 *-- BIG EAST opponent
 #-- Exhibition Game

The University of Connecticut men's basketball team started the 2002-03 season as a young and talented group looking to defend a BIG EAST Championship and make a return trip to the NCAA Tournament.

When the season came to a close, several things had become clear to Husky fans and opponents alike. These Huskies were young. In fact, the youngest in Jim Calhoun's tenure at Connecticut. These Huskies were also talented. A total of 23 wins and a No. 11 final national ranking would serve as evidence of that. They did defend that BIG EAST title, earning a piece of the program's eighth regular season championship in the past 14 years. The return trip to the NCAA Tournament featured the ninth trip to the Sweet 16 in 14 years.

Ultimately, for Jim Calhoun and the Huskies, it was another successful season, one that solidified Connecticut's place among the elite college basketball programs in the country for many years to come.

The Huskies finished the year with a 23-10 overall record, marking the 13th time in 17 seasons under Jim Calhoun and the sixth consecutive season that UConn has reached the 20-win plateau, the longest such streak in school history. The Huskies finished the year ranked No. 11 nationally in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and No. 23 in the Associated Press Final Rankings. With a 10-6 league record, UConn tied Boston College for the BIG EAST Division Regular Season title, the eighth BIG EAST Regular Season Championship in the past 14 seasons. UConn also advanced to the BIG EAST Tournament Championship game for the seventh time in the past nine years, falling to Pittsburgh in the title game. The Huskies returned to the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time under Coach Calhoun and the program earned its 16th consecutive national postseason appearance (11 NCAA, 5 NIT), one of only five schools in the country able to make that claim. UConn also advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the ninth time in the past 14 seasons.

Head Coach Jim Calhoun completed his 17th season at Connecticut and improved his career record to 647-296 in 31 years as a collegiate head coach. Calhoun is 399-159 at UConn and is the winningest coach in UConn and New England history. His 647 career coaching wins are good for No. 8 among active coaches.

The Huskies began the season with a national ranking among the top 15 teams and were the coaches' choice in the East Division of the BIG EAST Conference. The early season schedule provided glimpses of that promise, but also some warning signs of the always tough road toward February and March.

UConn opened the season with a pair of wins over a three-day span, beating Quinnipiac in the opener and defeating George Washington and former Husky player and assistant coach Karl Hobbs two days later. Game three was also the first road test of the season, a trip to Memorial Gymnasium and a matchup with the Commodores of Vanderbilt. Vandy has always been a tough stop on the SEC schedule and this season would be no different. In the end though, it was too much Emeka Okafor, who poured in a career-high 25 points to lead UConn to the win.

A pair of home wins over Sacred Heart and Wagner sent the Huskies into the top ten as the annual match-up with Massachusetts loomed. The contest turned out to be a memorable one for Husky fans, although for the first 22 minutes it was purely forgettable. Connecticut shot 15.4% in the first half and trailed by an unthinkable margin of 30-9 at the break. Things actually got worse from there, as the Minutemen scored the first two buckets of the second half and led 34-9 with 18:37 to go. To say that things went all UConn's way from there is putting it mildly. The Huskies exploded with a 29-2 run to take the lead. Included in that burst was a 22-0 stretch and seven three-pointers, three by Rashad Anderson and two each by Ben Gordon and Denham Brown. The Minutemen missed 13 straight second half shots during the big run by UConn and the Huskies went on to an improbable 11-point win.

Fresh off the stirring win over UMass and a ten-day break for final exams, UConn returned to action with Civic Center wins over UNC Asheville and Central Connecticut sandwiched around the Christmas break.

The year 2003 brought a top five national ranking and a rematch at the Civic Center with St. Bonaventure. The Bonnies had stunned the Huskies a year ago and the first five minutes looked like a repeat was in order. UConn quickly recovered, turning a ten-point first half deficit into a ten-point lead at the break. The Huskies then used a 15-0 second half run to put the Bonnies away.

With a 9-0 overall record and a No. 3 national ranking, UConn headed to Norman, OK for a contest with No. 9 Oklahoma. The game would be the Huskies last non-conference matchup before beginning conference play and was being televised nationally on espn2. Things did not start well. UConn hit on only 3-of-19 field goals to start the game and fell behind 22-9. The Sooners used a 19-7 run over the final two minutes of the first half and the first five minutes of the second half to take a 51-31 lead with 15:45 to play. As would become a trend in the coming weeks, UConn responded to the huge deficit, going on a 19-4 run over the next ten minutes to get with 55-50 with 5:08 to play. Despite holding the Sooners to only one field goal in the final 5:51 of the contest, UConn would get no closer. Oklahoma made 18-of-19 from the line in the final five minutes to secure the 73-63 win.

UConn opened conference play with a pair of home wins, beating Miami in overtime at Gampel Pavilion and using a big second half to overcome an early deficit and beat Virginia Tech at the Civic Center.

