ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

Intercollegiate athletics at Austin Peay State University aspires to provide educational and broad-based competitive opportunities at the NCAA Division I level for eligible male and female student athletes. Seeking to maintain a proper balance between athletic and academic programs, the University is committed to preparing students for productive, fulfilling and responsible lives. In addition to developing individual ability and successful programs, those athletic experiences will be instrumental in developing the concepts of teamwork, sportsmanship, loyalty, self-confidence plus the qualities of leadership and discipline. Intercollegiate athletics endeavors to provide positive impressions of University activities to a diversified group of audiences. Austin Peay strives to attract a diverse and talented group of participants, coaches and administrators with a strong commitment to excellence, openness, gender equity and integrity, reflecting a precise adherence to NCAA and conference rules and philosophies. As a result, Austin Peay athletics assumes a major role in assisting University development and fiscal responsibility. The departmental goals and objectives are based upon its mission as it builds on its traditions, confidently looking forward to an exciting and progressive future.

In today's college athletics world, it is hard to imagine one person handling an athletics department's two most demanding positions.

But Dave Loos has helped APSU thrive as both its head basketball coach and the Athletics Director. In fact, it is nearly unheard of in the world of NCAA athletics an athletics director also coaching, especially a sport as prominent as men's basketball.

What is remarkable is Loos, who is the dean of Ohio Valley Conference basketball coaches, also is the longest-serving athletics director at his university—he currently is in his 14th year.

His double duties aptly point out the respect Loos earned both on and off campus. He has applied the same common-sense approach to his athletics director's duties that have been representative of his APSU basketball tenure.

What is even more remarkable is that Loos, who is in his 23rd season as Gobs head coach, owns the mark for APSU's longest basketball coaching tenure—only 13 other Division I coaches have longer tenures at their respective schools—and is the program's all-time wins leader, surpassing Dave Aaron in 2006-07. To honor such achievement, then-outgoing president, Dr. Sherry Hoppe, at the behest of several longtime basketball supporters, named the basketball floor Dave Loos Court.

In addition, Loos was inducted into the Austin Peay Athletics Hall of Fame in Feb. 2008.

On Dec. 12, 2009, Loos became the league's all-time wins leader, passing Cal Luther (319) for most victories while coaching in the OVC. His achievement was honored with the establishment of the Dave Loos Scholarship, a graduate scholarship to be awarded to an aspiring coach.

Loos enters the season ranked 34th among active coaches for most victories.

Such success didn't happen by accident. Loos not only has elevated APSU's program to the pinnacle of OVC prominence, but has done it as well with the dignity and class so reflective of the reputation he built as an athlete and as a high school/college coach.

He is only the second APSU coach to lead the Gobs to an OVC regular-season and NCAA Division I tournament berth. His APSU teams have advanced at least to the OVC tourney semifinals in 13 of the last 17 years. That has sustained his reputation of elevating his club's play during February-March.

More impressively the Governors have been have sported nearly a 60 percent winning percentage during those 12 seasons, including six 20-win seasons and four OVC regular-season titles. In fact, the Gobs own a 144-66 OVC record (69 percent) in the new millennium, including six straight double-digit win seasons.

That underscores a Governors program that has possessed a .500 or better OVC record in each of the last 18 seasons.

That has resulted in Austin Peay winning the OVC tournament and gaining an NCAA tourney berth in 1996; APSU capturing a 1997 league co-championship—the first since 1977; shocking the league by winning both a regular-season co-championship and tourney title in 2003; posting an unprecedented 16-0 OVC campaign in 2004; winning the 2006-07 OVC regular-season title by a convincing three games and repeating it in 2007-08 while advancing to the NCAA tournament. Loos is the only APSU coach to earn multiple OVC Coach of the Year honors, in 1990-91, 1996-97, 2002-03, 2003-04 and 2006-07.

In addition, the Governors, who have been in three NCAA tournaments under Loos, have appeared in post-season tournaments in four of the last five years, including the College Basketball Invitational a year ago.

As a result, Loos has achieved one of his program's goals when he took over in 1990-91—the Governors reclaiming their spot among the OVC elite and annually competing for the title.

Loos became Austin Peay's 11th head men's basketball coach on July 14, 1990. The likeable veteran coach has proven to be a "perfect fit" for the APSU program.

In his initial season, not only did his Gobs produce a winning (15-14) season after a previous 10-19 campaign, they displayed an exciting style as well.

He became only the third Austin Peay coach to earn OVC Coach of the Year, the first to be recognized in his first Gobs' season.

He then began building his own program with young men who reflected their coach both on and off the court and represented the University with great class.

The Gobs struggled record-wise (11-17 and 7-20) the next two seasons as Loos was reinventing the soul of the program. The young 1993-94 team began 0-7 but finished strongly at 11-16. Picked to finish eighth in preseason polls, the Gobs battled for the title much of the season, finally settling for third.

Since then APSU has developed a rich tradition of excellence.

In 1994-95, the Gobs finished the regular-season at 12-15 but pulled two upsets in the OVC tournament before falling to Murray State when star forward Bubba Wells suffered a leg injury that later turned out to be a surgery-necessitating right leg stress fracture.

In 1995-96, the Governors again peaked late. In February, the Govs fashioned an 8-2 record, including six straight victories. APSU entered the NCAA tourney with a four-game win streak before losing to Georgia Tech.

A year later, the Governors finished 17-14 overall—with All-America forward Wells missing the season's first 12 games—but won six of their final eight games, including a four-game winning streak that helped clinch a regular-season OVC co-championship.

In 1997-98, the Govs, despite a rebuilding season, ended the season with a surprising 17-11 record and a fourth-place OVC finish.

In 1998-99, the young Govs finished in a third-place OVC tie, although the 11-16 mark ended the string of winning seasons at three.

A year later, the Govs ended 18-11. The 18 wins, at the time, represented the most regular-season wins by the Govs since 1976-77.

APSU topped that mark in 1999-00 with a 22-10 record—the Govs' first 20-win mark since 1986-87.

