2013-14 OUTLOOK

With new head coach Steve Alford at the helm of the Bruins' program, UCLA returns a talented core group of six veteran players in 2013-14. The addition of six incoming players will help give the Bruins some much-needed depth as Alford and his coaching staff hit the ground running this fall.

A 22-year head coaching veteran, Alford is extremely excited about the program's immediate and long-term future. In six-plus months since landing in Westwood, he has worked tirelessly to get familiar with the school and the athletic department, while organizing his support staff and traveling the country in search of coveted recruits. But the head coach's first and most crucial task was retaining each of the Bruins' returning players from last season's roster.

"My staff and I spent a lot of time getting to know them, just spending time with them," Alford said. "It was important to get those guys in our office, to be around them, to develop a relationship and a comfort level with those players. Thankfully, that trust has been built to where I think they'd tell you that they are enjoying things to this point."

Alford's winning pedigree certainly has caught the attention of UCLA's returning players and incomers. He arrived in Westwood six months ago after a highly-successful six-year tenure at the University of New Mexico. He guided the Lobos to the Mountain West Conference's regular-season and tournament titles the past two years. In all, he helped UNM secure four MWC regular-season crowns and three NCAA Tournament berths while overhauling the program's academic progress. He oversaw the two highest single-season win totals in school history, highlighted by a 30-5 overall mark in 2009-10. As he embarks on his fifth head coaching job, Alford realizes the demands at UCLA and is eager for the challenges.

"There's always a transition period, but I've done that four times before, so I feel confident and ready to go," Alford said. "We were able to spend time on the floor this summer for individual workouts, and our guys have been able to see us in our developmental phase. We want them to feel comfortable and enjoy how we are teaching them the game of basketball and our style of play."

UCLA looks to defend its Pac-12 Conference regular-season title, having gone 25-10 last season with a 13-5 mark in Pac-12 action. Three of UCLA's five starters from last year's roster are back, and six of the team's primary eight contributors have also returned. The Bruins must supplant the losses of swingman Shabazz Muhammad (17.9 ppg, 5.2 rpg) and Larry Drew II (7.5 ppg, 7.3 apg). Muhammad was the No. 14 overall selection in the 2013 NBA Draft as a freshman, and Drew II graduated with his degree in history in June 2013.

BACKCOURT

The Bruins' backcourt was fueled by fifth-year senior Larry Drew II last season, and UCLA will look to several of its underclassmen to assume that role this year. Two of UCLA's most pivotal backcourt weapons are back in sophomores Kyle Anderson and Jordan Adams.

UCLA will be able to rely on Anderson, who has the ability to man the point guard position, and freshmen Bryce Alford and Zach LaVine to help run the offense. Replacing Drew II will be no easy task, as the former transfer from North Carolina capped his senior season at UCLA by setting the school's single-season assist record (256). Anderson emerged as one of the conference's most versatile players last season, finishing his freshman campaign as the Bruins' leading rebounder (8.6 rpg) and UCLA's fourth-leading scorer (9.7 ppg). The 6-foot-9 product of Fairview, N.J., was the only Pac-12 player to rank among the conference's top 10 leaders in both rebounds and assists (3.5 apg).

"Kyle can play any of four positions, and we'll rely on him to play any of the three guard positions," Steve Alford said. "He's one of our best rebounders, so we also plan to play him at the four. He has a tremendous feel for the game, and there will be a lot of versatility in how we use Kyle."

Alford and LaVine both had sensational high school careers, securing 2013 PARADE All-America acclaim, and each player is expected to earn minutes from the start as freshmen. LaVine, a 6-foot-5 guard from Seattle, Wash., captured 2013 Associated Press Player of the Year honors from the state of Washington after averaging 28.5 points and 3.4 rebounds per game during his senior season. Alford was named the state of New Mexico's 2013 Gatorade Player of the Year, having registered 37.7 points and 8.5 rebounds per game as a senior.

"In our freshmen class, both Bryce and Zach can play that position," Coach Alford said. "We typically don't label guys as strictly a point guard, or a shooting guard, but both of these guys have the ability to play at those guard positions. We want to take their skill sets and see how we can best use them in our system."

Adams, a 6-foot-5 guard from Atlanta, established himself as one of the Bruins' most reliable and consistent players one year ago. Not only was he among the team's most potent three-point threats (30.7 percent), but he finished his freshman season ranking third among Pac-12 players in free throw percentage (84.3 percent). Adams enters his sophomore campaign as the team's top returning scorer (15.3 ppg) and is fully healed from a broken right foot he sustained on the final play in a Pac-12 Tournament semifinal win over Arizona (March 15).

"Jordan has a very high basketball IQ, and we are very excited with the progress he made over the summer," Alford said. "Our medical staff was very cautious during his recovery, and we're really excited to see Jordan back out there when the season begins. He's a young and dynamic scorer who will be a major factor for us."

Junior Norman Powell was one of three players to compete in all 35 contests last season and averaged 6.1 points and 2.2 rebounds off the bench. He established himself as one of UCLA's lockdown defenders during his sophomore campaign and scored in double figures in seven games. Powell is expected to factor heavily in UCLA's backcourt with the losses of Drew II and Muhammad.

"Our team has the ability to use a very big lineup when you talk about Norman being in there with Jordan and Kyle," Alford said. "Norman is an extremely athletic individual and he's got two years of experience of playing in the Pac-12 against a very high level of competition. He can certainly be a force for us at the shooting guard and swing guard positions."

Also in the equation in UCLA's backcourt are freshmen Noah Allen and Isaac Hamilton. Allen, a 6-foot-6 guard from Pacific Grove, Calif., missed the majority of his senior season with a hand injury but spent the summer in Westwood and provides UCLA another option off the bench. Hamilton, a 6-foot-5 product from nearby St. John Bosco High School (Bellflower, Calif.), could also become a factor for the Bruins.

FRONT COURT

Senior 6-foot-10 twin brothers David and Travis Wear return as two of the Pac-12 Conference's most experienced frontcourt players. David and Travis, hailing from nearby Huntington Beach, Calif., have each played in over 90 collegiate games, spanning two seasons at UCLA and one freshman year at North Carolina. Travis has averaged over 10.0 points and 5.0 rebounds per game in each of two seasons with UCLA. Last year, he ranked third on the team with 10.9 points per game and logged a team-best 49.3 percent field goal percentage. David (7.1 ppg, 5.0 rpg) led UCLA with 6.3 rebounds per game as a sophomore, finishing fourth in that category (5.0 rpg) last season.

In addition to being able to crash the boards, David and Travis have developed a strong knack for hitting the outside shot. Travis scored a career-high 23 points in a 78-75 win at Colorado last season, including a stretch of nine consecutive points in the final 10 minutes, mostly from near the perimeter. David enters his senior season as a 41.1 percent three-point shooter in three college seasons.

Sophomore Tony Parker will take on a greater role as a forward and center for the Bruins in 2013-14, having played in 33 of the team's 35 games last season. The former McDonald's All-America selection from Atlanta, Ga., averaged 2.4 points and 1.2 rebounds in 6.3 minutes per game as a freshman. He dedicated himself to the weight room in the offseason and lost nearly 25 pounds. The Bruins are confident that Parker's offseason conditioning will help the sophomore reach his potential this season.

Freshman Wanaah Bail will provide another frontcourt option. The 6-foot-9 product from Houston enrolled at UCLA in the summer and spent the preseason recovering from left knee surgery performed June 28, 2013.

"We are really going to value the contributions of the Wear twins and Tony, because that's one position where we don't have a ton of depth," Alford said. "The Wears are both very polished players who will be vital to our success. Tony had a tremendous summer and I know he's motivated to get on the court and show us that he can be an impact player."

UCLA will also be able to rely on the versatile Anderson to bolster the team's frontcourt. With the presence of David and Travis Wear, Anderson and Parker, the Bruins have returned 78 percent of their total rebounding production from last season and 89 percent of their blocked shots. As a team, UCLA finished fifth in the conference in rebounding, while Anderson was the Pac-12 sixth-best rebounder in 2012-13.

Junior Norman Powell (left) has averaged 5.3 points and 2.2 rebounds in 68 games over two seasons. Twin brothers Travis and David Wear (right) have played major roles for UCLA the last two years. Travis (center) averaged 10.9 points and 5.2 rebounds per game as a junior in 2012-13. David registered 7.1 points and 5.0 rebounds per game as a junior.

WELCOME TO PAULEY PAVILION

UCLA'S RENOVATED HOME ARENA

Pauley Pavilion underwent an extensive $136-million renovation and re-opened in time for the 2012-13 season. The Bruins' home began its expansion and renovation in March 2010 with the goal of improving the building not only as a basketball arena, but also as a multi-purpose facility. The building provides numerous amenities, including additional concession points and restrooms, nearly 1,000 extra seats, a custom-designed 16-foot by 12-foot LED high-definition Daktronics video board and an interior LED ribbon board.

Other key additions in the arena include two state-of-the-art locker rooms, a 24-seat film room, a new weight room, a sports medicine room and player lounges. Pauley Pavilion now features 154% more restroom facilities and a wider array of dining options.

PAULEY RECONFIGURED
The renovated arena has approximately 13,800 seats, nearly 1,000 seats more than the building housed in its previous configuration. The pavilion's north side hosts a grand lobby highlighting the theme "Champions Made Here" and UCLA's 109 NCAA team championships as well as the multi-purpose Pavilion Club for game-day hospitality.

AROUND THE BUILDING
Pauley Pavilion's main entrance is located on the north side of the building, adjacent to Bruin Walk and directly across from the intramural field. Located outside the arena on the north side stands a bronze statue of head coach John Wooden, as sculpted by Blair Buswell. The statue of Coach Wooden weighs approximately 400 pounds.

HOMECOURT ADVANTAGE

UCLA returned to its renovated arena, Pauley Pavilion, in Nov. 2012 after the building underwent an extensive $136-million renovation. The Bruins went 15-3 in Pauley Pavilion last season and have posted an all time .870 winning percentage in 47 years in the building.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

UCLA has twice hosted ESPN's College GameDay in the last six seasons. The Bruins hosted the popular ESPN program on March 2, 2013, prior to a 75-69 win over Arizona in the team's home finale.

SETTING RECORDS

UCLA established new, single-game attendance records in Pauley Pavilion twice last season. The home opener against Indiana State featured 13,513 fans (Nov. 9, 2012) and the season finale versus Arizona had 13,727 fans (March 2, 2013).

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

The UCLA men's basketball program continues to attract major media attention, both locally and nationally, in the nation's second-largest media market. The Los Angeles media market features seven local network affiliates or independent television stations which cover UCLA on a regular basis.

The addition of the Pac-12 Networks in the fall of 2012, which features six regional stations and one national channel, has provided the newest additional outlet for UCLA's games throughout the nation. Over 13 local newspapers and one international wire service regularly cover UCLA basketball, including the Los Angeles Times, which boasts the nation's largest daily circulation in excess of one million readers.

A 70,000-watt radio station (KLAC Sports 570 AM) broadcasts all UCLA basketball games live. The Bruins also have a contract with SIRIUS National Satellite Radio. Over 100 Sports Illustrated covers feature current and former Bruin athletes. Media training is available for all interested student-athletes, while video interview sessions are offered as well as print interview sessions.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA LOS ANGELES

The city of Los Angeles gains international recognition as America's leader in the entertainment and communications industries. With numerous scenic sports and famed tourist destinations, Los Angeles has much to offer its residents and visitors.

Los Angeles' unparalleled entertainment venues include Universal Citywalk (left) and adjacent Universal Studios, as both sites are 20 minutes from UCLA. Students are also within driving distance to theme parks such as Disneyland and Six Flags Magic Mountain. Less than five miles away from campus is Santa Monica's Third Street Promenade (above, left), an upscale shopping and dining complex in the downtown area of Santa Monica. Third Street is widely considered a premier shopping and entertainment destination on the Westside, drawing crowds from all over Los Angeles.