At 11-1 overall and ranked No. 6 in the country, UConn travelled to Chapel Hill, NC for its final non-conference contest of the year. Again, the Huskies dug themselves an enormous hole, trailing 23-4 with less than ten minutes gone in the contest. And yet again, UConn dug itself out, getting within 11 points at the half and culminating the rally on an Okafor dunk with 1:16 to play that gave the Huskies their one and only lead of the contest. The Tar Heels retook the lead with under a minute to play and made a pair of free throws to withstand two Ben Gordon three-point attempts in the final 30 seconds and held on for the three-point win.

UConn would have no time to dwell on the loss. The Huskies headed straight to Miami for an ESPN Big Monday matchup with the Hurricanes in their brand new Convocation Center. For the sixth straight contest, UConn would trail by double digits in the first half, but again roared back and led by as many as five points in the final minutes. Ben Gordon poured in a career-high 32 points and seemed to seal the win with a pair of free throws with 8.9 seconds to play. Unbelievably, the Hurricanes stole the game with a layup by Armando Surratt with three seconds to play and a buzzer beating three-pointer by Darius Rice after stealing the inbounds pass. Rice's 43 points on the night were the most ever by a Husky BIG EAST opponent.

The Huskies returned from the road looking to get back on track and ready to host a Villanova squad that was off to a 5-0 league start. UConn led by as many as 12 points in the first half and used a 17-3 second half run to break open a tie game and went on to a nine-point win.

UConn then hit the road again for ESPN's Big Monday, travelling to Madison Square Garden to take on St. John's. Okafor and Gordon made all the big plays down the stretch, with Okafor scoring 21 points, grabbing 13 rebounds and blocking seven shots and Gordon scoring 23 points, grabbing six boards and handing out six assists. The Huskies capped a 7-1 second half run with Tony Robertson's 1,000th career point and earned their first win over the Red Storm at MSG since 1998-99 to improve to 13-3 overall and 4-1 in the league.

Coming off a pair of big league wins, UConn headed into the month of February primed for the stretch run. What lay ahead in the next three weeks though was something the Huskies could not possibly have prepared for.

UConn hosted Boston College to start the month and the Eagles put a drubbing on the Huskies unlike any other before in Gampel Pavilion. BC jumped out to a 13-1 lead and UConn would never get closer than ten points the remainder of the game. The game was the first ever in which UConn trailed by double digits at the half in Gampel Pavilion and was the worst UConn loss in the history of the building. The Eagles led by as many as 31 points in the first half and UConn never got closer than 22 the rest of the way.

As tough a loss as the BC game was for the Huskies, nothing could have prepared the team and coaching staff for what would come next.

Jim Calhoun announced on Monday, February 3 that he had been diagnosed with an early stage of prostate cancer. He underwent successful surgery for the removal of his prostate Thursday, February 6 and was released from the hospital on Sunday, February 9. Calhoun, 60, did not travel with the team to the game vs. Virginia Tech on February 5, in preparation for the surgery. Assistant coach George Blaney took over the head coaching responsibilities beginning with the Virginia Tech game and remained in that role during coach Calhoun's absence, expected to be three-to-four weeks.

Without their undisputed leader, the Huskies' headed to Blacksburg for the matchup with Virginia Tech. The Hokies jumped all over UConn, going on a 25-10 run in the first half to break the game open and led by as many as 23 points in the second half in cruising to the win. Things went from bad to worse for the Huskies with just under 14 minutes left in the game. Taliek Brown was in a collision under the basket and left the game with a broken left index finger. Brown would have surgery two days later and was expected to miss four-to-six weeks.

UConn limped back to Storrs at 13-5 overall and 4-3 in league play. The team was coming off two blowout losses, but the Huskies faced a tough two-game stretch at Providence and hosting Syracuse, both games to be televised nationally by ESPN. Without Coach Calhoun and with Taliek Brown in street clothes, the squad headed to Providence. Tony Robertson returned to the starting lineup in place of Brown and spearheaded an inspired UConn effort. The Friars went without a field goal for over 13 minutes in the first half, missing 18 straight shots, and the Huskies made a school BIG EAST record 13 three-pointers en route to a convincing 16-point win.

Now ranked No. 23 in the national polls, the Huskies welcomed No. 17 Syracuse to the Civic Center for a Big Monday contest. UConn opened the game with a 16-4 burst, but the Orange responded with a 23-10 run of their own to take the lead. The Huskies held the Orange without a field goal for the first 8:13 of the second half, forcing 14 straight missed shots, and held Syracuse to 29.9% for the game from the field en route to an impressive 75-61 victory.

UConn next suffered a disappointing loss at Villanova, turning the ball over 24 times. The Huskies bounced back with a win over Rutgers at the Civic Center, the 200th BIG EAST win under Jim Calhoun, and finished the season at 9-0 in the Hartford Civic Center.

Next on the schedule was a game with St. John's at Gampel Pavilion. The game was to be televised nationally by CBS, but the story of the contest was written before the opening tip. Only 15 days after having prostate cancer surgery, Jim Calhoun returned to the Husky sidelines to a thunderous ovation and the team surged to an early 13-point advantage and battled through the usual ups-and-downs of a Connecticut-St. John's matchup. The Red Storm cut the lead to three, but UConn increased the bulge back to 18, before St. John's again got back within three points. UConn would score the final five points of the game to earn an eight-point win. Okafor had a near triple-double with 13 points, 12 rebounds and nine blocks, while Marcus White continued his late season emergence with nine points and nine boards off the bench. Taliek Brown also returned to action after missing four games with his broken left index finger.