It was a 14-18 mark in 2001-02 as the Governors possessed only one senior. That returning group completely turned around those losing fortunes in 2002-03. In going 23-8, the Govs won 15 of their last 16 regular-season games to win a share of the OVC title, the OVC tourney championship and a trip to the NCAA tourney. The 23 wins represented the third most in school history.

But the 2003-04 season saw the Govs make a remarkable run through the OVC, becoming only the fourth team in league history to go unbeaten in conference play. The Govs were just one of three teams in the country to finish league play without a loss.

Despite losing four senior starters, the Govs were in the 2005 OVC regular-season race until the final weekend and stunned Samford and top-seed Tennessee Tech in the OVC tourney before narrowly losing to Eastern Kentucky in the title tilt. The Govs finished 9-7 in the OVC. APSU owned an 11-9 league mark in 2006 with a 17-14 overall mark with a young team.

In 2006-07, the Governors, despite having no seniors on the roster, overcame a slow start to finish at 21-12 overall, the third 20-win season during Loos's tenure. More importantly, the Govs ran away with the OVC crown, going 16-4.

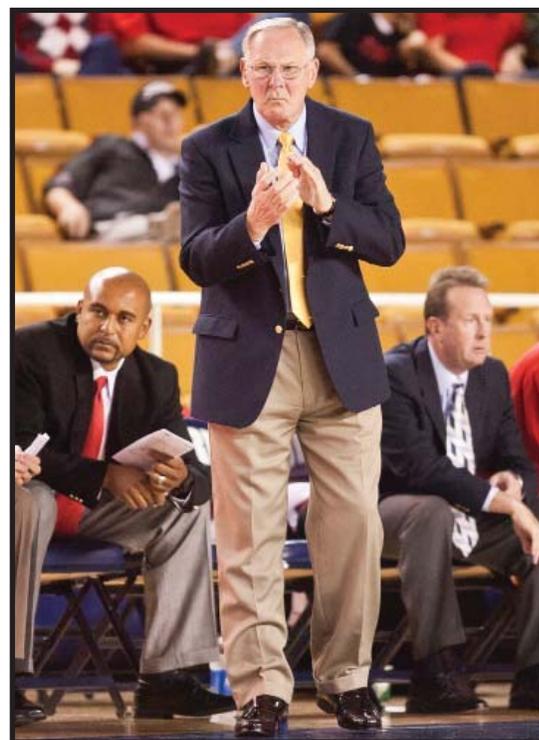

The 2007-08 season was even more remarkable. The odds-on choice to repeat as league champions, the Governors battle a much-improved league, yet finished with an identical 16-4 record and won the regular season by the same three-game margin. It was only the second time in OVC history that a team posted back-to-back 16-win seasons.

The Govs' 24-11 overall record also tied the APSU mark for single-season wins, both overall and as a Division I program.

Beginning in 2008, the Governors have gone 19-14 (2008-09), 17-15 (2009-10), 20-14 (2010-11) and 12-20 (2011-12). In addition to participating in the CBI two years ago, the Govs appears in the 2009 Collegelnsider.com post-season tourney. .

Loos has earned respect from peers for his coaching ability and the manner he directs the program, reflective in the fact he now is the only coach in OVC history to have as many as five "Coach of the Year" honors.

Loos came to APSU after four seasons as Memphis' top assistant. He joined Larry Finch in 1986 and helped direct his alma mater to an 85-43 record, including two NCAA tourney appearances and a Metro Conference tourney title during his tenure.

Prior to joining Memphis State, Loos enjoyed four successful head-coaching seasons at Christian Brothers College in Memphis. He took over that program in 1982-83, and after an initial 16-14 season, recorded three straight 20-win campaigns. In 1985, CBC captured its first Volunteer State Athletic Conference crown, the VSAC tourney title and second place in the National Catholic Tournament.

For his efforts, he earned VSAC, NAIA District 24 and NAIA Area V Coach of the Year honors. He also was named the National Catholic Tournament Outstanding Coach.

Loos' move to CBC came after spending eight seasons as head coach at his prep alma mater, Mehlville High School in St. Louis. Taking over a program that previously had endured 11 straight losing seasons, Loos led his team to five winning campaigns, including a state tourney berth. He left the school as its winningest coach.

The Missouri native played both basketball and baseball during his college days at Memphis State, where he was inducted into its athletic Hall of Fame in September 2002. Loos was the starting point guard for the 1968-69 Tigers, leading the team in minutes played. He also was an all-conference shortstop for the Tigers baseball team.

Upon completing his eligibility, he remained at Memphis as an assistant in 1970. Following his graduation (1970), he officially began his coaching career as an assistant basketball and head baseball coach at CBC.

He and his wife, Phyllis, have four children, David, who broadcasts Gobs and Lady Gobs sports; Todd, who is in the music business; Brad, a former Gov who is associate head basketball coach at Central Missouri, and Nicole Peterson, a former dance team member who now is the APSU alumni director and serves as Pom Squad advisor.

They also have seven grandchildren: William Daniel, Olivia Joy and Katie Grace, children of David and Pam Loos; Brady Jonathan and Rhyann Bailey, children of Brad and Jennifer Loos, and Paxton David, son of Jake and Nikki Peterson, and Townes Henry Valentine, son of Todd and Jamie Valentine.

- Staff member for Murray State team that advanced to NCAA Round of 32

The 2008-09 Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year rejoined Austin Peay's basketball staff as assistant coach in 2010.

This is the second tenure Bret Campbell has served as an Austin Peay assistant. He was an assistant to Dave Loos and later associate head coach from 1992-99 as the Governors elevated into the OVC elite during his presence.

Campbell then went to UT Martin as head coach, beginning in 1999, until his resignation in Summer 2009 after leading the Skyhawks to their first-ever OVC regular-season title. In 2009-10, Campbell served as Director of Basketball Operations at Murray State.

Campbell joined an APSU staff that includes two former Govs players, Bubba Wells and Scott Combs, that he helped recruit and coach during the mid-1990s before he earned his first head-coaching assignment at UT Martin.

