in NCAA Division I basketball history.

During his history-making years as head coach at Connecticut, Husky Hall of Famer Jim Calhoun has compiled an overall record of 557-205. Prior to 1986, Connecticut Basketball had posted just two 23-win seasons in history. Since arriving at UConn in the spring of 1986, Jim Calhoun has "averaged" 24.2 wins per year.

Commenting on Jim Calhoun's phenomenal story of success at Connecticut, Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim, a fellow Class of 2005 Hall of Fame inductee, said, "Jim Calhoun has done as good a job as has ever been done in college basketball history in taking over a program that was at one level and taking it to a totally different place. A lot of coaches have been able to take good programs or even really good programs and keep them at that level or make them a little better, but Jim Calhoun has done something at Connecticut that I really don't think anybody has ever done any place else."

When he arrived at Connecticut as the 17th head coach of men's basketball on May 15, 1986, Jim Calhoun immediately began to chart a new course for success. He promised to "do it the right way, with no short cuts". He noted he wanted to establish a basketball program at UConn that would annually be called one of the top programs in the nation.

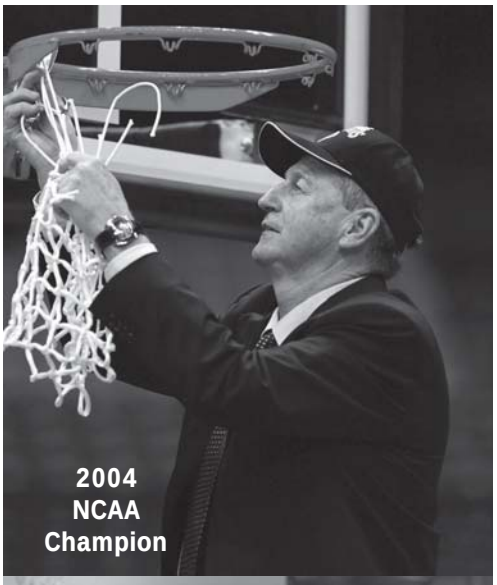

> "Jim Calhoun has done as good a job as has ever been done in college basketball history in taking over a program that was at one level and taking it to a totally different place. Mission accomplished.

Two specific dates headline the Hall of Fame coaching career of Jim Calhoun---March 29, 1999 and April 5, 2004.

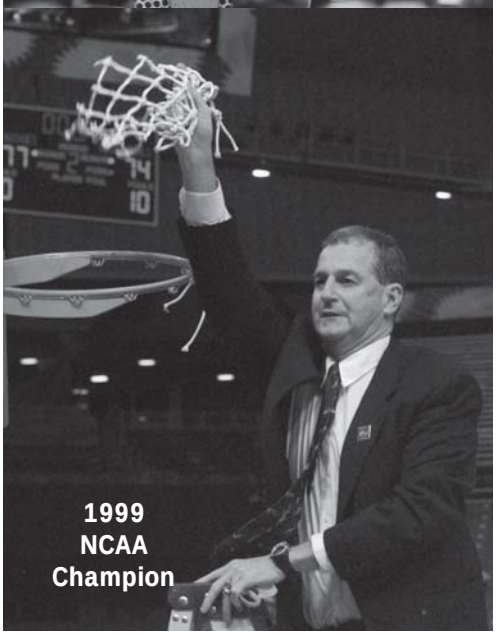

On March 29, 1999, Coach Jim Calhoun did what most observers felt was impossible as he led Connecticut to the 1999 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball National Championship, beating heavily-favored Duke 77-74 in the title game at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Florida.

The 1999 NCAA Championship completed a clean sweep in 1998-99 for the Huskies. UConn won both the regular season and tournament titles in the BIG EAST Conference. The Huskies were the No. 1 seed in the West Region of the NCAA Tournament and Connecticut ran off six straight NCAA victories to finish the year with a single-season school record 34 wins (34-2) and claim the national championship.

UConn finished the 1998-99 season ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final USA Today/ESPN Top 25 poll.

On April 5, 2004, Jim Calhoun cemented his place among the all-time collegiate coaching greats and as a future member of the Hall of Fame by leading UConn to the 2004 national title. In directing Connecticut to its second NCAA National Championship in a six-year span, Jim Calhoun became only the second coach to win multiple NCAA titles since the tournament field expanded to 64 teams in 1985.

In 2003-04, UConn began the season as the consensus No. 1 team in the nation and was one of only two teams to spend the entire season in the top ten.

The exciting run to UConn's second national title also produced the Huskies' sixth Big East Tournament Championship. Connecticut would conclude the season with a final overall record of 33-6. In the six-game string of victories during the NCAA Tournament, UConn dominated its first four opponents by an average margin of 17.5 points per contest.

At the 2004 "Final Four" in San Antonio, UConn stormed from eight points down with less than three minutes left to upend Duke 79-78 in the national semifinals and the Huskies were in charge from start to finish in the national finals, leading Georgia Tech by as many as 25 before winning the NCAA Championship game 82-73 before 44,417 fans in the Alamodome.

Another important date in Jim Calhoun's coaching career, this one taking place off the basketball court, occurred one year after he directed Connecticut to its second NCAA Championship. On September 9, 2005, with some 60 of his former players in attendance, Jim Calhoun's five decade body of work as one of college basketball's greatest coaches was formally recognized when UConn's coach was enshrined into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

In April of 2005, Jim Calhoun became just the seventh recipient of the prestigious John R. Wooden "Legends of Coaching Award" presented by the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Previous winners of the award include fellow Hall of Fame coaches Dean Smith, Mike Krzyzewski and Lute Olson.

In November of 2006, Coach Jim Calhoun's career achievements were recognized by his peers when he was named a member of the Founding Class of the National

HEAD COACH JIM CALHOUN

• 2004, 1999 NCAA National Champions • 2009, 2004, 1999 NCAA Final Four •

Jim Calhoun with Husky standouts Kemba Walker and A.J. Price after winning the 2009 NCAA West Regional title in Glendale, Arizona.

Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame

Entering his 38th as a collegiate head coach in 2009-10, Jim Calhoun ranks No. 9 all-time in NCAA career victories with 43 (40-13 at Connecticut, 3-5 at Northeastern). Coach Calhoun is 43-18 in overall NCAA play (with two NCAA titles).

Jim Calhoun's overall career record for national postseason tournament competition is a remarkable 55-22 (43-18 in NCAA play, 12-4 in NIT play). He has coached in the NCAA Tournament 21 times and in the NIT five times (including winning the 1988 NIT title).

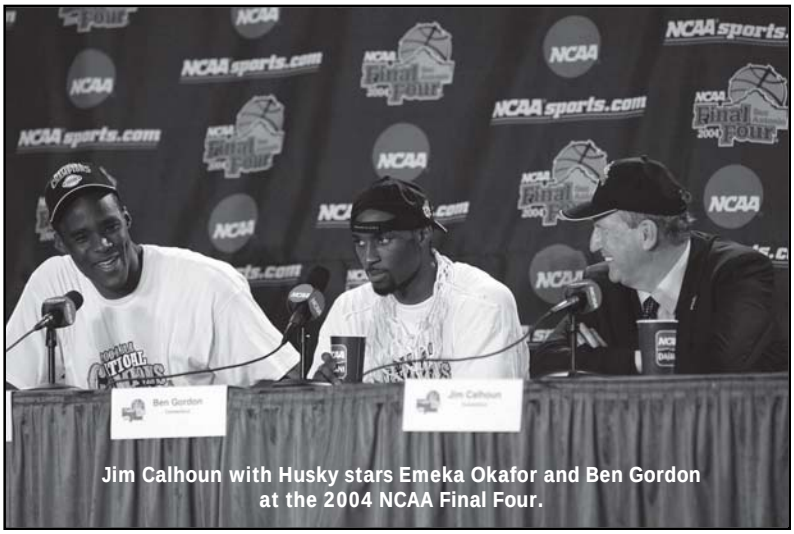

In his time at Connecticut, Jim Calhoun has compiled a stunning 52-17 overall record in national postseason tournament competition (40-13 in NCAA play, 12-4 in NIT play). His 40 NCAA wins at UConn, all achieved in the past 20 years, far outdistances the entire total of four NCAA victories recorded at Connecticut before Coach Calhoun took over the Husky basketball program in the spring of 1986.

Including 2009, Jim Calhoun has led UConn to 16 NCAA bids in the past 20 years. Under Coach Calhoun's direction, UConn is a stunning 27-4 in NCAA First and Second Round competition since 1990. The Huskies have earned 12 NCAA Sweet 16 berths in the past 20 years (including 2009), eight Elite Eight appearances, three NCAA Final Four trips and two National Championships.

Under Coach Calhoun, UConn has captured a league record 16 BIG EAST Championships, ten regular season crowns and six tournament titles.

Prior to Jim Calhoun's arrival as head coach at Connecticut in 1986, UConn had never been ranked in the end-of-the-year National Top 25 polls. UConn ended both the 1999 and 2004 national championship seasons ranked as the No. 1 team in all of college basketball and the Huskies have finished ten different seasons ranked in the National Top 10.

One collegiate basketball writer, authoring an article on Connecticut basketball for a national publication, said it best when he noted, "Bringing the UConn program to this point from where it was when he took over is nothing short of miraculous".

Jim Calhoun with Husky stars Emeka Okafor and Ben Gordon at the 2004 NCAA Final Four.

●Ten BIG EAST Regular Season Championships ● Six BIG EAST Tournament Championships ●

Nearly 60 of Jim Calhoun's former and current players from UConn, Northeastern and Dedham High School came back to the area as their coach was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in September of 2005. Former Huskies Taliek Brown, Caron Butler, Charlie Villanueva, Donyell Marshall, Kevin Ollie, Ben Gordon and Emeka Okafor joined Coach Calhoun, above, at the conclusion of the Enshrinement Ceremonies.

The late Alan Greenberg, a former columnist for the Hartford Courant, boldly stated "the hiring of Jim Calhoun in 1986 was the most important hire in the history of the State of Connecticut."

Jim Calhoun's story of success at the University of Connecticut commenced very quickly when in his second season as UConn head coach (1987-88) the Huskies went on an improbable five-game winning streak following a bid to the National Invitation Tournament and claimed the 51st annual NIT title in March of 1988, beating Ohio State 72-67 in the championship game at Madison Square Garden.

In March of 1990, at the conclusion of only his fourth season as head coach of the Huskies, Jim Calhoun was the consensus choice as the 1989-90 College Basketball National Coach of the Year. He guided UConn to a 31-6 overall record, a year dubbed "The Dream Season" at Connecticut, as the Huskies won both the BIG EAST regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. Coach Calhoun was named National Coach of the Year by five different organizations (Associated Press, United Press International, The Sporting News, CBS-TV Sports, Basketball Weekly).

UConn's first Big East Conference championships in 1990 (regular season crown and tournament title) and the Huskies' near-miss at a Final Four berth created a new passion among Connecticut fans as "Huskymania" was born.

During the 1993-94 season, Jim Calhoun and Connecticut basketball would begin a three-year dominance of the Big East Conference unmatched in league history. UConn won three straight Big East regular season titles (through 1995-96), posting a three-year conference record of 49-5 and an overall record of 87-12. In addition, during that three-year span, the Huskies advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight in 1995 (losing to eventual national champion UCLA) and to a pair of NCAA Sweet 16 appearances (1994, 1996).

A number of firsts dotted the UConn landscape during that superb three-year run---Donyell Marshall became UConn's first consensus First Team All-American in 1994, UConn Basketball was ranked No. 1 in the nation for the first time in school history (Feb. 13, 1995), Ray Allen became UConn's first two-time All-American in 1996, and UConn set a Big East Conference and school record by winning 23 consecutive games (Nov. of 1995 to Feb. of 1996)

During the 1997-98 season, Jim Calhoun directed UConn to a 32-5 overall record and the Huskies won both the regular season and tournament titles in the Big East Conference. In a heart-stopping NCAA Sweet 16 game, UConn missed four shots in the final seconds before Richard Hamilton hit a fall away shot at the buzzer to lift UConn to a 75-74 win over Washington. UConn would lose to the nation's top-ranked team, North Carolina, in the Elite Eight, but a young Connecticut team had set the stage for its national championship run one year later.

In March of 1999, Connecticut became the first team in Big East Conference history to win back-to-back regular season and tournament titles and on March 20, 1999, Jim Calhoun and UConn earned their first trip to the NCAA "Final Four" after beating Gonzaga 67-62 in an NCAA Elite Eight game in Phoenix.

One week later, at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Florida, Ohio State and Duke fell at the hands of the Huskies and Connecticut became the first team since Texas Western (1966) to win the national championship in its first Final Four appearance.

In March of 2002, Jim Calhoun coached UConn to victory in one of the greatest Big East tournament finals in history, a 74-65 double overtime victory against Pittsburgh as the Huskies again claimed both the regular season and tournament titles. Connecticut advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight behind All-American Caron Butler before bowing to eventual national champion Maryland.

UConn set the stage for its second national championship under the leadership of Jim Calhoun by sharing the Big East regular season title in 2002-03 and advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16.

Following the 2002-03 season, Jim Calhoun received the prestigious Metropolitan Award from the National Basketball Coaches Association (NABC). The award was presented at the NABC Convention at the 2003 NCAA Final Four in New Orleans. The award is given by the NABC on behalf of the National Invitation Tournament and the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Basketball Association and is presented for continued outstanding service for the enhancement and betterment of college basketball. Previous winners of the award include Mike Tranghese, John Thompson, Dean Smith, Lou Carnesecca, Dave Gavitt, John Wooden, Adolph Rupp, Joe Lapchick and Phog Allen.

Connecticut put together a brilliant nine-game winning streak in a 26-day span at the conclusion of the 2003-04 season en route to its sixth Big East Tournament title and second NCAA National Championship. After adding its 2004 NCAA title to the national championship won in 1999, Jim Calhoun and UConn joined Duke as the only schools in the nation with multiple NCAA titles since the tournament expanded to 64 teams in 1985.

The 2004-2005 UConn season saw one the finest coaching performances in Jim Calhoun's distinguished career. The Huskies had to replace the No. 2 (Emeka Okafor) and No. 3 (Ben Gordon) selections in the NBA Draft Lottery while also overcoming the loss of the school's all-time assist leader (Taliek Brown). In addition, Coach Calhoun and the Huskies dealt with the adversity of two separate life-threatening illnesses to team members.

Despite those obstacles, Jim Calhoun and the Huskies finished the year 23-8 while winning the school's ninth Big East Conference regular season title and 15th overall championship. UConn ended the season ranked in the National Top 20 for the 10th time in the past 12 years and advanced to national postseason tournament play for the 18th consecutive season, one of only four schools in the country to do so.

In 2005-06, Jim Calhoun led Connecticut to a sixth 30-win season (30-4 overall). UConn would earn its tenth Big East Conference Regular Season title, advance to the NCAA Elite Eight for the seventh time in the past 18 years, and conclude the college basketball regular season ranked No. 2 in the nation by the Associated Press.

Jim Calhoun is the only coach in the history of the BIG EAST Conference to have been named BIG EAST Conference Coach of the Year four times. He earned his first BIG EAST Coach of the Year award in 1989-90 and also won the honor following the 1993-94, 1995-96 and 1997-98 seasons. John Thompson of Georgetown and Lou Carnesecca of St. John's each earned the prestigious honor three times.

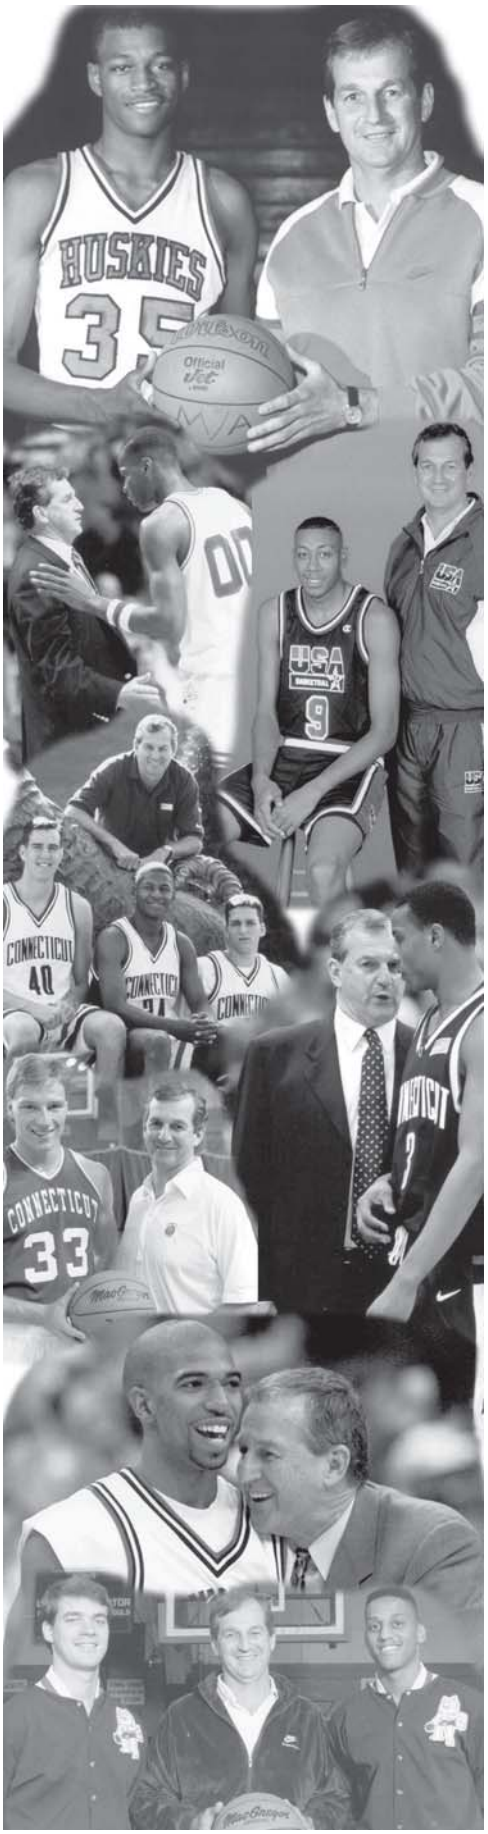

In the summer of 2002, Jim Calhoun was selected as a member of the inaugural induction class to the New England Basketball Hall of Fame.

After directing Connecticut to both the 1999 and 2004 NCAA National Championships, Jim Calhoun was honored on separate occasions as the recipient of the Winged Foot Award from the New York Athletic Club, recognizing him as their National Coach of the Year. He also received the prestigious Victor Award as 1998-99 College Basketball National Coach of the Year and was the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District I Coach of the Year.

Much like his success at Connecticut, Jim Calhoun's performance as head coach at Northeastern (MA) University in Boston for 14 seasons was nothing short of sensational. He developed a program from Division II status to a nationally-recognized squad which became a perennial NCAA Division I tournament team. At NU, Jim Calhoun won 20 or more games in five of his last six seasons, chalked up a brilliant 135-47 record during that span, and earned five NCAA Division I tournament berths.

His final three years at Northeastern resulted in NCAA automatic bids each season and a three-year mark of 75-19.

At Northeastern, Jim Calhoun's teams averaged 17.9 wins per season. He was a three-time New England "Coach of the Year" and a three-time Kodak District I "Coach of the Year".

