Austin Peay Athletics Mission Statement

Intercollegiate athletics at Austin Peay State University aspires to provide educational and broad-based competitive opportunities at the NCAA Division I level for eligible male and female student athletes. Seeking to maintain a proper balance between athletic and academic programs, the University is committed to preparing students for productive, fulfilling and responsible lives. In addition to developing individual ability and successful programs, those athletic experiences will be instrumental in developing the concepts of teamwork, sportsmanship, loyalty, self-confidence plus the qualities of leadership and discipline. Intercollegiate athletics endeavors to provide positive impressions of University activities to a diversified group of audiences. Austin Peay strives to attract a diverse and talented group of participants, coaches and administrators with a strong commitment to excellence, openness, gender equity and integrity, reflecting a precise adherence to NCAA and conference rules and philosophies. As a result, Austin Peay athletics assumes a major role in assisting University development and fiscal responsibility. The departmental goals and objectives are based upon its mission as it builds on its traditions, confidently looking forward to an exciting and progressive future.

Dave Loos, the Governors head basketball coach is in his seventh year as Austin Peay's athletics director. Loos was named to the post in May 1997 and took over the duties July 1 of that same year.

The dual role is almost unheard of in this day of college athletics—he is one of only three Division I college basketball coaches who also serve as athletes director. He will begin his 14th season as Austin Peay's head basketball coach in 2003-04.

His double duties aptly point out the respect Loos earned both on and off campus. His common-sense approach to athletics director's duties have been with the same diligence that have been so representative of his APSU basketball tenure.

That has resulted in Austin Peay winning the Ohio Valley Conference tournament and gaining an NCAA tourney berth in 1996; APSU capturing a 1997 league co-championship—the first since 1977—and shocking the league by winning both a regular-season co-championship and tourney title in 2003. Loos is the only APSU coach to earn multiple OVC Coach of the Year honors, in 1990-91, 1996-1997 and again in 2002-03.

Loos not only has elevated APSU's program to the pinnacle of OVC prominence, but has done it as well with the dignity and class so reflective of the reputation he built as an athlete and as a high school/college coach.

He is only the second APSU coach to lead the Gobs to an OVC regular-season co-championship and NCAA Division I tournament berth. His APSU teams have advanced to at least the OVC tourney semifinals in seven of the last nine years. That has sustained his reputation of elevating his club's play during February-March, where the Gobs own a .674 winning percentage over the last nine seasons.

The Gobs have owned a .500 record or better OVC record in each of the of the last 10 seasons are second only to Murray State in winning percentage during that span.

As a result, Loos achieved one of his program's goals—the Governors reclaiming their spot among the OVC elite and annually competing for the title.

Loos became Austin Peay's 11th head men's basketball coach on July 14, 1990. The likeable 56-year-old has proven to be a "perfect fit" for the APSU program.

In his initial season, not only did his Gobs produce a winning (15-14) season after a previous 10-19 campaign, they displayed an exciting style as well.

The Gobs struggled record-wise (11-17 and 7-20) the next two seasons as Loos was reinventing the soul of the program. The young 1993-94 team began 0-7 but finished strongly at 11-16. Picked to finish eighth in preseason polls, the Gobs battled for the title much of the season, finally settling for third.

Since then APSU has developed a rich tradition of excellence.

In 1994-95, the Governors finished the regular-season at 12-15 but pulled two upsets in the OVC tournament before falling to Murray State when star forward Bubba Wells suffered a leg injury that later turned out to be a surgery-necessitating right leg stress fracture.

In 1995-96, the Governors again peaked late. In February, the Gobs fashioned an 8-2 record, including six straight victories. APSU entered the NCAA tourney with a four-game win streak before losing to Georgia Tech.

A year later, the Governors finished 17-14 overall—with All-America forward Wells missing the season's first 12 games—but won six of their final eight games, including a four-game winning streak that helped clinch a regular-season OVC co-championship.

In 1997-98, the Gobs, despite a rebuilding season, ended the season with a surprising 17-11 record and a fourth-place OVC finish.

In 1998-99, the young Gobs finished in a third-place OVC tie, although the 11-16 mark ended the string of winning seasons at three.

A year later, the Govs ended 18-11. The 18 wins represented the most regular-season wins by the Govs since 1976-77.

APSU topped that record a year later with a 22-10 record—the Govs' first 20-win mark since 1986-87 and the most regular-season wins (20) by a APSU team since 1976-77.

It was a 14-18 mark in 2001-02 as the Governors possessed only one senior. That Loos has earned five "Coach of the Year" citations, three from his fellow OVC coaches and two from the Tennessee State Sportswriters Association.