The next two games would provide the Huskies with one of its toughest regular season tests in recent memory. Two games, on the road, against top ten opponents, on national television. First up were the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame, ranked No. 9 in the country. UConn was ready for the task, jumping out to a 15-point halftime lead courtesy of a 28-8 first half run. Rashad Anderson matched his career-high with 22 points, hitting six huge three-pointers and Ben Gordon scored 25 points and added eight assists. Okafor had 19 points, ten boards and six blocks, each seemingly more crucial than the one before. When it was all said and done, UConn had a critical 87-79 win.

On to Pittsburgh, where the No. 8 Panthers were in the midst of another super season and playing in a brand new building that was the talk of the league. The Huskies again jumped out to a phenomenal start, quieting the partisan crowd with a 26-14 start. Things turned when Okafor was whistled for his second foul with just under nine minutes to go in the half and the Panthers took advantage to get back within two before the break. Pitt broke out early in the second half to take a five-point advantage, but the Huskies hung tough. UConn was as close as two points in the final minutes and had two chances at a tying three-pointer in the final minute, but Pitt held on for a 71-67 win.

The final two regular season games again featured the extreme highs and lows this season had been all about. UConn hosted Providence on Senior Night at Gampel Pavilion in game #26, looking to clinch a tie for the East Division title. What followed was an uninspired effort, a 76-70 loss, that put chances for a BIG EAST Regular Season title in jeopardy and also put the Huskies back on the NCAA bubble heading to Boston College for the regular season finale.

Unbelievably, the game with BC was never in doubt. With Troy Bell averaging over 30 points per game over the last month of the season and needing 33 points on his senior day to break the all-time BIG EAST scoring record, UConn did a number on the Eagles. The Huskies scored the first 14 points of the game and never trailed by less than ten points in the final 34 minutes of the contest. UConn held Bell to 15 points on 4-of-15 shooting. Taliek Brown returned to the starting lineup and scored 17 points, while Okafor had 25 points, 12 boards and six blocks. UConn's 91-54 win put them at 19-8 overall and 10-6 in the BIG EAST Conference to finish the regular season.

The Huskies would head to New York as the East No. 2 seed and face Seton Hall in the quarterfinals. UConn would lead the entire game and used a 12-2 second half run to put the contest away and earn an 83-70 win, its eight straight in the BIG EAST Tournament quarterfinals. Gordon scored 25 and Okafor had 18 rebounds to lead the way. The semifinals featured a rematch with Syracuse and the first half went much like the first meeting. UConn jumped out to a big lead, leading by as many as 16 points with eight minutes to go in the half. The Orange went on a 12-0 run to cut into the lead, but UConn recovered to lead by nine at the break. The Huskies scored the first five points of the second half and never led by less than 11 points the rest of the way, posting an 80-67 victory. Gordon cracked the 1,000-point barrier in the win, the fifth sophomore in UConn history to do so.

Playing in their seventh title game in nine seasons, UConn would face the Panthers of Pittsburgh in a rematch of last season's epic double overtime battle. UConn shot a scorching 60.0% in the first half, but still trailed by one at the break. Slowly but surely, the Panthers wore down the Huskies and closed the game on a 19-5 run to earn their first ever BIG EAST Tournament title. Gordon and Okafor both earned a place on the All-Tournament team, Gordon for the second time in his two seasons as a Husky.

With a 21-9 overall mark, UConn earned a No. 5 seed in the South Region of the NCAA Tournament and would face No. 12 seed Brigham Young in Spokane, WA in the first round. Okafor again led the way, scoring 20 points, grabbing eight boards and blocking seven shots. The Huskies led by as many as 14 points midway through the second half, but the Cougars responded to cut the lead to two points with 2:20 to go. UConn scored the next six points and held on, despite shooting only 32.7% from the field.

The second round would see the Huskies meet the No. 4 seeded Cardinal of Stanford University, a first round winner over San Diego. Stanford made seven three-pointers in the first half to take a four-point advantage at the break. The game was tied at 56-56 with 13:25 to play, but UConn outscored the Cardinal 18-8 over the next 11 minutes to take a ten-point edge into the final two minutes. Gordon was the star of the game for Connecticut, scoring 29 points, while Okafor had 18 points and 15 rebounds. The Huskies made 11-of-12 free throws in those final two minutes to secure the win. UConn would advance to Sweet 16 for the ninth time under Calhoun, who recorded his 399th win at Connecticut with the victory.

It was on to San Antonio for the South Regional and a matchup with the top-seeded Longhorns of Texas, just 75 miles from their campus. The task was a daunting one, as Texas fans made up nearly 80% of the 33,009 in attendance, but as the Huskies proved throughout the year, there was never a challenge to big to pass up.