In leaving Northeastern in 1986, Coach Calhoun left perhaps the most talented team in the school's history, along with a first round NBA draft pick in senior Reggie Lewis, who later became captain of the Boston Celtics before his untimely death during the summer of 1993.

As was the case at Northeastern, Jim Calhoun's success at producing top-flight collegiate stars, who also excel at the professional basketball level, is an annual happening at Connecticut. A total of 22 former UConn stars that played for Coach Calhoun have played in the National Basketball Association (NBA). They include: Clifford Robinson (1989-2007), Tate George (1990-1995), Chris Smith (1992-1995), Scott Burrell (1993-2001), Donyell Marshall (1994-present), Donny Marshall (1995-2003), Kevin Ollie (1997-present), Ray Allen (1996-present), Travis Knight (1996-2003), Richard Hamilton (1999-present), Khalid El-Amin (2000-2001), Jake Voskuhl (2000-present), Caron Butler (2002-present), Emeka Okafor (2004-present), Ben Gordon (2004-present), Charlie Villanueva (2005-present), Hilton Armstrong (2006-present), Josh Boone (2006-present), Rudy Gay (2006-present), Marcus Williams (2006-present), Hasheem Thabeet (2009-present) and A.J. Price (2009-present).

As many as 14 of those Connecticut stars could be listed on NBA regular season rosters in 2009-10, more than any other school in the country. In both 2007 and 2008, Ray Allen, Richard Hamilton and Caron Butler were each named to the NBA All-Star Game roster. UConn was the only college in the nation represented by three players in those contests. Four UConn players have also been members of NBA Championship teams (Scott Burrell with the Chicago Bulls in 1998, Travis Knight with the Los Angeles Lakers in 2000, Richard Hamilton with the Detroit Pistons in 2004, and Ray Allen with the Boston Celtics in 2008).

A former All-New England player at American International College in Springfield, MA, Jim Calhoun graduated from AIC in 1968 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology. At AIC, he lettered three years while leading the Yellow Jacket basketball team in scoring as a junior and senior. He captained his alma mater in his senior year and left the school as the fourth all-time leading scorer along with helping the school earn an NCAA Division II playoff berth. He is a member of the AIC Athletic Hall of Fame and in the summer of 1994 earned the prestigious distinction of being elected to serve as a member of the American International College Board of Trustees. In the spring of 2000, Jim Calhoun served as the main commencement speaker at AIC's 115th graduation exercises and received an honorary degree from his alma mater.

Jim Calhoun began his coaching career at AIC, serving as an assistant basketball coach from 1966-68. After one year as head coach of basketball at Old Lyme High School in Connecticut, and one year as head coach of Westport High School in Westport, MA, Jim Calhoun moved on to become head coach at Dedham High School in Massachusetts. He quickly rebuilt the program, fashioning a 21-1 record in 1971-72 and seeing his club advance to the State Division I semi-finals.

In October of 1972, he moved into the collegiate coaching ranks at Northeastern University in Boston. In the years to follow, the Northeastern Huskies would dominate the ECAC North Atlantic Conference under his guidance. Northeastern won the league's regular season championship four times and shared the top spot two other times in seven years of conference play. NU also won five of the seven league tournaments and Coach Calhoun's record against conference competition in his career at NU was 74-13. While at Northeastern, he was inducted into the NU Sports Hall of Fame.

In addition to his busy schedule as head coach of the Connecticut basketball program, Jim Calhoun and his family are heavily involved in a number of regional and national charitable and educational efforts.

In November of 1998, Jim Calhoun and his wife Pat began a wide- ranging commitment to the cardiology program at the University of Connecticut Health Center, establishing the Calhoun Cardiology Research Fund with a $125,000 gift. In 1999, the Jim Calhoun Celebrity Classic Golf Tournament was launched and during the past 10 years more than $3 million has been raised in support of the Jim and Pat Calhoun Cardiac Research Endowment Fund.

In recognition of the dedication and commitment of Jim Calhoun and his family to cardiology research, the entire cardiology program at the University of Connecticut Health Center has been named the "Pat and Jim Calhoun Cardiology Center". A formal naming ceremony recognizing the on-going work of the Calhoun family was held in the spring of 2004.

In 2006, Jim and Pat Calhoun became actively involved with raising public awareness and research funding for Autism Speaks. The effort seeks to expand services for individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ADS) and their families.

Since 1999, the Jim Calhoun Holiday Food Drive has supported food assistance agencies that serve the State of Connecticut. Nearly $1 million has been raised for the Connecticut Foodbank and Foodshare, providing some 1.6 million meals to families in need across Connecticut and the food drive culminates each year with Jim Calhoun, his family, and his players personally delivering meals to hundreds of families in the Hartford area.

In both 2003 and 2004, Jim Calhoun served as celebrity host of Coaches versus Cancer events called "Hoops For Hope". The black-tie galas raised in excess of $400,000 for the American Cancer Society.

Since 2007, The CIGNA Jim Calhoun Cancer Challenge Ride has been staged annually to benefit The Carole and Ray Neag Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Connecticut Health Center and Coaches vs. Cancer, a program established in 1993 by the American Cancer Society. The three rides to date have raised more than $700,000 for the Neag Cancer Center while providing more than $50,000 to Coaches vs. Cancer.

In April of 2008, Jim Calhoun was presented with the Coaches vs. Cancer Champion Award by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). The Champion Award, the highest honor of the Coaches vs. Cancer program, recognizes an individual who has demonstrated unique dedication and devotion to the American Cancer Society's fight against cancer.

For the past 14 years, Jim Calhoun has served as Honorary Chairman of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, helping generate in excess of $4.5 million to fund diabetes research.

Jim and Pat Calhoun have a long-standing involvement with the Franciscan Life Center, counseling and education center operated in Meriden, CT by the Franciscan Sisters of the Eucharist. The Calhoun family has been involved annually in fund-raising activities by the Franciscan Sisters. Jim Calhoun has been honored with the "Saint Francis Award" for his dedication to Christian values and outstanding athletic achievements and in 1998 the Franciscan Sisters dedicated an outdoor basketball area, "Calhoun's Court", in honor of the UConn head coach at the Franciscan Life Center in Meriden.

Coach Calhoun has also served as an Honorary Chairperson/Director for several other charitable programs including the Ronald McDonald House Kids Classic Golf Tournament, the Ray of Hope Foundation Golf Tournament, the Connecticut Children's Medical Center and Children's Miracle Network, and the "Character Counts" program in the state of Connecticut.

In 2004, Jim Calhoun was the first recipient of an award by the Swim Across The Sound Prostate Cancer Institute and he now serves as the Honorary Chairman for that group's fund-raising efforts.

In October of 2005, the University of Connecticut Alumni Association recognized Jim Calhoun's two decades of outstanding contributions at UConn by honoring Coach Calhoun with its "Honorary Alumni Award".

In the fall of 1999, Jim Calhoun completed work on a book. "Dare To Dream-Connecticut Basketball's Remarkable March To The National Championship" is a first person account by Coach Calhoun of his life as a college coach with specific focus on the 1998-99 season. Working with Coach Calhoun on the book was Leigh Montville, a former senior writer at Sports Illustrated and a UConn graduate.

In 2008, Jim Calhoun shared his secrets for motivation, success and leadership in a book titled "A Passion To Lead: Seven Leadership Secrets for Success in Business, Sports and Life." Coach Calhoun co-authored the book with Richard Ernsberger, a senior editor at Newsweek Magazine.

A graduate of Braintree (MA) High School, Jim Calhoun was a three-sport letter winner in football, basketball and baseball. As a senior captain, he earned All-Bay State League honors in football and basketball. His hometown of Braintree has bestowed a singular honor on Coach Calhoun, naming outdoor basketball courts in a city facility "Calhoun Park". He continues to return to Braintree to speak and conduct basketball clinics for area youths.

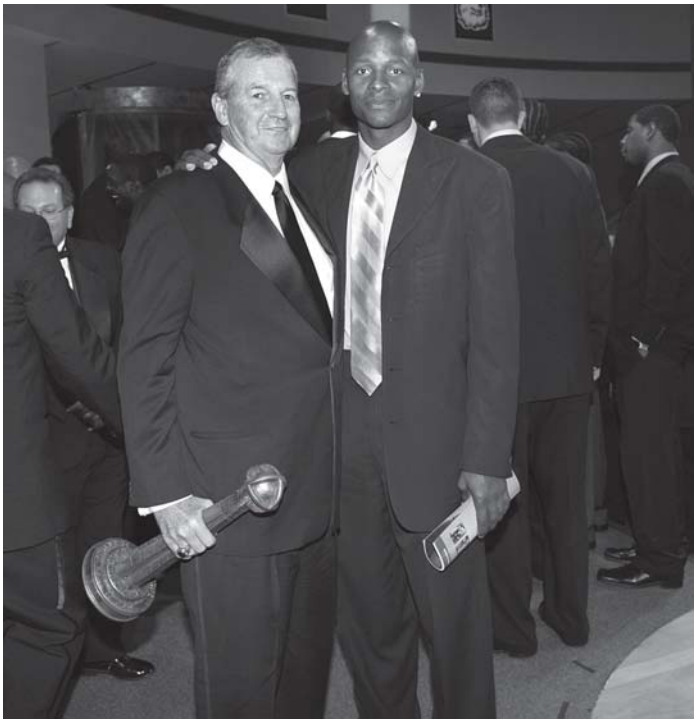

Born May 10, 1942 in Braintree, MA, Jim Calhoun and his wife Pat were married in 1966 and live in Pomfret, Connecticut. They have two sons, James and Jeffrey. James and his wife Jennifer live in California with daughters, Emily (born 3/5/99) and Katie (born 12/29/00) and a son Sam (born 6/8/03). Jeffrey and his wife Amy live in Connecticut with daughters Avery (born 1/26/02), Reese (born 4/7/03) and Peyton (born 3/26/05).

"Coach Calhoun made sure he prepared me during my years at Connecticut for anything I may face in the future. He helped me mature as a person and a player. He was someone I knew I could seek out at any time if I had a problem and he, along with my mother, helped guide me as I had to make that very difficult decision about moving on to the NBA after three years at Connecticut. He'll always be there to support me and I'll always be an ambassador for my coach and my basketball program at the University of Connecticut."

RAY ALLEN
UConn All-American in 1994-95 and 1995-96
2007-08 NBA Champion with the Boston Celtics

"Coach Calhoun really motivated me at UConn and got the most out of me. He's a competitive coach and I don't think I would be where I am today if he hadn't been there to push me in the right direction. He always made sure you went to class and made sure you were in the best physical shape you could be in. He taught us all about the game, both the things we did right and about our mistakes. He was always there to make us better players, instead of just being regular players."

CLIFFORD ROBINSON
Played 18 Seasons in the NBA from 1989-2007

"Playing for Coach Calhoun was always demanding. We practiced hard and we played hard. But, it was a good experience to play for him because you always learned that you never got something worthwhile without a good effort. As long as you worked hard for Coach Calhoun, he would work to make you better. He makes sure the team is a family. As a team, we did everything together. We practiced together, we went to study hall together, and we hung out together. We did everything together off the court, and I believe that made us a better team on the court."

JOHN GWYNN
UConn '91, Probation Officer/State of Connecticut

"Basketball at Connecticut has opened up a lot of doors for me and one of those doors was a good education. Even when it was time to move on to the NBA after my junior year and with a national championship in hand, I didn't want to leave. I loved college and everything that college represented. I'm still maturing, on and off the court, but after being with Coach Calhoun at UConn I know I'm better prepared to complete my growing process and deal with the everyday pressures of life in the NBA. UConn was a perfect fit for me. I have great friends from my days at UConn, we played basketball at the highest level, Coach Calhoun prepared me to play in the NBA because of our style of full court basketball, and we won a national championship."

RICHARD "RIP" HAMILTON
UConn All-American in 1997-98 and 1998-99
2003-04 NBA Champion with the Detroit Pistons

WHAT JIM CALHOUN MEANS TO ME

"When I first came to UConn and started my college career, I wasn't sure I belonged at the college level. Coach Calhoun told me not to worry, that I had the ability to be a very important part of the UConn program. A lot of my individual success stems from the confidence Coach Calhoun instilled in me. He encouraged me to be a leader on the court and to get the most from the talent I possessed. He'd tell me not to hold back, not to blend in, but to strive to be the best I could be. I had three great years at Connecticut playing for Coach Calhoun and developing as a person and a player. When I made my decision to move from the college ranks to the NBA, I no longer had any doubts about my ability. Coach Calhoun had prepared me very well for my next step in basketball and in life."

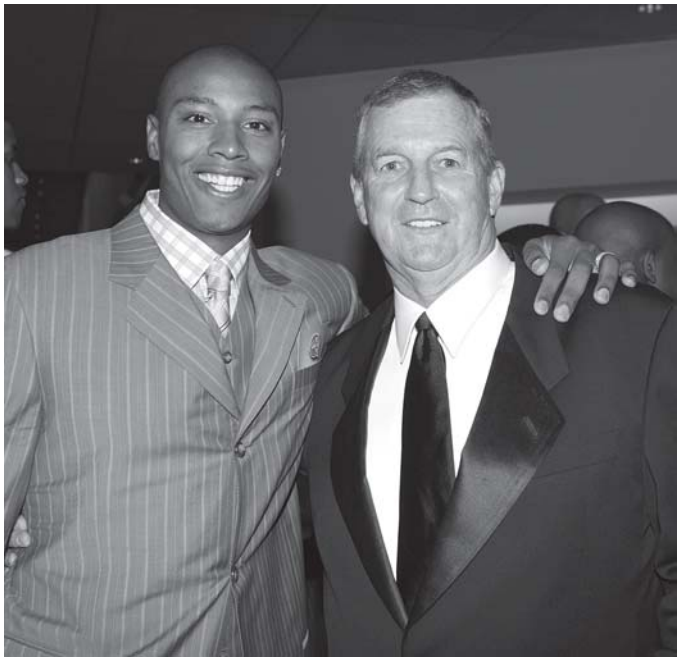

DONYELL MARSHALL
UConn All-American in 1993-94

"When Coach Calhoun first came to UConn in 1986, he put everything right up front. He told us if we trust and believe in him, that he will help us become winners on the court and in the classroom. Today, I feel I can still call him and talk to him about anything. A few years ago, I came back for a team barbecue at his house and he pulled me aside. He reminded me that I would always be a part of his family."

PHIL GAMBLE
UConn '89, MVP of the 1988 NIT

"The first thing people always know about Coach Calhoun is the way he motivates people and can get them ready for any challenge. That's certainly true, but I've always thought of Coach Calhoun as a teacher first. By the time you've finished four years at UConn, you will have learned a lot about yourself, both as a player and as a person."

TATE GEORGE
UConn '90

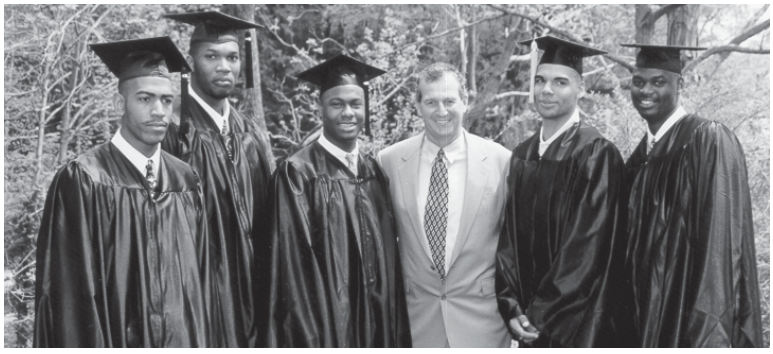

"When I first arrived at Connecticut in the fall of 1992 I didn't really understand what Coach Calhoun wanted for me. It probably took me until the beginning of my third year before I realized that Coach had a definite game plan for me. It involved a lot of hard work on my part, but the plan was to culminate with me getting a quality education at UConn and also progressing from a college athlete to a professional athlete. We had some wonderful success at Connecticut, and I'm very proud to have been part of that success. When I graduated, and when I became a First Round pick in the NBA, I knew Coach Calhoun's game plan for me was right on target. When I had an opportunity to sign a significant multi-year contract in the NBA, I immediately got Coach on the phone for his counsel. I'll always thank Coach Calhoun for pushing me to be the best, and for believing in me."

TRAVIS KNIGHT
UConn '96

"Playing basketball at UConn is definitely a brotherhood. Coach Calhoun is a big part of that, keeping us all together. Success on the court and in the classroom are a big part of what UConn and Coach Calhoun are about, but the biggest thing is that we are all a family. Coach Calhoun always wanted to make it a family atmosphere."

KEVIN OLLIE
UConn '95

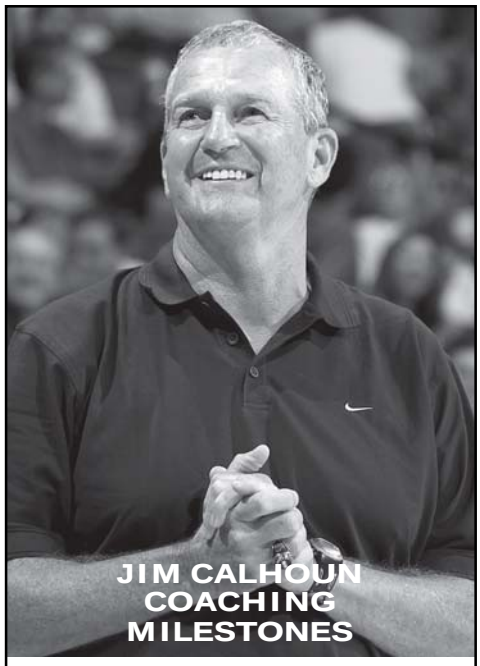

"Coach Calhoun believed that I had tremendous potential, as a player and as a person. He always talked to me about the great history that we have at Connecticut and that I could be a part of that if I willed myself to want it enough. I wanted it and now I'm glad that I listened to Coach. Just to be mentioned in the same breath as some of the special players that have played at UConn is an honor and Coach Calhoun helped me get to that point."

CARON BUTLER
UConn All-American in 2001-02

George Blaney was selected by the New York Knicks in the 1961 NBA Draft and played during the 1961-62 season with the Knicks.

George Blaney, a 2003 inductee in the New England Basketball Hall of Fame, is entering his ninth season as a member of the Connecticut basketball staff in the 2009-10 season. He was named the Associate Head Coach in July of 2007.

Blaney brings to the Connecticut staff more than 30 years of coaching experience. He was an All-New England college basketball standout at Holy Cross, scoring 1,012 points in his college career and leading the Crusaders to back-to-back 20-win seasons before graduating in 1961. Blaney was a fourth round selection of the New York Knicks in the 1961 NBA Draft and played during the 1961-62 season with the Knicks.

In May of 2007, Blaney received the Saint Francis Award at the Franciscan Sports Banquet sponsored by the Franciscan Life Center of Meriden, Conn. The award is given to an individual who exemplifies commitment and dedication to athletics, family, community and church.

Blaney began his coaching career as head coach at Hudson Catholic High School in Jersey City, NJ in 1965. He moved into the college coaching ranks two years later when he was named head coach at Stonehill (MA) College. After two seasons at Stonehill, Blaney spent three years as head coach at Dartmouth College before returning to his alma mater and coaching the Holy Cross program for the next 22 years.