Campbell led the Skyhawks to their first Ohio Valley Conference championship in 2009 and their first National Invitation Tournament (NIT) appearance. The team posted a 14-4 league record that season and a 22-10 overall worksheet, the best overall record in school history and the most wins for UT Martin since playing as an NCAA Division I team. After winning a school-record 11 straight games, the Skyhawks cracked the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 Poll for the first time Feb. 23, 2009.

That season also saw UT Martin own the 11th highest attendance increase in the country, that average raising more than 1000 fans per game that the previous season.

Campbell led the Skyhawks to five consecutive OVC postseason tournaments; he recruited the Freshman of the Year or OVC Newcomer of the Year four times and recruited two-time OVC Player of the Year Lester Hudson.

Campbell went to UT Martin in March 1999, after serving nearly eight years at Austin Peay, including the 1995-96 season that saw the Governors captured the OVC tourney championship and appear in the NCAA tournament as well as the 1996-97 season where APSU captured a portion of the OVC regular-season title. He served as head coach for 292 games at UT Martin.

Prior to coming to Austin

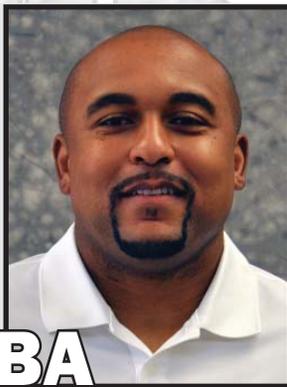

Peay initially, Campbell served three seasons as a Central Florida assistant coach (1989-92). He served five seasons as recruiting coordinator under Joe Dean Jr., first at Birmingham Southern (1988-89) and then at Central Florida. Birmingham Southern won the 1990 NAIA title with players Campbell aided in recruiting.

A native of Anderson, Ind., he was captain of the 1979 Anderson High School state title runner-up team. He played college basketball at Valdosta State where he was a three-year starter at guard and served as team co-captain. He left Valdosta State as the program's all-time assists leader. After receiving his undergraduate degree in 1983, Campbell remained at the school as a graduate assistant for two years (1983-85).

He moved first to Kennesaw College from 1985-87 to initiate the school's intercollegiate basketball program before his next stop at Birmingham Southern.

Campbell has three children: daughter Caitlin, age 19, and sons Cannon, age 16, and Carter, age 14.

The leading scorer in Austin Peay men's basketball history is now in his seventh season working with Governors players.

Charles "Bubba" Wells, the 1997 Ohio Valley Conference "Player of the Year" and two-time OVC "Male Athlete of the Year" who gained national attention for his miraculous return from a leg stress fracture, was hired in June 2005 as a full-time assistant.

Wells, who battled assorted leg problems throughout his college and pro careers, chose to take a different route with his basketball future—coaching. And he wanted to do it at the school where he built a reputation as not only one of the program's greatest players in history but as well in a conference where he was billed as one of the best during its 60-year existence.

Considered by many the most popular player in OVC history, Wells finished his career with 2,267 points—the first APSU player to reach 2,000 points—ranking him third all-time in the OVC. He was a three-time first-team All-OVC choice after being named the league's "Freshman of the Year" in 1993-94. Wells was the 1997 OVC "Player of the Year" and the 1996 and 1997 OVC "Male Athlete of the Year." He also was two-time Tennessee Sportswriters College Basketball "Player of the Year."

Wells jersey (13) was retired Jan. 22, 1998 and he was inducted into the APSU Athletics Hall of Fame, Feb. 8, 2003 after being two-time APSU Outstanding Male athlete (1995-96, 1996-97) and the 1997 Joy Award recipient as the most valuable senior athlete.

As a senior he was named third-team Preseason All-America by Athlon Magazine and all-district by both the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). He was named to the Basketball Times All-South team. He also captured his second straight Tennessee Sportswriters College Basketball "Player of the Year" award.

As a sophomore, Wells averaged 19.3 ppg and followed that up with a 26.3 ppg (third in nation) in 1995-96, earning the OVC Tourney MVP in leading the Gobs to a crown and NCAA tourney appearance. Wells still owns several OVC tourney marks.

But it was his senior year that drew nationwide attention. He missed the season's first 12 games with a stress fracture in his left tibia, requiring surgery to place a tibial nail in the lower leg. He underwent similar surgery following the 1994-95 season, needing five months to rehabilitate.

However, this time the rehab process took less than five weeks and in his debut game, he scored 39 points in 28 minutes. As a result, the performance and the surgery were featured in "USA Today." He went on to become the nation's unofficial scoring leader (he did not have enough games played to qualify for the official title), averaging 31.7 ppg, scoring 30 or more points 11 times including three 40-point games. His 1996-97 scoring mark also broke the legendary James "Fly" Williams (29.5 ppg) mark for single-season scoring average. He was called the "best offensive player" among draft-eligible seniors by NBA draft guru Marty Blake.

His performance also caught the attention of "The Los Angeles Times" in a front-page story about "The Man of Steel" and segments on both CBS NCAA College Basketball "at the Half" and a seven-minute feature—the "Real Rod Man"—on NBC's "Today" show. He was named InfoSport: Basketball's 1996-97 National Comeback Player of the Year. Prior to the season, he was featured in The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated and the Dick Vitale College Basketball Yearbook.

For his career, Wells averaged 21.6 ppg, 7.1 rebounds while shooting 52 percent from the floor.

He was drafted by the Dallas Mavericks in the second round of the 1997 draft and played one season before being traded to the Phoenix Suns and then to the Chicago Bulls. A torn achilles tendon and other leg/groin injuries slowed his professional career, although he played in the Philippines and the Euro League in Greece for two seasons. He then played for the Harlem Globetrotters for two years.

Now Wells is using his playing experience, and his effervescent personality and ability to communicate with young people at the coaching level.

On the floor, Wells works with the post players—he was one of the nation's best post-up players during his APSU career. He also is involved with opponent scouting.

Off the floor, he was named APSU's "Outstanding Young Alumnus" in 2006.

In his free time, he likes to spend time with his family, playing golf, fishing and watching movies.