The physical Longhorns dominated the boards in the first half and led by as many as 11 in the stanza, settling for a six-point advantage at the break. A six-point burst midway through the second half gave Texas a 62-48 edge with 12:31 to play. Down 14 points in a hostile building, this young Husky squad again showed a grit and determination that defied their youth and inexperience. The Huskies responded with a 26-9 run, capped by a Ben Gordon three-pointer with 5:15 to play that put UConn in front 74-71. The final five and a half minutes featured three ties and with under a minute to go, Texas led 78-76 and UConn had the ball. Anderson got a clean look with 41 seconds to play but missed and Taliek Brown rebounded. He found Marcus White open underneath but his layup attempt with 34 seconds to go was partially blocked and inexplicably wedged between the rim and backboard. The possession arrow favored Texas and the Longhorns made all four free throws in the final 20 seconds to earn the 82-78 win. Okafor had 21 points, 17 boards and six blocks, while Taliek Brown had nine points and seven assists in his matchup with national player of the year T.J. Ford of Texas. Okafor earned a spot on the All-South Regional squad for his efforts.

In addition to the tremendous accomplishments of the team during the 2002-03 season, several Huskies distinguished themselves and were recognized for their efforts.

Following the 2002-03 season, Jim Calhoun received the prestigious Metropolitan Award from the National Basketball Coaches Association (NABC). The award was presented at the NABC Convention at the 2003 NCAA Final Four in New Orleans. The award is given annually by the NABC on behalf of the National Invitation Tournament and the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Basketball Association and is presented for continued outstanding service for the enhancement and betterment of college basketball. Previous winners of the award include Mike Tranghese, John Thompson, Dean Smith, Lou Carnesecca, Dave Gavitt, Curt Gowdy, John Wooden, Adolph Rupp, Joe Lapchick and Phog Allen.

Sophomore Emeka Okafor was named to the ten-member John R. Wooden All-American team and also earned All-America honors from the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC), ESPN.com and Basketball Times. He was named the National Defensive Player of the Year by the NABC and was only the second UConn player ever to earn First Team Academic All-American recognition. He was selected as the BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year and the Aeropostale/BIG EAST Scholar Athlete of the Year, while earning First Team All-BIG EAST honors and First Team All-District honors from the NABC and the USBWA (United States Basketball Writers Association). He finished the season ranked No. 1 in the nation in blocked shots, breaking his own UConn single season record with 156 and setting the UConn career record with 294.

Sophomore Ben Gordon led the Huskies in scoring at 19.5 points per game and was named to the All-BIG EAST Second Team. He was a Basketball Times All-Northeast Region team pick and was a First Team All-District selection by the NABC and the USBWA. He earned a spot on the BIG EAST All-Tournament team for the second straight season. He also became just the fifth sophomore in UConn history to surpass 1,000 career points, joining Ray Allen, Richard Hamilton, Khalid El-Amin and Caron Butler.

Senior Tony Robertson finished his career with 1,160 career points, good for 26th place on the all-time UConn career scoring list. He played in 132 games as a Husky, a total surpassed by only three other players in Connecticut history. He helped the school to an overall record of 95-39 in his UConn career and the Huskies made three appearances in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the Elite Eight in 2002 and the Sweet 16 in 2003. UConn captured a BIG EAST Regular Season Championship in both 2001-02 and 2002-03 and won the 2002 BIG EAST Tournament title. Tony was a part of eight wins in the BIG EAST Tournament during his career, second in UConn history.

Three other seniors finished up their Husky careers in 2002-03. Justin Brown played in 89 games in his career and is the final member of the 1999 NCAA Championship team to finish his playing days. Mike Hayes saw action in 66 games over the past two seasons and played valuable minutes in both NCAA Tournament runs in his career. Mike Woodward appeared in 15 games in four seasons as a walk-on with the Husky program.

Junior Taliek Brown appeared in 29 games, missing four due to injury. He led the Huskies in assists per game for the third straight season and will enter his senior season in 2003-04 in the No. 7 spot on the all-time UConn assist list. He needs 209 assists to become UConn's all-time assist leader and also needs 205 points to join the 1,000-point club.

Four Husky freshmen also played a key role for the Huskies in 2002-03, including three who were a part of the starting lineup during the year. Denham Brown started 28 games at the small forward spot, averaging 7.7 points and playing 21.6 minutes per game. Rashad Anderson started the other four games at the small forward position and averaged 8.2 points in 14.8 minutes per contest. He was second on the team with 55 three-pointers. Hilton Armstrong started the final 22 games of the season at the power forward position and averaged 2.8 points and 2.8 boards per game. Marcus White played in 23 games and was second on the team in rebounding at 5.6 per game. He averaged 6.4 boards per BIG EAST contest, finishing No. 13 in the league in that category.

Game Notes: The Seahawks got within five as late as 79-74 with 5:54 to play but Gordon hit a three-pointer. After a Wagner hoop, Hazelton dunked and Taliek Brown hit a jumper to put the Huskies safely ahead by 10.... Wagner jumped out to a quick 10-4 lead in the first 2:46 as Dedrick Dye hit two three-pointers but UConn faced back to take the lead for good at 19-18 on the second of two free throws by Gordon. The Huskies opened up some distance on the Seahawks, leading 53-38 at the half behind Gordon's 15 and Okafor's 14... The pesky Seahawks opened the second half on a 19-9 run to get within 62-57 with 13:09 to play... Okafor tied a UConn record with a double-double in his fifth straight game to start a season.