While directing the Holy Cross program, Blaney led the Crusaders to three NCAA tournament berths, five invitations to the NIT, and a 357-276 overall record. Holy Cross posted seven 20-win seasons during Blaney's tenure as head coach.

In 1994, George Blaney joined the BIG EAST Conference and spent three seasons as head coach at Seton Hall. He departed the college coaching ranks to become Vice President of Basketball Operations for the International Basketball League in 1998. He remained in that post for two years before joining the University of Rhode Island as an assistant coach during the 2000-2001 season.

In 30 seasons as a collegiate head coach, Blaney posted an impressive overall record of 459-382.

ANDRE LaFLEUR

Assistant Coach
Ninth Season
at Connecticut
(Northeastern, 1988)

Andre LaFleur was a prime recruit for then-Northeastern head coach Jim Calhoun and played for Coach Calhoun for three seasons.

Andre LaFleur is entering his ninth year on the UConn Basketball staff in 2009-10 and his sixth season as an assistant coach. He spent three seasons as the Director of Basketball Operations before moving into the assistant coaching role beginning with the 2004-05 campaign.

LaFleur is a graduate of Northeastern University where he was one of the nation's premier point guards. A native of Los Angeles and a product of Governor Dummer Academy in South Byfield, Mass., he was a prime recruit for then-Northeastern head coach Jim Calhoun in a class that included Wes Fuller and Reggie Lewis.

The impact of that freshman class at Northeastern was instantaneous. The Huskies romped through their conference schedule with a perfect 14-0 mark and an overall record of 27-5. They won the ECAC North Atlantic title and went on to the NCAA Tournament. This pattern continued throughout his career as every year the Huskies won the league crown and went on to the NCAAs. From the 1983-84 season through LaFleur's senior year of 1986-87, the team boasted a conference record of 60-6 and an overall record of 102-26. During one stretch, the Huskies won 38 consecutive home games.

LaFleur played 4,405 minutes in 128 consecutive games - more minutes and more games than any other Northeastern player, past or present. LaFleur scored 1,143 career points, graduating as the 10th all-time leading scorer in NU history and he is a member of the Northeastern Hall of Fame. He registered 89 steals as a senior and 252 for his career, both still Northeastern records. His total of 894 career assists set a new NCAA record in 1988 and he still ranks in the Top 15 in NCAA history. As a junior and senior, LaFleur was named All-Conference, while serving as a tri-captain with Fuller and Lewis. As a freshman, he made the conference All-Rookie Team.

LaFleur was a fifth-round draft pick of the Houston Rockets in 1987 and lasted until the team's final cut of the preseason. He then played and coached professionally in Australia and overseas for 11 seasons. After completing his professional career, Andre took a position as School Sports Coordinator for the Sydney City Basketball Association.

Born March 22, 1965, Andre, and his wife Alana reside in Manchester and have two sons, Adonis and Adrian.

PATRICK SELLERS

Assistant Coach
Sixth Season
at Connecticut
(Central Connecticut, 1991)

Patrick Sellers is entering his sixth season on the basketball staff at the University of Connecticut in 2009-10. He was promoted to the position of assistant coach in the spring of 2007 after spending his first three seasons as the Director of Basketball Operations.

Sellers came to Connecticut after spending the 2003-04 season as an assistant coach at the University of Massachusetts, where he served as a recruiter and was instrumental in the development of the UMass frontcourt.

Patrick is the older brother of former Husky standout and team captain Rod Sellers, who played at UConn from 1989-1992.

Sellers moved to UMass from his alma mater, Central Connecticut State University, where he spent four seasons with head coach Howie Dickenman, a former UConn assistant coach. Patrick helped the Blue Devils to NCAA Tournament appearances in 2000 and 2002, winning the Northeast Conference Regular Season and Tournament Championship in both of those seasons. During his time as an assistant coach at Central Connecticut, his responsibilities included recruiting, inside player development, scouting and assisting with on-court practices. He also served as a co-director of the Howie Dickenman Basketball School.

Prior to his time at Central Connecticut State, Sellers served as the head coach at St. Thomas Aquinas High School in New Britain, Conn. In his first season as the varsity head coach in 1998, Sellers led the Saints to a Northwest Conference Championship. His team also made back-to-back appearances in the state playoffs during the 1998 and 1999 seasons. Sellers originally joined the basketball staff at St. Thomas Aquinas in 1994 as the junior varsity coach and an assistant under head coach Jerry DeGregorio.

A 1991 graduate of Central Connecticut State with a bachelor's degree in accounting, Sellers served as the Blue Devils' captain during his senior season, and was named East Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1991. He led the team in rebounding in both his junior and senior seasons, finishing his career with 581 rebounds. He played professionally in Europe in the British Basketball League during the 1992-93 season.

Born December 28, 1968, Patrick resides in Vernon.

BEAU ARCHIBALD

Director of Operations
Third Season
at Connecticut
(Connecticut, 2003)

Beau Archibald is entering his third season on the UConn Basketball staff after being named the Director of Men's Basketball Operations on June 11, 2007.

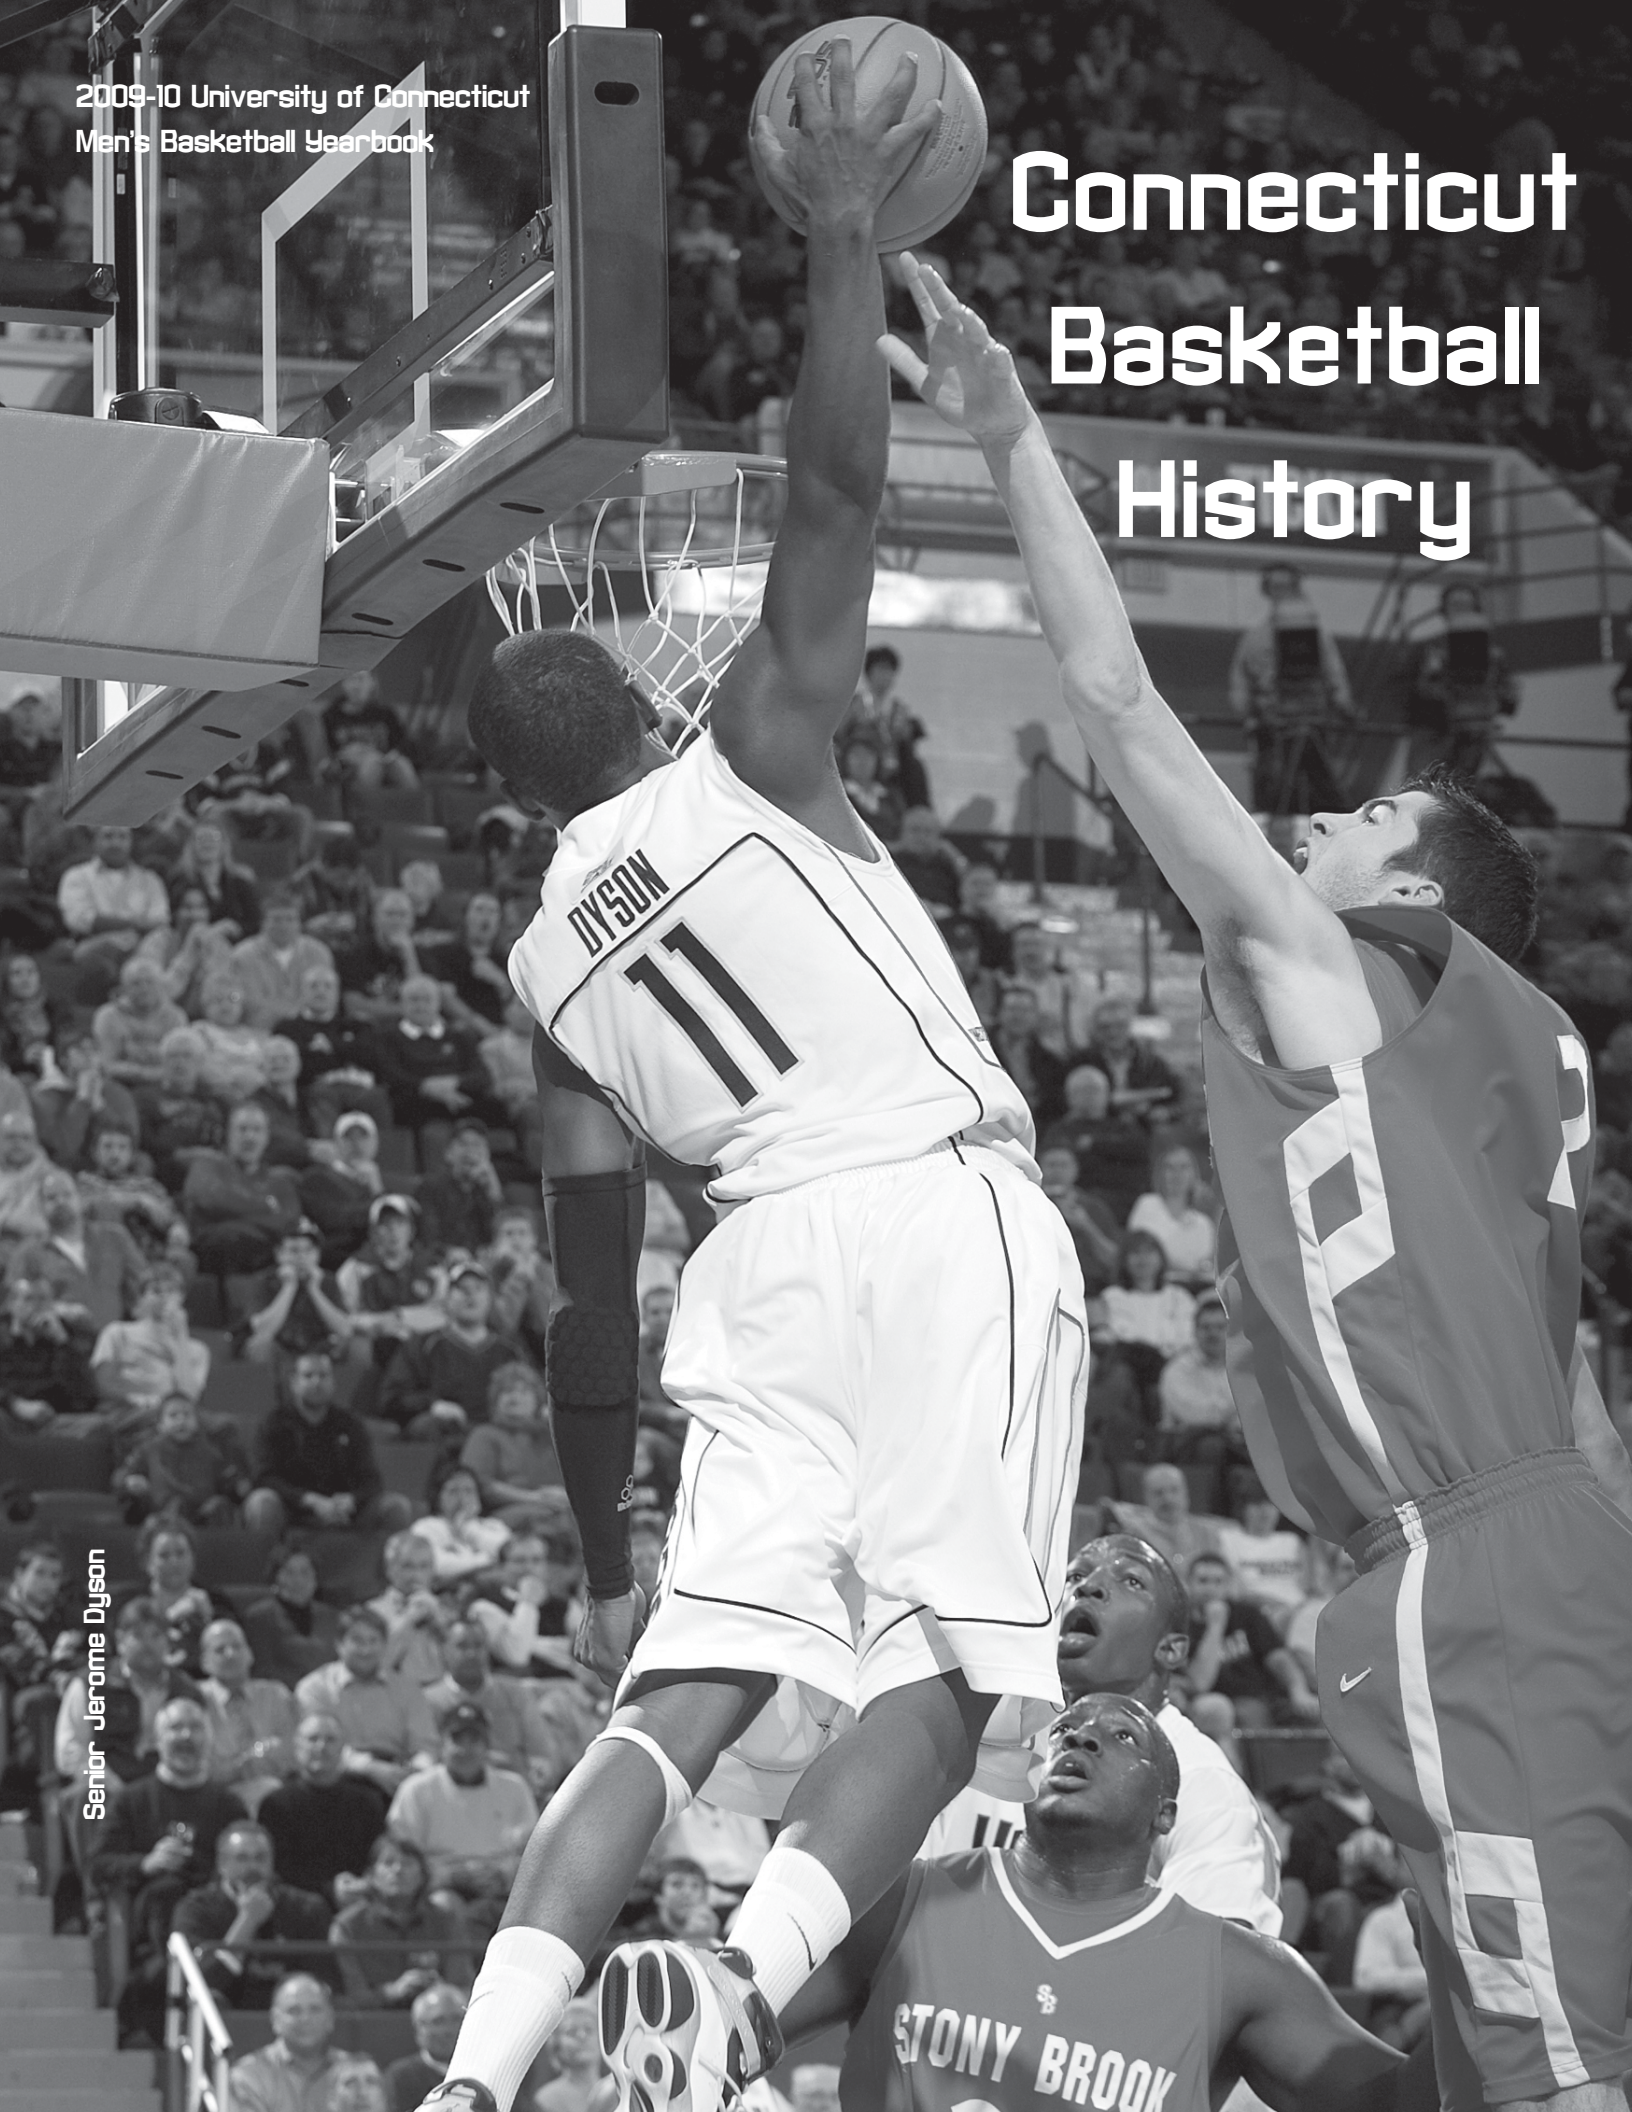

Archibald brings a variety of coaching and playing experience to the Husky program, including three seasons as a member of the UConn squad as a student-athlete. Archibald was a medical redshirt in 1998-99 as he recovered from surgery on both knees for patella tendinitis. He saw action in nine games for the Huskies in 1999-00. During the 2000-01 season, Archibald worked as an assistant to the coaching staff while still on scholarship.

Before returning to UConn, Archibald spent the previous five seasons working as an assistant coach on both a full-time and volunteer basis. In 2006-07, Archibald worked as an assistant coach at Florida International University. He was an assistant coach at the University of Texas at San Antonio in 2005-06 and served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for Hugh Durham at Jacksonville University in 2004-05. In 2003-04, Beau was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Florida Atlantic University. He assisted the coaching staff on a volunteer basis at Texas Tech University in 2002-03.

Archibald earned his bachelor of arts from UConn in May of 2003 and earned an associate degree from Utah Valley State College. He spent his freshman season at Washington State in 1996-97, playing in 29 games at the Pac-10 school. He played in only nine games in 1997-98 at Utah Valley State before undergoing the first of three knee surgeries in January of 1998. He also had knee procedures performed in January of 1999 and April of 1999 while at Connecticut. His knee injuries finally forced him to end his collegiate playing career prior to the 2000-01 season at UConn.

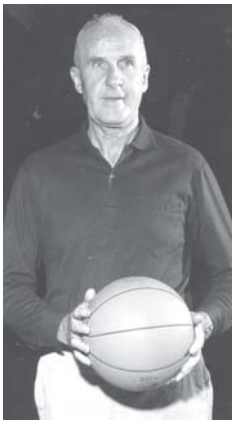

Archibald was born on December 19, 1976 and is a native of Los Angeles. He attended high school in Arizona and Utah while his father, the late Lynn Archibald, coached at UNLV, USC, Utah, Idaho State, BYU and Arizona State. He was the head coach at Idaho State (1977-82) and Utah (1984-89). His brother Damon has been an assistant coach at New Mexico State, Iowa State, USC and Pepperdine.

 - Note: In 1910-1911 an independent team was given permission to play some games under the college name. There was no official team, supported by the CAC Athletic Association, between 1908 and 1914. The "independent" CAC team was self-supporting, and played no collegiate opponents.

CAC reinstated its support of basketball at the end of the 1913-1914 year. The last two games of the 1914-1915 season were played in Hawley Armory. The first full season of competition at Hawley was during the 1915-1916 season.

A REMARKABLE TRANSFORMATION

A Campus for the 21st Century

- UConn continues to renew, rebuild and enhance the campuses through an unprecedented $2.8 billion, 20-year investment in the University's infrastructure. UCONN 2000 is the most ambitious publicly financed university building program in the country.
- Now in its 15th year, UCONN 2000 has invigorated the University's living and learning environments, helped advance faculty research, and stimulated public and private investment. This transformation revitalizes the state's future by providing the means for the University to attract high-achieving students, prestigious faculty, and funding from public grants and private donors. Before the landmark program, Connecticut had one of the highest ratios of students attending college out-of-state. Today that trend has been dramatically reversed.
- Applications have increased for the 12th consecutive year with more than 23,000 applicants competing for 3,200 seats at the main campus in Storrs and 1,100 seats at the regional campuses.
- For the fourth consecutive year, more than half of the applicants are out-of-state students. Nearly 12,000 students applied for no more than 30 percent of new student seats available to undergraduates living outside Connecticut.

