ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

Intercollegiate athletics at Austin Peay State University aspires to provide educational and broad-based competitive opportunities at the NCAA Division I level for eligible male and female student athletes. Seeking to maintain a proper balance between athletic and academic programs, the University is committed to preparing students for productive, fulfilling and responsible lives. In addition to developing individual ability and successful programs, those athletic experiences will be instrumental in developing the concepts of teamwork, sportsmanship, loyalty, self-confidence plus the qualities of leadership and discipline. Intercollegiate athletics endeavors to provide positive impressions of University activities to a diversified group of audiences. Austin Peay strives to attract a diverse and talented group of participants, coaches and administrators with a strong commitment to excellence, openness, gender equity and integrity, reflecting a precise adherence to NCAA and conference rules and philosophies. As a result, Austin Peay athletics assumes a major role in assisting University development and fiscal responsibility. The departmental goals and objectives are based upon its mission as it builds on its traditions, confidently looking forward to an exciting and progressive future.

In today's college athletics world, it is hard to imagine one person handling an athletics department's two most demanding positions.

But Dave Loos has helped APSU thrive as both its head basketball coach and the Athletics Director. In fact, it is nearly unheard of in the world of NCAA athletics an athletics director also coaching, especially a sport as prominent as men's basketball.

What is remarkable is Loos, who is the dean of Ohio Valley Conference basketball coaches, also is the longest-serving athletics director at his university—he currently is in his 13th year.

His double duties aptly point out the respect Loos earned both on and off campus. He has applied the same common-sense approach to his athletics director's duties that have been representative of his APSU basketball tenure.

What is even more remarkable is that Loos, who is in his 20th season as Gobs head coach, owns the mark for APSU's longest basketball coaching tenure—only 13 other Division I coaches have longer tenures at their respective schools—and is the program's all-time wins leader, surpassing Dave Aaron in 2006-07. To honor such achievement, then-outgoing president, Dr. Sherry Hoppe, at the behest of several longtime basketball supporters, named the basketball floor Dave Loos Court.

In addition, Loos was inducted into the Austin Peay Athletics Hall of Fame in Feb. 2008.

On Dec. 12, 2009, Loos became the league's all-time wins leader, passing Cal Luther (319) for most victories while coaching in the OVC. His achievement was honored with the establishment of the Dave Loos Scholarship, a graduate scholarship to be awarded to an aspiring coach.

Loos enters the season ranked 35th among active coaches for most victories.

Such success didn't happen by accident. Loos not only has elevated APSU's program to the pinnacle of OVC prominence, but has done it as well with the dignity and class so reflective of the reputation he built as an athlete and as a high school/college coach.

He is only the second APSU coach to lead the Gobs to an OVC regular-season and NCAA Division I tournament berth. His APSU teams have advanced at least to the OVC tourney semifinals in 12 of the last 15 years. That has sustained his reputation of elevating his club's play during February-March.

More impressively the Governors have been the OVC's top program since the turn of the century. APSU has sported a 60 percent winning percentage during those 10 seasons, including five 20-win seasons and four OVC regular-season titles. In fact, the Gobs own a 123-53 OVC record (70 percent) in the new millennium, including five straight double-digit win seasons.

That underscores a Governors program that has possessed a .500 or better OVC record in each of the last 16 seasons. In fact, Loos is tied for the most combined regular-season and league tourney victories among the nation's coaches during the past seven seasons.

That has resulted in Austin Peay winning the OVC tournament and gaining an NCAA tourney berth in 1996; APSU capturing a 1997 league co-championship—the first since 1977; shocking the league by winning both a regular-season co-championship and tourney title in 2003; posting an unprecedented 16-0 OVC campaign in 2004; winning the 2006-07 OVC regular-season title by a convincing three games and repeating it in 2007-08 while advancing to the NCAA tournament. Loos is the only APSU coach to earn multiple OVC Coach of the Year honors, in 1990-91, 1996-97, 2002-03, 2003-04 and 2006-07.

As a result, Loos achieved one of his program's goals—the Governors reclaiming their spot among the OVC elite and annually competing for the title.

Loos became Austin Peay's 11th head men's basketball coach on July 14, 1990. The likeable veteran coach has proven to be a "perfect fit" for the APSU program.

In his initial season, not only did his Gobs produce a winning (15-14) season after a previous 10-19 campaign, they displayed an exciting style as well.

He became only the third Austin Peay coach to earn OVC Coach of the Year, the first to be recognized in his first Gobs' season.

He then began building his own program with young men who reflected their coach both on and off the court and represented the University with great class.

The Gobs struggled record-wise (11-17 and 7-20) the next two seasons as Loos was reinventing the soul of the program. The young 1993-94 team began 0-7 but finished strongly at 11-16. Picked to finish eighth in preseason polls, the Gobs battled for the title much of the season, finally settling for third.

Since then APSU has developed a rich tradition of excellence.

In 1994-95, the Gobs finished the regular-season at 12-15 but pulled two upsets in the OVC tournament before falling to Murray State when star forward Bubba Wells suffered a leg injury that later turned out to be a surgery-necessitating right leg stress fracture.

In 1995-96, the Governors again peaked late. In February, the Govs fashioned an 8-2 record, including six straight victories. APSU entered the NCAA tourney with a four-game win streak before losing to Georgia Tech.

A year later, the Governors finished 17-14 overall—with All-America forward Wells missing the season's first 12 games—but won six of their final eight games, including a four-game winning streak that helped clinch a regular-season OVC co-championship.

In 1997-98, the Govs, despite a rebuilding season, ended the season with a surprising 17-11 record and a fourth-place OVC finish.

In 1998-99, the young Govs finished in a third-place OVC tie, although the 11-16 mark ended the string of winning seasons at three.

A year later, the Govs ended 18-11. The 18 wins, at the time, represented the most regular-season wins by the Govs since 1976-77.

APSU topped that mark in 1999-00 with a 22-10 record—the Govs' first 20-win mark since 1986-87.

It was a 14-18 mark in 2001-02 as the Governors possessed only one senior. That returning group completely turned around those losing fortunes in 2002-03. In going 23-8, the Govs won 15 of their last 16 regular-season games to win a share of the OVC title, the OVC tourney championship and a trip to the NCAA tourney. The 23 wins represented the third most in school history.