He was named OVC "Coach of the Year" after his first APSU season (1990-91) in leading the Governors to a much-improved 15-14 record. He then began building his own program with young men who reflected their coach both on and off the court and represented the University with great class.

In addition, Loos has earned respect from peers for his coaching ability and the manner he directs the program, resulting in his first-season OVC coaching honor. He was only the third APSU coach to earn such an award, the first to be recognized in his first Govs' season.

Loos came to APSU after four seasons as Memphis' top assistant. He joined Larry Finch in 1986 and helped direct his alma mater to an 85-43 record, including two first Volunteer State Athletic Conference crown, the VSAC tourney title and second place in the National Catholic Tournament.

For his efforts, he earned VSAC, NAIA District 24 and NAIA Area V Coach of the Year honors. He also was named the National Catholic Tournament Outstanding Coach.

Loos' move to CBC came after spending eight seasons as head coach at his prep alma mater, Mehlville High School in St. Louis. Taking over a program that previously had endured 11 straight losing seasons, Loos led his team to five winning campaigns, including a state tourney berth. He left the school as its winningest coach.

The Missouri native played both basketball and baseball during his college days at Memphis State, where he was inducted into their Athletic Hall of Fame in September. Loos was the starting point guard for the 1968-69 Tigers, leading the team in minutes played. He also was an all-conference shortstop for the baseball Tigers baseball team.

Upon completing his eligibility, he remained at Memphis State as an assistant in 1970. Following his graduation (1970), he officially began his coaching career as an assistant basketball and head baseball coach at CBC.

Loos is involved in many charitable events, including the NABC (National Association of Basketball Coaches) Coaches vs. Cancer Three-Point Attack.

He and his wife, Phyllis, have four children, David, Todd, Brad, the former Gov who is a graduate assistant at Central Missouri, and Nicole, age 21, a senior at APSU and member of the school's dance team. He and Phyllis have one grandchild William Daniel Loos, age two, son of David and Pam Loos.

returning group completely turned around those losing fortunes in 2002-03. In going 23-8, the Govs won 15 of their last 16 regular-season games to win a share of the OVC title, the OVC tourney championship and a trip to the NCAA tourney. The 23 wins represent the third most in school history.

Entering his 14th Govs' coaching season,

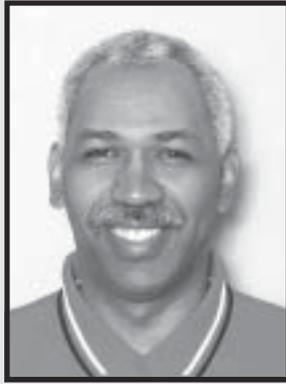

NCAA tourney appearances and a Metro Conference tourney title during his tenure.

Prior to joining Memphis State, Loos enjoyed four successful head-coaching seasons at Christian Brothers College in Memphis. He took over that program in 1982-83, and after an initial 16-14 season, recorded three straight 20-win campaigns. In 1985, CBC captured its

Austin Peay, men's assistant, 1989-

Tony Collins is in his 15th season as a Governors assistant, his 14th under Dave Loos.

When Loos was named head coach in July 1990, he elected to retain Collins from the previous coaching staff. Loos was impressed with Collins' energy, his recruiting contacts and, in particular, his strong relationship with the players. He has been a part of two Ohio Valley Conference regular-season titles and two NCAA tourney teams.

In addition to recruiting, Collins also has on-floor coaching duties—in particular working with the Govs post players—and scouting responsibilities plus business-related duties, including organizing the team's travel arrangements.

Collins joined the Govs staff in 1989, moving over from the Lady Govs program after serving one season as an assistant. He came to APSU in 1988-89, joining former associate Jim Phillips as women's assistant.

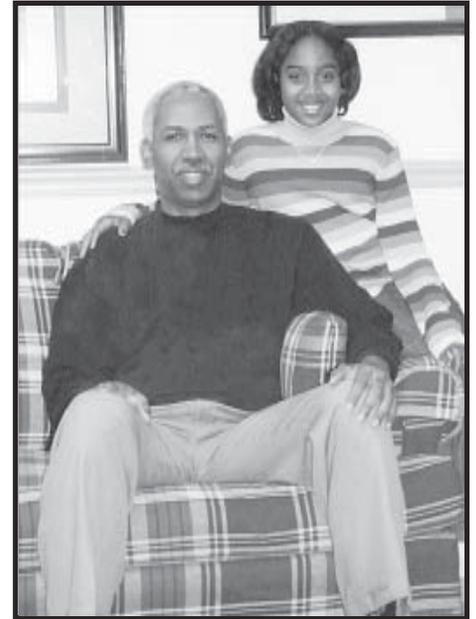

The two became acquainted at Virginia State, when Phillips served as women's head coach and Collins played for the men's team. Collins, a 1979 Virginia State graduate, later served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater and later followed Phillips to Friends University, Wichita, Kan., serving as assistant men's coach in 1980.