The landmark UCONN 2000 construction program has created more than 9.5 million square feet of new and renovated space for research, teaching, living, and learning. Completed projects include:

- An award-winning building for the department of chemistry — the Chemistry Building is one of the best-designed buildings in the world according to the International Architecture Yearbook.
- New buildings for the Schools of Business and Pharmacy.
- The modern Biology/Physics Building, Information Technologies Engineering Building, and Agricultural Biotechnology Laboratory.
- Additions to the William Benton Museum of Art.
- Renovations to numerous facilities, including the Homer Babbidge Library, the historic Wilbur Cross Building, the Connecticut State Museum of Natural History, and the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.
- Construction that includes the latest innovations in student residential communities, ranging from traditional residence halls to suites to apartments.
- Revitalized downtown campuses in Stamford and Waterbury, a sophisticated marine facility at our Avery Point campus, and new buildings at the Greater Hartford and Torrington campuses, as well as the UConn School of Law.

Forthcoming projects made possible by UCONN 2000 include:

- A $300 million expansion to the UConn Health Center that will include a stem cell research institute, renovations to large lecture halls, and renovations to the dental clinics.
- New liberal arts facilities and life sciences buildings at the Storrs campus.

TOP TEN REASONS TO ATTEND UCONN

1. Ranked Among the Top 30 Public Universities in the Country

For the 11th consecutive year, U.S. News and World Report ranked UConn the top public university in New England and among the top 30 public universities in the nation. The Fiske Guide to Colleges declares, "Quality teaching is the trademark of a UConn education." Bolstered by this national recognition and academic prestige, the value of a UConn degree continues to soar.

2. 21st-Century Amenities

Now is a tremendously exciting time to attend UConn. A $2.8 billion landmark building program is dramatically transforming the places where students live, learn, and enjoy life. Through new construction and renovation, UConn offers the latest innovations nationally in university housing and dining and extensive recreational complexes. Classrooms and laboratories are being built at a remarkable rate, placing our facilities at the forefront of public higher education and propelling UConn to a position of national prominence.

3. The Right Fit

With a student/faculty ratio of 17:1, 21,300 undergraduate students receive personal attention and tailored academic advising. UConn also offers the opportunities of a premier research university, such as hands-on experience working in labs with professors who not only teach our courses, but who also are on the cutting edge of innovation and discovery.

4. World-Class Faculty

From writers and scientists to human rights activists and historians, our more than 1,300 full-time faculty members are committed to classroom teaching. Fostering a dynamic learning environment, they share research opportunities with high-achieving undergraduates. Our faculty include English professor Regina Barreca, whose humor appears in nationally published columns, and professor of pharmacy Ben Bahr, whose revolutionary research may unlock the mysteries of Alzheimer's Disease. Amii Omara-Otunnu, holder of the first and only UNESCO chair in human rights in the United States, provides pivotal leadership for the UConn-African National Congress Partnership.

Unlimited Opportunities for Involvement

Yoga. UConn Student Television. Fraternities and sororities. Film. Marching Band. Finance Society. Skydiving. Dance Team. Community Outreach. Choosing from more than 400 clubs and volunteer organizations, UConn students actively participate in campus and community life. Our students make governing decisions, plan events, organize intramural teams, host their own radio shows – and so much more.

Outstanding Residential Facilities

UConn has among the highest percentage of students living on campus of any major public university in the country. Residential life at UConn offers a distinct sense of community, as well as many social and cultural opportunities. We offer new students a range of dining options and accommodations, while offering upper-division students the latest in suite-style and apartment living. Fully wired residence halls come complete with study rooms, computer labs, and lounge areas.

More Than 100 Majors

Choices abound. Whether it's education, engineering, English, or environmental science, UConn has something for everyone. Students select an established major or design an individualized plan of study to meet their specific needs. UConn takes pride in offering all students, including those enrolled in our distinctive Honors Program, the opportunity to pursue a major in any of the University's 100+ programs of study. In addition to academic advisers, online study tools, and tutorial centers, UConn offers career counseling workshops, Study Abroad programs, and internships that offer valuable experience. The University of Connecticut offers many academic choices, yet remains committed to providing students with the support needed to help them achieve their goals.

An Exceptional Educational Value

Kiplinger's Personal Finance ranks UConn in the top 40 for best value in public colleges. Whether your long-range goals are preparing for a career, pursuing a graduate degree, or attending medical or law school, "students can receive a stellar education without graduating with a mountain of debt". UConn has a variety of programs to help many students financially, ranging from merit scholarship opportunities to need-based financial aid packages, all designed to support a large number of qualified students. The University also has many part-time campus jobs with flexible hours that help students earn extra spending money or build their résumé with hands-on work experience.

Location, Location, Location

With our main campus in Storrs, we're a major academic institution that values its small-town roots. Students enjoy the familiarity of an intimate academic institution, while being just a short drive from major cities. UConn's regional campuses are strategically placed across the state in Avery Point, Farmington, Stamford, Torrington, Waterbury, and West Hartford, offering a quality education to meet our students' distinct needs.

Huskymania

Division I in all sports, we have a variety of men's and women's varsity athletics. Home of Huskymania, sports at UConn include baseball, basketball, cross country, field hockey, football, golf, ice hockey, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track, and volleyball. Since 1995, UConn athletic teams have captured nine NCAA national championships, including unprecedented dual men's and women's basketball championships in 2004 —the first University to do so in NCAA Division I history. UConn's standard of athletic excellence extends to the gridiron, where the Huskies — 2007 BIG EAST Champions — play for sell-out crowds of 40,000 roaring football fans at the ultra-modern Rentschler Field.

PRESIDENT MICHAEL J. HOGAN

Michael J. Hogan was appointed the 14th president of the University of Connecticut in September, 2007. From the beginning, his administration has been marked by broad consultation with the UConn family, including faculty, students, parents, trustees, alumni, donors, staff, legislators, and friends of the University throughout the public and private sectors.

Since arriving at UConn, President Hogan has established strategic initiatives that continue to move UConn along an upward trajectory as one of the top public research and teaching universities in the nation. These initiatives include strengthening UConn's research enterprise and enhancing its portfolio of sponsored research, building more top-notch graduate programs, continuing to advance UConn's outstanding undergraduate programs, and forging new partnerships with public and private constituents throughout the State of Connecticut, and beyond.

President Hogan came to UConn from the University of Iowa where he was the Executive Vice President and Provost and F. Wendell Miller Professor of History. Prior to his appointment at Iowa, he spent 18 years at Ohio State University where he served as chair of the Department of History, as dean of the College of Humanities, and as executive dean of the Colleges of the Arts and Sciences.

His career as a History faculty member also included nine years at Miami University, service at Stony Brook University, and at the University of Texas in Austin.

Born and raised in Waterloo, Iowa, President Hogan earned his B.A. degree at the University of Northern Iowa, where he majored in English with minors in history and classics; his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees were conferred by the University of Iowa.

A specialist in the history of American diplomacy, President Hogan is the author or editor of nine books and a host of scholarly articles and essays. His publications include

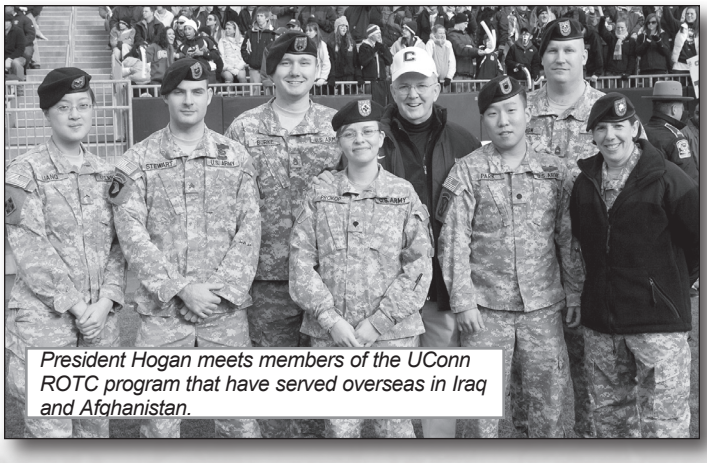

The Marshall Plan: America, Britain, and the Reconstruction of Western Europe, 1947-1952 (Cambridge, 1987), which received the Stuart L. Bernath Book Award of the Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations, the George Louis Beer Prize of the American Historical Association, and the Quincy Wright Prize of the International Studies Association.

His most recent books include A Cross of Iron: Harry S. Truman and the Origins of the National Security State, 1945-1954 (Cambridge, 1998), and his edited volume, Paths to Power: The Historiography of American Foreign Relations to 1941 (Cambridge, 2000).

President Hogan has been a fellow at the Harry S. Truman Library Institute and the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, and has served as Louis Martin Sears Distinguished Professor of History at Purdue University. For 15 years he was editor of Diplomatic History, an international journal of record for specialists in diplomacy and foreign affairs. He has served on numerous editorial boards and as vice president and president of the Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations.

Dr. Hogan and members of the UConn student body cheer the Huskies on at Rentschler Field.

President Hogan meets members of the UConn ROTC program that have served overseas in Iraq and Afghanistan.

He has also served on the U. S. Department of State's Advisory Committee on Diplomatic Documentation, which he chaired for three years, and also as a consultant for a number of BBC documentaries and for the PBS special George C. Marshall and the American Century.

President Hogan met his wife, Virginia, while in graduate school at the University of Iowa, where she also earned her M.A. degree. They have four children and seven grandchildren, and counting. President Hogan's sister, Sally, resides with her husband in Farmington, Conn.

President Hogan congratulates football and track and field student-athlete Ellis Gaulden at commencement exercises in May, 2008.

- Faculty researchers volunteer their expertise in finding solutions to society's environmental, technological, and health concerns.
- Funding from federal and private sources sponsors valuable scholarly studies of important civic issues.

Promoting Arts, Culture and Husky Pride

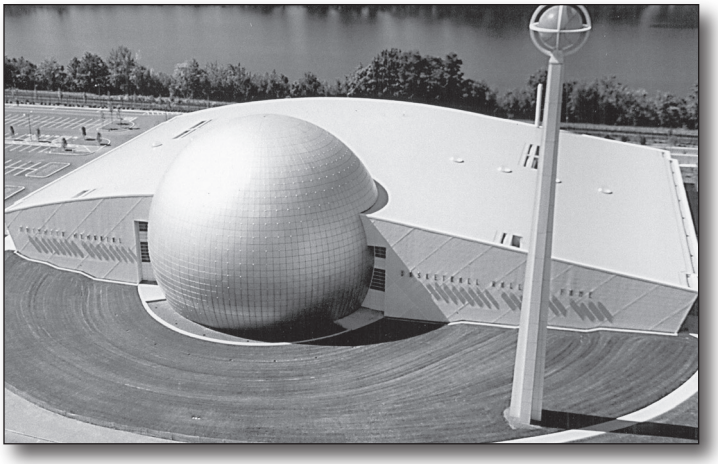

- State residents derive benefit from exciting, culturally rich attractions through the University's remarkably diverse range of museums, performing arts venues, and recreational programs. At the same time, unified pride in UConn athletics — "Huskymania" — has drawn fans from across the state and region to attend games, boosting demand for UConn-branded products and encouraging corporate support.
- Since 1986, worldwide licensing of Husky products has generated more than $200 million in retail sales.
- More than 1 million people attended public events on UConn campuses statewide in 2008.
- More than 2/3 of Connecticut's general population believes that having a strong UConn is vital to the future of Connecticut's economy.

In addition to all that the city of Hartford and the state of Connecticut has to offer, the region within two hours of Storrs is ripe with cultural and entertainment possibilities.

SPRINGFIELD (47 miles)

The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame is located less than an hour from Storrs in Springfield, Mass., just minutes from the YMCA where Dr. James Naismith invented the game in 1891. A must-see for any fan of the hardwood, the Hall of Fame reopened in the fall of 2002 in a brand new $45 million home just off of Interstate 91 in Springfield. The pinnacle of any basketball career, the hall's long list of inductees now includes UConn men's basketball coach Jim Calhoun, a 2005 inductee, and women's basketball coach Geno Auriemma, a 2006 inductee. Once you finish your tour of the Hall of Fame, Springfield's neighboring suburb of Agawam is the home of Six Flags New England, the region's largest amusement park.

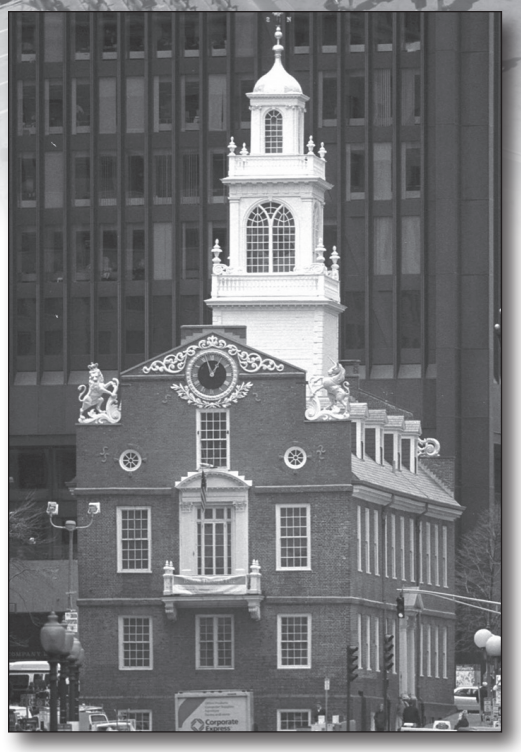

NEW YORK CITY (142 miles)

The United States' largest city and "the media capital of the world," New York City is located approximately two hours from Storrs and offers a wide array of cultural opportunities. From the glitter of Times Square, to the vast expanse of Central Park, to the majestic skyline, New York City is an incomparable destination and one that can be easily reached by the Metro-North train lines that run into southern Connecticut. UConn students also enjoy the city's active sporting landscape. The BIG EAST Conference men's basketball tournament, played every March at fabled Madison Square Garden, is one of the country's premier collegiate conference championship events. The New York metro area also boasts 10 major professional sports franchises, including the NFL's New York Jets and Giants, Major League Baseball's New York Mets and Yankees, the NBA's New York Knicks and New Jersey Nets, the NHL's New York Islanders, New York Rangers and New Jersey Devils and the WNBA's New York Liberty.

BOSTON (86 miles)

The birthplace of the American Revolution, Boston's historic Freedom Trail is a living history textbook, covering everything from the Battle of Bunker Hill to the midnight ride of Paul Revere. Meanwhile, the city blends its old world charm with a cosmopolitan new world attitude that is evidenced by some of the trendier shops and restaurants that line both historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace and the Back Bay's Newbury Street. One of the world's foremost centers of education, Boston is home to over 50 colleges and universities; perhaps the entire world's most concentrated collection of colleges. The greater Boston area also includes the summer beach resorts on Cape Cod and the islands of Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard. A hub of sporting activity, the 2004 and 2007 World Series Champion Boston Red Sox have called fabled Fenway Park home since 1912. The 2008 NBA Champion Boston Celtics ad the NHL's Boston Bruins also call Beantown home while the 2002, 2004 and 2005 Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots and MLS' New England Revolution play outside of the city in Foxboro's Gillette Stadium.

PROVIDENCE (51 miles)

Rhode Island's capital city shows that one of the nation's smallest states also has plenty to offer its visitors. The multi-cultural capital city, which dates back to 1636, is the Ocean State's centerpiece. The best known hamlet on the Rhode Island shore, the ocean town of Newport is world famous for its mansions and is a popular vacation destination for those seeking aquatic activities. Newport's renowned music festival is also a well-attended annual event.

THE STORRS CENTER PROJECT

Main Street is the heart and the soul of a community, a place to meet friends for dinner before the game, to run daily errands, to enjoy the local music scene, or to buy a newspaper to read while sipping your morning coffee. Main Street is the magic that can transform a street into a neighborhood, buildings into a village or a small town into a regional destination.

In 2001, the Town of Mansfield teamed with UConn to form the Mansfield Downtown Partnership and set about creating its own "Main Street" area, Storrs Center. Storrs Center will be a mixed-use town center and main street corridor at the crossroads of the Town and the University. Located along Storrs Road/Route 195 adjacent to the University, the Town Hall, E.O. Smith High School, and the Mansfield Community Center, Storrs Center will include a town square, pedestrian-oriented streets, small lanes, and public spaces. There will be a variety of shops, restaurants, cafés, and residential options, which will attract all ages and interests and provide spaces for the community to gather.

The Mansfield Downtown Partnership and master developer LeylandAlliance have worked diligently to make the vision of Storrs Center a reality. Some of their recent progress includes the receipt of major pre-construction approvals from the Mansfield Planning and Zoning Commission, the Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and the State Traffic Commission.

As progress continues, excitement about the project has steadily grown. The Partnership has garnered support from a variety of Mansfield residents, as evidenced by its 400 members. Another sign of the broad support this project enjoys is the over $18 million in state and federal funding the Storrs Center project has received. Mansfield residents, local, state, and regional officials, and proponents of sustainable development, such as 1,000 Friends of Connecticut and CT Main Street Center, all recognize the value the new downtown will bring to the town, region, and state.

With major approvals in hand and a significant amount of grant monies received, the Partnership and LeylandAlliance are continuing to prepare for the beginning of construction. Negotiations between LeylandAlliance and prospective tenants are on-going. In addition to leasing agreements, other pre-requisites to construction include parking commitments for the first phase and financing commitments, both private and public.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JEFFREY HATHAWAY

Jeffrey A. Hathaway has played a vital role in the success story of athletics at the University of Connecticut for 18 of the past 20 years.

Hathaway is in his seventh year as Director of Athletics at UConn and he was the Executive Associate Director of Athletics at the school from 1990-2001.

In his only two years away from the Storrs campus, Hathaway enjoyed a successful tenure as the Director of Athletics at Colorado State University from 2001-03.

His first six years as UConn's Director of Athletics have arguably been the most successful in school history.

During the 2008-09 academic year, the women's basketball team won the NCAA Championship with a spotless 39-0 record, the men's basketball team advanced to the NCAA Final Four and the football team won the International Bowl as the team made its first-ever consecutive bowl appearance. The field hockey team won the BIG EAST Championship and advanced to the NCAA tournament and the men's soccer team also made NCAA play while the men's and women's indoor track and field teams each won BIG EAST Championships.

Hathaway also directed UConn to reach an agreement with IMG College, a division of IMG Worldwide, during the 2008-09 academic year. This 10-year athletics multi-media rights partnership is worth more than $80 million in guaranteed payments to the University.

In 2007-08, UConn successfully completed the NCAA certification process. The institution was previously certified, once every 10 years as set forth by the NCAA, in 1998. Hathaway provided leadership for a comprehensive, year-long self study of the operations in the Division of Athletics, a site visit by a peer review team, a NCAA certification committee's review of the self-study and a report by the peer review team.

The Division also reached new long-term agreements with two of its media partners in recent years – Connecticut Public Television for women's basketball and WTIC radio for football and men's and women's basketball. UConn also completed a landmark ten-year, $46 million corporate partnership agreement with Nike, Inc. to exclusively provide footwear, apparel and equipment for Husky athletics.

