ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

Intercollegiate athletics at Austin Peay State University aspires to provide educational and broad-based competitive opportunities at the NCAA Division I level for eligible male and female student athletes. Seeking to maintain a proper balance between athletic and academic programs, the University is committed to preparing students for productive, fulfilling and responsible lives. In addition to developing individual ability and successful programs, those athletic experiences will be instrumental in developing the concepts of teamwork, sportsmanship, loyalty, self-confidence plus the qualities of leadership and discipline. Intercollegiate athletics endeavors to provide positive impressions of University activities to a diversified group of audiences. Austin Peay strives to attract a diverse and talented group of participants, coaches and administrators with a strong commitment to excellence, openness, gender equity and integrity, reflecting a precise adherence to NCAA and conference rules and philosophies. As a result, Austin Peay athletics assumes a major role in assisting University development and fiscal responsibility. The departmental goals and objectives are based upon its mission as it builds on its traditions, confidently looking forward to an exciting and progressive future.

In today's college athletics world, it is hard to imagine one person handling an athletics department's two most demanding positions.

But Dave Loos has helped APSU thrive as both its head basketball coach and the Athletics Director. In fact, it is nearly unheard of in the world of NCAA athletics an athletics director also coaching, especially a sport as prominent as men's basketball.

What is remarkable is Loos, who is the dean of Ohio Valley Conference basketball coaches, also is the longest-serving athletics director at his university—he currently is in his 11th season.

His double duties aptly point out the respect Loos earned both on and off campus. He has applied the same common-sense approach to his athletics director's duties that have been representative of his APSU basketball tenure.

What is even more remarkable is that Loos, who is in his 19th season as Govs head coach, owns the mark for APSU's longest basketball coaching tenure and is the program's all-time wins leader, surpassing Dave Aaron in 2006-07. To honor such achievement, then-outgoing president, Dr. Sherry Hoppe, at the behest of several longtime basketball supporters, named the basketball floor Dave Loos Court.

In addition, Loos was inducted into the Austin Peay Athletics Hall of Fame last February. He enters the 2008-09 season needing just five wins to become only the second OVC history to reach 300 victories while in the league.

He also needs just two wins to pass Western Kentucky's legendary E.A. Diddle (296) for most victories while at a single OVC institution.

Such success didn't happen by accident. Loos not only has elevated APSU's program to the pinnacle of OVC prominence, but has done it as well with the dignity and class so reflective of the reputation he built as an athlete and as a high school/college coach.

He is only the second APSU coach to lead the Govs to an OVC regular-season and NCAA Division I tournament berth. His APSU teams have advanced at least to the OVC tourney semifinals in 11 of the last 14 years. That has sustained his reputation of elevating his club's play during February-March.

More impressively the Governors have been the OVC's top program since the turn of century. APSU has sported a .604 winning percentage during those eight seasons, including five 20-win seasons and four OVC regular-season titles. In fact, the Govs own a league-best 99-41 OVC record (70.7 percent) in the new millennium.

That underscores a Governors program that has possessed a .500 or better OVC record in each of the last 15 seasons. In fact, Loos is tied for the most combined regular-season and league tourney victories among the nation's coaches during the past six seasons.

That has resulted in Austin Peay winning the OVC tournament and gaining an NCAA tourney berth in 1996; APSU capturing a 1997 league co-championship—the first since 1977; shocking the league by winning both a regular-season co-championship and tourney title in 2003; posting an unprecedented 16-0 OVC campaign in 2004; winning the 2006-07 OVC regular-season title by a convincing three games and repeating it in 2007-08 while advancing to the NCAA tournament. Loos is the only APSU coach to earn multiple OVC Coach of the Year honors, in 1990-91, 1996-97, 2002-03, 2003-04 and 2006-07.

As a result, Loos achieved one of his program's goals—the Governors reclaiming their spot among the OVC elite and annually competing for the title.

Loos became Austin Peay's 11th head men's basketball coach on July 14, 1990. The likeable veteran coach has proven to be a "perfect fit" for the APSU program.

In his initial season, not only did his Govs produce a winning (15-14) season after a previous 10-19 campaign, they displayed an exciting style as well.

He became only the third Austin Peay coach to earn OVC Coach of the Year, the first to be recognized in his first Govs' season.

He then began building his own program with young men who reflected their coach both on and off the court and represented the University with great class.

