THE CITY OF CLARKSVILLE

TENNESSEE'S TOP SPOT

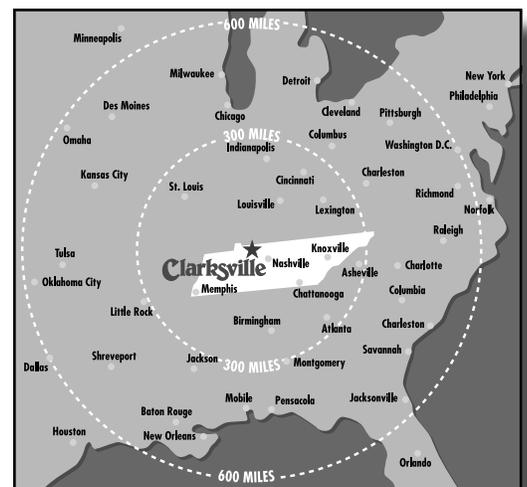

Clarksville is a vibrant community located in Middle Tennessee, directly off of Interstate 24, 40 miles northwest of Nashville and Nashville International Airport (BNA).

The fifth-largest city in Tennessee, Clarksville is the ninth-fastest growing city in the nation.

The Land

Between the Lakes national recreation area is located 40 miles west of Clarksville and offers a wide range of recreational activities.

Clarksville is located within 300 miles of Atlanta, Birmingham, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Louisville, Memphis, Nashville and St. Louis and it is less than 500 miles from the sandy shores of the Gulf Coast.

Austin Peay State University is a comprehensive, state-assisted university with a distinguished tradition in liberal and professional education. The institution is named in honor of Austin Peay, Tennessee's governor from 1924 until 1927, the year APSU was founded.

The university is located in Clarksville, Tenn., just 45 minutes northwest of Tennessee's capital, Nashville, on Interstate 24. One of the South's most historic cities, Clarksville also is Tennessee's fastest growing city and one of the 10 fastest growing cities in the United States according a 2013 U.S. Census Bureau Report.

Situated on gently rolling terrain near picturesque downtown Clarksville, Austin Peay's main campus consists of 68 buildings on 169 acres. The classical Georgian architecture of the Austin Peay campus is combined with newer buildings. This blend provides a link with the past while reflecting the academic excellence and dignity of an institution of higher learning.

The newest building additions to the main campus are the Hemlock Semiconductor Building, Foy Fitness and Recreation Center, Sundquist Science Complex and the Morgan University Center, each opening for use since 2001. The Hemlock Semiconductor Building houses the chemical engineering technology (CET) associate degree program and laboratory. The $11-million Foy Center, features a rock-climbing wall and 10,000 square feet of fitness space and other amenities for the student body. The Sundquist Complex is one of the South's premier science education facilities and represents the largest capital appropriation ever in Tennessee for a single classroom building. The new Morgan University Center is located in the heart of the campus and features a cybercafe, meeting rooms, a food court, coffee shop, ballroom and lounges for Austin Peay students.

Austin Peay's campus has been the site of seven educational institutions since 1806. The campus was occupied by Southwestern Presbyterian University (now Rhodes College) for 50 years until 1925 when the school moved to Memphis. Austin Peay was founded two years later as a two-year normal school to train teachers for the region. Austin Peay has grown over the years to take its place among the finest mid-sized four-year universities in the nation.

Austin Peay Normal School became a four-year college in 1941-42, and university status was conferred Sept. 1, 1967.

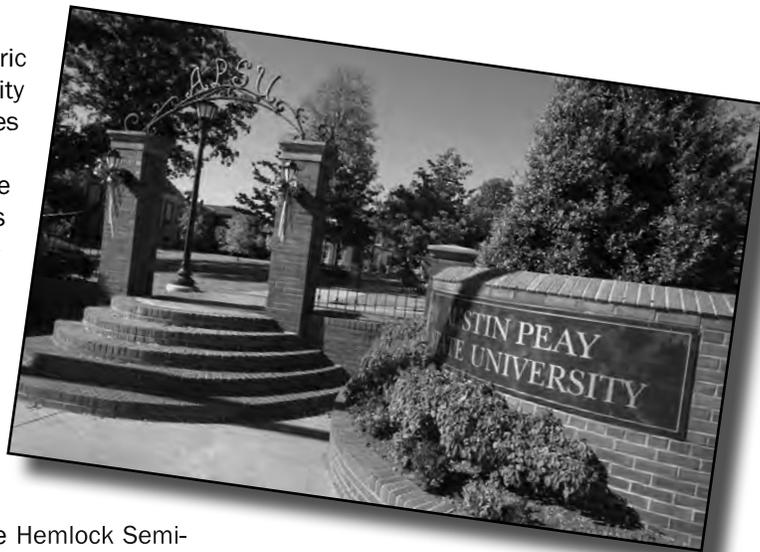

Austin Peay currently enrolls more than 10,000 students from every region of Tennessee, most of the 50 states and several foreign countries.

Those students can choose from more than 50 majors in associate, bachelor's, master's and education specialist's degrees with additional areas of concentration. Courses are offered in arts and sciences, business, education, engineering technology, nursing and human services. Graduate studies also are offered in several areas. In addition, numerous online courses are offered each semester.

A state leader in public service, Austin Peay State University has more than 750 employees. Engaged in the most modern teaching techniques and research are nearly 280 full-time faculty members, 90 percent of whom hold the earned doctorate or appropriate terminal degrees in their disciplines.

WINFIELD DUNN CENTER

The Winfield Dunn Center became home of the Governors and Lady Gobs indoor athletics in 1975 after ground was broken for the $5.3 million, 9,000-seat structure in February 1973.

Austin Peay volleyball has called the Dunn Center home since its inception. With the playing surface centered within Dave Aaron Arena, the Lady Gobs enjoy the most spacious playing facility in the Ohio Valley Conference. Austin Peay has used that space to its benefit, posting a 226-130 record (.635 win percentage) in the building since 1980.

The 132,000 square-foot complex, officially named the Winfield Dunn Health and Physical Education Building and Convocation Complex in honor of Governor Dunn, is a dominating edifice with 78 feet separating the top of the building from its playing surface. The Dunn Center replaced Memorial Gymnasium, affectionately called "The Little Red Barn," which served as the Governors basketball team's homecourt from 1952 until the Dec. 1, 1975 tip-off.

On Jan. 16, 1988, the basketball arena was named Dave Aaron Arena in honor of the school's former athletics director, football coach and then all-time winningest basketball coach.

Nearly 20 years later, the floor was named in honor of current men's basketball coach Dave Loos, who became Austin Peay's all-time wins leader during the 2006-07 season.

The Dunn Center is home of Governors basketball and Lady Gobs volleyball and basketball. It also serves as a multipurpose practice facility with track, baseball and softball utilizing the facility for indoor workouts. Several of APSU's athletic offices are located in the Dunn Center.

Austin Peay's student-athletes also take advantage of the facility for improving themselves off the field of play. The David P. Roe Academic Services Center, constructed in 2006, is located on the second level's south end. Student-athletes also work out in the newly renovated weight room conveniently located in the southwest corner of Dunn Center.

Entering the facility's front lobby, visitors are impressed by the Hall of Fame area, honoring APSU's greatest former athletes, administrators and supporters. Stepping just inside the Dunn Center visitors can observe APSU's retired jerseys located on both the north and south end zones.

The north end houses the Governors Club, Austin Peay's booster club, which also uses the third level for many of its booster-club activities, including pre-game and halftime hospitality during the basketball season.

The Dunn Center has received major upgrades since 2000. New seating was installed throughout the facility beginning with the lower level in 2004 and followed by the second level in 2007. The first generation of LED displays were installed as part of the 2004 renovation.

Most recently, the original playing surface was replaced during 2012 with a state-of-art maple hardwood surface. One year later, the University made a $1.9-million dollar investment in the facility with the installation of new scoreboards and LED displays as well as new tables on each side of the court.