Collins remained in Wichita in 1981, working toward his master's degree at Wichita State, before returning to coaching in 1982. He spent two seasons as women's assistant coach at Miami (Ohio) University.

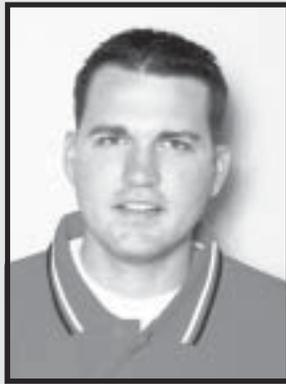

After a stint in private business, he coached LaPlata's High School girls' basketball team to the 1987 Maryland state championship before moving to Fayetteville State (Fayetteville, N.C.) as an assistant men's coach and Boys Club program director.

Collins, 44, has one daughter, Talea Danielle, age 11. He also has two sons, Anthony, 22, and Loren, 21. He enjoys traveling and fishing as hobbies as well as following the St. Louis Cardinals during the summer. He also is heavily involved in coaching girls' softball during the summer.

Scott Combs
Assistant Coach
4th Season
Austin Peay, 1997

College Coaching

Austin Peay, administrative assistant, 1999
Austin Peay, assistant, 2000-

Scott Combs begins his second season as full-time assistant status.

He was elevated to full-time duties in August 2002, but he long has been a member of the APSU basketball scene, beginning his eighth year with the program—three as a player, including one redshirt season, and now five as a coach. The move was a natural progression for Combs.

He came to APSU in 1996-97 as a player. Since then, he has been a fixture in the program, working his way up the coaching ladder.

Following his playing days, Combs assumed the role as administrative assistant while in graduate school in 1999-00.

A year later, he was elevated to the capacity of restricted coach—a coaching/teaching assistant who was not permitted to recruit off campus by NCAA rule.

In his current role, Combs helps in the daily operations of the program, working in all coaching aspects. He also serves as the program's recruiting coordinator.

A versatile front-liner who was known for his selfless play and other intangibles he brought to the floor, Combs played his final two seasons (1997-98) at APSU after transferring from Missouri, where he played his freshman (1994-95) and sophomore (1995-96) seasons. Combs sat out 1996-97 at APSU as a transfer redshirt.

After serving as a reserve guard and forward as a junior, Combs ended up being the Govs starting post player as a senior.

He averaged 6.8 points, shooting a team-best 54.8 percent from the floor, and 5.3 rebounds per game. His rebound totals ranked 14th in the OVC.

Former president of the Student Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC), Combs graduated in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in mathematics. He began his graduate work while completing his final season of eligibility.

As an administrative assistant, Combs helped in all day-to-day business-related areas and assisted arranging team travel. He also was video coordinator and aided in academic tutoring. He also served as administrative assistant to the athletics director.

Combs also has served as a physical education teacher at St. Mary's Catholic School. He and former Govs teammate Mike Head held local summer basketball camps in addition to working APSU camps.

Along with assistant golf coach Sara Burkhead, Combs is serving as SAAC sponsor for 2003-04.

Volunteer Assistant
First season
Ole Miss, 1991

David Midlick, a former three-year letterman at Ole Miss who was a three-time Academic All-Southeastern Conference selection, joined Austin Peay's coaching staff this fall.

The former Rebel outstanding perimeter shooter has added part-time college coaching duties to his docket. He also serves as team rehabilitation leader at the Montgomery County Nursing Home.

He came to Clarksville and Austin Peay after spending much of the last decade working as a physical therapist in the Greenville Miss., area. However, his passion for basketball and basketball coaching has remained with him since his days as an All-State basketball player at Christian Brothers High School in Memphis.

Twice he served as head boys basketball coach (1994-97, 1999-2003) at Washington High School while also handling the junior high team as well during much of that tenure. He also was head varsity girls coach from 1999-2002. In between his Washington tenures, he coached the varsity boys and girls and the junior varsity boys at Indianola Academy. He was North AAA Coach of the Year in 1996 and District I-AAA Coach of the Year in 1999.

Midlick enjoyed a strong career as a guard at Ole Miss, leading the team in free-throw and three-point percentage in 1989. In fact, he helped beat the Governors in 1990 by hitting a late shot in Dave Loos' first APSU season.

