INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE AWARDS

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

SHANE VICTORINO – 2005

Shane Victorino became the first Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player to win the International League's Most Valuable Player Award in 2005. Despite a slow start to the campaign, a strong second half propelled him to the league's highest honor and a place on the post-season All-Star team. Overall he finished 6th in batting (.310), 2nd in runs (93), 1st in triples (16), 2nd in total bases (264), 5th in extra-base hits (59), 5th in slugging (.534) and 8th in OBP (.377). In addition he slugged 18 home runs and drove in 70.

SHELLEY DUNCAN – 2009

Shelley Duncan was the second Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player and first Yankee to win the award for his outstanding 2009 season. Duncan established a new franchise record by clubbing 30 home runs. He led the International League in home runs, RBI (99), extra-base hits (61), runs scored (85) and total bases (247). All this despite missing 20 games due to multiple big league callups. This combined with mid-season and post-season all-star selections made Duncan's 2009 season one of the best in franchise history.

BEN GAMEL – 2016

Ben Gamel became the third Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player and first RailRider to win the award after an All-Star-caliber performance in 2016. The Neptune Beach, Fla. native owned the circuit's sixth-best batting average (.308) and finished fourth in the IL with 149 hits. He led the league with 80 runs scored to go with 26 doubles, five triples, six home runs, 51 runs batted in and led the team with 19 stolen bases. Gamel was the International League Rookie of the Year in 2015.

TOP PITCHERS

BRANDON DUCKWORTH – 2001

Brandon Duckworth became the first Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player to earn either of the International League's top honors. He signed with Philadelphia as a non-drafted free agent in 1997 and made his Triple-A debut four years later.

Over 22 games in 2001, including 20 starts, Duckworth went 13-2 with a 2.63 ERA. 13 wins tied him for the league lead and his 150 strikeouts were the second-most in a single Red Barons at the time, just two shy of the franchise record.

JOE ROA – 2002

Joe Roa followed Brandon Duckworth's remarkable campaign with a stellar season of his own in 2002. The right-hander was traded to Philadelphia at the end of Spring Training in 2002, ultimately appearing in 14 games for the Phillies.

His time with Scranton/Wilkes-Barre leading to the big league call was nothing short of spectacular, posting a 14-0 record over 17 starts with a 1.95 ERA. Roa struck out 74 and walked 16 over 111 innings en route to being tabbed as the league's top arm, despite going to the Majors in July and staying there the remainder of the year.

GREG WEISSERT – 2022

Greg Weissert became the third Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player and first RailRider to win the International League's top pitching honor. He was named as both the league's Pitcher of the Year as well as the top relief pitcher.

Weissert appeared in 42 games for the RailRiders in 2022, going 2-1 with 18 saves and a 1.69 ERA while striking out 70 over 48 innings pitched. The Yankees signed the right-hander to a Major League deal on August 25 and he made his big league debut that night.

IL PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Brandon Duckworth – July 2001

Duckworth was the first Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player to win an International League Player of the Month honor for his efforts in July 2001. Duckworth went 4-0 with 2.16 ERA in five starts. The right-hander struck out 37 batters over 33.1 innings

José Pirela– June 2014

Pirela was a catalyst atop Dave Miley's lineup card throughout 2014. During 28 games in June, Pirela hit .336 with 40 hits over 119 at-bats. The outfielder also struck out a remarkably-low nine times. He finished the season strong, hitting .274 over 130 games played and earned his first big-league call in September.

Aaron Judge – June 2016

Judge made his RailRiders debut in 2015, but truly cemented his legendary status the following year. In June of 2016, Judge torched IL pitching, hitting .343 over 28 games, slamming nine home runs and driving in 25. He also walked 21 times and even stole four bases, sporting a .477 OBP and OPS at 1.163.

Jake Cave – July 2017

Cave went off in July 2017. Over 26 games, the outfielder hit .390 with six doubles, seven home runs and 21 runs batted in. He was held hitless in just two games that month and closed the July slate with a 15-game hitting streak.

Mike King – August 2018

King made his Triple-A debut on August 5, 2018, and excelled all month. Over five games, all starts, the right-hander sported a 3-0 mark with a 1.09 ERA. King struck out 27 and walked just four over 33 innings. During that span, he surrendered a total of four runs.

IL PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Will Warren – September 2023

Warren went 1-0 with a 0.63 ERA in five appearances, including three starts, allowing just two earned runs over a league-best 28.2 innings. He led the International League in strikeouts (36) and was second in average against (.152) and WHIP (0.91). His two earned runs allowed were the fewest by a pitcher with more than 14.1 innings of work.