But the 2003-04 season saw the Govs make a remarkable run through the OVC, becoming only the fourth team in league history to go unbeaten in conference play. The Govs were just one of three teams in the country to finish league play without a loss.

Despite losing four senior starters, the Govs were in the 2005 OVC regular-season race until the final weekend and stunned Samford and top-seed Tennessee Tech in the OVC tourney before narrowly losing to Eastern Kentucky in the title tilt. The Govs finished 9-7 in the OVC. APSU owned an 11-9 league mark in 2006 with a 17-14 overall mark with a young team.

In 2006-07, the Governors, despite having no seniors on the roster, overcame a slow start to finish at 21-12 overall, the third 20-win season during Loos's tenure. More importantly, the Govs ran away with the OVC crown, going 16-4.

The 2007-08 season was even more remarkable. The odds-on choice to repeat as league champions, the Governors battle a much-improved league, yet finished with an identical 16-4 record and won the regular season by the same three-game margin. It was only the second time in OVC history that a team posted back-to-back 16-win seasons.

The Govs' 24-11 overall record also tied the APSU mark for single-season wins, both overall and as a Division I program.

Loos has earned respect from peers for his coaching ability and the manner he directs the program, reflective in the fact he now is the only coach in OVC history to have as many as five "Coach of the Year" honors.

Loos came to APSU after four seasons as Memphis' top assistant. He joined Larry Finch in 1986 and helped direct his alma mater to an 85-43 record, including two NCAA tourney appearances and a Metro Conference tourney title during his tenure.

Prior to joining Memphis State, Loos enjoyed four successful head-coaching seasons at Christian Brothers College in Memphis. He took over that program in 1982-83, and after an initial 16-14 season, recorded three straight 20-win campaigns. In 1985, CBC captured its first Volunteer State Athletic Conference crown, the VSAC tourney title and second place in the National Catholic Tournament.

For his efforts, he earned VSAC, NAIA District 24 and NAIA Area V Coach of the Year honors. He also was named the National Catholic Tournament Outstanding Coach.

Loos' move to CBC came after spending eight seasons as head coach at his prep alma mater, Mehlville High School in St. Louis. Taking over a program that previously had endured 11 straight losing seasons, Loos led his team to five winning campaigns, including a state tourney berth. He left the school as its winningest coach.

The Missouri native played both basketball and baseball during his college days at Memphis State, where he was inducted into its athletic Hall of Fame in September 2002. Loos was the starting point guard for the 1968-69 Tigers, leading the team in minutes played. He also was an all-conference shortstop for the Tigers baseball team.

Upon completing his eligibility, he remained at Memphis as an assistant in 1970. Following his graduation (1970), he officially began his coaching career as an assistant basketball and head baseball coach at CBC.

Brad and Jennifer Loos, and Paxton David, son of Jake and Nikki Peterson.

He and his wife, Phyllis, have four children, David, who broadcasts Gobs and Lady Gobs sports; Todd, who is in the music business; Brad, a former Gov who is associate head basketball coach at Central Missouri, and Nicole Peterson, a former dance team member who now is the APSU alumni director and serves as Pom Squad advisor.

They also have six grandchildren: William Daniel, Olivia Joy and Katie Grace, children of David and Pam Loos; Brady Jonathan and Rhyan Bailey, children of

The 2008-09 Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year has rejoined Austin Peay's basketball staff as assistant coach.

This is the second time Bret Campbell has served as an Austin Peay assistant. He was an assistant to Dave Loos and later associate head coach from 1992-99 as the Governors elevated into the OVC elite during his presence.

Campbell then went to UT Martin as head coach, beginning in 1999, until his resignation in Summer 2009 after leading the Skyhawks to their first-ever OVC regular-season title. In 2009-10, Campbell served as Director of Basketball Operations at Murray State.

Campbell joined an APSU staff that includes two former Gobs players, Bubba Wells and Scott Combs, that he helped recruit and coach during the mid-1990s before he earned his first head-coaching assignment at UT Martin.

Campbell led the Skyhawks to their first Ohio Valley Conference championship in 2009 and their first National Invitation Tournament (NIT) appearance. The team posted a 14-4 league record that season and a 22-10 overall worksheet, the best overall record in school history and the most wins for UT Martin since playing as an NCAA Division I team. After winning a school-record 11 straight games, the Skyhawks cracked the CollegelInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 Poll for the first time Feb. 23, 2009.

That season also saw UT Martin own the 11th highest attendance increase in the country, that average raising more than 1000 fans per game that the previous season.

Campbell led the Skyhawks to five consecutive OVC postseason tournaments; he recruited the Freshman of the Year or OVC Newcomer of the Year four times and recruited two-time OVC Player of the Year Lester Hudson.

Campbell went to UT Martin in March 1999, after serving nearly eight years at Austin Peay, including the 1995-96 season that saw the Governors captured the OVC tourney championships and appear in the NCAA tournament as well as the 1996-97 season where APSU captured a portion of the OVC regular-season title. He served as head coach for 292 games at UT Martin.

Prior to coming to Austin Peay initially, Campbell served three seasons as a Central Florida assistant coach (1989-92). He served five seasons as recruiting coordinator under Joe Dean Jr., first at Birmingham Southern (1988-89) and then at Central Florida. Birmingham Southern won the 1990 NAIA title with players Campbell aided in recruiting.

A native of Anderson, Ind., he was captain of the 1979 Anderson High School state title runner-up team. He played college basketball at Valdosta State where he was a three-year starter at guard and served as team co-captain. He left Valdosta State as the program's all-time assists leader. After receiving his undergraduate degree in 1983, Campbell remained at the school as a graduate assistant for two years (1983-85).

He moved first to Kennesaw College from 1985-87 to initiate the school's intercollegiate basketball program before his next stop at Birmingham Southern.

Campbell and his wife, Marcia, have three children: daughter Caitlin, age 16, and sons Cannon, age 13, and Carter, age 11.

Scott Combs is in his 15th season with the Austin Peay basketball program, his 12th as assistant coach.

Combs serves as the program's recruiting coordinator and helps in the daily operations of the program, working in all coaching aspects, in particular with player development, monitoring academic progress and scouting opponents. He also serves as the director of the Dave Loos Basketball Camps.

