

NATIONAL OPERATIONS TEAM (COMMUNICATIONS) APPLICATION PACK 2018

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL OPERATIONS TEAM (COMMUNICATIONS)?

The Communications Operations Team is a group of volunteers that work on day-to-day/week-to-week operational jobs of the communications portfolio. They play an integral part in how the delegates, volunteers, and the wider New Zealand community perceives us.

You will work whilst being supported by the National Communications Officer to complete specific tasks that range from

- Managing Instagram posts,
- Managing the UN Youth NZ Twitter account,
- Posting/approving Facebook posts
- Creating content for the social media accounts,
- Working on brand related media such as booklets, placards

This role would be perfect for Volunteers who are looking to get more involved with the organisation outside of events, particularly if you're keen to help organise one in the future. So if you're social media savvy and want to be a part of the behind the scenes workings of UN Youth then apply now!

APPLICATION

To apply, please fill out the application form online here.

In your application please submit:

- Your CV (2 pages max)
- A personal statement outlining why you would like to be a part of the Communications Operations Team, and why you would be good for the role (250 words max).

Applications close on the 4th February 2018 at 8pm. If you have any questions about the Communications Operations Team or this application, please email the National Communications Officer at communications@unyouth.org.nz
