Austin Peay Athletics Mission Statement

Intercollegiate athletics at Austin Peay State University aspires to provide educational and broad-based competitive opportunities at the NCAA Division I level for eligible male and female student athletes. Seeking to maintain a proper balance between athletic and academic programs, the University is committed to preparing students for productive, fulfilling and responsible lives. In addition to developing individual ability and successful programs, those athletic experiences will be instrumental in developing the concepts of teamwork, sportsmanship, loyalty, self-confidence plus the qualities of leadership and discipline. Intercollegiate athletics endeavors to provide positive impressions of University activities to a diversified group of audiences. Austin Peay strives to attract a diverse and talented group of participants, coaches and administrators with a strong commitment to excellence, openness, gender equity and integrity, reflecting a precise adherence to NCAA and conference rules and philosophies. As a result, Austin Peay athletics assumes a major role in assisting University development and fiscal responsibility. The departmental goals and objectives are based upon its mission as it builds on its traditions, confidently looking forward to an exciting and progressive future.

In today's college athletics world, it is hard to imagine one person handling an athletics department's two most demanding positions.

But Dave Loos has helped APSU thrive as both its head basketball coach and the Athletics Director. In fact, it is nearly unheard of in the world of NCAA athletics an athletics director also coaching, especially a sport as prominent as men's basketball.

What is remarkable is Loos, who is the dean of Ohio Valley Conference basketball coaches, also is the longest-serving athletics director at his university—he currently is in his ninth season.

His double duties aptly point out the respect Loos earned both on and off campus. His common-sense approach to athletics director's duties have been with the same diligence that have been so representative of his APSU basketball tenure.

What is even more remarkable is that Loos, who begins his 16th season as Gobs head coach—and 20th overall, in 2005-06 will tie the legendary Dave Aaron for the longest APSU basketball coaching tenure.

And that didn't happen by accident. Loos not only has elevated APSU's program to the pinnacle of OVC prominence, but has done it as well with the dignity and class so reflective of the reputation he built as an athlete and as a high school/college coach.

He is only the second APSU coach to lead the Gobs to an OVC regular-season championship and NCAA Division I tournament berth. His APSU teams have advanced to at least the OVC tourney semifinals in 9 of the last 11 years. That has sustained his reputation of elevating his club's play during February-March, where the Gobs own a .679 winning percentage over the last 10 seasons.

The Gobs have owned a .500 record or better OVC record in each of the of the last 12 seasons and are second in winning percentage during that span.

That has resulted in Austin Peay winning the Ohio Valley Conference tournament and gaining an NCAA tourney berth in 1996; APSU capturing a 1997 league co-championship—the first since 1977, shocking the league by winning both a regular-season co-championship and tourney title in 2003 and posting an undefeated OVC campaign in 2004. Loos is the only APSU coach to earn multiple OVC Coach of the Year honors, in 1990-91, 1996-1997, 2002-03 and again in 2003-04 with an unprecedented 16-0 league campaign.

As a result, Loos achieved one of his program's goals—the Governors reclaiming their spot among the OVC elite and annually competing for the title.

Loos became Austin Peay's 11th head men's basketball coach on July 14, 1990. The likeable 58-year-old has proven to be a "perfect fit" for the APSU program.

In his initial season, not only did his Gobs produce a winning (15-14) season after a previous 10-19 campaign, they displayed an exciting style as well.

The Gobs struggled record-wise (11-17 and 7-20) the next two seasons as Loos was reinventing the soul of the program. The young 1993-94 team began 0-7 but finished strongly at 11-16. Picked to finish eighth in preseason polls, the Gobs battled for the title much of the season, finally settling for third. Since then APSU has developed a rich tradition of excellence.

In 1994-95, the Gobs finished the regular-season at 12-15 but pulled two upsets in the OVC tournament before falling to Murray State when star forward Bubba Wells suffered a leg injury that later turned out to be a surgery-necessitating right leg stress fracture.

In 1995-96, the Governors again peaked late. In February, the Gobs fashioned an 8-2 record, including six straight victories. APSU entered the NCAA tourney with a four-game win streak before losing to Georgia Tech.

A year later, the Governors finished 17-

14 overall—with All-America forward Wells missing the season's first 12 games—but won six of their final eight games, including a four-game winning streak that helped clinch a regular-season OVC co-championship.