DIRECTIONS TO THE DUNN CENTER

From I-24: Proceed to exit 4. If you are headed west on I-24 make a left at the light onto Wilma Rudolph Blvd. If you are headed east on I-24 make a right at the interchange onto Wilma Rudolph Blvd. Drive approximately six miles (street name will change to College Street) until you reach the Eighth Street intersection. Make a right turn at the light and proceed to the first stop sign on Eighth Street. At the stop sign make a left turn onto Marion Street. Continue on Marion past the football stadium to the third stop sign. At that stop sign make a right onto Drane Street, the entrance to the Dunn Center is on the left, parking is on the right.

OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Ohio Valley Conference Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments once again returned to the Nashville Municipal Auditorium in 2015 (March 4-7).

The combined men's and women's championship have been held at Municipal Auditorium nine previous times: 1994, 1995, 1996, 2004, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014). The men also held its championship at the venue in 1989. Prior to the tournament being at the end of the season, the 1967 men's tournament was also held at Municipal Auditorium in December of that year.

The move to Municipal Auditorium keeps the championships in Nashville, a place it will have been held 21 times in the last 22 years. The only year the tournament have not been held in Nashville during that stretch was 2002.

Future OVC Basketball Tournament dates include March 2-5, 2016, March 1-4, 2017 and February 28 - March 3, 2018.

GOVERNORS COACHES

DAVE LOOS

Position: Head Coach • Alma Mater: Memphis, 1970

Experience: 29th Season • Career Record: 465-404

at Austin Peay: 25th Season • Career Record: 383-351

For the first time since 1996, Dave Loos will enter the season with one title beside his name... Head Basketball Coach.

Loos stepped down as APSU athletics director in April to concentrate solely on being the Governors head basketball coach. It ended an almost unheard of reign in today's college athletics world of one person handling an athletics department's two most demanding positions.

For more than 16 years, Loos helped APSU thrive as both its head basketball coach and the Athletics Director. His double duties aptly pointed out the respect Loos garnered both on and off campus. He applied the same common-sense approach to his athletics director's duties that have been representative of his APSU basketball tenure.

What is even more remarkable is that Loos, who is in his 24th season as Gobs head coach, owns the mark for APSU's longest basketball coaching tenure—only 13 other Division I coaches have longer tenures at their respective schools—and is the program's all-time wins leader, surpassing Dave Aaron in 2006-07. To honor such achievement, then-outgoing president, Dr. Sherry Hoppe, at the behest of several longtime basketball supporters, named the basketball floor Dave Loos Court.

In addition, Loos was inducted into the Austin Peay Athletics Hall of Fame in Feb. 2008.

On Dec. 12, 2009, Loos became the league's all-time wins leader, passing Cal Luther (319) for most victories while coaching in the OVC. His achievement was honored with the establishment of the Dave Loos Scholarship, a graduate scholarship to be awarded to an aspiring coach.

Loos enters the season ranked 34th among active coaches for most victories.

Such success didn't happen by accident. Loos not only has elevated APSU's program to the pinnacle of OVC prominence, but has done it as well with the dignity and class so reflective of the reputation he built as an athlete and as a high school/college coach.

He is only the second APSU coach to lead the Gobs to an OVC regular-season and NCAA Division I tournament berth. His APSU teams have advanced at least to the OVC tourney semifinals in 13 of the last 18 years. That has sustained his reputation of elevating his club's play during February-March.

More impressively the Governors have been have sported nearly a 60 percent winning percentage during those 13 seasons, including six 20-win seasons and four OVC regular-season titles. In fact, the Gobs own 10 double-digit OVC wins seasons in the new millennium.

That underscores a Governors program that has possessed a .500 or better OVC record in 18 of the last 19 seasons.

That has resulted in Austin Peay winning the OVC tournament and gaining an NCAA tourney berth in 1996; APSU capturing a 1997 league co-championship—the first since 1977; shocking the league by winning both a regular-season co-championship and tourney title in 2003; posting an unprecedented 16-0 OVC campaign in 2004; winning the 2006-07 OVC regular-season title by a convincing three games and repeating it in 2007-08 while advancing to the NCAA tournament. Loos is the only APSU coach to earn multiple OVC Coach of the Year honors, in 1990-91, 1996-97, 2002-03, 2003-04 and 2006-07.

In addition, the Governors, who have been in three NCAA tournaments under Loos, have appeared in post-season tournaments in four of the last seven years.

As a result, Loos has achieved one of his program's goals when he took over in 1990-91—the Governors reclaiming their spot among the OVC elite and annually competing for the title.

Loos became Austin Peay's 11th head men's basketball coach on July 14, 1990. The likeable veteran coach has proven to be a "perfect fit" for the APSU program.

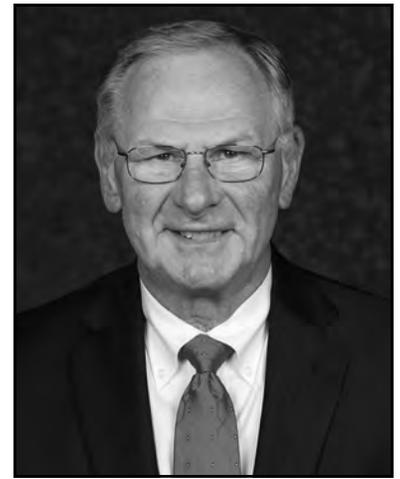

In his initial season, not only did his Gobs produce a winning (15-14) season after a previous 10-19 campaign, they displayed an exciting style as well.

He became only the third Austin Peay coach to earn OVC Coach of the Year, the first to be recognized in his first Gobs' season.

He then began building his own program with young men who reflected their coach both on and off the court and represented the University with great class.

The Gobs struggled record-wise (11-17 and 7-20) the next two seasons as Loos was reinventing the soul of the program. The young 1993-94 team began 0-7 but finished strongly at 11-16. Picked to finish eighth in preseason polls, the Gobs battled for the title much of the season, finally settling for third.

Since then APSU has developed a rich tradition of excellence.

In 1994-95, the Gavs finished the regular-season at 12-15 but pulled two upsets in the OVC tournament before falling to Murray State when star forward Bubba Wells suffered a leg injury that later turned out to be a surgery-necessitating right leg stress fracture.

In 1995-96, the Governors again peaked late. In February, the Gavs fashioned an 8-2 record, including six straight victories. APSU entered the NCAA tourney with a four-game win streak before losing to Georgia Tech.

A year later, the Governors finished 17-14 overall—with All-America forward Wells missing the season's first 12 games—but won six of their final eight games, including a four-game winning streak that helped clinch a regular-season OVC co-championship.

In 1997-98, the Gavs, despite a rebuilding season, ended the season with a surprising 17-11 record and a fourth-place OVC finish.

In 1998-99, the young Gavs finished in a third-place OVC tie, although the 11-16 mark ended the string of winning seasons at three.