He came to APSU in 1996-97 as a player. Since then, he has been a fixture in the program, working his way up the coaching ladder. Following his playing days, Combs assumed the role as administrative assistant while in graduate school (he and former high school and Gobs teammate Joe Sibbitt were the first recipients of the Leon Bibb Hall of Fame Scholarship) in 1999-00. A year later, he was elevated to assistant coach and has played an integral part in the Gobs successes since, which has seen the Gobs record 20 or more wins in four of the last six years and back-to-back OVC championships on two occasions, including the 2006-07 and 2007-08. The 2002-03 and 2007-08 teams advanced to the NCAA tournament while the 2003-04 club won a game in the NIT. Also during his coaching tenure, APSU captured the 2000 Top of the World Classic championship.

A Lebanon, Ind., native (home of Rick Mount), he starred at Paoli High School, scoring a school record 1958 points, ranking him 31st all-time in the state. He was voted runner-up Indiana Mr. Basketball in 1994 and was selected to play on the prestigious Indiana All-Star team. His prep career followed an AAU one that saw him voted All-American six times. The Indianian is one of the select few who has played and coached in both the NCAA and NIT tournaments.

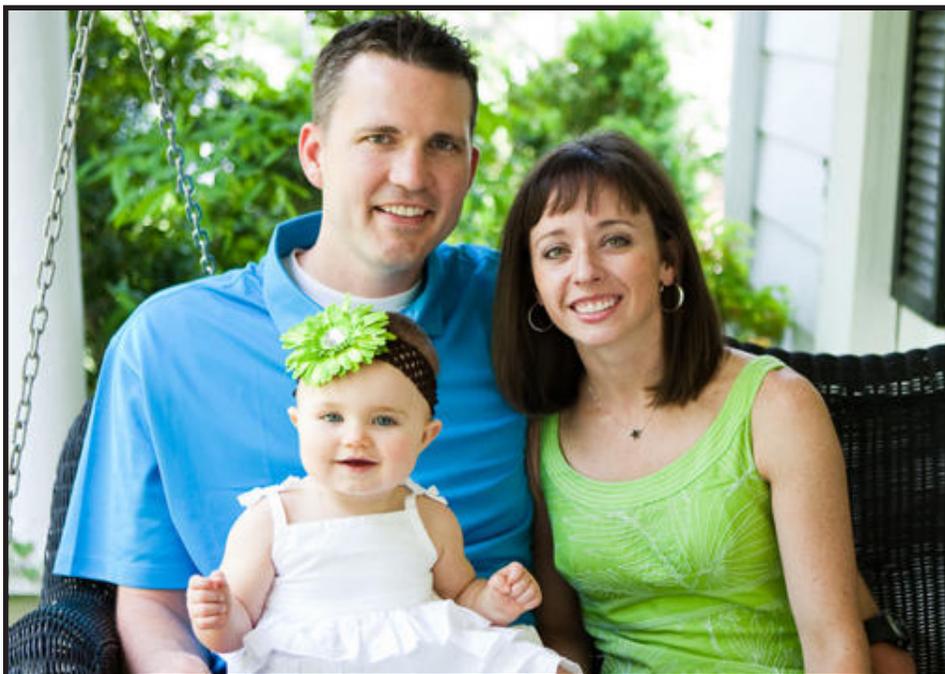

A versatile front-liner who was known for his selfless play and other intangibles he brought to the floor, Combs played his final two seasons (1997-99) at APSU after transferring from Missouri, where he played his freshman (1994-95) and sophomore (1995-96) seasons. At Mizzou, Combs tallied a season high 12 points at Kansas and earned player of the game versus Colorado with 11 points and 6 rebounds. In addition, he was a member of a Missouri squad that played in the 1995 NCAA tournament (after beating Indiana University the Tigers lost to eventual national champion UCLA on a last-second shot) and the 1996 NIT.

Combs sat out 1996-97 at APSU as a transfer redshirt. After playing on the perimeter his junior season, Combs was a starting post player as a senior playing alongside Trenton Hassell. He averaged 8.8 points, shooting a team-best 54.8 percent from the floor, and 5.3 rebounds per game. His rebound totals ranked 14th in the OVC. Off the floor, Combs posted a 4.0 GPA and earned CoSIDA District IV Academic All-District as a senior. He also served as president of the Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC). Combs graduated in 1998 with bachelor's degrees in mathematics and education. He began his graduate work while completing his final season of eligibility, earning his master's in Sports Administration.

Combs is married to the former Casey Jenkins, who is Internet Manager at Jenkins and Wynne-Ford-Lincoln-Mercury-Honda. They have a daughter, Chandler Kate, 1.

Scott and Casey enjoy competing in Ironman triathlons and Scott enjoys playing the piano, playing cards, and golfing in his free time.

The leading scorer in Austin Peay men's basketball history is now in his sixth season working with Governors players.

Charles "Bubba" Wells, the 1997 Ohio Valley Conference "Player of the Year" and two-time OVC "Male Athlete of the Year" who gained national attention for his miraculous return from a leg stress fracture, was hired in June 2005 as a full-time assistant.

Wells, who battled assorted leg problems throughout his college and pro careers, chose to take a different route with his basketball future—coaching. And he wanted to do it at the school where he built a reputation as not only one of the program's greatest players in history but as well in a conference where he was billed as one of the best during its 60-year existence.

Considered by many the most popular player in OVC history, Wells finished his career with 2,267 points—the first APSU player to reach 2,000 points—ranking him third all-time in the OVC. He was a three-time first-team All-OVC choice after being named the league's "Freshman of the Year" in 1993-94. Wells was the 1997 OVC "Player of the Year" and the 1996 and 1997 OVC "Male Athlete of the Year." He also was two-time Tennessee Sportswriters College Basketball "Player of the Year."

Wells jersey (13) was retired Jan. 22, 1998 and he was inducted into the APSU athletics Hall of Fame, Feb. 8, 2003 after being two-time APSU Outstanding Male athlete (1995-96, 1996-97) and the 1997 Joy Award recipient as the most valuable senior athlete.