The Rebels were an National Invitational Tournament participant in 1989 and an SEC tourney finalist a year later. He was Academic All-

SEC from 1989-91 and was named to Who's Who Among College Students in 1991.

Midlick earned his way to Ole Miss after a stellar high school career. He led Christian Brothers to the 1987 Class AAA state championship, being named MVP of the tournament. He was a first-team UPI All-State selection as a senior and earned honorable mention Associated Press All-State. He also was chosen Memphis Best of the Preps Scholar Athlete of the Year in 1987.

Midlick received his bachelor's degree in biological science in 1991 and bachelor's degree in physical therapy from the University of Mississippi Medical Center in 1994.

He is married to the former Leslie Biddle. They have two sons, David, age 6, and Will, age 3.

Levi Carmichael
#10
6-0 • 175 • Junior
Guard
Bloomfield, Ind.
Eastern Greene HS

Junior point guard again expected to provide able support to starter Corey Gipson... knowledgeable on ability to run offense...owns ability to penetrate against zone defenses and find open man in doing so...brought reputation as outstanding perimeter shooter when recruited...has worked hard to regain touch...was effective with perimeter touch early in 2002-03 but slumped during season's final stages...got off to tremendous early season start before injuries and illness slowed him after Christmas...has continued to worked hard in off-season to increase strength, especially with basketball...capable ballhandler who has great feel for game...reminds some of former Gov and fellow Indiana native Joe Sibbitt, whose dad, Al, directed APSU coaching staff to recruit...superb free-throw shooter...added strength has improved defensive prowess.

AS FRESHMAN: Illness slowed his pre- and early season development...played effectively at times during initial season...endured usual freshman inconsistencies...especially was effective in road game at Arkansas-Little Rock...forced to play season-high 18 minutes and responded with eight points, including two three pointers, and four assists...also played 15 minutes three days later against Western Kentucky...scored seven points in Govs' OVC-opening win at Eastern Kentucky...also knocked down two key three pointers while scoring seven points in loss at Murray State in early February...also scored four points in 15 minutes in regular-season finale against SEMO...however, struggled much of OVC season finding his niche and shooting groove...

HIGH SCHOOL: Point guard for Andy Igel at Eastern Greene High School...earned third-team all-state Indiana as senior...averaged 23.8 points and 7.2 assists per game in 2000-01...shot 40 percent from three-point territory and 85 percent from free-throw line...led Eastern Greene to 23-2 record a year ago and school's first-ever sectional and regional titles...hit game-winning shot with six seconds left in sectional final...left Eastern Greene as school's all-time leaders in scoring (1603 points and assists (505)...also owns single-season (596 points) and single-game (44 points) for scoring...three-time first-team all-conference pic...two-time Greene County "Mr. Basketball"...four-year starter led conference in scoring, assists and free-throw percentage as senior...led team in assists and free-throw percentage all four seasons...also lettered in golf as senior...

PERSONAL: Education major...nominated for Academic All-America as sophomore...member of OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll both as freshman and sophomore...member of Athletics Director's Honor Roll each semester...two-time

GIPSON'S 2002-2003 NOTES

Brought defensive mindset from Three Rivers CC...his presence really came to forefront during league play...held OVC Player of the Year Ricky Minard to just 16 points in Gobs then-upset win at Morehead State in January...later held him to 18 points on 6-of-16 shooting in home victory, with Minard being held to 2-of-14 overall from three in two games...after first Morehead win, helped lead Gobs to two more road wins at Eastern Kentucky and Tennessee State...then came up huge on defensive end at home against Murray State, holding Rick Jones to 2-of-12 shooting...broke nine-game streak without double figures with 11-point effort against Tennessee Tech...hit 8-of-8 free throws, including 4 in final 30 seconds...also held standout guard Cameron Crisp to 7 points...made it back-to-back double-figure scoring games with 15 points at Eastern Illinois...also held nation's second-leading scorer, Henry Domercant, to 6-of-15 shooting...at SEMO, scored 8 points while holding Derek Winans to 6-of-17 shooting...then in OVC home game vs. Eastern Kentucky, scored 10 points while holding Shawn Fields scoreless in the final half...followed up by holding Minard to 1-of-7 three-point shooting in win against Morehead for OVC regular-season co-championship...came up with another sterling defensive effort against ECU's Fields, holding him to 2-of-11 shooting during first-round OVC tourney...also knocked down his second last-second three-point game winner, this time with 0.9 seconds left...named to OVC all-tourney team...scored 6 points with team-high 4 assists against Louisville...earlier in season was instrumental in Gobs home win against Tennessee-Martin...scored 8 points and grabbed season-high 6 rebounds...although he failed to produce great scoring numbers in home wins vs. Eastern Illinois and SEMO, provided huge defensive role...was largely responsible for holding SEMO leading scorer Winans to 2-of-9 FG before quieting Domercant late in contest...in first Murray State game, broke out of shooting slump at opportune time...knocked down four three pointers, including the game winner with 0.6 seconds left...finished with 13 points...opened season with seven straight double-figure games before hitting slump, including 3-for-20 three-point shooting...struggles included scoreless performances vs. Middle Tennessee and Westminster...scored just 7 points at Tennessee-Martin, but held Skyhawks' Earl Bullock to 1-of-13 shooting...also held Murray's Chris Shumate scoreless in final nine minutes after defensive switch...in Green Bay, recorded season-best 6 assists vs. Eastern Washington...scored season-high 19 points in opener at Memphis...was only Gov to reach double figures (12) at Ole Miss...scored 15 points at Missouri...his 6 steals against Knoxville were most by a Gobs since Jerome Jackson had 6 at Vanderbilt in 1998-99...scored 14 points against Belmont, including three key free throws in final 33 seconds... also had 14 points against Evansville...