In 1997-98, the Govs, despite a rebuilding season, ended the season with a surprising 17-11 record and a fourth-place OVC finish.

In 1998-99, the young Govs finished in a third-place OVC tie, although the 11-16 mark ended the string of winning seasons at three.

A year later, the Govs ended 18-11. The 18 wins represented the most regular-season wins by the Govs since 1976-77.

APSU topped in 1999-00 with a 22-10 record—the Govs' first 20-win mark since 1986-87.

It was a 14-18 mark in 2001-02 as the Governors possessed only one senior. That returning group completely turned around those losing fortunes in 2002-03. In going 23-8, the Govs won 15 of their last 16 regular-season games to win a share of the OVC title, the OVC tourney championship and a trip to the NCAA tourney. The 23 wins represented the third most in school history.

But the 2003-04 season saw the Govs make a remarkable run through the OVC, becoming only the fourth team in league history to go unbeaten in conference play. The Govs were just one of three teams in the country to finish league play without a loss.

Despite losing four senior starters, the Govs were in the 2005 OVC regular-season race until the final weekend and stunned Samford and top-seed Tennessee Tech in the OVC tourney before narrowly losing to Eastern Kentucky in the title contest. The Govs finished 9-7 in the OVC and 13-19 overall against a difficult non-league slate.

Loos has earned six "Coach of the Year" citations, four from his fellow OVC coaches and two from the Tennessee State Sports-writers Association.

He was named OVC "Coach of the Year" after his first APSU season (1990-91) in leading the Govs to a much-improved 15-14 record. He then began building his own program with young men who reflected their coach both on and off the court and represented the University with great class.

In addition, Loos has earned respect from peers for his coaching ability and the manner he directs the program, resulting in his first-season OVC coaching honor. He was only the third APSU coach to earn such an award, the first to be recognized in his first Govs' season.

Loos came to APSU after four seasons as Memphis' top assistant. He joined Larry Finch in 1986 and helped direct his alma mater to an 85-43 record, including two NCAA tourney appearances and a Metro Conference tourney title during his tenure.

Prior to joining Memphis State, Loos enjoyed four successful head-coaching seasons at Christian Brothers College in Memphis. He took over that program in 1982-83, and after an initial 16-14 season, recorded three straight 20-win campaigns. In 1985, CBC captured its first Volunteer State Athletic Conference crown, the VSAC tourney title and second place in the National Catholic Tournament. For his efforts, he earned VSAC, NAIA District 24 and NAIA Area V Coach of the Year honors. He also was named the National Catholic Tournament Outstanding Coach.

Loos' move to CBC came after spending eight seasons as head coach at his prep alma mater, Mehlville High School in St. Louis. Taking over a program that previously had endured 11 straight losing seasons, Loos led his team to five winning campaigns, including a state tourney berth. He left the school as its winningest coach.

The Missouri native played both basketball and baseball during his college days at Memphis State, where he was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in September 2002. Loos was the starting point guard for the 1968-69 Tigers, leading the team in minutes played. He also was an all-conference shortstop for the baseball Tigers baseball team.

Upon completing his eligibility, he remained at Memphis as an assistant in 1970. Following his graduation (1970), he officially began his coaching career as an assistant basketball and head baseball coach at CBC.

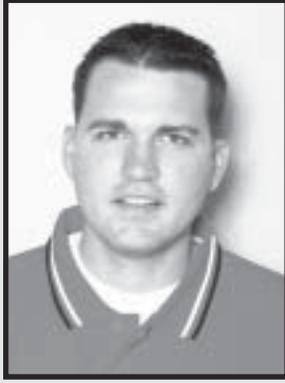

He and his wife, Phyllis, have four children, David, who broadcasts Governors and Lady Govs sports; Todd, who is in the music business in Seattle; Brad, the former Gov who is an assistant basketball coach at Central Missouri, and Nicole, who formerly was a member of the school's dance team and now works in the University's Student Life Office. He and Phyllis have two grandchildren William Daniel, age 3, and Olivia Joy, born Oct. 18, children of David and Pam Loos.

Scott Combs begins his 10th season with the Austin Peay basketball program, his fourth as fulltime assistant.

He came to APSU in 1996-97 as a player. Since then, he has been a fixture in the program, working his way up the coaching ladder.