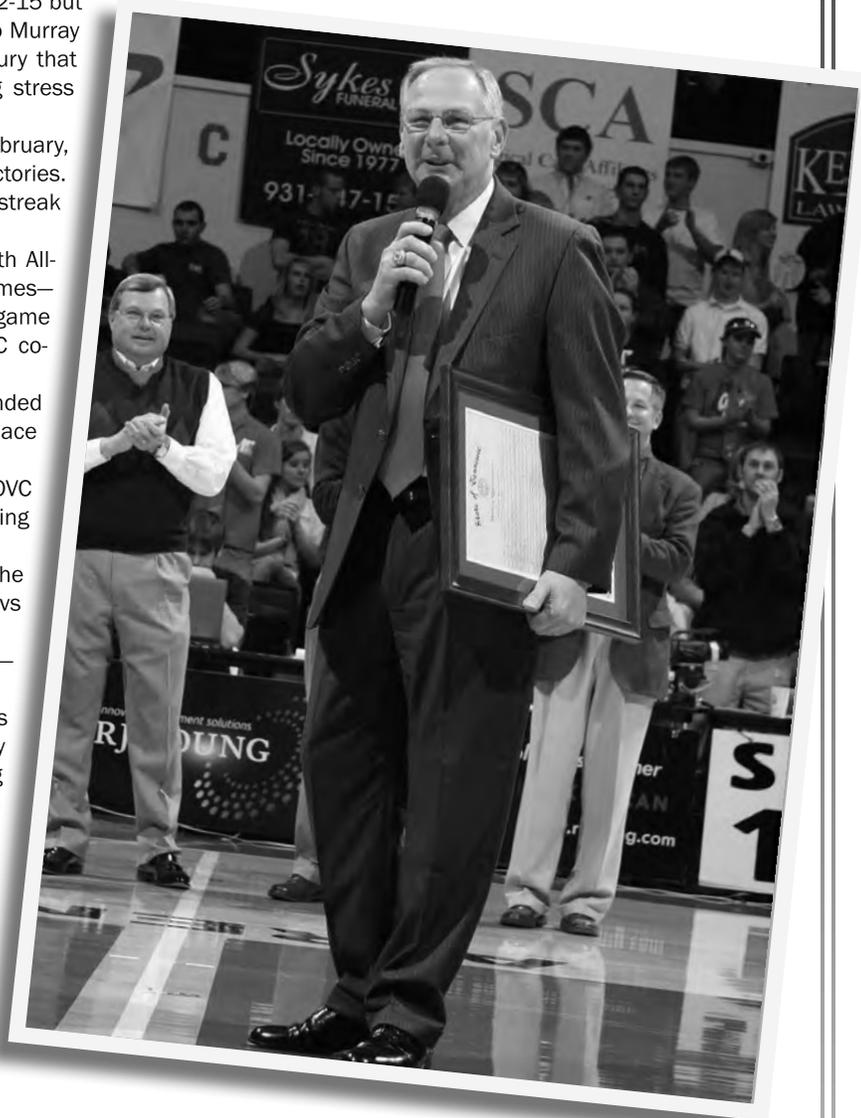

A year later, the Gavs ended 18-11. The 18 wins, at the time, represented the most regular-season wins by the Gavs since 1976-77.

APSU topped that mark in 1999-00 with a 22-10 record—the Gavs' first 20-win mark since 1986-87.

It was a 14-18 mark in 2001-02 as the Governors possessed only one senior. That returning group completely turned around those losing fortunes in 2002-03. In going 23-8, the Gavs won 15 of their last 16 regular-season games to win a share of the OVC title,

The OVC tourney championship and a trip to the NCAA tourney. The 23 wins represented the third most in school history.

But the 2003-04 season saw the Gavs make a remarkable run through the OVC, becoming only the fourth team in league history to go unbeaten in conference play. The Gavs were just one of three teams in the country to finish league play without a loss.

Despite losing four senior starters, the Govs were in the 2005 OVC regular-season race until the final weekend and stunned Samford and top-seed Tennessee Tech in the OVC tourney before narrowly losing to Eastern Kentucky in the title tilt. The Govs finished 9-7 in the OVC. APSU owned an 11-9 league mark in 2006 with a 17-14 overall mark with a young team.

In 2006-07, the Governors, despite having no seniors on the roster, overcame a slow start to finish at 21-12 overall, the third 20-win season during Loos's tenure. More importantly, the Govs ran away with the OVC crown, going 16-4.

The 2007-08 season was even more remarkable. The odds-on choice to repeat as league champions, the Governors battle a much-improved league, yet finished with an identical 16-4 record and won the regular season by the same three-game margin. It was only the second time in OVC history that a team posted back-to-back 16-win seasons.

The Govs' 24-11 overall record also tied the APSU mark for single-season wins, both overall and as a Division I program.

Beginning in 2008, the Governors have gone 19-14 (2008-09), 17-15 (2009-10), 20-14 (2010-11), 12-20 (2011-12) and 8-23 (2012-13). In addition to participating in the CBI three years ago, the Govs appears in the 2009 Collegelnsider.com post-season tourney.

Loos has earned respect from peers for his coaching ability and the manner he directs the program, reflective in the fact he now is the only coach in OVC history to have as many as five "Coach of the Year" honors.

Loos came to APSU after four seasons as Memphis' top assistant. He joined Larry Finch in 1986 and helped direct his alma mater to an 85-43 record, including two NCAA tourney appearances and a Metro Conference tourney title during his tenure.

Prior to joining Memphis State, Loos enjoyed four successful head-coaching seasons at Christian Brothers College in Memphis. He took over that program in 1982-83, and after an initial 16-14 season, recorded three straight 20-win campaigns. In 1985, CBC captured its first Volunteer State Athletic Conference crown, the VSAC tourney title and second place in the National Catholic Tournament.

For his efforts, he earned VSAC, NAIA District 24 and NAIA Area V Coach of the Year honors. He also was named the National Catholic Tournament Outstanding Coach.

Loos' move to CBC came after spending eight seasons as head coach at his prep alma mater, Mehlville High School in St. Louis. Taking over a program that previously had endured 11 straight losing seasons, Loos led his team to five winning campaigns, including a state tourney berth. He left the school as its winningest coach.

The Missouri native played both basketball and baseball during his college days at Memphis State, where he was inducted into its athletic Hall of Fame in September 2002. Loos was the starting point guard for the 1968-69 Tigers, leading the team in minutes played. He also was an all-conference shortstop for the Tigers baseball team.

Upon completing his eligibility, he remained at Memphis as an assistant in 1970. Following his graduation (1970), he officially began his coaching career as an assistant basketball and head baseball coach at CBC.

He and his wife, Phyllis, have four children, David, who broadcasts Govs and Lady Govs sports; Todd, who is in the music business; Brad, a former Gov who is assistant coach at Missouri, and Nicole Peterson, a former dance team member who now is the APSU alumni director and serves as Pom Squad advisor. The Loos's also have nine grandchildren.

They also have nine grandchildren: William Daniel, Olivia Joy and Katie Grace, children of David and Pam Loos; Brady Jonathan, Rhyan Bailey and Charli Ann, children of Brad and Jennifer Loos, and Paxton David and Hudson Grant, son of Jake and Nikki Peterson, and Townes Henry Valentine, son of Todd and Jamie Valentine.

BUBBA WELLS

Position: Assistant Coach • Experience: Ninth Season

Alma Mater: Austin Peay, 1987

The leading scorer in Govs basketball history is now in his 10th season as an assistant coach.

Charles "Bubba" Wells, the 1997 Ohio Valley Conference "Player of the Year" and two-time OVC "Male Athlete of the Year" who gained national attention for his miraculous return from a leg stress fracture, was hired in June 2005 as a full-time assistant. He returned to the university where he built a reputation as not only one of the program's greatest players in history but in the OVC as well.

Wells finished his career with 2,267 points—the first APSU player to reach 2,000 points—ranking him third all-time in the OVC. He was a three-time first-team All-OVC choice after being named the league's "Freshman of the Year" in 1993-94. Wells was the 1997 OVC "Player of the Year" and the 1996 and 1997 OVC "Male Athlete of the Year." He also was two-time Tennessee Sportswriters College Basketball "Player of the Year."

Wells jersey (13) was retired Jan. 22, 1998 and he was inducted into the APSU Athletics Hall of Fame, Feb. 8, 2003 after being two-time APSU Outstanding Male athlete (1995-96, 1996-97) and the 1997 Joy Award recipient as the most valuable senior athlete.

As a senior he was named third-team Preseason All-America by Athlon Magazine and all-district by both the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). He was named to the Basketball Times All-South team.

As a sophomore, Wells averaged 19.3 ppg and followed that up with a 26.3 ppg (third in nation) in 1995-96, earning the OVC Tourney MVP in leading the Govs to a crown and NCAA tourney appearance. Wells still owns several OVC tourney marks.

But it was his senior year that drew nationwide attention. He missed the season's first 12 games with a stress fracture in his left tibia, requiring surgery to place a tibial nail in the lower leg. He underwent similar surgery following the 1994-95 season, needing five months to rehabilitate.

However, this time the rehab process took less than five weeks and in his debut game, he scored 39 points in 28 minutes. As a result, the performance and the surgery were featured in "USA Today." He went on to become the nation's unofficial scoring leader (he did not have enough games played to qualify for the official title), averaging 31.7 ppg, scoring 30 or more points 11 times including three 40-point games. His 1996-97 scoring mark also broke the legendary James "Fly" Williams (29.5 ppg) mark for single-season scoring average.