In August 2007, he married the former Tracee Jones, former head women's basketball coach at Tennessee State. The previous summer Wells served as a supporter to Jones on NBC's hit TV show, "Deal or No Deal."

Wells has one daughter, Alyiah, age 13, and one son, Chase Richard, age 2.

Corey Gipson, who helped lead Austin Peay to consecutive Ohio Valley Conference championships in 2002-03 and 2003-04, has returned to his alma mater as assistant basketball coach.

Gipson joined the APSU coaching staff in June following the resignation of Scott Combs. Gipson, who has quickly elevated his coaching profile in a short time since leaving APSU, spent the previous two seasons as associate head coach at North Carolina Greensboro.

Back last spring, Gipson left UNC Greensboro for Furman after a head-coaching change was made at the North Carolina school. However, when APSU head coach Loos beckoned, the idea of returning to his alma mater and closer to home (Sikeston, Mo.) was just too appealing.

"What Corey said to me was when you leave skin somewhere that means something," said Loos at the time of the hiring. "Those people who saw Corey play and compete know he definitely left some skin here. He played hard, he competed hard so he has a special feeling for this place. That goes a long way as far as what you are going to put into something."

"The main attraction is there is no place like home," Gipson said. "You never forget what home has done for you and the experiences you had at the place where you got your start. I often revert back to the experiences at Austin Peay and the success of the basketball program, making the NCAA run and the NIT run, going undefeated in the Ohio Valley Conference. I often revert to those feelings, those experiences, to get me through life."

"I feel like I have an obligation to the program. Even though I have been other places and my heart has been in those programs while working there, my heart always has been with Austin Peay."

Gipson was named to the UNCG staff as an assistant coach on June 20, 2009 and a year later was elevated to associate head coach. A strong recruiter, Gipson earned his promotion to associate head coach mainly due to his exceptional recruiting skills. Along with being the program's top recruiter, Gipson worked with the frontcourt players in 2011-12.

Gipson earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Austin Peay, earning the first in 2004 and completing his graduate work in 2005. He also earned an associate's degree from Three Rivers Community College in Poplar Bluff, Mo., before transferring to Austin Peay.

Before arriving at UNCG, he spent four seasons on the staff at Division II Virginia State University in Petersburg, Va. He coordinated the Trojans' recruiting efforts for head coach Tony Collins, APSU's longtime assistant coach who had recruited Gipson out of junior college.

As a player at Austin Peay, Gipson was a two-year starter at point guard, helping the Gobs become the top defensive team in the Ohio Valley Conference in 2002-03 and 2003-04. The Gobs went 45-18 in his two seasons—Gipson never lost a home game in two seasons, the Gobs going 27-0 over that timeframe.

He averaged 7.7 points, 2.1 assists and 2.3 rebounds per game during his career. He also made 94 three pointers in his career, shooting 34.1 percent from three-point range.

In his first game with Austin Peay, he led the way with 19 points as the Gobs upset Memphis to begin a run that ended in an NCAA tournament appearance. They were a perfect 16-0 in the OVC during his senior season. The Gobs were upset in the OVC finals that year, but earned a spot in the NIT, downing Belmont in the opening round and nearly knocking off George Mason – just two years before the Patriots' Final Four run.

A native of Sikeston, Mo., Gipson was a Missouri Mr. Basketball nominee as a senior at Richland High School, averaging 30.9 points per contest. He earned all-state honors that season.

LEAGUE LEADERS

JANET WILSON-VAN DYKE

Graduate Assistant
First Season
Austin Peay, 2012

Janet Wilson-Van Dyke joined the men's basketball staff late in the summer as director of basketball operations.

She will aid with the basketball player development both on and off the basketball court. She not only will assist with administering the Governors academics but will also direct the program's community involvement and marketing as well.

Wilson-Van Dyke graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in business administration in August and is seeking a future role in sports administration.

Wilson-Van Dyke was a track and cross country star at Bay Shore (N.Y.) High School. She was two-time team most valuable track performer and was cross country MVP once as well. She captured the county 800-meter championship in 1992 and then finished sixth in the state meet. She also was a member of the sixth-place 4x400-meter relay team.

Wilson-Van Dyke also participated in statewide Empire State games in New York.

Her track exploits earned her a full scholarship at Virginia Commonwealth but stress fractures in both shins ended her track career.

After leaving college, Wilson-Van worked on Wall Street for 11 years before coming to Clarksville in Fall 2009. She returned to school in Winter 2010, being a member of the Dean's List her last four semesters.

She was a member of the Alpha Beta Psi Honor Society, serving as treasurer in 2011-12.

CAREER REVIEW

Will seek to re-gain All-OVC form after missing most of the last two seasons with a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee...underwent second knee surgery last December after re-tearing reconstructed ligament during fall...suffered injury during workout but attempted to play through it...however, also suffered lateral and medial meniscus tears last December in game against Arkansas State, necessitating surgery for second straight winter...underwent rehab process during offseason...was cleared for full basketball activities prior to practice starting...when healthy has ability to play both small forward as well as power forward because of rebounding abilities...outstanding perimeter shooter who also has ability to put ball on floor and create...possesses solid all-round skills...competitive, resilient performer...owns strong proficiency on both ends of court...strong fundamentally...willing defender...enters season needing just 76 points to reach career 1,000 point mark.

As a redshirt junior in 2011-12: Opened season as starter against Middle Tennessee and California before settling into reserve role after preseason knee injury obviously left him hobbled...enjoyed season best performance against Bowling Green in CBE...although he failed to score next night against George Washington tied for Govs lead in rebounding with six...tallied seven points and four rebounds at Lipscomb, starting string of three straight games of seven-point scoring...knocked down two-of-three three pointers versus Arkansas State before suffering knee injury late in first half...underwent surgery in late December.