In addition to his leadership role at UConn, Hathaway began a five-year term in 2007-08 on the prestigious NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee representing the BIG EAST Conference. As a member of the ten-person committee, Hathaway takes part in the selection and administration of the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship and the administration of the CBS television contract. He is only the fourth individual in the history of the BIG EAST Conference to serve on the committee, joining Dave Gavitt, Jake Crouthamel and Mike Tranghese.

Hathaway is a member of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association Board of Trustees and on the Executive Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

Some significantly historic achievements have occurred during Hathaway's time as Director of Athletics. UConn became the first school to win the NCAA Division I men's and women's basketball championships in the same year (2004) and the football team was victorious in its first ever bowl game - the 2004 Motor City Bowl.

Private fundraising for UConn athletics continues to provide exceptional academic and athletic opportunities for student-athletes as more than $85 million has been raised during Hathaway's tenure as Director.

UConn secured a gift of $2.5 million from alumnus Mark Shenkman in 2004 for the building of the Mark R. Shenkman Training Center, an intercollegiate and recreational services facility that serves the entire university community.

Under Hathaway's guidance, the Division of Athletics received the University's Environmental Leadership Award for the construction of The Burton Family Football Complex and the Mark R. Shenkman Training Center. The two buildings are the University's first projects certified as meeting the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) standards for "green" buildings. At its 13th annual awards ceremony in March of 2008, the Connecticut Real Estate Exchange presented UConn with the "Green Building Award" for these environmentally-friendly facilities.

In his role as Director, Hathaway also oversees UConn's Recreational Services program. Serving the entire University community, approximately 580,000 individual uses were logged last year, reflecting the popularity of the diverse health and fitness offerings to students, faculty and staff.

Hathaway leads a head coaching staff that is one of the most experienced in the country. UConn has 13 head coaches that have been in their current position 10 or more years as of the 2009-10 academic year, including women's basketball coach Geno Auriemma (25th year in 2009-10), men's basketball coach Jim Calhoun (24th) and football coach Randy Edsall (11th). The University recently completed long term contract extensions with Auriemma and Edsall. UConn has the distinction of being the only school in the nation with two active Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame coaches in Calhoun (Class of 2005 inductee) and Auriemma (Class of 2006 inductee).

Hathaway was also a key factor in the opening of Rentschler Field in 2003 – the country's newest and most modern BCS college football facility.

During Hathaway's career, he has always made the student-athlete the top priority.

In the spring and fall semesters of the 2008 calendar year, UConn's student-athletes excelled in the classroom as nearly 50% of the 650 student-athletes achieved a 3.0 "B-or better" semester grade point average. In addition, the Division of Athletics has consistently maintained a 99 percent retention rate among its student-athletes.

"My focus is on the student-athlete," says Hathaway. "That's the most important part of our program. Our primary mission is the continued academic success of our student-athletes. The challenge is to identify people early in the process and assist them in charting a career path. In addition, we want to provide a quality experience in intercollegiate athletics for our student-athletes."

The University of Connecticut was saluted for its community service efforts by the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS) for the third consecutive year for its community service efforts. UConn was also honored by the NCAS in 2006 and '07 for its efforts to assist former student-athletes in earning their college degree.

In the 2006-07 academic year, Hathaway served on University search committees to hire President Michael J. Hogan, Vice President/ Chief Operating Officer Barry Feldman and Executive Director of the Alumni Association Lisa Lewis.

Hathaway's leadership has earned him respect and recognition both on the national and local levels.

He was one of four finalists for the "Athletic Director of the Year" in the spring of 2008 at the inaugural Sports Business Awards by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal.

UConn Director of Athletics Jeffrey Hathaway and members of the 1958 Yankee Conference championship team last year at its 50th anniversary reunion.

In the summer of 2007, Hathaway was honored by NACDA as the AstroTurf Athletic Director of the Year for Division I-A in the Northeast region (which includes the New England states and New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and New Jersey).

In 2004, The Sporting News named Hathaway to its "Power 100 List" - comprised of the 100 most powerful people in sports. He received the Joseph J. Fontana Distinguished Service Award from the Connecticut High School Coaches Association in the spring of 2005. In the winter of 2006, Hathaway received the General Robert R. Neyland Outstanding Athletic Director Award from the All-American Football Foundation.

During his tenure at both Colorado State and UConn, he was a member of the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet, as well as the Postseason Football Licensing Subcommittee, which is responsible for issues involving postseason football competition and the certification of bowl games.

On the conference level, Hathaway is the chair of the BIG EAST Athletic Directors Executive Committee through November of 2009. He is also past chairman of the BIG EAST Championship and Competition Committee as well as the league's Finance Committee.

Hathaway has served as a guest presenter at both the NACDA and NACMA (National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators) conventions in the past. In addition, he has also served as a lecturer at the IA Institute sponsored by the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association, held annually in Dallas.

Hathaway originally came to Connecticut in November of 1990 as Senior Associate Athletic Director. In that role, he oversaw the day-to-day operations of the Division of Athletics.

He served internally as a program administrator for several sports, including men's and women's basketball and men's and women's soccer at UConn as the Huskies won four national championships in those sports during his tenure - two in women's basketball (1995 and 2000) and one each in men's basketball (1999) and men's soccer (2000).

Hathaway was also the program administrator for football. He played a critical role in the upgrade of the football program to Division I-A status as UConn became the first ever school to transition from the I-AA level to a BCS football conference.

During Hathaway's tenure at Colorado State, he oversaw a 15-sport program - nine women's teams and six men's. The Ram football team made a pair of bowl appearances while Hathaway was at CSU. The men's basketball team won the Mountain West Conference tournament in March of '03 and advanced to the NCAA tournament for the first time in 13 years. The women's basketball team advanced to postseason play twice, including a trip to the second round of the NCAA tournament in 2002 and the semifinals of the 2003 Women's NIT.

Hathaway was an extremely successful fundraiser during his time in Fort Collins. The school drew national attention for a $15.2 million gift from the Bohemian Foundation and president Pat Stryker for football stadium renovations and expansion.

Prior to his first stint at UConn, Hathaway served in a number of capacities at his alma mater - the University of Maryland - from 1982-90, including Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing and Promotions, Acting Assistant Athletics Director for Business Affairs, Athletics Business Manager and men's basketball trainer.

Hathaway earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Administration from the University of Maryland in 1981. He later received a Master's Degree in General Administration (1991) from the University of Maryland and is currently continuing work on a PhD in Educational Leadership from the University of Connecticut.

He attended The Sports Management Institute at the Universities of Notre Dame and Southern California. Hathaway also completed the Management Development Program at Harvard University.

Born June 20, 1959, in Cheverly, Md., Hathaway and his wife Paula have two children: Meghan (October 15, 1991) and Michael (June 11, 1995).

MARK R. SHENKMAN TRAINING CENTER

Thanks to alumnus Mark R. Shenkman, the University of Connecticut now joins the ranks of major universities nationwide with an indoor training facility that is utilized by UConn's varsity sports teams and recreational services.

His $2.5 million gift, one of the largest ever to the UConn Division of Athletics, built an intercollegiate and recreational service facility that serves the entire UConn community.

The 85,000 square foot Mark R. Shenkman Training Center is the newest and most modern facility of its kind in the country.

Construction on the facility began in the fall of 2004 and the Mark R. Shenkman Training Center opened in the summer of 2006. It features a 120-yard long state-of-the-art FieldTurf playing surface.

The Mark R. Shenkman Training Center becomes the University's first project certified as meeting the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) standards for "green" buildings. LEED designation is a process certifying that a building project meets a wide range of environmentally friendly criteria. This new construction marks the first college or university athletic project in the nation to earn the designation.

The UConn Division of Athletics received the Environmental Leadership Award from the University of Connecticut for the work performed at the Mark R. Shenkman Training Center. The site of the Mark R. Shenkman Training Center includes rain garden and bio-retention swales that retain storm water runoff, minimize downstream impacts, and remove stormwater pollutants naturally through soil and plants. Fifty-percent of the construction site was preserved as open spaces and there is full cut-off lighting to reduce exterior light pollution. There is also drought-tolerant native landscaping that do not require irrigation.

A resident of Greenwich, Connecticut, Shenkman graduated from the Wilbraham & Monson Academy in Wilbraham, Mass. He received a bachelor's degree in political science from UConn in 1965 followed by a master's degree in business administration from The George Washington University. Shenkman is the founder and president of Shenkman Capital Management, Inc., a registered investment advisor with offices in New York City and Stamford, Connecticut. He served on the UConn Foundation's Board of Directors for nine years and is now an emeritus director. He is also a member of that group's investment committee. Shenkman was elected to the UConn School of Business Hall of Fame in 2002 and has endowed a classroom and the e-Commerce Chair for the business school.

"We are very grateful to Mark and Rosalind Shenkman and their entire family for this significant enhancement to our athletic program," says UConn Director of Athletics Jeff Hathaway. "This landmark facility provides all of our varsity teams with an outstanding training venue while adding to our recreational services offerings."

Director of Athletics Jeff Hathaway, Mark Shenkman, Head Men's Basketball Coach Jim Calhoun and Special Advisor for Athletics Dee Rowe.

UCONN BASKETBALL TRADITIONS

"UCONN HUSKY" FIGHT SONG

"UConn Husky" is the fight song of the school. It was written in the mid-1930's by Herb France, who was UConn's Director of Music until the mid-1950's. The song is widely known for its playing at different sporting events, but got "out of this world" attention in October 1989 when it was played aboard NASA's Space Shuttle to wake up the shuttle astronauts. Among those astronauts on the mission was Franklin Chang-Diaz, a 1973 UConn graduate.

UConn Husky
Symbol of might to the foe.
Fight, fight Connecticut,
It's victory, let's go!
Connecticut UConn Husky,
Do it again for the white and blue,
So go, go, go, go, Connecticut,
Connecticut U.
C-O-N-N-E-C-T-I-C-U-T, Connecticut
Connecticut Husky,
Connecticut Husky,
Connecticut C-O-N-N-U. Fight!
(Repeat first verse)

SCHOOL COLORS

The official colors of the University of Connecticut are National Flag Blue and White. To be specific, the blue is listed as PMS 289, a deep shade of navy.

STAND UNTIL THEY SCORE

Enthusiastic UConn fans and students are known for supporting their team in a way known as "Huskymania." Part of "Huskymania" includes the standing and rhythmic clapping by fans at the Hartford Civic Center and Harry A. Gampel Pavilion until UConn scores its first basket of the first and second halves.

JONATHAN THE HUSKY MASCOT

The official mascot of the University of Connecticut is a Siberian Husky dog named Jonathan. The first Husky dog came to the Storrs campus in Dec. 1934 and the puppy was named for Jonathan Trumbull, Governor of Connecticut during the Revolutionary War. Jonathan I's pedigree was traced back to include a great-grandfather, who traveled to the North Pole with Admiral E. Byrd in 1909. Jonathan III was with Admiral Byrd when he undertook "Operation High Jump" to the Antarctic in 1946-47.

A costumed mascot, an all-white Siberian Husky, gained popularity over the past several decades and through national television exposure has become "in demand" throughout the state and region, representing his University.

UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT ALMA MATER

Once more, as we gather today
To sing our alma mater's praise
And join in the fellowship strong
That inspires our college days.
We're backing our teams in the strife

Cheering them to victory.
We pledge anew
To old Connecticut,
Our steadfast spirit of loyalty.

Connecticut, Connecticut
Thy sons and daughters true
Unite to honor thy name
Our fairest white and blue.
When time shall have severed us far
And the years their changes bring,
The thought of the college we love
In our memories will cling.
For friendships that ever remain
And associations dear
We'll raise a song
To old Connecticut
And join our voices in our long cheer

Connecticut, Connecticut
Thy sons and daughters true
Unite to honor thy name
Our fairest white and blue.

J. ROBERT DONNELLY HUSKY HERITAGE SPORTS MUSEUM

The sights and sounds of more than a century of intercollegiate athletics competition come alive during a visit to the J. Robert Donnelly Husky Heritage Sports Museum.

Located in the new and expanded UConn Alumni Center in the heart of the University of Connecticut's main campus in Storrs, the Husky Heritage Sports Museum is the ultimate library documenting the wide-ranging successes of Connecticut's athletic programs.

The state-of-the-art design and layout of the 2,700 square foot Husky Heritage Sports Museum, named after benefactor and 1940 Connecticut basketball and football captain J. Robert (Bob) Donnelly (shown above with wife M.J.), vividly captures all of the energy, excitement and enthusiasm that is associated with "Huskymania". Donnelly passed away on Sept. 26, 2005.

The visitors' UConn experience begins with the University of Connecticut "National Champions" Gallery. This unique museum addition, located in the entrance foyer of the Husky Heritage Sports Museum, was unveiled in December of 2004 and will serve as a permanent tribute to all University of Connecticut varsity teams that climbed to the mountaintop and earned the right to be called National Champions.

Currently, a total of 13 national champion squads, representing four different UConn sports, have team photos and national championship logos on display in the National Champions gallery.

Included in the National Champions Gallery is the unbeaten 1948 men's soccer team of Coach John Squires, the 1981 and 1985 UConn women's field hockey teams of Coach Diane Wright, the 1981 men's soccer team of Coach Joe Morrone, the 2000 men's soccer team of Coach Ray Reid, the six national championship women's basketball teams of Coach Geno Auriemma (1995, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2009), and the 1999 and 2004 UConn men's basketball teams of Coach Jim Calhoun.

Upon entering the Husky Heritage Sports Museum, visitors are greeted by a full figure statue of Jonathan, the legendary mascot of all Husky athletic teams.

Oversized banners proudly hang from the ceiling, displaying action images that feature 88 of Connecticut's All-American stars representing 17 different intercollegiate sports.

A tour of the various sections of the Husky Heritage Sports Museum is a walk down memory lane for long-time followers of Connecticut athletics. For fans just becoming acquainted with UConn's tradition of excellence, the various themes and areas of the museum, when woven together, narrate a complete and compelling sport-by-sport story line. The growth and development of Connecticut athletics is traced via text, photographs and select artifacts from its humble beginnings in the 1890s to its present day ranking among the elite major college athletic programs in the nation.

Included among the "must see" memorabilia in the Husky Heritage Sports Museum main concourse are the 1981 and 2000 NCAA National Championship Men's Soccer trophies; the 1981 and 1985 NCAA National Championship Women's Field Hockey trophies; the 1950s era baseball gloves belonging to Connecticut's three Dropo brothers-including Walt Dropo's first baseman's mitt when he was the American League Rookie of the Year with the Boston Red Sox in 1950; the 1935 Ramnapping Trophy, awarded annually to the winner of the Connecticut-Rhode Island football game; a 1931 football signed by the entire Connecticut squad; team photos of Connecticut's first men's (1901) and women's (1902) basketball squads; and the Waterford Crystal NCAA National Championship trophies won by UConn Women's Basketball (1995, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2009) and UConn Men's Basketball (1999, 2004).

The pinnacle achievement of UConn's eight NCAA National Championships in both men's and women's basketball is preserved and promoted in a unique circular sanctuary—the Connecticut Basketball Rotunda, a gift of Herb and Marcia Dunn.

Championship trophies and related artifacts that chronicle UConn's men's and women's national titles are prominently featured in the rotunda, as are life-size cutouts of Husky All-American stars Ray Allen and Rebecca Lobo. Celebratory paintings of head coaches Jim Calhoun and Geno Auriemma are on display along with a one-of-a-kind watercolor team photo of the 25-member UConn Men's Basketball All-Century team.

Also within the Husky Heritage Sports Museum experience is a video wall featuring a 65-inch high definition television. Visitors can view numerous historical moments in UConn history as captured on a variety of highlight films and documentaries.

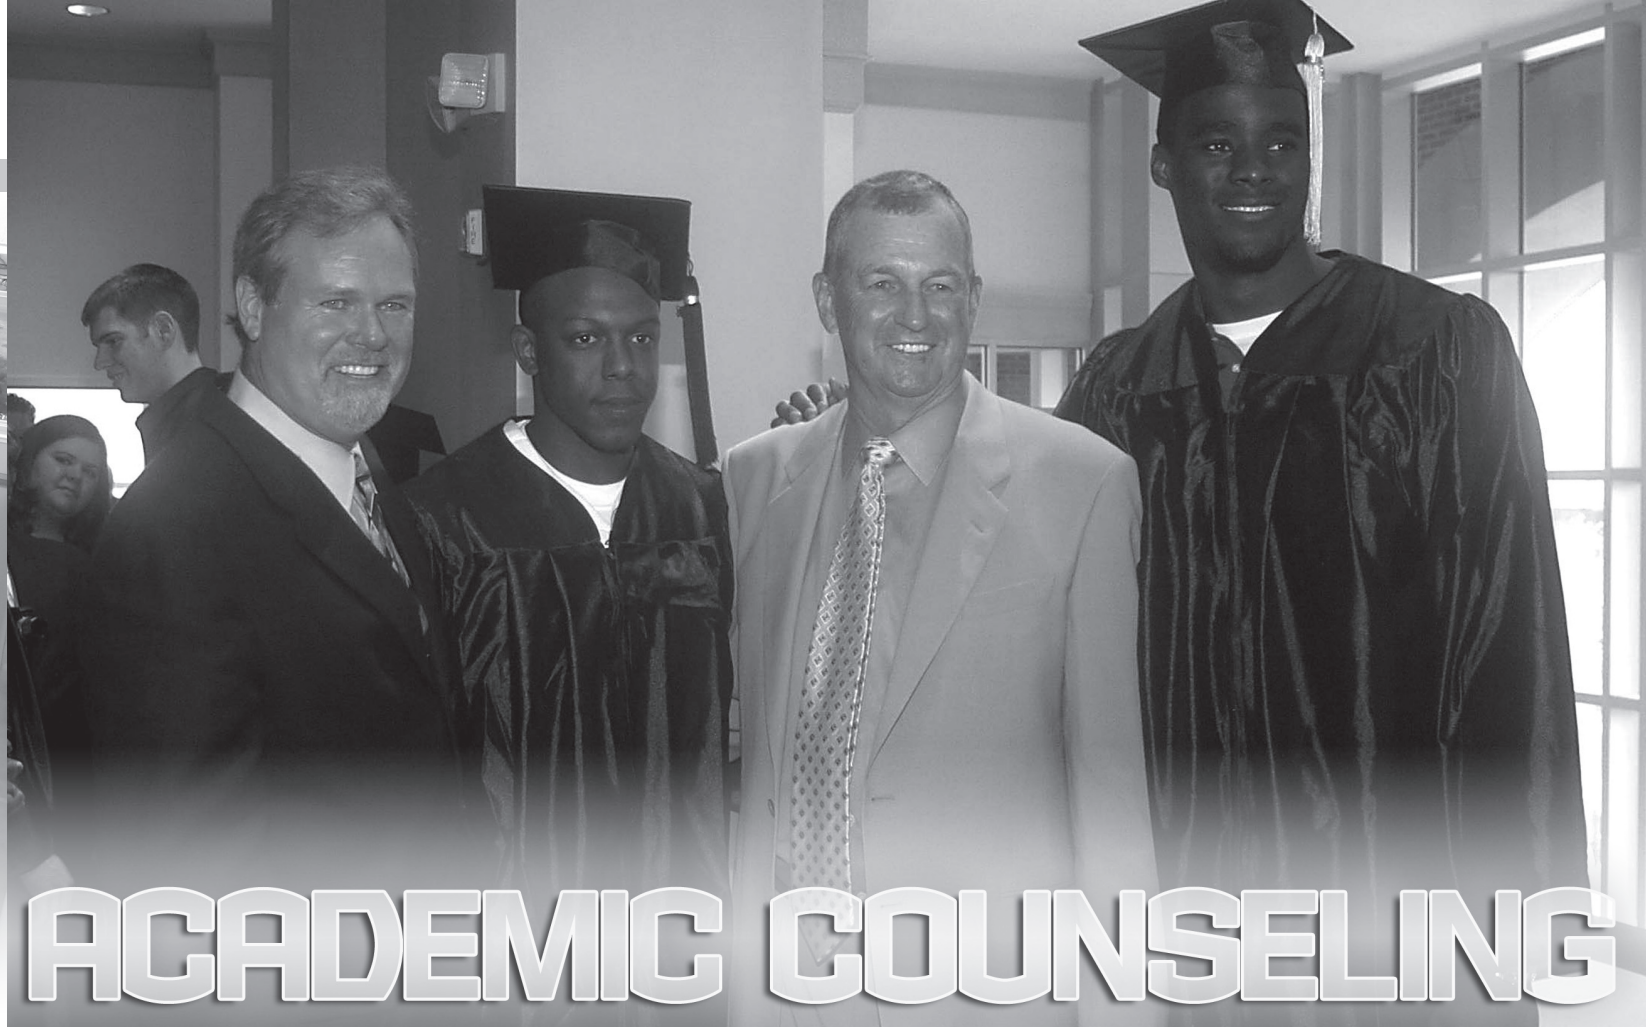

Each display case of memorabilia and every historical photograph located within the walls of the J. Robert Donnelly Husky Heritage Sports Museum describe a portion of a truly remarkable story.