He also caught the attention of "The Los Angeles Times" in a front-page story about "The Man of Steel" and segments on both CBS NCAA College Basketball "at the Half" and NBC's "Today" show—the "Real Rod Man". He was named InfoSport: Basketball's 1996-97 National Comeback Player of the Year. Prior to the season, he was featured in The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated and the Dick Vitale College Basketball Yearbook.

He was drafted by the Dallas Mavericks in the second round of the 1997 draft and played one season before being traded to the Phoenix Suns and then to the Chicago Bulls. A torn achilles tendon and other leg/groin injuries slowed his professional career, although he played in the Philippines and the Euro League in Greece for two seasons. He then played for the Harlem Globetrotters for two years.

COREY GIPSON

Position: Assistant Coach • Experience: Second Season

Alma Mater: Austin Peay, 2004

Corey Gipson, who helped lead Austin Peay to consecutive Ohio Valley Conference championships in 2002-03 and 2003-04, returned to his alma mater as assistant basketball coach in Summer 2012.

Back in Spring 2012, Gipson left UNC Greensboro for Furman after a head-coaching change was made at the North Carolina school. However, when APSU head coach Loos beckoned, the idea of returning to his alma mater and closer to home (Sikeston, Mo.) was just too appealing.

“What Corey said to me was when you leave skin somewhere that means something,” said Loos at the time of the hiring. “Those people who saw Corey play and compete know he definitely left some skin here. He played hard, he competed hard so he has a special feeling for this place. That goes a long way as far as what you are going to put into something.”

“The main attraction is there is no place like home,” Gipson said. “You never forget what home has done for you and the experiences you had at the place where you got your start. I often revert back to the experiences at Austin Peay and the success of the basketball program, making the NCAA run and the NIT run, going undefeated in the Ohio Valley Conference. I often revert to those feelings, those experiences, to get me through life.”

“I feel like I have an obligation to the program. Even though I have been other places and my heart has been in those programs while working there, my heart always has been with Austin Peay.”

Gipson quickly made an impact on the Governors program, his personality and drive—a characteristic from his basketball playing days—reflected in APSU’s 2013-14 recruiting class. It was representative of his rise in the men’s basketball coaching profession.

Gipson was named to the UNCG staff as an assistant coach on June 20, 2009 and a year later was elevated to associate head coach. A strong recruiter, Gipson earned his promotion to associate head coach mainly due to his exceptional recruiting skills. Along with being the program’s top recruiter, Gipson worked with the frontcourt players in 2011-12.

Gipson earned both his bachelor’s and master’s degrees from Austin Peay, earning the first in 2004 and completing his graduate work in 2005. He also earned an associate’s degree from Three Rivers Community College in Poplar Bluff, Mo., before transferring to Austin Peay.

Before arriving at UNCG, he spent four seasons on the staff at Division II Virginia State University in Petersburg, Va. He coordinated the Trojans’ recruiting efforts for head coach Tony Collins, APSU’s longtime assistant coach who had recruited Gipson out of junior college.

As a player at Austin Peay, Gipson was a two-year starter at point guard, helping the Gavs become the top defensive team in the Ohio Valley Conference in 2002-03 and 2003-04. The Gavs went 45-18 in his two seasons—Gipson never lost a home game in two seasons, the Gavs going 27-0 over that timeframe.

He averaged 7.7 points, 2.1 assists and 2.3 rebounds per game during his career. He also made 94 three pointers in his career, shooting 34.1 percent from three-point range.

In his first game with Austin Peay, he led the way with 19 points as the Gavs upset Memphis to begin a run that ended in an NCAA tournament appearance. They were a perfect 16-0 in the OVC during his senior season. The Gavs were upset in the OVC finals that year, but earned a spot in the NIT, downing Belmont in the opening round and nearly knocking off George Mason – just two years before the Patriots’ Final Four run.

A native of Sikeston, Mo., Gipson was a Missouri Mr. Basketball nominee as a senior at Richland High School, averaging 30.9 points per contest. He earned all-state honors that season.

KEVIN HOGAN

Position: Assistant Coach • Experience: First Season

Alma Mater: Rollins College, 2008

Austin Peay's newest assistant coach literally has basketball in his blood.

Kevin Hogan, who came to APSU after spending two seasons at William and Mary, grew up around basketball. His father, Don, was the longtime (1993-2009) head coach at West Florida and currently is the associate head coach on Cliff Ellis' staff at Coastal Carolina.

After an outstanding college basketball career at Rollins College in Winter Park, Fla., and then gaining his MBA in finance from Crummer Graduate School of Business at Rollins in 2009, Hogan eschewed the financial world—he could not shake the coaching allure.

As a result of his basketball acumen, Hogan was able to jump right into the Division I level as a volunteer. That first stop took him to Florida A&M for two seasons (2009-11) before he spent a season at the junior college level at Tallahassee Community College (2011-12), where he helped the Eagles to a 15-13 record.

Hogan returned to the Division I level in 2012, when he was hired as director of basketball operations. During his time at William and Mary, Hogan saw the Tribe enjoy one of the best turnarounds in program history in 2012-13 season—improving from six wins to 13—and roll up 20 victories in 2013-14. The Tribe advanced to the Colonial Athletic Association championship game in 2014 for only the third time in program history and finished the CAA regular season at 10-6. William and Mary set school records for points, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and fewest turnovers, while ranking among the top 31 nationally in three-pointers made, three-point percentage, fewest fouls per game, field-goal percentage, fewest turnovers per game and assist-to-turnover ratio.

A Pensacola, Fla., native, Hogan starred at Milton High School, before enrolling at Fork Union Military Academy in Fork Union, Va., where he played for legendary prep school coach Fletcher Arritt.

He then returned to Florida to play collegiately at Rollins. Over his career, Hogan appeared in 129 games with 58 starts, while helping the Tars to three 20-win seasons, an overall mark of 88-34 and two NCAA Division II South Region Tournament appearances. Rollins won Sunshine State Conference (SSC) regular-season titles in 2006 and 2007 to go along with a tournament crown in 2006.

An outstanding perimeter player, he graduated ranking second in three-pointers made (270) and third in third-point percentage (44.0). He became the 34th player in Tars' history to score 1,000 career points and finished with 1,295.

As a senior, he earned honorable mention All-SSC honors and capped his career, garnering SSC All-Tournament accolades. He was an All-Freshman Team choice as a rookie in 2006. Hogan led the SSC in three-pointers made as a junior with 84, while connecting on 46.7 percent from long range. Over his career, he averaged in double figures each of his last three years at Rollins, scoring 10.9 points per game as a sophomore, 12.8 as a junior and a career-best 13.7 in his final campaign in 2009.

Hogan and his wife Haley, have two children, Graham, age 4, and Brooks, age 1.

FRED GARMON

Student Assistant
First Season

After knee problems forced his career to come to an unexpected end, Fred Garmon elected to remain with the Governors basketball program as a student assistant.

In an injury-interrupted 2013-14 season, Garmon played in 23 of 30 games, including a trio of starts. He averaged 1.7 points, 1.2 rebounds and 1.2 assists per game.

On Feb. 19, he started and played 42 minutes against Morehead State, scored nine points, dishing out two assists and grabbing six rebounds. But his knee issues prevented him from playing two nights later against Eastern Kentucky.

Last spring, Garmon underwent his second right knee surgery for a lateral meniscus tear. He had left meniscus tear surgery prior to his arrival. But it was the continuous swelling and accompanying arthritis from the previous surgeries that convinced the former Mineral Area Junior College (Park Hills, Mo.) transfer to end his playing career.

At Mineral Area, despite a pair of knee surgeries, Garmon helped lead the club to the national junior college tournament and 26-8 mark in 2013-14, averaging 4.9 points and 4.0 assists as sophomore. He averaged 7.1 points and 4.3 assists as a freshman, earning all-league as well as academic all-conference honors.

Garmon was a two-time All-State selection and three-time all-district pick at Kennett High School where he averaged 14.1 points and 5.5 assists per game as a senior. He also was selected the 2010-11 Bootheel Conference Player of the Year.

Garmon is an interdisciplinary studies major with a health and physical education concentrations who is expected to graduate in Spring 2015.

