ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

Intercollegiate athletics at Austin Peay State University aspires to provide educational and broad-based competitive opportunities at the NCAA Division I level for eligible male and female student athletes. Seeking to maintain a proper balance between athletic and academic programs, the University is committed to preparing students for productive, fulfilling and responsible lives. In addition to developing individual ability and successful programs, those athletic experiences will be instrumental in developing the concepts of teamwork, sportsmanship, loyalty, self-confidence plus the qualities of leadership and discipline. Intercollegiate athletics endeavors to provide positive impressions of University activities to a diversified group of audiences. Austin Peay strives to attract a diverse and talented group of participants, coaches and administrators with a strong commitment to excellence, openness, gender equity and integrity, reflecting a precise adherence to NCAA and conference rules and philosophies. As a result, Austin Peay athletics assumes a major role in assisting University development and fiscal responsibility. The departmental goals and objectives are based upon its mission as it builds on its traditions, confidently looking forward to an exciting and progressive future.

In today's college athletics world, it is hard to imagine one person handling an athletics department's two most demanding positions.

But Dave Loos has helped APSU thrive as both its head basketball coach and the Athletics Director. In fact, it is nearly unheard of in the world of NCAA athletics an athletics director also coaching, especially a sport as prominent as men's basketball.

What is remarkable is Loos, who is the dean of Ohio Valley Conference basketball coaches, also is the longest-serving athletics director at his university—he currently is in his 12th year.

His double duties aptly point out the respect Loos earned both on and off campus. He has applied the same common-sense approach to his athletics director's duties that have been representative of his APSU basketball tenure.

What is even more remarkable is that Loos, who is in his 20th season as Gobs head coach, owns the mark for APSU's longest basketball coaching tenure—only 13 other Division I coaches have longer tenures at their respective schools—and is the program's all-time wins leader, surpassing Dave Aaron in 2006-07. To honor such achievement, then-outgoing president, Dr. Sherry Hoppe, at the behest of several longtime basketball supporters, named the basketball floor Dave Loos Court.

In addition, Loos was inducted into the Austin Peay Athletics Hall of Fame in Feb. 2008.

Entering the 2009-10 season Loos is just five wins away from surpassing Cal Luther (319) for most victories while coaching in the OVC after becoming only the second such coach to record 300 wins as an OVC coach in 2008-09.

Loos, who enters the season as the 35th winningest active Division I coach, also needs just four wins to reach the coveted 400 mark for college head-coaching victories.

Such success didn't happen by accident. Loos not only has elevated APSU's program to the pinnacle of OVC prominence, but has done it as well with the dignity and class so reflective of the reputation he built as an athlete and as a high school/college coach.

He is only the second APSU coach to lead the Gobs to an OVC regular-season and NCAA Division I tournament berth. His APSU teams have advanced at least to the OVC tourney semifinals in 12 of the last 15 years. That has sustained his reputation of elevating his club's play during February-March.

More impressively the Governors have been the OVC's top program since the turn of century. APSU has sported 60 percent winning percentage during those nine seasons, including five 20-win seasons and four OVC regular-season titles. In fact, the Gobs own a league-best 112-46 OVC record (70.8 percent) in the new millennium.

That underscores a Governors program that has possessed a .500 or better OVC record in each of the last 16 seasons. In fact, Loos is tied for the most combined regular-season and league tourney victories among the nation's coaches during the past seven seasons.

That has resulted in Austin Peay winning the OVC tournament and gaining an NCAA tourney berth in 1996; APSU capturing a 1997 league co-championship—the first since 1977; shocking the league by winning both a regular-season co-championship and tourney title in 2003; posting an unprecedented 16-0 OVC campaign in 2004; winning the 2006-07 OVC regular-season title by a convincing three games and repeating it in 2007-08 while advancing to the NCAA tournament. Loos is the only APSU coach to earn multiple OVC Coach of the Year honors, in 1990-91, 1996-97, 2002-03, 2003-04 and 2006-07.

As a result, Loos achieved one of his program's goals—the Governors reclaiming their spot among the OVC elite and annually competing for the title.

Loos became Austin Peay's 11th head men's basketball coach on July 14, 1990. The likeable veteran coach has proven to be a "perfect fit" for the APSU program.

In his initial season, not only did his Gobs produce a winning (15-14) season after a previous 10-19 campaign, they displayed an exciting style as well.

He became only the third Austin Peay coach to earn OVC Coach of the Year, the first to be recognized in his first Gobs' season.

He then began building his own program with young men who reflected their coach both on and off the court and represented the University with great class.

The Gobs struggled record-wise (11-17 and 7-20) the next two seasons as Loos was reinventing the soul of the program. The young 1993-94 team began 0-7 but finished strongly at 11-16. Picked to finish eighth in preseason polls, the Gobs battled for the title much of the season, finally settling for third.

Since then APSU has developed a rich tradition of excellence.

In 1994-95, the Govs finished the regular-season at 12-15 but pulled two upsets in the OVC tournament before falling to Murray State when star forward Bubba Wells suffered a leg injury that later turned out to be a surgery-necessitating right leg stress fracture.

In 1995-96, the Governors again peaked late. In February, the Govs fashioned an 8-2 record, including six straight victories. APSU entered the NCAA tourney with a four-game win streak before losing to Georgia Tech.

A year later, the Governors finished 17-14 overall—with All-America forward Wells missing the season's first 12 games—but won six of their final eight games, including a four-game winning streak that helped clinch a regular-season OVC co-championship.

In 1997-98, the Govs, despite a rebuilding season, ended the season with a surprising 17-11 record and a fourth-place OVC finish.

In 1998-99, the young Govs finished in a third-place OVC tie, although the 11-16 mark ended the string of winning seasons at three.

A year later, the Govs ended 18-11. The 18 wins, at the time, represented the most regular-season wins by the Govs since 1976-77.

APSU topped that mark in 1999-00 with a 22-10 record—the Govs' first 20-win mark since 1986-87.