That story of the teams, the coaches, and student-athletes who have been part of the rich history that constitutes the University of Connecticut athletic experience is now being told on a daily basis at UConn's Husky Heritage Sports Museum.

The J. Robert Donnelly Husky Heritage Sports Museum is open free of charge to the general public during regular business hours (8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) of the UConn Alumni Center.

Since the Husky Heritage Sports Museum opened in January of 2002, several important artifacts have been donated from UConn loyalists to help expand the scope of the Connecticut Athletics storyline.

The University of Connecticut Division of Athletics continues to seek additional memorabilia/artifacts to help expand the story of the UConn Huskies. Anyone wishing to donate specific Connecticut Athletics items to the J. Robert Donnelly Husky Heritage Sports Museum should contact: Tim Tolokan, Phone: (860) 486-9097, e-mail: tim.tolokan@uconn.edu.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

The University of Connecticut is committed to each of its basketball players, and all of its student-athletes, as a total person. Participation in athletics is important, but it represents only one aspect of a basketball player's college experience. At the University of Connecticut, academic achievement is the primary concern. Impressively, for the past four years the Connecticut student-athlete retention rate has been 99.0 percent.

The University's commitment to the student-athlete is a dual one. Participation on the basketball court is not viewed as an obstacle to the attainment of one's educational goals, rather it is seen as a complementary activity. Each supports the other. Athletic excellence is stressed, but academic achievement is never compromised - indeed, it is given the utmost priority.

The University realizes that basketball players and all student-athletes, due to their academic involvement, are required to commit a large percentage of their personal time to University sponsored athletic activities. For this reason, the University recognizes the need for a support program for its intercollegiate athletes. The Counseling Program for Intercollegiate Athletes (CPIA) constantly assists all student-athletes in achieving their academic goals. The CPIA staff serves as a liaison to the academic faculty, the Division of Athletics, and the student-athlete.

In serving as a liaison between the Connecticut student-athletes and University faculty and staff, the CPIA counselors also provide assistance in securing appropriate support services available with the University. These include orientation for student-athletes, supervised study halls, individual tutors and tutorial centers (an English/Writing Center, Math Center and Reading Center) and learning skills seminars.

For the past six years, the writing lab and computers have been networked to a national database which allow all student-athletes to do research at their actual computer stations.

A counselor is assigned to work with each intercollegiate team and working directly with the UConn men's basketball program as a Faculty Advisor within CPIA is Dr. Theodore (Ted) Taigen, Associate Professor of Biology at the University of Connecticut.

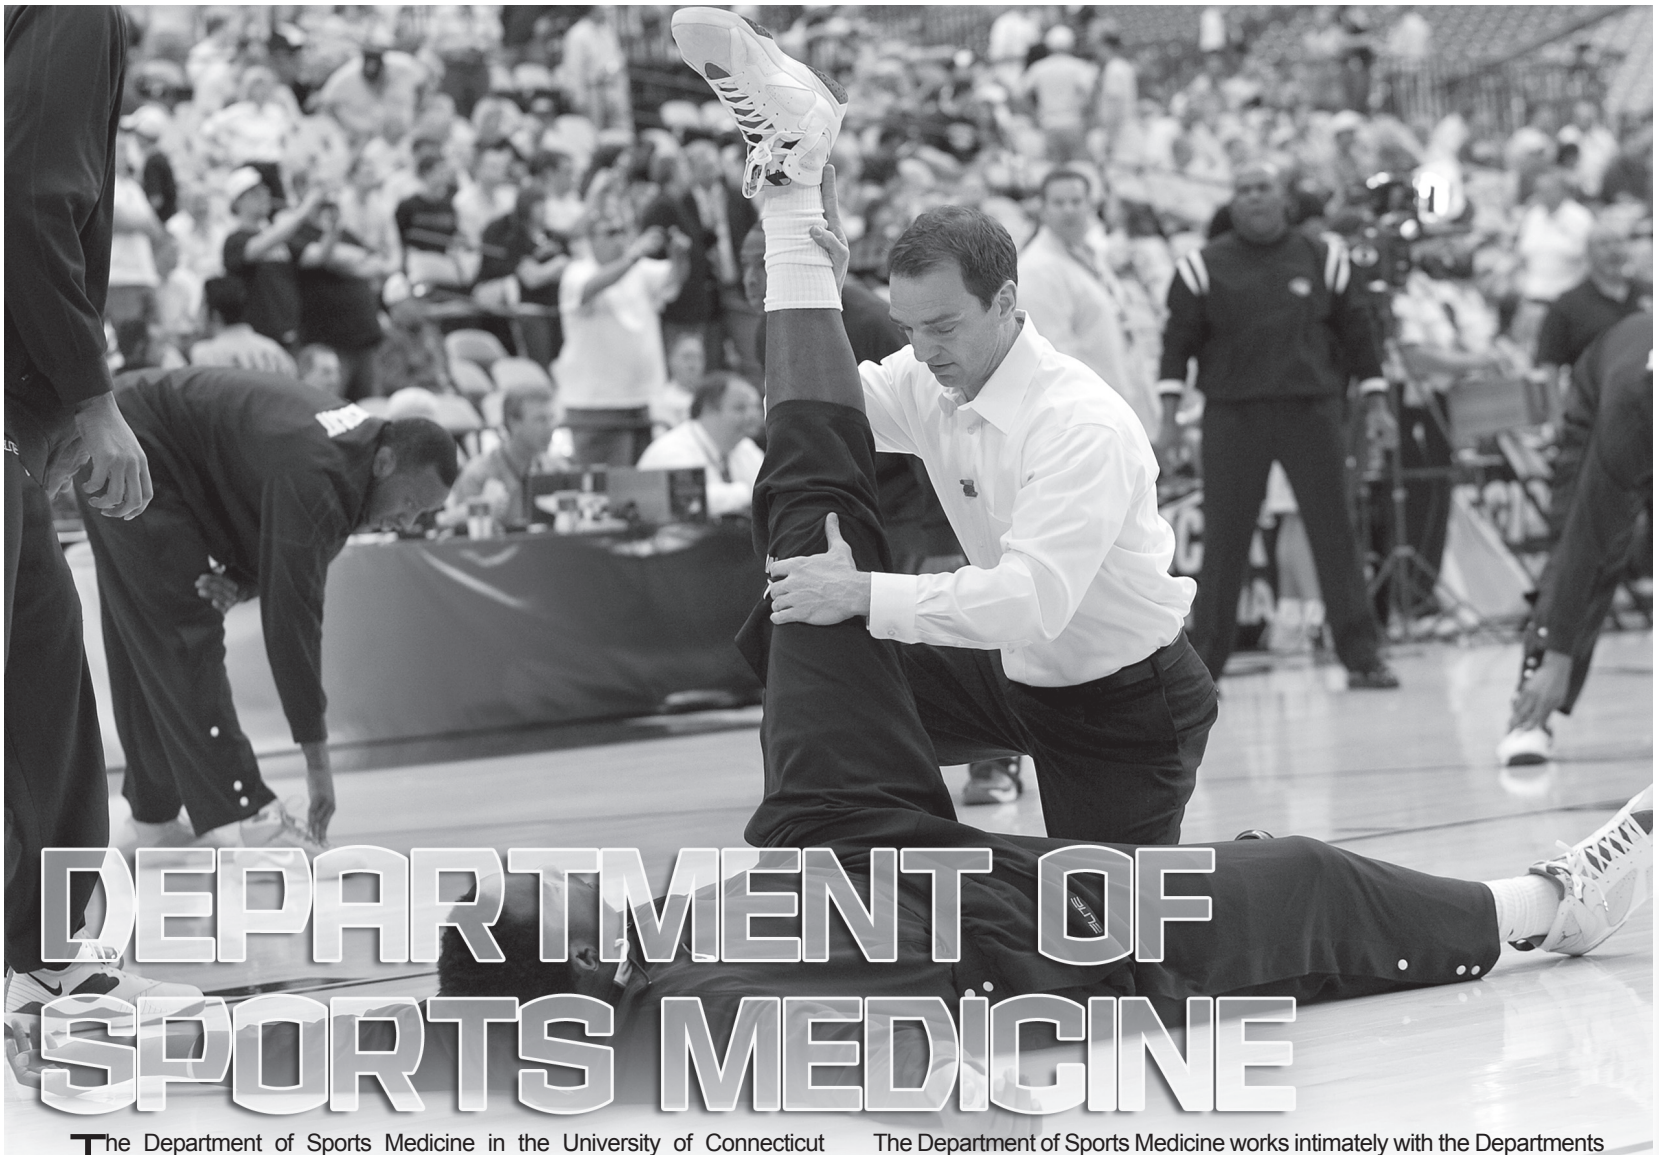

Dr. Taigen monitors all aspects of each UConn basketball player's academic life, including class schedule, arranging for tutors and progress toward a degree. The goal for each Husky basketball student-athlete is to earn a degree so he can become a success in whatever field he chooses. Dr. Taigen's office and the study lab used by the UConn men's basketball team are located adjacent to the men's basketball offices in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion.

Dr. Taigen earned both his undergraduate and master's degrees from Colorado State University and added a Ph.D. in 1981 from Cornell University. He has been a member of the UConn faculty since 1981 and his field of specialization is Physiological Ecology.

He has written two books, "Hands on Biology", and "Biology Write Now!", both published by McGraw-Hill.

In June of 1998, Dr. Taigen served as the presenter in St. Petersburg, FL when Dr. Leigh Curl, a University of Connecticut women's basketball star during her undergraduate years and a student of Dr. Taigen's, was inducted into the prestigious CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame. Dr. Curl, an orthopedic surgeon, currently is head team physician for the Baltimore Ravens of the National Football League.

DEPARTMENT OF SPORTS MEDICINE

The Department of Sports Medicine in the University of Connecticut Division of Athletics works as an integrated multidisciplinary team whose purpose is to provide the optimal, safe environment for the basketball student-athletes to train and participate in their sport. The staff takes great pride in the individual attention paid to each student-athlete. They are devoted to preventing injury, rapidly diagnosing and treating injury and maximizing athletic performance. The disciplines of athletic training, strength and conditioning, sports medicine, orthopaedic sports medicine, optometry, nutrition, exercise physiology, and psychology work in concert to provide comprehensive care for the basketball student-athlete.

The team is spearheaded by James Doran, MS, ATC, the Men's Basketball Head Athletic Trainer and the University of Connecticut Assistant Athletic Trainer. Prior to his appointment with the Huskies, James worked with the Men's Basketball and Football programs at University of Wyoming for seven years. He received his Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology-Athlete Training from San Diego State University while completing an internship at the University of San Diego. He received his Master's degree in Exercise Science from the University of Wyoming while completing a graduate assistantship there as well.

Physician coverage is led by Jeffrey Anderson, M.D., the Director of Sports Medicine and Team Physician Thomas Trojian, M.D.. The Orthopaedic Sports Medicine Specialists for the team include Edward Collins M.D. of the Connecticut Sports Medicine and Orthpaedic Center in Willimantic, Michael Joyce M.D. of Orthopaedic Sports Specialists of Glastonbury, Barry Messinger M.D. of Sports Medicine and Orthopaedic Surgery in Manchester, and Robert Arciero M.D. of the University of Connecticut Health Center Department of Orthopaedics in Farmington.

The Department of Sports Medicine works intimately with the Departments of Kinesiology and Nutritional Sciences on the University of Connecticut campus. This affords the student-athletes with the input of several nationally recognized exercise scientists. This cooperation also keeps the sports medicine staff at the cutting edge of developments in the fields of human performance and sports nutrition. Members of the sports medicine staff are actively engaged in research that directly benefits the care of the basketball student-athletes.

The UConn Basketball Sports Medicine team is housed in state-of the-art facilities in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion.

In addition to providing the finest in medical care for the UConn basketball program, the Department of Sports Medicine at the University of Connecticut administers to the daily needs of 600 male and female intercollegiate student-athletes who are competing in 24 different varsity programs.

The Department of Sports Medicine at the University of Connecticut plays a critical role in assuring that all UConn student-athletes have 24-hour access to the finest medical support and quality health care possible. Through patient care and ongoing research and education, the department continues to provide Husky teams a competitive edge from the medical perspective.

JAMES DORAN

CHRIS WEST

The strength and conditioning program for the University of Connecticut Decision of Athletics is coordinated by UConn Strength and Conditioning Coordinator Jerry Martin. Associate Head Coach Chris West works with the men's basketball program and oversees its strength and conditioning work. The UConn strength and conditioning program benefits all 24 of Connecticut's intercollegiate teams.

Prior to his appointment at UConn, West served as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator at Saint Louis University. West also has experience in the professional ranks after serving internships with the Oakland Raiders and Los Angeles Kings, as well as a graduate assistantship with the Seattle Seahawks. He earned his Bachelor's Degree from California State University at Long Beach in Physical Education and his Master's Degree in Exercise and Movement Science from the University of Oregon. West holds certifications from the National Strength and Conditioning Association as Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, the National Athletic Training Association as a Certified Athletic Trainer and United States Weightlifting as a Club Coach, UConn basketball players have the use of three different weight rooms - two in Gampel Pavilion and one in the Hugh S. Greer Field House. In all, there are nearly, 11,000 square feet of weight training facilities, which provide the Husky players with the best opportunity to improve in the areas of strength and conditioning. In addition to weight training, the team can do conditioning year-round in the Greer Field House indoor track and also on both the outdoor track at the George S. Sherman Family Sports Complex and its AstroTurf infield.

West supervises a specific strength and conditioning program for each individual player for year-round training. Each program is manipulated to fulfill the spcific needs of the individual based upon the demands of their position and the individual's present fitness levels. Specific testing is done to each student-athlete to monitor progress in strength, power, speed, anaerobic conditioning and agility. These tests provide the coaches and medical staff with an accurate athletic profile on each player.

There is much more to enhancing the performance of Husky student-athletes than merely strength and conditioning though. The saying goes "you are what you eat" and what goes inside the person on a daily basis is of equal importance and receives exceptionally high care at Connecticut.

The relationship between nutrition and performance is well recognized by the UConn sports medicine staff where there is an integrated approach in the provision of nutrition services to the student-athletes. The sports nutrition program is under the direction of Dr. Nancy Rodriguez and is comprehensive in its approach. Dr. Rodriguez and members of the sport nutrition team, Courtney Gaine, RD and Jen Katterly, Ms, RD, provide sports-specific lectures regarding nutrition and performance to the athletic teams and develop nutrition education materials for the student-athletes. Student-athletes have the opportunity for one-on-one nutrition counseling, individualized diet design for enhanced performance, gains in lean body mass and weight management. The sports nutrition program assists student-athletes in developing healthy eating patterns that they can maintain throughout their lives.

Dr. Rodriguez works closely with dining services on behalf of the athletic teams to implement performance-based menu options. Menu recommendations have been developed for teams during extended road trips and performance nutrition directives are in place for competitive performance and optimal recovery. A unique aspect of the sports nutrition program is the consistent integration of nutrition services with those provided by strength and conditioning and athletic training personal.