Hampton last season

HAMPTON'S 2002-2003 NOTES

Young guard elevated play in season's latter half...came up big in Govs' two biggest wins...burst onto Govs scene with stellar performance down stretch and in overtime against Memphis...scored seven of his nine points in overtime, including what proved to be the game-clinching free throws with 16.6 seconds left. In overtime, he initially tied the game with a reverse layup and then put the Governors up 74-73 with a three-pointer on the next possession...also had four rebounds in that contest...then against Murray State, scored then season-best 11 points...knocked down two three pointers down the stretch, including go-ahead three with 30 seconds left...in between season's top efforts, displayed some usual freshman inconsistencies...scored five points in Ole Miss and Bluefield contests before netting four against Belmont...enjoyed one of his season's better performances at Evansville, scoring seven points while missing just one shot...had four points and two rebounds against MTSU...scored just two points during Green Bay tourney in two games...with Levi Carmichael out with injury, scored nine points, grabbed four rebounds against Westminster. while collecting two steals...after strong Murray game, went scoreless against Tennessee Tech...scored four points against EIU, including hanging bank shot, against EIU...failed to score while committing two turnovers in four minutes against SEMO...failed to score at Tennessee-Martin but did make two steals...enjoyed strong overall performance against Morehead State...had five points, including three pointer, while grabbing three rebounds and dishing out two assists...also had one steal and got his hands on two other passes that led to steals...continue fine play at Eastern Kentucky, matching then-season scoring high with 11 points...nailed three-of-three three pointers, including one to end half and give Govs 10-point lead...played 18 minutes off bench against Tennessee State, scoring three points, dishing out one assist and collecting one steal...enjoyed another strong performance against Murray, scoring six points...again came up with key offensive rebound that helped spur Govs...garnered season's third double-figure effort against TSU, scoring 12 points, including eight in five-minute span...also had three steals during that span, totalling four for game...failed to score against Tennessee Tech in 10 minutes...had five points and two offensive rebounds at EIU in 19 minutes...failed to score at SEMO...but again found EIU to his liking in first home game, scored season-best 16 points, knocking down three-of-four floor shooting and 9-of-12 from free-throw line...scored just three points against Morehead...had three points and two assists against EIU in first-round OVC tourney...had seven key points off bench against Murray before nasty spill limited his play against Tech in OVC finals...failed to score in NCAA tourney game against Louisville but did have two assists.

March 21, NCAA tourney first-round game

Santa Fe Cattle Co./APSU Athlete of the Week, Dec. 9-16

Santa Fe Cattle Co./APSU Athlete of the Week, Jan. 20-26

OVC co-Player of the Week, Jan. 20-26

Santa Fe Cattle Co./co-APSU Athlete of the Week, March 3-9

Considered by many as the OVC's most improved player in 2002-03...strong rebounder and shot blocker became offensive factor as well a year ago...his development was key to Govs' surge back to OVC prominence...earned second-team All-OVC before being selected MVP of OVC tourney...was named APSU's Chevrolet "Player of Game" in NCAA tourney game...long-armed post player has markedly improved strength and basketball skills since signing...remained on campus during past three summers to literally dedicate himself to improving strength and bulk...added bulk has helped him develop into superb rebounder while increasing stamina...outstanding shot blocker who has uncanny timing...ranked in Top 20 in category most of season...added strength also has helped in developing low-post moves...has become more aggressive offensively around basket and more consistent with offensive game...greatly improved free-throwing ability a year ago but must continue that improvement...owns solid fundamentals for relative newcomer to sport...staunch defender who has cut down on fouls after being disqualified team-high eight times in 20001-02...excellent passer.