It was a 14-18 mark in 2001-02 as the Governors possessed only one senior. That returning group completely turned around those losing fortunes in 2002-03. In going 23-8, the Govs won 15 of their last 16 regular-season games to win a share of the OVC title, the OVC tourney championship and a trip to the NCAA tourney. The 23 wins represented the third most in school history.

But the 2003-04 season saw the Govs make a remarkable run through the OVC, becoming only the fourth team in league history to go unbeaten in conference play. The Govs were just one of three teams in the country to finish league play without a loss.

Despite losing four senior starters, the Govs were in the 2005 OVC regular-season race until the final weekend and stunned Samford and top-seed Tennessee Tech in the OVC tourney before narrowly losing to Eastern Kentucky in the title tilt. The Govs finished 9-7 in the OVC. APSU owned an 11-9 league mark in 2006 with a 17-14 overall mark with a young team.

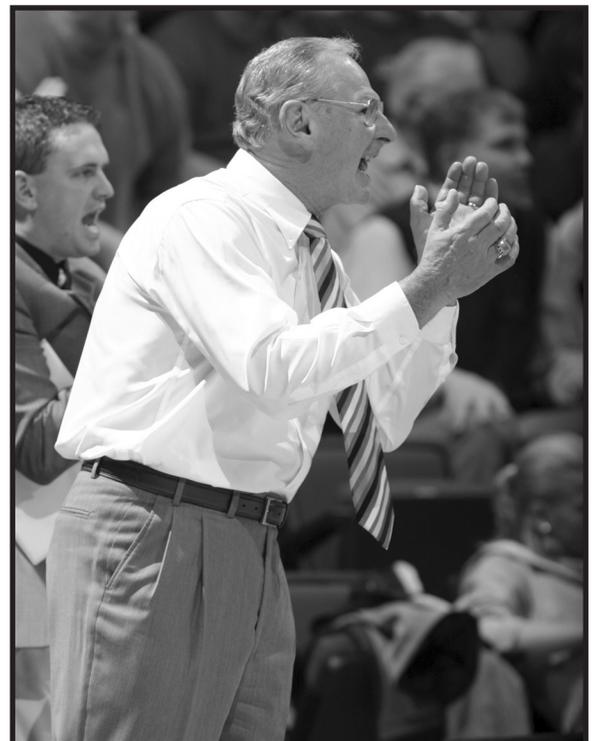

In 2006-07, the Governors, despite having no seniors on the roster, overcame a slow start to finish at 21-12 overall, the third 20-win season during Loos's tenure. More importantly, the Govs ran away with the OVC crown, going 16-4.

The 2007-08 season was even more remarkable. The odds-on choice to repeat as league champions, the Governors battle a much-improved league, yet finished with an identical 16-4 record and won the regular season by the same three-game margin. It was only the second time in OVC history that a team posted back-to-back 16-win seasons.

The Govs' 24-11 overall record also tied the APSU mark for single-season wins, both overall and as a Division I program.

Loos has earned respect from peers for his coaching ability and the manner he directs the program, reflective in the fact he now is the only coach in OVC history to have as many as five "Coach of the Year" honors.

Loos came to APSU after four seasons as Memphis' top assistant. He joined Larry Finch in 1986 and helped direct his alma mater to an 85-43 record, including two NCAA tournament appearances and a Metro Conference tournament title during his tenure.

Prior to joining Memphis State, Loos enjoyed four successful head-coaching seasons at Christian Brothers College in Memphis. He took over that program in 1982-83, and after an initial 16-14 season, recorded three straight 20-win campaigns. In 1985, CBC captured its first Volunteer State Athletic Conference crown, the VSAC tournament title and second place in the National Catholic Tournament.

For his efforts, he earned VSAC, NAIA District 24 and NAIA Area V Coach of the Year honors. He also was named the National Catholic Tournament Outstanding Coach.

Loos' move to CBC came after spending eight seasons as head coach at his prep alma mater, Mehlville High School in St. Louis. Taking over a program that previously had endured 11 straight losing seasons, Loos led his team to five winning campaigns, including a state tournament berth. He left the school as its winningest coach.

The Missouri native played both basketball and baseball during his college days at Memphis State, where he was inducted into its athletic Hall of Fame in September 2002. Loos was the starting point guard for the 1968-69 Tigers, leading the team in minutes played. He also was an all-conference shortstop for the Tigers baseball team.

Upon completing his eligibility, he remained at Memphis as an assistant in 1970. Following his graduation (1970), he officially began his coaching career as an assistant basketball and head baseball coach at CBC.

He and his wife, Phyllis, have four children, David, who broadcasts Govs and Lady Govs sports; Todd, who is in the music business; Brad, the former Gov who is associated head basketball coach at Central Missouri, and Nicole Peterson, who formerly was a member of the school's dance team and now works in the APSU alumni office.

They also have four grandchildren: William Daniel, Olivia Joy and Katie Grace, children of David and Pam Loos; Brady Jonathan, son of Brad and Jennifer Loos.

Scott Combs is in his 14th season with the Austin Peay basketball program, his seventh as full-time assistant.

He came to APSU in 1996-97 as a player. Since then, he has been a fixture in the program, working his way up the coaching ladder.

Following his playing days, Combs assumed the role as administrative assistant while in graduate school—he and former high school and Govs teammate Joe Sibbitt were the first recipients of the Leon Bibb Hall of Fame Scholarship—in 1999-00. In that role he served as the program's video coordinator along with helping in all day-to-day operations. He also served as administrative assistant to the athletics director that year.

A year later, he was elevated to assistant coach and has played an integral part in the Govs successes since, which has seen the Govs record 20 or more wins in four of the last six years and back-to-back OVC championships on two occasions, including the 2006-07 and 2007-08. The 2002-03 and 2007-08 teams advanced to the NCAA tournament while the 2003-04 club won a game in the NIT. Also during his coaching tenure, APSU captured the 2000 Top of the World Classic championship.

In his current role, Combs helps in the daily operations of the program, working in all coaching aspects, in particular with player development, monitoring academic progress and scouting opponents. He also serves as the program's recruiting coordinator.