The Govs struggled record-wise (11-17 and 7-20) the next two seasons as Loos was reinventing the soul of the program. The young 1993-94 team began 0-7 but finished strongly at 11-16. Picked to finish eighth in preseason polls, the Govs battled for the title much of the season, finally settling for third.

Since then APSU has developed a rich tradition of excellence.

In 1994-95, the Govs finished the regular-season at 12-15 but pulled two upsets in the OVC tournament before falling to Murray State when star forward Bubba Wells suffered a leg injury that later turned out to be a surgery-necessitating right leg stress fracture.

In 1995-96, the Governors again peaked late. In February, the Govs fashioned an 8-2 record, including six straight victories. APSU entered the NCAA tourney with a four-game win streak before losing to Georgia Tech.

A year later, the Governors finished 17-14 overall—with All-America forward Wells missing the season's first 12 games—but won six of their final eight games, including a four-game winning streak that helped clinch a regular-season OVC co-championship.

In 1997-98, the Govs, despite a rebuilding season, ended the season with a surprising 17-11 record and a fourth-place OVC finish.

In 1998-99, the young Govs finished in a third-place OVC tie, although the 11-16 mark ended the string of winning seasons at three.

A year later, the Govs ended 18-11. The 18 wins, at the time, represented the most regular-season wins by the Govs since 1976-77.

APSU topped that mark in 1999-00 with a 22-10 record—the Govs' first 20-win mark since 1986-87.

It was a 14-18 mark in 2001-02 as the Governors possessed only one senior. That returning group completely turned around those losing fortunes in 2002-03. In going 23-8, the Govs won 15 of their last 16 regular-season games to win a share of the OVC title, the OVC tourney championship and a trip to the NCAA tourney. The 23 wins represented the third most in school history.

But the 2003-04 season saw the Govs make a remarkable run through the OVC, becoming only the fourth team in league history to go unbeaten in conference play. The Govs were just one of three teams in the country to finish league play without a loss.

Despite losing four senior starters, the Govs were in the 2005 OVC regular-season race until the final weekend and stunned Samford and top-seed Tennessee Tech in the OVC tourney before narrowly losing to Eastern Kentucky in the title tilt. The Govs finished 9-7 in the OVC. APSU owned an 11-9 league mark in 2006 with a 17-14 overall mark with a young team.

In 2006-07, the Governors, despite having no seniors on the roster, overcame a slow start to finish at 21-12 overall, the third 20-win season during Loos's tenure. More importantly, the Govs ran away with the OVC crown, going 16-4.

The 2007-08 season was even more remarkable. The odds-on choice to repeat as league champions, the Governors battle a much-improved league, yet finished with an identical 16-4 record and won the regular season by the same three-game margin. It was only the second time in OVC history that a team posted back-to-back 16-win seasons.

The Govs' 24-11 overall record also tied the APSU mark for single-season wins, both overall and as a Division I program.

Loos has earned respect from peers for his coaching ability and the manner he directs the program, reflective in the fact he now is the only coach in OVC history to have as many as five "Coach of the Year" honors.

2008-2009 AUSTIN PEAY GOVERNORS

Loos came to APSU after four seasons as Memphis' top assistant. He joined Larry Finch in 1986 and helped direct his alma mater to an 85-43 record, including two NCAA tourney appearances and a Metro Conference tourney title during his tenure.

Prior to joining Memphis State, Loos enjoyed four successful head-coaching seasons at Christian Brothers College in Memphis. He took over that program in 1982-83, and after an initial 16-14 season, recorded three straight 20-win campaigns. In 1985, CBC captured its first Volunteer State Athletic Conference crown, the VSAC tourney title and second place in the National Catholic Tournament.

For his efforts, he earned VSAC, NAIA District 24 and NAIA Area V Coach of the Year honors. He also was named the National Catholic Tournament Outstanding Coach.

Loos' move to CBC came after spending eight seasons as head coach at his prep alma mater, Mehlville High School in St. Louis. Taking over a program that previously had endured 11 straight losing seasons, Loos led his team to five winning campaigns, including a state tourney berth. He left the school as its winningest coach.

The Missouri native played both basketball and baseball during his college days at Memphis State, where he was inducted into its athletic Hall of Fame in September 2002. Loos was the starting point guard for the 1968-69 Tigers, leading the team in minutes played. He also was an all-conference shortstop for the Tigers baseball team.

