The Big South Conference and ESPN reached a six-year extension to its media rights deal on Oct. 1, 2025 that will see more than 800 annual conference events carried annually across ESPN networks, including ESPN's new direct-to-consumer offering, which is inclusive of ESPN+ and launched in August 2025. The agreement runs through 2030-31 -- 40 years since the longstanding relationship began in 1991.

The extension provides continued linear coverage of the Big South's basketball championship games, as the men's championship game will air on either ESPN or ESPN2, with the women's championship contest to be carried on ESPNU. In addition, ESPNU will televise six events per season, including a minimum of four men's basketball "Wildcard" broadcasts on the network, and at least two additional linear opportunities on ESPNU or ESPNEWS are included. Additionally, the agreement allows the Big South to retain the rights to telecast up to 50 linear events per year locally in the Conference footprint, with those telecasts co-existing on ESPN+ as well.

Under the arrangement, ESPN+ will continue as the exclusive digital home of Big South Network productions and features regular season and Big South Championship broadcasts, including football, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, women's volleyball and lacrosse, baseball, and softball. The Big South was one of the first collegiate conferences showcased on ESPN+ when the service launched in 2018.

The Big South and ESPN have a relationship that spans multiple decades, dating back to the conference's first national broadcasts in 1991, new linear coverage in the early 2000s, and continuing through multiple media rights extensions, most recently in 2018 that first put Big South productions digitally on ESPN+.

The partnership reached new heights in 2022 with the first national linear broadcast of the Big South women's basketball championship game when ESPNU televised the league's final. ESPNU also televised the 2023 final, while ESPN2 carried the women's championship game in both 2024 and 2025 for the first time. The 2026 women's title contest is slated to air on ESPNU.

In July 2018, the Big South Conference joined the comprehensive ESPN+ lineup, which include hundreds of MLB, NHL and MLS games, thousands of college events, Grand Slam tennis, Top Rank boxing, PGA Tour golf, international rugby, cricket, original shows and series, the full library of 30 for 30 films, and more.

The 2025-26 season marks the 13th year of the "Wildcard" men's conference broadcasts on ESPNU, which are determined 14-21 days in advance. All remaining home Big South contests will be carried on ESPN+.

BIG SOUTH NETWORK STUDIO

The Big South Conference unveiled its new Big South Network Studio in July 2018 as part of an eight-month renovation and expansion of the league's headquarters office in Charlotte, N.C. The studio provides new video content opportunities for the conference and its membership, as well as eventual live show capabilities that are part of enhanced efforts to showcase the league's student-athletes and athletics programs.

The space features three functioning areas -- a main interview set, a smaller one-on-one interview set, and a green-screen set. The Big South Conference worked with Atlanta-based dB Integrations (project lead) and Artes, LLC (set designer) on the project. Planned programming within the new Big South Network Studio includes:

- One-on-one interviews and evergreen content with coaches and student-athletes;
- Breaking news announcements;
- Special sport and television schedule unveils;
- Game day and Championship previews;
- Interviews with influential leaders in college athletics and in the community;
- Interviews with Big South alumni;
- Social media updates from around the Big South;
- Community service reports

Future efforts will focus on special guest analysis, halftime segments for Big South Network productions on ESPN+, Player of the Week and postseason award announcements, sport-by-sport notebooks, and live studio programs -- including pregame shows as well as Football and Basketball Media Day, among others.

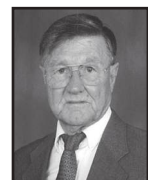

"The development of the Big South Network studio is part of a long-range vision to present the Conference, its members and student-athletes in the most creative and progressive manner possible," stated Big South Commissioner KYLE KALLANDER at the time. "As they say, 'Content is King', and with this studio the Big South will be able to maximize the distribution of our compelling content through programming in our new partnership with ESPN, and on digital and social media platforms."

For more than 40 years, the Big South Conference has been an exemplary leader in college athletics, dedicated to developing student-athletes through the pursuit of excellence in the classroom, community and field of play. The league's growing presence as an NCAA Division I athletic conference is made evident by its multitude of athletic accomplishments, innovative marketing and media partnerships, increased television packages and most importantly, its commitment to fostering the academic, personal, social, athletic and leadership development of its student-athletes. Comprised of nine member institutions sharing a common geographic region and similar academic values and purposes, the Big South's remarkable history of achievement is characterized by the league's 19 championship sports and the profound academic and life successes of its more than 3,200 student-athletes. This has evolved into the conference's "Where Winners Are Made" mantra as part of a strategic emphasis on the educational model of collegiate athletics that puts student-athletes at the center of the experience not only as competitors, but as scholars, leaders and future professionals.