During the past 17 years, University of Connecticut head basketball coach Jim Calhoun has steadily built UConn basketball into one of the elite college programs in the nation.

The move toward national prominence for the University of Connecticut basketball program began in May of 1986 when Jim Calhoun was named head coach.

Seventeen years later, UConn Basketball sits atop the college basketball landscape with a National Championship and a regular spot in the top 25 collegiate polls.

In 2002-03, Coach Calhoun faced the biggest challenge of his life and tackled it with the will and determination that we have grown to expect from him and his program. On February 3, 2003, Calhoun announced that he had been diagnosed with prostate cancer. He took an immediate leave of absence from the team and underwent surgery on February 6 to have his prostate removed. He was released from the hospital on February 9 and within days was back in the office, involved in the many day-to-day aspects of running the program. On February 22, Calhoun remarkably returned to the sidelines for the team's match-up with St. John's at Gampel Pavilion, only 13 days after his prostate cancer surgery. He has remained on the sidelines since, slowly working his way back to full strength, and bringing his team along to full strength as well.

The 2002-03 Huskies finished the season with a 23-10 overall record, finishing 10-6 in the BIG EAST. The Huskies captured a share of the BIG EAST East Division title, the program's eighth BIG EAST Regular Season Championship in the past 14 seasons, and lost in the championship game of the BIG EAST Tournament. UConn spent the first 14 weeks of the season ranked in the National Top 25, reaching as high as the No. 3 spot, and finished the year ranked No. 11 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and No. 23 in the Associated Press rankings. UConn advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time under coach Calhoun, making the program one of only five schools to advance to national postseason play for the last 15 straight seasons and the Huskies were in the NCAA Sweet 16 for the ninth time in 11 trips to the tourney under Coach Calhoun.

In 31 seasons as a head coach on the NCAA Division I collegiate level, Jim Calhoun's overall collegiate head coaching record is 647-296 (68.6% winning effort). That includes a 248-137 (64.4%) record in 14 seasons as head coach at Northeastern (MA) University and a 399-159 (71.5%) mark in 17 years at Connecticut.

During the 2002-03 season, Calhoun became only the third coach in BIG EAST history to reach the 200 victory plateau and his record in BIG EAST

During the 2001-02 season, Calhoun became the 26th coach in NCAA Division I history to reach the 600-win plateau and his 647 career wins place him No. 8 among active Division I coaches. He has more wins than any coach in UConn and New England Division I college basketball history.

When he arrived at Connecticut as the 17th head coach of men's basketball on May 15, 1986, Jim Calhoun immediately began to chart a new course for success. He promised to "do it the right way, with no short cuts". He noted he wanted to establish a program at UConn that would annually be called one of the top programs in the nation.

Mission accomplished.

One collegiate basketball writer, authoring an article on Connecticut basketball for a national publication, said it best when he noted, "Bringing the UConn program to this point from where it was when he took over is nothing short of miraculous".

On March 29, 1999, Coach Calhoun capped his remarkable transformation of the Connecticut basketball program when UConn won the 1999 NCAA Division I National Championship, beating Duke 77-74 in the title game at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Florida.

For his personal efforts in building Connecticut Basketball into one of the nation's top programs, Jim Calhoun has earned a host of coaching honors.

Following the 2002-03 season, Jim Calhoun received the prestigious Metropolitan Award from the National Basketball Coaches Association (NABC). The award was presented at the NABC Convention at the 2003 NCAA Final Four in New Orleans. The award is given annually by the NABC on behalf of the National Invitation Tournament and the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Basketball Association and is presented for continued outstanding service for the enhancement and betterment of college basketball. Previous winners of the award include Mike Tranghese, John Thompson, Dean Smith, Lou Carnesecca, Dave Gavitt, Curt Gowdy, John Wooden, Adolph Rupp, Joe Lapchick and Phog Allen.

Jim Calhoun is the only coach in the history of the BIG EAST Conference to have been named BIG EAST Conference Coach of the Year four times. He earned his first BIG EAST Coach of the Year award in 1989-90 and also won the honor following the 1993-94, 1995-96 and 1997-98 seasons. John Thompson of Georgetown and Lou Carnesecca of St. John's each earned the prestigious honor three times.

In the summer of 2002, Jim Calhoun was selected as a member of the inaugural induction class to the New England Basketball Hall of Fame.

After directing Connecticut to the NCAA National Championship, Jim Calhoun received the 1999 Winged Foot Award from the New York Athletic Club, recognizing him as their National Coach of the Year. He also received the prestigious Victor Award as 1998-99 College Basketball National Coach of the Year and was the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District I Coach of the Year.

In March of 1990, at the conclusion of only his fourth season as head coach of the Huskies, Jim Calhoun was the consensus choice as the 1989-90 College Basketball National Coach of the Year. He guided UConn to a 31-6 overall record as the Huskies won both the BIG EAST regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. He was named National Coach of the Year by five different organizations (Associated Press, United Press International, The Sporting News, CBS-TV Sports, Basketball Weekly).