Staples Center has been home to the NBA's Lakers and Clippers since the 1999-2000 season, as well as the NHL's Kings and WNBA's Sparks. One of the nation's premier multi-purpose venues, Staples Center also hosts sold-out concerts and other popular entertainment events. The arena hosted the NBA's All-Star Game in 2004 and 2011.

The Los Angeles area features numerous beaches with fantastic views of the Pacific Ocean. Venice Beach, Santa Monica, Pacific Palisades and Malibu are all a short drive from UCLA's campus in Westwood. UCLA rests about five miles east of the Pacific and enjoys relatively cool evening temperatures due to its coastal proximity.

Among one of baseball's most iconic franchises, the Los Angeles Dodgers have called Dodger Stadium their home since 1962, five seasons after moving to Los Angeles from Brooklyn. The historic ballpark served as host to the 1984 Olympic baseball games and the 2010 World Baseball Classic. Dodger Stadium is situated just north of downtown Los Angeles, roughly 12 miles from UCLA's campus.

STUDENT LIFE

UCLA offers a broad range of recreational and co-curricular opportunities for students. With campus in a gorgeous Westwood location, UCLA provides 13 residential buildings, a multitude of fine dining options and recreational amenities.

UCLA's campus, set in a picturesque setting adjacent to Bel Air and Beverly Hills, features many co-curricular and academic opportunities for students. "Bruin Walk" (bottom right) provides a landscaped pathway through UCLA's campus, connecting the residential areas with recreational and academic buildings. Residential buildings range from suite designs to hall arrangements. Dining services provide students an array of dining options in four residential cafeterias. Sport and fitness opportunities are available at the John Wooden Center and at the Sunset Canyon Recreation Center (right, second from bottom).

WESTWOOD

One of California's most beautiful residential areas, Westwood is the home to UCLA's campus. Activity surrounds UCLA, as Westwood Village (just south of campus) offers a wide variety of restaurants, shops and movie theaters.

The Fox Village Theatre and Geffen Playhouse are located in Westwood Village, a community just south of campus that features numerous restaurants, stores and entertainment options. Popular eateries in Westwood for students include California Pizza Kitchen, In-N-Out Burger, Sepi's, Corner Bakery, Fat Sal's, Chipotle, Diddy Riese Cookies, Yogurtland, Flame Broiler and Whole Foods Market. Popular coffee destinations include Starbucks (left), The Coffee Bean and Tea Leaf, and Pete's Coffee & Tea.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Home to newly-renovated Pauley Pavilion, UCLA features state-of-the-art recreational and practice facilities, training rooms and athletic venues.

UCLA's Pauley Pavilion (above) serves as the Bruins' primary basketball facility. In addition, the Wooden Center (right, bottom) and Student Activities Center house basketball courts for recreational use. Other key athletic facilities include Drake Stadium and Marshall Field (right, top), home to the soccer and track and field teams; softball's Easton Stadium; the Los Angeles Tennis Center; water polo and swimming and diving's Spieker Aquatics Center (right, center); and baseball's Jackie Robinson Stadium (below).

ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

UCLA's Athletic Performance Center features 27 weight-lifting platforms, 30 upper and lower body weight machines and a variety of cardiovascular equipment in the Acosta Athletic Training Complex.

Athletic Performance Center

UCLA's Athletic Performance Center, located in the Acosta Athletic Training Complex, has doubled in size to 15,000 square feet and is directed by athletic performance coach Mike Linn, who enters the fourth year of his second tenure in this position.

Wes Long serves as the strength and conditioning coach for the men's basketball team, which has its own weight facility adjacent to its locker room in renovated Pauley Pavilion. Long served as the Bruins' strength coach from 2007-11 prior to a two-year stint in the same position at the University of Wyoming (2011-13).

Wes Long

An athlete's development requires a comprehensive plan that maximizes all physical components of competition. UCLA's Athletic Performance Center and the program developed by the staff are instrumental in equipping all UCLA athletes with the physical tools required to successfully compete in the national spotlight. Each men's basketball player receives individual attention from Coach Long in developing all facets of athleticism, such as strength, force production and power.

The Athletic Performance Center in the Acosta Athletic Training Complex features 27 weightlifting platforms, a state of the art dumbbell area, 30 upper and lower body weight machines and a variety of cardiovascular equipment. The room is highlighted by the Athletic Performance Area, a specialized space dedicated to enhancing acceleration/deceleration capabilities, foot speed, balance and coordination, vertical jump and flexibility for all Bruin athletes.

TRAINING FACILITIES

UCLA's student-athletes conduct their training and conditioning activities in the three-story Acosta Athletic Training Complex, home for UCLA sports medicine, athletic training and rehabilitation, athletic performance and varsity locker rooms.

Acosta Athletic Training Complex

This state-of-the-art facility provides UCLA student-athletes and coaches all the advantages needed to maximize athletic performance. Key features include a 15,000 square-foot weight room, with the most modern equipment for use by all sports in the department. The training complex is a three-story building that also features a "Bod Pod", used to accurately measure one's body fat and an 8,000 square-foot athletic training and rehabilitation facility with private offices and doctor's suites.

UCLA Sports Medicine

UCLA has always been at the forefront in the area of sports medicine and athletic training. The Acosta Athletic Training Complex provides greater advances in sports medicine to benefit UCLA's student-athletes, including state-of-the-art hydro-therapy pods. Mark Pocinich heads the UCLA sports medicine staff and works closely with team physician John DiFiori and men's basketball athletic trainer Laef Morris.

UCLA'S OLYMPIC HERITAGE

REPRESENTING THE UNITED STATES

Since the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin, Germany, 10 players affiliated with the UCLA men's basketball program have participated in the Olympics. Most recently, Kevin Love and Russell Westbrook (above) helped Team USA win the gold medal at the 2012 Olympics in London, England.

Former UCLA great Reggie Miller (far left) competed for Team USA in the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, Ga. That summer, Miller helped the Olympic Team continue the legacy of the 1992 "Dream Team," finishing 8-0 to capture the gold medal.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE

"THE CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS"

UCLA embarks on its third season in the Pac-12 Conference in 2013-14. The league expanded in July 2011 by adding the University of Colorado and the University of Utah. Upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions," the Pac-12 has captured 127 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including eight in 2012-13.

THROUGH THE YEARS...

The conference's roots date back to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at Portland's Oregon Hotel. Original membership consisted of California, Washington, Oregon and Oregon State College (now Oregon State).

1916 PCC play begins. One year later, Washington State College (now Washington State) was accepted into the Conference. Stanford University joined in 1918.

1922 PCC expands to eight teams with admission of USC and University of Idaho.

1924 Montana joins the PCC.

1928 The PCC grows to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

1950 PCC competes as a 10-team league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. In 1950, Montana resigns from the Conference and joins the Mountain States Conference.

1959 PCC dissolves and the Athletic Association of Western University forms. Original AAUW membership consists of California, Stanford, USC, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joins in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State are added in 1964.

1968 The name "Pac-8 Conference" is adopted.

1978 Arizona and Arizona State are admitted July 1, completing the Pac-10 Conference.

2011 For the first time since 1978, the league expands. Colorado and Utah join the league in July 2011, forming the Pac-12 Conference.

ABOUT THE PAC-12 CONFERENCE

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront of collegiate athletics. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions ®," claiming 127 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including eight in 2012-13. That is an average of over nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 47 of the last 53 years. The only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third (1998-99 and 2004-05).

For the eighth-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles or tied for the most of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so six times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 459 NCAA Championships (309 men's, 150 women's).

The Conference's reputation is further proven in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. Stanford continued its remarkable run and won its unprecedented 19th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2012-13. Seven Pac-

12 member institutions ranked among the top-25 Division I programs: (1) Stanford, (3) UCLA, (14) USC, (15) Oregon, (17) California, (18) Arizona State and (23) Arizona. It marks the third-straight year at least six member schools are in the top 25.

The Conference's eight national titles came in the form of five women's and three men's crowns. Five different league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the six NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, two were from the Pac-12. No other conference in the country had more than one team win multiple NCAA titles. In addition to the eight national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in eight NCAA Championship events. Overall, the Conference had 33 teams finish in the top four at 25 NCAA Championship events.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-12 in 2012-13. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Conference, 15 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 59 of a possible 101 teams into the postseason (58.4 percent), while the women sent 70 of a possible 114 teams (61.4 percent).

In one of the closest league races in years, UCLA captured its 31st regular-season men's basketball title and first since 2007-08. The one-game separation between the top four teams was the closest since 1985. After 11 years in Los Angeles, the Pac-12 moved its postseason basketball tournament to Las Vegas and the MGM Grand Garden Arena where Oregon defeated UCLA for its third Pac-12 Tournament title and the program's first since 2007. The Ducks were the fifth different team over the last six years to capture the league's postseason crown. Joining Oregon in the 2013 NCAA Tournament were Arizona, California, Colorado and UCLA.

INTRODUCING THE 2013-14 BRUINS

Steve Alford begins his first season as UCLA's head coach in 2013-14, having compiled a 463-235 record (.663) in 22 seasons as a collegiate head coach. Alford was named the 13th head coach in UCLA men's basketball history on March 30, 2013, after having spent the previous six seasons at New Mexico.

A four-year standout at Indiana (1984-87) and member of the Hoosiers' 1987 NCAA Championship team, Alford competed in the NBA for four seasons before embarking on his career as a collegiate head coach. He has served as a Division I head coach the past 18 years. After a four-year stint at Manchester College (1992-95), Alford coached at Missouri State (1996-99), Iowa (2000-07) and New Mexico (2008-13).

In 22 seasons as a head coach, Alford's teams have qualified for the postseason 17 times, including seven NCAA Division I Tournament berths. Alford has led his teams to the postseason in 12 of the last 13 seasons and has reached the 20-win plateau in 11 of his 18 years at the NCAA Division I level.

Alford has recorded more NCAA victories (463) as a collegiate head coach, age 48 or younger, than any other head coach in the nation. Alford, who will turn 49 on Nov. 23, 2013, has totaled a 463-235 overall record in 22 seasons as a collegiate head coach. He began his collegiate coaching career at the age of 26 at Manchester College.

Alford guided the Lobos to postseason appearances all six years at New Mexico, including three trips to the NCAA Tournament (2010, 2012, 2013). His teams at New Mexico won at least 22 games in each of six seasons, securing more victories (155), a higher winning percentage (.749) and more regular-season conference titles (4) than any previous New Mexico head coach after six seasons.

Alford earned Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year honors in three of his final five seasons (2009, 2010, 2013). Three players at New Mexico secured Mountain West Player of the Year acclaim (J.R. Giddens in 2008, Darington Hobson in 2010, and Kendall Williams in 2013).

Under Alford's direction, New Mexico won four regular season titles in five years (2009, 2010, 2012, 2013), a streak matched only by Kansas and Gonzaga. New Mexico won the conference regular season and tournament titles in 2012 and 2013, becoming one of five schools in the country to make that claim. New Mexico achieved its two highest single-season win totals with Alford at the helm (30 wins in 2012, 29 wins in 2013). Both the 2010 and 2013 teams secured No. 3-seeds in the NCAA Tournament, tying UNM's record for the highest-seeded team.

Alford's teams at New Mexico had similar success in the classroom. He graduated 12 of his 13 seniors, including all three seniors from his final team in 2012-13. New Mexico had compiled a program record 11 consecutive semesters of a 2.7 grade-point average or better through his final season in Albuquerque.

Alford arrived at New Mexico after eight seasons as the head coach at the University of Iowa (2000-07), where he compiled a 152-106 record. He helped guide the Hawkeyes to a school-record seven consecutive winning seasons in addition to six postseason appearances (three NCAA Tournaments) and two Big Ten Conference Tournament titles (2001 and 2006).