In addition, each June he serves as the director of the Dave Loos Basketball Camps.

A versatile front-liner who was known for his selfless play and other intangibles he brought to the floor, Combs played his final two seasons (1997-99) at APSU after transferring from Missouri, where he played his freshman (1994-95) and sophomore (1995-96) seasons. He was named honorable mention Big 8 all-Academic while at Missouri. In addition, he was a member of a Missouri squad that played in the 1995 NCAA tournament—after beating Indiana the Tigers lost to eventual national champion UCLA on a last-second shot—and the 1996 NIT.

The Indianian is one of the select few who has played and coached in both the NCAA and NIT tournaments.

Combs sat out 1996-97 at APSU as a transfer redshirt. After serving as a reserve guard and forward as a junior, Combs ended up being the Govs starting post player as a senior. He averaged 6.8 points, shooting a team-best 54.8 percent from the floor, and 5.3 rebounds per game. His rebound totals ranked 14th in the OVC.

Off the floor, Combs earned CoSIDA District IV Academic All-District as a senior, when he posted a 4.0 GPA. He also served as president of the Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC).

Combs graduated in 1997 with bachelor's degrees in mathematics and education. He began his graduate work while completing his final season of eligibility, earning his master's in Sports Administration.

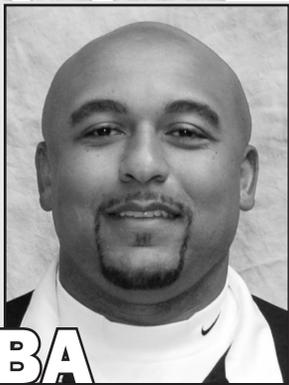

A Lebanon, Ind., native, he starred at Paoli High School, scoring a school record 1958 points, ranking him 31st all-time in the state. He was voted runner-up Indiana Mr. Basketball in 1994 and was selected to play on the prestigious Indiana All-Star team. His prep career followed an AAU one that saw him voted All-American six times.

In addition to coaching, Combs formerly served as a physical education teacher (2000-02) at St. Mary's Catholic School. He and former Govs teammate Mike Head, now a local prep coach, held local summer basketball camps in addition to working APSU camps.

Combs is married to the former Casey Jenkins, who is Internet Manager at Jenkins and Wynne-Ford-Lincoln-Mercury-Honda. They have a daughter, Chandler Kate, who was born last spring.

He enjoys playing cards, water sports, playing the piano and golfing in his free time.

The leading scorer in Austin Peay men's basketball history is now part of elevating the program to even greater heights.

Charles "Bubba" Wells, the 1997 Ohio Valley Conference "Player of the Year" and two-time OVC "Male Athlete of the Year" who gained national attention for his miraculous return from a leg stress fracture, was hired in June 2005 as a full-time assistant and now is in his fifth season working with Governors players.

Wells, who battled assorted leg problems throughout his college and pro careers, chose to take a different route with his basketball future—coaching. And he wanted to do it at the school where he built a reputation as not only one of the program's greatest players in history but as well in a conference where he was billed as one of the best during its 60-year existence.

Considered by many the most popular player in OVC history, Wells finished his career with 2,267 points—the first APSU player to reach 2,000 points—ranking him third all-time in the OVC. He was a three-time first-team All-OVC choice after being named the league's "Freshman of the Year" in 1993-94. Wells was the 1997 OVC "Player of the Year" and the 1996 and 1997 OVC "Male Athlete of the Year." He also was two-time Tennessee Sports-writers College Basketball "Player of the Year."

Wells jersey (13) was retired Jan. 22, 1998 and he was inducted into the APSU athletics Hall of Fame, Feb. 8, 2003 after being two-time APSU Outstanding Male athlete (1995-96, 1996-97) and the 1997 Joy Award recipient as the most valuable senior athlete.

As a senior he was named third-team Preseason All-America by Athlon Magazine and all-district by both the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). He was named to the Basketball Times All-South team. He also captured his second straight Tennessee Sports-writers College Basketball "Player of the Year" award.

As a sophomore, Wells averaged 19.3 ppg and followed that up with a 26.3 ppg (third in nation) in 1995-96, earning the OVC Tourney MVP in leading the Govs to a championship and NCAA tourney appearance. Wells still owns several OVC tournament records.

But it was his senior year that drew nationwide attention. He missed the season's first 12 games with a stress fracture in his left tibia, requiring surgery to place a tibial nail in the lower leg. He underwent similar surgery following the 1994-95 season, needing five months to rehabilitate.

However, this time the rehab process took less than five weeks and in his debut game, he scored 39 points in 28 minutes. As a result, the performance and the surgery were featured in "USA Today." He went on to become the nation's unofficial scoring leader (he did not have enough games played to qualify for the official title), averaging 31.7 ppg, scoring 30 or more points 11 times including three 40-point games. His 1996-97 scoring mark also broke the legendary James "Fly" Williams (29.5 ppg) mark for single-season scoring average. He was called the "best offensive player" among draft-eligible seniors by NBA draft guru Marty Blake.

His performance also caught the attention of "The Los Angeles Times" in a front-page story about "The Man of Steel" and segments on both CBS NCAA College Basketball "at the Half" and a seven-minute feature—the "Real Rod Man"—on NBC's "Today" show. He was named InfoSport: Basketball's 1996-97 National Comeback Player of the Year. Prior to the season, he was featured in The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated and the Dick Vitale College Basketball Yearbook.

For his career, Wells averaged 21.6 ppg, 7.1 rebounds while shooting 52 percent from the floor.

He was drafted by the Dallas Mavericks in the second round of the 1997 draft and played one season before being traded to the Phoenix Suns and then to the Chicago Bulls. A torn achilles tendon and other leg/groin injuries slowed his professional career, although he played in the Philippines and the Euro League in Greece for two seasons. He then played for the Harlem Globetrotters for two years.

Now Wells is using his playing experience, and his effervescent personality and ability to communicate with young people at the coaching level.