As a senior he was named third-team Preseason All-America by Athlon Magazine and all-district by both the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). He was named to the Basketball Times All-South team. He also captured his second straight Tennessee Sportswriters College Basketball "Player of the Year" award.

As a sophomore, Wells averaged 19.3 ppg and followed that up with a 26.3 ppg (third in nation) in 1995-96, earning the OVC Tourney MVP in leading the Gobs to a championship and NCAA tourney appearance. Wells still owns several OVC tournament records.

But it was his senior year that drew nationwide attention. He missed the season's first 12 games with a stress fracture in his left tibia, requiring surgery to place a tibial nail in the lower leg. He underwent similar surgery following the 1994-95 season, needing five months to rehabilitate.

However, this time the rehab process took less than five weeks and in his debut game, he scored 39 points in 28 minutes. As a result, the performance and the surgery were featured in "USA Today." He went on to become the nation's unofficial scoring leader (he did not have enough games played to qualify for the official title), averaging 31.7 ppg, scoring 30 or more points 11 times including three 40-point games. His 1996-97 scoring mark also broke the legendary James "Fly" Williams (29.5 ppg) mark for single-season scoring average. He was called the "best offensive player" among draft-eligible seniors by NBA draft guru Marty Blake.

His performance also caught the attention of "The Los Angeles Times" in a front-page story about "The Man of Steel" and segments on both CBS NCAA College Basketball "at the Half" and a seven-minute feature—the "Real Rod Man"—on NBC's "Today" show. He was named InfoSport: Basketball's 1996-97 National Comeback Player of the Year. Prior to the season, he was featured in The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated and the Dick Vitale College Basketball Yearbook.

For his career, Wells averaged 21.6 ppg, 7.1 rebounds while shooting 52 percent from the floor.

He was drafted by the Dallas Mavericks in the second round of the 1997 draft and played one season before being traded to the Phoenix Suns and then to the Chicago Bulls. A torn achilles tendon and other leg/groin injuries slowed his professional career, although he played in the Philippines and the Euro League in Greece for two seasons. He then played for the Harlem Globetrotters for two years.

Now Wells is using his playing experience, and his effervescent personality and ability to communicate with young people at the coaching level.

On the floor, Wells works with the post players—he was one of the nation's best post-up players during his APSU career. He also is involved with opponent scouting.

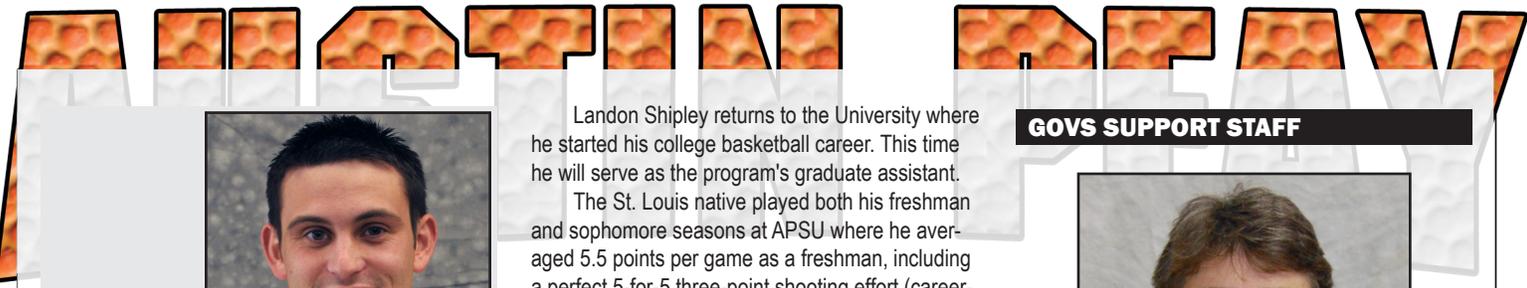

Off the floor, he was named APSU's "Outstanding Young Alumnus" in 2006.

In his free time, he likes to spend time with his daughter, playing golf, fishing and watching movies.

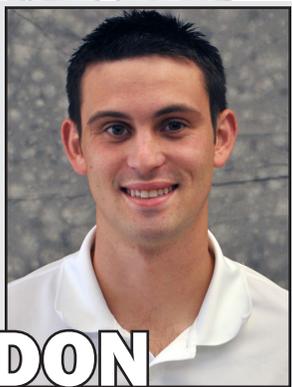

Wells has one daughter, Alyiah, age 10.

In August 2007, he married the former Tracee Jones, head women's basketball coach at Tennessee State. The previous summer Wells served as a supporter to Jones on NBC's hit TV show, "Deal or No Deal."

Graduate Assistant
First Season
Illinois State, 2010

Landon Shipley returns to the University where he started his college basketball career. This time he will serve as the program's graduate assistant.

The St. Louis native played both his freshman and sophomore seasons at APSU where he averaged 5.5 points per game as a freshman, including a perfect 5-for-5 three-point shooting effort (career-high 24 points) against Evansville, and 8.8 points per game as a sophomore, including two 18-point efforts. He helped the Governors win the 2006-07 OVC regular-season title and reach the NIT, facing Air Force.

After his sophomore season, he transferred to Illinois State, sitting out 2007-08 in accordance to NCAA transfer rules.

He was a member of the 2008-09 Redbird squad that played in the NIT.

He was a four-time all-district selection at Lafayette High School and left the program as it all-time leading scorer. A two-time All-State selection, Shipley was named the St. Louis Post-Dispatch St. Louis Metro Player of the Year as a prep senior.

An assortment of leg, ankle and foot injuries have forced former walk-on post player Jim Ross to put aside his playing career.

The 6-8 Ross came to APSU in 2008-09 and earned a spot on the Govs roster. He redshirted that season in attempt to improve his post game.

However, he tore his anterior cruciate ligament late during the 2008-08 season and underwent surgery during that offseason.

Ross attempted to rehab his knee during 2009-10 but never was able to get back to 100 percent during the season.

After continuing his rehab during the offseason, he endured additional leg injuries in preparation for the 2010-11 season, forcing him to offer his basketball services in other areas.

Ross came to APSU from La Lumiere School in LaPorte, Ind., where he played for Delray Brooks, a former Providence star who played against the Governors in the 1987 NCAA tournament.