AS SOPHOMORE: Started all 32 games at center...incurred some inconsistencies in season's first half before becoming second-half force...averaged 8.1 points and 9.0 rebounds per game in the season's final 10 games...his 7.4 rebounds per game ranked fourth overall in OVC and his 7.6 average in OVC games was fifth...ranked second in OVC in blocked shots (2.06)...enjoyed season's finest performance at Tennessee Tech, scoring season-high 19 points and grabbing 13 rebounds in ESPN contest...grabbed career-high 16 rebounds in OVC tourney opener against Tennessee-Martin while playing just 29 foul-plagued minutes...also had 10 rebounds in semifinal contest against Tech...had trio of double-doubles during season...had 11 points and 11 rebounds plus career-high six blocks against Providence before collecting 14 points and snatching 10 boards before home folks at Eastern Kentucky...enjoyed 10 games with four blocked shots...his 61.4 percent field-goal percentage would have ranked second in OVC but he failed to have enough makes...had career-best six assists against Webster and added five at Tech.

AS FRESHMAN: Played sparingly in freshman campaign...began season impressively at Top of the World Classic in Fairbanks, Alaska...in his debut against Jackson State, Lewis recorded four points, a season-high seven rebounds and three blocks in just 11 minutes played...in the next two tournament games, Lewis grabbed five rebounds and blocked three shots in each...played season-high 24 minutes off bench against Utah State in championship game...could not maintain level of play when Govs returned home...coincided with improved play of senior center Theanthony

Governors 2002-03 Review

BY JUSTIN DICKENS
SPORTS INFORMATION INTERN

Call it the improbable season....

After losing senior guard Nick Stapleton, the nation's seventh leading scorer at 23.2 points per game (ppg) a year ago, the 2002-03 Austin Peay men's basketball season was expected to be a rebuilding one. After all, it's leading returning scorer was freshman Anthony Davis, who averaged just 11.2 ppg, and the only other returning double-figure scorer was sophomore Adrian Henning (10 ppg).

The Ohio Valley Conference coaches agreed that Dave Loos and the Governors team would have an uncharacteristic season. Austin Peay was picked just fifth in the pre-season conference coaches' poll. Its season's schedule did not look any more promising, opening at Memphis before playing at Missouri and Mississippi in the first two weeks. Austin Peay then would open its conference schedule with four consecutive road games. And the Governors representatives on the preseason All-OVC team... There were none.

All-OVC Govs

First Team

Adrian Henning, 6-6, Jr., Forward

Second Team

and freshman Maurice "Squeaky" Hampton into the mix. Gipson led the Govs in Memphis, scoring 19 points, including five three-pointers, and was recognized by ESPN.com's Andy Katz -On the Radar- for his efforts. Hampton played 23 minutes in his Govs debut, scoring nine points, including seven key ones in overtime.

The Govs would then endure an inconsistent next eight games, going 4-4 during that stretch, including two lopsided losses at Missouri and Ole Miss.

The Govs then split their two games at the Oneida Bingo and Casino Classic in Milwaukee, Wis., before returning home to defeat Westminster College in its final preparation for the upcoming OVC schedule.

Forward Adrian Henning developed into a first-team All-OVC performer in 2002-03.

The Govs conference season didn't start the way Loos had hoped. Austin Peay lost its conference season-opener at Tennessee-Martin, 66-64, and then faced Murray State that following Saturday in a game nationally televised by ESPN 2.

However, the Govs did not back down, shocking Murray State, 66-63, on a Gipson three-point jump shot with 0.6 seconds remaining. It was the first time since the 1995-96 season Austin Peay defeated Murray State in Murray, and the first time in the Regional Special Events Center, which opened in 1999.

Although losing its next game at Tennessee Tech, Austin Peay would use its momentum to reel off one of the longest winning streaks—nine—in school history.

Included in the winning streak were wins against Southeast Missouri, which was regionally televised on Fox Sports South, and a season's sweep of Murray State, a game also regionally televised by Fox Sports South.

The team's confidence was growing but never to the point of cockiness.

"They kept their focus," Loos said. "We told them they were doing big things but they weren't big stuff."

The winning streak was snapped at nine games at Eastern Illinois, but their confidence was not shaken. APSU regained its focus to defeat Southeast Missouri in its season's final road contest.