Upon completing his eligibility, he remained at Memphis as an assistant in 1970. Following his graduation (1970), he officially began his coaching career as an assistant basketball and head baseball coach at CBC.

He and his wife, Phyllis, have four children, David, who broadcasts Gobs and Lady Gobs sports; Todd, who is in the music business; Brad, the former Gov who is associated head basketball coach at Central Missouri, and Nicole Peterson, who formerly was a member of the school's dance team and now works in the APSU alumni office.

They also have four grandchildren: William Daniel, Olivia Joy and Katie Grace, children of David and Pam Loos; Brady Jonathan, son of Brad and Jennifer Loos.

Scott Combs is in his 13th season with the Austin Peay basketball program, his sixth as full-time assistant.

He came to APSU in 1996-97 as a player. Since then, he has been a fixture in the program, working his way up the coaching ladder.

Following his playing days, Combs assumed the role as administrative assistant while in graduate school—he and former high school and Govs teammate Joe Sibbitt were the first recipients of the Leon Bibb Hall of Fame Scholarship—in 1999-00. In that role he served as the program's video coordinator along with helping in all day-to-day operations. He also served as administrative assistant to the athletics director that year.

A year later, he was elevated to assistant coach and has played an integral part in the Govs successes since, which has seen the Govs record 20 or more wins in four of the last six years and back-to-back OVC championships on two occasions, including the 2006-07 and 2007-08. The 2002-03 and 2007-08 teams advanced to the NCAA tournament while the 2003-04 club won a game in the NIT. Also during his coaching tenure, APSU captured the 2000 Top of the World Classic championship.

In his current role, Combs helps in the daily operations of the program, working in all coaching aspects, in particular with player development, monitoring academic progress and scouting opponents. He also serves as the program's recruiting coordinator.

In addition, each June he serves as the director of the Dave Loos Basketball Camps.

A versatile front-liner who was known for his selfless play and other intangibles he brought to the floor, Combs played his final two seasons (1997-99) at APSU after transferring from Missouri, where he played his freshman (1994-95) and sophomore (1995-96) seasons. He was named honorable mention Big 8 all-Academic while at Missouri. In addition, he was a member of a Missouri squad that played in the 1995 NCAA tournament—after beating Indiana the Tigers lost to eventual national champion UCLA on a last-second shot—and the 1996 NIT.

The Indianian is one of the select few who has played and coached in both the NCAA and NIT tournaments.

Combs sat out 1996-97 at APSU as a transfer redshirt. After serving as a reserve guard and forward as a junior, Combs ended up being the Govs starting post player as a senior. He averaged 6.8 points, shooting a team-best 54.8 percent from the floor, and 5.3 rebounds per game. His rebound totals ranked 14th in the OVC.

Off the floor, Combs earned CoSIDA District IV Academic All-District as a senior, when he posted a 4.0 GPA. He also served as president of the Student athlete Advisory Council (SAAC).

Combs graduated in 1997 with bachelor's degrees in mathematics and education. He began his graduate work while completing his final season of eligibility, earning his master's in Sports Administration.

A Lebanon, Ind., native, he starred at Paoli High School, scoring a school record 1958 points, ranking him 31st all-time in the state. He was voted runner-up Indiana Mr. Basketball in 1994 and was selected to play on the prestigious Indiana All-Star team. His prep career followed an AAU one that saw him voted All-American six times.

In addition to coaching, Combs formerly served as a physical education teacher (2000-02) at St. Mary's Catholic School. He and former Govs teammate Mike Head, now a local prep coach, held local summer basketball camps in addition to working APSU camps. Currently, he serves as co-SAAC advisor.

Combs is married to the former Casey Jenkins, who is Internet Manager at Jenkins and Wynne-Ford-Lincoln-Mercury-Honda. He enjoys playing cards, water sports, playing the piano and golfing in his free time.

The leading scorer in Austin Peay men's basketball history is now part of elevating the program to even greater heights.

Charles "Bubba" Wells, the 1997 Ohio Valley Conference "Player of the Year" and two-time OVC "Male Athlete of the Year" who gained national attention for his miraculous return from a leg stress fracture, was hired in June 2005 as a full-time assistant.