Ross, a business administration major, is a two-time member of the Athletics Director's Honor Roll. He also was inducted into Alpha Lambda Delta honor society.

CAREER REVIEW

Again expected to provide perimeter scoring production in second Gobs season...hoping to provide greater consistency after up-and-down first season... exceptional three-point shooter with extraordinary range...also brings solid all-round abilities and fundamentals to floor...considered adept passer and strong rebounder for size...will look to contribute more on defensive end after gaining needed strength and bulk to frame.

As freshman in 2009-10: Made first career start at Akron...played sparingly in the Daytona-portion of Glenn Wilkes Classic...contributed 8 points on 3-of-6 shooting against Drake to go with 3 assists and 2 blocks...played 17 minutes off bench against Freed-Hardeman, scored in double-digits, 12 points, for first time in college career...hit pair of first-half three-pointers, off the bench, against Eastern Illinois...made then season-high 3-5 3FGs to finish with 9 points against Marian (Ind.)...connected on pair of 3FGs and made 2-2 FTs for 8 points at No. 3 Kentucky...finished with 5 points against Evansville, including 2-2 FTs...made it six straight FTs with 2-2 effort at Missouri...gained first OVC start against TSU at home when Caleb Brown was late for morning shoot-round...responded with then-career bests in points (15), field goals (6), assists (4) and steals (2)...finished game 6-for-9 from floor, including a trio of three pointers...remained in starting lineup at Tennessee Tech, scoring a career-high 20 points on 8-12 FGs and matched career-high with 4 assists...scored 14 points at Jacksonville State, including a conventional 3-pt play in overtime to seal the game...posted fourth consecutive double-digit scoring game with 13 points on 4-7 shooting against Eastern Kentucky...named OVC Newcomer of the Week after hitting game-winning three pointer at home against Morehead State...finished with 14 points on 5-9 FG shooting...also had a career-high three steals...scored 15 points and matched a career high with four assists at UT Martin...scored in double digits for sixth-straight time...missed double-figures for first time since joining the starting lineup at Murray State, scoring only six points...also was his first game without a three pointer since Jan. 9 vs. same Racers...slump continued at Tennessee State, making only one three-pointer in seven attempts...finished scoreless against Jacksonville State, but dished out 3 assists...came off bench again at home against Tennessee Tech, scoring just one point...narrowly missed double-figure scoring with nine points on 3-6 shooting at EIU...hit double-digits for the first time since Feb. 4, scoring 10 points in his return to the starting lineup at SEMO.

In high school: Played guard for Derek McCord at Dyer County High School... averaged 22.8 points per game as senior, connecting on impressive 46 percent (117 made) from three-point range, despite facing 11 box-and-one defenses as senior... also averaged 6.2 rebounds, 4.2 assists and 3.0 steals per game in leading Dyer County to a 31-2 record and the Class AA semifinals, a contest Choctaws lost in double overtime...named first-team Tennessee All-State selection for second straight year and Class AA Mr. Basketball finalist...McDonald's All-America nominee...consensus All-State selection...named to All-West Tennessee team, earning the Jackson Sun Co-Player of the Year honor...also was first-team All-District 13, earning most valuable player honors for both the regular season and post-season tournament...in addition earned all-region, being selected Region 7AA MVP...as junior, averaged 21.7 ppg, 5.0 rpg, 4.5 apg and 3.1 spg...connected on 103 three pointers in just 19 games—he had to sit out the season's first 1 ½ months after transferring from Dyersburg High School...chosen Region 7AA MVP and a member of Class AA All-State Tournament team.

Personal: Undecided on major...son of Tony Blake and Vanessa Ahmad...born Sept. 6, 1990...age 20.

CAREER REVIEW

Expected again to compete with junior Tyrone Caldwell for point guard position... after serving apprenticeship under Derek Wright as a freshman in 2007-08, moved into starting lineup for much of 2008-09 season...still seeking to achieve constancy in all aspects of his play...brings steadiness to Govs on both ends of floor...owns court awareness and solid decision-making ability...also has capacity to control speed of game...possesses good speed and quickness...improving shooter who is hoping to gain more consistency in shot...not afraid to attack basket...aggressive performer who has potential to be strong defender...has improved overall game... spent many hours during summer working on game.

As junior in 2009-10: Began campaign coming off bench...played total of 37 minutes in first three contests...after tallying six points, two steals and grabbing career-high seven rebounds against North Carolina State in Glenn Wilkes Classic, regained starting nod against Niagara...played 31 minutes and dished out five assists in APSU comeback win...remained starter over next 13 games...had five assists vs. Drake, while posting nine points... recorded third straight game with at least five assists, with seven dimes vs. Freed-Hardeman... matched then career-high with a perfect 4-of-4 free-throw effort against Ohio while playing 33 minutes... had season's best shooting night making 4-of-5 field goals for eight points to go with six assists vs. Marian (Ind.)...recorded third straight game with at least four assists at Kentucky...also had three steals and five points against nation's No. 3 team... scored nine points, had four assists and three steals against Evansville...tallied nine points and dished out just eight assists—matching career high—in 22 minutes before fouling out at Missouri...also had just one turnover against Missouri's vaunted pressure...

nailed two free throws to force overtime at Morehead State, finishing with seven points...tallied six assists at Eastern Kentucky...scored season-high 14 points, going 5-of-10 from floor, against UT Martin... also matched career-best with eight assists...made it two straight games in double figures with 10 against Murray State, setting personal best with 8-of-8 free throws...was shifted back to reserve role at home against Tennessee State and remained reserve for all but two games during season's remainder...had five points and three steals off bench at Tennessee Tech...credited with career-high two blocks, but suffered a 2-of-7 free-throw shooting night at Jacksonville State...grabbed two steals to go with six points against Eastern Kentucky...tied career high with three steals against Morehead State...scored nine points off bench at UT Martin, to go along with four assists, two steals and zero turnovers...knocked down 7-of-8 free throws to finish with seven points at Murray State...also nabbed two steals for the fourth straight game...scored eight points off bench, including 4-of-6 at the free-throw line, to go with three assists and three rebounds at Tennessee State... scored 11 points off the bench against Jacksonville State – his first double-digit effort since scoring 10 points against Murray State, Jan. 9...returned to starting lineup against Tennessee Tech, scoring five points and dishing out five assists...collected team-high five assists in OVC tourney first-round game to go with six points.