As Iowa's head coach, Alford helped engineer three seasons with 20-plus victories, highlighted by a 25-win season in 2006. Iowa's 25 victories that year stand as the second-highest single-season win total in program history, five shy of the school-record 30 wins in 1987 under head coach Tom Davis. Alford is responsible for the Hawkeyes' two highest single-season win totals since 1987 (25 wins in 2006, 23 wins in 2001).

Prior to his service at Iowa, Alford helped engineer the most successful postseason run in school history at Missouri State University (then known to as Southwest Missouri State). His four-year tenure with the Bears was highlighted by the program's sixth NCAA Division I Tournament appearance in 1999, Missouri State's first-ever trip to the "Sweet 16" in Alford's final season at the helm.

Missouri State advanced to the NCAA Division I Tournament for the sixth time in school history that year, entering the field as the East Regional's No. 13-seeded team. Alford's team defeated No. 5-seed Wisconsin (43-32) and No. 4-seed Tennessee (81-51) to advance to the "Sweet 16" before losing to top-seeded Duke, 78-61, in the East Regional Semifinal.

Missouri State finished the season 22-11, as Alford had guided the Bears to their second 20-plus win season in three years. Prior to Alford's arrival in the fall of 1995, Missouri State had not advanced to the NCAA Tournament since 1992. Alford guided Missouri State to a 24-9 record in 1997, including a second-place finish in the Missouri Valley Conference, as the Bears ended their season in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). Missouri State's 24 victories that season marked the program's highest single-season win total since finishing 28-6 in 1987.

Steve Alford leads all coaches, 48 years or younger, with 463 career NCAA head coaching victories. After his freshman season at Indiana, he helped Team USA win gold at the 1984 Olympics (Los Angeles).

COACH PROFILES

In 1992, Alford joined the collegiate coaching ranks at Manchester College (NCAA Division III program in North Manchester, Ind., now known as Manchester University). He took over a team that had lost its first eight games and finished with four wins in 20 contests. One year later, he led the Spartans to a 20-8 mark in his first full year (1992-93).

Alford finished his tenure at Manchester by guiding the Spartans to a 23-4 record in 1994 and to a 31-1 mark in 1995. Each of Alford's final three teams at Manchester advanced to the NCAA Division III Tournament. The Spartans went 5-1 in the NCAA Tournament in 1995, losing in the national championship contest.

Prior to this coaching career, Alford enjoyed a four-year career in the NBA. He was selected No. 26 overall in the 1987 NBA Draft by the Dallas Mavericks after his senior season at Indiana. Alford played from 1987-91 with the Dallas Mavericks and the Golden State Warriors.

A native of New Castle, Ind., Alford was a prep standout for his father, Sam Alford, at New Castle Chrysler High School. He earned Indiana's Mr. Basketball Award in 1983, averaging 37.7 points per game as a senior.

During his collegiate career at Indiana, Alford started 120 of 125 games, helping the Hoosiers compile a 92-35 record over four seasons. Playing under head coach Bob Knight, Alford served as team captain in 1987 when Indiana went 30-4 and won the NCAA Championship.

Alford concluded his college career as Indiana's all-time scoring leader with 2,438 points (that was eclipsed by Calbert Cheaney in 1992-93). He became the first player to win the Indiana MVP four times and led the Hoosiers in scoring all four years. He finished his career as Indiana's all-time leader in steals (178 steals, now ranks second) and three-point field goal percentage (53.0 percent). Alford was a consensus first-team All-America selection and the Big Ten Conference's MVP as a senior (1987).

Alford earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in each of his final three seasons and also captured All-America acclaim as a junior. He was named to the NIT All-Tournament Team as a sophomore when the Hoosiers finished second to UCLA. His career free throw percentage of .897 (535-596) ranks ninth-best in NCAA history (was fourth-best when he graduated). Alford led the nation in free throw percentage as a freshman (.913, 137-150).

In 1997, Alford was inducted into the Indiana University Athletics Hall of Fame, and in 2001 he was one of 15 players selected to Indiana's All-Century Team. He was one of five players named to ESPN's Big Ten Conference Silver Anniversary Team in 2004. In the Legends of College Basketball by The Sporting News, Alford was No. 35 on the list of the 100 greatest NCAA Division I college basketball players.

Following his freshman season at Indiana, Alford was selected to play for the United States basketball team at the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles. He shot 64.4 percent from the field and averaged 10.3 points per game, finishing second on the team in assists as the U.S. men's team won the gold medal. The 1984 USA Olympic Team marked the last U.S. amateur squad to win the gold medal. Alford's teammates included Michael Jordan, Patrick Ewing, Sam Perkins, Chris Mullin and Waymon Tisdale.

Alford earned a bachelor's degree in business from Indiana University. He is married to the former Tanya Frost, whom he has known since the two were schoolmates in grade school in New Castle, Ind. The Alford's have three children: Kory, Bryce and Kayla.

What They're Saying About Steve Alford ...

"Coach Alford has a profile that fits with what we need in the leader of our basketball program. He has the reputation of being a competitor and a high character individual who believes in treating players, coaches, alumni and support staff with the utmost respect. His father was a highly successful high school coach who has a fondness for Coach Wooden. His teams are well-coached, disciplined and competitive. I look forward to the start of a new era under Coach Alford."

— Gerald Madkins
former UCLA basketball player (1988-1992)

"Congratulations to Steve Alford. It's great to have a fellow Indiana guy in Los Angeles. I have no doubt that he will instill in his players the values that another Indiana guy preached for so long in Westwood."

— Don Mattingly
Manager, Los Angeles Dodgers

"I'm very excited about Steve Alford taking over our great basketball program. He was a great shooter as a player, and I know that he will help make our players become better shooters. He played for one of the all-time great coaches in Bobby Knight, and I suspect Steve will bring some of that coaching expertise with him. Steve understands expectations and what it means to be part of something very unique, because he played in the hotbed state of basketball, Indiana."

— Mike Warren
former UCLA basketball player (1966-1968)

"I am so happy for my good friend Steve Alford. There is no better person and coach to lead such a premier university and storied program back to prominence!"

— John Calipari
Head Coach, University of Kentucky

"UCLA is getting a very good basketball man. His teams have developed as players, but also as men. The type of players and character of them will represent UCLA well, both on and off the floor, and that's what every university wants. That's what the hiring of Steve Alford will bring."

— Keith Smart
Steve Alford's teammate at Indiana University

"I think that UCLA made a great hire. They say lightning never strikes twice, but it did for UCLA hiring a small town Indiana coach. Steve is a smart, tough, disciplined coach and that is just what UCLA needs."

— Angelo Pizzo
screenwriter and producer of the movie Hoosiers

"Steve Alford epitomizes what you want in a high-level leader. He has integrity, toughness, incredible knowledge of the game, a strong work capacity, and he is a true builder of men that make great teammates. Steve is a competitor through and through, and his teams play with his intensity, yet are poised to win close games. All that is secondary to the quality of person that he is. UCLA has brought a strong, faith-based family man to Westwood. He will have an enormous impact."

— Tom Crean
Head Coach, Indiana University

"Steve Alford completely understands what is expected at a place like UCLA. His pedigree, having played at another legendary program in Indiana and in the Olympics coupled with the success he's had as a head coach, give him the tools to succeed. His energy and enthusiasm along with the staff he has assembled have put this program on track to compete for Pac-12 titles and make deep runs in the NCAA Tournament. I expect Pauley Pavilion to be rocking as Coach Alford helps revitalize this program!"

— Don MacLean
former UCLA basketball player (1989-1992)

Steve Alford helped UNM win the 2013 MWC Tournament.

Duane Broussard begins his first season as an assistant coach at UCLA in 2013-14.

Broussard arrives at UCLA after having spent 10 seasons on the men's basketball staff at the University of New Mexico. He worked on head coach Steve Alford's staff the past five seasons – the last two years as an assistant coach after having served as Director of Operations for three seasons.

Through 19 seasons serving on college basketball staffs, both as an assistant coach and as the director of operations, Broussard has helped his teams to a combined .642 winning percentage. In 10 seasons on staff at New Mexico, Broussard helped the Lobos compile a .655 winning percentage.

During the last two seasons at New Mexico, Broussard's work proved instrumental in helping the Lobos compile a 57-13 record and win back-to-back Mountain West Conference regular season and tournament titles. New Mexico advanced to the NCAA Tournament both years. In his five years on Alford's staff at New Mexico, the Lobos played in the postseason each year, advancing to the NCAA Tournament three times.

With Broussard on the coaching staff, New Mexico became the first school in Mountain West history to secure back-to-back regular season and tournament titles. Over the last six seasons, New Mexico produced six players who scored at least 1,000 points and won a school-record 155 games during that stretch. The Lobos became one of just three programs to win four regular-season titles in five years (along with Kansas and Gonzaga).

In 2012-13, New Mexico logged its second-highest win total in program history, posting a 29-6 overall record. Junior guard Kendall Williams secured Mountain West Conference Player of the Year honors. He finished in the top 10 in scoring in the Mountain West, in addition to ranking second in assists per game and assist turnover ratio. As a team, New Mexico ranked No. 26 nationally in field goal percentage defense and No. 38 in scoring defense.

During his tenure as assistant coach at New Mexico, Broussard was responsible for four NBA Draft selections, all chosen in the first round – Danny Granger (2005), J.R. Giddens (2008), Darrington Hobson (2010) and Tony Snell (2013).

Broussard's work with Granger was evident at Bradley and New Mexico. Granger, a 6-foot-8 forward, was selected No. 17 overall in the 2005 NBA Draft out of New Mexico. Broussard had worked with Granger during the 2001-02 season at Bradley and during Granger's junior and senior seasons at New Mexico. Granger became the first player in UNM basketball history to log at least 60 assists, 60 blocks and 60 steals in one season (2004-05) before securing Mountain West Conference Tournament MVP honors and leading the Lobos to the NCAA Tournament. Currently playing for the Indiana Pacers, Granger graduated from New Mexico with a degree in civil engineering.

Additionally, Broussard helped the New Mexico program stay in the top-25 rankings in 16 of 18 weeks. The Lobos secured five selections on the All-Mountain West Team and produced a school record-tying 14 wins away from home.

Serving as an assistant coach and as the program's Director of Operations at New Mexico, Broussard's responsibilities included travel arrangements, community relations, scheduling and helping oversee academic progress.

Currently in the process of completing his Ph. D. in sport administration at the University of New Mexico, Broussard spent five seasons (2003-07) on head coach Ritchie McKay's staff at UNM. He spent the 2007-08 season working as Director of Recruitment Initiatives in the Enrollment Services office on UNM's main campus. Broussard was working with an outreach program that taught the importance of going to college and the process of college admissions to middle school students in the Albuquerque area.

Broussard served on the men's basketball staff for nine seasons at Bradley University in Peoria, Ill., working as an assistant coach the final six years (1997-2002) under head coach Jim Molinari. As an assistant coach, Broussard's responsibilities for the Braves included recruiting, floor coaching and budget planning.

A four-year basketball letterwinner at Bradley (1990-93), Broussard served as the program's co-captain during his junior and senior seasons. Former UNM head coach Ritchie McKay served as an assistant coach during Broussard's final two seasons with the Braves. He capped his collegiate career in 1993 by earning the inaugural Downtown Peoria Kiwanis Club Leadership Award in recognition of his positive role-model approach to academics and community service.

In nine seasons on the men's basketball staff at Bradley (1994-2002), Broussard helped the Braves win 58 percent of their games, an average of nearly 18 contests per season. Bradley advanced to the postseason in six of nine years while Broussard served on the staff and the program graduated 19 of 22 seniors during that span.

A native of Sugar Land, Texas, Broussard graduated from Bradley in 1993, earning degrees in criminal justice and sociology, in addition to a minor in history. He continued his education by earning a master's degree in public service administration from Bradley in 1997.