Wells, who battled assorted leg problems throughout his college and pro careers, chose to take a different route with his basketball future—coaching. And he wanted to do it at the school where he built a reputation as not only one of the program's greatest players in history but as well in a conference where he was billed as one of the best during its 60-year existence.

Considered by many the most popular player in OVC history, Wells finished his career with 2,267 points—the first APSU player to reach 2,000 points—ranking him third all-time in the OVC. He was a three-time first-team All-OVC choice after being named the league's "Freshman of the Year" in 1993-94. Wells was the 1997 OVC "Player of the Year" and the 1996 and 1997 OVC "Male Athlete of the Year." He also was two-time Tennessee Sportswriters College Basketball "Player of the Year."

Wells jersey (13) was retired Jan. 22, 1998 and he was inducted into the APSU athletics Hall of Fame, Feb. 8, 2003 after being two-time APSU Outstanding Male athlete (1995-96, 1996-97) and the 1997 Joy Award recipient as the most valuable senior athlete.

As a senior he was named third-team Preseason All-America by Athlon Magazine and all-district by both the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). He was named to the Basketball Times All-South team. He also captured his second straight Tennessee Sportswriters College Basketball "Player of the Year" award.

As a sophomore, Wells averaged 19.3 ppg and followed that up with a 26.3 ppg (third in nation) in 1995-96, earning the OVC Tourney MVP in leading the Gobs to a championship and NCAA tourney appearance. Wells still owns several OVC tournament records.

But it was his senior year that drew nationwide attention. He missed the season's first 12 games with a stress fracture in his left tibia, requiring surgery to place a tibial nail in the lower leg. He underwent similar surgery following the 1994-95 season, needing five months to rehabilitate.

However, this time the rehab process took less than five weeks and in his debut game, he scored 39 points in 28 minutes. As a result, the performance and the surgery were featured in "USA Today." He went on to become the nation's unofficial scoring leader (he did not have enough games played to qualify for the official title), averaging 31.7 ppg, scoring 30 or more points 11 times including three 40-point games. His 1996-97 scoring mark also broke the legendary James "Fly" Williams (29.5 ppg) mark for single-season scoring average. He was called the "best offensive player" among draft-eligible seniors by NBA draft guru Marty Blake.

His performance also caught the attention of "The Los Angeles Times" in a front-page story about "The Man of Steel" and segments on both CBS NCAA College Basketball "at the Half" and a seven-minute feature—the "Real Rod Man"—on NBC's "Today" show. He was named InfoSport: Basketball's 1996-97 National Comeback Player of the Year. Prior to the season, he was featured in The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated and the Dick Vitale College Basketball Yearbook.

For his career, Wells averaged 21.6 ppg, 7.1 rebounds while shooting 52 percent from the floor.

He was drafted by the Dallas Mavericks in the second round of the 1997 draft and played one season before being traded to the Phoenix Suns and then to the Chicago Bulls. A torn achilles tendon and other leg/groin injuries slowed his professional career, although he played in the Philippines and the Euro League in Greece for two seasons. He then played for the Harlem Globetrotters for two years.

Now Wells is using his playing experience, and his effervescent personality and ability to communicate with young people at the coaching level.

On the floor, Wells works with the post players—he was one of the nation's best post-up players during his APSU career.

Off the floor, he was named APSU's "Outstanding Young Alumnus" in 2006.

In his free time, he likes to spend time with his daughter, playing golf, fishing and watching movies.

Wells has one daughter, Alyiah, age six.

In August 2007, he married the former Tracee Jones, head women's basketball coach at Tennessee State. The previous summer Wells served as a supporter to Jones on NBC's hit TV show, "Deal or No Deal."

DUGAN
LYNE
Graduate Assistant
First Season
Austin Peay, 2008

Dugan Lyne has ascended to graduate assistant coach after serving his previous four years as the program's manager.

It is only fitting that Lyne begin his coach career under APSU head coach Dave Loos. In fact, Lyne literally has known Loos all his life. His mother, Mitzi Lyne, formerly worked in the basketball office with Loos at Memphis when the APSU coach was an assistant for Larry Finch.

At that point Lyne developed his love for basketball. He carried his love for basketball into high school where he served as a student assistant for Bubba Luckett at Christian Brothers in Memphis.

When Lyne was looking for a place to go to college, it only was natural that he would come to Austin Peay.