Following his playing days, Combs assumed the role as administrative assistant while in graduate school—he and former high school and Govs teammate Joe Sibbit were the first recipients of the Leon Bibb Hall of Fame Scholarship—in 1999-00. In that role he served as the program's video coordinator along with helping in all-day-to-day operations. He also served as administrative assistant to the athletics director that year.

A year later, he was elevated to assistant coach and has played an integral part in the Govs successes since, which has seen the Govs record 20 or more wins in three of the last five years and back-to-back OVC championships. The 2002-03 team advanced to the NCAA tournament while the 2003-04 club won a game in the NIT. Also during his coaching tenure APSU captured the 2000 Top of the World Classic championship.

In 2002, Combs was elevated from a restricted coaching role into fulltime status. In his current role, Combs helps in the daily operations of the program, working in all coaching aspects, in particular with player development, monitoring academic progress and scouting opponents. He also serves as the program's recruiting coordinator.

In addition, each June he serves as the director of the Dave Loos Basketball Camps.

A versatile front-liner who was known for his selfless play and other intangibles he brought to the floor, Combs played his final two seasons (1997-99) at APSU after transferring from Missouri, where he played his freshman (1994-95) and sophomore (1995-96) seasons. He was named honorable mention Big 8 all-Academic while at Missouri. In addition, he was a member of a Missouri squad that played in the 1995 NCAA tournament—after beating Indiana the Tigers lost to eventual national champion UCLA on a last-second shot—and the 1996 NIT.

The Indianan is one of the select few who has played and coached in both the NCAA and NIT tournaments.

Combs sat out 1996-97 at APSU as a transfer redshirt. After serving as a reserve guard and forward as a junior, Combs ended up being the Govs starting post player as a senior. He averaged 6.8 points, shooting a team-best 54.8 percent from the floor, and 5.3 rebounds per game. His rebound totals ranked 14th in the OVC.

Off the floor, Combs earned CoSIDA District IV Academic All-District as a senior, when he posted a 4.0 GPA. He also served as president of the Student Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC).

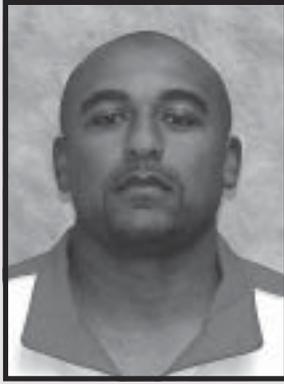

Combs graduated in 1997 with bachelor's degrees in mathematics and education. He began his graduate work while completing his final season of eligibility, earning his master's in Sports Administration.

A Lebanon, Ind., native, he starred at Paoli High School, scoring a school record 1958 points, ranking him 31st all-time in the state. He was voted runner-up Indiana Mr. Basketball in 1994 and was selected to play on the prestigious Indiana All-Star team. His prep career followed an AAU one that saw him voted All-American six times.

In addition to coaching, Combs formerly served as a physical education teacher (2000-02) at St. Mary's Catholic School. He and former Govs teammate Mike Head, now a local prep coach, held local summer basketball camps in addition to working APSU camps. Currently, he serves as co-SAAC advisor.

Combs is married to the former Casey Jenkins, who is Internet Manager at Jenkins and Wyne-Ford-Lincoln-Mercury-Honda. He enjoys playing cards, water sports, playing the

The leading scorer in Austin Peay men's basketball history is back on campus.

Charles "Bubba" Wells, the 1997 Ohio Valley Conference "Player of the Year" and two-time OVC "Male Athlete of the Year" who gained national attention for his miraculous return from a leg stress fracture, was hired in June as a full-time assistant. He replaced Tony Collins, who left earlier in the spring to become head coach at Virginia State.

Wells, who battled assorted leg problems throughout his college and professional careers, chose to take a different route with his basketball future--coaching. And he wanted to do it at the school where he built a reputation as not only one of the program's greatest players in history but as well in a conference where he was billed as one of the best during its nearly 60-year existence.

Considered by many the most popular player in OVC history, Wells finished his career with 2,267 points—the first APSU player to reach 2,000 points—ranking him third all-time in the OVC. He was a three-time first-team All-OVC choice after being named the league's "Freshman of the Year" in 1993-94. Wells was the 1997 OVC "Player of the Year" and the 1996 and 1997 OVC "Male Athlete of the Year." He also was two-time Tennessee Sportswriters College Basketball "Player of the Year."