On the floor, Wells works with the post players—he was one of the nation's best post-up players during his APSU career. He also is involved with opponent scouting.

Off the floor, he was named APSU's "Outstanding Young Alumnus" in 2006.

In his free time, he likes to spend time with his daughter, playing golf, fishing and watching movies.

Wells has one daughter, Alyiah, age 8.

In August 2007, he married the former Tracee Jones, head women's basketball coach at Tennessee State. The previous summer Wells served as a supporter to Jones on NBC's hit TV show, "Deal or No Deal."

TODD BABINGTON

Graduate Assistant
First Season
Austin Peay, 2008

Todd Babington, who owns Austin Peay's single-season records for three pointers, rejoined the program as a graduate assistant in 2009.

Babington, the 2008 Ohio Valley Conference tournament most valuable player, played professionally overseas in Belgium last season but now has turned his attention to the next phase of his life, coaching.

In 2007-08, the Crystal Lake, Ill., native connected on 102 of 267 three pointers—both school records—in averaging a career-best 11.6 points per game. He scored a career-best 27 points that season at Eastern Illinois.

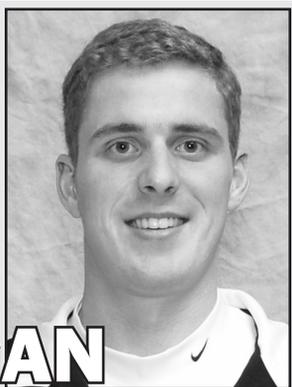

In the OVC tourney championship game that he scored 24 points on six-of-eight three pointers. His four first-half three pointers allowed APSU to break open a right game.

Not only did he leave Austin Peay as its single-season three point leader, he finished with 1036 points as well. His 254 career three-point makes and 654 attempts rank second in both categories behind Joe Sibbitt.

Babington earned his bachelor's degree in 2008 in special education.

DUGAN LYNE

Director of Basketball Operations
Second Season
Austin Peay, 2008

After serving as graduate assistant a year ago, Dugan Lyne returns to Austin Peay's coach staff in 2009-10 as director of basketball operations. This will be his sixth year with the program, serving his first four years as the program's manager.

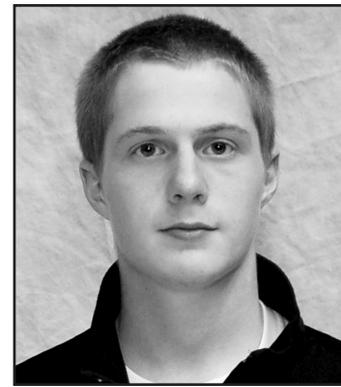

Lyne will help handle day-to-day operations of the team while also coordinating team travel, film exchange along with scheduling practice times. He also will serve in an interim capacity in the APSU academics center.

Lyne and his family have a longtime association with APSU head coach Dave Loos. In fact, Lyne literally has known Loos all his life. His mother, Mitzi Lyne, formerly worked in the basketball office with Loos at Memphis when the APSU coach was an assistant for Larry Finch.

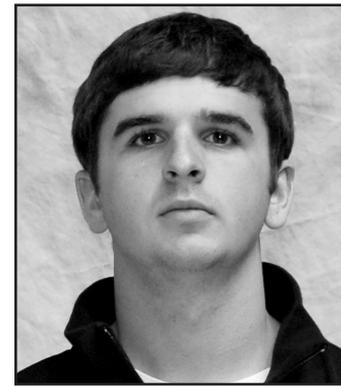

At that point Lyne developed his love for basketball. He carried his love for basketball into high school where he served as a student assistant for Bubba Lockett at Christian Brothers in Memphis.

When Lyne was looking for a place to go to college, it only was natural that he would come to Austin Peay.

As basketball manager, Lyne worked in many aspects of the program during one of APSU's most successful eras, including the 2008 team's NCAA tournament appearance.

CALEB BROWN

Guard

Memphis, Tenn.
Raleigh Egypt HS

Expected to compete with sophomore Tyrone Caldwell for point guard position...after serving apprenticeship under Derek Wright as a freshman in 2007-08, moved into starting lineup for much of 2008-09 season...still seeking to achieve constancy in all aspects of his play...brings steadiness to Govs on both ends of floor...owns tremendous court awareness and solid decision-making ability...also has capacity to control speed of game...strong player...possesses good speed and quickness...improving shooter who is hoping to gain more consistency in shot...not afraid to attack basket...aggressive performer who has potential to be strong defender...has improved overall game.

As sophomore in 2008-09: Moved in and out of starting lineup, his 86 assists ranking second on team...averaged 5.1 ppg overall and in OVC games as well...had impressive start to season at Evansville, scoring career-high 20 points on 4-of-5 three-point shooting...also had also had three assists and two steals in first college start...dished out five assists against Lambuth...tallied career-high eight assists in first OVC start at SEMO...in road win at Eastern Illinois, his only basket was a game-sealing three-pointer with 31 seconds left...achieved season's best shooting performance, going 4-of-6 from the field, at Louisville for his second double-digit (10) scoring performance...endured slump during late December and early January that saw him losing his starting job temporarily...scored 12 points and collected two steals off the bench against Morehead State...regained starting job in home OVC game against Eastern Kentucky...scored in double-figures for the second time in three games, finishing with 13 points and 8 assists at UT Martin...scored seven points at Murray State in 58-57 APSU win, but undoubtedly his biggest play was tipping out a last-second rebound that secured the Govs win...was relegated to off-the-bench duty again in early February and started three more times rest of season...dished out 5 assists in home win against Tennessee Tech...scored 12 points at Eastern Kentucky, including 30-foot three-pointer to beat the shot clock late in the second half...scored in double figures for the sixth and final time at home against Tennessee State, tallying 10 points...finished with eight points and five assists at Jacksonville State while not committing a turnover in 22 minutes...made against Murray State in OVC tourney semifinal action, scoring eight points...also started OVC tourney title game against Morehead State, finishing with eight points, including hitting the runner that forced the second overtime.