As basketball manager, Lyne worked in many aspects of the program during one of APSU's most successful eras, including last season's second straight OVC regular-season title and a trip to the 2008 NCAA tournament. In fact, he has helped in video exchange, something he will be in charge of as graduate assistant. He also will be involved with breaking down tape and other day-to-day coaching duties, both on and off the floor.

CAREER REVIEW

Govs' "sixth starter" for the past two seasons expected to move into actual starting lineup in 2008-09...aggressive player on both ends of court...owns tremendous court awareness and solid decision-making capabilities...has ability to control speed of game...strong player who is tremendously effective posting up inside... possesses good speed and quickness...not afraid to attack basket...has improved defensively, reflective in steals totals rising nearly 20 during second season...has markedly improved perimeter shooting ability, including making at least two three pointers in 14 games a year ago...played almost exclusively at off-guard or wing position as sophomore after playing some point guard as freshman...spent much of summer in Clarksville working and working on game.

As a sophomore in 2007-08: First man off bench for much of season...did start six early season games before returning to "sixth-man" role...one of five Govs to average in double-figures scoring wise...reached double figures 18 times...finished second on team in steals...got off to quick in second Govs season...scored in double figures in first six games...in fact, moved into the starting lineup in contest at Memphis, where he score 16 points in his trip home...then opened OVC season by knocking down 10 field goals en route to 25-point effort in road win at Tennessee Tech... as a result of those two performances was named OVC Player of the Week...scored single digits in two of next three games before it was decided to return him to "sixth man" role...proceeded to string together four straight double-digit efforts...endured three-game slump during early January before scoring 14 points against Southeast Missouri and 16 versus UT Martin... then slumped again before producing career-best 29-point effort against Murray State, going 8of-10 from the floor...knocked down career-best six three pointers in game... hit game-tying bucket prior to overtime and the proceeded to score 13 overtime points...followed that up with 17-point performance against Tennessee State before protracted slump saw him go seven straight games without scoring in double digits... opened OVC tourney with 12-point effort against Eastern Kentucky before scoring team-best 16 points against UT Martin... knocked down at least one three pointer in 24 games...has recorded 49 steals.

As a freshman in 2006-07: Was valuable commodity in first APSU season...played in all 33 games...proved to be valuable reserve until moving into starting lineup for final six games following Kyle Duncan's knee injury...had five double-figure scoring efforts as a reserve and four more as a starter...got off to quick early start...scored seven points off bench in opener against Dayton and then had game-high 11 against Illinois in 28 minutes...secured seven rebounds at Arkansas State...played key defensive role against Middle Tennessee in Govs overtime victory...also had five points in contest...with backcourt mates ailing, came off bench to score nine points against UT-Martin...also came off bench to score then career-high 17 points, dish out four assists and grab three steals at Jacksonville State...provided six points in nine minutes off bench against SEMO...again was solid off the bench against Murray State, providing nine points in just 11 minutes, including team's first three pointer in contest...had second strong outing against Jacksonville State, scoring 12 points...knocked down a trio of threes while also grabbing five rebounds...earned co-OVC Freshman of the Week honors after averaging 8.5 ppg in games against Jacksonville State and Samford...continued strong off-the-bench play with eight points

CAREER REVIEW

Again expected to provide leadership to Governors lineup...moved into starting lineup as freshman and has been starter for almost remaining part of career....glue-type individual whose numbers belie his contributions...hard-nosed performer brings defensive mindset to floor, using his great athleticism and wingspan to smother opponents...plays with terrific passion on both ends of floor...also brings solid offensive game to court...streak shooter who became effective three-point shooter in 2007-08, setting APSU record for single-season three-point shooting percentage (55.1 percent) despite unorthodox shooting style...also has improved free-throw shooting...uses athletic ability and aggressiveness to attack basket... for first time in three years didn't have to spend summer rehabilitating from offseason knee surgery...however, remained in Clarksville continuing to not only work on games but also on conditioning, improving strength.