In addition to the outstanding won-loss record he's compiled as a collegiate head coach, Jim Calhoun's postseason national tournament record is truly remarkable. During the past 22 seasons, Jim Calhoun-coached teams have earned national tournament berths 20 times (15 NCAA, 5 NIT). At Northeastern, he earned NCAA bids in five of the last six years he directed that program. At Connecticut, he and his Huskies have played in 15 consecutive postseason national tournaments.

In his 17 years at Connecticut, Jim Calhoun has compiled a stunning 38-13 overall record in national postseason tournament competition (26-9 in NCAA play, 12-4 in NIT play). Coach Calhoun's winning percentage for national postseason tournament play while at UConn (38-13=74.5%) is better than his overall winning percentage at Connecticut (399-159=71.5%). His 26 NCAA wins at UConn, all achieved in the past 15 years, far outdistances the entire total of four NCAA victories recorded at Connecticut before Coach Calhoun took over the Husky basketball program in the spring of 1986.

In addition to directing Connecticut to the 1999 NCAA National Championship, Jim Calhoun has led UConn to 11 NCAA bids in the past 14 years. Under Calhoun's direction, UConn has never lost a NCAA First Round game and are 20-2 in the First and Second Rounds. The Huskies have earned nine NCAA Sweet 16 berths in the past 14 years, and Connecticut advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight in 1990, 1995, 1998, 1999 and 2002. The Huskies have also spent 12 weeks as the No. 1 ranked team in the country during Calhoun's tenure.

Prior to taking over the UConn program in May of 1986, Jim Calhoun had led Northeastern University to five NCAA berths from 1981 to 1986. Including all NCAA and NIT appearances as a collegiate head coach, Jim Calhoun's overall national postseason tournament record is 41-18. His combined total of 29 NCAA wins (26 at UConn, 3 at Northeastern) places Jim Calhoun No. 13 on the all-time collegiate coaching list for career NCAA victories.

Connecticut basketball under head coach Jim Calhoun has achieved a unique "double", winning both the 1999 NCAA Division I National Championship as well as the 1988 National Invitation Tournament (NIT) Championship.

The 1999 NCAA Championship completed a clean sweep in 1998-99 for the Huskies. UConn won both the regular season and tournament titles in the BIG EAST Conference. The Huskies were the No. 1 seed in the West Region of the NCAA Tournament and Connecticut ran off six straight NCAA victories to finish the year with a single-season school record 34 wins and claim the national championship. UConn finished the year ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final USA Today/ESPN Top 25 poll.

Eleven years before winning the 1999 NCAA Championship, Jim Calhoun brought his first national title home to the Storrs campus as his Huskies claimed the 51st annual NIT title in March of 1988, beating Ohio State 72-67 in the championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Much like his success at Connecticut, Jim Calhoun's performance as head coach at Northeastern (MA) University in Boston for 14 seasons was nothing short of sensational. He developed a program from Division II status to a nationally-recognized squad which became a perennial NCAA Division I tournament team. At NU, Jim Calhoun won 20 or more games in five of his last six seasons, chalked up a brilliant 135-47 record during that span, and earned five NCAA Division I tournament berths.

His final three years at Northeastern resulted in NCAA automatic bids each season and a three-year mark of 75-19.

At Northeastern, Jim Calhoun is the winningest coach in school history (248-137) as his teams averaged 17.9 wins per season. He was a three-time New England "Coach of the Year" and a three-time Kodak District I "Coach of the Year".

In leaving Northeastern in 1986, Coach Calhoun left perhaps the most talented team in the school's history, along with a first round NBA draft pick in senior Reggie Lewis, who later became captain of the Boston Celtics before his untimely death during the summer of 1993.

As was the case at Northeastern, Jim Calhoun's success at producing top-flight collegiate stars who also excel at the professional basketball level, is an annual happening at Connecticut. A total of 16 former UConn stars who played for Coach Calhoun have been part of the National Basketball Association (NBA). They include: Clifford Robinson (Detroit Pistons/Phoenix Suns/Portland Trail Blazers), Tate George (New Jersey Nets), Chris Smith (Minnesota Timberwolves), Scott Burrell (New Jersey Nets/Chicago Bulls/Charlotte Hornets), Donyell Marshall (Chicago Bulls/Utah Jazz/Golden State Warriors), Donny Marshall (New Jersey Nets/Cleveland Cavaliers), Kevin Ollie (Seattle Sonics/Milwaukee Bucks/Indiana Pacers/Chicago Bulls/Philadelphia 76ers/Orlando Magic), Ray Allen (Seattle Sonics/Milwaukee Bucks), Travis Knight (New York Knicks/Boston Celtics/Los Angeles Lakers), Doron Sheffer (Los Angeles Clippers), Richard Hamilton (Detroit Pistons/Washington Wizards), Khalid El-Amin (Chicago Bulls/Dallas Mavericks/Miami Heat), Jake Voskuhl (Phoenix Suns/Chicago Bulls), Kevin Freeman (New Jersey Nets), Ricky Moore (Charlotte Hornets/Detroit Pistons) and Caron Butler (Miami Heat).