As freshman in 2007-08: Played in all 35 games in first APSU season...endured typical freshman ups and downs...got off to slow start...scored just 14 points first in first 15 games before scoring 12 against Eastern Illinois...knocked down four-of-six shots in game, including a pair of three pointers, in season-high 18 minutes...also had season-high three assists in game...proceeded to score just 15 points in next 14 games...in regular-season finale broke loose for 16-point effort at Morehead State, nailing five-of-seven shots, including a trio of three pointers in 17 minutes...also had three assists in contest--matching season best--and two steals...played 12 minutes in NCAA regional tourney game against Texas.

In high school: Played guard for Jimmy Adams at Raleigh Egypt High School...as senior, averaged 16 points, 6.0 assists and 3.0 rebounds per game for the Pharaohs, who finished 30-5...earned all-city and all-region...was named district tournament MVP...also played in Memphis City All-Star game...ranked in the Top 25 Tennessee seniors, according to Rick Bolus' High Potential Basketball Recruiting Service...played in same backcourt as Georgia Tech signee Maurice Miller, Class AAA Mr. Basketball.

Personal: Health management major... son of Rhonda Brown...born June 14, 1989... age 20.

CAREER REVIEW

Expected to continue battle for starting point-guard duties...served as reserve point guard for much of 2008-09 but received 10 starts during season... started five straight February games and started season finale at Bradley...local product brings unselfish demeanor to court...possesses terrific court vision with great decision-making capabilities... possesses strong fundamentals...owns great ability to get to the basket...also has improved steadily his perimeter game...spent summer improving strength and stamina needed at college level...also has used added strength to improve defensive abilities.

As a freshman in 2008-09: Experienced typical freshman inconsistencies in 2008-09...played in all 33 games, starting 10 times...improved steadily as season progressed...after producing 30 assists and 26 turnovers while playing 209 minutes in the first 15 games, accounted for 54 assists and just 14 turnovers in the final 18 games, playing 315 minutes...during one late-season stretch, committed zero turnovers in four straight games and just one in six games...after going scoreless in career-opening game at Evansville, bounced back to score eight points in come-from-behind win at Belmont...scored nine points in Gavs win against Lambuth...in first career start came at Georgia Southern, played 24 minutes, tallying six points and three assists...after trip to Arkansas, started three games...in third career start, produced first double-figure scoring game with 10 points and five assists against Oakland City...after starting Morehead State game in early January, returned to off-the-bench role...enjoyed coming out party at Tennessee State, finishing with a career high 11 points, going five-of-six at line, in 25 minutes...tallied five assists and zero turnovers in home win against Tennessee Tech...offered quality minutes at Morehead State, finishing with nine points, including five-of-six at the free-throw line... made it back-to-back nine-point efforts with four-of-six shooting performance against UT Martin... also had team-high five assists...earned start in next game against Murray State, playing season-high 35 minutes while finishing with eight points, three assists and zero turnovers...in next start at Tennessee Tech, again played 35 minutes, posting career highs in assists (9), rebounds (5) and steals (3) without a turnover...after struggling some in three straight starts, returned to reserve role...in first game back as a reserve, came off bench to score seven points and dish out two assists against Eastern Illinois before scoring six points in regular-season finale against SEMO...saw limited action in OVC tournament but started Collegelnsider.com contest at Bradley...in 30 minutes dished out eight assists, his second highest total.

In high school: Played guard for Ted Young at Clarkville High School...Class AAA Mr. Basketball Finalist led Wildcats to state tournament for second straight season...averaged 19.0 points, 5.4 rebounds and 4.8 assists per game as senior...scored game-high 19 points in 51-50 loss to eventual state champ Ridgeway in 2008 state quarterfinals...earned second straight Class AAA All-State Tournament honor...selected first-team All-State for second straight season as well as third straight Tennessean All-Midstate honors... nominated for McDonald's All-America team... three-time Leaf-Chronicle Player of the Year... two-time District 10-AAA MVP...was four-time all-district selection as well as three-time All-Region pick...scored more than 2,000 career points and left Clarkville High as its career assist leader... as junior, averaged 18.7 points, 5.8 assists, 4.6 rebounds and 2.2 steals per game while shooting 53.6 percent from the floor...led Clarkville High to state title game...scored five points in the final four seconds to send game into second overtime...scored 22 of his 26 points that night in the fourth quarter and overtime periods... as sopho-

CAREER REVIEW

Young sharpshooter is expected to move into starting lineup in second APSU season after serving as Govs' top bench performer in freshman season... considered candidate at wing position who can also, at times, slip inside...possesses solid all-round skills...accomplished perimeter shooter...competitive and resilient performer...owns strong proficiency on both ends of court...aggressive rebounder...willing defender who owns solid fundamentals on that end of the court...added bulk and strength to frame with rigorous off-season program.

As a freshman in 2008-09: Served as Govs' most valuable reserve a year ago...averaged 7.8 ppg overall, shooting an impressive 50 percent from floor...shot 37.1 percent from three-point line... numbers, however, were even better during OVC play...averaged 8.8 ppg, shooting 56.7 percent from floor and even more impressive 43.1 percent from three-point range during league play...scored double figures on 12 occasions...got off to slow start, scoring nine points in first three games...began to find his rhythm in fourth game against Lambuth, scoring eight points before breaking loose against Georgia Southern...tallied 12 points, on five-of-five shooting, and six rebounds against Eagles...also knocked down first two career three pointers in game...two games later, connected on three-of-five three-pointers to finish with 12 points on floor where he earned prep tourney MVP honors the previous year...also had seven rebounds in contest...came right back to hit four three-pointers (six attempts) in scoring 14 points at Louisville...named OVC Freshman of the Week for his efforts... went five consecutive games without reaching double figures, breaking string with career-high 16 points on six-of-eight shooting in 30 minutes against Morehead State, Jan. 3...ended contest three-of-four from three-point range...came right back with 10 points and three rebounds against Eastern Kentucky two nights later...scored just 10 points total, despite shooting five-of-seven from floor, in next two games before again putting together back-to-back double figure contests... scored 14 points on five-of eight shooting against Tennessee State before scoring tallying 12 points at home against Tennessee Tech...after scoring eight points at home against Jacksonville State, struggled in Death Valley swing, scoring 11 points on 4-of-12 shooting...resiliency was on display in Govs loss to UT Martin, scoring 12 points on five-of-nine shooting...had eight points in Govs home win against Murray State before netting double digits at Tennessee Tech, scoring 10 points on four-of-seven shooting...made season's first start at Jacksonville State, scoring 11 points on five-of-eight shooting...also started against Drake (six points) before returning to reserve role at home against Eastern Illinois...scored 11 points in game and earned his season's second and third starts at home against SEMO and first-round OVC tourney contest against Eastern Illinois... grabbed season-high eight rebounds in OVC tourney first-round game against Panthers...came off bench for final three contests...capped off season with 11-point effort against Bradley, going five-of-eight from floor.