As a junior in 2007-08: Extensive and thorough offseason rehab program brought talented wing back a month ahead of schedule from significant left knee surgery (anterior cruciate tear)...was expected to miss season's first month of practice but was there from Day 1...dropped more than 10 pounds leading up to season's start...started all but four games during junior season...got off to slow start before scoring 13 points against Florida Gulf Coast during South Padre Island Invitational...it was first double-digit scoring performance since Dec. 2006...ended season with nine double-digit scoring performances, including season-best 16 points against Tennessee State, Feb. 2...went 5-of-6 from the floor in game while collecting three steals...also grabbed season-high eight rebounds...also had 15 points in Govs' overtime win at UT Martin while grabbing seven rebounds...tallied 13 points against Eastern Kentucky in OVC tourney opener, matching his career best with a trio of three pointers...went perfect 3-for-3 from floor in OVC tourney semifinal win against UT Martin before producing standout defense in championship game...shut down All-OVC guard Bruce Price in title game, holding standout guard to just three points...led OVC in three-point shooting...made at least one three pointer in 27 games, including two against Texas in NCAA Regional.

As a sophomore in 2006-07: After comeback from offseason knee surgery and other medical troubles, got off to slow start...scored only two points through the first three games before recording seven against Tennessee Wesleyan...came up with eight points and five rebounds at Morehead State...tallied six points at Memphis and seven against Evansville before carding only four against Middle Tennessee...broke loose against Marian, connecting on five-of-eight field goals, including his first two three pointers, for season-best 12 points...scored four points and grabbed four rebounds (three offensive) in only 11 minutes against UT Martin, sitting out all of second half with hip pointer...sealed OT win at Eastern Illinois with pair of free throws in closing seconds...had solid effort against SEMO, scoring eight points to go with team-best eight rebounds...collected seven points and three steals at UT Martin...was perfect from floor (3-3) against Samford and had five rebounds...had six rebounds and produced outstanding defensive performance against Samford's Randall Gulina in Govs road game in Birmingham...was on way to outstanding game at Tennessee Tech, going four-of-five from floor and scoring nine points before being injured...finished season averaging 4.3 points and 3.4 rebounds per game.

As a freshman in 2005-06: Moved into starting lineup in Game 7 with fellow freshman Drake Reed and never relinquished it...developed into team's defensive stopper...scored eight points in first game as starter against Morehead State... before knocking down career's first double-figure contest against Eastern Kentucky when he scored 12 points on five-of-seven shooting... also had seven rebounds in contest...was perfect six-for-six from floor, including two three pointers against UT Martin for career-high 18 points...scored nine points and delivered three assists while blocking two shots at home against SEMO... also helped to hold OVC leading scorer Roy Booker to just 5-of-20 from the floor...had 10 points on four-of-five shooting against Tennessee State...collected career's first double-double with 10 points and 11 rebounds at home against Samford...was perfect six-for-six from the line...also had 10 rebounds at Eastern Kentucky before fouling out in game's final minutes...finished seasons averaging 5.9 points and 4.1 rebounds per game.

In high school: Played guard/forward for Scott White at Ben Davis High School... averaged 15 points, eight rebounds per game as a senior along with 2.5 steals... selected first-team All-Metropolitan Interscholastic Conference... also honorable mention Marion County... named by Hoosier Magazine as one of Indiana's Top 100 as well as one of High Potential Recruiting Top 40 seniors... played on the Indiana Select AAU team as well as for the county team in the Jermaine O'Neal Super Shootout.

Personal: Sociology major with plans to work with young people after graduation...son of Charles and Yvonne Duncan... born Sept. 24, 1986... age 22.

CAREER REVIEW

Talented frontcourt performer expected to move into starting lineup after finishing 2007-08 in strong fashion...should step into spot vacated by graduated senior Fernandez Lockett...overcame inconsistency during early part of 2007-08 to become force down stretch, in particular during February...after adjusting slowly to college game as freshman, his overall game just starting to emerge...owns great athletic ability...considered terrific leaper in the mold of former Govs LaMonte Ware and John Jenkins...adept player around the rim...finishes with authority...effective facing basket, having developed consistent jump shot, even from three-point range...still working to improve back-to-basket skills...active player on the defensive end...considered tremendous shot blocker, leading team in that category a year ago...also has quickness to be strong on-ball defender...worked hard in weight room during offseason to improve strength...joined former prep teammate Wes Channels as Governor, following in the footsteps of former Govs star Adrian Henning, who also prepped at Ridgeway.