Wells jersey (13) was retired Jan. 22, 1998 and he was inducted into the APSU Athletics Hall of Fame, Feb. 8, 2003 after being two-time APSU Outstanding Male Athlete (1995-96, 1996-97) and the 1997 Joy Award recipient as the most valuable senior athlete.

As a senior he was named third-team Preseason All-America by Athlon Magazine and all-district by both the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). He was named to the Basketball Times All-South team. He also captured his second straight Tennessee Sportswriters College Basketball "Player of the Year" award.

As a sophomore, Wells averaged 19.3 ppg and followed that up with a 26.3 ppg (third in nation) in 1995-96, earning the OVC Tourney MVP in leading the Govs to a championship and NCAA tournament appearance. Wells still owns several OVC tournament records.

But it was his senior year that drew nationwide attention. He missed the season's first 12 games with a stress fracture in his left tibia, requiring surgery to place a tibial nail in the lower leg. He had undergone similar surgery following the 1994-95 season, needing some five months to rehabilitate.

However, this time the rehab process took less than five weeks and in his debut game, he scored 39 points in 28 minutes. As a result, the performance and the surgery were featured in "USA Today." He went on to become the nation's unofficial scoring leader (he did not have enough games played to qualify for the official title), averaging 31.7 ppg, scoring 30 or more points 11 times including three 40-point games. His 1996-97 scoring mark also broke the legendary James "Fly" Williams (29.5 ppg) mark for single-season scoring average. He was called the "best offensive player" among draft eligible senior by NBA draft guru Marty Blake.

His performance also caught the attention of "The Los Angeles Times" in a front-page story about "The Man of Steel" and segments on both CBS NCAA College Basketball "At the Half" and a seven-minute feature—the "Real Rod Man"—on NBC's "Today" show. He was named InfoSport: Basketball's 1996-97 National Comeback Player of the Year. Prior to the season, he was featured in The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated and the Dick Vitale College Basketball Yearbook.

For his career, Wells averaged 21.6 ppg, 7.1 rebounds while shooting 52 percent from the floor.

He was drafted by the Dallas Mavericks in the second round of the 1997 draft and played one season before being traded to the Phoenix Suns and then to the Chicago Bulls. A torn achilles tendon and other leg/groin injuries slowed his professional career, although he played in the Philippines and the Euro League in Greece for two seasons. He then played for the Harlem Globetrotters the last two years.

Now Wells is going to use his playing experience at the coaching level. With his effervescent personality and ability to communicate with young people, Wells is expected to have a strong impact on recruiting.

On the floor, Wells will be working with the post players—he was one of the nation's best post-up players during his APSU career.

Wells has one daughter, Alyiah, age four. In his free time, he likes to spend time with his daughter, playing golf, fishing and watching movies.

David Midlick, a former three-year letterman at Ole Miss who was a three-time Academic All-Southeastern Conference selection, is in his third season on Austin Peay's coaching staff.

The former Rebel outstanding perimeter shooter joined APSU two years ago as a part-time assistant. He also serves as team rehabilitation leader at the Montgomery County Nursing Home.

In his short period of time with the APSU program, he has proven valuable not only for his on-court coaching talents but his scouting expertise as well.

He came to Clarksville and Austin Peay after spending much of the previous decade working as a physical therapist in the Greenville Miss., area. However, his passion for basketball and basketball coaching has remained with him since his days as an All-State basketball player at Christian Brothers High School in Memphis.

Twice he served as head boys basketball coach (1994-97, 1999-2003) at Washington High School in Greenville, while also handling the junior high team as well during much of that tenure. He also was head varsity girls coach from 1999-2002. In between his Washington tenures, he coached the varsity boys and girls and the junior varsity boys at Indianola Academy. He was North AAA Coach of the Year in 1996 and District I-AAA Coach of the Year in 1999.

Midlick enjoyed a strong career as a guard at Ole Miss for Ed Murphy, leading the team in free-throw and three-point percentage in 1989. In fact, he helped beat the Governors, 83-80, in 1990 by hitting a late shot in Dave Loos' first APSU season.