The BEST of the JIM CALHOUN Era

2006-2009

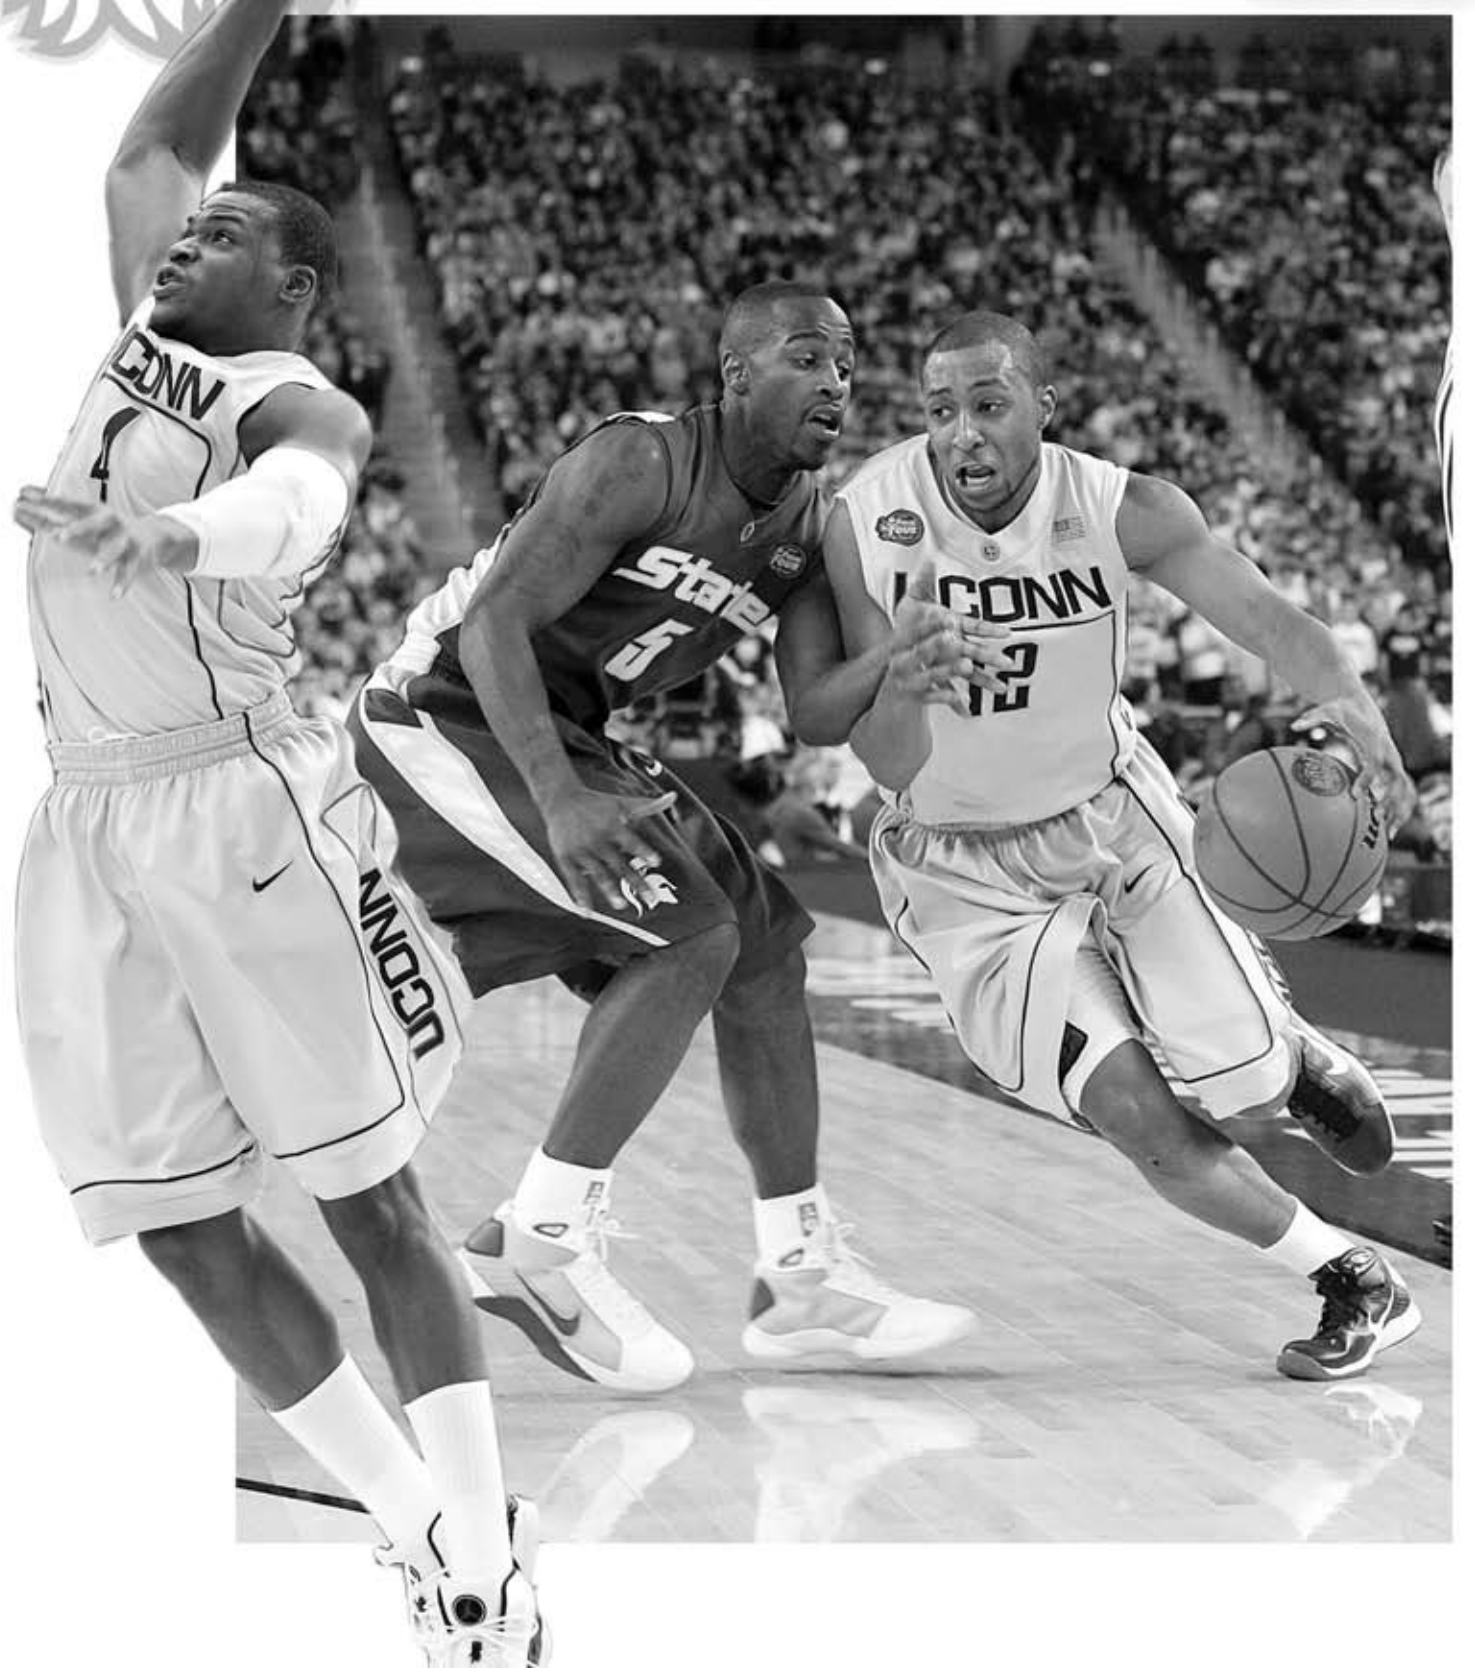

UConn makes a return to prominence with a new cast of characters, culminating in the program's third trip to the Final Four in 2009.

Hasheem Thabeet plays the role of defensive enforcer, earning back-to-back National Defensive Player of the Year awards and is the BIG EAST Player of the Year and a First Team All-American in 2008-09. A.J. Price earns All-American honors in 2007-08 and is the NCAA West Regional MVP in 2009, helping UConn reach the Final Four. Jeff Adrien becomes only the fourth player in UConn history to earn All-BIG EAST honors in three seasons and only the fifth UConn player to ever record over 1,000 career points and 1,000 career rebounds. Adrien and fellow four-year senior Craig Austrie help UConn to 102 wins in their four seasons, sixth most in school history. They also helped the Huskies to earn No. 1 national rankings as freshmen in 2005-06 and seniors in 2008-09

The BEST of the JIM CALHOUN Era

2006-2009

The BEST of the JIM CALHOUN Era

2002-2006

Emeka Okafor, the perfect example of a collegiate student-athlete, spends his three years at Connecticut preparing for, and realizing, success. In his third and final season, Emeka and his teammates earn the ultimate prize---winning the 2004 NCAA National Championship. Freshman talents Charlie Villanueva and Josh Boone are able front court associates for two-time All-American Okafor as they combine to propel Coach Jim Calhoun to his second NCAA title in a brief six-year span. Emeka is the National Player of the Year, the National Defensive Player of the Year, the National Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and the "Final Four" Most Outstanding Player. He takes his talents to the NBA and promptly is named NBA "Rookie of the Year" in 2005.

With Okafor taking care of business around the basket, Ben Gordon combines with point guard leader Taliek Brown to show the way in the backcourt as Connecticut builds toward another national championship run.

The BEST of the JIM CALHOUN Era

2002-2006

Gordon sets the all-time Big East Conference tournament record for scoring (81 points in three games) and is named tourney Most Outstanding Player as UConn wins its record-setting 14th league title in March of 2004. The red-hot Huskies then rumble through the NCAA Championship as Rashad Anderson hits 21 three-point field goals and Denham Brown contributes valuable minutes off the bench. After a stunning come-from-behind 79-78 victory over Duke in the "Final Four" semifinals, UConn coasts past Georgia Tech (82-73) in the national championship game to hand Jim Calhoun his second NCAA title in a brief six-year span. Like Okafor, Gordon heads to the pro ranks. In his rookie season Ben earns a coveted honor, winning the NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award.

Anderson and Brown, along with fellow senior Hilton Armstrong, finish their four-year Husky careers in 2005-06 with 109 wins, including a pair of 30-win seasons. Armstrong wins BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year honors, joining Okafor and Boone to capture the award for UConn in four straight seasons.

The BEST of the JIM CALHOUN Era

2000-2002

During his brief two-year college career, Caron Butler is the rock-solid backbone for Coach Jim Calhoun as UConn establishes a man-made bridge that takes the program from its first NCAA Championship to more national level successes. During the 2001-2002 season, All-American Butler leads UConn to another Big East sweep of the regular season and tournament titles. UConn advances to the NCAA "Elite 8" as Butler shows the way for point guard Taliek Brown to prepare for battles on the biggest basketball stage.

The BEST of the JIM CALHOUN Era

1997-1999

The climb to the top of the college basketball mountain is realized as Richard "Rip" Hamilton matures into another UConn All-American "wing", matching Ray Allen as a consensus two-time First Team All-American. UConn totally dominates the Big East Conference for another two-year span with back-to-back regular season and tournament titles. After advancing to the NCAA "Elite 8" in 1998, UConn and Coach Jim Calhoun run the table in 1999. The Huskies win six consecutive NCAA battles and beat prohibitive favorite Duke 77-74 in the 1999 national championship game in St. Petersburg, Florida. "Rip" Hamilton is the "Final Four" Most Outstanding Performer and is joined as a national champion by co-captains Ricky Moore and Rashamel Jones, Khalid El-Amin, Jake Voskuhl, and Kevin Freeman.

The BEST of the JIM CALHOUN Era

1994-1996

Ray Allen follows Donyell Marshall as the next UConn star, becoming the school's first two-time First Team All-American. In Ray's three years at Connecticut, the Huskies establish a stunning 49-5 overall record in Big East Conference play, winning three straight league titles. Following another 30-win season in 1995-96, Ray Allen departs UConn for the NBA and is joined in the pro ranks by Doron Sheffer and Travis Knight. The Allen-Sheffer-Knight trio has helped Connecticut Basketball post a stunning three-year overall record of 87-12.

The BEST of the JIM CALHOUN Era

1993-1994

Donyell Marshall becomes Connecticut's initial consensus First Team All-American during a remarkable year as he scores an all-time single season record 855 points, ranking him as the school's top-scoring junior (25.1 ppg.). In becoming Jim Calhoun's first elite star at UConn, Donyell is named Big East Conference, ECAC, and New England Player of the Year. UConn wins the Big East regular season title by three games and finishes the year ranked No. 4 in the nation in the AP National poll. After Donyell Marshall departs for the NBA (No. 4 pick), Donny Marshall and Kevin Ollie move into leadership roles for the transition to the next segment of the Jim Calhoun era.

The BEST of the JIM CALHOUN Era

1990-1993

The launch of Connecticut's Big East and NCAA success story under the direction of Jim Calhoun takes place during the 1989-90 "Dream Season" when "Huskymania" rules. UConn wins its first-ever Big East Conference regular season title and adds its first-ever league tournament championship as Chris Smith earns Most Outstanding Player honors. Playing in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in more than a decade, UConn rolls into the "Elite 8" when Tate George connects on "The Shot". A final record-setting mark of 31-6 earns Jim Calhoun "National Coach of the Year" honors. Nadav Henefeld makes his brief stay at UConn a memorable stop and Rod Sellers and Scott Burrell help the Huskies follow the 1990 NCAA breakthrough with back-to-back visits to the "Big Dance" each of the next two seasons.

The BEST of the JIM CALHOUN Era

1987-1989

When Jim Calhoun arrives at the University of Connecticut in the spring of 1986, a winning attitude has to be introduced. In just his second year as Husky head coach, Coach Calhoun leads UConn to its first-ever post-season championship, the 1988 National Invitation Tournament (NIT) title. The stars of that NIT team include tourney MVP Phil Gamble and Clifford Robinson, the first of Jim Calhoun's professional stars. Robinson follows his college days at Connecticut with a superb 17-year NBA career during which he has scored nearly 20,000 points.