As a sophomore in 2007-08: Emerged as dependable, quality reserve during second Govs season, especially in season's final month-plus... after some inconsistent moments during 2007 portion of schedule, began to shine as year closed...scored 10 points, his first career double-digit performance, against Middle Tennessee, Dec. 29, while also grabbing seven rebounds... had solid eight-point outing in Govs home win against Eastern Illinois before becoming APSU's leading scorer with 15 points in loss at Murray State... went 11 of 12 at free-throw line game...shortly thereafter recorded career's first double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds off bench at Jacksonville state...proved to be relatively consistent performer the season's remainder...in fact, averaged 8.5 points and 6.4 rebounds per game over final 13 contests...had nine games with five rebounds or more during stretch...provided career's first career start at Eastern Kentucky when Drake Reed was suspended...proved dominating by scoring career-high 16 points, on 7-of-11 shooting, while grabbing 16 rebounds...rebound total was most by a Gov since since Jan. 19, 2006...less than week later scored 15 more points against Eastern Kentucky in first-round OVC tourney game...narrowly missed double-double in NCAA Tourney Regional game against Texas coming off bench...was Govs leading scorer (14 points) and rebounder (nine), going five-of-six from floor...named APSU's Player of the Game by CBS.

As a freshman in 2006-07: Appeared in 32 of 33 games, including double-figure minutes on 12 occasions...averaged 1.7 points and 1.6 rebounds per game...played season-high 18 minutes in home contest against Tennessee State...also played 14 minutes on return trip to Memphis...came off bench to score season-high six points at Morehead State...later matched that total at Memphis...scored four points on six different occasions...made 14 straight free throws at one point, including going four-for-four against Marian...in fact, shot 79.2 percent from line on season...played 10 minutes against SEMO. Responded with three rebounds and put-back dunk...had five rebounds and two steals in just 14 minutes at UT Martin...had four points and four

Hopes to bounce back from hand injury that caused him to miss most of 2007-08...injury eventually led to medical redshirt...when healthy, aggressive player on offensive end... long-armed youngster possesses both offensive and defensive potential...working on improving inside game...impressed staff as freshman with perimeter potential...has been compared to former Gov Josh Lewis because of his long arms...has innate offensive rebounding ability...has gained bulk and strength since arriving as freshman.

As a sophomore redshirt in 2007-08: Hand injury slowed progress in preseason practice... played sparingly in early going because of hand problems...failed to score in five games...did grab season-best three rebounds at Memphis...however, just prior to home Morehead State game in early December, re-injured hand...it was then decided to seek medical redshirt.

As a freshman in 2006-07: Late signee was expected to be redshirt candidate...in fact, sat for the first three games...however, his strong play in practice coupled with other inconsistent post play caused APSU to rescind the redshirt... scored eight points, including a pair of three pointers, against Tennessee Wesleyan in his debut...also had six rebounds in contest...hit a pair of key buckets against Tennessee Tech...also had four points and a trio of rebounds against Marian...had two points and rebound in two minutes against UT Martin... came off bench to provide quality minutes at SEMO, including key second-half bucket...played 14 minutes off bench against Eastern Illinois, scoring five points...played in 22 games total, averaging 2.1 ppg...17 of 27 rebounds were on offensive board.

In high school: Played center and power forward for Johnny Jones at Lansing Everett High School... averaged 14 points, nine rebounds and three blocks per game as a senior... also was a 78 percent free-throw shooter... team captain... honorable mention all-conference... rated one of Michigan's top 100 players... played at same high school that spawned Magic Johnson.

Personal: Planning to major in public management... son of Danny and Doris Roberson... born Sept. 6, 1988... age 20.

DUNN CENTER/DAVE AARON ARENA

The Winfield Dunn Center became home of the Governors and Lady Gobs indoor athletics in 1975 after ground was broken for the $5.3 million, 9,000-seat structure in February 1973.

The 132,000 square-foot complex, officially named the Winfield Dunn Health and Physical Education Building and Convocation Complex in honor of Governor Dunn, is a dominating edifice with 78 feet separating the top of the building from its maplewood playing surface. The Dunn Center replaced the Memorial Gymnasium, affectionately called "The Little Red Barn," which served as the Governors' homecourt from 1952 until the Dec. 1, 1975 tip-off.

On Jan. 16, 1988, the basketball arena was named Dave Aaron Arena in honor of the school's former athletics director, football coach and then all-time winningest basketball coach.