Broussard, 41, is married to the former Holly Marshall. The couple has one daughter, McKenzie, and one son, McKel.

Ed Schilling begins his first season as an assistant coach at UCLA in 2013-14.

Schilling arrives at UCLA after having spent the last four seasons as head coach at Park Tudor High School in Indianapolis. He guided the Panthers to an 87-18 record in four years, securing two IHSAA Class 2A state titles and a runner-up finish.

In 2012-13, Park Tudor won the Marion Court championship and broke the regular-season win record. In 2010-11, Park Tudor made a historic run to win the IHSAA Class 2A state championship after having finished as runner-up in 2009-10.

As head coach at Park Tudor, Schilling's work proved instrumental in the development of Yogi Ferrell, who graduated in 2011 and enrolled at Indiana University. As a freshman at Indiana in 2012-13, Ferrell earned Big Ten All-Freshman Team honors after finishing with 7.6 ppg and 4.1 apg. In addition, Ferrell was named an honorable mention All-Big Ten Team selection by the media.

In addition, Schilling spent time from May through September preparing over 60 athletes each year for professional basketball with St. Vincent's Sports Performance and its NBA readiness program. His pre-draft preparation included working with high-profile young players, including No. 1 NBA Draft selection Greg Oden, Mike Conley, Mario Chalmers, Gordon Heyward, Jeff Teague, Marquis Teague, Carl Landry and many others.

Since 2007, Schilling has served as head coach for Adidas Nations, coaching and training the Adidas High School All-American Team in national and international competition. In addition, he has served as executive director and trainer at Champions Academy, a not-for-profit basketball organization for youth and college-aged athletes in Indianapolis.

Prior to his work with Adidas Nations and Champions Academy, Schilling had served as an assistant coach at Memphis for two seasons (2003-04, 2004-05) after having been the head coach at Wright State for six years (1998-2003). In his two seasons on staff at Memphis, the Tigers compiled a 44-24 record.

In his first season (2003-04) as an assistant coach at Memphis working alongside head coach John Calipari, Schilling helped the Tigers post a 22-8 overall record and a 12-4 mark in Conference USA, winning a share of the league regular-season title, the program's first conference championship since 1995-96. Memphis also made a return trip to the NCAA Tournament and recorded a first-round victory over South Carolina before finishing the season ranked No. 24 in the Associated Press poll.

The following year (2004-05), Memphis went 22-16 overall and posted a 9-7 mark in Conference USA action.

Schilling arrived at Memphis after a six-year run as the head coach at Wright State, helping the Raiders produce a 75-93 overall record. Among the biggest wins in program history occurred Dec. 30, 1999 (during Schilling's third season), when Wright State defeated then-No. 6 Michigan State, 53-49, in front of a near-capacity crowd at WSU's Nutter Center. Many basketball analysts referred to that win as the most significant upset of the decade. Michigan State captured the NCAA Championship later that season.

In his fourth season at Wright State (2000-01), the Raiders opened the season with a 9-1 record, the best Division I start in school history. Wright State closed the season with an 18-11 overall record and an 8-6 mark in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference. The Raiders advanced to the semifinals of the MCC Tournament. That season, Schilling was named 2001 MCC Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com.

During the 2001-02 season, Schilling's fifth at Wright State, the Raiders defeated No. 20-ranked Butler in double overtime on the road in Hinkle Fieldhouse, 90-87. Schilling helped Wright State record a 17-11 mark that season. The Raiders went 10-18 in 2002-03, Schilling's final season at the helm.

Schilling was a member of Calipari's coaching staff at the University of Massachusetts (Amherst, Mass.) during the 1995-96 season. That year, the Minutemen advanced to the Final Four and posted a 35-2 overall record.

When Calipari was named the vice president of basketball operations and basketball coach with the New Jersey Nets, Schilling joined him as an assistant coach (1996-97). His rise in the coaching profession was chronicled in Sports Illustrated, as he became the only coach to advance from the high school coaching ranks to the Final Four and then to the bench of an NBA team in a period of 310 days.

Following his season with the New Jersey Nets, Schilling was named Wright State's head coach.

After graduating from Miami University in Ohio in the spring of 1988, Schilling served as a high school head coach for the next seven years — three years (1989-91) at Western Boone High School in Thorntown, Ind., and four years (1992-95) as head coach at Logansport High School in Logansport, Ind.

In his third and final season at Western Boone (1990-91), Schilling led the program to a school record for single-season wins. Playing in arguably the most competitive prep conference in the country, Logansport's basketball program improved each of Schilling's four seasons. In his final two years, his teams won consecutive sectional championships while compiling the most wins at Logansport in more than 20 years.

Schilling was a four-year starting point guard at Miami University in Ohio from 1985-88. He was a two-time captain and, playing alongside Ron Harper, Schilling helped lead the school to a pair of NCAA Tournament berths. He was a three-time academic all-conference selection and is still the single-game assist record holder in the Mid-American Conference. He also established single-game, season and career assist records at Miami University.

Schilling, 47, has also co-authored two books — Guard Play, co-authored by Steve Alford, and Five Star Basketball, which was written with Howard Garfinkel. A native of Lebanon, Ind., Schilling has three daughters, Christiana, Natalie and Ava, and one son, Edmund Cross (Eddie). Schilling and his wife, April, had their first child together (Ava) in June 2013.

David Grace begins his first season as an assistant coach at UCLA in 2013-14.

Grace arrived at UCLA after serving as an assistant coach the previous five seasons (2009-13) at Oregon State. Early in his tenure with the Beavers, Grace became one of the leading recruiters in the Pac-12 Conference.

In five years with the Beavers, Grace helped lead the program to their most wins (78) since the 1988 to 1992 seasons. In addition, Oregon State made three trips to the postseason College Basketball Invitational (CBI), including a 5-1 run in the 2008-09 tournament, giving the Beavers the national tournament championship.

In his first season at Oregon State, Grace recruited Roberto Nelson and Joe Burton from southern California. Nelson and Burton were the first two nationally-ranked recruits at Oregon State under head coach Craig Robinson. In 2012-13, Nelson led the Pac-12 in scoring (conference games only), averaging 19.1 ppg in Pac-12 action in addition to securing honorable mention All-Pac-12 Team acclaim. Burton served as team captain during his senior year (2012-13), having produced over 1,000 points, 700 rebounds and 300 assists in four seasons.

Grace also was instrumental in helping recruit Jared Cunningham to Oregon State. A first-round NBA Draft selection in 2012 by the Dallas Mavericks, Cunningham joined the Beavers' program during Grace's second year at Oregon State. Grace had recruited Cunningham, an All-Pac-12 selection in 2011-12, while serving as an assistant coach at the University of San Francisco.

In his third season at Oregon State, Grace recruited 6-foot-10 center Eric Moreland from Houston. A freshman for the Beavers in 2011-12, Moreland emerged as one of the Pac-12's top defensive players, leading the conference in blocked shots. He shattered the school's single-season record for blocks and broke the school's record for rebounds by a freshman. As a sophomore in 2012-13, Moreland finished second in the Pac-12 in rebounds (10.6 rpg) and blocked shots (2.5 bpg) and ranked third in field goal percentage (57.4). He also led Oregon State with 12 double-doubles.

Led by Cunningham, Nelson, Burton and Moreland in 2011-12, the Beavers won 21 games, reaching the 20-win plateau for the first time in more than two decades. The Beavers averaged a school record 78.9 points per game, leading the Pac-12 in scoring for the first time in school history.

In Grace's final two seasons at Oregon State, he recruited top-ranked players Victor Robbins from southern California, Langston Morris-Walker from the San Francisco Bay Area and Jarmal Reid from Atlanta.

In addition to recruiting, Grace assisted in all aspects of the game for Oregon State's program. He was selected to attend the prestigious Villa 7 Center for Sports Leadership Conference at Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) in Richmond, Va., in the summer of 2011 with an elite group of Division I assistant basketball coaches, 54 athletic directors and 12 conference commissioners. He has also worked for several years with the Nike N7 program to honor Native Americans.

A decorated military veteran who served in Operation Desert Storm, Grace quickly rose through the high school and college coaching ranks prior to his arrival at Oregon State. Known for his tireless work ethic and inspirational leadership, he developed an intimate knowledge of the game forged over 30 years of working in all aspects of the sport. He has played, coached and refereed basketball games across America and on three continents.

Grace served as the top assistant coach at the University of San Francisco with responsibilities as head recruiting coordinator. He also served as head of scouting, working as an academic coordinator, and assisted with fundraising efforts.

Grace broke into the NCAA Division I college coaching ranks as an assistant coach at Sacramento State University, where he assisted in all aspects of the program. While at Sacramento State, he recruited 2006-07 Big Sky Freshman of the Year selection Vinnie McGhee from Oakland's McClymonds High School.

Prior to moving to the Division I college coaching level, Grace became a high school head coach after taking an early retirement from the military. He had served 20 years of active duty service in the U.S. Air Force and chose to dedicate his career to coaching basketball and teaching.

During the 2004-05 season, Grace was hired as a business teacher and head coach at South Mountain High School in Phoenix, Ariz., where he guided the Jaguars to a 5A Division II state championship in his second year, compiling a 29-4 overall record.

Grace was honored as the 2005-06 ArizonaVarsity.com and Arizona Informant 5A Coach of the Year after turning around a struggling program that had won four games the season before he arrived. Several players from his program moved on to play college basketball. Several coaches he mentored during that time became high school head basketball coaches, including two who advanced their teams to high school state titles.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Grace volunteered for several years as a high school and club coach while stationed at Luke Air Force Base in Phoenix. He began working in the high school ranks at Phoenix Trevor Browne as an assistant coach. That team advanced to the state semifinals in 2003 and was ranked among the top 40 schools, nationally, by The Sporting News before the 2003-04 season.

Grace began coaching basketball with Boo Williams' AAU program in Hampton, Virginia. He also co-founded the Arizona Magic AAU program. His top team finished eighth out of 337 programs in the Reebok Big Time Classic in Las Vegas, Nev., which was the best finish in the history of any AAU team from Arizona.

Grace grew up in Aberdeen, Md., and earned a bachelor's of science degree in management and human resources from Park University and degrees in logistics and social services from the Air Force. He and his wife, Crystal, have six children – five grown children Troy, Terrell, Tierra, David II, and Aubrey, as well as Andre who is a high school senior. His father, Gerald, was a high school basketball referee in Maryland for 35 years.

The 1963-64 season marked the start of UCLA's dominant run in college basketball. Until that year, the Bruins had been just another fine team, but it all changed that season.

In his 16th season as UCLA's head coach, John Wooden assembled an experience team blessed with great quickness. The Bruins installed the zone press, a system that helped carry Wooden's team to the top. Employing Gail Goodrich and Fred Slaughter under the basket, Walt Hazzard and Jack Hirsch behind them and Keith Erickson as the safety, the press destroyed opposing offenses all season.

UCLA logged a 30-0 record and won the NCAA title, the first of 10 championships in a 12-year span for the Bruins. Perhaps the top playmaker in UCLA history, Hazzard was named NCAA "Player of the Year" although he did not lead the Bruins in scoring. That honor went to Goodrich, who averaged 21.5 points to Hazzard's 18.6 ppg.

Hirsch and Erickson, the two forwards, averaged 14.0 and 10.7 points, respectively, while center Fred Slaughter averaged 7.9 ppg. Top reserves included forward Kenny Washington and center Doug McIntosh.

That year was symbolized by the "Bruin Blitz." There was no better illustration than in the NCAA championship game against Duke. With 7:14 remaining in the first half, the Bruins trailed 30-27. In the next 2:40, the Bruins outscored Duke, 16-0, to secure a 43-30 cushion. UCLA won the game, 98-83, starting its dynasty.