In 1991, he went a perfect nine-for-nine at the free-throw line against Kentucky, one of the finest free-throw efforts against the Wildcats in history.

The Rebels were a National Invitational Tournament participant in 1989 and an SEC tourney finalist a year later. He was Academic All-SEC from 1989-91 and was named to Who's Who Among College Students in 1991. In addition, he was named a 1991 SEC Male Scholar-Athlete and a finalist for Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Midlick earned his way to Ole Miss after a stellar high school career. Playing for current North Texas assistant Charlie Leonard, he led Christian Brothers to the 1987 Class AAA state championship, being named MVP of the tournament. He was a first-team UPI All-State selection as a senior and earned honorable mention Associated Press All-State. He also was chosen Memphis Best of the Preps Scholar Athlete of the Year in 1987. He also was elected senior class president.

Midlick received his bachelor's degree in biological science in 1991 and bachelor's degree in physical therapy from the University of Mississippi Medical Center in 1994.

He is married to the former Leslie Biddle, also a physical therapist. They have two sons, David, age 8, and Will, age 5. He enjoys spending time with his family, playing golf and running in his spare time. In fact, he has participated in some 10K and several 5K runs in recent years and even a pair of marathons.

Jake Peterson
Graduate Assistant
First Season
Austin Peay, 2005

Former Govs baseball standout Jake Peterson has turned his in second baseman's glove for a whistle and a pair of sneakers

Peterson is the team's graduate assistant, the former Colorado prep standout electing to pursue a coaching career in basketball over baseball.

But basketball certainly isn't foreign to the Lakewood, Colo., native. In fact, he is following in the footsteps of his father, Chris Peterson, who played at Creighton before becoming a successful high school basketball coach. In addition, Peterson's uncle, Rick Peterson, is basketball coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville.

On the court, the younger Peterson was honorable mention All-State as a senior at Green Mountain High School after earning all-conference. He averaged 16.8 points and 6.3 assists per game as a senior, helping his team twice advance to the state quarterfinals.

He turned down Division II basketball offers to pursue a college baseball career, batting .390 as sophomore at Independence Community College. He was named to the Kansas Jayhawk Community College All-Conference first-team and was selected the Eastern Division Most Valuable Player as a sophomore. He also was named to the NJCAA Division I All-Region VI team.

That led him to Austin Peay where he was a two-year starter at second base and part of a Ohio Valley Conference regular-season title as a junior and OVC tourney title as a senior. The OVC tourney championship also meant a trip to the NCAA Regional for Peterson.

As a junior, Peterson batted .319 and followed that up with a .328 senior season. Peterson was named second-team All-OVC as he batted .386 in league with no errors in 98 chances. He also penned a 20-game 2005 hitting streak, the longest since the 2000 season.

Peterson's basketball duties will include film exchange, office duties and on-floor assistance.

Talented frontcourt performer continues to develop as one of APSU's top post players of recent vintage...moved adroitly into the Govs starting lineup in 2004-05, coming on strong as junior, earning all-tourney at the Paradise Jam and OVC championships...was finally able to show wares after playing injury/illness free for first time as Gov...one of league's truly legitimate low-post players...worked hard in off-season to increase strength and bulk after grueling 2004-05 season...worked hard in preseason to fine-tune low-post moves...became focus of opposing defenses in 2004-05...hopes addition of freshmen plus development of frontcourt returnees will lessen his inside demands...can play both low and high post...owns solid fundamentals as a result of strong prep background...has been Govs best post-up performer last two seasons...runs floor well for big man...catches ball well in traffic...has soft touch around basket but also can knock down perimeter shot...good rebounder who is solid blocking out...has knack of pulling down offensive rebounds...owns great feel for game...considered unselfish player who has ability to find open man from post position...fierce competitor.

AS SOPHOMORE: Proved to be capable frontcourt reserve in second Govs seasons...overcame difficult start that saw him miss three preseason weeks and an exhibition game with mononucleosis...in fact, scored eight points in season opener against Knoxville College...proved to be standout offensive rebounder, grabbing at least one in 21 games...averaged 4.4 rebounds per game over the final seven OVC games, including a trio of six-rebound games during season...also developed dependable low-post game...scored at least seven points eight times, with a season-best 12 against Southeast Missouri...in fact, his 6-for-9 shooting and five-rebound effort proved vital to Govs road victory... had eight points on 4-of-6 floor shooting and 6 rebounds in home win against Jacksonville State...in Govs key OVC home win against Murray State, had six points and five rebounds...also had nine points in 18 minutes in Govs home win against Tennessee Tech...made first career start in Govs near-upset of Kentucky...played exceptionally well during NIT games, averaging 8.0 points and 2.0 rebounds, shooting 60 percent in those games...played 22 productive minutes against Belmont, scoring nine points on 4-of-7 shooting...then had seven points at George Mason, hitting 2-of-3 floor shots.