A former Little All-American and All-New England player at American International College in Springfield, MA, Calhoun graduated from AIC in 1968 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology. At AIC, he lettered three years while leading the Yellow Jacket basketball team in scoring as a junior and senior. He captained his alma mater in his senior year and left the school as the fourth all-time leading scorer along with helping the school earn a NCAA Division II playoff berth. He is a member of the AIC Hall of Fame and in the summer of 1994 earned the prestigious distinction of being elected to serve as a member of the American International College Board of Trustees. In the spring of 2000, Jim Calhoun served as the main commencement speaker at AIC's 115th graduation exercises and received an honorary degree from his alma mater.

Jim Calhoun began his coaching career at AIC, serving as an assistant basketball coach from 1966-68. After one year as head coach of basketball at Old Lyme High School in Connecticut, and one year as head coach of Westport High School in Westport, MA, Jim Calhoun moved on to become head coach at Dedham High School in Massachusetts. He quickly rebuilt the program, fashioning a 21-1 record in 1971-72 and seeing his club advance to the State Division I semi-finals.

In October of 1972, he moved into the collegiate coaching ranks at Northeastern University in Boston. In the years to follow, the Northeastern Huskies would dominate the ECAC North Atlantic Conference under his guidance. Northeastern won the league's regular season championship four times and shared the top spot two other times in seven years of conference play. NU also won five of the seven league tournaments and Coach Calhoun's record against conference competition in his career at NU was 74-13. While at Northeastern, he was inducted into the NU Sports Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Braintree (MA) High School, Jim Calhoun was a three-sport letter winner in football, basketball and baseball. As a senior captain, he earned All-Bay State League honors in football and basketball. His hometown of Braintree has bestowed a singular honor on Coach Calhoun, naming outdoor basketball courts in a city facility "Calhoun Park". He continues to return to Braintree to speak and conduct basketball clinics for area youths.

Jim Calhoun and his wife Pat have two sons, James and Jeffrey. James and his wife Jennifer reside in London, England with their daughters, Emily (born 3/5/99) and Katie (born 12/29/00). Jeffrey and his wife Amy reside in Glastonbury, CT with their daughters Avery (born 1/26/02) and Reese (born 4/7/03).

TOM MOORE

Assistant
Coach
9th Season

GEORGE BLANEY

Assistant
Coach
2nd Season

Tom Moore completed his ninth season on the University of Connecticut basketball staff in 2002-03.

A 1987 Boston University graduate, Moore, 37, was the head basketball coach at Worcester State (MA) College for five seasons before coming to UConn. He began his coaching career as assistant coach at Worcester State during the 1987-88 season. He spent the 1988-89 season as assistant coach at Assumption College before becoming the youngest head coach of a collegiate program in New England when, at age 24, he was named the Worcester State head coach prior to the 1989-90 season.

During his five seasons in charge of the Worcester State program, Moore compiled a record of 76-59, the winningest five-year period in the school's history.

In his second year as head coach, his 1990-91 club posted a 16-11 record, the winningest single-season at Worcester State in the previous 14 years. His 1992-93 club was named the region's Most Improved Team by the New England Basketball Coaches Association and that squad earned an ECAC tournament berth. The 1993-94 Worcester State team earned a spot in the NCAA Division III National Tournament. In addition to his role as head coach of basketball, Moore was an Assistant Athletic Director at Worcester State.

Moore joined the UConn coaching staff prior to the 1994-95 season and in his nine seasons associated with the Connecticut program the Huskies have compiled an overall record of 237-67, winning the 1999 NCAA Championship, six BIG EAST regular season titles, four BIG EAST tournament crowns, and earning nine straight postseason national tournament bids.

Moore, a graduate of St. John's High School in Shrewsbury, MA, has served as secretary-treasurer of the Worcester Coaches Association and has been a frequent lecturer at various summer camps throughout the country.

Moore and his wife, Eileen, live in Tolland and have three daughters, Elizabeth Rose, Catherine Grace and Caroline Mary.

George Blaney completed his second season as a member of the Connecticut basketball staff in 2002-03.

Blaney brings to Connecticut more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience. He was an All-New England college basketball standout at Holy Cross, scoring 1,012 points in his college career and leading the Crusaders to back-to-back 20-win seasons before graduating in 1961. Blaney was a fourth round selection of the New York Knicks in the 1961 NBA Draft and played during the 1961-62 season with the Knicks.

During the 2002-03 season, Coach Blaney served as the interim head coach at UConn during Jim Calhoun's leave of absence for prostate cancer surgery. He guided the Huskies to a 3-2 record during that stretch, including a nationally-televised win over then-No. 17 Syracuse at the Hartford Civic Center.

Blaney began his coaching career as head coach at Hudson County High School in New Jersey in 1965. He moved into the college coaching ranks two years later when he was named head coach at Stonehill (MA) College. After two seasons at Stonehill, Blaney spent three years as head coach at Dartmouth College before returning to his alma mater and coaching the Holy Cross program for the next 22 years.

While directing the Holy Cross program, Blaney led the Crusaders to three NCAA tournament berths, five invitations to the NIT, and a 357-276 overall record. Holy Cross posted seven 20-win seasons during Blaney's tenure as head coach.