As a junior redshirt in 2010-11: Preseason All-OVC...cored in double figures in 7 of 10 games played, averaging 13.9 ppg...led Govs in scoring twice in injury-shortened season...got off to slow start at St. Louis, scoring just three points...shooting woes continued, although he scored 15 points at Chattanooga and 20 at Lipscomb...began finding shooting range at Southern Illinois, connecting 4-7 FG, including 3-7 3FG, to finish with 15 points...suffered through a frustrating night at Purdue before bouncing back with 24 points on 8-12 FG against Charleston Southern...tallied 13 points in OT loss to Oakland before putting together solid back-to-back OVC opening efforts against Southeast Missouri (19 points, 7-12 FG) and Eastern Illinois (17 points, 5-5 FTs)...struggled through one of his career's worst shooting performances (1-10) against Lipscomb before suffering torn ACL in non-contact drill, Dec. 8...underwent surgery, Dec. 28, and was granted redshirt during spring.

As a sophomore in 2009-10: Finished fourth in OVC scoring as sophomore...his 15.5 ppg also was second on team behind Wesley Channels...in first season as starter ranked second in OVC in minutes played (34.6 mpg)...his 48.6 percent shooting was 11th in OVC while his 80.6 free-throw percentage was seventh best...his 5.3 rebounds per game were second best on team and ninth in OVC...as a result, earned second-team All-OVC...moved into starting lineup in 2009-10 after serving as Govs top bench performer in freshman season...tallied double figures in 29 of 31 games started...scored then career-high 17 in opener at Tennessee, going 7-of-12 FG; knocking down 3-of-5 3FG...scored 13 of his 14 points in second half at Akron, also pulling down seven boards in Govs come-from-behind win to open Glenn Wilkes Classic...tallied 14 points, including two three pointers, against North Carolina State...scored 19 points on 7-of-13 FGs against Niagara, hitting three key late-game buckets in Govs' comeback...also dished out career-high four assists in contest...as a result of his outstanding efforts—scoring double digits in all four games—was named to Glenn Wilkes Classic All-tourney team...set career-high for third time in season with 23 points versus Drake, including 5-of-12 3FGs...played 41 minutes, scoring 19 points and pulling five rebounds in overtime win against SEMO...held to just two points at Kentucky, snapping streak of 11 straight double-figure scoring games to open season...rebounded with 17 points against Evansville, including 8-of-10 free throws...collected 15 points on 7-of-12 FGs at Missouri while also grabbing seven rebounds...connected on five three-point field goals en route to a career-high 24 points at Morehead State...also had career-highs with two blocks and three steals...converted career-high nine field goals at Eastern Kentucky to notch his second-straight 20-point-plus scoring game...posted 16 points against UT Martin, although failed to connect on three-point field goal for first time since Kentucky game in mid-December...scored 12 points in home loss to Murray State...after game was moved from small to power forward spot...in first start inside against Tennessee State, recorded career's first double-double (17 points, 13 rebounds, also a career high)...finished with 19 points and six rebounds at Tennessee Tech, for his eighth straight double-figure scoring game...suffered ankle sprain in Friday practice prior to Jacksonville State game, forcing him to miss contest...returned from ankle injury to score 19 points at home against Eastern Kentucky on 6-of-9 FGs and season-best 6-of-6 FTs...notched

Athletic second-year forward who will challenge for more playing time in sophomore season... has exceptional ability to make plays at rim...aggressive performer...strong finisher on offensive end...still learning consistency level needed to play at Division I level...Texas transplant who will continue to evolve perimeter game...has range out to three-point line...terrific free-throw shooter...hampered by hand and knee injuries in Toronto...however, finished three-game series with eight points and seven rebounds in final game versus ABC All-Stars.

As a freshman in 2011-12: Played in 27 of 32 APSU games as freshman, including one start...played 19 minutes in opener against Middle Tennessee, scoring two points...tallied four points in four minutes against Cal before gaining first career start against Oral Roberts, playing season-high 20 min...scored four points in contest...made it four straight games with four points against George Washington, connecting on five-of-six free throws...in homes loss to MTSU grabbed season-high six rebounds vs. MTSU...started string of six games in which he played double-digit minutes...tallied then season-high six points vs. Memphis...saw limited action for month from late December to late January...played 12 minutes at EIU, finishing with five points, including key tip in right before halftime...also snared five rebounds...came off bench to score six points on three-of-five field goals while grabbing five rebounds in road loss at Belmont...continued to show late-season promise, scoring eight points versus Youngstown State, including four-for-four free-throw effort...broke into double figures for first time by scoring 10 points, on four-of-four field goal shooting, against UT Martin...also had five rebounds...for season shot impressive 56.4 percent from floor and 82.6 percent from free-throw line.

In high school: As senior, played for former Kentucky star and longtime college basketball assistant Reggie Warford at Muhlenberg High School, leading team to 24-6 record and district championship... averaged 21.0 points per game, shooting 61 percent from the floor... also averaged 12.0 rebounds per game...tallied 25 double-doubles in 30 games...ranked in Kentucky's Top 15 in both shooting percentage and rebounding...chosen Region 3 Player of the Year...gained honorable mention All-State...selected to play in the Kentucky-Ohio All-Star game, capturing the Slam Dunk contest...being a transfer was not listed in Rick Bolus High Potential Recruiting for Kentucky...however, in February was listed as state's No. 7 recruit.

Personal: Mass communications, broadcast media major...son of Thelma and Chris Freeman Sr...father played college basketball at Union University...played for uncle Reggie Warford, the former Kentucky star, at Muhlenberg High School...cousin Derrick Warford played guard for Tennessee Titans in 2006 and another cousin, Bob Lanier, was a former Detroit Pistons and Milwaukee Bucks star who is a member of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame...born Sept. 20, 1992...age 20.

THOMAS GREER

6-5 • 180 • Redshirt Sophomore • Guard
Atwood, Tenn. • West Carroll HS

CAREER REVIEW

Third-year performer expected to battle for minutes in crowded backcourt... experience and maturity should lead to more significant minutes in second on-court season... versatile court who offers size to backcourt... even though viewed as off-guard prospect, offers not only ability to shoot, but passing and ball-handling skills as well... has added nearly 20 pounds to frame since first arriving on campus... despite lithe frame, fearless in attacking basket... aggressive on defensive end.