As sophomore in 2008-09: Moved in and out of starting lineup, his 86 assists ranking second on team... averaged 5.1 ppg overall and in OVC games as well...had impressive start to season at Evansville, scoring career-high 20 points on 4-of-5 three-point shooting...also had also had three assists and two steals in first college start... dished out five assists against Lambuth...tallied career-high eight assists in first OVC start at SEMO... in road win at Eastern Illinois, his only basket was a game-sealing three-pointer with 31 seconds left... achieved season's best shooting performance, going 4-of-6 from the field, at Louisville for his second double-digit (10) scoring performance...endured slump during late December and early January that saw him losing his starting job temporarily...scored 12 points and collected two steals off the bench against Morehead State... regained starting job in home OVC game against Eastern Kentucky...scored in double-figures for the second time in three games, finishing with 13 points and 8 assists at UT Martin...scored seven points at Murray State in 58-57 APSU win, but undoubtedly his biggest play was tipping out a last-second rebound that secured the Govs win...was relegated to off-the-bench duty again in early February and started three more times rest of season...dished out 5 assists in home win against Tennessee Tech... scored 12 points at Eastern Kentucky, including 30-foot three-pointer to beat the shot clock late in the second half...scored in double figures for the sixth and final time at home against Tennessee State, tallying 10 points...finished with eight points and five

CAREER REVIEW

Preseason first-team All-OVC after earning second-team honors last spring...junior forward was second-half of Govs one-two scoring punch a year ago...has ability to play both small forward as well as power forward because of rebounding abilities...outstanding perimeter shooter who also has ability to put ball on floor and create...possesses solid all-round skills...competitive and resilient performer...owns strong proficiency on both ends of court...aggressive rebounder...strong fundamentally...willing defender who has worked to improve defensive skills...used offseason to improve bulk and strength...owns great stamina...enters season needing just 261 points to reach career 1,000 point mark.

As a sophomore in 2009-10: Finished fourth in OVC scoring as sophomore...his 15.5 ppg also was second on team behind Wesley Channels...in first season as starter ranked second in OVC in minutes played (34.6 mpg)...his 48.6 percent shooting was 11th in OVC while his 80.6 free-throw percentage was seventh best...his 5.3 rebounds per game were second best on team and ninth in OVC...as a result, earned second-team All-OVC...moved into starting lineup in 2009-10 after serving as Govs top bench performer in freshman season...tallied double figures in 29 of 31 games started...scored then career-high 17 in opener at Tennessee, going 7-of-12 from floor; knocking down 3-of-5 from three-point range...scored 13 of his 14 points in second half at Akron, also pulling down seven boards in Govs come-from-behind win to open Glenn Wilkes Classic...tallied 14 points, including two three pointers, against North Carolina State...scored 19 points on 7-of-13 field goals against Niagara, hitting three key late-game buckets in Govs' comeback...also dished out career-high four assists in contest...as a result of his outstanding efforts—scoring double digits in all four games—was named to Glenn Wilkes Classic All-tourney team...set career-high for third time in season with 23 points versus Drake, including 5-of-12 three-pointers...played career-high 41 minutes, scoring 19 points and pulling five rebounds in overtime win against SEMO...scored 10 points on 4-of-6 FG shooting against Marian (Ind.)...held to just two points at Kentucky, snapping streak of 11 straight double-figure scoring games to open season...rebounded with 17 points against Evansville, including 8-of-10 free throws...collected 15 points on 7-of-12 field goals at Missouri while also grabbing seven rebounds...connected on five three-point field goals en route to a career-high 24 points at Morehead State...also had career-highs with two blocks and three steals...converted career-high nine field goals at Eastern Kentucky to notch his second-straight 20-point-plus scoring game...posted 16 points against UT Martin, although failed to connect on three-point field goal for first time since Kentucky game in mid-December...scored 12 points in home loss to Murray State...after game was moved from small to power forward spot...in first start inside against Tennessee State, recorded career's first double-double (17 points, 13 rebounds, also a career high)...finished with 19 points and six rebounds at Tennessee Tech, for his eighth straight double-figure scoring game...suffered ankle sprain in Friday practice prior to Jacksonville State game, forcing him to miss contest...returned from ankle injury to score 19 points at home against Eastern Kentucky on 6-of-9 field goals and season-best 6-of-6 free throws...missed double-figure scoring for second time by finishing with nine points to go along with nine rebounds at home against Morehead State...notched second career double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds at UT Martin...recorded season's fourth 20-point-plus game at Murray State while pulling a team-high eight rebounds...scored 17 points and pulled eight rebounds in road loss at Tennessee State...tallied fourth straight double-digit performance with 15 points and four rebounds against Jacksonville State...recorded season's fifth 20-point outing with 23 points at home against Tennessee Tech in then career-high 43 minutes...tied career best with five three-point field goals, including game-tying three-pointer with 24.2 seconds left...scored 13 points on 4-of-9 shooting at EIU...played career-high 44 minutes at SEMO, scoring 13 points and grabbing five boards...tipped out rebound on missed free throw to secure the Govs overtime win...finished season with 16 points, on 6-of-10 shooting, in first-round OVC tourney loss.

As a freshman in 2008-09: Served as Govs' most valuable reserve a year ago...averaged 7.8 ppg overall, shooting an impressive 50 percent from floor...shot 37.1 percent from three-point line...numbers, however, were even better during OVC play...averaged 8.8 ppg, shooting 56.7 percent from floor and even more impressive 43.1 percent from three-point range during league play...scored double figures on 12 occasions...got off to slow start, scoring nine points in first three games...began to find his rhythm in fourth game against Lambuth, scoring

CAREER REVIEW

Govs' most improved player from a year ago returns in middle...if improvement continues could challenge for post-season honors...became one of league's foremost rebounders in 2009-10, using previous spring trip to China with Global Partners Association to springboard campaign...used offseason to refine offensive game, especially in post...has continued to add bulk and strength to lanky frame with vigorous offseason conditioning program...considered tremendously hard worker...owns wide frame with surprising upper-body strength...uses long arms and leaping ability to retrieve ball off glass...has worked to improve his lower-body strength...been compared to former Govs' start Josh Lewis because of frame and rebounding ability...considered coachable young player who has desire to improve.