In early January, the Bruins pushed past Kentucky in the nation polls and into the No. 1 spot for the first time in program history.

1965 (28-2 record)

Although the Bruins lost to Illinois, 110-83, in the season opener, they defeated Michigan, 91-80, in the NCAA championship game to win their second straight national title.

Head coach John Wooden had two returning starters from 1963-64 but had the right players to fit the championship puzzle. Utilizing the devastating zone press, the Bruins compiled a perfect conference record and captured the NCAA title with a 28-2 mark.

The leader of UCLA's championship unit was senior guard Gail Goodrich, who assumed the job of playmaker and scorer. The 6-foot guard led the Bruins by averaging 24.6 points per game (UCLA school record for guards). He finished his career as the Bruins' all-time leading scorer.

Also averaging double-figures included senior co-captain Keith Erickson (12.9), junior Fred Goss (12.2) and sophomore Edgar Lacey (11.6). Doug McIntosh took over as starting center, while Kenny Washington and Mike Lynn gave the Bruins superior bench strength.

UCLA reached its peak form during the NCAA Tournament, averaging 100 points in four games. Playing his best in the big games, Goodrich set a school record by scoring 42 points in the title game as the Bruins downed Michigan, 91-80, to win the school's second straight NCAA championship.

After failing to reach the NCAA Tournament in 1965-66, unable to defend their back-to-back titles in 1964 and 1965, the Bruins were ready to start a new streak during the 1966-67 season.

With four new sophomore starters and a junior returning to the starting lineup, the Bruins knew they could accomplish something special. Sophomore Lew Alcindor (now Kareem Abdul-Jabbar) embarked on his varsity career and became the most dominating force in college basketball. Junior guard Mike Warren developed into among the smoothest playmaking guards in program history.

Alcindor and Warren were joined in the starting lineup by sophomores Lucius Allen, Lynn Shackelford and Kenny Heitz.

Head coach John Wooden turned in another fantastic job at the helm, molding the 1966-67 unit into one of the finest teams in school history. Warren and the four sophomores, along with reserves Bill Sweek and Jim Nielsen, banded together to win 30 straight games and capture the school's third NCAA championship in four years.

In his first varsity contest, Alcindor set a school record by registering 56 points, a record he later broke that season by tallying 61 against Washington State.

The only thing that slowed the Bruins down was a delayed game, and the UCLA's smallest margin of victory was five points. In NCAA playoff competition, the Bruins outscored four opponents by 95 points, defeating Houston in the semifinals and Dayton in the finals to claim the NCAA championship.

Alcindor led the way by averaging 29.0 points and setting an NCAA record by hitting 66.7 percent of his field goal attempts. Allen and Warren averaged 15.5 and 12.7 points, respectively, while Shackelford logged 11.4 points per contest.

Lew Alcindor, Mike Warren, Lucius Allen, Lynn Shackelford and Kenny Heitz were all a year older and more experienced in 1967-68. In addition, Mike Lynn and Edgar Lacey (starters from 1965-66) returned to the varsity squad, so many figured the Bruins would cruise through every game, but that was not the case.

UCLA opened defense of its national title at Purdue, escaping with a 73-71 victory. The close win shocked the Bruins, who won their next 12 games (including 11 contests by 24 or more points) to extend their winning streak to 47.

The winning streak ended at the Houston Astrodome, where a then-record 52,693 fans watched Houston upset UCLA, 71-69. Alcindor, who had an injured eye, did not play at full strength, and the Cougars exploited that weakness.

The Bruins ended the regular season with a No. 2 national ranking (behind Houston). One Pac-8 foe came within eight points of the Bruins, who set a school record by averaging 93.4 points per game that season. In the NCAA Regionals, UCLA defeated New Mexico State and Santa Clara to advance to the semifinals against Houston.

In the rematch at the L.A. Sports Arena, Alcindor, Allen and Lynn scored 19 points each against Hosuton. Playing a diamond-and-one defense against Elvin Hayes and the Cougars (Shackelford was the one), UCLA roared to a 53-31 halftime lead and a 101-69 triumph. The next day, the Bruins earned their fourth NCAA title in five seasons with a 78-55 win against North Carolina.

Despite the elimination of the dunk shot, Alcindor led UCLA's attack with a 26.2 scoring average, followed by Allen (15.1), Warren (12.1), Shackelford (10.7) and Lynn (10.3).

1969 (29-1 record)

The Bruins entered the 1968-69 season without any experienced guards to get the ball to Lew Alcindor, Lynn Shackelford and forwards Curtis Rowe and Sidney Wicks.

Head coach John Wooden solved the problem by filling one guard spot with junior college transfer John Vallely, who became known as the "Money Man" for his play in big games. The other backcourt spot was filled by Kenny Heitz.

Although the scores were closer, the Bruins still won their first 23 games without much of a scare. But the next two, an overtime victory at California and a double overtime win at USC, were omens of things to come. The night after the double-overtime victory, USC upset the Bruins, 46-44, in Pauley Pavilion. That loss marked UCLA's first in its relatively new home arena and just the second of the Alcindor Era.

The Bruins advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the third straight year. UCLA defeated New Mexico State and Santa Clara in NCAA Regional action (in Pauley Pavilion), advancing to the NCAA Final Four.

UCLA extended its winning streak with an 85-82 victory over Duke in the NCAA semifinals. Vallely had 29 points and Alcindor registered 25 points. The following afternoon, the Bruins became the first team in NCAA history to win three straight titles, taking down Purdue, 92-72. Playing in his final collegiate game, Alcindor netted 37 points while UCLA's defense (led by Heitz) held high-scoring Rick Mount in check.

BACK ROW (L to R): Lynn Shackelford, Curtis Rowe, Steve Patterson, Lew Alcindor, Sidney Wicks, John Ecker and Bill Seibert. MIDDLE ROW: Gerge Farmer, Bill Sweek, Ken Heitz, John Vallely and Terry Schofield. BOTTOM ROW: Athletic Trainer Ducky Drake, Assistant Coach Denny Crum, Head Coach John Wooden, Assistant Coach Gary Cunningham and Bob Marcucci (manager).

Alcindor averaged 24.0 ppg, followed by Rowe (12.9 ppg), Vallely (11.0 ppg), Wicks (7.5 ppg) and Heitz (7.0 ppg). In three seasons at UCLA, Alcindor led the Bruins to an 88-2 record while establishing the school's career scoring and rebounding records.

1970 (28-2 record)

With Lew Alcindor playing in the NBA, the rest of the college basketball world could breathe easier. UCLA returned John Vallely and Curtis Rowe from the 1969 NCAA championship team and most figured the Bruins would not be a factor in the championship picture. UCLA set out to prove those naysayers wrong.

Junior Sidney Wicks, moving in at the vacated forward position, became UCLA's top scorer (18.6 ppg) and rebounder (11.9 rpg). Wicks was joined on the front line by Rowe (15.3 ppg, 8.7 rpg) and center Steve Patterson (12.5 ppg, 10.0 rpg).

Vallely provided senior leadership in the backcourt, averaging 16.3 points per game. Sophomore guard Henry Bibby, the team's fifth starter, had one of the best seasons for any UCLA guard, averaging 15.6 points while shooting 50.1 percent from the field.

UCLA averaged 92 points per game and established a school scoring record of 133 points against LSU, led by Pete Maravich. Although the Bruins lost two regular season games, they won their fourth consecutive Pac-8 title, serving notice that they would be ready to defend their three straight NCAA championships.

The Bruins advanced to the NCAA title game against Jacksonville, led by 7-foot-2 center Artis Gilmore and guard Rex Morgan, a duo dubbed "Batman and Robin" by the media.

Jacksonville opened a nine-point lead in the first half, but by halftime, the Bruins secured a five-point cushion and Wicks had blocked five of Gilmore's shots. Rowe scored 19 points, Wicks and Patterson each finished with 17, and the Bruins won their fourth straight NCAA championship with an 80-69 victory.

Head coach John Wooden and the Bruins returned their entire frontcourt of seniors Sidney Wicks, Curtis Rowe and Steve Patterson in 1970-71. Their contributions became more important throughout the season, because UCLA did not generate the quality guard play they had received in previous championship seasons.

Wicks returned as the Bruins' leading scorer (21.3 ppg) and rebounder (12.7 rpg). When the Bruins were in trouble, they went to Wicks, and he usually found a way to pull them through. In a contest against Oregon State, Wicks dribbled the clock to its final seconds before hitting a jump shot for a two-point victory.

Rowe (17.5 ppg) and Patterson (12.9 ppg) collected over 290 rebounds each. The often overlooked Patterson saved his best for last, scoring 29 points in UCLA's 68-62 win over Villanova in the NCAA championship contest.

Taking over the backcourt playmaking chores of John Vallely, Henry Bibby averaged 11.8 points, scoring 17 in the title game. Senior Kenny Booker (5.5 ppg) started opposite Bibby and senior Terry Schofield (6.2 ppg) proved to be a valuable sixth man.

UCLA lost just one game all season, an 89-82 decision at Notre Dame. That game was the Bruins' last loss for three years, there were a number of other close calls.

The Bruins trailed USC by nine points with nine minutes remaining at the L.A. Sports Arena, before rallying for a 64-60 win. In the NCAA West Regionals, the Bruins rallied from an 11-point deficit to defeat Cal State Long Beach, 57-55, and earn another trip to the NCAA Final Four. In all, the Bruins won seven games by five points or fewer en route to a 29-1 record and their fifth consecutive NCAA championship.

1972 (30-0 record)

Senior guard Henry Bibby was the only returning starter and junior Larry Farmer, a top reserve the previous season, took over one of the vacated forward positions and averaged 10.7 points and 5.5 rebounds in 1971-72.

The big story for the five-time defending NCAA champions was the team's three sophomores, led by 6-foot-11 center Bill Walton. On his way to establishing himself as one of the game's premier players, Walton led UCLA in scoring (21.1 ppg) and tied Lew Alcindor's school record by collecting 466 rebounds.

UCLA's two other key sophomores included Keith Wilkes (now Jamaal Wilkes) and Greg Lee. Wilkes averaged 13.5 points, second only to Walton and Bibby (15.7). Wilkes averaged over eight rebounds per game. Lee assumed UCLA's point guard duties, averaging 8.7 points per game while running the team's fast break.

The five starters also received plenty of help from Larry Hollyfield (7.3 ppg) and Tommy Curtis (4.1 ppg). Swen Nater, perhaps the only first round NBA draft selection to never start a collegiate game, also contributed off the bench (6.7 ppg).

UCLA opened the year by scoring at least 100 points in seven straight games. Prior to the NCAA championship contest against Florida State, only one team had closed to within six points of the Bruins. Walton scored 24 points and Wilkes added 23 as the Bruins downed Florida State, 81-76, claiming their sixth consecutive NCAA title.

BACK ROW (L to R): Tommy Curtis, Greg Lee, Larry Hollyfield, Jon Chapman, Keith Wilkes, Bill Walton, Swen Nater, Vince Carson, Larry Farmer, Gary Franklin, Andy Hill and Henry Bibby. MIDDLE ROW: Head Coach John Wooden, Athletic Trainer Ducky Drake and Assistant Coach Gary Cunningham. BOTTOM ROW: Les Friedman (manager).

UCLA became the first school to compile three perfect 30-0 seasons. The Bruins also established an NCAA record (which still stands) by outscoring opponents by at least 30.3 points per game.

1973 (30-0 record)

UCLA returned the bulk of its team from the previous season, as senior Larry Hollyfield (10.7 ppg) did a fine job filling in for the departed Henry Bibby. The rest of the cast remained the same with Bill Walton (20.4 ppg) at center. Keith Wilkes (14.8) and Larry Farmer (12.2) at forward and Greg Lee (4.6) at guard.