AS FRESHMAN: Played 20 quality scoreless minutes in season-opening win at Memphis, grabbing four rebounds...four games into season, missed a month with right hand/wrist fracture...had right hand stepped on during practice prior to Missouri game 11/27 and missed six games...played 12 minutes in return trip home to Columbia against Missouri...troublesome hand limited him to only five minutes of play against Ole Miss...wrist was re-examined after that game, with fracture discovered...improved steadily after return...despite limited minutes, grabbed at least two boards in first seven contests, including an offensive board in each following return...came up huge against Murray State in 16 minutes scoring then-season-best six points and had two offensive rebounds...one of few Govs to excel at Tennessee Tech, scoring six points on three-of-three shooting... tallied season-high eight points at Tennessee State in just 11 minutes, going a perfect 4-of-4 from the floor...in 10 minutes against Eastern Kentucky, scored four points on 2-of-2 shooting and pulled down three rebounds, two offensive...scored six points in 16 minutes in OVC first-round game against Eastern Kentucky, including 4-of-9 from free-throw line...failed to score in remaining two OVC tourney games and NCAA first-round game against Louisville.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played center/power forward for Jim Sutherland at Columbia Hickman High School...averaged 10.1 points and 5.7 rebounds per game as senior in helping team to 22-5 record...earned all-area honorable mention... gained national recognition for holding future NBA first-round pick Amare Stoudemire to 12 points and 9 rebounds while scoring 13 points and grabbing 13 rebounds in Hickman's 65-56 win in Shop N' Save/KMOX Shootout in St. Louis...selected to play in St. John's Midwest Sports Medicine Missouri Basketball All-Star game in Springfield (Mo.)...as junior averaged 9.1 points and 5.5 rebounds per game, helping team to first district title in 10 years...earned first-team all-district and honorable mention all-area...after junior season, played for St. Louis Eagles AAU team that finished 11th nationally.

PERSONAL: Health and wellness promotion major...nominated as OVC Scholar-Athlete in fall...HCA/OVC spotlighted athlete...selected to ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District last winter...six-time member of Athletics Director's Honor Roll (3.0 GPA+)...named to President's List (4.0 GPA) last spring...three-time member of Dean's List...earned OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll (3.25 GPA) all three years...vice president of SAAC... "A" honor roll student while at Hickman...earned Presidential Scholarship to APSU...son of Brad and Cathy Schlader...born March 9, 1984...age 21.

Junior again expected to provide boost at point-guard position...third-string point guard in 2004-05 could challenge for more playing time in third APSU season... considered capable scorer who has ability to drive to basket...also owns improving perimeter skills...solid ballhandler...appears to have recovered from knee troubles that hampered his. 2004-05 progress...good athlete with excellent quickness.

AS FRESHMAN: Played sparingly behind Corey Gipson and Levi Carmichael...ankle injury kept him during seasons' early stages...appeared in only 11 total games in season...first basketball was a three pointer against Maryville College...matched at that season-high with a bucket and a free-throw at home against Tennessee Martin....did not play in season's final five games...

HIGH SCHOOL: Point guard and shooting guard for Kerry Harned at Hume-Fogg High School...averaged 18.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and 4.5 assists per game as senior...earned all-district, all-region and Midstate Top Seven defenders honors...following senior season, averaged 26 points, 5.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists per game for Tennessee Thunder, which finished fifth nationally in 19-and-under AAU tournament...became first Division I signee from Hume-Fogg.

PERSONAL: Psychology major with a minor in sociology minor... hobbies are drawing and singing...son of Lonnie and Brenda Harriford...born May 16, 1985...age 20.