As a sophomore in 2009-10: Moved into starting lineup from season's outset and started all but one contest...his 7.8 rebounds per game were second in the OVC while his 52 percent field-goal shooting also ranked second...averaged 8.8 rebounds per game during league play...got off to slow start offensively but became force on boards and defensive end...grabbed then career-high 12 rebounds, including seven offensive grabs against IUPUI, in season's third game and first in Daytona...enjoyed career's best performance against Niagara, recorded career's first double-double (16 points, 11 rebounds), with 16 points representing career high...connected on 7-of-14 field goals...scored 12 points on 5-of-7 field-goal shooting against SEMO...recorded second career double-double, 13 points and 11 rebounds, against EIU...also completed career-high 7-of-8 free throws...knocked down a pair of game-winning free throws with 0.8 seconds left to defeat Ohio, finishing with 12 points and eight rebounds...recorded third career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds vs. Marian (Ind.)...three-game stretch found him 15-17 at free-throw line...made 5-of-6 field goals and 3-of-4 free throws for 13 points at No. 3 Kentucky...scored 11 of his points in the first half...tallied 14 points, including a career-high eight free throws, to go along with his second-straight game of three blocked shots against Evansville...saw double-figure scoring streak end at six vs. Missouri, although he did grab nine rebounds...fashioned 10 points and seven rebounds at Morehead State...backed that up with 11 points at Eastern Kentucky and at home against Eastern Kentucky...made it 10 games out of 11 for double-figure scoring at Murray State, finished with 10 points and five rebounds in only 15 minutes before fouling out...made it five straight games in double figures with 11 points to go with nine rebounds against Tennessee State...endured four straight games without scoring double figures but did average 10 rebounds over stretch, including a then career-high 14 at home against Eastern Kentucky...bounced back from a three-point, five-rebound foul-plagued performance against Morehead State to register his fourth career double-double with 13 points and 14 rebounds at UT Martin...fifth career double-double came at Tennessee State with 15 points and career-high 18 rebounds, making him first Gov since Drake Reed (2/5/09 vs. UT Martin) to pull 18 boards...scored seven points (7-9 FTs) and grabbed 11 rebounds in home win against Tennessee Tech...sixth career double-double came against Oral Roberts with 11 points and 11 rebounds, while blocking career-best four shots...Chalked up seventh double-double, 10 points and 12 rebounds, at SEMO in season-finale, playing career-high 40 minutes...garnered 10 points and pulled down five rebounds in OVC tourney first-round game...averaged 10.6 rebounds per game over season's final 10 contests.

As a redshirt freshman in 2008-09: Improved steadily during first campaign...grabbed three or more rebounds nine times...got off to slow start, playing sparingly in season's early stages...collected first career rebound in opener against Evansville...grabbed three rebounds, including two offensive, against Ohio...scored career's first basket on offensive rebound and a put-back at SEMO in early December...celebrated 21st birthday with six points and seven rebounds against Oakland City in 2008's final game...on Jan. 22, scored six points on perfect three-of-three shooting against Tennessee Tech...two nights later played 20 minutes against Jacksonville State, scoring five points and snaring seven rebounds while blocking two shots...scored career-high eight points, including four-of-five at free-throw line at Morehead State...played career-high 26 minutes at Jacksonville State, finishing with six points, five rebounds and expected to provide depth along frontline at both the power forward and center spots...extremely strong individual who has added even more bulk and strength to frame...aggressive performer...considered good athlete who owns reputation as solid rebounder with shot-blocker capabilities...must develop more consistent low-post game to become offensive threat...has ability to put ball on floor and attack basket...capable defender also must learn to stay out of foul trouble.

CAREER REVIEW

Rugged front-court prospect again will be counted on for effective playing time in 2010-11...

As a sophomore in 2009-10: Endured an inconsistent second season in Gobs' uniform...began season as starter but became reserve after campaign's midway point...played then career-high 30 minutes at Akron in first game of Glenn Wilkes Classic.... then in first Daytona game of same tourney, played 37 minutes vs. IUPUI, grabbing seven rebounds... scored nine points and grabbed eight rebounds in 35 minutes vs. North Carolina State...tallied first double-figure scoring game (12 points), going 6-of-8 from floor, against Niagara, including game-winning bucket ...grabbed career-high 11 rebounds against Drake...scored 12 points on 5-of-7 shooting to go with six rebounds against Freed-Hardeman... endured unproductive offensive night against SEMO, but grabbed a team-high eight rebounds before fouling out for third time during season... registered career-high three steals and two blocks against EIU...scored seven points and had two blocks at Ohio while dishing out career-high four assists before fouling out for seventh time during his career...scored in double-figures for third time vs. Marian (Ind.) with 10 points...played 34 minutes against Evansville, finishing with six points and eight rebounds...took shot to eye at Missouri early in the second half and didn't return for final 15:54....played career-high 40 minutes in OT loss at Morehead State, scoring just two points and pulling down only four rebounds...came off bench for first time at Eastern Kentucky, recording his season's second double-digit rebound (11) performance...returned to starting lineup for home games against UT Martin and Murray State before serving as reserve for 12 of final 13 games...matched a career-high with three blocks against UT Martin...failed to score in 25 minutes against Murray State...struggled in new reserve role...in fact, score just two points and grabbed five rebounds over two-game stretch...suffered ankle sprain during Gobs' Friday practice at Jacksonville State...injury forced him to miss JSU game and limited him to just nine total minutes combined in the Eastern Kentucky and Morehead State games... scored seven points off bench against Jacksonville State, the most since scoring 10 points against Marian (Ind.)...against Tennessee Tech, grabbed three offensive rebounds for second-straight game... made surprise start at Southeast Missouri, grabbed 5 rebounds and blocked 2 shots in 19 minutes.

