INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE INFORMATION

TRIPLE-A INFORMATION

On February 12, 2021, Major League Baseball announced its new plan for affiliated baseball, with 120 Minor League clubs officially agreeing to join the new Professional Development League (PDL).

In total, the new player development system includes 179 teams across 17 leagues in 43 states and four provinces. Including the AZL and GCL, there are 209 teams across 19 leagues in 44 states and four provinces. That includes the 150 teams in the PDL and AZL/GCL along with the four partner leagues: the American Association, Atlantic League, Frontier League and Pioneer League.

The long-standing league names return this season after 2021 was played under directional monickers. The International League (briefly called Triple-A East) consists of 20 teams; all 14 from the old iteration of the IL, plus teams moving from the old Pacific Coast League, the Southern League and the independent Atlantic League. The Pacific Coast League (Triple-A West in 2021) is comprised of nine former Pacific Coast League teams and one addition from the Atlantic League.

These changes were made to help reduce travel and allow Major League teams to have their affiliates, in most cases, within 200 miles of the parent club (or play at their Spring Training facilities).

DID YOU KNOW?

Legendary manager Marc Bombard skippered the Bisons during the 1992 season, pacing Buffalo to 87 wins and the American Association playoffs. He was tabbed as the AA's Manager of the Year for his efforts during his only year at the helm of the franchise.

Bombard would manage the Indianapolis the next three seasons, claiming AA Manager of the Year titles while leading the Indians to back-to-back league-best 86-win seasons in 1994 and 1995. "Bomby" went on to manage the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre Red Barons for eight seasons, including 2002 when the club won a franchise record 91 games. Bombard was named International League Manager of the Year for those efforts.

Bombard was inducted into the International League Hall of Fame in 2015, the Florida State League Hall of Fame in 2016 and had his number "13" retired at PNC Field in 2019.

RailRiders skipper Shelley Duncan made his Triple-A debut with the Columbus Clippers on June 19, 2006. Syracuse's Josh Banks struck out Duncan in the first inning, but the slugger would atone in the fourth with his first knock, a solo home run. It was the only home run Duncan would hit for Columbus. He mashed 25 the next year when Scranton/Wilkes-Barre became the New York Yankees' top affiliate.

DID YOU KNOW?

Scranton/Wilkes-Barre and Iowa have not squared off since the 1990 season. After the dissolution of the Triple-A alliance, and, eventually, the American Association, Iowa joined the Pacific Coast League.

The Red Barons and Cubs met five times that summer. Scranton/Wilkes-Barre swept a two-game home series in June. SWB last traveled to Des Moines for a three-game set from September 18-20, 1990, losing all three games in their most recent trip to Iowa.

DID YOU KNOW?

Scranton/Wilkes-Barre played its first game in franchise history on April 6, 1989, at Rochester's Silver Stadium. That inaugural SWB club played its first 16 games on the road before returning home to face Tidewater on April 26.

The Red Wings won that opening game of the 1989 season by a 3-1 final. Future Red Baron Curt Schilling got the win for Rochester, while former Red Wing Gordon Dillard took the loss for Scranton/Wilkes-Barre.

Ron Salcedo, a former Red Wing himself, had the first hit in Scranton/Wilkes-Barre franchise history. The Red Barons would have to wait eight days for the first home run in franchise history. Al Pardo went yard on April 14, 1989... at Rochester. Pardo appeared in 136 games for the Red Wings in the mid-1980s and 103 games for the Red Barons during the 1989 campaign.

DID YOU KNOW?

The earliest believed meetings between teams from Scranton/Wilkes-Barre and Syracuse would have occurred during the 1887 International Association season. The league included the Scranton Miners, the Wilkes-Barre Coal Barons and the Syracuse Stars. The Miners featured future big leaguer Kid Gleason, who played 22 seasons in the Majors before his managerial career, which most notably included skippering the 1919 Chicago White Sox. The Coal Barons were paced by Bill Hallman, who played 14 seasons in the Majors, batting .272 in 1502 career games. The 1887 Stars had 15 players who had Major League time in their careers, including Joe Battin, who saw parts of ten seasons in the bigs.

The league also included the Binghamton Crickets, Buffalo Bisons, Hamilton Hams, Jersey City Skeeters, Newark Little Giants. Oswego Starchboxes, Rochester Maroons, Toronto Canucks and Utica Pent Ups.

DID YOU KNOW?

Worcester's recent return to baseball restored a long-standing history with the sport. The Worcester Grays played in the 1879 National Association, and, one year later, they lured a version of the failed Syracuse Stars to the state of Massachusetts.

A year later, led by ace Lee Richmond, the Worcester Ruby Legs (aka the Worcester Worcesters) joined the National League. On June 12, 1880, Richmond is credited with throwing the very first perfect game in Major League Baseball history. Approximately 700 fans at the Worcester Agricultural Fairgrounds saw Richmond dazzle against the Cleveland Blues. PA-native Charlie Bennett caught the game, and umpire Foghorn Bradley was behind the plate.

Twenty-three additional perfect games have been thrown in MLB history, four of which have been authored by a New York Yankees pitcher.