The Big South Conference has experienced numerous athletic and academic accomplishments since its founding in 1983, including the following in the last 20 years:

On April 24, 1983, Charleston Southern (then Baptist College) Athletic Director HOWARD BAGWELL (left) and Augusta President GEORGE CRISTENBERRY (right) began recruiting members into the fledgling league, and less than four months later on August 21, the Big South Conference was formed when Augusta, Charleston Southern, Campbell, Coastal Carolina and Winthrop committed to the new conference. One month later, DR. EDWARD M. SINGLETON was selected as the league's first Commissioner and continued to solicit new members. His efforts led to the additions of Armstrong State, Radford and UNC Asheville, giving the Big South more than the required six members to constitute an official conference. The Big South's first year of competition was in the Fall of 1984, and in September 1986, the Big South Conference was granted full-fledged NCAA Division I status.

During its infancy and prior to securing automatic bids to NCAA Championships, the Big South made early strides in earning at-large berths in several national postseason events, including volleyball, women's basketball and women's golf. In 1989, GEORGE F. "BUDDY" SASSER replaced the retiring Dr. Singleton as Commissioner, and in 1990, the league received its first automatic bid -- an automatic qualifier to the NCAA Baseball Championship. Under Sasser's seven years of leadership, the conference implemented its public relations and compliance programs, and introduced its first-ever men's basketball television package.

In August 1996, KYLE B. KALLANDER replaced Sasser as the league's third Commissioner, and in his 27 years at the helm of the Big South before retiring in June 2023, Kallander was instrumental in aggressively promoting the conference to unprecedented heights. During his tenure, men's and women's indoor track & field (1997), football (2002) and women's lacrosse (2013) were added as sponsored sports. The conference also enjoyed record levels in marketing revenue, in addition to extensive television coverage for women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's soccer, volleyball and women's lacrosse for the first time. The league as a whole enjoyed increased national television exposure through aggressive and unique television packages -- including the women's basketball championship game televised on a national linear network for the first time in 2022. Conference membership was solidified with double-digit full members for 14 consecutive years during his administration with the additions of High Point, Gardner-Webb, Presbyterian College Longwood and USC Upstate. Kallander's long range vision included technological advancements, as the conference introduced its first live streaming event in 2005 and has consistently provided video offerings of more than 900 annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms. Ongoing equipment upgrades have allowed these productions to reach linear television quality, while the emphasis on video integration has allowed the conference to expand its reach globally as well as serve as a model for peer conferences to emulate. Kallander also pushed initiatives around student-athlete wellness, such as an annual Health & Safety Summit that began in 2016, along with programs and services to address racial inequality and social injustice.

Under Kallander's leadership, the Big South developed and initiated its first long-range strategic plan, re-affirming the league's vision as a distinctive athletic conference committed to the quality of institutional life through athletic competition. An updated strategic plan was launched in 2015 with the objective to transform the Big South Conference into the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast. Five primary areas of focus were established: basketball success, media exposure, academic centrality, student-athlete experience and messaging/branding. In 2017, the league overhauled its identity with the most comprehensive rebrand in the 33-year history of the Big South Conference.

The rebrand included a new brand identity featuring a more favorable and distinctive color scheme, the introduction of a secondary logo and an extensive advertising campaign to enliven the conference's distinct values, its roots in the Southeast region of the United States and its vision for the future. The foundation of the rebrand was built from the conference's Live, Love and Life pillars, which are externally expressed through the conference's "Where Winners Are Made" mantra. Crafted in collaboration with conference leadership and student-athletes, the tagline (and corresponding #BigSouthMade hashtag) embodies and affirms the Big South's commitment to developing student-athletes for profound success through Division I collegiate athletics and transformative academics to achieve their full potential as students, athletes and citizens.

In April 2023, former Big South student-athlete and administrator SHERIKA A. MONTGOMERY was named the successor to the retiring Kallander, and she began her tenure a month later on May 15 as the conference's fourth Commissioner.

