Cowboys Make Furious Comeback, But Fall to UNLV 73-70

The Wyoming Cowboys overcame a 16-point first half deficit and took a lead in the second frame, but a shot for the win in the closing seconds fell short in a 73-70 loss to eighth-seeded UNLV on Wednesday afternoon in the first round of the Credit Union 1 Mountain West Men's Basketball Championship inside the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas.

"We had two shots at the end of the game that were both good looks. I'm not going to sit up here talking about would've, should've, could've... I'm going to tip my cap to UNLV. They came out with hair on fire in the first half, and that really kind of put us on our heels. We had a big hole to dig out of, which is a testament to our guys who have been resilient all year long," UW head coach Sundance Wickssaid. "They played an unbelievable second half to put us in position to go make the plays. We did that with a sophomore in Damarion Dennis and two freshmen in Gavin and Naz and a heck of a senior leader in Leland Walker."

"We're not going to shed any tears up here right now, because we're going to try to keep playing postseason basketball. That's our No. 1 goal is to try to play with this team for as long as we can," Wicks said. "... I just want this experience to go on. There's some teams where you just know they love playing, and these guys love playing the game of basketball."

The Cowboys shot 37 percent from the field in the contest and were held to only three makes from behind the arc. UNLV shot 44 percent from the field and were 15-of-26 from the field in the opening 20 minutes for 58 percent. The Pokes held a 43-21 advantage on the glass and grabbed 21 offensive rebounds.

Head Coach Sundance Wicks

University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman announced the hiring of Sundance Wicks as head coach of the Cowboy Basketball Program in May of 2024. He is the 23rd head coach in Cowboy history. A native of Gillette, Wicks spent three seasons as an assistant coach (2020-23) at Wyoming and spent a season season as head coach at Green Bay spearheading one of the best single season turnarounds in college basketball history.

“First off, please know that I am honored, humbled and immensely grateful for this opportunity at the University of Wyoming,” Wicks said. “This opportunity would have never been possible without the Belief that Green Bay Chancellor Mike Alexander and Athletics Director Josh Moon had in our mission and vision a year ago at UWGB. To that end, I would like to thank Director of Athletics Tom Burman and UW President Edward Seidel for their trust in me and what We will do for the University and this great state moving forward.”

“You cannot put into words what it means for a kid from the country roads outside of Gillette to represent the State of Wyoming and the Cowboys as their new head basketball coach,” said Wicks.

Wicks and the Cowboys won 12 games in his first season in charge of the Brown and Gold. Wicks rebuilt the roster during the month of May and won his first game with the Cowboys against Concordia St. Paul on November 4, 2024. The Pokes opened the season with a 5-1 record. The Poke also earned a win at UNLV during the conference season for the first win in Las Vegas since 2003.

Wicks mentored All-MW player Obi Agbim. One of the nation’s top scorers and three-point shooters he added 17.6 points per game and shot 43.7 percent from behind the arc. Wyoming was also solid on the glass during his first season being +2.0 on the boards and averaged 34.8 per game.

In his first year at Green Bay, Wicks was named the 2023-24 Horizon League Coach of the Year. He was also named the Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year, which is presented annually to the top rookie, first-year head coach in NCAA Division I college basketball. Last season, Wicks posted an 18-14 record after the program finished at 3-29 prior to his arrival in 2022-23. That 15-game turnaround tied for the ninth-best turnaround in NCAA DI history.

Wicks also mentored numerous players to award-winning seasons at Green Bay. Noah Reynolds was named the Horizon League Newcomer of the Year, All-Horizon League First Team, and NABC District 12 All-Region First Team. For the first time in program history, Green Bay also saw two freshmen named to the Horizon League All-Freshman Team in David Douglas Jr. and Marcus Hall. Douglas Jr. was named the Freshman of the Year in the conference.

“We couldn’t be more excited to welcome back Sundance Wicks to Wyoming,” Burman said. “Sundance will bring a great energy to our program and the entire State of Wyoming. Being a native of this great state, Wicks knows the pride Cowboy fans take in the program and he will work tirelessly for his student-athletes and the community.”

Wicks spent three seasons at Wyoming under former head coach Jeff Linder. The Cowboys reached the NCAA Tournament in 2022 finishing the season with a 25-9 overall record. The Pokes received their first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament since 2002 and marked the first trip to the Big Dance since 2015. The Pokes recorded 24 wins in the regular season for the most since the 1951-52 campaign.