In high school: Guard for Mike Waldo at Edwardsville High School...blossomed in senior season to earn multitude of honors...nearly averaged double-double in leading Tigers to 26-3 record...led team with 16.6 scoring average along with 9.2 rebounds per game...shot 58 percent from floor, including 51.2 percent from three-point range (67 three pointers)...also averaged 1.9 assists and 1.2 steals per game...scored season-high 25 points against Belleville East...selected second-team All-Metro St. Louis...earned Illinois Basketball Coaches Association third-team Class 3A-4A All-State...named Associated Press Class 4A honorable mention All-State...also honorable mention Chicago Tribune All-State...chosen first-team Alton Telegraph All-Area team...selected first-team All-Southwestern Conference...scored 13 points for South team in Illinois Basketball

Hoping to overcome injury issues in final Govs season...continues to battle knee troubles that are expected to keep him out for early 2009-10 season... after finishing 2007-08 season strong, struggled a year ago because of injury woes...when healthy owns great athletic ability...considered terrific leaper in the mold of former Govs LaMonte Ware and John Jenkins...adept player around rim...finishes with authority...effective facing basket, having developed consistent jump shot...still working to improve back-to-basket skills...active player on defensive end... considered tremendous shot blocker, leading team in that category a year ago...also has quickness to be strong on-ball defender...joined former Memphis prep teammate Wes Channels as Governor, following in the footsteps of former Govs star Adrian Henning, who also prepped at Ridgeway.

As a junior in 2008-09: Moved into starting role after coming off bench previous season...appeared in 28 games, missing five because of knee problems... opened season as starter but injury troubles left him coming off bench in season's final month...his scoring (4.5 ppg) and rebound (3.8) averages slipped from his sophomore numbers because of injury woes...played 31 minutes in second career start at Evansville, finishing with 11 points, four rebounds, two blocks and three steals...went two-for-two from three-point range, his only three pointers during season...played stellar post defense at Belmont in season's second game, dishing out career-best six steals... narrowly missed double-double at Georgia Southern, scoring 8 points while grabbing season-high 12 rebounds...connected on season-best five free throws at Arkansas, finishing with seven points... came off bench to score seven points, grab three rebounds and tie a career-high with three blocks against Stephen F. Austin in Jim Thorpe Classic contest...scored season-high 15 points, with six rebounds and four steals in home loss to Belmont...finished with nine points and eight rebounds against Eastern Kentucky while playing 30 minutes...ended with six points, six rebounds and three blocks in only 14 minutes at Murray State... suffered foot injury with 3:46 to play in the first half and did not return... missed three games...returned to action at Eastern Kentucky, coming off bench in overtime...started at Morehead State for the first time since returning from foot injury... played season-high 38 minutes against UT Martin, scoring 8 points and grabbing 6 rebounds in home loss...grabbed five rebounds in only nine minutes of action at Tennessee Tech... missed two more games with knee woes before being relegated to bench duty...came off bench to provide solid rebounding and defense in OVC semi-final action against Murray State, finishing with five points, six rebounds, three blocked shots and three steals...also played 35 minutes in OVC tourney title game, grabbing seven rebounds.

As a sophomore in 2007-08: Emerged as dependable, quality reserve during second Govs season, especially in season's final month-plus...after some inconsistent moments during 2007 portion of schedule, began to shine as year closed...scored 10 points, his first career double-digit performance, against Middle Tennessee, Dec. 29, while also grabbing seven rebounds...had solid eight-point outing in Govs home win against Eastern Illinois before becoming APSU's leading scorer with 15 points in loss at Murray State...went 11 of 12 at free-throw line game...shortly thereafter recorded career's first double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds off bench at Jacksonville state...proved to be relatively consistent performer the season's remainder... in fact, averaged 8.5 points and 6.4 rebounds per

Expected to challenge for starting spot on frontline in second Govs' season after coming off bench most of 2008-09....frontcourt prospect offers interesting potential to program...improved steadily during first on-court APSU season...also used spring trip to China with Global Partners Association to improve game...considered tremendously hard worker...owns wide frame with surprising upper-body strength...brings great rebounding ability to floor, using long arms and leaping ability to retrieve ball...has worked to improve his lower-body strength...been compared to former Govs' start Josh Lewis because of frame and rebounding ability...must continue to refine offensive skills, especially in post...considered coachable young player who has desire to improve.

As a redshirt freshman in 2008-09: Improved steadily during first campaign...grabbed three or more rebounds nine times...got off to slow start, playing sparingly in season's early stages...collected first career rebound in opener against Evansville...grabbed three rebounds, including two offensive, against Ohio...scored career's first basket on offensive rebound and a putback at SEMO in early December...celebrated 21st birthday with six points and seven rebounds against Oakland City in 2008's final game...on Jan. 22, scored six points on perfect three-of-three shooting against Tennessee Tech...two nights later played 20 minutes against Jacksonville State, scoring five points and snaring seven rebounds while blocking two shots...scored career-high eight points, including four-of-five at free-throw line at Morehead State...played career-high 26 minutes at Jacksonville State, finishing with six points, five rebounds and two steals...played 22 minutes at home against Eastern Illinois, finishing with four points and seven rebounds, including four offensive boards...after successive strong off-the-bench performances, made first career start against Southeast Missouri...narrowly missed double-double, matching career high with eight points while setting career-best with 10 rebounds in 25 minutes...also started first-round OVC tourney game against Eastern Illinois, playing 19 minutes...wrapped up season by playing 12 minutes against Bradley, grabbing three rebounds and recording two steals.