Prominent Big South athletic alumni include NBA player JAVONTE GREEN; multi-Olympians AMBER CAMPBELL and TAYLOR MILNE; two-time Major Champion DUSTIN JOHNSON; MLB players CEDRIC MULLINS, ZACH NETO, MASON MILLER, SPENCER HORWITZ, and RYAN THOMPSON; former NFL cornerback JOSH NORMAN, former NFL running back and "Dancing with the Stars" champion RASHAD JENNINGS; ESPN personalities KELSEY RIGGS CUFF and SAM PONDER, three-time NFL Pro Bowler JUSTIN BETHEL, two-time Grand Slam Champion HENRY PATTEN, and former WNBA veteran EVERY WARLEY, and Paralympian Gold Medalist NICK MAYHUGH.

Distinguished alumni from Big South member institutions include U.S. Senator TIM SCOTT (Charleston Southern), Basketball Hall of Famer ARTIS GILMORE (Gardner-Webb), Grammy-award winning singer/songwriter DONNA FARGO (High Point), former LPGA player TINA BARRETT (Longwood), former HGTV President JIM SAMPLES (Presbyterian), former U.S. National Men's Soccer Team member DANTE WASHINGTON (Radford), former Weather Channel anchor KRISTINA ABERNATHY (UNC Asheville), NBA player TORREY CRAIG (USC Upstate) and actress ANDIE MACDOWELL (Winthrop).

The conference's on-field accomplishments have been duplicated in the classroom. A record 81.22 percent of the conference's student-athletes were named to the Big South's Presidential Honor Roll for maintaining a 3.0 grade-point average in 2024-25.

The Big South Conference office is headquartered on the south side of Charlotte, N.C. Originally located in Myrtle Beach, S.C., the office moved to Winthrop University in 1996 on an interim basis until the first Charlotte location was ready in late 1997. The Conference office moved into its current location in April, 2004.

Montgomery's extensive experience spans more than a dozen years. She came to the Big South from the Missouri Valley Conference (MVC), where she was appointed Deputy Commissioner prior to the 2022-23 year. She joined the MVC staff in the summer of 2021 as Associate Commissioner and Senior Woman Administrator. During her time at the Valley, Montgomery was responsible for the organizational leadership of Conference operations, including administrative oversight of the Conference's governance structure, facilitation of constituency communication, execution of future strategic initiatives and the primary sport administrator for basketball. She was the liaison to the Conference's Chief Executive Officers and Directors of Athletics, with additional areas of leadership responsibilities within NCAA national matters, student-athlete experience enhancements, and Conference diversity, equity and inclusion efforts. In addition, she was a cohort member of the 2022-23 NCAA Pathway Program, a yearlong initiative designed to prepare senior-level athletics administrators for the next career step as directors of athletics or conference commissioners.

Prior to arriving at the Missouri Valley Conference, Montgomery served as Assistant Director of Enforcement (Investigations and Processing) at the NCAA. In her role at the national office, she was responsible for thoroughly and timely investigating and processing potential violations of NCAA legislation involving all three NCAA divisions and all sports. This included compiling and evaluating evidence of infractions, drafting necessary submissions, and presenting information and evidence to the NCAA Committee on Infractions. In addition to her enforcement responsibilities, Montgomery served as liaison to the inaugural NCAA Women's Basketball Student-Athlete Engagement Group, which provided an amplifying voice for the sport of women's basketball on key initiatives, legislation and various issues. Montgomery also served as chair of the NCAA People of Color Employee Engagement Group and was a member of the Women's Employee Engagement Group's Leadership Council.

Montgomery was at the Summit League from 2018-19, serving as Associate Commissioner for Governance and Compliance. She also served as Associate Athletic Director for Student Success at Big South member institution Winthrop University from 2017-18. Prior to her time at Winthrop, Montgomery spent seven years as a member of the Big South Conference staff. She started in 2010 as a compliance and administrative assistant before being promoted to Assistant Director of Compliance in 2011. Montgomery was elevated to Director of Compliance & Administration in 2013, and spent her final three years as Assistant Commissioner for Compliance and Senior Woman Administrator.

During her first stint with the Big South Conference, Montgomery served as a two-time chair (2016-2018) of the NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics during her service from 2014-2018, and was also a member of the inaugural NCAA Board of Governors Ad Hoc Committee to Promote Cultural Diversity and Equity. She was named to the Top 25 Women in Higher Education and Beyond list by Diverse Education in 2016.

A former women's basketball student-athlete at Big South member Gardner-Webb University, Montgomery earned her master's degree in Sports Science and Pedagogy in May of 2011, and her Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Management from the institution in 2009.