JONI JOHNSON

Head Athletic Trainer
23rd Season

After Joni Johnson is in her 23rd year working in APSU's athletic training room and seventh as head athletic trainer.

She officially became head trainer in May 2007 after serving six months as interim trainer following the retirement of Chuck Kimmel. In doing so she became only the third fulltime athletic trainer in APSU history.

The Advance, Ind., native has been a part of the APSU training staff since 1991-92 when she served as graduate assistant. Johnson was elevated to a full-time position the following year. She is responsible for treatment, prevention and rehabilitation of APSU athletes in all sports. Johnson manages a team of four full-time staff athletic trainers, two intern athletic trainers and three graduate assistants. She also oversees the department's drug-education and testing programs.

Johnson specifically has worked with the men's basketball team in the winter months and tennis in the spring, but also worked directly in the past with softball and soccer while also assisting with football for 12 seasons. She also has served in no less than secondary contact in the remaining sports. She also oversaw athletics insurance claims for 10 years.

Johnson came to APSU in 1991 after attaining her undergraduate degree in sports studies with a specialty in management along athletic training and business minors from the University of Evansville. While at Evansville, she received the Catherine Wolffe Scholarship for the Health and Physical Education students. She received her Master's of Science in Health and Physical Education with a Public and Community Health Emphasis in May 1992.

She is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). For the past 14 years she has volunteered for the NATA Office at the NATA Annual Symposium, assisting with on-site meeting coordination. She served as drug testing site coordinator for the first and second rounds of the 2000 NCAA Division I men's basketball tournament in Nashville.

In 1995-96 she was awarded the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association (SEATA) Backbone of the Year Award, annually presented to the top assistant trainer of the year.

In addition, she received the Order of Nanook Award, presented to the outstanding trainer at the 2000 Top of the World Men's Basketball Classic in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Johnson formerly was a member of the health and human performance faculty, teaching public and community health for 11 years.

HAYDEN McCLAIN

Student Manager
Fourth Season

Hayden McCain is in his fourth season as Austin Peay basketball manager. The Trezevant native is a former West Carroll basketball standout whose love for basketball brought him to working for the Governors basketball program.

The hard-working and highly energetic senior has become a valuable asset to both the players and the coaching staff in his role as the program's head manager because of his loyalty and reliability, whether it is helping the coaches run drills on one end of the floor to making sure everyone's needs are attended to during road trips.

McClain's love of basketball was natural in that his grandfather once played for APSU before a knee injury sidetracked his promising career. McClain was a three-time all-district selection and all-region as a senior after averaging 15 points per game, including a career-best 29-point effort.

McClain is a history education major who is expected to graduate in the spring. His goal is to coach college basketball.

LANE MURPHY

Student Manager
First Season

Lane Murphy has followed both his father and his uncle to Austin Peay in his role as manager.

The freshman's father, Neil, was a former baseball pitcher for Gary McClure during the early 1990s. His uncle, Scott, was a member of the Governors basketball team that defeated Illinois during the NCAA tournament in 1987.

Like his father, Murphy played baseball at East Robertson High School, twice earning all-county honors. In basketball, he also twice earned all-district honors along with district and region all-tourney honors as a senior while playing for his father. Murphy also played golf at East Robertson.

MARSHALL WIX

Student Manager
First Season

Marshall Wix joined his former prep teammate Lane Murphy this year as basketball manager.

Wix was a two-time all-district and all-region selection at East Robertson, also earning district and region all-tourney honors as a senior center for Neil Murphy.

He also competed in golf and baseball, playing for his dad, Jeff, at East Robertson.

20 DOMAS BUDRYS G

Class: Freshman • Height: 6-4 • Weight: 185

Hometown: Kretinga, Lithuania

Previous School: Parkview Christian (Neb.) HS

Loos Thoughts

"He is a shooter—his calling card is his jump shot. That is a piece we wanted to add to our team. He is a terrific spot shooter who is learning to play off the dribble. He is a kid who impressed me in how he handles himself. ...Everybody I talked to about always bring up his work habits. He is really driven to continue to improve. His calling card is his jump shot. The thing I have to remember is that he grew up playing this game in a different culture. I have learned that I'll say things and he won't know what I'm talking about. It's going to take time, but as his understanding grows, he'll get better."

Career Recap: Parkview Christian (Neb.) HS

Ruled ineligible to play at Parkview Christian by Nebraska School Activities Association after transfer from Lithuania...did participate in the Omaha Metro All-Star game... also played for Team Nebraska Express AAU club... as junior at Kretingos Jurgio Pabrezos, he averaged 11 points, 6.0 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game, scoring a career-29 points along the way, after averaging 10 points per game as a sophomore....tried out for Lithuanian 16-under and 17-under national teams while also playing for the Knasius Basketball Academy for three seasons.

Personal

Undecided on college major...son of Saulius and Daiva Budrys...born Feb. 7, 1995...age 19...has younger brother Matas.

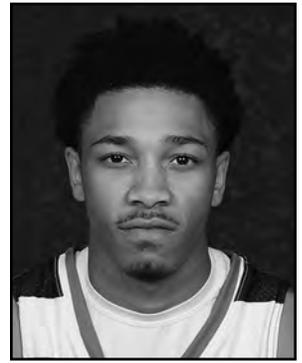

11

KHALIL DAVIS G

Class: Junior • Height: 6-5 • Weight: 175

Hometown: Kansas City, Missouri

Previous School: Grandview HS/Lawson State (Ala.) CC

Loos Thoughts

"People ask what Khalil does best and that is a difficult question because he does a number of things well. But if I had to zero in on one thing it is probably how he goes after the ball on the boards...He shoots the three well enough to keep you honest. He is a good mid-range guy and really tracks it down off the board. He is a good defender—he is not afraid to step in and take a charge. He is a leader...He can play a couple of different positions for us. He is face-up guy. He understands basketball—he has a good feel on how to play. But something else I noticed, when his juco team (Lawson State) went down the stretch in close games, he was the guy who stepped up and got it done. He just has a knack for that."

Career Recap: Lawson State (Ala.) CC

Played guard for Mike Smith at Lawson State College... averaged 17.7 points, going 193 of 416 (46.4 percent) from the floor, and 8.8 rebounds per game as a sophomore...also contributed 2.4 assists and 1.5 steals per game... scored 20 or more points on 10 occasions as a sophomore, including a 34-point effort against Jefferson Davis CC while also tallying 29 points versus Southern Union State...also tallied 13 double-digit rebounding efforts, including 16 against Southern Crescent Technical College... named Alabama Community College Conference Player of the Year and third-team Junior College All-American...also chosen as Region Player of the Year in addition to earning both all-region and all-conference honors...as freshman, he averaged 10.4 points per game, shooting 41.2 percent (33 of 80) from three-point ranges and 75 percent (45 of 60) from the free-throw line.

Career Recap: Grandview HS

Played guard for Randy Farris at Grandview, beginning his career as a 6-1 point guard...as senior averaged 13.9 points and 4.4 rebounds per game...also averaged 11.4 points per game as junior...earned all-conference as junior and senior and all-district as senior.

Personal

Undecided on major...son of Tyrone and Marquita & Tyrone Davis...has one older brother, Ronnie Boggs, and an older sister, Kiera Cline, and one younger one, Tyreese...father was an All-Big 8 forward at Kansas State and played overseas for 10 seasons...brother Ronnie, played basketball at Jacksonville State and currently is playing overseas...born June 24, 1994...age 20.

ASSANE DIOP F/C

Class: Sophomore • Height: 6-8 • Weight: 200

Hometown: Dakar, Senegal

Previous Schools: Nobeoka Gakuen (Japan) HS/Cloud County (Kan.) CC

Loos Thoughts

"Assane has a chance to be an outstanding player. He is very athletic and very aggressive. You can refer to him as a stretch-four. He is a guy who can shoot the ball from the three (-point) range and plays hard, he wants to be successful—he appears to be very competitive.... What stands out about him is his size and mobility coupled with his ability to shoot the ball from the perimeter. When you look at a guy his size, it is surprising when you see him shoot the ball from three. He is pretty skilled."