As a freshman in 2007-08: Redshirted in first season as Governor...used redshirt season to increase strength in weight room along with improving stamina...also worked on improving basketball skills, especially around the basket...he and fellow redshirt Marcel Williams spent many hours in gym working on elevating respective abilities.

CAREER REVIEW

Expected to provide more quality minutes in fourth APSU season...will be counted on in think frontcourt situation...has battled injury problems much of his career...when healthy, aggressive player on offensive end... long-armed youngster possesses both offensive and defensive potential...working on improving inside game...impressed staff as freshman with perimeter potential, but struggled with it a year ago...has innate offensive rebounding ability... has gained bulk and strength since arriving as freshman but must continue working on improving strength...also must become more consistent on defensive end.

As a redshirt sophomore in 2008-09: Played in 27 of 33 games a year ago, averaging 6.9 minutes per game...played double-digit minutes on nine occasions...averaged 1.9 ppg and 1.7 rpg per game... provided early season spark by providing 16 quality second-half minutes at Belmont, scoring five points, including his season's only three pointer...also grabbed five rebounds in Govs' comeback victory... played 10 minutes against Lambuth, scoring four points, collecting three rebounds and blocking one shots...tallied career's first double-figure scoring game at SEMO, knocking down 10 points while also grabbing four rebounds...despite early foul trouble, grabbed a career-high seven rebounds at home against Belmont... accumulated six points and four rebounds against Oakland City... in win at Tennessee State in mid-January totalled seven points, including a two-handed dunk... struggled offensively season's remainder, scoring just six points over 11 outings...did garner four rebounds in overtime loss at Eastern Kentucky in late January.

As a sophomore redshirt in 2007-08: Hand injury slowed progress in preseason practice... played sparingly in early going because of hand problems... failed to score in five games...did grab season-best three rebounds at Memphis...however, just prior to home Morehead State game in early December, re-injured hand...it was then decided to seek medical redshirt.

As a freshman in 2006-07: Late signee was expected to be redshirt candidate...in fact, sat for the first three games...however, his strong play in practice coupled with other inconsistent post play caused APSU to rescind the redshirt...scored eight points, including a pair of three pointers, against Tennessee Wesleyan in his debut...also had six rebounds in contest...hit a pair of key buckets against Tennessee Tech...also had four points and a trio of rebounds against Marian...had two points and rebound in two minutes against UT Martin...came off bench to provide quality minutes at SEMO, including key second-half bucket...played 14 minutes off bench against Eastern Illinois, scoring five points...played in 22 games total, averaging 2.1 ppg...17 of 27 rebounds were on offensive board.

In high school: Played center and power forward for Johnny Jones at Lansing Everett High School... averaged 14 points, nine rebounds and three blocks per game as a senior... also was a 78 percent free-throw shooter... team captain... honorable mention all-conference... rated one of Michigan's top 100 players... played at same high school that spawned Magic Johnson.

Personal: Planning to major in public manage-

CAREER REVIEW

Rugged frontcourt prospect again will be counted on for effective playing time in 2009-10...expected to challenge for starting position after earning starting call in six of final eight games a year ago... extremely strong individual...aggressive performer... considered good athlete who owns reputation as strong rebounder with shot-blocker capabilities... used offseason to develop more consistent offensive game...has spent countless hours working on developing more consistent shot, including at the line... has ability to put ball on floor and attack basket.

As a redshirt freshman in 2008-09: Endured typical first season ups and downs....started 12 times, including six games down the stretch...was third only to Kyle Duncan and Wes Channels in fouls committed, fouling out three times during season... shot impressive 60 percent from floor, but made just 47.1 percent at line...didn't start season opener at Evansville but provided 20 minutes off bench in first career game, blocking three shots while scoring first career bucket...tallied five points in 16 minutes against Ohio.... scored seven points, making three of five shots while grabbing three rebounds at SEMO...battled foul problems at Louisville, being charged with four in just 10 minutes...gained first career start against Stephen F. Austin in Jim Thorpe Classic, responding with four points and a team-high six rebounds....started for second time at home against Morehead State in early January, leading team with four rebounds....played then season-high 24 minutes, finished with six points and points rebounds, at Murray State.... starting in place of injured Ernest Fields, narrowly missed double-double at Tennessee State Jan. 17, finishing with career-high 10 points and nine rebounds...enjoyed strong defensive performance at home against Tennessee Tech, finishing with 10 rebounds and three blocked shots...grabbed six rebounds in loss at Eastern Kentucky...played just nine minutes in fouling out at Morehead State...also fouled out in road win at Tennessee Tech, finishing with four rebounds and three points...rejoined starting lineup Feb. 17 at Jacksonville State, starting three straight games... charged with four fouls in two of the games, limiting his minutes...one of three freshman (Anthony Campbell and Tyrone Caldwell being the others) to start at Drake in the ESPNU BracketBuster game, Feb. 21, finishing with three points and four rebounds... came off bench in OVC tourney first-round game against Eastern Illinois...pulled down five boards in game while scoring five points...as a result, earned start against Murray State in OVC finals, scoring seven points and grabbing five rebounds....returned also started both OVC tourney final contest and

As a freshman redshirt in 2007-08: Used redshirt to add even more strength and bulk to stout frame... added nearly 20 pounds of muscle after signing... he and fellow redshirt John Fraley spent much of 2007-08 learning system and working on improving basketball skills.