The Big South Conference Hall of Fame was formed as part of the League's 20th anniversary celebration in 2003-04. Each year the Conference inducts up to eight (8) individuals into the Hall of Fame. The Conference Hall of Fame is housed at the office headquarters in Charlotte, N.C., and features historical images and artwork of the league's accomplishments and achievements over the years as well as each enshrinee's plaque.

The inaugural class was inducted in May 2003 and consisted of 11 former student-athletes, coaches and administrators who were integral in the creation, development and early success of the Big South Conference. Inductees are enshrined as part of the League's annual Spring Meetings. The Big South Hall of Fame now boasts 84 members. The Hall of Fame did not induct a class in 2009 due to the League's 25th Anniversary celebration during the 2008-09 campaign, nor in 2020 and 2021 due to the coronavirus pandemic.

MEN'S BASKETBALL NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Big South Conference first secured an automatic bid to the NCAA Championship in 1992, and has sent its postseason tournament champion to the Big Dance every year since, with the exception of 1995. The first Big South member to advance to the Tournament was Coastal Carolina in 1991, when the Chanticleers defeated Jackson State in a play-in game to earn their Tournament berth. In 1992, charter member Campbell earned the league's first automatic bid. The 2006-07 Winthrop Eagles earned the highest seed ever bestowed upon a Big South school as a No. 11 seed.

UNC Asheville was the first Big South program to win a men's tournament game with its Opening Round victory vs. Texas Southern in 2003. Winthrop became the first member to advance to the NCAA Tournament Second Round with its resounding 74-64 win over Notre Dame in 2007. Below is a look at the league's annual NCAA Tournament pairings.

As part of the Big South's 30th Anniversary celebration in 2013-14, the Conference announced its first-ever All-Decade Teams to recognize the student-athletes and coaches who excelled in their respective sport since the Conference's founding in 1983. A committee of Big South Conference administrators served as the official voting panel to determine the All-Decade Teams, with fan voting comprising 20 percent of the overall total. Men's Basketball All-Decade Team candidates were determined based on being at least one of the following: 1) Was a multiple All-Conference honoree; 2) Was named an All-American; 3) Is a member of the Big South Conference Hall of Fame; 4) Student-athletes must be a college graduate or in good academic standing with their respective institution; 5) Won a Conference Championship as a coach and/or was voted Conference Coach of the Year; and 6) Players of the Year, Tournament MVPs and First-Team All-Conference honorees were among the candidate pool for the 1985-89 All-Decade Teams. Candidates that participated in two different decades were placed in a specific decade based on consultation from member institutions. Member institutions also had final determination in regards to inclusion of student-athletes and coaches. The next Men's Basketball All-Decade Team will cover 2020-29.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Big South Conference's first member institution to advance to the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament was Big South champion Radford in 1994, its first of three consecutive appearances in the Big Dance. Liberty earned a Big South-record 10 consecutive Tournament berths from 1997-2006. The Radford Highlanders earned the league's highest seed ever in 1995 as a No. 11 seed in the East Region. In addition, Liberty received its highest seed ever in 2008 as a No. 12 seed in the Tournament, and in 2005, became the first Big South basketball program -- men's or women's -- to reach the "Sweet Sixteen" in the NCAA Basketball Championship.

Meanwhile, the Big South has advanced to the WNIT 18 times in its history. In fact, the conference had a record four teams qualify for the postseason twice in a three-year span (2017 & 2019). Below is a look at the Big South's annual pairings in the NCAA Tournament, with results in the WBIT, WNIT and Women's Basketball Invitational on the next page.

As part of the Big South's 30th Anniversary celebration in 2013-14, the Conference announced its first-ever All-Decade Teams to recognize the student-athletes and coaches who excelled in their respective sport since the Conference's founding in 1983. A committee of Big South Conference administrators served as the official voting panel to determine the All-Decade Teams, with fan voting comprising 20 percent of the overall total. Women's Basketball All-Decade Team candidates were determined based on being at least one of the following: 1) Was a multiple All-Conference honoree; 2) Was named an All-American; 3) Is a member of the Big South Conference Hall of Fame; 4) Student-athletes must be a college graduate or in good academic standing with their respective institution; 5) Won a Conference Championship as a coach and/or was voted Conference Coach of the Year; and 6) Players of the Year, Tournament MVPs and First-Team All-Conference honorees were among the candidate pool for the 1986-89 All-Decade Teams. Candidates that participated in two different decades were placed in a specific decade based on consultation from member institutions. Member institutions also had final determination in regards to inclusion of student-athletes and coaches. The next Women's Basketball All-Decade Team will cover 2020-29.