Career Recap: Cloud County (Kan.) CC

Played forward for Esbaugh at Cloud County Community College...as freshman played in 30 games this season, with 20 starts...averaged 7.8 points, shooting 41 percent from the floor, and 5.5 rebounds per game...scored in double figures 10 times, including a season-best 27 points and 17 rebounds against Highland Community College...also had 33 blocks.

Career Recap: Nobeoka Gakuen (Japan) HS

Played forward for Junishiro Hongo at Nobeoka Gakuen in Japan...averaged 26 points and 15 rebounds per game, including career-high 45-point effort... led team to three straight All- Japan High School championships, twice earning tournament MVP.

Personal

Business management major...full name is Elhadji Assane Diop...son of Mame Briam Diop and Aisatou Sarr...born Jan. 10, 1992...age 22.

Class: Freshman • Height: 5-11 • Weight: 175

Hometown: Louisville, Kentucky

Previous School: Trinity HS

Loos Thoughts

"Tre' is a solid point guard who is a pass-first, score-second guy. He is a winner who competes hard. You must guard him at the three line and he is athletic enough to get to the rim. Tre' has done a lot of winning at Trinity and has been coached very well. He has played in a great program. I think he has the toughness to get it done on the defensive end and will be a good leader."

Career Recap: Trinity HS

Played point guard for Mike Szabo at Trinity High School...helped lead Trinity to 30-5 record and Kentucky state semifinals as a senior...averaged 10.6 points, 5.7 assists and 3.0 rebounds per game in final prep season... as the Shamrocks advanced to the Kentucky state semifinals... two-time all-district selection along with all-region in 2014...also was honorable mention All-State...selected to 2014 Kentucky State All-Tournament team...was member of team that won Kentucky State title in 2012... previously, was a two-time member of Louisville Invitational all-tournament team as well as the King of the Bluegrass All-Tournament team...chosen to Junior Kentucky All-Star team in 2013...played AAU ball for Quinn Anvils, playing for Chris Morris.

Personal

Mass communication major...son of Willie Ivory and Latrice McCown...has two brothers, Zamereon McCown and Willie Ivory Jr...father, Willie, played forward for APSU from 1996-98...born Jan. 13, 1996...age 18.

CHRIS PORTER-BUNTON G/F

Class: Freshman • Height: 6-4 • Weight: 195

Hometown: Bowling Green, Kentucky

Previous Schools: Warren Central HS

Loos Thoughts

"Chris is a guy with just a terrific motor. He plays hard—is competitive. He is a face-up guy who can shoot the basketball and runs the floor well...He can score in a number of different ways. He can shoot the basketball from the perimeter but he is a guy who is going to get an offensive rebound. He bounces it and handles it pretty good; he can get to the rim. He is pretty well-rounded kid who has a number of ways to score...The thing that stood out about him is his competitiveness. He is an athletic-skilled kid who is a really good competitor—he is a young man who was being heavily recruited by a lot of people to play football."

Career Recap: Warren Central HS

Averaged 16 points, seven rebounds and four assists per game as senior for William Unseld at Warren Central High School... led team to 24-6, with Warren Central 103-30 during his prep career...named Sweet 16 MVP of the game...scored career-high 33 points on Senior Night against Allen County-Scottsville and had another game in which he scored 16 straight points... named Sporting Times Boys Player of the Year and Kentucky Association of Basketball Coaches (KABC) Region 4 Player of the Year... selected to Kentucky All-Star team that played Indiana All-Stars this summer...also chosen for Kentucky/Ohio All-Star game...played for the west team in the Kentucky KABC All-Star game...originally committed to play football at UT Martin before switching his focus to college basketball...also was standout track performer.

Personal

Exercise science major...son of Cheryl and Kenneth Bunton...has one older brother PJ...born May 4, 1995...age 19.

JOSH ROBINSON G

Class: Freshman • Height: 6-3 • Weight: 180

Hometown: St. Louis, Missouri

Previous School: St. Mary's HS

Loos Thoughts

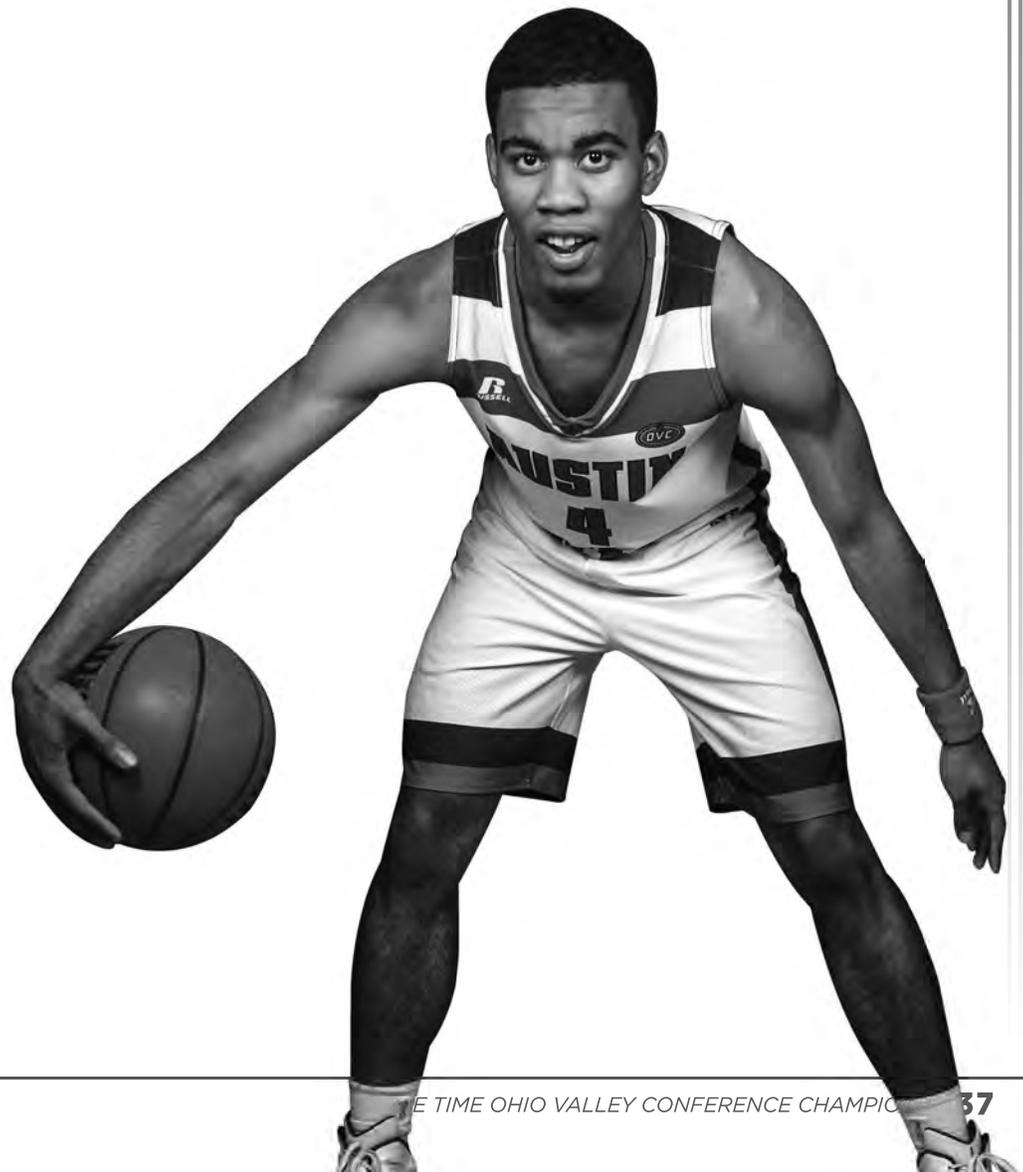

"Josh is a good handler. He has a knack of being able to shoot the ball in traffic...from spots and on off the dribble. He is especially good from midrange. He is a guy who can create and finish....One of the other things I really like about him is he is a worker. He has really good work habits. He's going to go through the adjustment period that all high school-to-college players go through. When he figures out exactly what we're doing and can play more instinctively and intuitively, he's going to be good in this league."