Several improvements and modifications have taken place in recent years, including the addition of new scoreboards. Also, the floor lighting has been replaced to allow fans to better see Lady Gobs and Governors events and also accommodate photography needs. An elevator was installed in the late 1990s to better accommodate the handicapped.

But in Fall 2004, some major upgrades occurred, with new cushioned telescopic seating on the lower level east and west north end-zone areas. In addition, two new state-of-the-art indoor Light Emitting Diode (LED) large display screens were hung in the southeast and northwest corners. It is a fully integrated sports solution that includes a control system to operate and integrate the displays of video replays plus a package of many custom animations, including sponsored game elements and crowd interaction plus much more.

In Summer 2007, it was announced more renovations and upgrades would take place, with new telescopic cushioned seating being added to the second level.

In addition, former President Sherry Hoppe announced the playing surface would be named "Dave Loos Court."

The Dunn Center is home of Governors basketball and Lady Gobs volleyball and basketball. It also serves as a multipurpose practice facility for track, baseball and softball indoor workouts.

APSU's athletic offices are located in the Dunn Center with the exception of tennis and baseball. The men and women's tennis office are located in the Governors Tennis Center, behind the right field fence at Lady Gobs softball field.

In Winter 2004, the Governors baseball offices were moved to the former home of the student newspaper, The All-State, to be closer to Raymond C. Hand Park.

The Dunn Center also houses the University's training facility as well as the sports information offices along with marketing/promotions office.

It also is home to the new David P. Roe Academic Services Center located on the second level.

Austin Peay athletics also work out in the newly renovated weight room, conveniently located in the Dunn Center's lower level south end. They also have access to dressing rooms, also subject to major renovations in Summer/Fall 2004.

Entering the facility's front lobby, visitors are impressed by the Hall of Fame area, honoring APSU's greatest former athletes, administrators and supporters.

Stepping just inside the Dunn Center one can look to both ends of the arena to observe APSU's retired jerseys.

The new LED video boards have added immensely to the Dunn Center atmosphere.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following minimums: Scoring Average – 40 games played, Field Goal Percentage – 200 FGM, Three-Point Field Goal Percentage – 80 3GM, Free Throw Percentage – 100 FTM.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. Three-point field goals were added in 1986-87. In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following minimums: Averages – 40 games played

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. The following statistics are unofficial until the year noted at which time the NCAA recognized that category: assists (1983-84), blocked shots (1985-86) and steals (1985-86). In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

CENTURY GAMES

With the return of the shot clock and the three-point shot in the past two decades, 100-point games have been on the upswing in college basketball.

For Austin Peay, in fact, the cycle took a definite swing with four 100-point games in 1986-87, the Govs winning three of them; five in 1987-88, APSU winning just one, and six in 1988-89, the Govs winning five.

With a change of coaches, also involved a style change during 1990-91. Dave Loos' team played in six 100-point games. The Govs scored the most single-game points in Dunn Center history with a 122-96 win against Milligan. APSU and Morehead State set a Dunn Center mark for combined points scored (237) in the Govs' 124-113 double-overtime loss. Morehead also set an arena mark for most points scored by the opposition.

In 1991-92, the Govs participated in five 100-point games. The two wins came back to back, a 102-100 decision against Morehead State and 103-97 verdict against SEC foe Mississippi State. In total, Loos' Govs have played in 29 games in which at least one team scored 100 points, including last season's 104-82 loss at Memphis and the Governors 121-116 triple overtime defeat at Southeast Missouri.

Over the years, the Govs have been involved in 124 games where at least one team scored 100 points, with 13 of those both clubs scoring 100 or more. Austin Peay has won 58 of the century games. Of the 13 which both teams scored 100 or more, the Govs are 5-8. The Dunn Center/Dave Aaron Arena has held 33 100-point contests, with APSU holding a 29-4 edge.

Only one century-mark game occurred while Austin Peay was a junior college, and Freed-Hardeman won that one, 104-30, during the 1934-35 season. An opponent of the 100-point mark was David Aaron (1946-62), who purposely passed up scoring opportunities to avoid his team hitting the century figure and causing opposition possible embarrassment. The long-time successful coach was forced into the situation during the 1958-59 season when Harry Gallatin made his college coaching debut for Southern Illinois. The Govs won the game 106-100 in Memorial Gymnasium ("Little Red Barn").