The Govs then defeated Eastern Kentucky in its return trip home, setting up a conference-finale showdown with Morehead State for a share of the conference title and the OVC tournament first seed. Again—like Memphis, like Murray State, like Southeast Missouri—the Govs came through. Down three, 54-51, with over six minutes remaining, junior Rhet Wierzba sparked APSU, scoring eight of the Govs' next 12 points over the next three minutes, catapulting the Govs to a four-point lead they would not relinquish.

Winning a regular-season conference title is not easy, and Loos realizes that. He also realizes what the Governors accomplished and is quick to praise his team.

GOVERNORS 2002-03 REVIEW

"We told the team a few weeks ago—when we knew we were in the hunt—a championship and that feeling of a team accomplishment, there is no better feeling," said Loos. "I told them before Saturday's (Morehead State) game I was proud of them no matter what happened. They deserved to win, they deserved to have that ring, they deserved to have that championship. But they knew they had to go out and finish the deal...and that's exactly what they did. I knew we could get a great effort from these guys—that's what they have done all year. I just can't say enough about this group."

A victory against Morehead State gave the Gobs their second 20-win season in three years and a perfect 13-0 mark at home.

However, the win signified much more than what any numbers could relate. It completely disproved the polls. The Governors played 27 games and won 20. They played 16 conference games and won 13. They started the season with no one named all-conference but ended with three: Henning, who averaged 15.9 ppg and 7.0 rebounds per game (rpg), earned first-team honors; junior center Josh Lewis, who averaged 12.6 ppg, 7.0 rpg and posted a school-record 77 blocks, earned second-team all-conference honors, while Davis, who averaged 14.0 ppg and 4.7 rpg, earned third-team honors. But most importantly,

Austin Peay started the season picked fifth and finished first.

And for his outstanding effort molding the Gobs, Loos was honored with his third OVC Coach of the Year honor.

But the Governors refused to let their improbable season end with a pat on the back. They had greater things on their collective minds.

"I was proud of their accomplishments but they weren't through," Loos said. "They are a very determined group."

The Gobs opened the OVC tournament against Eastern Kentucky, a talented team despite its eighth seed. APSU had beaten the Colonels both times during the season and 13 straight times overall.

But this time the Colonels were more than game... They would not back away. In fact, the visitors led the entire first half and much of the second half. But the Gobs came back and finally took the lead, 62-61 with 8 1/2 minutes left. They would build as much as a six-point lead and looked in control heading into the final minute.

But EKU took advantage of missed APSU free throws and tied the game, 80-80, with seven seconds left.

For Gobs fans, it became deja vu...Gipson dribbled up court, veered left and let fly with a 23-foot jumper. Reminiscent of the first Murray game, the ball touched nothing but net. The Gobs had avoided elimination.

"At this time of the year it is about surviving and that's what we did," Loos said. "You have to give credit to Eastern Kentucky. They really brought it to us and gave us everything they had—almost too much.

"We didn't play our best basketball, but they had a lot to do with that."

Up next came Murray State. It was a typical Gobs-Racers classic. The game was tied 11 times during the night with 12 lead changes. Both teams had chances during regulation's final minute to win the game but both came up empty. The game went to overtime tied at 51-51.

In overtime, the Gobs quickly bolted to a four-point lead but Murray came right back to score the next five points for a 56-55 lead.

But Josh Lewis then came up big twice in the final minute. First he muscled his way inside for a layup to give the Gobs a 57-56 lead. Anthony Davis would knock down a free throw for a two-point lead before Lewis' picture-perfect block of a Cuthbert Victor stuffed Murray's comeback hopes, 59-56, and allowed APSU to sweep three games from the Racers for the first time since 1976-77.

Then it was onto the title game against a Tennessee Tech team that rolled over regular-season co-champ Morehead State the night before.

The Gobs led from the outset and built as much as a 10-point first-half lead

Tennessee Tech would come roaring back and would take the lead twice in the second half. But the Gobs' defense was relentless in the game's final nine minutes. As a result, APSU would forge another lead and anytime Tech would rally, the Gobs had answers on both ends.

As the final final seconds ticked off, the Gobs had completed the improbable... Austin Peay was OVC Tournament champs!

"This is really sweet," Loos said, who watched his team lose to Louisville, 86-64, in first-round NCAA tourney play. "19(96) was fun but I really appreciate this team because of their closeness and chemistry. This was something special."

Guard Rhet Wierzba brought a hard-nosed approach and leadership to both ends of the floor.

Center Josh Lewis became more than just a shot blocker in his junior season. He also was the Gobs' third leading scorer.