In high school: Played forward for Greg Shirley at Ocoee (Fla.) High School... four-year starter... averaged 15.5 points and 8.2 rebounds per game as senior...blocked 66 shots and was 55 percent field-goal shooter...selected honorable mention All-State in 2006-07...also was preseason McDonald's All-America nominee...earned earned All-Central Florida, all-county and all-conference...participated in Florida All-Star game. In addition to his scoring and rebounding averages, he blocked 66 shots as a senior and was a 55 percent field-goal shooter.

DUNN CENTER/DAVE AARON ARENA

The Winfield Dunn Center became home of the Governors and Lady Gobs indoor athletics in 1975 after ground was broken for the $5.3 million, 9,000-seat structure in February 1973.

The 132,000 square-foot complex, officially named the Winfield Dunn Health and Physical Education Building and Convocation Complex in honor of Governor Dunn, is a dominating edifice with 78 feet separating the top of the building from its maplewood playing surface. The Dunn Center replaced the Memorial Gymnasium, affectionately called "The Little Red Barn," which served as the Governors homecourt from 1952 until the Dec. 1, 1975 tip-off.

On Jan. 16, 1988, the basketball arena was named Dave Aaron Arena in honor of the school's former athletics director, football coach and then all-time winningest basketball coach.

Several improvements and modifications have taken place in recent years, including the addition of new scoreboards. Also, the floor lighting has been replaced to allow fans to better see Lady Gobs and Governors events and also accommodate photography needs. An elevator was installed in the late 1990s to better accommodate the handicapped.

But in Fall 2004, some major upgrades occurred, with new cushioned telescopic seating on the lower level east and west north end-zone areas. In addition, two new state-of-the-art indoor Light Emitting Diode (LED) large display screens were hung in the southeast and northwest corners. It is a fully integrated sports solution that includes a control system to operate and integrate the displays of video replays plus a package of many custom animations, including sponsored game elements and crowd interaction plus much more.

In Summer 2007, it was announced more renovations and upgrades would take place, with new telescopic cushioned seating being added to the second level.

In addition, former President Sherry Hoppe announced the playing surface would be named "Dave Loos Court."

The Dunn Center is home of Governors basketball and Lady Gobs volleyball and basketball. It also serves as a multipurpose practice facility for track, baseball and softball indoor workouts. APSU's athletic offices are located in the Dunn Center with the exception of tennis and baseball. The men and women's tennis office are located in the Governors Tennis Center, behind the right field fence at Lady Gobs softball field.

In Winter 2004, the Governors baseball offices were moved to the former home of the student newspaper, The All-State, to be closer to Raymond C. Hand Park.

The Dunn Center also houses the University's training facility as well as the sports information offices along with marketing/promotions office.

It also is home to the new David P. Roe Academic Services Center located on the second level.

Austin Peay athletics also work out in the newly renovated weight room, conveniently located in the Dunn Center's lower level south end. They also have access to dressing rooms, also subject to major renovations in Summer/Fall 2004.

Entering the facility's front lobby, visitors are impressed by the Hall of Fame area, honoring APSU's greatest former athletes, administrators and supporters.

Stepping just inside the Dunn Center one can look to both ends of the arena to observe APSU's retired jerseys.

The new LED video boards have added immensely to the Dunn Center atmosphere.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following miniums: Scoring Average – 20 games played, Field Goal Percentage – 75 FGM, Three-Point Field Goal Percentage – 40 3FGM, Free Throw Percentage – 50 FTM.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. Three-point field goals were added in 1986-87. In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following miniums: Averages – 20 games played.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current, with some exceptions. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. The following statistics are unofficial until the year noted at which time the NCAA recognized that category: assists (1983-84), blocked shots (1985-86) and steals (1985-86). In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following minimums: Scoring Average – 40 games played, Field Goal Percentage – 200 FGM, Three-Point Field Goal Percentage – 80 3FGM, Free Throw Percentage – 100 FTM.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. Three-point field goals were added in 1986-87. In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following miniums: Averages – 40 games played

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. The following statistics are unofficial until the year noted at which time the NCAA recognized that category: assists (1983-84), blocked shots (1985-86) and steals (1985-86). In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

CENTURY GAMES

With the return of the shot clock and the three-point shot in the past two decades, 100-point games have been on the upswing in college basketball.

For Austin Peay, in fact, the cycle took a definite swing with four 100-point games in 1986-87, the Govs winning three of them; five in 1987-88, APSU winning just one, and six in 1988-89, the Govs winning five.

With a change of coaches, also involved a style change during 1990-91. Dave Loos' team played in six 100-point games. The Govs scored the most single-game points in Dunn Center history with a 122-96 win against Milligan. APSU and Morehead State set a Dunn Center mark for combined points scored (237) in the Govs' 124-113 double-overtime loss. Morehead also set an arena mark for most points scored by the opposition.

In 1991-92, the Govs participated in five 100-point games. The two wins came back to back, a 102-100 decision against Morehead State and 103-97 verdict against SEC foe Mississippi State. In total, Loos' Govs have played in 29 games in which at least one team scored 100 points, including the 2007-08 season's 104-82 loss at Memphis and the Governors 121-116 triple overtime defeat at Southeast Missouri.

Over the years, the Govs have been involved in 124 games where at least one team scored 100 points, with 13 of those both clubs scoring 100 or more. Austin Peay has won 58 of the century games. Of the 13 which both teams scored 100 or more, the Govs are 5-8. The Dunn Center/Dave Aaron Arena has held 33 100-point contests, with APSU holding a 29-4 edge.

Only one century-mark game occurred while Austin Peay was a junior college, and Freed-Hardeman won that one, 104-30, during the 1934-35 season. An opponent of the 100-point mark was David Aaron (1946-62), who purposely passed up scoring opportunities to avoid his team hitting the century figure and causing opposition possible embarrassment. The long-time successful coach was forced into the situation during the 1958-59 season when Harry Gallatin made his college coaching debut for Southern Illinois. The Govs won the game 106-100 in Memorial Gymnasium ("Little Red Barn").