Career Recap: St. Mary's HS

Played guard for Ed Perniciaro at St. Mary's...as senior averaged. Robinson averaged 35.8 points a game to lead the St. Louis metro area in scoring, shooting 48 percent (279 of 584) from the field including 61 three pointers...shot 80 percent (205 of 255) from the free-throw line...also averaged 7.2 rebounds and 2.3 assists...eclipsed the 50-point mark on three different occasions...selected first-team Class 4A Missouri Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association All-State as well as Missouri Basketball Coaches Association All-State...also chosen St. Louis Post Dispatch All-Metro team along with St. Louis American Fab Five Boys First-Team All-Stars... selected Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year by the Archdiocesan Athletic Association Large Division...as junior averaged 25.4 ppg as a junior, shooting 49 percent from the floor (234 of 477) and 33 percent (49 of 150) from three-point range... got to the free throw line 185 times, connecting on 78 percent of those free tosses...also was team's second-leading rebounder (6.6 rpg) while also doling out 2.1 assists and collecting 1.0 steals per games...named Class 4A second-team Missouri All-State... chosen Archdiocesan Athletics Association (AAA), Large Division Offensive Player of the Year as well as being selected all-conference. ... left St. Mary's as all-time leading scorer with 1,959 points in three year...his 56 single-game points set the school mark...also was program's all-time free-throw leader.

Personal

Undecided on college major...son of D. J. Robinson and Florence Phillips...has one sister, Alexis...father played basketball at University of Oklahoma Science and Arts...born March 13, 1996...age 18.

RETIRED JERSEYS

At the end of his career, Tom Morgan held numerous Austin Peay basketball and baseball records, including most career points in basketball (1850), most career free throws (448), most career field goals attempted (1721), most career rebounds (1431), best career rebound average (13.3) and most rebounds in a season (561) in 1956-57. Twice he captained the basketball team and he was named All-Volunteer State Athletic Conference three times (1955-56, 1956-57 and 1957-58). He was also named the VSAC Regular Season Player of the Year during the 1957-58 season, when the Governors went 17-9. And in 1958, he was named to the NCAA All-Mideast Regional team. Served as captain of the baseball team in 1957 and won the Joy Award, which annually goes to Austin Peay's Most Valuable Senior Athlete, in 1958.

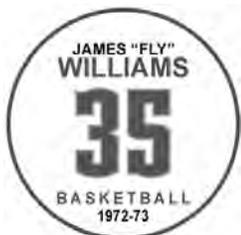

Howard Wright became the first Austin Peay basketball player to have his number retired. Wright was the first three-time All-OVC basketball star in Austin Peay history. He averaged 18.9, 24.2 and 26.5 points per game, finishing with 1,700 career points, during his three varsity seasons in the late 1960s. Lost in his scoring numbers was the fact he also averaged 7.0 rebounds per game—an impressive figure for a 6-3 performer. Wright was considered by many to be the first great black athlete in APSU annals. Although no player wore No. 30 after the end of the 1969-70 season, his jersey officially was not retired until 1992. He played part of two seasons with the Kentucky Colonels of the now defunct ABA.

Bubba Wells arguably was the most popular basketball player in OVC history. All he did in four seasons was become the program's all-time leading scorer (2,267 points), earn a trio of first-team All-OVC selections, capture the 1996-97 OVC Player of the Year honor, be voted two-time Tennessee Sportswriters College Basketball Player of the Year and twice be selected OVC Male Athlete of the Year. After averaging 19.3 points per game as a sophomore, Wells followed with a 26.3 points-per-game average—ranking third nationally—as a junior, being named OVC tourney MVP in leading the Gobs to the tourney title. But it was his senior season that gained him national attention. He was named third-team Preseason Athlon Magazine All-America, but a leg stress fracture—third of his career—led to his second tibial nail surgery. Wells missed the season's first 12 games before returning to score 39 points in 28 minutes against Southeast Missouri. He averaged 31.7 points per game in 19 contests in 1996-97. His surprising return gained him national publicity from USA Today, NBC Today Show and CBS. Wells was drafted by the Dallas Mavericks in 1997. He played one NBA season plus multiple overseas seasons.

Trenton Hassell elected to remain in his hometown for his college basketball career and it resulted in the 6-5 forward being selected All-OVC for his entire three-season Governors career. In his first season (1998-99), Hassell also was named OVC Newcomer of the Year after averaging 17.8 points and 9.3 rebounds per game. After averaging 18.1 points, 7.4 rebounds and 5.1 assists per game as a junior he earned NABC All-District honors and springboarded him to being named Playboy Preseason All-America for 2000-01. He responded by averaging 21.7 points, 7.8 rebounds and 4.5 assists per game—for the second straight year he was the only player in the country to rank in the Top 5 in his conference statistics for points, rebounds and assists. It helped him garner OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete honors. After earning his undergraduate degree, he was drafted by the Chicago Bulls in 2001 and played nine NBA seasons.

James "Fly" Williams was one of the most exciting players in the OVC basketball history. He averaged 29.5 and 27.5 points per game during the 1972-73 and 1973-74 seasons, when the Gobs won back-to-back OVC titles. Williams was named OVC Player of the Year in 1973-74 after being named to several All-American freshman teams the year before. A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., he held seven school scoring records, including twice scoring 51 single-game points, and four OVC mark upon the completion of his career. Austin Peay owned a combined record of 39-17 during his two years. Played two seasons with Spirits of St. Louis in ABA.

ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME MEMBERS

The Austin Peay Athletics Hall of Fame was created in 1977 to recognize those individuals who have achieved excellence in athletics at Austin Peay and others who have contributed to the advancement of athletics at the University through their support with their time or in resources. Thirty-three members of Austin Peay's basketball program have been among the 104 selections to the Hall of Fame entering the 2014 season.

■ RECORDS NOTES

This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current, with some exceptions. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. The following statistics are unofficial until the year noted at which time the NCAA recognized that category: assists (1983-84), blocked shots (1985-86) and steals (1985-86). In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

■ MOMENTS IN GOVERNORS HISTORY

During halftime of the 1987 NCAA Tournament between APSU and No. 3 seed Illinois, Dick Vitale vowed to stand on his head if the Illini lost its first-round game to the Govs. The Govs pulled it off, courtesy a pair of Tony Raye free throws with two seconds left. After the season, Vitale appeared at the basketball banquet to stand on his head.

■ MOMENTS IN GOVERNORS HISTORY

Forever it will be known as "The Block." In the 2003 OVC semifinal contest, APSU and Murray State battled into overtime and the Govs clung to a 57-56 lead with less than 10 seconds left. The Racers Cuthbert Victor got the ball along the right baseline and drove to the basket. Center Josh Lewis moved over and cleanly blocked Victor's attempt at a game-winning dunk. The Govs grabbed the rebound and the game in one of the signature wins in Dave Loos' coaching career. The next day the Govs won the tourney title against Tennessee Tech, 63-57.

SERIES HISTORIES

■ MOMENTS IN GOVERNORS HISTORY

With center John Fraley suffering a severe concussion in the season opener at Middle Tennessee, the Governors struggled out of the gate in the 2011-12 season. They ventured to Tennessee in early December with just one win. But with Fraley back in the lineup the Gobs stunned Tennessee, 74-70, APSU's first victory in the series.

THE OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

Now in its 67th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference. In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which begins competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gives the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time commissioner in league history on July 28. She is currently one of just five females to be the head of a Division I conference, and one of just eight to lead a Division I conference all-time. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud past dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles (Turkey) Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the OVC has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky, Morehead State and Murray State, along with Austin Peay, Eastern Illinois, Jacksonville State, Southeast Missouri, SIU Edwardsville, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech and the UT Martin.

In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants. The Conference quickly proved worthy of that bid, as Morehead State defeated Marshall (107-92) and Wayne State (95-84) in the 1956 tournament.

Fifteen years later, former OVC member Western Kentucky became the first and only Conference team to reach the Final Four. The Hilltoppers defeated Jacksonville, Kentucky and Ohio State before losing to Villanova in double overtime in the national semifinals. WKU went on to finish in third place after beating Kansas 77-75 in the consolation game.