“If there is one thing, I learned growing up in Wyoming it’s that when you Honor the Brown and Gold, you are honoring so much more than just the University of Wyoming,” Wicks said. “You are honoring every single hard hat that woke up before the sun to work the coal mines. It means paying your respects to

Wyoming Cowboys

Wyoming also led the MW in three-point field goals per game at 10.1. The Pokes ranked No. 12 in the nation in three-point field goals per game as well.

The Pokes went 6-1 in non-conference play in 2020-21 including a road win over an NCAA Elite Eight team in Oregon State. Wyoming won six total road games on the season for the most away from Laramie since the 2012-13 season. UW also had a winning record on the road for the first time since 2000-01 season.

Prior to his time in Laramie, Wicks was the head coach at Missouri Western for two seasons. Wicks led the Griffons to 18 wins in 2019-20, as it was the most by the program in 10 years. In his first season at the helm of the program his team doubled their win total from the prior campaign. In his two seasons, Wicks helped mentor six All-MIAA players and an NABC All-District selection.

Prior to his time at Missouri Western, Wicks spent time at his alma mater Northern State University, where he was associate head coach during the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons. In 2017-18, Wicks helped lead Northern State to the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference regular season and postseason championships. Northern State also claimed the central region championship for the program's first-ever appearance in the national championship game.

Wicks has been an assistant coach at the Division II and Division I levels. After lettering four years as a student-athlete at Northern State from 1999-2003, Wicks held assistant coaching positions at Northern State, Colorado (2006-07), Northern Illinois (2007-11) and San Francisco (2015-16).

He also built the Arizona Power Basketball Academy, serving as a skill instructor and director from 2011-15. Prior to launching the APBA, he spent five months training NBA pre-draft prospects at the Impact Basketball Academy in Las Vegas. Wicks' draft class trainees included Kawhi Leonard, Alec Burks and Isaiah Thomas.

Wicks began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Northern State under the legendary Don Meyer.

As a student-athlete, Wicks was twice named first team All-NSIC, scoring 1,174 points and pulling down 665 rebounds in his career. He was also a two-time All-NSIC performer in the 400-meter hurdles at Northern State. After graduation, Wicks played for the Sodertalje Kings in Sweden. He led the team in points and rebounding.

Wicks graduated from Campbell County High School in 1999, where he lettered in football, basketball and track and field. In 1999, he was named the Milward Simpson Athlete of the Year. ## Assistant Coach Will Martin Cowboy basketball head coach Sundance Wicks announced in April of 2025 the addition of Will Martin to the coaching staff. He will serve as an assistant coach, as the two coached together during Wicks' time as head coach at Missouri Western.

"When it comes to hiring, I am constantly seeking out energy givers, men of high intentionality, artists of their craft, enemies of the status quo and high character humans who know what it takes to compete and win at the highest level" Wicks Said. "Will Martin knocks all those out of the park with his professional pedigree. I am absolutely jacked up to work alongside Coach Martin again. He is a plug and play coach who knows how I operate and will immediately upgrade our staff with his recent head coaching experience and blue blood basketball background. There are very few coaches in this profession who have been mentored by Coach Calipari, Rex Walters, Danny Manning, and Frank Haith. Not to mention his long-standing relationship with NBA All-Star Anthony Davis, with whom he was training and working alongside when AD got drafted by the New Orleans Pelicans. Will and his wife Avens will be an amazing addition to our Cowboy Culture and love the Laradise way of life."

Martin spent seven total seasons at Missouri Western including five as head coach. He compiled a 77-70 overall record in one of the nation's top Division II conferences. He joined the MWSU staff in 2018 as an assistant under Wicks and Martin was elevated to head coach in the Spring of 2020. "I'm truly excited to join coach Wicks and the staff at the University of Wyoming," Martin said. "I believe that Coach Wicks is one of the best, if not the best coach in the country when you talk about building culture, skill development and investing in the players and staff. I can't wait to start working with him again and to be a part of what he is doing at Wyoming is an honor."

A true mentor leader, Nic does not tell you the way, he shows you the way. I am not sure there is a job in this profession that Coach Reynolds has not done. Committed, competitive and all about the culture, Cowboy Country please welcome coach Reynolds to the Wild West.”

This is a full circle moment for the both of us. To be able to share this with Sundance is special as he has done so much for our family and I’m happy to get to come home with him. Cowboy basketball head coach Sundance Wicks announced in May of 2025 the addition of former Cowboy Chris McMillian to the coaching staff. A standout for the Brown and Gold from 1998-2003, he helped lead the Pokes to a pair of Mountain West titles and an NCAA Tournament Berth.