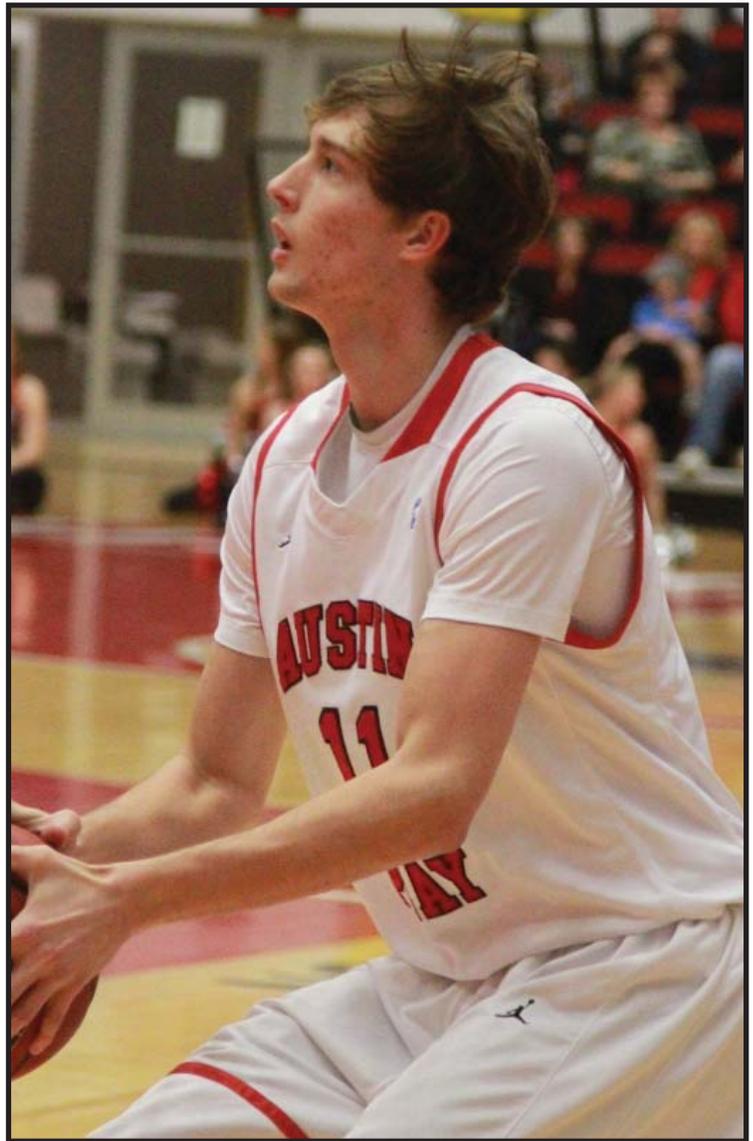

In 2011-12 as redshirt freshman: Appeared in 22 games, playing 132 total minutes... saw first career action against Cal... in most significant career action, scored five points and grabbed two rebounds in 14 minutes versus Detroit... provided some defensive and offensive energy in loss to Middle Tennessee... knocked down his first career three pointers against MTSU... also had three steals in just five minutes... tallied first career assist at Memphis to go with field goal and two rebounds... played point guard for first time vs. Eastern Kentucky... appeared in eight minutes at TSU... saw 10 minutes of playing time against Tennessee Tech... played season-high 15 minutes in road victory at UT Martin... struggled finding range in season's latter stages.

In 2010-11 as freshman redshirt: Utilized season to not only become acquainted to college game but add bulk to lithe frame as well... improved overall skills by providing daily competition as scout-team member.

In high school: Played for his father, Mike Greer, at West Carroll High School, helping lead team to district title and Class A No. 3 ranking in 2009-10... as senior was named McDonalds All-America nominee and Class A Mr. Basketball candidate... earned first-team All-State... finished season averaging 27.4 ppg, 9.0 rpg, 3.3 apg and 2.0 steals... shot 49 percent from floor and 70.4 percent from free-throw line... named District 13A

MVP... selected to play in Tennessee Athletics Coaches Association (TACA) All-Star game... also chosen to play Golden Circle All-Star contest... finished career as school's all-time leading scorer... ended career with more than 2500 points and 900 rebounds... as junior averaged 24 points and 9.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists per game for West Carroll High School... helped lead West Carroll to a 16-8 record in 2008-09 and District 13-A championship... chosen first-team Class A All-State and was the 2008-09 District 13-A Most Valuable Player.

Personal: Biology major... son of Mike and Debbie Greer... father played college basketball at Union University... sister, Addy, was a walk-on basketball player at UT Martin in 2009-10... born Nov. 15, 1991... age 20... turns 21 two days after Gobs play at Western Kentucky.

HERDIE LAWRENCE

6-1 • 170 • Sophomore • Guard
Lawrenceville, Ga. • Collins Hill HS

CAREER REVIEW

Second-season backcourt prospect expected to provide depth at both guard positions...after finishing 2011-12 season as starting point guard again expected to challenge for that spot...with Jerome Clyburn down with knee injury, expected to share position with freshman AJ Lynch in season's first month...possesses explosive speed and quickness...still learning to harness volatile game...active guard who can be effective on both ends of floor...thrives in up-tempo game, in particular in delivering basketball...aggressive performer with quick hands on defensive end...terrific athlete can get to rim...owns quick release with jump shot...still seeking to develop more consistent perimeter game...has ability to use dribble to create shot...scored 12 points in Toronto tour opener, but struggled with turnovers during Canada stay.