Tommy Curtis (6.4), Dave Meyers (4.9), Swen Nater (3.2) and Pete Trgovich (3.1) gave the Bruins an outstanding reserve contingent.

Together, these nine players set numerous records. UCLA registered its 60th consecutive victory on Jan. 25, 1973, posting an 87-73 victory over Loyola University (Chicago), tying San Francisco's previous NCAA record. Two days later, UCLA established a new record with a win over Notre Dame, 82-63, on the Fighting Irish home court. By the end of the season, the streak had reached 75 straight wins.

The Bruins suffered very few close calls during the regular season, winning every game by at least six points and 23 of the 26 contests by 10 points or more. In the NCAA West Regional finals, the Bruins faced a determined San Francisco team trailed UCLA at halftime, 23-22. UCLA outscored the Dons in the second half, 31-17, to secure a 54-39 win.

In the NCAA semifinals, Indiana gave the Bruins a scare with a furious second-half rally. But Curtis came off the bench to score 22 points, and the Bruins reached the title game with a 70-59 victory.

BACK ROW (L to R): Larry Farmer, Keith Wilkes, Dave Meyers, Bill Walton, Ralph Drollinger, Swen Nater, Vince Carson and Pete Trgovich. MIDDLE ROW: Larry Hollyfield, Les Friedman (manager), Head Coach John Wooden, Assistant Coach Gary Cunningham, Athletic Trainer Ducky Drake and Greg Lee. BOTTOM ROW: Bob Webb, Tommy Curtis, Gary Franklin and Casey Corliss.

Walton finished the year with a school-record 506 rebounds. In the title contest, he established an NCAA record by making 21 of 22 shots, scoring 44 points as the Bruins defeated Memphis State, 87-66. UCLA won its seventh straight NCAA title and became the only school to compile consecutive undefeated seasons.

1975 (28-3 record)

Senior David Meyers was the lone returning starter from UCLA's 1973-74 team that finished third, nationally. Meyers assumed the leadership role and became well-known for his aggressive play and hustle.

Sophomores Richard Washington (15.9 ppg) and Marques Johnson (11.6) joined Meyers (18.3) on the front line, and they were supported by junior Ralph Drollinger (8.8) at center.

Head coach John Wooden's 1974-75 team had little experience in the backcourt. Pete Trgovich (10.2), who had started early in the previous year, moved in at one guard spot while junior Andre McCarter (7.0) assumed the playmaking role, leading the team with 156 assists.

The Bruins opened the season by winning their first 12 games before being upset at Stanford. Along the way, UCLA lost two more games and had numerous other close contests, at the end of the regular season the Bruins captured another Pac-8 title and looked to reclaim the NCAA championship.

UCLA won its first playoff game in overtime, securing a 103-91 decision against Michigan, before knocking off Montana, 67-64. The Bruins won the West Regional title behind Johnson's 35-point effort in an 89-75 win against Arizona State.

In the NCAA Final Four, UCLA defeated Louisville in overtime, 75-74, as Washington led the Bruins' charge by scoring 26 points. Following that game, Wooden announced that he would retire upon the conclusion of the NCAA championship contest.

BACK ROW (L to R): Head Coach John Wooden, Assistant Coach Gary Cunningham, Marques Johnson, Dave Meyers, Richard Washington, Ralph Drollinger, Brett Vroman, Wilbert Olinde, Casey Corliss, Assistant Coach Frank Arnold and Len Friedman (Manager). FRONT ROW: Marvin Thomas, Gavin Smith, Jim Spillane, Raymond Townsend, Pete Trgovich and Andre McCarter.

UCLA used just six players in a 92-85 win over Kentucky in the NCAA title game, helping Wooden secure his 10th NCAA title at the helm of the Bruins' program. Washington finished with 28 points, Meyers added 24 and Drollinger came off the bench to grab 13 rebounds. Wooden's final career win accounted for UCLA's 10th NCAA championship in 12 years, a record that has yet to be matched.

1995 (32-1 record)

UCLA won the NCAA title in 1994-95, earning its first NCAA championship in 20 years and making its first NCAA Final Four appearance in 15 seasons.

Behind the senior trio of Ed O'Bannon (20.4 ppg), Tyus Edney (14.3 ppg) and George Zidek (10.6 ppg) and led by head coach Jim Harrick, the Bruins defeated defending NCAA champion Arkansas, 89-78, to win the program's 11th national title.

O'Bannon scored a team-leading 30 points and collected a team-best 17 rebounds in the win over Arkansas, earning Most Outstanding Player honors at the Final Four.

Edney was named the Most Outstanding Player in the West Regional, and his last-second full-court dash against Missouri in the Bruins' 75-74, second-round win propelled the Bruins to the "Sweet 16." Edney played just three minutes against Arkansas in the title contest after suffering a sprained right wrist in the team's 74-61 win over Oklahoma State in the NCAA semifinals. Sophomore Cameron Dollar filled in admirably for the injured Edney versus Arkansas, contributing six points and eight assists.

A season-long stalwart for UCLA, the 7-foot tall Zidek saved his best performances for the Final Four. He contained OSU's Bryant Reeves in the semifinal win and held Corliss Williamson (1994 Final Four Most Outstanding Player) in check against Arkansas. Zidek (10.6 ppg, 5.4 rpg) earned first-team GTE Academic All-America honors.

Dollar, sophomore Charles O'Bannon (13.6 ppg) and freshmen Toby Bailey (10.5) and J.R. Henderson (9.2) were instrumental in UCLA's championship season. Charles O'Bannon started all 33 games, Dollar played in every contest.

Bailey erupted for a career-high 26 points in the West Regional final against Connecticut, earning All-Tournament Team acclaim at the Final Four and West Regional. Henderson was consistent all season, earning Pac-10 All-Freshman first team accolades.

BACK ROW (L to R): Tyus Edney, Marquis Burns, Charles O'Bannon, Kevin Dempsey, Ed O'Bannon, Ike Nwankwo, George Zidek, omm'A Givens, J. R. Henderson, Bob Myers, Toby Bailey, Kris Johnson and Cameron Dollar. MIDDLE ROW: David Boyle, Steve Lavin, Mark Gottfried, Jim Harrick, Lorenzo Romar, Phil Frye and Tony Spino. BOTTOM ROW: Tony Luftman, Richard Klingler, Greg Buonaccorsi (manager), Brendan Jacobson and Andrew Pruter.

Harrick earned Naismith and NABC National Coach of the Year honors, in addition to capturing Pac-10 Coach of the Year acclaim. He was assisted that season by Mark Gottfried, Lorenzo Romar, Steve Lavin and David Boyle.

NIT CHAMPIONS

First-year head coach Walt Hazzard helped lead the 1984-85 UCLA team to its only championship in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) after the Bruins managed just three wins in their first nine games.

UCLA's 67-59 double-overtime win over Oregon (Jan. 5) helped jump start the Bruins' season. Over a seven-game stretch that month, UCLA moved into first place in the Pac-10 standings with a 6-2 conference mark. After losing four consecutive games in February, the Bruins closed the regular season with six wins in their final seven games.

The Bruins opened the NIT with wins over Montana (74-48) and Nebraska (82-63), before cruising past Fresno State, 53-43, to advance to the semifinal round. Brad Wright scored a career-high 23 points in a 75-66 win over Louisville. Tournament MVP Reggie Miller and All-Tournament guard Nigel Miguel scored 18 points each, leading UCLA to a 65-62 victory over Indiana in the NIT championship contest.

JOHN R. WOODEN

UCLA head coach 1947-1975

The UCLA basketball program has earned an international reputation as being No. 1. John R. Wooden has become a major reason for that sterling reputation, as the late Bruins' head coach guided UCLA to 10 NCAA championships in the final 12 seasons of his 27-year tenure at UCLA.

Wooden retired at the conclusion of the 1974-75 season with an all-time head coaching record of 885-203 (40 years, including 27 at UCLA). His .813 winning percentage is the highest in the sport's history. In 27 seasons at UCLA, he went 620-147 while earning far more honors than any other coach at any other university.

Wooden celebrated his 99th birthday on Oct. 14, 2009 and passed away on June 4, 2010. Under his leadership, UCLA won an unprecedented 10 NCAA championships, including seven consecutive titles from 1966-73. Included in that string of titles is one of the most impressive streaks in modern-day athletics – 38 straight NCAA Tournament victories.

In addition, Wooden guided UCLA to the all-time NCAA men's basketball record of 88 consecutive wins spanning four seasons. The Bruins recorded consecutive 30-0 seasons in 1971-72 and 1972-73. UCLA won 149 of 151 games in Pauley Pavilion with Wooden at the helm.

Wooden became the only coach to compiled four undefeated seasons (at 30-0), and his UCLA basketball teams captured 19 conference championships, the record of which he was most proud. Wooden became the first person inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame as both a player and a coach.

Complementing the honors listed elsewhere in his biography, Wooden received two other accolades of which he was especially proud. He was named the 1969 "Outstanding Basketball Coach of the U.S." by his denomination, the Christian Church, for his services to collegiate basketball and the community. The other honor was having his hometown of Martinsville, Indiana, name a street after him and at the same time serving as the 1969 King of the famed Morgan County Fall Foliage Festival and Grand Marshal of the Festival Parade. The city's high school gymnasium also bears his name.

Born in Hall, Ind., on Oct. 14, 1910, Wooden attended high school there and won all-state prep honors in basketball three consecutive years, leading Martinsville High to the Indiana State title in 1927 and runner-up in 1926 and 1928.

At Purdue University, he won letters in basketball and baseball his freshman year and later earned All-American honors as a guard on the basketball team from 1930-32. He captained Purdue's basketball teams of 1931 and 1932 and led the Boilermakers to two Big Ten titles and the 1932 national championship.

Wooden's name was inscribed on Purdue's academic honor roll and he was awarded the 1932 Big Ten Conference medal for outstanding merit and proficiency in scholarship and athletics.

Shortly after graduating from Purdue in 1932, he married his charming wife, Nell. He began his teaching career at Dayton High School in Kentucky where he coached numerous sports. After two years, he returned to the state of Indiana where he coached basketball, baseball and tennis at South Bend Central High School and taught English for nine years. His impressive 11-year prep coaching record was 218-42.

World War II interrupted his coaching career as he served as a full lieutenant in the U.S. Navy from 1943-46. Following his discharge in 1946, he went to Indiana Teachers College (now Indiana State University) as athletic director, basketball and baseball coach for two seasons prior to moving to UCLA.

Wooden and his wife, Nell, who died in Los Angeles on March 21, 1985, were married for 53 years. Parents of a son, James Hugh, and a daughter, Nancy Anne, John has seven grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. UCLA BASKETBALL ON TELEVISION, RADIO

For the sixth straight season, UCLA men's basketball games will be produced by the UCLA Sports Network from IMG, with AM 570 Fox Sports LA in Los Angeles serving as the flagship station for the network. This is the 17th year of UCLA's partnership with AM 570 Fox Sports LA owner Clear Channel. Other stations on the UCLA Sports Network from IMG include KXEX (1550 AM) in Fresno and KSLK (96.1 FM) in Visalia.

In 2013-14, UCLA will have 30 of its 31 regular-season basketball games televised, with one contest to be broadcast via ESPN3.com (ESPN's online platform). The Bruins will have 13 games broadcast by the ESPN family of networks, including a non-conference meeting against Duke at Madison Square Garden on Dec. 19 set to air on ESPN. Four of UCLA's game will be televised by Fox Sports 1, and 14 of its games will be carried by Pac-12 Networks. The Bruins' game at Missouri on Dec. 7 will be televised by CBS.

Hall of Fame broadcaster Chris Roberts (talk@chrisrobertsonline.net) enters his 22nd year as the "Voice of the Bruins" and his 33rd season broadcasting NCAA Division I sports in Los Angeles. Roberts was honored with the Chick Hearn Award for best "play-by-play" on Jan. 28, 2013 by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters. He is also a Hall of Famer of the same organization, inducted on Jan. 30, 2012. Since 1982, Roberts has broadcast more NCAA Division I games on Los Angeles radio than anyone.