“When it comes to hiring, I am constantly seeking out energy givers, men of high intentionality, artists of their craft, enemies of the status quo and high character humans who know what it takes to compete and win at the highest level,” Wicks Said. This final hire of the off-season is a special one. I knew we needed to continue to find ways to bridge our past with our present. I knew we needed to find a coach with serious blood in the bricks who has been a part of Winning at Wyoming. We found that coach in Chris McMillian. C-Mac is fifth all-time in assists and ninth all-time in steals, but more importantly he has championship pedigree at Wyoming helping the Pokes win back-to-back Mountain West Conference Championships in 2001 & 2002. Coach McMillian bleeds Brown & Gold!”

Coach McMillian’s relentless approach to attacking each day is what immediately stood out to me in the interview process. He is a swiss-army knife as a coach, he has done it all and is extremely intentional about how he goes about his work, squeezing the juice out of every day. He is a winner, and he is about winning above all else. We could not be more excited to bring Chris back to Laradise with his wife Megan and two beautiful daughters! Please help me welcome Chris McMillian back to Cowboy Country!”

A native of Brea, Calif., he was a key part of the Cowboys during his career, McMillian appeared in 125 career games for the Brown and Gold. He still ranks fifth in career assists with 434 and ninth in steals with 136. His 13 assists in a game against Delaware State in 2000 still ranks third in single-game school history. He also holds mark in the top-10 in single-season assist average and steals.

“It feels like Christmas morning being able to come back to the University of Wyoming,” McMillian said. “I had a chance to win championships for the Cowboys as a player and never did I think I would have the opportunity to come back as a coach. When I got into coaching in 2009 coming back was always a dream of mine and now that it is here it is amazing. I’m looking forward to working with Coach Wicks and the Staff.”

McMillian comes back to Wyoming after serving as associate head coach at Central Michigan. He helped lead the Chips with a 12-6 league record in 2023-24. CMU’s 12 league victories were the most since the 2014-15 season. In the offseason, the coaching staff rebuilt CMU’s roster with only four players returning as they added 12 new players and blended them into a team that challenged for the league title. In the preseason coaches’ poll, CMU was picked to finish in 12th place out of 12 teams.

Prior to his post at Central Michigan, McMillian spent two seasons at Idaho State (2019-21), helping lead the Bengals to a victory in the 2020 Big Sky Tournament, marking the first time the program won a game in the conference tournament since 2009.

He began his coaching career as the director of operations at Centenary College in 2009-10.

He holds a bachelor’s degree in communications from Wyoming, a master’s degree in Educational Administration from Hawaii in 2013 and is a certified member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Cue Coach Chris Thomas. I have known CT since 2007 when he was an advanced scout for the Chicago Bulls. From the moment our paths crossed I knew three things: 1.) He was an outstanding human being with incredible juice 2.) He saw the game of basketball in a different way and was a gifted basketball mind 3.) He was going to be someone I would work with one day. That day has come! Coach Thomas is such a great hire for what we want to do here at Wyoming. Chris has been in rooms and worked with players and coaches that most of us could only dream. CT has been heavily involved in strategy and scheme meetings with Nick Nurse and the Toronto Raptors as well as the pre-draft evaluation process and war room meetings regarding the #1 pick of Derrick Rose. Last, but certainly not least, he assisted in creating the “culture of accountability” for the world champion Golden State Warriors. His journey as a professional head coach, an NBA assistant for the Bulls & Warriors, and offensive coordinator for the G-League 905 Raptors will add immediate value to our Cowboy Culture. Coach Wicks is an incredibly passionate coach and lives the game of basketball every day. I am thrilled to be able to work for him and this amazing staff to help continue to build something special here at Wyoming.”

Prior to his time at LIU, Thomas served as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator for Raptors 905 of the NBA G-League in 2022. He helped lead the team to the Eastern Conference Finals. He was the head coach and general manager for the Guaynabo Mets in San Juan, Puerto Rico for the 2020 and 2021 campaigns. He has also spent time as a coach in professional leagues in Japan, Slovenia, Malaysia, China, and Canada. He was an assistant coach for the Slovenian Men’s National Team in 2023 and 2014.

Thomas spent numerous years in the NBA as an advance scout with the Golden State Warriors helping lead the team to back-to-back playoff appearances from 2012-2014 for the first time in over 20 years.