As a freshman in 2011-12: Played in all 32 games as freshman, including eight starts...finished season starting four of final five games, including OVC tournament contest...displayed flashes of potential...averaged 3.7 points per game, including trio of double-digit performances...played only one minutes in season opener against Middle Tennessee, but then scored in double figures (10 points) in second game against Cal...only Gov to make a three pointer (2) in game...played 10 minutes against Oral Roberts, knocking down a three pointer...credited with three assists in just four minutes vs. Detroit...dished out three assists and collected three steals in 19 minutes in second MTSU contest before fouling out...connected on first three pointer since Oral Roberts game at Memphis...made first career start versus Arkansas State...scored two points and dished out two assists while providing dogged defense in Govs' first victory...started fourth straight game versus Belmont...in home loss against Murray State played 14 minutes, scoring five points on two-of-three shooting...his hustle and defense helped spark APSU comeback...again played role of defensive stopper against Eastern Kentucky, finishing with 8 points...played quality minutes in home win against Jacksonville State, finishing with eight points...played 18 minutes against TSU, scoring five points off bench... connected on three-of-five field goals, including three-for-three from three-point range, for nine points against Tennessee Tech...registered second career double-digit performance with 12 points in then career-best 27 minutes at Murray State...also had three assists...made season's fifth start and first OVC start against Morehead State, playing 33 minutes while dishing out four assists...began stretch of four games that saw him average 4.5 assists per game...dished out four assists against Youngstown State...coming off bench, produced season-best effort at UT Martin...scored season-high 19 points on seven-of-nine field goals, including four-of-five three-point field goals...also dished out career-best five assists...rejoined starting lineup versus SEMO, making it back-to-back games with five assists...named OVC co-Freshman of Week for his efforts against UT Martin and SEMO.

and Tabatha Lawrence...father played football at Clark Atlanta...born Oct. 2, 1992...age 20.

In high school:

Played guard for Josh Grayson at Collins Hill High School... as a prep senior averaged 15.7 points and 4.8 assists per game to go with 2.7 rebounds and 2.4 steals...McDonald's All-American nominee...as junior averaged 14 points and 5.0 rebounds per game...led Collins to region championship in 2009-10...earned all-region tourney as both sophomore and junior...basketball profile rose during AAU in Summer 2010 while playing for Atlanta Elite...also played football at Collins Hill as starting wide receiver.

Personal: Health and human performance major...son of Herdie

Edwardsville, Ill. • Edwardsville HS

CAREER REVIEW

Will move into starting lineup up front after mostly serving as reserve during first two APSU seasons...competitive, conscientious individual...aggressive, relentless rebounder...possesses strong fundamentals defensively and offensively...dedicated and disciplined individual...expected to assume more of leadership role in 2012-13...followed former prep teammate Anthony Campbell to campus...size and body type are reminiscent of former Gov Drake Reed...effective inside performer who has ability to finish...gaining more confidence in perimeter game...displayed improved free-throw shooting during Canadian trip...dependable passer...was Govs top performer in Toronto...averaged 18.7 ppg and 11.3 rpg...scored 18 points, going 6-of-8 from field, and grabbed 12 rebounds versus Seneca College...had 25 points on 9-of-14 shooting while grabbing 16 rebounds against A-Game All-Stars...wrapped up tour with 13 points and six rebounds against ABC All-Stars...shot 21 of 34 (62 percent) from floor during three games.

As a sophomore in 2011-12: Tallied five double-figure scoring games, including one double-double in second Govs' season...opened season as reserve, scoring seven points and grabbing six rebounds against Middle Tennessee, but quickly moved into starting lineup after John Fraley suffered concussion in season opener...started next nine games, averaging 9.4 ppg and 6.7 rpg...made first start against Cal and then scored in double figures for first time with 11 points at Oral Roberts while grabbing five offensive rebounds in contest...recorded career's second double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds vs. Bowling Green while also dishing out career-high four assists...made it three times in four games in double digits with season-best 14 points vs. Detroit...scored nine points at Lipscomb while grabbing eight rebounds...also was Govs leading rebounder at Memphis with eight...narrowly missed double-double against Arkansas State with 12 points and 9 rebounds...returned to reserve role against Tennessee when Fraley returned to lineup...suffered groin injury in game, forcing him to miss Rochester contest...returned to play against Belmont, finishing with eight points and six rebounds...had back-to-back three-for-three outings against Morehead State and Murray State...in return home to Edwardsville, had efficient night against SIUE, scoring 8 points in 13 minutes on four-of-five field goals...scored double figures for first time since Arkansas State game with 11 versus SEMO, tying career best with seven free throws made...set career block mark with three against UT Martin while also scoring five points and snaring four rebounds...was perfect three-for-three field goals versus Tennessee Tech...grabbed four rebounds, including three on offensive glass, to help Govs' second-half rally against Youngstown State...scored seven points off bench in 14 minutes vs. UT Martin...finished season averaging 6.2 ppg, shooting 47.5 percent from floor but only 54.8 percent from free-throw line.

As a freshman in 2010-11: After slow start, exploded down stretch for Govs, including starting final nine games...averaged 10.6 points and 7.6 rebounds per game over final 14 games...finished freshman season with seven double-figure scoring games...grabbed seven or more rebounds on 12 occasions, including 11 of them over final 14 contests...led Govs in rebounding eight times, including five straight late-season games...finished third on team in blocked shots with 19...played combined total of 15 minutes over first four games...took advantage of increased minutes (17) to tally eight points (all in second half) and four rebounds versus Purdue...also fouled out for first time...played 18 minutes off bench against Charleston Southern, scoring five points and grabbing four rebounds...scored six points and snatched four offensive rebounds off bench against Oakland in 18 minutes...also had two steals...tallied first double-figure scoring game with 13 points on 5-8 FG against Fontbonne...tallied two points and five rebounds against ECU...after playing only one minute against Morehead State, grabbed career-high nine rebounds against Brescia, while totalling 6 points on 3-7 FGs...also had two blocks and a steal...scored five points off bench at Murray State, making 2-2 field goals...also made 2-2 FGs at UT Martin to go along with career-high three blocks in 15 minutes...provided then career-best 20 minutes at Tennessee State, scoring three points while grabbing five rebounds, one short of the team high...started to become more adept at rim in home loss to Tennessee Tech...scored eight points

DUNN CENTER/ DAVE AARON ARENA

When you say Austin Peay and the Dunn Center, opposing Ohio Valley Conference basketball players cringe...and rightfully so.

The Dunn Center has been one of the top mid-major playing venues in the south for several years and has continued to evolve into the most intimidating basketball facility in the Ohio Valley Conference.