Smyrna, Ga.
Campbell HS

Brings low-post presence to Govs program...could be key figure in Govs inside-out game immediately and in future...extremely strong, athletic big man who has soft touch around the basket...possesses strong, large hands and can use either one around the basketball...utilizes wide frame on the offensive end and on the boards...also can step out on floor and nail the 15-foot jumper...

HIGH SCHOOL: Played forward/center for James Gwyn...became first Governors from Campbell High School since Darryl Bedford played for APSU in 1986-87...named to Atlanta/Naismith Tipoff Club Team of Year, comprising the top 21 players...named All-Cobb County as senior...earned Georgia Class AAAAA honorable mention All-State...

PERSONAL: Jerry Paul Felder is undecided on a major...son of Marion and Carolyn Felder...has four older brothers...born Feb. 25, 1987...age 18...

Drake

#22

6-5 • 220 • Freshman
Forward/Guard
Clarksville, Tenn.
Northeast HS

Versatile performer can play multitude of positions...expected to contribute as freshman because of great strength...hard worker who spent countless hours in the Dunn Center during the summer working on training regimen...goal-oriented player who could play wing guard or forward...uses great strength to get to the basket and on the boards...also uses strength on the defensive end...superb passer in halfcourt...owns improving jump shot...

HIGH SCHOOL: Played guard/forward for Al Cooper at Northeast High School...named The Leaf-Chronicle All-Area MVP...averaged 23 points, 12 rebounds and 5.0 assists per game as senior after averaging 17 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.0 assists as junior...three-time all-district selection as well as all-area...earned two-time All-State recognition, although was inadvertent omission from 2005 team...recorded triple-double (17 points, 12 rebounds and 11 assists) in East-West All-Star game in leading the East to victory...selected to nine all-tourney teams while in high school... was named to 20 AAU all-tourney basketball teams during his career... selected as Sleeper of the Year by Rick Bolus Recruiting Service, ranking him as the state's 13th best prospect prior to his senior season...was considered major Division I receiver recruit before giving up sport to concentrate on basketball...

PERSONAL: Planning to major in mass communications...son of Carl and Daphne Reed...played for brother Carl on the Tennessee Dreams AAU team...born Jan. 30, 1987...age 18.

MEET THE GOVERNORS

Landon

6-1 • 170 • Freshman
Guard
St. Louis, Mo.
Lafayette HS

Point guard prospect could challenge for playing time in first APSU season...brings competitive, hard-nosed approach to floor...competent ballhandler with excellent passing skills...despite lacking great size, fearless in attacking basket...unafraid of taking important shots...terrific perimeter shooter in mold of former Govs great Joe Sibbitt...will continue to work on building strength and bulk needed at Division I level...

HIGH SCHOOL: Point guard for Dave Porter and Lafayette High School...averaged 20.2 points per game as senior...connected on 55 percent from the floor, including 46 percent from three-point range, and 83 percent from three-point range...named the Post-Dispatch St. Louis Metro Player of the Year...also was a two-time first-team Missouri All-State performer...was a four-time all-district selection and three-time All-Suburban West pick...was third-team All-Metro as a junior...left Lafayette High School as school's all-time leading scorer...played in St. John's Sports Medicine Missouri Basketball All-Star game during summer...captured event's three-point shooting contest...averaged 16.1 points, 5.0 assists and 2.2 steals per game as junior...went to the free-throw line 223 times as junior and 182 more as a senior...

PERSONAL: Plans to major in health and human performance...son of David and Tonya Shipley...father was a former 1,000-point scorer at Southeast Missouri...played on the same AAU team (St. Louis Eagles) that spawned Governors center Zac Schlader...born Nov. 16, 1985...age 19...

DUNN CENTER/DAVE AARON ARENA

The Winfield Dunn Center became home of the Governors and Lady Gobs indoor athletics in 1975 after ground was broken for the $5.3 million, 9,000-seat structure in February 1973.

The 132,000 square-foot complex, officially named the Winfield Dunn Health and Physical Education Building and Convocation Complex in honor of Governor Dunn, is a dominating edifice with 78 feet separating the top of the building from its maplewood playing surface. The Dunn Center replaced the Memorial Gymnasium, affectionately called "The Little Red Barn," which served as the Governors homecourt from 1952 until the Dec. 1, 1975 tip-off.

On Jan. 16, 1988, the basketball arena was named Dave Aaron Arena in honor of the school's former athletics director, football coach and all-time winningest basketball coach.