Prior to joining the Bruins in the fall of 1992, he served as the voice of the Long Beach State 49ers for 10 years and one with Cal State Fullerton. During that time, he was the sports director at KFI/KOST 103 FM. A four-time Golden Mike winner, he also handles the play-by-play duties for UCLA football. He has also authored two books, Stadium Stories: UCLA Bruins and UCLA Football Vault, which he co-authored with Bill Bennett.

An eight-time nominee for the Southern California Broadcasters Association "Play-by-Play Broadcaster of the Year" award, Roberts is a voter for both the Heisman Trophy and the Wooden Award.

Tracy Murray, who starred on the court at UCLA from 1990-1992, will be in his sixth year serving as a color analyst alongside Roberts. Murray is a 12-year NBA veteran and ranks ninth on UCLA's all-time scoring list (1,792 points in 98 career games). He was selected No. 18 in the first round of the 1992 NBA Draft by the San Antonio Spurs.

ENTERING ITS 48TH SEASON AS UCLA'S HOME

UCLA plays its second season in renovated Pauley Pavilion in 2013-14. The Bruins' iconic arena underwent a 33-month, $136-million renovation prior to the 2012-13 season. UCLA's athletic teams vacated the building during the 2011-12 season, and the men's basketball team played its 18 "home" games at the Los Angeles Sports Arena (14 games) and the Honda Center in Anaheim (four games).

Last season, UCLA broke the Pauley Pavilion attendance record twice. The Bruins' first agme in the renovated arena housed a then-record 13,513 fans, as UCLA defeated Indiana State, 86-59. In the regular season finale, a school record 13,727 fans watch the Bruins defeat Arizona, 74-69, hours after Pauley Pavilion hosted ESPN College GameDay presented by State Farm early that morning.

Originally opened in 1965, Pauley Pavilion is one of the nation's premier all-around collegiate facilities. The arena's recent renovation included the addition of nearly 1,000 seats, bringing the current capacity to 13,800. While calling Pauley Pavilion its home, the men's basketball program has won nine NCAA championships and 21 conference titles.

Highlights of the building's renovation and expansion include a new seating bowl with renovated aisles and steps, a retractable seating system on the event level and a renovated bowl that includes a new floor system and over 1,000 seats. The facility features a new center-hung HD video board and LED ribbon board encircling the arena's interior. The renovation has allowed for more than 25 additional points of sale for concession and an increased number of restrooms (by 154% of the previous total).

The building's north side includes two large locker rooms with player lounges and one film room for the men's and women's basketball teams. Other amenities for the student-athletes include a sports medicine room, weight room, equipment room and plenty of storage space. The Pavilion Club on the mezzanine of the same structure will serve the campus for numerous special events, while the building's exterior showcases a new marketplace on the south side and a park to the east.

UCLA dedicated the floor in Pauley Pavilion as "Nell and John Wooden Court" prior to a UCLA men's basketball game against Michigan State on Dec. 20, 2003. Players from virtually all of Coach Wooden's teams joined him to celebrate the occasion.

In 1991, Pauley Pavilion served as the site for the U.S. Olympic Festival basketball and gymnastics competitions. Many world-class competitions, including the 1984 Olympic gymnastics and a historic table tennis match between the United States and China took place in Pauley Pavilion.

Some of the top names in college basketball history have competed in Pauley Pavilion. The list includes such greats as Lew Alcindor (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar), Bill Walton, Ed O'Bannon, Sidney Wicks, Marques Johnson, Reggie Miller, Baron Davis, Earl Watson, Kevin Love, Ann Meyers, Denise Curry and Pete Maravich and coaches such as John Wooden, Dean Smith and Denny Crum.

Entertainers such as Bob Dylan, Bob Hope, Henry Mancini, Frank Sinatra, Luciano Pavarotti, Nirvana, Bobby Brown, Eric Clapton, Guns and Roses and the Grateful Dead have all performed in UCLA's home facility.

UCLA's longest winning streak in Pauley Pavilion is 98 games (from 1970-71 to 1975-76). The Bruins' historic men's basketball streak ended Feb. 21, 1976 when Oregon defeated UCLA, 65-45.

Pauley Pavilion was introduced to the University at the June 1965 Commencement exercises, at which time it was dedicated and named for Regent Edwin W. Pauley, the principal donor to the building fund. The Pauley family also contributed to UCLA's Campaign of Champions.

Total cost of the original Pauley Pavilion was as follows: $2 million by the State, $1 million by the student body and in excess of $2 million by the alumni with $1 million of the alumni contribution donated on a matching basis by Regent Pauley.

Pauley Pavilion (310-825-4546) is managed by Susan Brown. The building's address is 301 Westwood Plaza, Los Angeles, CA, 90095.

UCLA is among the world's leading research universities, known for the breadth and quality of its academic, research, health care, cultural, continuing education and athletic programs. A shared public asset, UCLA enriches our neighborhoods, our nation and our world on a daily basis by creating knowledge, educating students, powering the economy and serving the community. Many of its 11 professional schools and academic departments and programs are ranked among the best in the nation. UCLA is a university with the size and scope to allow for unimagined diversity, unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship, and limitless possibility for its 26,600 undergraduates and 12,000 graduate students.

FACULTY, STUDENTS & ALUMNI

Five UCLA faculty have been awarded Nobel Prizes — the two most recent are Louis Ignarro in medicine (1998) and biochemist Paul Boyer in chemistry (1997). Among faculty there have been 10 National Medals of Science recipients, and hundreds of Guggenheim Fellowships, Fulbright Awards and other academic distinctions. At UCLA, thousands of students extend their educations beyond the classroom by working directly with faculty on research projects. Many UCLA undergraduates participate in major research studies, working one-on-one with world-renowned scholars as they discover and create new knowledge. UCLA's alumni are bright stars on the world stage. They include leaders of industry and commerce — Oscar, Grammy, Tony, and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians and professional athletes; educators, engineers, bankers, and astronauts. Founded in 1934, the UCLA Alumni Association serves 88,000 members, part of the larger network of more than 394,000 UCLA alumni, with a comprehensive array of services and programs.

BOOKS & TECHNOLOGY

The UCLA Library is ranked among the top 10 academic research libraries in North America with holdings of more than eight million volumes as well as digital resources and services. From the birth of the Internet at UCLA in 1969, UCLA continues to be a leader in resources for learning. UCLA is nationally recognized for developing ground-breaking computer services for undergraduates and was the first university to have a website for every undergraduate. The university provides an innovative, on-line tool called "myucla.edu," which provides a Web page tailored to each student's academic needs.

OUTREACH & COMMUNITY SERVICE

From its founding, UCLA has been an integral and contributing part of the greater Los Angeles community. Outreach programs and volunteerism are as much a part of UCLA as academics and research, with hundreds of UCLA-sponsored programs providing a wide range of opportunities. Many of UCLA's undergraduates volunteer for these programs, including tutoring youths, adults and incarcerated youths; addressing health and educational needs of underserved communities; combating poverty and homelessness; aiding the elderly and disabled; and providing legal, social, medical and educational assistance to community residents. Through outreach and academic preparation programs, UCLA works with K-12 schools throughout Los Angeles to help greater numbers of students prepare to compete successfully for college. UCLA also partners with community colleges to increase the number of underrepresented students transferring to the university. Additionally, UCLA faculty, researchers and students provide leadership and public service in health care, law, economic development, social welfare, urban planning, public policy, arts and the environment. Most academic departments have major research projects, field studies or student internships that directly affect people's lives in Los Angeles, the state and the nation.

HEALTH CARE

UCLA Health System has been a leader in patient care, medical research and teaching for more than 50 years. Today, our physicians provide an array of cutting-edge and research-based primary and specialty services in four hospitals on two campuses, and in more than 75 clinic locations. Physicians provide specialty services in offices located on the Westwood campus and throughout Santa Monica. Primary care physicians provide healthcare for children and adults in community offices from Manhattan Beach to Malibu. Patients from Southern California, the U.S. and around the globe enter our clinics more than one million times annually, and our hospitals, more than 80,000 times a year to be treated at the world-renowned Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center, the Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital, primary care offices and community outreach health programs. The four schools in the medical enterprise are medicine, dentistry, nursing and public health. The Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center has been ranked as one of the top hospitals in the country by U.S. News & World Report, including "Best in the West" for 21 consecutive years. A new state-of-the-art medical center, which includes the Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center, Stewart and Lynda Resnick Neuropsychiatric Hospital and Mattel Children's Hospital UCLA, opened in the summer of 2008. Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital's rebuilding project is scheduled for completion in late 2010. Groundbreaking research is constantly taking place in the Jonsson Comprehensive Cancer Center, the Gonda (Goldschmied) Neuroscience and Genetics Research Center and in many other centers and laboratories on campus.

ARTS

A diverse array of public arts programming makes UCLA the leading arts and cultural center of the West. More than 500,000 people annually attend arts events including theater, music, opera and dance performances, lectures, poetry readings, exhibitions, film screenings, and media arts that are presented by UCLA's two professional arts schools. Check the web sites at www.arts.ucla.edu and www.tft.ucla.edu for more information.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

One of the nation's leading university based institutions for continuing education, UCLA Extension offers 4,300 classroom and online courses and programs each year, helping 47,000 individuals in Los Angeles and around the world advance their goals for career, academic and personal educational development. More information about UCLA Extension is available at www.uclaextension.edu. In addition, the university conducts guided walking tours and distributes self-guided tour maps. For further information, call (310) 825-8764 or check out UCLA on the Web at www.ucla.edu.

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007 and enters his seventh year as the university's chief executive officer. In his current capacity, Chancellor Block oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block has set four major priorities for UCLA during his administration: academic excellence, diversity, civic engagement and financial security. He has called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with the Los Angeles region and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. He also heads a research laboratory on campus that is funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH).

Previously, he served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia. He holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children. The Blocks are avid Bruin fans and attend the competitions of various Bruin athletic programs.

He is the author or co-author of over 90 articles, with a special emphasis on marketing research and applied statistics. He has been an expert witness as a statistician in a number of legal cases and a consultant to industrial firms and government agencies.

Morrison, who will be 74 next February 26, served as captain of the M.I.T. track team. In 1961, he was the Eastern Conference long jump champion and placed third in the long jump at the New England Championships.

Morrison's wife Sherie is a professor in UCLA's Microbiology, Immunology and Molecular Genetics department. Their daughters, Heather Felix and Michelle Oliva, earned their MBA degrees from the Anderson Graduate School of Management at UCLA. The Morrisons also have three grandsons, Parker Graham Felix, Spencer Andrew Felix and Jake Carmine Oliva.

Sherie and Don have endowed several athletic scholarships and provided funds for academic/athletic awards during the last decade.

In 11 years, Dan Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA has won 109 NCAA team championships, a figure unmatched by any institution in the nation. UCLA teams have won 23 NCAA championships since his appointment, another national leader, finished second 21 times and have enjoyed an additional 43 Top Five finishes.

More than 80 percent of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA postseason competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in nine bowl games and the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08. The program has also won 54 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 500 All-America selections and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2012 Summer Olympic Games in London, 32 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and eight other nations. They won nine medals, including six golds.

In the last 11 years, UCLA has finished second three times (2007-08, 2006-07 and 2005-06), third four times (2004-05, 2003-04, 2011-12, 2012-13), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03), 11th (2010-11) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup.

In 2013, UCLA won its first Capital One Cup for men's sports, vaulting to the top of the standings after the baseball team won the College World Series.