DUNN CENTER/DAVE AARON ARENA

The Winfield Dunn Center became home of the Governors and Lady Gobs indoor athletics in 1975 after ground was broken for the $5.3 million, 9,000-seat structure in February 1973.

The 132,000 square-foot complex, officially named the Winfield Dunn Health and Physical Education Building and Convocation Complex in honor of Governor Dunn, is a dominating edifice with 78 feet separating the top of the building from its maplewood playing surface. The Dunn Center replaced the Memorial Gymnasium, affectionately called "The Little Red Barn," which served as the Governors homecourt from 1952 until the Dec. 1, 1975 tip-off.

On Jan. 16, 1988, the basketball arena was named Dave Aaron Arena in honor of the school's former athletics director, football coach and all-time winningest basketball coach.

Several improvements and modifications have taken place in recent years, including the addition of new scoreboards. Also, the floor lighting has been replaced to allow fans to better see Lady Gobs and Governors events and also accommodate photography needs.

An elevator was installed more than two years ago to better accommodate the handicapped.

The Dunn Center is home of Governors basketball and Lady Gobs volleyball and basketball. It also serves as a multipurpose practice facility for track, baseball and softball indoor workouts.

The Dunn Center also houses the University's training facility where trainers Chuck Kimmel, Joni Johnson and Karen Lovell administer treatment and rehabilitate injured athletes. It also is home to the athletic department's academic services and coordinator Dt. Johnnie Smith, located on the west upper level. In fact, a new Academics Services Center soon will be constructed at the Dunn Center's north end zone area, underneath the reserved seating area.

Austin Peay athletics also work out in the newly renovated weight room, conveniently located in the Dunn Center's lower level south end. They also have access to air-conditioned dressing rooms.

Entering the facility's front lobby, visitors are impressed by the Hall of Fame area, honoring APSU's greatest former athletes, administrators and supporters.

APSU's athletic offices are located in the Dunn Center with the exception of tennis, which is located in the Governors Tennis Center, and rifle, which is located in the ROTC Armory. Both facilities are in close proximity to the Dunn Center. Also the Governors baseball offices recently have been moved closer to Raymond C. Hand Park, in the former home of the student newspaper, The All-State.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following minimums: Scoring Average – 20 games played, Field Goal Percentage – 75 FGM, Three-Point Field Goal Percentage – 40 3GM, Free Throw Percentage – 50 FTM.

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. Three-point field goals were added in 1986-87. In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

MINIMUMS: To be included in the Austin Peay records section a player must meet the following miniums:

Averages – 20 games played

NOTES: This record section includes data from the 1959-60 season to current. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. The following statistics are unofficial until the year noted at which time the NCAA recognized that category: assists (1983-84), blocked shots (1985-86) and steals (1985-86). In 1973, freshmen became eligible to compete at the varsity level.

CENTURY GAMES

With the return of the 45-second clock and the three-point shot in the past decade, 100-point games have been on the upswing in college basketball.

For Austin Peay, in fact, the cycle took a definite swing with four 100-point games in 1986-87, the Govs winning three of them; five in 1987-88, APSU winning just one, and six in 1988-89, the Govs winning five.

With a change of coaches, also involved a style change during 1990-91. Dave Loos' team played in six 100-point games. The Govs scored the most single-game points in Dunn Center history with a 122-96 win against Milligan. APSU and Morehead State set a Dunn Center mark for combined points scored (237) in the Govs' 124-113 double-overtime loss. Morehead also set an arena mark for most points scored by the opposition.

In 1991-92, the Govs participated in five 100-point games. The two wins came back to back, a 102-100 decision against Morehead State and 103-97 verdict against SEC foe Mississippi State. In total, the Govs have played in 26 games in which at least one team scored 100 points, including last season's 106-83 win against Lee and a 107-100 double overtime loss to Eastern Illinois.

Over the years, the Govs have been involved in 119 games where at least one team scored 100 points, with 12 of those both clubs scoring 100 or more. Austin Peay has won 58 of the century games. Of the 12 which both teams scored 100 or more, the Govs are 5-7. The Dunn Center/Dave Aaron Arena has held 33 100-point contests, with APSU holding a 29-4 edge.

Only one century-mark game occurred while Austin Peay was a junior college, and Freed-Hardeman won that one, 104-30, during the 1934-35 season. An opponent of the 100-point mark was David Aaron (1946-62), who purposely passed up scoring opportunities to avoid his team hitting the century figure and causing opposition possible embarrassment. The long-time successful coach was forced into the situation during the 1958-59 season when Harry Gallatin made his college coaching debut for Southern Illinois. The Govs won the game 106-100 in Memorial Gymnasium ("Little Red Barn").