As a redshirt freshman in 2008-09: Endured typical first season ups and downs...started 12 times, including six games down the stretch...was third only to Kyle Duncan and Wes Channels in fouls committed, fouling out three times during season... shot impressive 60 percent from floor, but made just 47.1 percent at line...didn't start season opener at Evansville but provided 20 minutes off bench in first career game, blocking three shots while scoring first career bucket...tallied five points in 16 minutes against Ohio...scored seven points, making three of five shots while grabbing three rebounds at SEMO...battled foul problems at Louisville, being charged with four in just 10 minutes...gained first career start against Stephen F. Austin in Jim Thorpe Classic, responding with four points and a team-high six rebounds....started for second time at home against Morehead State in early January, leading team with four rebounds....played then season-high 24 minutes, finished with six points and points rebounds, at Murray State...starting in place of injured Ernest Fields, narrowly missed double-double at Tennessee State Jan. 17, finishing with career-high 10 points and nine rebounds...enjoyed strong defensive performance at home against Tennessee Tech, finishing with 10 rebounds and three blocked shots...grabbed six rebounds in loss at Eastern Kentucky...played just nine minutes in fouling out at Morehead State...also fouled out in road win at Tennessee Tech, finishing with four rebounds and three points...rejoined starting lineup Feb. 17 at Jacksonville State, starting three straight games... charged with four fouls in two of the games, limiting his minutes...one of three freshman (Anthony Campbell and Tyrone Caldwell being the others) to start

DUNN CENTER/DAVE AARON ARENA

The Winfield Dunn Center became home of the Governors and Lady Gobs indoor athletics in 1975 after ground was broken for the $5.3 million, 9,000-seat structure in February 1973.

The 132,000 square-foot complex, officially named the Winfield Dunn Health and Physical Education Building and Convocation Complex in honor of Governor Dunn, is a dominating edifice with 78 feet separating the top of the building from its maplewood playing surface. The Dunn Center replaced the Memorial Gymnasium, affectionately called "The Little Red Barn," which served as the Governors' homecourt from 1952 until the Dec. 1, 1975 tip-off.

On Jan. 16, 1988, the basketball arena was named Dave Aaron Arena in honor of the school's former athletics director, football coach and then all-time winningest basketball coach.

Several improvements and modifications have taken place in recent years, including the addition of new scoreboards. Also, the floor lighting has been replaced to allow fans to better see Lady Gobs and Governors events and also accommodate photography needs. An elevator was installed in the late 1990s to better accommodate the handicapped.

But in Fall 2004, some major upgrades occurred, with new cushioned telescopic seating on the lower level east and west north end-zone areas. In addition, two new state-of-the-art indoor Light Emitting Diode (LED) large display screens were hung in the southeast and northwest corners. It is a fully integrated sports solution that includes a control system to operate and integrate the displays of video replays plus a package of many custom animations, including sponsored game elements and crowd interaction plus much more.

In Summer 2007, it was announced more renovations and upgrades would take place, with new telescopic cushioned seating being added to the second level.

In addition, former President Sherry Hoppe announced the playing surface would be named "Dave Loos Court."

The Dunn Center is home of Governors basketball and Lady Gobs volleyball and basketball. It also serves as a multipurpose practice facility for track, baseball and softball indoor workouts.

APSU's athletic offices are located in the Dunn Center with the exception of tennis and baseball. The men and women's tennis office are located in the Governors Tennis Center, behind the right field fence at Lady Gobs softball field.

In Winter 2004, the Governors baseball offices were moved to the former home of the student newspaper, The All-State, to be closer to Raymond C. Hand Park.

The Dunn Center also houses the University's training facility as well as the sports information offices along with marketing/promotions office.

It also is home to the new David P. Roe Academic Services Center located on the second level.

Austin Peay athletics also work out in the newly renovated weight room, conveniently located in the Dunn Center's lower level south end. They also have access to dressing rooms, also subject to major renovations in Summer/Fall 2004.

Entering the facility's front lobby, visitors are impressed by the Hall of Fame area, honoring APSU's greatest former athletes, administrators and supporters.

Stepping just inside the Dunn Center one can look to both ends of the arena to observe APSU's retired jerseys.

The new LED video boards have added immensely to the Dunn Center atmosphere.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following minimums: Averages – 20 games played.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current, with some exceptions. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. The following statistics are unofficial until the year noted at which time the NCAA recognized that category: assists (1983-84), blocked shots (1985-86) and steals (1985-86). In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following minimums: Scoring Average – 40 games played, Field Goal Percentage – 200 FGM, Three-Point Field Goal Percentage – 80 3FGM, Free Throw Percentage – 100 FTM.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. Three-point field goals were added in 1986-87. In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

CENTURY GAMES

With the return of the shot clock and the three-point shot in the past two decades, 100-point games have been on the upswing in college basketball.

For Austin Peay, in fact, the cycle took a definite swing with four 100-point games in 1986-87, the Govs winning three of them; five in 1987-88, APSU winning just one, and six in 1988-89, the Govs winning five.

With a change of coaches, also involved a style change during 1990-91. Dave Loos' team played in six 100-point games. The Govs scored the most single-game points in Dunn Center history with a 122-96 win against Milligan. APSU and Morehead State set a Dunn Center mark for combined points scored (237) in the Govs' 124-113 double-overtime loss. Morehead also set an arena mark for most points scored by the opposition.

In 1991-92, the Govs participated in five 100-point games. The two wins came back to back, a 102-100 decision against Morehead State and 103-97 verdict against SEC foe Mississippi State. In total, Loos' Govs have played in 29 games in which at least one team scored 100 points, including the 2007-08 season's 104-82 loss at Memphis and the Governors 121-116 triple overtime defeat at Southeast Missouri.

Over the years, the Govs have been involved in 124 games where at least one team scored 100 points, with 13 of those both clubs scoring 100 or more. Austin Peay has won 58 of the century games. Of the 13 which both teams scored 100 or more, the Govs are 5-8. The Dunn Center/Dave Aaron Arena has held 33 100-point contests, with APSU holding a 29-4 edge.

Only one century-mark game occurred while Austin Peay was a junior college, and Freed-Hardeman won that one, 104-30, during the 1934-35 season. An opponent of the 100-point mark was David Aaron (1946-62), who purposely passed up scoring opportunities to avoid his team hitting the century figure and causing opposition possible embarrassment. The long-time successful coach was forced into the situation during the 1958-59 season when Harry Gallatin made his college coaching debut for Southern Illinois. The Govs won the game 106-100 in Memorial Gymnasium ("Little Red Barn").