This past year in NCAA competition, UCLA won its 109th NCAA title when the baseball team captured its first College World Series title, and eight teams finished among the top five, nationally. Men's water polo and men's tennis finished second, women's water polo and women's tennis (tied) placed third, women's golf and women's gymnastics finished fourth and women's soccer tied for fifth. Finally, 57 student-athletes earned All-America honors and 57 were selected to various all-conference teams.

Academically in 2012-13, three UCLA student-athletes received CoSIDA Academic All-America honors bringing the school's total to 116. In addition, graduating senior Jeff Locke, an All-Pac-12 first-team selection as a punter, earned the football program's 18th NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and UCLA's 68th overall. Finally, pitcher Ryan Deeter became the first UCLA student-athlete to win the NCAA's prestigious Elite 89 Award in any sport.

During Guerrero's tenure, the Bruins have won 23 national championships in 17 different sports, a national leader. UCLA teams have captured the following NCAA team titles: six in women's water polo, three each in women's softball and women's gymnastics, two in women's golf, and one each in women's tennis, men's tennis, men's volleyball, women's volleyball, men's water polo, men's golf, men's soccer, women's outdoor track and baseball. In addition, the Bruins have recorded 32 national podium finishes in that span.

Over the past decade, Guerrero has earned numerous honors. In May 2010, he was honored by the Black Coaches and Administrators organization as the Dr. Myles Brand BCA Administrator of the Year. In April 2010, he was honored by CORO Southern California, a non-profit organization that trains civic leaders.

In June of 2010, Guerrero completed a five-year term on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. As the chair in 2009-10, he was involved with the negotiation of the new $10.8 billion, 14-year NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament television package, as well as the decision to expand the Tournament to 68 teams.

In June of 2007, he was named the NACDA Division I West Region Athletic Director of the Year. His other honors include 2002 UCLA Latino Alumnus of the Year (October 2002); Cal State Dominguez Hills' Alumnus of the Year (March 2003); and 2003 "Father of the Year" by the Father's Day Council of the American Diabetes Association. On September 10, 2002, the Los Angeles City Council honored him with Dan Guerrero Day. He also became the first athlete in any sport at Banning (Wilmington, CA) High School to have his jersey (#8 in baseball) retired in 2003.

Guerrero was named one of the nation's 100 Most Influential Hispanics by Hispanic Business Magazine (October 2004) and the May 5, 2003 issue of Sports Illustrated listed him #28 among the 101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports. He was one of 28 people whose photo was featured on that issue's cover.

In addition to unparalleled success in the playing arena, his decade at the helm has also produced unmatched success in academics. In Guerrero's 11 years (33 quarters), student-athletes have secured more than 7,000 spots on the Director's Honor Roll (3.0 or higher grade-point average for a quarter). In 2012-13, more than 100 UCLA student-athletes earned all-conference academic acclaim. Finally, community service activities for the program are at an all-time high.

Resource development has always been one of Guerrero's strong points. Last year, a tremendous seven-year, multi-million dollar extension with adidas, equipment provider for all of UCLA's 25 sports, took effect. In 2004-05, he completed a new multi-million dollar agreement with ISP Sports (now IMG College), a premier national collegiate sports marketing organization.

Guerrero also led the negotiations that solidified the relationship between UCLA and the Rose Bowl, resulting in more than $180 million in renovations and restoration. He also reorganized the External Relations area, in anticipation of major revenue generating initiatives designed to address capital project needs, operational support and program endowments.

Under Guerrero's guidance, UCLA continues to aggressively enhance its athletic facilities, including the completion of the Bud Knapp Football wing of the Acosta Center. In the same complex, the sports medicine and athletic performance centers were renovated and redesigned, and the Olympic sports locker rooms were added on a third level. A new golf practice facility and the Easton Softball Stadium renovation were completed during the 2004-05 season. Spieker Aquatic Center was completed in the summer of 2009. Improvements to Spaulding Field, the Bruins football practice facility, and Jackie Robinson Stadium, the Bruins' baseball venue, continue to take place. Finally, the renovation of Pauley Pavilion was completed in October 2012, on time and under budget.

Guerrero has extensive experience in committee work at both the NCAA and conference level. In addition to his service on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, he also served on the "College Basketball Partnership," a group that included many of the most influential people in the sport. He has served as Chair of both the Pac-10 Athletic Directors Committee and the Budget and Finance Committee, and has served on several other conference committees. He has also served on other NCAA committees, including the Men's Basketball and Baseball Academic Enhancement Committees. He is currently a member of the Pac-12 Athletic Directors Television, the Pac-12 Men's Basketball Tournament, and the Pac-12 Rose Bowl Management committees as well as serving as the Pac-12 AD Liaison to Men's Basketball Coaches. In addition, he is a member of the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee. Finally, he was president of NACDA (2011-12) and is a member of the BCS Athletic Directors Advisory Group.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002). During his tenure, the program accumulated conference championships, garnered national rankings, featured graduation rates among the nation's best, and won numerous post-season honors for its student-athletes. In June of 2002 while still at UC Irvine, he was named the 2001-02 Division I-AA/I-AAA West Region NACDA Athletic Director of the Year.

Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, Guerrero worked at Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92).

Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base for the Bruins for four years. His three-year batting average in Pacific-8 Conference games was .343. Guerrero, known as "Warrior" during his playing career, was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. The Bruin Athletic Director earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year.

Guerrero, 61, was raised in Wilmington, Calif. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two grown daughters.

The UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame enters its 27th year of its existence and its ninth in a new location facing Westwood Plaza. The new Hall of Fame, double the size of its predecessor, opened in July of 2001.

The first floor in the J.D. Morgan Center's east wing features the 8,000-square foot Athletics Hall of Fame and serves as the main entrance to the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The Hall of Fame features state-of-the-art interactive displays; a mini-theater where Bruin video clips and highlights re-create past championship moments; a timeline of important U.S., California and UCLA dates showing how sports weave into great moments in history; a collection of Bruin memorabilia and more.

UCLA athletic teams have won 109 NCAA team championships and each of those first-place trophies grace the Hall of Champions. Other exhibits include photos of UCLA's first-team All-Americans in football and basketball, Gary Beban's Heisman Trophy, Wooden Awards won by Marques Johnson and Ed O'Bannon and a special display highlighting all of UCLA's Honda and Broderick Cup winners. Displays on UCLA's football bowl victories, the Bruins' NCAA basketball tradition and UCLA's Olympic Games medal winners are featured in the Hall of Fame.

Each of UCLA's sports has its own display area in the Hall of Fame. The cases include displays honoring Jackie Robinson, UCLA's Academic All-Americans and women in sports. There are also sample lockers of former Bruin greats in various sports.

In connection with the building, which originally opened in November of 1983, UCLA established a Hall of Fame with 25 charter members representing a cross-section of the school's athletic history. Each year, a minimum of one and a maximum of eight former UCLA athletes, coaches or administrators are added to the Hall of Fame. Following is a list of the members:

1. No. 1 in NCAA Titles (109)

UCLA became the first university to win at least 100 NCAA team titles (accomplished in May 2007) and has secured 23 NCAA Championships in the last 11 years (ranks No. 1 nationally) since Dan Guerrero became UCLA's Athletic Director. UCLA also ranks first in Olympians and Olympic gold medals from 1984-2012. A leader in producing professional athletes, UCLA offers the nation's finest overall combined academic, athletic and career resources for student-athletes.

2. Prestigious Degree / National Leader in Producing Top Students

Ranked in the top 10 among universities in most academic surveys, UCLA's professional schools rank among the top five in most areas and in the top 10 in others. UCLA is No. 1 in the nation for undergraduate student applications each year since 1999. The school is also among the all-time leaders in producing NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners. UCLA ranks No. 1 in the Kaplan Report survey of student resources for the college experience.

3. Highest Quality of Life / Best Place to Live

UCLA has been ranked "Best in West" and No. 2 overall as a public university in "Princeton Review" in on-campus housing options and dorm food. The campus welcomes 334 days of sunshine per year, with an average year-round temperature of 74 degrees. Situated five miles from the beach, UCLA rests in a thriving campus community of Westwood Village and is surrounded by Bel Air, Beverly Hills, Century City, Brentwood and Santa Monica.

4. World Class Facilities

Among UCLA's top-notch facilities include the remodeled and iconic Pauley Pavilion, the Rose Bowl in Pasadena (SI's No. 1 venue of all college sites), the Los Angeles Tennis Center, Drake Stadium (track & soccer), Steele Field at Jackie Robinson Stadium, Easton Stadium, Spieker Aquatics Center, Sunset Canyon Recreation Center, numerous adjacent championship golf courses, an on-campus golf practice facility, and the Acosta Athletic Training Complex for the best in sports medicine, athletic performance, and finest training equipment.

5. Legendary Coaching, Tremendous Sport Stability

UCLA has Olympic, National and USA Team coaches on its staff and individuals who have trained at the highest level and know how to win. No university can match UCLA's coaching stability in that only two Bruin head coaches have left for another Division I head coaching position over the past 40 years.

6. Exceptional Academic Support for All Student-Athletes

UCLA features 17 full-time staff working in academic and student services. This includes academic counseling, learning specialist, life skills coordinator, priority pre-enrollment in classes, academic mentors, individual and group tutoring, academic awards banquet, lecture notes, laptop lending program and career guidance.

The average personal income for a UCLA graduate is $77,500 and the average home value for UCLA grads is over $500,000. Student-athletes have access to Bruin Works program for Networking. A degree from UCLA means success across the world.

8. Complete National Sports Media Coverage

Centered in the nation's No. 2-largest media market (Los Angeles), UCLA garners more overall national, regional and local television team exposure than any other college in the nation. With numerous daily newspapers, UCLA ranks among the top in former student-athletes and students in sportscasting, news broadcasting, sports writing, acting, etc. to act as contacts for current athletes. UCLA ranks No. 1 in Sports Illustrated cover appearances. Major media outlets like ESPN, Fox Sports and USA Today have offices in L.A., and the athletic department has inherited much more national exposure with the creation of Pac-12 Networks, a series of seven cable channels (one national, six regional) that air live Pac-12 athletic events on a regular basis.

Darren Collison

Kevin Love

UCLA's overall success combining prestigious academics, top athletic finishes and tremendous social life cannot be matched by any other university. UCLA has great resources available on a daily basis for our student-athletes to be the best in any area they select. UCLA's axiom is Champions Made Here!

UCLA Continues to Excel in the NBA

Since 1948, UCLA has produced more NBA selections (108) than any other college in the nation. In the last 20 years, 26 UCLA players have been selected in the NBA Draft. The Bruins had a string of 13 consecutive seasons (1997-2009) which saw 20 players drafted out of UCLA (including eight first-round picks).

Over the last 10 seasons, UCLA has produced 13 NBA Draft picks, including six first-round selections. Most recently, Shabazz Muhammad was selected No. 14 overall by the Utah Jazz in the 2013 Draft. In June 2008, Russell Westbrook and Kevin Love were taken as the No. 4 and No. 5 draft selections, respectively, in the first round. Other recent first-round selections at UCLA have included Jrue Holiday (2009), Darren Collison (2009), Arron Afflalo (2007) and Jordan Farmar (2006).

Athletics Scholarship Endowments

UCLA Athletics thanks the individuals listed on this page for their tremendous generosity in providing an athletics scholarship endowment. The perpetual support generated by these endowments ensures that UCLA Athletics can provide ongoing support to the recipients of UCLA's NCAA maximum 282 athletics scholarships. UCLA Athletics encourages alumni and friends of UCLA to help us meet our goal of fully endowing each of our 282 athletics scholarships. With a minimum gift of $150,000 payable over three to five years, donors receive recognition as part of a permanent display in the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame and athletics scholarship endowments play a critical role in empowering UCLA's student-athletes to succeed in the classroom, in competition and in the community. To learn more, please call Emily Lerner at (310) 206-3302, or visit www.WoodenAthleticFund.com.