Several improvements and modifications have taken place in recent years, including the addition of new scoreboards. Also, the floor lighting has been replaced to allow fans to better see Lady Gobs and Governors events and also accommodate photography needs. An elevator was installed in the late 1990s to better accommodate the handicapped.

But in Fall 2004, some major upgrades occurred, with new cushioned telescopic seating on the lower level east and north end-zone areas. In addition, two new state-of-the-art indoor Light Emitting Diode (LED) large display screens were hung in the southeast and northwest corners. It is a fully integrated sports solution that includes a control system to operate and integrate the displays of video replays plus a package of many custom animations, including sponsored game elements and crowd interaction plus much more.

The Dunn Center is home of Governors basketball and Lady Gobs volleyball and basketball. It also serves as a multipurpose practice facility for track, baseball and softball indoor workouts.

The Dunn Center also houses the University's training facility where trainers Chuck Kimmel, Joni Johnson and Shaun Duhe administer treatment and rehabilitate injured athletes. It also is home to the athletic department's academic services located on the west upper level. In fact, a new Academics Services Center soon will be constructed at the Dunn Center's north end zone area, underneath the reserved seating area.

Austin Peay athletics also work out in the newly renovated weight room, conveniently located in the Dunn Center's lower level south end. They also have access to air-conditioned dressing rooms, also subject to major renovations in Summer/Fall 2004.

Entering the facility's front lobby, visitors are impressed by the Hall of Fame area, honoring APSU's greatest former athletes, administrators and supporters.

APSU's athletic offices are located in the Dunn Center with the exception of tennis, which is located in the Governors Tennis Center, and rifle, which is located in the ROTC Armory. Both facilities are in close proximity to the Dunn Center. In Winter 2004, the Governors baseball offices were moved to the former home of the student newspaper, The All-State, to be closer to Raymond C. Hand Park.

The new LED video boards have added immensely to the Dunn Center atmosphere.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following minimums: Scoring Average – 20 games played, Field Goal Percentage – 75 FGM, Three-Point Field Goal Percentage – 40 3GM, Free Throw Percentage – 50 FTM.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. Three-point field goals were added in 1986-87. In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following miniums:

Averages – 20 games played

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. The following statistics are unofficial until the year noted at which time the NCAA recognized that category: assists (1983-84), blocked shots (1985-86) and steals (1985-86). In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

CENTURY GAMES

With the return of the 45-second clock and the three-point shot in the past decade, 100-point games have been on the upswing in college basketball.

For Austin Peay, in fact, the cycle took a definite swing with four 100-point games in 1986-87, the Govs winning three of them; five in 1987-88, APSU winning just one, and six in 1988-89, the Govs winning five.

With a change of coaches, also involved a style change during 1990-91. Dave Loos' team played in six 100-point games. The Govs scored the most single-game points in Dunn Center history with a 122-96 win against Milligan. APSU and Morehead State set a Dunn Center mark for combined points scored (237) in the Govs' 124-113 double-overtime loss. Morehead also set an arena mark for most points scored by the opposition.

In 1991-92, the Govs participated in five 100-point games. The two wins came back to back, a 102-100 decision against Morehead State and 103-97 verdict against SEC foe Mississippi State. In total, the Govs have played in 26 games in which at least one team scored 100 points, including last season's 106-83 win against Lee and a 107-100 double overtime loss to Eastern Illinois.

Over the years, the Govs have been involved in 119 games where at least one team scored 100 points, with 12 of those both clubs scoring 100 or more. Austin Peay has won 58 of the century games. Of the 12 which both teams scored 100 or more, the Govs are 5-7. The Dunn Center/Dave Aaron Arena has held 33 100-point contests, with APSU holding a 29-4 edge.

Only one century-mark game occurred while Austin Peay was a junior college, and Freed-Hardeman won that one, 104-30, during the 1934-35 season. An opponent of the 100-point mark was David Aaron (1946-62), who purposely passed up scoring opportunities to avoid his team hitting the century figure and causing opposition possible embarrassment. The long-time successful coach was forced into the situation during the 1958-59 season when Harry Gallatin made his college coaching debut for Southern Illinois. The Govs won the game 106-100 in Memorial Gymnasium ("Little Red Barn").