In 1994, George Blaney joined the BIG EAST Conference and spent three seasons as head coach at Seton Hall. He departed the college coaching ranks to become Vice President of Basketball Operations for the International Basketball League in 1998. He remained in that post for two years before joining the University of Rhode Island as an assistant coach during the 2000-2001 season.

In 30 seasons as a collegiate head coach, Blaney posted an impressive overall record of 459-382.

During his coaching career, Blaney spent 12 years on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and served as the organization's president in 1993-94. He has earned numerous honors including the 1996 Bob Cousy Humanitarian Award; 1994 Eastern Basketball Magazine's Man of the Year; 1990 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Coach of the Year; 1982 inductee into the Holy Cross Hall of Fame; 1981 inductee into the Hudson County Hall of Fame; 1980 U.S. Olympic Festival coach; 1977 Eastern Coach of the Year; and 1976 Hugh Greer Memorial New England Coach of the Year.

Blaney and his wife, Maryellen, have two daughters and three sons, along with four grandchildren.

CLYDE VAUGHAN

Assistant
Coach
1st Season

Clyde Vaughan, a former standout player at the University of Pittsburgh, completed his first season on the UConn basketball staff in 2002-03.

Vaughan spent the past three seasons (1999-00 through 2001-02) as an assistant coach at the University of South Florida. Vaughan previously spent seven seasons (1992-93 through 1998-99) at Long Beach State University, first as an assistant coach ('92-'93 through '96-'97) and then as the associate head coach ('97-'98 through '98-'99).

At both Long Beach State and South Florida, Vaughan was known nationally as an outstanding recruiter and specifically worked with frontcourt and perimeter players. Vaughan helped Long Beach State and South Florida attract numerous nationally-ranked recruiting classes.

A 1984 graduate of Pittsburgh, Vaughan earned a bachelor's degree in communications. He led the Panthers in scoring and rebounding in his final three seasons at Pitt and finished his career as the No. 1 scorer in school history with 2,033 points. He is currently No. 2 behind Charles Smith. He is also the fifth all-time leading rebounder at Pitt with 920. As a junior in 1982-83, Vaughan led the BIG EAST Conference in scoring at 22.0 points per game. He was second to Chris Mullin in scoring in his senior year of 1983-84 at 20.3 points per game. He still ranks in the Top 15 in BIG EAST Conference history with his career averages of 19.5 points and 8.5 rebounds.

After completing his career at Pittsburgh, Vaughan was a sixth round selection by the Indiana Pacers in the 1984 NBA Draft. Vaughan opted to play professional basketball in Europe, where he was a standout in England during a seven-year career. He still ranks No. 3 on the all-time scoring average list, averaging 28.2 points per game. He was the English Player of the Year in 1989-90 and made 27 appearances for the English National Team. During Vaughan's lengthy playing and coaching career, he has traveled to 27 different countries.

Born in London, England, and raised in Mount Vernon, N.Y., Vaughan attended New Rochelle High School, where he was a standout basketball player. In September of 2000, he was inducted into the Westchester County Sports Hall of Fame and was a member of the Westchester County All-Century Basketball Team, as selected by The Journal-News.

Vaughan lives in Manchester, Conn., with his son C.J.

ANDRE LaFLEUR

Director of Basketball
Operations
2nd Season

Andre LaFleur completed his second season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of Connecticut in 2002-03.

LaFleur is a graduate of Northeastern University where he was one of the nation's premier point guards. A native of Los Angeles and a product of Governor Dummer Academy in South Byfield, Mass., he was a prime recruit for then-Northeastern head coach Jim Calhoun in a class that included Wes Fuller and Reggie Lewis.

The impact of that freshman class was instantaneous. The Huskies romped through their conference schedule with a perfect 14-0 mark and an overall record of 27-5. They won the America East title and went on to the NCAA Tournament. This pattern continued throughout his career as every year the Huskies won the league crown and went on to the NAAs. From the 1983-84 season through LaFleur's senior year of 1986-87, the team boasted a conference record of 60-6 and an overall record of 102-26. During one stretch, the Huskies won 38 consecutive home games.

LaFleur played 4405 minutes in 128 consecutive games - more minutes and more games than any other Northeastern player, past or present. LaFleur scored 1143 career points, graduating as the 10th all-time leading scorer in NU history and he is a member of the Northeastern Hall of Fame. He registered 89 steals as a senior and 252 for his career, both still Northeastern records. His total of 894 career assists set a new NCAA record in 1988 and he still ranks 11th in NCAA history. As a junior and senior, LaFleur was named All-Conference, while serving as a tri-captain with Fuller and Lewis. As a freshman, he made the conference All-Rookie Team.

LaFleur was a fifth-round draft pick of the Houston Rockets in 1987 and lasted until the team's final cut of the preseason. He then played for two years in the CBA before traveling to Australia where he played professionally for 11 seasons. After completing his professional career, Andre took a position as School Sports Coordinator for the Sydney City Basketball Association.

Andre also serves as the co-director of the Jim Calhoun Basketball Camp.

Andre has a son, Adrian.