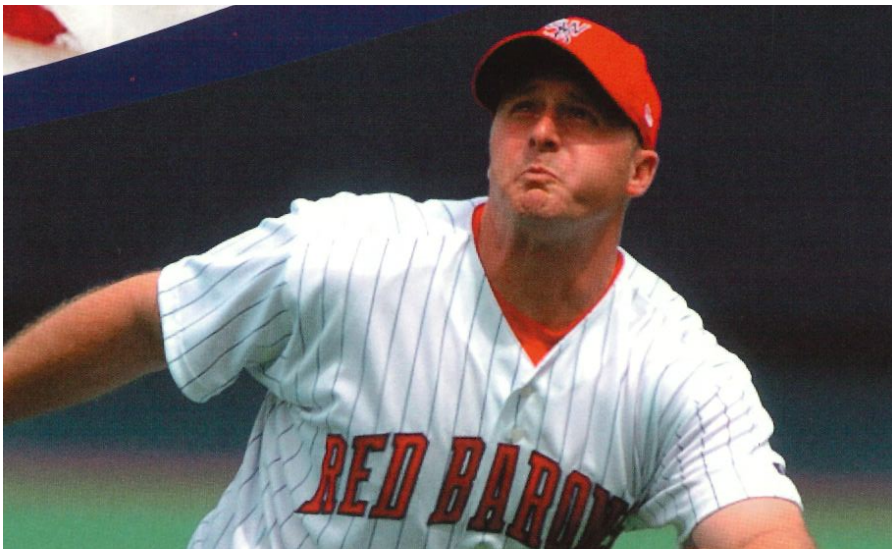

Spencer Jones – July 2025

Jones made his Triple-A debut in late June and dominated in his first full month with the RailRiders. He batted a league-best .419 in July with a league-high 11 home runs. He also led the IL in on-base percentage (.477), slugging percentage (.946) and OPS (1.423). He was second in runs (25) and total bases (70) and was third in hits (31) and RBI (23). Jones recorded 10 multi-hit games, including back-to-back four-hit contests on July 19 and 20.

The only triple play turned by Scranton/Wilkes-Barre in team history occurred June 5, 1997 at the Norfolk Tides. In game two of a doubleheader, singles by Wes Chamberlain and Phil Geisler put runners on first and second. Chris Saunders then hit a soft liner to shortstop Desi Relaford who stepped on second doubling up Chamberlain then threw to first to complete the triple play.

SWITCH-HIT HOME RUNS

On April 23, 1998 at Rochester, Darren Burton became the first Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player to switch-hit home runs (homer from both sides of the plate) in the same game. In the third inning, he hit a solo shot off righty Joel Bennett, then in the ninth inning, he connected for a three-run blast off lefty Vince Horsman.

Andrew Velazquez homered from both sides of the plate in July 23, 2021, at PNC Field against the Rochester Red Wings. The infielder hit a right-handed home run in the fourth inning off of Red Wings left-hander Matt Tomshaw. In the sixth, Velazquez added a solo shot off righty Ronald Pena.

MLB FUTURES GAME

Each season since 1999, Major League Baseball, in conjunction with the 30 Major League Clubs, MLB.com and Baseball America, select the 25-man rosters for the AL and NL (formerly U.S. Team and the World Team) in the annual All-Star Futures Game. Players from all full-season minor leagues are eligible to participate. The players listed below represent a list of players who appeared in the MLB All-Star Futures Game and played with Scranton/Wilkes-Barre before their MLB debuts.

HIGHEST HONORS

Shelley Duncan was tabbed as the 2025 International League's Manager of the Year, pacing Scranton/Wilkes-Barre to 87 wins and a second-half title.

He is the sixth manager in franchise history to win the distinction, following in the footsteps of Lee Elia, Marc Bombard, John Russell, Dave Miley and Al Pedrique. Miley and Pedrique claimed the award twice, giving Scranton/Wilkes-Barre more Manager of the Year honors than any other team in the league.

Duncan, the 2009 IL MVP, is just the second individual to win the league's top honors as both a position player and a manager, joining former Boston Red Sox manager Joe Morgan, who won the MVP award with the Jacksonville Suns in 1964 and was twice named Manager of the Year while with the Charleston Charlies in 1973 and then again with the Pawtucket Red Sox in 1977.

The Charlies, of course, became the Maine Guides in 1984 before moving to Moosic for the 1989 season.