Since that time, the OVC has recorded some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Tournament. Perhaps the most famous moment came in 1987, when Austin Peay came from fourth place in the regular season to win the OVC Tournament and earn the league's automatic bid. The Governors drew powerful Illinois, and were such big underdogs, that ESPN broadcaster Dick Vitale promised to stand on his head if APSU won the game. After a 68-67 victory over the Illini, and a narrow 90-87 overtime loss to eventual Final Four participant Providence in the second round, Vitale made good on his promise in a visit to Clarksville two months later.

Murray State added to the OVC's string of upsets in 1988 when it knocked off 14th-ranked North Carolina State, 78-75. The Racers' M&M Boys - Jeff Martin and Don Mann - combined for 39 points in the win. MSU nearly went on to the Sweet 16 that year, losing to eventual national champion Kansas, 61-58. A bank shot by Mann that would've given the Racers a one-point lead rolled off the rim with three seconds left. In 1990 as a No. 16 seed, Murray State took No. 1 seed Michigan State into overtime before falling 75-71; that game still marks the closest a No. 16 seed has come to knocking off a No. 1 in men's tournament action. More recently, Murray State has dominated the OVC Tournament, reaching the championship game every year in the 1990's. The Racers' 15 OVC Tournament Championships are the most among all OVC schools.

After former member Middle Tennessee State won a first round game in 1989, the league had a drought as no other OVC team won a NCAA Tournament game for the next 19 years. But Morehead State, coming off a thrilling double overtime OVC Tournament victory over Austin Peay, topped Alabama State 58-43 in the Opening Round game at University of Dayton Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The game was played in front of an Opening Round record crowd of 11,346; that crowd included many MSU fans who made the three-hour drive from Morehead for the game.

In 2009-10, Murray State made OVC history by winning a record 31 games (31-5) on its way to the league's regular season and tournament championships. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the No. 13 seed Racers topped Vanderbilt in thrilling fashion when senior Danero Thomas hit a jumper as time expired to lift MSU to a 66-65 victory. It marked the first OVC team to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament since 1989, and snapped a skid of 71-straight losses to Southeastern Conference foes (dating back to 2000-01). In the second round the Racers pushed eventual national runner-up Butler to the brink before losing 54-52.

In 2010-11 Morehead State would make it three NCAA Tournament wins in as many years for the league and got a bit of revenge for the 2009 tournament loss to Louisville in the process. After finishing second in the regular season and winning the OVC Tournament Championship, the No. 13 seeded Eagles were shipped to Denver to play the in-state foe Cardinals. MSU jumped out to a 15-2 advantage but were down four points (61-57) with just over a minute to play in regulation. After two free throws from two-time OVC Player of the Year Kenneth Faried, the Eagles held for one final shot attempt and senior Demonte Harper pulled up off a cross-over dribble to nail a 3-pointer with 4.3 seconds left that gave Morehead State a 62-61 lead. UofL had one last attempt but Faried blocked the Cardinals last shot, giving MSU the win, its first over Louisville since the 1956-57 season.

In 2011-12 Murray State put together one of the greatest seasons in OVC history, beginning the year 23-0 (an all-time OVC best) and being ranked as high as No. 7 in the coaches poll on Feb. 6. The squad was the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since Murray State was ranked in 1997-98; in addition the top 10 ranking was the first for an OVC team since the 1970-71 campaign (WKU). The Racers would top nationally-ranked Memphis and Saint Mary's during the season and win the league's regular season and tournament championships. MSU earned a No. 6 seed in NCAA Tournament, the highest-ever seed for an OVC team since the NCAA began seeding the field in 1979. The Racers would top Colorado State 58-41 in the second round before falling to Marquette in the third round. Murray State would win 31 games overall, tying the OVC all-time record the Racers set in 2009-10.

After the Murray State win in 2011-12, the league had won NCAA Tournament games in four-straight seasons, something that had never happened in league history (three-game winning streaks from 1960-62 and 1987-89 had been the previous best streaks). Over that time period (2009-12) the OVC was one of just nine conferences nationally to win a NCAA Tournament game in each season and one of only three non-BCS leagues (joining the Atlantic 10 and WCC) to do so.

During the 2010-11 year Faried, the nation's leading rebounder during the season, became the NCAA's Modern Era (since 1973) career rebounding leader, totaling 1,673 rebounds which passed Tim Duncan for the record (he is 11th all-time in NCAA history). Faried also finished his career with 86 double-doubles, second all-time to only Duncan. He is one of only six players in NCAA history to finish with 2,000-plus career points (2,009) and 1,600-plus career rebounds. Faried was drafted 22nd overall by the Denver Nuggets in the 2011 NBA Draft, becoming the first OVC player selected in the first round since Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers 1994.

Through its 66 years, 13 teams have won or shared the league's regular season men's basketball title. Murray State heads the list with a Conference-record 23 outright or shared basketball crowns. Other past champions include former member Western Kentucky (19), Morehead State (9), Austin Peay (8), Eastern Kentucky (6), Tennessee Tech (5), former member Middle Tennessee (5), Tennessee State (2), former member East Tennessee State (2), Belmont (2), Southeast Missouri State (1), UT Martin (1) and former member Akron (1).

OVC MEMBERS

THE OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

Among the coaching greats in men's basketball have been Western Kentucky's E.A. Diddle, who retired with 759 victories and 10 OVC titles; John Oldham, who was a member of the very first All-OVC squad and went on to win seven OVC crowns during his coaching tenure at Tennessee Tech and Western Kentucky; Paul McBryer, who guided Eastern Kentucky to 219 wins and three OVC crowns; and Cal Luther, who is the only person in Conference history to win men's basketball Coach of the Year honors at two league schools - Murray State and UT Martin. Current Austin Peay head coach Dave Loos became the winningest coach in OVC history in 2009-10, netting his 319th victory and passing Luther on the all-time list. Loos enters the 2014-15 season with 383 victories.

There have been an equal number of great players including Western Kentucky's Clem Haskins, who is the only three-time OVC Player of the Year. Several players have won OVC Player of the Year honors twice: Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniels (1969-70 and 1970-71), Murray State's Les Taylor (1971-72, 1972-73), Jeff Martin (1987-88, 1988-89), Popeye Jones (1989-90, 1990-91) and Marcus Brown (1994-95, 1995-96), Austin Peay's Otis Howard (1976-77, 1977-78), Middle Tennessee's Jerry Beck (1980-81, 1981-82), Akron's Joe Jakubick (1982-83, 1983-84), Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers (1992-93, 1993-94), UT Martin's Lester Hudson (2007-08, 2008-09), Morehead State's Kenneth Faried (2009-10, 2010-11) and Murray State's Isaiah Canaan (2011-12, 2012-13).

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft.

Murray State guard Isaiah Canaan, a first-team All-American in 2011-12, capped his illustrious career in 2012-13 by becoming just the 17th player in OVC history to score 2,000 or more career points (and the third player in the past three years to do so). Canaan, who was a key part of Murray State NCAA Tournament victories in both 2010 and 2012, earned a pair of OVC Player of the Year honors (2012 and 2013) during his career as well as being named OVC Freshman of the Year (2010), OVC Tournament MVP (2010) and OVC Male Athlete of the Year (2012).

■ OVC BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Ohio Valley Conference Men's and Women's Basketball Championships returns to Nashville for the 21st time, the four-day event returning to Nashville's Municipal Auditorium.

Municipal Auditorium opened in 1962 and seats over 9,500 fans. It's multi-purpose arena floor has been used for professional ice hockey, ice skating competitions and concerts. The combined men's and women's championship have been held at Municipal Auditorium nine previous times: 1994, 1995, 1996, 2004, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014). The men also held its championship at the venue in 1989. Prior to the tournament being at the end of the season, the 1967 men's tournament was also held at Municipal Auditorium in December of that year.

The 2014-15 season will end with the 52nd edition of the men's championship and 34th edition of the women's championship. The men's championship has been played continuously since 1949 and moved to a neutral court in 1994. The women's championship has been played continuously since 1982, moving to a neutral court 1994.