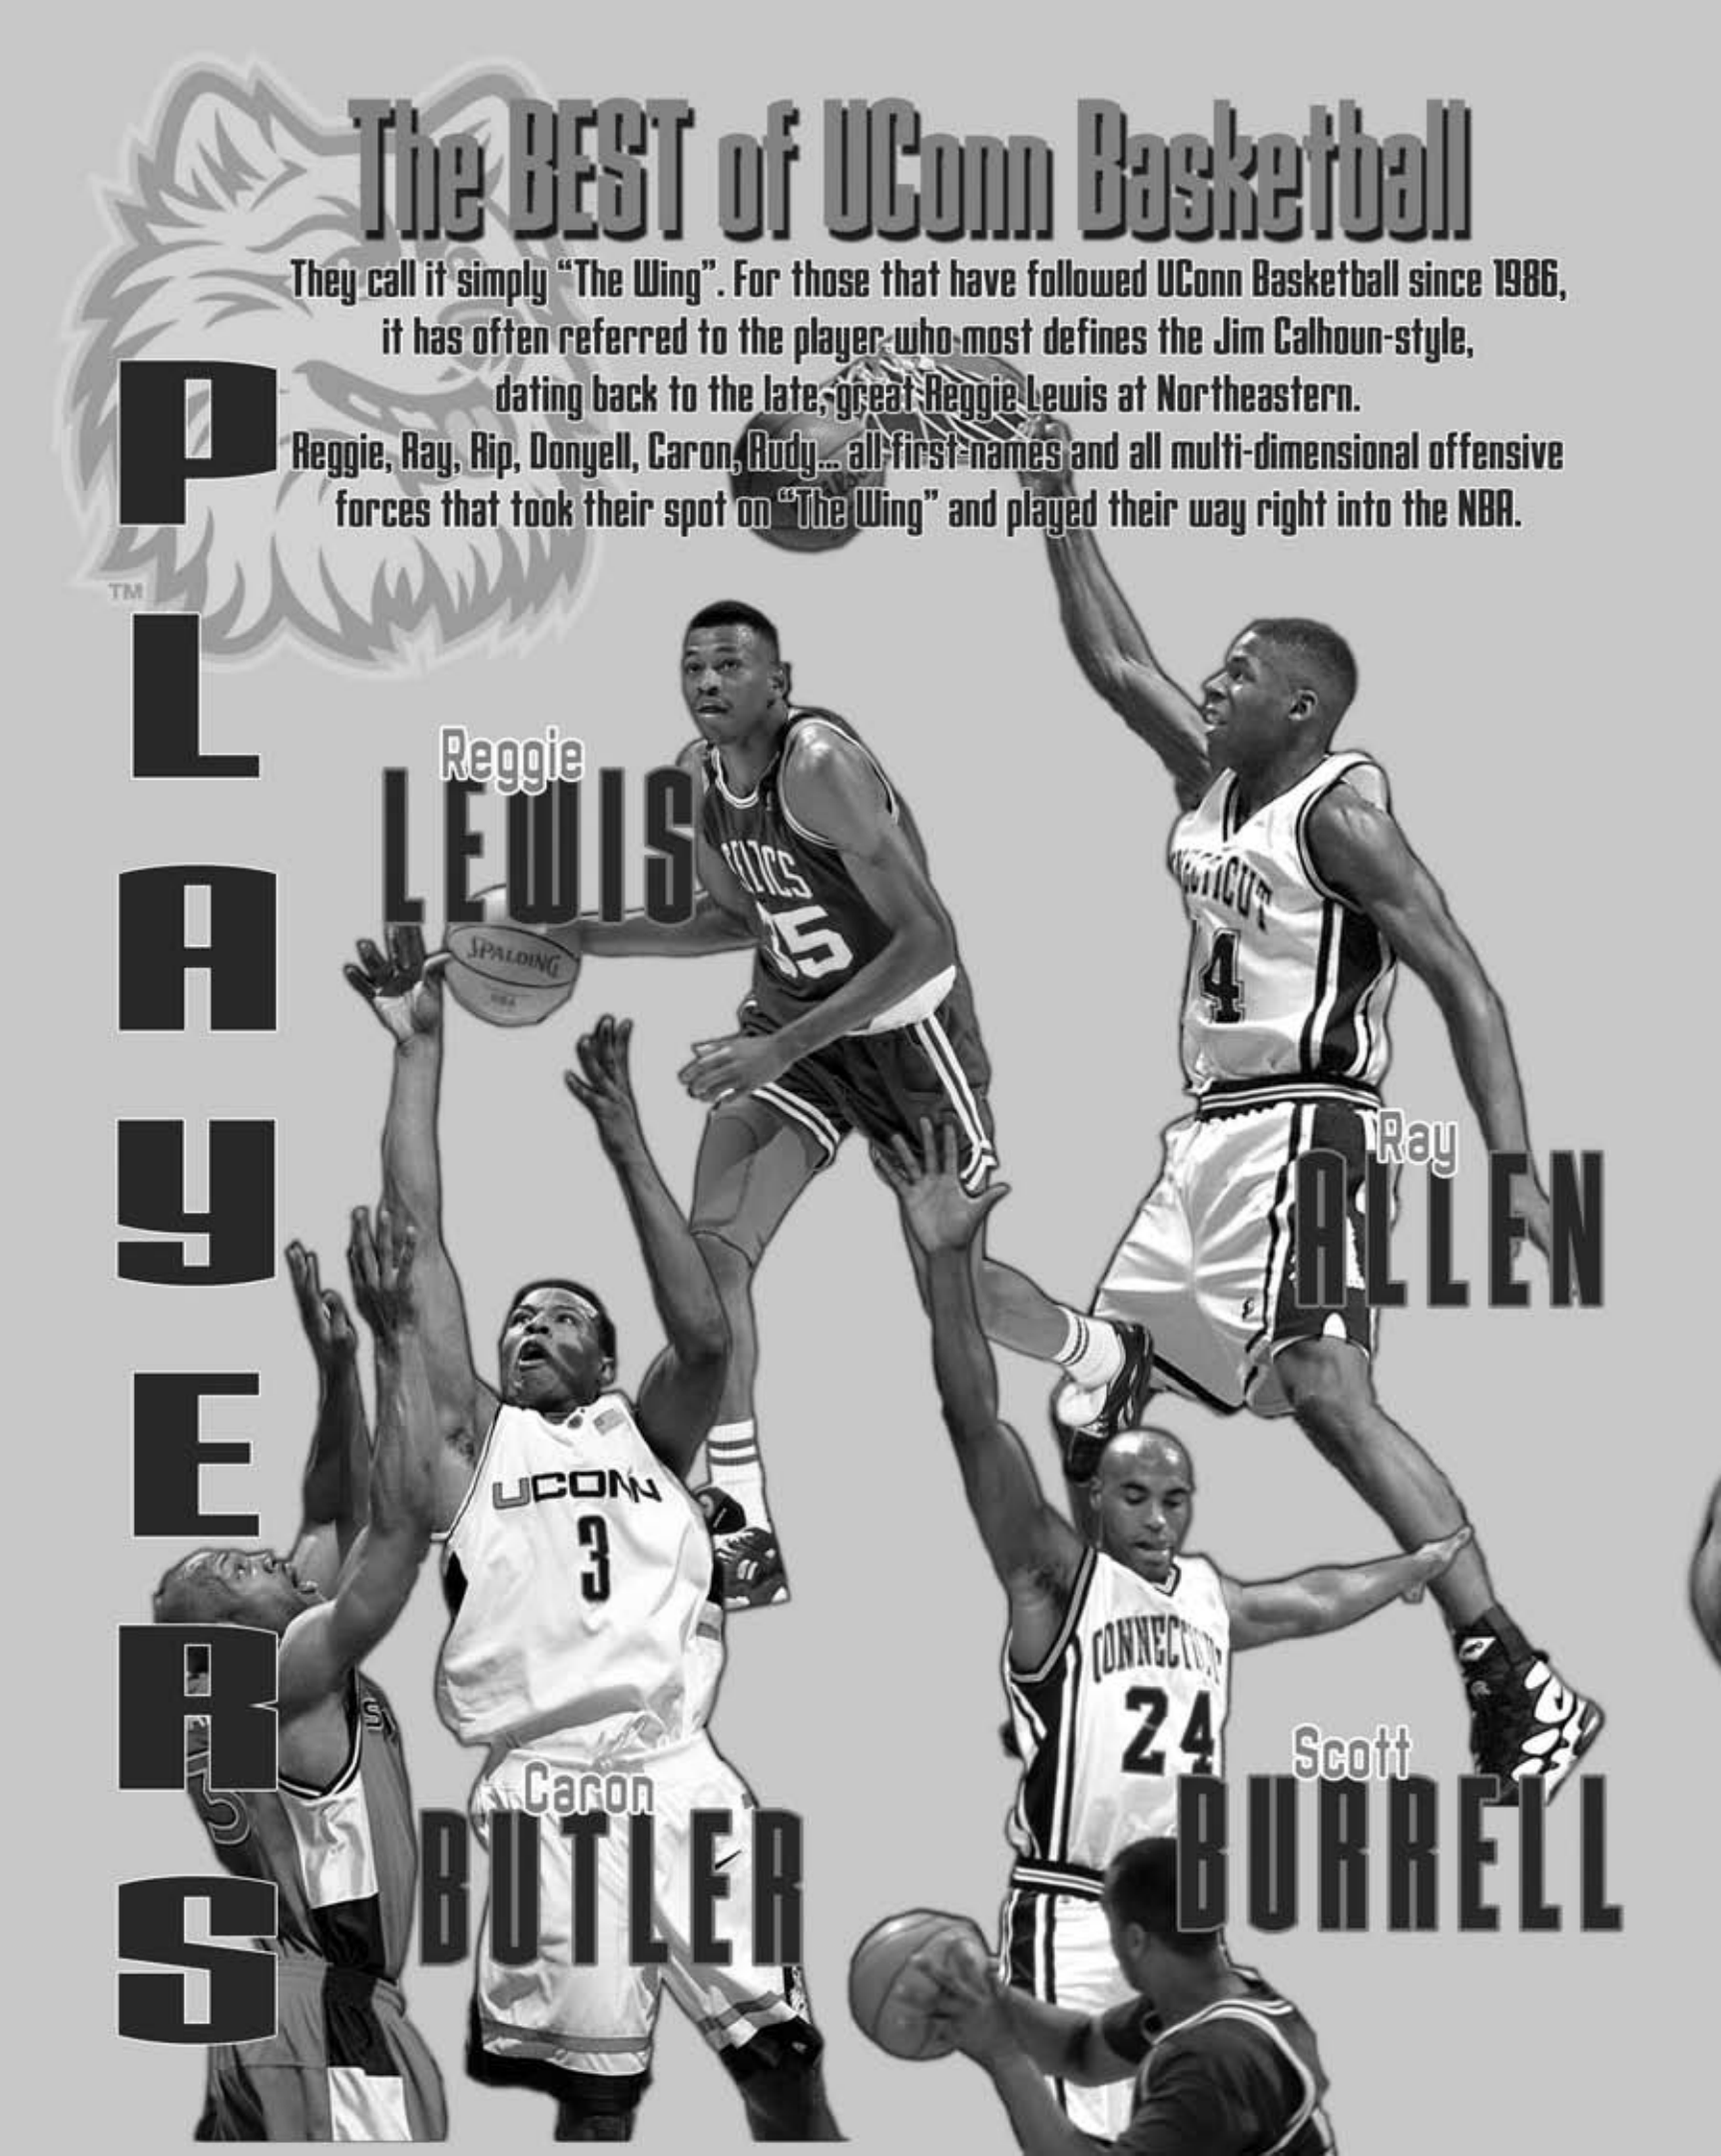

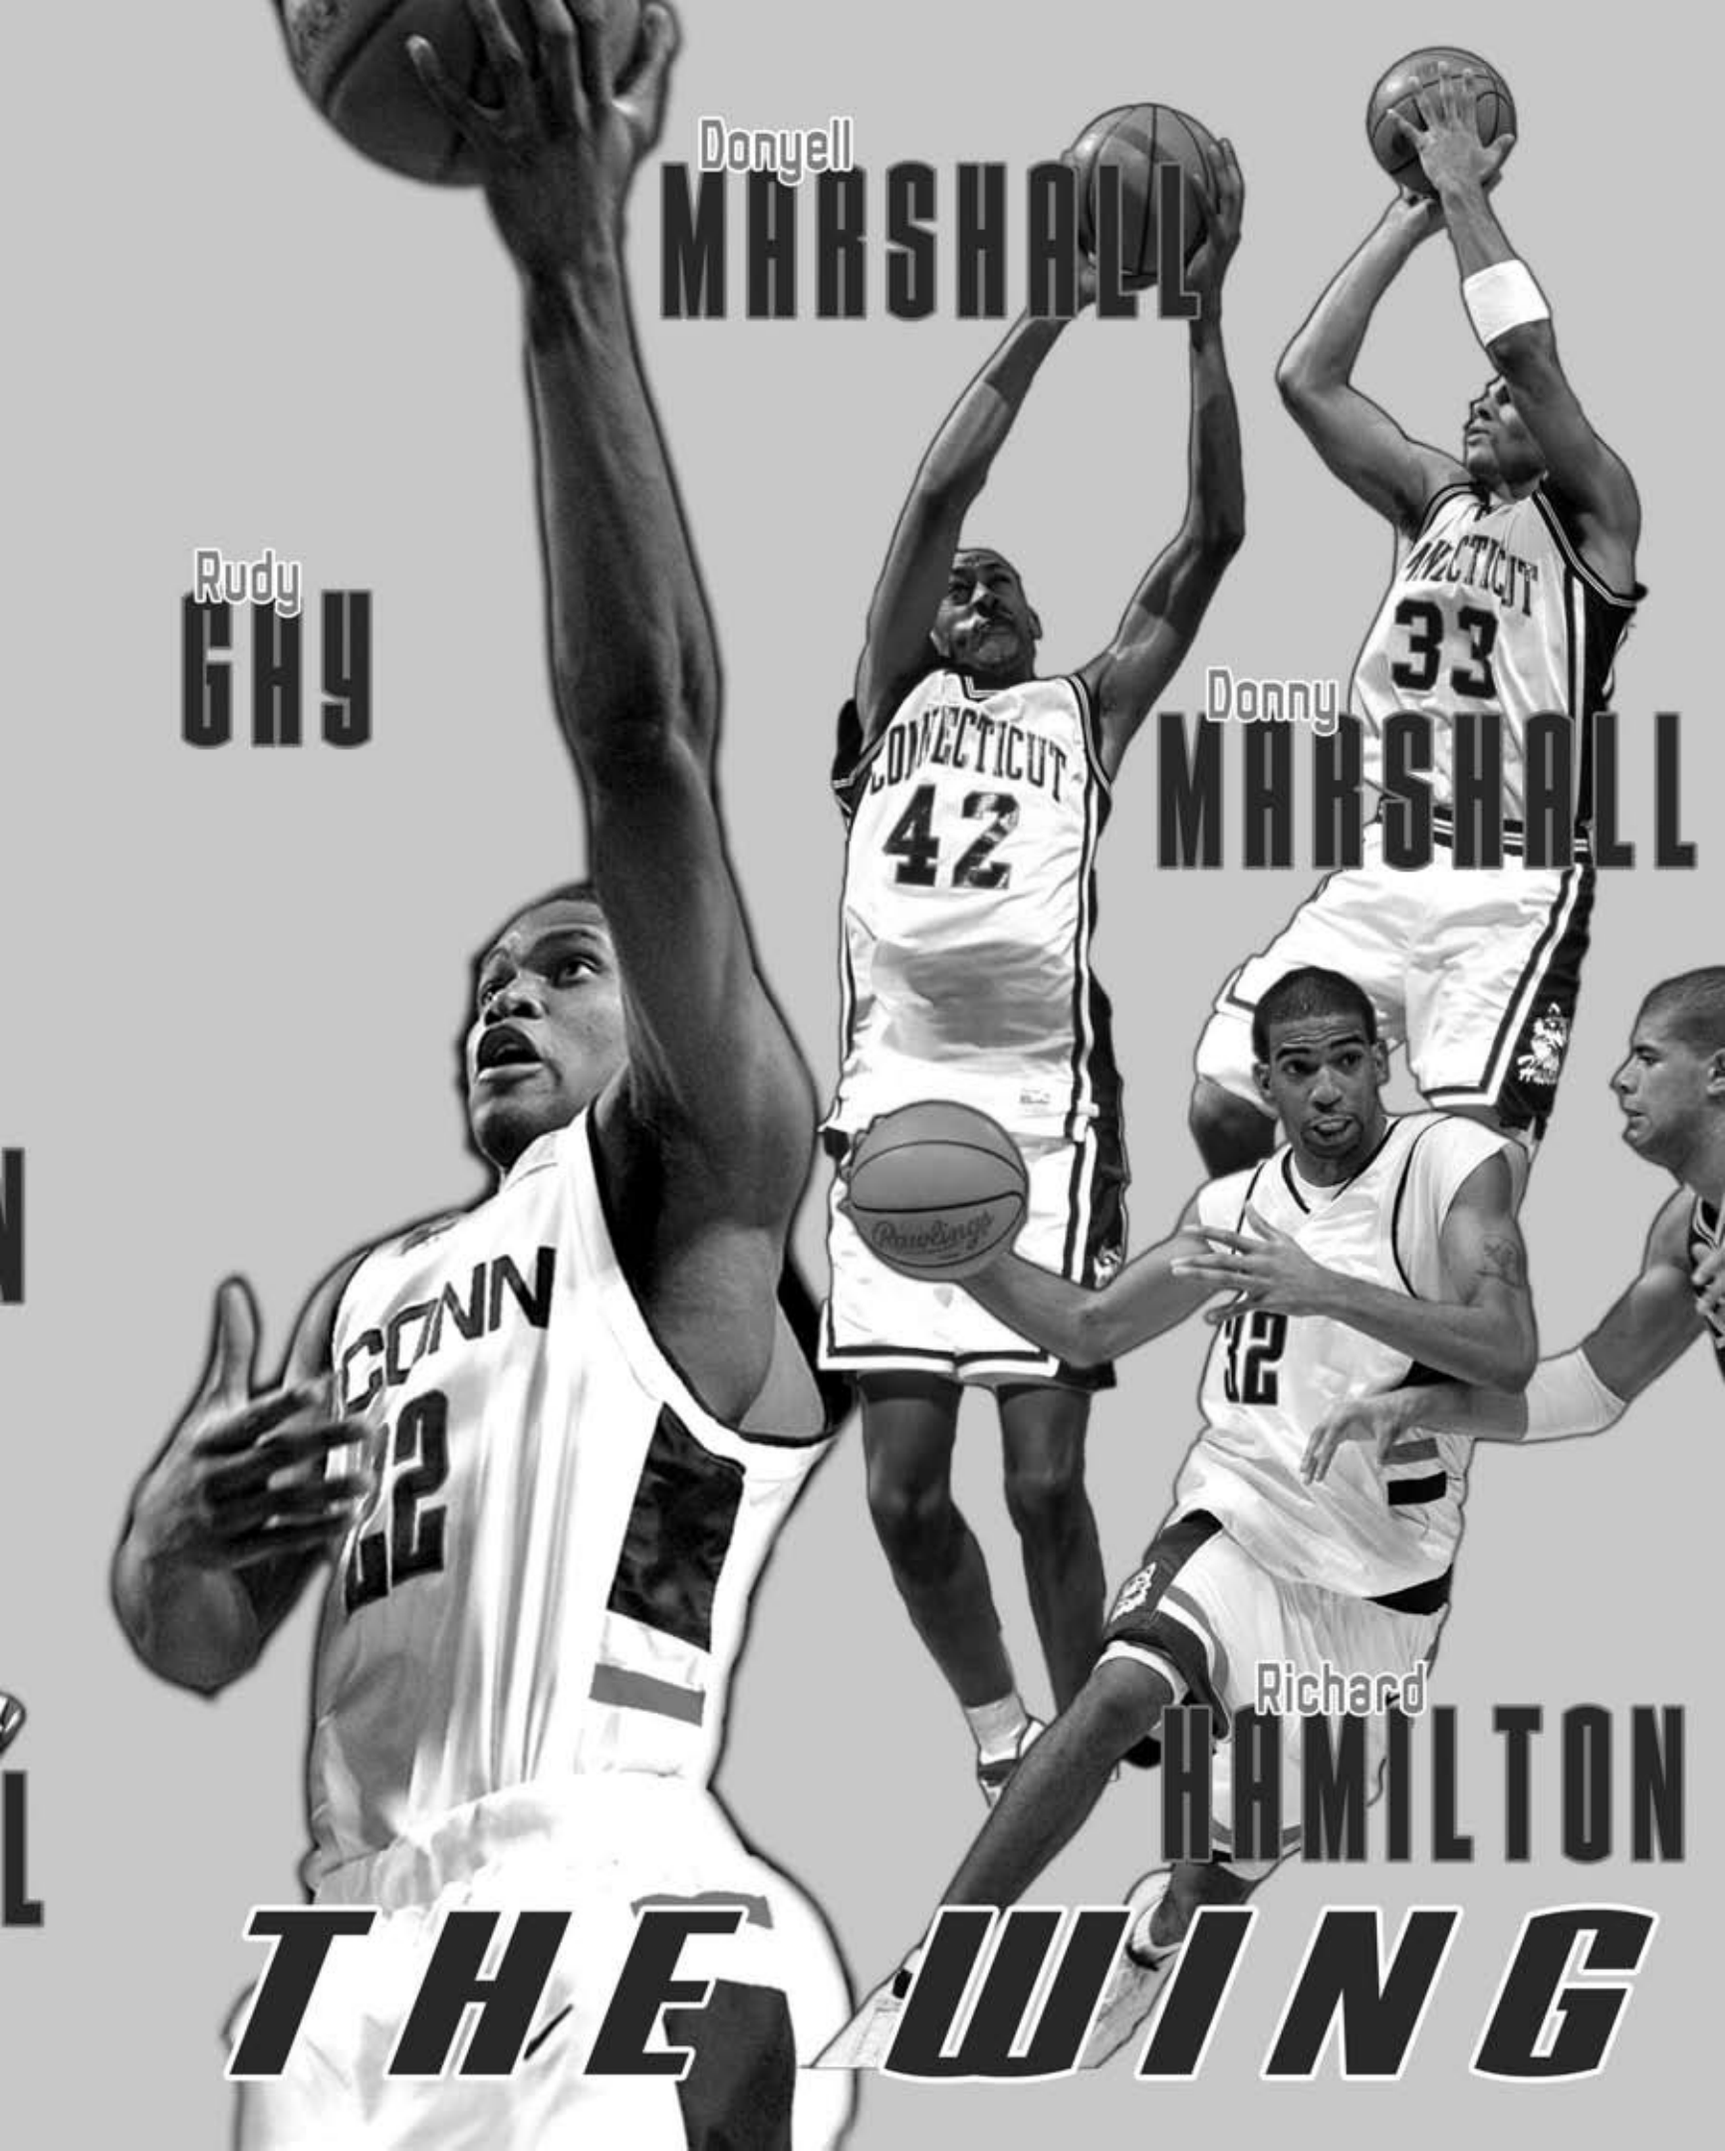

The BEST of UConn Basketball

They call it simply "The Wing". For those that have followed UConn Basketball since 1986, it has often referred to the player who most defines the Jim Calhoun-style, dating back to the late, great Reggie Lewis at Northeastern.
Reggie, Ray, Rip, Donyell, Caron, Rudy... all first-names and all multi-dimensional offensive forces that took their spot on "The Wing" and played their way right into the NBA.

The BEST of UConn Basketball

It would be way too easy to begin and end all discussions of UConn big men across the Jim Calhoun era with Emeka Okafor. While Okafor is the undisputed king of the "Bigs", he also serves as part of what has been a steady stream of Calhoun big men to move from the middle at UConn on to productive careers in the NBA. From Clifford Robinson, who played 18 seasons in the NBA, to recent Husky NBA Lottery Pick and National Defensive Player of the Year Hasheem Thabeet, Jim Calhoun and his Huskies have always been fortunate to have the man in the middle to count on.

Great defense starts from the inside out. UConn annually ranks among the national leaders in field goal % defense thanks in part to the dominant shot blocker, whether it was Donyell Marshall, Jake Voskuhl, Emeka Okafor or Josh Boone. NBA CHAMPIONS

Four former University of Connecticut standouts have gone on to capture an NBA Championship since leaving the Huskies for the NBA.

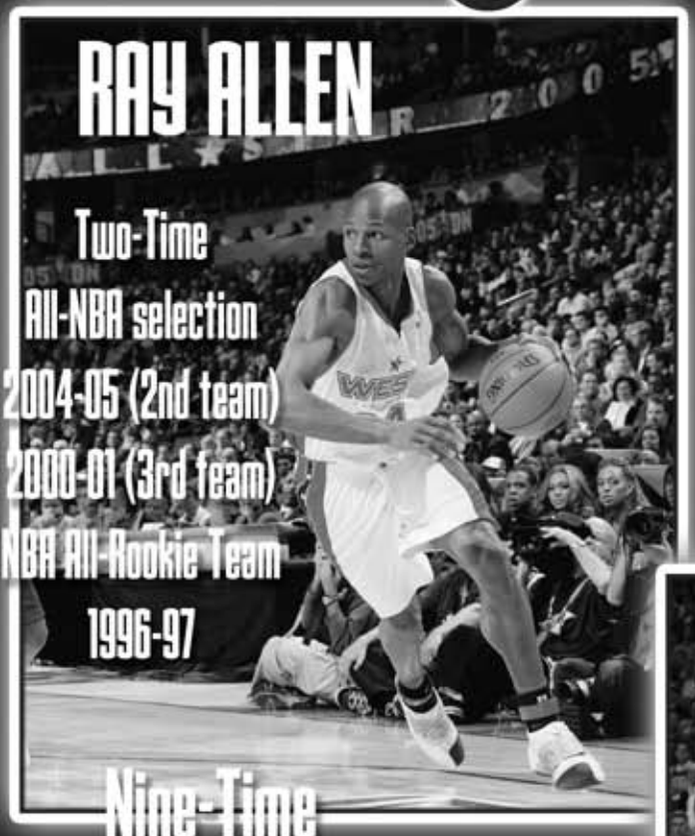

Ray Allen became UConn's fourth NBA Champion when he helped the Boston Celtics capture the 2008 title.

Richard Hamilton became the third UConn player to earn an NBA Championship ring when he helped Detroit capture the 2004 title.

Scott Burrell (Chicago Bulls, 1998) and Travis Knight (Los Angeles Lakers, 2000) were the first two Husky NBA Champions.