In the last 15 seasons, the Governors have captured 80 percent of their home encounters, including back-to-back undefeated seasons in 2002-03 and 2003-04. In total, APSU has enjoyed 11 double-digit home winning seasons in that span.

During the last 10 seasons, the Gobs have won 85 percent of their home OVC encounters, including three undefeated campaigns.

The Winfield Dunn Center became home of the Governors and Lady Gobs indoor athletics in 1975 after ground was broken for the $5.3 million, 9,000-seat structure in February 1973.

The 132,000 square-foot complex, officially named the Winfield Dunn Health and Physical Education Building and Convocation Complex in honor of Governor Dunn, is a dominating edifice with 78 feet separating the top of the building from its maplewood playing surface. The Dunn Center replaced the Memorial Gymnasium, affectionately called "The Little Red Barn," which served as the Governors homecourt from 1952 until the Dec. 1, 1975 tip-off.

On Jan. 16, 1988, the basketball arena was named Dave Aaron Arena in honor of the school's former athletics director, football coach and then all-time winningest basketball coach.

Several improvements and modifications have taken place in recent years, including the addition of new scoreboards. Also, the floor lighting has been replaced to allow fans to better see Lady Gobs and Governors events and also accommodate photography needs. An elevator was installed in the late 1990s to better accommodate the handicapped.

But in Fall 2004, some major upgrades occurred, with new cushioned telescopic seating on the lower level east and west north end-zone areas. In addition, two new state-of-the-art indoor Light Emitting Diode (LED) large display screens were hung in the southeast and northwest corners. It is a fully integrated sports solution that includes a control system to operate and integrate the displays of video replays plus a package of many custom animations, including sponsored game elements and crowd interaction plus much more.

In Summer 2007, it was announced more renovations and upgrades would take place, with new telescopic cushioned seating being added to the second level.

In addition, former President Sherry Hoppe announced the playing surface would be named "Dave Loos Court." The floor itself will have even newer look to it beginning in the 2012-13 season as the complete floor has been replaced with one the finest maple hardwood surfaces in the Mid-South.

The Dunn Center is home of Governors basketball and Lady Gobs volleyball and basketball. It also serves as a multipurpose practice facility for track, baseball and softball indoor workouts.

APSU's athletic offices are located in the Dunn Center with the exception of tennis and baseball. The men and women's tennis office are located in the Governors Tennis Center, behind the right field fence at Lady Gobs softball field.

In Winter 2004, the Governors baseball offices were moved to the former home of the student newspaper, The All-State, to be closer to Raymond C. Hand Park.

The Dunn Center also houses the University's training facility as well as the sports information offices along with marketing/promotions office.

It also is home to the new David P. Roe Academic Services Center, constructed in 2006 and located on the second level's south end. The north end continues to house the Governors Club, Austin Peay's booster club. In fact, the Governors Club also uses the third level for many of its booster-club activities, including pre-game and halftime hospitality during the basketball season.

Austin Peay athletics also work out in the newly renovated weight room, conveniently located in the Dunn Center's lower level south end. They also have access to dressing rooms, also subject to major renovations in Summer/Fall 2004.

Entering the facility's front lobby, visitors are impressed by the Hall of Fame area, honoring APSU's greatest former athletes, administrators and supporters.

Stepping just inside the Dunn Center one can look to both ends of the arena to observe APSU's retired jerseys.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following miniums: Scoring Average – 20 games played, Field Goal Percentage – 75 FGM, Three-Point Field Goal Percentage – 40 3FGM, Free Throw Percentage – 50 FTM.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. Three-point field goals were added in 1986-87. In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following miniums: Averages – 20 games played.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current, with some exceptions. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. The following statistics are unofficial until the year noted at which time the NCAA recognized that category: assists (1983-84), blocked shots (1985-86) and steals (1985-86). In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following minimums: Scoring Average – 40 games played, Field Goal Percentage – 200 FGM, Three-Point Field Goal Percentage – 80 3FGM, Free Throw Percentage – 100 FTM.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. Three-point field goals were added in 1986-87. In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following miniums: Averages – 40 games played

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. The following statistics are unofficial until the year noted at which time the NCAA recognized that category: assists (1983-84), blocked shots (1985-86) and steals (1985-86). In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

CENTURY GAMES

With the return of the shot clock and the three-point shot in the past two decades, 100-point games have been on the upswing in college basketball.

For Austin Peay, in fact, the cycle took a definite swing with four 100-point games in 1986-87, the Govs winning three of them; five in 1987-88, APSU winning just one, and six in 1988-89, the Govs winning five.

With a change of coaches, also involved a style change during 1990-91. Dave Loos' team played in six 100-point games. The Govs scored the most single-game points in Dunn Center history with a 122-96 win against Milligan. APSU and Morehead State set a Dunn Center mark for combined points scored (237) in the Govs' 124-113 double-overtime loss. Morehead also set an arena mark for most points scored by the opposition.

In 1991-92, the Govs participated in five 100-point games. The two wins came back to back, a 102-100 decision against Morehead State and 103-97 verdict against SEC foe Mississippi State. In total, Loos' Govs have played in 29 games in which at least one team scored 100 points, including the 2007-08 season's 104-82 loss at Memphis and the Governors 121-116 triple overtime defeat at Southeast Missouri.

Over the years, the Govs have been involved in 124 games where at least one team scored 100 points, with 13 of those both clubs scoring 100 or more. Austin Peay has won 58 of the century games. Of the 13 which both teams scored 100 or more, the Govs are 5-8. The Dunn Center/Dave Aaron Arena has held 33 100-point contests, with APSU holding a 29-4 edge.

Only one century-mark game occurred while Austin Peay was a junior college, and Freed-Hardeman won that one, 104-30, during the 1934-35 season. An opponent of the 100-point mark was David Aaron (1946-62), who purposely passed up scoring opportunities to avoid his team hitting the century figure and causing opposition possible embarrassment. The long-time successful coach was forced into the situation during the 1958-59 season when Harry Gallatin made his college coaching debut for Southern Illinois. The Govs won the game 106-100 in Memorial Gymnasium ("Little Red Barn").
